III. Conference Rules Of Order

- Rule 1: The Conference shall convene and adjourn at the discretion of the presiding Bishop and the Committee on Conference Arrangements. The Conference in plenary session may alter the time of convening or adjourning.
- Rule 2: The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his/her appeal.
- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn.
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. For the previous question.
 6. To postpone to a given time.
 7. To refer.
 8. To substitute.
 9. Amendment.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him/her.
- Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call him/her to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.
- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his/her vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse him/her.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for him/her to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.
- Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.
- Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.

- Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except members of board, committees or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church.
- Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.
- Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the Associate Lay Leader, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, the four District Presidents of United Methodist Men, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.
- Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Conference Director of Administrative Services prior to Annual Conference action.
- Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.
- Rule 28: In keeping with paragraph 652 in the 1996 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Resource Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.
7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.

8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.
 14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
 15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.
8. Titles such as "Mrs," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That conference directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.

- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned.
(We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)
- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153.)

- (8) Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
- (9) The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
- (10) Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

B. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Special Session - Saturday, November 15, 1997

A special session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference was held on Saturday, November 15, 1997, at Asbury United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland. Mr. Taylor Harvey, organist of Asbury United Methodist Church, served as accompanist throughout the session. Dr. Douglas Smith, Director of Music at Bethesda United Methodist Church, served as song leader for the time of gathering, which began at 9:15 a.m.

Rev. Marsha Carpenter, Director of Salisbury Urban Ministries, gave the welcoming address, and reminded the conference members that today's special session was being hosted by Salisbury Urban Ministries, which includes ten United Methodist congregations with a combined membership of 6,800.

Dr. Jonathan Baker, Conference Resource Director, introduced Rev. Elaine Ayres, the newly appointed Mission Area Ministry Director. Rev. Ayres then introduced the District Facilitators and members of the Easton District Coordinating Team:

Wilmington District:	Rev. Randy Wein
Salisbury District:	Rev. Art Blanchette
Dover District:	Mrs. Ann Wilson
Easton District:	Rev. Alice Hutchins

Bishop Peter D. Weaver called the session to order stating that the purpose of this special session was to approve the 1998 budget for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. In his remarks, Bishop Weaver stated that "every budget is a theological statement. It says what we believe about God. It is a witness."

The theme for the presentation of the 1998 budget was Resourcing the Church for Ministry and Mission, and included three phases: (1) Extension Ministries for Outreach and Mission, (2) Resourcing the Local Church for Mission and Ministry, and (3) Conference Management and Clergy Support. The entire presentation was done in worship, with a variety of presenters.

Section 1, Extension Ministries for Outreach and Mission, included a video presentation about UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief). In the video the presenter affirmed: "Connectionalism, when it touches lives, multiplies." Rev. Darlene Dixon, Royal Oak Charge, spoke on behalf of the Ministerial Education Fund and how the fund supports her and her colleagues in receiving a seminary education.

Section 2, Resourcing the Local Church for Mission and Ministry, included the following presentations: Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program, by Kelly Armstrong; Young People's Ministry, by Ashley Purnell; Parish Nurse Program, by Judy Barkley, Wesley Temple United Methodist Church, Salisbury; and Local Church Mission, by Connie Purnell Robbins, New Bethel United Methodist Church, Berlin.

Section 3, Conference Management and Clergy Support, included a powerful video presentation of the Rev. Charlie Barton, his wife Mary Joyce, and sister, Shirley Lewis (Rev. Cevert Lewis' widow). They spoke about the ministry of the Conference health insurance program and pension benefits. Following the video, Rev. Mark Palmer gave personal testimony of how the health insurance has sustained him and his family during his illness. The Rev. Dr. W. Hayward Greene gave testimony to how the Conference Pension Plan has been a blessing to him and his family.

Rev. Thomas C. Short, Chairperson of the Council on Finance & Administration, then presented the 1998 Proposed Budget for discussion and clarification. Questions were asked concerning the Conference Reserve Fund, and Chairperson Short stated that a philosophy/report of the Reserve Fund would be presented at the 1998 Annual Conference Session. Chairperson Short then moved adoption of the 1998 Proposed Budget.

Dr. J. T. Seymour made a motion to amend the budget proposal, which was seconded, that Items 11 (Methodist Action Program) and 12 (Neighborhood House) be restored to the current 1997 approved level; i.e., that Methodist Action Program be increased $9,000 and Neighborhood House increased $8,400, and that these additional funds totally $17,400 be taken from the General Reserve Funds. Amendment was passed.

Mr. Richard Tull, Lay Member of Fruitland-St. John's, made a motion to amend the budget proposal, which was seconded, that all budget line items receiving a proposed decrease (excluding Section I, items 1 through 8, and Section II, item 1) be restored to the 1997 level. Amendment was defeated.

The 1998 Proposed Budget, as amended, was then approved.

Bishop Weaver expressed appreciation to Rev. Thomas C. Short and the Council on Finance & Administration, Dr. Jonathan Baker, Mr. William Westbrook, and everyone who was involved in the special session presentation. Special session adjourned at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Clergy Executive Session, Wednesday, June 10, 1998

Bishop Peter D. Weaver called the Clergy Executive Session to order at approximately 9:00 a.m. in the sanctuary of Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church, Dover, Delaware. Rev. Karen Bunnell, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM) welcomed everyone to Holy Cross Church and expressed appreciation to the members and staff of Holy Cross Church for their gracious hospitality. Chairperson Bunnell reminded us of the theme for the day -- "We Are Called Together" and then presented Father Thomas Hanley, Pastor of Holy Cross Church, who welcomed us.

Bishop Weaver led in a presentation entitled "The Ministry of All Persons" and reminded us of our common ministry; i.e., we are all ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ. Bishop Weaver stated that all of Annual Conference will be worship -- resolutions, business matters, conversation, coffee break -- all will be an offering to God.

Mr. Harvey Kimbrough, lay member of BOOM, led in a presentation entitled "The Ministry of Lay People" and stated that most lay persons do not actively talk about their "call" to Christian faith and ministry. He shared his personal testimony of how he came to recognize and claim his "call".

Rev. Glenn Catley, clergy member of BOOM, made a presentation entitled "The Ministry of Elders" and affirmed that elders are called to focus on "word, sacrament, order and service."

Rev. Boyd B. Etter, BOOM Registrar, presented the BOOM report which can be found in its entirety in the Disciplinary Questions -- PART II: PERTAINING TO ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTORS.

The candidates for election into Full Membership and ordination as Elder are:

Gloria Swanson Attix
Marsha Cosby Carpenter
Alice Johnson Ervin
Isabel Teresa Simpson Gardner
John Lawrence Huber
Pearl Scott Johnson

Each candidate was elected into Full Membership and approved for ordination as Elder.

Mark James Avens was elected into Full Membership, and his ordination in The American Baptist Church (1989) was recognized and accepted.

The newly elected Full Members were presented and invited to sit among their brother and sister clergy.

Rev. Naomi Winchester made a presentation entitled "The Ministry of Deacons". She described the ministry as based on love, justice and service -- building bridges between the church and community.

The candidate for election into Full Membership and ordained as permanent Deacon under the transitional provision for diaconal ministers is:

Patricia Ann Sullivan

She was elected into Full Membership and approved for ordination as permanent Deacon.

Rev. Yvonne Penn made a presentation entitled "The Ministry of Probationary Deacons".

The candidates for election into Probationary Membership and ordination as Deacon under the provisions of the 1992 Discipline (par. 415) are:

Frederick Bernard Bahr
Dale Leonard Brown
Anna Lynch Cottom
Christine Prior Lee
Candy Miles
Derrick Emmanuel Porter
James Edward Sipes
Karin Gay Tunnell

Each candidate was elected into Probationary Membership and approved for ordination as Deacon. The newly elected Probationary Members were then presented to the Executive Session and invited to sit among their brother and sister clergy.

Rev. Rene' Knight, a Full-time Local Pastor, made a presentation entitled The Ministry of Local Pastors", and reported how he came to Delaware as a "missionary" and that he was still a "missionary" for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Those persons serving as Full-time Local Pastors, Part-time Local Pastors and Student Local Pastors were recognized and approved to continue their respective relationship with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

The report of those pastors appointed to other valid extension ministries under the provisions of Discipline P. 335.1d (1996) was approved as presented.

Bishop Weaver recognized the clergy members in Full Connection who will retire at this Annual Conference. They are

Ralph Andrew Ellis, Jr.
Micheale Spitzer Russell
(1996 Discipline, p. 355.2)

Bishop Weaver then recognized one clergy member retiring as a Local Pastor:

Webster Whittington

The ministries of deceased clergy members were recognized and affirmed:
members in full connection, retired --

Howard Melchoir Amoss
Charles Edward Barton, Jr.
Kenneth Ray Rose
Howell Oscar Wilkins

Local Pastors, retired --

Marie Gibbs
Daisy Bernice Thompson

Associate Members, retired --

George William Bishop

Chairperson Bunnell then addressed the issue of "corporate accountability" and asked the question, "Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?" (1996 Discipline, p. 604.4, 605.6)
Bishop Weaver affirmed:

In almost every case, our clergy members are blameless in life and character. The performance of every ordained minister and local pastor has been reviewed by me (Bishop Weaver) and the cabinet. Where there is concern or basis for a grievance, it is being pursued with the knowledge of the member involved.

The Bishop then asked District Superintendents Rev. Howard Gordy (Salisbury District), Rev. Ronald Bell (Easton District), Rev. H. Sterling Green (Dover District) and Rev. Susan Keirn Kester (Wilmington District) to respond to the issue of corporate accountability. Each superintendent publicly thanked his or her pastors for their faithfulness and commitment to Jesus Christ and His Church. After each superintendent made his or her remarks, the pastors of that district were asked to stand and be recognized.

The Committee on Investigation members were elected as follows:

Elaine B. Ayres (Chairperson)	Patricia B. Harris	Lehman R. Tomlin
Arthur L. George	Jerrold W. Knotts
Mary Lou Green	Thomas C. Short

Eugene Petty	Harriet Smith Windsor

Vicki L. Gordy-Stith	Laura A. Martin	Kenneth S. Valentine
Pearl A. Johnson	Ashley A. Maxwell

The Administrative Review Committee members were elected as follows:

Bruce E. Cooke	Alice J. Ervin	Douglas M. Ridley

Alternates:

George B. Moody, Sr.	Leslie G. Slak

Rev. Willard Robinson made a presentation concerning "The Family Assistance Fund" and invited persons to place their contributions in the basket provided. Clergy members were reminded that "The Family Assistance Fund" provides resources for clergy during times of crisis.

The clergy were then invited to choose a partner and share in a time of reflection, dialogue and prayer. The Executive Session was concluded with a "Service of Anointing" and adjourned at 1:24 p.m.

Friday Morning, June 12, 1998

The 214th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference began with A Service of Remembering our Baptism. The worship visuals for this Annual Conference were designed and presented by Rev. Amelia Meade Bobon and Rev. Karin G. Tunnell. Varicolored streamers, stretching from the balcony to the stage, represented the various colors of water. During the service liturgical dancers presented waters from local rivers which were used in the "remembering our baptism" process.

Bishop Peter D. Weaver and Rev. Rosemary Brown were worship leaders. Rev. Anna McIntosh was soloist; Taylor Harvey was organist; anthems were presented by the United Voices of Praise, with choir members from Bennett, Parkside, Pocomoke, Washington and Wicomico High Schools.

After an inspirational time of remembering our baptism, Bishop Weaver officially called to order the 214th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference at 11:15 a.m. The Conference theme is: Living Jesus Christ's Vision -- Partnering in the Great Co-Mission. Lois Rogers, Salisbury District Lay Leader brought greetings on behalf of the Salisbury District, and introduced her "partner", the Rev. Howard Gordy, Salisbury District Superintendent. Lois informed the Conference members of the Hospitality Table available in the narthex and said persons wearing "hospitality buttons" would be available to offer whatever assistance possible. Lois then presented Bishop Weaver with a "crab tie", highlighting one of the delicacies of the eastern shore.

Rev. Charlotte Nichols, pastor of Metropolitan UMC, Princess Anne, presented Dr. Carolyn Ranch Brooks, Executive Assistant to the President of UMES, who extended greetings to the Conference members on behalf of Dr. Dolores Spikes, UMES President, who is currently recuperating from surgery.

Bishop Weaver introduced the persons sitting at the head table: Rev. Howard Gordy, Jr., Salisbury District Superintendent; Rev. Dr. Robert Lee Harris, Conference Secretary; Mrs. Irene Hoffman, Conference Secretary-elect; Lay persons Tocarra Frisby and Sherwood McGrath.

Conference Secretary Harris presented the Organizational & Procedural Motion, which was adopted --

- O. The Rules of Order be those appearing on pages 5-7 of the 1997 Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.
- P. Conference members wishing to speak must give their name and Charge in order to be recognized and recorded on audio tape.
- Q. The Conference ushers will distribute only information pertaining to the presentations during the plenary session.
- U. The Consent Calendar will be presented for adoption on Saturday at 2:00 p.m.

Bishop Weaver reported that the Conference would follow parliamentary procedure as closely as possible, and also affirmed that we would follow "prayer-limentary procedure". He explained that "prayer-limentary procedure" means that a request to pray is always in order.

Bishop Weaver introduced Ms. Elizabeth Wright, a visiting Superintendent from the Virginia Conference, and Dr. Violet Fisher, a visiting Superintendent from the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference.

The Rev. Dr. Jonathan Baker, Conference Resource Director, led the Conference in affirming the vision statement of Mission Area Ministry:

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference, as the body of Christ, will live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ -- boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively -- through life-changing communities of compassion.

Dr. Baker then introduced Rev. William Wallace, Chairperson of the Commission on Religion & Race, and Rev. Leslie G. Slak, Chairperson of the Committee on the Status & Role of Women, and reported that these persons and their respective committee members would be monitoring the Conference proceedings.

Mr. Roger Clark, Cokesbury representative, highlighted the work of Cokesbury and invited persons to visit the Cokesbury display in the Student Development Building. Mr. Clark also presented a check to Bishop Weaver to support the pension fund.

Rev. Randy Wein was granted a moment of personal privilege to present to the Conference the Rev. Dr. James C. Logan, who will be retiring next year from the faculty of Wesley Theological Seminary.

Official registrants for the 214th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference included 343 Lay Members, and 293 Clergy Members (35 Local Pastors, 5 Associate Member Elders, 12 Associate Member Deacons, 25 Probationary Members, and 216 Full Members).

After their presentation, Bishop Weaver asked them the "historic questions". All persons to be ordained were then presented to the Conference.

BOOM representatives then led the Conference in a "Passing of the Mantle" ceremony. Rev. Ralph Ellis, a representative of the retiring class, and Rev. Pearl Johnson, a representative of the new full member class, knelt side-by-side. Rev. Ellis read II Kings 2:1-15. Bishop Weaver placed a mantle on the shoulders of Rev. Ellis, representing the retiring class. Rev. Ellis then rose and placed the mantle on Rev. Johnson, representing the new full member class.

The Rev. Janet Harmon then led in an "Observance of Ordination Anniversaries":

The resolution, Board of Trustees, Subject: Creation of a Committee, was presented by Rev. Dr. Gordon Stapleton. Resolution was adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions section for the full text of the resolution.

The resolution, Resolution Requesting Volunteers In Mission Be Designated As a Conference Advance Special, was presented by Rev. William Hemphill and Rev. Douglas Lindsay-Hudgins. Resolution was adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions section for the full text of the resolution.

The Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury presented the Nominating Report and stated that the report would be officially adopted on Sunday morning. Dr. Lasbury encouraged the Conference members to review the report and make any editorial corrections prior to the adoption of the report on Sunday morning.

The resolution, Resolution To Promote Child Abuse Awareness, was presented by Rev. Rick Vance. Resolution was adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions section for the full text of the resolution.

The resolution, Resolution To Support Judge Roy Moore, was presented by Rev. Charles Moyer. Resolution was adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions section for the full text of the resolution.

Bishop Weaver welcomed to the head table for the Friday afternoon session, Kendra Banks, President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, and Jon Arbeene, Vice President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry.

The Rev. Sandra Steiner-Ball officially introduced to the Conference, the Rev. Rosemary Brown, who creatively challenged the members of Conference to hear God's call in their lives and respond to their baptism.

PROPERTY MATTERS: Dover District Superintendent H. Sterling Green presented the following resolutions concerning property matters in the Dover District:

Resolution 1: Discontinuance of Bethesda UMC, Gumboro-Whitesville Charge.

In keeping with Paragraph 2548.2 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, I hereby recommend the Discontinuance of Bethesda United Methodist Church on the Gunboro-Whitesville Charge on the Dover District to be effective June 30, 1998. I further recommend that control of the Bethesda property be assumed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees. Resolution was adopted.

Resolution 2: Discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church, Seaford Charge.

In keeping with Paragraph 2548.2 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, I hereby recommend the discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church on the Seaford Charge on the Dover District to be effective June 30, 1998. I further recommend that control of the Cokesbury property be assumed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees. Resolution was adopted.

Resolution 3: Discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church, Cannon Charge.

In keeping with Paragraph 2548.2 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, I hereby recommend the discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church on the Cannon Charge on the Dover District to be effective June 30, 1998. I further recommend that control of the Cokesbury property be assumed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees. Resolution was adopted.

Easton District Superintendent Ronald Bell made the following resolution concerning property matters in the Easton District:

Whereas, a special committee representing St. Paul's United Methodist Church on the Federalsburg-Denton Charge has requested to come off of limited service; and

Whereas, a special committee representing St. Paul's United Methodist Church near Denton, Maryland, has requested to the Charge Trustees and Charge Conference of the Federalsburg-Denton Charge to have St. Paul's UMC declared abandoned; and

Whereas, the Charge Conference of the Federalsburg-Denton Charge on May 18, 1998 approved the request to declare St. Paul's UMC abandoned;

Therefore be it resolved that St. Paul's United Methodist Church be declared abandoned in accordance with Paragraph 2548.3 of the 1996 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and the annual conference trustees assume control of the property. Resolution was adopted.

After each resolution was approved, a moment of silence was observed to remember and to give God thanks for the lives touched and souls saved through the ministries of these churches.

Rev. David Bennett, Director of Young People's Ministry, introduced a video entitled "Reducing the Risk of Child Abuse in the Church" which was shown to the Conference.

Rev. Elaine Ayres, Director of Mission Area Ministry, made a presentation in which she affirmed that 94% of all churches have completed at least one of the components of Phase I. She encouraged everyone to stop by the Mission Area Ministry display.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES: Rev. Herman Lipsius, on behalf of the Conference Board of Global Ministries, led in a celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Advance. He presented Rev. Don and Mrs. Mildred Hamilton who are currently missionaries in Zambia. Rev. & Mrs. Hamilton expressed appreciation for support given them in their missionary work.

Rev. William Hemphill encouraged all churches to be actively involved in missionary support, and reported that missionaries are supported in three ways: (1) World Service Fund, (2) Women's Division, and (3) Advance.

Ms. Alice Trott, Jurisdictional Representative for the Board of Global Ministries, and Rev. William Riesner, from the Southern New Jersey Conference and is our current representative to the Board of Global Ministries, each made a brief report.

Rev. Roy Katayama then made a formal presentation in celebration of the Advance and reported that over $700 million has been raised through the Advance in the last 50 years.

Kendra Banks offered the closing prayer and grace, and the session adjourned for the dinner recess.

Friday Evening, June 12, 1998

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE AND HOLY COMMUNION: The Conference celebrated a service of praise and thanksgiving in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, dedicated to the memory of members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference who have died and gone before us:

Clergy

Howard Melchoir Amoss
Charles E. Barton, Jr.
George Bishop
Marie Gibbs
Kenneth Ray Rose
Daisy Thompson
Howell O. Wilkins

Betsy A. Connor
Esther S. Davis
Nellie Mulligan
Evelyn Robinson
Ada M. Shield
Nellie Majors Spry
Celeste Waters

As each deceased person was named, the Asbury Bell was tolled.

Participants in the Communion/Memorial Service included: Bishop Peter D. Weaver, officiant; Taylor Harvey, organist; and The Hebron-Quantico Community Choir. The offering received amounted to $1,860.76 and will support the Bishops' Initiative for Children in Poverty. Bishop Weaver's sermon was entitled "A Breathtaking Conspiracy" based on John 20:22, "He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit'."

At the conclusion of the memorial/communion service, persons were invited to a reception held on the terrace in front of the Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center. The reception was in honor of retirees and ordinands and their spouses, and retiring Conference staff member, Shirley Still.

Saturday Morning, June 13, 1998

Conference members were led in morning worship by The Haitian Congregation of Wesley Temple United Methodist Church, Salisbury, Maryland.

Bishop Weaver introduced and welcomed to the head table Arelela Cray and Preston Hunt, Jr.

Dr. Phil Wogaman, member of the General Council on Finance & Administration, was introduced and welcomed by Bishop Weaver. Dr. Wogaman then congratulated and applauded the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for its 100% support of all General Church Apportionments. Dr. Wogaman thanked the Conference for its global focus and presented a proclamation of appreciation which was accepted by Bishop Weaver. Bishop Weaver accepted the proclamation on behalf of all Conference members.

BOARD OF CHURCH & SOCIETY: Rev. Dr. Thomas Donnachie, Chairperson of the Board of Church & Society, invited members of the Board to join him for the Board's presentation. Dr. Donnachie stated that the Board of Church & Society has adopted the phrase, "A Biblical People with a Social Conscience" as its motto. He affirmed that as a biblical people, we are also a praying people. Rev. Mae Etta Moore, in the spirit of "prayer-limentary procedure" offered prayer prior to the report.

Dr. Donnachie stated that there are 6 sections to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church:

- I. The Natural Order
- II. The Nurturing Community
- III. The Social Community
- IV. The Economic Community
- V. The Political Community
- VI. The World Community

Members were informed that the Board of Church & Society will provide, at no cost, copies of the Social Principles to churches who want them.

The issue of Collective Bargaining and Worker's Rights was addressed. The official position affirms "We support the right of public and private (including farm, government, institutional, and domestic) employees and employers to organize for collective bargaining into unions and other groups of their own choosing. Further, we support the right of both parties to protection in so doing and their responsibility to bargain in good faith within the framework of the public interest." Doris Blake, a member of the Board of Church & Society and the Board's observer on the Delmarva Poultry Justice Alliance, was introduced. Members were directed to review the report as found in section "E".

The Gambling Issue was addressed next. Rev. Tom Gray, a United Methodist pastor and the executive director of the National Coalition Against Legalized Gambling (NCAGE) encouraged all churches to consider partnering with DCAGE (Delaware Coalition Against Gambling Expansion) in bringing a halt to any further expansion of gambling in the state of Delaware.

The Board of Church & Society supports and applauds the efforts of many dedicated and committed Christians who have worked to halt the introduction of slot machines. Rev. Larry Jameson was thanked for his efforts, and has become a nationally recognized opponent of legalized gambling.

The final issue addressed by the Board dealt primarily with children and poverty. The resolution, Resolution: Children in Poverty, was presented. The resolution was adopted. See Adopted Conference Actions section for full text.

Dr. Donnachie reminded the Conference members that resolutions and legislative matters often require concerned Christian citizens to make contact with their state or federal representatives. All were advised that the Board of Church & Society now stands ready to supply everyone with current mailing lists of their state and federal representatives (lists on computer disk or mailing labels).

Bishop Weaver expressed appreciation to the Board of Church & Society for its leadership.

Rev. Dr. Jonathan Baker was granted a moment of personal privilege to present Rev. Amelia Bobon to the Conference members, and to thank her for her talents and gifts in the stage and auditorium decorations. Bishop Weaver also thanked Rev. Bobon, and affirmed his appreciation for the theme of "baptismal waters" which was experienced through sight, as well as through sound and touch.

Carlton Parker and members of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries led in a devotional moment.

Karen Moore, Conference Coordinator for the Confessing Movement, introduced the resolution, A Resolution of Support From the Officers of the Confessing Movement. After considerable discussion pro and con, Rev. Kenneth Valentine made a substitute amendment to delete "lines 4 & 5, and lines 36 through 40 of the first page, and lines 4 through 7 of the second page." The amendment was defeated by the required 2/3-vote. The original resolution was then adopted. See Conference Adopted Actions section for full text of resolution.

Rev. James Caldwell presented the resolution, Disallowance of Ceremonies That Celebrate Homosexual Unions. Glenn Pruett, Lay Member from Epworth UMC, Rehoboth, presented the following substitute resolution:

Whereas we have been reminded by Bishop Weaver that the essential credential of our faith is our baptism, a sacrament that is offered to all who desire it and which incorporates the believer into the Body of Christ, and

Whereas we know that we are all children of God, created by God, equally loved by God and equally valued by God, and

Whereas we desire to work within the covenant of the church as expressed in the Discipline, a document that unites us as United Methodists, and

Whereas the Discipline reminds us in Par. 65G that "sexuality is God's good gift to all persons that we believe persons may be fully human only when that gift is acknowledged and affirmed by themselves, the church and society" and that "homosexual persons no less than heterosexual persons are individuals of sacred worth", and

Whereas the Discipline also "challenges us to find responsible, committed and loving forms of expression" of the gift of sexuality, and

Whereas Epworth UM Church is a congregation of believers who welcome and accept gay and lesbian couples, and as a Body of Christ we have seen God, through the Holy Spirit, work in and through those same-sex couples as those persons respond in obedience to their call from God, and

Whereas we recognize that there is a difference between sexual orientation and sexual behavior, and that the church is called to denounce irresponsibility (such as promiscuity) in all persons, whether heterosexual or homosexual,

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church make petition to the 2000 General Conference (or any earlier special session of the General Conference) to amend the Book of Discipline to delete from Paragraph 65C the sentence "ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches".

Be it further resolved that the church must affirm Paragraph 331.1.i which gives the authority to pastors to "perform the marriage ceremony after due counsel with the parties involved" and that the decision to perform the ceremony shall be the right and responsibility of the pastor.

The substitute amendment was properly seconded. After considerable discussion there was a "call for the question" on the substitute resolution. The "call for the question" was passed by the required 2/3-vote. The substitute resolution was then defeated. The original motion was before the Conference.

After additional debate there was a motion to table the following resolution:

RESOLUTION
DISALLOWANCE OF CEREMONIES THAT CELEBRATE HOMOSEXUAL UNIONS

Submitted by Whatcoat United Methodist Church, Camden, Delaware

WHEREAS the Rev. Jimmy Creech was acquitted of charges of violating the order and discipline of the United Methodist Church after having united two women in a "covenanting ceremony"; and
WHEREAS this verdict has caused much confusion and deep concern in the United Methodist Church; and
WHEREAS paragraph 61.C of the 1996 Book of Discipline states, "ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches"; and
WHEREAS the Social Principles are a "prayerful and thoughtful effort on the part of the General Conference to speak to the human issues in the contemporary world from a sound biblical and theological foundation as historically demonstrated in United Methodist traditions" (Preface to the Social Principles, italics added); and
WHEREAS it is the responsibility of pastors to perform their duties in compliance with the Discipline and to be obedient to the Order and Discipline of the Church (Judicial Council Decision 694); and
WHEREAS "a church lacking the courage to act decisively on personal and social issues loses its claim to moral authority," (1996 Book of Discipline, page 47);
WHEREAS the primary reason for the acquittal of Rev. Jimmy Creech was the placement of the statement "Ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches" within the non-binding Social Principles rather than in a section of the Discipline dealing with duties and responsibilities of pastors;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the clergy and lay members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference covenant together to accept, endorse, and uphold, both in principle and in practice, the provisions of paragraph 65.C of the 1996 Book of Discipline, including the explicit disallowance of ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions by our ministers and the use of our churches for such ceremonies;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, out of faithfulness to the stated position of the church, make petition to the 2000 General Conference (or any earlier special session of General Conference) to amend the Book of Discipline by deleting from paragraph 65.C the sentence "Ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted, by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches." And adding that same sentence to paragraph 331.1.i such that paragraph 331.1.i shall read, "To perform the marriage ceremony after due counsel with parties involved. The decision to perform the ceremony shall be the right and responsibility of the pastor. Ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches. Qualifications for performing marriage shall be in accordance with the laws of the state and The United Methodist Church."

Motion to table was passed.

Mr. John Shank then presented the following statement from his church and reported that his church would make the necessary resolution for the 1999 Conference:

PORTSVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Administrative Council of the Portsville United Methodist Church submits this statement to the Annual Conference of 1998.

We support the United Methodist Church's Book of Discipline's view regarding homosexuality in the pulpit.

We believe that homosexuality is a sin and that homosexuals should be loved and prayed for like any other sinner. We also believe that homosexuals should never be ordained.

We know what the Bible states concerning homosexuality. We would like to take this opportunity to refresh the memories of the Bishops, Seminary Professors, and all other Church leaders and Laity who wish to ordain homosexuals.

The Bible states that homosexuality is a perversion (Leviticus 20:13) and a sin (Romans 1:26, 27 & I Corinthians 6:9).

It is the belief of the Administrative Council of Portsville United Methodist Church, that if a homosexual is ordained in the United Methodist Church, there will be a mass exodus of Bible believing Christians.

We, the Administrative Council of Portsville United Methodist Church, challenge the General Conference to put to rest the issue of ordaining homosexuals by upholding the Book of Discipline and that no further vote should be taken concerning this issue.

Rev. Elaine Ayres, Director of Mission Area Ministry, presented the report of the Relational Design Team, and then presented for adoption the Resolution from Relational Design Team. Resolution was adopted. See Conference Adopted Actions section for full text of resolution.

Bishop Weaver recognized and expressed appreciation to Taylor Harvey, Conference organist.

At 11:30 a.m. the Order of the Day with Rev. Rosemary Brown was honored. The Conference expressed its sincere appreciation to Rev. Brown for her ministry in our midst. Bishop Weaver extended to Rev. Brown God's grace and peace as she returns to her own congregation for worship tomorrow.

Rev. Jack Shitama offered the closing prayer before the luncheon recess, and asked persons for prayer requests.

Saturday Afternoon, June 13, 1998

After the luncheon recess, a fifteen minute gathering time featured a children's choir, litanies and prayers written by children, liturgical dance and signing. The choir was a combination of three churches (Bethany UMC in Berlin, MD, Friendship UMC in Allen, MD, and Asbury UMC, in Salisbury, MD) under the direction of Ellie Kelly and Lois Rogers.

When the afternoon session resumed, Conference Secretary Harris presented the Consent Calendar for adoption.

The Consent Calendar was adopted as presented.

Bishop Weaver welcomed to the head table Robert Laird, new Salisbury District Associate Lay Leader, and Pat Dorey, Dover District Lay Leader.

STATISTICIAN REPORT: Mr. James Shaw, Conference Statistician, presented the Statistical Report, which was adopted. Bishop thanked Mr. Shaw for his report and stated that the report was not about "numbers", but about "faces". Bishop Weaver highlighted various aspects of the report, and affirmed that church school membership had increased by 10%, and United Methodist Youth Fellowship had increased by 66%. Bishop Weaver also applauded the fact that our Conference gained in membership last year!

Carlton Parker and members of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry interrupted the Conference session and took Bishop Weaver "hostage", while an offering was received for the Charlie Barton Scholarship Fund and the Vaughn Johnson Scholarship Fund.

AWARDS PRESENTATION: After the "abduction", Bishop Weaver was returned to the Conference session. The Conference then participated in an Awards Presentation Ceremony. The Harry Denman Award recognizes the work of responsible evangelism:

The Adult Laity Award was presented to Mr. John "Jack" Bateman, member of Bethel-Groome Charge, in Lewes, Delaware.

The Youth Laity Award was presented to Miss Ashley Purnell, a member of St. Paul's Church, Berlin, Maryland.

The Clergy Award was presented to Rev. Alice Johnson Ervin, pastor of the Clarksville:Union Wesley Church on the Dover District.

Rev. Cheryl Jensen presented the Bishop's Award for Christian Unity and Interreligious Affairs to a group -- The United Methodist Women. Bishop Weaver presented the certificate, which was accepted by Josephine Merrill, President of the United Methodist Women.

Rev. Dr. Jefferson Labala led in a celebration of The Refugee Resettlement

Ministry in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and recognized the role of Newark United Methodist Church, Newark, Delaware. Since 1978, Newark UMC has settled more than 15 persons from Europe and Africa.

Rev. Elaine Ayres presented the Mission Area Ministry Logo Award to Mrs. Debbie Spiro.

Rev. Dr. W. Daniel Rich (Conference Secretary, 1981-1988) asked for a moment of personal privilege and then made the following motion:

I move that the 1998 Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference express its profound gratitude to Robert Lee Harris for his faithfulness, diligence, efficiency, and accuracy while serving as Conference Secretary from 1995 to 1998, and, further, that this body demonstrate its appreciation by giving him a standing ovation.

The motion was adopted and the standing ovation rendered.

Rev. Douglas Lindsay and Rev. Al Taylor made a presentation on behalf of Volunteers-In-Mission, affirming that "mission is possible!" Bishop Weaver then invited all persons who plan to participate in the Volunteers-in-Mission Trip to Zambia this August come on stage for a prayer of dedication.

BOARD OF CHILD CARE: Rev. Leonard Wheatley made a presentation concerning the work of the Board of Child Care, and expressed appreciation for the Conference's continued support through the "Red Stocking" offering.

Rev. Elaine Ayres introduced Dr. Yusef Ahmed, who shared a testimonial concerning the impact of Mission Area Ministry in the Wilmington District.

