III. Conference Rules Of Order

- Rule 1: The Conference shall convene and adjourn at the discretion of the presiding Bishop and the Committee on Conference Arrangements. The Conference in plenary session may alter the time of convening or adjourning.
- Rule 2: The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his/her appeal.
- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn.
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. For the previous question.
 6. To postpone to a given time.
 7. To refer.
 8. To substitute.
 9. Amendment.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him/her.
- Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call him/her to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.

- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.
- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his/her vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse him/her.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for him/her to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negated and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.

- Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.
- Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.
- Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except members of board, committees or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church. The distribution of membership shall be according to districts, three lay persons and three ministers as nearly as possible to each district.
- Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.
- Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the Associate Lay Leader of Life and Work, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, the four District Presidents of United Methodist Men, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.
- Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration prior to Annual Conference action.

- Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.
- Rule 28: In keeping with paragraph 746 in the 1988 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Council Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.

7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.
8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.

14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.
8. Titles such as "Mrs.," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That the council director, and associate council directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned. (We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)
- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153).

- (8) Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
- (9) The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
- (10) Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

(Amended by Annual Conference Action on June 4, 1994)

B. Alphabetical Roll & Pastoral Record

Clergy members of Conference, local pastors, diaconal ministers, widows and lay members are listed in the following pages. The name of the spouse is listed underneath the name of the pastor. The year following "D" denotes the year a pastor was ordained a Deacon. The Pastoral Record follows each pastor's alphabetical listing in order to place all pastoral information in one file.

Key to Conference Membership (Conf. Mem.)

- AM* - Associate Member
- D* - Deacon
- LP* - Lay Pastor
- PM* - Probationary Member
- ABLC* - Appointment Beyond the Local Church

Key to Attendance at Conference (At.)

- P* - Present
- A* - Absent
- E* - Excused

B. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Friday Morning, June 3, 1994

CLERGY SESSION: Bishop Susan M. Morrison called the session to order at 8:35 am in the Hynson Conference Center on the campus of the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore. The report was presented in the context of a worship service.

The Rev. Dr. Ashley A. Maxwell, Chair of Board of Ordained Ministry, gave the response to Question 17 and explained the procedure used in making their response. It was accepted by the body.

It was moved that the Joint Review Committee be: James P. Walz, Chair; Ronald Bell, Sr.; Cynthia G. Koski; Ronald Bergman, K. Wayne Grier; James T. Seymour; James Van Der Wall (Alt); Janet Harmon (Alt); William Hemphill, Jr. (Alt); Karen S. Booth (Alt); Charlotte A. Nichols (Alt); Howard L. Gordy, Jr. (Alt). They were elected.

The Committee on Investigation (elected quadrennially by the annual conference) and The Administrative Review Committee (elected quadrennially by the Clergy Session) were presented for information purposes.

The Rev. Dr. Michaele S. Russell, BOOM Registrar, presented the report which can be found in its entirety in the Disciplinary Questions: PART II: PERTAINING TO ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTORS.*

Dr. Russell presented the candidates for election into Full Connection and Ordination as Elder:

Walton Randolph Burke
James Thomas Fox, Jr.
Elizabeth Florence Hopkins
James Martin Miller
William Alfred Ross, Sr.
Bernard Dennis Shuhayda
Leslie Gaye Slak

Each candidate was elected into Full Membership and the privilege of being ordained Elder.

Dr. Russell presented the candidates for election as Probationary Members and Ordination as Deacon:

Gloria Dell Swanson Attix
Thomas Francis Gross
Pearl Geneva Scott Johnson
William Stanton Leonard
Carol Elizabeth Svecz
Ruth Turpin Tull
Richard Allen Vance

Each candidate was elected by the body.

Dr. Russell presented the candidates for Associate Membership and the privilege of being ordained Deacon:

Robert Marvin Brown
Mary Ann Farnell
William Harrison Johnson, Sr.
Otho Roland Waters

Each candidate was elected by the body.

The Rev. Charles E. Barton, Jr. moved -- that this clergy session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference have the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry review the reports of progress from any authorized licensing school in 1994 and determine those they would deem worthy of licensing as local pastors.

That the Executive Committee issue a mail ballot to all members of the Clergy Session as soon as possible after the licensing school to allow the Bishop to issue licenses to those who have successfully completed a licensing school.

It was seconded and adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Jonathan Baker presented the updated "Board of Ordained Ministry Policies and Procedures: Revised 1994" which the session amended and approved. It can be found after this session of the Daily Proceedings.

Bishop Morrison led the body through the balance of the report, making corrections, additions and editorial changes as needed. The body approved the report.

The Clergy Session concluded with the Bishop leading in "The Service for Ordination Renewal."

P R E F A C E

This document has been prepared for the use of all ministers of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in guiding those who are interested in the ordained ministry of the United Methodist Church, and for the benefit of anyone planning to enter the ordained ministry of the United Methodist Church, and for those currently in ministry of the United Methodist Church.

The Board of Ordained Ministry reminds each pastor of a charge that the work of ministerial recruitment and guidance begins in the local church, and its inception is largely determined by the local ministry, we therefore, urge each pastor to acquaint themselves with the requirements for conference membership, associate membership and ordination, so that they may convey this information to the candidates.

Members of the Board of Ordained Ministry are available at all times to be of assistance to those seeking further information about ministerial training and the steps which lead to conference membership, associate membership and ordination.

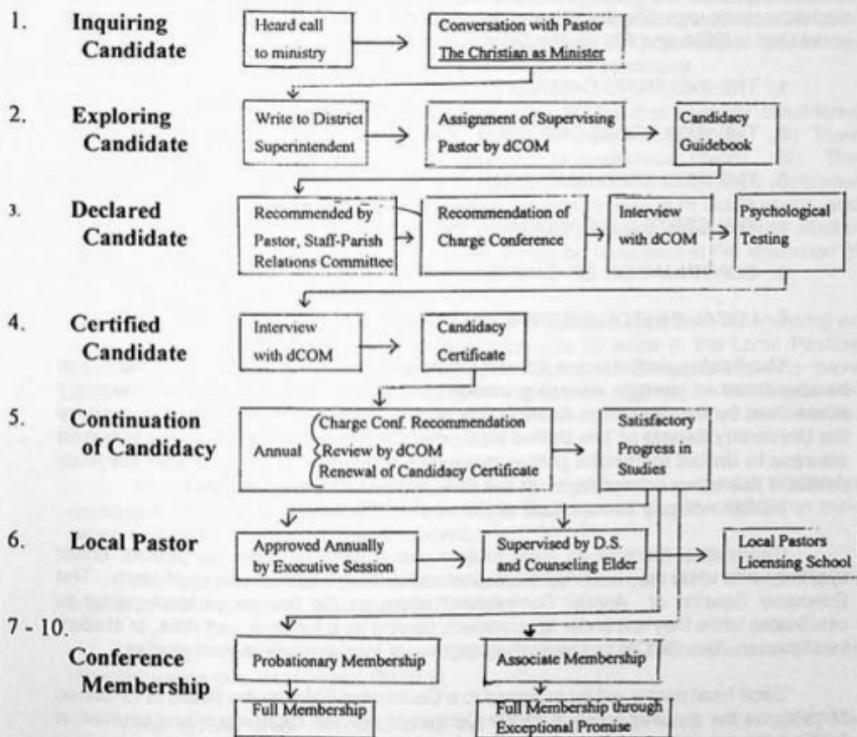

The members and officers of the Board of Ordained Ministry are listed in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Journal.

All paragraph references are found in the 1992 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. Paragraphs are designated by the following sign - ¶.

The purpose of this document is to help interpret the current policies of the 1992 Discipline and to state the policies and procedures of the Board of Ordained Ministries of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, which relates to the life and work of the ordained ministry.

PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY CANDIDACY PROCESS

ENTRANCE PROCEDURES INTO ORDAINED MINISTRY PENINSULA-DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Candidacy for ordained ministry through a process prescribed by the Division of Ordained Ministry of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry is the first set of formal steps through which a person moves toward ordination and Annual Conference membership.

All persons entering into this process shall receive written communication about decisions made regarding the different phases of their candidacy. The candidacy process is detailed in ¶404 and 405 of The Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1992.

1. THE INQUIRING CANDIDATE Par. 404.1
2. THE EXPLORING CANDIDATE Par. 404.2
3. THE DECLARED CANDIDATE Par. 404.3
4. THE CERTIFIED CANDIDATE Par. 404.4
5. CONTINUATION OF CANDIDACY Par. 405
6. LOCAL PASTOR STUDIES Par. 406-411

The Peninsula/Delaware Annual Conference requires all persons who are to be appointed as pastors, except graduates of seminaries and schools of theology accredited by the American Association of theological schools and, approved by the University Senate of The United Methodist Church who have taken the required courses in United Methodist policy, discipline, and doctrine, to complete the local pastor's licensing school by or at the time of their first appointment.

BOOM will pay for one-half of the cost of this study.

Candidates licensed as local pastors are eligible to serve as pastors under appointments while they continue as students or in the ministerial course of study. The Executive Session of Annual Conference approves the license as local pastor to candidates while they are under appointment, serving as a full-time, part-time, or student local pastor. The DCOM oversees the progress of local pastors in their studies.

Each local pastor will be assigned to a Counseling Elder by the Board of Ordained Ministry on the recommendation of the Cabinet to provide supervision and counsel in fulfilling the requirements for associate and probationary membership.

DISTRICT COMMITTEE ON ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry, district Committees on Ordained Ministry, District Superintendents, and Staff-Parish Relations Committees share a responsibility to enlist, train, and prepare candidates for the practice of ministry. Accomplishing this task requires mutual trust, cooperation, and a clear understanding of the roles each play in the process.

The district Committee on Ordained Ministry shall be amenable to the Annual Conference through the Board of Ordained Ministry (¶756, 1992 Discipline).

The duties of the district Committee on Ordained Ministry can be summarized under the following categories:

1. Enlistment: Aid the local church in the process of enlisting persons for ministry and guiding them in the process of education, training, and ordination. Persons shall be encouraged to enter the candidacy program. A list of all candidates under the care of the dCOM shall be maintained (§756.3).

2. Candidacy Certification: The dCOM shall enroll inquiring candidates in the candidacy studies and assign them to supervising pastors (§404.2). It shall examine qualified applicants for certification as candidates for the ordained ministry (§756.9, 404.4). The dCOM shall offer counsel to candidates regarding pre-theological studies (§756.4); advise and encourage them in spiritual and academic preparation for their ministry; and inform the candidacy registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the names and addresses of all who are issued certificates of candidacy.

3. Continuation of Certified Candidacy: The dCOM shall recertify candidates annually when (1) they have applied in writing for renewal (§756.9). (2) Their recommendation has been renewed by their charge conference (§405). (3) The counseling elder has submitted a report on the development of the candidate's vocational goals (§411). (4) The committee has reviewed the gifts, evidence of God's grace, and fruits of the candidates and noted continued satisfactory progress in the required studies (§405; 756.9). When a candidacy has lapsed, it may be reinstated at the discretion of the dCOM (§405.3).

4. Local Pastors: The dCOM shall examine qualified applicants for licensing as local pastors (§407.3; 756.8). It shall help applicants to enroll in the Local Pastors Licensing School; authorize the issuance of a license to all applicants who have satisfactorily completed the requirements (§407); inform the registrar for local pastors of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the names and addresses of all persons approved for licensing as local pastors.

The dCOM shall refer local pastors to the appropriate registrar of the BOOM for enrollment in the Course of Study for Ordained Ministry and receive reports on their progress through the district superintendent.

The committee shall recommend to the BOOM those persons who qualify for license or continuance as local pastors (§756.8).

It shall communicate to the BOOM registrar the circumstances of any discontinuance of a local pastor (§410.1).

The dCOM shall recommend to the BOOM those persons who qualify for restoration of credentials as a local pastor (§756.8).

INTERVIEWING: Interviewing is the basic personnel process used by the church. It stands at the very heart of the work of the dCOM. Good interviewing is as essential to the work of the dCOM as it is to the BOOM.

The dCOM conducts interviews for a number of different purposes:

1. To certify candidacy.
2. To license a local pastor.
3. To recommend a candidate for associate or probationary membership.
4. To recommend continuance as a certified candidate or local pastor.
5. To recommend restoration of credentials.

RECORD KEEPING: The records and files of the dCOM are an important resource for the work of the BOOM and dCOM. The dCOM shall forward to the registrar of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry its files on each certified candidate or local pastor recommended for probationary membership along with that recommendation.

The dCOM shall keep meeting minutes, or at least a record of actions taken, and shall forward a copy to the registrar for candidacy immediately after the meeting.

SUPERVISING PASTORS

Supervising pastors are persons trained to work with persons in the Candidacy process. Persons serving in this capacity supervise only those persons in the Candidacy process and are not to be confused with a Counseling Elder. The selection of ordained ministers to serve as supervising pastors has at least these steps:

- a. The district Committees on Ordained Ministry may recommend persons to serve as supervising pastors.
- b. The district superintendent, as executive secretary of the dCOM, modifies or supports the recommendations of ordained ministers to become supervising pastors.
- c. The candidacy registrar consults with the district superintendents and selects from among those recommended and trained the ones who will serve as supervising pastors.

The criteria for selecting supervising pastors are high and encompass several dimensions. It is valuable to have within the total number of supervising pastors representatives of a variety of backgrounds, family life styles, ages, sex, and ethnic backgrounds. This variety will provide greater opportunities for candidates to be in contact with supervising pastors who may have characteristics and experiences similar to those of the candidate. It would be a mistake to assign candidates to supervising pastors solely on the basis of any of these characteristics, yet it is important to have a variety of backgrounds represented among the supervising pastors.

CANDIDACY REGISTRAR

The candidacy registrar has six basic functions:

1. Guiding the selection of supervising pastors.
2. Training supervising pastors to work with candidates.
3. Establishing an accountability structure.
4. Keeping records.

A candidacy registrar should maintain a list of those who are active participants in the candidacy process in the annual conference and their progress as certified candidates. The list of certified candidates is to be reported to the Annual Conference through the BOOM and published in the conference journal.

5. Interpreting candidacy.
6. Liaison between the Division of Ordained Ministry and annual conference.

ENLISTMENT AND RECRUITMENT COMMITTEE: SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

The Enlistment and Recruitment Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM), under the provisions of The Book of Discipline, administers that portion of the Ministerial Education Fund set aside for use by the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference in its programs of enlistment and basic professional education aid. The Committee also confers with the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry concerning similar uses for diaconal ministry candidates.

Scholarship assistance is available to seminarians, undergraduates, and course of study students who are working toward ordination as elder or deacon, full or associate membership in the Annual Conference, or certification as a diaconal minister. Persons who are required to pursue a doctor of ministry degree as a condition for ordination and conference membership also are eligible for assistance.

Recipients of BOOM scholarship assistance must complete application forms which require certification by an official of the school and by the district superintendent. Separate application forms exist for course of study, diaconal ministry, and undergraduate/seminary grants. Those persons who receive assistance for the purpose of completing minimum educational requirements for the ordained or diaconal ministries also must sign a promissory note which indicates an obligation to serve five (5) years full-time in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference or repayment of the money over a ten-year period.

As an affirmation of our connectionalism, persons who complete the five-years of full-time service in another annual conference of the United Methodist Church shall have satisfied the requirement for repayment, with no expectation on the part of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of receiving remuneration from the other annual conference.

Scholarships are presently given three times per year: for the Spring, Summer (course of study only) and Fall semesters. The total MEF money available is divided equally among qualified applicants within each category and is awarded on a per semester hour basis. An exception applies to the course of study students who receive a block grant per summer session. Seminarians receive more per credit hour than undergraduates.

Through this scholarship assistance program, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference extends itself to those who are in preparation for the ordained or diaconal ministries. For more information contact the chairperson of the Enlistment and Recruitment Committee.

POLICY FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION ¶423.2, 445

A Continuing Education Unit (CEU) is awarded for each ten (10) contact hours in an organized continuing education event. Certification of continuing education credit shall be accepted from the following:

- A. Events accredited for CEU's by the General, Jurisdictional, or Annual Conference
- B. Doctor of Ministry programs and CEU's awarded by approved theological seminaries
- C. Retreats and short-term educational opportunities which offer CEU's
- D. CEU's granted by accredited agencies for programs in traditionally non-ministerial disciplines such as computers

E. Participation in (not leadership of) a Disciple Bible study with an approved, trained leader

F. Pre-approval needs to be given by the Evaluation/Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry for continuing education events not reflected in A through E.

CEU's will not be given for:

A. Any meeting or gathering that does not specifically offer CEU's itself

B. Mass media programs

C. Individual study unless credit is granted by an approved seminary

Eight CEU's are required of every pastor under appointment per quadrennium. It is recommended that each charge budget have a minimum of $500 per year set aside for the pastor's continuing education fund. This money is excluded from the apportionment base and from the pastor's salary and is to be included as a line item in the Local Church Year end Financial Report. Limited supplemental financial assistance is available from the Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Clergy are asked to keep track of their own CEU's during the quadrennium. At the end of 1996, clergy will be asked to verify that eight (8) CEU's were earned during the quadrennium.

Students are not required to participate in Continuing Education.

CONFERENCE MEMBERSHIP/INTERVIEW PROCESS COMMITTEE

The steps into Ordained Ministry can be found outlined in the Discipline (Chapter 3, Section II). It is the hope of the Board of Ordained Ministry that the policies we have chosen to enable a candidate to complete these steps will strengthen an individual's awareness of her or his own gifts for ministry.

The process of the Board of Ordained Ministry includes:

- (1) Psychological Testing
- (2) Interviews based upon written materials
- (3) Counseling

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING

Candidacy for Ordained Ministry ¶404-405

Psychological Testing (reference to ¶404.4(b))

A complete psychological assessment administered by a psychologist approved by BOOM will be required with the cost divided equally among BOOM (1/3), the candidate (1/3) and the sponsoring local church (1/3).

Probationary Membership ¶413-418

The Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adheres to the 1992 Discipline, ¶413-418, regarding admission and continuance of probationary members with the following additions:

Psychological Testing (reference to ¶414.4)

If a candidate has not completed psychological testing as required at the level of becoming a certified candidate, then a complete psychological assessment administered by a psychologist approved by BOOM will be required with the cost divided equally among BOOM (1/3), the candidate (1/3) and the sponsoring local church (1/3).

If the testing for a certified candidate took place more than four years prior to application for probationary membership, then a second interview with the psychologist approved by BOOM to follow up on the first assessment will be required and paid for by BOOM.

The criteria used by the Board of Ordained Ministry to interview those applying for probationary membership and ordination as Deacons will be "Fitness and Competency for Ordained Ministry."

Associate Membership ¶419-421

The Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adheres to the 1992 Discipline, ¶419-421, regarding admission and continuance of associate members with the following additions:

Psychological Testing (reference to ¶420.1.(7))

A complete psychological assessment administered by a psychologist approved by BOOM will be required with the cost divided equally among BOOM (1/3), the candidate (1/3) and the sponsoring local church (1/3).

The criteria used by the Board of Ordained Ministry to interview those applying for associate membership and ordination as Deacons will be "Fitness, Competency, Readiness and Effectiveness for Ordained Ministry."

All Associate Members are required to graduate from a five year Course of Study program plus have accumulated 60 college credits. After completing the third year of the Course of Study and at least 30 college credits, Associate Member candidates will be required to participate in an initial interview with BOOM. This will involve submitting the required written material and participating in the outlined interview process for Associate Members. The initial interview will allow the Board of Ordained Ministry to make various recommendations (including counseling) that will have to be completed before the candidate's final interview.

The purpose and rationale for this initial interview is to give Associate Members the same minimum number of times (two) with BOOM as those seeking Full Membership. The initial interview will allow the candidates to experience critiques of their written material and personal interviews at the time that will not put their status in jeopardy, hopefully making it more helpful than threatening. The candidate will be better prepared for their second interview after the completion of their academic work.

Full Membership ¶422-425

The Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference adheres to the 1992 Discipline, paragraphs 422-425, regarding admission and continuance of full members with the following additions:

Psychological Testing (reference to Par. 424.(4))

If a candidate has not completed psychological testing with a BOOM approved psychologist (e.g., due to transfer from another conference), then a complete psychological assessment will be required with the cost divided equally among BOOM (1/3), the candidate (1/3) and the sponsoring local church (1/3).

If an earlier psychological assessment took place more than four years prior to application for full membership, then a second interview with the psychologist approved by BOOM to follow up on the first assessment will be required and paid for by BOOM.

The criteria used by the Board of Ordained Ministry to interview those applying for full membership and ordination as Elders will be "Readiness and Effectiveness for Ordained Ministry."

INTERVIEWS

The process for interviewing candidates by BOOM includes three phases:

- (1) An informal mixer to get acquainted
- (2) A day of interviews
- (3) A day for candidates and BOOM members to retreat together

The purpose of the mixer is to allow candidates and BOM members to meet without the pressure of examination and for candidates to ask questions regarding the interview process.

The purpose of the interviews is to examine candidates based on the following criteria:

For Deacons: Fitness and Competency for Ordained Ministry

For Elders: Readiness and Effectiveness

For Associate Members: All four of the above

BOOM hopes that the interview process will explore issues found in the written work submitted by the candidate, allowing for dialogue to further clarify beliefs and practices of each individual. BOM will attempt to communicate perceived strengths and weaknesses as well as to give guidance and support to the candidates throughout the interview process and beyond.

The purpose of the Day Together is to allow for a time of sharing as colleagues reflecting upon our call to the ordained ministry.

COUNSELING

All certified candidates, local pastors, probationers and associate members seeking probationary membership under ¶417.3 shall be assigned a Counseling Elder by BOOM.

BOOM may determine that counseling from a trained psychologist would be helpful for the individual growth of a candidate. If so, BOOM will require that specific issues be addressed in counseling before recommending a candidate for full membership and ordination as an Elder.

BOOM will pay up to 50% of the cost of required counseling (limited to $1000) and will require a letter from the counselor (approved in advance by BOOM) indicating that the issues identified have been addressed. Not all candidates will be required to do counseling.

COMMITTEE ON SUPERVISION

SUPERVISION BY COUNSELING ELDERS

1. For the purpose of supervision in preparation for ministry, the Peninsula/Delaware Annual Conference requires that a Counseling Elder be assigned to all local pastors (except those who, upon completion of the five-year-course of study, elect to remain in the local pastor relationship, as either full-time or part-time local pastors), certified candidates, associate members seeking probationary membership, and probationary members. ¶413.7

2. A Counseling Elder is assigned a counselee by the Board of Ordained Ministry upon recommendation by the District Superintendent. The Committee on Supervision then contacts by letter each Counseling Elder and counselee with instructions and guidelines. The Counseling Elder also receives an evaluation report annually to be completed on his/her counselee, and returned to the Committee on Supervision Chairperson.

3. Counseling Elders are expected to meet with their counselee at least once a month (unless the person is attending school at some distance from the conference), to discuss academic progress, church responsibilities (if the person is serving a charge). Encouragement is given to Counseling Elder to establish an open, friendly relationship with his/her counselee.

4. The Board of Ordained Ministry Committee on supervision shall on some regular basis provide training for Counseling Elders in the area of their responsibility. ¶411

All persons serving as a Counseling Elder shall attend a training event during the first year they serve in this capacity. After the first year of training, all Counseling Elders shall participate in a training event at least once every three years in order to be assigned as a Counseling Elder.

5. The Board of Ordained Ministry Committee on Supervision shall annually receive from the Cabinet a list of recommended Counseling Elders and their counselees for supervision. ¶411

6. Unless there is a problem or a move, a Counseling Elder should be assigned for the duration of a counselee's candidacy/probation period.

7. Counseling Elders shall be appointed by the District Superintendent annually by August 31 and the list of Counseling Elders and their counselees sent to the Committee on Supervision concurrently.

LOCAL PASTOR LICENSING SCHOOL ¶406-411

A. The Peninsula/Delaware Annual Conference requires all persons who are to be appointed as pastors, except graduates of seminaries and schools of theology accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools and, approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church who have taken the required courses in United Methodist policy, discipline, and doctrine, to complete the local pastor's licensing school by or at the time of their first appointment.

B. The Peninsula/Delaware Annual Conference will pay one-half of the tuition cost of the local pastor's licensing school for all persons sent from our conference.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS COMMITTEE ¶1446 -454

In each Annual Conference the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Bishop and Cabinet share a demanding responsibility in the process through which clergy change or terminate their relationship to the conference. As demanding, complex, and sometimes painful as this responsibility may be, a proper concern for the well-being of both church and clergy requires that requests and decisions be made sensitively and objectively.

There are a number of possible changes in conference relationship which may occur during a minister's career and a variety of tracks for termination of conference membership. The sections which follow are from the 1992 Discipline.

The Conference Relations Committee has, as a major part of its task, the responsibility of gathering and assembling information concerning the accountability of the clergy of the Conference, and is amenable to the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Clergy persons will contact this Committee with regard to anticipated changes in conference relations.

*Ministers seeking a change in Conference relationship shall make written request to their board of Ordained Ministry stating the reason for the requested change of relationship. In addition, the Board of Ordained Ministry may request personal interviews with the minister requesting the change in relationship, except where personal appearance results in undue hardship (¶1447, p. 247).

All clergy members shall receive written communications about decisions regarding their relationship with the Annual Conference (¶1412.4, p. 214).

DISTRICT REVIEW TEAM

DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS RELATED TO ¶ 704.4 and ¶ 705.6

As part of the Board of Ordained Ministry's Report to the Annual Conference, the Board is responsible to answer before the Bishop at the Executive Session the following question: "Are the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?"

The Board of Ordained Ministry authorizes a District Review Team to set a meeting with the District Superintendent at which meeting the team will hear a report on the moral and official conduct of the clergy members related to the district. This report is for all probationary, associate, and full members under the Superintendent's administrative responsibility. This report is the Superintendent's: District Team members are not to initiate the discussion of any clergy member. The Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry will confer directly with the District Superintendents about persons appointed to the Conference Staff and with the Bishop about the Conference Council Director.

The District Team chair will make two reports to the Board of Ordained Ministry Chairperson enabling the Board to respond to the Bishop's question. The first is a general statement with regard to the outcome of the review. The second report is a list of members about whom the District Superintendent has expressed concern. Six areas cited in the report are:

1. Members about whom there are personal or moral questions;
2. Members who have received no new members on profession of faith;
3. Members who have not adequately supported the full payment of conference apportionments;
4. Members who have been unduly and habitually late with reports;
5. Members who do not make adequate efforts to attend or relate to district and conference functions; and
6. Members who have made no effort to pursue continuing education.

Clergy members will receive written notice of concerns expressed in the review process from the District Superintendent.

LAITY SESSION: Laity Members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference met in the Ella Fitzgerald Auditorium as the 210th Session of the Conference convened at the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore, under the leadership of Bishop Susan M. Morrison.

Dolly Brittingham, Conference Lay Leader, welcomed the gathering and introduced members of the Conference Board of Laity. Debbie Lloyd, Wilmington District Lay Leader, led the worship service.

A panel consisting of Conference Lay Leader, Dolly Brittingham; Associate Conference Lay Leader, Howard Mason; District Lay Leaders: Dover - Jack Sparks, Easton - Alice Hutchins, Salisbury - Gene Cray, and Wilmington - Debbie Lloyd; Conference Director of Lay Speaking, Robin Farnell; Conference President of United Methodist Women, Louise Hess; and Conference President of United Methodist Men, Bill Harmon held a question and answer discussion on What is a Lay Member of Annual Conference?

Before beginning the panel discussion, Dolly announced the Northeastern Jurisdiction Board of Laity Assembly to be held the third weekend in October this year, in our sister conference, Eastern Pennsylvania, in Allentown, Pennsylvania. She also announced that at the 1995 Annual Conference, we will be electing delegates to the 1996 General Conference, to be held in Denver, Colorado, and she explained who can be nominated and how the process works.

Following the panel discussion, Liz St. Clair, a member of the General Council on Ministries and Kathryn Hopkins, Youth Representative to the General Council on Ministries explained the Connectional Issues Study Survey that was completed later during the Annual Conference Session.

Kay Cloud, Chairperson of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, spoke about the budget process.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Bill Harmon, President of the Conference United Methodist Men.

Ramona J. Anderson
Acting Secretary

PLENARY SESSION: Bishop Susan Morrison called the 210th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to order at 11:16 am in the Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center at University of Maryland, Eastern Shore. She began by making a statement that the Theological Statements in the Discipline are the basis of her faith and it is what binds us together. As we debate during these sessions, she encouraged the body to listen to each other into being.

The Rev. Dr. James T. Seymour, Host District Superintendent, brought greetings by reminding us that we are members of the Body of Christ and read greetings from the Western New York and Alaska Missionary Conferences.

ORGANIZATIONAL & PROCEDURAL MOTION: Rev. Gary L. Moore, Conference Secretary, presented the motion:

- A. The bar of the Conference is the center section of the Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center.
- B. The roll call will be taken by all members signing Roll Call cards at the registration desk.

