III. Conference Rules Of Order

- Rule 1: The Conference shall convene and adjourn at the discretion of the presiding Bishop and the Committee on Conference Arrangements. The Conference in plenary session may alter the time of convening or adjourning.
- Rule 2: The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his/her appeal.
- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn.
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. For the previous question.
 6. To postpone to a given time.
 7. To refer.
 8. To substitute.
 9. Amendment.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him/her.
- Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call him/her to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.

- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.
- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his/her vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse him/her.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for him/her to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must be in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.

- Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.
- Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.
- Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except members of board, committees or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church. The distribution of membership shall be according to districts, three lay persons and three ministers as nearly as possible to each district.
- Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.
- Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the Associate Lay Leader of Life and Work, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, the four District Presidents of United Methodist Men, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.
- Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration prior to Annual Conference action.

- Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.
- Rule 28: In keeping with paragraph 746 in the 1988 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Rules and Guidelines for the Conference Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Council Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.

7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.
8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.

14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.
8. Titles such as "Mrs," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That the council director, and associate council directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned. (We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)
- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153).

B. Alphabetical Roll & Pastoral Record

Clergy members of Conference, local pastors, diaconal ministers, widows and lay members are listed in the following pages. The name of the spouse is listed underneath the name of the pastor. The year following "D" denotes the year a pastor was ordained a Deacon and "E" for Elder. The Pastoral Record follows each pastor's alphabetical listing in order to place all pastoral information in one file.

B. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Friday Afternoon, May 29, 1992

LAITY SESSION: The Laity Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference was called to order by Conference Lay Leader, Dolly Brittingham at 12:37 p.m. Dolly then introduced the members of the Conference Board of Laity.

Devotions were led by Alice Hutchins, Easton District Lay Leader:

Hymn: "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling"

Scripture: I Peter 5:1-7

Opening Prayer

Dolly welcomed the members and then turned the meeting over to Conference Council Director, Rev. Harvey Manchester, Jr. to conduct the election of Conference Lay Leader.

Report of Nominating Committee: Murray Thompson, on behalf of the Committee, presented the name of Dolly Brittingham in Nomination for Conference Lay Leader.

Harvey asked for nominations from the floor. There being none, motion was made and seconded that nominations be closed. Dolly was then elected, by show of hands, as Conference Lay Leader for the next four years.

The Constitution and By-Laws of the Peninsula Conference Board of Laity were presented. Dolly opened the floor for questions/discussion.

Article III - Membership - A motion was made & seconded that the membership be amended as follows: "replace Associate District Lay Leaders with District Directors of Lay Speaking" - motion failed.

Article II - Purpose - A motion was made and seconded to replace the words "foster awareness" with "strengthen & support the Christian ministry". Motion was approved.

The motion was then made and seconded that the Bylaws be accepted as amended. It was approved.

A report of happenings on each of the Districts was given by the District Lay Leader:

Easton- Alice Hutchins

Dover - John Sparks, Jr.

Salisbury - Gene Cray

Wilmington - Clyde Allen

Reports were given by the Conference United Methodist Women President, Geraldine Jones, Conference United Methodist Men President, Joseph Sipos, and the Conference Youth Council by Wendy Mumford and Krista Brooks.

Dolly Brittingham read a report from the Director of Lay Speaking, Howard Mason, who was recovering from surgery. The report included issues from General Conference and how they affect the Peninsula Conference Laity.

There being no further business, the session was closed with prayer by Dolly Brittingham at 2:00 p.m.

Gloria A. Reed
Acting Secretary

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION: Bishop Susan M. Morrison called the session to order at 12:40 p.m. in the Norman James Theater on the campus of Washington College, Chestertown, Maryland and led in prayer.

The Rev. Charles E. Barton, Jr. moved that the Reverends Dale E. Owens and Robert D. Burket, the visiting delegation from Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, be granted courtesy seating. It was granted.

The Reverend Dr. Jonathan E. Baker, Vice-President of the Board of Ordained Ministry, read the answer to Question 17 of the Disciplinary Questions and explained the procedure the Board uses in response to the question. It was received by the session.

The Reverend Charles E. Barton, Jr. moved that The Administrative Review Committee be composed of Douglas Ridley, Bruce Cooke, Lehman Tomlin, and Norma Bailey (alternate). It was approved.

Rev. Barton moved that the Joint Review Committee be composed of: One District Superintendent - James T. Seymour; Two members of the Board of Ordained Ministry - Ronald Bell and Cynthia G. Koski; Three Non-Cabinet, Non-Board members - Ronald Bergman (nominated by the Bishop), Wayne Grier, James Walz (nominated by the Board of Ordained Ministry) and William Hemphill, Jr. (alternate); and one Lay Observer - Guy Molock. It was approved.

The Reverend Dr. Michael S. Russell, Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, led the session through "PART II PERTAINING TO ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTORS." The report can be found in its entirety in the Disciplinary Questions.

Under Questions 28(a) and 37(b), Rev. Russell presented the following candidates for Probationary Membership and Ordination as Deacons:

David Glenn Bennett
Carol Lynn Johnson
Carol Ann Rogers

Each candidate received a unanimous vote to be received as Probationary Members and the privilege of being ordained Deacon.

Under Questions 31 and 38(a), Rev. Russell presented the following candidates for Full Connection and Ordination as Elder:

George William Anderson
Elaine Elizabeth Byrd Ayres
Charlotte Johnson Carlton
Mark Paul Charlton
Sherrol Leonie James
Cheryl Lee Taylor Jensen
Eleanor Nash Laws

Each candidate received the required vote as members in Full Connection and the privilege of being ordained Elder. They were welcomed with enthusiastic applause as they took their seats with the body of Elders.

A complete set of minutes are on file with the Conference Secretary.

Bishop Morrison adjourned the session.

Saturday Morning, May 30, 1992

"Liturgy of Faithful & Effective Stewardship"

PLENARY: Bishop Morrison called the morning session on "Liturgy of Faithful & Effective Stewardship" to order at 8:30 AM with the beat from an African Drum which was given to her by the Bishop of Mozambique, and Kelly Truitt led the conference in singing "Alleluia."

BIBLE STUDY: The Rev. Susan K. Kester, Senior Pastor of Grace UMC, Wilmington, Delaware, led the conference in the study of 2 Corinthians 8:1-15. She reminded and challenged each one that we were created for good works and there is joy in giving. The conference sang "The Church's One Foundation."

CONFERENCE GUESTS: Bishop Morrison introduced the Area Secretary, Ms. Joyce Gorman, and the Reverends Dale E. Owens & Robert D. Burket, the visiting delegation from the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN: The Rev. Boyd B. Etter presented his eighth and final report as Statistician which is found in the Reports Section of the Journal.

RESOLUTION OF THE FOUNDATION MERGER: Mrs. Mary Beach presented the resolution to merge the Peninsula Foundation with the Eastern Pennsylvania Foundation (see Section D:Annual Conference Actions). It was adopted.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION: The Council President, Rev. George C. Godfrey, presented their report and introduced the Rev. Harvey Manchester, Jr., Council on Ministries Director. Harvey shared about Jim Robinson, our Council President who had recently passed away. He spoke of having a strong sense of Jim's presence in the midst of the suffering he was experiencing. He reminded us of Jim's use of the bowl of fruit -- there are too many good things on our plate. Harvey took a bowl of fruit, a pineapple, which stood for benevolences; a cantaloupe, for ministerial funds and a grapefruit for our connectional work. Harvey shared a prayer on life threatening illnesses.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Rev. John F. Mitchell asked that the conference send condolences to Mrs. Alma Robinson, Jim's widow, from the Annual Conference.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT & PENSIONS: The Rev. Olin J. Shockley, Jr., President of the Board of Pensions, lifted up the name of Mr. Harry Palmer who had served many years on the board who had died suddenly. Rev. Shockley then moved the following resolutions before the conference.

1. The Past Service Rate for 1993 be $280 per year of approved service. It was adopted.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of the United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of their Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1993 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of the United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of the United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of the United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE:

The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

It was adopted.

Clergy/Lay Insurance Committee: Rev. Shockley shared that the Board was in holding pattern until General Conference program UMCare is implemented; however, there is no reduction in benefits.

Rev. Garry O. Parker moved that Elders who are members of the Peninsula Conference in the active relationship, serving in Appointments Beyond the Local Church, and their dependents, shall be eligible to participate in the Peninsula Conference Group Health and Life Insurance Program under the same rules as other Elders, providing that they pay the full monthly premiums. It was seconded and passed.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES: The Rev. Dr. Laura A. Martin presented the following resolutions:

Minimum Salary

Be it resolved that for 1993 minimum salaries be:

Full-Time Elder	$18,900
Probationary/Associate	$17,200
Full-Time Local Pastor	$16,000
Student	$13,500

They were adopted.

Be it further resolved that local charges consider reimbursing pastors one-half of the Social Security tax which is based on salary and rental value of the parsonage.

It was adopted.

Be it further resolved that the service increments be increased to a rate of $125 for every year of service to a maximum of 15 years.

It was adopted.

Travel Reimbursement

Be it resolved that the reimbursement for travel expense during 1993 shall be 28 cents per mile. In addition, we also recommend that pastors be reimbursed for tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of pastoral duties.

It was adopted.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES: The Rev. John F. Mitchell, Council Vice-President, shared the variety of ways in which a local church's ministry is extended by our cooperation together. Ministries that could not happen if we were doing them alone, such as Camp Pecometh, Drayton Retreat Center, Methodist Action Program, Neighborhood House.

The Rev. Lawrence M. Livingston shared about "Vital Congregations" which is results oriented and not administratively centered. The team approach is being utilized. He lifted up the "New Vitality Ministry" which is based on what the congregation wants and needs. It is designed to suit the church. He then introduced the "Ambassadors".

A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TO DEVELOP AND STRENGTHEN THE ETHNIC CHURCH IN THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE: The plan was also shared by Rev. Livingston. It is designed to affect local churches and conference agencies. He shared how the plan developed and that it is not a static document but a vehicle on keeping inclusiveness open. Conference applauded Lawrence's leadership in the development of the program.

It was adopted.

GENERAL CHURCH FUNDS: Rev. William Hemphill, Jr. spoke of how these vital connectional funds -- World Service Fund, Black College Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, African University and Mission Initiatives -- make a big difference across our nation and the world.

CFA RECOMMENDATIONS: Rev. Godfrey moved these resolutions:

1. That the 1993 Budget, in the amount of $4,583,822, be adopted. It was adopted.
2. That .38 be the apportionment factor for 1993. It was adopted.
3. That in the event apportionments for 1993 fall short of projections the Council on Finance & Administration (in consultation with Conference Council on Ministries) will determine where to adjust the 1993 budget. It was adopted.

He recognized the work of Ted Briggs, Joan Warren, Ginny Durant, Gloria Reed, Shirely Still, Dorothy Smith, Harvey Manchester, Lawrence Livingston and Pam Lardear. He had the members of Council on Finance & Administration stand and they were greeted by the conference.

The Bishop led the conference in singing "Hymn of Praise."

The Rev. James T. Seymour asked about the October 23 deadline in CFA report on Apportionment Reviews. That is the conference deadline. The district deadlines will need to be earlier.

CAMP PECOMETH CAMPAIGN: The Rev. R. Jervis Cooke, Campaign Chair, and Rev. William Hemphill, Jr., Campaign Director, shared the new vision of the new children's camp site at Pecometh. An up-to-date site plan is available for churches to use, and furthermore, Dr. Cooke asked churches to take the old plan down from their bulletin boards and throw it away. Rev. Hemphill then introduced Rev. Patti Collett of Bethany Church, Berlin, MD, Rev. William Wallace of Lewes Charge, Delaware, and Mr. Frank Ero of St. Paul's, Cambridge, Maryland who shared what they have been doing to reach their goals.

Then the churches who have paid 100% of their goal were asked to stand and be recognized for their accomplishment.

Rev. Pamela Lardear, Director of Spiritual Formation, shared about the recent construction that has taken place at the Camp. She shared her version of the theme from the movie Field of Dreams "Build it and He will come" to "Build it and the children will come." She reported that 80% of staff is from our conference area.

RESOLUTION TO MAKE STEWARDSHIP AN ONGOING EMPHASIS IN THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE: Rev. James B. Jones, Chair of Division of Stewardship presented the following motion:

Stewardship has become a major concern in the life of the Peninsula Conference. At the 1990 session of the Peninsula Conference, members were engaged in dialogue around budget issues and they were asked to give suggestions/recomendations of what should be done immediately, as well as in our long term plans to address our changing financial circumstances. The two responses most often suggested were: A) The Peninsula Annual Conference should plan a comprehensive stewardship emphasis/program and B) The Peninsula Annual Conference should participate in an in-depth mission education and emphasis. In keeping with the general intended objective of such statements, the Peninsula Conference Board of Discipleship, Division of Stewardship presents the following resolution:

Whereas, the spiritual lives of members of local congregations can be enhanced through a deeper understanding of stewardship, which will increase giving to the ministries to which God calls the church, and

Whereas, the ministries of the church in general and the Peninsula Annual Conference in particular are in danger of being handicapped by a lack of funds, and

Whereas, there are resources available to do whatever God is calling the church to do, and

Whereas, the financial problems of the annual conference are primarily spiritual, and

Whereas, studies show that a lack of understanding and a lack of commitment are contributing causes to the insufficient support for the financial program of the denomination, and

Whereas, in the minds of most of our members, stewardship is translated to mean money,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Peninsula Annual Conference emphasize comprehensive stewardship, individual commitment by disciples of Jesus Christ, and financial giving as essential for spiritual growth,

Be it further resolved, that an intensive effort to broaden the base of Stewardship understanding and response be made by the Peninsula Annual Conference, to make giving, as a part of a total Christian lifestyle, part of every congregation of the Peninsula Annual Conference, by the following actions:

- A) Establishing an inter-board task force on Stewardship made up of nine persons:
 - 1. Two representatives of the Board of Discipleship
 - 2. Two representatives of the Ethnic Local Church Committee
 - 3. One representative of the Board of Global Ministries
 - 4. One representative of the Council on Finance and Administration
 - 5. One member of the Council on Ministries
 - 6. Two members at large
- B) In cooperation with the General Board of Discipleship Section-on-Stewardship, and in cooperation with the National Association of Stewardship Leaders, enlist and train teams to assist local churches.
- C) Make 1993 a year of Stewardship education and cultivation in the local church with the official Peninsula Annual Conference theme, "Gathering in God's Gifts"
- D) Following a year of Stewardship education and cultivation, and planning, sponsor major Peninsula Annual Conference stewardship lifestyle events for the three remaining years of the 1993-1996 quadrennium.

The Rev. C. Edwin Lasbury moved to refer the resolution to the Conference Council on Ministries. It was seconded and adopted.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS FELLOWSHIP: The fellowship represented by Ms. Norma Hockenjos, member of National CEF board, was presented with their charter, then was received by Bishop Morrison. Ms. Hockenjos stated that their mission is "to teach and teach and teach again." Ms. Pat Sullivan is the president of our CEF chapter.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND: Mr. David MacLaister Wilson congratulated the conference's 100% performance in the Fund and asked the graduates of our 13 United Methodist Seminaries to stand.

UNITED METHODIST DAY AT THE VET: Mr. Ross Brightwell invited the conference to join with Eastern PA Conference at Veterans' Stadium for United Methodist Day. Similar events are sponsored at the 76ers Games and at a local theme park. The Phillie Phanatic was present at the conference to embarrass one pastor and embrace our Bishop. It was a hilarious time!

Saturday Afternoon, May 30, 1992

"Liturgy of Our Connection"

PLENARY: Bishop Morrison called the session to order and Mrs. Kelly Truitt led the conference in singing, "There is Power in the Name of Jesus."

PROPERTY MATTERS: The Rev. James T. Seymour, Wilmington District Superintendent, made the following motion:

Be it resolved that the property amounting to 1.2632 acres of land, located on Old Conowingo Road, in Cecil County alongside the former Bethesda Methodist Protestant Cemetery, and leased to Vespasian H. Watts in 1858, now be declared abandoned in accordance with paragraph 2548.2 of the 1988 Book of Discipline. Also resolved that the Peninsula Conference Board of Trustees assume control of the property.

It was adopted.

The Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols moved the following motion:

Be it resolved that Sherwood UMC of the Tilghman Charge in the Easton District be granted limited service status effective from January 1, 1992 and be added to the list of limited service churches published in the Peninsula Conference Journal.

It was adopted.

REPORT FROM GENERAL CONFERENCE DELEGATION: Mrs. Dolly Brittingham, Delegation Leader, spoke on how they prepared with the Listening Posts and many, many readings.

Mrs. Elizabeth St. Clair shared her impressions of General Conference as being "exciting, spirit filled, and sometimes humans got in God's way". She spoke of the 998 delegates sitting in long skinny rows with their table being in the last row to the farthest left -- you needed binoculars to see the presiding Bishop! There were 240 petitions on the local church. She gave an entertaining account of how she had the words "welcoming, fully" added to the Vision on Inclusiveness in the Book of Discipline.

Mrs. Geraldine Jones brought a bag of things -- devotions, Response magazine, Book of Worship. She served on the section dealing with Board of Discipleship. She gave an overview of the Book of Worship and went through the "Order for Mid-Day Praise" and led the conference in singing one verse of "What A Friend We Have in Jesus." She concluded with "I'll never be the same again."

The Rev. Charles E. Barton spoke on Study of Baptism, Study of Ministry, Study of Homosexuality, UMC Abortion stance, General Board of Global Ministries Relocation, UMCare. He shared how "God is an Awesome God, summa cum laude"

The Rev. James T. Seymour spoke on the Mission Initiatives, Reaffirmation of Quadrennial Theme - "Celebrate & Witness", L.A./Simi Valley Verdict Aftermath; the church in Commonwealth of Independent States; Africa University; and Quadrennial Budget. He exclaimed that "The UMC is about deeds and not words".

Bishop Morrison gave her response to General Conference by saying of the church -- "We have a book, a church for you to find a welcome space." "We need to be more Biblically literate." She shared how the Cabinet will attend Disciple Bible Training Course in September and at each meeting they will be using the Disciple materials together. She asked, "What is our vision as a church?" And she noted that the power is lost through small leaks and that we are not tinkering with structure but bending the frame. She concluded with these observations: "Candle light is a protest at midnight" and "I beg to differ with the world at large -- values, hunger, poverty."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Mrs. Dolly Brittingham introduced Halisa Whitney who made this motion: (4)

Whereas, the Rev. Dr. James T. Seymour has given exemplary leadership as a faithful and effective pastor in the Peninsula Conference;

Whereas, Dr. Seymour has served as a skillful member and leader of various Peninsula Conference teams;

Whereas, Dr. Seymour has brought a creative vision and a passion of Jesus Christ to his ministry as a District Superintendent in the Conference;

Whereas, at the 1991 Session of the Peninsula Conference the membership enthusiastically adopted a resolution lifting James T. Seymour as a person worthy to serve as a Bishop of The United Methodist Church;

Be it therefore resolved that we, the Peninsula Conference, reaffirm our strong support of James T. Seymour for consideration by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference when it meets in July of 1992.

The conference supported his nomination.

ECUMENICAL AWARD: The Rev. David Garrett, Chair of Commission on Christian Unity & Interreligious Concerns, along with Rev. Webster Whittington, Vice-Chair of the Commission, Mrs. Elaine Stout, Director of Interfaith Resource Center, and Ms. Eleanor Holman, Mid-Atlantic Director of Church World Service presented their first award to the Reverend Howell O. Wilkins for his untiring efforts in ecumenicity. As a high school student he attended the first ecumenical, interracial youth conference held in the southern part of our country (North Carolina); Second World Conference of Christian Youth in Oslo, Norway; member of the Youth Department, World Council of Churches for 15 years; two terms as President of Delmarva Ecumenical Agency; present at all the Prague Christian Peace Assemblies; attended the World Methodist Council meetings in Denver, Dublin, Honolulu, Nairobi and Singapore and his current work with other churches in the Richardson Park area.

She is currently a delegate to the NEJ Jurisdictional Conference and is a member of the Philadelphia Area Episcopacy Committee. Reverend Kester has served as Assistant General Secretary for Mission Resources for the General Board of Global Ministries and as Associate Director of Communications for the Peninsula Annual Conference. Her community activities include membership on the Board of Directors of the Methodist Action Program, the Board of Directors for the Stepping Stone Theater and the Caesar Rodney Rotary Club.

The nominations were approved.

After much discussion on the procedures used in determining how persons are nominated, Mr. Callaway moved -- "that the Board of Trustees of Wesley College prepare a list of qualifications for the position of trustee and present same to 1993 Annual Conference." It was seconded and passed.

Mr. Jardine spoke of the processes the Board is using to bring reconciliation with the faculty and changes in the student handbook. It is an issue of shared governance and what is the relationship of the church and the college.

President Reed Stewart gave an overview of the school's highlights: fourteen new faculty, a new dean of students, eighth year of a financial operating surplus, new programs with Kent County Schools and Wesley along with MAP, a new alcohol center, how they are trying to reduce drop out rate and improve racial relationships in Dover.

Mr. Jardine entertained a motion for adjournment and it was adopted.

The conference then joined in singing "My Hope Is Built".

RESOLUTION ON CONFRONTING RACISM AND HUMAN NEED IN THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE: Rev. James T. Seymour moved the resolution before the conference and it was seconded. Rev. James Falot moved to delete the words, "Rodney King" and add the words "Simi Valley". It was seconded and adopted.

The conference adopted the amended resolution. (Complete text is in Annual Conference Actions.)

"Liturgy of Identity"

PLENARY SESSION: Bishop Morrison introduced Dr. Cain H. Felder, Professor of New Testament, School of Divinity, Howard University, Washington, DC, who presented an engaging study on Africans in the Bible.

RESOLUTION ON CONFERENCE NAME: Dr. Philip C. Lawton presented Reverends Harvey Manchester and Charlotte Nichols who shared about the importance of names in the Bible and how people reminded someone that "You are named after . . ." It is an issue of who and whose we are.

Rev. James T. Seymour moved to amend the resolution by amending "Delaware-Peninsula" to "Peninsula-Delaware." It was seconded and was passed.

The Rev. Donald J. Hurst moved that the name be "Delaware-Eastern Shore Conference". It was seconded but failed.

The Rev. Pamela J. Lardear moved that the name be "Whatcoat". It was seconded but failed.

The Rev. George C. Godfrey moved that the name be "Delaware Maryland Conference". It was seconded but failed.

The Rev. J. Gordon Stapleton called for the question and it prevailed.

The Bishop asked for a period of silent prayer then the conference sang the verse, "Jesus remember me". The amended resolution was adopted.

The Rev. J. Gordon Stapleton moved that if the Jurisdictional Conference disapproved the name change that the committee be reconstituted and return with another recommendation.

UNITED METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE: A check for $10,417.17 was presented by Ms. Virginia Hostetter and Rev. Stapleton as our conference's portion from UMPH profits to be used in the clergy pension program.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION & CAMPUS MINISTRY: The Rev. C. Karen Moore recognized the campus ministers and shared her vision about a campus ministry at Salisbury State University. She introduced Portina Dean, the Lena McCord Intern, who is an honor student at Wiley College. She shared the work and dreams of what the Black United Methodist colleges are doing to prepare students for today's world. Rev. Moore then presented Bishop Morrison the Handbook on Colleges and Universities.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Rev. Lawrence Livingston introduced our new editor for The Communicator, Lucille K. Bedford and the new Program Director of Camp Pecometh, Clarice A. Ritchie.

COMMITTEE ON COURTESY: The Rev. Laurence M. Berry made the following report:

"Open the Doors of the Church:Doing the Work of the People of God." We are the church and we gathered here in this place for the past several days, Washington College, Chestertown, Maryland as the Peninsula Conference and we leave as the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the denomination known as United Methodist. We have come to do our work and to plan for the future. In this task we have been assisted by many persons.

In an attempt to recognize just a few of those who have contributed to what we have accomplished, we lift up the following persons:

1. The Washington College staff and support personnel for their hospitality and helpfulness.
2. Dr. Tex Sample as the conference speaker for showing us ways to be powerful witnesses of Jesus Christ.
3. Mr. George Hessler for giving of his talent at the organ to accompany our singing.
4. Mrs. Carolyn "Kelly" Truitt for her spirited talent in leading us in song.
5. Rev. George Leathrum and all who assisted in worship as leaders and ushers.
6. Rev. Karen Bunnell and the Division of Worship for planning the meaningful services that brought us to worship.
7. Rev. Ike Ledger for being our Head Usher and all who served as ushers during our business sessions.
8. Rev. Susan Keirn Kester and Dr. Cain H. Felder for their leadership in the Bible Studies.

9. Mr. James Scott for serving as pianist during the opening plenary session on Friday.
10. The Conference Staff -- Shirley Still, Gloria Reed, Dorothy Smith, Alice Murgatroyd, Joan Warren, Ginny Durant, Ted Briggs, Norma Wilson, and Edie Knotts.
11. Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols, Easton District Superintendent, and the people of the Easton District.
12. Cokesbury for the bookstore.
13. Phillie Phanatic for allowing us to laugh in the midst of our serious work.
14. Mrs. Dolly Brittingham and Mr. Gene Cray for planning and leading the Laity Banquet.
15. Rev. Ted Loder who will preach at the Ordination Service.
16. Rev. Gary L. Moore for his services as Secretary of the Annual Conference.
17. The Covenant Choir, Wesley Chapel Adult Choir and the Still Pond-Coleman Youth and Mass Choir for singing during our worship services.
18. Mrs. Dottie Leap for her beautiful singing during the Laity Banquet.
19. Bishop Morrison for telling us that it is o.k. to differ and to reach out and still share the same spirit that calls us together in unity and peace.
20. To all who have served but have not been mentioned.

READING OF THE APPOINTMENTS: Bishop Morrison introduced each District Superintendent who read the changes on that district.