Don and Mildred Hamilton, missionaries to Zambia, shared in a devotional moment.

The Bishops' Midwinter Retreat video was shared with the Conference.

BOARD OF LAITY: Howard Mason, Conference Lay Leader, led in a presentation highlighting the spiritual formation building blocks, and affirmed that he thought of himself as "conference advocate", encouraging laity to be more actively involved and supportive of the Conference. He emphasized his desire that the laity strive to sponsor a youth to the 2000 General and/or Jurisdictional Conference.

Kendra Banks, member of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, shared comments about her attendance at Annual Conference three years ago when she was the only youth present. She joyfully affirmed that there are 16 youth attending the 1998 Session! Members of the Youth Council then presented a choreography of James Weldon Johnson's, "Creation".

Josephine Merrill, President of the United Methodist Women, and William Harmon, President of the United Methodist Men, each made a presentation concerning the activities of her and his respective organization. It was reported that currently there are 1200 Lay Speakers in the Annual Conference. It is the goal to have 1500 Lay Speakers certified by next year.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION & CAMPUS MINISTRY: George Shivers, Chairperson of the Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry presented all Wesley Campus Pastors to the Conference. He then presented Miss Tia Woods, who is this year's Black College Fund representative. Miss Woods spoke on behalf of the Black College Fund and all the colleges it supports. She then presented a certificate of appreciation to Bishop Weaver celebrating the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference's 100% payment of its 1997 apportionment for the Black College Fund.

Mr. Shivers presented the Francis Asbury Award to this year's recipient, Dr. Corinda Stewart Waters, and commended her for her life's devotion to the cause of education. Mr. Shivers also announced this year's Scholarship Winners:

United Methodist Foundation Award -- Ruth Yetunde Shoge
Conference Merit Scholarship -- Katie Ruster Hill

The Crusade Scholarship Award was presented to Joyce Bell.

Kevin Goodwin gave an impassioned plea for support of The Africa University Scholarship Fund, and reported that 37 churches have currently given $14,637.39, towards the $65,000 goal. An additional 38 churches have pledged to give before the end of this year. The African-American Summit designated its Wednesday evening offering to the Africa University Scholarship Fund. All churches were encouraged to give its members the opportunity to participate in this fund raising effort, and were reminded not to presume to know what God wants accomplished!

CORPORATE SESSION OF WESLEY COLLEGE: Mr. John W. Jardine, Jr., Chairperson of the Wesley College Board of Trustees convened the corporate session. The Rev. H. Sterling Green presented the following slate of nominees for re-election:

Class of 2002

Clergy:

The Rev. Sandra Steiner-Ball

Laity:

Dr. George V. Kirk
Mr. Edward J. Bennett
Dr. Rafael Zaragoza

They were elected.

Dr. Scott D. Miller, new President of Wesley College, gave his "State of the College Address" affirming the college's successes for the past year and its hopes for the future.

Rev. Dr. Lehman R. Tomlin, Jr., Chaplain, offered the closing prayer. Mr. Jardine then adjourned the corporate session.

Mr. Tony Ewell, portraying Dr. Charles Albert Tindley, made an appearance before the Conference, and offered the closing prayer before the dinner recess. Bishop Weaver encouraged all persons to attend the special "Salisbury District Night of Music", featuring Dr. Charles Albert Tindley: The Phenomenal Preacher and Hymn Writer Extraordinaire.

Saturday Evening, June 13, 1998

At 7 p.m., in the Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center, the "Salisbury District Night of Music" was presented. The evening program was entitled: "Dr. Charles Albert Tindley: The Phenomenal Preacher and Hymn Writer Extraordinaire", written, produced and directed by Celestine Lyght. Cast included the following:

Dr. Charles Albert Tindley
Soloist, Dramatist
Soloist
Soloist, Dramatist

Tony Ewell
Antoinette Davis

Sharon Moore

Choir members included Mildred Hamilton, and the following male choir members of Community Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, Delaware: Clark Benson, Thomas Cuffy, George Williams, and Jessie Williams.

Sunday Morning, June 14, 1998

Sunday morning opening worship was led by Betel Faith Community, an Hispanic congregation from Georgetown, Delaware.

Bishop Weaver reconvened the Conference session and welcomed to the head table Jean Norwood, new Chairperson of the Committee on Native American Ministries, and Allen Streett, Wilmington District Lay Leader. Bishop Weaver welcomed, and introduced to the Conference members, Bishop Ernest Lyght (Bishop of the New York Conference).

BOARD OF PENSIONS: Rev. Kenneth Valentine, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions, presented the report and stated that the check from Cokesbury for the clergy pension fund amounted to $4,791.45. Chairperson Valentine encouraged all pastors to get an annual physical (which is covered by our insurance plan) and to actively participate in preventive health care. He also called attention to the monthly periodical "Taking Care". The Pension Recommendations were presented as follows:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1999 be set at $368 per year of approved service.
2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received by a retired pastor or pastor on disability be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1999. (Internal Revenue Service restricts this allowance to the pastor. The surviving spouse does not qualify.)

Pension recommendations were passed.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION: Chairperson Warner Clark presented the following recommendations:

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 1999:

Full Member	-	$22,980
Probationary & Associate Member	-	$20,680
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$19,150
Student Pastor	-	$16,470*

*unless a smaller figure is agreed upon by the District Superintendent, student, and charge.

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 1999 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. (The rate for 1998 is 32.5 cents per mile.) The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour presented the following amendment to the recommendations:

3. Each pastoral charge is encouraged to provide to its pastor(s) a social security allowance equal to one half of the pastor's social security tax obligation related to salary and housing.

The amendment passed. The recommendations of the Commission were then adopted as amended.

BOARD OF LAITY: Darlene Webster, Associate Conference Lay Leader, presented to the Conference Lay Members the proposed revision of the Board of Laity

Constitution and By-Laws. She reported that the revision is mainly editorial. The laity then adopted the revisions. Members of the revision committee were: Darlene S. Webster, Chairperson; Robert E. Laird, Esquire; Howard Mason, Conference Lay Leader; and Lois Rogers, Salisbury District Lay Leader.

Jean Norwood, Chairperson of the newly formed Committee on Native American Ministries (committee members are listed in the Nominating Report), introduced the participants for a Devotional Moment: Odette Wright and Raggatha Calestine.

Bishop Weaver affirmed how blessed we are as an Annual Conference to have so many rich and wondrous traditions in our midst.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION: Rev. Dr. Thomas C. Short, Chairperson, presented the report and presented for adoption the Resolution creating a Conference Investment Committee. Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour presented a motion to amend the Conference Investment Committee by adding the following statement at line #47:

Boards and agencies will continue to make all other non-investment decisions regarding their funds, including appropriate uses of such funds and projected time frames for availability of such funds.

The above statement was accepted as a "friendly amendment" by CF&A. The resolution was adopted as amended. See Adopted Conference Actions section for the full text of the resolution.

Chairperson Short then presented for adoption the resolution establishing a policy for a Reserve Fund. The resolution was adopted. See Conference Adopted Actions section for the full text of the resolution.

DeWayne Whittington, member of CF&A, presented the resolution, Recommendation on Apportionment Categories. After considerable discussion pro and con, there was a motion to table this resolution. The motion-to-table failed. Jacqueline B. Jones made a motion to amend the Recommendation on Apportionment Categories by adding the following:

VI. Give the Conference Office the right to distribute apportioned funds where necessary or deemed appropriate.

A call for the question was passed by the required 2/3-vote. The amendment was passed. The Recommendation on Apportionment Categories was then adopted as amended. See Adopted Conference Actions section for the full text of this resolution.

CF&A recommends that the 1999 Apportionment Factor be unchanged and remain at .38%. Motion was adopted.

The 1999 Budget, in the amount of $5,774,560 was presented for adoption. Mary Lee Phillips, President, Wilmington District UMW, and Chairperson of Finance & Administration of the Methodist Action Program, gave an impassioned plea that the $9,000 decrease for MAP in the 1999 Budget be reinstated. Her motion is as follows:

Because of these vital ministries and needs (MAP's missions) and because you (CF&A) are confident that the additional $50,000 for the Contingency Fund will be obtained, I ask that the first $9,000 received be released to reinstate the full MAP grant.

The motion was passed.

Richard Tull made the following motion:

That the budget expenditures be closely reviewed on an on-going basis by the Treasurer and Budget Committee looking for surpluses that, if they occur, they be used for additions to "mission needs" as long as the overall budget is not compromised.

Rev. Dr. Jonathan Baker, Conference Resource Director, affirmed that there is a mechanism already in place to basically do what the motion is requesting. The motion failed.

Shane Moran made a motion that "the $8,400 cut from the Neighborhood House be restored." Susan Keirn Kester amended the Moran motion "that the Neighborhood House be treated the same as Methodist Action Program, and that Neighborhood House be designated #2 to receive restoration of its funds from the Contingency Fund." The Kester amendment was accepted as a friendly amendment to the Moran motion, and was adopted.

The 1999 Budget was adopted.

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE: Chairperson of the Nominations Committee, Rev. Dr. C. Edwin Lasbury, presented the report which was adopted as edited and corrected.

Carlton Parker, Conference Youth Coordinator, reported that the offering received as a result of the "abduction of the Bishop", amounted to $1,647.

Bishop Weaver and the District Superintendents then conducted the Reading of the Missional Appointments in the context of worship. A "missional epistle" was presented to each new appointment. As the appointment was announced, the pastor and the Lay Member of the charge met at the front of the auditorium for a time of worship and prayer.

A devotional moment was presented by the Whatcoat Gospel Sound, of Whatcoat UMC, Dover, Delaware. Members of the Conference were blessed and inspired with the joyous music presented.

Jacqueline Jones and Rev. William Wallace expressed their concern about the voting rights of African Americans which was raised at the 1997 Annual Conference. Council Resource Director Jonathan Baker stated that the Voting Rights Act was found to be inaccurate. Since there was still some concern about a possible expiration of the Voting Rights Act in the year 2002, Bishop Weaver directed The Board of Church & Society and The Commission on Religion & Race to jointly monitor this matter.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour asked for a moment of personal privilege to express gratitude and God's blessings to all those persons leaving our Conference to continue their ministries in other Conferences.

Bishop Weaver expressed gratitude to all persons who were involved in this Annual Conference proceedings:

The media table persons -- The Revs. Larry Jameson, Jack Shitama, and Glen Catley.

Rev. Dr. Jonathan Baker, Conference Resource Director and the Conference Staff persons.

Conference Sessions Team.

District Superintendent Howard Gordy, Jr., Host Superintendent and Lois Rogers, Host District Lay Leader, and their respective assistants.

Bishop expressed appreciation to District Superintendent Howard Gordy, Jr., Dean of the Cabinet for the past two years, and presented District Superintendent H. Sterling Green, as the new Dean of the Cabinet.

Prior to adjournment a multi-media presentation highlighted visual examples of Partnering in the Great Co-Mission. The presentation was assembled under the direction of Rev. Jack Shitama.

MOTION TO ADJOURN: District Superintendent H. Sterling Green, Host Superintendent for the next Annual Conference, made the following motion:

I move the 214th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference be adjourned and reconvened in Dover, Delaware, June 11, 12 & 13, 1999, or earlier if necessary, at the call of the Bishop.

Motion to adjourn was unanimously adopted at 1:15 p.m.

Sunday Afternoon, June 14, 1998

The altar frontal and pulpit hanging used during ordination were designed and crafted by Rev. Amelia Meade Bobon. They were visible signs of the celebration of Pentecost. The glistening white was a reminder of Jesus Christ, the foundation of our Christian faith. The fiery red flames were a reminder of the Holy Spirit.

Prior to the Service of Ordination, musical selections were presented by members of the Nanticoke Mission Area Ministry Choir. Bishop Peter D. Weaver presided at the Service of Ordination. Bishop Ernest S. Lyght, Bishop of the New York Annual Conference, was guest preacher (Sermon title: "Pentecostal Pilgrims"). Mr. Taylor Harvey was organist, and a combined choir from Salisbury Urban Ministries' churches presented the musical selections under the direction of Mrs. Phylis Oldham.

C. ADOPTED CONFERENCE ACTIONS

1. Board of Trustees, Subject: Creation of a Committee

Based on our experience over the past two years we are requesting the Annual Conference to approve the naming of a new committee. We suggest that this committee be created for a term of no more than two years and to begin its work as soon as appointed.

Such a committee, once established, will be charged with the responsibility of seeking the sponsoring of legislation in the Delaware Legislature that will recognize The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church as the legal guide in matters relating to the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

As a conference we live with the laws of both Maryland and Delaware. Our experience as Trustees has shown that legal matters are not processed in the same manner in both states. Maryland recognizes The Book of Discipline. We hope that in counsel with the current Delaware Legislature a way can be found to incorporate The Book of Discipline into its legal code.

We request that this session of the Annual Conference ask the Bishop to name a committee that will work to seek legislation that will enable The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church to be accepted as the legal guide for all matters related to the churches and clergy of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference by the Legislature of the State of Delaware.

2. Resolution Requesting Volunteers In Mission Be Designated As a Conference Advance Special

WHEREAS, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Global Ministries is giving emphasis to the "Volunteers in Mission" program which offers individuals and churches an opportunity to participate in short-term mission projects in this country and overseas, and

WHEREAS, persons who volunteer for such work teams usually return from their involvement and testify to life-changing Experiences including a new sensitivity to the struggles of Brothers and sisters in Christ and a fresh understanding of the church's mission in our modern world, a testimony they willingly share with others, and

WHEREAS, the cost of participating in a Volunteers in Mission work team is often higher than would-be volunteers can afford themselves, especially if the project is overseas, yet the opportunities should not be limited to only the more affluent members of our Conference, and

WHEREAS, at the March 19, 1998 meeting of the Conference Board of Global Ministries it was approved to recommend to the 1998 Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference that "Volunteers in Mission" be designated as a Conference Advance Special giving all churches the opportunity to support this mission program;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference approve the Volunteers in Mission Program as an Annual Conference Advance Special and that the Board of Global Ministries be responsible for promotion and education.

3. Resolution To Promote Child Abuse Awareness

WHEREAS, children are a gift from God to be welcomed and received (1996 Book of Discipline) Par. 65.K; and

WHEREAS, once considered the property of their parents, children are now acknowledged to be full human beings in their own right, but beings to whom adults and society, in general, have special obligations. More over, children have the rights to food, shelter, clothing, health care, and emotional well being, as do adults, and these rights we affirm as theirs regardless of action or inactions of their parents or guardians. In particular, children must be protected from economic, physical and sexual exploitation and abuse (1996 Book of Discipline) Par. 66.C.; and

WHEREAS, in 1997 more than three children died each day because of some form of child abuse; and

WHEREAS, some form of sexual exploitation or abuse occurs to a child every four seconds in the United States,

WHEREAS, we have read in local papers many incidences in which the systems, which are in place to protect our children, have, for some reason, failed.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Child Care, Board of Church & Society, and the Board of Discipleship work cooperatively to develop and disseminate resources to the churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, dealing with causes, signs, and preventive measures of child abuse, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that local churches should work within their community to address issues of child abuse, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Annual Conference send letters to state legislators in Maryland and Delaware urging stronger enforcement of child abuse laws.

4. Resolution To Support Judge Roy Moore

We, the Adult Sunday School Class of Bethel United Methodist Church in Lewes, Delaware present this resolution to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to support Judge Roy Moore in his case versus the A.C.L.U. with the United States Supreme Court regarding the placement of a wooden plaque containing the Ten Commandments in his court room at Birmingham, Alabama.

We affirm that the Ten Commandments are not restricted to Christians but are a part of Jewish heritage as well.

The Ten Commandments are not forced upon anyone in the court room. To read them one would, of necessity, need to move very close.

The Ten Commandments are and have been the basis of our laws since this nation was established 222 years ago.

If we permit the prohibition of the placement of the Ten Commandments in the court room, as we did with prayers in the public schools, other tenets of our country such as "In God We Trust" or prayers in legislative bodies or the use of the Holy Bible at the installation of national offices will be taken from us.

5. PROPERTY MATTERS: Dover District Superintendent H. Sterling Green presented the following resolutions concerning property matters in the Dover District:

Resolution 1: Discontinuance of Bethesda UMC, Gumboro-Whitesville Charge.

In keeping with Paragraph 2548.2 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, I hereby recommend the Discontinuance of Bethesda United Methodist Church on the Gumboro-Whitesville Charge on the Dover District to be effective June 30, 1998.

I further recommend that control of the Bethesda property be assumed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees. Resolution was adopted.

Resolution 2: Discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church, Seaford Charge.

In keeping with Paragraph 2548.2 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, I hereby recommend the discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church on the Seaford Charge on the Dover District to be effective June 30, 1998. I further recommend that control of the Cokesbury property be assumed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees. Resolution was adopted.

Resolution 3: Discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church, Cannon Charge.

In keeping with Paragraph 2548.2 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, I hereby recommend the discontinuance of Cokesbury United Methodist Church on the Cannon Charge on the Dover District to be effective June 30, 1998. I further recommend that control of the Cokesbury property be assumed by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Trustees. Resolution was adopted.

Easton District Superintendent Ronald Bell made the following resolution concerning property matters in the Easton District:

WHEREAS, a special committee representing St. Paul's United Methodist Church on the Federalsburg-Denton Charge has requested to come off of limited service; and

WHEREAS, a special committee representing St. Paul's United Methodist Church near Denton, Maryland, has requested to the Charge Trustees and Charge Conference of the Federalsburg-Denton Charge to have St. Paul's UMC declared abandoned; and

WHEREAS, the Charge Conference of the Federalsburg-Denton Charge on May 18, 1998 approved the request to declare St. Paul's UMC abandoned;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that St. Paul's United Methodist Church be declared abandoned in accordance with Paragraph 2548.3 of the 1996 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and the annual conference trustees assume control of the property. Resolution was adopted.

6. Resolution from Relational Design Team

WHEREAS the Annual Conference Relational Design is being developed to support the mission and vision of Mission Area Ministry, and

WHEREAS an additional year would significantly provide the opportunity to understand the needs of developing Mission Areas and District Councils which are critical to the development of our Relational Design, and

WHEREAS the creation of District Councils is critical to the providing of leadership for the proposed Lifting Up the Vision Team and 1998-1999 will be the time when local churches will covenant in the creation of Mission Areas and District Council will be formed to help support and enable Mission Area Ministry, and

WHEREAS the opportunities for conversation are critical to assure a smooth transition of the functions of existing Boards, Agencies, and Commissions, and

WHEREAS the General Conference legislation granting Annual Conferences the freedom to organize and restructure for ministry and mission is currently being tested and interpreted by the Judicial Council and General Church leadership, and

WHEREAS the proposed amended time line would provide the 2000 General Conference to address in legislation issues being tested and interpreted by the Judicial Council before we implemented our new Relational Design, and

WHEREAS the proposed amended time line would not anticipate impacting the adopted budget for the implementation of Mission Area Ministry, and

WHEREAS the Blueprint was created based upon flexibility and openness to the movement of God's Spirit and the context for our ministry and mission,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 1998 Conference Session amend the time line for the implementation of the Conference Relational Design as follows:

1999 Annual Conference (Previously 1998 Annual Conference)

The Conference Relation Design Team will recommend the refined Peninsula-Delaware Conference Relational Design to support Mission Area Ministry. Nominations of persons to serve on the Conference Lifting Up the Vision Team and other proposed conference leadership teams. Our current Conference Organizational Structure will assume all responsibilities during this period.

2000 Annual Conference . (Previously 1999 Annual Conference)

The current Organizational Structure of the Peninsula- Delaware Conference will be dissolved and the mantle of leadership and authority will be passed to the new leadership and the Conference Relational Design.

7. Resolution: Children in Poverty

WHEREAS the United States has for several years experienced a time of unprecedented economic prosperity, and

WHEREAS there has been for many years a steadily growing need for food pantries and homeless shelters to provide for children and their families within the bounds of this Conference, and

WHEREAS the United Methodist Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty reports that ten million children die each year of poverty-related causes, but

WHEREAS, for the first time in history it is actually possible to create a world in which all children share in at least the basic opportunities for life, and

WHEREAS the biblical and historical roots for Methodism require that we give high priority to providing for the poor among us;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, will work with our congregation and communities to end our children's dependence on food pantries and homeless shelters by all means possible, including:

- regular prayer for specific children in poverty and their families,
- adopting families to assist in the transition from economic dependence to self-sufficiency,
- support other churches or community agencies in providing such assistance,
- encouraging the development of employment opportunities that provide a living wage,
- refusing to purchase goods manufactured in sweatshops or by child labor,
- encouraging the development of affordable and dependable child care alternatives,

--political advocacy for public policies which ensure that children are not forced to live in poverty, either here or in any nation.

Furthermore, we call on Conference agencies including, but not limited to, the Board of Global Ministries, the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Men to assist local congregations in fulfilling our covenant.

8. A Resolution of Support from the Confessing Movement

WHEREAS, the 1996 General Conference adopted the statement that "Ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions shall not be conducted by our ministers and shall not be conducted in our churches,"; (The Book of Discipline ¶65C) and,

WHEREAS, in a statement issued April 30, 1998, the Council of Bishops declared, "In covenant with one another, we are committed to uphold the General Conference's action on the theological, ethical, and polity matters defined in The Book of Discipline, including the statements on homosexuality and all specified issues contained in the Social Principles including the prohibition of ceremonies celebrating homosexual unions by our ministers and in our churches;" and,

WHEREAS, Bishop Peter Weaver has clearly stated his personal and official position in opposition to the conducting of ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions by our ministers and in our churches, and,

WHEREAS, the language of ¶65C is clearly prohibitive while other portions of the Social Principles are instructive and persuasive, and,

WHEREAS, other sections of The Book of Discipline are clear about our congregational and pastoral covenant of commitment to each other under the discipline and order of the United Methodist Church (see ¶303.2,.3; 323-324), and,

WHEREAS, some seem uncertain where we as an Annual Conference stand on this divisive issue.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, support the intent and spirit of the 1996 General Conference in prohibiting our ministers from conducting ceremonies that celebrate homosexual unions and our churches from being used for such ceremonies, and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we support the Council of Bishops in their declaration of unity in commitment to the prohibition of ¶65C, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we support Bishop Peter Weaver in his statement of personal and official commitment to this prohibition, and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we bind ourselves in holy covenant to implement this prohibition as a matter of conscience and faithfulness to our Lord, the Holy Scripture, and the discipline and order of the United Methodist Church.

Karen Moore, Conference Coordinator
John Dunnack, Karen Booth and Thomas Blakelock
District Coordinators

9. BOARD OF PENSIONS: Rev. Kenneth Valentine, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions, presented the Pension Recommendations as follows:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1999 be set at $368 per year of approved service.
2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received by a retired pastor or pastor on disability be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1999. (Internal Revenue Service restricts this allowance to the pastor. The surviving spouse does not qualify.)

Pension recommendations were passed.

10. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION: Chairperson Warner Clark presented the following recommendations:

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 1999:

Full Member	-	$22,980
Probationary & Associate Member	-	$20,680
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$19,150
Student Pastor	-	$16,470*

*unless a smaller figure is agreed upon by the District Superintendent, student, and charge.

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 1999 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. (The rate for 1998 is 32.5 cents per mile.) The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour presented the following amendment to the recommendations:

3. Each pastoral charge is encouraged to provide to its pastor(s) a social security allowance equal to one half of the pastor's social security tax obligation related to salary and housing.

The amendment passed. The recommendations of the Commission were then adopted as amended.

11. Conference Investment Committee

WHEREAS, an Ad Hoc Committee was formed to discuss the feasibility of creating a conference wide investment committee. This committee reviewed a summary of the current investment arrangements and board and agency responsibilities. This review led to the following observations.

WHEREAS, there is currently approximately $1.5 million invested for boards and agencies for which there is no investment committee with direct responsibility for monitoring performance. Historically, these investments have been managed by the Conference Treasurer. With the level of investment expertise available within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, it is not a practice of good stewardship to have this level of investment monitored by a single position.

WHEREAS, the formation of a conference wide investment committee would benefit the conference by pooling expertise in the area of investments now spread over several subcommittees. It would also afford a unified approach to the setting of investment policies, procedures and performance measures as well as ensure the timely review of all funds under investment.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference approve the formation of a standing "Conference Investment Committee", with responsibilities and membership as described below.

Conference Investment Committee

Responsible for oversight of all conference agency funds, above normal operating needs, requiring investment in other than cash and cash equivalents. This will include the establishment of investment policies, procedures and performance measures consistent with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. The committee will be responsible for the selection and monitoring of investment managers/custodians. The committee will be amenable to the Council on Finance and Administration.

The Conference Investment Committee shall have a voting membership of no less than 8 nor more than 13 and made up of the following:

- ✓ 3 representatives appointed by the Council on Finance and Administration
- ✓ 3 representatives appointed by the Board of Pensions
- ✓ 1 representative appointed by the Board of Trustees
- ✓ the Conference Treasurer
- ✓ 1 at-large member elected by Annual Conference
- ✓ 1 representative appointed by each agency with invested funds.

Members will serve no more than two quadrennia with the exception of the Conference Treasurer. Each member is responsible for reporting investment committee activities to their respective agencies. Boards and agencies should ensure that both laity and clergy are represented on the committee and that the committee reflect the rich diversity of our conference.

Election of officers will be held at the first meeting following Annual Conference.

All actions of this committee will require a 2/3 majority vote of its members and be consistent with the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour presented a motion to amend the Conference Investment Committee by adding the following statement at line #47:

Boards and agencies will continue to make all other non-investment decisions regarding their funds, including appropriate uses of such funds and projected time frames for availability of such funds.

The above statement was accepted as a "friendly amended" by CF&A. The resolution was adopted as amended.

12. Reserve Fund

That we maintain a Reserve Fund of ten percent of budgeted expenditures. This reserve is needed for:

- Cash flow. Conference expenses occur throughout the year and a large percentage of the conference income comes in at the end of the year (between 20 and 22 percent in the month of December). The reserve fund eliminates the need to borrow short-term funds and the corresponding interest.

- Deficits. In several years, including 1997 and 1998, the reserve fund has been and is being used to cover projected year-end deficits.

Any excess reserve funds will be available for exceptional missional opportunities on a one-time only basis. Missional requests are to be recommended by the Conference Council on Ministries and submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration, which administers the reserve fund.

The reserve funds available for missional opportunities consist of funds in excess of the proposed minimum of ten percent of the budgeted expenditures minus any anticipated budget deficits.

13. Recommendation on Apportionment Categories

WHEREAS apportionments provide an opportunity for local churches to partner in mission and ministry in their district, annual conference, nationally, and globally for Jesus Christ, and

WHEREAS it is important to interpret and promote the mission and ministry of apportionments to members of every local church for prayerful support and celebration, and

WHEREAS a single apportionment figure does not adequately interpret to the local church the use of apportionment dollars for mission and ministry, and

WHEREAS the Peninsula-Delaware Conference has demonstrated its' support for mission by paying 100% of its Church World Service and General Church Benevolence for the past eight years and additional interpretation and promotion of these funds should encourage continued support from our local churches for this mission and ministry, and

WHEREAS The Book of Discipline ¶612.4 states that "World Service and Conference Benevolence apportioned to the churches or charges of the conference . . . shall not be combined with any other General, jurisdictional, or annual conference apportionment made to the churches or charges of the conference, and

WHEREAS local churches should be encourage to support second mile mission giving beyond their apportionment through the Advance for Christ and His Church which assures that 100% of any contribution goes to the mission need and not to administrative costs,

The Apportionment System Review Team of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration recommends that the following five categories be used to interpret apportionment giving to the local church and for reporting contributions to the Conference Business Office:

- I. World Service & Conference Benevolence
- II. Other General Church Funds
- III. Resourcing for Mission and Ministry and Administrative Services
- IV. Clergy Support
- V. The Advance for Christ and His Church (Not apportioned - Second Mile Giving)

Jacqueline B. Jones made a motion to amend the Recommendation on Apportionment Categories by adding the following:

- VI. Give the Conference Office the right to distribute apportioned funds where necessary or deemed appropriate.

The amendment was passed. The Recommendation on Apportionment Categories was then adopted as amended.

D. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT REPORTS

Dover District

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference, as the body of Christ, will live out the ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ - boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively - through life-changing communities of compassion.

This vision statement of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference has been a guiding principle for the Dover District during the past year. District churches were challenged at their charge conferences last fall to move into the first phase of Mission Area Ministry. Most churches commissioned laity to work with pastors in beginning to knit churches together through Bible study, gatherings for prayer and sharing as well as gifts assessment surveys, etc. Ann Wilson, Dover District Mission Area Ministry Facilitator, has done an excellent job of providing leadership to the local churches. Of the 102 individual congregations, eighty-two churches provided congregational profiles, seventy-three participated in Bible studies, including the Disciple classes, thirty-six in gifts assessments workshops and forty-one reported a vision statement.

A key component to the success of Mission Area Ministry is the commitment of the laity. This reflects an emerging sense of laity as partners in ministry with clergy which has been promoted by the Dover District Board of Laity. This newly reorganized board has taken a higher profile in training and challenging laity to use their untapped gifts. Pat Dorey is the Dover District lay leader, Don Ward, associate lay leader, Wanda Seeney, secretary with board members including: Ann Wilson, Madeline Beall, Dennis Gourley, Helen Breeding, Etta Mills, Linda Juskiewicz, Guy Winebrenner, Curtis Johnson, Tom Mifflin, Bud Clark, and Fred Kilgoe. The Rev. Doug Lindsay-Hudgins was director of lay speaking and coordinated the annual training for over 200 people in the spring. In addition there was a daylong workshop for laity on the Book of Discipline taught by the Rev. Karen Moore which was attended by over 100 people. A fall laity banquet was held at Calvary UMC in Milford with a Celebration of Hispanic Ministry as the theme.

The Dover District United Methodist Women continue to grow both in membership, now over 2,496 members, and also in mission projects. There are seventy-nine units of UMW and a brand new district unit in Clarksville (Dover Young Adult Fellowship). Twelve units became FIVE-STAR UNITS: those who have contributed to all five forms of Undesignated Giving, plus many women from our district attended the Assembly held in Orlando Florida in May. Approximately thirty district United Methodist Men participated in the Workshop Seminar on Partnering and Building Relationships held at Wesley Church in Dover in May. Laity and clergy working together to build our church in the community was the theme. The District Youth have also been very busy this past year participating not only in the conference youth rally at Ocean City, Maryland but two district rallies as well. The two youth who attended the Mission of Peace trip were from Dover District. They have shared their trip memories with the rest of the youth. The youth also joined in with the Mission Area Ministry rally at Delaware Tech in Georgetown and are busy planning more activities.

The Dover District Board of Laity has also given leadership in promoting support of the Betel Hispanic Church in Georgetown among churches in the district. This Betel community, which meets at Wesley UMC, continues to grow as it ministers to an increasing Hispanic population under the leadership of the Rev. Rene Knight. Another new church start is the Haitian church community in Milford which has been nurtured into existence by St. Paul's UMC. The Rev. Lionel Sainsume is the pastor of this fifty-member congregation which is seeking a mission status in our district. In addition to new church starts there have been two charge realignments on the district including Lincoln-Milford-Harrington to which two part-time local pastors have been appointed (one at St. Paul's in Milford and the other at Metropolitan in Harrington) and Frankford and Hickory Hill have become station churches.

Not only is our district developing new ministries within its borders, we continue to send missionaries to other areas through the Volunteer In Mission (VIM) program. Under the leadership of the Rev. Doug Lindsay-Hudgins working with Ernie Elsasser and the Rev. Palmer Clark, VIM trips were taken this past year to the Four Corners area of the Southwest and a youth trip to Costa Rica. The following were participants: Susan Berger, Jonathan Boehner, Stephen Carey, Stacey Donaway, Dorothy Kopple, Doug & Debra Lindsay-Hudgins, Abigail Webster, and Charity Whaley - Costa Rica, and Raggatha Calentine, Palmer and Jeremiah Clark, Connie and Frank Cummings, Peter and Rebecca Jones, Ernie Elsasser, Linden Harmon, Boe and Jeff Harris, Virginia Succarotte, Tom McDougall, Jean Norwood, Alvin Muntz, Sterling Street and Carrie Davis. VIM provides a wonderful opportunity not only to serve others but to experience Christian community and personal spiritual transformation in the process. As Doug leaves our district we offer our gratitude for a great ministry to us - may it continue and grow!

The Care of the Soul Committee continues its work in the district sponsoring a clergy-spouse retreat in the fall led by Joe and Patti Burris and Dave and Susan Humphrey. Ministers and Mates under the capable leadership of the Rev. Ruth Tull as president, the Rev. Ruthann Simpson, secretary and the Rev. Joe Burris, treasurer organized a dinner cruise to Cape May for the clergy and spouses. In addition they planned several meaningful clergy meetings during the year including such topics as Promise Keepers and Emmaus, Board of ChildCare, VIM, and Combating Racism. This latter program was led by the members of the Dover District Covenant Group on Combating Racism which has been meeting frequently during the year including a retreat at Barratt's Chapel.

Barratt's Chapel has become a site for several district training events making it much more than a historic shrine. A committee has recently been formed to create a vision for Barratt's that would include both raising endowment monies as well as developing a center for Methodist studies for everyone from children to graduate students.