- C. The printed program is the program of the Conference subject to changes by the Conference President, Bishop Morrison.
- D. All members must have a valid Conference Badge. (Please note: Part-time and Student Local Pastors receive badges for personal identification only. They are not Conference members with voice or vote.)
- E. Members will be excused from the sessions upon report to the District Superintendent or Secretary.
- F. The Conference Minutes will be made the official Journal of the Conference and the Secretary is authorized to edit and condense the same.
- G. The Reverends Patti F. Collett and Robert L. Harris be appointed as the Committee on Daily Proceedings.
- H. The Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees as printed in the Journal become the Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees of the Conference, with such corrections as may be needed.
- I. All motions to be presented to the Secretary on the forms provided for this purpose prior to or at the time they are presented to the Conference. Forms can be found on the Secretary's desk or secured from an usher.
- J. Resolutions not appearing in the Pre-Conference Booklet or in the Conference Packet be in the hands of the Secretary by 5:00 p.m. on Friday. The petitioner will need to have 600 copies made for distribution to the Conference.
- K. When the customary draft is received from The United Methodist Publishing House that it be endorsed and given to the Conference Treasurer.
- L. Ms. Lucille Bedford be named the reporter for United Methodist Information and Publications and the press contact for the religious and secular media.
- M. The Reverend Ike F. Ledger be named as the Head Usher and Doorkeeper of the Sessions.
- N. The following be designated Assistant Secretaries for the 1994 Session of the Peninsula Annual Conference:
 - Robert L. Harris
 - Kenneth S. Valentine
- O. All materials to be published in the Journal be in the hands of the Secretary no later than June 17, 1994 or they will be excluded.
- P. The Rules of Order be those appearing on pages 3-6 of the 1993 Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.
- Q. Conference members wishing to speak must give their name and Charge in order to be recognized and recorded on audio tape.
- R. The conference ushers will distribute only information pertaining to the presentations during the plenary session.

There were 276 clergy, 290 lay and 47 reserve members registered for conference.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION & CAMPUS MINISTRY: Rev. Karen C. Moore, Board Chair, introduced the current Campus Ministers: Laura Lee Wilson, University of Delaware; Walton Burke, UMES; Homer Minus, Delaware State University. Then she presented the new campus ministers for Salisbury State University: Vera Patterson and Lawrence Purnell.

BLACK COLLEGE FUND: The Lena McCord Intern was Ms. Joy McCoy of Charleston, Illinois and a 1994 graduate magna cum laude from Paine College, Augusta, Georgia. She congratulated the Conference on its 100% payment of its Black College Fund apportionment and shared how these unrestricted funds have helped colleges and students reach their goals.

ASBURY AWARD: Rev. James Noseworthy of the General Board of Higher Education presented the award to Rev. Laura Lee Wilson who is also the Jurisdictional winner of the award.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS: Rev. Karen Moore presented John F. Able, Jr. with $1,000 scholarship for Seminary and introduced the Conference Merit Award Scholarships.

Rev. Moore announced that the Vaughn A. Johnson Scholarship Fund was being established to further the work of Christian Ministry in the field of education.

HARRY DENMAN AWARD: Mrs. Alice Hemmeian introduced Barbara Jester who presented the clergy honoree, Rev. John Dunnack, pastor of the New Castle United Methodist Church and Rev. Connie R. Alt who presented the lay honoree, Ray Asmus, a ninth grader who is a member of Christ UMC, Elsmere, Delaware.

The Bishop dismissed the body for the luncheon recess.

OBSERVANCE OF ORDINATION ANNIVERSARIES: Rev. Karen F. Bunnell of BOOM led the conference in honoring clergy who had been ordained ten through 50 years in the ministry.

RECOGNITION OF RETIRING CLERGY: The Bishop called the retiring clergy along with their spouses and presented them to the body. The conference stood to its feet and gave them an arousing ovation.

CHARLES EDWARD BARTON, JR.
ALEXANDER LOUIS BODA
DAN EDWARD WALKER
ROBERT O'KELLEY WALLACE

The mantle was passed from the shoulders of a representative retiring ordained clergy, Rev. Charles E. Barton, Jr. to the shoulders of a representative of the new full member class, Rev. James Martin Miller.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION: The conference received the Sacrament of Holy Communion from the Deacons and Elders of the Conference. An offering of $1,455.80 was received for Africa University.

ONCE AND FUTURE CHURCH PRESENTATION: The Rev. Dr. Edward White of the Alban Institute led the conference in an engaging session of Loren Mead's book The Once and Future Church to help the conference think through the issues confronting the church today.

SERVICE OF ORDINATION: In the Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center on the campus of the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore Bishop Susan M. Morrison, joined by clergy and laity, in the midst of the conference members, families and friends ordained Deacons and Elders for Christian ministry. The Rev. Dr. Gilbert H. Caldwell preached the ordination message.

Saturday Morning, June 4, 1994

PLENARY: Gabriel's Fire from Leeds Church, Elkton, Maryland led the conference in worship. Bishop Morrison called the body to order at 8:55 a.m. with the words from last night's ordination anthem "Just One More Day" and led the body in the singing of "Spirit of the Living God."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: The Bishop recognized the Rev. Dr. Gilbert H. Caldwell and the Rev. Sandra F. Dufresne, District Superintendents in Eastern Pennsylvania, our sister Conference. Stage flowers were presented by the Eastern Pennsylvania Cabinet to our Conference.

PART-TIME/STUDENT LOCAL PASTORS: The Rev. Dr. Jonathan E. Baker moved -- that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, according to Para. 702.e, allow local and student part-time pastors under appointment to a pastoral charge the right to vote at annual conference on all matters except constitutional amendments, election of clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences and matters of ordination, character and conference relations of clergy.

It was seconded and adopted. (Conference Secretary's Note: After the Conference sessions it was discovered that the Judicial Council's Memorandum No. 612 has ruled that this Disciplinary paragraph is unconstitutional.)

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER RESOLUTION: The Rev. Joseph Burris presented "A Resolution Affirming the Marriage Covenant and the Proclamation of the Good News Through Marriage Encounter - United Methodist." It was seconded and adopted.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE RESOLUTION: Rev. Mae Etta Moore presented from the Conference Board of Church & Society the "Resolution Regarding Substance Abuse." It was adopted.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE & CHILD ABUSE RESOLUTION: From the Board of Church & Society Rev. Mae Etta Moore presented "Resolution on Domestic Violence and Child Abuse." It was adopted.

SLOT MACHINES RESOLUTION: The Board presented "Resolution Against the Introduction of Slot Machines Into the State of Delaware." It was adopted.

The Rev. Thomas C. Short moved that "Be it further resolved that the Secretary of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference be instructed to send a letter of gratitude thanking Governor Thomas Carper for his leadership in helping to stop the bills designed to allow slot machine gambling in the State of Delaware." It was seconded and adopted.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO "RE-IMAGINING CONFERENCE: Mr. Michael Eusebio presented this resolution from their Administrative Council.

Rev. Randall Booth moved to amend by adding the words "some of" at the beginning of the second Whereas paragraph, so that it would read, "Whereas, some of the positions taken at the conference . . ." It was seconded and passed.

Ms. Irene Hoffman of Kent Island UMC moved to add the following:

Whereas a founding text for episcopacy in the United Methodist Church is Paul's farewell injunction to the elders in the Ephesians Church [Acts 20:28 cited in the Book of Discipline Ch 4, Section II, Para 503]:

"Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseer. Be shepherds of the church of God which He bought with His own blood", and Paul continues his admonition, "savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw disciples after them. So be on your guard [Acts 20:29b-31a]."

And whereas Bishop Susan M. Morrison is overseer, pastor and shepherd to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in the line of apostolic succession from Peter and Paul and charged with keeping this "watch" and "guard";

And whereas the laity of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference are in need of their Bishop's faithful "watch" and "guard" of God's revealed Word;

Direct its beloved Bishop Susan M. Morrison to relate her position on the Re-Imagining Conference and the concept of Sophia as expressed in that conference.

It was seconded.

The Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury moved to table "A Resolution from Christ UMC, Federalsburg, Maryland," "Resolution on Holding a Theological Forum and Establishing a Theological Task Force," "Resolution Relating to Re-Imagining Conference" and "Resolution from St. Paul's & Charity UMC." The motion was defeated.

The Hoffman Amendment was defeated.

The vote on the amended "Resolution Relating to Re-Imaging Conference" was YES - 270 and NO - 195. It was adopted.

RESOLUTION FROM ST. PAUL'S & CHARITY CHURCHES: Rev. Paul Sherwood presented the following resolution:

Whereas, the Global Theological Conference by Women; For Women and Men held in Minneapolis on November 4-7, 1993 was attended and indirectly funded by the United Methodist Church;

Whereas, at the forementioned conference there were several attacks upon and disparagements of historical Christianity;

Whereas, doctrines such as the atonement, sexual propriety, and heterosexism were unduly belittled;

Whereas, the United Methodist Church, Council of Bishops, and the Women's Division have not clarified their disagreements with this matter;

Be it therefore resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference be on record as condemning these deeds;

Be it further resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference call upon the Council of Bishops and the Women's Division to clarify the issues our denomination opposes;

Be it further resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference withhold funds from the Women's Division unit such time as these concerns are properly addressed.

The resolution was defeated.

RESOLUTION ON HOLDING A THEOLOGICAL FORUM AND ESTABLISHING A THEOLOGICAL TASK FORCE: The Rev. Karen Booth presented the resolution and it was seconded.

The Rev. Susan Kester moved a Substitute Motion:

That a theological task force be formed each quadrennium including the current quadrennium by appointment of the Bishop and confirmation of the Conference Council on Ministries to study emerging theologies and the emerging new paradigms for the church and to create a theological forum to be offered the third year of the quadrennium (1995 for the current quadrennium) for pastors and lay members of the annual conference in which new theological perspectives may be presented for dialogue.

I further move that $5,000 per quadrennium be budgeted for this forum.

It was defeated by a vote of YES - 181 and NO - 229.

The Rev. Douglas Lindsay-Hudgins moved to amend the "Therefore be it resolved" by deleting the words "be required" and inserting "be encouraged." It passed.

Ms. Lynette Kenney moved to amend by adding "Be it further resolved that the Conference provide to each church a copy of the transcript from the Re-Imaging Conference; that each District Office be provided with a set of audio tapes from the Conference so that adequate and unbiased information will be available to all."

It was seconded. And Rev. Paul Bennett moved to amend the Kenney Amendment with these words, "that copies of transcripts/tapes of said conference (if available) be made available at cost at all District Offices, for any churches/individuals that request them." It was seconded and adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Bruce Cooke called for the Question and it was passed.

The amended resolution was adopted.

RESOLUTION FROM CHRIST UMC: The Rev. Donald Clendaniel, II presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the "Re-Imagining Conference: A Global Theological Conference By Women; For Women and Men" held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, November 1993 has caused such outrage and embarrassment for The United Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the format and purpose of this "Re-Imagining Conference" was, in the words of one conference speaker, "to destroy the patriarchal idolatry of Christianity", and to promote and celebrate the "blessings of gay and lesbian love"; and

WHEREAS, the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries' response to the demand for explanations about the shocking and unbiblical content of "Re-Imagining" has been evasive and inadequate; and

WHEREAS, the views held by the leadership of "Re-Imagining" do not reflect the faith and practice of the vast majority of Peninsula-Delaware Conference United Methodist clergy and laity;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church:

1. call upon the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries to offer an apology to the General Church for their participation in the "Re-Imagining Conference";
2. to withdraw from any further funding or participation in "The Ecumenical Decade/Churches in Solidarity With Women" program;
3. direct the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries to participate in ecumenical events which affirm the orthodox Christian faith of the denomination which its Division represents.

The Rev. Dr. Bruce Cooke called for the Question and the body approved it.

The resolution was defeated.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Ms. Kay P. Cloud, President of the Council on Finance & Administration, presented Mr. Ted Briggs and Mrs. Joan Warren to the Conference. They will be retiring this year. The conference gave them a standing ovation for their many years of service to the Conference. Ms. Cloud shared how the Business Office is being restructured by separating the Benefits Manager from the Treasurer's job.

BOARD OF PENSIONS REPORT: Mr. Warner Clark presented the Board's report and moved the following motions:

1. The past service rate for 1995 be $310 of approved service. It was adopted.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of the United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of their Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1994 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of the United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of the United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of the United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE:

The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

It was adopted.

Though the pension program is in good shape, he shared a few words of concern about the status of the Pension Program in the years ahead.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES REPORT: Ms. Doris Phillips presented the Commission recommendations for 1995 covering Minimum Salary, Service Increments, Travel and Toll Reimbursement which were all adopted. (The complete text is in the section "Adopted Conference Actions.")

The Rev. Douglas Ridley presented the changes to the conference policy on salary and moving. They were adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions for the text.

The Rev. Dr. James T. Seymour dismissed the Conference with prayer as the members took a luncheon recess.

1. That the 1995 Budget, in the amount of $4,957,520.00 be adopted. It was passed.
2. That 0.38 be the apportionment factor for 1995. It was passed.
3. In the event payments on apportionments fall short of the budget, C. F. & A. shall determine where to adjust the 1995 budget. It was passed.

Ms. Cloud then presented Mr. Ted Briggs (29 years of service) with a boutonniere and Mrs. Joan Warren (21 years of service) with a corsage.

The Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury moved "that the Council on Finance and Administration print the names of churches with apportionment adjustments, with amount, beginning with their report to the 1995 annual Conference." It failed.

LOST COIN PRESENTATION: The strategic planning team, based on Luke 15:8, presented a skit illustrating the 10 recommendations they have gleaned from their study of our conference area.

A CALL FOR A NEW STEWARDSHIP (A Non-binding Resolution): Rev. Gary L. Moore presented this resolution and it was adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions for the text.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES: Rev. John F. Mitchell, CCOM Chair, brought the conference up to date on the interim CCOM Director and that the staff position on Vital Congregations would go unfilled next year.

Rev. Mitchell then recognized the Rev. Harvey Manchester, Jr. who has served five years as an Associate Council Director and the last five years as the Council Director who is taking a Sabbatical Leave.

Rev. Mitchell called Rev. Dr. Lawrence Livingston forward to express our appreciation as he leaves as Associate Council Director to become the pastor of Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN: Mr. James Shaw gave the conference his report on how the conference did in 1993. His report can be found in the Conference Reports Section.

REPORT OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION: Rev. Howell Wilkins, Chair, gave an overview of the work of Camp Pecometh and Drayton Manor and introduced the new Director, Rev. Tom Carter who started in this position on November 1, 1993.

CAMP PECOMETH CAMPAIGN: The Rev. Dr. R. Jervis Cooke and the Rev. William Hemphill, Jr. presented their last report to the conference and asked for the adoption of the following recommendation:

"That the Conference Secretary be instructed to print in the 1994 Conference Journal the record of the 5-year giving of the churches and a summary of all other giving received during the Campaign, and that an addendum be included in the 1995 Journal to record additional gifts so that this will be part of the history of our Annual Conference."

It was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Willard L. Robinson, Jr. presented this resolution:

"Forasmuch as William Hemphill, Jr. has served as Executive Secretary of the Continuing Pecometh Campaign with little compensation;

Whereas, he has given excellent leadership in this endeavor;

Be it therefore resolved that this Annual Conference go on record thanking William Hemphill, Jr. for his faithful and untiring efforts in keeping the Conference informed of progress and needs as we have engaged in the Development Campaign for Camp Pecometh."

CORPORATE SESSION OF WESLEY COLLEGE: Mr. John Jardine, Chair of the Board of Trustees called the corporate session to order and introduced Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols, Chair of the Trustee Development Committee. Rev. Nichols presented the following slate of nominees:

Class of 1998

Clergy

The Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols
The Rev. Lawrence Livingston

Laity

Dr. George V. Kirk
Mr. Edward J. Bennett
Mr. Richard King Brown
Dr. Rafael Zaragoza
Mr. Charles Haskins

They were elected by the body.

Dr. Reed Steward, President of Wesley College, gave an overview of the school's progress and introduced new staff members. The Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr., College Chaplain, gave an address on the relationship of the church to education.

Following a prayer by the Rev. Charles E. Barton, Jr., a College Trustee, Mr. Jardine adjourned the session.

LAITY ADDRESS: Mrs. Dolly Brittingham, Conference Lay Leader, gave a message on the ministry of the laity.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES & HISTORY: The Rev. Dr. Mark Pruett-Barnett, Commission Chair, presented a copy of John Wesley's Sunday Service, which had recently been found and placed in the museum at Barratt's Chapel. It is the 34th extant copy of the text. History is precious and precarious! Barratt's Chapel now has a permanent Endowment Fund to assist in the preservation of the Chapel and local Methodist history.

The Commission recognized the winners of a recent video history contest:

Pulleys Chapel, Whaleysville, Maryland
Aldersgate UMC, Wilmington, Delaware
Simpson UMC, Wilmington, Delaware

MOTION ON LIMITED SERVICE CHURCHES: The Conference Cabinet presented the motion which was adopted. It is found in the Adopted Conference Actions and in the Limited Service section.

PROPERTY MATTERS: The Rev. Howard L. Gordy, Jr., Salisbury District Superintendent, presented the following motions:

"Whereas the Campbelltown United Methodist Church located on Campbelltown Road off State Route 610 near Whaleysville, Worcester County, Maryland, was placed on limited service by the Salisbury-Riverside Charge Conference, and is so deteriorated that it can no longer be restored to usage for worship,

Be it therefore resolved that the 1994 Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference declare it abandoned, and place in the custody of the Conference Board of Trustees for sale."

It was approved.

"Whereas the present policies of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference permit the placing of local churches on limited service when the respective Charge Conferences officially vote that they are no longer capable of being maintained on full service,

Be it therefore resolved that the Portersville Church on the Girdletree-Stockton Charge be declared on limited service effective January 1, 1994 and the Siloam Church on the Salisbury-Riverside Charge be declared on limited service effective January 1, 1994."

It was approved.

The Rev. Charlotte A. Nichols, Easton District Superintendent, moved that --

"the Claiborne United Methodist Church of the Bozman-Riverview Charge on the Easton District be granted limited service status effective January 1, 1994 and be added to the list of limited service churches published in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Journal."

It was approved.

"the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church and New Christian Chapel of Love United Methodist Church of the Still Pond-Coleman Charge on the Easton District be merged and become a new congregation known as the New Christian Chapel of Love United Methodist Church effective January 1, 1994."

It was approved.

C. ADOPTED CONFERENCE ACTIONS

1. A RESOLUTION AFFIRMING THE MARRIAGE COVENANT AND THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOOD NEWS THROUGH MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER - UNITED METHODIST

WHEREAS, "with his presence and power Jesus graced a wedding at Cana of Galilee, and in his sacrificial love gave us the example for the love of husband and wife;" (p. 117, "Service of Christian Marriage, The United Methodist Book of Worship, 1992); and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has affirmed the "sanctity of the marriage covenant which is expressed in love, mutual support, personal commitment, and shared fidelity between a man and a woman", and "that God's blessing rests upon such marriage....;" (p. 34f., The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, 1992); and,

WHEREAS, as the Church of Jesus Christ we need to seek ways to affirm the relationships of married couples and offer opportunities to make "good marriages" even better; and,

WHEREAS, MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER - UNITED METHODIST (an affiliate of the General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church and Worldwide Marriage Encounter) is a time-tested weekend experience designed to allow a man and woman with a good marriage the opportunity to examine their lives together as well as their relationship with their family, God and society; and

WHEREAS, MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER - UNITED METHODIST offers couples the opportunity to develop a deeper level of communicating with one another (through the art of listening as well as talking) and thus the chance to fully experience the joy and potential their lives and marriage may yet hold;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church will:

1. Encourage all of our member pastors and congregations to join with churches worldwide in celebrating "World Marriage Day" on the second Sunday in February throughout the years to come; and
2. Make available to every married couple in our congregations information regarding "Marriage Encounter - United Methodist Weekends" and the opportunity this provides them to affirm their relationship as a couple who have vowed to love each other even as Christ has loved them.

2. RESOLUTION REGARDING SUBSTANCE ABUSE

WHEREAS, the Church, in our society, has the responsibility of helping persons; and

WHEREAS, abuse and dependence upon chemical substances, alcohol and other drugs, are on the increase among young teens and young adults; and

WHEREAS, much of the violence evident in communities and families is directly related to substance abuse;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that every United Methodist Charge within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference become involved in some activity, hold some event, or engage in some effort to address the issue of alcohol or other drug abuse.

3. RESOLUTION ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND CHILD ABUSE

WHEREAS, the issue of domestic violence is becoming increasingly prevalent in today's society, including in its definition the issue of child abuse and neglect; and

WHEREAS, the voice of the victim -- be it spouse or child -- is too often silenced by that of the accused, so that "justice" may prevail; and

WHEREAS, the rights of the victim are seldom brought to light, but drown in the light of the rights of the accused;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference become aware of and actively involved in domestic violence survivors support groups and children's rights advocacies; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support legislation that will give the victim's voice the ability to be heard and that we discourage legislation that will enhance the accused's right to unjust protection and support; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference transmit this resolution to the duly elected representatives of state and federal government representing those areas within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

4. RESOLUTION AGAINST THE INTRODUCTION OF SLOT MACHINES INTO THE STATE OF DELAWARE

WHEREAS, the 1992 United Methodist Church, Book of Discipline, Social Principles, Paragraph 73G, states that, "...Gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, economic, and spiritual life, and destructive to good government. As an act of faith and love, Christians should abstain from gambling..." and that, "...Community standards and personal life styles should be such as would make unnecessary and undesirable the resort to commercial gambling, including public lotteries, as a recreation, as an escape, or as a means of producing public revenue or funds for support of charities [private business, race tracks, fraternal and veterans groups] or government..."; and

WHEREAS, the 1992 Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, further states in a Resolution entitled "UMC Position on Gambling," adopted 1980 that, "We oppose the growing legalization and state promotion of gambling. Dependence on gambling revenue has led many states to exploit the weakness of their own citizens, neglect the development of more equitable forms of taxation, and thereby further erode the citizens' confidence in government..."; and

WHEREAS, the 1992 Book of Resolutions further states in a resolution entitled, "The United Methodist Church's Position on Gambling," adopted in 1992 that, "...community standards and personal life styles should be such as would make unnecessary and undesirable the resort to commercial gambling, including public lotteries, as a recreation, as an escape, or as a means of producing public revenue or funds [or private revenue] for support of charities [private business, race tracks, fraternal and veterans groups] or government"; and

WHEREAS, the number of organizations and governments throughout the country using lotteries, [slot machines,] raffles, and bingo as a revenue resource has dramatically increased recently; and

WHEREAS, high-stakes gambling has led to tragedy and the disruption of community life; and

WHEREAS, raffles and other types of gambling methods are used in some United Methodist Churches; and

WHEREAS, many other Christian denominations rely heavily upon the proceeds from raffles, lotteries, and other gambling devices as means of fund raising; and

WHEREAS, the Book of Resolutions, "Gambling," adopted in 1980 states that, "...One of the essential commandments, according to Jesus, is "Love thy neighbor as thyself" (Matthew 22:39-40). This, together with loving God with all of one's being, summarizes all of the law. Gambling, as a means of keeping material gain only by chance and at the neighbor's expense, is a menace to personal character and social morality. Gambling fosters greed and stimulates the fatalistic faith in chance. Organized and commercial gambling is a threat to business, breeds crime and poverty, and is destructive to the interests of good government...";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church go on record as opposing the introduction of slot machines at veterans posts, Elk and Moose lodges, race tracks or any other public place in the State of Delaware; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference transmit this resolution to the Governor and members of the General Assembly of the State of Delaware.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference be instructed to send a letter of gratitude thanking Governor Thomas Carper for his leadership in helping to stop the bills designed to allow slot machine gambling in the State of Delaware.

5. RESOLUTION RELATING TO "RE-IMAGINING" CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the issues raised at the "Re-Imagining" Conference held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in November 1993 have caused considerable concern within The United Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, some of the positions taken at the conference are contrary to the Biblical role of Jesus Christ, as evidenced by Christ's own statement in John 14:6, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me"; and

WHEREAS, there may have been coercion among those attending the conference through the use of monitors and the conference newsletter to encourage the support of "Sophia Worship", contrary to the traditional teachings of Christianity; and

WHEREAS, although this conference was an ecumenical event, it was a part of "The Ecumenical Decade - Churches in Solidarity with Women", which has the endorsement of the 1988 United Methodist General Conference and the 1993 United Methodist Council of Bishops.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church immediately and publicly disavows all teachings and activities of the "Re-Imagining" Conference that are outside the United Methodist DISCIPLINE (Book of Discipline 1992, Paragraph 67, Section 3, Article 1) or which, in any way, deny or diminish the centrality of the life, death, resurrection, and teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Annual Conference affirm the position stated by retired U.M.C. Bishop William R. Cannon that "Christianity rests on the mighty acts of God in history...It begins with a babe in a manger in Bethlehem, focuses on a teacher and performer of miracles in Galilee, points to an old rugged cross, and a man dying on it, and culminates with an empty tomb in a garden outside Jerusalem and a Savior risen from the dead. Christianity rests on history, not ideology. When any person or group of persons, male or female, exalts its own interests and values above everything else, especially to the extent of trying to alter the concept of reality to suit its own aims - then that person or group of persons collapses into idolatry, worshiping self and class rather than God."

6. RESOLUTION ON HOLDING A THEOLOGICAL FORUM AND ESTABLISHING A THEOLOGICAL TASK FORCE

WHEREAS, we are a coalition of pastors from all four districts, both young in ministry and long experienced, male and female, black and white, and from several different theological perspectives - charismatic, conservative, evangelical, centrist and liberal; and

WHEREAS, we are deeply concerned about the controversy arising from the "Re-Imagining Conference" and from teachings and practices around the concept of Wisdom/Sophia; and

WHEREAS, we believe that these issues pose a challenge to traditional understandings of Wesleyan belief and practice and have the potential to divide our churches and denomination; and

WHEREAS, we believe that many Peninsula-Delaware Conference United Methodists, lay and clergy, are responding to these issues with inadequate or biased information; and

WHEREAS, we also affirm that these issues offer the church a "teachable moment", an opportunity for open and honest dialogue directed toward healing, wholeness and understanding; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Morrison, in her response in the March 11th issue of The Communicator, has identified a need for this opportunity for "theological dialogue";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that in order to take advantage of this opportunity, by Annual Conference 1995, a Conference-wide Theological Forum will be held to address these issues, to which all pastors and all Lay Members and other interested laity be encouraged to attend; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this will be a balanced forum, including prominent spokespersons from divergent theological perspectives; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a Theological Task Force, consisting of the following pastors, be established to plan and implement this forum: Chair: Karen Booth (Long Neck, Millsboro, DE) and members: John Mitchell (St. John's, Seaford, DE),

Cynthia Koski (Bethesda, Middletown, DE), Tom Blakelock (Antioch, Princess Anne, MD), and Sandra Steiner Ball (St. Luke's, St. Michael's, MD); also to be included are the Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry (Jonathan Baker - Epworth, Rehoboth Beach, DE) and the Conference Council Director (Rev. Lehman R. Tomlin, Jr.);

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board of Laity appoint one lay person from each district, to include representation from the United Methodist Women, as members of the Task Force; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Council on Finance and Administration be requested to fund this Theological Forum from its Contingency Fund with expenses not to exceed $5000.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference provide to each church a copy of the transcript from the Re-Imagining Conference; that each District Office be provided with a set of audio tapes from the Conference so that adequate and unbiased information will be available to all (that copies of transcripts/tapes of said conference - if available - be made available at cost to all District Offices, for any churches/individuals that request them).

7. BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1995 be $310 per year of approved service.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of the United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of their Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1994 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;

2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of the United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of the United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of the United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE:

The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

8. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

A. Minimum Salary

The Commission on Equitable Compensation makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 1995:

Full-Time Elder	$ 20,000
Full-Time Probationary Member	$ 18,200
Associate Member	$ 18,200
Full-Time Local Pastor	$ 16,900
Student Pastor	$ 14,300

The minimum salary for Student Pastors will be $14,300 for 1995, unless some smaller figure is agreed upon by the student, District Superintendent, and Charge, as being appropriate for the work to be performed.

B. OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS:

Service increments are to be held at $125.00 per year for 15 years.

Reimbursement for travel expenses during 1995 will be at the rate set by the I.R.S. for that year.

In addition, we also recommend that pastors be reimbursed for tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of pastoral duties.

C. DEFINITION OF SALARY:

At the 1982 session of the Peninsula Annual Conference, the following recommendation of the then Commission on Equitable Salary was approved:

Resolved that "salary" be understood to include actual cash paid to the minister plus any amount paid by the charge toward the minister's 3% pension payment, social security tax and/or tax-deferred annuity. It shall exclude parsonage and utilities expense (or housing allowance), reimbursement for travel expenses, pension payments which are the responsibility of the charge, and the cost of such fringe benefits as medical insurance for the family and life insurance for the minister for which the charge pays voluntarily.

It is the recommendation of the Commission that we reaffirm this wording, and amend it by the following:

insert after "tax-deferred annuity" the words "and any other cash allowances (such as book or furniture allowance)."