MOTION TO ADJOURN: The Rev. P. Thomas McKelvey moved that the May 29-31 Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference be adjourned at the conclusion of the Service of Ordination and be reconvened on June 11-13, 1993, or at the call of the Bishop. It was seconded and passed.

ADOPTED ANNUAL CONFERENCE ACTIONS

1. RESOLUTION TO MERGE THE PENINSULA U. M. FOUNDATION WITH THE EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE FOUNDATION

WHEREAS, the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation is the only Conference entity focusing on the stewardship of accumulated resources through the use of such things as wills, unitrusts, and charitable gifts, and

WHEREAS, the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation has suffered numerous difficulties since our forced separation from the Baltimore Conference Foundation, reorganizing our work with only part-time staff, and

WHEREAS, our effectiveness has been severely hampered in the past 10 months by the loss of our part-time executive director, and

WHEREAS, if the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation is dissolved, the responsibilities and liabilities for the continued administration of approximately 40 charitable gift annuities must be assumed by the Conference, and

WHEREAS, the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation has eliminated as unwise options the possibilities of merger with an independent charitable foundation, or of dissolution, and

WHEREAS, across the country foundations are experiencing increasing success in securing gifts for God's work in local churches, church agencies, and the broad spectrum of Christian mission, gifts that result from seed ideas planted by the foundations often many years before the donor's intentions are actualized, and

WHEREAS, the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference Foundation share the same vision and mission to promote planned giving within both Conferences and to assist local churches in the stewardship of accumulated resources for God's work, and

WHEREAS, there is considerable support and optimism from those associated with the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference Foundation for a merger with the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation, and

WHEREAS, both Foundations have completed extensive negotiations and planning to ensure consistent, professional, and effective service to individuals, churches, and agencies within both Conferences.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference Foundation be merged on or about July 1, 1992, to form a new corporate entity which will serve both the Peninsula Conference and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference with offices in Dover, Delaware and Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

2. BOARD OF PENSIONS (see Daily Proceedings, Saturday morning, May 30, 1992).

3. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES (see Daily Proceedings, Saturday morning, May 30, 1992).

4. A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TO DEVELOP AND STRENGTHEN THE ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH (see Daily Proceedings, Saturday morning, May 30, 1992 and the Conference Council on Ministries office).
5. COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION (see Daily Proceedings, Saturday morning, May 30, 1992 and the 1993 Budget).
6. PROPERTY MATTERS (Saturday afternoon, May 30 and Sunday afternoon, May 31, 1992).
7. WESLEY COLLEGE (Saturday afternoon, May 30, 1992).
8. CONFRONTING RACISM AND HUMAN NEED IN THE PENINSULA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the crisis events of the Simi Valley verdict and the rioting, acts of destruction and loss of life in Los Angeles in the final days of April 1992 were deeply disturbing occurrences which jolted many in our nation out of complacency regarding the social inequities, economic disparities, and the spiritual impoverishment of our times; and

WHEREAS, these factors underline the urgency for concerned persons to respond to the pressing social ills and human needs in our society; and

WHEREAS, persons of faith who are committed to following in the footsteps of Jesus Christ must also be committed to the clear statement of mission announced by Jesus at the outset of his ministry: namely, "to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, ..." (Luke 4:16-19, NRSV); and

WHEREAS, the recent Los Angeles crisis and other occurrences of racial tension in communities of our own Annual Conference have led concerned United Methodists to a heightened appreciation of interracial unity, prayerful concern, and joint efforts to foster genuine mutual supportiveness between persons of different racial and ethnic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, the needs of impoverished individuals and families, the social disadvantages endured by an increasing segment of our society, the needs of the homeless and inadequately housed, the high incidence of violence in the total population especially as it affects children and youth of today, the systematic causes of the marginalization of persons reflected in unemployment and underemployment, the lack of access to health care by growing numbers of people, the diminishing ability of some families to afford needed education, etc., all underscore the need for corrective measures and advocacy on the part of persons of faith; and

WHEREAS, many clergy and laity in the Peninsula Conference, from all races represented in our membership, feel deeply constrained to take action to make a difference in their respective communities;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED,

Firstly, that United Methodist pastors and congregations be urged to organize appropriate opportunities for interracial dialogue aimed at affirming unity amidst diversity, and mutual understanding. Also, that such opportunities be extended, wherever possible, to persons in the community in general.

Secondly, that pastors and congregations be encouraged to increase interracial and ecumenical occasions of prayer and fellowship, worship and celebration.

Thirdly, that United Methodists be encouraged to seek innovative and creative approaches to race relations and the elimination of racism, especially the root causes of institutional racism.

Fourthly, that pastors and administrative boards/councils be urged to address specifically that aspect of the "Celebrate and Witness" quadrennial theme which challenges each church to "remedy evils that oppress."

Fifthly, that local congregations seek to implement community projects which address actual problems and needs, thereby contributing to a more just society.

Sixthly, that the month of September 1992 be designated "Racial Unity and Justice Awareness" month in the Peninsula Conference so as to:

direct attention to the need for better race relations;

encourage planning and implementation of short term and long range projects for seeking racial justice and meeting human needs; and promote interracial partnerships of congregations for such purposes.

Finally, that a form be designed and distributed to all churches/charges to facilitate reporting and celebrating efforts in racial dialogue and understanding as well as joint congregational programs to address social ills and evils. Also that this information be shared at all 1993 Annual Charge Conferences.

9. RESOLUTION AGAINST RACISM

In our local churches we often sing that old favorite hymn "In Christ There Is No East or West." The third verse states, "In Christ is neither Jew nor Greek, and neither slave nor free; both male and female heirs are made, and all are kin to me." Yet how unfortunate and sad it is that the specter of racism and bigotry has raised its ugly head once again within our Peninsula Conference.

An elected official on the Eastern Shore makes a profoundly racist remark referring to the birthday of slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Ku Klux Klan passes out hate literature right outside the door of Wesley United Methodist Church, Dover, as our Adjourned Session of Annual Conference is dismissing last September. In Elkton, Maryland, the Ku Klux Klan petitions the City Council for permission for a parade down Main Street supposedly demonstrating against illegal drug activity in a predominantly ethnic minority neighborhood. Their claim was that the cause of such activity accompanies racial mixing.

WHEREAS, racist activity is on the rise within our Conference borders.

WHEREAS, we are all brothers and sisters in Christ whatever our race, culture, or ethnic background.

WHEREAS, bigoted attitudes, hatred against ethnic groups and violence threaten us all.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church will stand against racism in any form, anywhere, anytime it appears within our borders.
2. The Board of Church and Society of the Peninsula Conference, in cooperation with the Commission on Religion and Race, will discover ways in which we can cooperatively offer assistance to local churches in dealing with racist situations.

Examples of such assistance may be as follows:

Cross-racial understanding between congregations.

Funding of mini grants for workshops or speakers on multicultural relations.

Promotion of racially inclusive activity between parishes of different ethnic backgrounds.

Any activity that promotes racial harmony and discourages discord.

10. THE THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION FOR RESOLUTIONS OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society of the Peninsula Annual Conference understands the mandate for its work to be rooted in the preaching of Jesus Christ that is summarized in the gospels by the words "the Kingdom of God has come near; repent and believe in the good news" (Mark 1:15). Jesus inaugurated a new age, heralded a new order, and called people to conversion. "Repent," he said, because the new order of the kingdom is breaking in upon you and if you want to be a part of it, you will need to undergo a fundamental transformation.

The kingdom of God is Jesus' vision of a world in which God's reign orders all aspects of our lives and the created world. It is a vision of a world experiencing shalom. It is a vision of a world of justice and peace where the dignity, rights, and well-being of every person is affirmed and realized. If God is bringing to pass a new order, where righteousness and justice prevail, then allegiance to his new order will necessitate the criticism of all structures, social arrangements, and policies that do not bear witness to the kingdom of God.

As The Book of Discipline states: "The perils of nuclear destruction, terrorism, war, poverty, violence, and injustice confront us. Injustices linked to race, gender, class, and age are widespread in our times. Misuse of natural resources and disregard for the fragile balances in our environment contradict our calling to care for God's creation" (Pg. 69).

This means that our vocation as Christians always has a social, political, and economic focus. We are not permitted to engage in a personal and private piety as the only expression of our faith. The biblical witness is that aligning ourselves with the kingdom carries with it a deep concern for society.

We affirm the statement in The Book of Discipline that says:

"We proclaim no personal gospel that fails to express itself in relevant social concerns; we proclaim no social gospel that does not include the personal transformation of sinners."

"It is our conviction that the good news of the kingdom must judge, redeem, and reform the sinful social structures of our time." (Pg. 66)

In developing resolutions, the Board of Church and Society relies upon the Bible, The Book of Discipline, The Social Principles, and The Book of Resolutions. We recommend these to churches.

This is the theological mandate that undergirds the resolutions presented at Annual Conference by the Board of Church and Society.

11. A RESOLUTION CONCERNING HEALTH CARE REFORM

WHEREAS, the cost of health care continues to skyrocket, as a percentage of our Gross National Product the cost increases have been dramatic, in 1970 these costs were 7.3%, in 1985 10.6% and are projected to go to 13.2% by 1995 and 15% by the year 2000 which will be a staggering 1.5 trillion or 1,500 billions of dollars;

WHEREAS, per capita health spending which was less than $500 in 1970 and rose to about $1,600 by 1985 is now projected to be $5,500 by the year 2000;

WHEREAS, some 34 million Americans have no health insurance, of these three-fourths are workers and their families and one third are children under 18;

WHEREAS, some 20 million others are underinsured;

WHEREAS, basic health care services continue to be inequitably available to our citizens;

WHEREAS, even though the numbers of older Americans faces dramatic growth, we have failed to develop a national long term care policy, in 1988, 6.9 million Americans needed long term care and it is estimated that by the year 2000 this will reach 8.9 million, and by 2020 this will be 12.3 million, and projections for 2040 include 17.8 million needing long term care;

WHEREAS, a plan for accessible, quality acute and long-term health care with cost containment is essential to the well being of our society; and

WHEREAS, those who would love and be in Christian charity with their neighbors cannot ignore the health care crisis;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church go on record as supporting the development of comprehensive national and state health care plans which adequately address the needs of our nation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the congregations of the Peninsula Annual Conference be encouraged to study the health care crisis and participate in the public process for initiating reform and implementation of state and national strategies to meet the needs of all our people; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Peninsula Annual Conference transmit this resolution to the duly elected representatives of state and federal government representing those areas within the bounds of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

12. RESOLUTION TO ENCOURAGE SUPPORT OF THE HOWARD BAILEY LIFE ENRICHMENT PROGRAM FOR BLACK BOYS

The Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program for Black Boys is a fun opportunity for 5th and 6th grade boys to experience positive encouragement on their journey to manhood. Participants will be encouraged to uncover and understand the revelation of God/Jesus Christ/Holy Ghost in them, because they are created in God's image and have indispensable worth. They will be exposed to God-based liturgy and traditions that will call some participants to discipleship in Christ. Further, participants will be inspired to develop a positive self image.

The program is designed after, Rites of Passage: Bringing the Black Boy to Manhood, by Dr. Nathan Hare. This ministry will involve the participants, of course, but also calls for input by parents, the local church and the community. Participants, through learning history, literature, group discussions, and experiencing the camp, will complete the program with a: re-identification (of the positive aspects of African American community life, to counter the negative media images), re-clarification (of his station in life), re-definition (of his place in God's created order), and re-affirmation (of self). There has been a de-emphasis on traditional African American history, literary classics and inter-generational communication, and this ministry seeks to re-emphasize those things in the lives of the participants. It will involve 25 fifth and sixth grade boys.

Desired Results

1. Participants will be disciplined to approach life with ethics based on truth, justice and love.
2. Participants will be encouraged, inspired and empowered to build relationships across age and gender lines.
3. Participants will be encouraged to uncover and understand the revelation of God in them, because they are created in God's image and have indispensable worth.
4. Participants will be exposed to a God-based ritual and tradition that will call some participants to discipleship in Christ.
5. Participants will be helped to develop a more positive self image.

Whereas, there are several factors which contribute to an escalating crisis in the African American community, and

Whereas, there is an increasing need to develop ministry to African-American youth, and,

Whereas, there is a disproportionate number of African American youth and young adults falling prey to vices of the world, which is indicated by the following:

- 23% of African American men between the ages of 20-29 are in prison, on parole or on probation, compared to 6.2% of White American males in the same age range;
- It is projected that for the first time this year, more than one-half of the United States homicide victims will be African American;
- The leading cause of death among African Americans between 15-24 is homicide, while it is the fourth leading cause of death among White Americans of the same age range;
- The unemployment rate for African American male teens was 38.4% compared to 18.6 for White American males;
- The imprisonment rate for African Americans is 1,092 per 100,000 as opposed to 164 per 100,000 for White Americans,
- Though the African American high school graduation rate was up in 1988 to 75%, it still leaves the dropout rate at 25%
- A disproportionate number, 30 percent, of those who use/abuse drugs in the nation are African American, who only make up 12-15 percent of the total U.S. population,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Peninsula Annual Conference, its local churches, and its boards and committees address the injustices that are apparent in the African American community,

Be it further resolved, that local churches, actively address these concerns by supporting the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program at Camp Pecometh with prayers and financial support,

Be it further resolved, that the Boards and Committees of the Conference Council on Ministries work in a concerted effort to ensure this program's success, and

Be it finally resolved, that the coordinators of the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program, the Board of Church and Society, the Ethnic Local Church Committee and Camp Pecometh, bring to the 1993 Peninsula Annual Conference session a report on the 1992 program and a plan for further development.

13. A NEW BEGINNING

WHEREAS, the 1988 General Conference, in adopting petition number 1295 "A New Beginning," called upon the United Methodist Church in 1992 "to place itself at the vanguard of the efforts to undo and correct the injustices and the misunderstandings of the last 500 years in this hemisphere."

WHEREAS, it is difficult to judge past events in light of contemporary moral sensibilities, as Christians we have the responsibility to understand them and face up to their contemporary consequences. Oppression, exploitation of people and their land, and cultural depreciation of peoples of color, minorities, and others suffering under structures of domination are still widely practiced.

WHEREAS, we confess that God is the creator of all that exists and that all humans are created equal in dignity, rights, and responsibilities, we must challenge all value systems and structures which devalue human beings and rob them of their dignity and their relationship to the rest of God's creation which sustains us all.

WHEREAS, because of our biblical faith and our social principles, we cannot ignore the fact that the events which started five hundred years ago with the arrival of Columbus were not so much a bringing of civilization as an imposition by force of a foreign culture and values on peoples who already had their own civilizations, history, culture, languages, and values and that these events have left a legacy of violence and unjust socio-political and economic/ecological systems in the western hemisphere.

WHEREAS, we, as United Methodists, stand ready to accept the call to a "new beginning" which means turning away from past practices based on exploitation, racism, and injustice in order to affirm, respect, celebrate and seek reconciliation with cultures other than those which are dominant in our societies.

THEREFORE, we ask each local church in the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church to seek through preaching, Christian education, Bible Study, prayer, and resources provided by the Board of Church and Society

- to study and reflect upon the events and injustices of the past 500 years
- to observe at least one of these worship opportunities: Native American Awareness Sunday, Human Relations Day, or Peace with Justice Sunday
- to reach out to local people from racial/ethnic minority communities in their own setting to explore ways to work together
- and to include an account of these activities in their Charge Conference Report.

14. RESOLUTION ON THE NAME OF CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the 1991 Session of Annual Conference directed the Commission on Archives and History to establish a special committee to study the name of the Annual Conference and to report its recommendations to the 1992 Session; and

WHEREAS, the committee has met, invited input from across the Conference, and considered a variety of opinions and possible names; and

WHEREAS, the committee has determined that the most inclusive way of naming our Conference would be to combine the names of the two conferences which merged in 1965;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula Conference petition the 1992 Session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference to change the Conference name to "Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference".

15. RESOLUTION FOR PRAYER FOR A CURE FOR DIABETES

WHEREAS, Diabetes is the fourth-leading cause of death by disease in the United States. Diabetes affects people of all ages and races. 14 million Americans suffer from diabetes and approximately 750,000 people will be diagnosed with it this year. The incidence of diabetes is increasing at the rate of 6% each year. Annually, 150,000 Americans die as a result of complications caused by diabetes. Diabetes causes devastating complications such as heart disease, stroke, neuropathy, kidney failure, blindness, and limb amputation. Diabetes is the leading cause of blindness in people ages 25-74. In Delaware alone, there are approximately 30,000 persons who suffer from diabetes, and Delaware has a higher than national average of diabetes related deaths.

WHEREAS, Diabetes involves a day-to-day struggle with painful injections, blood tests, strict diets, and the constant threat of complications. Although researchers have made great strides in diabetes treatment, there is no cure for diabetes.

WHEREAS, God, our creator, the source of all goodness, power, and wisdom, wishes us to pray earnestly for the well-being of others. God never grows weary of our prayers, but listens when people cry out in prayer. God wants us to pray expectantly and to join together in common prayer with caring and concern embracing the needs of all.

WHEREAS, November has been designated as National Diabetes Month.

THEREFORE, Each local church in the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church is asked to designate Sunday, November 22, 1992 as a day to pray for a cure for diabetes and to lift up in prayer the needs of those suffering with this disease that they may be given the strength and the courage they need.

PENINSULA CONFERENCE BUDGET 1993

The 1993 budget has been organized into three major categories:

- I. Benevolences
- II. Connectional Funds
- III. Ministerial Support

A summary of the budget with category descriptions is found on the following page. The pages that follow list all the line items that make up each category along with a brief description of the ministries the line item provides. We trust this information will be a useful tool in understanding both the budget and the ministry it supports.

Since some groups in the Annual Conference are involved in more than one category, their budget is appropriately divided among those categories. For example, since the work of the Board of Global Ministries involves both benevolence and connectional ministries, one portion of its request appears under "Benevolences" and the other under "Connectional Funds".

DAILY PROCEEDINGS FOR ADJOURNED SESSION

Saturday, November 2, 1991

WORSHIP: The Rev. Donald J. Hurst, Senior Pastor, Wesley United Methodist Church, Dover, Delaware opened the session with the hymn, "When Morning Gilds the Skies" and led the Conference in prayer.

CALL TO ORDER: Bishop Susan M. Morrison called the Adjourned Session of Peninsula Annual Conference to order in the Sanctuary of Wesley United Methodist Church, Dover, Delaware and welcomed all the members of Conference.

ORGANIZATIONAL MOTION: The Conference Secretary, Rev. Gary L. Moore, moved "that the bar of the Conference be the sanctuary of Wesley United Methodist Church."

COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION: Rev. George Godfrey, Council President, introduced Mr. James Robinson, President of Conference Council on Ministries who gave an overview of the Benevolence and Connectional portions of the budget and Rev. Olin Shockley who spoke on the Ministerial Support section, especially about the pre-1982 pension funding and the health and dental insurance program.

Bishop Morrison opened the floor for section-by-section discussion of the budget.

Then the Bishop asked the members to vote on each section individually.

- Section I. Benevolences - adopted.
- Section II. Connectional Funds - adopted.
- Section III. Ministerial Support - adopted.

The conference then approved the total budget of $4,457,404.

Rev. Godfrey moved -

"That in the event apportionments for 1992 fall short of projections, the Council on Finance and Administration will determine where to adjust the 1992 Budget."

The motion was adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Rev. William Fitzhugh requested and was granted the privilege to address the conference. He commended the Council on Finance & Administration on the manner they have involved the conference in its planning and deliberation on the budget.

PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION: Ms. Mary Beach, President, presented their report and introduced Mr. Parke Hess, Foundation Director for Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, who shared his personal story of faith and his current work with the foundation and how this proposal could help the Peninsula Conference develop a strong foundation program. He entertained several questions.

PROPOSAL REGARDING THE FOUNDATION'S FUTURE

On May 22, 1991, a "Resolution to Table the Resolution to Discontinue the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation" was passed by the Annual Conference. This Resolution provided for adequate time to explore alternatives for the Foundation's future, and to present a recommendation. Accordingly, the Board of Directors has discussed the following possibilities:

1. Merger with a private, charitable foundation.
2. Merger with another conference foundation.
3. Continuation as a self-supporting organization.
4. Dissolution of the PUMF.

As a result of careful consideration, we recommend the merger of the PUMF and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference Foundation. In order to establish an effective, merged foundation, and to insure long-term viability, support from the Peninsula Conference will be essential. A merged foundation will require from our Annual Conference:

1. A philosophical commitment to and support of the management and stewardship activities of the new foundation.
2. An annual retainer fee for services rendered, commencing on January 1, 1992. The retainer fee for 1992 will be $22,600.
3. Continuing office space in the Conference Office building in Dover, Delaware.

It is recommended by this Board that an interim contract for services be negotiated with the Eastern Pennsylvania Foundation beginning on January 1, 1992, and that the final merger be voted on at the Peninsula Annual Conference in May 1992. If approved by both Annual Conferences, the final merger would be effective on July 1, 1992.

The rationale for this recommendation is founded upon our belief that retention of a wholly United Methodist identity in our Foundation endeavors is crucial. The proximity, expertise, and episcopal alignment of the two foundations render merger logical. Through ongoing discussions, it has become evident that we share the common goals of fostering stewardship as individuals, as well as within local churches; of benefiting conference and general church agencies; and of helping the financial concerns of the church through more and better estate planning. The board formed to govern the joint foundation will include, and draw from, the experience and dedication of individuals from both conferences. Funding, as well as board representation, will accrue proportionately from both conferences (60% Eastern Pennsylvania and 40% Peninsula.)

The benefits for our conference in this merger include:

1. Full-time leadership of the foundation by an experienced, well-credited director.
2. A full-time office with the desire and capability to respond promptly and effectively to inquiries.
3. The expertise and experience of Eastern Pennsylvania's well-functioning organization.
4. Access to information and workshops on stewardship and planned giving to local churches available to churches regardless of size.
5. Educational materials and resources available to local churches.
6. Continuing assistance from a foundation in processing gifts to local churches.

Therefore, the Board of Directors of the Peninsula United Methodist Foundation respectfully moves the adoption of this recommendation so that we can move toward merger with the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference Foundation.

The Conference adopted the proposal.

CAMP PECOMETH CAMPAIGN: Mr. James Robinson presented the following resolution from the Conference Council on Ministries:

RESOLUTION TO EXTEND THE CAMP PECOMETH CAMPAIGN

WHEREAS the Camp Pecometh Campaign for capital improvement called for a 36-month payment period ending May 31, 1992, and

WHEREAS by September 30, 1991, (after 28 months of the payment period), only 46% of the total amount accepted by the churches as the goal they "expect to give" had been received, which means that it is unlikely that the remaining 54% could be raised in only 8 months, and

WHEREAS the loss of the Barn by fire necessitated building the year-round camp facilities (the bunk houses) prior to building summer camp facilities, and

WHEREAS the total campaign receipts received, as of September 30, 1991, have been expended on the projects completed, which means that major funding must be received in the months ahead in order to accomplish the goal of building summer camp facilities,

WHEREAS several pastors and lay leaders have requested either in writing or verbally more time for their church to meet their goal, and

WHEREAS we believe that our congregations really want to meet in full the goal they set for themselves because they believe in the importance of this camping ministry with children, youth, and families, and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT the Peninsula Annual Conference extend its Camp Pecometh Campaign for two additional years until May 31, 1994 and that all local churches be requested to continue their efforts toward the goal of developing Pecometh for a fuller, expanded ministry with children, youth, and families as we move into the 21st century because "It's Time for Tomorrow", and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT this two-year extension not preclude other organizations or entities related to the Peninsula Conference from receiving the Council on Finance and Administration's permission to conduct a conference-wide appeal.

Rev. Joseph Henry called for the question and it was passed.

The resolution was adopted by the conference.

MOTION TO ADJOURN: The Rev. Charles E. Barton, Jr. moved -

"that the November 2nd Adjourned Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference be adjourned following the Service of Holy Communion and be reconvened in Chestertown, Maryland on May 29, 1992 or at the call of the Bishop."

It was adopted.

SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION: Bishop Susan M. Morrison was the communion celebrant.

The order of service was based on the text for The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which was prepared by the Commission on Worship of the Consultation on Church Union (COCU). This service was planned and led by members of the Peninsula Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns: Rev. Webster Whittington, Ms. June Little, Ms. Jean Ganes, Rev. David Garrett, Rev. Theodore Day and Rev. Vernon Schmid.

The organist was Mr. Michael Perza.

COME, SHARE, REJOICE

The 1992 budget has been organized into three major categories:

- I. Benevolences
- II. Connectional Funds
- III. Ministerial Support

A summary of the budget with category descriptions is found on page two. The pages that follow list all the line items that make up each category along with a brief description of the ministries the line item provides. We trust this information will be a useful tool in understanding both the budget and the ministry it supports.

Since some groups in the Annual Conference are involved in more than one category, their budget is appropriately divided among those categories. For example, since the work of the Board of Global Ministries involves both benevolence and connectional ministries, one portion of its request appears under "Benevolences" and the other under "Connectional Funds".

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORTS

DOVER DISTRICT

Each year has its similarities and its differences. 1991-1992 has been no exception. There have been births, deaths, and marriages in our parsonage families. There have been days of rejoicing and there has been turmoil.

This year Hubert Jicha and Jeanean Thomas left our parsonages to be received into the Church Triumphant. Inez Taylor, widow of George Taylor, and Mary Nicklas, widow of Norman Nicklas, also went on to their heavenly rewards. Michael J. Livingston was born September 13, 1991 to Lawrence and Frances Livingston, and Amanda Faith Walter was born August 1, 1991 to Kathleen and Charles Walter.

Roy Warrington and Laronda S. (Suzy) Brady were married June 15, 1991; William Wallace and Patience Saunders were married July 27, 1991; Walton Burke and Carroll Fields were married on February 14, 1992; Loma Varell and Donald Hearn were married November 19, 1991; Doris Blundon and Arthur W. Hunter were married May 16, 1992.