The District Board of Building and Church Location under the leadership of the Rev. David Paul has worked with a number of churches this year in planning building additions. Three churches have built new fellowship halls including Union Wesley in Clarksville, Gethsemane in Reliance and New Zion in Laurel. Just after the hall at Gethsemane was completed the church was destroyed by fire on May 11, 1998. Worship and church school were moved to the new hall and the church community is making plans to build a new church. Three churches on limited service status were discontinued including Cokesbury on the Seaford Charge, Cokesbury on the Cannon Charge, and Bethesda on the Gumboro-Whitesville Charge. Thanks be to God for the ministry of these churches.

New pastors to our district this year include: Gary Tulak, Amelia Bobon, Bonnie Shively, Fred Bruner, Mark and Anne Pruett-Barnett, Rene Knight, Herman Lipsius, Phyllis Walton, Accola Horsey, Jeanel Starling, Page Boyce, Jim Van Der Wall, Jim Hawkins, and Frank Sutton. Those who were ordained elder include Mark Avens and Alice Ervin. Michael Russell retired after 20 years of ministry. We were saddened at the death of Howell Wilkins, retired pastor of visitation at Wesley UMC in Dover, and a conference leader for many years. Four pastors on the district celebrated graduations this year including: Kari Jones and Wes Davis from Wesley Theological Seminary, Ed Kuhling from Wesley College and Tina Whaley, Wilmington College.

The district grew by 296 members during the past year with the following churches leading the way having received at least 10 members on profession of faith or restored:

The Committee on Superintendency under the leadership of the Rev. Bob Price as chairman and Ralph Allen as secretary has completed an evaluation of the district superintendent and helped to establish goals for the coming year. I am deeply appreciative of their support and guidance.

Two people have been key in providing service and leadership to the district during the past year. Ann Wilson, a Diaconal minister, has traveled extensively in the district giving encouragement and support to laity and clergy regarding Mission Area Ministry. We are blessed to have someone with her gifts and commitment in this position. Marilyn Cleeton, who just celebrated her first anniversary as the secretary of the district superintendent, has taken that job to a new level becoming more of an administrative assistant than a secretary with a zeal to support the ministry not only of the district superintendent but of the district laity and clergy as well. We are indeed fortunate to have Marilyn in the district office. The office itself has moved to a beautiful new setting at 122 South Bradford Street in Dover. A special thanks to Wesley College for providing temporary quarters during the transition.

As you see the Ministry of Jesus Christ continues to grow and touch many lives through the churches of the Dover District. In many ways we are moving out boldly, inclusively, and cooperatively as we live into Jesus Christ's vision of who we are to be and to create communities of compassion throughout the district. I celebrate the ways the Spirit is working to awaken laity to a new sense of calling, to awaken clergy to catch a new vision of working cooperatively, and to awaken churches both large and small to their essential mission - the making of disciples of Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God!

H. Sterling Green
Dover District Superintendent

EASTON DISTRICT

When you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to our Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:6

We have trusted God with our hearts and listened for God's voice among the winds moving over the counties and communities of the Easton District. Prayer and discernment teams have been commissioned, prayer retreats and seminars have opened new vistas for mission and ministry through prayer evangelism, laity and clergy are aware of their primary spiritual gifts, their leadership interaction styles, their spirituality types, and their team preferences. God has helped us to know who we are spiritually. The foundation is laid for our future as we boldly live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ. I celebrate and give thanks to God for the people, laity and clergy, of the Easton District and the offering of themselves as indicated in this report.

Mission Area Ministry continues to be the focus for the local churches, clergy, and lay leadership of the Easton District. In April of this year, two facilitators were hired for the Easton District. They are Rev. Alice Hutchins, pastor of the Sassafras Warwick Charge and Mrs. Sharon Duckworth, lay person from St. Mark's UMC in Easton. Clergy and laity were invited to join in a time of prayer and discernment as to what God would have us, as a district, to enter into mission area ministry. Prayer retreats, informational prayer gatherings, and prayer camp meetings were held in the five counties of the district. More than two hundred lay and clergy persons were commissioned at the 1997 Charge Conferences. In January of 1998, Dr. Terry Teykl led the district in a daylong prayer evangelism seminar at Kent Island UMC. Over three hundred people were renewed and challenged to go and make disciples for Jesus Christ through prayer evangelism. Some one hundred and thirty persons attended classes offered at the 1998 Easton District Lay Academy on Pray the Price and Guideline for Study Areas Living into the Mission Areas Model for Ministry.

The Easton District Mission task force, chaired by Mrs. Joyce Jones, took on as its mission project for 1997/98 to raise funds for our sister churches in the North Katanga, Tanganika, and Tanzania Conference in the former Zaire (now Republic of the Congo), Central Africa. The goal of the mission was to raise $2,500 to provide for roofing, parsonage construction, and farm implements. The task force carried out the mission event on April 25, 1998 in conjunction with the Youth Rally at Centreville United Methodist Church. More than $4,500 was raised for this project. For the success of this mission event, we praise God who inspired the churches and individuals who went the extra mile in giving. We celebrate and share the joy of being in missions.

The Easton District Board of Laity, chaired by Mr. Larry Hanifee, sponsored the annual Laity Banquet in November of last year and the Easton District Lay Academy in February and March of 1998. Both events were successful. The Lay Academy this year was open not only to individuals who were lay speakers but also to those who wanted to learn more about the church and its various ministries. Special classes were offered to help expand our vision of Mission Area Ministry, as well as, training classes for ministry inquiry guides who will help guide persons discerning God's call on their lives to the many ministries in the United Methodist Church.

The Easton District Committee on Ordained Ministry (dCOM), chaired by the Rev. Dr. Bruce Cooke, has been faithful to its responsibilities for supervision and training of pastors during the past year. Seven meetings have been held in order to conduct thirty-one interviews with candidates, part-time local pastors, full-time local pastors, and student local pastors. Several members of dCOM attended training at Drayton Manor in order to learn more about the new Mentoring process. This led to two training classes on the district for mentors and mentees. The Easton District Lay Academy in February and March included classes for those interested in becoming trained as ministry inquiry guides. Sixteen people completed this class.

Mrs. Verna Asplen, president of the Easton District United Methodist Women, reports a successful year for the UMW. Thirty-two women attended the Conference Christian School of Mission at Salisbury State University. Three United Methodist Women units were chartered this year and a total of 92 units made up a membership of two thousand two hundred seventy nine members. The Spring Event was held at First U.M.C. in Chestertown where the guest speaker was Nancy Coleman, Assistant Director of Mid-Shore Council on Family Violence.

The Easton District Ministers and Mates continue to support the two-cluster concept this year. Cluster meetings were held in the fall of the year. The Christmas Fellowship was held at Calvary Asbury UMC in Sudlersville, Maryland. The Ding-a-Lings Hand Bell Choir of Calvary UMC of Marydel graced the occasion with their melodious music. A Breakaway from Packing Picnic will be held at Camp Pecometh on June 27, 1998 to affirm families leaving the district and to welcome new families to the district.

Mark Farnell, Easton District Youth Coordinator, organized several youth rallies on the district with the help of the Easton District Youth Council. God richly blessed the rallies wherein at each rally the altar was opened and youth made genuine commitments to Christ and offered their lives to Jesus. Rallies were held at Kent Island United Methodist Church in Chester and Centreville United Methodist Church in Centreville, Maryland. At the Centreville rally, the youth raised one hundred and eighty nine dollars towards the Easton District Mission Project.

The District Board of Church Location and Building (dBCLB), chaired by the Rev. Harvey Chase, has worked with congregations to improve church buildings and parish halls. The dBCLB has assisted the following congregations:

Union United Methodist Church: Union UMC has completed its second phase of a four hundred thousand dollar project wherein they have built an Educational and Community Center in order to be in mission and ministry in the St. Michael's community.

St. Luke's United Methodist Church in St. Michaels: St. Luke's UMC has presented a six year plan for the enlargement of their facility in order to accommodate ministries for children, youth, and adults.

Metropolitan United Methodist Church: Metropolitan UMC has approved plans for a new church in order to minister to the present and future generation of youth and young adults in the Denton community.

Zoar United Methodist Church: Zoar UMC has completed its two hundred thousand dollar renovation project of a new sanctuary and church hall.

St. Paul's United Methodist Church: St. Paul's UMC, after having been on limited service for a eighteen years, has asked to be removed from limited service and declared abandoned.

God's grace has abounded in so many ways. May we continue in the grace of God as we continue to offer ourselves to the service of the Kingdom of God. We celebrate with the following churches on the Easton District who have reported 10 or more new members on Confession of faith or restored relationships with Christ and the Church this year:

Cambridge: Grace UMC	12
Cambridge: St. Paul's UMC	14
Chester: Kent Island UMC	46
Denton: St. Luke's	24
Easton: St. Mark's	22
Grasonville: Immanuel	22
Preston: Bethesda	22
St. Michaels: St. Luke's	26
St. Michaels: Union	11

May God continue to guide us as we listen with the ears of our hearts for discernment and direction through prayer.

"PARTNERSHIP IN MINISTRY"

*"Grace and Peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
I thank God every time I remember you... being thankful for your partnership in the Gospel and confident that God who began a good work in you will bring it to completion."
Philippians 1: 3, 5,6*

I thank God for the partnership in ministry, which I have experienced again and again with the laity and clergy of the Salisbury District.

District Lay Leader Lois Rogers and I have entered into partnership in Ministry on the District from the beginning of the year to the end. A special dimension of Mrs. Rogers' leadership has been the monthly hymn sings held throughout the District, a musical celebration of the harmony in Christ experienced by laity and clergy, male and female, African-Americans and European-Americans, young and old alike.

The Board of Laity chaired by Lay Leader Rogers has sat at the table of leadership of the Charge Conferences and opened the meetings with devotions. At the Charge Conferences we celebrated cooperative ministries in mission to the communities including Mission Area Bible Studies, seasonal services, joint Vacation Bible Schools, Disciple Bible Study, community youth groups, and community choirs. We lifted up the vision of "Partnership in Ministry" throughout the District.

New Pastors becoming partners with the laity and clergy colleagues at the beginning of the year were: Olin Shockley at Fruitland; St. Johns, Buford Painter at Salisbury; St. Andrews, Dan Rich, Salisbury-Bethesda, associate; Woodrow Wilson, lay pastor at Galestown-Wheatleys, Leslie Slak at Snow Hill-Whatcoat, Hubert F. Jicha at Whaleyville-New Hope.

Pastors reaching milestones this year were: T. David Hackett, ordained deacon and received into associate conference membership; Marsha Carpenter and Pearl Johnson, ordained elders and received into full conference membership.

Entering the Church Triumphant after a long, full life and effective service was the Rev. George Bishop.

Retiring at the end of the conference year was Webster Whittington at Stockton-Shiloh. Moving from the district were Pearl and Grant Johnson to Ezion-Mt. Carmel, Wilmington District; Richard Vance to Georgetown-Wesley, Dover District; Joyce Whittington to Church Hill, Easton District; and Ronald Charles Hemphill to St. Michaels: Union, Easton District. We pray for God to continue to bless our partners in ministry.

During the course of the conference year, there were three gatherings of the Salisbury District Clergy, including active pastors and spouses, retired pastors and spouses, and surviving spouses. In September there was a dinner meeting at Snow Hill-Whatcoat Church at which time Bishop Peter Weaver was our special guest. In December a dinner cruise on the Wicomico River aboard the Maryland Lady was enjoyed by all. In May we had all we could eat at a barbecue buffet at the "Hard Ball Café" as the Shorebirds of Salisbury played a South Atlantic League rival.

The Salisbury District Board of Church Building and Location worked with several local churches to assist them in building improvements. Giving outstanding leadership to this effort were Dr. Robert Harris, chair; Pastor Paul Sherwood, and lay members Preston Smith and Matthew Purnell.

With assistance from the Conference Ebenezer U.M. Church of Rockawalkin, Bill Sterling, pastor, purchased land on Rockawalkin Road for future relocation of their church in this fast growing area of our District.

With assistance from the Conference, St. John's U.M. Church of Sinepuxent completed the rebuilding program necessitated by the disastrous fire of 2 years ago. On May 31, 1998, Bishop Peter D. Weaver set apart for sacred use the new fellowship hall, meeting rooms and sanctuary with furnishings. Pastors Shirley Polk and Peggy Briggs provided leadership for this important project.

The Salisbury District Committee on Ordained Ministry devoted many hours to interviewing and approving candidates at various stages in the journey to ordained ministry. We are so grateful for the faithful work of Bill Sterling, chair, Dr. Ashley Maxwell, Dr. Laura Martin, Jay Hurley, Gertrude Brown and lay members Charles G. Goslee and Carl Wagner.

Building relationships across the barriers that so often have divided United Methodist congregations, Salisbury Urban Ministries, under the leadership of Executive Director Marsha Carpenter, has enlarged and enhanced its vital mission in the urban-like environment of Salisbury. This cooperative ministry is a model for other communities moving toward mission area ministry in the District and Conference.

The training of laity for effective leadership in the churches has taken place under the auspices of the Board of Laity and the Lay Academy, chaired by Chuck Anderson. President Arelela Cray of the District United Methodist Women has sparked the mission outreach of local church units. President Sherwood McGrath has devoted hours to the nurture and cultivation of United Methodist Men's groups in several local churches. Youth Coordinator Jackie Jones has brought the District Youth alive with a variety of exciting programs, including a Christmas mission trip to New York City. Offering guidance and evaluation to the District Superintendent has been an active group of clergy and laity on the District Committee on Superintendency chaired by Gene Cray. We are so grateful to lay members: Harrison Matthews, Lavader Waters, Virginia Layfield, Touissant James, Tom Field, and Lois Rogers and clergy members: Glenn Catley, Norma Bailey, Arthur George, and David Hackett.

This conference year saw the largest increase in several years of new members received by confession of faith. The total full members on the district rose to 23,036 with the addition of 563 members by confession of faith. Two ethnic congregations in Salisbury grew greatly in proportion to their total members: Haitian Congregation by 41 and the Korean Mission by 25. Hebron: St. Paul's received 49, Atlantic in Ocean City, 36; Asbury in Salisbury, 32; Bethesda in Salisbury, 24; and Christ Church in Salisbury, 20. We are thankful to the Lord for additions to our fellowship of faith.

The excitement of this conference year climaxed with the Salisbury District hosting the session of annual conference at the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore, June 12, 13, 14th. Many persons on the District worked as partners in this project. Serving from the Salisbury District on the sessions committee were District Lay Leader, Lois Rogers, and host pastor Charlotte Nichols with special responsibility for hospitality; pastors Glenn Catley, Cindy Quillen and Pearl Johnson with special responsibility for worship; Dean Tom Tilghman with special responsibility for logistics; Conference Secretary Robert Harris with special responsibility for agenda. In addition, United Methodist Women's President, Arelela Cray assumed responsibility for the hospitality table; United Methodist Men's President Sherwood McGrath took charge of the men assisting with parking and luggage; and Youth Coordinator Jackie Jones provided youth to help with hospitality. Many conference members have expressed gratitude for such a wonderful experience at Conference. We thank those whose efforts made it possible.

To all of our partners in ministry on the Salisbury District we express our deepest gratitude for your services rendered to Christ and the Church.

Blessed are those who trust in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. Jeremiah 17:7a

Trust was the theme for charge conferences in 1997 and trust became the key word for the rest of this conference year. There were days when we needed to feel the strength of our roots in Christ to sustain us as the winds of life buffeted our hopes and goals. Fear would have uprooted us if we did not know the power of God's grace at work in our lives. In spite of the challenges and the struggles we continued to bear the fruits of discipleship as we welcomed new members into our ministry and reached out to those around us in mission.

As the fall began we welcomed to Harriet R. Tubman Community Church in Wilmington, the Rev. Glenn James who began his service as a student local pastor in September. Providence Church in Elkton and Cokesbury Church near Port Deposit decided to continue to be linked in a charge relationship so that they could welcome in October the Rev. Dyan Gwynn, also a student local pastor, to their pulpits. In addition, Providence was able to open the house they received as a bequest as a parsonage in January to Rev. Gwynn. This made her the first residential African-American pastor in Cecil County in many years. The Rev. James Gardner began as student local pastor to the Charlestown Charge in September also.

The district Ministers and Mates Association changed its name to "Jubilee" and declared 1997-98 as a year of Jubilee in which we would spend our time getting to know each other. A variety of activities were planned but one of the most successful was a one day retreat held at Sandy Cove Retreat Center near North East, MD, led by the Rev. Patricia Harris on March 15. Pastors and spouses were renewed for the last weeks of Lent and the celebration of Easter.

Those licensed to preach over the summer and approved by the fall ballot of the Board of Ordained Ministry included: Glenn James, Dyan Gwynn, and James Gardner.

We prayed for and anointed several who were battling cancer including Carolyn Starrett, Rev. Mark Palmer and Rev. Naomi Winchester. We will continue to pray for them as they continue in their therapies and their fight for health. In the spring Rev. Palmer was granted disability leave and after the 1998 Annual Conference Rev. Winchester also sought disability.

The first clergy-clergy couple co-pastorate for our annual conference was appointed by Bishop Weaver to Skyline Church. We welcomed the Reverends Vicki and Bo Gordy-Stith and their newborn son Eli and daughter Joy to our district. Over the summer they took maternity-paternity leave and began their joint pastorate! Skyline Church welcomed the members of Hope Church and received forty-plus new members. This required immediate expansion of the worship space and benches in The Grove for the summer.

As Skyline welcomed Hope members they also began to effectively reach out into their growing community and within eight months they had received eighty new members. Their worship attendance has more than doubled over the year requiring the addition of a second worship service on Sunday and plans for a second Sunday school in the fall of 1998. The funds that Hope members brought with them were used to purchase a projection and communication system that allows computer generated graphics and text to be projected on a screen in their expanded worship space. They are now a truly multi-media worship church and continue to grow in attendance and membership.

Cornerstone Church made a monumental change in their worship services. As they continue to grow, they discerned that God was calling them to begin a seeker-oriented service, not as an additional service on Sunday but as the principal worship service! They have placed a cross-shaped screen in their chancel area and are now using projected hymns and liturgy for a multi-media approach that is necessary to attract seekers. The committed members of the church now come during the week for Holy Communion and more traditional worship using the symbols and rituals we all love. Growth at Cornerstone has brought them to five worship services on Saturday and Sunday each week. In addition, they continue to expand their facility and their day care and community service.

Growth in attendance and membership is becoming familiar in many of Wilmington District churches. Others who are experiencing significant growth include St. Paul's in Odessa, Elkton Church--now averaging over 300 in worship each Sunday, Jane's in Rising Sun, Hopewell near Port Deposit, Ebenezer near Rising Sun, Aldersgate in Wilmington--over 100 new members received in 1997, and Ezion-Mt. Carmel. St. George's Church decided to leave the charge relationship they have had since the 1970's and become a station church. Their motivation is a desire to grow as the area around them sprouts housing development upon housing development. They are small but are driven by a large vision.

Korean Church began and nearly completed their new church building on Loveville Road. They continue to grow even while sharing facilities with Silverbrook. These two churches have formed a strong friendship that will continue even after Korean Church moves.

Nueva Vida under the leadership of lay pastor Angel Marrero has been energized. They have begun several successful cell groups in various parts of New Castle County and have developed leadership to share in the administration of their church. They held their first charge conference in June of 1998.

As Thanksgiving approached, pastors contributed $460 toward building a parsonage in Zambia according to the plan Bishop Ntambo Nkulu presented to our district. We were pleased to be able to show our support for our colleagues in Zambia.

Mission Area Ministry, the Conference relational design, was well received on our district. We began with a rousing Camp Meeting on a Sunday afternoon in October at Asbury Church in New Castle and launched the first four steps for redesigning our relationship with the Annual Conference. Over ninety percent of our churches have completed one or more of the first four steps. The Rev. Randy Wein was appointed as our half-time M.A.M. facilitator and has led the formation of the District Coordinating Team, the training for spiritual gifts inventories, and coordination of monthly calls to each local church. Churches participating fully are reporting excitement and good results from following the steps suggested.

There are two exciting missions that grew out of the exploration of Mission Area Ministry. In Cecil County Ray of Hope Mission began to serve the area of western and northern Cecil County and communities over the Pennsylvania border. Their dedication and official grand opening was held on November 8. This mission supplying food for the hungry, a thrift shop with clothing and household furnishing is the result of twelve local churches including all the United Methodist Churches in the area pooling resources to provide a much-needed mission. As the number of people served by Ray of Hope continues to grow so does the Mission. In the city of Wilmington, under the leadership of Wilmington Area Methodist Ministries (WAMM) ten downtown churches came together just before Lent to form a city-wide, inter-racial confirmation class that included forty to sixty youth. They worshiped one Sunday in each of the participating churches and formed such a bond that this class wants to stay together and is forming a youth choir and sports teams. This was such a success that it will not only be repeated in 1999 but a parent's class will be added.

The Rev. Larry Jameson continues to lead the Maryland churches in opposing the expansion of casino gambling. He is a part of a national U.M. network and participated in testimony by an Eastern Shore delegation in the Maryland State legislature in Annapolis in February. Larry has also encouraged the Delaware church to mobilize as slot machine gambling continues to proliferate in Delaware. Delaware Park is in the Mission Area of St. Mark's Church in Stanton and is affecting many lives in that area.

By the end of 1997, 1,198 new members were received into our churches, 724 by confession of faith. The top six churches receiving persons by confession of faith include:

Aldersgate	51
Ezion-Mt. Carmel	48
Newark	46
Asbury	35
St. Mark's	35
Janes	35

By June of 1998 five candidates had been certified for ministry by the District Committee on Ordained Ministry, chaired by the Rev. Mary Lou Green. They include:

Sung Ho Bae
 Rebecca Taylor Cottle
 Mark Maxwell
 D. Richard Walton
 Amy D. Yarnall

In addition, nine persons declared their call to ministry and began the process for certification with an initial interview. In addition fifteen persons continue toward certification and eleven persons continue toward ordination or completion of the course of study.

In March Chief Chancellor William Chandler ruled in favor of the Conference Trustees in the suit brought against East Lake Church. The few trustees of East Lake have appealed the decision and a ruling by the State Supreme Court is being awaited.

As this conference year came to a close three new extension ministries were begun on the district. Through a cooperative vision between Friendship House and the Methodist Action Program a full-time position was funded for a "pastor to the marginalized." This position, served by the Rev. John Rich, a member of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, will include daily work with the men's program of Friendship House and a ministry with and for the homeless of Wilmington. This will replace the work of Common Bond Ministries funded by MAP for over a year. The work is centered in Old Asbury Church, which means that once again this mother church for Wilmington Methodism is birthing a new type of church. We pray God's blessings on this work and seek to meet the needs of the destitute, the addicted and the marginalized.

Through a MAP grant to the district office a half-time position for a facilitator of Outreach and Revitalization was created. This position was linked to the position of District MAM facilitator to become the Facilitator of Outreach, Revitalization and Mission Area Ministry, a first ever full-time programmatic position on Wilmington District. The Rev. Randy Wein has been appointed to this position and will be centered in the district office. Working directly with the District Coordinating Team (DCT) of MAM and the District Board of Church Location and Building Randy will be identifying areas of growth, change in population, and needed new church starts. He will be working with committees for each of the two counties so they may concentrate on their particular growth patterns. A plan for new church starts, revitalization and outreach will be developed and executed over the two years funded by the grant. Since Wilmington District continues to have the greatest growth in population in the conference, this is a timely and much needed addition.

In order to provide interim staffing to the conference and to allow Wesley Church in Elk Neck a year of revision and re-evaluation, the Rev. Larry Jameson has been appointed as part-time Communication staff for the Conference and continues as pastor, part-time, of Wesley Church. Larry continues as the editor of the monthly District publication, "The Connection."

Wilmington District celebrates the appointment of two more clergy-clergy couple copastorates. This means that our district has three such appointments. The new appointees are the Reverends Grant and Pearl Johnson to Ezion-Mt. Carmel Church and the Reverends Doug Lindsay and Deborah Lindsay-Hudgins to St. Mark's Church. They offer new models for pastoral ministry and new opportunities for multiple staff churches. We believe they are giving a view of the future in pastoral leadership.

As the year ended we thanked the Rev. Ralph and Ve Ellis for their forty years of service to the UMC as they retired from St. Mark's Church. We celebrated the ordination of Isabel Gardner and John Huber as elders and Anna Cottom, Candy Miles, Derrick Porter and Jim Sipes as deacons. We also celebrated the graduation Summa Cum Laude, of John Abel from Wesley Theological Seminary. We said good-bye with deep gratitude to the Rev. Herbert Palmer, retired-Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, as he completed his interim pastorate at Ezion-Mt. Carmel Church. We mourned the loss of three spouses, Betsy A. Connor, Evelyn Robinson and Celeste Waters, who passed on to greater glory in God's reign. We bid farewell to the Rev. Jerry Knotts who was appointed to the Dover District and the Rev. Yusef Ahmed who went to Southern New Jersey Annual Conference and we additionally welcomed to new appointments the Rev. Amy Yarnall to Delaware City/Port Penn Charge, the Rev. Aaron Neal to Middletown-Dale's Charge, the Rev. Robert Kelly to St. George's Church, the Rev. Rebecca Taylor Cottle to Grace Church, the Rev. Paul Bennett to Hillcrest-Bellefonte, the Rev. Patti Collett to St. Paul's-Foulk Rd., and the Rev. Charlie Wise to Silverbrook Church.

In all of this we have trusted in God our creator, Christ our Redeemer and the sustenance of the Holy Spirit. We believe, like Jeremiah's vision, we are becoming a well-rooted tree that will continue to bear fruit into the next century.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

1997 has been a year of learning how to live together in new ways as a council of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference and how to support its new direction into Mission Area Ministry. The Council is developing into a learning organization which is open to new ideas for ministry and ready to try fresh ways of accomplishing results. It is not enough to have new ideas and take new steps. It is important to reflect upon these actions and make appropriate changes. The Council is continually learning and reflecting.

The CCOM is learning

- to counsel together as persons from different boards, agencies, and special groups interacting with each other.
- to model Mission Area ministry in the way we function — boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively.
- to talk and listen to each other in small groups as we plan and make decisions relating to the whole conference.
- to cooperate by sharing the resources of individual boards and agencies.
- to focus resources to support mission area ministry.
- to hold ourselves accountable for including youth, women, and ethnic groups as full participants.
- to communicate financial information more clearly and openly.

In 1997, the CCOM worked together to determine and establish these specific actions.

- A policy to provide for equal benefits for lay and clergy positions on the level of directors of the conference was recommended to CF&A.
- The theme of the 1998 Annual Conference was determined by a special process involving the input of everyone at the regular meeting of the CCOM in June 1997 and the final choice of "Living Jesus Christ's Vision: Partnering Together in the Great Co-Mission" was made by the Executive Board at a later meeting.
- When the Annual Conference approved Mission Area Ministry as the model for mission and ministry in the conference, the CCOM helped CF&A to design the new 1998 Annual Conference budget to reflect that mission and ministry. This meant prioritizing budget items in response to new financial needs. Some boards and agencies graciously accepted decreases in their available funds to support Mission Area Ministry.

- It was important to make the written budget very clear and understandable and to make its presentation and acceptance part of the celebration life of our worshipping community at the Special Session of Annual Conference in November 1997. Therefore the CCOM, CF&A, and the Conference Staff worked together to create a new way of looking at budget items . A new narrative budget was developed to state the purpose and reason for each category and to make budget numbers more than just cold figures. Most of all, people told their stories about what those different funds meant in their lives and the lives of others and there was a new understanding about where the money was used and what it accomplished. In the context of worship the budget was accepted as a resource for God's' mission and ministry. In an act of gratitude for the gifts and the goodness of God, the members of the Annual Conference linked themselves together in one big circle and said, "Yes! Amen!"

- Boards and agencies began to explore ways of working cooperatively in order to resource Mission Area Ministry through finances and programs. Four interagency task forces are examining new directions for developing Leadership, Stewardship, Spiritual Formation, and Racial Diversity within Mission Area Ministry.

- Dick Stazesky reminded the Council of the history and ministry of Peninsula United Methodist Homes. He said, "No one working at PUMH forgets this is a ministry."

- We approved the change of job title from Associate Council Director for Spiritual Formation to Associate Director for Camping and Retreat Ministries.

- We welcomed Elaine Ayres, David Bennett, Connie Robbins, and Tammy Ward as members of the Conference Resource Team.

- We said "thank you" and "good-by" with great appreciation to Dorothy Smith as she left the Conference office for her newest retirement.

- And, we continually celebrate the Conference Resource Team that supports and enables the vision of our conference and the mission and ministry of the CCOM.

LOOKING AHEAD

As we continue to be the place where boards and agencies meet to communicate conference-wide concerns and opportunities for ministry, we will listen and talk with each other in a spirit of cooperation. Our meetings will be a time of dialog and interaction and prayer. We will support and work with the Conference Relational Design Team as it shapes how we will live together in the future - doing what we need to do now in the process of becoming what we ought to be then.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

During 1997-98 the Communications Committee met faithfully. We served as advisors and aides to the Director of Communications. Working on improvements on the Communicator was our primary focus. During the summer of 1997, we met with all the District Superintendents and/or District Editors to improve our working arrangements. With the advent of Mission Area Ministry, the Communicator has the additional task of serving as the primary means of getting the word out regarding MAM activities, events and results.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. James Van Der Wall

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The year 1997 has truly been an exciting and blessed year for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM). We are also looking forward to the excitement that the new year 1998 will bring to us.

Our annual youth rally was held at the Princess Royale Hotel in Ocean City, MD, January 3-5, 1997. Ken Johnson, chaplain of the Indianapolis Colts and director of Helping Hands, Inc. in Indianapolis, Indiana, along with the help of many others brought the message to the 450 participants. This experience made use of all available space at the hotel so we began the process of looking for a larger facility for future rallies. Despite this, "Go Against the Flow" was a huge success and an excellent way to start our year giving us momentum to plan the 1998 rally for the Ocean City Convention Center.

The annual confirmation rally was held in March at Asbury UMC in Smyrna. Bishop Peter Weaver was in attendance and spoke to approximately 350 confirmands at this event. This was a wonderful opportunity for youth from all over the conference to have fun as well as worship with the bishop.

Mr. David Burke was the leader at a Youth Leadership Training Seminar held at Drayton Retreat Center in August. This interactive program entitled "How to Move and Prepare Your Youth Group for the 21st Century" provided for training and networking of youth leaders throughout our conference so that they may better serve and equip the youth of our conference.

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference had 2 youth and 2 adults in attendance at the National Youth Ministry Organization (NYMO) Convocation held at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, TN. We were also able to visit The Upper Room as well as witness the daily workings of the General Board of Discipleship. This delegation was also involved in some major decision-making and discussion about the future of youth in the United Methodist Church. We continue to participate in jurisdictional level youth events. Two meetings were held in Binghamton, NY during the year where plans were made for the Northeastern Jurisdiction Youth Convo to be held in the summer of 1998. A major part of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Council on Youth Ministries programming for the year is the Mission of Peace. Adam Dulin was a participant on the 1997 Mission of Peace trip to China and states that it was a blessed and life-changing experience for him.

The Peninsula-Delaware CCYM was most fortunate to have a full delegation present at the 1997 session of Annual Conference. One major announcement made at this session was the appointment of Rev. David Bennett as the Conference Director of Young People's Ministries. Mr. Carlton H. Parker was later appointed to fill the position of Conference Youth Coordinator.

During a retreat held at Epworth UMC in Rehoboth Beach, DE new CCYM officers were elected for the year. A discernment process was used for these election procedures that included prayer, discussion and following the will of God. The officers are as follows:

1998 Peninsula-Delaware Conference Council on Youth Ministries Officers

Kendra Banks – Chairperson
John Arbeene – Vice Chairman
Tim Dorman – Secretary
Emily Randall – YSF Representative
Ronald Bell, Jr. – YSF Representative
Preston Hutt – YSF Representative

As we consider our 1997 goals, it is encouraging to see that most were accomplished.

1. We would like to consider the possibility of having two rallies. A junior high rally would be for youth in grades 7 and 8, while a senior high rally would be for those youth in grades 9 through 12.

As our rally had continued to grow, we see the ever-present need to move in this direction. The only change would be that the junior high rally would be changed to include 6th graders and be considered a middle school event.

2. We would like to once again hold District Gatherings.

We are very excited that each of our 4 districts held a rally in their district in the past year. Members of District and Conference Youth Councils are chosen at this time, as well as opportunities for growth and fellowship.

3. We would like to see all positions on the youth council filled, adult and youth.

For the first time in recent memory, all positions on the youth council have been filled, with the majority having been active participants.

4. We would like to have a full time youth coordinator. This position is needed if we want to see growth in the area of youth ministry in our conference.

We are very blessed that the Conference has seen the value in ministry to young people, and has provided the funds for the Director of Young People's Ministry, which has been in place since July 1, 1997.

1999 Goals

1. To continue to seek ways to accommodate more youth at our youth rallies.

2. To continue to promote participation in and be a resource to our District Youth Councils.
3. To work with the Board of Laity in designing a Leadership Training weekend for youth.
4. To continue our regular programs and participation in Conference, Jurisdictional and General Church programs.
5. Continue to promote the Youth Service Fund and develop criteria for selection and disbursement of Youth Service Fund funds.
6. To investigate the youth Seminars Program for the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, D.C. for possible future Participation.
7. To develop a Design Team which will plan our Annual Youth Rally.
8. To investigate the possibility of having 2 youth rallies per year: one for youth grades 9-12 and one for youth grades 6-8.
9. To investigate the possibility of a conference sponsored mission experience for Peninsula-Delaware Conference youth.