D. MOVING POLICY CHANGES:

The Commission recommends that we amend the wording of item 4a of the Pastor Moving Policies as approved at the 1993 session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, and printed on page 242 of the 1993 Conference Journal, by adding the words "as a pastor of a local charge, a District Superintendent, or a member of the Conference staff" between the words "active ministry" and "except", so that the reading will now be

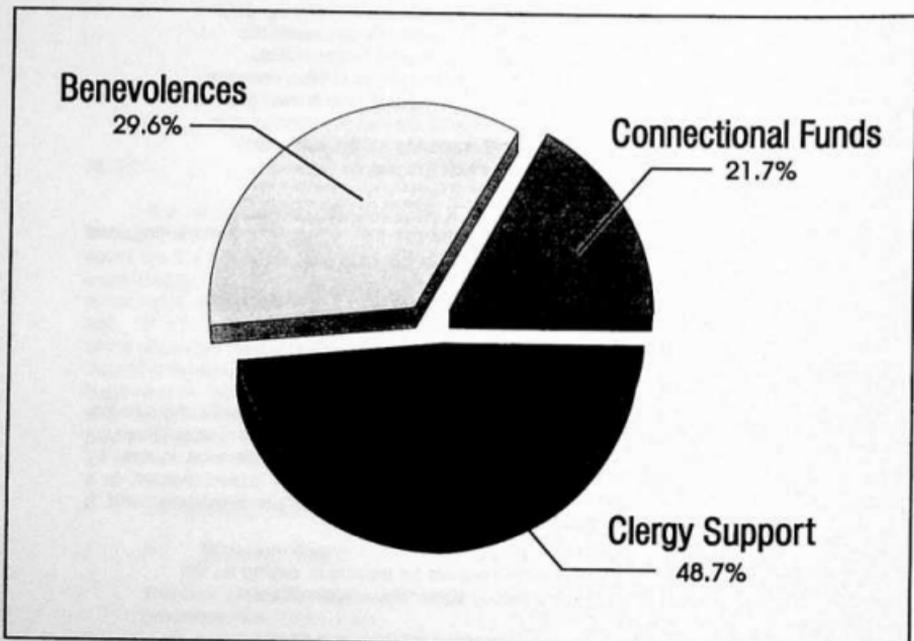

4. The Conference shall be responsible for moving or paying for the move under any of the following circumstances/conditions:

- a) when a pastor retires from active ministry as a pastor of a local church, a District Superintendent, or a member of the Conference staff, except when he/she is moving to a charge to continue service (e.g. as a retired supply pastor).

9. COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION RECOMMENDATIONS:

- A. That the 1995 Budget, in the amount of $4,957,520.00, be adopted.
- B. That 0.38 be the apportionment factor for 1995.
- C. In the event payments on apportionments fall short of the budget, C.F. & A. shall determine where to adjust the 1995 Budget.

PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE BUDGET 1995

Come, Share, Rejoice

COME, SHARE, REJOICE

The 1995 budget has been organized into three major categories:

- I. Benevolences
- II. Connectional Funds
- III. Clergy Support

A summary of the budget with category descriptions is found on the following page. The pages that follow list all the line items that make up each category along with a brief description of the ministries the line item provides. We trust this information will be a useful tool in understanding both the budget and the ministry it supports.

Since some groups in the Annual Conference are involved in more than one category, their budget is appropriately divided among those categories. For example, since the work of the Board of Global Ministries involves both benevolence and connectional ministries, one portion of its request appears under "Benevolences" and the other under "Connectional Funds".

10. A CALL FOR A NEW STEWARDSHIP (A Non-Binding Resolution):

- WHEREAS, the annual conference was organized to be a connectional body of pastors and local churches engaged in the passionate ministry of warming the hearts of sinners and spreading scriptural holiness throughout the land;
- WHEREAS, our Annual Conference has always been concerned with the issues of fairness and stewardship;
- WHEREAS, the Council on Finance & Administration has set a goal of reviewing the present procedure (Action Goal 5 on C-3, line 4: "C.F. & A. review method of calculating apportionments.");
- WHEREAS, the demand of our time requires the local church to address more and more social problems at their front door;
- WHEREAS, the local church continues to be the most effective place to make disciples of Jesus Christ;
- WHEREAS, the more a local church grows the more attractive it becomes to winning other new people to Christ (1);
- WHEREAS, the more a local church grows the more it costs to be in mission per worshipper making their apportionment increase more per worshipper (2);
- WHEREAS, growth in the local church puts greater stress upon pastoral coverage and creates the need for specialized staff (3);
- WHEREAS, our unified, expense based apportionment system reallocates resources away from the primary place of ministry, the local church, to secondary, non-direct levels of ministry;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Council on Finance and Administration be encouraged to pursue the development of a new apportionment system that focuses on the local churches ability to disciple sinners while serving its neighbor and allows larger member churches to develop staffs and systems of care that can better serve their worshippers, thereby creating a New Stewardship for a New Century.

11. CAMP PECOMETH CONTINUATION CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

Our final report on the Camp Pecometh Capital Funds Campaign will be a brief update of our Pre-Conference Report. As of May 25, 1994, a total of $2,425,986 has been received from all sources. Of the 300 churches that accepted a campaign goal, 167 have now contributed 100% or more of what they said they expected to give. Seventy-four of these churches have exceeded their goal. Of the churches giving 100% or more, 38 of them accepted either the suggested goal or an amount in excess of it. One hundred sixty-six clergy pledged to the Campaign and have given a total of $110,404. Ninety-eight of these clergy have paid their pledge in full and 34 of these have given in excess of what they pledged. Although 38% of the churches did not accept a goal, we are pleased to report that 136 of these churches have contributed a total of $182,918 to the Campaign. As of this report, 90% of the churches have participated in this priority to expand Pecometh. These figures may be even better when the books are finally closed on June 30, 1994.

Although we are far short of the goal of $3.3 million, we urge the Conference to celebrate what has been accomplished as a result of the faithful giving and money-raising efforts of so many people throughout our Conference. Ten new buildings have been erected along with water, septic and road systems to make them functional. And money is now in hand to enlarge the dining hall and modernize the kitchen this fall. Now the Camp facilities can efficiently and creatively serve a much larger number of campers, and the diverse location of the new buildings provides for a multiplicity of programs to be conducted at the same time. Surely we ought to rejoice as we celebrate this accomplishment and give glory to God. Because of our giving, Pecometh can now more effectively fulfill its mission of spiritually forming Christian disciples who will lead the Church in the future.

But we must remind you that the task is not completed. Four more cabins need to be built to serve additional campers. The new washhouses are of a size that will accommodate them. And new staff housing is urgently needed to replace the dilapidated old house now used. This will be a winterized building so that it can also accommodate weekend retreats throughout the year. This and the new cabins will cost an estimated $200,000. This is less than one-third of the unmet goals of our churches. If the church you represent has a large unpaid amount remaining on the goal you accepted, we challenge you to go home and work with your Administrative Board/Council and ask them to commit to raising at least one-third of that amount during this coming year. Already a few churches have written of their intent to give through 1995, and others have given verbal statements of intention. Although the Campaign officially ends June 30, we urge you to voluntarily work and pray and give until these remaining needs at Pecometh are met.

Again we express gratitude for the excellent support of the Conference Business Office and the Council on Ministries Support Staff, for all who served on this Committee, and for the cooperation of pastors and lay leaders in this effort. Praise be to God for the success that has been experienced, and for the vastly increased ministry that these new facilities make possible.

12. RESOLUTION DESIGNATING DUDLEY'S CHAPEL AS A UNITED METHODIST HISTORIC SITE:

Whereas, Dudley's Chapel was constructed in 1783, prior to the organization of Methodism as a church at the Christmas Conference of 1784; and

Whereas, Dudley's Chapel is one of the oldest surviving houses of worship in North American Methodism; and

Whereas, Dudley's Chapel has seen a number of the major pioneers of North American Methodism pass through its doors; and

Whereas, Dudley's Chapel has mirrored in its own history the triumph and struggles of nineteenth century Methodism in the United States;

Therefore, Be It Resolved that Dudley's Chapel be designated a United Methodist Historic Site by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

13. A MOTION FROM THE CABINET CONCERNING LIMITED SERVICE CHURCHES

It is moved that the 1973 action of this Annual Conference (Reference pages 152-153, 1973 Journal) be amended to add the following:

8. Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
9. The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
10. Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

14. RESOLUTION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY FOCUS FOR 1995

WHEREAS, the 1991 Peninsula Annual Conference agreed to support the recommendation to General Conference regarding the emphases on Campus Ministry;

WHEREAS, the 1992 General Conference designated the 1993-1996 quadrennium to focus on Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center;

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference has Wesley Foundation campus ministries (Conference supported ministries) at four different universities and one chaplaincy at The United Methodist supported college within the boundaries of the Conference;

WHEREAS, many local congregations and pastors are unaware of the ministries provided by the Wesley Foundations or the chaplaincy;

BE IT RESOLVED, that the focus of the 1995 Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference be Campus Ministry: A Vital Mission of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

15. BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP RESOLUTION FOR MAKING DISCIPLES IN THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the mission and ministry of the Annual Conference is accomplished at the doorstep of the local churches, it is the local church where ministry "happens"; and

WHEREAS, the task of making disciples in the church is to meet people where they are, to introduce them to God, to nurture them in the faith, and to send them out to serve; and

WHEREAS, this four-fold task can only be generated in the life of the local congregation; and

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Discipleship is a channel or an instrument for God's power to flow through in the process of making disciples, which is lived out in local congregations; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Discipleship acts as a resourcing pool, an enabling agent, and a communications network to support local congregations in the ongoing task of making disciples; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Discipleship is the Conference agent given responsibility and authority to engage and challenge the church members in making disciples.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, with the leadership of the Board of Discipleship, engage in a process of seeking the needs of local churches for spiritual renewal that will enhance excitement for our ultimate task of making disciples of Jesus Christ; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that every congregation be represented by the active participation of the Pastor and Chairpersons of Administrative Board/Council, Council on Ministries, and those responsible for the tasks of Christian Education, Evangelism, Stewardship, Worship, and any others who want to attend (but at least six people), to a district "Primary Task" Forum, sponsored by the Board of Discipleship; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Annual Conference encourage local churches to consider, promote, and implement the Vision 2000 concept for ministry; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference approve and actively support the Conference Board of Discipleship as the agent to assist the local church with the implementation of this resolution.

16. HOWARD BAILEY LIFE ENRICHMENT PROGRAM (HBLEP) RESOLUTION TO CREATE A FULL TIME CONFERENCE LEVEL EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR POSITION

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference recognizes the need to implement and develop new paradigms of ministry to minister to those outside the mainstream of society; and

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference acknowledges that one of those groups is African-American youth who sometimes grow up without hope for their lives; and

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference was proactive in addressing the spiritual, social, and emotional needs of African-American youth in its development of the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program; and

WHEREAS, the HBLEP for the past three years, with volunteer and very little part time staffing, has served more than three-hundred youth, and indirectly their families, churches, communities and schools in its ministry which affirms, inspires, informs and transforms their lives for Jesus Christ; and

WHEREAS, HBLEP has also served, directly school programs, churches, and community organizations; and

WHEREAS, the HBLEP ministry, at another level, is in the process of training and empowering a group of youth leaders and counselors known as the HBLEP "Followers of Christ"; and

WHEREAS, the HBLEP has added to the inclusiveness and vitality of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference; and

WHEREAS, the HBLEP ministry, on July 1, 1993, was authorized by the cabinet to employ, on a part time basis, an executive director, a position to which a clergy member of the annual conference is currently under part time appointment beyond the local church; and

WHEREAS, the part time executive director has been able to further develop the administration of the HBLEP ministry; but

WHEREAS, the demand for this ministry has expanded beyond the ability of part time directorship, due to resourcing African American churches, relating to majority churches, development of models for ministry; and

THEREFORE, be it resolved that a Task Force be developed to explore the feasibility of establishing a full time HBLEP Executive Director position accountable to the Conference Council on Ministries, to begin July 1, 1995; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the task force include, the HBLEP Chairperson, the HBLEP Board Advisor, CCOM Director, the Strategic Planning Group Coordinator, a Council on Finance and Administration Representative, a member of the Cabinet, and two Lay Members of the Annual Conference appointed by the Bishop; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the Task Force will report to the February Conference Council on Ministries meeting for action.

17. POLICY STATEMENT OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT INVOLVING CLERGY

WHEREAS, the present policy covers only clergy it does not address in entirety the "heart of the Christian ministry" as defined in Part IV, Section III of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 1992 edition; and

WHEREAS, the pastoral office is a position of great trust, responsibility and power, it is simply an extension of the ministry of all Christians (laity and clergy); and

WHEREAS, the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) at their meeting held in February 1993 at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina discussed sexual harassment/sexual misconduct and expressed concern that laity are being left out of this discussion; and

WHEREAS, COSROW agreed to put its efforts to combat sexual misconduct in the church at the top of a list of four priorities for 1993-1994; and

WHEREAS, we understand ourselves as the Peninsula-Delaware Conference COSROW in light of Section IX, Annual Conference, Paragraphs 741.1 and 741.1d in harmony with 2203.2 (General Commission) to be charged with the monitoring processes of the Policy Statement of Sexual Misconduct Involving Clergy of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, adopted at the 1993 Annual Conference (1993 Journal page 265); and

WHEREAS, in Judicial Administration of the Church, Section II, Investigations, Trials and Appeals, paragraph 2623.3, we are reminded that a lay member of the local church may be charged with sexual abuse, sexual harassment or immorality.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church, believe that the policy statement of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, which is directed at sexual misconduct by clergy, should be amended to include sexual misconduct by laity.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the title of this policy statement be changed to read:
POLICY STATEMENT OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT INVOLVING CLERGY AND/OR LAITY.

18. RESOLUTION OPPOSING MANDATORY MINIMUM SENTENCES

In 1986 Congress passed laws that impose mandatory minimum sentences for drug and firearm offenses. These sentences require an offender to serve a predetermined number of years in prison based solely on the weight of a drug or the presence of a firearm. The offender is not eligible for parole and must serve the full term of his/her sentence. Many states have adopted similar laws, including Delaware and Maryland.

WHEREAS, mandatory minimum sentences do not take into consideration the Christian view of justice which considers a person's entire motivation and circumstances;

WHEREAS, biblical teaching on justice does not call for simply warehousing criminals; it calls for restoring peace--the shalom--of the community;

WHEREAS, mandatory minimum sentences are unjust because they undermine basic American traditions and expectations of justice both from a legal perspective and Christian ethic;

WHEREAS, mandatory minimum sentences strip judges of their power to determine a fair sentence based on all the factors of the case;

WHEREAS, mandatory minimum sentences create disparities based on race;

WHEREAS, low-level participants receive mandatory minimum sentences more often than top-level drug importers;

WHEREAS, small differences in drug weight result in major differences in sentences;

WHEREAS, nonviolent, first offenders regularly spend more time in prison than violent criminals;

WHEREAS, the rate of crime has continued to climb since mandatory minimum sentences were enacted;

WHEREAS, those groups that publicly oppose these sentences include the Federal Courts Study Committee, the U.S. Sentencing Commission, the American Bar Association, the ACLU, each of the 12 Federal Judicial Conferences, and the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, and an ever increasing number of members of Congress who recognize the need to change this law;

WHEREAS, this resolution does not argue that crime should go unpunished--it simply argues that the punishment should fit the crime;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference go on record as opposing the practice of mandatory minimum sentencing; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference transmit this resolution to the duly elected representatives of state and federal government representing those areas within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that state and federal representatives and members and organizations within the Christian community develop means by which those convicted of crimes can serve their time in alternative forms of punishment such as community-based sentencing: work programs, house arrest, electronic monitoring, restitution and reconciliation programs; and for addicts, mandatory drug treatment.

19. RESOLUTION ON THE CHALLENGE OF PEACE IN A WARRING WORLD

"[Christ Jesus] is himself our peace... and in his own body of flesh and blood has broken down the enmity which stood like a dividing wall.... For he [came] to create... a single new humanity in himself, thereby making peace." Ephesians 2:13-16.

WHEREAS, the number of armed conflicts in the world involving one or more governments has been rising since 1991 in an extending pattern of growing violence and human suffering in local wars(1); and

WHEREAS, the potential for future conflicts is heightened by demographic, environmental, and societal stresses which are exacerbated by overpopulation, disease, refugee migrations, the scarcity of resources, the break down of nation-states and international borders, and the growth of private armies and international drug cartels(2); and

WHEREAS, the "enemies of peace" identified by the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church as -- blind self-interest, economic exploitation, racism, population explosion, nationalism, reliance upon military violence, and the arms race -- continue to go unabated(3); and

WHEREAS, the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church in their "Call for Peace and the Self-Development of Peoples" urges United Methodists to study and deal with the root causes of war by understanding and acting upon God's "conditions" for peace which are theological and practical; personal and cultural; attitudinal and systemic(4);

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the congregations of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference commit themselves:

1. To pray and preach that God is the source of our peace and that he has called us to be his servants and peacemakers in a warring world;
2. To study the "Bishops' Call for Peace and the Self-Development of Peoples" found on pages 547-554 of The Book of Resolutions, 1992;
3. To utilize resources from the Conference Board of Church and Society, Pacem in Terris, and the General Board of Church and Society to increase their understanding of current conflicts in the world and of their possible resolutions.
4. To utilize resources from the Conference Board of Church & Society, Pacem in Terris and the General Board of Church & Society to increase their understanding of conflict resolution and how to become peacemakers in the family, workplace, school, church and community.

20. RESOLUTION ON WELLNESS

WHEREAS Jesus sent out the twelve to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal (Luke 9:2) and set an example of a healing ministry that includes both the spiritual and the physical status of a person (Matthew 9:20-22); and

WHEREAS The United Methodist Church, as an entity, believes that Christ's healing was not peripheral but central to his ministry and understands itself as called by the Lord to the holistic ministry of healing: spiritual, mental, emotional, and physical (The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 1992, p. 273, Adopted 1984); and

WHEREAS we as United Methodists are called to a ministry of health and wholeness and have gone on record to accept the challenge to make health concerns a priority in the church with special emphases on preventive care (including health education) and special health concerns and needs of children and youth (Resolutions, p. 277); and

WHEREAS The United Methodist Church has joined with the international community affirming health for all by the year 2000 (Resolutions, p. 279); and

WHEREAS over half of the students using school-based clinics have no other primary source of health care and one-third of them have no form of health insurance; and

WHEREAS there are currently health clinics at five high schools in Delaware (Middletown, Sussex, Christiana, Dover, and Lake Forest) in operation and three more (Kent Polytech, Newark, and Glasgow) will open in 1994;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church go on record as supporting Governor Tom Carper's priority of establishing a health clinic in each of Delaware's 28 high schools;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Conference Secretary send a copy of this resolution to Governor Carper, Lt. Governor Minner, and the duly elected representatives of the State of Delaware.

21. RESOLUTION SUPPORTING DIVERSITY WORKSHOPS

WHEREAS, Galatians 3:28 states, "There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus"; and

WHEREAS, the equality of all peoples through Christ Jesus is not yet lived by all Christians and our society continues to fall short of assuring equal justice and opportunity for all; and

WHEREAS, we help to perpetuate the prejudice that results in exclusion, institutionalized discrimination, and even acts of violence when we allow misunderstandings and tensions to exist between groups of people and when we fail to appreciate the history and heritage of all peoples within the geographical area of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference; and

WHEREAS, the "Welcoming Diversity" workshop developed by the National Coalition Building Institute teaches participants how to identify the misinformation we carry about ourselves and others, how to heal the emotional wounds resulting from mistreatment, and how to reclaim the power to challenge all forms of discrimination; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Church and Society has offered this workshop to members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference through training events at Drayton Retreat Center and on the Dover District and will continue to do so throughout the Conference with District and local church cooperation; and

WHEREAS, clergy and lay participants have found the workshops effective in giving them the skills needed to develop positive relationships across the barriers built by stereotyping, racism, and sexism; and have caught glimpses through the workshop of the love in action that is necessary for Shalom;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of The United Methodist Church commits itself:

1. To endorsing and encouraging Diversity Workshops as a means of breaking down barriers and affirming the history and heritage of every group within the boundaries of the Conference;
2. To affirming the intention to hold Diversity Workshops throughout the Conference on the District and local church levels;
3. To calling on Conference members to use these workshops beyond the church in their secular activities.

22. RESOLUTION ON HEALTH CARE REFORM

WHEREAS the reform of Health Care delivery in our nation is a major issue of our times and an opportunity now exists to help shape health care reform legislation currently under consideration by Congress; and

WHEREAS the United Methodist perspective on this issue is based on the Biblical understanding that salvation embraces wholeness of mind, body and spirit (Resolution titled "Universal Access to Health Care in the United States and Related Territories," The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church, 1992, page 395, adopted 1992); and

WHEREAS "Jesus revealed the meaning of divine love in his acts of healing for all and the meaning of justice in his inclusion of all persons in the healing and saving power of God." (Book of Resolutions, 1992, page 395); and

WHEREAS in the United States today there are problems of access to health care to the extent that approximately 37 million persons are without health insurance coverage and approximately 58 million will find themselves at sometime within a given year without insurance coverage because of other factors such as loss of employment, etc.; and

WHEREAS the escalating costs of health care across America, due to the present system, have resulted in the spending of 900 billion dollars in 1993 and more than a trillion dollars projected in 1994; and

WHEREAS there is also considerable administrative waste in the current health care system along with great inequality in health care delivery with the effect that this issue has become a justice issue as well as an economic issue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the congregations in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference be encouraged to become better informed about health care reform matters by organizing discussion forums and obtaining relevant literature from the Interreligious Health Care Access Campaign (at 110 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Suite 504, Box 63, Washington, DC 20002);

BE FURTHER RESOLVED that United Methodists in our Conference be encouraged to become advocates for universal access to comprehensive, quality health care benefits with funding drawn from the broadest possible resource base and with effective cost controls;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that congregations be asked to support the observance of a Health Care Sabbath during Summer 1994 as a means whereby churches can connect faith with action and reach out to the local community, acting ecumenically, wherever possible, in our respective localities;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that United Methodists be encouraged to convey our concern for universal coverage and comprehensive quality benefits to our congressional members either by visit, letter, postcard or other means;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Delaware and Maryland members of Congress; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference support the Interreligious Health Care Access Campaign and its public policy advocacy to provide access to universal health care for all persons living in the United States and Related Territories.

23. A RESOLUTION URGING SUPPORT OF THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ESTABLISHING THE RIGHTS OF CRIME VICTIMS IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND

WHEREAS, victims of crime and their families are often victimized again by a criminal justice system which routinely ignores their pain, excludes them from the judicial process, and assaults their dignity;

WHEREAS, the need to be kept informed of, to be present at, and to be heard during criminal justice proceedings is a critical part of the healing process for victims and their families;

WHEREAS, constitutional due process in the State of Maryland does not currently recognize the rights of crime victims and their families;

WHEREAS, fourteen other states have already passed constitutional amendments establishing the rights of crime victims and their lawful representatives;

WHEREAS, the proposed amendment to Maryland's constitution does not reduce or restrict the established rights of the accused in any way;

WHEREAS, a Biblical understanding of neighbor love calls us to respond to victims of crime with compassion in the spirit of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37);

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Social Principles call for the creation of "genuinely new systems for the care and support of the victims of crime..." (Paragraph 74.F.);

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Resolution entitled "Victims of Crime" recognizes the need to provide for certain rights of victims of crime and their lawful representatives (The Book of Resolutions, pp. 540-41);

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church encourages congregations in the State of Maryland to actively support passage of the November 1994 referendum on a constitutional amendment establishing the rights of victims of crime.

24. RESOLUTION FROM AFRICAN-AMERICAN CLERGY AND LAITY SUMMIT:

WHEREAS, The Peninsula-Delaware Conference was in dialogue immediately prior to the 1994 Annual Conference through the African-American Clergy and Laity Summit; and

WHEREAS, God, through the proclamation of old and contemporary prophets, summons the people of God to seek the eternal face, humble themselves and pray; and

WHEREAS, the Promise from the Almighty is healing for our nations and the bestowal of great blessings upon us; and

WHEREAS, The Peninsula-Delaware Conference has issues and concerns which are specific to congregations of people of color, such as, non-accessibility to health programs, "maintenance mode of ministry" due to unnatural church alignments, charges with three or more churches, and negative consequences of racism.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference call upon each District Superintendent to organize and implement Prayer and Teaching Institutes which will include dialogue and reflection; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a Task Force be commissioned to include B.M.C.R./B.U.M.P. representation to study the possibilities of new and more effective ways to maximize ministry of African-American Churches. This study shall include, but not be limited to, mergers, church closings, new church development, and realignment. This Task Force shall be formed by the October Conference Council on Ministries and report back to the 1995 Annual Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference encourage and support, through the appropriate agencies, health care issues related to people of color; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Commission on Religion and Race, the Bishop and Cabinet (including the Associate Council Director for Vital Congregations) and a B.M.C.R. designee be in dialogue concerning the 1994 African-American Clergy and Laity Summit and its implications.

D. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORTS

Dover District

This year has been another good year for the Dover District. The year began in a busy way for the Superintendent, who was also attempting to guide Camp Pecometh through its summer program. With the excellent help of the already in place staff, this proved to be a joyous assignment.

The charge conferences again were held in a worship setting with the renewal of baptism as the focus for the meetings. These were well-attended and well-received. The Dover District responded to the apportionment asking by providing nearly 75% of the increase in conference income in 1993 over the 1992 figure received from all conference churches.

This year has been an especially busy one for churches on the District as they prepare to minister with new facilities. The Committee on Location and Building has been working with churches as they expand their physical plants.

The first phase of Mariner's-Bethel's ambitious expansion is under construction. This will add educational space and opportunities to house the many ministries that the church provides to the Ocean View community. St. Matthew's-By-The-Sea has a new building under construction to provide for the ministries that are developing in the Fenwick Island community.

The Harmony-Friendship Charge was able to sell its old parsonage and is now erecting a new one adjacent to the Harmony Church. Zoar Church of the Clarksville Charge is also providing a new parsonage. Both of these parsonages are being built by Nanticoke Homes and are very similar in design.

Bethel Church of the Gumboro Charge has found it necessary to expand the size of its sanctuary to accommodate the new members that are becoming an integral part of the church. They will also be providing additional educational space. The design of the building and the construction are in the hands of skilled newer members who are donating their time and talents to the project.

Metropolitan Church of the Lincoln-Milford-Harrington Charge razed its rapidly decaying social and educational building and has replaced it with new, better-designed, and more spacious ministry facilities.

The congregations of both the Wyoming Church and the Gethsemane Church of Reliance have designs for new buildings for which they are in the fund-raising stage before the beginning of construction.

St. John's Church in Seaford has made major renovations and has purchased property adjacent to the church for future ministry space. Avenue Church in Milford has also purchased property to be used in ministry to the Milford community as it grows. Hickory Hill Church is completely renovating its original building, replacing the floor, adding a new heating plant, and redecorating the sanctuary. The District is not standing still. Many churches are growing in faith, in numbers, and in ministries!

Serving the Dover District has been an honor and a pleasure for which Mary Joyce and I give thanks to God, to Bishop Morrison and to the members of the Dover District.

Charles E. Barton, Jr.

Easton District

This year several laity and clergy from the Easton District journeyed with other folk in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference to the Holy Land. We were able to become spiritually renewed as we traveled through the biblical land that helps to shape our faith. We will be forever indebted to Bishop Susan M. Morrison for hosting this trip.

The following churches have received ten or more members on Confession of Faith or Restored:

Merger

We celebrate the merger of the New Christian Chapel of Love United Methodist Church and Mt. Zion United Methodist Church (Still Pond-Coleman Charge). The name of the new merged church will be New Christian Chapel of Love.

Building Projects

Cambridge-Choptank: Beckwith renovated their educational building
Chester: Kent Island built a new parsonage for their Associate Pastor
East New Market-Linkwood: Mt. Pleasant built a new education wing
Sassafraz-Warwick: Johnson's Chapel completely remodeled their church

We rejoice with and thank God for the churches which paid their benevolences in full. Although several churches had a difficult year, with many struggles, we thank God that 95.6 percent of our apportionments were paid. We pray God will bless us next year with 100 percent.

Personals

We celebrate the following births and weddings:

James Thomas Fox III born to James, Jr. & Dawn Fox
Rachel Elaine Bennett born to David and Lori Bennett
Sandra Rebekah Ball born to Barry and Sandra Steiner Ball

Carol S. Wooley married Joseph Hopkins, Jr.
Robert L. Thomas was married to Sandra Wainwright

These persons have entered the Church Triumphant:

Hester R. Opher
James J. Von Hagel

I would like to personally thank the laity and clergy of the Easton District for their unselfish and dedicated commitment to God's work during the Conference Year 1993-1994.

Charlotte A. Nichols

Salisbury District

The year 1993 brought to a climax the six years of dynamic leadership provided by the Rev. Dr. P. Thomas McKelvey as Salisbury District Superintendent. Central to his leadership was a great concern to develop a caring connection between the local churches and the District and Conference. He endeavored to bring about a closer relationship between churches in the same geographical area, especially cross-racially. Dr. McKelvey's interest in housing for the poor resulted in the formation, with other judicatory leaders, of Interfaith Housing. Months of preparation culminated in the establishment of the Cooperative Urban Ministries of Salisbury with the Rev. Grant L. Johnson as the Executive Director, which was officially launched by Bishop Susan M. Morrison in a special service held in Bethesda Church, Salisbury, in March. The Cooperative Urban Ministry and the Salisbury District joined together in a new office which opened on the Downtown Plaza in early June. The achievements of Dr.

McKelvey as Superintendent were celebrated at a gathering at Asbury Church in Salisbury as his years of vital and visionary leadership came to a conclusion in June.

July 1 brought a new Superintendent, Howard L. Gordy, Jr., and 18 new appointments on the District: Thomas Gross to Berlin:Stevenson; Everett Isaacs to Bishopville; Olivia Costango to Crisfield:Mt.Pleasant; Ronald Hemphill to Crisfield:Shiloh; Charlotte Carlton to Deal Island-St.Charles; John Randolph to Delmar:St.Stephen's; Barbara Loper to Fruitland-Allen; Lisa Graine to Gridletree; Anna McIntosh to Nanticoke; Thomas McKelvey to Ocean Pines:Community Church; Isabel Gardner to Princess Anne:Mt.Vernon; Yvonne Penn to Quantico-Hebron; Leslie Slak to Salisbury:Bethesda as associate; Hubert Jicha, III to Salisbury:St.Andrews; Dale Brown to Salisbury:Trinity as associate; Romie Payne to Salisbury:Union; Linda Ketterman to Sharptown:Asbury; and Frank Sutton to Snow Hill:Whatcoat.

