III. Conference Rules Of Order

- Rule 1: The Conference shall convene and adjourn at the discretion of the presiding Bishop and the Committee on Conference Arrangements. The Conference in plenary session may alter the time of convening or adjourning.
- Rule 2: The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his/her appeal.
- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn.
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. For the previous question.
 6. To postpone to a given time.
 7. To refer.
 8. To substitute.
 9. Amendment.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him/her.
- Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call him/her to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.

- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.
- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than four minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his/her vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse him/her.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for him/her to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.

Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.

Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.

Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except members of board, committees or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church.

Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.

Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the Associate Lay Leader, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, the four District Presidents of United Methodist Men, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.

- Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Conference Director of Administrative Services prior to Annual Conference action.
- Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.
- Rule 28: In keeping with paragraph 652 in the 1996 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Rules and Guidelines for the Conference
Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Resource Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.

7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.
8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.

14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.

8. Titles such as "Mrs," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That conference directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned.
(We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)

- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153.)

- (8) Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
- (9) The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
- (10) Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

(Amended by Annual Conference Action on June 4, 1994)

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the experimental procedures and the statistical tools employed.

3. The third part of the document presents the results of the study, including a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the findings. The data shows a clear correlation between the variables being studied.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the implications of the findings and provides recommendations for future research. It suggests that further studies should be conducted to explore the underlying mechanisms.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes the study and summarizes the key points. It reiterates the importance of the research and the need for continued investigation in this field.

6. The sixth part of the document provides a list of references and sources used in the study. It includes a variety of academic papers, books, and other relevant materials.

7. The seventh part of the document contains a list of appendices and supplementary materials. These include additional data, charts, and other supporting information.

8. The eighth part of the document provides a list of contact information for the authors and other relevant parties. It includes email addresses and phone numbers.

9. The ninth part of the document contains a list of acknowledgments and thanks. It expresses gratitude to the funding agencies, colleagues, and other individuals who assisted in the study.

B. Alphabetical Roll & Pastoral Record

Clergy members of Conference, local pastors, diaconal ministers, widows and lay members are listed in the following pages. The name of the spouse is listed underneath the name of the pastor. The year following "C" denotes the year a pastor was Commissioned according to the 1996 Discipline. The year following "D" denotes the year a pastor was ordained Deacon. The year following "E" denotes the year a pastor was ordained Elder. The Pastoral Record follows each pastor's alphabetical listing in order to place all pastoral information in one file.

1999 Special Session November 6 -- Dover, Delaware

B. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Clergy Executive Session Wednesday, June 9, 1999

Bishop Peter D. Weaver called the Clergy Executive Session to order at approximately 9:00 a.m. in the sanctuary of Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church, Dover Delaware.

Karen Bunnell, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry ("BOOM"), welcomed everyone to Holy Cross. She especially recognized those in extension ministries as part of the covenant community of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. She then invited those assembled to share the peace. Cindy Quillen provided the piano accompaniment throughout the session.

Bishop Weaver thanked Father Hanley, the pastor of Holy Cross, for his hospitality. Father Hanley, in turn, thanked the Bishop for the heritage of Wesley hymns in Christian hymnody and welcomed the Bishop and the executive session.

In addressing the conference theme, "Stepping Out in Covenant Communities", Bishop Weaver thanked the clergy for continuing to be a part of the community; for the love that marked their ministry; for the movement of prayer; for the spirit of discourse; for faithfulness to their vows; for their presence at ordination; for their submittal of administrative data.

Greg W. Hill, U.S. Army Chaplain, next spoke about his call to extension ministry: to serve soldiers and their families, men and women of different faiths, in war and peace, by bringing the grace and love of Christ in extraordinary circumstances. He expressed his appreciation for support of his ministry and then asked for our daily prayers for those in the military and their families who are serving us in obedience to God and country.

Boyd B. Etter, BOOM Registrar, presented the Boom report which can be found in its entirety in the Disciplinary Questions Part II: PERTAINING TO ORDAINED MINISTERS AND LOCAL PASTORS. The candidates for election into full membership and ordination as Elder are:

- Barbara Harris Harmon
- Vanessa Stephens Lee
- William Stanton Leonard
- Michelle Lynn Loving-Moore
- Yvonne Wallace Penn

Each candidate was elected into full membership and approved for ordination as Elder. The newly elected full members were presented and invited to sit among their brother and sister clergy.

Elaine B. Ayres, Director of Mission Area Ministry, described her call to ministry to mission areas as her "yes" to God's call to the church to change. She said that in the issues that divide all the communities to which we belong, the church needs to step out of its own comfort zone and be the presence of God in the world. In order for the church to fulfill its call, we individually must undertake personal risk and personal change.

The candidate for election into full membership and approved for ordination as a permanent Deacon under the transitional provisions for diaconal ministers is:

- Ann Short Wilson.

She was elected into full membership and approved for ordination as permanent Deacon.