The Dover District continues to grow. Statistical reports submitted in local church reports reveal the following information:

Full Membership increased by 109 to 23,813.
Average attendance in worship increased by 216 to 8,824.
Total Church School Membership increased by 207 to 8,803.
Average attendance in Church School increased by 63 to 4,910.
Membership in U.M.M. increased by 29 to 797.
Membership in U.M.Y.F. increased by 37 to 847.

Wesley Chapel of the Lincoln-Milford-Harrington Charge moved into an entirely new sanctuary, fellowship hall, and education building and with a very manageable indebtedness. This facility will give both the district and the conference a facility for their functions.

The informal theme for the year has been spiritual development. The charge conference emphasized worship, praise, and direction more than business matters. A District Appalachia Service Project Team spent a week in Sneedville, Tennessee. Fourteen pastors and spouses and widows of pastors completed the Disciple Bible Study as a group. Bible studies, including Disciple, abounded over the district.

The United Methodist Women, in addition to their invaluable service in local churches and world-wide through the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries, held district-wide events that were creatively-planned and well-attended.

The Board of Laity's Clergy-Laity Banquet packed Avenue Church in Milford and those attending were exposed to some of the Native American culture that is a part of the district. The four Lenten Communion Breakfasts were all inspirational and produced an offering of over $800.00 for the Pecometh Campaign. Ninety-one persons completed the Lay Speakers' Course on the Dover District.

Youth gathered for a fall and spring event. The fall event was a work weekend in the Rehoboth area. Thirteen houses received loving attention from the seventy-three youth and adults who worked on that weekend.

More and more local congregations are beginning to realize new possibilities and are reaching out with renewed commitment and renewed vision of their servant roles. It is a distinct honor and pleasure to be able to serve as the Superintendent of the Dover District.

EASTON DISTRICT

This has been a very eventful year. The members of the Easton District had the honor of hosting the 1992 Peninsula Annual Conference Session. Although we host the Conference every four years, it is the first time in 25 years that the Conference has been held within the boundaries of the Easton District. This has also been a very historic Conference Session, with the members of the Annual Conference voting to rename our Conference, pending the approval of the Jurisdictional Conference, to be the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

The Easton District emphasis this year -- Family and Youth -- helped us to focus on our need to be more active in the spiritual, physical, and mental welfare of our families. We were privileged to have twelve capable, well-informed leaders for our Vision Groups. We were also led in worship at our District Conference by several of the talented members of our District, including the youth groups from the Still Pond-Coleman Charge and the Queen Anne-Wye Mills Charge.

Outstanding Achievements

Although we had a loss in membership this year, primarily because several churches corrected their membership rolls, we were blessed to received 485 members on Confession of Faith or Restored.

Benevolences

Many thanks go to the churches which paid their benevolences in full. We paid more than 99% of our benevolences. It is because of the commitment and generosity of the people of the Easton District that the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ are being carried out in the world.

Personals

We mourn, yet rejoice, with the families of those who have died this year: the Reverend Edward Lee; Ralph Stanford ("Pete") Gillis, St. Luke's UMC, St. Michaels; and Lucille Maloney, Concord UMC, Federalsburg, former lay members of the Easton District.

We rejoice with the marriages of Dale and Joanna Evans, Anthony and Eartha Ann Arrington, and Harvey and Kathryn Sturgis.

As I have visited the many churches of the District, I have been humbled and encouraged by the zeal and dedication of the "saints" of the church. I am grateful that God has called me at this time in the life of the District to be your servant.

Charlotte A. Nichols

SALISBURY DISTRICT

Thanks to the leadership of the people of the Salisbury District this has been an excellent year for our congregations. We are indebted to the many fine leaders who give of themselves day in and day out to the life and ministries of our congregations. I thank God for the support and love of my family, Karen, Scott and Tim; for the helpfulness of secretary Debbie Donoway; for the dedicated and creative leadership of the clergy and laity of our district; for the collegiality, friendship and support of district superintendents Charles Barton Charlotte Nichols and J. T. Seymour; and for the inspirational and encouraging leadership of Bishop Susan Morrison. I am thankful for the people of the Salisbury District.

The greatest advance on our district this year was in the area of stewardship as 115 congregations paid 100% of their apportionments, and our district increased from 93.4% in 1990 to 96.2% in 1991 for an actual increase of $20,620 more than was given in 1991. Our goal and hope is that in 1992 our Salisbury District will increase to 98% and by 1993 we will reach 100%. Congratulations again for the great progress made with apportionments in 1991! A special word of appreciation to all of those who paid 100%. You are leading the way for us all! Thanks to you; good stewardship and paying one's full apportionment is becoming the norm and expectation for all of our congregations on the Salisbury District.

Also related to stewardship and the mission of our church is the Camp Pecometh Campaign. Twenty of our congregations have paid 100% of what they designated as "Expected to Give". I am hopeful that all of our churches will contribute significantly to this vital ministry in the coming year.

We have continued the trend of membership growth on our district as again we have grown increasing by 72 members to a district total of 22,737 members at the end of 1991. Our average worship attendance across our district has increased by 75 to an average of 8,758 persons worshipping on Sunday mornings in our Salisbury District. Of course our growth has mirrored the growth of our Sunday Schools and weekday programs of Christian education. Christian education continues to be our strongest program for evangelism.

Most importantly more and more of our congregations are reaching out beyond their sanctuaries to be in ministry within their communities and even globally. Most of our congregations have been very strong in caring for one another within their own local church family, but we have not done as well in reaching out to those outside of our own congregation. So it is all the more exciting to see more of our congregations reaching out with evangelism and missions programs, not only giving financially but being personally involved in "hands on" mission and ministry. I firmly believe that every congregation should have at least one mission project that is local, one conference project, one national, and one that is global.

We are part of a larger church, and I am happy to report that more and more of our congregations are utilizing the resources of our United Methodist Church. Congregations are calling upon our Peninsula - Delaware Conference staff and consultants for additional leadership training and for program planning. Proposals by congregations are gaining approval and funding from boards and agencies of our conference and from the general church. Most of our congregations are using United Methodist church school curriculum. Most of our congregations now have our new United Methodist Hymnal and are discovering it to be a wonderful treasure and gift to our churches. We also anticipate the same kind of acceptance and use of our soon to be available United Methodist Book of Worship.

The experience of being United Methodists is also happening at the local level through the 11 inclusive clusters of our Salisbury District. I am particularly excited about the Route 50 Cluster's monthly joint program for children, youth and families. Our City of Salisbury Cluster is in the midst of a planning process that could result in a decision by our 8 congregations in that cluster forming a cooperative urban ministry. An Urban Planning and Development Team has been working for 8 months to develop the vision and structure for this cooperative ministry in an increasingly urbanized Salisbury. They have also been having a twice a month Prayer Breakfast addressing the concern and theme of "Children at Risk".

St. Martin's Church in the village of St. Martins was tragically destroyed by fire one year ago. Within that year the people of St. Martin's went through a planning process to decide whether to rebuild or to discontinue as a congregation. This small congregation developed a vision for the future and built a new and beautiful sanctuary and Sunday School Room. They are a stronger and more vital congregation as God has sustained them through the tragedy of destruction to the birth of a new building and a new vision.

Our family of Salisbury District Clergy have shared some joys and sorrows this past year. We mourned the death of the Rev. William Scott, the pastor of the Quantico - Hebron Charge. Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with Elaine Scott and her children. We also shared in the joy of new life through the birth of Zachery Brown born to Dale and Lisa Brown.

A special thanks to these very active groups on our Salisbury District. The District Committee on Ministry under the leadership of the Rev. Ray Graham has worked very well with persons going through the process of Candidacy for the Ordained Ministry and persons who are serving as local pastors. Our pastors have had some excellent programs through our District Ministerial Association that has been chaired by Rev.

Norma Bailey. Also our Minister's Mates Association with the leadership of Jean Kniceley has had some very helpful programs and developed support for one another. One of the great highlights of the year was the Rev. Ronald Bell's leadership of a Disciple Bible Study for a group of clergy on our District.

The sensitivity and helpfulness of this important committee has been a mark of Christian love in the lives of many persons. Our District Task Force on Apportionments has spent many long hours in the month of September in apportionment hearings, responding to the requests and needs of some of our struggling congregations. Our District Church Location and Building Committee has worked hard in helping congregations to build, renovate and to undertake major capital improvement projects, and they have also been helpful in securing loans and grants from our Conference Board of Global Ministries for many of these congregations.

The District Board of Laity has had a good year under the leadership of District Lay Leader, Gene Cray, and Director of Lay Speaking, Joyce Whittington. The Lay Speakers of our district continue to be one of our most connectional and hard working groups. They share rich training and worship experiences and provide valuable service throughout our district. Our United Methodist Women with the presidency of Rosemary Manning continued to lead the way for our United Methodist Church in leadership training, connectionalism and in missions. The UMW continues to be ahead of its time in demonstrating for the whole church just what it means to be in mission as United Methodists.

P. Thomas McKelvey

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

The year under review (June 1991 to May 1992) has been characterized by a great number of efforts in ministry and mission undertaken by the 85 congregations of the Wilmington District. The 70 pastors who serve under appointment, other employed staff and members of the churches have, for the most part, served diligently and extended themselves in challenging ways to respond to pastoral, program, and community needs.

New pastors joining us in the Wilmington District during this past conference year were as follows: Robert L. Riddleberger serving Mt. Pleasant Church, Colora, Maryland; Susan Keim Kester at Grace UMC, Wilmington; Mark Pruett-Barnett at Eastlake and Mt. Salem; Constance Roland at Christ UMC, Roselle; Maceo M. Williams at Simpson UMC, Newport; Carol Ann Rogers at Asbury and Minquadale (Associate); John K. Shitama at Port Deposit; Hopewell (Student); and Donald Alford at Childs: Union, Maryland.

EVANGELISM

Local Church Evangelism Covenants. In keeping with the District Evangelism Plan titled "Called to Evangelize: Growing Together" the churches outlined their plans for evangelism in the format of the Local Church Evangelism Covenant Document and presented the document for review and approval at the Fall 1991 Charge Conferences. This exercise required careful and intentional planning in the area of evangelism and related ministries by clergy and lay persons as they projected ministries in evangelism for the 24 month period of 1992 and 1993. In these first five months of 1992, pastors and committees have begun to follow through with their projected programs.

Clergy Clusters. A plan for the clustering of clergy persons was set up during the year. By the end of 1991, the clusters had all met, some on several occasions, for the purpose of sharing evangelism concepts, practices and other ideas. In the first half of 1992 the groups have continued to meet with greater or lesser frequency as each group determined. The clusters were meant not only to facilitate sharing in evangelism but also mutual supportiveness.

Year of Evangelism. With the endorsement of the District Council on Ministries and support of other groups, the year 1993 was designated as a Year of Evangelism for the Wilmington District in keeping with the District Evangelism Plan. A Year of Evangelism Planning Committee met monthly with the D.S. and the District Secretary for Evangelism, the Rev. John Dunnack, in order to plan for the major district evangelism event scheduled for April 23-25, 1993. The name of the event is "Come Alive in Christ."

Renewal Fellowships. To provide for more faith sharing experiences by lay persons across congregational lines, meetings of Renewal Fellowships will be scheduled in the ensuing conference year. Some initial preparation was done during the year under review.

EQUIPPING THE PEOPLE OF GOD FOR SERVICE

In addition to the usual conference sponsored events for local church officer training, there were also district related means whereby persons were being prepared for ministry:

District Lay Speaking Program. Under the leadership of J. Richard Ward (District Director of Lay Speaking) and the District Committee on Lay Speaking, regular and alternate sessions of the 1992 Lay Speakers' School were held at Newark UMC. Lay Speakers gathered on five Monday evenings of January and February either to attend the basic course in lay speaking or one of the five advanced courses offered. Alternatively, persons who could not attend on Monday evenings were given the opportunity to meet for three Saturday afternoons for an additional advanced course. This allowed either for lay speakers to maintain their certification status or for persons who are not lay speakers to be better equipped for service in their local church in the area of Christian stewardship. Of interest this year was the enlistment of three new instructors for the Lay Speakers' School, one of whom was the first lay woman to teach a course. Our thanks go to the following instructors: Roberta Tarbell, William Fitzhugh, Robert Starrett, Ralph Ellis, Janet Harmon, Lawrence Livingston, Anne Pruett-Barnett, and D.S., J.T. Seymour.

The District Committee on Ordained Ministry. Among other matters of business, this committee interviewed, counseled, and approved seven persons as Certified Candidates for the Ordained Ministry during the year. Our appreciation must be expressed to all who served as supervising pastors along with our dedicated District Committee: Robert Helms (Chairperson), Ronald Bergman, Conrad Cohen, Janet Harmon, William Hemphill, Marlene Walters, and Superintendent J.T. Seymour who served as Executive Secretary.

FOSTERING INCLUSIVENESS

Clergy and laity of the district have recognized the need to deal with increasing racial tensions in our society in general while also promoting inclusiveness and appreciation of diversity within our denomination in particular.

District Committee on Religion and Race. This committee, headed by Jacquelin Bostic and Darlene Webb and supported by some truly committed and hard working members, climaxed several months of planning and preparation by holding a Silver Jubilee on Sunday, September 22, 1991 at Grace UMC in Wilmington. The theme of the event was "Telling our Story: Worshipping and Walking in Faith." Initially intended as a district event, the Jubilee became a conference-wide celebration attended by men and women from every district within the bounds of the Annual Conference, especially those who had played a part in the merger of white and black conferences in 1964-65. Participants in the event reflected on the 25 years since the historic merger which ended both the racially defined Annual Conferences and the Central Jurisdiction. But, "Telling the Story" also encompassed the history of Methodism from the 1700's through to 1965; the event also involved visions of the future in which youth from five different church backgrounds participated.

Other Concerns About Racial Tensions. Controversy and mounting concern over a proposed KKK March in the town of Elkton, Maryland led United Methodist pastors in Cecil County to organize an ecumenical service at the Elkton UMC to witness on behalf of racial unity and the Christian way.

Pastors in and around the City of Wilmington were convened by the D.S. in the aftermath of the Rodney King verdict and eruption of violence in Los Angeles. Arising out of that meeting, pastors and congregations were encouraged to hold meetings for prayer and reflection. A District Rally was held on May 19, 1992 to bring together concerned persons for prayer, witness and commitment toward overcoming racism and addressing issues of poverty and injustice.

URBAN MINISTRY AND MAP

The needs of individuals and families in urban areas continue to challenge the Christian community and agencies of many kinds. It was therefore with a spirit of thanksgiving that MAP celebrated 25 years of urban ministry in an event held at the Brandywine Terrace on November 21, 1991. With Bishops Felton E. May and Susan M. Morrison participating, the large gathering reviewed MAP's quarter century of service through slide presentation, spoken word, and written history. During the past year considerable work was done by a MAP Evaluation and Planning Committee which then presented its projection for future new MAP programming to the annual meeting of the agency on Sunday, April 26, 1992. As President of the Board of Directors of MAP, I am excited by both the challenges and opportunities for MAP to work in partnership with congregations of the district to make a difference in the area of urban ministry.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

The total full membership in the Wilmington District almost held even for the year 1991; there was in fact a very small decrease of four members bringing the total to 30,165. We wish to commend those congregations which received twenty or more persons on Profession of Faith or Restored as follows:

Newark	41	Salem	25
Aldersgate	41	St. Mark's	24
Ebenezer	32	New Castle	23
Hockessin	30	St. Paul's	22
Asbury	27	North East	22
Red Lion	25	Mt. Joy	20

When we consider persons received on Profession of Faith in terms of the percentage represented of the total membership, we commend the following congregations:

Buttonwood	21%	Wesley	5.6%
------------	-----	--------	------

Union, Childs	9.6%	Mt. Joy	5.3%
Providence	9%	Bethesda	5.2%
Ebenezer,
St. Georges	7.5%	Union, Bear	5.1%
Red Lion	7.2%	St. Georges	5%
Salem	7.2%	Eastlake	5%
St. Daniels	7.1%

It is encouraging to note that Sunday School enrollment increased by 281 to a total of 9,333. Also, that average attendance at Church School increased by 248 to 4,646. Other increases were in the category of U.M. Men's enrollment up by 14 to 832; in addition, U.M. Women's enrollment increased by 78 to 2,777. Particularly encouraging is the increase in the UMYF membership of 138 to a total of 1,022.

PROPERTY MATTERS

During the past year, pastors and congregations continued to work faithfully in the care of the properties entrusted to them. At St. Daniels in the St. Georges Charge and at St. John's in the Moore's Chapel/St. John's Charge services were held during the year to give thanks for significant property improvements that were carried out. Likewise, at Ebenezer Church in the West Cecil Charge much work was done to enhance the condition and appearance of the church sanctuary. At Wesley Church, Elkton the weekend of October 27, 1991 was set aside for the consecration of the new educational wing. The congregation of St. Paul's Church in Earleville has evidenced remarkable giving in their contributions towards a fine new Fellowship Hall under construction; just as remarkable has been the support from the community in terms of labor, etc. freely donated to this building project. St. Paul's UMC in Wilmington continued its property improvements and a new chapel was dedicated. Towards the end of August, 1991, the pastor and people of the Elkton UMC consecrated their new parsonage. Perhaps the most unusual property matter during the past year was the damage to the Perryville UMC because of a devastating explosion which rocked the community on Saturday, July 6, 1991. On Sunday, March 22, 1992 Bishop Susan Morrison and the Wilmington D.S. participated in a service of rededication of the Perryville Church which has been beautifully and successfully rebuilt and restored. The Pastor, Rev. Robert Kelly, and people deserve our commendations along with Tri-Conference United Methodist Construction Services which gave invaluable assistance during the period of rebuilding.

The District Board of Church Location and Building met quite frequently during the past year. The board received and reviewed presentations from several congregations around the district concerning projected building plans for church facilities and parsonages. We are grateful to Carl Feucht, Bill Holloway, Cindy Koski, Jim Walker, Betty Webb, Howell Wilkins, and Joan Knorr (who resigned during the year) along with the District Superintendent for faithfully fulfilling their important responsibilities.

DISTRICT MINISTERS AND MATES

This organization has had another good year under the leadership of Clyde Knotts and his Executive Committee. Careful thought was given to the selection of meeting topics. The opportunities for new learnings, fellowship and support seemed beneficial to all the clergy and spouses who participated.

LAITY MATTERS

The District Board of Laity under the new leadership of Clyde Allen has reorganized itself. Meetings are scheduled for every other month and a successful Laity/Clergy Banquet was held on Tuesday, April 13, 1992. Sub-district Lenten Communion Breakfasts were held in most of the sub-districts during Lent. The United Methodist Men under Ken Hilton's leadership held a very successful Spring Breakfast at which Bishop Susan Morrison was the speaker, and a large gathering turned out. With regard to the United Methodist Women, Alice Butler completed a four year term as District President with great faithfulness and competence and Floscene Hill has assumed her responsibilities as the new President. UMW events are moving forward accordingly.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS

During the course of the conference year the following births took place:

October 9, 1991 - Daughter, Nydia Yvette, born to Jerry and Lillian Rojas
October 19, 1991 - Son, Coe William, born to Jim and Alice Walker
March 4, 1992 - Son, Kellan Mills, born to Jack and Jody Shitama

It is with regret that we mourned the passing of one of God's faithful servants:

March 26, 1992, Elizabeth B. Hill, Widow of Rev. Perry O. Hill

CONCLUSION

The foregoing paragraphs indicate something of the vitality of United Methodism on the Wilmington District during the past year. Other committees and councils which have met faithfully and served well during the year include the District Youth Council, the District Council on Ministries, the Hispanic Design Team, and the District Apportionment Review Committee. We are indebted to the many faithful persons who comprise the membership of these councils and committees. We express our heartfelt appreciation and look forward to their continued faithfulness of service during the times ahead. As Superintendent, I continue to value this opportunity to work with the fine clergy and laity of the district so that together we may strengthen God's work in this part of the conference and "strive to excel in building up the church." A sincere word of thanks to Mrs. Jinny Squire, our well experienced and competent secretary in the District Office, for all the work she has done this year (as in previous years) in serving the people of our district. We offer words of thanks also to those clergy who will be leaving us at the end of the present conference year whether for the purposes of retirement or to serve in other districts or Annual Conferences. May God's blessings rest upon us all.

District Superintendent

THE REPORT OF THE STATISTICIAN
JANUARY 1, 1991 TO DECEMBER 31, 1991

Total full membership in Peninsula United Methodist Churches stands at 98,148 at the end of 1991, down by 96 from the previous year. Nevertheless, two of our four districts recorded increases in membership -- the Dover District gained 109 members, and Salisbury District was up by 72. There are 484 full service churches as of December 31, 1991.

In spite of the decrease in full membership, there were some positive trends in 1991. The total number of members received on confession of faith and restored increased, as did average worship attendance in the principal weekly worship service. Both enrollment and average attendance in the church school were up from 1990. The membership reported in United Methodist Youth Fellowships increased by more than 12%.

Several local churches were plagued by a failure to maintain accurate membership rolls in the past. In some cases, constituents were counted as full members. In other instances, the number of members reported in previous years could not be substantiated in membership audits. Some churches removed members by charge conference action due to inactivity or residence at great distance from the local church.

There were fewer churches which received no new members on confession of faith or restored -- 171 -- as opposed to 191 a year ago. Among these churches, 160 received no new members at all, five fewer than in 1990. This is also a positive trend.

As I complete eight years in this office, allow me to express special appreciation to those who have assisted in this task each year. My wife, Linda, was especially instrumental in verifying the data as it was received. Our District Superintendents and their secretaries were helpful in gathering the statistics. Our fine Conference Treasurer, Ted Briggs, and his capable staff were constantly available for indispensable support. And Richard Loch of PC Solutions was there to provide technical assistance and the needed computer software.

Over the years, the Peninsula Annual Conference has been one of the few in the Northeastern Jurisdiction to show increases in membership. May we prayerfully strive together to reverse this year's slight slump. And as we move into the Twenty-first Century, God's grace will produce vital congregations and faithful congregations across the peninsula.

PECOMETH CONTINUATION CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

During 1991, the Continuation Committee has continued to monitor the giving and to inform the churches about the progress of the Campaign and of the development of the Camp. In addition to regular reports to the Conference Council on Ministries and items submitted to The Communicator, three issues of Pecometh Update were published and mailed to all pastors, Administrative Board/Council Chairpersons, and local church Pecometh Coordinators.

Churches and individuals continue to give regularly toward their accepted goal for the Pecometh Campaign. As of January 31, 1992, cash receipts totalled $1,605,165 which includes $133,616 from churches that did not accept a goal but do participate through their giving. The total amount is already a larger sum than the Conference has ever raised for any one cause, indicating broad commitment to the importance of this camping ministry. 84% of the churches are now participating. The enthusiasm of local church groups that have used one of the new bunkhouses for weekend retreats has stirred genuine appreciation for what this Campaign is making possible.

Last fall, the Continuation Committee recommended the extension of the Campaign for two additional years so that local churches would have time enough to successfully reach their goal. This was approved by the Conference in its November session and we have heard many positive comments about this action. People do want to complete what they set out to do.

The recently announced changes in the Pecometh Development Plan seems to have sparked renewed interest in the Campaign itself. The December 1991 and January 1992 receipts have been excellent, and there is fresh hope that we can reach the goal of $3,123,288 which is the total of what the churches and individuals say they intend to give plus the unpledged gifts already received. The Committee published a new folder titled "Mid-Point Report and Revised Future Development Plan" to help the churches mark the third "Campaign Anniversary Sunday". This folder has an artist's rendering of the revised site plan which we hope will put to rest the misunderstandings of what is to be built at Pecometh. Nearly 30,000 of these folders and over 20,000 offering envelopes have been requested by the churches for use as bulletin inserts or with church newsletters.

As we look toward the conclusion of this effort in May of 1994, we face our continuing task with a fresh enthusiasm for what is happening at Pecometh and with renewed hope that what was well begun, will be completed for the glory of God. Let us continue to work together and pray for the spiritual formation of children and youth as disciples of Jesus Christ.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

CHANGE IS TAKING PLACE

Throughout this quadrennium, we have been saying to one another, "We can no longer do business as usual." And we have been putting our words into action.

Last year, we reported on how we have shifted our emphasis from "what kinds of things will we do?" to "what are the results we, as members of the Peninsula Annual Conference, are looking for?" We told you some of the results we would be looking for over the next several years in the areas of stewardship, strengthening the local congregation, mission outside our congregations, leader development, telling our story, and breaking down the walls that divide us.

As we began to work for these results, we looked closely at how to use our staff resources for greater faithfulness and effectiveness in our ministry. After careful planning, thought, discussion and prayer the Council on Ministries adopted a new staff configuration that is both smaller and more focused.

FAITHFUL AND EFFECTIVE CONGREGATIONS

Several desired results: Our congregations experience growth, vital mission and ministry, reflected in increased worship attendance, Sunday school attendance, outreach and stewardship response....An inclusive, coordinated pool of resource persons exists and is continually developed to provide training in church growth and vitality.

Our staff resource: An Associate Council Director for Vital Congregations who initiates and develops programs which will help congregations which are declining or not growing become vital, who coordinates teams that have responsibility for congregational development/revitalization, and who supervises Conference consultants to local congregations.

FAITHFUL AND EFFECTIVE DISCIPLES

Several desired results: An inclusive, coordinated pool of resource persons exists to provide retreat and camping ministries....Our camp and retreat center are on a sound financial footing that allows for good stewardship of property and program....Local churches develop stronger spiritual formation ministries as a result of the retreat/camping ministries and worship for Conference events.

Our staff resource: An Associate Council Director for Spiritual Formation who provides for varied spiritual growth and renewal opportunities, who directs the program operations, maintenance, and on-going development of the camp and retreat centers, who supervises and directs the work of the camp and retreat center staff. An Assistant Council Director for Children and Youth Ministries works as program director for the camp and with Conference children and youth ministries to see that children and youth in the Peninsula Annual Conference receive an appealing, positive, sacred alternative to the secular culture.