In September there was an official reception for the new Superintendent held at Mt. Zion Church in Pocomoke and a service of recognition of appointment at Salem Church, Pocomoke. The District Committee on Superintendency, chaired by Mr. Charles R. Dashiell, Jr., did an outstanding job as the District said "goodbye" to Dr. McKelvey and "hello" to Mr. Gordy.

In October the Apportionment Review Committee met with 36 churches, representing 25% of the congregations on the District, to help make the apportionments more manageable. Serving faithfully on this hard working committee were District members of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration Robert Givens, Jack Elliott, Dr. Dwayne Whittington and Dr. Edward Wilkins, plus Gertrude Brown, Charlotte Carlton, and Barbara Loper, pastors on the District.

The District Committee on Ordained Ministry started its work for the fall without the leadership of Ronald Bell as chair, since he had become Chaplain of Wesley College. Patti Collett became chair, and the committee was enlarged to include its first lay members: Charles Goslee from Sharptown:Zion; Dr. Terry Greenwood from Snow Hill:Whatcoat; and Carl Wagner from John Wesley Church in Mt. Vernon. Pastors serving on this significant committee are Dr. Terry Armstrong, Donald Hamilton, Bill Sterling, Jay Hurlley, and Karen Moore, in addition to Patti Collett.

This District Ministers' Association promoted fellowship among the pastors of the District with gatherings for a welcoming crab feast, an Epiphany family celebration, and a closing family gathering among other events, including regular meetings. The officers were: Elaine Ayres, President; George Moore, Vice-President; Leslie Slak, Secretary; and Tom Blakelock, Treasurer. The Ministers' Mates, working with the District Superintendents mate Beverly Gordy, hosted a progressive dinner during December which was a joy for the seventy who participated.

Year end reports indicated a total of 22, 816 members on the District with 138 churches reporting an average attendance of 8,399, approximately 37%. Almost 500 new members by confession of faith were reported, with 60% of these received from 17 churches who welcomed 10 or more new members by confession of faith:

The other 121 churches received the remaining 40% of new members. Our prayers of gratitude go up for those vital congregations where lives are being transformed.

The activities of the District Board of Laity have received strong leadership from District Lay Leader Gene Cray. Two training sessions for local church lay leaders and pastors were held under the direction of Conference Lay Leader Dolly Brittingham. District Director of Lay Speaking Joyce Whittington brought together a terrific teaching staff for the well-attended Lay Speakers' School, which climaxed in a Laity Banquet held on March 21.

Pastors from the Salisbury District joined with colleagues from the Eastern Shore of Virginia District for a continuing education seminar in February in Pocomoke with Pastors Vaughn Adams and Boyd Etter in charge. Bishop Tom Spain gave an exciting challenge to the pastors to "recover the primary task" and to "revision for the new day". Mt. Zion Church of Pocomoke provided a wonderful fellowship meal as the pastors concluded their two days together.

On February 5, 1994, the Rev. Vaughn A. Johnson was transferred to the Church Triumphant. A native of the Lower Eastern Shore, he had rendered unique service as pastor in Princess Anne to the Metropolitan Church and the University of Maryland-Eastern Shore, as well as Ebenezer Church in Marumscoc, and as pastor in Salisbury to Wesley Temple. In addition, the Rev. Mr. Johnson had an amazing impact on the entire Peninsula-Delaware Conference through his service as Associate Council Director. Our prayers of comfort go out for his widow and three sons who will continue to live in Salisbury.

During the year, the District also lost Mrs. Louise M. Flater, widow of the Reverend Harvey B. Flater, who died on September 5, 1993. We were also saddened by the death of the Reverend Melvin E. Tingle on October 15, 1993. Rev. Tingle was an active member of Bethesda United Methodist Church, Salisbury.

As we weep with those who weep, we rejoice with those who rejoice, especially with Pastor Linda Ketterman of the Sharptown:Asbury Charge who was married on February 26, 1994, to Mr. Bentley Mariner.

Throughout the year the District Board of Church Location and Building assisted local churches in expanding or repairing physical facilities under the exceptionally able leadership of Chair Boyd Etter. Conference grants and loans were received by Crisfield:Immanuel; Berlin:New Bethel; and Upper Hill:Centennial.

April 29 through May 1 a mission saturation event was held on the District under the capable direction of District Missionary Secretary Donald Hamilton. "Mission Alive" featured four persons who shared from their own personal experiences the world-wide missionary outreach of the United Methodist Church. Through preaching on Sunday mornings, speaking for various groups in many local church settings, and one-on-one witnessing, the four international missionaries encouraged the Salisbury District to see "The World Is My Parish".

New Venture Ministries was established by the Conference Council on Ministries to encourage fresh, innovative programs on the cutting edge of doing ministry locally to meet the needs of the 1990's. Salisbury District was pleased that eight of the twelve venture ministries selected for support by the Conference were in the Salisbury District. We anticipate with joy the reports we will receive in the future on these creative programs which will provide models for ministry that can be shared with other congregations.

One successful model for ministry has been provided this year by the Salisbury District Black United Methodist Pastors. Several pastors clustered in the Princess Anne area met weekly for fellowship, mutual support, and cooperative planning. One result was the highly effective Cooperative Confirmation Class which involved over one hundred youth and almost thirty adults. Joint worship, study, and field trips provided exciting experiences for the youth and adults involved. One measure of success is that many youth have continued their connection with local congregations, and some have entered the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program.

A happy group of clergy and families gathered in June for the celebration of the passing of various milestones in ministerial careers. We rejoice with Robert O. Wallace on his retirement; Arthur George on his graduation from Wesley Seminary; Bo and Vicki Gordy-Stith on their graduation from Duke Divinity School; Tom Gross, Pearl Johnson, Jim Riley, Jr., Carol Svecz, and Rick Vance on their ordination as deacons; and Walton Burke and Leslie Slak on their ordination as elders.

The Salisbury District approaches the new conference year with joyful thanksgiving and the confidence of faith. With Paul we "thank God in all of our remembrances...thankful for our partnership in the gospel...and sure that God who began a good work in us will bring it to completion." (Philippians 1:3,5,6)

Howard L. Gordy, Jr.

Wilmington District

During the Conference Year 1993-94, the laity and clergy of the Wilmington District participated in advancing the purposes of God whether as individuals, congregations or collectively as a district. The several district committees through their faithful and effective service were also involved in advancing the purposes of God in one respect or another. Once again, we extend our sincere thanks to Bishop Susan Morrison for her preaching visits to churches during the course of the year as well as for her leadership and guidance of the Cabinet and her sound judgment in appointment making.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH EVANGELISM

A highlight of the conference year was the "Come Alive In Christ" Event held on the weekend of April 16th and 17th, 1994. Laity and clergy, women and men, younger and older persons, urban, suburban and rural United Methodists came together in prayer, praise and preaching to witness to the transforming possibilities for human life through faith in Jesus Christ. The weekend featured Dr. Terrence K. Hayes of the General Board of Discipleship, and outstanding singing groups such as "Gabriel's Fire," Soldiers of the Cross, and a massed choir along with inspiring testimonies, lively worship leadership, liturgists and readers from a variety of congregations. Persons who worked with the District Superintendent on the steering committee for the "Come Alive In Christ" event included the following: Jack Shitama, Virginia T. Power, Amelia Bobon, Willametta Smith, Al Bines, Mary Marcus, Judy Symes, Gwynne Doelze, Jonathan Whitney, Joann and Connie Cohen, Jim Walz, Mark Barrow and Gladys Shaw.

As part of the observance of 1993 as a Year of Evangelism, Cornerstone UMC in Glasgow held Revelation '93, a day long outdoor Christian Music Festival featuring the proclamation of the gospel by Christian singers, musicians and evangelists. Its main focus was to invite unbelievers to a saving relationship with Jesus Christ. Hillcrest-Bellefonte held a series of special "invitational" music programs during the year.

At the Annual Conference session on June 4, 1994, the Conference Denman Award recipients happened to be from the Wilmington District. We congratulate the Rev. John Dunnack, who was the clergy recipient and Raymond Asmus, a 10th grader of Christ UMC, who was the lay recipient.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH THE LAITY OF THE DISTRICT

Members of the District Board of Laity cooperated together to further the cause of Christ during this past conference year. There was a change in the position of District Lay Leader as Clyde Allen of Hockessin UMC resigned in preparation for returning to his home state of Texas. Mrs. Debbie Lloyd of Mt. Salem UMC in Wilmington, who was serving as the Associate District Lay Leader succeeded Clyde Allen and took over the responsibilities of District Lay Leader from November 1, 1993.

Despite the transition in that office, the Board of Laity continued faithfully to carry out its programs and to advance the purposes of God through their schedule of fellowship and program events. In addition to the sub-district communion breakfasts, a successful district laity/clergy banquet was held in April 1994 and an effective training event for lay leaders took place in February 1994. The first district local church lay leaders' meeting was held on May 17th at which Allen Streett was elected to serve as Associate District Lay Leader for the ensuing term.

The 1994 District Lay Speaking School advanced the purposes of God by equipping the people of God for the work of ministry. Lay speakers attending the basic course and the advanced courses were given excellent guidance by the following instructors: Revs. Robert W. Starrett, Norman L. Poultney, Ralph A. Ellis, Janet M. Harmon, Mark M. Pruett-Barnett, Lawrence M. Livingston, Anne Pruett-Barnett and James T. Seymour. The district director of lay speaking, Dick Ward of Christiana UMC, noted that this year's participants in the courses totaled 135 students, which is the highest attendance of the past three years. Those enrolled for the first time in the basic course totaled 44 students - an all time record high for that course. The registrar of the school, Jane Brown and the resources secretary, Dr. Willis Cupery were lay speaking committee members who rendered invaluable service along with Bill Harmon, Debbie Lloyd, Ralph Ellis and the D.S.

Youth work has received special emphasis in several of our congregations during the past year. Churches like Hockessin, New Castle, Richardson Park, Simpson, and Ezion-Mt. Carmel come to mind and are representative of many others. During the year, Ken Home was appointed by the D.S. as the new Wilmington District Coordinator of Youth Ministries. He and Wes Davis of Cornerstone, along with Jack Shitama, were instrumental in organizing the spiritual concert and pizza party for young people as a part of the "Come Alive In Christ" weekend. With the Rev. Anthony Arrington as part-time Executive Director of the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program (HBLEP), there exists real potential for new forms of effective ministry amongst young people in the district in the times ahead.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH MISSION

As many as 22 churches and charges of the district participated in the district mission saturation event organized by the Rev. Jim Hawkins with the assistance of the Rev. Norman Poultney, conference and district missions officers, respectively. Five missionaries and executives from the General Board of Global Ministries spoke at various church events. In addition, local speakers included Rev. Hawkins, Rev. Bill Hemphill, Naomi Winchester and Dr. Bruce Obenshain, a former medical missionary to Zaire. Additionally, several congregations of the district held mission conferences/emphases during the course of the year. Some such congregations were Perryville UMC, Wesley UMC of Elkton, Grace UMC in Wilmington.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS

During the past conference year, the Ebenezer Church in Newark completed construction of its Christian Life Center. This fine facility will house the Ebenezer pre-school, classrooms for several grades and provide space for youth activities, a new fellowship hall and kitchen. The Asbury Church in New Castle proceeded with construction of an additional building which will serve to expand its pre-school program and provide much needed space for congregational and community events. The Summit congregation completed repair and restoration work on its belfry and continued to do a fine job of maintaining its beautiful sanctuary and fellowship hall.

The members of Janes Church in Rising Sun broke ground for construction work on the first phase of their new facility. The Brandywine-Trinity congregation completed a fine job of repairing and restoring the church ceiling. With Bishop Morrison participating, a fine consecration ceremony was held at Town Point UMC to celebrate the completion of a brand new church sanctuary for that congregation. Once again, the District Board of Church Location and Building has given fine service during the year: Carl Feucht, Bill Holloway, Cindy Koski, Betty Webb, Tom Donnachie and John Holden in addition to the District Superintendent.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES

We express our sincere thanks to the churches of the district which succeeded in paying their conference apportionments in full. We recognize the challenge of such an accomplishment in situations where there are special circumstances. Once again, in 1993 our district did well in its total apportionment contributions attaining the level of 98.9 percent. In so doing, our people were advancing the purposes of God in meeting human needs across the nation and around the world as well as supporting the conference programs, obligations and ministerial support.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH COMMITTED PASTORAL LEADERSHIP

We record our gratitude to those who have rendered faithful and effective pastoral leadership during the year under review. We also indicate that the following new pastors were appointed to serve amongst us in July of 1993:

Anthony A. Arrington at Middletown-Dale's Charge
Randolph L. Wein at Grace Church, Wilmington
John L. Huber at Elkton-Moore's Charge

Barbara H. Harmon at Port Deposit: Cokesbury UMC
Lawrence D. Jameson at Elkton: Wesley UMC
James E. Sipes at Port Deposit-Tome Charge

At the end of the conference year, Alex Boda retired while Sterling Green was leaving to serve as D.S. of the Dover District. Sam Greening and Gonzalee Matthews were moving to the Easton District. Jerome DeVine left early in the conference year for a position with the General Board of Global Ministries. John I. Penn, at the end of the year, was preparing to accept a position with the General Board of Discipleship. Elizabeth Hopkins will be moving to Virginia. The Revs. George Commodore and Willard Robinson rendered valuable service to the district by accepting interim appointments at Mt. Joy and Kingswood, respectively. During the year, Joe Threadgill, retired lay pastor, the Reverend Jacob Caulk (retired) and Mrs. Lola Henry (widow) died, as well as Mrs. Irma Whittington, Lay Member for the Odessa Charge. The entire community lost Mr. Leander Morris, a musician of great talent and creativity who had served our conference well.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD BY MAKING DISCIPLES

We commend several congregations in the district which attracted and received new members into their fellowship during the year 1993. Overall, however, our district's total full membership declined from 30,165 at the end of 1992 to 29,410 at the end of 1993 or a loss of 528 members. Notable amongst the figures was the large number of persons removed by Charge Conference action which accounted for 865 people. This was even larger than in 1992 when 738 were removed. In view of the fact that we received fewer persons on confession of faith or restored in 1993 as compared with 1992, I take this opportunity to commend those congregations which did receive persons in that category. Churches receiving fourteen members or more were as follows:

St. Mark's, Stanton - 41	Red Lion - 23
St. Paul's, Wilmington - 39	Peniel - 17
Aldersgate - 37	Union, Bear - 16
Newark - 37	Dale's Memorial - 15
Cornerstone - 33	New Castle - 14
Hockessin - 28	New Castle: Mt. Salem - 14
Ebenezer, Newark - 25	Grace - 14
Asbury, New Castle - 27

We particularly pay tribute to those churches whose new members by "Confession of Faith" were more than ten percent of their membership at the time: New Castle: Mt. Salem, Dale's Memorial, Cornerstone, Port Deposit: Cokesbury. We commend Pastors Pat Harris, Anthony Arrington, Paul Owens and Barbara Harmon.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH DISTRICT COMMITTEES

The District Committee on Ordained Ministry once again performed a valuable service in helping candidates clarify the leading of God in their lives and in providing certification and recommendation as needed. For the first time this year, the following lay persons became members of the committee: Alice Butler, Leona Brown, and James H. Sapp. The committee was further expanded by the addition of the Rev. Clyde H. Knotts. Others continuing to serve were as follows: Robert Helms (Chairperson), Janet Harmon, Ron Bergman, Bill Hemphill, Conrad Cohen, Mary Lou Green, along with the D.S.

We are grateful for leadership of the District Ministers and Mates

Organization provided by: Ron Owens (Chairperson), Yusef Ahmed (Vice-chairperson), Mark Charlton (Secretary) and Cheryl Jensen (Treasurer). Several fine programs were conducted.

The District Apportionment Review Committee had a busy year and met with representatives of several churches. Those who comprised this committee were: Kay Cloud, Clyde Allen, Tom Short, Charlie Mason, Howard Ebersole Mary White, and Dennis Catron.

The Nueva Vida congregation celebrated its anniversary on May 15, 1994. Significant features were the presence of Bishop Victor Bonilla of the Puerto Rico Methodist Church and the musical presentations by the Nueva Vida choir. New members of the Hispanic Design Team for the conference year were: Joan Dey, Ron Bergman and Don Alford, in addition to ongoing committee members: Don Lyons, John Holden, Diogenes Hernandez, Susan Keim Kester, Rev. Jeremias Rojas, along with the District Superintendent.

The new Executive Director of the Methodist Action Program, John Holden, began work on July 1, 1993 with the result that this has been a year of adjustment and the focusing of our vision for MAP. There was a significant move in the direction of emphasizing MAP's work with local congregations. Our thanks to the faithful members of the MAP Board who serve with the District Superintendent, MAP's President.

At the end of the year, Connie Roland Alt completed her time as Editor of The Connection, the district page in The Communicator. Larry Jameson, pastor of Wesley Church, Elkton was preparing to take up the responsibilities of editor in her place.

At Annual Conference 1994 we celebrated the ordination of Elizabeth Hopkins as an elder and full member of the Conference. Two of our clergy who rendered significant service to the Conference, but are surrendering those responsibilities, are Gary Moore (as Conference Secretary) and Ashley Maxwell (as BOOM Chairperson). It is noteworthy that Carl and Clara Feucht were amongst those honored in May 1994 with St. Barnabas awards.

ADVANCING THE PURPOSES OF GOD THROUGH NEW VENTURES

During the year Manna Ministries, a charismatic renewal movement within the UMC, organized a group in the northern end of our conference. Wilmington District clergy and laity were key persons in organizing it and included pastors Jim Walz, Ruthann Hibbs, Norman Poultney and John Penn. After much preliminary committee work involving Hockessin members, MAP representatives, the D.S. and others, the Rev. Jim Hawkins was authorized to devote a fourth of his time to the possible formation of a new congregation in the Hockessin/NorthWestern New Castle County Area.

It has been a privilege to serve as superintendent of the Wilmington District during the year under review. Much has been accomplished by our individual congregations and some noteworthy experiences have been held across congregational lines with churches of other ethnic backgrounds and in clusters of congregations. May we all continue to rise up as the people of God and to give heart and soul and mind and strength to serve the King of Kings!

PECOMETH CONTINUATION CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

During 1993, the Continuation Campaign Committee worked at its mandate of keeping the churches and individual donors informed about the Campaign's progress and about the physical improvements at Pecometh made possible by the funds received. A four page insert was published in The Communicator and three issues of Pecometh Update were mailed to all pastors, Administrative Board/Council Chairpersons, and local church Pecometh Coordinators. Telephone calls, letters, and the mailing of requested materials were also employed to tell the story.

Our other task of monitoring campaign giving on a monthly basis also received attention. Summary reports of giving have been submitted to the Bishop and District Superintendents, the Conference Council on Ministries, and to the Spiritual Formation Board of Stewards' leadership. Clergy and others who made individual pledges have received semi-annual statements of their giving, and those who have completed payments have received a personal letter of thanks. Churches paying 100% or more of their accepted goal have been presented with a "Certificate of Appreciation" co-signed by our Committee Chairperson and the appropriate District Superintendent.

We are pleased to report that as of February 28, 1994, a total of $2,332,957 has been received for the development of Pecometh. This is nearly double the largest amount ever raised by the Conference for a single cause before. With only 4 months remaining to the formal end of the campaign on June 30, unpaid goals accepted by churches and unpaid pledges of individuals stand at $840,881. This total has factored in reductions that a few churches and persons felt it necessary to make. We are not able to predict how much of this will actually be received for Pecometh, but some churches have already declared their intention to continue giving after June until their goal is achieved. We hope that many others will do the same. The Site Committee of the Spiritual Formation Board, which has responsibility for the construction at Pecometh, needs every dollar that can possibly be contributed in order to complete the Dining Hall/Kitchen expansion, new staff housing, and additional cabins.

Our final report to the Annual Conference in session will be given June 3-4 at Princess Anne, and will include a printed list of giving by churches as of May 25, 1994. Monies must be received in the Business Office by that date in order to be included.

Efforts are continuing to secure a few major gifts for Pecometh from foundations and selected individuals. Among the charitable foundations approached, two have responded with grants totalling $55,000. At the end of February, 110 individuals and 158 churches have paid 100% or more of what they committed to do. To date, 421 or 86% of our churches have contributed to the Campaign. The 69 churches that have not yet responded have been contacted and asked to receive at least one special offering for the capital improvements at Pecometh before May 25.

Several unanticipated difficulties have impacted this Campaign in negative ways, not the least of which was the severe economic recession from which we are just emerging. The several changes in the top staff for Pecometh and the restructuring of the Pecometh Board into the joint Spiritual Formation Board of Stewards to oversee the work at Drayton and Pecometh has delayed the planning process and somewhat changed its direction. Nevertheless, we rejoice in the deep commitment of so many churches and individuals to this ministry of camping expressed in faithful stewardship over this five-year period.

We are pleased that the Conference Council on Ministries, at the request of the Spiritual Formation Board, has established a PECOMETH ENDOWMENT FUND. As this develops in the future, it will provide income for the maintenance of facilities at Pecometh.

RECOMMENDATION: That the Conference Secretary be instructed to print in the 1994 Conference Journal the record of the 5-year giving of the churches and a summary of all other giving received during the Campaign, and that an addendum be included in the 1995 Journal to record additional gifts so that this will be part of the history of our Annual Conference.

For all who have worked in this Campaign during its intensive phase and during its continuation program, we are very grateful. Special thanks is due to the Business Office for its computerized recording of all pledges and gifts, and for helping with the mailing of requested materials and answering telephone calls. Thanks also to the Support Staff of the Council on Ministries for assistance with mailing lists, preparing the Certificates of Appreciation, and for mailing materials. During most of the 5 years, our Committee has had no secretarial staff. Most of all, we give thanks to God for the generous giving of so many people across this Conference and for what has actually been accomplished at Pecometh. What we began as "the priority" of this Conference when we voted for the Campaign in 1988, must still claim our on-going support and continuing prayer in the years ahead. Nothing is more important than the spiritual formation of children, youth, adults, and families.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

OUR CONTINUING MISSION

"...The one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these..." (John 14:12)

In the local congregation, our primary task is the development of people as disciples. As partners in the Spirit's work, we reach out to people and receive them as they are, help them personally to know God, nurture them in the way of discipleship and send them to live as Christ's disciples in the world to make it more loving and just. To the extent we are faithful and effective, the body of Christ becomes real for the world to which Christ has been sent.

The Conference Council on Ministries, including its staff and related boards, commissions and agencies, is (1) to be in partnership with local congregations as they work to improve their process for making disciples, (2) to enable and encourage local congregations to participate in ministries they could not reasonably provide on their own, and (3) to strengthen our connection as a global church.

PARTNERSHIP WITH LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

We know that the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and its local congregations are looking for ways to make our congregations healthier and stronger. We believe that the quality of the ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference can be improved. One way we worked to accomplish this in 1993 was through New Venture Ministries.

New Ventures Ministries was established to encourage fresh, innovative programs on the cutting edge of doing things locally to meet the needs of the '90's. Twelve venture ministries with carefully developed, detailed and concise plans for going into action were selected. Most of these venture ministries are based directly in local churches and, if successful, will provide models for ministry that can be shared with other congregations.

Other venture ministries are closely related to a cluster of local congregations or provide for development of new ministries in local congregations.

A few examples include:

- a ministry of Christian education by New Castle United Methodist Church using trained interpreters to bring Christ to deaf and hard of hearing children in New Castle County, Delaware
- a year long program by New Bethel and St. John's United Methodist Churches to raise high the banner of moral and spiritual values for family nurture as a vision for the community and to enhance especially the life of single parent families in and around Berlin, Maryland
- a summer music camp at Bethesda United Methodist Church to bring urban and suburban children in the Salisbury, Maryland area to an exciting, fun filled music experience which emphasizes trans-cultural appreciation, cooperative goal oriented efforts, and growth in Christian values and self-esteem.

Associate Council Director Lawrence Livingston and the consultant-ambassadors under his supervision continued to provide hundreds of hours of quality consultation services to local congregations seeking to improve and expand their ministries.

CONGREGATIONS IN CONNECTION FOR MINISTRY

During 1993, the Conference Council on Ministries continued to work on developing our ministry of Spiritual Formation at Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center. This is one of our ministries which no single congregation could provide on its own. In mid-year, Associate Council Director Pamela Lardear, moved to the North Central New York Conference. At the end of the summer, Assistant Council Director Clarice Ritchie also left after many years in many roles at Camp Pecometh. During the summer camping program, Charles Barton served as Interim Camp Director. By year's end, a new Associate Council Director, Rev. W. Thomas Carter, was in place and plans well under way for ministry at the two sites and beyond. Even with all the transition, the experiences of children, youth and adults bore witness to a life changing ministry of Spiritual Formation.

MAKING THE GLOBAL CONNECTIONS

Peninsula-Delaware congregations participate in the worldwide ministry of the United Methodist Church in a number of ways. One is through the many people who directly serve as volunteer members of various General Boards and Agencies. These people are able to influence the work of these bodies and to keep them connected to the Annual Conference. Volunteers from our conference who work in various ministry sites locally and abroad provide another example.

Still another expression of Peninsula-Delaware participation in the larger connection is through response to various crises around the world. For example, Peninsula-Delaware United Methodists were quick to respond to the needs of flood victims in the American midwest. Through gifts to the United Methodist Committee on Relief, we were able to combine forces with millions of other Christians in responding to short term and long term needs created by this disaster.

The reports which follow describe many of the activities that surrounded the work of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference during 1993 and the results of those activities. They will tell you something about where we are on our journey together. As a Council on Ministries, we pledge ourselves to continual improvement in Christ's service.

The Ministry of Spiritual Formation

1993 completed the second full year of operation for the Ministry of Spiritual Formation of the Council on Ministries. The Ministry of Spiritual Formation is a comprehensive structure of operating facilities and developing programs to enable persons to engage in intentional experiences of spiritual growth outside and within the local church.

In 1993 the Spiritual Formation Board of Stewards completed its first year of leading the Ministry of Spiritual Formation in the areas of Sites and Finance, Program and Marketing, Staff and Volunteers. Together with the site staffs of Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center, they have brought about positive changes in the rate structures, procedures, and property improvements of both facilities. Actions included the purchase of new vehicles and equipment, the inception of a ten-year progressive maintenance plan for both sites, and restructuring of the maintenance department. They have also been successful in gaining additional funds for renovations and repair on major items. Currently the board is overseeing the renovation of Camp Pecometh's dining hall, led by the Sites and Finance Committee chairperson, Bob McKee. This renovation, needed for the 1994 summer camping season, will provide additional seating space which can be further expanded in the future, and will update the original kitchen built in 1964.

The Director of Spiritual Formation, Reverend Dr. Pamela J. Lardear, departed in May to serve in a similar position in the North Central New York Conference. She was replaced by Reverend Tom Carter on November 1, 1993. Clarice Ritchie, Assistant Council Director for Children and Youth Ministries, left her position the end of September and was replaced at the start of 1994 by Eric Howard from the Holston Conference. We were blessed to have Reverend Charles Barton, Dover District Superintendent, serve as interim Director at Pecometh this summer following Reverend Dr. Lardear's departure for New York. His history with the camp and experience in working with summer staff and campers was instrumental in guiding Pecometh through a rewarding summer camp season.

Virginia Coleman, Alvin Wolf, Carol Shaw, Beth Landing, and Paul O'Bara are the Spiritual Formation staff persons whose dedication and commitment contributed to the efficient and effective operation of our facilities. This dedication and service was highly visible during the period of time between Directors of Spiritual Formation. The hard work of the Spiritual Formation staff made possible the rewarding experiences of all the guests at Peninsula-Delaware Conference facilities.

The facilities of Spiritual Formation had a vital year of operations; both busy with a variety of groups and individuals from churches and other non-profit institutions.

Camp Pecometh

1747 children attended summer camp in 1993 at Camp Pecometh, an increase of 18% over 1992. The summer staff of 50 included 8 international counselors and for the second year in a row, was comprised of more than 80% from Peninsula-Delaware Conference Churches. The campers were able to chose from 18 different program offerings. Campers and staff explored the theme "Partners in Creation" and developed new skills and abilities to include: basic camping skills, discovery of God in community life and natural surroundings experienced uniquely in a camp setting. The spiritual focus of the summer was explored through music, Bible study led by volunteer Spiritual Life Coordinators (Conference pastors), friendship and quiet vesper services. Pecometh continued to operate under the accreditation of the American Camping Association, the most widely recognized program of camping accreditation for health, safety and integrity of program.

Pecometh offers both year-round and seasonal facilities for groups, individuals and families. In addition to the extensive summer camp program for children and youth. In 1993, 125 groups with 4,786 participants used the facilities.

Four new cabins and an additional wash house were constructed near the dining hall and opened in the summer of 1993. The new buildings provided space for additional campers and in the future, these cabins will be used by guest groups in the spring and fall months, supplementing the Riverside and Barn areas.

Plans are now complete for the 1994 summer season. The program theme is "Enough for All," and campers will, again, be able to choose from 18 different camping programs. One of the exciting parts of the 1994 summer season is the return to expanded use of volunteers in the program. The use of volunteers will help defray costs for the camp and camper fees.