The candidate for election and commissioning as a probationary member under P.315, 316, 1996 Discipline in preparation for the Order of Elder is:

- Jack David Cohen.

He was elected and approved for commissioning as a probationary member in preparation for the Order of Elder and invited to sit among his brother and sister clergy. Connie Cohen gave an inspirational witness to his son's call to ministry.

Presented and elected as Associate Members and approved for ordination as Deacons under the 1992 Discipline (P.365.1[1996]); (p.420[1992])are:

- Robin Daniel Blevins
- Martha Pepper Callaway.

They were invited to sit among their brother and sister clergy.

Those persons serving as Full-Time Local Pastors, Part-Time Local Pastors, and Student Local Pastors were recognized and were approved to continue their respective relationships with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Laurence Hull Stookey, Professor of Teaching and Worship at Wesley Theological Seminary, next spoke to those assembled on the need for a revived sense of collegial connection. He spoke about the "strange and wondrous Wesleyan polity" that is our connectedness to one another. And he reminded us that even the insignificant things of life can be sacramental when they are signs of our connectedness to God.

Recognition was then given to those who received the certificate of candidacy for ordained ministry.

Approval was then given to the reports of those pastors appointed to extension ministries within the connectal structures of United Methodistism (P.322.1b, 335.1a, c [1996]); those appointed to extension ministries endorsed by the Board of Higher Education and Ministry (P.335.1b, c [1996]); and also those appointed to other valid extension ministries under the provisions of P.335.1d (1996) (v 2/3).

Olive Cook was recognized as a retired Diaconal Minister (P3.313.2) serving as the Committee on Investigations for Diaconal Ministry (P.2626.4) (v).

Edward E. Kester, Vice-President of Operations, Asbury Services, Inc. described his calling to ministry as a contest with God that God won, just as God had won with Nathaniel. His extension ministry is to the seniors, the "elderhood", not just living in senior residences, but seen as a resource to the community. He, too, called for a re-commitment to ordained ministry as servanthood with a mission.

Among the transitions in Covenant was the granting of Honorable Location (P.356.1 [1996]) (v) to Barry Douglas Steiner Ball.

John I. Penn, General Board of Discipleship—Spiritual Formation, based his address on Matthew, chapters nine and ten. He said that he was drawn to the call to be a disciple who offers healing and wholeness in a ministry that reveals the kingdom of God.

Bishop Weaver recognized the clergy members who retired this year:

- Elders in full connection (P.355 [1996])
 - Philip Charles Bosserman
 - Howard Lee Gordy, Jr.
 - Everett Cahall Isaacs
 - Robert Granville Kelly
 - Charles Milton Moyer

- David George Paul
 - Vernon Lee Schmid
 - Thomas Crawford Short
 - Robert Woodruff Starrett
 - Leonard Henry Wheatley, Jr. (p.335.2) (1996)
- Associate Members (P.355 [1996]):
- Roland W. Dennis.

David G. Bennett, Director of Young People's Ministry, witnessed to the work of God in calling him to pastoral and extension youth ministry. He views his vocation to be a ministry of encouragement to youth and to youth leaders.

Bishop Weaver then remembered those who died during the year:

- Members in full connection, active
 - Mark William Palmer
- Members in full connection, retired:
 - William Thomas Archer, Jr.
 - Frank G. Buckley
 - George Walter Goodley, Jr.
 - Chester Charles Hustead
 - Herbert N.F.G. Nurse
 - Carol Scott
- Local pastors, retired:
 - Webster Whittington
- Associate Members, active:
 - Otho Roland Waters
- Associate Members, retired:
 - G. Francis Wilson.

Boyd Etter then nominated P. Thomas McElvey as Chair of Ordained elders. He was elected.

BOOM Chair, Karen Bunnell, addressed "corporate accountability" and asked the question, "Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?" (P.604.4, 605.6 [1996])

Bishop Weaver affirmed:

In almost every case, our clergy members are blameless in life and character. The performance of every ordained minister and local pastor has been reviewed by me (Bishop Weaver) and the cabinet. Where there is concern or basis for a grievance, it is being pursued with the knowledge of the member involved.

The Bishop then asked District Superintendents Howard Gordy, Jr. (Salisbury District), Ronald Bell, Sr. (Easton District), H. Sterling Green (Dover District), and Susan Keirn Kester, (Wilmington District) to respond to the issue of corporate accountability. Each superintendent thanked his or her pastors for their faithfulness and commitment to Jesus Christ and to His church. After each superintendent made his or her remarks, the pastors of that district were asked to stand and be recognized.