STRENGTHENING OUR CONNECTION/TELLING OUR STORY

Several desired results: Program planning and development are well coordinated with the financial and human resources available to the Annual Conference....Congregations and individual United Methodists will understand the mission and work of the Peninsula Conference and the United Methodist Church and play an active role in it....The staff of the Council on Ministries functions as a well coordinated, effective team.

Our staff resource: A Council Director who serves as overall supervisor of the programmatic concerns of the Annual Conference, working with the Bishop, Cabinet, Staff, and a large number of volunteer leaders, both laity and clergy, from across the Annual Conference. A part-time Assistant to the Council Director helps interpret the work of the Annual Conference to local congregations, individual United Methodists, and the general church through the conference newspaper, and interprets the church's ministry and mission to the secular world via the public media.

MOVING FORWARD

As we enter a new quadrennium, the Conference Council on Ministries will work to make our structural organization reflect the mission that shaped the redesign of staff so that we can sharpen our focus and priorities in ministries empowering the local church for witness and mission in the name of Jesus Christ. Our hope is that the Annual Conference will begin a process of strategic planning, but our intention is not to wait for some formal process before we begin to think and act strategically.

James R. Robinson, Chairperson
Harvey Manchester, Jr., Council Director

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

Nineteen ninety-two was a year of transition for the Communications Committee. The position of full-time Associate Council Director for Communications was abolished. In its place is the function of Information Management for the Conference. This function is being provided for by the Council Director and a part time editor for the Communicator.

We have been hit hard by Conference budget cuts but continue to strive for the very best services to the Conference as well as to the individual churches of the Conference. The Communicator was re-formatted to a bi-weekly tabloid format with more column-inch space than before, thus enabling us to present more comprehensive coverage of Conference events. We have also incorporated many functions of the coordinated mailing into the Communicator thus effecting a large savings in mailing costs.

Since this is my second quadrennium, this will be my last report as Chairperson of the Communications Committee. My best wishes and whatever support I can give go to my successor.

1993 GOALS

Goal

Help local churches in outreach efforts using local communications resources.

OBJECTIVES

1. Publish a handbook for local church Communications Chairpersons.
2. Provide training opportunities and consulting services.
3. Continue ELC support.
4. "Catch The Spirit" on open air broadcast.
5. Work toward providing VISN for local cable companies.
6. Maintain multi-media presence.
7. Provide A/V consultant for video tape recording and editing.

Goal

Coordinate and integrate the flow of information within the conference.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Continue presence in TRICOMEDGRO.
2. Continue The Communicator.
3. Provide an inter and intra-conference Crises Communication's Network.

4. Provide A/V consultant for video tape recording and editing.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) continues to journey and struggle together in providing youth events for the Peninsula Conference. 1991 was a productive year. Our 1991 January Youth Rally with guest speaker David Parker was a wonderful experience. Our Second Annual Summer Youth Retreat at Camp Pecometh continued its legacy of fun, spiritual growth, and leadership development.

In November of 1991, the CCYM held an overnight spiritual growth and planning retreat at Avenue United Methodist Church. At this meeting, the CCYM polished its plans for the 1992 January Youth Rally - "Youth! Live" with keynote speaker Chris Hughes. We planned for the 1992 Confirmation Rally - a new event on the 1992 calendar for the CCYM, and put an outline together for the 1992 Summer Youth Retreat.

Our goals for 1993 are to maintain the January Youth Rally, Confirmation Rally, and the Summer Youth Retreat, while increasing the quality of these events. We are also looking to revamp our registration procedures since we are limited in the number of participants by the facilities available to house these events. We are doing this so that a larger number of youth in the Conference may have the opportunity to experience a Conference Youth event. In 1993, we also look forward to establishing a Youth Page to appear once a month in The Communicator. This page will publicize Conference, District, and Local Church Youth activities and ideas.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH COMMITTEE

The report outlines the major accomplishments of the Ethnic Local Church Committee (ELCC) over the past year. Under the direction of the Conference Council on Ministries, the Committee has continued to work and move forward in empowering and enabling the Ethnic Local Church for witness and mission. Listed below are specific activities in which the Committee engaged. Not reflected in this list is hours of preparation and ELCC meetings required to produce the accomplishments.

Local Church Ministry Consultant Program: In area of support for Local Church Ministries, the Consultants worked with several churches/charges helping to develop their concern for ministry. They include: Middletown/Dale's Charge; Girdletree Charge; Bridgeville Charge; Waugh Church; Pocomoke City-Mt. Zion Charge; Still Pond-Coleman Charge; Selbyville-Clarksville Charge; Wesley Chapel (Slaughter Neck); Fruitland Charge; Calvary Church (Wilmington).

Further, the Consultants successfully held Vacation Bible School Workshops on each district. Not only were the skills and services of the Consultants utilized, several mission team personnel assisted with these workshops.

Two of the Consultants provided pastoral support when Rev. Nathaniel Miller (Pocomoke) died and when Rev. Homer Minus (Bridgeville) had major surgery.

Projects Funded: The churches that received funding to help with ministry projects included: Nueve Vida (a summer program for youth); Wesley Temple (a lay witness, leadership, and mission event); Delaware Korean UMC (Korean newspaper project); Grace, Salisbury (Community Outreach Program); Berlin-Sinepuxent (a summer school ministry program); Coleman Memorial (a "Holistic Health Workshop"); East New Market-Linkwood (seed money for youth center); Whatcoat, Dover (Winter Session of Day Camp).

Leadership Training: The following persons were assisted in attending training events:

- A. Julia Dorman attended the National Association of Stewardship Leaders Annual Meeting/Training Event and "The Stewardship Junior College", a two-day emphasis on stewardship and the commitment campaign in the local church. She is actively involved on the Division of Stewardship and has been enlisted to serve as a Stewardship Consultant in the Peninsula Annual Conference.
- B. Rev. Victor Acquah-Harrison attended a class leader program in the local church, and he has used his training in his local church ministry.
- C. Eight persons went as a team to the Biblical Institute for Social Change Convocation and they have developed a study group, which seeks to discern ways to approach ministry in African-American Churches.

Another year has been added to the work of the Ethnic Local Church Committee. The Committee fulfilled its tasks in a number of ways. We coordinated the implementation of the comprehensive strategy through the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference, continued to perfect the revised Comprehensive Plan, advocated on behalf of ethnic ministries, and held a planning retreat in September, at which time we developed our directions and Committee goals. The highlights of the year were: (a) to have the revised Comprehensive Plan presented, discussed, and debated at Council meetings and the development of a study guide to be used along with the Plan. Hopefully, the Comprehensive Plan Study Guide will be used in local congregations, district gatherings, and other settings as a tool for developing and strengthening The United Methodist Church generally and the ethnic church specifically.

In closing, I would like to thank our staffperson, Lawrence Livingston and each Committee member who gave of their time and talent in the work of this Conference.

Darlene T. Webb
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Continue to coordinate the implementation of the Comprehensive Plan, monitor cooperation and performance, bring new information and possibilities to focus to Annual Conference, and keep the concern before all.
2. Continue to resource and assist ethnic congregations develop mission strategies through the Ethnic Local Church Consultant Program.
3. Continue to support some congregational programs of mission and ministry through funding.
4. Develop a Convocation on Ethnic Local Church for interpretation purposes.

5. Develop Ethnic Pastor Leadership Training events focusing on selected aspects of ministry in the local church from an ethnic perspective.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

In 1991 the new structure of the Conference Council on Ministries staff provided explicitly for the ministry of Spiritual Formation in the life of the Peninsula Annual Conference. The CCOM recognized that there are important ventures in Spiritual Formation which take place beyond the life of the local church which can be facilitated by the Annual Conference. The provision of a camp facility and a retreat center facility are two ways in which the Annual Conference supports and makes possible the work of Spiritual Formation.

The two facilities of the Peninsula Annual Conference are indeed valuable resources for Spiritual Formation. They offer ministries which cannot be offered by any one congregation alone, or even a few congregations together. These ministries are essential for our life together.

The new structure of the CCOM staff recognizes the common goal of Spiritual Formation, and yet the separate and distinct path of each facility. A camp and a retreat center are different in the ways that they draw people closer to God, and yet, their work is closely parallel and can be complementary.

Within the context of the work of Spiritual Formation, the ministries of both Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center are able to be more clearly defined. The spiritual aim and intent of each facility becomes the driving force behind their operation. Both places are challenged by the new structure to move beyond a mode of institutional maintenance to a strategy of providing for spiritual growth and renewal using the resources God has entrusted to the Peninsula Annual Conference.

A Spiritual Formation Team with several new staff positions was created to work in the ministry of Spiritual Formation. Two Administrative Assistants, a Buildings and Grounds Supervisor, and a Food Services Supervisor work with the Associate Council Director for Spiritual Formation and the Assistant Council Director for Children's and Youth Ministries to insure that the facilities function efficiently and effectively. Their work as the Spiritual Formation team enables both facilities to positively move ahead in program, facilities, and services.

A major highlight of the past year was that the Associate Council Director for Spiritual Formation, Pamela J. Lardear, serving as Director of both Conference facilities, completed the course of certification as a Conference Center Administrator, a professional certification program offer by the International Association of Conference Center Administrators. Such certification recognizes skill, competence, and proficiency in areas related to the administration of conference centers.

Camp Pecometh

1991 was a full year for Camp Pecometh. Two new bunkhouses, which again provide the camp with year-round facilities were completed and dedicated. These bunkhouses, and the previously erected Program Shelter were the first buildings built with funds from the Pecometh Campaign effort, and were used for the first time in the summer program in 1991. The campaign continues to provide new avenues for the expansion of the ministry of Camp Pecometh. All who are involved with Camp Pecometh are eagerly looking forward to the buildings that are in progress which will continue to enlarge the capacity and programmatic capability of camp.

The 1991 summer program was exemplary. The theme of the summer program was "Come, Follow Me." 1450 campers and 51 summer staff persons explored themes of God's call upon their lives, and the various responses that are possible. Songs, scripture readings, and worship services invited all persons at the camp to re-discover or to discover for the first time the ways in which God calls them to a life of discipleship.

Of the 51 summer staff positions in the 1992 summer program, 35 persons were from the Peninsula Annual Conference, or 69 percent. This was a record high number of local staff persons for recent years.

The 1992 summer program brings much excitement. Seven new programs were added to a schedule of 10 existing programs for an exciting slate of 17 different camping programs for children from 2nd grade through 12th. Some camps serve special populations, such as mentally retarded adults, and others offer special new experiences, such as a Red Cross canoe training and a mini canoe trip for younger children.

All of the Pecometh summer programs are designed to offer an experience of living in Christian community for campers and staff, and the opportunity to explore themes of our Christian life in the context of the out-of-doors. Creation provides a rich and natural setting for young persons and adults to realize the presence of God in their lives and in the world around them.

A special addition to the 1992 summer program will be nature education activities. The National Wildlife Federation provides training for persons to become certified in nature education activities, which will be integrated into existing camp programs this year. In following summers, Pecometh plans to offer camps which center on nature education and our environmental responsibility for God's world.

One very exciting change in the staff at Camp Pecometh is the addition of a Program Director. Clarice A. Ritchie, who has worked for many years on the summer staff, joined the staff of the Conference Council on Ministries as the Assistant Council Director for Children's and Youth Ministries. In that capacity, she works as the Program Director for the camp. Her enthusiastic presence and thorough knowledge of the ministry of camping adds much to the program life of the camp. Additionally, her work provides a direct connection between the educational and youth ministries of the Annual Conference and the camp.

Some physical changes were made to the camp in 1991 besides the addition of the Bunkhouses. "Jake's Place," the former summer office building and staff housing was razed in late spring. Extensive repairs were completed to the Girl's Hill Staff house, and renovations were completed to the Whatcoat cabin, allowing it to serve as staff housing. A second platform tent was added to Boy's Hill, to accommodate all the campers who registered for camp.

The ministry of Camp Pecometh is a ministry of discovery. The natural setting of the camp helps persons to draw apart from the many distractions of their routine lives in order to focus on important issues of spirituality. God's presence and movement in the world becomes more apparent in a setting which is free of the usual clamor of our society. Children and youth, especially, need a time and place where they can concentrate on God's love and grace for their lives and for all of creation. Lives are transformed as persons discover God in themselves, in other persons, and in nature. The changes that are possible in persons' lives through the ministry of camping carry the news of God's presence into the world in significant ways.

The summer of 1991 was again a summer for the American Camping Association Accreditation program. Though it regularly falls due every three years, it also comes due when there is a change in camp director. Pecometh passed both its written work and on-site visitation with extremely high marks.

Drayton Retreat Center

1991 continued to be a year of tremendous progress in the ministry of the Drayton Retreat Center. For three years, it has operated without a subsidy to the operating budget from the Conference Council on Ministries. Accumulated interest from the Endowment fund is still used to supplement the income from user fees to meet the budgeted goals. Operation of Drayton continues in 1992 without funding subsidy to the operating budget.

The most exciting happening at Drayton was the dedication of the new Caldwell Dining Room and renovation of the kitchen, offices, and west wing bedrooms. The dedication was held November 24, 1991. Bishop Susan M. Morrison was the preacher and celebrant for the service. This was the culmination of many years of planning and fund raising by many dedicated individuals. We thank God for the vision of those who first proposed an addition to the manor house. The new dining area allows everyone to dine together rather than in three separate rooms, as in the past. The guests at the dedication service filled the house. The new dining area also allows the use of the old formal dining room as a sitting or meeting room. The entire facility is enhanced by the completion of this addition.

As part of the renovations, a new director's office was created in the space formerly occupied by both offices. The second floor west wing bedroom space was redesigned to provide for two larger rooms and a fire escape. An interior handicap ramp was completed shortly after the dedication in November, and provides access from the level of the new dining room to the level of the main house and kitchen.

The renovation of the kitchen was completed and approved by the County Board of Health. All new equipment was placed, as was a new floor and counter tops. Some upper cabinets and the dishwasher remain from the original kitchen. A back porch was built into a food storage room to house a walk-in refrigerator and freezer, as well as dry storage.

1991 was a successful year of operation for the use of the facility. Drayton continued in full operation during the construction, which posed a significant challenge for the director and staff. Various activities had to be re-arranged while various parts of the building were under construction. With good planning and tremendous patience on the part of both guests and staff, Drayton continued to serve, even during hectic times.

In 1991, a total of 213 groups used the Drayton facility for a total of 3941 guests. Of these groups, 111 were from the Peninsula Annual Conference with a total of 2020 guests. This is the first year that groups from the Peninsula Annual Conference have comprised more than half of the total number of groups at Drayton. The center was open 350 days, with guests in residence on 235 of those days for an occupancy rate of 67%. Guests experienced a variety of programs while staying at Drayton, including congregational planning, spiritual life retreats, and study programs.

The average number of guests per week that the Drayton facility was open is 79 persons. That represents a higher weekly average than 74% of the churches in the Peninsula Annual Conference. Combined with the fact that guests at Drayton stay an average of more than 24 hours, Drayton provided a considerable impact on the spiritual lives of people.

A program to send used soap to overseas mission projects continued in 1991. Soap is sent to different areas of the world by Lutheran World Relief.

There were 8 continuing education events held at Drayton in 1991 with a total registration of 140 participants and 11 leaders. This program is operated at a loss to Drayton, but is offered as an important service for the lives of local churches and church leaders. There are 10 events scheduled for 1992. These events concentrate on developing leadership skills for pastors and lay persons.

It was a busy and sometimes difficult year for the staff at Drayton. The transition to the Spiritual Formation structure meant that Drayton was obliged to operate without a full-time Director for the first time in many years. That shift was sudden, and necessitated staff assuming responsibility for several areas previously cared for by the director. The staff at Drayton is to be commended for their cooperation, patience, and loyalty.

The mission of Drayton Retreat Center is a ministry of hospitality. That hospitality is made possible by the gracious nature and surroundings of the retreat center. Through the setting, facilities, staff, and services, Drayton provides a welcome to guests that reminds them of the welcome offered by God in Jesus Christ to the whole world. In turn, guests are prompted by Drayton's hospitality to be hospitable themselves, in a world where persons are sorely divided from one another, creation, and themselves. The ministry of hospitality is essentially a ministry of reconciliation -- it is a ministry which bids each of us receive God's welcome and establish patterns of grace-filled living in the world.

Drayton continues to offer day or overnight lodging for groups and individuals, food services, meeting rooms, and support resources for retreat and planning ventures. Program support is available from the Drayton staff. Groups of any size up to 50 persons can be accommodated for overnight, and up to 120 persons can be accommodated for meals and programs. Individuals and families are also welcomed as guests at Drayton.

1992 continues to offer a challenge to Drayton Retreat Center. With the addition of the Caldwell Dining Room, Drayton can accommodate much larger groups for daytime events and meetings, as well as operate more efficiently. One aim is to have guests in the facility even more days of the year.

We encourage all who desire a few moments of quiet and respite to come and enjoy this peaceful setting provided by God through the beauty of Drayton. God's presence and movement can be felt and discerned inside the peaceful home of Drayton and outside in the beauty of the water and earth. We invite you to come and enjoy that presence that so many others have found at this retreat center.

Praise the Lord, all nations!
Extol him, all peoples!
For great is his steadfast love toward us;
and the faithfulness of the Lord endures for ever.
Praise the Lord.

PSALM 117

*Robert B. McKee, Chair, Drayton Retreat Center Board of Directors

VITAL CONGREGATIONS

As stated in an article that appeared in The Communicator on July 1, we "set sail on a new journey in the Peninsula Conference where we will explore ways to further develop the vitality of the local churches." The primary focus of ministry in the life of the Annual Conference that directly relates to individual congregations is now through the Office of Vital Congregations, directed by Rev. Lawrence M. Livingston. The goal of this newly created position is to help congregations move to a position of growth and vital mission and ministry, reflected in increased worship attendance, Sunday school attendance, outreach and stewardship response.

The achievements of this forward are substantial, even at this early point of implementation. We have made moves that will result in not only faithful, but effective ministry in many of our congregations. An informal "Vital Congregations Development Team" was created, which is made up of the chairs of boards and committees of the Annual Conference that have direct responsibility for some aspect of congregational vitality. The persons who make up that Vital Congregations Development Team are: Cliff Armour, Board of Global Ministries (BGM); Nancy Leathrum, BGM, Division of Congregational Development; Darlene Webb, Ethnic Local Church Committee; James Hardcastle, Board of Discipleship (BOD); Jonathan Baker, BOD, Division of Christian Education; Barbara Jester, Division of Evangelism; James Jones, Division of Stewardship; Karen Bunnell, Division of Worship; Laura Martin, Commission on Equitable Salaries. This group has already begun to coordinate its work with congregations. One example of how that might be done is when a congregation requests equitable salary support we may be able to also help with work in the area of stewardship or Christian education to help them move beyond congregational preservation to mission driven ministry.

Another informal group, which was developed primarily for the purpose of study and review of what it means to be a "vital congregation", is the "Vital Congregations Advisory Team." The members of this group are: Tom Short, Lehman Tomlin, Susan Kester, Liz St. Clair, Sterling Green, Louis Lardear, and Maceo Williams. The VC Advisory Team is currently examining worship in the life of congregations and its relationship to vitality and mission driven ministry.

Three specific accomplishments of the Office of Vital Congregations in its work with some of the boards and committees mentioned above are: 1) the coordination and implementation of the PAC Comprehensive Plan for Developing and Strengthening the Ethnic Church, through the work of the ELCC; 2) the expansion of the BOD, Partner's Project (see BOD report); 3) the development of a new and improved consultant ministry in the PAC, the "New Vitality Ministry Consultant Ambassador" program. This ministry strives to combine the previous consultant-type ministries of the PAC under one plan and approach to ministry with our local congregations.

The three particular goals of the Associate Council Director of Vital Congregations are: 1) To lift the vision for vital mission driven ministry in all the churches of the PAC; 2) To address the particular needs of ethnic congregations in the PAC; 3) To address the need for a more deliberate commitment to faithful stewardship of local church and annual conference time, talent, and resources.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

During the past year, the following actions were taken by the Council:

1. Pecometh - Granted $4,900 for a new roof on the Maintenance Director's house.
2. Requests for apportionment adjustments for the ensuing year must be in the hands of the District Superintendent by October 31.
3. Non-Church Expenses - Voted to allow churches to use their own formula for determining non-church expenses. Churches must furnish their calculations to the Conference when submitting year-end reports.
4. Certificate of Deposits - Adopted a resolution to invest Conference funds only in federally insured institutions within the geographical bounds of the Annual Conference.
5. District Superintendents - Granted a total of $13,200 to replace computers at the four district offices.

Recommendations:

1. That the 1993 Budget, in the amount of $4,610,509, be adopted.
2. That .38 be the apportionment factor for 1993.

BOARD OF CHILD CARE

This has proven to be an exciting and meaningful year at the Board of Child Care.

Recognizing the very large unmet need for additional facilities for neglected, abused, and homeless children, this agency began anew to create a home for sixty boys and girls. Since 1973 we have owned property in Harford County, just south of Bel Air. A decision was made that we would seek necessary zoning to construct a complex of homes on that site. Therefore, we have applied for an Administrative Appeal and Special Exception to operate a group home in the AG District; Reckford Road, west of Bagley Road, Fallston. We have completed a series of six hearings before the appeal officer of the Harford County Zoning Office. We are very happy to say that the decision rendered by that hearing officer is favorable to Board of Child Care.

This decision will be appealed so that a final decision cannot be entered herein. We do note the very strong support which Board of Child Care received from people of United Methodist Churches throughout Baltimore East District. Likewise, people from churches of other denominations appeared at the hearings to express their vote of confidence in Board of Child Care and their desire that we proceed with this project.

Our goal is to construct a home which will include five living units. Each will house twelve children. The emphasis will be on care for children to age 12 and for sibling groups. This exciting project is one which Board of Child Care has pursued over the past six or seven years. It would appear that we may be reaching the point where we can proceed.

For the children, there have been many exciting activities. During the summer, we had a number of high interest study groups. These included photography, a study of historical ghosts in our area, gourmet cooking, body building and health, and even a short course on entomology. The school bus, purchased with soup labels which you provided, is a great boon to our program and has provided a number of interesting and educational trips for children. We visited Calvert Cliffs and the Aquarium. At Christmas time, after the children had earned money to buy their ticket to Radio City Music Hall's Christmas Show, we drove the bus to Manhattan. The boys and girls went into the Statue of Liberty, saw Ellis Island, and then had a planned tour of the United Nations Building. What an experience for these children to see the chambers of the Security Council and to hear about the different types of work which this international body is about!

Two years ago we were one of the six organizations throughout the United States which was able to take advantage of the Campbell's program for purchasing a bus with labels. We are proud to report the Auxiliary has reached their goal of collecting a second 1,000,000 labels with which we will purchase a Chevrolet Suburban to transport children. This is a fantastic monument to the combined caring of United Methodist people from throughout the Baltimore and Peninsula Conferences. You do care for God's children and you demonstrate day by day the strength which you possess for bringing your compassion to meaningful program for them.

Board of Child Care is in the process of recertification by a committee of the National Association of Health & Welfare Ministries of The United Methodist Church. This program, commonly known as EAGLE, is a mechanism by which one of the United Methodist organizations may assess itself, its relationship to the church, and the quality of its program. This assessment is followed by a review by a Peer Review Team of the association.

Our foster care program, under the capable leadership of Ellen Manning and her staff, continues to grow. Operating out of offices at Woodside United Methodist Church, the staff includes three social workers, a graduate student from the National Catholic School of Social Services, The Catholic University of America, and our secretary. Members of our Auxiliary sponsored a party at Christmas for the thirty-four children who are living with our own foster families.

A major effort is underway to renovate all of our buildings, including furnishings. Never have we treated ourselves to a major replacement of furnishings such as we now are doing. This will include new furniture for bedrooms in the cottages, and replacement or reupholstering of furniture in our living rooms and family rooms.

Great appreciation is expressed to each and every minister and lay person from within the Baltimore and Peninsula Annual Conferences. We, the Board and staff, are here to hear you and to serve you in your mission for children.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Coordinated study and activity continued in the eight key result areas for which goals were established in 1988 at the five-year planning retreat. The retreat, "Shalom 93" participants assessed crucial issues confronting the church and society, specified goals, and established priorities for the Board.

In order to work closely with local churches and promote action on critical justice issues, reports of mini-grant stimulated projects were made at Annual Conference. Requests for proposals with guidelines were available in the exhibit booth at Conference. Letters with requests for proposals were mailed to chairpersons of Council on Ministries throughout the Conference. Smaller churches appeared to find real assistance from the grants ranging from $50 to $200.

Nine board meetings were held during the year in which the Board worked on the eight key result areas, four of which have active chairpersons and four are conducted through joint Board action.

Peace and Justice is chaired by the Director of Pacem in Terris. Considerable ongoing activity was directed in this key result area including: speaking in local churches; conducting workshops; serving as a resource for lay and clergy concerned about the Gulf War; setting up an exhibit on peace resources at Annual Conference; providing resource materials on peacemaking for church groups; mailing "Peace Work", a resource journal, to every United Methodist Church.

Under the Peace and Justice Speakers Bureau, a mini-grant was awarded to St. James United Methodist Charge for a conference on establishing communications with youth age 12-18. Pastors, parents, and others interested in working with youth ministries also attended. Six churches were represented with 40 youth and 20 adults in attendance. Booklets were developed on communication and distributed to participants. A follow-up workshop is planned. A mini-grant was awarded to Ebenezer United Methodist Church to support a speaker and symposium for United Methodist Peace and Justice Sunday.