Drayton Retreat Center

During 1993, 3,462 guests from 182 groups used the facilities for a variety of spiritual life experiences. Of those guests, 1,840 guests and 93 groups were from Peninsula-Delaware Conference Churches. Some came for continuing education programs, some for a time of rest and refreshment, some to discover a new dimension of living their Christian lives. The average Peninsula-Delaware Conference group size was 20; one group was here for the 28th consecutive year. The fiscal year ended at a break even point.

One of the continuing aspects of the operation of Drayton Retreat Center during the year was the significant work accomplished by volunteer crews organized by Carolyn Godfrey. Major projects completed during the year were: completion of work on the barn, complete renovation of the Bell House, and completion of numerous indoor and outdoor maintenance projects. The efforts and donations of volunteers continues to enable Drayton to preserve and utilize this important facility for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

W. Thomas Carter
Associate Council Director of Spiritual Formation

1995 GOALS

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 10%.
2. To offer an adult camping program at Pecometh.
3. To introduce group initiatives and environmental educational programs at both locations.

4. To achieve a balanced budget for the Ministry of Spiritual Formation.
5. To seek additional contributions for the maintenance trust funds that have been established for Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center.
6. To continue to recruit ethnic persons to serve on the summer Pecometh staff; 15% as a minimum goal.

Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program

I consider it a great honor and a privilege to be appointed by Bishop Morrison and the Cabinet to the position of part-time Executive Director of the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program (HBLEP). The appointment itself expresses the visionary insight of the leaders of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in their efforts to meet the challenges of ministry for the twenty-first century. The HBLEP has truly been an Kairos moment, "when the World has said, No, and the Church has said Yes".

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to my colleagues and brothers in the struggle, Rev. Lawrence Livingston and Rev. Homer Minus.

The HBLEP during its third year as a Peninsula-Delaware Conference ministry has enjoyed a new dynamic thrust toward the future. We have watched the program grow by leaps and bounds.

- Last fall at the October Banquet, held at Modern Maturity Center in Dover, we saw the faces of proud parents, laity and pastors as fifty boys completed the Rites of Passage ceremony. This was truly a glorious time yet the most memorable moment was the Thursday night communion service where forty-eight of those boys gave their lives to Jesus Christ.

- On February 5, 1994 we held our first Board of Directors Banquet honoring our board of directors who have worked so hard in helping to shape and develop the ministry.

-We have shared our inclusive vision by conducting a teaching seminar at Grace UMC in Wilmington, addressing the issues of Diversity and Leadership models in the Church and the community.

-HBLEP was invited to St. Paul UMC, as a possible candidate for their second-mile giving.

- We have been nationally hailed by the Children's Defense Fund as one of the programs for children nationwide that works.

-Delaware Governor Thomas Carper has issued a proclamation naming June as Howard Bailey Month.

-The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Laity has given us its highest honor and we are proud to be recipients of the St. Barnabas Award for 1994.

-October 9, 1994 we invited members from the Virginia Annual Conference to participate with us in a Mens Seminar Overcoming the Traps of Society.

-We are developing a consolidated church module which will enable the HBLEP to function in the Local Church.

This year, God has blessed us with three exhilarating and inspiring ministries: The HBLEP Women's Ministry, the HBLEP Followers of Christ Youth and Young Adult Ministry, and the creation of the "Renewing of Your Mind Sports Ministry".

The HBLEP Women's Ministry

We have anxiously awaited the emergence of the women's component of the program. The design team comprised of Mrs. Doris Palmer, Rev. Charlotte Nichols, Mrs. Fran Livingston, Rev. Elaine Ayres, Mrs. Eartha Arrington and Mrs. Tonya Pollard began designing the program in July of 1993. The design team's goals were to disseminate information germane to the growth and development of young black women who are unaccustomed to the social and religious teachings of the African-American Church. While at the same time affirming the importance of respect for family, elders, quality education and the work ethic.

Under the direction of Mrs. Fran Livingston, the "Malaika House" began its ministry for young fifth and sixth grade girls during the Mother's Day Weekend beginning on Friday night at First United Methodist Church, Chestertown, Maryland (Rev. Glenn Catley, Pastor). During the orientation period we watched parents and participants grow with excitement as we told the girls that they would be the first HBLEP women; they were the pioneers that would set the stage for future generations of program participants. I am proud to say that these young women rose to the occasion. After they had moved to Drayton Manor for the second day of the weekend we were able to watch and observe the program in full blossom.

It is our goal that HBLEP Women's programming will grow into seminars designed to address the issues facing today's Christian women. Please keep these pioneering women of God in your prayers.

"The Renewing of Your Mind" Sports Ministry

This ministry is a gift that God has entreated Rev. Lawrence Livingston to share with us. Over the summer of 1993, Coach Bill Collick of the Delaware State Hornets, expressed a desire for the development of a spiritual program for the coaches and the players. Coach Collick shared with us the importance of the players being exposed to the source of their gifts and talents, and that being the presence of God.

While searching the scriptures, Rev. Livingston keyed on the theme of renewing your mind, found in the Book of Romans chapter twelve. The results, after prayer, meditation and much discussion, was a ministry designed to meet the players needs both on and off the field. Rev. Minus facilitated a voluntary weekly bible study for the team introducing them to the African presence in the Bible, African-American social teachings in conjunction to the church, and the roles and high expectations which will be expected from them as they enter the real world.

Rev. Livingston provided spiritual guidance during practice and liberating pastoral care when he ministered to the team from the pulpit of Whatcoat UMC, Dover, Delaware (Rev. Rudolph Garnes, Pastor). We had the opportunity to travel with the team during local games and some away games.

Please pray with us as God leads us to help shape a ministry for today's athlete.

Followers of Christ Youth and Young Adult Ministry

We are especially proud of our Followers of Christ Youth Ministry. God has enabled us to reach out and listen to what our youth really have to say. During the January 15th Youth Rally held at Delaware State University, we hosted over one hundred and fifty teenagers throughout the Conference from the ages of fourteen to twenty years of age.

Followers of Christ will also be present at Riverside at Camp Pecometh during senior high week July 31-August 5, 1994. We have been working in conjunction with Rev. Tom Carter to provide a wholesome and inclusive atmosphere in which young Americans can share and appreciate our diverse and rich cultures. We were serious when we said we listened to the youth because Followers of Christ was the brainstorm of Ray Pope and Thomas and Kenneth Johnson of Wesley Temple. We listened to these young men and other youth as we designed this vital ministry to help redirect the focus of youth in our communities.

Anthony A. Arrington
Executive Director

Ethnic Local Church Committee

The Ethnic Local Church Committee has been continually active working with the ethnic local churches in areas of program development and Christian nurture, and very importantly, in new church development.

During the year, the Committee has given focus to such activities as the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Clergy and Laity Summit, scholarships and grants to youth of the ethnic local church and spiritual formation in campus ministry as it relates to the growth and development of spiritual life for the students of the ethnic local church.

Some of the programs and events in which the Ethnic Local Church Committee facilitated over the past Conference year include the cross racial/cross cultural fellowship of Union United Methodist Church, Delmar with the United Methodist Church of Derry, New Hampshire; Camp Pecometh; spiritual formation activity for youth of the St. Michaels-Royal Oak-Bellevue Charge; African American historical perspectives in the United Methodist Church, Barratt's Chapel; Community Crime Prevention Program for Youth, Wesley Temple, Salisbury; and the Cooperative Urban Ministries of Salisbury mission project.

Over the next Conference year, the Ethnic Local Church Committee will be praying for direction and wisdom as the Committee shall be critically searching to determine what its leadership role should be in the development of the ethnic local church of the future.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

During the past year, the following actions were taken by the Council:

1. Placed Drayton Endowment Fund with Eastern Pennsylvania-Peninsula United Methodist Foundation for investment management.
2. Approved a one-time additional sum of $100,000 for the Board of Pensions to help in meeting past service funding for 1994.
3. Established a Personnel Committee, as a subcommittee of C.F. & A., to do the work of reviewing and updating personnel policies, job descriptions and salary structure, and establishing recruitment and hiring procedures for Business Office personnel.
4. Began a four-year process of training Lay Members of Annual Conference in their role as interpreters to local churches of conference work and supporting budget.
5. Adopted guidelines for use by the District Apportionment Review Committees in order to standardize the process.
6. Granted $27,350 to Drayton Retreat Center for major maintenance: 1) tractor mower and trimming mower, 2) two water pressure tanks, 3) water heater, 4) used truck, and 5) repair conference room floor.
7. Granted $15,500 to Camp Pecometh for major maintenance: 1) computer, 2) deck at recreation hall, 3) well filter, 4) repair staff house and infirmary and install new appliances, and 5) repair roof on fellowship hall.
8. Paid three months of health insurance premiums in the amount of $738.00 for a clergy member of the Conference who was on leave of absence.
9. Restructured Conference Business Office, including creating position of Benefits Manager, to improve efficiency and to make more of Treasurer's time available for facilitating and training local church officers and clergy in finance matters.
10. Voted to strengthen the provision for deducting non-church expenses when calculating apportionments by requiring that a complete and detailed justification for non-church expenses be submitted no later than May 1 or otherwise lose the non-church expenses deduction entirely. The justification is subject to review by C.F. & A.
11. Granted $7,134.76 for payment of clergy trial expenses.

OBJECTIVES AND GOALS FOR QUADRENNIUM:

Objective 1: Members of local churches have a positive attitude and understanding of our connection, have a sense of ownership in our Conference program, and understand the significance of apportionments and the role of local churches.

Action Goal 1: C.F. & A. work with Board of Laity to train Lay Members of Annual Conference in their roles as interpreters to local churches of Conference work and budget.

Action Goal 2: C.F. & A. work with Communications Committee to develop and present budget interpretation at Annual Conference in each of the years 1993-1996.

Action Goal 3: C.F.& A. request that District Superintendents affirm and compliment, at the Charge Conferences, those churches that pay their apportionments in full. Request that District Superintendents, as soon as possible after annual reports are received in January, send a letter to the pastors complimenting those churches on the full payment of their apportionment with the request that the letter be read to the congregation at the Sunday morning services.

Objective II: Local church Finance Chairpersons helped to understand their job and to know some of the techniques to help them do their job. "Saturation" teams work for one day each with three churches per district selected by the District Superintendents.

Action Goal 4: Form teams of persons with some financial expertise, one team for each district. District Superintendents invite team to meet for one day with a church, a minimum of three churches per calendar year. Team train local church officials and clergy in standardized budgeting of income and expenses, standardized record keeping and reporting, conducting financial stewardship campaign, and auditing procedures.

Objective III: Churches in apportionment hearings come wanting to find a way to meet their apportionment.

Action Goal 5: C.F.& A. review method of calculating apportionments. C.F.& A. review procedures for apportionment review and adjustment, and communicate procedures (guidelines) to District Superintendents and all churches/charges requesting apportionment review. (Revised)

Objective IV: Help pastors in first appointment to understand apportionments and how to interpret them.

Action Goal 6: C.F.& A. request Board of Ordained Ministry to inform all pastors newly serving in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference:

1. What are apportionments (benevolences)?
2. What are ministries funded by apportionments?
3. How are apportionments calculated?
4. Why is it important that each and every local church pay its apportionments in full?
5. Why is it important that each and every local church pay its apportionments on a monthly basis?
6. What financial forms are required by the Annual Conference and how are the figures obtained?

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the 1995 Budget, in the amount of $4,957,520.00, be adopted.
2. That 0.38 be the apportionment factor for 1995.
3. In the event payments on apportionments fall short of the budget, C.F.& A. shall determine where to adjust the 1995 Budget.

BOARD OF CHILD CARE

In this, my first report to the Conference, I would like to express my appreciation for the warm welcome given to me and my family. A note of appreciation to my predecessor, Mr Claude Libis, for leaving me a strong, committed agency of caring professionals who continue to develop a program that will provide opportunities for dependent neglected children in need of a safe secure environment.

The number of children served at the Board of Child Care continues to increase. Our beds, since January 1994, have been at 95% capacity, both in our residential and shelter programs. Each living unit is being remodeled and refurbished to include carpeting, painting, lighting and new furniture. The children coming in have been more traumatized with more handicaps in the areas of physical, emotional and academic difficulties. This has precipitated an increase in the number of child care workers to bring our staff ratio to four children to every staff member. Our social workers have begun to do more family work and involve parents in their child's placement at the time of admission. Our education program on campus now is a full day with tutoring and remedial classes held in the evening. A great deal of emphasis is being placed on academic achievement in the public school that has resulted in improvement for most of our boys and girls. We recognize that most of the young people in our care need remedial help and plan to offer more educational services in the fall of 1994 with four classrooms on campus that will be approved by the Maryland State Education Department. The direction of intensifying services to children is being directed by Maryland State mandates of keeping children in care for shorter periods of time.

Our foster care program in the District of Columbia has grown to serve 46 children daily. Our committed foster parents are working with multi-handicapped children with the goal to return to birth parents or adoption. Our staff has increased by two social workers and a full-time secretary. Our offices are now located at Albright United Methodist Church at 411 Rittenhouse Street, N.W., at the former parsonage. We have worked with the church and remodelled it to a beautiful office space. We wish to thank Woodside United Methodist Church for allowing us to be in Silver Spring for many years.

This past year, the Board of Child Care placed four infants for adoption. We provided twelve home-studies on a contractual basis to both public and private sources. Our adoption worker continues to provide follow-up information to birth parents. She is available for anyone interested in exploring adoption opportunities.

The Board of Directors, and management, continue to pursue its plans to build a satellite program in Harford County. In September we won at the Court of Special Appeals level. The community resistance, however, continues with further attempts and appeals to delay us. We have begun to meet with Harford County Executive, Eileen Rehrmann, in an attempt to open communication with all interested parties.

The Board of Child Care has many partners in its pursuit of excellence. The program is built on a strong foundation of Christian values that is imbedded in the Wesleyan tradition of healing and caring with love. We would like to thank Bishop Morrison, the ministers and churches, individuals and groups in the church for your prayers and financial support of our ministry to children, youth and families. A very special thank you to the Board of Child Care's Auxiliary who are celebrating their 40th anniversary of service to the children who have passed through our home and have gone on to be happier and productive members of God's world.

Shalom.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

"The message of salvation brought by Jesus Christ binds us together as a people and sends us forth to bring healing in the midst of strife, justice in the midst of brokenness and love in the midst of hate."

General Board of Church and Society
"Organizational Design Statement"

In 1993, members of the Board of Church and Society worked diligently in our four key result areas: Human Welfare, Peace with Justice, Environmental Justice, and Resourcing Congregational Life.

The main accomplishments in the area of Human Welfare were the completion of the Minority Outreach Survey and the Parish Nurse Pilot Study. Support for the assessment of access of aging African Americans to health and social services was shared by our board, P.U.M.H., and the Delaware Chapter of the Black Caucus on Aging. In a cooperative effort with the aging network, and based on the results of this survey project, the National Caucus and Center on Black Aged, Inc., Delaware Chapter will lobby for proposed changes in long term care for minority elderly.

The Parish Nurse Pilot Study was completed by Joan D. Nelson, R.N. at Hockessin United Methodist Church. Nelson with Naomi G. Winchester, Consultant for Aging Ministries for P.U.M.H., initiated and developed the Parish Nurse Preparation Program at Drayton Retreat Center held August 6-13. Sixteen nurses from five denominations and five states completed the program. Most of the ten United Methodists have implemented programs at local churches. A fellowship, mentoring, continuing education and network program was established for these new parish nurses and funding was procured for it for 1994 through NEW VENTURE MINISTRIES.

The Peace with Justice program of the Board of Church and Society continued its efforts in 1993 to help prevent substance abuse among elementary and middle school young people in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference area through participation in the Born Free-Stay Free program in the Salisbury District and by planning and designing a "Hope and Help" Conference scheduled for 1994 to help congregations deal with alcohol and drug abuse. It also arranged for Jerald L. Scott, of the General Board of Church and Society, to give a presentation on substance abuse at Annual Conference. The Peace with Justice program created and designed the Legislative Internship program at Wesley College and Chesapeake College to help United Methodist legislators in Delaware and Maryland become more familiar with United Methodist Social Principles and consider them in their decision making.

The Board continues to support Pacem in Terris which serves as the international part of our Peace with Justice work area, addressing militarism, disarmament, ethnic conflict, reconciliation, global economics, foreign policy, racism, and economic justice. Through Pacem in Terris, "Diversity Workshops", based on the National Coalition Building Institute model, were introduced into the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. In 1993, workshops were held in Wilmington and Newark and "Conflict Resolution" workshops were held in Wilmington and Georgetown. The one in Georgetown enjoyed the co-sponsorship of Pacem, the Board of Church and Society, and the Georgetown Ministerial Association. On the congregational level, "Diversity Workshops" were held jointly by St. Paul's U.M.C., Mt. Joy U.M.C. and Newark U.M.C.

The Board offered resources on peace with justice issues to all local churches and local Boards of Church and Society through information, speakers, training programs, and projects of Pacem in Terris. In July, Grace U.M.C. served as the host Protestant church for Ulster Project Delaware, a reconciliation program of Pacem in Terris which brings Catholic and Protestant teenagers and local youth together. Through its project Delaware Citizens Opposed to the Death Penalty, Pacem in Terris helped organize a seminar "Perspectives on the Death Penalty" in March which presented proponents and opponents to capital punishment. The Board of Church and Society co-sponsored and supported this event.

The Environmental Justice program assembled an ecological exhibit at Annual Conference which demonstrated the work of local, regional, and national environmental groups. In October it offered a mini-seminar on the environment with representatives from the Interfaith Coalition on Energy, the Grassroots Coalition for Environmental and Economic Justice, and the DuPont Company.

The Resourcing Congregations program continued to encourage activity at the local church and District level through its mini-grant program. Grants were awarded to the Seaford Circuit, Indian Mission U.M.C., Millsboro, DE, Conley's Chapel U.M.C., Milton, DE, and Ebenezer U.M.C in Snow Hill, MD. It also provided some financial support for an ELC trip for two youth to participate in the Mission of Peace to Africa. It organized the Board's annual training event at Drayton Retreat Center in October which was a "Diversity Workshop" led by Buck Buchanan and Chris Jackson of the National Coalition Building Institute/Delaware Chapter.

It has been a fulfilling year in the work of the Board!

Palmer S. Clark
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. To stress the availability of "Diversity Workshops" at the district level.
2. To raise the consciousness of the Conference concerning the impact of legislation on family values and morality.
3. To raise the awareness of the members of the Conference concerning the religious, ethical, and environmental implications of the many civil wars around the planet.
4. To help members of the Conference understand and act on environmental issues as stewards of God's creation.
5. To strengthen local church programs on environmental justice, human welfare, peace with justice, and substance abuse through the mini-grant program of the Board.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

In 1993, the Board of Diaconal Ministry continued its mission of assisting persons as they responded to God's call for their lives in areas of Diaconal Ministry. The Board celebrated as Candidate Alyce Brown Husser was consecrated as a Diaconal Minister and as others, including Pat Sullivan, Wesley Lockfaw, Kathy Devine and Stacy Hitch, were recognized as candidates for future consecration.

Pat Sullivan was also recognized as having earned her certification as an Associate in Christian Education with the completion of the necessary graduate studies and satisfactory employment in an approved position. In addition, several other persons are continuing in the process leading toward certification in the areas of education, music, youth and evangelism ministries. The Board has attempted to establish personal and professional ties with each person under our care and has worked to strengthen the tie with other professional agencies and boards in the Conference and beyond.

Our Goals for 1995 are to continue providing support and encouragement for those persons who feel called to a set apart ministry and to model, for the Conference, ways of responding to God's call through ministries of justice, service and love. We intend to work with the appropriate groups to insure that the needs of local congregations are met and to assist those who are certified and consecrated in securing appropriate and meaningful positions through which to minister.

The members of this Board are to be commended for their faithful and energetic commitment to the work we have been assigned. They are also to be commended for the creative ways they have found to fully utilize their gifts in their own lives. For their dedication and love, I am deeply appreciative.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship (BOD) experienced a pivotal point in its direction during 1993. Most of all there was a significant change in its leadership base. Also, the Board utilized some of its time to focus on the mission of the organization as we continue to take on the responsibility of providing leadership in the area of disciple-making for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. We have worked very hard to become one cohesive "board" rather than several unconnected "divisions."

The BOD is a channel or instrument for God's power to flow through in the process of disciple-making lived out in local congregations. The BOD enables local congregations as they effectively reach and receive, promote encounters with God through Jesus Christ, nurture for life and love, send out in mission to live in the world in the ongoing task of making disciples.

In 1993, the BOD carried out this evolving mission in the following manner:

1. Partner's Project - Two Partner's Project churches were continued in 1993, which began in 1992. One was given closure and another is yet to be completed. Also, a third Partner's Project church was begun and will continue in 1994. The Board will examine this program for continuance.
2. Print and AV resources - this was the support fiber to the Christian Council's Interfaith Resource Center. This continues to be a meaningful relationship that provides resources to churches and individuals of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
3. Christian Education Consultants - This continues to be the most effective ministry of the BOD. The Christian Education consultants, Althea

Armstrong, Alice Hemmeian, and Liz St. Clair, gave leadership to several congregations and the planning of annual conference events.

4. Evangelism Training - In 1993, several persons from Peninsula-Delaware Conference churches attended the NEJ School of Evangelism in Portland, ME. Also, the Board was instrumental in the Wilmington District's "Come Alive in Christ" event. The BOD granted the Wilmington District $7,000.00 for the project.
5. Conference-Wide Events - The BOD sponsored several conference-wide events including: a Vacation Bible School Preview and workshops; a workshop and celebration on the new United Methodist Book of Worship; a discipleship training event called "The Discipleship Fair," which was held on three nights in two locations each night (a total of six).
6. Health Ministries - The BOD provided resourcing and help with the development of the parish nursing ministry through the older adult ministries of the BOD.
7. Stewardship Resourcing - The BOD, in conjunction with the Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference sponsored a workshop event on developing volunteer ministry in the local church called "Stop the Revolving Door." Also, in this area the BOD provided resourcing for several congregations to receive stewardship consultation and training.
8. Re-organization - The BOD, re-ordered its life around the primary task. As one board loosely organized around the primary tasks the work areas now include: Evangelism-Reaching Out; Worship-Relating to God; Christian Education-Nurturing in the Faith; Stewardship-Sending Out to Serve; and Partner's Project.

1995 GOALS

The primary task of the local church in disciple making is to reach people where they are, introduce them to God, nurture them in the faith and send them out to serve. The BOD is the conference agent with the responsibility to enable churches in carrying out this primary task.

The goal of the BOD, therefore, is to enhance the understanding and participation in the task of making disciples among the churches and members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

In the past some of the goals have been event oriented (i.e. to hold a workshop) and sometimes there was no change in outcome after the successful accomplishment of an event. To the contrary, this goal is a results oriented approach to goal development. We are no longer carrying out events as goals, but we have selected this goal as the change in outcome we are looking for as a result of the activities we endeavor to accomplish as the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Discipleship.

Older Adult Ministries Task Force

We have reached a time in the life of our church that the reference to older adult ministry is clearly defined in The Book of Discipline. The reference of Paragraph 264.5 and ministry by, with and for older adults has a two fold purpose: meeting the needs of older adults in the church/community, and recognizing the contributions they can make as full participants of the congregation.

Paragraph 1221 in The Book of Discipline states that there will be a Committee on Older Adult Ministries administratively related to the Board of Discipleship. The eight points of responsibilities are outlined:

1. Identify needs
2. Promote a plan of comprehensive ministry
3. Support the development of resources
4. Advocate the development and implementation of policies and services as advocates of older adults
5. Educate and keep before the church the life long process of aging and faith development
6. Encourage resources for equipping older adults for new roles in ministry
7. Serve as focal point for older adults
8. Encourage coordination among agencies responsible for older adult ministries.

The 1993 Goal of the Older Adult Task Force of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference was to have healthier, happier older adults. The strategic plan included:

1. Co-sponsorship of The Parish Nurse Program in communities and churches, so aged persons can learn to take the responsibility for managing their own health care.
2. Promote Empowerment Workshop for the Aged, so they will become advocates for the services they need.
3. Implement a Volunteer Program to recruit, train and organize older adults. This volunteer program will seek to provide socialization for the aged, and help those who share their gifts and talents to obtain a feeling of self-worth.
4. Provide written resources on Older Adult Ministries via three mailings to pastors of local churches. These resources will be designed to assist pastors and laity to develop their Aging Ministries Program.

We resolve to continue our programs to provide for healthier, happier older adults.

1995 GOAL

The goal of the Older Adult Ministries Task Force of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference continues in its 5th year to be implementing programs and networking with other boards and agencies in order to have healthier, happier older adults.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Global Ministries understand that the church exists to glorify God in Jesus Christ and that mission is the lifeline of the church. Christ calls each of us to be partners in mission, and the Board's work is to challenge local congregations and their members to be actively involved in the mission work of the global church.

Naomi G. Winchester
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. To witness to the gospel for initial decision to follow Jesus Christ. We will proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ and, similarly, challenge others to discipleship in and through Christian communities. If a direct proclamation is not permitted, a caring presence becomes the means of the Christian witness.
2. To strengthen, develop and renew Christian congregations and communities. We will work mutually with mission partners in common growth and development of spiritual life, worship, witness and service.
3. To alleviate human suffering. We will help to initiate, strengthen and support ministries to the spiritual, emotional and social needs of people.
4. To seek justice, freedom and peace. We will participate with people oppressed by unjust economic, political and social systems in programs that seek to build just, free and peaceful societies.

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

I would like to express my appreciation for the tremendous work done by the former secretary, Jerome R. DeVine. His passion for mission inspired us all, and we wish him the best in his new position with the General Board of Global Ministries. As the new Mission Secretary, my primary concern is to become oriented to this position. I am in contact with people with the General Board and hope to visit the Board's New York office soon for orientation. In April, I attended the annual training for mission secretaries in the Northeastern Jurisdiction.

Some other accomplishments include working with the Rev. Don Williard to coordinate disaster relief for the Annual Conference, and being a mission speaker for the Mission Alive! Weekend on the Salisbury District.

My primary goal as Mission Secretary is to encourage all congregations in the Annual Conference to become aware of mission opportunities and to be involved in mission in some way.

Grant L. Johnson

1995 GOALS

1. To work closely with the Division of Mission in developing promotional resources on missionaries deployed by our General Board of Global Ministries that are supported by congregations in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
2. To be a resource for Mission Alive! Weekends on the Dover and Easton Districts.
3. To promote Conference Advance Specials and work with the Divisions of Mission and Parish and Conference Ministries as they establish missional priorities.
4. To develop a systematic way for local congregations to respond to national/international disasters.
5. To help implement the Global Mission Partners program.
6. To develop a program among African-American congregations to relate missionally to churches in Africa.
7. To work with the Board of Discipleship to develop a program of mission education for children.
8. To work with the Conference Council on Ministries to design a strategy for new church development.

Committee on Education and Cultivation

In 1993, the Committee held a series of three meetings on each district conducted by the District Mission Secretaries. A mission speaker was invited to each meeting to inform the Mission Chairpersons of local churches about the role of mission in the life of the church. Each District Mission Secretary also published a newsletter to share information with the Mission Chairpersons.

The Committee also participated in some mission education events: the Global Gathering in Indianapolis attended by the Committee Chairperson and the District Mission Secretaries, a training workshop in Dover for the entire Committee, and a leadership workshop in New York City attended by the Committee Chairperson.

Hilderia Labala
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. To develop a supportive and creative relationship among local church Mission and Outreach Chairpersons.
2. To celebrate the mission successes of local churches and thus encourage other congregations to become more involved in mission.

Division of Congregational Development

In 1993, the Division met all requests from congregations for loans and grants to improve church facilities and parsonages. These funds come from apportionments paid by all Conference congregations and from repayment of loans previously extended to congregations. It has been the Division's pleasure to assist local congregations in this way and thus serve our Lord.

Nancy H. Leathrum
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. To develop, along with the Cabinet and other Conference work areas, a policy on New Congregational Development.
2. To continue to assist local congregations to be in ministry by extending grants and loans to enable them to have adequate facilities.
3. To enable all pastors to have a parsonage that meets Conference standards through grants and loans to local congregations for parsonage repair and construction.

Division of Health and Welfare

The Parish Nurse Program held a week-long training session at Drayton Retreat Center to prepare 16 parish nurses to develop wholistic health promotion and disease prevention in their congregations. Nurses from five states and five denominations attended the August training organized by Joan D. Nelson and Naomi G. Winchester.

The Division mailed to all clergy in the Conference information on HIV/AIDS, Safety and Older Adults, and The Dangers of Smoking to encourage health education in all congregations and their communities. The Division also supported the Family Health and Fitness Day at Mt. Salem Church, Wilmington. The event was open to the community and had displays from many health and fitness organizations. This program can be used as a model for similar events throughout the Conference.

An older adult retreat, planned for October, was postponed because of light registration. The retreat has been rescheduled for the Spring of 1994 at Camp Pecometh.

My thanks to Lorna Varell Hearn, the previous chairperson, for her interest and work in the implementation of these activities.

Donald E. Alford
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. Continue to support the health ministries of local congregations with seminars and mailings.
2. Continue and expand the Parish Nurse Program.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

"The following information about Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. is printed because the Conference has a common missional interest with Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc."

(A Covenant of Affiliation Between Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, adopted June 1985.)