The Committee on Investigation (2626.3): members were elected as follows:

Elaine B. Ayres, Chair	Pearl G.S. Johnson	Lehman R. Tomlin
Arthur L. George	Jerrold W. Knotts
Mary Lou Green	Thomas C. Short

Lay Observers: Eugene Petty, Harriet Smith Windsor

Alternates:

Vicky L. Gordy-Stith	Laura A. Martin	Ashley A. Maxwell
Alfred E. Taylor	Kenneth S. Valentine

Lay Observer: Richard Comly

The Administrative Review Committee was elected as follows:

Sandra Steiner-Ball Bruce E. Cooke Douglas M. Ridley

Alternates:

George B. Moody, Sr. Leslie G. Slak

Eleanor Laws made a presentation concerning the Family Assistance Fund. An offering was taken.

Bishop Weaver cited 1st Peter in saying that love covers a multitude of sins. He encouraged those present to pray and share in small groups our love for one another in community and connection. Grant Johnson ended with prayer at the Bishop's invitation.

The executive session adjourned.

Friday Morning June 11, 1999

The 215th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference began with an Opening Worship Celebration.

The theme of the conference, "Stepping Out in Covenant Communities", was underscored by the multi-colored footsteps design of the cross, the altar and the paraments. Wes Davis and the Praise Team from the Dover District led the music.

In his proclamation sermon during opening Worship, Bishop Peter Weaver urged the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to become life changing communities of compassion-- places and people that bring the Gospel's assurance of victory of good over evil out of the churches and into a world torn apart by hatred and killing.

The service ended with a call to transformation, inviting the Holy Spirit to pour into the conference the life of a new creation. In a symbolic representation of transformation, members of the Annual Conference brought forward torn pieces of individual church bulletins that were mixed together with water to be later melded into a whole sheet of new paper, representing the metamorphosis of former lives into a Spirit filled new creation.

Bishop Weaver then called the 215th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to order at about 11:00 a.m. Pat Dorey, Dover District Lay Leader, greeted the members and introduced Sterling Green, the Dover District Superintendent. A power point media presentation highlighted ministry in the Dover District and across the entire conference. Sterling Green introduced Dover mayor, James Hutchison, who welcomed those assembled to the city of Dover. New members of the Annual Conference were recognized by the Bishop. Then Pat Dorey and Etta Mills joined the presiding table as lay representatives.

Irene Hoffman, Conference Secretary, moved the adoption of Resolution Z-1 on behalf of the Sessions Committee. The resolution revised Rule 10 of the "Conference Rules of Order" by setting four minutes as the time allotted to any one speaker speaking at any one time on a given question. The resolution was adopted. The Secretary next presented the Organizational and Procedural Motion, Z-10, which was also adopted:

- Q. The Conference ushers shall only distribute information pertaining to the presentations given during the plenary session.
- R. The Consent Calendar will be presented for adoption on Saturday June 12 at 11:00 a.m.

Irene Hoffman next asked the members to review the Consent Calendar, Z-12 and Z-13, and the Nominating Report, A-1 through A-27 prior to voting on both items the following morning—Saturday June 12—at 11:00 a.m.

Jonathan Baker, Conference Resource Director, introduced William Wallace, chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race and Leslie G. Slak, chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women. Members of the commissions would be monitoring the Conference proceedings for diversity and inclusivity. He also presented Marcia McFee, the guest speaker, and Joyce Gorman, Bishop Weaver's administrative assistant.

At the Bishop's invitation, a team came forward and enunciated a covenant which called for the assembled community to hear and to listen patiently, to avoid hurtful words and to be open to change in oneself and in others.

The following visitors were welcomed: David Fife—Bishop's Assistant for Special Projects; Larry Leister, District Superintendent, Eastern Pennsylvania Conference ("EPA"); William Staten, District Superintendent EPA; Violet Fisher, District Superintendent EPA; Michele Wright Bartlow, Council Director, EPA.

Official registrants for the 215th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference included 301 Lay Members and 276 Clergy Members (2 affiliate members, 2 full member deacons, 1 commissioned probationary member, 17 probationary members, 38 local pastors, 13 associate member deacons, 3 associate member elders, 200 full members).

Bishop Weaver, in person and in a video presentation, explained the importance of the selection of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. Gordon Stapleton, the chair of the Balloting Committee, gave detailed instructions on balloting, referring the conference members to the information entitled "Clergy and Lay Membership for the Annual Conference Session" and "Election of General and Jurisdictional Delegates, Rules for Balloting" that was included in their conference packets. Bishop Peter Weaver then conducted the first clergy ballot and then the first lay ballot, preceded by prayer. The morning plenary closed with a multi-media Mission Area Ministry presentation and grace before lunch by Harriet Mair.

Friday Afternoon June 11, 1999

Marcia Mc Fee led Gathering Praise at about 1:45 affirming the joint ministry of clergy and laity which begins with the laying on of hands at Baptism. A Mission Area Ministry moment followed. Bishop Weaver called the conference to order. He read the results of the first ballot: Clergy, no election; Laity, no election. A second ballot was taken, preceded by prayer.