We believe that it is an exciting time to be a young person or someone who works with youth in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. We are excited that many changes have taken place which we believe will encourage and empower youth, but more importantly will present Jesus Christ to them.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee had the opportunity to serve ethnic local churches in some traditional ministries and in support of some new ministries over this past year.

The primary goal of the Committee in 1997 was to support churches in maintaining viable traditional ministries and to encourage new, exciting missions and ministries. The Committee focused in that direction and this proved to have been successful as churches that had not sought assistance before asked for the participation of ELCC funding in some of their ministries. There were also churches that had in prior years received ELCC funding support that requested and received assistance for traditional and non-traditional ministries. Additionally, the Committee established a goal of supporting Mission Area Ministry as was adopted at the 1997 Annual Conference.

A highlight of some of the new ministries in support of the stated goals follows:

- Quantico-Hebron Charge received funding in support of a new building program which will serve to provide new ministries for all age-levels and particularly seniors.

- Haven Charge received funding in support of a two-week trial Summer Vacation Bible Camp which incorporated Bible School with Day Camp for children ages 5-13.

This resulted in not only a ministry to the community, but new families coming into the church.

- Lincoln-Milford-Harrington Charge received funding in support of two new part-time lay pastors whose work would include the focus of Mission Area Ministry.

- The Clergy-Laity African American Summit received funding support.

- Layton Home, a continuing care facility in Wilmington was the site of the Committee's June meeting where the members dined with the non-ambulatory residents and made a contribution to the home. Following dinner, Committee members divided into teams and ministered to all the residents of Layton Home. (Layton Home is managed by PUMH.)

The 1998-1999 goals of the Committee are a continuation of the 1997 goals, particularly with emphasis on new ministries of the ethnic local churches and Mission Area Ministry. Emphasis will also be given to the additional goal of supporting leadership training and development.

BISHOP'S TASK FORCE ON HISPANIC MINISTRIES

The Bishop's Task Force on Hispanic Ministries was called together by the Dover District Superintendent, Rev. Sterling Green, following Bishop Weaver's initiative. The committee has met throughout the year to strategize ways to reach the spiritual needs of this growing population within our conference and within our country. Demographic data supports what has been seen on a larger scale that the Hispanic population has doubled in recent years. Currently the Nueva Vida (New Life) Congregation serves in the Wilmington District and Betel UMC in partnership with Wesley UMC in Georgetown, Delaware, serves in the Dover District. These ministries are models of how pastors and lay persons devoted to outreach to Hispanic communities can develop new and enriching worship experiences to serve the people. Pastoral leadership has been able to assist new immigrants with vital survival needs that many English speaking persons take for granted such as: filling out an application for work, communicating with teachers or other persons in authority.

The committee members met with the Delmarva Poultry Industry at the Georgetown plant of Perdue Farms. The plant employs a significant Hispanic workforce so the meeting was to build a coalition between the church and the business world in addressing the needs of Hispanic persons. This committee desires to be proactive in ministry to reach this population on all of the districts. The National Hispanic plan has been the guide used to direct our planning. We have also had help from Rev. Ulises Torres, a consultant from the General Board of Global Ministries. The following goals have been set to best reach our objective of pro-active ministries to Hispanic persons:

-Train lay missionaries who can evangelize communities and develop cell group (house church) circles.

-Establish Communities of faith with a United Methodist presence on the Salisbury and Easton Districts.

-Support existing missions in Wilmington and Dover Districts. Educate English speaking persons about the culture and religious experience of Hispanic persons through public awareness. To monitor the quality of life of all persons who are marginalized in various settings and to encourage change when their well-being is threatened.

-Encourage the Annual Conference to embrace the work of this committee with support through the Conference Council on Ministries.

It has been a joy and a new challenge to work on this committee with the dedication of the following committee members: Rev. Sterling Green, Rev. Fred Bahr, Mrs. Alice Caldwell, Mr. Charlie Carpenter, Rev. Palmer Clark, Rev. Ted Day, Mr. Israel Figueroa, Rev. John Holden, Rev. Rene' Knight, Rev. Eleanor Laws, Rev. Oscar Lopez, Mr. Angel Marrero, Mr. Eddie Olivo and Mrs. Lee Rich. Additional support has been from Rev. Marsha Carpenter, Rev. Cynthia Quillen, Rev. Richard Vance and Rev. Susan Keirn Kester.

MISSION AREA MINISTRY

This has been an exciting time to be in the church. Indeed God is doing a new thing. We adopted "A Blueprint for Christian Discipleship Through Mission Area Ministries in Response to the Call to Change" last year and have been busy getting involved with implementing Phase One of this new venture. A Director, Elaine Ayres and facilitators Ann Wilson (Dover), Rev. Randy Wein (Wilmington), and Rev. Arthur Blanchette (Salisbury) have been hired to help local churches enter the process. Gil Hoffman and Dr. W. Hayward Greene represent the Easton District. Some of the Clergy and Laity have volunteered to be resource persons for the local church. There is a Coordinating Team on each district. Some of our local churches and /or clusters have completed various components of Phase One.

Phase One: Co-Missioning

- Orientation for Pastors and Lay Leadership
- Training for Pastors and Lay Leadership
- Looking at the Picture Now
- Assessment of Gifts and Graces
- Development of Servant Leadership Skills
- Cross Cultural Development

We have assisted local churches/clusters in entering this time of Co-Missioning through

- District Camp Meetings
- Bible Study
- Prayer and Discernment
- Spiritual Gifts Assessments
- Visioning
(Demographic Studies- "Percept")
- Clergy and Laity Leadership Development (Principle -Centered Leadership Workshop)

- Clergy /Lay Team Development (Partners in Ministry)

The process for Creating Mission Area Ministry Teams is meant to be flexible. Therefore churches are entering the process in different ways and adapting to meet the needs of each local church. It has been a great joy to see the responses to Phase One of Mission Area Ministry.

Dover District

Dover District Mission Area Ministry began with a musical rally of Praise and Prayer. Members of the Dover District Coordinating Team were recruited to begin the first phase with prayer partners and prayer meetings in their local areas. Training in demographics with Percept was accomplished, then Gift Assessment, and Faith, Money, and Spirituality were undertaken. Bible Studies were held and prayer was inspired by the Teykl workshop. Local church representatives were commissioned at Charge Conferences.

Most churches have boldly undertaken Phase One criteria with astonishing results: making friends, cooperative links forged, spiritual gifts affirmed, prayers advanced, and mission projects envisioned. The Focus on forging inclusive communities of compassion is yielding positive possibilities.

Ann Wilson

Easton District

We began the implementation of Mission Area Ministry through prayer. Clergy as well as laity were asked to join together in a time of discernment to discover how God would have us enter Mission Area Ministry. During the months of August and September laity were invited to pray with clergy at invitational prayer gatherings in the five counties of the Easton District. We met on Saturday afternoons to share the vision and invited individuals to pray. Over 130 laity covenanted to pray with us. The Easton District Coordinating Team was put in place in September beginning the County Prayer Camp Meetings. Prayer Retreats were held in communities across the district with United Methodist Clergy who expressed a desire to pray together.

During the months of September and October Prayer Camp Meetings were held in each county. At the Prayer Camp Meeting laity and clergy were asked to pray about becoming members of Prayer and Discernment Teams. They would later be commissioned at the Charge Conferences in November. More than 200 laity and clergy committed themselves to become members of the Prayer and Discernment Teams. The 1998 Lay Academy is focusing on Mission Area Ministry by offering two classes that lift up the vision of the Conference. The resources we are using are "Pray The Price" written by Dr. Terry Teykl, and guidelines for "Study Areas Living into the Mission Area Model for Ministry", written by Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr. In January the Easton District Coordinating Team held a Prayer Evangelism Seminar at Kent Island United Methodist Church where almost three hundred clergy and laity attended from across the Peninsula- Delaware Conference. Our next step is to identify the spiritual gifts of laity and clergy and define teams to discern and pray together for the direction God would have us take as we enter into Mission Area Ministry.

Rev. Ronald Bell

Salisbury District

Mission Area Ministry is developing more substance in the Salisbury District. Some of its foundation was already in place through Urban Ministries which has had area churches working together in mission for several years. New programs continue to unfold in their ministries.

In the Nanticoke area, under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Anna McIntosh and Rev. James Riley Jr., the two charges are ready to formally establish themselves as a Mission Area. They are including other churches in all of their efforts to reach their community, making the ministry truly ecumenical.

We celebrate these advances in cooperative ministries and anticipate many more as churches express the desire to "do more" with churches in their areas. Through cooperative youth programs, the Lay Academy, and various events and seminars in the district, people have seen the joy in being with their sisters and brothers in Christ.

We have two resource teams in place working with churches as they look at the communities in which they live and see the gifts they possess within. We will train more people for leadership in these seminars to enable this to be an ongoing resource after Mission Areas have been established. We are in the process of creating the Salisbury District Coordinating Team; a group of lay and clergy persons who will be trained to provide requested assistance to developing Mission Areas.

Mission Area Ministry is taking on more substance as more churches realize they can call on each other to help spread the glory of Jesus Christ. We are all one in Christ Jesus, and with him we will succeed.

Rev. Art Blanchette

Wilmington District

With a trained and committed District Coordinating Team of 18 selected lay and clergy volunteers, Mission Area Ministry is going to the highways and byways of the Wilmington district. Each of the 18 DCT members has contacted and is helping four or five assigned congregations through the four phases of the M.A.M. process.

Each church is expected to come to our Annual Conference session having completed the Mission Area Ministry Bible Study, a Vision Statement, a Church Profile, and having at least scheduled a Spiritual Gifts Assessment Survey. This will clear the way for each church to enter Phase Two this fall.

The 18 members of the team are Jack Abel, Betty Sarvis, Kerry Dietz, Beverly Holland, Beverly Lewis, Dick Turner, Dyan Gwynn, Jack Shitama, Isabel Gardner, Ellie Kelly, Tanya Pollard, Darlene Webb, Bob Riddleberger, Dianne Thompson, Ken Hilton, Betty Laws, Liz St. Clair, and June Wilson. Each has attended at least one of the orientation and training sessions led by the district M.A.M. Facilitator, as well as a weekend training event on conducting the Congregational Leadership Assessment Profile, the tool for assessing spiritual gifts that was developed for our annual conference. The team will continue to meet for support and guidance as we live the Mission Area Ministry process into being.

Rev. Randy Wein

Each district has been busy implementing Mission Area Ministry. The results have been exciting and challenging. Indeed God is doing a new thing! The goal for 1998-1999

A: Continue to implement Phase One

- Support the local Church by providing resources through facilitators and district coordinating teams
- Keep communication open

B: Implement Phase Two: Connecting and Complimenting

- Connecting the Gifts/Vision/Mission Statements of Local Churches
- Develop Processes for Selection of Mission Areas
- Mission Area Team -Building
- Academy for Leadership Development
- Encourage, support, and assist Conference Relational Design Team

I thank God for all the wonderful ministries of our Conference, the many volunteers from our local churches, and the gifts of the laity and clergy. I look forward to the possibilities of future ministries. I appreciate the help and encouragement from our Bishop, Council Director, District Superintendents, and support staff. Together with God's grace and love we can make Mission Area Ministry a reality.

RELATIONAL DESIGN TEAM RECOMMENDATION

The Relational Design Team was given the responsibility to refine the Annual Conference Relational Design proposed in the Blueprint for Christian Discipleship through Mission Area Ministry. In order to refine the proposed design so that the Annual Conference will be able to support the Vision, Mission, and Core Values of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the Book of Discipline, the Relational Design Team will . . .

- Provide opportunities with existing Conference Boards, Agencies, and Commissions to assure that their functions are included in the new Relational Design;
- Provide opportunities for dialogue with District Councils, District Coordinating Teams, District Mission Area Ministry Facilitators, and Mission Areas as they are developed to determine the most efficient and effective Relational Design to resource and support Mission Area Ministry;
- Provide opportunities for conversation with General Church leadership to assure lines of communication, support, and networking are available among local churches, Mission Areas, Annual Conference, and the General Church.

RESOLUTION FROM RELATIONAL DESIGN TEAM

Whereas the Annual Conference Relational Design is being developed to support the mission and vision of Mission Area Ministry, and

Whereas an additional year would significantly provide the opportunity to understand the needs of developing Mission Areas and District Councils which are critical to the development of our Relational Design, and

Whereas the creation of District Councils is critical to the providing of leadership for the proposed Lifting Up the Vision Team and 1998-1999 will be the time when local churches will covenant in the creation of Mission Areas and District Council will be formed to help support and enable Mission Area Ministry, and

Whereas the opportunities for conversation are critical to assure a smooth transition of the functions of existing Boards, Agencies, and Commissions, and

Whereas the General Conference legislation granting Annual Conferences the freedom to organize and restructure for ministry and mission is currently being tested and interpreted by the Judicial Council and General Church leadership, and

Whereas the proposed amended time line would provide the 2000 General Conference to address in legislation issues being tested and interpreted by the Judicial Council before we implemented our new Relational Design, and

Whereas the proposed amended time line would not anticipate impacting the adopted budget for the implementation of Mission Area Ministry, and

Whereas the Blueprint was created based upon flexibility and openness to the movement of God's Spirit and the context for our ministry and mission,

Therefore be it resolved that the 1998 Conference Session amend the time line for the implementation of the Conference Relational Design as follows:

1999 Annual Conference (Previously 1998 Annual Conference)

The Conference Relation Design Team will recommend the refined Peninsula-Delaware Conference Relational Design to support Mission Area Ministry.

and other proposed conference leadership teams. Our current Conference Organizational Structure will assume all responsibilities during this period.

2000 Annual Conference . (Previously 1999 Annual Conference)

The current Organizational Structure of the Peninsula- Delaware Conference will be dissolved and the mantle of leadership and authority will be passed to the new leadership and the Conference Relational Design.

THE MINISTRY OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION

SECTION 1:

STATEMENT OF GOALS AND RESULTS FOR 1997

- 1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 10%.

Drayton Retreat Center had 5,383 guests from 183 groups. 1,657 guests from 90 groups came from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Average group size was 18. 2,472 guests used the Drayton pool. This represents an increase of 8.8% over 1996.

Camp Pecometh had 5,650 guests from 144 groups, for an increase of 8.7% increase over 1996. 1,355 campers registered for the 1997 camping season. This represents an increase of 9.5% over 1996.

The total for all participants in the 1997 Camping and Retreat Ministries programs was 15,860; this represents an overall increase of 8.9%.

- 2. To raise funds for winterization of facilities at Pecometh.

A shift in priority was made to raising funds for a new Staff House/Retreat facility. Our goal is $250,000 and $51,658.07 had been raised as of December 31, 1997.

- 3. To introduce group initiatives and environmental educational programs at both locations.

The group initiatives and environmental educational program development has been delayed until 1998. A new staff position, Program Director, was developed with this goal in mind and a person will be hired in June 1998.

- 4. To maintain a balanced budget for the Ministry of Spiritual Formation.

The 1997 budget year ended with a balance of $90,563. (Drayton $36,573. and Pecometh $53,990.) We have finally reached our goal of being able to set aside $65,000. (Drayton $20,000 and Pecometh $45,000.) for a reserve fund to cover emergency maintenance expenses.

- 5. To seek additional contributions for the maintenance trust funds established for Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center.

Drayton Retreat Center and Camp Pecometh have established endowment trust funds for maintenance expenses. $10,720 was generated from the trust and added to the Drayton Retreat Center general budget. The Camp Pecometh fund reached $10,635 during the year and the income generated was applied to principle and none was added to the Camp Pecometh general budget from this source.

6. To continue to recruit ethnic persons to serve on the summer Pecometh staff; 15% as a minimum goal.

The 1997 summer staff of 55 included 4 local ethnic staff members or 7% of the staff. No local ethnic applicant was turned down; we just did not have the applicants.

7. To maintain and enrich the spiritual environment of both locations.

The theme for Summer Camp was: "On-Line With God - Christians at Prayer." The theme was developed with daily Bible studies, worship and other theme related experiences led by 19 local pastors (Spiritual Life Coordinators) and summer staff. Many of the campers stated that their favorite part of camp was the Bible study. There was also a shift in the spiritual depth of the staff. Counselors and Service Staff members volunteered to lead staff Bible studies each week.

Spiritual retreats are the focus of most groups who use Drayton Retreat Center. In addition, one of the old out buildings at Drayton was converted and renovated for use as a meditation chapel. The work was done by the volunteer group organized by Carolyn Godfrey.

8. To continue to improve the physical appearance of both facilities.

Work on the physical appearance of both facilities continues and the hard work shows. Many positive comments were received from the guests, campers and parents about how much both facilities continue to improve. A tree planting plan was developed to add shade trees at both locations and the planting started in December. This as well as other capital improvement projects were made possible by the outstanding support from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. $82,000 was given to support these improvements in 1997.

9. To continue to emphasize the importance of recruiting volunteer workers at both locations.

Drayton Retreat Center volunteer hours were 4,031 at a minimum work value of $40,310. Camp Pecometh volunteer hours were 2,683 at a minimum work value of $26,830.

10. To continue to build the Camping and Retreat Ministries Team into a highly motivated and skilled group.

The Camping and Retreat Ministries team was composed of: Virginia Coleman, Food Service Supervisor; Buddy Landing, Buildings and Grounds Supervisor; Carol Shaw, Drayton Administrator; Beth Landing, Pecometh Administrator; Josie Hoven, Pecometh Registrar (replaced by Melinda Smith in August). Each staff member attended at least one continuing education program during the year. The staff also completed a video course on marketing. The dedicated service of this team continues to contribute significantly to the success of the Camping and Retreat Ministries of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

SECTION 2:

CAMPING AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Camping and Retreat Ministries lives out the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Vision in the wide variety of ministries that take place at Drayton Retreat Center, Camp Pecometh, and in local congregations. These ministries include training of laity and clergy in ministry skills through Continuing Education events. Facilities are used by numerous groups for spiritual development retreats and leadership training events. Seasonal events and worship services are sponsored by the Spiritual Formation team to highlight the church year (Easter Sunrise Service, Christmas Dinners, and Galilean Services). The settings of Drayton Retreat Center and Camp Pecometh provide ideal locations for developing and deepening participants relationship to God. The summer camping program focuses on a spiritual theme. The typical camping week is equal to 39 weeks of Sunday School in a local church and provides spiritual nourishment and equipping for discipleship.

CAMP PECOMETH

The staff at Camp Pecometh, with support of volunteer donations, has a strong commitment to providing its outdoor ministry to all youth desiring to attend camp. To this end, $5,335 was provided to assist 51 campers with Camperships. The donations to this fund came from local churches and individuals wanting to provide this outreach ministry. Campers were also assisted who came from the Methodist Action Program (MAP) as well as other municipal youth outreach programs. A cooperative program with the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program was conducted at summer camp. Twenty-five youth participated in a Howard Bailey weekend program and then attended a Riverside Junior High week of camping. Camp Pecometh provided $7,000 in support of this program. The Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program Board elected not to participate in this joint venture in 1998.

Participation by Conference Churches in 1997:

1,355 campers registered for Summer Camp; 965 campers came from Conference Churches; 390 campers came from non-conference churches. 296 (62%) out of 474 Conference Churches sent NO campers.

District Breakdown:

Dover (111 churches) sent 244 (18%) campers from 56 (50%) churches

Easton (142 churches) sent 325 (24%) campers from 49 (34%) churches

Salisbury (136 churches) sent 132 (10%) campers from 28 (20%) churches

Wilmington (85 churches) sent 265 (20%) campers from 45 (53%) churches

DRAYTON RETREAT CENTER

A Retreatship Fund was established to assist groups not being able to afford to come to Drayton for a spiritual development retreat. One group utilized this assistance this year. Drayton Retreat Center was also blessed by the significant work accomplished by volunteer crews organized by Carolyn Godfrey. The efforts and donations of volunteers continue to enable Drayton to preserve and utilize this important facility for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, allowing staff to focus their efforts on ministry rather than fund-raising.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

First, I want to thank you for your stewardship and for your enthusiastic support of the work of Christ throughout the general church. We are a part of the body of Christ, and your witness is a source of encouragement to all of us who serve on this Council and who seek to do God's will. Here are some of our accomplishments over the past year.

1. We rented the home previously occupied by the Council Resource Director to the Reverend Layman Tomlin for one year for $750.00 per month.

2. We accepted the District Superintendent's suggestion that their salaries be "frozen" for the calendar year of 1998.

3. We appointed Norman Powell and Ron Smith to serve on a committee to review the feasibility of a Conference Investment Committee.

4. We provided $100,000.00 to upgrade the communications systems in the Conference office.

5. We approved a Capital Campaign for Camp Pecometh.

6. We presented a budget of $5,653,715.00 at the special session of the Annual Conference.

7. We accepted the suggestion of the Conference Council on Ministries that Conference Lay Directors be compensated on the same basis as Clergy Directors. Furthermore, we suggested that these changes be implemented over a three year period, and we provided resources to fund this new policy.

8. We approved the following adjustments for 1998 apportionments:

Dover	$ 38,186.00
Easton	$ 23,951.00
Salisbury	$186,460.00
Wilmington	$ 77,804.00
	$326,411.00

9. We provided $4,000.00 to the Wilmington District Office for the re-wiring of the Conference Office.

10. We authorized to contract for sale the former Easton District Parsonage for $205,000.00.

11. We provided $47,500.00 for capital replacement and maintenance for Camp Pecometh.

12. We provided $17,500.00 for capital replacement and maintenance for Drayton Retreat Center.

Recommendations:

1. That the Conference Board of Trustees, Board of Pensions and Council on Finance and Administration jointly propose the creation of a Conference Investment Committee.

2. That we maintain a Reserve Fund of ten percent of budgeted expenditures.

This reserve is needed for:

- Cash flow. Conference expenses occur throughout the year and a large percentage of the conference income comes in at the end of the year (between 20 and 22 percent in the month of December). The reserve fund eliminates the need to borrow short-term funds and the corresponding interest.

- Deficits. In several years, including 1997 and 1998, the reserve fund has been and is being used to cover projected year-end deficits.

Any excess reserve funds will be available for exceptional missional opportunities on a one-time only basis. Missional requests are to be recommended by the Conference Council on Ministries and submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration, which administers the reserve fund.

The reserve funds available for missional opportunities consist of funds in excess of the proposed minimum of ten percent of the budgeted expenditures minus any anticipated budget deficits.

3. Approve a Budget for 1999 of $5,774.560

4. Approve a 1999 Apportionment Factor of .38

BOARD OF CHILD CARE ANNUAL REPORT

The past twelve months have been exciting and successful for the children, staff and Board of Directors at the Board of Child Care. To be part of an organization that is committed to change, improving its services to children and families, working more closely with the church, serving more children and moving into the new millennium as an agency of choice serving more children is quite satisfying.

We continue to serve in ministry to more in need than ever before. We work to heal and reduce pain and emotional conflict for boys and girls who often find themselves victims of non-caring parents and a society that offers little hope, wrought with violence, drug and alcohol abuse, homelessness and joblessness.

This past year we opened our new twenty-five thousand (25,000) square foot special education facility. We serve seventy (70) students daily offering academics and vocational training in food service, print shop, computer technology and industrial arts or woodshop. Our semi-independent living program opened in March providing a program for twenty-eight adolescents teaching them life skills. In the District of Columbia, we were awarded a contract to serve ninety (90) children in foster care. In order to provide neighborhood based services, the Board of Child Care has entered into a collaboration with Capital Hill Group Ministries where the United Methodist Church has a primary presence. Our residential program and shelter programs remain close to one hundred percent (100%) occupancy.

New programs were started in 1997-98 to continue our outreach to the churches. Our adoption program began to offer services to those within the church interested in minority or international adoption. We are licensed in Maryland, the District of Columbia and Delaware. A family connection program opened in Cambridge, Maryland. We continue to offer common sense parenting classes in local churches and provided continuing education seminars and workshops for the clergy of the Conference. The Board of Child Care has made available consultants, architects and its staff, to offer technical help to local churches in developing new ministries. The most significant development was a grant program providing funds to local churches to do community based preventive services for children and families in their communities.

Construction continues on campus. We have opened three new cottages with the other four to be completed by April 1999. Playing fields and a new swimming pool are complete. Construction on a staff training center is scheduled to begin in June. A beautiful chapel will be constructed on campus serving one hundred (100) residents and staff.

Next year, 1999, is a significant one for the Board of Child Care. We will be celebrating our 125th year of service. Many events are being planned now to celebrate this milestone including a rededication of our new campus, a dinner for community and church leaders, and a community barbecue for our neighbors, staff and children. In April of 1999, the Board of Child Care will sponsor a National Symposium on Children and Poverty at the Omni Inner Harbor in Baltimore. Bishop Felton E. May is our honorary chairperson for this faith based, professional event.

Finally, this past year, the agency went through accreditation both by the Council on Accreditation in New York City and Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence (EAGLE) of the United Methodist Association. We were recognized by the reviewers for the changes occurring in our programs, our continued commitment to serve a difficult population, our building program, our Christian based outreach to the Conference and Churches and social accountability of using and providing our financial resources to children, families and the church. Two (2) significant comments that were made during the accreditation process: (1) the score obtained by us on the Church part was the highest by any organization the reviewer from the UMA was ever on; (2) the COA reviewer stated during the exit interview, "I know when I leave this campus and drive out of the parking lot, children are safe and well taken care of at the Board of Child Care."

We certainly are blessed to have the support of the Church, individuals, the UMW and the UMM, our Auxiliary and the ministers who pray for our children and support our staff in God's work. As stated in Ecclesiastes 3:11-12, 15 - "He has made everything beautiful in its time...I know that there is nothing better for men than to be happy and do good while they live. Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before; and God will call the past to account."

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Section 1.: Specific review of 1997 goals.

1. To develop and implement a workshop for laity and clergy to examine and dialogue the various issues related to the death penalty.

Response: A well attended and diverse workshop was conducted at Aldersgate United Methodist Church on April 16, 1997. Resource materials and continuing education units were provided for the clergy.

2. To encourage local churches to a.) observe the month of October as Peace with Justice month by having special programs, sermon emphasis, etc.; b.) include Columbus Day as Indigenous People's Day; and, c.) observe the third Sunday as the Children's Sabbath.

Response: This goal was not accomplished.

3. To promote Substance Abuse Awareness Sunday in each local church during the month of March or April.

Response: The Rev. Al Taylor brought the issue to the local churches through a very personal and moving story in the Communicator.

4. To oppose legislation that allows gambling and to make local churches and communities aware of its adverse effects on families.

Response: Through the guidance and dedication of the Rev. Larry Jameson and the involvement of community and national leaders and faithful and responsible church persons, the position of the United Methodist Church was clearly stated and provided a definite opposition to the spread of the gambling industry.

5. To assist in making the findings of the 1996 African American Health Care Seminar available to local churches.

Response: A mini grant was provided to help with the promotion of the seminar.

6. To strengthen local church programs that pertain to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church through mini-grants.

Response: Thanks to the funding of the Annual Conference through the gifts of almost every local church (apportionments) the Board of Church and Society was able to provide over $1,500 in grants.

7. To address the growing economic and spiritual poverty facing communities through a conference for Clergy and Laity on community empowerment.

Response: This goal was not addressed nor accomplished.

8. To increase local church participation in environmental issues and activities as stewards of God's creation.

Response: Through the dedication of Mr. Franklin Sykes the Board was able to have representation at a national environmental convocation held in Colorado. In addition, the Board decided to work on the development of an energy audit for local churches.

Section 3:

Board of Church and Society

1998 Proposed Goals

I. The Natural World

I.B. To develop and distribute to all local churches an energy audit checklist. (The distribution of the checklist should be ready for the 1999 session of the Annual Conference.)

II. The Nurturing Community

II.H. To support the Convocation on Confronting Domestic Violence by means of financial assistance, planning and implementation.

(The Board has budgeted $1,000 for this event. In addition, a member of the Board has been assigned to assist with the convocation.)

II.G. To provide The Church Studies Homosexuality as a resource and study guide for interested churches.

(The resource remains available through the Conference Center. Through the leadership of the Rev. Dr. William Fitzhugh, the Dover District has been provided with some familiarization of this resource.)

III. The Social Community

III.G. To encourage the development of a church community for the deaf.

(The Board provided a significant grant for signing services at the 1997 Annual Conference. In addition, through the leadership of the Deaf Ministry of the Peniel United Methodist Church and the Rev. Peggy Johnson of the Baltimore-Washington Conference a very successful workshop and worship service for the deaf community was held on Saturday, March 7. They will continue to explore ways to regularly reach out to the deaf community.)

III.H. To address the issue of homophobia.

(This issue was not addressed. Instead, the issue will focus on the development of a ministry to persons with HIV/AIDS. This will be reflected in the 1999 goals.)

III.X. To provide copies of the Social Principles for all churches requesting them and to encourage their use for education and worship.

(The Board continues to make copies available to any church. Monies have been budgeted to continue to provide this resource.)

IV. The Economic Community

IV.G. To oppose state and federal legislation that legalizes organized gambling.

(The Board is providing some of the strongest opposition anywhere in the United States, especially in the state of Maryland. We are deeply indebted to the Rev. Larry Jameson and now many others throughout the Annual Conference who are beginning to organize and make our position known.)

IV.G. To participate in a cooperative training event to inform persons, local churches and communities of the negative effects of gambling on society.

V. The Political Community

V.F. To develop and implement a workshop for laity to examine and dialogue the various issues related to the death penalty.

(The seminar was postponed due to the unavailability of the keynote speaker. In the meantime, the Board has invited Mr. Brian Stevenson to be the keynote speaker for a seminar to be held in late 1998 or early 1999.)

VI. The World Community

VI. To continue an interactive relationship with and support of Pacem in Terris which is the arm of the Annual Conference that reaches into the local and global communities.

(The Board is always deeply indebted to the ongoing work and dedication of Dr. Sally Milbury-Steen. She has made a significant contribution to the Pardons Project.)

Sec. 5 An Introduction and Listing of 1999 Goals

1999 Proposed Goals Board of Church and Society

I. The Natural World

- To develop and distribute to all local churches an energy audit checklist.
- To call for responsible environmental standards for the management of animal waste.
- To call for environmental management of hunting and harvesting of animals in the wild.

II. The Nurturing Community

- To support the Convocation on Confronting Domestic Violence by means of financial assistance, planning and implementation.
- To advocate for public policies that improve children's lives and lives of poor families.
- To build administrative support for ministry with children and the poor.
- To provide The Church Studies Homosexuality as a resource and study guide for interested churches. Churches are encouraged to use the Mission Area Ministry as a means of communication and dialogue arising from the study.

III. The Social Community

- To encourage the development of a church community for the deaf.
- To assist local churches and mission areas in the development of ministries with and for persons with HIV/AIDS.
- To provide copies of the Social Principles for all churches requesting them and to encourage their use for education and worship.

IV. The Economic Community

- To oppose state and federal legislation that legalizes organized gambling.
- To organize and participate in cooperative training events to inform persons, local churches and communities of the negative effects of gambling on society.
- To take on the role of observer in the formation of the Delmarva Poultry Justice Alliance toward fair, ethical and safe practices and to investigate bargaining impasses in the poultry business.

V. The Political Community

- To develop and implement a workshop for laity to examine and dialogue the various issues related to the death penalty.
- To monitor (via the Internet) and respond to legislation (state and federal) that pertains to the Social Principles.
- To retreat with the Board of church and Society of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference to explore opportunities to educate and influence various issues pertinent to the work of the Board.
- To support efforts of the Coalition to Restore the Vote to Ex-Felons.

VI. The World Community

- To continue an interactive relationship with and support of Pacem in Terris which is the arm of the Annual Conference that reaches into the local and global communities.
- To encourage and support the signing of the Ottawa Landmine Treaty of 1997 by those countries, including the United States which have failed to date to sign the treaty.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship has embarked upon a bold, cooperative, and inclusive disciple-making and leadership development process. These two initiatives have emerged as the under-girding principles through which each of our ministries is directed.

We have linked up with the Leadership Development/Training Team in order to broaden and strengthen the foundation upon which we develop our leadership, particularly at the local church level.

In addition to this, we are the facilitating agency for a conference-wide leadership event and/or events whose major thrust is the training of our local church leaders. All of our ministries are geared toward the concepts of leadership and disciple-making while looking through the lenses of Mission Area Ministry. This focus gives us relevancy and significance into the second Millennium.

In 1997, the Board of Discipleship made resources and training available to local congregations as we promoted the concept of cooperative and integrated programming to make disciples through Stewardship, Christian Education, Evangelism, Worship, and Age- Level Ministries for Mission Area Ministry.

Stewardship - held two Faith, Money, and Spirituality (FMS) stewardship retreats in April. FMS is about disciple-making and is a transformational process. A total of 38 persons (African-American and European-American; men and women; clergy and laity) participated in these retreats.

In October 21 persons were trained to resource and assist local churches and/or mission areas with stewardship education by serving as facilitators for the Faith, Money, and Spirituality retreats. Upon request, teams have been deployed to facilitate FMS retreats for several local churches/charges. Participants report an essential learning that Stewardship is not a money issue so much as a spirituality issue.

Christian Education - continued to support trained educators in each district to act as Cokesbury curriculum resource persons. This Cokesbury Action Team (CAT) brought United Methodist Curriculum for all ages in a variety of study settings such as Sunday Schools, Vacation Bible School (VBS), Youth Confirmation, Fellowship Groups and After-school Programs to local churches and district workshops. VBS previews and teacher training were held in two locations in the Conference.

One district sponsored a Christian Education course (Leadership In Ministry To Children and Youth) as part of its Lay Academy.

A Christian Education Ambassador Consultant was still available to local churches and groups who wanted to strengthen their teaching ministry.