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. is the area's largest not-for-profit provider of retirement/health care services. PUMH opened Delaware's first not-for-profit continuing care retirement community, Methodist Country House, in 1960. In 1966, the Methodist Manor House opened in Seaford to provide retirement living in southern Delaware. Twelve years later, in 1978, PUMH opened Cokesbury Village in Hockessin, Delaware to offer more spacious living units to the older adult population. In addition, PUMH has managed the Layton Home, a 108-bed nursing care facility in Wilmington, since 1987, and Heron Point of Chestertown, Maryland, owned by PUMH of Maryland, Inc., since its opening in 1991.

In its five communities, PUMH serves approximately 1,100 men and women over the age of 60 and employs about 950 people. The total assets of the corporation and the five facilities are approximately $145,000,000.

PUMH owns and operates the only continuing care retirement communities in the State of Delaware to earn accreditation by the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission (CCAC) an independent agency sponsored by the American Association of Homes for the Aging. The three PUMH communities, Methodist Country House, Methodist Manor House, and Cokesbury Village are among the 121 facilities nationwide that have earned this prestigious honor. The accreditation is a result of extensive evaluation and assures commitment to excellence in resident life, finance, health care, governance and administration.

PUMH is grateful to the many friends who in 1993 contributed $201,476 for immediate benevolence assistance and $77,600 in deferred benevolence assistance to the endowment fund for limited income residents. We are pleased to note that the 1993 Conference grant of $60,000 combined with Mother's Day offerings from Conference churches of $25,097, and other gifts provided benevolence funds to 39 Country House and Manor House residents whose financial resources no longer enable them to meet the full cost of care. On behalf of all the recipients, PUMH is most appreciative of these gifts.

During 1993 PUMH has offered new programs and services and continued expansion and renovation of existing facilities. Methodist Country House has undergone a major transformation, adding new apartments and an assisted living wing as well as refurbishing many interior areas. The original design of studios at Country House met the needs of seniors at the time. Today, retirees desire larger accommodations with more amenities.

A grand opening on November 16, 1993 celebrated the completion of Kennett Court with 18 apartments, Christiana Court with 13 new apartments, Wesley Wing, the 18-bed assisted living unit, and Brandywine Woods I, consisting of 18 one and two-bedroom apartments.

Extensive renovations including the dining room and main foyer, administrative offices, mail room, gift shop, health center activities room, physical therapy department and a new covered main entrance are now complete. The project also calls for the addition of a wood shop for which most of the tools and equipment have already been donated. Another 42 apartments will be added to the community by the end of 1994.

Methodist Manor House has also been busy breaking ground and cutting ribbons in 1993. The Chesapeake Wing, reflecting the desires of today's retirees, consists of 12 two-bedroom apartments and 6 two-bedroom with a den apartments each featuring a bay-windowed dining room, screened porch and a large storage area complete with washer and dryer. The Chesapeake Wing opened in June of 1993 and is now home to its first residents.

Fostering the personal growth of each of our residents is another integral part of the PUMH mission. Residents of Heron Point are demonstrating how they continue to actively contribute to society by donating their time and talents to special causes throughout Chestertown. Volunteers from Heron Point are active in every aspect of life in Chestertown including tutoring students at the local Garnett Elementary School and youths at the Carter Center, a juvenile detention center. Heron Point volunteers also make regular visits to Kent and Queen Anne County Hospital to help patients with a variety of tasks. Many residents attend local government meetings and voice their opinions on issues affecting Heron Point, Chestertown and the Chester River.

Not only are residents finding fulfillment through volunteering, but also through self-improvement. The initiation of the Academy of Lifelong Learning at Washington College brought a wonderful educational resource to Heron Point residents who are taking courses, volunteering and even teaching. This college environment provides interaction with a diverse group of people young and old and offers stimulating lectures, intriguing reading and challenging projects. From tending the resident garden to participating in resident council, residents also take an active role in the Heron Point community. Since the opening of Heron Point just two years ago, residents have developed more than 12 committees for every interest from drama to studying ecology.

Cokesbury Village, with over 30 active resident committees, is a unique community where the residents plan a variety of cultural and intellectual programs. Its committees range from horticulture and spiritual life to environmental concerns and trips and travel. This past year a new committee was formed, the Friends of Layton Home, that truly demonstrates the caring attitude and commitment of Cokesbury residents. The Friends of Layton Home Committee adopted three projects for the year. They gathered beautiful gifts at Christmas time to give to Layton Home residents. The gifts were not for the residents to keep, but rather to give to their friends, families and loved ones. The committee also sends birthday cards to Layton Home residents and has donated money to purchase new kitchen equipment, bakeware and other needs. This sharing of friendship has brought happiness to both PUMH communities.

Layton Home relies heavily on the support of donors and volunteers such as the Cokesbury committee - Friends of Layton Home. Volunteers at the "Home with a Heart" establish a special relationship with the residents by writing letters, visiting and helping with a variety of tasks. Donors enable Layton Home to continue to serve the elderly, especially those of low income.

Layton Home received funding from the State of Delaware Grant-in-Aid Appropriations Bill for fiscal year 1994, as it had done for two previous years. This grant, designated for operating support to Layton Home, represents an increase over the amount received last year. In addition to the support of volunteers and donors, Layton Home is supported by the sound management of PUMH.

PUMH goes beyond serving those living in our retirement communities; we also strive to serve older adults in the wider community. The PUMH Aging Ministries Program assists local churches and community groups in meeting the needs of the elderly in their homes and within the local community. The program is an important part of the PUMH mission to serve persons of diverse ethnic and economic backgrounds. The United Methodist Church has chosen the PUMH Aging Ministries Program to serve as one of two model programs nationwide.

Two new programs initiated this year by PUMH Aging Ministries are already receiving national attention. By preparing nurses for community-based wholistic health care, the Parish Nurse Program involves bringing healing and nurturing back to its origins, the church. The program, piloted at Hockessin United Methodist Church, was made possible through funding by the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference and the General Board of Global Ministries. PUMH Aging Ministries was the first to implement a parish nurse preparation program in The United Methodist Church. Nurses from all over the country have shown support and interest in this project.

Another new program, the Sharing Our Services SOS volunteer banking program is being recognized internationally for its outreach to low-income minority elderly. A federal grant from the Administration on Aging, one of five nationwide, was awarded to PUMH and the Delaware Division of Aging in January of 1993 in order to start SOS. Through the SOS program, seniors will be able to exchange services such as home maintenance, meal preparation, transportation or friendly visiting.

At the annual meeting of its Board of Trustees in September 1993, PUMH presented the George H. Pigueron Jr. Founder's Award to Merle E. Ward. Ward has made significant contributions to benefit older adults in Delaware.

PUMH has modified its services to better meet the needs of today's retirees who are more active and desire larger living accommodations. Over the years we have converted studios, built new apartments and cottages and offered a variety of stimulating activities to meet these changing needs. As we look to the future, PUMH will remain on the cutting edge of services and programs.

W. Laird Stabler III
Chairman of the Board

Richard C. Stazesky
President and CEO

1995 GOALS

1. Improve operational effectiveness and strengthen financial status.
2. Expand scope of activities and operations to ensure greater fulfillment of PUMH mission.
3. Protect PUMH's not-for-profit, tax exempt charitable status at all times.

Division of Mission

The purpose of the Division is to promote mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference on the local, national and world levels.

In 1993, the Division's primary work was coordinating the Mission Alive! Weekend on the Wilmington District. This October weekend was a mission saturation event in which all interested congregations had a mission speaker. Approximately one-third of the congregations on the Wilmington District participated, and the response was positive. A Mission Alive! Weekend was held in the Spring of 1994 on the Salisbury District, and similar weekends will be held on the Dover and Easton Districts in the near future. The goal of Mission Alive! is to encourage congregations to become more involved in mission on the local, conference, national and world levels.

The Division also worked to encourage congregations to participate in the Global Mission Partners Program. There are six criteria to be met before a congregation is named a global mission partner:

1. Apportionments paid in full
2. Have an ongoing program for mission education
3. Support for local mission
4. Have a covenant relationship with a missionary through the General Board of Global Ministries
5. Pledge support for an international person in mission (i.e., a non-U.S. missionary)
6. Share the congregation's story of mission with other congregations.

As of February 1994, Elkton and Hockessin Churches are the first Global Mission Partners in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Also in 1993, the Division encouraged congregations to give to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), and UMCOR giving for the year increased by approximately 25 percent over the previous year.

James F. Hawkins
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. Encouraging Mission Involvement -- The Division will sponsor Mission Alive! Weekends on the Dover and Easton Districts as well as follow-up events on the Wilmington and Salisbury Districts to encourage ten percent of congregations in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference to enter a covenant relationship with a missionary and five percent of congregations to become Global Mission Partners.
2. Mission Interpreter Training -- To train one or two persons who will be mission speakers and visit at least ten congregations within two years.
3. Volunteers in Mission -- To support one conference or district-sponsored VIM team, thus encouraging persons to have a hands-on mission experience.
4. United Methodist Commission on Relief -- To encourage each congregation in the Annual Conference to contribute at least $1 per member to UMCOR.
5. Clergy Scholarships to the School of Christian Mission -- To encourage pastors to attend the School of Christian Mission.

Division of Parish and Conference Ministries

The purpose of the Division of Parish and Conference Ministries is to support existing outreach ministries and be proactive in identifying and encouraging ministry to new needs as they develop.

During 1993 the Division worked to support Cooperative Urban Ministries of Salisbury become an Advance Special Offering for the conference churches. The Division also is pleased to report a closer relationship with the Methodist Action Program (MAP).

The Division will continue to be Peninsula-Delaware's liaison to the Methodist Action Program, Neighborhood House and Cooperative Urban Ministries of Salisbury.

Herman E. Lipsius
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. Ministry to a Changing Population: To help develop and sustain ministry to emerging populations with the bounds of the Annual Conference we will:
 - a) Continue to support the Hispanic Mission in Wilmington;
 - b) Work to identify migrant populations and provide local churches with strategies and resources for ministries;
 - c) Be in partnership with and provide instruction for local churches to view U.S. Census demographics for the changing populations on their area.
2. Cooperative Ministries: To help congregations work together and foster ministries they could not accomplish alone we will:
 - a) Encourage each district to designate at least one area of need for cooperative ministry;
 - b) Provide leadership resources for those new ministries;
 - c) Continue to support the existing cooperative ministries within our Annual Conference.
3. Town and Country Ministries: To help rural churches with limited financial resources find new ideas for ministry and mission to aid church growth we will:
 - a) Re-establish ties with Town and Country Ministries and create a position within our division to help rural churches be aware of resources available to them;
 - b) Provide partial scholarships to those wishing to attend the jurisdictional conference.

Cooperative Urban Ministries of Salisbury

In January of 1993, eight United Methodist congregations in Salisbury formed a new ministry to reach out to the needs of people in an increasingly urbanized city. The mission is: "To develop and coordinate programs which serve and minister to the needs of Salisbury's materially impoverished. We will increase awareness of these needs throughout our congregations and provide avenues for reacting. We will promote the concern for racial understanding and appreciation.*

During the first year, an office was opened in partnership with the Salisbury District Office on the Downtown Plaza. This being a new venture, we have experienced many growing pains and this ministry has undergone some changes in direction it is developing from a dream to a reality. We thank the Division of Parish and Conference Ministries for it's support. Cooperative Urban Ministries was designated a Conference Advance Special and the 3rd Sunday in October 1993 was designated Urban Ministries Sunday. This effort raised over $5,000.00.

Programs developed to this point are:

Family Support Ministry (Outreach to young parents)
Urban Ministry Walk
Drug Prevention Youth Camp
Volunteers in Mission (Involving people from other congregations in urban outreach programs)
Citywide Confirmation Rally
Joint church & interracial Bible Studies
Human Relations Ambassadors Program
Adopt a Family Year Round

Grant L. Johnson
Executive Director

1995 GOALS

1. Coordination of emergency assistance
2. Financing and building one house for Habitat for Humanity

Methodist Action Program

A year of transition, 1993 was filled with changes: in personnel, in strategy, and, to a lesser degree, in program. The central change was the decision to focus more on urban congregations and less on independent ministries.

The tasks of urban ministry and mission and of church extension remain the foci of all of M.A.P.'s work. The transitions are only strategic in nature; our faith and commitment have pushed us to reassess our Christian activities. After all is said and done, it is because of Christ that we exist, it is in Christ that we find our way, and it is for Christ that we serve.

Personnel changes were made in both full-time administrative positions. In January, the Executive Director for the last seven years, Mr. James C. Walker, left the Methodist Action Program to become the Director of Planning in the new administration of the City of Wilmington. In August, the Executive Secretary, Mrs. Debbie Pettit-Mimikos, followed Mr. Walker to the City Department of Planning. Rev. John Holden was appointed Executive Director in July and Mrs. Carol Sieg was employed as Executive Secretary in October.

Strategic changes that were articulated in 1992, when the Board of Directors decided to focus new programming on partnerships with local congregations, began to be reflected in agency planning. At first glance, this is a reversion to the first years of the M.A.P. programming. In the most critical point of church growth, this is a brand new departure for our annual conference.

Twenty-five years ago the M.A.P. program operated in local church settings, but was conceived, funded, and supervised independently of those congregations. The urban churches did not refocus their own ministries, but let the M.A.P. program do the neighborhood ministries. So, when funds became restricted and M.A.P. had to eliminate congregationally located programs, no lasting impact remained either on the neighborhoods or on the congregations. Our urban neighborhood churches have continued to die, and the communities lost their ministries of Christian love and nurture.

Accordingly, for a variety of reasons, M.A.P. began doing its own ministries that were independent of the urban churches. Area-wide programming on welfare reform, on anti-gambling campaigns, and on housing problems took center stage. Social service programming was developed at Old Asbury Church (Emmanuel Dining Room to feed the hungry, the After School Educational Enrichment Program and the Summer Day Camp to help elementary school children, and Crisis Intervention (to assist families with food, clothing, and money emergencies) and in the former Harrison Street Church parsonage (Los Abuelos -- The Grandparents -- Senior Center and Hispanic Elderly Outreach Program). Good things were done, but comprehensive, life-changing, discipling ministry was not pursued.

With the decision to change strategy, M.A.P. will encourage each neighborhood urban church (city and older suburban) to refocus its vitality and ministry on its geographical area. In so far as the future of the congregation -- new members, new faith, and new life -- lies in its immediate neighborhood, outreach and nurturing programming needs to address the issues and perceptions of the church's neighbors. Since many long standing members of the church may have moved out of the adjacent community, the congregation's programming has probably tended to address more and more the concerns and interests of the people living elsewhere. The longer the church has focused on its members living in other communities, the farther its program and world view have moved away from its neighborhood, making relationships more and more difficult. Therefore, M.A.P. will help churches look again at their neighborhoods, to build new programs and new relationships. This refocusing, then, is hearing again Jesus' charge to go into the world to live God's love and to proclaim God's word.

With the decision to change in 1992, the year 1993 was the time to begin positioning the agency for change. Keeping the new policy in mind, a new Executive Director and Executive Secretary were hired. Agency programming was reviewed carefully for long-term social, educational, and spiritual impact on participants and communities. The need and direction for change are coming clear. The difficult time has come to change.

The year for the changes to begin in earnest is 1994. Some programming will have to be closed to free resources for new tasks. Staff time and money will have to be directed to new opportunities. Rather than meeting human needs and assisting social change directly, M.A.P. will work through the urban and suburban churches to reflect the light and love of Christ into our urban community. The reformation of the Methodist Action Program is begun.

John F. Holden
Executive Director

1995 Goals

1. Work to engage nine identified city and older suburban congregations in transformational processes, including:
 - A. Group ministries: prayer, Bible study, literature review, personal support, etc.
 1. One or more group ministries for clergy.
 2. One or more group ministries for laity.
 - B. Long-range planning, by congregation:
 1. Unique history: achievements and problems.
 2. Target population and its uniqueness.
 3. Re-statement of congregation's mission.
 4. Planning process open to all interested:
 - a. Church members.
 - b. Neighborhood residents.
 - C. Develop and implement short-range program plans.
 1. Plan (re-plan) programming to implement the congregation's mission statement.
 - a. Program concepts,
 - b. Program constructs,
 - c. Program formats,
 - d. Program activities,
 - e. Program requirements.
 2. Request/negotiate assistance from M.A.P., if needed.
 3. Implement programming as described and phased in the short-range plan.
 4. Evaluate programs to refine good activities and to eliminate poor ones.
 - D. Revise long and short-range plans as needed.
2. Continue and expand new church development efforts.
 - A. Iglesia Metodista Unida Nueva Vida:
 1. Assist financially and administratively.
 2. Consult on program development.
 - B. Exploring a new church in the Hockessin and Pike Creek area.
 - C. Identify other target neighborhoods and populations for new church development.
3. Continue community service ministries:
 - A. Old Asbury Church and Center:
 1. Emmanuel Dining Room,
 2. Crisis Alleviation,
 3. Neighborhood Development,
 4. Youth Development,
 5. After School Enrichment Program, and
 6. Summer Day Camp.
 - B. Los Abuelos (The Grandparents) Senior Center.
 - C. Outreach Program for Senior and Handicapped Hispanic Persons.

Neighborhood House, Inc.

Neighborhood House, Inc. is a community center that stands in the heart of South

Wilmington, Delaware. It is an independent non-profit agency related to The General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church, and is governed locally by an inclusive, autonomous, predominantly lay Board of Directors, which is a cross-section of people from the Church, Community and South Wilmington. Major financial support is received from the United Methodist Church, United Way of Delaware, federal, state and city governments; and individual and business contributions.

The mission of Neighborhood House is to enable the people in and around South Wilmington to improve individually their quality of life and to develop cooperatively a better neighborhood. Better housing, family unity, education and counseling, recreation, neighborhood development, racial and cultural relations as well as spiritual and emotional enrichment are important aspects of programs which meet the various and changing needs of the people.

In June 1993, Neighborhood House moved into their long awaited new facility. The 25,000 square foot building was completed within budget. Cost of the entire project was $2.3 million, including furnishings and temporary program space rentals.

The new structure includes an assembly hall that can accommodate up to 160 persons, a chapel which seats up to 40 people in pews, offices, staff lounge, five Day Care classrooms, institutional kitchen and open area for group activities. The 5,000 square foot third level is not presently being utilized, but is available for future expansion.

1993 was a busy year for Neighborhood House. We never closed down day-to-day operations, even with the move into the new facility. The agency served over 6,400 unduplicated people in 1993 as compared to 5,000 in 1992, which was an increase of 28 per cent. The increase was mainly in our Housing Service Department which included operating the State Weatherization Assistance program. The agency was responsible for the weatherization of 166 homes in New Castle County. Over all, Housing Services served over 3,000 individuals. Another component of Housing Services is counseling for the New Castle County Department of Community Development and Housing's "Down Payment and Settlement Help Program". The program enables low and moderate income households to purchase their first homes by providing loans to aid in covering the cost of down payment and settlement charges. The HUD certified housing program also provided counseling in the areas of mortgage default household budgeting, rental assistance and delinquency. The geographical distribution for those served included Wilmington 1659, Newark 626, New Castle County 751, Kent County 35 and adjacent states 6.

Educational services continue to be an important aspect. Our program activities include homework assistance, algebra tutoring, chess club, assisting students to find sources of financial aid for college and Adult Basic Education Classes.

Neighborhood House youth had several opportunities for education and social growth in 1993. The 4-H Club's summer business enterprise of a vegetable and fruit stand received a visit from representatives of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., New Castle County Executive Dennis Greenhouse and other dignitaries.

Christine Tymes, an ABC 4-H Club member, was awarded an "I Dare You Scholarship" to attend the International Leadership Conference in Michigan. The conference was attended by youth from all states and several countries. She was recommended to receive the award by the County Cooperative Extension 4-H program for her integrity and her commitment to balance living and leadership potential.

Our Youth Coordinator and four youth attended the Youth Empowerment Strategies Conference sponsored by the National Division, General Board of Global Ministries held at Camp Sumatanga, Gallant, Alabama in August. The purpose of the conference was to encourage positive values, promote leadership, develop self-esteem and inspire youth to make a difference through the development of youth-led self-help community organized strategies.

A two month long summer program held in Middletown gave 35 children the opportunity for productive leisure time activities. Thirty-one attended the eight week Day Camp Program and four attended Camp Pecometh.

The Child Care and Crisis Alleviation programs continued to meet the needs of many families. Sixty-five children attended Day Care enabling their parents to work or receive training, knowing that their children were safe and secure.

The 1636 individuals assisted by the Crisis-Alleviation program received one or more of the following services: emergency financial assistance, food, counseling or social service referrals.

While Neighborhood House had historically served primarily the South Wilmington area, it now reaches out and provides services to all of New Castle County.

Wayne F. Brown
Executive Director

1995 GOALS

1. Promote community and economic development.
2. Provide a range of services and resources to help families and individuals develop long-term solutions to their problems and needs.
3. Promote and provide counseling and assistance in obtaining long-term employment.
4. Promote and provide educational and training opportunities for children, youth and adults.
5. Promote and provide recreational, cultural and enrichment opportunities and programs.
6. Increase housing opportunities for low and moderate income families in and around South Wilmington.
7. Broaden the base and improve the quality of financial, physical and human resources available to Neighborhood House.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

1993 has been an eventful year for the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry.

At the 1993 Annual Conference, it was our privilege to present the Francis Asbury Award for Fostering United Methodist Ministries in Higher Education to the Reverend Vaughn A. Johnson, and posthumously to the Reverend Dr. Howard B. Warren. Three recipients were chosen by the Board to receive scholarships: Tillie Marie Dulin, a freshman at Wesley College School of Nursing in Dover, Delaware, from Wye Mills United Methodist Church, received the $1000 United Methodist Foundation Annual Conference Scholarship awarded to a freshman at a United Methodist college or university; Rachel Caroline Duffin, a freshman at American University in Washington, D.C., from Felton United Methodist Church, and Jennifer Lynn Shields, a freshman at Wesley College in Dover, Delaware, from Kent Island United Methodist Church, each received a $750 Conference Merit Award Scholarship, funded by the United Methodist Student Day Offering. Beverly Y. Holland, a student at Delaware State University, received a $750 Grant from the Board for her tuition. Norah Campbell, a freshman at Berkley College of Music in Boston, from Whatcoat United Methodist Church in Dover, Delaware, was granted a $1000 loan from the Board.

Calvin McFadden, Lina H. McCord Summer Ambassador for the Black College Fund, from Bethune-Cookman College, was hosted by the Board and itinerated throughout the Conference after giving an excellent presentation at Annual Conference. The Board also participated in the Parade of Banners and Mission Fair at Annual Conference.

The Wesley Foundations at Delaware State University and the University of Delaware were evaluated by the Board. Students, faculty, and members of the Boards of Directors were interviewed on campus. It was reported by the evaluating teams that both ministries are effective and exciting -- challenging the campuses and their communities to grow in faith, knowledge, and service.

The Reverend Vaughn Johnson agreed to serve as the interim Director/Campus Minister of the Wesley Foundation at Salisbury State University in Salisbury, Maryland. By the end of the fall term in December, a cross-racial group of ten to fifteen students was meeting weekly for Bible Study and fellowship, and is officially recognized by the Student Government and Administration as a viable student group. This ministry continues to grow as it witnesses to the presence of the Lord Jesus in our midst.

In good Wesleyan tradition, the Board continues to strive to bring to reality the vision of Isaiah, "that all the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord."

C. Karen Covey Moore
Chairperson

Mission Statement

The vision of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is that "all the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord". (Isaiah 11:19) We will bring this vision to reality through the following opportunities for service:

- a. Proclaim the Gospel to all persons for the purpose of transformation to the Christian Faith.
- b. Strengthen the local church through nurturing of youth and young adults.
- c. Help students unite faith, knowledge, and practice.
- d. Recruitment of persons to the vocation of Christian Ministry.

1995 GOALS

1. Celebrate 1995 as the year of Higher Education and Campus Ministry.
2. Establish a speakers' bureau of Conference Board members, and Wesley Foundation Directors and students to interpret to the local churches the mission and ministry of Campus Ministry.
3. Evaluate the Wesley Foundation at Salisbury State University.
4. Support the Black College Fund by participating in the Summer Ambassador Program.
5. Promote and support United Methodist Student Day and Africa University.
6. Designate and promote a Student Recognition Day.

Wesley College

There are times in the lives of some people and institutions when circumstances combine to produce a vision of achievement and the determination to realize it. For Wesley College, such a time has arrived. We want to begin with an acknowledgment and celebration of the way in which we affirmed one another in mission and ministry at last year's Annual Corporate Session. We left the Corporate Session sensing a renewed relationship and now, by God's grace, we can further engage the process of examining and becoming that which God would have us to be as a Church and a College in mission and ministry together.

This year, your College has recrafted its historic mission statement. We now have a mission congruent with the times and today's needs. Your College proudly declares that it seeks to be a premier institution for helping students gain the knowledge, skills, moral and ethical attitudes necessary to achieve their personal goals and contribute to the welfare of their communities in the global society. Wesley College endeavors to impart a desire for life-long learning and an enhanced capacity for critical, creative and professional effectiveness. As a College in a covenant relationship with the United Methodist Church and founded upon Christian principles, Wesley College strives to realize a holistic campus environment of common purpose, caring, tolerance, inclusiveness, responsibility, and service that is the heart of the concept of community.

Wesley has grown and changed enormously in the past eleven years. But rather than seeing a finished product today, we see ahead of us unrealized potential as an Annual Conference and an institution of higher education in mission and ministry together. The leadership of the Wesley College Board of Trustees and the administration appreciate the vision and the challenges that Bishop Susan Morrison and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference have placed before us as a community in covenant with the Church.

Last year we shared with you that a directive was being prepared for the entire Wesley College community which reflected our resolve toward increased diversity at Wesley College. The directive emphasized that our commitment calls for more than an awareness of the need for diversity and inclusiveness; Wesley College is called to actualize a community where such harmony is seen and practiced. Each member of Wesley's community was called to join in making this dream a reality for Wesley College.

We are pleased to affirm that this year we have realized our dream in part, and we are steadily becoming a community where harmony is seen and practiced. In compliance with Title IV and VII of the 1969 Civil Rights Act, which requires that every employer provide equal employment opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or veteran status, the President and the Personnel Director proposed a specific plan for a Wesley College Affirmative Action Program, which has now been fully reviewed and approved by the Executive Committee of the Wesley College Board of Trustees.

We continue to give emphatic attention to make real our resolve to bring ethnic minorities into the mainstream of the College. Our Board of Trustees has welcomed six new members in the past year, bringing representation of ethnic minorities on the Board of Trustees to twenty percent (20%). Additional progress toward an inclusive community is evidenced by many of the new employees we have welcomed to the Wesley College family in the past year:

The Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr., Chaplain and Director of Church Relations
Mr. Jeffrey Braxton, Assistant Football Coach
Mr. Scott Burnam, Head Lacrosse Coach/Assistant Football Coach
Ms. Julia Demidowicz, Accounts Payable Officer
Ms. Angela Falcone, Word Processor
Ms. Sara Fuller, Media Coordinator/Student Publications Advisor
Ms. Rose Herrington, Laboratory Supervisor
Ms. Linda B. Lawrence, Admissions Processor
Ms. Inger L. Lawton, College Receptionist
Ms. Dixie Norris, Vice President for Finance & Treasurer of the College
Ms. Alison Pipkin, Assistant Professor of Fashion Marketing
Mr. Leslie Pitts, III, Computer Center Programmer/Analyst
Ms. Dana Seaberg, Assistant Director of Admission
Ms. Debbie Seagraves, Word Processor
Dr. Terry Thistlewaite, Assistant Dean & Director of Continuing Studies
Ms. Renise Welbon, Student Life Coordinator/Director of Community Service

President Stewart was also recently honored with the Frederick Douglass Humanitarian Award by Mr. Conrad Riley, the founder and President of Preservation of African-American Culture. This award was presented in recognition of Dr. Stewart's commitment to equal employment opportunities for minorities at Wesley College.

The Board of Trustees, the President and the administration take seriously the mutual ministry in higher education of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference and Wesley College, and pledge continued cooperation in working with the Bishop and the leadership of the Conference. As we grow together, let us seek to maintain a meaningful Covenant relationship between the College and the Church and determine those ways in which the values of the Church may be reflected in the conduct of the mission and daily life of the College.

The Chaplaincy program at Wesley College is rich and varied, and seeks to provide numerous opportunities for spiritual growth, while focusing on the spiritual health of each individual in the campus community and enabling the College community to live out its Christian faith by being actively involved in ministry in and beyond the campus. This year the Wesley community has found a smorgasbord of nourishment for their spiritual appetites, ranging from Mid-Week Prayer and Reflection on Wednesdays, Bible Studies on Wednesday evenings, and Chapel Services on Sunday mornings. Additional opportunities for witness and ministry this past year were:

Thanksgiving Offering Service: In November, a special service was held in the Wesley Chapel to offer students, faculty and staff at Wesley an opportunity to share in the plight of the homeless. Twenty-five coats were brought to this service to be given to needy families at the Salvation Army's Thanksgiving Day dinner and coat give-a-way.

During the Fall semester, a group of students went to Camp Pecometh in Centreville, Maryland to work in the new cabins and clean up the waterfront area.

During the Fall semester, a group of students went to Drayton Retreat Center in Chestertown, Maryland to clean up and prepare structures in the pool area for spring painting.

The establishment of Wesley College Gift Sharing Program encourages local churches and community organizations to utilize volunteers from the Wesley community as they plan seminars, lectures or workshops.