Celebration of Ministry Bishop Weaver led the celebration which began with acknowledgment of and thanksgiving for the ministry of retiring clergy and spouses in order below as shown in the video presentation:

Retirees	Spouses
David George Paul	Peggy
Robert Granville Kelly	Ann
Thomas Crawford Short	Mary
Vernon Lee Schmid	Susan
Leonard Henry Wheatley, Jr.	Joan
Everett Cahall Isaacs	Catherine
Charles Milton Moyer	Dorothy
Roland Wilmore Dennis	Loistine
Robert Woodruff Starrett	Carolyn
Howard Lee Gordy, Jr.	Beverly
Richard Edward Green	Mary Ellen

Karen Bunnell, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and Bishop Weaver led congregational prayer in recognition of the ministry of all persons, asking those to stand who had participated in Methodist ministries.

Karen Bunnell invited to come to the stage those who were called to serve as licensed local pastors. Bishop Weaver authorized, announced, and blessed their service to the conference. The students were next called to stand and God's blessings were prayed upon them by the body.

In a historic moment for the Annual Conference, in accordance with the 1996 Discipline, the first candidate for commissioning to probationary membership, Jack David Cohen, was called forward by the Bishop with the assent and support of those present.

Bishop Weaver then asked the traditional Disciplinary questions. Having received satisfactory answers, and calling forward again Ann Short Wilson, the Bishop introduced the new Associate and Full Members and asked all Associate and Full Members to stand. All were prayed for and God's blessings were requested on their ministries. Bishop Weaver then placed the mantle on Charles Moyer, a retiring clergy person, who then passed it onto the shoulders of Yvonne Wallace Penn, a new full member to be ordained Elder at this Annual Conference. The ritual commemorates the passing of Elijah's mantle to his disciple, Elisha as described in II Kings 2:1-15. The celebration ended with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds".

Grant Johnson next announced the clergy anniversaries.

John Bartsch and Theresa Huffman joined the presiding table as lay representatives. Warner Clark presented Resolutions M-1 and M-3 from the Committee on Equitable Compensation. Bishop Weaver called for a vote. Both resolutions passed. Kenneth Valentine presented Resolution J-3 from the Board of Pensions. Bishop Weaver called for a vote. The resolution passed.

Jonathan Baker introduced Madeline Beall as the new United Methodist Publishing House representative. She presented Bishop Weaver and Bill Westbrook, Conference Treasurer, a check for $9326.85 for the Board of Pensions. The check is the Conference's portion of Publishing House sales to churches within the Conference.

The results of the second ballot were read: there was one Clergy election—Jonathan Baker; there was one Laity election—Howard Mason. A third ballot was taken.

Kenneth Valentine presented a motion to limit the reading of ballots to those receiving five or more votes. The motion was defeated.

The Order of the Day was a dramatic presentation by Marcia McFee depicting the stepping out in faith of persons and communities to the edge and beyond the edge of the unknown.

Tom Short, chair of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, introduced Sandra Kelly Lackore, General Secretary and Treasurer. She presented a plaque to Bishop Weaver honoring the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for paying 100% of its apportionments for the past decade.

Susan Keirn Kester presented a resolution for discontinuance of St. Peter's United Methodist Church in Delaware City, DE in the Wilmington District. It passed. Ronald Bell, Sr. presented a resolution for the discontinuance of Wesley United Methodist Church in the Easton District. It passed.

Beverly Y. Holland presented Resolution Z-7 on behalf of the Trustees. It passed.

Friday Evening June 11, 1999

Bishop Weaver called the conference to order at about 7:30 p.m. He read the third Clergy ballot: J.T. Seymour was elected. The third Laity ballot was read: there was no election.

The Memorial Communion Service was then begun. The service was led by Paige Marshall. Edwin Ellis and Thomas Short spoke jointly about the remembrance of heroes in ministry. As the giants of faith from the past were recalled as examples of contemporary faith in Hebrews, so too, we remember those who have preceded us; and, so we will be remembered by those who follow. The speakers shared their memories and thanked God for blessings.

The bell was tolled for those who passed away in the last year:

Clergy— Otho Roland Waters, Webster Whittington, George Francis Wilson, Mark William Palmer, William Thomas Archer, Jr., Frank G. Buckley, George Walter Goodley, Jr., Chester Charles Hustead, Herbert N.F.G. Nurse, Carrol Scott.

Spouses— Mary T. Dise, Doris Carmean, Edith Wilson, Katherine McCoy, Eleanor Glass, Christine E. Henry, Josephine M. Wilkins, Helen Abbott, Sadie Caudill, Lillian Ferry, Esther Hackett, Dorothy Carpenter, and Gloria Reed Sterling.

A moving video tribute followed. Music during the worship service was offered by Georgiana Ibach, the Dover District Bell Choir, and Darrell Gray.

The Communion Memorial Service was followed by a reception for the Retirees, the Ordinands, and their spouses.