The BOD cooperated with the Christian Educators Fellowship to invite Carolyn C. Brown to lead Kaleidoscope '97: A Focus of the Future of Christian Education on March 1, 1997. Over 105 persons from 40 African-American and Euro-American churches came to learn how to be more effective in providing for the life-long faith learning of each church member. Persons in their 20's, 30's, and on up came. Two churches each sent ten persons and there were many small membership churches that attended.

Worship - This committee, along with the Coordinator for Children's Ministries arranged for children from various churches in the Conference to be part of the worship experiences at the Annual Conference in June. It was a gift of joy from the children to all the adults at the Conference.

Evangelism - presented the Harry Denman Evangelism Award to three persons, Rev. Anne Pruett-Barnett, Mrs. Helen Lucia Moore, and a young man named Chris Kilgore. This award is given to celebrate outstanding ministry in Evangelism.

The Interfaith Resource Center (IRC) was an essential link in 1997 for valuable religious educational resources made accessible to local churches. Printed and video resources and assistance in selecting appropriate resources were among the services offered. The center's director traveled to satellite sites in each district on a regular basis to hold resource hours and also provided displays at Annual Conference and district events. The Interfaith Lay Academy, sponsored by the IRC, was held at St. Paul's UMC, Wilmington. All educational resources were moved from the conference office to the IRC. As a result, the IRC has received a substantial increase in requests from teachers, youth leaders, pastors and others within the conference, such as United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men. A web site and e-mail address has provided an additional means to communicate with the center after hours.

New Ventures Ministry Grants - were established five years ago to provide funds for new innovative programs in local churches and now mission areas. Each year in September local churches or clusters can begin a two-part process to seek funds for new ministry by submitting careful plans which include such items as purpose, target audience, people responsible, budget, hoped-for results. The New Ventures Grant Committee from the BOD makes the final selections in December. There are six new programs for 1998.

The Computorial Outreach Program plans to have computers and computer learning sessions for individuals (particularly children) in the African-American community of Federalsburg, MD. It is sponsored by Zion United Methodist Church.

Seven Christian congregations (two Episcopal, one Lutheran, and four United Methodist) in lower Kent County of Maryland are establishing an Ecumenical Cluster Youth Ministry to draw youth together in two age-level groups. The youth will explore their spirituality, deepen their faith development, and create a supportive Christian peer group.

The Inter-Faith Volunteer Caregivers from Worcester County in Maryland plan to serve their community in better ways by creating an Inventory of Church Resources in Worcester County.

Kids In Action 2001 or (KIA 2001) is sponsored by the Fruitland-Allen Charge in Maryland to meet the physical, emotional, spiritual, and mental needs of children in the surrounding communities. One of their plans is to build a safe playground for children, properly landscaped and monitored for equipment safety by trustees.

My Friend's Place is a community-sponsored, after school program for youth from 10 to 18 where they will find a safe faith-shaped environment that offers them positive models of Christian values. It is a unique program in Berlin, Maryland that draws on the strengths of the entire community, religious and secular, to address the special needs of today's youth.

Men's Night Out targets young men and youth between the ages of 8 and 25 years of age at New Bethel United Methodist Church. The United Methodist Men will serve as models and mentors in a carefully planned program to increase self esteem, self awareness, and empowerment of young men in the community. The primary teaching tool will be the Holy Bible and life experiences.

1998 GOALS

1. To continue to offer Faith, Money, and Spirituality stewardship retreats as an opportunity for local churches/charges and mission areas to grow in stewardship and disciple-making. The 1998 goal is a minimum of six retreats.
2. To survey selected members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and from those results develop and implement a two year program for Christian Education within the Conference.
3. To continue the role of Cokesbury Action Teams in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
4. To request that each District emphasize some aspect of Christian Education at their Laity banquets within the next two years.
5. To develop a network of resources (human and material) for use upon request. The listing of resources would be presented to the four District Superintendents and the Conference Resource person.
6. To publicize existing resources and the importance of Christian Education within the Conference through a variety of sources and methods.
7. To develop resources and materials for use by adults in transition from active work into the initial years of retirement.
8. To create a Resource Pool for Children's Ministries at the Conference Resource Center which would be based upon a list of churches and contact people who are "doing" successful children's ministries in their churches. This list will identify churches with successful programs for children; such as an after-school program for children; so a church who wants to start this type of program could link up with a church with an existing program for ideas and advice.

9. To keep the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty visible to local congregations through displays and mailings.

10. To continue to be available as the Conference Coordinator for Children's Ministries to be on call to local congregations for assistance as they develop children's ministries for the children in their churches.

11. The Interfaith Resource Center will coordinate the publicity of educational events of congregations; expand resources to include religious material that is appropriate to the African-African community; increase the donation of resources to the center; complete a computerized catalog of the resources available at IRC; hold workshops at the center or other locations; and maintain and expand resource center memberships and usage of the center.

12. The Local Church Leadership Design Team will hold 5 training events (1 per district and 2 in Easton) for local church officers early in 1999 and then once a year thereafter. Dates and locations will be announced at Annual Conference. The target group is the lay leadership of a local church and the training will be practical in content and directed as much as possible to the "real life" questions and problems of a local church officer. Its purpose will be to encourage, empower, and celebrate the uniqueness of each person and church. It will model the impact of Mission Area Ministry through lay and clergy teamwork, network for resources, clarify job descriptions, and promote future opportunities for churches and leaders to work together.

13. The Conference Task Force on Single Adult Ministry will work more closely with the Conference and District Offices for MAM concerns to gather and analyze demographic information regarding needs for Single Adult Ministry, gather more input from pastors and laity who could provide leadership and find resources for training, determine the Conference's potential for establishing resources for meeting the needs of special target groups like single parents and older adults, develop possible worship resources for speaking to issues affecting single adults, determine possible outreach resources for ministry to the "single and separated" groups (ie. the home-bound, incarcerated and military personnel), develop a file and possible display of resources (e.g. books, video/audio tapes, speakers, etc.)

14. Family Life Ministries will affirm the call to make disciples of Jesus Christ within each family in local churches, mission areas, and beyond by celebrating what is already being done to nurture and strengthen families and challenge each congregation and mission area to explore new ways of accomplishing this calling. A list of new and existing resources will be compiled for churches who are seeking more help in family ministry.

1. To hold and evaluate 5 training events (1 per district and 2 in Easton) for local church officers.
2. To develop a training program for District and local church Family Life Coordinators to empower family ministry in local congregations and mission areas.
3. Provide accessible, up-to-date printed and video resources for all local congregations in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference through the Interfaith Resource Center. The center's collection of multi-cultural religious educational resources will be expanded.
4. To offer ten Faith, Money, and Spirituality stewardship retreats as an opportunity for local churches/charges and mission areas to grow in stewardship and disciple-making.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Conference Board of Global Ministries' purpose is to maintain and strengthen the connectional ties with the General Board of Global Ministries and all local churches of our Annual Conference as we join in God's Mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ locally and globally. This includes encouraging all local churches and mission areas to participate in the programs of the General Church that recruit, send, and receive missionaries; that strengthen, develop, and renew local congregations; that seek to alleviate human suffering; and that seek justice, freedom, and peace. This Board works through its five divisions. The report of our 1997 accomplishments and our Goals for 1999 are found in the Division reports which follow. We are grateful for the active involvement of our Division leaders and Board members, and we give praise to our Lord Jesus Christ for what has been done.

DIVISION OF CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

During 1997 this Division has been busy with the processing of grants and loans as well as encouraging church growth and new development. It is very important that each District be represented at the Division Meetings to insure that interests throughout the Conference are equally represented.

The Division has continued to process requests for money from the apportioned funds designated for church and parsonage repairs and construction, from apportioned funds for new church development, and funds generated from the repayment of previous loans. The Loan and Grant Applications have been converted to word processor with minor changes to help in processing the requests.

During 1997 there were about ten churches that received grants or loans. It is always gratifying to be able to provide help for each project. We were pleased to be able to provide significant funds to help two churches with new development. One church has been able to purchase land for new construction of their new building. We have also been able to help with the rebuilding of a church after a devastating fire. Each of these projects were made possible by the support of all of our churches. It is my prayer that we will be able to continue to provide for all requests.

GOALS FOR 1999:

The Division will continue to provide improvements in the grant and loan process. We expect to make the application process easier to understand. At the same time the Division would like to encourage the spiritual development as well as the physical development of the congregation. This may require more information to be provided with the loan request as well as during the term of the loan. The Division may ask for data on the church's growth which the loan money encouraged.

SECTION 1: Review of 1997 Goals.

Goal 1: To continue to assist local churches in the education of members on various health ministry programs through seminars and mailings. SUCCESS

Local churches were assisted through mailings; United Methodist Association dues were paid; Seminar on Single Ministries at Drayton; Spiritual CPR at University of Delaware; and Mission Area Health Symposium in Salisbury.

Goal 2: Project on "Holy Boldness" with Bishop Felton May as the key speaker. CANCELLED.

Goal 3: Continue to expand the Parish Nurse Ministry to reach out to more people within the Conference. SUCCESS.

Helped sponsor delegate to National Health Ministries Association Conference in Colorado Springs; delegate to 11th Annual Westberg Symposium in Chicago; and Parish Nurse Preparation Program at John Penrose Virden Center, Lewes, DE.

Goal 4: Continue the cooperative venture with PUMH and other agencies to spread the interconnectedness of health with spiritual, mental and physical well-being is one of the most important items that should remain on the agenda of Conference in the years ahead. SUCCESS.

Actively involved with PUMH sponsored activities; helped sponsor delegate to Black Methodist Conference in Chicago; National Association of Social Workers Annual Membership dues; and supported Delaware Region Health Ministries Network.

SECTION 3: Changes to 1998 goals. None.

SECTION 4: The 1998 Goals are continued for 1999:

1. To continue to assist local churches in the education of members on various health ministry programs through seminars and mailings.
2. To continue to train and expand the Health Ministries and Parish Nurse Ministry programs to reach out to more and more people within the Conference area.
3. To assist in the further implementation of Delaware Region Health Ministries Network (DRHMN). This is an interfaith association of individuals, congregations, and institutions joined together to promote whole-person health.
4. To continue the cooperative venture with other agencies to continue to spread the interconnectedness of health with spiritual, mental and physical well being.

PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST HOMES, INC.

The following information about Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. (PUMH) is printed because the Conference and PUMH share a common mission although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH.

(A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, adopted June 1985).

PUMH provides retirement housing and health care services to approximately 1300 senior adults in Delaware and Maryland. It owns and operates Methodist Country House in Greenville, Delaware; Cokesbury Village in Hockessin, Delaware; and Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware, all continuing care retirement communities (CCRCs). PUMH also manages a skilled nursing facility, The Layton Home for Aged Persons, in Wilmington, Delaware and Heron Point, a CCRC located in Chestertown, Maryland which is owned by PUMH of Maryland. The five communities serve a total of approximately 1,300 residents and employ 1,000 people.

Mission Statement: "In keeping with the strong religious heritage expressed by our founders in 1954, we are committed to providing the highest possible quality of life for the older adults whom we serve. We meet their changing needs compassionately and efficiently by maintaining our leadership in standards of excellence in retirement and health care services. We affirm the individuality and dignity of our residents and employees, strive for diversity among them and pursue our ministry of care in a socially responsible manner."

The above Mission Statement reflects PUMH's goals for the past year and our continuing goals for the future. Continuous improvement in services and service delivery remains uppermost in all of our efforts in order to better serve our current residents and reach out to others.

This year we broke ground for the wellness center at the Methodist Manor House. It will provide aquatic therapies and activities with low-intensity aquatic programs and workouts and other therapies. Adult day-care will be another feature, with special activities programs and meals included and optional medical services. Twenty one- and two-bedroom apartments will also be located in this addition, which is called the Henlopen Wing.

Outreach activities this year included a joint venture with Gilman Development/Gracious Living of Wilmington, Delaware to develop a senior housing village of cottages, apartments and an assisted living facility with Alzheimer's care. This new venture will be Hidden Pond Village at Ocean Pines, near Ocean City, Maryland. The first condominium type apartments are expected to be completed for early 1999 occupancy.

PUMH continued to support the Parish Nurse Program in Delaware. This program was developed by PUMH and others to deliver primary health care in urban and rural settings, to large and small congregations, and to people of all ages, ethnic and cultural backgrounds. It continues to train and support additional nurses since its development in Delaware in 1993.

PUMH also takes pride in its continuing relationship with the 106-year-old Layton Home, which serves urban Wilmington. With a majority of Medicaid patients, Layton Home serves a largely African-American population in downtown Wilmington, Delaware.

This year phase two of a two million dollar campaign was successfully completed, and permits Layton Home to continue to upgrade facilities and equipment and better serve residents.

In January 1998 the PUMH Board of Trustees voted to enter into discussions with Asbury Services, Inc. of Gaithersburg, Maryland and Wesley Affiliated Services of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania to evaluate the development of an affiliation among these three organizations. The discussions will focus on opportunities, through some combination of the three organizations, to improve the delivery and quality of services each provides.

At the annual meeting of the PUMH board of trustees in September 1997, PUMH presented its George H. Piguero Founder's Award to Dr. Rudolph H. Beckert. Dr. Beckert has been the medical director at the Methodist Manor House since it opened in 1966. He was cited as an excellent diagnostician and caring resident advocate.

The Amelia Layton Founder's Award was given to Mrs. Winifred P. Primo at the Layton Home annual dinner in March 1997. Mrs. Primo was recognized for exceptional volunteer efforts and service to Layton Home and its residents over the past 11 years. A Cokesbury Village resident, Mrs. Primo also visits residents in other area nursing homes in Wilmington.

We are deeply appreciative of the support which Annual Conference churches and members give to the benevolence work of PUMH. The benevolence assistance which PUMH provided to residents in 1997 totaled $307,500.

(A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH of Maryland, Inc. and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, adopted June 5, 1990.)

PUMH of Maryland, Inc. owns Heron Point, a progressive and active life care retirement community in the unique setting of Chestertown, Maryland. Heron Point is managed under contract by Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. As of early spring, 1998, Heron Point achieved 93% occupancy of its 192 apartments and cottages. Heron Point also offers assisted living and has skilled nursing care available for residents.

Heron Point residents express a high level of satisfaction with their lifestyle and continue to be an important part of the Chestertown community, volunteering in many capacities to improve and maintain the vigor of the area. The cultural and educational opportunities offered by Washington College also play a significant part in Heron Point resident life.

DIVISION OF MISSION

SECTION 1: Review of 1997 Goals

a. Send at least one Volunteer In Mission (VIM) Team from the annual conference.

We exceeded this goal by sending VIM Teams to Costa Rica; Four Corners, New Mexico; and Wilmington, Delaware. During the 1997 Annual Conference of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, four teams worked on projects in Wilmington, Delaware.

The initial planning was begun to send VIM Teams to the following places in 1998: Costa Rica; Zambia, Africa; and Africa University in Zimbabwe.

We are thankful for the capable leadership of Rev. Douglas Lindsay-Hudgins in coordinating the projects for the Volunteer In Mission teams.

b. Train persons to be mission speakers.

Two major events occurred this year that not only equipped people to speak about mission - but to be in mission.

Financial assistance in the amount of $700 was expended to send individuals to the Holy Boldness Urban Convocation in San Francisco, California.

The focus was on ministry in the urban setting.

Financial assistance was also provided to send individuals to Global Gathering III in Kansas City, Missouri. The focus was on ministry for children.

c. Encourage 10% of congregations to enter a covenant relationship with a missionary and 5% becoming Global Mission Partners.

The Conference Board of Global Ministries' exhibit at annual conference provided information regarding covenant relationships with missionaries and information on becoming Global Mission Partners.

A supplement in the Communicator listed the missionaries supported by churches within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and encouraged others to support them.

d. Encourage each congregation to give at least $1.00 per member to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR).

Information was mailed to each congregation to encourage them to support UMCOR.

e. Assist pastors and/or seminary students who have been assigned to churches to attend the 1997 School of Christian Mission.

One pastor received a scholarship to attend the 1997 School of Christian Mission.

SECTION 2: Other Highlights of 1997

a. Africa University

Commitment of the churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to raising $65,000 by the time of the 1999 Annual Conference to endow a scholarship at Africa University.

We are grateful to Kevin Goodwin for his tireless efforts on behalf of this project.

b. Promotion of Zambia Sewing Machine Project.

$1,303 has been given to purchase 13 hand sewing machines in Zambia.

The sewing machines will be used in a self-help sewing program started by Mildred Hamilton in the Copperbelt District.

We are grateful to the churches and individuals who have made this possible.

c. Financial assistance in the amount of $500 was provided for a young person to go to Kenya as a missionary.

SECTION 3: Changes to 1998 Goals - Although there have been changes in the budget, we are planning to pursue our goals for 1998 as they were originally presented.

SECTION 4: 1999 Goals

The purpose of the Division of Mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is to promote the support of mission and encourage participation in mission on the local, national, and world levels.

- a. Volunteers in Mission - To encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on mission experience.
- b. United Methodist Committee on Relief - To increase giving of time, money, and in kind assistance to the United Methodist Committee on Relief.
- c. Encouraging Mission Involvement - To encourage involvement in mission as well as support for missionaries.
- d. Mission Speakers Bureau - To develop a resource of individuals/groups who are willing to promote UM missions by sharing their mission experience and/or informing groups about the opportunities for mission involvement within the United Methodist framework.
- e. Refugee Concerns - To promote and coordinate sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Carol Faye Sieg
Chairperson

DIVISION OF PARISH AND CONFERENCE MINISTRIES

The following sections deal with the evaluation of our goals for 1997 as well as provide our projected goals for 1999.

Section 1: Review of 1997 Goals.

a. Continue Meaningful Relationships with our Partners:

Even our relationship with such partners as Neuva Vida and Salisbury Urban Ministry, etc., is based on the funding we provide, yet we are kept abreast of these successful programs, which we hope will become models for new Mission Area Ministries.

b. Celebrate the Success of Outreach-Mission Oriented Ministries: In our role as a catalyst for mission base ministries, and programs that are intended to assist changing communities, we are often contacted by parishes in our annual conference, who see opportunities for ministries in their communities but who need our support in order to launch them. In 1997, two such endeavors were the OASIS Ministries (a fledgling Mission Area Ministry), in Snow Hill Maryland and the MOT Area Project conducted by the Middletown-Dale's Charge of New Castle, Delaware.

c. Conduct Workshops: No workshops were conducted in 1997, for the simple reason that we were waiting for the dust to clear on the Mission Area Ministry issue.

d. To Fund New Initiatives:

These are programs that fall under our area, which were conceived after it was possible for them to receive "New Ventures" funding, but which had all the trappings of necessary programs for their respective communities. We were able to fund three such programs in 1997, two of which have already been mentioned.

e. Seek Means to Effectively Communicate With Mission Areas:

Our Division started a column in the Communicator, titled "Mission Area Ministry Swap Shop", through which we hope to solicit input from those engaged in Mission Area Ministry, as well as share with the Annual Conference, information that may be helpful and encouraging for establishing these programs, elsewhere.

Section 2: Significant Accomplishments & Challenges:

As a Division, we hardly see any of our activities as accomplishments to be declared as significant, on their own merit. However, in our role as a catalyst and in our partnerships with organizations and charges across our conference's landscape, that significant ministries will be developed and maintained.

Section 3: Changes for 1998 Goals:

We have been contacted by the office of the Mission Area Administrator, to be partners in the various workshops and seminars that will be held in 1998. This is very important, to the extent that it will help us to also continue to have significant input in establishing Mission Area Ministries.

Section 4: 1999 Goals:

We envision that in 1999, more cooperative Mission Area based ministries will exist, as a result of what would have been learned and information that would have been shared, during the period July 1997 to the end of 1998. Our role would more than ever, require that we help to promote efficiency and growth in areas of Mission Area Ministry.

1999 Goals

Our goals for 1999 border on the following:

1. That as part of our tasks, we promote a healthy medium for sharing various models of Mission Area Ministries that exist around the annual conference.
2. To the extent that the foregoing may require them, seminars or workshops will be held to promote understanding and growth.
3. We will continue our relationship with our ongoing partners, to the extent of forming a repository for or directory of Successful Mission Area Ministries in our annual conference. We will attempt to work very closely with the Director of Mission Area Ministry.

SALISBURY URBAN MINISTRIES

This year brought many changes to Salisbury Urban Ministries. Our office relocated to Asbury United Methodist Church because our former office building was being sold. Contracting with Asbury Church for personnel services and supplies and sharing resources provided a financial savings for the program and a team of support. We continued to strengthen our ministry by focusing on the goals set for 1997.

Our 1997 goals included reorganization of the ministry, starting a financial assistance program and combined food pantry, hiring a volunteer coordinator, continuing the ministry of God's Kitchen, including a Sunday feeding program, and providing more opportunities for cooperative worship.

1. Responding to the goal of looking at the organization, the structure and organization of Urban Ministries was established with an organizational chart being shared with the Parish Council. Responsibilities of the committees were outlined. An Advisory Board was formed with key community leaders to give guidance and direction for our ministry. This board recognizes the challenges of nonprofit organizations, the community needs, and resources for funding.

2. A volunteer coordinator, Mrs. Virginia Catley, was hired part-time to develop and maintain a human resource gift bank and to coordinate a cooperative financial assistance program and food pantry. She is developing ways of involving volunteers in the financial assistance program called the Lazarus Fund. The food pantry is currently open on Tuesdays at Riverside United Methodist Church. Volunteers are the continuing success of God's Kitchen. Volunteers from the various congregations were also a part of the summer children's program at Grace Church and with the tutoring program held at St. Andrews Church.

The Lazarus Fund helped 132 families or individuals financially in the first four and a half months of operation.

3. More participation in the feeding program, God's Kitchen, has come from four other United Methodist churches joining the rotating schedule. They are Rockawalkin, St. Paul's in Hebron, and the UMYF of Ocean Pines Community Church. Christ's Community Presbyterian Church has also participated in God's Kitchen. Perdue's Salisbury Processing Plant and the staff of Smith, Cropper, and Deeley Insurance Group in Willards, Maryland, became involved in the program in 1997. Each company will be a part of the regular rotation. This step is important in creating greater visibility and support in the Salisbury community. God's Kitchen was nominated for the Richard A. Henson Award of Excellence. Although we did not receive the award, the nomination helps develop community awareness of our ministry.

God's Kitchen served an estimated 6,604 meals in 1997.

4. Salisbury Urban Ministries wanted to start a bag lunch feeding program to be distributed on Sundays. After concerns were raised on the issue of food safety, the program was put on hold.

5. The churches participated in a Mission Area Bible Study, a worship service on the Psalms, a Faith and Healing Service, three Good Friday services, the fourth annual choir camp, and a candlelight walk with a hymn sing and a communion service.

The 1998 and 1999 goals of Salisbury Urban Ministries are as follows:

God's Kitchen will strive to involve more churches and organizations in feeding the poor and to involve the recipients of the program in leadership and worship opportunities. Salisbury Urban Ministries will address the needs of the children who come to God's Kitchen. We are working to add another location to expand the feeding program.

The outreach ministry of the Lazarus Fund will focus on strengthening the cooperation of the churches in order to serve more people. We will look at adding an additional location for the food pantry and financial assistance program.

The Urban Choir Camp will continue to expand the involvement of the multi-cultural community in student participation, leadership, and staff. The camp will promote and encourage an appreciation and understanding of different cultural styles of music. The camp will include drama, music, leadership, dance, and use of musical instruments.

Increasing the number of youth participants, adult volunteers, and congregations in the Youth Council is one of the goals of the Council. The Council will promote participation in District and Conference youth activities. The Council will focus on involving youth in mission with a mission trip to Arizona and helping in God's Kitchen in Salisbury. The Council will promote and offer opportunities for student leadership.

A goal for all the programs of Salisbury Urban Ministries is to make the congregations of the participating churches more aware of the cooperative outreach ministries of their congregations through Salisbury Urban Ministries. This will be done through the continuing efforts of the staff, volunteers, and pastors.

Through the efforts of many dedicated volunteers, Parish Council and committee members, pastors, and growing number of congregations, Salisbury Urban Ministries continues to grow and to develop programs that are reaching and ministering to the many impoverished people in the Salisbury area.

METHODIST ACTION PROGRAM

Introduction

"Creating Communities of Compassion through Christian Faith in Action" is the Methodist Action Program's vision statement. Adopted late in 1996, this statement expresses an understanding of the ministry and mission of MAP that is becoming more and more evident. It provides insight into the three historic and recently re-affirmed components of the Mission Statement:

"Helping individuals, congregations, and communities

- Meet Human Needs,
- Promote Positive Social Change, and
- Facilitate Church Development through the transforming power of Jesus Christ."

Meeting Human Needs

Every congregation in our Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference encounters members and neighbors who have pressing human needs; practically every church reaches out in one way or another to help. For thirty-two years MAP has directed a major part of its effort at alleviating basic human needs. The programs have changed over the years and the kinds of help provided have varied. But information, referral, food, housing assistance, clothing, loving attention and the Gospel of Jesus Christ have always been offered to the limit of resources to all persons in severe need. During this past year MAP has sought to meet human need through the following programs.

Old Asbury Homeless Ministries

The homeless problem in the lower Business District of Wilmington came to the Methodist Action Program because of our ownership of the Old Asbury Church building at Third and Walnut Streets. Agencies and programs needing space to minister to the many homeless and hungry in that geographical area have requested MAP's participation in these problems. The Emmanuel Dining Room serves meals to an average of 175 hungry persons each day -- people who might not eat were it not for this program. Friendship House works with some three hundred people a year, helping those wishing to rebuild their lives to make new beginnings. FAITH Center helped three hundred families to keep their homes and families together in its first ten months.

Common Bond touches ten to fifty homeless people at a time, a couple hundred a year; this spiritual ministry helps some street people put the rest of the helps into a context for new life in the Spirit. The Old Asbury Homeless Ministries is a collaborative project. By housing and interrelating these four programs in the same building, paid substantially out of a State grant-in-aid, the combined impact of these programs helps more people rebuild their lives than the programs could do independently.

The Ministry of Caring located its Emmanuel (East) Dining Room in our building in 1980; through this program people who are hungry can eat one good meal a day, seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year. MAP has provided space and utilities without charge for this ministry over all of these years. MAP has also encouraged United Methodist Congregations throughout the County to support this feeding program. Friendship House located its Men's Center programming and administrative offices at the Old Asbury Church in November, 1995; hospitality, case management, and other services are provided on this site and transitional housing is administered from this office. MAP provides space and utilities without charge for this agency. The FAITH Center initiated programming at Old Asbury Church in February, 1997; during the first ten and a half months this agency distributed $95,000 in emergency assistance with basic human needs to prevent people from becoming homeless. This project was created by eighteen churches to coordinate their financial assistance efforts to individuals; Westminster Presbyterian Church temporarily administers the funds and supervises the project. MAP provides space, utilities, office supplies and equipment, and most of one staff person to this project. The FAITH Center is exploring alternative management and administration patterns so that it can grow beyond the limits of the present arrangements. In addition to the emergency financial assistance and information, the FAITH Center is planning to initiate some group counseling and case management programming to provide additional opportunities for individuals and families to salvage their troubled lives before falling into the seemingly bottomless pit of homelessness. The Common Bond ministry -- preaching, Bible teaching, and testifying religious programming -- is the final part of the collaborative homeless assistance and homeless prevention program. It is not appropriate for United Way or State of Delaware funds; it lives or dies in the generosity of the United Methodist Community.

The four projects housed in the Old Asbury Church building are clearly separate programs, serving different aspects of homelessness. Alone, each does important things for the homeless; together, via coordination meetings and individual consultations, they begin to focus homeless people's attention and energy on new life and on a more wholesome and generous life style. The in-house agencies coordinate and cooperate with the Sunday Breakfast Mission, The Salvation Army, Eighth Street Baptist Church, other Ministry of Caring programs, and some of the independent food and clothing distribution projects. Through these programs, individuals are assisted in accessing essentially all of the public and private services that are appropriate to their situations. As this collaboration increases even more, two nearly seamless sets of services will be available, one to prevent homelessness and the other to minister to those who are down and out so that they might again rise toward abundant living.

The homeless prevention project, the FAITH Center, helps those who are referred by members and other religious congregations and those who refer themselves for financial assistance. A rigorous screening process attempts to insure that help is provided to documented situations where one-time help can probably get the persons through the crisis and back on track for normal living. Therefore, an unexpected illness or a temporary period of unemployment need not destroy a family's chances for successful living. (The number of people needing this service is hard to estimate; it far exceeds all of the programming and resources available at the current time. Welfare reform will likely increase the number of people needing help, although sanctions do not create a condition for which financial assistance is now granted.) The other target population is those persons who are now homeless. Many of the men stay in the Sunday Breakfast Mission, one hundred a night. Others, men and women, stay in the emergency shelters of The Salvation Army, the Ministry of Caring, the YWCA, and Friendship House. Some people live in vacant houses, in make-shift shanties under bridges, and in even less believable situations. (Estimates vary, perhaps three to four hundred people are homeless at any one time).

MAP interrelates the four in-house programs and relates them to other community resources for hurting and homeless people. Greater interaction among agencies serving homeless populations and increased numbers of inter-program referrals results from MAP's influence on the collaborating agencies.

Centro Los Abuelos: The Grandparents Center

The Hispanic populations are the fastest growing segment of the Delaware community. Some Hispanics have lived in our community long enough to have reached retirement here. Others have been brought to this community by children who could not leave their parents behind when they migrated to this country to build better lives. In either case, many Hispanic senior citizens have become isolated in a foreign culture where an unfamiliar language is spoken; their lives are often lonely and they are sometimes desperately poor. There is only one senior center in the State of Delaware that programs intentionally for the Hispanic senior citizens: Centro Los Abuelos.

Centro Los Abuelos is a Spanish language and culture senior center program that is designed to promote social relationships and to stimulate creative growth. It is a center for information, referral, assistance, and services for Hispanic elderly persons.

Programming is conducted in the following areas: social and recreational activities, nutrition, transportation, personal problem resolution, health maintenance, and information and referral.

Presently Centro Los Abuelos is a participant in some of the programming provided by the State of Delaware, Division of Services for Aging and Adults with Physical Disabilities, most notably, the Nutrition Program operated by City Fare. A variety of shared programming has been attempted with Wilmington's Department of Parks and Recreation, other senior programs, interested churches, and other agencies. Language has been a continuing and perplexing problem. Where language is not a problem (the Latin American Community Center), some of the seniors are participating in the Foster Grandparent Program with day care children. Conversations continue with the Latin American Community Center regarding the best programming opportunities for Hispanic seniors. First an Hispanic vision committee and now a program development committee of persons active in the Wilmington area Hispanic community are being consulted for guidance in further developing this program.

The target population is elderly persons of Hispanic language and culture. Federal and State guidelines suggest a definition of sixty years of age and older for all participants. Many of these seniors are quite needy financially, few are able to pay any significant program fees. Some participants know the English language moderately well, many speak little or no English; many are unable or afraid to use or request services that are otherwise available to them from public and private agencies throughout the area. And, unfortunately for program efficiency, the Hispanic seniors served by Centro Los Abuelos live with their families in neighborhoods spread throughout much of the County; the agency van travels more than one hundred miles a day to pick-up and return program participants. Centro Los Abuelos provides Hispanic seniors a healthier and happier quality of life through participation in the agency programming. Through the program activities the elderly are helped to have a fuller range of their needs met and to gain greater opportunities for quality living through assisted access to available private and public resources.

Last spring a Vision Committee of persons active in the Wilmington Hispanic Community recommended that the Methodist Action Program, currently providing the only Hispanic senior center in the State of Delaware, attempt to expand and upgrade the programming of Centro Los Abuelos. A committee of Hispanic persons, chaired by Rev. Jeremias Rojas who is a member of the Boards of Directors of both the Latin American Community Center and of the Methodist Action Program, is being gathered to review program and funding options for Centro Los Abuelos in order to report to the Board of the Methodist Action Program. Community needs, participant verbal evaluations of the program, and staff comments will all be used in assessing current and future programming. The Board committee will review the entire program to make recommendations during the late summer or early fall.

Food Assistance Ministries

The economy is good -- for many people, but not all people. MAP continues to help people feed their families when times are difficult. Combining the food offerings of a number of United Methodist Churches in the Greater Wilmington area with a little Federal emergency funding and the resources of the Food Bank of Delaware, food assistance is provided in two forms.

An Emergency Food Closet has been operated on the site of Centro Los Abuelos for several years. Families and individuals who would otherwise be hungry are provided a few days' provisions. More than one thousand times during the year food was given to an individual or family in a food crisis. Thanks to the generosity of those who have enough and some to share, these thousands of people -- mostly children -- do not have to be hungry.

Because of the seemingly endless emergency need for food, non-crisis food ministries have been hard to sustain. MAP is again operating a "Brown Bag Club" in the Old Asbury Church neighborhood. Through this program of the Food Bank of Delaware persons with very low incomes can receive on-going food assistance in a program that is coupled with community and family education activities.

MAP is looking to expand both emergency and non-crisis food assistance programs through interested United Methodist Churches. The first MAP assisted emergency food closet opened in the Harriet Tubman Community UMC in January; in this instance MAP provided most start-up costs and is providing half of the on-going costs of stocking the closet with food donated through the Food Bank of Delaware.

Other churches will probably open emergency food closets through the assistance of MAP in the months and years ahead.