Last summer, following Annual Conference, Wesley College solicited proposals from 31 companies which specialize in the development of campus master planning. The firm of MacLachlan, Cornelius and Filoni was selected to help us create a campus master plan which will link our own internal long-range planning efforts and help guide the future development of the College. This new mission-driven space utilization and campus master plan will enormously aid our fund-raising efforts by helping to focus our priorities and create the context for our cultivation and solicitation efforts.

Another exciting development at Wesley in the past year has been the establishment of the Vanguard Council. The Council will take leadership in the Vanguard Project, focusing on excellence in teaching, curriculum development, student life and campus environment. The Vanguard Project will unfold with the collaboration of many constituencies on the campus and will help lead Wesley College toward the fulfillment of its mission in the years ahead.

1. Our student retention rates need attention. We will give studied and concentrated attention to crafting and implementing strategies which will improve our student retention rates.
2. Our recruitment practices must be enhanced and our conversion rates from applicants to enrolled students must improve. Concentrated attention will be given to enhanced student recruitment in close cooperation with the admissions team.
3. We will continue efforts to develop and implement strategies which will create a more inclusive College and bring ethnic minorities into the life of the College at all levels.
4. The internationalization of the campus continues as an important focus at Wesley College. The International Initiatives Task Force will work closely with the President and Offices of Academic Affairs and Institutional Advancement to make this a priority goal over the next several years.

5. The President will continue to work closely with the Vice President for Institutional Advancement and give emphatic attention to fund-raising and development, utilizing the Campus Master Plan as a major instrument of fund-raising.
6. In close cooperation with the Board of Trustees and leadership of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, the President and the administration will strive to maintain a meaningful Covenant relationship between the College and the Church, continuing to seek ways in which the values of the Church can be reflected in the daily work and mission of the College.
7. In close cooperation with the Chaplain and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, the President will work to promote greater mutual understanding between pastors and College leadership and greater cooperation between congregations and internal campus constituencies to the end of gaining more Wesley College students from the several hundred congregations which constitute Peninsula-Delaware United Methodism.
8. The President will strive to provide visibility for Wesley Trustees among the internal constituencies of the College, and help craft opportunities for Trustee contact with professional representatives of the various components of the College. Trustee Retreats will be conducted to seek to unify the Board behind the recrafted Mission Statement and fully engage the Board of Trustees in crafting and giving nurture to the vision for the College's future.

Wesley Foundation - University of Delaware

Campus ministry -- the presence of the church in the midst of the academic community -- is a mission field.

As a mission ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, we strive to remain faithful to our Wesleyan heritage of uniting vital piety and knowledge. We are concerned with developing the God-given gift of knowledge for the betterment of self and community. We look for paradigms for mission which will be faithful to the vital message of God's grace, love, and justice expressed in a relevant manner and sensitive to the needs and issues of a complex world. Paradigms, however, are models and expressions of fundamental concerns; those expressions must be grounded in our heritage, our theological perspective, and our sense of social responsibility.

Our spiritual life mission provided us the opportunities to worship with the Newark U.M.C. family. On our Winter Retreat, we explored the "Spiritual and Political Issues of the Native Americans and The United Methodist Church." Ms. Susan Brave, Program Director for the Ministry of God's Human Community, General Board of Church and Society, and Mr. Robert Peragory were our retreat leaders as we gathered at Drayton Retreat Center. Our fall and spring retreats found us at Epworth U.M. Church, Rehoboth Beach as we planned for the fall semester and celebrated that the spring semester was almost over.

During Lent and Advent, we shared in devotions through the publications written for college students. Bible study has consisted of liturgical, as well as, video studies with Walter Brueggemann, Frederick Buechner, Maya Angelou, and James Carroll. Sunday Morning Fellowship discussions have centered around many of the videos from the "Questions of Faith" series. Devotional materials and magazines are provided for students in the Student Lounge.

Our service mission has found students involved in Work Days for Cystic Fibrosis, serving at Hope Dining Room, sorting food at the Delaware Food Bank, sponsoring a Blood Drive for the Blood Bank of Delaware, cleaning their assigned road through the Adopt-a-Highway Program, serving dinner at the Annual Benefit Dinner, collecting, sorting and packing agricultural books for Africa University and assisting around Newark U.M. Church whenever asked.

Our mission of stewardship has provided us the opportunity to connect with other students on other campuses, as well as our own. We attended the Annual Northeast Christian Student Conference in New York City. As the students participated in this multi-cultural experience, they had the experience of diverse ministry within the inner city. Many of these ministries opened the opportunity for social justice and ecological experience.

Our mission of social gatherings have included many sport events, theater performances, informal gatherings in the student lounge and sharing many meals together. We shared with the other denominational campus ministries in sponsoring a fall concert by Mitchel Dane, a Christian folk singer. Our monthly newsletter helps to keep students informed of the many program opportunities which this ministry provides. Through electronic mail, students have kept open communications within the Foundation and with many other students across the United States.

The Board of Directors have provided the opportunity for people within the church and community to help financially support the Wesley Foundation. They have sponsored a Financial Campaign and an Art Show and Auction. At their Annual Benefit Dinner, the Rev. David Riffe and the Rev. Harvey Manchester, Jr. were honored for their long-time association with the Wesley Foundation at the University of Delaware. The Board of Directors need to be commended for their efforts in fund raising to help support this ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Opportunity is provided for students to explore God's call upon their lives into the professional ministry. This past year, Rebecca Robinson was selected for the US-2 Program through the General Board of Global Ministries. Rebecca is currently serving at the Hawthorne Hill Community Center, Des Moines, Iowa.

Our mission at the University of Delaware is centered in Jesus the Christ. We walk among the campus community sharing the love and grace which Jesus has given, is giving and allows us to give. We continue to offer diversity, love, acceptance and the presence of the Church. Open, affirming and reconciling, the Wesley Foundation at the University of Delaware continues to grow in God's grace. We continue to grow in effectiveness within the campus community. As Campus Pastor and Executive Director, I celebrate this gift of ministry entrusted to us as the Church.

Uniting vital piety and knowledge is challenging. Uniting vital piety and knowledge is exciting. This campus, the University of Delaware, is a mission field of God's. Thanks be to God for the opportunity to serve in this essential ministry of the Body of Jesus the Christ.

Laura Lee C. Wilson
Executive Director/Campus Pastor

1995 GOALS

1. To provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, as well as, physical and educational nourishment for the university community.
2. Continue the active participation in community service projects and provide outreach to the unchurched and de-churched.
3. Encourage students to consider professional ministries as vocations, and to provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.
4. Continue to support students who are in the ordination or consecration process.
5. Promote, with the student fellowship, an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to The Book of Discipline.
6. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to foreign students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.
7. Explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
8. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to Conference churches, especially to the senior high youth group members.
9. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising and to maintain financial stability and security.
10. Foster Board of Directors development through retreat and continuing education opportunities.

BOARD OF LAITY

The Conference Board of Laity held its annual Laity Session at the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference on June 11, 1993. (The minutes are printed on page 219 of the 1993 Conference Journal.) Howard Mason was elected, for his second term, as Associate Conference Lay Leader.

Robert Famell, Conference Director of Lay Speaking, reported that 389 people completed their certification as Local Church Lay Speakers and Certified Lay Speakers. Currently, we have listed Local Church Lay Speakers and Certified Lay Speakers for all the districts as follows: Dover - 149, Easton - 214, Salisbury - 220, and Wilmington - 192. The American Heritage Dictionary defines disciple as "pupil of a teacher". Pupil is a student. We are always learning and the Lay Speaker's School is one of the vehicles to learn and to provide lay leaders with training for all of the churches within the Conference.

It has been my privilege to attend most of the Local Church Lay Leader/Pastor trainings throughout the four districts. It is so important to hold up that the work of the church can best be done when the Lay Leader and the Pastor walk hand in hand as they meet the needs of their congregations. Our "Day Apart" was held in August and was led by Cindy Quillen with the topic being "Leading From the Heart". If we truly listen with our heart as we listen to family, friends and co-workers and respond from our heart, we would be ever so much more loving. Did not Jesus always respond from the heart?

A special thanks goes to Joseph Sipos, Conference United Methodist Men President, Geraldine Jones, Conference United Methodist Women President, Clyde Allen, Wilmington District Lay Leader and Bonnie Stone, Associate Lay Leader from Salisbury District. These leaders have moved on in their journey, but surely impacted each of us on the Conference Board of Laity. Thank you for your support and God bless you all in your new endeavors.

As we share the gifts and graces that God has given us, may we know Jesus more clearly, love Him more dearly and follow Him more nearly.

Dolly Brittingham
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. Continue to work with local church Lay Leaders and Pastors to form a partnership relationship.
2. Provide Lay and Reserve Members of Annual Conference with information to communicate the connection between the local church and the Conference.
3. Foster awareness of the role of the laity, both within the congregation and their ministries where ever they go, to live out the mission of the United Methodist Church.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The tasks of the Board of Ordained Ministry are numerous. Several standing committees of the Board give attention to a large number of issues on a regular basis. The Executive Committee meets almost on a monthly basis. Such matters as those relating to clergy with Appointments Beyond the Local Church, those on leave of absence, evaluation, monitoring of clergy candidates, interviewing, and a variety of disciplinary interpretations and definitions require constant processing. As Chairperson, I am grateful to all the committee chairs for their dedication and conscientious labor.

After serving this Board as Vice Chairperson for one and a half years and then as Chairperson for three years, I am pleased to announce that we have elected new officers. Jonathan Baker has been elected to serve as Chairperson of the Board; Ronald Bell, Vice Chairperson; and Boyd Etter will assist the Registrar, Michael Russell, until her term has expired. At that point, Boyd will become the Registrar.

Among our many duties, a great deal of time and reviewing has been expended in keeping with the mandate of the Annual Conference to print the policies and procedures of the Board in the Conference Journal following each General Conference. These policies have been corrected and updated to bring them in line with the 1992 Book of Discipline.

This Annual Conference year will show that a substantial increase has been made in the number of clergy candidates for ordination. After interviewing twenty candidates, seven elders and twelve deacons will be recommended to the Executive Session to be ordained. It is encouraging to see that, among these, there are candidates seeking Associate Membership.

I was privileged to attend a special event at Duke University last summer, representing our candidates there who are preparing for Associate Membership. Many of these students feel like second-class clergy, and are often forgotten as they labor and prepare themselves. The Cabinet has indicated that such a trend will not be encouraged. Local Pastors and Associate Members of the Annual Conference are a vital entity within our ministry. We applaud them for their heroic struggles to serve the cause of Christ and to fill a much needed role in The United Methodist connection.

Our major goal is to assist the Annual Conference and the clergy to constantly evaluate and provide effective ministry to the people called United Methodist.

One of the troubling statistics is the reduction of the average retirement age across the nation and, vis-a-vis, the reduction of the numbers of new recruits for ministry. But there is an encouraging aspect to this trend. Many retired clergy persons are finding new opportunities to serve the church in a part-time capacity, and churches who get these clergy are receiving the benefits of such experience and talents.

The work of Christ goes on.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Your Board of Pensions shoulders a great deal of responsibility. It is not only responsible for the well being of over 300 pensioners, but it is also responsible for the Pension Endowment Fund, and the Conference Benefits Program. The members you have elected to this Board, have taken their task very seriously and are doing an outstanding job on your behalf.

Last year was the first year that we held a luncheon rather than a dinner, prior to Conference, for our retired clergy. It was well attended and brought many favorable comments. It gave everybody adequate time to reminisce and not feel rushed to get to the next session or meeting. We look forward to this becoming a growing tradition.

Our Investment Committee has been meeting on a very regular basis. They have forged a new agreement with our pension fund administrator, and are actively seeking new ways to help our fund grow while at the same time preserving the safety and integrity of the fund.

The Benefits Committee is happy to announce that, due to the excellent experience we have had, there will be no increase in the rate we will be paying Blue Cross and Blue Shield. In addition, the rates that are being charged to the clergy and churches for dependent coverage also will not be increased.

I mentioned last year that many of our Board members were new and that we spent the year identifying our responsibilities. We have learned that much work and many difficult decisions lie ahead in order to preserve and grow the Endowment Fund so that clergy yet to retire will be able to enjoy the same benefits that the current retired clergy enjoy. To that end, we solicit the prayers of this Conference that we will be given the wisdom and guidance to make those decisions and recommendations that will be sensitive to the needs of everyone concerned.

Pension Recommendations:

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1995 be $310 per year of approved service.
2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received by a retired pastor or pastor on disability be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1995. (I.R.S. restricts this allowance to the pastor. The surviving spouse does not qualify.)
(The full text of this resolution may be found in the 1993 Conference Journal on pages 324-326. This full text will be printed in the 1994 Conference Journal.)

Reminders:

1. Clergy appointed to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the first time, must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in the medical, dental, life and pension programs.
 - A. Clergy leaving an appointment in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefits program.
 - B. Clergy having changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, death, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events.
2. Clergy are responsible to keep the Conference Business Office and the General Board of Pensions apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary.
3. Local churches are reminded that they are responsible for the full cost of the dependent portion of the health and dental program for their clergy family.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission on Archives and History has had a successful year. It continues in its ministry of the celebration of our past and the conversion of our history into a usable heritage. This year marked the completion of the Vestry project. The dedication of the Vestry was combined with a historical colloquium at which Dr. Russell Richey of Duke University spoke about the influence of Delmarva Methodism on U.S. Methodism as a whole. This combined event was very well supported. We have a second such colloquium scheduled for this year on April 9. Dr. Ann Boylan of the University of Delaware will be our speaker. It is our hope that we can keep the colloquium as an annual event in conjunction with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Historical Society. Dr. Cain Hope Felder preached an outstanding sermon at a music-filled Anniversary Service. This service was also very well supported. Our Christmas Carol Service shifted to the evening and, in spite of an incredible downpour, we had a sizable congregation that worshipped in anticipation of Jesus' birth. Due to health concerns, Dr. Grant Shockley was unable to continue work on the Delaware Conference History. Dr. Cora Selby is making contacts for a new author.

The Commission has begun expanding its work into new areas. We have made good progress in cataloging our holdings on the computer. The building committee is planning renovations of the museum that will make our space there more "friendly" to researchers and afford more protection for our holdings. A permanent endowment fund has been established under the auspices of the Eastern Pennsylvania-Peninsula Conference Foundation. Unlike the other commission-related endowments, the principal will be reserved while the interest will be used to fund the work of the Commission. Anyone interested in contributing to this endowment can contact Parke Hess of the Foundation at 610-666-9090 or Barratt's at 302-335-5544. We hope to spark interest in a local church video contest as well as a local church history contest.

We are looking forward to our future events for the upcoming year. There will be a financial planning seminar at Barratt's on Saturday, October 22. More details will follow. The speaker for the anniversary service will be Dr. Heather Murray Elkins of Drew University. We will be looking forward once again to our Carol Service. We are hoping also to have a commemoration service during the year for those buried in a cemetery discovered behind Barratt's during the vestry project.

Barratt's Chapel is a Shrine of The United Methodist Church. The Chapel and Museum are open on Saturdays and Sundays from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Other times to visit the Chapel can be arranged through the Curator, Lynn Hobbs (302-335-5544). The Chapel and Museum depend upon the generosity of individuals and churches for about two-thirds of its financial support. In addition, we are always seeking new materials of historical interest to add to the Museum collection. If you are interested in making a contribution, please write: Barratt's Chapel and Museum, R.D. 2, Box 25, Frederica, DE 19946.

Mark M. Pruett-Barnett
Chairperson

1994 GOALS

1. Operate and maintain Barratt's Chapel, Museum and Archives.
2. Celebrate the anniversary of the meeting of Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury, the Declaration of Independence of U.S. Methodism, on the second Sunday of November.
3. Continue work on a Delaware Conference History in line with Strategy One of the Ethnic Church Comprehensive Plan.
4. Sponsor a local church history contest and possibly a video contest using guidelines produced by the Commission.
5. Continue to expand Museum facilities and holdings.
6. Identify and train local church historians.
7. Expand the collection of materials and memorabilia in the Conference Archives at Barratt's Chapel Museum.
8. Continue to pursue an annual colloquium with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Historical Society.
9. Pursue new endowment funding in connection with the Eastern Pennsylvania-Peninsula Conference United Methodist Foundation.

10. Establish and implement immediate and longer term priorities for the physical structures housing the Chapel and Museum (including the Vestry).
11. Continue the computerization of the holdings in the Archives and Museum.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Christian Council of Delaware and Maryland's Eastern Shore

In February 1993, The Christian Council hired Rev. Elizabeth Doty as an Interim Executive Director to assist the Council to discern new directions and enable the Council to meet identified goals.

In March a retreat was held with all Judicatory Executives and their representatives. Three goals were identified for 1993:

- ▶ Identify and resource grass-roots ecumenical groups in Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland.
- ▶ Combat Racism in the church and in society.
- ▶ Establish a computer bulletin board accessible through an 800 number and provide a listing of resources for local congregations.

During the year we have made progress in all three areas:

- ▶ A survey sent to every congregation to determine ecumenical activity in communities, brought 150 responses. Information indicated areas of mutual interest, skills within congregations that could be shared, computer modern capability, and geographical location of ministeriums.
- ▶ Two task groups are working on racism. One is developing an ecumenical statement on racism and recommendations for action. The second task group is working on an in-depth examination of racism and how it has affected our lives as Christians. This group will cross racial and denominational lines. Participants will report back to the Governing Council and respective denominations.
- ▶ A feasibility study culminated in allocating funds to the Interfaith Resource Center to set up a Computer bulletin board and a computerized listing of all new resources.

In addition, the Executive Director started a process in October 1993 with Judicatory Executives to discern a new forum for judicatory dialogue in the region to be in place by January 1995.

The Interfaith Resource Center - One ministry under the auspices of The Christian Council, continued to expand its resource collection and its services to local congregations. A toll free phone number and resource hours at four satellite sites all helped to deliver resources to churches as quickly as possible. In addition, the Interfaith Lay Academy, a continuing education program of the resource center, once again sponsored adult courses in the fall.

1995 GOALS

The goal for 1995 is to have a new forum for ecumenical dialogue at the judicatory level. The shape of this forum is currently being explored and will be ongoing in 1994.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The main concern and goal of the Commission on Equitable Compensation continues to focus on providing financial assistance to those Charges that need help in meeting the minimum salaries of pastors as required by the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In addition, the Commission provides financial supplements to those minority pastors whose special gifts and graces are required to effectively perform their pastoral responsibilities. We do, however, make recommendations in other areas including travel, continuing education, health care, Social Security, housing and moving policies. Salary support for pastors engaged in new church development is also being provided by our Commission.

The totals for 1993 for 28 charges are:

Minimum Salary Grants General Fund	$ 49,717.09
Minority Fund Grants	$ 18,832.41
Development Grants	$ 23,000.04
Total Grants	$ 91,549.54
Total Pensions	$ 17,401.12
Total Support	$108,950.66

Minimum Salary

The Commission on Equitable Compensation makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 1995:

Full-Time Elder	$ 20,000
Full-Time Probationary Member	$ 18,200
Associate Member	$ 18,200
Full-Time Local Pastor	$ 16,900
Student Pastor	$ 14,300

These increases average 2.3%, which is lower than in 1994 - 3.4% and 1993 - 4.4%.

The minimum salary for Student Pastors will be $14,300 for 1995, unless some smaller figure is agreed upon by the student, District Superintendent, and Charge, as being appropriate for the work to be performed.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS:

Service increments are to be held at $125.00 per year.

Reimbursement for travel expenses during 1995 will be at the rate set by the I.R.S. for that year.

In addition, we also recommend that pastors be reimbursed for tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of pastoral duties.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

On September 10-11, 1993, the Commission met at Drayton Retreat Center. Our purpose was to lay out and discuss our direction for 1994.

After evaluating our 1993 programs, we discussed the following: a) God as the creator of all humanity, thus, all human beings belong to the same family; b) peoples of color illustrate God's creative genius; and c) racism and color prejudice are against God's will, therefore, these activities are sin.

We reminded ourselves that we are ambassadors of reconciliation (2 Corinthians 5:18-19). As God was in Christ Jesus reconciling the world (peoples of color) to himself so is God in each of us doing the same.

Because of its tendinous nature and divesting impact, racism robs both perpetrator and immolate of their self-esteem and true identity as the people of God. The Commission believes that the rise in hate-groups, white supremacy, color prejudice and other acts of violence based on skin color, gender or national origin are justification to continue our 1992 theme "Custodians of the Faithful". We are committed toward sharing this theme with laity and clergy; female and male; young and old, as well as, every culture and racial identity in our Conference.

During 1993, the Commission was concerned with 1) re-building its reputation. Because of the magnitude and consequence of racism, C.O.R.R. believes its mission is to assist the Conference, local congregations, individuals and society in dealing with its response to this evil; 2) providing local church training: although C.O.R.R. has been slow in providing such training in the past, we intend to compile a list of local church and district C.O.R.R. members. This list will be used for networking purposes.

The Commission on Religion and Race has been involved in the following activities: desk audit about the Conference; N.E.J. conferences dealing with racism; a meeting with the Bishop and Cabinet on issues unique to peoples of color within our Conference; African-American Clergy-Laity Summit; B.M.C.R. workshop entitled "My People Let Pharaoh Go". In conjunction with the Commission on Archives and History, C.O.R.R. celebrated our diversity at Barratt's Chapel (Rev. Dr. Cain Hope Felder was the preacher). C.O.R.R. also attended an ecumenical workshop dealing with cultural diversity.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium and Educational Activities: This year's M.L.K., Jr. activities were held at Wesley U.M.C. in Dover, Delaware. After worship and introduction, we watched Bill Cosby's video entitled "On Prejudice". Our discussions were then based on material and issues raised by Mr. Cosby as we attempted to address the "why" of prejudice. The DECCASA Drummers and Dancers performed African dance for us. The Rev. Mr. Bernard Keels, District Superintendent of the Washington-Baltimore Conference, was our guest speaker. Recipients for the awards were:

Alberta Brown Award

Geraldine Jones
Whatcoat, Dover, DE

S. Lowan Pitts Award

Charles Ross
Aldersgate, Wilmington, DE
Harry Handy
Union, Delmar, DE

Richard Wynder Award

Elsie E. Briddell
St. Paul's, Berlin, MD

During 1994, the Commission on Religion and Race will continue to address matters of racism and color prejudice be it individual or institutional. Because racism is a learned behavior, C.O.R.R. believes racism can be unlearned. Therefore, C.O.R.R.'s forthcoming agenda will include (but not be limited to) monitoring Conference related programs and institutions; educating and discussing the joy of being a cultural diverse group; creating workshops to inform, support and celebrate groups attempting to overcome racism and prejudice; identify racial problem areas and establishing plans of action (positive) when racial tension occur. Last, but not least, the Commission will provide training and identification of hate groups, as well as, guidelines and effective responses to racial hate groups when they "come to town".

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

With our goals in mind, we began this year fervently committed to our tasks. With the desire to fulfill that purpose, we began reaching out to local churches to appoint local COSROW representatives. We were met with much cooperation, especially from least expected sources. We were able to hold a training event for local representatives already in the position. Presenters for the event were Rev. Leslie Slak - Inclusiveness, Liz St. Clair - Sexual Misconduct Policy and Rev. Mae Etta Moore - Ecumenical Decade. We have designed a self-training packet to be given to representatives as they are elected. The COSROW display at Annual Conference achieved its goal by making Annual Conference attendees more aware of COSROW's purpose. The Commission on the Status and Role of Women newsletter mailings will be expanded to reach more interested persons.

Rev. Mae Etta Moore attended "Broken Boundaries" a training program on sexual harassment held in Atlanta, Georgia in December. The purpose of the event was to sensitize, train and equip committees to handle allegations of sexual misconduct and to provide a foundation of professional boundary issues and ethical decision-making.

"A Day Apart", COSROW's planning and evaluation meeting, was held in November at Drayton Retreat Center. Much time and effort was expended into issues facing women in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference as well as setting goals and budget.

For those who are interested, the Commission on the Status and Role of Women has resource materials covering inclusive thinking, sexual harassment and rights of women.

Ellene Bradshaw
Chairperson

1995 GOALS

1. To make COSROW more visible in local churches.
 - a. Train new local COSROW representatives as they are elected.
2. To advocate support for clergywomen.
 - a. To create a support system.

- b. Assist local churches in the area of receiving first-time appointments of women pastors through education of Pastor-Parish Relations Committees and District Superintendents.
3. To monitor and evaluate the new Sexual Misconduct Policy. To explore ways of expanding the present policy.
4. To present, at Annual Conference, displays which will reach more inclusive audiences.
5. To have a Commission on the Status and Role of Women member attend a training event.
6. To study how itinerancy affects the career of clergy spouses.
7. To be available as resource persons to those who request training on, possibly, inclusiveness, sensitivity, or other aspects under which COSROW has expertise.
8. To encourage each local church, during Women's History Month, to set a goal to have a lay and/or clergywoman share her unique witness, story and testimony as a part of the body of Christ during a Sunday Worship Service in March 1995 with the day to be called "A Woman in Every Pulpit Sunday".

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA-PENINSULA
UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The Foundation maintains offices in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania and Dover, Delaware. As a member of the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, we are provided with resources and coverage throughout the United States.

During 1993, we provided financial counseling services to individuals, churches, agencies, and institutions. We continued our emphasis on financial planning, estate planning, and planned giving. By stimulating planned giving, we particularly helped local churches acquire new assets. In addition, we continued our successful program to establish and promote endowment funds in our local churches.

We continue to expand our function of managing assets as a trustee, executor, investment adviser, investment custodian, and investment manager. The Foundation is the investment manager for an increasing number of Conference agencies, corporations, local churches, and individuals. We currently manage approximately 100 accounts. With regard to investing, the Foundation carries out the directives of the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church as written in Paragraph 2513.3(e) of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

The Foundation involves itself with wills, trusts, taxation, securities, life insurance, annuities, retirement plans, real estate, etc. Meetings and seminars are conducted on a regular basis and individual counseling sessions are conducted in a confidential manner. We continue to urge each local church to establish an ongoing emphasis on wills by forming a Planned Giving Committee. The Foundation provides resources and personnel to help any church establish and carry out this urgent work. In 1991, we began the distribution of a new "Planned Giving Handbook" prepared by the National Association of United Methodist Foundations primarily for local churches. Our newsletters and brochures are distributed at meetings, seminars, and as inserts in church bulletins and newsletters.

The Foundation represents all United Methodist congregations and causes, therefore, it is prepared to assist people who wish to make lasting contributions to churches, institutions, and mission programs or services. For additional information, please call Parke H. Hess, Executive Director, at 1-800-828-9093 or write to him at P.O. Box 820, Valley Forge, PA 19482-0820.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

In 1993, the United Methodist Women of Peninsula-Delaware Conference met the challenge and fulfilled many of their goals. Membership was increased by 7%, our five star units increased by 63% in giving through the five channels of undesignated giving, and our Pledge to Mission was exceeded.

We are proud of who we are, and celebrate our mission and ministry with joy. We work to foster growth in the Christian faith, mission education and Christian social involvement through the following activities:

Spiritual Life Retreat "Spirituality as Subtraction" led by Dr. Pamela Lardear at Drayton Retreat Center.

Spring Prayer Breakfast in conjunction with United Methodist Men in which Teressa Hoover spoke to 265 persons on "Disciples in Mission."

"Under 45" retreat at Sheraton in Ocean City, Maryland, had 54 women led by Olivia Costango in "Letting Go - Letting God: Women in Prayer."

Mission team and study leaders attended Regional School of Christian Mission in Chambersburg, PA. Theme: "Confronted by Christ - Empowered by the Spirit."

School of Christian Mission at Salisbury State University. Dean - Verlie Gaither, Assistant Dean, Elinor Gay Huston. Studies were: Matthew, Global Economics, and the Caribbean.

Christian Social Responsibility Interpretation workshop was led by Women's Division directors and staff at Drayton Retreat Center. Attended by 22 conference and district officers.

The Historical Committee researched information, and in October published the booklet, "20 Years in Mission" detailing the history of our organization over the past 20 years. The booklet was made available for sale across the Conference.

The Annual Meeting at St. Mark's UMC, Easton, had a health fair with 225 persons in attendance. Dr. Judy Washington addressed the gathering on "Health Issues in our Time." New officers were elected and installed.

District Officer Training on November 13 at Whatcoat UMC in Dover had a program on "Circle of Friends" and Staff in Region, Ruth G. Prudente joined us.

Planning and Evaluation Retreat at Drayton Retreat Center on November 13-14, 1993 for the purpose of evaluating, organizing, planning and goal setting was attended by in-coming and out-going officers.

New Officers Training Event in Chicago on December 3, 1993 was attended by Louise Hess, Lois Billings, Georgina Timberman, Paulette Mullen, Carol Quinn, Carrye Sims and Melinda Allen.

Church Women United Seminar at Manassas Springs and World Federation of Methodist Women Regional Seminar at Sandy Cove were ecumenical events attended by Gay Huston and Louise Hess.

We approach the new year with new opportunities and are committed in going forth telling the story about our organization in Mission. We welcome this spiritual and faith journey which fosters our personal growth and development.

Louise Hess
President

1994 GOALS

1. Increase membership by 10% through promotion of Young Women's Retreat, addressing needs of "Under 45" group at district and local levels. Offer babysitting services.
2. Increase attendance at School of Mission to 200, and explore having children attend the school.
3. Promote interest in the Reading Program by publishing a list of books in libraries, having book exchanges, and suggest units buy four books, one from each category.
4. Continue emphasis on Women and Children in the areas of health, migrant care, abuse, sexual harassment, HIV and Alzheimers.