Saturday Morning June 12, 1999

Saturday morning began with a worship service led by Clarksville/Union Wesley United Methodist Church with Pastor Alice Johnson Ervin. Bishop Weaver called the session to order at approximately 9:00 a.m. The Unity team led the body in a time of devotion and reflection.

Bishop Weaver read the fourth ballot. Karen Bunnell was elected on the fourth Clergy ballot. Melody McIvaine was elected on the fourth Laity ballot. The Bishop then conducted the fifth Clergy and the fifth Laity ballot, preceded by prayer.

The Relational Design Task Force presented the proposal for the new Relational Design of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Members of the Task Force included Arthur George, Vaughn Adams, Alice Ervin, William Batson, Beverly Holland, Jeremias Rojas, Dick Turner, Elaine Ayres, Sterling Green, Bill Westbrook, and Jonathan Baker.

Presented as important components of the Design were the local Mission Area, Conference Resource Teams, long term and short term Task Forces, the District Council, and the Vision Team. The proposed Conference Organization focused on the development of resources to assist local churches, Mission areas, and districts. In the Relational Design, the conference level organization was proposed to be the conduit of resources from the General Church and help develop a network of resources. The Design Team then engaged in an informal period of question and answer with those present in the body. An exchange of ideas took place, requests for clarification were answered by the Design team, examples of current community and ecumenical ministries were given, partnership in ministry—both clergy and lay, was discussed.

The reading of the fifth ballot took place in the midst of the discussion. There was no Clergy election; there was no Laity election. The Bishop conducted the sixth ballot, preceding it with prayer.

The Bishop then returned to the conversation with a sixty-second video on Mission Area Ministry. As a point of personal privilege, Howard Mason led in prayer for the Chrysalis Girls weekend then taking place at Camp Pecometh. After a short further discussion of the Relational Design, the morning session ended with Odette Wright saying grace before lunch.

Saturday Afternoon June 12, 1999

Bill Johnson and the youth of Laurel/New Zion United Methodist Church led worship in a time of gathering praise, singing "songs of love, joy, and compassion".

Wes Davis and Pearl Johnson led those assembled in a covenant moment of reflection on our relationship with God and with others. A video Mission Area Moment was followed by the reading of the sixth ballot. Clergy Ballot 6 brought no election. Laity ballot 6 elected Darlene Webb. Bishop Weaver conducted the seventh clergy and lay ballots, preceded by prayer. The Conally String Band played while the ballots were gathered.

Bill Hemphill asked for a volunteer to drive the truck with the UMCOR packages to Louisiana, directing anyone interested to see Dave Farris at the truck.

The Design Team gathered on the stage. Alice Ervin, team member, introduced the team, thanked the body for sharing its thoughts and emotions, and said that the Team gives the Design to the conference. Bishop Weaver said that was a motion for its adoption. Following a short further period of discernment, the formal legislative process was begun, preceded by Darlene Webster's point of personal privilege for prayer, which was done. Don Hurst, Gary Atkinson, and Bud McCabe spoke in favor of the question(s); Lois Rogers spoke in opposition.

Bishop Weaver presented separately for vote each of the three specific refinements to the Blueprint for Christian Discipleship through Mission Area Ministry (which had been previously adopted by the 1997 Annual Conference session):

1. "Pages 9-24 of the Relational Design which includes District Mission Area Ministry Councils and the Conference Organizational Model"
2. Page 26 "Following the approval of the Conference Relational Design, a Task Force will be created to align staffing functions to the new Relational Design." Responsibilities and composition of the Task Force are on Page 26.
3. "Pages 28--top of 31 Rules and Guidelines for Conference Nominating Task Force".

Each of the three refinements was passed separately. The Bishop called for a moment of silence and then prayer.

He then introduced Gary Meekins, a clergy person from Eastern Pennsylvania (formerly from Peninsula-Delaware) who led the body in a time of inspired music and singing. Laurence Justice was granted a point of personal privilege in praise of the singing of the hymn "When We All Get to Heaven", remembering his wife's faith at the time of her death.

The Bishop read Ballot seven. Clergy Ballot 7 elected Sterling Green. Laity Ballot 7: there was no election. The Bishop preceded the taking of Ballot 8 with prayer. Howard Mason raised a point of personal privilege, adding that the first of the four clergy persons next elected would also go to General Conference as an alternate. An MAM video followed.

Irene Hoffman presented the Consent Calendar, Z-12 and Z-13, for adoption. Bill Hemphill moved to extract F-11 from the Consent Calendar for separate consideration. The extraction was accepted. Resolution F-11 was presented to the body for its consideration. It was passed. Bill Hemphill reported that a driver for the UMCOR truck to Louisiana was found. The revised Consent Calendar was presented to the body for its consideration. It was passed.