MAP WALK for Housing

With the co-sponsorship of PNC Bank, MAP conducted its seventh annual MAP WALK for Housing. By means of these five and fifteen kilometer walks, MAP raised $40,376.29. About a sixth of the net proceeds were returned to "partner" non-profit organizations which received back half of all that their walkers raised. The balance, after all expenses were paid, was distributed in equal portions to support Friendship House, Habitat for Humanity of New Castle County, Interfaith Housing Delaware, Sojourners' Place, and MAP's Old Asbury Homeless Ministries.

Promoting Positive Social Change

Social and other changes are, of course, inevitable. Working to promote positive growth in community values and in individual and group opportunities in the midst of all of the social change is our Church's task. MAP has tried to participate in this process in a number of ways over the years. There is never enough energy or will to overcome all of the forces for negative change. MAP led campaigns against racism and gambling. MAP talked about welfare reform twenty-five years before it became a national issue. But, changes throughout our Conference community still seem to be more negative than positive. In many of our neighborhoods, United Methodists nearly out number everyone else; we need to do better; our United Methodist Christian heritage has much good to offer our society. Working for positive social change is an important focus for each of our churches; MAP needs to try harder to focus our attention on the critical issues now facing our society.

Delaware Ecumenical Council on Children and Families

During this past year, MAP with the remaining officers, including MAP's Executive Director, of the Delaware Ecumenical Council began rebuilding this grass-roots organization. Concentrating mostly on maternal and child health issues, the Council has received Federal, State, and General Church funding. A health education project was developed early last fall and a larger, multi-year organizational development project is begun. In simplest terms, the Ecumenical Council is helping religious congregations connect at-risk and needy people in their neighborhoods with the available public and private services looking to serve them. Through this programming, congregations create and sustain important relationships with their neighborhoods while their needy neighbors receive the help they need. Through this programming religious congregations have an inexpensive and easily available opportunity to minister to their neighbors and their communities have a chance to see these churches as caring participants in their physical, social, economic and spiritual struggles.

With a Kendall grant from the General Board of Global Ministries, the Ecumenical Council is engaging teens in ten or twelve weekly sessions on at-risk behaviors. Partnering with Volunteers in Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention, this project seeks to help teens make better decisions on issues of sexuality, alcohol, narcotics, violence, and other behaviors that put them at risk of danger. A follow-up to a successful project by the Public Allies program, this project is expected to touch directly about 160 teenagers. It is also expected to generate a program curriculum and training opportunity for the activity's use in all interested churches with their neighborhoods.

During 1998 in New Castle County and 1999 throughout the State of Delaware, the Ecumenical Council invites interested congregations to work on health, education, and general welfare issues and concerns in their communities. This programming helps the neighborhoods served and it helps the churches doing the serving.

Advocacy

There are so many issues; they are all important. During this year MAP worked on the following:

- Infant Mortality and Morbidity,
- Child Health and Welfare,
- Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention,
- Welfare Reform, and
- State and Local Homelessness.

Facilitating Church Development

New congregations and revitalized congregations, church development efforts seek to contact un-churched and under-churched people to invite them to the Church and to new life in Christ. The development of new congregations is the strategy in growing communities where too few churches exist or where existing congregations seem to be unwilling to include new neighbors in their programming and fellowship.

Revitalization typically involves helping a congregation connect and identify with its local community and to redevelop its programming to address the Gospel with its neighborhood.

New Church Development

New church development activities did not break new ground during this year.

Consolidation and further development were the emphasis.

The Nueva Vida mission congregation has begun moving toward becoming financially capable of supporting itself; with continued progress, outside financing may not be needed after three or four more years. The recent appointment of a part-time lay pastor appears to be providing enough professional leadership for gradual growth and development while staying closer to the financial capability of the congregation.

The Hope Church mission congregation, after two and a quarter years of development, chose to merge into the Skyline Church. While the Hope experiment came to an end, the Skyline congregation got a big boost.

Common Bond looks like a new congregation growing out of the ashes of the Mother of Wilmington Churches, Old Asbury. But, it is not a mission congregation or even a new church start; it is a ministry to men and women who are homeless. Preaching, singing, praying, testifying, Bible studying -- all of the stuff of a church; Common Bond helps homeless people re-focus their lives in Christ. Common Bond helps homeless men and women discover what God has in mind for humanity and for them; it helps them access the available services for rebuilding their lives in body, mind, and spirit. Common Bond will never become a church because it sends its successes out into other churches so that it can concentrate on those who are struggling. How happy God must be when one of the ones lost on the streets of Wilmington is found, when love and hope and joy and peace is given to a neighbor in need.

Congregational Revitalization

The obvious form for church development seems to be the most difficult. With so many churches spread throughout the geography, how can the United Methodist Church need to worry about church development? But, too many churches are stagnant or dying while brand new communities are moving into their neighborhoods. Instead of withdrawing into themselves and withering toward death, these churches need to reach to all of the folks that God has provided for them to love.

MAP has struggled for thirty-two years to learn to help congregations re-focus on their neighborhoods. But this knowledge is seldom used because few churches have been willing and able to commit themselves to sharing the Gospel to their changing and changed communities, to loving their new neighbors enough to risk their lives for them. By encouragement and consultation and by financial assistance for programming that connects congregations with their neighborhoods, MAP has begun again to assist churches in transformation and revitalization.

When Old Asbury Church was being made available for new homeless ministries, the After School Educational Enrichment Program was given to Ezion - Mt. Carmel UMC Church with partial funding for three years. The moved program helped Ezion - Mt. Carmel connect in a new way with its neighborhood. The temporary funding permitted the Church to prepare itself financially for the new ministry.

The Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program had been based in Camp Pecometh on a multi-church format. Three years ago MAP funded the adaptation of that important Conference project for use in neighborhood-based congregations and the implementation of the resulting Outpost Program in the Harriet R. Tubman Community United Methodist Church (formerly named Brandywine-Trinity UMC); continuing subsidies have helped to maintain that program that offers the Gospel and the church's love to neighborhood youth in its troubled community. During 1997 two more churches, Mt. Joy UMC and Calvary UMC, were introduced to and trained in operating their own Outpost Programs to help them connect with neighborhood children, teens, and their families.

The Dale's Memorial Church needed to help Afro-American youth comprehend and cope with Ku Klux Klan activity in their neighborhood; MAP provided financial support for a seminar. And, MAP provided consultation and behind-the-scenes assistance in helping the Middletown community secure a programming unit of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Delaware.

In north-west Cecil County, MAP consulted with two churches, pastors, and lay leadership to encourage the development of what is now called the Ray of Hope Mission. In north-east Cecil County, MAP initiated a discussion about congregational revitalization that might lead to one or more existing churches' reaching out to the suburban development in the area.

Students, Volunteers, and Local Missionaries

Many communities and congregations cry out for new church development and/or for revitalization. MAP's resources of staff and funding are very limited. Therefore, MAP is inviting interested persons to help in a variety of "affordable" processes. Seminary student field assignments, student internships, lay volunteers, and local missionaries living on subsistent support are all available possibilities for future funding. Persons with commitments to particular communities or to appropriate programs are invited to discuss MAP support for their projects. An initial listing of possible projects is available for interested persons, who can telephone (302-CALL-MAP) the central office, to explore a role in the following ministries:

- * Hispanic National Plan Church Development,
- * Class Meeting Ministries for the Un-churched,
- * Satellite Ministries to the Un-churched,
- * Old Neighborhood Church Revitalization,
- * Rural Community Church Revitalization,
- * Suburban Rural Church to Suburban Church Revitalization,
- * Rural Community Services Development,
- * Ministries to the Homeless, and
- * Ministries to the Disenfranchised.

Administrative Activities

Administration is the oil that makes the agency operate efficiently. Like oil and grease, administrative and management functions are often unseen. Publicity and public relations gradually increase the community and Conference's awareness of the agency and its programs; sometimes it results in increased contributions. Some projects that start out as administrative explorations develop into funded program activities; others never get out of committee. It is the administration that enables good programming to develop and prosper so that the agency can be about its ministry and mission.

St. Joseph's Project: A Mission Park

Twenty-five years ago the Roman Catholic order of the Josephites ceased operations at the St. Joseph's Reform School for Boys on the edge of Clayton, Delaware. This past fall MAP was asked by a local committee to help secure the facility of 200 to 300 acres including a school building, a retreat center, an administration building, and a chapel. MAP has counseled the local group, helped to form a steering committee for the development of a mission park, and has assisted in a number of ways to explore financing and programming options for this fascinating property. What may (or may not) come of this extensive effort is not yet apparent. Perhaps during the next Conference year this project will take form for development.

Local Church Lay Representatives

All Wilmington District churches have been reminded and encouraged to elect a Lay Representative to the Methodist Action Program. The Lay Reps. have been meeting regularly to increase the two-way information flow on MAP accomplishments, programs, and activities and on opportunities for assistance in program development in local churches. The Lay Reps. have assisted in designing some program activities and in implementing them in their congregations. They have taken responsibility for the Annual Meeting at which reports are given, members of the Board of Directors are elected, and awards are given. The Lay Representatives coordinate the ministry and mission of the Methodist Action Program with the needs and opportunities of the local United Methodist Churches and their communities.

Annual Meeting

In memory of Mr. Samuel McKay who helped found the Methodist Action Program, the 1997 Annual Meeting recognized the following persons who put their faith in action in exemplary ways:

- * Mrs. Mary Browne, St. Paul's UMC,
- * Mrs. Natalie Dyke, Aldersgate UMC, and
- * Mr. Allen Streett, Kingswood UMC.

Directors (members of the Board of Directors) who were completing their terms in office were recognized:

- * Rev. Donald Alford, Board Secretary,
- * Mr. Elias Vidro, and
- * Mr. Robert L. Watson, Jr., Board Vice President.

New Directors were elected:

- * Mr. Gregory Gordon, Common Bond;
- * Rev. Jack Shitama, Chesapeake City Charge, and
- * Mr. William Steward, Hockessin UMC.

Later in the year Rev. James Walz (Union Church) had to resign and Rev. Jeremias Rojas (Asbury Church, New Castle) was elected a Director.

Board and Staff Training

Twelve persons (staff, directors, and urban pastors) were assisted in attending the Holy Boldness Urban Consultation in November. Several staff and directors have attended training events conducted by the Delaware Association of Non-Profit Agencies.

New Home for Central Office

Grace Church, Wilmington, has for thirty-two years provided office space for MAP in Bassett Hall, its former parsonage at Ninth and Washington Streets. For audit purposes, these cost free offices have been valued at $14,000 a year. Grace Church, therefore, has contributed $448,000 to the MAP program. Thank you, Grace Church, for your long and generous support.

But, Bassett Hall is being removed. MAP has found new office space in the Tower Office Park in Newport, Delaware. MAP's new address and telephone numbers are the following:

New Address: Methodist Action Program
240 N. James Street, Suite B-2A
Wilmington, Delaware 19804-3167
Temporary Telephone: (302) 255-1042
Telephone: (302) CALL-MAP
Temporary Facsimile: (302) 255-1044
Facsimile: (302) CALL-FAX

Thank You, Peninsula-Delaware Conference

Last year our Peninsula-Delaware Conference leadership made some hard financial decisions that required a substantial cut in the Conference's support to the Methodist Action Program. The reduction in income would have been especially difficult because MAP is having to find rent money for the first time this year.

In the Special November Session the Conference voted nearly unanimously not to reduce MAP's funding, but to maintain MAP's financial support at the previous year's level even at the cost of deficit financing. You cannot know how significant your action is; it is a tremendous vote of confidence. Thank you, Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION & CAMPUS MINISTRY

I. Review of 1997 Goals

Campus ministry in our Conference faced many challenges during 1997. Dr. Homer Minus retired after nine years of devoted service as Wesley Foundation Director at Delaware State University. The Board is grateful for his faith, energy and direction of that program and he will be missed. We are pleased that he has volunteered to continue on the Board. We welcomed Dr. Richard Hicks as the new Director of the Wesley Foundation at Delaware State at the end of the year. Dr. Hicks was not able to assume his ministry immediately because of an unexpected and serious illness. We thank God for his recovery and look forward to working with him. We also lost the services of Mrs. Vera Patterson as Wesley Foundation Director at Salisbury State University during the year. Dr. Philip Bosserman was appointed to that position during the summer, and his vision, energy and leadership are already having a profound impact in that ministry. Reverend Laura Lee Wilson underwent major heart surgery during the summer, but with the support of her students and colleagues and her own indomitable spirit has kept the flame of ministry going at the University of Delaware. The Board is grateful for her steady recovery. In the midst of all these unexpected challenges, the Board felt called to reassess some of our goals and to move in some new directions which we had not envisioned a year earlier.

We moved forward in our goal to keep local churches aware of the willingness and availability of Conference Board members, Wesley Foundation Directors, students and Chaplains to share the vision of campus ministry and to educate the local church as to the work of campus ministry and chaplaincy, in a number of ways:

1. We began to develop a web-page for the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry.
2. The Wesley Foundation ministries at both Salisbury State University and the University of Delaware created web-pages, which will be linked to the Board page, and we are encouraging the other campus ministries within the Conference to do the same.
3. We explored options for the creation of a video on our campus ministries and are in a position now to develop and distribute such a resource in 1998.
4. We put together information on United Methodist scholarships and loans, and that pamphlet is now available to all those who inquire and can be sent to local churches.
5. We fostered campus ministries through our display booth at the Annual Conference and through our presentations at Conference, including the Francis Asbury Award given to Rev. Clifford Armour for his outstanding contributions to campus ministry at all levels of the Church over a lifetime.

We supported the Black College Fund, United Methodist Student Day, and Africa University in our display at the 1997 Annual Conference. We also participated in the Black College Student Ambassador program, welcoming Justin Roberts, a very dynamic and engaging young man from Dillard University, to address our Annual Conference.

Our 1997 Inter-Campus Retreat failed to materialize, and this failure led us to reassess that program as we looked toward 1998. In keeping with our mission of empowering campus ministers and chaplains in helping students unite faith, knowledge, and practice, the Board decided to redirect the funds previously committed to the Retreat program by making modest program grants to each campus ministry within the Conference.

Part of the Board's ministry and one which we take very seriously and gratefully is the granting of scholarships to students from our Conference who attend United Methodist colleges and universities or seminaries. In 1997 we made a United Methodist Foundation grant to Mrs. Anna Maddox Foster, a member of Waugh United Methodist Church in Cambridge, MD. The Conference Merit Scholarship grant went to Mr. Troy Vincent Fennell of Whatcoat United Methodist Church in Dover, DE.

The Board did not feel it was ready in 1997 to carry out its evaluation of the campus ministry at Salisbury State University. We are moving forward in the process of establishing procedures and mechanisms for the evaluation process and expect to evaluate the Salisbury State Wesley Foundation ministry in 1998.

II. Review of 1998 Goals

One of our goals for 1998 was to have in place a reporting mechanism by which local pastors would inform us of the names and locations of students from their congregations who are away at college. This would enable us to facilitate putting campus ministers in touch with them. Thus far we have been somewhat frustrated in this effort, but we plan to move ahead with a letter to the chairpersons for higher education or for Christian Education at local churches throughout the conference.

We will work to distribute our pamphlet on United Methodist scholarships and loans more widely within the Conference, and are also making that information available on our web-page. Our Inter-Campus Retreat for 1998 is planned for the weekend of February 21 at Camp Pecometh. An additional goal for 1998, however, is to develop a mechanism by which our students themselves will take possession of the planning of these events. We would like to use the United Methodist Student Movement Advisory Committee, which will have representatives from all our campuses as such a planning body.

We also anticipate meeting with appropriate persons from the Conference during 1998 to discuss the restructuring of our Conference-level ministries and the place of Higher Education and Campus Ministry within that restructuring. Our goal is to insure that our ministries are strengthened by any changes which are made and that our Conference sees campus ministry as a critical mission area which should assume high priority in the years ahead.

We continue to work toward the goal of establishing a Wesley Foundation ministry at Washington College.

III. Goals for 1999

1. Our primary goal of improving communication between our local churches and campus ministries is on-going. We will work to make available to all our local congregations the resources we are developing in 1998: web-page, video, scholarship information pamphlet, and a Guidebook on Campus Ministry in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
2. We will continue to promote faith and scholarship among the young people in our Conference by soliciting applications and making financial grants through the United Methodist Foundation Scholarship Program and the Conference Merit Scholarship Program.
3. We will assist our campus ministers and the students in our Wesley Foundation ministries in planning and resourcing an inter-campus event or events.
4. We will continue to work toward the goal of heightening the awareness of the critical importance of campus ministry as a mission area as our Conference moves forward in the restructuring process.

5. We will host a Black College Ambassador at Annual Conference to promote the Black College Fund, and we will continue our commitment to and support of Africa University.

6. We will promote United Methodist Student Day.

7. We will continue in the process of evaluating each campus ministry within our Conference on a rotating basis as a means of supporting that ministry's Director and students as they continue to engage in ministries that are as excellent and faithful to the Gospel as possible.

WESLEY COLLEGE

The faculty, staff, and students of Wesley College extend their greetings to the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church. We are pleased to present this report.

There is a growing discussion nationally about whether there is a place for religion in educating our young people. I know that at Wesley College the community is open to discussing religious issues and related values. The mission of a college should not only be to provide young people with a higher education and prepare them for a career, but also to help them learn the skills to be good citizens throughout their lives. A moral education is not a new idea. In fact, many institutions of higher education – particularly church-affiliated, liberal arts colleges like Wesley – have always been committed to the moral development of students and to instill in them the values they need to become good citizens and leaders in their communities.

I am proud of the ways in which Wesley's United Methodist affiliation and religious issues have been an integral part of the Wesley community and its accomplishments during the past year.

One of the reasons I came to Wesley College was its relation to the church. Having grown up in the church, graduated from church-affiliated undergraduate, professional, and graduate schools, and having spent my entire teaching and administrative career in such settings, not surprisingly, I am an outspoken advocate of Christian higher education.

Given all of the issues facing private higher education today, ambiguities about our mission will not serve us well. As you can tell from our institutional mission statement, and the discussions that brought them into being, our College's identity is inextricably bound to its affiliation to the church. Wesley College, by virtue of good planning on someone's part, has the church connection as part of our name. I can assure you that it is written on our hearts as well.

The need for thorough discussion on campus (about the mission of Christian higher education) is one of the reasons I will initiate "faith and the academy" discussions at Wesley this coming year. I was surprised initially how many faculty colleagues viewed such discussions as my pressing an agenda, which they identified with the religious right. Their reaction suggests to me that the United Methodist Church and other major communions need to revitalize conversations about the church's mission in higher education, for we seem to have allowed others to define the nature of the debate and its outcomes.

United Methodist colleges must offer something different from the education provided at our sister, secular institutions. Teaching and learning at a United Methodist college must entail a difference. I hope that "faith and the academy" discussions can help Wesley develop a new paradigm of teaching, learning, and curricular design. I don't expect instant changes, but I do believe the academic and social culture can be furthered in such a way that we can discuss the importance of Christian citizenship, civic responsibility, an appreciation of human difference under the rule of God, and building a society committed to justice and duty. The biblical faith that sees a unity to creation might just have something important to say about the unity of knowledge as we design a curriculum where students are invited to see the whole and not just the parts unconnected.

United Methodist colleges need to be concerned about the fragmentation that seems to be taking place in the academy – seen in lack of community, civility, cohesiveness in curriculum, and sometimes good common sense. We should avoid the temptation to be enclaves, but rather we can be places where serious work is being done addressing the problems facing the whole of higher education. In matters such as the worth of people, the meaning and purpose of life, the nature of truth, the character of the academy itself – we have significant contributions to make.

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the colleges related to it can be models to the rest of the church in church-college relations in the next century. In fact, that should be our goal. We can achieve this without compromising the uniqueness of the colleges nor the commitments the church has in other areas of mission. At Wesley I am appointing a United Methodist Advisory Committee to provide counsel on strengthening our ties to the church. There is more at stake here than dollars to the operating budgets, scholarships, and even places to hold youth rallies and annual conference. Our foundational stories and identities involve the church.

In its academic program, Wesley remains committed to the liberal arts and seeks to make its curriculum relevant to changing educational needs. Our general education curriculum, developed by our own faculty and staff, is a model for residential liberal arts colleges, and I am proud of the emphasis it gives to the development of writing, speaking, and mathematical skills in all our academic programs. Wesley challenges its students to a life-long commitment to develop their intellectual, ethical, spiritual, and leadership potential and to set and uphold standards of excellence. The College is a community of learning based on fundamental principles formed at the intersection of Christian faith and liberal education: intellectual rigor, self-discovery, human dignity, mutual support, social justice, self-discipline, mental and physical wellness, the appreciation of diversity and the natural world, and the judicious use of resources. The College recognizes and affirms its interdependence with external communities—local, regional, national, and global—and its covenant with the people of Delaware to share its educational and cultural resources. Clearly, Wesley takes pride in its past and energetically continues to seek effective means to serve the educational needs of the Mid-Atlantic region.

*Wesley is the only college in the United States to have a campus-based Boys and Girls Club. The program affords educational opportunities for undergraduate students at Wesley and provides year-round, safe educational and recreational opportunities for disadvantaged youth from throughout Delaware.

*Wesley is the new home of a charter school (The Campus and Community School), offering alternative educational opportunities for students in grades 1-8. The School will serve as a laboratory for Wesley students enrolled in teacher education.

*Wesley is a partner with the YMCA of Delaware in providing an addiction counseling center.

*Wesley is listed in Stanford University's "Critical Comparisons" and Rugg's "Best Colleges" rankings for quality and value.

*Wesley is the home of Children's Theater of Kent County, offering dramatic arts opportunities for over 200 school youths.

*Wesley is a leader among NCAA Division III institutions with 13 intercollegiate sports for men and women. The Wolverines are new members of the Pennsylvania Athletic Conference in all sports except football. Wesley competes in the new Atlantic Central Athletic Conference in football.

*Wesley is the home of a fall Culture Arts Series and Faculty Lecture Series for the benefit of students and the surrounding communities.

*Wesley is an international campus with students from 17 foreign countries. Study abroad opportunities are available in Europe, Costa Rica, and Japan.

*Wesley is a major economic contributor to the State of Delaware. The college has an annual economic impact of over $40 million and a physical plant valued at $46 million (replacement value).

*Wesley is a good neighbor and partner with the Dover Air Force Base, offering educational opportunities to over 300 military personnel and their families each year.

*Wesley is an innovative leader in environmental studies, offering nearby off-campus learning opportunities at Inland Bays Center and DuPont Corporation.

*Wesley is one of the unique institutions in the country offering a special Freshman Academic Success Track (FASTrack) program. This program is a partnership (covenant) among the students, parents, and College to work with students as they strive to reach their academic Potential.

*Wesley's core curriculum, known as WISE (Wesley Interdisciplinary Seminar Experience), provides a holistic national model for undergraduate education.

*Wesley, in partnership with a major national educational enterprise, will be extending its services and educational programs statewide.

Clearly, this is an exhilarating time to be on the campus of Wesley. During the next nine months, the College will expend $3.5 million in private funds for capital improvements on the campus. Renovations and restorations are planned for the Wesley Chapel, structures at 22 and 28 N. State Street, Residence Halls and the Dulany Dining Hall. New tennis courts and an outdoor student facility will be constructed. Other capital improvements will include a student communications center, science and technology upgrades, campus beautification and deferred maintenance. To assist in communicating the wonderful things which are occurring at Wesley College, we have significantly expanded our worldwide website with daily postings of news and information. Sections have been added focusing on the College, the United Methodist Church, and the life of John Wesley. By accessing my personal website, you will find speeches, newspaper columns, and position papers relevant to the College.

We at Wesley value the continuing relationship with the United Methodist Church and we appreciate the support of the College's educational mission.

President of the College

Wesley College
The Chaplaincy

The Chaplaincy Program continues to give focus in three areas:

- 1.) Providing opportunities for spiritual growth for the Wesley College community.
- 2.) Cooperating with the President, the Trustees, the Bishop, and the leadership of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church, to craft and maintain a meaningful covenant relationship between the College and the Church.
- 3) To determine those ways in which the values of the Church may be reflected in the conduct of the mission and daily life of the College. Together the Annual conference and the College have taken on a shared ministry.

Our shared ministry is one that gathers strength and momentum as we seek to forge new paradigms for mission and ministry, while simultaneously being faithful to the vital message of God's grace, love, and justice in a complex world. We understand that our future must be grounded in our heritage, our theological perspective, and our sense of responsibility; but most of all it must be grounded on a firm missional foundation that will carry us into the twenty-first century.

1997 Goals

1. To continue to enhance recruitment and retention and to implement methodologies which will discover students who will value the mission of the College and bond quickly with the Wesley College experience.
- Successful.
2. To strengthen our gift income yield that our program-driven Campus Master Plan may be implemented in a timely manner and introduced to a wider and wider constituency of interested persons.
- Tremendously successful - owing to new administration.
3. To continue the process of self-study in preparation for Wesley's next regularly scheduled on-site reaccreditation visit from the Commission on higher Education of the Middle States Accrediting Association.
-Continuing. Middle States visit scheduled for Spring 1999.
4. To cooperate increasingly with the Church in engaging the Church and Wesley College together in outreach to the wider community while giving steady witness to reflecting the values of the Church in the life and activities of the College.
-Measured success.
5. To continue to structure policies and take actions which will contribute to the creation of a holistic campus environment of common purpose, caring, tolerance, inclusiveness, responsibility, and service, which is the heart of our idea of community.

-Measured success. Owing to new administration.

6. To continue giving emphatic attention to making real our resolve to bring ethnic minorities into the mainstream of the College.
-Successful.

1998 Goals

1. To continue to enhance recruitment and retention and to implement methodologies which will discover students who will value the mission of the College and bond quickly with the Wesley College experience.
2. To strengthen our gift income.
3. To continue the preparation for Wesley's next regularly scheduled on-site re-accreditation visit from the Commissions on Higher Education of the Middle States Accrediting Association.
4. To cooperate increasingly with the Church in engaging the Church and Wesley College together in outreach to the wider community while giving steady witness to reflecting the values of the Church in the life and activities of the College.
5. To continue to structure policies and take actions which will contribute to the creation of a holistic campus environment of common purpose, caring tolerance, inclusiveness, responsibility, and service, which is the heart of the concept of community.
6. To continue giving emphatic attention to making real our resolve to bring ethnic minorities into the mainstream of the College.

1999 Goals

1. To continue to enhance recruitment and retention and to implement methodologies which will discover students who will value the mission of the College and bond quickly with the Wesley College experience.
2. To strengthen our gift income.
3. To continue the preparation for Wesley's next regularly scheduled on-site re-accreditation visit from the Commissions on Higher Education of the Middle States Accrediting Association.
4. To cooperate increasingly with the Church in engaging the Church and Wesley College together in outreach to the wider community while giving steady witness to reflecting the values of the Church in the life and activities of the College.
5. To continue to structure policies and take actions which will contribute to the creation of a holistic campus environment of common purpose, caring tolerance, inclusiveness, responsibility, and service, which is the heart of the concept of community.
6. To continue giving emphatic attention to making real our resolve to bring ethnic minorities into the mainstream of the College.

In addition to the on-going nature of the 1998 goals repeated above, we will:

7. Re-double our efforts to deal with inclusiveness on our campus by attending to the totality of our diverse culture that is Wesley College.
8. Plan and host three activities that will promote understanding, knowledge, and wisdom between and among the various campus groups with the Church informing and becoming a part of such an effort.
9. Enlist the assistance of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in the re-consecration of Wesley Chapel for service.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION AT DELAWARE STATE UNIVERSITY A DESCRIPTION OF ITS MINISTRY

The Wesley Foundation seeks to minister to the entire Delaware State University community. That community includes students, faculty, staff and administrators. Although our primary focus is on student ministries, we know that faculty, staff and administrators are more permanent parts of the community. Students leave once they receive their degrees. On the other hand, faculty, staff and administrators are often career people who invest a significant part of their lives in the university. Very often these persons are receptive to programs designed for them. Also, there are times when they experience crises in their lives and our presence can make a significant difference.

Student Ministries

We are concerned about ministry to students as they form the values by which they will make life choices. How will the Christian faith inform their decisions about vocation? Their role in the community? Marriage and family? Politics, peace and justice issues? The environment and other moral and ethical matters?

To assist students during this critical phase of their development we provide programs through the Wesley Club, an on campus Christian student organization. Programs include Bible study, worship, fellowship, discussion groups and service projects. Additionally we provide counseling and encourage participation in inter-collegiate Christian programs and activities, such as the annual retreat; regional, national and international Christian student conferences, the United Methodist Student Movement and the United Methodist Student Forum.

For the growing number of commuter and non-traditional age students we offer a "ministry of presence" through the "listening post", which is a table placed in an area frequented by these students. The table is staffed by an adult volunteer or students who have been trained as listeners. The "listening post" provides an opportunity for students to share concerns and problems. We also provide devotional and other reading materials and a brochure describing the Wesley Foundation, including its campus location and telephone number.

Ministry to Faculty, Staff and Administrators

Again, we provide a "ministry of presence" by informing this part of the community of our presence and availability, location and telephone numbers. We do this through newsletters and other university publications as well as by dropping in at offices, attending university sponsored programs and, generally, making ourselves visible on campus. We also provide services at various ceremonial functions at the university when invited to do so.

Finally, we host a bi-weekly discussion session during the lunch hour. Those who attend bring their lunch and we provide beverages. We discuss issues related to students and the university as well as Biblical and/or theological issues suggested by the group.

WESLEY FOUNDATION CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

Section I 1997 Goals

1. To provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, as well as physical and educational nourishment for the university community.

Met successfully.

2. To provide outreach to the de-churched at the university campus.

Always in process.

3. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.

Met successfully.

4. Encourage students to consider professional ministries as vocations, and to provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.

Met successfully. Had a student attend Exploration '96 and the '97 University Methodist Student Movement Student Forum.

5. Continue to support students who are in the ordination or consecration process.

We currently have one student in seminary whom we support with Prayers, e-mail messages and visitations.

6. Promote with the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to the Book of Discipline.

Met successfully.

7. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to foreign students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.

Always in process with the Center for Black Culture and the Latino Community as well as other minority groups on campus.

8. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches.

Continually in process of educating local churches.

9. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration at the University of Delaware.

Met successfully.

10. See additional means and methods for fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.

The Board of Directors have a fund raising event each month.

11. Foster Board of Directors development.

Always in process.

Section II

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry University of Delaware

The United Methodist Student Movement is alive and well at U of D! We are a vital part of the campus witnessing through our Wesleyan heritage by our presence and our mission for The United Methodist Church. As we encourage the integrating of knowledge and spirituality through an intellectual, spiritual, and material ministry to all God's people, we hold to the vision of the One who has called us to be faithful to the teachings of Jesus the Christ. We are a mission field ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Our toughest challenge continues to be the raising of funds to support our United Methodist presence at the largest academic institution within the boundaries of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The students are interested in the presence of the church, the administration encourages the presence of the church, yet we as the church struggle to maintain our presence. The Board of Directors have prayed and worked without ceasing to raise the funds necessary to maintain a full-time ministry. The efforts in fund raising have been successful to an extent, however, our expenses continue to increase due to growth. The conference support has not increased for the past ten years.

The Covenant Agreement with the Newark United Methodist Church provides Wesley Foundation with much support. Many of our students attend weekly worship services and have been liturgists or communion servers. A highlight each year is the one Sunday designated as University Sunday. The students look forward to this Sunday when they provide all the worship leadership and share with the congregation what is happening in campus ministry. Twice a year, Newark United Methodist Church prepares Exam Week Survival Bags for the students during a crucial time - FINALS.

Opportunities for multi-cultural, ecumenical and interfaith experiences on campus continues. With this generation being the first generation to come of age in a religiously pluralistic society, they are very interested in how other religious traditions depict Jesus. This leads to overly exuberant eclecticism. The multi-religious dialogue is frequent and interfaith and ecumenical worship is experienced. The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware is known for our multi-cultural commitment and our inclusiveness as we share in programming with other communities of faith.

Jesus the Christ is center to all our activities. Our spiritual growth is the center of our lives through retreats, worship, Bible study and Sunday Fellowship. The student lounge provides a quiet, sacred space for the students to meditate, sleep, eat and study. Holding fast to our belief that social activities are an important part of our Christian fellowship, we have shared in parties, sports activities, movie nights, eating, tailgating, Christian Rock concerts, a hayride and various other activities. We were represented at the Northeast Jurisdiction Student Movement Conference with 15 students. Laura Alexander, an active member of WFCM, was an active member of the Steering Team.

Committed to living our Christian discipleship, we continue our service projects in love for the People of God. We have cleaned our highway, served at PeaceMeal, sponsored a blood drive, sorted food at Delaware Food Bank and collected gifts for persons living with HIV/AIDS. Several of our students volunteer on the AIDS Hotline, the Literacy Council, Big Brothers/Sisters and various other community service projects.

Again this year Wesley Foundation was the leader in the Interfaith Celebration of Lights, Universal Day of Prayer for Christian Students, Sexual Assault Worship for Healing, and the Environmental Sabbath Worship. These worship services were well attended and have been requested to be repeated in another academic year.

We continue to have three former Wesley members involved in professional ministry. Drew Cottle is in his third year at Perkins Theological School. Patty Cleveland is serving in Serbia at the Center for Nonviolent Conflict Resolution through the Brethren Volunteer Service. Angie Burkholder is teaching children in the mission field in Bolivia.