Housing and homelessness, as a mission, has been promoted in every local church in the Conference through "One Church - One Family." A ten-page pamphlet "How to Reach Out to Homeless Families" was distributed to all churches. The chairperson visited ten churches to help implement the program and counseled many others by telephone. A questionnaire was mailed to all churches in the Conference regarding the status of their participation with housing and homelessness. A 20% response was received. However, it is believed that the response is not indicative of church support. Many churches seem to be participating in some way. The Board received requests from three churches which are heavily involved in shelter programs but needed additional assistance for overflow of people. The requests were granted.

In the substance abuse area, many churches are introducing programs to help church members work with families to combat drugs. Mini-grants were awarded to New Bethel-St. John United Methodist Charge to work with 12 families dealing with drug problems. The Grasonville-Carmichael Charge continues to work with its Boys' Club in counseling and prevention program. In March of 1992, a one-day training workshop will be conducted in the Easton District, subsidized by a mini-grant, in cooperation with MAP. The Board has approved a cooperative plan for sharing in funding a training program with the Leadership Development Committee of the Division of Education and two churches in Salisbury utilizing the "Born Free - Stay Free" program recommended by Bishop Felton May.

The Chairperson on AIDS Ministry distributed packets of worship materials to 70 churches during Annual Conference. These materials are to be utilized by pastors and others who are in mission with patients who are HIV Positive or have contracted AIDS.

The Smyrna Prison Bus Ministry continues with Church and Society support to the ecumenical coalition which enables family members from the Wilmington area to visit the Smyrna Prison.

In the area of Poverty and Economic Justice, Trinity United Methodist Church was awarded a mini-grant to offer a forum on hunger, its causes, and possible solutions. This experience provided an outreach to all age groups, promoted increased giving and sharing, gained thoughtful consideration of the quantity and quality of food consumption and consideration of food production and cooperatives.

ELC Youth Training was again supported by the Board by contributing to Janes United Methodist Church for a conference youth delegate to attend a peace mission to Eastern Europe in 1992. Richard Harrison is the first African-American youth invited by the Conference on such a trip.

The Annual Board Retreat focused on "Making Peace With Ourselves and God." This overnight retreat was resourced by Dr. Diedra Kriewald, author, lecturer, and Professor of Christian Education at Wesley Theological Seminary. One CEU credit was awarded to clergy. Prior reading was required. Varied writing, listening and meditation experiences were provided for spiritual enrichment. A strong focus was on the need for openness and love for others in order to make peace with ourselves and God. A handbook on worship services for many occasions was provided all participants.

In accordance with a motion passed at the 1991 Annual Conference, the Board has developed an umbrella "Biblical-Theological Rationale for Board of Church and Society Resolutions."

Ruth M. Laws, Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Peace With Justice: To communicate and work toward a vision of Shalom in which all people experience both inner peace and outward security, based on faith, mutual cooperation, and trust in God.
2. Housing and Homelessness: To work closely with local churches in finding solutions to homelessness through "One Church - One Family" shelter assistance and other strategies for meeting this basic human need.
3. The AIDS Ministry: To continue developing and distributing the resources necessary for assisting clergy and laity in confronting the AIDS crisis. To examine the causes of the crisis and alter its future manifestation through a christian, theological grounded approach to human sexuality which all ages need to consider.
4. Substance Abuse: To assist local churches in working with parents, children, and youth in confronting the drug culture from a christian prevention and/or treatment perspective.
5. ELC Youth Training Ministry: To provide christian enrichment and intervention experiences for African-American youth through the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Camping Program at Camp Pecometh.
6. Smyrna Prison Bus Ministry: To continue co-sponsoring this ecumenical program which provides bus transportation for Wilmington area families to visit prisoners in the Delaware Correctional Center at Smyrna.
7. Training Events: To provide for an annual retreat related to the "Shalom" emphasis and to support individuals to attend vital training events which will help local churches and the Conference Board of Church and Society to be more effective.
8. Poverty and Economic Justice: To assist local churches in creating an awareness and assurance that people's basic needs for food, housing, health care, education, and employment are met; and that the root causes of deprivation are removed.
9. Environmental Justice: To create an awareness of our role as stewards of God's Creation and to begin to take responsibility for its care.
10. Education Resourcing: To inform the conference, districts, and local churches of the societal issues confronting the church and to assist in formulating christian responses to these issues.
11. Emerging Issues: To respond to local church requests dealing with vital issues which may surface during the course of the year.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

1991 was an eventful year in the life of our Board as together we struggled with issues relating to Diaconal Ministry - its nature and the way it works in the world.

Diaconal Minister Naomi Winchester traveled to Africa with the Bishop and planned to explore ways of effectively ministering with African-Americans through a greater understanding of the African heritage. The Board of Diaconal Ministry proudly supported Naomi Winchester in the venture and viewed the trip and resulting understandings as ways of making "ministry" real for those needing our help and support.

The Board continued to support, emotionally and financially, those persons who have declared their intent to be certified in the areas of education and evangelism and who are completing the necessary graduate work to fulfill that goal.

Because of the ministry study proposed for consideration at the 1992 General Conference, this Board spent time reviewing and discussing the report. Board members were encouraged to reflect and to share their opinions with regard to the study. Hopefully, the groundwork has been laid for action to be taken as a result of conference action.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry, in 1993, will continue to assist persons who feel they may have experienced a "call" to appropriate ministries and articulate that call for themselves. In several cases, individuals may realize that their call may be "to be a really committed church member". In other cases, individuals may realize that they have been called to ministries that are "set apart". In any case, this Board will continue to encourage and support those who feel committed to service in the church through diaconal forms of ministry.

Additionally, this Board will carry out the action dictated by action on the ministry study to be taken by the General Conference in May 1992.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The mission of the Board of Discipleship is to be a connectional partner with local congregations in their ministries of:

1. Reaching out and receiving people where they are and as they are;
2. Helping others enter into a relationship with God;
3. Nurturing, supporting and equipping persons for Christian discipleship;
4. Sending disciples into their communities to serve and give witness to the transforming power of God.

During this quadrennium our three goals have been:

- To be-- and to be perceived by the annual conference and members of local congregations as-- a Board of Discipleship that does support and help local congregations in their ministries.
- To develop and pioneer, utilizing resources of the General Board of Discipleship a model of distinctively United Methodist "disciplemaking" for use by the churches of the Peninsula Annual Conference.
- To assist each local church in developing at least one connectional/inter-racial ministry with another (or other) United Methodist congregation(s).

One of the ways the Board of Discipleship is supporting these goals is through a new ministry launched in 1991 called the "Partner's Project." This program takes on a "partnership" with specific local congregations for planning ministry at the local level. The Partner's Project design calls for a team of persons trained in the ministry disciplines of the Board of Discipleship...Christian education, evangelism, stewardship, & worship, to work with the pastor and members of a congregation over an extended period of time of 12 to 18 months. The objective of the program is to help the congregation achieve its own vision, mission and goals for ministry with an added investment of outstanding leadership skilled and trained in various areas of ministry. The project emphasizes that its role and function is to help a congregation do what it wants to do for the Lord. The Project functions under the guiding principle that whatever gifts, resources, talents and skills a congregation needs to accomplish its God-given mission are already in place. Therefore, this ministry endeavors to bring out the factors already present in the church.

The Board of Discipleship entered into a direct partnership with a specific congregation in April of 1991. The first church selected, from a pool of churches that applied, was Magnolia Church, Magnolia, Delaware.

The immediate goal of Magnolia was to increase Sunday school attendance by 10% by December of 1991. Christian education leaders, working with Magnolia teachers, designed a VBS program for the summer. There were approximately 40 children who attended and nearly the same number of adults.

Action team members and a friendly, energetic group of Christians worked together on their goal of increasing attendance, and they met to plan and prepare for fall start-up of the church school. An evangelism workshop was presented to increase awareness of the community around them and ways to reach out and receive them into the life of the church. A prayer chain was developed to pray for goals and visions of the church; members were asked to make a stewardship covenant to pray for various aspects of the church. The worship team leader worked with education leaders of the church to plan ways of incorporating Sunday school memorization skills into the worship service.

Another approach to achieving our goals was the development and implementation of what we call the "Discipleship Fair." This is an offering of several workshops in the areas of the Board of Discipleship--fifteen in all. The "Fair" was held in six locations with 121 of the churches in the Peninsula Conference participating and more than 500 persons attending.

Finally, in 1991 the Board continued its commitment to training persons for future leadership in the Peninsula Conference.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

"I think this training experience was great for Sunday School teachers and anyone interested. It was done on our turf with our kids, in our church, in our rooms, with our materials." This comment, offered by a member of Kennedyville U.M. Church, best describes the results of the work of our Division in 1991. Our priority and emphasis has been upon providing resources for the local church in Christian Education and many training opportunities have been experienced in local churches throughout the Conference. New energy, direction, and excitement have come to many local churches through the following:

Teacher Training: The "Discipleship Fair" provided our Division with the opportunity to work with the other Divisions of the Board of Discipleship in three different sites in our Conference providing training in education, worship, stewardship and evangelism. 121 churches and a total of 542 persons attended these workshops!

Workshops were also held in local churches led by persons who have been trained by our Division. Our first Small Membership Church Lab was held this year receiving such affirmations as the one quoted earlier. We encourage local churches to use our Division to assist them in Christian education. We can plan around your needs. A Resource Catalogue will soon be published by the Board of Discipleship which will list various workshop opportunities for local churches. These training events can bring new vitality, interest and excitement to your congregation.

The Christian Education Consultants have worked creatively with many congregations bringing expertise and enthusiasm to local churches. Our Conference is indebted to Doris Phillips for her years of service as a Christian Education Consultant. Doris retired at the 1991 Annual Conference Session and will be greatly missed in this capacity. She has brought new life to many local church Christian education programs through her genuine caring and guidance. Thank you Doris! I also want to express our gratitude to Liz St. Clair who has worked in several capacities during 1991. During the transition of leadership in the Conference Office, Liz served in a part-time capacity on the staff and assisted our Division in many ways while she continued to serve as a Christian Education Consultant. She offers such creativity and joy to her work with local churches. Our Consultant Committee has been working hard to hire two new consultants to expand our work in 1992.

Several members of our Division have been diligently working as members of the Action Team in our Partner's Project. This program has had a positive impact upon the local church and 1992 will see an expansion of this program through the recruitment and training of another Action Team.

Leadership Development: In order to provide effective leadership for local churches, our Division has sought to recruit and train persons in Christian Education from our Conference. The Leadership Development Committee has been able to build on several past training experiences and initiate two new programs in 1991. We have supported persons in the process of becoming Certified to teach Church School Teachers in Children, Youth, and Adult Christian Education. This involves several years of training and commitment. At present we have six persons "in process" and several who are certified. These persons are available to help lead training experiences in your local church. Scholarships were provided for two persons to attend the Donald Griggs Event. Two full scholarships and three partial scholarships were provided for persons to attend the "Disciple Bible Training" event. Full scholarship recipients are asked to lead a class in their local churches. This program is already having a tremendous impact upon local churches. The Division has begun a long-range program of leadership development for our Conference through coaching conferences whereby persons become certified to teach the course "Understanding and Teaching the Bible to Others." When certified, these persons will be available to lead local church classes.

Much progress was made towards the chartering of a CEF - Christian Educators Fellowship - Chapter in our Conference for support, training, and professional development. Two significant training events were held in 1991 with great success.

One of the most exciting opportunities for our Division came when we were asked by the new Camp Pecometh Director to assist them in program development. We look forward to this new working relationship as our camp provides a tremendous Christian education experience.

Our Division is grateful to the commitment of many persons in our Conference who give their time and talents to be workshop leaders, teachers, facilitators, and planners. "Your" Division of Education has been an active, vital part of the Peninsula Conference because of the dedication of its members. It has been a privilege for me to work with such creative and committed persons. It has been a joy to welcome Lawrence Livingston to our Board in 1991. We look forward to working with him as he brings much insight, direction, and creative energy to our work.

Jonathan E. Baker
Chairperson

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

The Division of Evangelism, with its heart directed toward becoming a viable resource for the local church, provided financial support for training four persons as "Growth Plus" consultants on the national level. These persons representing the laity, the clergy, and the Conference staff will be available to all local churches as well as "Action" teams of the Partner's Project.

Ten persons, representing the Division of Evangelism, participated in the Board of Discipleship "Discipleship Fair" as workshop leaders. This Fair was presented at six different locations in the Conference during the year.

Many workshops were conducted in local churches throughout the Conference in the areas of "Church Growth", "Visitation", and "Evangelism". One workshop, "Reaching the Baby Boomers", was presented in partnership with the Division of Education.

Once again the "Five Star" Award program was promoted as a recognition of the local churches' outstanding work in Evangelism. Many of the 1990 recipients achieved "Five Star Plus" status this year.

The Harry Denman Award was presented to Rev. Vaughn A. Johnson of Wesley Temple UMC, Salisbury and Elizabeth St. Clair, Education Consultant and member of St. Paul's UMC in Wilmington.

The Division supported the "Delmarva Walk to Emmaus" and its youth counterpart, the "Chrysalis" during 1991. This spiritual formation experience is designed to develop and empower leadership for the local church. Over 125 adults and 60 youth participated in weekend activities during the year.

The Division continued its support of the National and Jurisdictional Sections on Evangelism through financial pledges. Scholarships were made available for four persons to attend the NEJ Conference on Evangelism at Lycoming College in Williamsport, Pa. in July. We hosted the NEJ's Division of Evangelism October meeting at Drayton Retreat Center with two members attending. Seventeen conferences were represented as well as the General Board of Discipleship's Section on Evangelism.

Three members of the Division of Evangelism received training and participated as "Action Team" members of the Board of Discipleship's Partners Project pilot program.

In working toward fulfilling the vision of revitalizing the Evangelism ministries of the local church, the Division sought to become involved in Witnessing, Faith Sharing, proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ and making disciples. This we clearly saw in Christ's charge, "....you will be my witnesses...." (Acts 1:8)

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The past year has been a year of great joy and accomplishments. Our hopes of seeing stewardship becoming a form of worship is being realized. With the help of new members to our Division, we are able to have leaders on each district that are trained to help local churches.

Accomplishments of the Division of Stewardship for 1991 are as follows:

- A. Held workshops in three Discipleship Fairs.
- B. Held two Stewardship Leadership Training events.
- C. Sent one person to the National Association of Stewardship Leaders (NASL) and the Stewardship Junior College for training.
- D. Held several workshops in local churches
- E. Developed a data base for stewardship leaders and pastors in the Peninsula Conference.

We will continue in '92 to be involved in local church ministries and in conference training events. Our newsletter, "Pathways: Journeys in Stewardship" will be sent out quarterly to all Pastors and Stewardship leaders in the Peninsula Conference. Our fall training event will be held on November 7, 8, and 9 with Herb Mathers from the General Board of Discipleship as our leader.

James B. Jones
Chairperson

DIVISION OF WORSHIP

The year 1991 saw the Division of Worship continue its quest to inspire and resource rich and meaningful worship experiences at all levels of the church - local, district, and conference-wide. In pursuit of that quest, the Division:

- A. Assisted with the preparation of the worship experiences for the Annual Conference Sessions at Central Middle School (including banners and paraments).
- B. Worked with the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns on worship for the Adjourned Session of Annual Conference in Dover in November.
- C. Continued to provide financial support for the Peninsula Conference Chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and Other Arts (FUMWMOA), including funding for two events - one in Salisbury, the other in Camden.
- D. Sent persons to the FUMWMOA Convocation at Lake Junaluska as training for Partner's Project participation.
- E. Provided workshops on worship issues for the Board of Discipleship's "Discipleship Fair".

1991 was a year of transition for the Division of Worship, with a change in leadership and other challenges. Many thanks to those members of the Division who have remained faithful during the transition, and many thanks to Lawrence Livingston for his continuing support and counsel.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

"There shall be elected annually a conference secretary of global ministries . . . This person shall work with the Annual Conference Board of Global Ministries and the Annual Conference Council on Ministries to provide the necessary liaison between the Annual Conference and the General Board of Global Ministries."

The Book of Discipline, 1984, ¶730.3

This definition of my responsibilities puts me in direct relationship to the Conference Board of Global Ministries and Conference Council on Ministries and their efforts, but it also requires emphasizing the priorities of the General B.O.G.M. and communicating the overall global mission of the church. I have assisted local congregations in each of the four districts by: setting up missionary itinerations; providing displays or materials; giving counsel in designing mission events; sending information about missionaries and covenant relationships, and/or about specific Advance Specials, etc. In addition, I worked with John Nuessle (GBOGM), Pam Lardear (Conference Staff), and Garry Parker (clergy member of Peninsula), in designing and carrying out a mission continuing education event held at Drayton on September 17-18, 1991, which was attended by clergy and laity from three Annual Conferences.

After producing the 1991 Annual Conference audio-visual presentation of the "6 Lanes of the Advance", I worked with the Division of Mission and the Education/Cultivation Committee to develop a slightly expanded video version that could be distributed to each district, thus making mission interpretation more accessible to local congregations. While the ideas were in place, the project was abandoned due to major changes in several of the Advance Specials that we in the "6 Lanes".

I continue to work closely with the Divisions of our Conference B.O.G.M. as they implement 1992 goals and project their vision for 1993. I chair the B.O.G.M. meetings when the Chairperson is unable to attend due to pastoral emergencies. In addition, I have met several times with Council Director Harvey Manchester to look for ways the mission of the church might become a more strategic part of our discipleship here in the Peninsula Conference. I have conveyed this same concern to the Conference Sessions Committee as we look ahead to the 1993 Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference. I attend the Division of Mission and Education/Cultivation Committee meetings, as well as all B.O.G.M. and C.C.O.M. meetings unless illness or pastoral emergencies interrupt me. I attended the Northeastern Jurisdiction Gathering of Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries where there is sharing of ideas, mission site visits, and information from the staff of the General Board. I also attended the Vital Ministry Ambassadors Orientation at Drayton.

Jerome R. DeVine
Secretary

1993 GOALS

1. To continue working with individuals, groups, congregations, Conference Boards, etc. in understanding and becoming involved in the work of the General Board of Global Ministries, and with local mission-outreach opportunities.
2. To work closely with B.O.G.M. members and the Conference Arrangements Committee to develop a mission focus for 1993 Annual Conference; theme: "Celebrate and Witness--A Global Challenge!".
3. To work closely with the Division of Missions to: 1) itinerate U.M. Missionaries, esp. Fall 1993; 2) develop a V.I.M. project for Peninsula U.M.'s; 3) select Mission Interpreter trainees; 4) promotion of Advance Specials, covenant relationships, and UMCOR appeals.
4. To be a resource in developing video and print materials interpreting General and Conference Advance Specials.
5. To work with the Council Director and Mission Education/Cultivation Committee in implementing the Global Mission Partners program.
6. To work once again with the Associate Council Director for Spiritual Formation to develop a continuing education event with a mission focus.
7. To participate in a continuing education opportunity that will expand my knowledge, awareness, and skills in the area of global missions so I can better help the Peninsula Conference.
8. To attend the "Global Gathering 1993" in Indianapolis, IN.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION

The primary purpose of this committee is to design and implement programs and resources which will communicate the mission outreach ministries of the United Methodist Church, at the General and Annual Conference levels, and to cultivate the involvement of local congregations in the Peninsula Conference.

Jerome R. DeVine
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. To implement the Global Mission Partners' program of the G.B.O.G.M. which "invites missionary covenant congregations to take one more step forward".
2. To develop a video tool which will communicate in an effective, timely, and motivating manner the mission priorities of the Peninsula Annual Conference. This, along with brochures and ideas for use, would be distributed on each district for use in local congregations/charges.

3. To work closely and diligently with all of the Divisions of the Conference B.O.G.M. in carrying out "Celebrate & Witness -- A Global Challenge!", a major mission emphasis during the 1993 Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

DIVISION OF PARISH AND CONFERENCE MINISTRIES

This was a year of new beginnings. In early 1991, the Board of Global Ministries structure was transformed, and as a result of this restructuring, the Division of Parish and Conference Ministries was born.

During most of 1991, the Division wrestled with what God is calling the Division to do. The results of that wrestling are reflected in our 1993 goals, which will also shape our efforts for 1992.

The Division also supported the work of the Nueva Vida Church, a ministry with the Hispanic community in and around Wilmington. This support enabled the congregation to continue its important work.

Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Ministry to a changing population: to help develop and sustain ministry with emerging ethnic groups within the bounds of the Annual Conference. The target audience are the emerging Hispanic, Haitian, Korean, and other ethnic communities in Delaware and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. There are two main goals: to continue to solidify the foundation of the Nueva Vida Church in terms of finance and mission, and to begin the process of addressing the ministry needs of other ethnic groups.
2. Mission consultation: to act as mission consultants with congregations of the Annual Conference. The goals are to help congregations evaluate the mission needs of their communities and then to help congregations develop and implement a mission plan. The Division hopes to consult with four congregations in 1993.
3. Cooperative ministry: to help congregations in both urban and rural areas work together to minister in ways that they cannot do alone. The program will have two components: to encourage each district to designate an area of focus for urban ministry and to develop and implement long-term cooperative ministry. The Division hopes to encourage at least one new cooperative ministry in 1993, which then may act as an encouragement for additional ministries.

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE, INC.

Neighborhood House, Inc. is thankful to those caring persons who support the agency both as volunteers, with gifts of time and effort and as contributors, with gifts of money and material.

The year of 1991 was an exciting and busy one. We accomplished a number of goals. The most challenging one was raising $2.3 million to construct a new multi-service community center in 1992. 3,186 unduplicated clients were served through a wide range of human services and programs with the age distribution ranging from 0 - 84 years, 33% of those served had annual household incomes of $5,000 and below.

There was an increase in service to households in the $30-50,000 range mainly through Housing Services where the request for assistance with mortgage defaults and rental assistance nearly doubled the previous year.

Indication of a depressed economy was evident in many of our services. Food Closet usage increased 32%. We were able to fulfill the need because of increased donations of canned goods, a grant from the Bonner Foundation, State of Delaware Food Closet Credit Program, Food Conservers Emergency Program and Neighborhood House's budget.

The State of Delaware froze the Child Care Purchasing Program for the year. Those families who qualified for the subsidy were placed on a waiting list which helped to contribute to a 24% drop in enrollment in the Child Care Program.

The tough economic times also affected the Employment Service Program which had an increase of non-professionals and professionals seeking employment, most of the requests from employers were for short term and part-time work.

Program Highlights:

New Castle County Community Development and Housing awarded Neighborhood House a grant for counseling to help low and moderate income persons within New Castle County achieve home ownership. The grant enable Neighborhood House to expand its housing activities to target suburban renter households with incomes below 80% of the area median income including Section 8 renters.

Empowerment of the Black Family Workshops conducted by Dr. Alvin L. Turner, licensed Psychologist.

ABC 4-H Club member Christine Tymes was named a state winner for Leadership project and was one of eight New Castle County state winners to attend National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Illinois.

The 4-H Club operated a Roadside Stand/Lawn Care Project in conjunction with the University of Delaware Cooperative Extension Service during the summer and sold mums and pumpkins in the fall.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Neighborhood House is to enable the people in and around South Wilmington to improve individually their quality of life and to develop cooperatively a better neighborhood. People with different backgrounds join as partners, continuously seeking opportunities to overcome individual and community problems. We believe we can help most effectively by keeping a high priority on enhancing the functioning of the family unit.

Better housing, family unity, education and counseling, recreation, neighborhood development, racial and cultural relations, as well as spiritual and emotional enrichment are important aspects of programs which meet the various and changing needs of the people.

Neighborhood House, Inc. (NHI) is a community center that stands in the heart of South Wilmington, Delaware. It is an independent non-profit agency related to the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church, and is governed locally by an inclusive, autonomous, predominantly lay Board of Directors, which is a cross-section of people from the Church, Community, and South Wilmington. Major financial support is received from The United Methodist Church; the United Way of Delaware; the federal, state, and city governments; and individual and business contributions.

Wayne F. Brown
Executive Director

1993 GOALS

1. Promote community and economic development.

2. Provide a range of services and resources to help families and individuals develop long-term solutions to their problems and needs.
3. Promote and provide counseling and assistance in obtaining long-term employment.
4. Promote and provide educational and training opportunities for children, youth, and adults.
5. Promote and provide recreational, cultural, and enrichment opportunities and programs.
6. Increase housing opportunities for low and moderate income families in and around South Wilmington.
7. Broaden the base and improve the quality of financial, physical, and human resources available to Neighborhood House.

PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST HOMES, INC.

The following information about Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. is printed because the Conference has a common missional interest with Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

(A Covenant of Affiliation Between Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., and the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, adopted June 1985.)

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. is a dynamic organization committed to a thirty-year plus tradition of excellence in retirement and health care service. PUMH introduced the concept of continuing care retirement communities to the Delmarva Peninsula with the 1960 opening of the Methodist Country House in Wilmington, Delaware. Just six years later in 1966, PUMH added the Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware to its family as services were expanded to those in the southern part of the state. In 1978, PUMH dedicated Cokesbury Village in Hockessin, Delaware, to serve an even more active and independent older adult population. The organization's long history was complemented by the addition of two PUMH-managed facilities, the Layton Home, a 108-bed nursing care facility in Wilmington under PUMH management since 1987, and Heron Point of Chestertown, Maryland, a continuing care retirement community which opened in 1991.

In its five communities, PUMH serves approximately 1,100 men and women over the age of 60 and employs about 950 people. The total assets of the corporation and the five facilities are approximately $115,000,000 and the annual cash flow is approximately $33,000,000.

The PUMH story is one of vision, determination and history, all underscored with the knowledge that, as an industry leader, this organization is responsible for establishing the highest quality guidelines and the most sincere dedication to those being served.

PUMH is grateful to the many generous friends who in 1991 contributed $353,744 for benevolence assistance to limited income residents and the endowment fund. We are pleased to note that the 1991 Conference grant of $90,000, combined with Mother's Day Offerings of $29,269, and other gifts provided benevolence funds to 37 Country House and Manor House residents whose financial resources do not enable them to meet the full cost of care. Of the 37 receiving assistance, 20 are United Methodists; 2 are widows of United Methodist ministers. On behalf of all of the recipients, PUMH is most appreciative of these gifts.