Ed Lasbury presented the Nominating Report, A-1 through A-27, for a vote. As a point of information, Karen Bunnell stated that P. Thomas McKelvey had been elected Chair of Ordained Elders. Bob McKee of the Board of Stewards stated that Madeline Hollis on A22, Class of 2000 had resigned and was replaced by Deb Shiffer. The Nomination Report then passed as amended. Ed Lasbury stated that it was his last year as chair of the Nominations Committee. The Bishop thanked him for his service.

Doug Lindsay gave the Volunteers in Mission report gifting Bishop Weaver with balloons with the world painted on them. He reported that, since 1996 more than 400 volunteers from Georgetown and Wilmington areas have participated in mission projects to Costa Rica and Zambia. Doug Lindsay then introduced Donald and Mildred Hamilton who had returned after two and one half years in missionary ministry in Zambia. They shared their insights and extended their thanks for the support of the conference and individual churches and persons.

Laity Ballot 8 was read. Carlton Parker was elected. Laity Ballot 9 was taken preceded by prayer. Bishop Weaver introduced the lay representative at the presiding table, Allen Streett, Lay Leader of the Wilmington District.

Ellie Kelly presented a video related to the Bishops Initiative on Children and Poverty. The video featured children and programs around the conference including Vacation Bible School, Sunday School, and Day Care. "A Church for All God's Children" certificates were awarded to St. Paul's Milford and Bethel-Dagsboro in the Dover District; to Kent Island in the Easton District; to Salisbury Cooperative Urban Ministries in the Salisbury District; to Cornerstone, Newark, Hillcrest-Bellefonte, and Aldersgate in the Wilmington District. Ellie Kelly then presented a lapel pin to the Bishop as she announced that the Bishops Initiative on Children would be extended for another quadrennium.

James M. Shaw, the Conference Statistician, and Jack Abel made an innovative presentation of the Statistician's Report. Briefly, there was a 13% increase in those baptized; an 8% decrease in professions of faith; the conference membership for 1998 was 97,144, down 185 persons since 1997.

The afternoon ended with a Youth Conference presentation featuring conference youth in a special light and sound show directed by Marcia McFee. There was an overwhelming "flood" of sound, music, light, and youth! The message was that youth is part of the church today, not just the future; that youth demands an example of holiness from its elders; that youth wants to heal fear and hatred and recreate a diverse community.

Clergy Ballot 8 was read: no election. Clergy Ballot 9 was taken preceded by prayer. Laity Ballot 9 was read: Kevin Goodwin was elected. The session ended with grace before the evening meal given by Ashley Purnell.

Saturday Evening June 12, 1999

The evening session was called to order at about 7:30 p.m. Bishop Weaver read Clergy Ballot 9: Ronald Bell, Sr. was elected. Clergy Ballot 10 was taken preceded by a prayer. Laity Ballot 10 was read: Irene Hoffman and Ron Brown were elected. Laity Ballot 11 was taken preceded by prayer.

Bishop Weaver announced that The Africa University Choir arrival was delayed. He called for a special time of witness and thanksgiving. Andy and Rebecca Cottle, with Joan Cohen playing, led praise and singing.

The Bishop began the time of testimony with thanksgiving for the youth. Kevin Goodwin was thankful for missions; Lois Rogers for miraculous healing; Karen Moore for the power of prayer; Olivia Costango for healing waters; Mike Truitt for mercy and restoration; Laurence Justice for healing from cancer; Sherrol James for youth ("Jesus Christ is alive in the community"). Aggie Stoddard rose and sang "God won't let you go". Amidst these personal stories, Cindy Major, a youth in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, gave her testimony. After some personal problems, Cindy began attending church at her grandmothers' urging. She recently felt God's call to mission and applied and was accepted for a mission trip to India. Her fund raising efforts had been blessed by donations from a variety of sources. Her church especially helped in her fund raising at the sacrifice of their budgeted gift to Red Bird Mission. She was very close to reaching her monetary goal. Tom Short prayed for filling by the Holy Spirit and then suggested that an offering be taken to complete her funding requirement with any overage to be given to Red Bird Mission. $2,433.00 was collected in an offering from the body. St. James United Methodist Church Youth Choir sang during the offering.

Bishop Weaver read Clergy Ballot 10: Larry Stookey was elected. Laity Ballot 11 was read: there was no election. Clergy Ballot 11 and Laity Ballot 12 were preceded by prayer and conducted by the Bishop.

James Salley, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Africa University, presented to Bishop Weaver a certificate recognizing the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for giving 100% of its Africa University apportionment.

Bishop Weaver and Jonathan Baker, together with Kevin Goodwin, presented James Salley, Assistant Vice-Chancellor for Africa University, a check for $67,272.63 to endow a scholarship at Africa University. Bishop Weaver gave thanks to God and asked a blessing on the choir.

Carlton Parker introduced and Kendra Banks then prayed for the Africa University Choir, which had arrived. Conducted by Patrick Matsikenyiri, they delighted us with a capella (and accompanied by African instruments) singing in a rich variety of principally African vocal selections from South Africa, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Nigeria, Malawi, Swaziland, Argentina, Mozambique, the USA, and Cameroon.