C. MEMOIRS

CLERGY

Charles Irving Carpenter

The Reverend Charles I. Carpenter, the Army Air Corp's first chief of chaplains, who also had the longest tenure in Air Force history in that position and achieved the rank of major general, died February 22, 1994 at the age of 88.

The Reverend Carpenter was born in Wilmington in 1906, the son of a Methodist minister who traveled to churches throughout Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

After graduating from Seaford High School, he enrolled in Bucknell University to study law. He changed his mind and followed in his father's footsteps. In 1927, he graduated from Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, with a bachelor of arts degree, and received a bachelor of divinity degree from Drew University of Madison, New Jersey in 1931.

After leaving seminary, he became a member of the Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church in 1931, and served in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware and Federalsburg, Maryland.

1936, the Reverend Carpenter joined the Army as a chaplain at Fort Randolph, New Jersey. At the beginning of World War II, he established the chaplaincy in the Army Air Corps, and for his efforts was awarded the Legion of Merit.

In 1944, the Reverend Carpenter was sent to Europe as a Senior Air Forces Chaplain. After World War II ended, he was promoted to Air Chaplain, a position that later became Office of the Chief of Air Force Chaplains, and was promoted to major general.

No other chaplain in the past - or in the future - will ever surpass the Reverend Carpenter's record as chief chaplain for 16 years. For the chaplains that followed in his footsteps, the job came with a limited term.

Later, he transferred to the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and became its Protestant Cadet Chaplain.

"It was one of the most rewarding experiences of my life," the Reverend Carpenter said in a 1961 interview. "We worked with some of the finest young men our country has to offer."

The Reverend Carpenter served as a delegate to the 1955 General Conference of the Methodist Church. Family members said it was the first time a military minister was chosen as a delegate.

His medals included the Belgian Military Cross, Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit with an Oak Leaf cluster and the Air Force Commendation Medal. His achievements include four honorary doctorates: a doctorate of sacred theology from Boston University in 1950; a doctor of divinity degree from Bucknell University in 1955 and Houghton College in 1958; and a doctor of Humane Letters from the University of Delaware in 1956.

After retiring from the Air Force in 1960, the Reverend Carpenter returned to Delaware and was appointed to serve Avenue United Methodist Church in Milford, where a room has been set aside to honor him. He enjoyed singing and recorded several albums of traditional hymns.

After his retirement from the ministry in 1968, he served on the Milford Board of Education, on the Rehoboth Beach Town Council, Chaplain of the Carlisle Fire Company in Milford, Delaware and as president of the Ocean Grove (NJ) Camp Meeting Association. He was also involved in the work of Barratt's Chapel and Museum.

His first wife of 57 years, Miriam Dryden Carpenter, died in 1985. He is survived by his second wife, Dorothy Boyle Carpenter, who he married in 1987.

A funeral service was held at Avenue United Methodist Church, Milford, Delaware and was conducted by the pastor, Reverend Dr. Robert M. Price and Chaplain Major General Donald J. Harlin. Speakers included Reverend Charles E. Barton, Jr., Reverend Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton and Delaware Supreme Court Justice Randy J. Holland. The Reverend Carpenter was buried with full military honors at Barratt's Chapel in Frederica, Delaware.

Rudolph Gordon Given

Rudolph Gordon Given was born June 20, 1915 to the late Robert Gordon Given and Marian Durene (Meisel) Given in Wilmington, Delaware.

His parents later moved to Chesapeake City, Maryland where he attended the Chesapeake City public school and graduated from high school in 1933.

As a youth, Gordon became a member of Trinity Methodist Church in Chesapeake City. During his young life he was influenced by his grandfather, Rev. Thomas Given, who was a Methodist minister, and by his pastor, Rev. Otis Jefferson. Through them he felt the call to the ministry.

In 1935 Gordon attended Bob Jones College for one year and then transferred to Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky in 1936. He graduated from the college with a B.A. degree in 1940. He continued his studies at Asbury Theological Seminary graduating with a Master of Divinity degree in 1943.

After graduating, he was put on probation for ordination in the Peninsula Conference and was appointed to the Westover, Maryland Charge. The next year he was appointed to the Grove, Maryland Charge.

In 1946, Gordon married Lois Frances Anderson on May 28 in Park Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Their first appointment together was the Crapo Charge in Crapo, Maryland.

In 1947, Gordon was ordained as a Deacon at Barratt's Chapel in Frederica, Delaware. He was ordained as an Elder in 1949 at Bethesda Methodist Church in Salisbury, Maryland.

As a member of the Peninsula Conference, he served on the Board of Homes and Hospitals along with serving the many charges: Crapo, Maryland 1946-1949; Wesley Chapel, Rock Hall, Maryland 1949-1952; Trappe, Maryland 1952-1953; Quantico, Maryland 1953-1957; Mt. Vernon, Maryland 1957-1959; Whaleyville, Maryland 1959-1961; Bishopville, Maryland 1961-1965; Sharptown-Asbury, Maryland 1965-1970; Bethel, Delaware 1970-1972; Frederica, Delaware 1972-1976; Vienna, Maryland 1976-1977; and Lincoln, Delaware 1977-1980.

While serving at Frederica, Gordon started a building project for an educational building. Gordon firmly believed in Wesley's Doctrine of Scriptural Holiness and Evangelism and each year he had an evangelistic endeavor in his churches. During these services, many youths and adults lives were changed.

He was active in the many communities where he was serving and participated as a member of the volunteer fire companies, Lions Clubs and Boy Scouts. He served as a Chaplain for the Kent County Fireman's Association.

He spent his spare time with his family boating, fishing, crabbing and traveling.

He retired from the Lincoln Charge in 1980, but served at the Roxana Charge for two more years. In 1982, he took full retirement and moved to Seaford, Delaware.

After retiring, he enjoyed gardening and travelling, spending part of each winter in Florida.

In 1990, he was able to return to Asbury College to attend his 50th Class Reunion. That same year, he suffered a heart attack, but the Lord spared his life and he had three more years of active life.

In 1993, he returned to Asbury Seminary for his 50th Class Reunion. Two months later, after returning from a trip to Minneapolis, Minnesota, Gordon suffered another heart attack while sleeping and died on July 17, 1993 in Nanticoke Memorial Hospital in Seaford, Delaware.

Funeral services were held at St. John's United Methodist Church in Seaford with Rev. Charles E. Barton, Jr. and Rev. John F. Mitchell officiating. He was laid to rest in Odd Fellows Cemetery on July 21, 1993.

He is survived by his wife, Lois of Seaford, Delaware, a daughter Ruth Ann Griffith of Seaford, Delaware, and three sons, Richard G. of Delmar, Maryland, James A. of Ellendale, Delaware and John T. of Greenwood, Delaware. He is also survived by a brother, William H. of Elkton, Maryland, a sister, Emily L. Given of Chesapeake City, Maryland, and eight grandchildren.

Gordon was a quiet person who humbly and faithfully served his Lord. We remember him reminding us many times that "there is a friend (Jesus) who sticks closer than a brother". (Proverbs 18:24b)

Vaughn Arzah Johnson

Vaughn Arzah Johnson, son of the late Doris B. and Vaughn W. Johnson, was born on November 22, 1951 in Crisfield, Maryland. He received his elementary and high school education in the public schools of Somerset County. He then matriculated at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore and graduated with honors, receiving a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology. In 1973, he entered Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia, graduating with honors, earning a Masters Degree in Divinity.

In 1972, Rev. Johnson met the former Deborah Yvonne Jarrett of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. They were married in August of 1973 before leaving for Georgia. To this union was born three sons: Thomas K., Kenneth D. and Jonathan S.

As a young man, he committed his life to Christ and joined Handy's Memorial Church in Marion, Maryland where he received his early christian training. In 1975, he was appointed to his first charge which was a two-point charge - Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Princess Anne, Maryland and his home church, Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Marumsco, Maryland serving this charge for nine years. During this time, he started a noon-day prayer service, a weekly Bible study, Children's Church Ministry; organized the first U.M.E.S. Day and also served as Campus Minister for the Wesley Foundation of the United Methodist Church at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. During this pastorate, Metropolitan United Methodist Church was renovated.

In 1984, Rev. Johnson moved to Dover, Delaware to serve as Associate Council Director for the Peninsula Conference Council on Ministries. In this capacity, he served as staff representative to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the Ethnic Minority Local Church, the Commission on Religion and Race, the Division of Stewardship, Director of Special Ministries for Ethnic Minority Local Churches (including 158 Black churches, one developing Hispanic and two Korean congregations) and started the first Martin Luther King Symposium in the Conference.

Rev. Vaughn Johnson's first love always was preaching from the pulpit. He returned to his first love in 1989 when he accepted the pastorate at Wesley Temple United Methodist Church in Salisbury, Maryland. He was a man with a vision. His outreach was both local and global. At Wesley Temple, many ministries began: Single Parent Ministry, Marriage Enrichment, Outpost Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, Tutoring and Literacy, Race and Religion, Hunger Action, and the Van Ministry. He started Wednesday noonday and Thursday evening Bible study. Under his care and direction, the first Haitian Ministry was started. He loved his Haitian family. He was the interim Campus Minister for the Wesley Foundation of Salisbury State University. He also conducted Bible study with faculty and staff at Salisbury State.

Some of his many awards included: Outstanding Young Men of America 1982; Outstanding Service in Evangelism, Whatcoat U.M.C. 1987; Who's Who in Black America 1988; Shiloh U.M.C. Recognition Award toward the construction of their new church, Johnson Neck 1989; Martin Luther King Junior Award 1990; Ministry 2000 for encouraging men and women to respond to God's call to the ministry 1991; Denman Evangelism Award 1991, and numerous others. Rev. Johnson was the recipient of many grants for youth outreach programs and urban/rural programs.

On Saturday, February 5, 1994, after a long illness, Vaughn heard God call, "Come Home - It's Bedtime". With a crowd of approximately 600 family members, friends and church leaders attending, a Homegoing Celebration was held on Saturday, February 12, 1994 at the Ella Fitzgerald Center for the Performing Arts, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Princess Anne, Maryland. The Reverend Howard L. Gordy, Jr., Salisbury District Superintendent, officiated, assisted by Rev. Charlotte Nichols, Rev. Lawrence M. Livingston, Rev. Joseph A. Henry, Sr., Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr., Rev. John I. Penn, Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton and other friends and associates, with burial at Ebenezer United Methodist Church Cemetery, Marumsco, Maryland.

In addition to his wife and sons, Rev. Johnson is survived by one sister, Emily Johnson and one brother, Darnell Johnson, eight aunts, four uncles, a mother-in-law, a father-in-law; four sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; nieces and nephews; cousins; and a host of other relatives and friends.

As a husband, father, brother, pastor, and community leader, Rev. Vaughn A. Johnson will be remembered as a man of God, one who walked daily with the Lord, one who lived out his faith, no matter how ill he was, to proclaim God's Word. Such was his strong faith in the goodness of our Father that we can almost hear him saying to us now as he looks down on our sadness, the words of Mark 5:36 "Be not afraid, only believe" that death is a gateway to eternal life.

Many roads are traveled during our earthly journey - roads to the mountain tops of wisdom and knowledge, roads to the vineyards of teaching and preaching, roads to the valleys of goodness and godliness, roads to the meadows of the straying, hungry sheep.

Such earthly roads were traveled by our beloved Reverend Vaughn Arzah Johnson before he journeyed on the road to his heavenly home.

The Family

Milton Henry Keene, Sr.

On October 19, 1912, Milton Henry Keene was born to his mother, Mary R. (Smith) and his father, Harry L. Keene, in a small row house on the lower east side of Wilmington, Delaware. The youngest of three children (a sister, Edith and a brother, Herbert), he developed a love of nature along the banks of the Brandywine Creek, which flows through the city. He attended Wilmington public schools and graduated from Wilmington High School in 1930.

He graduated from the University of Delaware in 1938, and attained his degree in Theology from Drew Seminary - Drew University in Madison, New Jersey in 1941.

Milt would probably say that the two most determining experiences of his youth were attending Scott Methodist Church where he first felt the spirit of God and meeting and falling in love with the girl of his dreams, Dorothy Anderson. Their shared time in Epworth League brought them closer to each other and to God.

Milton married Dorothy on June 20, 1939 and from their love and commitment two sons were born - Milton H. Keene, Jr. in 1942 and Lynn Alan Keen in 1945.

Milt's two "daughters in love", Suzanne - Milton Jr.'s wife and Peggy - Lynn's wife, presented Milt and Dorothy with four grandchildren.

1992 Elected Pastor Emeritus - Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church, Seaford, Delaware

Through pastoral counseling for more than 55 years, Milton Keene ministered to and helped hundreds of people find self worth (church members and non-members alike).

Milton served as Director of Information and Referral for the Mental Health Association of Delaware, and for several years served as chaplain at the Governor Bacon Health Center in Delaware City, Delaware.

While serving as Administrator of the Methodist Manor House, he and Dorothy founded the Sussex County Outreach Programs. CHEER provided the first "Meals on Wheels" concept in Sussex County.

Above all of Milton Keene's talents which were pledged to the glory of God, the one that brought him the most respect and honor was his unparalleled gift of verse. A prolific writer, Milton's inspirational column "Think It Over" was read twice weekly by thousands in the pages of the Wilmington News Journal for over forty years. A religious column appeared in the same newspaper under the title "Milton Keene" for an additional three years. Milton loved to chronicle the endeavors of everyday people and wrote many feature articles for the Sussex County Bureau of News Journal.

He wrote three published books: Think It Over a copy of which was carried by Methodist Chaplains through the Armed Services; Patterns For Mature Living published by Abingdon Press - a companion of inspiration for the aging; and Push Back the Night published in 1993 - a compilation of News Journal columns.

His writing has an impact on thousands of readers as attested to by the hundreds of cards and letters received during a hospital stay and immediately following his death. His column was used by the Gannett News Syndicate in many of their newspapers around the country. His readership wasn't exclusively protestant. He received phone calls and letters from Catholics, Jews, Muslims, and even atheists.

Milton H. Keene offered intelligence, wisdom, love and sensitivity to all he met and through his writings to thousands he never met. All of these virtues he brought most endearingly to his wife Dorothy, his two sons Lynn and Milt, his two "daughters in love" and his four grandchildren.

On January 22, 1994, Milton H. Keene died in the love of God following a brief hospitalization at Christiana Hospital.

A great loneliness has been created by his death for his family, the United Methodist Church, and for those who knew his verse. At the same time, a great legacy of love - love of God and love for mankind has been witnessed and passed on to us all.

The following words are his - we, his family, have heard them often: "Wake me in the middle of the night and ask what I believe and I will tell you without any fancy sermon that I believe that God is LOVE - and that He loves us just as we are - not because of our name or because of any degrees we may have or because we go to church. He loves us because we are what we are and because He is love and He loves us unconditionally."

To Reverend Keene, Milt, Dad, Grandad:

We will carry forward with your love and faith as our guide.

Hester Rebecca Opher

Hester, the daughter of the late Hanson and Julia Stanley Lee was born on February 17, 1920 in Golden Hill, Dorchester County, Maryland. She also attended the Public Schools of Dorchester County.

Hester was known as a quiet child, but because of her thirst for knowledge, she was often referred to as being extremely inquisitive which more than once caused rivalry between other siblings. This rivalry increased her focus and her desires to pursue greater goals in life.

In October 1938, Hester was united in Holy Matrimony to her beloved Lewis. Hester and Lewis shared a bond of love, devotion, understanding, patience, perseverance and religious fervor which lasted for 35 years ending with his death. Their marriage was blessed with four children.

"Hess", as she was affectionately known, was a hard working achiever who labored hard to supplement the family income through factory work and paper-hanging, one of her outstanding skills. These labors of love did not exceed her greatest interest, working in the ministry doing God's work. Her interest was nurtured from an early age and it grew stronger as she became an adult through working in her church, which was St. Luke, at the time. While at this church, she preached her trial sermon at the age of 18, and later became one of the church's local preachers. Her love for people, wisdom, perseverance as well as her love for God's work, encouraged her to work harder and harder to achieve an even higher level. To do this, she returned to school and studied at Bennett College and later Duke University, both in North Carolina, where she earned her Deacon's license and her Elder's license, for the ministry.

As a result of her work and education, she was given her first charge of four churches known as the Crapo-Golden Hill Charge. Following her work at that charge, she moved to Talbot County where she served as pastor for the Williamsburg Methodist Church. After a brief stay, she was transferred to the Miles River-Staten's Chapel Charge where she served more than 20 years through to her retirement. After a few years of retirement, Hester was called back due to a shortage of ministers where she worked until her health started failing her and making it too difficult to carry out these responsibilities.

During her life long work in the ministry, she was a pioneer in that she was the first female pastor of the Delaware Conference and the first female pastor to preach the Baccalaureate services at Easton High School. She was also the first student to assist the bishop during a graduation exercise at Duke University. Hester also served as President of the Easton Branch of the NAACP at one time.

Almighty God, in His wise and divine providence, saw fit to call from labor to reward Hester R. Johnson, who departed this life on December 22, 1993 at Sacred Heart in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

She leaves, to mourn and cherish her memories, four children: Rebecca Miller, Lewis Opher, Thelma Spry and James Opher; one step-daughter, Amanda Jones; one God-daughter, Tammy; as well as two sisters, Naomi Cooper and Helen Opher; one brother, Levi Stanley and six half-sisters, Josephine, Rachel, Clara, Helen, Mardella, and Mary. She also leaves two sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law, nine grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren as well as many devoted nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends, including a good friend of the family, Mr. Joseph Hawkins.

Joseph Theodore Threadgill, Jr.

Joseph Theodore Threadgill, Jr. was born to the late Joseph T. and Phyllis (Chambers) Threadgill in Mt. Gilead, North Carolina on February 10, 1921.

Mr. Threadgill grew up, and was educated, in The Bronx, New York. He earned a master's degree in history and secondary education from New York University, as well as, a master's degree in secondary school administration and supervision from New York University. He received his bachelor's degree from North Carolina Agriculture and Technical State University.

He enlisted in the United State Army in September 1942 and was honorably discharged April 1946. While in the service, he headed the Negro Interest Branch for United Kingdom and was a correspondent for the Army newspaper, Star and Stripes.

Mr. Threadgill taught in the public schools from 1949 until 1952 in Austin, Texas. He moved to Delaware, teaching and an administrator in public schools from 1952 until he retired in 1986 from the Colonial School District.

From his early youth, Mr. Threadgill was in church. Upon coming to Delaware, he belonged to churches in lower Delaware and Bethel A.M.E. Church in Wilmington. In 1980, he became an active member of Brandywine-Trinity United Methodist Church in Wilmington, Delaware. He remained active there until he was accepted into the ministry in 1988. He enrolled at Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. In July 1989, he completed studies for Local Pastor's License. He was student pastor at Aldersgate United Methodist Church and from 1990 until 1992 was assigned pastor of the New Castle/Mt. Salem Charge. After leaving the charge, due to his failing health, he transferred his church membership to Mt. Lebanon United Methodist Church where he wanted to help as much and whenever he could.

In March 1948, Mr. Threadgill married the late Olga Bruce Warren. They had one daughter, Lesly (Threadgill) Ogungbemi of Ellicott City, Maryland. Mr. Threadgill married Berna (Johnson-Forward) in May 1983.

Rev. Threadgill had a special interest for history. He enjoyed reading and television and was very concerned for the youth.

Joseph T. Threadgill, Jr. died of cancer on October 29, 1993 at his home in Wilmington, Delaware. Funeral Services were held on November 4, 1993 at Mt. Lebanon United Methodist Church with District Superintendent, the Reverend Dr. James T. Seymour and his pastor Reverend Dr. Marlene L. Walters officiating. Interment was in Hampton Memorial Gardens, Hampton, Virginia.

Melvin Edward Tingle

Melvin Edward Tingle was born November 2, 1916 in Pittsville, Maryland to Harley and Pearl Iva (Quillen) Tingle. His older brother, John, was born in 1914 and died in 1931.

Melvin's early education began in Melsons, Maryland, the community where his family lived. He attended three years of high school at Delmar, Maryland. In June 1946, he earned his H.S.E. diploma at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. In November 1948, he entered the Bob Jones University in Greenville, South Carolina, graduating with a B.A. Degree in May 1952. He graduated from Wesley Theological Seminary in Westminster, Maryland in 1958 with a S.T.B. or Master of Divinity Degree.

As a youth, Melvin attended the Melsons Methodist Church and it was here he had his conversion experience, probably during revival services. In 1946, he made a full commitment of his life to Jesus Christ at Trinity Methodist Church in Glen Burnie, Maryland.

Melvin was married to the former Marguerite Goodhardt of Carlisle, Pennsylvania on September 11, 1941. There were no children.

At the age of twenty-two, Melvin enlisted in the regular Army and actively served from October 19, 1930 to May 16, 1944. He served in the China-Burma-India Theater during World War II (1941-1943), and was entitled to wear the Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon and awarded the Good Conduct Medal. After returning to the United States, he entered Officers' Candidate School Medical Administrative Corps and was commissioned 2nd Lt. May 1944. He was honorably discharged in 1945. Melvin served in the Army Reserves until April 1953.

While living in South Carolina in 1950, Melvin received his license to preach from the South Carolina Annual Conference. He was ordained a Deacon in August 1955 and an Elder in June 1958. His first appointment was to the Andersen Road Charge in Greenville, South Carolina, November 13, 1950 - October 31, 1951. His next appointment was the Choice Street-Holroyd Charge, Greenville, South Carolina, 1951-1952. Other appointments included St. Paul, New Ellenton, South Carolina, 1953-1954; Oakdale Emory, Olney, Maryland, 1955-1959; Montgomery, Kemptown Road, Damascus, Maryland, 1960-1963; Pleasant Grove, Ijamsville, Maryland; Providence, Monrovia, Maryland; St. George's, Clarksville, Delaware, 1964-1973; and Oxford, Oxford, Maryland, 1974-1979.

Melvin retired from the active ministry in 1980 and lived in Lewes, Delaware, with his wife, Marguerite, until her death in 1986. After her death, he moved to an apartment on Beaglin Park Drive in Salisbury, Maryland. While living in Salisbury, Melvin was an active member of Bethesda United Methodist Church on North Division Street, serving as a teacher of an adult church school class. He also served as a guest preacher at various churches, was a member of the Chaplains of the Pastoral Care Department at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland, and also served as a regular volunteer there.

His special lifelong interests included music (playing the piano and harmonica), traveling, reading, and cooking.

On October 15, 1993, Melvin experienced a cardiac arrest and died at the Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland. A funeral service was held on October 18 at the Melson's Funeral Home in Millsboro, Delaware with the Reverend George C. Godfrey, Senior Minister of Bethesda United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland, officiating.

Melvin Edward Tingle was not only a good and faithful servant of Jesus Christ, but also served his country with honor.

Louise McAllister Flater

Louise McAllister Flater was born on February 6, 1909 in Vienna, Maryland. She and her twin sister, Mildred McAllister Smith, were raised lovingly by their parents, Edna and Elmer McAllister, in the quiet country town of Vienna. Throughout her life, the memories of childhood in this small town brought her, and others whom she would recount stories to, a great deal of pleasure.

Louise's early education was accomplished in the public schools of Dorchester County. She and her twin were among the first students to complete their teacher's training at the Salisbury Normal School, now Salisbury State University. Following completion, she taught elementary school in her home county where she met and married a fellow teacher, Harvey B. Flater, in 1935. Harvey continued his education and became a Methodist minister. Louise was his wife and partner throughout his ministerial career. While serving various pulpits throughout the Delmarva Peninsula, Louise continued her profession while managing a family.

One of the past times that brought her the most pleasure was travel throughout the United States during summer vacations with her husband, son Gary, mother Edna, and niece Sharon. They were early participants in the ministerial exchange program serving pulpits in various states and Canada. During retirement, she and Harvey also enjoyed travel abroad.

Louise enjoyed good health until shortly before her death. She is survived by a son, Gary McAllister Flater, his wife, Rebecca Johnson Flater, and a granddaughter, Amanda Louise Flater, who was the object of much pride and grandmotherly affection.

Louise died on September 5, 1993 and is buried with her husband at Bates Cemetery in Snow Hill, Maryland.

Mary Ellen Deputy Whitlock

Mary Ellen Deputy Whitlock, daughter of Willard and Mildred Saunders Deputy, grew up in Richardson Park United Methodist Church, Wilmington, Delaware, where she sang in the choir. A graduate of Conrad High School and Goldey Beacom College, she married the Reverend Dr. Robert P. Whitlock in 1954 and subsequently served as his partner in ministry in Chesapeake City, Fruitland, Delmar, Dover, Wilmington, and Easton. She and her husband had two children, Karl A. Whitlock and Kimberly L. Whitlock Book.

Prior to her death on October 10, 1993, in Dover, Delaware, of complications related to decades of chronic rheumatoid arthritis, Mary Ellen was known for her zeal in starting Bible study groups, sharing groups, and prayer chains. She also wrote occasional pieces for the devotional guide "The Daily Word." She was known by many as exhibiting a closeness to God that few of us ever experience. Her funeral was held on October 16, 1993, at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Wilmington, with the Reverends H. Sterling Green and Elizabeth F. Hopkins officiating.

Mary Ellen loved to sing. As a child and teenager, she sang in the family band and played parts in a number of musical productions. She studied voice at the Wilmington School of Music under the direction of Lewis Grubb. She later sang with her husband for civic clubs and churches across the Eastern Shore. However, severe bouts of rheumatoid arthritis deprived her of her singing voice while she was still a relatively young woman.

After her husband Bob died in 1990, she spoke often about how much she had come into her own, perhaps for the first time in her life. She said her determination to make her own decisions without anyone's approval was probably driving "the kids" (as she referred to Kim, Karl and their spouses) crazy, but that was just the way it was going to have to be. God had opened up a new avenue for her to claim herself, and she was not going to pass it up. With characteristic tenacity, she determined to stay active on the spiritual and temporal journey.

In her last year, Mary Ellen talked about many things she hoped to see before her death: Improved health. Abundant life for her children and grandchildren. Local churches as spiritual resource centers with lively worship, profound preaching and lots of small disciple-making groups. The Peninsula-Delaware Conference as a Spirit-filled witness, deeply involved in the life of Delaware, Maryland's Eastern Shore and the world. Her special secret wish -- She yearned to be able to sing again.

She wanted to make all these things happen. She knew she must leave them in God's hands.

From the crucible of her pain and joy, she pondered the meaning of the Gospel. The good news was not, she said, a promise of good health or physical healing -- she had more than her share of illness and pain. It was not the promise of an ideal family life -- she treasured beyond measure her husband and children, but she realized they all had their faults. It was not that she would receive unbounded wisdom and strength -- although she had learned much in her spiritual journey, she was abashed by how little she knew and how easily she could, at least to her mind, still be shaken.

The good news, she said, is this and this alone: When all else is said and done, God's steadfast love is there. We continue to be held in the arms of God. She said, in her experience, this had always been the case, even when she could not know or feel it. She said this would continue to be the case, whether she died peacefully or in a panic. She would be in God's arms. When the time came for her to let go of her fear, of the need for control, she would let go. Not because she could, but by God's grace.

She also spoke of the first thing she would do in the moment following her death: She would throw back her head, have a really good laugh, and declare, "Is that all there was to it?" Then, after a moment of silence, she would take a deep breath and begin singing spiraling songs of praise, until her voice blended with the sweet sound of God's creation.

Can you hear the song? Blessed be God.

Irma Virginia Whittington

Irma Virginia Whittington was born in Kenton, Delaware on July 26, 1921. She was the daughter of Elsie (McNatt) and Thomas Oscar Sapp. She was a graduate of Middletown High School where she was on the girls basketball team.

Irma was associated with the United Methodist Church throughout her lifetime. She became a member of the United Methodist Church in Townsend, Delaware. After her marriage in 1940, she transferred her membership to St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Odessa, Delaware where she remained active until her death. She was a member of the Senior Choir; Treasurer of the Sunday School for 40 years; M.Y.F. Leader for 5 years; Vice-President of United Methodist Women as well as being active on several committees; member of Administrative Board; trained Acolytes; member of Ever Ready Bible Class; Bible Study Groups; Walk to Emmaus and Lay Member of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Irma was a member of the Middletown Lions Club; Odessa Women's Club; past President and a life member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Odessa Fire Company; volunteer for Delaware Hospice; volunteer for the Delaware Home and Hospital for the Chronically Ill in Smyrna; Winterthur volunteer for the Historic Houses in Odessa, and a member of the Middletown Senior Citizens Center where she served on its Activities Committee. She enjoyed needlework, raising chrysanthemums, and quilting. Her quilts were on display at different craft shows in the area.

Irma married Arthur E. Whittington, Jr. on October 12, 1940 in the parsonage of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Odessa, Delaware. They had three children: JoAnn Whittington Baker, Linda Whittington Bosco, and Richard G. Whittington. They had five grandsons. Irma and Arthur resided in the same home for the entire 53 1/2 years of their marriage - 404 High Street, Odessa, Delaware.

Irma passed away on May 9, 1994 at her home from cancer at the age of 72. Her funeral was held on May 13 at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Odessa, Delaware. The burial took place in Old Drawyer's Cemetery, Odessa, Delaware. The Reverend Cheryl Jensen officiated at the services.

Irma was a very dedicated Wife, Mother and Nana who enjoyed life to the fullest. She gave of herself through her church and her many activities in which she participated. She always had a smile and the time to listen.