Committed to excellence in all endeavors, PUMH is proud to own and operate the only three continuing care retirement communities in the State of Delaware to earn accreditation by the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission (CCAC) of the American Association of Homes for the Aging. Methodist Country House, Methodist Manor House and Cokesbury Village, share this prestigious honor with just over 100 other communities nationwide. The accreditation symbol is the hallmark of excellence in the long-term care industry and recognizes quality, stability and an exceptional standard of living for all residents. In addition, the Methodist Country House health center is the only long-term care facility in Delaware accredited by the Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Health Care Organizations (JCAHO).

On January 8, 1991, Heron Point of Chestertown welcomed its first residents, just a little more than one year after ground was broken for the first Maryland retirement community managed by PUMH. Bishop Susan M. Morrison participated in the traditional placing of the cornerstone and ribbon cutting ceremony to officially open Heron Point on Sunday, June 30. On this same date, the inaugural service of worship was held in Heron Point's Wesley hall officiated by PUMH President the Reverend Richard C. Stazesky and the Reverend Glenn P. Catley of First United Methodist Church, Chestertown. Wilmington District Superintendent, the Reverend Dr. James T. Seymour, and the Reverend Barry Steiner Ball also participated in grand opening festivities.

PUMH developed Heron Point acknowledging that the land and the water, the flora and the fauna were here first. And so it was a particularly special honor for the corporation to receive a Governor's Citation from the Chesapeake Bay Critical Area Commission for the "exemplary" development of Heron Point along 66 acres of the Chester River which left 32 surrounding acres of wetlands untouched.

A master renovation plan for the Methodist Manor House, started in the summer of 1990, includes the construction of detached, duplex, and clustered cottages and the conversion of six wings of single rooms into one- and two-bedroom apartments. The project also includes the creation of two personal care wings and an enlarged health center dining and activities area. Public areas such as the dining room, gift shop, main lounge, hallways and multi-purpose room/chapel have been renovated.

PUMH broke ground at the Manor House on June 4, 1991 for a 17-bed wing to serve residents with Alzheimer's disease and memory related disorders. Funded by a $1.2 million capital campaign, this 8,200 square foot expansion will incorporate the latest design and engineering innovations for the treatment and care of those in the early and middle stages of the disease.

Construction is scheduled to begin in May 1992 on a two-story apartment building at the Manor House which will contain 18 spacious two-bedroom apartments.

In an effort to meet the changing needs and desires of today's retirees, Methodist Country House embarked on a master plan to create larger, more independent apartments, and to refurbish public areas. Proposed renovations beginning in the Spring of 1992 could add 73 new apartments and an 18-bed personal care wing to the Methodist Country House over the next three years. The A-North wing of existing single studio units was recently renovated into spacious one- and two-bedroom apartments. Plans also include the refurbishment of the dining room and main lounge, foyer, restrooms and health center activity and physical therapy rooms, as well as the facility's main entrance.

Cokesbury Village continues to earn accolades for the service it provides to all residents, particularly to those with Alzheimer's disease and related memory disorders in its 18-bed Sussex Wing. Recognized as a model program, Cokesbury's health center is gaining recognition throughout the industry as a leader in long-term health care services.

Residents in all PUMH facilities take an active role in the life of the community through participation in the resident councils and in various activities programs. At Cokesbury Village, residents raise thousands of dollars through semi-annual white elephant sales and their ongoing Atrium Gift Shop project to continue to provide excellent cultural and educational programming for Villagers and friends from the surrounding community.

Layton Home celebrated 99 years of service to Wilmington's low-income elderly at an anniversary fund raising dinner April 27, 1991. Keynote speaker U.S. Rep. Kweise Mfume of Maryland opened his remarks by saying, "Layton Homes are rare", and reminding us that the care a society takes of its elderly is indicative of its moral fiber. PUMH agrees and is proud to be a part of this worthwhile service to the Wilmington community. The 100th Anniversary fund raiser is scheduled for May 1, 1992.

A $22,500 grant from United Way of Delaware provided seed money for Project V.I.P. (Valentine Intergenerational Program) at Layton Home. This intergenerational activities program involves teens working with residents enjoys a personalized activity with a young person each week. Layton Home is searching for the necessary funds to continue this program which is so worthwhile to both the residents and the youth who benefit from the experience.

PUMH's Aging Ministries Consultant, Diaconal Minister Naomi G. Winchester, continues to provide consultation to the Conference Older Adult Task Force and serves as a resource for congregations throughout the Conference seeking to establish older adult ministries. Workshops, co-sponsored by PUMH and the Peninsula Conference Division of Health and Welfare and the Older Adult Task Force, provided training and support for older adults and their care providers. For its outreach to churches in the Maryland counties of the Peninsula Conference, the PUMH Aging Ministries program received an award from the Maryland Office on Aging Senior Reach Program.

At the Annual Meeting of its Board of Trustees, PUMH presented the George H. Pigueron, Jr. Founder's Award to Trustee Robert D. Ullrich for dedicated service to the organization. Mr. Ullrich is a member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Wilmington.

PUMH President Richard C. Stazesky celebrated his 10th year of service as the organization's Chief Executive Officer. Prior to assuming the Presidency in 1981, Stazesky, a retired Peninsula Conference minister, served as a PUMH Trustee from 1965-1981.

As we work toward meeting our daily and long-range goals, we do so remembering the vision and faith of our founder, the Rev. George H. Pigueron, Jr., whose dream it was to establish a community of comfort and security for older adults in the Peninsula Conference.

Richard H. Rockwell
Chairman of the Board

Richard C. Stazesky
President

1993 GOALS

1. Enhance existing PUMH retirement and health care services to provide for the changing needs of current and future residents.
2. Strengthen the corporation and its management, including governance, operations, finance, marketing, and human resources.
3. Increase public recognition and support of PUMH's leadership role in serving older adults.
4. Broaden PUMH services to a larger and more diverse older adult population.

DIVISION OF MISSIONS

The primary purpose of this Division is to promote the support of the Advance Specials of the United Methodist Church, including Missionary Personnel, UMCOR, National and World Divisions, and Volunteers-in-Mission.

Don L. Novey
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Mission Interpreter Training: to provide partial scholarship to one or two persons to become part of a mission interpretation travel experience, who upon returning to the Peninsula Conference would be available to speak to local churches.
2. To offer C.E.U. partial scholarships to two clergy from each district to attend the 1993 School of Christian Mission.
3. To provide seed money and/or scholarship assistance for a Conference or District sponsored Volunteer-In-Mission project.
4. To hold four district missionary saturation events in the Fall 1993, encouraging each district to develop a covenant with a missionary.
5. To respond to emergency relief appeals from U.M.C.O.R. at least three times per year.
6. To create a brochure depicting the U.M. missionaries currently supported by Peninsula Conference congregations, and those Conference Advance Specials chosen at the 1992 Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry has experienced a year of transition. Dr. H. DeWayne Whittington found it necessary to step down from his position as Chairperson of the Board, which he has so ably filled for the last two quadrennia. The Board is grateful for the leadership and guidance he gave during his term.

In spite of this and other changes, we have been able to remain active. The Board initiated a special offering at the 1991 Conference for Africa University. Information about Scholarship and Loans, Campus Ministry, Africa University and the work of our Board and the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry has been shared with the Conference through the display at Annual Conference Sessions, and articles in The Communicator.

The Black College Fund was promoted by the Lena A. McCord, a Summer Intern who met with several churches.

Rev. Yusef Ahmed, Campus Minister at Delaware State College, travelled to Africa and the site of Africa University, with the National Association of Wesley Foundation Director's Study/Travel Seminar. The Board was pleased to give some financial backing for this trip.

A merit scholarship was awarded to a student at Wesley College, who is a candidate for Ordained Ministry.

Upon the request of youth members of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, the Board, Campus Ministers, and Chaplains provided a workshop for College Bound Christians at the 1992 Youth Rally in Salisbury, Maryland.

Local Church Pastors in Salisbury, Salisbury State University Officials, and Board members met and established the groundwork to begin a Campus Ministry there.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is looking forward to continued growth and challenge as it becomes more effective in its ministry.

C. Karen Moore
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Develop an integrated Communications Resource to provide information about scholarships, loans, and the work of the Board.

2. Evaluate Wesley Foundation at Delaware State College.
3. Support the Black College Fund by participating in the Summer Ambassador Program.
4. Promote and support the Africa University.
5. Establish a Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at Salisbury State University.
6. Promote United Methodist Student Day.
7. Designate and promote a Student Recognition Day.
8. Support and promote the Wesley Foundations at Delaware State College, University of Delaware, and the University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

WESLEY COLLEGE

Over the past years, I have opened my report to you by citing our most recent Fall semester enrollment figures. This year I am pleased to report that our Fall 1991 enrollment was a new record for full-time students - 920. This means that three of the four highest enrollments in the 120-year history of Wesley College have occurred over the past three years. The credit for this achievement must be shared by every component of the College, from admissions to maintenance, from the faculty to our student life professionals.

On hand to help educate our students (which numbered 1350 by headcount) were fourteen new faculty members. They are: Tony Armstrong, Political Science; Robert Contino, Nursing; Bettina Ferguson, Paralegal; Richard Kashmar, Chemistry and Physics; Paul Korrol, Computer Science; William Kroen, Biology; Lynn Lofthouse, Speech Communications; Jeffrey Mask, Religion and Philosophy; Joseph Nadel, Psychology; Patricia Patterson, Education; Dennis Shah, Computer Science; Charlotte Staelin, History; Barbara Alexander, Nursing; Vanessa Megee, Fashion Marketing.

We also are pleased to welcome Dr. William A. Seymour as our new Dean of Students. Dr. Seymour came to us from Austin College in Sherman, Texas. A native of New York, he earned his Ph.D. degree in Higher and Adult Education from the University of Missouri-Columbia. In his short time with us, Dr. Seymour already has made a major, positive contribution to campus life.

In several ways, 1991 saw the continuation of favorable trends. There was a budget surplus for the eighth consecutive year. Our operating deficit was reduced again and has been reduced 65% since 1983. In other ways, we celebrated new successes. The Office of Continuing Studies, led by Mr. Tom Welch, experienced dramatic growth. Comparing the Fall 1991 and Fall 1990 figures, there was an increase of 62% in gross revenues and an increase of 83% in net revenues.

Along with the successes, 1991 was a time of controversy for Wesley revolving around the dismissal of five faculty members this past summer. Most of you became aware of the situation through the news and print media. I am legally bound to remain silent about the specifics of the dispute, but I can share with you the statement that was released to the press by the lawyers of both parties in the dispute. It reads as follows:

Wesley College, Lucille Koon, William Passwaters, Ronald Starnes, Barry Reber, Frank Fry, and Samuel Johnson have reached a mutually agreeable settlement of all claims relating to their discharge from Wesley College. The specific terms of this settlement are confidential and the parties are prohibited from disclosing said terms.

William Passwaters, Ronald Starnes, Barry Reber, Frank Fry, and Samuel Johnson have agreed to waive reinstatement as part of the settlement. Lucille Koon was previously reinstated by the Board of Trustees and will return from a sabbatical with the beginning of the Spring Term. No further comments can be made by any of the parties.

In the aftermath of that difficult time for the College, the Board of Trustees, under the leadership of Chairman John Jardine, acted to open new channels of communication between the faculty and the administration. A specially appointed Trustee panel, composed of Senator Myrna Bair, the Reverend Clifford Armour and the Reverend Dr. Edwin Thomas, met individually and/or in small groups with every member of the faculty. From those sessions, the Trustee panel produced a document which listed all of the faculty concerns expressed and proposed certain actions to begin to address those concerns. Their recommended actions were adopted by the Executive Committee of the Board, and have been put into effect in this Spring of 1992.

Specifically, the Board, with the enthusiastic concurrence of the President, appointed a special communication committee consisting of the three trustees who heard faculty concerns, the two faculty members selected by their colleagues to be faculty observers to the Board, and three administrators, namely, the President, the Academic Vice President and the Dean of Students. This committee will meet monthly to discuss issues of mutual concern until the new academic year convenes in the Fall of 1992. Monthly progress reports to the Executive Committee will be made and a final report will be received by the full Board in the fall.

Additionally, the Board, at the request of the President of the College, appointed an internal issue resolution committee consisting of six members of the President's Cabinet, the five Division Chairs and the remaining faculty observer to the Board of Trustees. The committee is charged with resolving less complicated issues between faculty and administration and proposing mechanisms for the resolution of long-term and complex issues. This committee shall report initial progress to the full Board in March and render monthly reports to the Executive Committee of the Board thereafter.

The Board also endorsed a recommendation that the President and his Cabinet set aside monthly informal meetings for faculty and students so that the concerns of both may be heard and internal dialogue and information sharing facilitated.

I am confident that these and other measures undertaken to improve communication with professional and support staff will hasten the healing process at Wesley College. We must now turn our full energies and attention to the future. With generous and helpful counsel from Bishop Susan Morrison, we are committed to playing an increasingly active role in our local community and in the state and region. Through our Education Department and the Ethnic Minority Recruitment Task Force, we have established working relationships with the Capital School District in Dover. As I write this report, we are looking forward to hosting a Youth Leadership Conference on April 16, 1992, which is sponsored by an advisory committee of the district chaired by your own Geraldine Jones. Student-teachers from Wesley have begun participation in a tutoring program for local youth, and some of our students will be doing their practice teaching at the Central Middle School.

Our challenge as a church-related institution is to rise from the difficult days of our immediate past, learn from the experience, and get on with the tasks at hand. We, of the Wesley community, are pleased that in this time of economic doldrums nationwide, our College is celebrating record enrollments. Our financial strength and stability place us in a position to move confidently into the future in the pursuit of excellence.

WESLEY FOUNDATION - DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at Delaware State College continues to be a vital part of campus life. The program remained basically the same as last year, with few exceptions. As director of the Foundation, I have continued to seek out United Methodists on campus offering friendship, support, and providing opportunities for fellowship and faith development, through the Foundation's program.

Opportunities for group fellowship, discussion, Bible study and faith sharing, support and encouragement have been provided through social hours. The Foundation has participated in the United Campus Ministry, an ecumenical inclusive approach to ministry on the campus.

The Foundation continues to work closely with denominations, e.g. Baptists, Episcopal, Pentecostal, through the United Campus Ministry, in managing and resourcing the Center which is provided by the college and by all religious groups on campus for counseling, Bible studies, group discussion, etc.

Yusef Ahmed
Director

1993 GOALS

1. To provide participants of Wesley Foundation opportunities and resources for spiritual formation and personal development through weekly Bible Study, prayer and fellowship hour.

2. Strengthening of Peer Ministry on campus via Coordinator/Liaison among students. To identify and reach out to United Methodists and all other interested students, to encourage involvement in the Wesley Foundation, coordinate activities, and provide an on-campus presence and liaison for the Foundation.
3. To work and fellowship with other churches and religious groups in United Campus Ministries Ecumenical program, providing ecumenical and interfaith experiences, and opportunities for inclusiveness in worship, study, and witness on campus.
4. To enable the Wesley Foundation participants to share Christian fellowship, dialogue, etc. with their friends and non-churched persons through the Wesley Foundation.
5. To motivate and encourage positive involvement at home, church, and school.
6. To project a Christian attitude toward and with peers at home, church, and school.
7. To encourage post and secondary education.
8. To support each other mentally, physically, academically, and spiritually.
9. To create a better relationship with the church and the school through the cooperative in the community and university.

WESLEY FOUNDATION - UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware seeks to serve the campus community by meeting people in the community where they are. The campus community is diverse. The students who come through the doors of Newark United Methodist Church to attend Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry are diverse. They have different faith journeys, different families of origin, different faith traditions, different quests in life (personally and spiritually). Yet they are alike - or at least their need to be part of the church is a similarity. Also, their desire to be in a safe place, to be who they are, loved for who they are, and nurtured for who they are, is obvious.

The Mission of Spiritual Life is to develop a deeper, personal relationship with God. The students, faculty, staff, or administrators have the opportunity to worship weekly with the congregation of Newark United Methodist Church. After worship, we gather for fellowship where we discuss issues of concern. The discussions are rooted in scripture and challenge us to look at new and fresh approaches. Some of these discussions have been: Interracial Dating, Christians' Response to Rape, the Trinity, Prayer, Sacred Space, Time, Place, Native American Spirituality and Christian Spirituality, Indigenous Perspective on the Columbus Arrival, and Gifts from God. We have shared in a dialogue with the Jewish community, Hillel, as we grow in our understanding of Judaism.

The students have been provided with meditation material for Advent, Lent, final exam week, and other materials which are available in the Student Lounge. Active students' parents have received a booklet of devotional readings and prayers to help in their transitional period.

Each week a group of students gather for Covenant Discipleship Group while another group gathers for Bible Study. We also have some students who are student leaders of an ecumenical Bible Study on campus.

Retreats are a vital part of our spiritual growth. We have shared in three retreats a year. The topics vary upon the need which arises out of student discussions and concerns.

One of the main focuses of our spiritual aspect is the Ministry of Presence. I am here for the students first and foremost. Then I am here for the remainder of the campus community. The students frequent the Student Lounge where a Ministry of Hospitality is provided. A Ministry of Presence cannot be measured by any figures. A Ministry of Presence is just that, being present for, with, and to those God and the Church sends me to be with.

The mission of service is to provide opportunities for reaching those in need. The students embrace this ministry so deeply. They have assisted with a soup kitchen, a food cupboard, Food Conservers, adopt-a-highway, and UMCOR's Emergency Soviet Food Lift. We joined with other campus ministry units to do a workday in Wilmington through Friendship House. We worked in five transitional houses for a day.

The Angel Tree Project was the joy of the Christmas Season as the students shared their love with a child. Earlier in the fall the students led the collection of furniture and other household items to help a woman and her children establish their own home.

The mission of stewardship is witness to the glory of God's creation and how we share the sense of God as the Giver of all things. One important aspect of campus ministry is to help students learn how to become active lay persons in the church -- just what is it to be a disciple of Jesus the Christ. Through encouragement, students take on leadership roles within the unit to keep the student ministry moving forward.

We are affirming the call of a current Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry student into the ordained ministry. Stacey Hitch has been approved by her home church's charge conference to proceed with the preparation into the ordained ministry. She will be entering Wesley Theological Seminary the Fall of 1992. Two other current students are exploring the possibility of their individual calls into the ordained ministry. Campus ministers become the catalyst for college and university students who are struggling with God's call upon their lives. Campus ministry provides the environment to explore God's call into professional ministry.

The mission of the social aspect is to foster a community of faith in fellowship with each other - in other words, to play together. That we do. We have traveled to an Amy Grant Concert, held movie nights, had dinners, gone to plays, gone to sports events, and keep in touch with all that is happening with a monthly newsletter. As mentioned before, we offer a Ministry of Hospitality by keeping a cookie jar filled, a loaf of bread with a jar of peanut butter and jelly, and a basket of candy and fresh fruit. A tummy filled is a heart which will open to hear and feel the presence of the Holy Spirit working in one's life.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware is a vital part of the Church in the midst of a secular institution. Because we are one of the many branches of the main vine, we dance in the breezes as we hold firm to the Center. We continue to be accountable to the Peninsula Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. We offer diversity, acceptance, love, grace, the presence of the Church in the midst of a secular institution by the example of Jesus the Christ. In His model, He walked among and with the people of His day! So do we!

Laura Lee Wilson
Director

1993 GOALS

1. To provide full-time pastoral leadership and opportunity for spiritual growth to the University community.
2. Find the means and method of additional fund raising.
3. Continue to develop a relationship with the ethnic groups, i.e. African-Americans, Asian-Americans, on campus.
4. Continue a visible presence on campus to students, staff, and administrators.
5. Invite students to consider professional ministries as their vocations.
6. Continue to encourage and support students who are in process for ordination or consecration.

7. Provide opportunities for students to become effective lay members of the local church.
8. Continue the active participation in service projects within the community-at-large.

BOARD OF LAITY

The Conference Board of Laity has spent lots of time, energy and money to bring our Lay Speaking Programs in line with The Book of Discipline requirement. A Conference Lay Speakers Committee, under the leadership of Howard Mason, was set up to offer guidelines and help to each District Director of Lay Speaking. This has enabled the committee to correlate the times of each district school allowing the Certified Lay Speakers to cross district lines for their advance training. Also a 1/2 credit toward recertification will be given for attending either the Conference Lay Speaker Seminar, a day event, or the United Methodist Women School of Christian Mission. The annual Lay Speaker Seminar was held at Trinity United Methodist Church in Frederica, Delaware on November 23, 1990. The response of the lay leaders was good and the three workshops were well attended. These included: The Gospel of John by Rev. Lawrence Livingston; Call To Worship by Rev. Joshua Lebelo; and Teaching and Preaching by Howard Mason.

The Annual Conference Laity Banquet was held at the Modern Maturity Center in Dover on May 22, 1991. Again about 600 lay and clergy joined in fellowship to celebrate Christ in our lives. A welcome by Bishop Susan Morrison, presentation of the St. Barnabas Awards by Rev. James B. Jones, followed by an evening of songs with Cynthia Wilson-Felder was well received. The air was filled with thanksgiving and promise, gratitude and praise, joy overflowing. Thanks be to God!

The Board worked with the Council Director, Rev. Harvey Manchester, Jr., to prepare a process allowing the laity to submit names for nomination for election to General Conference. The day that Annual Conference began, a time was set aside to meet with these men and women.

The Board refined the Constitution and By-Laws to be presented to all the lay members of the 1992 Annual Conference so we can establish a procedure for the roles of the Conference Board of Laity and the District Board of Laity.

The Board held a "Day Apart" at Drayton in conjunction with the District Boards of Laity to work on goals and task for the future. This year we worked together to put together a program for training local church lay leaders in all of our districts. This should enable the laity of our churches to better serve and promote faith as we move out in action.

The four Districts are offering opportunities for training, for sharing, for fellowship and worship throughout the year with activities such as District Banquet and Lenten Breakfasts.

As I move around the Conference and have a chance to meet the people of God, I am impressed with what the laity are doing or should I say, what God is doing through the people of Peninsula Conference. Let us pray the Spirit will continue to flow through all of us so the Will of God will be done, Here and Now.

Dolly Brittingham
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. To do Local Church Lay Leaders Training on a continuous basis.
2. To continue with Lay Speakers Schools in each district so as to equip the laity in leadership skills.

3. To provide training for strengthening the role of the Lay and Reserve Member of Annual Conference.
4. Work with the District Boards of Laity to promote community among the laity of the Conference.
5. To uphold and support both United Methodist Men and the United Methodist Women with their endeavors.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

1991 was a year of change for the Board of Ordained Ministry in many respects. We were able to put into motion certain transitional features which originated in 1990. These changes included a new chairperson and new vice-chairperson; new standing committee chairpersons, in some cases; a new process for interviewing candidates for ministry; new efforts to align our committees with those of the General Church in terms of titles and job descriptions, and a new thrust in the Professional Growth Seminars.

Because there has been a liberal and repeated shower of praise and appreciation for the processes of the different approach to interviewing candidates, I believe that the committee, which undertook this task, deserves singular recognition. Thank you Jim Van Der Wall, Rudolph Garmes, Eleanor Dasch, Glenn Catley, and Chair, Raymond Hopkins. Your thoughtful and painstaking efforts resound with accolades from those who understand the anxiety of the process.

The new interview process has three phases to it: 1) an informal mixer with BOOM members and candidates to get acquainted. This mixer has no stressful or formal structure, and the candidates are able to relax, feel comfortable, and get to know BOOM members; 2) a day for interviews. Candidates meet with small groups of BOOM members, one group at a time, to discuss particular areas of ministry, and later with the entire Board where each group reports impressions and findings; 3) The third stage is a day for all candidates and BOOM members to retreat together. The purpose of the retreat is to allow candidates to share and reflect on the call to ministry with BOOM members as colleagues. BOOM will again honor anniversaries since ordination as deacons as a method of affirming the value of each minister.

Over the past five years, the Professional Growth Seminars have focused on cross-racial appointments. The last one was held October 15-17, 1991. The evaluation of these seminars suggests that the direction for BOOM and ministers of the Conference is to adopt the theme: "Serving the Church in a Multi-Cultural Society." Two other areas of significant interest are: 1) the recruitment of people for ministry. Twenty-five inquiring persons attended the workshop in Dover on December 27, 1991; 2) The Scholarship Committee of BOOM was able to assist students in colleges and seminaries with a total of $34,672.

Looking ahead in 1992, there are some projected plans which the Board hopes will help to make us more effective as a supportive and monitoring group.

Already in motion is a survey team led by Vice-Chairman Jonathan Baker which will review job descriptions of the Board's committees. Professional Growth Seminars will structure continuing education events which will enable ministers in the Conference to understand that multi-culturalism is essential for pastors if they are going to effectively lead churches in this pluralistic nation in the 1990's and beyond. The seminars may be offered eight times during the next four years.

The Recruitment Team hopes to interest former students of seminaries and theological schools to return and help recruit prospective minister from their alma maters. Of the 45 persons who responded to the "Steps Into Ministry Day" only 25 attended. The Board will be encouraged to hold shorter sessions in different locations in the Conference in the hopes of facilitating those who are interested in ministry.

A matter of grave importance is the fact that for 1992 many budget cuts were made, and scholarships have been severely curtailed. Students will receive less financial aid in 1992 than those who were helped in 1991.

A major goal of the Board of Ordained Ministry is to assist local pastors to develop a more practical understanding of United Methodist polity and the rudiments of worship and church life. BOOM will cooperate with seminaries and other schools in helping the denomination prepare leaders at the entry levels for the work of Christ as we approach the year 2000, and as we plan for effective ministry in the 21st Century.