The evening session closed.

Sunday Morning June 13, 1999

The morning session was called to order at about 8:30 a.m. Bishop Weaver read Clergy Ballot 11. There were two elections: Pat Harris and Boyd Etter. Laity Ballot 12 was read. There was an election: Althea Armstrong.

The Missional Appointment Worship Celebration began with gathering music by the Centennial Sanctuary Choir. Bishop Peter Weaver called those gathered together to community. The Readers Theater dramatized the influence of committed Christians in the lives of others. The Praise Team led the body in singing Siyahamba/Steppin' Out as each District Superintendent announced new appointments. Newly appointed pastors and lay representatives from the respective churches were greeted on stage by the Bishop and the Lay Leader.

Bishop Weaver read the final ballots, which elected the alternate delegates to Jurisdictional Conference. Clergy Ballot 12 was read: Jack Shitama, Susan Keirn Kester, and Anne Pruettt-Barnett were elected alternates. Laity Ballot 13 was read: Ashley Purnell, James Hardcastle, and Nancy Leathrum.

Curt Dotson presented the Resolution Z-2 on Lay Speaking. It was seconded. Bob Laird spoke in opposition. C. Karen Covey Moore offered an amendment to the resolution that read:

"Replace line 31ff with: Therefore be it resolved that criteria for certified lay speakers be established by a task force appointed by the bishop with representatives from each of the District Lay Speaking Committees and the diversity of our Conference membership. In addition, the bishop shall appoint another task force with representatives from the diversity of our Conference to design a forum which will enable the Conference to discuss the issue of Biblical sexual ethics in a setting that is removed from the threat of legislation and listen to each other as an act of grace as we share our stories and positions."

The amendment was seconded. Jim Faltot spoke in opposition to the second part of the amendment. The Bishop divided the amendment. After further speakers both in support and in opposition, part 1 of the amendment was presented for a vote and was defeated. Part 2 was then presented for a vote and defeated. Debate on the original resolution resumed with Major Davis and Ed Kester speaking in opposition to the resolution. Randy Wein moved to table Resolution Z-2 until after the General Conference. It was tabled.

Rick Vance rose with a point of personal privilege to recognize Jon P. Arbeene as the Harry Denman Youth award winner.

Kenneth Valentine presented Resolution Z-6 Clergy Health Insurance for consideration. Paul Sherwood offered an amendment to change the fixed amount with a percentage of 2.25%. The amendment was seconded. Gary Moore spoke in opposition to the amendment; Ken Valentine spoke in favor. Alan Jones moved to amend the amendment by replacing "per pastor" with "each active clergy household". It was seconded. A call for the question ended debate. However, another amendment to amendment was accepted by the body prior to voting: "2.25% of the higher clergy salary". A vote on the amendment to the amendment was taken. It passed. The amended amendment then passed.

Debate resumed on the now amended resolution Z-6. Bernie Shuhayda spoke in opposition to the resolution. Rudi Sackett offered an amendment to add "all student pastors" as those to also be excluded from the assessment. The amendment was seconded and passed. Debate resumed on the again amended resolution. Karen Hodgkins, Rich Stull, and Laurence Justice spoke in opposition. Susan Keirn Kester moved to refer the resolution to the Board of Pensions for a perfected recommendation to be brought to the November session. The motion was seconded and passed. Resolution Z-6 was referred back to the Board of Pensions.

Bill Wallace presented Resolution Z-15, Voting Rights, for consideration. Joe Henry called for the question. Resolution Z-15 passed.

David Baker presented Barratt's Chapel Resolution Z-8 and Z-9. It passed. Ann Roede, chairperson of the Commission on Archives and History, spoke on the capital campaign to enlarge the ministry of Barratt's Chapel. She awarded certificates and honoraria to four individuals for the submittal of local church histories: Burt Kirkman, "A Glimpse of Our Past", St. Paul's United Methodist Church-Wilmington; Mary Collins and Evelyn Ebie, "One Hundred Forty Years of Rainbows", Mariner's Bethel United Methodist Church-Ocean View, Delaware; Nona Jackson, "Echoes of the Past", Zoar United Methodist Church-Reeds Grove; Eldridge J. Waters, "A History of Service to God and Humanity", Ezion Mt. Carmel-Wilmington.

She then presented a copy of a Barratt's Chapel video to Jonathan Baker and to Bishop Weaver. Bob Wallace, the campaign Development Officer, ended the presentation quoting from another source: "As a tree without its roots is dead, so a people without its history is dead."

Bishop granted Dale Evans a point of personal privilege to request funds for the restoration of Lovely Lane.

Kevin Goodwin announced that 3,000 UMCOR kits and $1600.00 for Africa University Choir travel expenses had been donated during this Annual Conference.