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry continues to be in ministry to the whole campus community. Our Campus Pastor/Executive Director serves on the President's Commission to Promote Racial and Cultural Diversity, the Commission on Sexuality, Sexual Assault Awareness Week Team, the Campus Diversity Unit, the Christian Denominational Campus Ministers' group, the University Religious Leaders' Organization, the Religious Concerns Caucus, New Student Orientation Diversity Leader, NCBI Welcoming Diversity workshop leader, mentor for colleagues in campus ministry (locally and nationally), developing and leading workshops for the profession Residence Life Staff. Pastoral care/counseling is provided to the entire campus community either by referrals or by individual request. Because of several anti-semitic articles which appeared in the campus newspaper, The Review, a ministry of mediation was provided.

The vital presence of The United Methodist Church is at the University of Delaware through the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry. The United Methodist Student Movement is growing at U of D. God is ever-present in our challenging ministry as we continue to be faithful people, nurturing faithful minds for faithful lives. The church is needed on our campuses. May we as the church never forget the importance of the mission field called a university/college campus. It is part of our Wesleyan heritage.

Mission Statement

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware, a mission carried out in and through the love and grace of Jesus the Christ, provides a program focusing on the spiritual, service, stewardship and social aspects of the Holy Spirit, is offered to the university community. The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry provides a vital United Methodist presence at the University of Delaware.

Reaffirmed 2/9/98

1999 Goals

1. Educate the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as to the vitality and significance of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware so we may continue to provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, as well as physical and educational nourishment for the entire university community.
2. Provide outreach to the *de-churched at the university.
3. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
4. Encourage students to consider professional ministries as vocations, and to provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.
5. Continue to support students who are in the ordination or consecration process.
6. Promote with the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to the Book of Discipline.
7. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to foreign students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.
8. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches.
9. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration at the University of Delaware.

10. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.

11. Foster Board of Directors development.

1998 Annual Conference Reports Covering 1997 Program Year and 1999 Goals

SECTION 1: 1997 Goals

1. To provide opportunity for spiritual growth within the college campus setting and to promote outreach to the un-churched and the university campus.

Regular meetings each week provide a setting for those students who gather to grow spiritually by considering issues which impact on their lives. A principal one is finding courage to express the good news of the gospel in the midst of a secular campus. 1 Timothy 4:12 seems to express it best: "Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but be an example for believers in your speech, your conduct, your love, faith, and purity." And for non-believers as well, I might add. We intersperse Bible study with singing, good food, solid and light-hearted discussions, prayer and praise. Participation has tripled from last year with 13 active members.

2. Student participation in community outreach through volunteer programs.

Members work with children at the Fruitland Community Center. This tutoring program convenes each Saturday morning for three hours. The children who attend range from first grade through high school. SSU UMSM members who participate find it most gratifying.

3. Encourage members to broaden their Christian experience by other means outside of our fellowship.

The SSU UMSM attended the Northeastern Jurisdiction gathering in New York City the weekend of October 24-26, 1997. The theme was "New Spirit, New Heart, New York." It was a significant spiritual event in both the life of each person who went and the group itself. The program allowed us to visit and in some instances to have hands-on experience in one of the many projects and programs in NYC supported and organized by Christian churches and other religious groups. We stayed at the Cathedral of St John the Divine, an Episcopal church, which was in itself a deeply moving spiritual occasion. In fact, our current tutoring project grew out of this weekend's influence on each of us.

4. Prepare the students for future involvement and leadership in the United Methodist Church.

We have developed a close relationship with Asbury United Methodist Church. Our group took the initiative, mainly through the leadership of Nicholas Piatrowski, to create a Sunday School class for college-age students. Nick leads the class. This close affiliation with Asbury allows students to be part of a church program and fellowship. They feel they are an integral part of the congregation which is due to the great work of people like Rev. Cindy Quillen, Shirley Cropper and Rev. Glen Catley.

The inspiring, dedicated, and energetic leadership of President Stephanie Moffitt and Vice-President Ken Johnson has animated the group and they are excellent role models for the other members.

5. Group service project.

See number 2 above.

6. Weekly fellowship to build spiritual awareness through Bible study.

Two weekly occasions promote this goal: the Wednesday evening gatherings and the Sunday morning class and Church service.

7. Encourage the return of inter-campus retreat with other Wesley Foundations.

Once again, the inter-campus retreat failed to materialize and represents a great disappointment, an unfulfilled purpose which we must examine prayerfully and systematically the reasons why this failed for the third straight year.

8. Outreach to increase membership.

Our membership has increased three fold this year but we can do much more and the group has this as a priority for the remaining months of the academic year. To this end we publish a monthly newsletter, IN EVERY PLACE A VOICE, and have our own web page at <www.thewebster.com/umsm>. Please visit us and give us any suggestion and feedback for improvement! We have also developed some public relations pieces which we give out as frequently as we can. We are organizing a phone and e-mail tree to make sure we stay connected to one another and to widen our network.

SECTION 2:

See item 3 above.

SECTION 3

We added a social justice and peace dimension to our UMSM goals. We state it this way: Jesus' ministry began and ended by being "in every place a voice" for the last, the lost, and the least of our community and greater society. This theme is central to what the United Methodist Student Movement does in the campus community here: to be such a voice, to have such a purpose, to do something worthwhile. Mother Teresa's statement of faith sums up our endeavor

The fruit of silence is prayer

The fruit of prayer is faith

The fruit of faith is love

The fruit of love is service

The fruit of service is peace.

SECTION 4
An Introduction to 1999 goals

The overall goal of the SSU UMSM (Wesley Foundation) is to create a community grounded in the gospel of God's amazing grace through Jesus Christ. That it will be a real community which meets the multi-faceted needs of the students who participate; that we continue to grow spiritually by deepening our personal piety and practice, ministering to each other's hurts and periods of despair; celebrating our joys and significant events with song, praise, thanksgiving; that we continue to try to be "in every place a voice" Jesus' voice, hands, feet, heart and spirit; to be his disciples. We pray for the courage to be faithful each day. In this spirit we affirm the following goals:

1. To provide opportunity for the genuine deepening of students' spiritual life among those who live on the college campus and those who commute.
2. To provide opportunity for student members of the SSU UMSM (Wesley Foundation) to participate in volunteer programs of service to the last, the lost and the least of our community.
3. To provide opportunity for SSU UMSM members to broaden their Christian experience by going beyond the local fellowship in attending conferences, work camps, work-study seminars, summer work/travel occasions, retreats, and the like, both here in this region and beyond, including international happenings and events.
4. To provide concrete opportunities for developing members leadership skills empowering them to be committed constituents of the United Methodist Church and other Christian fellowships.
5. To provide opportunity to communicate and net work with other UMSM (Wesley Foundation) groups in the conference and beyond, leading to genuine fellowship and community building, thereby strengthening and expanding the members' experiences with diversity, and celebrating the unity which abides in the oneness of Christ Jesus.
6. To provide opportunity for SSU UMSM members to be active in telling others about the story of their group, its grounding in the person of Jesus, witnessing to the saving grace of God for each person and the social groups which make up society.

BOARD OF LAITY

SECTION I

1. Increase the Partnership in Ministry for the Local Church Lay Leader and Pastor through a weekend workshop. Goal is 50 churches (100 people each year.)

The workshops were scheduled but then were canceled since the professor from Wesley Seminary could not make it at the last minute.

Working with the Mission Area Ministries' Leadership Development Team we established a News Print resource of Leadership Development Opportunities for the coming year.

2. Provide the Lay Members to the Annual Conference with training and guide books to improve the ministry between the local church and the conference. We will develop a video for first time members to understand on and how to do things at the conference.

The Guide Books were updated and made more useful to all who attend the conference. We had separate sessions for Lay and for Clergy. The Clergy wanted copies of the updated Guidebooks as well as the Laity.

The video was not made since the script was not approved nor the actors obtained.

3. Promote and train lay people in all three ministries of Lay Speaking; Caring, Leadership and Speaking. Our Goal is to have 1000 Lay Speakers in our Conference. Our Utilization Goal is to be at 85% usage in the Conference.

Each of the Districts had more advanced courses in all three areas. We also developed some of our own courses, i.e. Enjoying the Discipline.

We now have 1143 Lay Speakers (both Local and Certified) in our Conference.

Based on all of the Lay Speakers annual reports, the Utilization of Lay Speakers is approximately 82%.

4. Work with the District Boards of Laity, United Methodist Men, Women, Youth, Older Adults, and all other organized lay groups to promote the awareness of the role of the laity to live out the mission of the United Methodist Church.

We had two District Board of Laity helping the District Superintendent with Charge Conferences. This gave both churches and Laity how we are partnering and how we are using the connection between the local church and the District.

At Annual Conference, we had leadership sitting with the Bishop to assist with the operation of the conference.

Board of Laity will continue to dialogue with the UMM and UMW in order to develop cooperative mission outreach.

5. Develop and install a plan to help local churches increase the lay ministry to ensure that all of the Laity are truly "Ministers."

The Mission Area Ministries is starting to take over this program.

6. Work with the Conference, Districts, and Local Churches to develop leadership for the proposed organizational changes.

The Leadership Development Team, which is part of Mission Area Ministries, is working on establishing resources for different leader requirements. We are part of this team.

SECTION II
HIGHLIGHTS OF OTHER EVENTS

LAY SPEAKING/LAY SPEAKER'S ACADEMY

The four Districts had over 500+ attend with over 130 new Local Church Speakers. (The remaining 470+ took the advanced courses.) Different programs were tried, to increase the Spiritual growth of each lay person.

Mission Area Ministries

The Boards of Laity participated in many different activities from MAM which included:

- Mission Area Bible studies - Leader and student.
- Covenant Discipleship Workshop.
- Praise and Communion Services.
- District Youth Rallies.
- MAM "Camp Meetings."

DAY APART

Rev. Dr. Jonathan E. Baker conducted the 9th Annual Day Apart for the Boards of Laity. This was again a Spiritual Growth Activity for the Laity. This day was outstanding for all of the interaction that was going on.

CLERGY LAITY BANQUETS

All four Districts had their individual Banquets: Dover - 150 present - Hispanic Ministries; Easton - 175 attended - Theme, Youth Leaders; Salisbury - 150 present - Theme, Music; Wilmington - 190 present - Theme, Christian Education.

The Conference Clergy Lay Banquet was held at the Salisbury Youth and Civic Center with 1350 attending. Dr. Ben Carson was the speaker. We sponsored over 30 youth for this event.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Conference Board of Laity did not have a Laity Session at the two hundred thirteenth Session. In place of that we had greater participation in the running of the actual Sessions. The conference Lay Leader did not give a Laity address, nor did the Bishop give a State of the Church Message. In place of these addresses, a grass roots example from several lay members of conference explaining what they did to increase Christ's presence in their areas.

THE ORDER OF ST. BARNABAS

The Board of Laity again sponsored the Order of St. Barnabas and the presentation of its awards, which are based on "creative Stewardship" for Target Prayer, Time, Treasure and Talent. The 1997 inductees were:

- Individual - Josephine Branford, Epworth, Rehoboth Beach, DE

- Danny Foxwell, St. John's, Fruitland, MD
 - L. Justin Keyser, Wilmington, DE
 - Laurence Manlove, Mount Olivet, Seaford, DE
 - Robert Crosswell, Trappe, Trappe, MD
- Honorary
- Bishop Peter Weaver
 - Dr. Benjamin Carson

As we continue the work of Lay Ministries, we need to think about what we are doing, pray about all of these items, and then follow God's leading.

Conference Lay Leader,
Chairman

REVISED STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 1998

1. Increase the Partnership in Ministry of Local Church Lay Leaders and Clergy through the Leadership Development Team's Opportunities. Increase by 5% total participation.
2. Increase the training of Lay Members and Reserves of the Annual Conference through Pre-Conference training at each District by District Board of Laity.
3. Continue the Lay Speaking Program in each District with a 5% increase in new speakers. Develop one new Advanced Course each year.
4. Work with District Boards of Laity, UMM, UMW, Youth and all other organized groups to establish more Spiritual Leadership.
5. Develop a plan to help Local Churches increase the knowledge that all Laity are "Ministers."
6. Work with Youth to develop Youth Leadership Courses.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 1999

1. Continue work with the Leadership Development Team and establish 2 new courses each year.
2. Develop a video for training Lay Members and Reserves of the Annual Conference.
3. Increase Lay Speakers by 5%. Develop two new courses.
4. Develop a new Lay Spiritual Leadership course.
5. Work with the Bishop to have a "Bishop's Day Apart for Laity."

6. Work with the Youth Council to develop and sponsor a Youth as a delegate to General or NEJ Conference.

ORDER OF ST. BARNABAS 1999 GOALS

1. Encourage and motivate all to reflect on Biblical standards of stewardship through education.
2. Current members to serve as models for Mission Area Ministry.
3. Increase the St. Barnabas participation by 5%. Increase the awards by one additional.
4. Compose and issue a booklet listing members of the Order of St. Barnabas.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

To God be the glory, great things God has done! We have had a wonderful and exciting year at the Board of Pensions. At our July 24, 1997, meeting, upon recommendation by the Investment Committee, the Board voted to liquidate $5.2 million of investments to be able to significantly reduce the current unfunded liability. The Investment Committee will continue to ensure that the remaining investments are well diversified and earning rates that will eventually allow the Board of Pension to pay off the remaining unfunded liability in 1998.

The Board of Pensions and the Investment Committee continue to meet six times a year. The Insurance Benefits Committee, the Pension Luncheon Committee, and the Retirement Seminar Committee meet on an as-needed basis.

The Board of Pension is pleased to recommend an increase in the past service rate, from $344 in 1998 to $368 in 1999. A new unfunded liability will be created on 1/1/99 of $1.2 million as a result of this rate change. The liability will be funded in 1999 from Conference Apportionments and Endowment Funds.

Accomplished Goals

1. A Retirement/Financial Seminar, with continuing education credit, was held on September 24, 1997, at Wesley College for clergy who are retiring in the near future, as well as for clergy interested in learning about financial preparation for future retirement.
2. The Insurance Benefits Committee continues to examine the current benefits and look for ways to improve the Conference insurance coverage.
3. A Retirement Luncheon was held last year on May 7, 1997, and plans for this year's luncheon are already underway.
4. The Investment Committee accomplished the goal of reducing the unfunded liability.
5. The Board of Pensions continues to send the "Taking Care" magazine to all Pastors and has recommended an increase in the past service rate.

1999 Goals

1. The Investment Committee will continue to work with PNC Bank and monitor the investments.
2. A Retirement Luncheon will be held on May 13, 1998, for retiring and retired clergy.

3. The Board of Pensions will carefully make decisions for setting the past service rate for the year 2000.
4. The Insurance Committee will continue to monitor our health coverage and make recommendations.

To God be the glory, great things God will do!

Special thanks: to Elaine Wilkerson for her dedicated service in helping clergy and laity with health and pension benefits. Her empathy and knowledge has been a great help to so many. Also special thanks to Bill Westbrook for watching over our financial investments and for his fine counsel. Finally, to all the members of the Board of Pensions both past and present for their prayers, patience and dedication. January 1, 1998, was a great day in the Life of our Church and Conference as the unfunded liability was greatly reduced.

To God be the glory, great things God has done!

1. Pastors who are appointed to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the first time, must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in the health, dental, life and pension programs.
 - A. Pastors leaving appointment in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefit programs.
 - B. Pastors having changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, adoptions, death, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events.
2. Each pastor is responsible to keep the Conference Business office and the General Board of Pensions apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary.
3. Local churches are reminded that they are responsible for the full cost of the dependent portion of the health and dental program for their clergy family.
4. You can help contribute to the continued success of our health program by becoming familiar with and using the preventative benefits of your program. You should also be receiving a publication called "Taking Care". Please take the time to read it. It will benefit you and your health program.
5. Pastors may call The General Board of Pensions any time to find out the status of their retirement benefits. That toll free number is 1-800-851-2201.

Board of Pensions Resolution

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 1999 be set at $368 per year of approved service.
2. Up to 100% of the pension and disability payments received by a retired pastor or pastor on disability be designated as the permitted housing allowance for 1999. (I.R.S. restricts this allowance to the pastor. The surviving spouse does not qualify.)

BOARD OF TRUSTEES
PENINSULA-DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Subject: Creation of a Committee:

Based on our experience over the past two years we are requesting the Annual Conference to approve the naming of a new committee. We suggest that this committee be created for a term of no more than two years and to begin its work as soon as appointed.

Such a committee, once established, will be charged with the responsibility of seeking the sponsoring of legislation in the Delaware Legislature that will recognize The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church as the legal guide in matters relating to the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

As a conference we live with the laws of both Maryland and Delaware. Our experience as Trustees has shown that legal matters are not processed in the same manner in both states. Maryland recognizes The Book of Discipline. We hope that in counsel with the current Delaware Legislature a way can be found to incorporate The Book of Discipline into its legal code.

We request that this session of the Annual Conference ask the Bishop to name a committee that will work to seek legislation that will enable The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church to be accepted as the legal guide for all matters related to the churches and clergy of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference by the Legislature of the State of Delaware.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY
1998 REPORT

Our 1997 anniversary service had an excellent preacher in the person of the Rev. John McEllenney. He did an outstanding job of presenting our history as our heritage and as a guide to the future. People of all ages continue to have a wonderful time at our Christmas Carol service. This service is an excellent way to prepare for Christmas. As anticipated, the May 1997 annual meeting of the Northeastern Jurisdiction of the Commissions on Archives and History, was a great success. People enjoyed themselves from the accommodations to the meals and the camp-meeting tour. All of this was accomplished at a bargain price.

The Commission will be giving top priority to the development of the Permanent Endowment. This endowment is intended to take care of the long-range capital needs of the Chapel and Museum. Regretfully, there has been no more progress on the Delaware Conference History. However, I believe we could be very close. There is money available for publishing a history and a possible manuscript. At the next anniversary service on Sunday Nov. 8, Dr. Leonard Sweet, Dean of Drew Theological Seminary, will be our guest preacher at Barratt's Chapel.

This will be my last report to the Annual Conference. Effective as of April 1, I will be a member of the Commission but no longer chair. I have enjoyed my work as the chair. The Commission is one of the best in the Annual Conference. The Conference itself has always been supportive of the work there, as indicated by the financial support given the Chapel renovation. I hope that the new chair, Ann Roede will find her ministry to be a blessing.

Barratt's Chapel is a Heritage Landmark of The United Methodist Church. The Chapel and Museum are open on Saturdays and Sundays from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Other times may be arranged by contacting the Curator, Lynn Hobbs at 302-335-5544. The Chapel and Museum looks to individuals and churches for two-thirds of its financial support. We are always seeking new materials for our collections. If you are interested in making such a contribution, please write: Barratt's Chapel, 6362 Bay Road, Frederica, DE 19946. If you are interested in making a contribution to our permanent endowment fund, please contact Barratt's at 302-335-5544 or Mr. Parke Hess of the Eastern Pa.- Peninsula Conference United Methodist Foundation at 1-800-828-9093.

Mark M. Pruett-Barnett
Chair

1998 Goals

1. Operate and maintain Barratt's Chapel, the Museum and the Archives.
2. Celebrate the anniversary of the meeting of Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury at Barratt's on the second Sunday of November.
3. Continue work on the Delaware Conference History in line with Strategy One of the Ethnic Church Comprehensive Plan.
4. Sponsor a local church history contest and a local church video contest.
5. Expand holdings and facilities of the Archives and the Museum.
6. Recruit and train local church historians.
7. Pursue conducting an annual colloquium.
8. Build up the permanent endowment in connection with the Eastern Pa.- Peninsula United Methodist Foundation.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Bishop's Award for Christian Unity & Interreligious Concerns was presented at the 1997 Annual Conference Session to Rev. Dr. James Faltot and Carlton H. Parker.

The life and vision of Rev. Howell Wilkins continues to breathe through our planning and efforts. His desire towards unity and ecumenical awareness in our conference will not be forgotten.

In our goal setting with Council Director, Jonathan Baker, we will work cooperatively and inclusively in educating mission area ministries as to the possibilities for increased ecumenical participation and understanding in our communities to empower positive changes that will benefit all brothers and sisters.

Our desire to educate, inform, and effect the lives of our young people from the Conference and other denominations, will be explored and developed over the next few years.

The Bishops Award for Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns will reflect the new shift from clergy/laity awards to recognizing "Mission Area Ministries" that have worked ecumenically.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to District Superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations."

The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 1997 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was $142,000. Funds expended in 1997 totaled $126,383. This represents a decrease of about $33,000 from the previous year. This was made possible through close work with, and much diligence on the part of, the Cabinet. As part of this report, there is attached a list of the churches and/or charges receiving assistance in 1997.

Last year I reported that the Commission had undertaken a two-year study to identify its mission and explore how it could best accomplish that mission. To that end the Commission adopted the following mission statement:

"Your Commission on Equitable Compensation is committed to seeing that each pastor receives fair and equitable compensation. Funds will be administered on a mission priority basis designed to encourage existing congregations to grow and accept full responsibility for their pastoral support and to enable new congregations and missions to be started."

The Commission moved forward this year on several issues:

1. A new application was introduced. It is longer and more complicated than the previous application. Many of the questions are designed to provoke thought and generate discussion. Unlike previous years, if there is no pastoral change, and support was requested for up to five years, a new application will not be required for continued support from year to year. After a church and/or charge has been on equitable compensation for two years, it will meet with the District Superintendent and a representative of the Commission to review the original application and assess the statements and goals made on that application and review the progress that has been made relative to those statements and goals.

2. In years past, the Commission has not utilized a specific method for arriving at the figures selected for minimum salary recommendations. The Commission has adopted a formula related to the Denomination Average Compensation (DAC) to calculate these recommendations in the future.
3. A brochure will be made available this year explaining the purpose of the Commission and how it can help Pastor-Parish Relations Committees. The brochure will contain up-to-date information. Each year, it will be updated and redistributed. It is entitled "Guidelines for Pastor's Compensation".

The Commission will continue to work closely with the Cabinet as we move into Mission Area Ministry. It will continue to search for new and better ways to work with churches and charges to improve pastoral compensation.

Recommendations

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 1999:

Full Member	-	$22,980
Probationary & Associate Member	-	$20,680
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$19,150
Student Pastor	-	$16,470*

*unless a smaller figure is agreed upon by the district Superintendent, student and charge.

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen(15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 1999 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. (The rate for 1998 is 32.5 cents per mile.) The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

COMMITTEE ON RELIGION AND RACE REPORT

1997 marked the end of our quadrennium theme "Custodians of the Faithful." During this time, we assumed the responsibility of challenging and reminding the conference that we have custodial care for one another regardless of individual culture, heritage, gender or social class.

The commission began the 1997-98 year with our annual planning retreat at Drayton Manor. As we enter the 97-98 year, we shall embrace the idea of "God's people gathered together to stir up one another to acts and works of love and compassion." Because our primary task is to confront bigotry and racism, we shall adopt the following working definition for racism: the reasons people of color are burdened by injustice—the socio-economic double standards that punish them because of their bodies; the myths that hold people of color are inferior to non-people of color.

Our goals and objectives for the year include: continue to advocate for and monitor all conference related institutions, agencies, boards and commissions; liaison between CORR and local churches; serve as resource and information body for local churches; assist the Peninsula-Delaware Conference in defining racial inclusion as it relates to Mission Area Ministry; and encourage groups to share through dialogue and listening moments such that we can deal effectively with our fears concerning racism.

Accomplishments:

- supported Rev. Lawrence Livingston (incident and arrest by the Wilmington Police Department)
- donated to the Lincoln-Milford Harrington Charge—consistent with their Mission Area Ministry plan
- MLK, Jr. Symposium: Theme: Weaving Our Lives with Christ: Storytellers Raggatha Calentine (Native American) and Efrain Diaz (Hispanic) shared with us their cultural, social and Christian experiences as we live together in communities of inclusiveness and compassion.
 - Rev. HiRho Y. Park—keynote speaker
 - Palmer Clark --S. Lowan Pitts Award
 - H. Sterling Green --Martin Luther King, Jr. Award

Issues Addressed:

- monitored sessions of Annual Conference
- monitored adjourned session of Annual Conference
- wrote article setting forth rationale for celebrating Black History Month
- attempted to set the example of our diversity (see MLK, Jr. Symposium)
- KKK recruitment activities
- wrote article entitled "Its Back" addressing the resurgence of racist activities and what to do when it comes to your town

Goals for 97-98 and Beyond

- encourage local church religion and race chairs/groups to become active in the fight for racial equality, inclusiveness and diversity appreciation
- offer training and workshops for local church religion and race groups
- encourage all cultural groups to become actively involved in the life of the conference

- honest dialogue about the issues of racism and not the symptoms surrounding racism such that needs are addressed allowing wholeness and respect for human dignity to become the main focus for everyone
- apprise the conference of the status of the 1964 Voting Rights Act in response to Z-18 Resolution on The Freedom Restoration Act

W.E.B. Dubois lamented that the major problem facing America was the problem of race and that America's inability to effectively deal with racism would carry over into the 20th century. Soon, we shall enter the 21st century and we are still carrying the burden of racism. When will we rid ourselves of this evil is the question we must wrestle with, for we can not rest until it raises its ugly head no more.

Until then
William T. Wallace, Sr.

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

In the past year the Commission on Status and Role of Women researched the possibility of holding a conference-wide seminar raising community awareness to domestic violence issues. Due to cost factors for a two-three day event in Ocean City, the seminar has been tabled while alternative conference sites and times are discussed.

Peninsula-Delaware Conference clergy received a reference letter listing book titles for Women Awareness Month in March 1997.

As liaison, The Rev. Sterling Green has continued to bring Peninsula-Delaware Conference concerns to The General Commission on Status and Role of Women.

During the summer, the Commission on Status and Role of Women extended a grant to one clergywoman to the Black Clergy Women of the United Methodist Church and Black Methodist for Church Renewal: Clergywomen's Task Force. The event was August 4-8 in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Commission has responded to three requests to monitor both the 1997 Annual Conference and the Adjourned Session of Annual Conference and the nominating committee process. Written and/or verbal reports were filed with the Council on Ministries and nominating committee.

The General Conference Newsletter, "The Flyer", has been distributed on a regular basis.

Issues and concerns of women clergy have been addressed through appropriate channels. Presently The Rev. Russ Lehman, vice chairperson, is the liaison with committees concerned with clergy compensation packages.

GOALS

To remain as responsive to and reflective on issues involving inclusiveness. To respond to requests to monitor meetings and processes of the conference, and to reserve the right to monitor as needed.

To attempt a seminar/worship service raising consciousness about the issues surrounding Domestic Violence in the Annual Conference.

Respectively Submitted,
The Rev. Leslie G. Slak

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA-PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The Foundation maintains offices in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania and Dover, Delaware. As a member of the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, we are provided with resources and coverage throughout the United States.

Last year, we provided financial consulting services to individuals, churches, agencies, and institutions. We continued our emphasis on financial planning, estate planning, and planned giving. By stimulating planned giving, we particularly helped local churches acquire new assets. In addition, we continued our successful program to establish and promote endowment funds in our local churches.

We manage assets as an investment adviser, investment custodian, investment manager, trustee, and executor. The Foundation is the investment manager for an increasing number of Conference agencies, corporations, local churches, and individuals. With regard to investing, the Foundation carries out the directives of the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church as written in the Book of Discipline.

Next year, we plan to promote our investment management services to clients that desire to invest in equity, fixed income, and money market investments. In addition, we plan to publish materials that will describe all of the Foundation's services throughout the Eastern Pennsylvania and Peninsula-Delaware Conferences. We will be playing a significant role in providing guidance in stewardship and development activities.

The Foundation involves itself with wills, trusts, taxation, securities, life insurance, annuities, retirement plans, real estate, etc. Meetings and seminars are conducted on a regular basis and individual counseling sessions are conducted in a confidential manner. We continue to urge each local church to establish an ongoing emphasis on wills by forming a Planned Giving Committee. The Foundation provides resources and personnel to help any church establish and carry out this urgent work. We distribute the "Planned Giving Handbook," prepared by the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, and other written material free of charge.

The Foundation represents all United Methodist congregations and causes, therefore, it is prepared to assist people who wish to make lasting contributions to churches, institutions, and mission programs or services. For additional information, please call Parke H. Hess, Executive Director, at 1-800-828-9093 or write to him at P.O. Box 820, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania 19482-0820.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The past year was an exciting time in the life of UMW. A new structure went into effect in January, the first change since 1972. These changes mean more flexibility and greater opportunities for women's involvement in the mission outreach of the church.

Our goal to increase membership became a reality with an increase of 139 new members and the chartering of 6 new units for a total of 10,104 members. Each local unit was contacted resulting in 334 local units reporting and each district implemented a visitation program in order to organize a unit in each church. Women's Division recognized our conference with three commendations for increasing membership, 100% reporting and attaining our pledge for the year.

Our goal to increase awareness in the School of Christian Mission was evident by having the largest attendance of 198 in years. This was attained through increased publicity, speaking at the new ministers retreats, GBOGM, and Laity meetings and sending individual letters to clergy. The bible study was taught in the Korean language this year for the first time.

Our involvement in mission was broadened by collection and distribution of hundreds of health kits to abuse centers and shelters for the benefit of women and children. We are responding to the exploitation and violence which is increasing at an alarming rate.

A promised fund was activated which resulted in $1000 extra giving for undesignated giving. Each member was asked to give one dollar towards this initiative.

The telephone ministry for spiritual support was outlined and presented to each district. Full implementation will not be realized until 1998. This will benefit not only senior citizens but ill and shut-in women.

1997 marked the 25th anniversary of United Methodist Women. Many celebrations occurred over the conference where women were given silver special recognition pins which not only honored women but added mission money was received.

The Charter for Racial Justice Committee joined with Virginia and Baltimore-Washington conferences in a two year pilot project. Louise Hess serves as co-chair and this group hopes to be a model for other conferences.

All four districts planned and carried out a young women's retreat in their own district for the first time.

The annual fall meeting at Kent Island UMC highlighted a panel of "Families Living in Different Lifestyles". Election and installation of officers was held.

District Officer training was held at Bethel UMC at Lewes, De. The planning and evaluation for team members was continued at Virden Center through Sunday with Marisa Villarreal, a staff member from Women's Division, in attendance.

The Leadership Training Event in Chicago sponsored by Women's Division was attended by Ramona Anderson, Eusook Ahn, Muff Hurst, and Josephine Merrill.

We look to the 21st century and the challenges that confront us as a community to strengthen us. We will share our vision as we recommit to living out God's vision. We commemorate our heritage and look forward to being at the heart of mission.

Louise Hess,
President

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference are very serious and intentional about partnering and building relationships with the clergy and laity in the life and work of the whole church.

We are, also, serious and intentional about working with all organizations of the United Methodist Church to help create a spiritual base and environment in the home, church, and community.

Our focus and purpose has not changed (United Methodist Men shall be a creative, supportive fellowship of men who seek to know Jesus Christ, to grow spiritually, and to seek daily His will. The primary purpose is to declare the centrality of Christ in the lives of men and in all of their relationships).

Some of our objectives are:

- A) To engage daily in Bible study and prayer.
- B) To bear witness to Christ's way in daily work and in all personal contacts through words and actions.
- C) To engage in Christian service.
- D) To be intentional through partnering to build spiritual relationships in the home, church and community.

Our Challenge:

- 1. To every pastor, male or female, is to start and charter a United Methodist Men's unit in their church.
- 2. To every pastor, as well as the men of their church is to become E.M.S. (Evangelism, Mission, and Spiritual Life) members.
- 3. To all clergy and laity is to become our prayer partners on a daily basis.
- 4. To every church is to invite men of all ages from the community to get involved with the United Methodist Men's group of your church.

Our Commitment

- 1. Is to pray for our Bishop, pastors, churches, and Conference, District, and Local leaders on a daily basis.
- 2. To work with all pastors and laity through partnering to build better and stronger relationships in the church, home, and community.
- 3. To encourage knowledge of support for the total mission of the United Methodist Church.

1999 Goals

1. Continue to work towards establishing a chartered United Methodist Men's unit in every church.
2. Become self-supporting by the year 2001.
3. To have United Methodist Men training workshops on every District.
4. To get more churches throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a United Methodist Men's Sunday.
5. To increase Evangelism, Mission, and Spiritual Life membership by 50%.
6. Start a men's choir on every District.

Support Current UMM Programs

- A) Boy and Girl Scout programs
- B) 4-H programs
- C) Upper Room Prayer Ministry
- D) Moving Members program
- E) Men in Mission program
- F) Evangelism, Mission, and Spiritual Life
- G) Partnering and Building Relationships

July 10-13, 1997, we traveled by bus to the 7th Annual Congress of United Methodist Men at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana.

On September 6-7, 1997, we had Phase I of our Partnering and Building Relationships Workshop at our Camp Pecometh Retreat. Rev. James Hollis of Proactive Evangelism Ministries, Inc. and author of the book, Beyond the Walls, from Douglasville, GA was one of our key workshop leaders. Our other workshop leader was Rev. Rick Vance, Pastor of Bethany United Methodist Church, Berlin, MD and, also, Chairperson of Division of Evangelism, Conference Board of Discipleship. Jonathan Baker set the tone for our retreat at the outdoor chapel. Rev. Terry Lee led us in praise worship and Bible study. Rev. Bill Ross of the Nanticoke Charge closed us out with another dynamic message.

On May 15-16, 1998, we had Phase II of our Partnering and Building Relationships Program. Participants and topics were as follows:

- Rev. Dr. Joseph L. Harris (United Methodist Men in Ministry and Building Relationships).
- Rev. Jonathan E. Baker and Rev. Rick Vance (How We Become Partners in Ministry in All Walks of Life).
- Rev. Terry Lee (Support your Pastor Uphold Your Church).
- Evangelist Rose Mary Cleveland (Building Relationships in the Home and Family—Subtopic Stand By Your Man).