Among those receiving severe budget cuts was Drayton Retreat Center in the area of Continuing Education assistance for ministers. The Board of Ordained Ministry will do everything possible to enable this valuable contribution made through the work at Drayton Retreat Center.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Peninsula Annual Conference Board of Pensions' responsibilities as stated by the 1988 Book of Discipline are: "having charge of the interests and work providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families and other church workers of The United Methodist Church, its institutions, organizations and agencies with the Annual Conference, except as otherwise provided for by the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church."

Board Officers:

Olin J. Shockley, Jr., Chairperson
Marlene B. Elliott, Vice Chairperson
C. Edwin Lasbury, Secretary
Theodore W. Briggs, Treasurer

During the year, the Board of Pensions, comprised of a dedicated, competent group of women and men, lay and clergy, representing a variety of professions and backgrounds, has diligently sought to fulfill its duties and responsibilities as prescribed by The Book of Discipline and by Conference actions. In all its deliberations and actions the Board has attempted to be sensitive to the needs and concerns of our 334 pensioners and ever aware and grateful for the effective and noble service they have given to our great church in the name and to the glory of our Christ. In all the Boards' deliberations great attention has been given to making sound financial decisions that assure the security of our pension program for the future. The Board is happy to announce that the Conference Board of Pensions and the General Board of Pensions portfolios are financially sound and have continued to grow.

Our Conference's "benefits program" for retirees, spouses, and dependents, that include pension for service rendered, health, dental and life insurances are mainline and compare favorably with other conferences throughout the denomination.

Pension Recommendations:

The Peninsula Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1993 be $280 per year of approved service.
2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received by a retired pastor or pastor on disability be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1993. (I.R.S. restricts this allowance to the pastor. The surviving spouse does not qualify.)

(The full text of this resolution may be found in the 1991 Conference Journal page 421-422. This full text will be printed in the 1992 Conference Journal.)

Clergy/Lay Insurance Committee:

For the past two years our health care costs have been contained to a minimal five percent increase and no benefits have been reduced. In the light of what is happening across the country with rising health care costs affecting all segments of our society, this is no small accomplishment. The committee has continued using the consultative services of the Johnson and Higgin Health Care Services. Their guidance has been helpful in our cost containment efforts.

Reminders:

1. Ministers appointed to the Peninsula Conference for the first time, must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in medical, dental, life, and pension programs.
 - A. Ministers leaving appointments in the Peninsula Conference, must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefit program.
 - B. Ministers incurring changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, death, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events.
2. Each pastor is responsible to keep the Conference Business Office and the General Board of Pensions apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary.
3. Local churches are reminded that they are responsible for the full cost of the family/dependent health/dental insurance program of their clergy family.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

1991 marks the first full year in which the Trustees' financial portfolio was managed by Mr. Sherman Townsend of Merrill Lynch of Dover. We are delighted to report that Mr. Townsend has shown great interest and considerable expertise in handling this account. Working under new guidelines established by the Trustees during the past year, our portfolio reflects stability and modest growth. We have disposed of some investments which were deemed marginal and have reinvested the funds in stocks and bonds offering more growth and less risk. Mr. Townsend met with us on two occasions during the past year, and I commend him for his efforts and attention to detail.

The Board has met two times this conference year to oversee property and financial matters assigned to its responsibility. It is a pleasure to report that members of The Board show a dedication to their responsibilities, and obviously take their membership seriously. We are delighted to report that we have been able to make a modest contribution towards assisting a local congregation in making its facilities more accessible to the handicapped.

The continuing concern remains the proper disposal and management of abandoned church property. Several locations have been recognized as woefully neglected and in need of proper disposition. The Board is undertaking to contact persons or groups interested in purchasing or maintaining these properties. The 1991 Conference year finds the Trustees being more intentional and aggressive in disposing of abandoned Conference property. Presently, we have placed two such properties on the market. We welcome any information or concerns regarding neglected or deserted churches, cemeteries, etc.

Again, we wish to express our appreciation to Mr. James B. Tyler, III of Georgetown, Delaware and to Mr. Charles B. Dashiell of Salisbury, Maryland for serving as Chancellors for The Conference in their respective states.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The primary responsibility of the Commission on Archives and History is the care of Barratt's Chapel and Museum. In this we depend heavily on the able and enthusiastic work of Lynn Hobbs, who assumed the duties of curator in February 1991.

Barratt's Chapel has been designated a Shrine of the United Methodist Church by General Conference. The Museum includes displays relating to the history of the Peninsula Conference, a research library, and the official archives of the Conference. The Chapel and Museum are open every Saturday and Sunday from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., and at other times by appointment with the curator (302-335-5544). Throughout the year the facilities are used by tourists, confirmation classes, school groups, genealogists, and people doing research on local history. The Chapel is also made available for weddings, funerals, and other special services and meetings. In 1991, over 3,500 people visited Barratt's Chapel and Museum for one reason or another.

The Commission sponsors two worship services a year at Barratt's Chapel. On the second Sunday of November, we celebrate the anniversary of the meeting of Coke and Asbury. This year's service featured Dr. William Williams of the University of Delaware, a noted author on early Methodism on the peninsula. Music was provided by the choir from Providence United Methodist Church, Elkton, Maryland. Each December, we also hold a Christmas Carol Service.

We are always concerned with the maintenance and improvement of the physical facilities at Barratt's. One very significant improvement in 1991, was the replacement of the screened porch with a new room, which will provide much needed space for the library. Another exciting possibility was opened up by the offer of a long-time supporter of the Chapel to fund the reconstruction of an eighteenth century-style vestry room on the Museum grounds. (It is known that such a building once existed at Barratt's, but the exact location and design are not known.) The addition of this new building would give a space for meetings and wedding parties separate from the Museum, and would allow the remodeling of the interior of the Museum to make it more useful for researchers and archival storage. The building of the vestry is presently in the planning stages. Expansion of the Museum collection is another continuing emphasis.

A special highlight of 1991 was the dedication of a state historic marker at the site of the Judge White house in Whiteleysburg, Delaware. This site has been designated a Conference Historic Site by the Peninsula Conference, and the Commission played a role in obtaining and dedicating the marker. The Commission also held a local church history writing contest, which drew entries from four Conference churches.

The Commission depends on endowments and gifts from churches and individuals for about two-thirds of its support. Also, we are always seeking new materials of historical interest to add to the Museum collection. If you are interested in making a contribution, please write: Barratt's Chapel & Museum, R.D. 2, Box 25, Frederica, Delaware 19973.

Philip C. Lawton
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Operate and maintain Barratt's Chapel, Museum, and Archives.
2. Celebrate the anniversary of the meeting of Coke and Asbury, the Declaration of Independence of American Methodism, on the second Sunday of November.
3. Sponsor a local church history writing contest using guidelines produced by the Commission.
4. Continue to expand Museum facilities and holdings.
5. Identify and train Local Church Historians.

6. Expand the collection of materials and memorabilia in the Conference Archives at Barratt's Chapel Museum.
7. Continue to work on a history of the Delaware Conference.
8. Sponsor a history colloquium sometime during the year at Barratt's Chapel.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

"The work of Christian unity is not an option for the Church. Ecumenism is as essential to the corporate life of the Church as sanctification is to the individual Christian".

The above is part of the message presented to our Annual Conference last year by the Rev. Dr. Gerald Moede, former General Secretary of the Consultation on Church Union. The Rev. Dr. Moede was invited by our Commission to speak to our Conference through the support of the General Commission on CUIC. In his address, he described the work and vision of the Consultation on Church Union (COCU) and certainly made clear the essential nature of ecumenism in the life of the Church today. After his address, our Commission presented a petition for General Conference to adopt the COCU Covenanting Proposal, which passed.

In addition, at last year's Annual Conference, our Commission recognized the work of the Rev. Dr. George Cora, former Executive Director of the Christian Council. We presented him with a gift of a shell, a reminder of the one baptism that ties us all together, in appreciation of his work in ecumenical issues, and he was recognized by the Conference with a standing ovation.

Will Turner, a member of our Commission, was sent to the National Workshop on Christian Unity in St. Louis in April. This is the main connection for our Commission to national and global ecumenical issues, as well as a time to meet with representatives from the General Commission on CUIC and from other conference commissions.

Our annual planning retreat was held at Drayton Retreat Center in September, in which we reviewed our work of the past year and planned for 1992. A presentation was made by Will Turner on the work of the 1991 National Workshop on Christian Unity.

In November, at the Adjourned Session of Annual Conference, our Commission planned the communion service which ended the conference, and members of our Commission were worship leaders for the service. The Order of Worship followed the Order for the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper which was produced by COCU.

In 1992, we have begun the publication of a quarterly newsletter entitled, "Ecu-Notes", mailed to all Pastors and Administrative Board/Council Chairpersons. It highlights ecumenical issues, presents program ideas, and reports on efforts of Christian unity around our Conference.

David Garrett
Chairperson

1993 GOALS

1. Attendance of a representative of our Commission at the 1993 National Workshop on Christian Unity.
2. Continued publication of "Ecu-Notes", our Commission's quarterly newsletter.
3. Gathering for our annual planning retreat in September at Drayton Retreat Center.
4. Continued support of the Christian Council of Delaware and Maryland's Eastern Shore.

5. Continued emphasis on the Covenanting Proposal of the Consultation on Church Union.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

The Commission on Equitable Salaries has continued to provide financial assistance to those pastors whose charges, for various reasons, are unable to provide the minimum compensation established by the Peninsula Annual Conference. In addition, the Commission continues to award financial supplements to those pastors whose special talents are required to effectively serve their respective appointments. In 1991, pastors in 38 charges received salary supplements of $84,236.10 plus pension fund contributions of $12,975.45 for a total of $97,211.55.

Minimum Salary

WHEREAS, the Commission on Equitable Salaries makes recommendations for minimum salary each year;

BE IT RESOLVED that for 1993 minimum salaries be:

Full-Time Elder	$18,900.00
Probationary/Associate	$17,200.00
Full-Time Local Pastor	$16,000.00
Student	$13,500.00

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that local charges consider one-half of the Social Security reimbursement based on salary and rental value of the parsonage.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the service increments be increased to a rate of $125.00 for every year of service to a maximum of 15 years.

Travel Reimbursement

Reimbursing pastors for miles traveled on church business is a policy established by this Conference. Therefore, the Commission recommends the following:

BE IT RESOLVED that the reimbursement for travel expense during 1993 shall be .28 cents per mile. In addition, we also recommend that pastors be reimbursed for tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of pastoral duties.

PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

This past year has been one of transition for your Foundation. Although we have functioned without an Executive Director since July 1, 1991, we have continued to serve effectively as a professional corporate fiduciary (investment manager, trustee, executor). Estate planning seminars have been held at several locations throughout the Conference, and numerous contacts have occurred with both current and potential clients.

While our goals have not changed -- to promote Christian stewardship through planned giving -- our focus this past year has been two-fold: (1) to continue our service to individuals, churches, and agencies of the Peninsula Conference, and (2) to assess the status of, and plan for the future of, this Foundation.

In regard to the second point, we have a vision for the Foundation that, if realized, will strengthen the Foundation immeasurably and will enable the Foundation to more effectively serve you and our church. To that end much time and energy have been expended in negotiating a merger with the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference Foundation. Consummating this proposed merger will provide a ministry of Christian stewardship that promises many possibilities and rewards for present and future ministry.

TRI-CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST CONSTRUCTION SERVICES, INC.

Throughout the last year, many Conference projects and churches have benefitted by the Tri-Conference United Methodist Construction Services, Inc. (TCCS, Inc.). TCCS, Inc. has assisted many churches on a consultation basis, providing direction and assistance with their building project programming and planning. TCCS, Inc. has also begun providing property and facility evaluations to churches. These evaluations assist Building Committees and Trustees in many ways, such as determining whether to renovate or relocate, establishing a priority list of repairs and maintenance programs, and aiding in the decision process of a potentially new property. Many cost effective measures and programs have been implemented through the direction of TCCS, Inc.

Projects using the full Project Management and Building Services of TCCS, Inc. for their building, renovation and repair programs were Camp Pecometh, Centreville, Maryland of Peninsula Conference; Providence Avenue UMC, Chester, Pennsylvania of Eastern Pennsylvania Conference; and Perryville UMC, Perryville, Maryland of Peninsula Conference.

Camp Pecometh was an eleven month project involving new construction of two identical two-level bunkhouse facilities. These bunkhouses are 6,871 square feet each, and provide full kitchen, bath, programming space and sleeping accommodations for up to 32 campers and 4 counselors each. They are all handicap accessible and are multi-functional.

Providence Avenue UMC was facing the possibility of closing, due to extremely high cost estimates for repair of the structural roof truss system of the 100 year old facility. It was originally recommended that the entire roof structure would need to be removed and replaced. TCCS, Inc. directed the Trustees towards other options and directions which resulted in a repair procedure which totaled less than one-tenth of the original estimates. TCCS, Inc. provided Project Management for the engineering study phase through the completion of the actual repair procedures which were completed within two weeks time. TCCS, Inc. worked closely with the Philadelphia Historical Preservation Corporation on this project to insure the restoration of the historical and structural integrity of this magnificent structure.

Perryville UMC was severely damaged in July 1991 when a gas explosion rocked the town of Perryville. The 100 year old church building, along with many other structures on the block was condemned. It was not known whether the structure could be saved or if it would have to be raised. TCCS, Inc. provided full service Project Management to the Trustees of the Church which entailed assisting them with their insurance negotiations and settlement, the bidding process, the engineering phase, the construction scheduling, and the on-site construction supervision of the project. The rebuilding process was completed within a 14-week work schedule and the congregation was once again worshipping in their "like new" sanctuary only seven months after the explosion.

These are just some of the many ways the Tri-Conference United Methodist Construction Services, Inc. (TCCS, Inc.) has assisted the many churches throughout the Tri-Conference area. TCCS, Inc. is providing a service that is based on experience, professionalism and good decision-making at a time that is often very emotional for the members of Building Committees and Trustees.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men of the Peninsula Conference continue to grow and prosper in all four districts. There still are some churches and charges that are not chartered according to The Discipline and these will be the focus of the District Presidents this year.

The Conference President, Joe Sipos, attended several Northeastern Jurisdiction workshops this year and also attended many meetings in the Conference to help promote our work.

Lewis Rogers, Salisbury District President, attended a workshop in Nashville for all District Presidents from around the country.

Ken Hilton, Wilmington District President, reports that he has had several district breakfast and dinner meetings with great enthusiasm and spirit-filled times.

David Carney, Scouting Coordinator, reports that there are 107 Boy Scout Units and 50 Girl Scout Groups.

Charles Zimmerman has been selected as the Conference Treasurer for the men.

The Men's Retreat at Camp Pecometh in September continues to be the highlight of our year. This year, there were 105 men in attendance led by the Rev. Charlie Barton as the Spiritual Resource Person. One of the sessions was worth a special note of appreciation and recognition, and that is to Bill Harmon of the Wilmington District for his Sunday morning worship service on the pier entitled "Trouble in the Barn".

We ask your continued prayers and support for the men of the Conference, and please work on your own church or charge to comply with the Book of Discipline to have the men chartered and organized.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

20 Years Growing in Mission

Happy Birthday
United Methodist Women

As we celebrate our twenty years and look forward to the next years, we remember the many ways we have "written" our history and touched the lives of others throughout the Peninsula Conference.

Let us highlight the important events in our Conference's history and identify some of our special leaders for 1991:

Spiritual Life Retreat led by the Rev. Lehman Tomlin.

School of Christian Mission at Salisbury State University - Dean - Louise Hess and Assistant Dean - Jean Barnes. Studies were: Japan, Living Values/Changing Times, and the Gospel of John.

Annual Meeting at St. John's United Methodist Church, Seaford, as over 200 participants shared the excitement of "Mirrors of the Spirit" from the National Seminar as told by Marsha Carpenter, Geraldine Jones and Beverly Slicer.

Spring Event - A Day Apart: "Nurturing our Spirituality" with Bible Study and Spiritual Leader, Mrs. Gwen White.

Committees on the Charter for Racial Justice Policies were organized by three of our four District Mission Teams (Dover, Salisbury, Wilmington).

N.O.T.E. (New Officers Training Event) in New York - "Acting out our Conversion". Peninsula Conference attendees were Doris Bose, Geraldine Jones and Theresa Stanley.

Women's Division meeting in New York (Financial Section) was attended by Carolyn Dorman and Geraldine Jones, and included the General Board of Global Ministries meeting highlight - an address by the Rev. Dr. Randolph Nugent.

Dean's School at Scarritt Bennett in Nashville, Tennessee, September 1991. Participants were Verlie Gaither and Louise Hess.

A two-day Leadership Workshop conducted by Women's Division Directors at Drayton Retreat Center. Participants were the four District Teams and Conference Mission Team.

Planning and Evaluation Retreat, November 16-17, 1991 at Drayton, for the purpose of organizing, planning and strategizing activities and programs for 1992-93.

D.O.T.E. (District Officers Training Event), November 1991. Theme: We've a Story to Tell to the Nations* included a visit by our Staff in Region, Ruth G. Prudente.

Our 1991-92 goals were included in the official Journal (1991) of the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. We will continue in faithful service toward the enactment of those goals.

What an exciting year past, and an eventful year pending. We invite United Methodists throughout the Conference to join the Celebration as we continue to share our stories of Mission and our stories of God's Love.

Geraldine Jones
President

1993 GOALS

1. Continue to work on increasing the membership of Peninsula Conference United Methodist Women by 5%, if possible, each year.
 1. Help organize one new unit per district each year
 2. Target -
 - a) Under Forty women
 - b) New church members
 - c) New families in the community
2. Continue to inform all United Methodists in the Peninsula Conference about the Charter for Racial Justice.

3. For Peninsula Conference School of Christian Mission, continue to strive for an increase to 200 participants in the School.
4. In local Units, promote the Five Star program of Undesignated Giving:
 - Pledge to Mission
 - Special Mission Recognition
 - Gift to Mission
 - Gift in Memory
 - World Thank Offering
 using articles in the Conference Enabler and District Newsletters.
5. Promote, through the Spring Event, enriching experiences to provide nurture, growth, enlightenment and renewal; and to encourage faithful outreach.
6. Acquaint United Methodist Women with the needs of incarcerated women and their children through workshops on District levels. The attendees will experience the unity of spirituality and social action.
7. Increase the distribution and number of subscriptions to the Enabler, which promotes conference activities and concerns of UMW. Such an excellent source of information should be read by the largest number possible.
8. Sponsor at least two legislative events at the district level, prior to the 1992 Presidential election.
9. Promote interest in the Reading Program by introducing some current selections through book reviews at the School of Christian Mission focus groups.

AREA COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee met in November 1991 and March 1992 to hear the report of Bishop Morrison on her activities, including her fall study leave and January Episcopal visit to Mozambique.

Data for the N.E. Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy questionnaire was gathered from agencies and individuals of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference and forwarded to the Jurisdiction Chairperson.

A petition to the 1992 General Conference was approved for recommendation to our delegates concerning Paragraphs 505 and 612 in The Book of Discipline.

Issues of concern to the Eastern Pennsylvania and Peninsula Conferences were discussed.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER THE CONFERENCE NAME

The 1991 Session of Annual Conference directed the Commission on Archives and History to establish a special committee to consider the name of Conference. The committee was directed to seek and obtain input from persons all across the Conference, and to report its recommendation to the 1992 Session of Annual Conference.

The Commission on Archives and History established the committee according to the guidelines set by Annual Conference. The membership of the committee was as follows: former Delaware Conference lay member, James C. Hardcastle; former Delaware Conference clergy member, W. Hayward Greene; former Peninsula Conference lay member, Mary Frances Cooke; former Peninsula Conference clergy member, J. Gordon Stapleton; Conference Council Director, Harvey Manchester, Jr.; Cabinet member, Charlotte A. Nichols; representative of Conference Trustees, S. Willard Crossan, III; representative of the Commission on Religion and Race, G. Kim Gilson; members of the Commission on Archives and History, Cora Selby (Vice-President), Lynn Hobbs, Kermit Cottman, Frederick Seyfert, Jr., Earle Baker (Secretary), and Philip Lawton (President).

An article about the study of the Conference name was published in The Communicator, and a letter and questionnaire were then mailed to all Pastors, Lay Leaders, Lay Members of Conference, and Administrative Board/Council Chairpersons. Two hundred and eighty responses were received.

The majority of those who responded to the questionnaire indicated that they are comfortable with the name "Peninsula", primarily because it has been in use for many years. At the same time, it became obvious to the committee that many of our people whose roots are in the former Delaware Conference do not feel that their identity and heritage are recognized in the present name. The issue for the committee then became not one of merely counting opinions, but rather of finding the best way, in a spirit of Christian love, to make all our people feel that they truly belong.

A secondary concern, raised by some, is that the name "Peninsula" does not adequately define our location to the General Church. (There are many peninsulas in the United States.)

The committee considered many possible alternative names for Conference. It was finally decided that the most logical and inclusive way of naming the Conference is simply to combine names of the two conferences which merged in 1965. Therefore, the committee is recommending that our name be changed to "Delaware-Peninsula Conference". This has the advantage of retaining the name "Peninsula" with which many United Methodists in both Maryland and Delaware already identify. It also recognizes the presence of the many members from the former Delaware Conference and the new identity that came into being with the merger.

C. MEMOIRS

CLERGY

Elizabeth Anne Milbury Goodrich

The Reverend Elizabeth Anne Milbury Goodrich was born on November 16, 1940 in Wilmington, Delaware when her parents, the Reverend F. Douglas and Lillian Alice Jasa Milbury, were serving Mt. Salem United Methodist Church. She was their second daughter and the third of their four children. Anne was christened before the congregation of Mt. Salem on April 4, 1941. She was proud to be a preacher's kid and enjoyed growing up in a succession of parsonages at Mt. Salem in Wilmington, Centenary in Laurel, Peniel in Newport, Dover (when her father served as the Executive Director of the Board of Education for the Peninsula Conference), and Calvary in Milford, Delaware. She was confirmed at Wesley United Methodist Church in Dover, Delaware on January 1, 1953. As a child and young adult, she contributed to the religious life of these churches by singing in their choirs and accompanying hymns on the piano.

Rev. Goodrich, who was ordained a Deacon by the Peninsula Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church on May 23, 1991, had served as the pastor of Friendship and Harmony United Methodist Churches in Millsboro, Delaware since August of 1990. She was entering her final year of seminary at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., having previously studied at Perkins Theological Seminary in Dallas, Texas from 1989-1990.

Anne was enthusiastic about her ministry and gave it all of her great energy and commitment. During her two years at Friendship and Harmony, she helped and touched many lives. She took as her motto in serving the church the words from "Here I Am Lord" -- one of her favorite hymns -- "I will go, Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart."

Anne received her bachelor's degree in German from the University of Delaware in June of 1962 and then spent a year in Vienna, Austria as a Fulbright Scholar. When she returned to the United States, in the summer of 1963, she was granted a National Defense Foreign Language Fellowship for graduate study in German at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. She completed her Master's Degree in June 1964. She taught German, French, and English at the Dover Air Force Base High School and Junior High School and at Caesar Rodney High School from 1971 to 1989 before being called to the ministry. She was named Teacher of the Year at Dover Air Force Base Junior High School in 1980.

Anne was a past president of the Delaware Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages and spearheaded a successful community effort in 1981 to preserve foreign language instruction in the Capital School District in Dover. She was also a candidate for the Capital School Board in 1982. She was a past president of the American Field Service Chapter in Dover and was a long-time member of the American Association of University Women. She was involved in educational, community, and religious affairs and was an active member of Wesley United Methodist Church in Dover prior to her entry into the ministry. Music was always important to her and she never lost her love for the piano and was always eager to attend concerts. One of her great pleasures in recent years was singing in the alto section of the Ocean Grove Choir at Ocean Grove, New Jersey.

Her first marriage to Robert Matson of Chicago in June 1965 ended in divorce in 1971. Her son Matthew David, born in September 1966, and her daughter Eva Marie, born in September 1968, were later adopted by her second husband, William D. Goodrich, whom she married on July 2, 1972 at Hartly United Methodist Church in Hartly, Delaware. The Goodriches had two more children: Anne Frances born in July 1974 and Sara Antonia born in April 1981. The family resided at 229 North Bedford Street, Dover, Delaware.

On June 23, 1992, on her way back to the parsonage, Anne's automobile collided with a tractor-trailer on Delaware 30 and Sussex 297, north of Millsboro, Delaware. She died of massive trauma sustained in the accident. Funeral services were held at Barratt's Chapel, Frederica, Delaware on June 27, 1992 and she is buried in the adjoining cemetery. The following day, parishioners from both of her churches conducted a memorial service for her at Harmony United Methodist Church in Millsboro, Delaware. Both services celebrated Anne's life and made it clear that acts of kindness were the way she witnessed to the goodness of God. Her ministry continues in the hearts of those who knew her, loved her, and drew strength from her faith so fully lived.

Robert Whittington Hastings

"I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me." Psalm 119:75

The Reverend Robert W. Hastings was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Emmanuel and Emily Hastings on February 3, 1913. However, because his mother died when he was very young, he was reared by his ministerial grandparents, the Reverend Goldsborough W. Hastings and his wife Martha. It was the influence of this home that led him later in life to enter the ministry.

Robert graduated in 1931 from Seaford High School in Seaford, Delaware. He completed his Bachelor of Science Degree in 1936 at the College of Charleston in South Carolina. Receiving his first appointment that fall in Farmington, Delaware, he married Madelyn Elizabeth Smith, his loving wife for fifty-four years. They were blessed with two children, Robert and Karen.

Ordained deacon in May 1940 and elder in May 1942, Robert went on to serve churches in Church Hill, Sharptown, St. Michaels and Pocomoke City, Maryland. He particularly loved working with youth and was active at both local and conference levels.

The year 1953 brought Robert's early retirement at age forty due to Parkinson's disease. Though he became progressively ill, for many years he maintained a keen interest in every phase of church and conference work. During this time, his former churches and the Conference were a source of strength and support and made every effort to let him and his family know they were loved and not forgotten.

On February 25, 1991, Robert entered the Church Triumphant. He was laid to rest in Blades Cemetery in Blades, Delaware.