Dates to Remember

August 21-23, 1998 -- Northeast Jurisdiction United Methodist Men will sponsor a training workshop at Radisson Hotel, Mount Laurel, NJ.

September 12-13, 1998 - Peninsula-Delaware Conference United Methodist Men's Annual Retreat at Camp Pecometh.

October 15-18, 1998 - National Black Men's Conference To be held in Atlanta, Georgia

The United Methodist Men are striving to bring about a change through our Spiritual Life Ministry, by partnering and building relationships. We recognize the need for spiritual growth among men and their families, as well as the church and community. By working together in ministry, we can make a difference.

Bill Harman
President

HOWARD MELCHOIR AMOSS

On August 28, 1997, the Rev. Dr. Howard Melchoir Amoss died in York Hospital at York, Pennsylvania. Having been stricken with pneumonia, along with other health problems, he had been a worthy servant of the Lord for 93 years.

The life of Howard M. Amoss is a song of victory. From his humble beginnings as a child until his final days as an aged man, he exemplified a triumphant spirit in every endeavor. Lemuel Howard Amoss and Mary Isidora (Benson) Amoss were his parents. He was born in Upperco, Maryland, September 18, 1903. Living on a farm in Fallston, Maryland, provided Howard with an insight into nature and the practical values of rural life which were instrumental in characterizing the man he was to become.

In the spring of 1916 a dramatic event occurred--Howard and his parents went to Baltimore, Maryland to hear Billy Sunday preach. At the conclusion of the service, Howard joined others as someone guided him to the front where he experienced a genuine conversion. He shook Billy Sunday's hand, confessing that he wanted to be a preacher. His call to ministry was confirmed in August, 1926, while plowing a field. He heard the Voice directing him "to prepare for the ministry." It soon became a foregone conclusion that Howard would quit the farm and prepare for the ministry. With encouragement and direction from his pastor, Clarkson Baner, Howard attended Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, a college preparatory school in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, which is now Lycoming College.

Howard continued his education at Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland, from which he graduated on June 6, 1932, summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in English and history and special honors in Advanced Latin and Greek. That afternoon Howard married Ernestine Anna Oehrli in the Baker Chapel of the college by President Albert Norman Ward.

Howard was ordained as a deacon in 1932 by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes and began his first pastorate at the Pleasant Grove-Patapsco Charge -- $600 annual salary. In September of that year he entered Westminster Theological Seminary, later to become Wesley Theological Seminary.

Just ten miles from the Seminary was Taylorsville, site of the Winfield Charge, the next assignment in June of 1933. During that pastorate, his daughter, Margaret June, was born in Baltimore on March 1, 1935.

Howard graduated from Seminary in May of 1935. The "circuit rider" system of Methodism directed Rev. Amoss and his wife to Bunker Hill, a quiet village between Martinsburg and Winchester in the Shenandoah Valley of West Virginia. While serving that church, Howard published an article, "The Circuit Church in Wartime," in the magazine Christian Advocate.

The song of victory was ringing in the ears of all those who tuned into Howard's preaching as his style became more compelling while serving five churches on Long Green Charge from 1939 to 1944. During that time the second daughter, Dorothy Ann, was born on August 12, 1940, in Baltimore.

A valuable perspective of growing up in the country was an important part of Howard's success in rural churches; in 1942 he made a study of the country church for the East Baltimore District--the paper he presented was heartily received by both Baltimore and Washington preachers and published in the Pastor's Journal. Two years later he was appointed to Grace Methodist Church at Aberdeen, Maryland. Aberdeen was a new dimension in 1944 with 25 to 35 thousand soldiers stationed at the Proving Grounds. Half the congregation was in uniform.

In June of 1948, Rev. Amoss was appointed to the North Avenue Church of Baltimore, a congregation of 1200 members. In 1952 he was elected as a delegate to the General Conference meeting in San Francisco. That same year, he was appointed to Centre Street Methodist Church in Cumberland, Maryland, a congregation of 1700 members. Centre Street served as a host church for area and district activities, missionary rallies, and crusades in evangelism.

In 1955 Rev. Amoss was awarded the honorary doctor of divinity degree by Western Maryland College. It was a credit to an administrator and to a pastor.

In June, 1957, Howard transferred to the Peninsula Conference. Bishop Oxnam executed the appointment to the Bethesda Church in Salisbury, Maryland. Rev. and Mrs. Amoss arrived at their new parsonage to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on June 6, 1957.

Rev. Amoss was appointed District Superintendent of the Easton District in June, 1963. In 1965 the Peninsula Conference merged with the Black Methodists, bringing the Easton District the largest number of Black churches in Methodism. At the conclusion of his superintendency, he was appointed to Zion Church, Cambridge, in 1969.

The status of retirement occurred at the 1972 Annual Conference. Howard referred to his 25 years in the Baltimore Conference and 15 more years in the Peninsula Conference as a church adventure, providing many honors personally appreciated.

On June 13, 1972, he and Ernestine took occupancy of their retirement home in Cape Coral, Florida. What a thrill to own their first real home! Retirement was relaxing, but the call to preach was heard; and the song of victory was ringing in his ears. A new ministry with new dimensions surfaced on the site of an all-Black church in Fort Myers, Florida that desperately needed a pastor. Howard responded and his service was genuinely appreciated.

In 1985 Rev. and Mrs. Amoss moved to Marriott Calusa Harbour Retirement Home in Fort Myers, Florida, where professional, medical care would be available to assist with Ernestine. In spite of his rigorous schedule, he taught a Bible study class each week for 12 years, organized 12 annual holiday programs, acting as the main speaker; participated in activities of several committees, and preached monthly at special services--over 1400 hours of volunteer time per year, before a major bout with illness brought all that to an end in January of 1997. From that moment a series of hospitalizations consumed his energy--but not his spirit!

On April 30, 1997, Howard was transported via an air ambulance from Fort Myers to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and then transported to the Fox Ridge Manor in Dover, Pennsylvania. This was a wise move, for it enabled his loved ones to give the support needed to see him through 44 days of hospitalization during June and July.

To witness the deterioration of a thriving, intelligent person in his final days was an experience beyond description. Death arrived on August 28, 1997.

At her father's request, June Amoss Karschner, of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania, planned a memorial service on November 1, 1997, at the Fork United Methodist Church, in Fork, Maryland. The church was one of the five churches Howard served in 1939. Rev. Robert Carter was the officiating clergyman who assisted in coordinating the order of the service in which Dorothy Amoss Boehm, of Huntsville, Alabama, and other family members participated. All five grandchildren were present.

There are numerous verses or stages in a song of victory; each one is significant within itself, but all, when considered together, constitute a meaningful, complete statement. The ministry of each church Dr. Amoss pastored flourished under his leadership. Demonstrating an amazing flexibility in whatever he pursued, he did so in a manner worthy of the highest standards he had established. Speaking publicly without notes in a creative, spontaneous manner enabled him to bring the message of Christ to thousands. Because of his comprehensive knowledge about the Bible, about history, and about the world at large, those who observed him admired and respected his ability to address topics on various issues intelligently. His disciplined approach to life was his secret of success, for by maintaining a sound schedule each day, he could accomplish whatever he undertook. Perhaps his greatest challenge was discovering a method that worked in caring for his wife after her stroke and being equal physically to the demands placed upon an aged caregiver. Howard was caring, generous, and fair; he was an outstanding pastor, administrator, organizer, speaker, and writer—a husband, father, and grandfather—a friend. He was victorious in the way that he lived and preached, always sustained by the Voice that continued to speak all through his life.

Charles Edward Barton, Jr.

Charles Edward Barton, Jr. was born on March 13, 1929 in Easton, Maryland. He was the first child of Charles E. and Minnie (Calaway) Barton of Springbrook Farm in Queen Anne, Maryland. There soon followed a brother, J. Robert Barton, who still resides at Springbrook Farm and a sister, Ruth Shirley Lewis of Neavitt.

The church was a very important part of the lives of the Barton Family. Growing up in a Christian home meant a very high standard of values for Charles and his siblings. Farm life instilled in Charles a great love of nature and the soil. Springtime meant planting and watching the seed grow to fruition, preparing him for planting spiritual seeds and nurturing them in the years of his ministry.

After graduating from Centreville, Maryland High School in 1946, he enlisted in the United States Army Air Corps, which became the United States Air Force while he was serving in it. He earned the rank of Tech/Sgt. When his 3-year tour of duty ended, he entered the Johns Hopkins University. One year later he was recalled by the Air Force for another tour of duty. He served in Greenland and Iceland as well as on bases in this country, specializing in radio communications.

Charles entered Washington College, graduating in 1956 earning a Bachelor of Science degree majoring in Math/Science. He entered Wesley Theological Seminary in the Fall of 1956 and graduated in 1959 with a Master of Sacred Theology degree.

His call to ministry, quoted from his memoirs:

"There is absolutely no doubt on my part that I was and still am called by God to Christian Ministry as a clergy person. There is no one incident in my life that makes me aware of this. There are many that confirm it. This has been a continuing experience. I now feel that there never was a time in my life that I was not called; there were numerous times in which I ignored the call and others in which I openly fought it..... In November 1955, I was asked to "fill-in" at Bozman-Neavitt until the Superintendent could find a replacement. On November 15 I began the correspondence courses that would provide a lay pastors license. There had been no emotional experience, there had been no specific revelation or sign but I was becoming more and more certain that I could not be satisfied unless I was serving as a pastor."

Charles' appointments included Bozman-Neavitt (1956-57), Concord in Maryland (1957-59), Dorchester Charge in Secretary, Maryland (1959-64), Cheswold, Delaware Charge (1965-72), Elkton-Providence in Elkton, Maryland (1973-82), St. John's in Seaford, Delaware (1982-87), Dover District Superintendent (1988-94), and in 1995 he retired. In 1996 he was asked to serve, under retirement, the East New Market Charge.

On January 20, 1957, Charles was married to the former Mary Joyce Neavitt of Neavitt, Maryland. They have two sons, Charles (Chuck) of Berlin, Maryland and Edward N. of Elkridge, Maryland; two daughters, Jo Anna Birch of Secretary and Mollie Chafey of St. Michaels, four granddaughters, one grandson and one great granddaughter.

Always involved in community activities, Charlie was an active fireman and ambulance attendant for 30 years, serving in fire companies in Secretary, Maryland, Cheswold, Delaware, Elkton, Maryland and Seaford, Delaware. He was Elkton's Fireman of the Year in 1974, Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year in 1979, Chaplain to North East Barracks of the Maryland State Police, Cecil County Jail Advisor and Chaplain.

Conference activities included: Youth Director-Youth being a great part of his ministry, a founder of Pen-Meth Federal Credit Union and Treasurer for it's first 25 years, served on most of the Boards and Committees in the Conference, a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference, co-founder of the old Barn camp and Pioneer camp programs as well as Program Director and Counselor for many Pecometh weeks. In the summer of 1993, he was interim Director of Camp Pecometh. He was the founder of the Conference Youth Rally and Spiritual Director of the Chesapeake Walk to Emmaus for three years. He received the Martin Luther King, Jr. Award and The Order of St. Barnabus Award from the Conference.

ON the evening of March 26, 1998 an Emmaus Communion Service, conducted by Rev. Jonathan Baker with the family acting as servers, was held at St. Lukes United Methodist Church in St. Michaels, Maryland. On Friday afternoon on March 27, 1998 a service of celebration of death and resurrection was held at St. Luke's with Rev. Sandra Steiner Ball officiating, the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton delivered the sermon, Mr. Vernon Ingram gave words of reflection and District Superintendent, Rev. Ronald Bell, read scripture. Hymns and scripture used had been selected by Rev. Barton as the ones especially meaningful to him throughout his ministry.

Known simply as "Charlie" to both the young and old who knew him, his life portrayed that of a humble, yet energetic, servant of God - one who was never too busy or tired to help anyone who needed his help. The most important things in his life were his love for his Heavenly Father and his love for people. A loving husband and father, highlights of family gatherings was telling family stories. He was an avid story teller with a story for every occasion. His life is best summed up by the words of a favorite hymn:

"It only takes a spark to get a fire going,
And soon all those around can warm up in it's glowing.
That's how it is with God's love once you've experienced it;
You spread his love to everyone; you want to pass it on.

What a wondrous time is spring, when all the trees are budding;
The birds begin to sing, the flowers start their blooming.
That's how it is with God's love once you've experienced it;
You want to sing, it's fresh like spring, you want to pass it on.

I wish for you my friend, this happiness that I've found;
You can depend on Him, it matters not where you're bound.
I'll shout it from the mountain-top (PRAISE GOD!)
I want my world to know; the Lord of love has come to me,
I want to pass it on."

Rev. George William Bishop

George William Bishop was born September 14, 1900. One of ten children of Carroll C. Bishop and Zinnie (Evans) Bishop.

He completed 8 years of school in Ocean View Delaware. He was involved with the church all his life. He started writing hymns at the age of 8. He used one of those hymns when he preached his first Easter service in 1909. He entered the Navy in 1919, and became an assistant chaplain aboard the USS North Dakota. The chaplain on the sister ship, South Dakota, was Catholic and they would switch around and do services on each other's ships. By 1935 he had become pastor at Vine Pentecostal Church in Huntington Station, New York.

After his first wife, Katherine, passed away, he quit preaching and started building houses on the Eastern Shore, faithfully attending church. He became a Sunday school teacher in Whaleyville, Maryland. Through a mutual friend, he met the Methodist District Superintendent, Dr. French. In 1956 Dr. French called and asked him to take a charge in Nanticoke, Maryland.

Rev. Bishop was ordained as a Deacon on May 22, 1960 and an Elder in the Methodist Conference on May 19, 1963. He served Nanticoke church from 1957 to 1958. From there he went to Mt. Vernon, MD from 1959 to 1960. In 1961 he went to Frederica, Delaware where he stayed until his retirement in 1972. After retirement he served a church in Deal Island, MD and in 1973 went to Mariners in Crisfield, MD and Trinity in Marion Station where he continued to preach until 1992.

He was active in Civic organizations in Frederica, Delaware where he was a life-time member of Kent County Fireman's Association, a life-time member of Frederica Lions Club and served as chaplain for both organizations. He also served as chaplain for the U.S. Postal Service for Delaware for 11 years and chaplain to the Delaware State House of Delegates and Senate for 11 years. He was also camp advisor for Camp Pecometh. He had a great interest in children.

After Rev. Bishop retired in 1972, he moved to his home in Willards, Maryland. He married Katherine (Helfrich) Bishop in 1921 and had one daughter, Constance (Bishop) Davis, and one son who died at birth. After Katherine's death in 1935 he married Agnes (Wilkins) Bishop in 1936 and adopted her daughter, Swazanna (Bishop) Donaway. After Agnes' death in 1973 he married Evelyn (Ward) Bishop in 1974 who now resides in Willards.

Rev. Bishop is survived by two sisters, Ida Powell of Bethany Beach, Delaware and Emily Robinson of Elmer, New Jersey. He has 7 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild.

Rev. Bishop passed away on January 21, 1998 in Peninsula Regional Medical Center of pneumonia. The funeral service was held at Hastings Funeral Home in Selbyville, Delaware on January 24, 1998. Burial was in New Hope cemetery in Willards, Maryland. The officiating minister was the Rev. Arthur Beebe and Mary Hinna.

He took great interest in everyone in church, young and old alike. He was a wonderful man and loved by all. He was a devoted Christian and had a great love for God.

Kenneth Ray Rose

Kenneth Ray Rose was born November 3, 1921 in Altoona, Pennsylvania. He was the eldest of four children born to Walter C. Rose and Inez (Ross) Rose.

He graduated from Altoona High School with the class of 1939.

The family was actively involved in the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church in Juniata, Altoona. Kenneth's father was Sunday School Superintendent. Kenneth was a close friend of the son of his pastor and spent many hours at the parsonage. The Rev. Mr. L.D. Wible and the Rev. Mr. E.Z. Utts were instrumental in his desire to enter the ministry.

In 1941 he entered Dickinson College in Carlisle, PA. He served several student charges in the Central Pennsylvania Conference, among them, Boiling Springs and West Fairview Methodist Churches. He graduated in the class of 1944 with an A.B. degree and entered Drew Seminary in New Jersey where he graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Divinity in 1947. He continued on at Drew preparing for a Ph.D. degree.

Kenneth was ordained a Deacon in 1946 and an Elder in 1948. He received an Honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from American University in 1956.

He served the following Conferences until his retirement in 1989 when he and his wife JoAnn moved to Merritt Island, Florida.

Central Pennsylvania Conference:

- 1945-49 First Methodist Church, New Bloomfield, PA
- 1949-53 Beaver Memorial Methodist Church, Lewisburg, PA.

In 1950-51 he attended summer sessions at the University of Southern California as preparation for work with students at Bucknell University.

Baltimore-Washington Conference:

- 1953-65 First Church Baltimore later named Lovely Lane Methodist Church as the successor to the original Mother Church of Methodism in America.

Peninsula-Delaware Conference:

- 1965-74 Bethesda Methodist Church, Salisbury, MD
- 1974-80 Grace Methodist Church, Wilmington, DE
- 1980-81 St. Johns Methodist Church, Seaford, DE
- 1981-89 St. Lukes Methodist Church, St. Michaels, MD

He delivered the Wilson Lectures at Southern Methodist University in Texas and each year he was invited to Texas to lead Revivals. He was a guest preacher on many college campuses in the 40's, 50's and 60's.

Kenneth was the youngest minister to serve Lovely Lane in its 184 year history. While Senior Pastor, he was a Trustee of Goucher College and Director/Curator of the Lovely Lane Museum and Baltimore Conference Historical Society. He served on the Governors committee to promote employment of the Physically Disabled and Governors committee on Traffic Safety. The Lovely Lane gymnasium was opened and staffed to meet the needs of the children of the inner city. He served as chairperson of the Urban Life Committee. He was also on the Board of the Mental Hygiene Society of Greater Baltimore.

Kenneth served as delegate to the Fifth World order study conference (1958), the National Council of Churches (1958) and the World Methodist Conference (1956, 1961).

In 1991 he was honored by the Lovely Lane congregation and pastor by being named "Minister Emeritus." A position he held until his death.

Kenneth and JoAnn (Wilson) met as classmates and on graduation day in 1944 were married in the Dickinson College Church by the pastor and JoAnn's minister, The Rev. Dr. Adrian Foote of Scranton, Pennsylvania.

A son, Richard Wilson Rose, lives and works in Baltimore and spends time between his homes in Wilmington, Delaware and Merritt Island, Florida. A son, Kenneth Ray Rose, Jr. along with his wife, Heather, and children, K. Ray III and Morgan Elizabeth, live on Seminole Trail in Merritt Island, Florida. A daughter, Dr. Susan D. Rose, along with her husband, Steven W. Brouwer, and children, Jan Steven and Ari Rose Brouwer, live in Carlisle, Pennsylvania where she is a professor of Sociology at Dickinson College. The four grandchildren were the joy of Kenneth's life.

Dr. Errol Smith, Pastor of Lovely Lane, stated at the Memorial Service in April, "Not only did he walk among us as a tall man - He stood tall in our respect and appreciation for him as a Man of God. We thank you for his gifts and graces, of sermons delivered with eloquence and passion, counsel given with understanding and sensitivity, leadership given with vision and encouragement, the Sacraments administered with reverent attention and his friendship adorned by a wonderful wit and sense of humor."

A benediction often spoken: "Courage for the conflict, patience for the long striving and always love enough to forgive and begin again."

His colleagues in ministry, dear friends and associates, the Rev. Dr. Dan Rich, the Rev. Mr. Elgar Soper, the Rev. Elmer Kimmell and the Rev. Dr. Bruce Foynter all paid tribute in their own words at the Memorial Service in Baltimore.

Kenneth's remains will be interred at the Lovely Lane Museum with his portrait and also on Pine Island in New Hampshire "His bit of Heaven on Earth."

Daisy Bernice Mulford Thompson

"Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
I am the swift uplifting rush
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.

Do not stand on my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die."

Daisy Bernice Mulford Thompson was born on December 18, 1910 in Newark, Delaware. She passed away on January 6, 1998 in the Delaware Hospital for the Chronically Ill in Smryna, Delaware.

On August 5, 1945, Daisy was united in marriage to the Rev. Dr. Ralph B. Thompson at Whatcoat United Methodist Church in Dover. Her husband preceeded her in death on February 23, 1973.

A gifted musician, Daisy thoroughly enjoyed the ministry. She attended ministerial training school in Morristown, Tennessee and was ordained in 1953. She assisted in the ministry as a pastor wherever her husband served and in later years served as pastor of Centennial United Methodist Church in Smryna, Delaware.

She was a member of Whatcoat United Methodist Church in Dover and attended faithfully as long as she was able.

A funeral service was held on Saturday, January 10, 1998 at Whatcoat Church on Saulsbury Road in Dover where the Rev. Homer Minus delivered an inspiring message. She was laid to rest beside her husband in Washington Cemetery in Hurlock, Maryland.

She leaves to cherish fond memories with several close friends and extended family.

In loving memory of our friend,
Rev. George O. Commodore
and Janet H. Commodore

Howell O. Wilkins

Howell O. Wilkins was born in Wilmington, DE, November 15, 1922, to Lenora Lee and Howell O. Wilkins, Sr. He was raised in that city and educated in the public schools and Grace Methodist Sunday School, Youth Choir and Church. Two Incidences while he attended elementary school portended the direction of his life as an adult. One afternoon his father went to school to sand down the desk seat of his hyperactive son who couldn't keep still and constantly wore out his knickers. Another time little Howell brought a new friend home from school to play. After a few days, his Mother said, "Buddy, you can bring him to play but not in the house." She tried to explain. "He's dirty." To which her son promptly replied, "But, Mom, he's not dirty inside."

Years later, as a teenager, Howell was sent by Grace Church to North Carolina for the first Ecumenical, Interracial Youth Rally held in the South. There his sights were broadened to non-Methodists and non-whites who were "not dirty inside," and the nucleus of an ordained minister was formed within him before he graduated from P.S. DuPont High School in 1941. He held responsible offices in the United Christian Youth Movement locally, regionally, and nationally; and, in 1947, he attended the second World Council of Christian Youth in Oslo, Norway.

When Howell was ten years old, his father died on Easter Sunday. From then on, as his mother worked, the family moved frequently. He, too, worked, as soon as possible, from delivery boy and soda jerk during high school, laborer at Malleable Iron during college, to cottagemaster at Ferris School through Seminary. Though finances were sorely strained, college was not negotiable with his mother. He graduated from Dickinson College in 1945 and Drew Seminary in 1947. During his Ferris School days he maintained discipline and returned runaways. He also established rapport with the boys, some of whom wrote to him regularly at Seminary, worked to diminish demerits and were rewarded by a Thanksgiving football game, hikes and visits when he came home. These boys Howell found not dirty inside. One, he lunched with occasionally until his death.

After Ordination in 1947, he became immersed in local congregational concerns, beginning at Whatcoat (Camden 1947-49) but always remained interested and actively involved beyond the local church. One of his first such adventures was being appointed Chaplain to the State Senate in Dover. While at Bethesda (Middletown, 1950-55) and Hillcrest (Wilmington, 1956-61) he was appointed a Trustee of Wesley College. In 1956 he chaired the Board and spearheaded the College's rescue from imminent demise to a flourishing Junior College with expanded campus, faculty and students. That same year he received an S.T.M. degree from Temple University Graduate School of Theology. On December 29, 1959 he married the former Dorothy Elizabeth Litz at Grace Church in Wilmington. Three months later they took into their home and lives a seventeen-year-old refugee from Germany, George Schwebler, who had been taken from his parents by Family Court because of abuse. While at St. John's (Seaford, 1961-68), Howell lead the local Ministerium into convincing town restaurateurs to integrate peacefully thereby avoiding riots. On July 24, 1962, son Chip was born. In 1963 Howell participated in a five-week Churchman's Study Tour of Europe-East and West. From Wesley's England to Tamerlane's far-off Samarkand he met God's people, many of whom were shunned and feared by the Western World. He spent the next thirty-some years dialoguing with these people (through the Christian Peace Conference and later Christians Associated for Relations With Eastern Europe), trying to bring comfort to them in their isolated oppression, a better understanding among Christians on both sides of the Iron Curtain and God's Peace and Reconciliation to all. A highlight of his life occurred in 1988 when he, representing CAREE, was among 50 from the United States invited to the Millennium Celebration of the Russian Orthodox Church in Moscow. Three thousand religious leaders from around the world were guests.

Meanwhile, at home he alternated between District Superintendent (Wilmington District 1968-73), parish ministry (Asbury, Salisbury 1973-79), Conference Council Director (1979-81), Easton District Superintendent (1981-87), back to the parish ministry at Richardson Park (1987-93) where he retired, always trying to lead people into a broader perspective of God's world and its inhabitants. He was the only person ever in this Conference to be appointed District Superintendent twice. During the turbulent 1960's he chaired the Conference Commission on Church and Society's section on Peace and World Order. In 1964 he renewed his pursuit of Ecumenical relations and was elected President of the Delaware State Council of Churches and re-elected twice. In 1971, he was elected Vice-President of its successor, the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency, and, in 1972, President.

In the meantime, (beginning 1968) he embraced the Global Methodist Church through appointment to the World Methodist Council. In that capacity he participated in special workshops, North American Sector meetings, and six World Methodist Conferences from Denver, Dublin, Hawaii, Nairobi, Singapore, to Rio in 1996. At his death, he chaired the Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. Most of his crusades, on the local, national, international, secular and religious fronts, though Biblical, were somewhat unpopular with those who felt safety in the status quo. Frequently, he participated in conflict resolution so long as his principles were not compromised. For example, during his student days at Lewisville, PA (1945-47), the District Superintendent suggested he remove only half of the names on his list at Quarterly Conference to protect his quota for the Crusade for Christ. Howell replied, "but they're dead!" It may not surprise his colleagues or parishioners to know that he presided over Dickinson College's Debating Team and never lost a debate. After retirement (1993) he spent the last four and half years as Minister of Pastoral Care (Wesley Church, Dover), bringing his experiences; his warm, encouraging and slightly mischievous smile; firm handshake; and caring to the ill, aged and shut-ins. Throughout his entire ministry, he "couldn't keep still", and he saw the vast majority of people he encountered as "not dirty inside." His overriding effort was to move others to action so they could see it too.

Howell's list of charities always included displaced persons anywhere caught in the grip of injustice and violence. Shortly after he retired, Bishop Morrison agreed to bless our house in Dover. She said she was not sure of the address until she saw the Amnesty International sticker in the window. Then she knew it was Howell's.

He loved to travel, meet people and hear new ideas through World Conferences, workshops, and a summer week at Chautauqua. Aside from the essential issues, the two most important questions when moving were, "How far is it to the beach?" and "Where can we put the Christmas tree?"

Howell collapsed and died suddenly, the morning of All Saint's Day, Saturday, November 1, 1997. He had just entered Wesley College, (where he chaired the Long-range Planning Committee) to attend the inauguration of the new President.

He died, as he would have wanted, "with his boots on." He was buried in Silverbrook Cemetery, in Wilmington, in a private service on Tuesday, November 4, 1997. His Memorial Service was held in a packed Wesley Church in Dover on Wednesday, November 5, 1997. The special music, liturgy, six colleagues and his devoted son all reflected honorable recognition of his crusading spirit, his keen sense of humor, and a triumph of love and respect for his efforts toward bringing "The Abundant Life" to All People. Biblically, his ministry can be summed up in three passages: Psalm 121, John 3:16 and James 2 and the Hymns "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" and "This Is My Song."

He is survived by his very proud and grateful family: wife, Dorothy; son, Chip (Howell, Jr.); daughter-in-law, Cherie; sister and brother-in-law, Mary Lee and Robert Adams; two nieces, two nephews and one great nephew.

Esther Shackell Davis

Esther was born in Cheswold, Delaware on August 1, 1910 to Thomas T. and Lavinia (Ford) Shackell. She married Rev. Charles Evan Davis who preceded her in death on December 30, 1975.

During most of her 87 years, Esther Davis devoted her time, energy and life to the Almighty God, her husband, her children and those in need. Her entire married life was dedicated to the support of the ministry of her husband in the Methodist Church. The latter years of her life were dedicated to assisting anyone in need, while residing at the Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware. She was a member of St. Johns United Methodist Church, Seaford, Delaware.

Her death occurred on November 10, 1997, due to sudden cardiac arrest. The funeral service was held at the Fleegle-Helfenbein Funeral Home in Greensboro, Maryland with interment at the Greensboro Cemetery. The funeral service was led by the Rev. George Godfrey. A Memorial Service was also held at the Manor House Chapel, which was led by the Rev. Kari Jones.

Esther is survived by five children; Charlesta Snyder of Wailea, Hawaii, Leona Porter of Greensboro, Maryland, Raymond E. Davis of Newark, Delaware, John A. Davis of Quantico, Maryland and Terri Markey of LaVale, Maryland. She also has one sister, Marion Marker, who lives in Dover, Delaware.

Esther Davis was loved by all who knew her.

Ada M. Shield

Ada M. Shield was born in Justisville, Virginia, daughter of Samuel J. Matthews and Ella Mae Silverthorne Matthews. She was educated in the public schools of Accomack County, Virginia. She enjoyed many good memories of her childhood days, and recalled fondly the love of her family. In 1928, at the age of 19, she united in marriage with Elmer R. Shield. Eight years later, her beloved husband responded to God's call to the ordained ministry, entering Westminster Theological Seminary.

Ada was his faithful companion as together they served Trinity Church in Newark, Maryland and Powellville; Bates in Snow Hill, Salem and Cokesbury in Pocomoke, Wesley in Georgetown, Centenary in Laurel, St. Paul's in Cambridge, and Christ Church in Wlilmington. The Rev. Shield preceded her in death on December 18, 1987.

She heard his many sermons proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ. On many occasions, especially in these past ten years, she would turn again to his notes and recall the services in which particular sermons had been preached, the attendance for each service having been duly recorded.

Ada witnessed many baptisms, professions of faith and confirmations, knelt at the communion rail to receive Holy Communion served by her life's companion, attended weddings and funerals. And through it all, Ada quietly and lovingly fulfilled God's calling to be a pastor's spouse, homemaker, mother, and friend to those whose lives she touched in the communities where they served the church of Jesus Christ.

Ada departed this life on July 4, 1997 at the Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury. A service of celebration of her life was held at Trinity Garden of Memories in Newark, Maryland, on July 7. The Shields helped create this beautiful site during their ministry at Trinity Church. The Rev. Boyd Etter officiated, and was joined by many others who paid tribute to her ministry through their presence. Ada is survived by a daughter, Martha S. Shield, of Pocomoke City, a nephew, Kenneth T. Matthews, of Salisbury and a niece, Rebecca M. Maddox, of Grasonville.

The focal point of Ada's living room in her home in Pocomoke was her organ. Just as she did throughout her life, now she "sings with all the saints in glory."

The Family

Nellie Majors Spry

Nellie Majors Spry, daughter of Noah Majors and Elizabeth (Goslee) Majors was born on September 24, 1897 near Hebron, Maryland.

Nellie completed high school in Delmar while living with an aunt and uncle as there was no transportation from the family farm to the school. After graduation Nellie was offered a teaching position in a one-room school with seven grades. With apprehension, she accepted the challenge at age 16. During the year she met her future husband, Reverend Charles W. Spry, who was assigned to the Mardela charge. They were married on June 30, 1915 and Nellie began her life as a minister's wife.

As the family grew and the conference re-assigned the Spry family frequently, Nellie accepted the awesome responsibility of five children and the many duties of the wife of a minister.

A turning point in her life came when the youngest child finished her education and she experienced the empty nest feeling. The lessening of family responsibilities opened new doors for Nellie. She decided to apply for a teaching position and was offered a job teaching seven grades in a one-room school near Dover, providing she started her degree work at once. The arduous task of teaching and taking education courses at the same time, as well as during the summer, did not daunt her incredible determination to achieve her goal.

In 1960 (fifteen years later), Nellie received the coveted bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware. Unfortunately, Charles had died in 1958 and could not share the happy event which the entire family celebrated together. Once again, Nellie found time to participate more in church and community activities.

At the age of 72 after having taught for 25 years, Nellie retired from her teaching career and, still in good health, enjoyed traveling, gardening, her family and volunteering. Her home at 32 Elm Terrace in Dover was her castle and there she spent hours in her garden and entertaining friends.

In 1990, Nellie realized the need for assistance in daily living and chose to move to the Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware. This new life style meant giving up many of the altruistic and social phases of her life. But her health was declining and her eyesight prevented reading; therefore, she appreciated the security and the kindness of the staff of the retirement home and a sedentary life.

On December 22, 1997, she passed away after breaking her hip in a fall. This marked the end of a century of living for others - a life of singular achievements and humble acceptance of life's offerings.

A memorial service was held in the chapel of the Manor House on December 26, 1997 with the Reverend George Godfrey officiating, assisted by Dr. Jervis Cooke and Reverend Dan Walker. Burial took place at Lakeside Cemetery in Dover.

Charles and Nellie had five children: one son, Jay F. Spry who preceded Nellie in death in 1989, and four daughters: Margaret Spry Cadell who lives in St. Michael's, MD, Charlotte Spry Larimore who preceded her mother in death in 1983, Genevieve Spry McGee who lives in St. Michael's, MD and Ruth Spry Garretson who lives in Severna Park, MD.