Robert's memorial service was titled, "In Celebration of a New Appointment." The Reverend Charles E. Barton, Jr. spoke for many when he commented at the service that Robert's most significant ministry began when his formal ministry ended. His life was inspirational to family members and all those who worked with him. We are grateful for the privilege of sharing many years with him.

The Family

Hubert Francis Jicha, Jr.

Hubert Francis Jicha, Jr. was born on December 28, 1931 in Youngwood, Pennsylvania to Hubert Francis and Evalyn Bennett Jicha. His sister, Barbara, was born two years later. He spent his early years in Brooklyn, New York before the family moved to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, which he considered his hometown. Having a lifelong fascination with snakes, he planned on studying herpetology, however, the Lord had other plans. Under the influence of godly Sunday School teachers, Herb and Edwina Johnson at Pitcairn United Methodist Church, Hubert was converted in his senior year of high school, along with his entire family, under the ministry of the Jones Family. Mother Jones wrote the well-known hymn "In Times Like These, You Need A Savior". Four members of this Sunday School class entered the ministry.

Hubert entered Houghton College where he met and courted Patricia Kern of Milford, Delaware who became his wife in 1954. He attended Alfred University Seminary and they served together in Western New York and Erie Conferences. They had three children: Susan Patricia, Hubert Francis, III, and Lisa Dawn. Later they transferred to Peninsula Conference and served in Dover, Delaware and Perryville, Maryland, where Patty died of cancer in 1970.

In 1974, Hubert married Ellie and took four more children into his family - Amy, David, Kelly, and Cathy. We often joked about the fact that we were fortunate that we didn't duplicate any names or ages. All seven of our children graduated from college and four have Masters or Doctorate degrees. Three are married and we have one granddaughter, Emily. We ministered at Zoar United Methodist Church for 14 years.

Hubert loved Jesus and never confined his ministry to the church. He was active in community theater, Possum Point Players and Second Street Players, where he was everyone's pastor, and considered himself a missionary to Mr. Donut, where he said he found more backsliders than in church. He believed being a Christian should be fun, and he shared that joy wherever he went. His deep concern over the tragedy of abortion led to the forming of the Sussex County Crisis Pregnancy Center.

On July 30, 1991 Hubert had surgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital to close a hole in the artery of his brain. The Lord called him home after surgery.

A Service of Celebration and Homecoming was held at Sound United Methodist Church, Williamsville, Delaware with Rev. John Hobbs and Kenny Davis from North Carolina officiating. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery, Georgetown, Delaware. Resurrection to be announced.

Ellie Jicha

A Tribute To My Friend - Hubert F. Jicha, Jr.

How do you describe Hubert Jicha? I'm not sure you can -- you just experience him. He was a man who knew God and was known by God! Hubert Jicha was my friend and for all eternity, will be my brother. I met "J" about 13 years ago and the more time I spent with him, the more I loved and appreciated him and the ministry God had given him. "J" was an exhorter - a preacher! He was a gift to the Body of Christ that produced incredible joy! As you spent time with "J", the "Joy of the Lord" just sort of spilled out of you.

In God's economy, in the unfolding of the Kingdom, "J" was used as a springboard to open the Peninsula Conference and Southern Delaware, in particular, to the things of the Spirit. If "J" received a blessing, he wanted to share it with his people - he wanted them to experience the God he knew. He had the rare capacity to bring ministry into his church, and in a beautiful way, move to the background so others could be used as vessels of the Holy Spirit. As an evangelist who has preached in hundreds of churches, I can tell you the rarity of a Hubert Jicha. There was not a competitive bone in his body in ministry. If God was glorified, the Holy Spirit released, Jesus expressed, people healed, delivered, set free -- "J" didn't care who got the credit. Rare, wouldn't you say?

I am a life that was changed and enriched beyond measure through my relationship with "J", but I'm only one of hundreds and even thousands who will never be the same because of the gift of God affectionately known as "J". Zoar UMC was home for "J". We saw miracles of God in that little sanctuary; we heard singing that sounded like thousands of Heavenly Hosts gathered in that little place; yet in the smallness we experienced the vastness of God! Thank you Hubert Jicha -- you were not disobedient to the Heavenly vision!

I miss my time with Ellie and "J", but the vision of "J" doing his little dance with his hands lifted to the Lord will keep me until I dance with him before the throne of Grace! Friends are rare -- "J" was my friend!

Rev. John W. Hobbs

Edward Wesley Lee, Sr.

Hear my cry, Attend unto my prayers, From the end of the earth. I will cry unto thee. When my heart is overwhelmed lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Rev. Edward Wesley Lee, Sr., son of the late Archie L. Lee, Sr. and Mary Lena Wigfall Lee, departed this life Friday, May 22, 1992 at 2:10 a.m. in Deer's Head Center, Salisbury, Maryland at the age of 75.

He was born in Dames Quarter, Maryland where he attended elementary school. Later he attended Greenwood High School and Princess Anne Academy in Princess Anne, Maryland. He was also a student at the Pastor's School in Greensboro, North Carolina; Morgan State College, Baltimore, Maryland; Duke University, Durham, North Carolina; Salisbury State College, Salisbury, Maryland and Drew Seminary, Madison, New Jersey.

He entered into the ministry in 1941 at St. Paul A.M.E. Zion Church in Salisbury under the leadership of the late Thomas Coursey. While he was affiliated with the A.M.E. Conference, he was pastor at St. Michael's, Princess Anne and Delmar, Maryland.

He then joined the United Methodist Conference in 1951 of the Salisbury District and served on the following charges: Mt. Vernon, Maryland; Crisfield, Maryland; Salisbury-Quantico Charge consisting of churches in Hebron, Quantico and Wetipquin, Maryland. From this charge he retired after 27 years of service.

After retiring, he accepted the Christ (Airey) Waters (Fort Neck) Charge where he served four years prior to his illness.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia G. Lee, Hebron; one son, Edward Wesley Lee, Jr.; one daughter-in-law, Ann Lee; one granddaughter, Shauna Lee of Salisbury; two sisters, Mildred Tasker of Salisbury, Maryland, Rietta Williams, Fruitland, Maryland; one brother, Robert P. Lee, Salisbury, Maryland; four sisters-in-law, Lillian Bennett, Barbara Allen, Joanne Robinson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Minnie Lee of Madison, Maryland; one brother-in-law, Robert Page of Philadelphia, PA; five nieces, four nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leaving we now Thy servant sleeping.

The Family

Charles Leslie Reiter

Rev. Charles L. Reiter was born in Mt. Winams, Maryland, November 17, 1893, the youngest of five children born to William Frank and Elizabeth Lillian (Clark) Reiter. He died at home of cancer January 20, 1992, at the age of 98, and was buried in Springhill Memory Gardens, Hebron, Maryland, January 25, 1992.

On October 9, 1920, he was married to Anna Loretta Schuster in Monkton, Maryland. They had two sons and two daughters, still living.

After attending schools in and near Baltimore, he completed his high school education at Williamsport Seminary, Williamsport, Pennsylvania, 1912-1916, where he heard Billy Sunday preach. Later, while a pastor, he completed the five-year correspondence course.

Converted at the age of 11 at the Scott Street U.B. Church in Baltimore, he was called into the ministry while attending Pleasant Hill Methodist Church, Owings Mills, Maryland. As a lay person, he worked as a "trail hitter" secretary sixteen weeks in the Billy Sunday Baltimore Campaign in 1916, recording names, addresses, church affiliations, and talking to new converts.

One of his great loves was the hymns of the church. He spent much time researching stories of the hymns and authors, using them in the pulpit. He also had an active children's ministry, writing his own stories in addition to Bible stories. Billy Sunday had sparked his interest in evangelism, and he frequently preached his own revivals during his pastoral ministry.

He fought in the infantry in World War I, a war which led to the re-establishment of Palestine as homeland for the Jews. When he returned home, God rewarded his faithful service and sacrifice by giving him a Jewish Christian wife.

Serving in the Baltimore Conference M.E. South, he was ordained an elder in 1929. After unification in 1939, he served in the Peninsula Conference. His first charge was Maryland Line, Maryland, 1919-1920, followed by Levels, West Virginia, 1921-1922; Hardy, West Virginia, 1922-1924; Trappe, Maryland, 1924-1925; Millington, Maryland, 1925-1927; Clarksburg, Maryland, 1928-1930; Callaghan, Virginia, 1930-1931; Selma, Virginia, 1931-1934; Peterstown, West Virginia, 1934-1936; Winchester, Virginia, 1936-1937; Royal Oak, Maryland, 1937-1938; Tilghman, Maryland, 1938-1939; Oldtown, Maryland, 1941-1944; Bishop's Head, Maryland, 1944-1946; Wye Mills, Maryland, 1946-1947; East New Market, Maryland, 1947-1948. He retired in 1957 but remained active, preaching revivals and supplying pulpits until he was 97.

In the closing months of his life, his mind clear to the end, he frequently quoted a favorite scripture, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4:7

William Albert Scott, Jr.

The Reverend William Albert Scott, Jr. of Quantico, Maryland died March 16, 1992 at his home of cancer.

He was born in Lawrence, Kansas, son of the Reverend William Albert Scott, Sr. and Mrs. Dorthea (Frey) Scott of St. Louis, Missouri.

Scott attended Western Bible College in Kansas City, Missouri, Harris State College and Webster University in St. Louis. His theological studies were done at Perkins Theological Seminary in Dallas, St. Paul Theological Seminary in Kansas and Eden Seminary in Webster Grove, Missouri.

He pastored in Little Rock Conference in Arkansas, Kansas East Conference and Missouri East Conference. He has participated in radio ministries and ministerial alliance of De Queen, Arkansas and Carutherville, Arkansas.

Scott served as Chairman of the Peninsula Conference Commission on Religion and Race. He was a member of Peninsula Conference Cross-Racial Appointment Committee, Conference Council on Ministries and the Wicomico County Black Ministerial Alliance. At the time of his death, he was the pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Hebron, Maryland, Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Quantico, Maryland and Friendship United Methodist Church in Wetipquin, Maryland.

Rev. Scott's other memberships included the N.A.A.C.P., serving as a chaplain at the Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, and a substitute teacher for Wicomico County.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife Angeline Elaine (Fiddmont) Scott; his three sons, Gary Scott of St. Louis, Missouri, Bryant K. Scott of St. Louis, Missouri, James R. Scott of Quantico and one daughter, Angela Joi of Quantico; two brothers, Dr. Gregory M. Scott of Dover, Delaware and Mr. Danny Scott of West Germany; one grandson and several nieces and nephews. A sister, Alberta D. Shipley, died in 1975.

SPOUSES

Elizabeth Bjork Hill

Elizabeth Bjork Hill was born in Frewsburg, New York, on June 5, 1914 to Benley J. and Bessie (Swanson) Bjork. Although both of Mrs. Hill's parents had been born in this country, they were part of a Swedish-American community in Western New York State. Elizabeth's first language was Swedish; in fact, when she was baptized in Zion Lutheran Church on July 12, 1914, her baptismal certificate was in Swedish.

After high school, Elizabeth went to Fredonia Normal School (now State University of New York at Fredonia). Her 1934 diploma from Fredonia gave her life certification to teach in New York State, and she put her certification to immediate use, teaching 31 students in eight grades in a one-room school. Before long, she was teaching in the Frewsburg school which she had attended as a child.

Elizabeth loved travelling by bus. During the Depression, she made a cross-country bus trip alone. It was on this trip that she spent time helping some Lutheran Deaconesses working with Mexicans in Southern California. Out of that experience came her first book, A Purple Pig for Pedro (1943).

After 10 1/2 years of teaching, Elizabeth married Perry O. Hill, moved to the Peninsula Conference, and became a Methodist. In the years that followed, two children, Delight and Gretchen, were born to the Hills. Elsa's Lullaby (1953), a book based on Mrs. Hill's Swedish-American culture, was published. Mrs. Hill also augmented her husband's ministry in countless ways: writing programs, telling stories to Bible Schools, playing piano, teaching Sunday School--in short, offering God, as she had promised, "(her) prayers, (her) presence, (her) gifts, and (her) service."

Long-term interests included Nave Technical Institute, Lodhipur, India; UMCOR; and the Neighborhood House. Mrs. Hill worked as a volunteer at the CAP thrift shop and was a director of her local branch of NGA, Inc., a charity which gives new garments and linens for needy people. Her NGA specialties were sewing T-shirts and underpants and finding great bargains to stretch her tithe dollars as far as possible!

In addition to church work, travel, sewing, reading, writing, cooking, music, and art projects, Mrs. Hill also enjoyed camping; the Hills frequently camped in the Shenandoah National Park.

The Hills were proud of their four grandchildren: George and Edith Scouten and Lucy and Carol Davis.

Perry Hill died in 1983. In 1989, Elizabeth moved into the Methodist Country House, Wilmington, Delaware. She died there on March 26, 1992, after a long struggle with cancer. Her funeral at Richardson Park United Methodist Church was, as she had directed, a time of celebration and faith. Burial was in Taylor Cemetery, Taylor, New York.

Mrs. Hill's final literary project was her third book, Short Shorts: A Couple of Dozen Stories. She lived long enough to see and hold the newly published book.

Mrs. Hill, who wrote many devotional columns, including two years' worth for the "Aldersgate Messenger", once wrote about the importance of perspective for a Christian. She was excited about a trip to America by the King of Sweden. Perhaps one could see him! Then she remembered: we can talk to God every day! Isn't that even more thrilling?

Elizabeth Bjork Hill lived a life of joyous, faithful service to her Lord. The verse which seems to fit her death is 2 Timothy 4:7: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

Nettie B. Johnson

Nettie B. Johnson was born in Snow Hill, Maryland on November 19, 1892. She passed peacefully on Tuesday morning, May 21, 1991 with daughter, Alnona, at her bedside at Peninsula General Hospital Medical Center after a long illness of over eight years while she lived with her loving and caring daughters, Dorothy and Thelma and son-in-law, Alonzo J. Parker, who is like a son, father and brother all rolled up into one.

The funeral service was held at Coolspring United Methodist Church in Girdletree, Maryland on May 25, 1991. The Reverend Dr. P. Thomas McKelvey, Salisbury District Superintendent and the Reverend Maruice Brooks officiating. Interment followed at the church cemetery.

Nettie was the daughter of the late Charles and Beatrice Hayward Boyer. She received her formal education in the public schools of Worcester County. At an early age she joined Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Snow Hill, Maryland, where she attended faithfully and was a member of the church choir. She was also a teacher of the former Friendship School near Snow Hill, Maryland.

Nettie was joined in holy matrimony to Ernest Jerome Johnson on December 28, 1911 in Salisbury, Maryland. He was a laborer and outstanding in church work in every capacity and very interested in young people and the growth of the church. He later went to college and became an ordained minister in the former Delaware Conference.

God blessed their union and they spent the next fifty-eight years completely devoted to one another, laboring together for the Lord they loved. To this union were born twelve children - five daughters and seven sons. Nettie worked diligently caring for her family and supporting her husband in every way she could, especially in his church work. During his ministry of 20 years, they moved to various charges. After his retirement, they moved to Snow Hill, Maryland but did substitute work until his health failed him.

Upon the death of her husband in June of 1969, Nettie continued to worship with her family at St. Matthews United Methodist Church, Box Iron, Maryland, as the oldest member of the church. She attended faithfully until her failing health. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother to all the children, 35 grandchildren, 46 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

She was endowed with christianity; love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness and gentleness were all evident in Nettie's life.

Nettie is survived by eight children: Dorothy Parker, Lillian Bishop, Thelma Hudson, Alnona Allen all of Snow Hill, Maryland and Cleola Unthank of Wenonah, New Jersey; Herbert Johnson, Charles Johnson and Irving Johnson all of New Rochelle, New York. Four sons preceded her in death.

Words cannot express the loss we feel, but the love, kindness, and genuine concern shown during her daily living helps to ease the grief we bear.

Inez Garnet Jones

Inez Garnet Jones was the deeply beloved wife of Reverend John Edward Jones to whom she was married for 57 years. Their ministry together was one of mutual support and dedicated caring, both for each other and for the churches which they served.

Born on August 5, 1908 in Pedricktown, New Jersey, Inez finished high school there and decided for a variety of reasons not to go to college. She began working to help support herself and her family at the Baby Apparel Shop in Pennsgrove. She met John Edward in the Emmanuel Methodist Church and decided very quickly, as she confided to a co-worker, that she was going to "catch" John Edward. They courted for three years and were married on June 3, 1933. Their first child, John E., was born in the second year of their marriage and a daughter, Ethel May, followed six years later. At her death, on September 8, 1990, she had three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Inez worked enthusiastically in the ministry with her husband for 42 years. She taught Sunday School, was a Circle Leader, belonged to a number of homemaker clubs and the Order of the Eastern Star. She provided encouragement and spiritual nurture to so many church members as well as to neighbors. She even allowed a duplicating machine to share her bedroom to facilitate the work of the Church! She was loved and highly regarded everywhere she served in her quiet and Christlike way. Her artistic talents were no where more apparent than in the beautiful flower arrangements which she created and then sent to shut-ins. They carried Inez' healing touch. Her husband would also take them to parishioners who were hospitalized where they lifted many crestfallen spirits.

The last years of Inez' life were ones of confinement and struggle. She was bound to a special chair and most of the time to her home. It made her very restless that she was not able to join her husband actively in the ministry. It was a condition under which she chafed. Her welcome at the gates of Heaven must have been a celebrative and festive occasion as she was finally released from that bondage and entered into the joy of her Lord. It was in those moments she heard the words, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Mary H. Nicklas

Mary H. Nicklas was born on March 3, 1902 to James and Annie (Chambers) Humphreys in Calvert County, Maryland. She later moved to Baltimore where she was to meet her future husband, Reverend H. Norman Nicklas whom she married on July 3, 1930 at the church they both attended. Since Norman still had one year left in seminary, Mary set up housekeeping at his charge in Warwick, Maryland. In 1943, Mary and Norman became the proud parents of a little boy named Joey Norman. They always felt that this was one of God's greatest blessings on them.

Becoming a minister's wife was a full-time position for Mary and she took what she felt her responsibilities were very seriously as she helped Norman in his work for their God. She was always there for the various churches helping in any way she could whether it was by teaching Sunday school, playing the piano for her classes, being active in the women's circles or by helping to raise money for the church.

Mary and Norman retired to Milford in 1966 but due to health reasons they moved to Laurel in 1982 to be with their son.

In February of 1988, Mary was deeply saddened by the loss of her husband of 57 years, followed by the death of her son in October of the same year. She then remained living with Joey's widow, Vickie, till ill health forced the need of a nursing home.

Mary passed away at Kent General Hospital on January 4, 1992 at the age of 89. Funeral services were held at Calvary United Methodist Church, Milford, Delaware with interment in Milford Odd Fellows Cemetery. Rev. Kyle Smith officiated. She is survived by her daughter-in-law, Vickie J. Nicklas of Seaford, Delaware, two grand-daughters, Jean M. Bounds of Millsboro, Delaware and Kathy A. Drummond of Laurel, Delaware, and one great grand-daughter, Jonnie Lynn Bounds of Millsboro, Delaware, all of whom will always remember and love her.

"Mom", as I always called her, truly loved her Lord and led a life of complete devotion to Him, never complaining or doubting her Lord's wisdom. She was always a "lady" who was a fine example of a minister's wife, a loving mother and a true friend to many.

I respectfully submit this memorial in loving tribute to a fine lady who I was pleased to have as my mother-in-law. May her reward be in heaven with her God and having her husband and son by her side.

Anna Loretta Schuster Reiter

Anna S. Reiter was born near Jarrettsville, Maryland on October 24, 1899, the third of seven children born to Charles Christopher and Emma Elizabeth (Barrows) Schuster. She died of a stroke in Peninsula General Hospital Medical Center, Salisbury, Maryland on April 5, 1985 at the age of 85. Burial was in Springhill Memory Gardens, Hebron, Maryland on April 17, 1985.

On October 9, 1920, she married the Reverend Charles L. Reiter in Monkton, Maryland. They had four children -- Dorothy Faye, Rebecca Ann, Charles Leslie, Jr., and Paul Mouzon.

She attended schools in Towson and Monkton. As a young girl, she was converted at a Methodist church in Towson. When the family moved to Monkton, she and the entire family were active in the Monkton Methodist Church.

After marriage, she taught Sunday school, sang in the choir, and worked in the Women's Society of Christian Service. Foreign missions was one of her lifelong concerns. It was in the home, however, where she was at her best, sewing clothes for the children, teaching them to read at an early age, and instilling in them Christian precepts. She had a deep love for her country, and liked to read aloud to us about its great leaders such as George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Her cheerful common sense and hard work saw us through occasional hard times.

In the later years of her life, she regularly read fifteen chapters or more daily in her Bible, with favorite verses marked. She said, "I was too busy canning beans in West Virginia -- now I'm making up for lost time!"

Active to the end, she was in church on Sunday night one month before she died, giving her testimony of how Jesus saved her as a young girl and had kept her all those years.

One of her favorite scriptures was Psalm 19:14, "Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my Redeemer."

Inez Neuble Taylor

Inez Neuble Taylor of Frankford died after suffering an apparent heart attack Thursday, December 26, 1991 in St. Francis Hospital, Wilmington. She was 87.

Mrs. Taylor was a homemaker. She was a member of the Christ Church in Harbeson where she served on the cemetery committee. She also served on the retired ministers wives association of the Peninsula Conference.

She is survived by her husband, Rev. George W. Taylor; two daughters, Joan Johnson of Wilmington and Peggy Smith of Frankford; one sister, Annie V. Long of Spartanburg, SC; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services were Tuesday, December 31, 1991 in Christ Church, Harbeson, Delaware. The Rev. George W. Taylor officiated. Burial was in Christ Church Cemetery.

LAITY

Ralph Stanford Gillis

Ralph Stanford "Pete" Gillis, lay member at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, St. Michaels, Maryland, died on September 16, 1991 after a brief illness.

Mr. Gillis was an active and beloved member of St. Luke's. Pete was President of the United Methodist Men, Director of the Olivet Cemetery, a frequent Usher, as well as Lay Member to the Peninsula Annual Conference.

Pete's many contributions to the people of the St. Michaels area did not stop within the walls of St. Luke's. He was well-known for his generosity to those in need from his volunteer work at the cancer treatment center to offering a helping hand to anyone who asked.

At the Memorial Service held at St. Luke's, a long-time friend of Pete's noted that Pete had the strength to build a house and the gentleness to carve the most delicate of birds. It is this great and gentle man who will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Gillis is survived by two sons, Jeffrey P. of Hyattsville, Maryland and Stanford J. of Washington, DC; two grandchildren, Kelly J. Gillis and Michael J. Gillis; and one brother, Drue Gillis.

Lucille Jeanette Maloney

Lucille Jeaneatte Maloney of Denton, Maryland died on Sunday, February 16, 1992 at her home. She was 70.

Born in Dorchester County, Mrs. Maloney was the daughter of the late Thomas Bowdle and Jessie Bowdle Bailey.

She worked for the Elliott Brothers Trucking Company during World War II. From 1948 until 1966, she worked with her husband in Maloney's Grocery Store in Williston near Denton. She worked as a bookkeeper for the Preston Trucking Company from 1966 until she retired in 1983.

Mrs. Maloney was a member of the Concord United Methodist Church and a Lay Member of the Peninsula Annual Conference. She was past Worthy Matron and current Secretary of the Caroline Chapter #62 Order of the Eastern Star. She was also currently Deputy to the Federalsburg and Salisbury O.E.S. Chapters.

She is survived by her husband, Robert D. Maloney; one daughter, JoAnn Staples and two grandchildren.

Burial was in the Denton Cemetery.

James R. Robinson

James R. Robinson was born in Columbus, Indiana on October 4, 1916. He was the son of the late Quinnie Meadows and James R. Robinson.

Jim attended Public School in Chillicothe, Ohio and then went to Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. In June 1941, he graduated from Ohio State University with a Bachelor in Chemical Engineering. While a student, Jim was active in student professional and honor groups.

After graduation in 1941, he joined the E.I. DuPont Company in Niagara Falls, New York as a development chemist in the Electro-chemical Department. He later held management positions at plants in Wyandotte, Michigan, Niagara Falls, New York and Perth Amboy, New Jersey. In 1967, he transferred to Wilmington, Delaware, where he became manager of Compensation and Benefits, Employee Relations Department. Jim retired from DuPont in April 1981.

His interests were many but gardening and woodworking were his main hobbies.

Jim was always active, no matter where he lived, in the church and community. His volunteer work included Boy Scouts, United Way and Hagley Museum. He was a member of the former Delaware Health Council and Health Coordinating Council and a member of Delaware Health Resources Committee.

Jim was reared a Baptist. Strange as it may seem, he was active in the Wesley Foundation at Ohio State University. He joined the Methodist Church in 1942.

As a member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware for 25 years, he served as Chairman of the Council on Ministries, Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, Board of Trustees, Sunday School Teacher, Choir Member and as Lay Member to the Peninsula Annual Conference.

Jim served beyond the local church in the Peninsula Conference on the Commission on Equitable Salaries, Board of Pensions, as Chairman of the Conference Council on Ministries, on the Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Neighborhood House Board and the Methodist Action Program Board, as well as numerous ad hoc committees and task forces. In 1991, Jim was elected a Lay Delegate to the 1992 General Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Jim was a member of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the Advisory/Coordinating Committee on Older Adult Ministries.

Jim Robinson died on Wednesday, May 27, 1992 of cancer. He is survived by his wife of fifty years, Alma; a son, Keith A. Robinson of Newark, Delaware and a daughter, Kay A. Lambert of Brandon, Florida; two brothers, two sisters and three grandchildren.

A Memorial Service, to celebrate Jim's life, was held Saturday, June 6, 1992 at Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware. The Reverend Dr. Thomas C. Short officiated and was assisted by the Reverend Karen F. Bunnell and the Reverend John W. Van Tine.