Marcia McFee said in a devotional moment that we are the word of God--thanks be to God! She led the body in an inspiring "signing" of the Lord's Prayer and then performed a liturgical dance to the Spirit Song. Jonathan Baker thanked her for her contribution to the annual conference with a gift, affirming a lasting connection with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

The Order of the Day was introduced by Laurence Stookey, chairperson of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. A video of Wesley Foundation campus ministry was shown. Copies were announced as available to local churches. A copy of the tape was given to Bishop Weaver.

Tarnisha Adams, a Black College Fund Ambassador from Philander Smith College in Houston, spoke poetically of a spiritual highway in her walk with Christ. She thanked the conference for its contribution to the Black College Fund and presented Bishop Weaver with a plaque recognizing the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for 100% remittance to the Black College Fund.

Laurence Stookey announced the award of a scholarship to Katie Hill, the daughter of clergy member Greg Hill. The family is located in South Carolina where Greg Hill is serving in an extension ministry as a U.S. Army chaplain.

Kevin Goodwin then asked for financial support for the Peninsula-Delaware Ministerial Education fund.

Scott Miller, president of Wesley College, led the Wesley Corporate Session. He welcomed Susan Olson as the new Wesley chaplain, replacing Lehman Tomlin who accepted another call on his ministry. He also welcomed Cliff Armour and Charles Dashiell to the Board of Trustees. Vanessa Nesbitt, magna cum laude recipient of the Wesley College Faculty Award for Scholarship and Citizenship, spoke about the comradery and synergy, pride and growth at Wesley. Terry Higgins, recipient of the President's Award for Excellence, spoke about the positive changes at Wesley: a dramatic, inclusive constituency; a church-college relationship that is growing into a stronger partnership; a new Master's Degree program. Lehman Tomlin closed the Wesley presentation with a prayer.

Bryant's United Methodist Church Youth Choir sang "Sweet Sweet Spirit."

Vaughn Adams presented the Awards Program. The following awards were celebrated (previously awarded):

- Bishops Children's Initiative (recipients listed previously in Daily Proceedings)
- Alberta Browne Award to Sheila McDowell Griffith
- S. Lowan Pitts Award to Geraldine Robinson
- William Richard Wynder Award to Caroline Patton
- The Martin Luther King, Jr. Award to Hattie Louise Dutton

Cheryl Jensen, chairperson, presented the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Affairs Award (Bishop's Award) to

- Salisbury Urban Ministries, and
- Newark United Methodist Church and Cooperative Churches
- Chestertown Ministries
- South New Castle County Parish of the Middletown-Odessa-Townsend Area United Methodist Church

James T. Seymour presented a resolution:

"Be it resolved that July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000 be declared a year of emphasis on development of Mission Areas in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference." It passed.

Rick Vance presented the Harry Denman Awards:

- Lay Adult recipient—Stanford Ricketts
- Lay Youth recipient—Jon P. Arbeene
- Clergy recipient—James C. Van Der Wall

Laurence Stookey presented the Francis Asbury Award to Homer Minus.

Also celebrated and previously awarded:

- Order of St. Barnabas
 - Dr. Sung Ho Bae
 - Esther Hackett (posthumously)
 - Jay A. Hanna (posthumously)
 - Christine Miller Joynes
 - Lewis Vansant
 - Francis Terpin (posthumously)
 - James C. Hardcastle

Jonathan Baker rose to recognize two individuals. He thanked Parke Hess and his wife, Nancy, on the occasion of Parke Hess' retirement from the United Methodist Foundation. He then called on Tom Short. Tom Short offered the following resolution recognizing Richard Stazesky:

"Whereas the Rev. Richard Stazesky is a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference; and,
Whereas he has served as President and CEO of Peninsula Methodist Homes for the past eighteen years, and
Whereas he has served in this capacity with such excellence that he has been honored at the national level; and,
Whereas he will be retired on June 30, 1999;
Be it therefore resolved
That we give a rising vote of gratitude to Richard Stazesky for his outstanding leadership and ministry."
It was done.

Jonathan Baker thanked the Conference Resource Center staff; the Sessions Committee; the stage manager; the Logistics and Worship teams, especially; the musicians; the audio and video personnel; the "Pit" team; Gordon Stapleton and the Tally committee; Ike Ledger and his team of ushers; Sterling Green; Pat Dorey and the Dover District Hospitality Committee; and Bishop Weaver.

The Bishop then called on the Secretary, Irene Hoffman. The Secretary moved "to adjourn following the completion of the Ordination Service this afternoon, and to reconvene in an adjourned session November 6, 1999 at Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church in Dover Delaware." It was carried.

We stepped out singing "Marching to Zion".

Sunday Afternoon July 13, 1999

Ordination took place at 3:00 p.m. in the Dover Middle School Auditorium. The Capitol Brass and Organ provided the gathering music. A massed combined choir sang throughout.

Karen Bunnell and Esselee Davis presented the candidates.

Probationary Member: Jack David Cohen

Deacons, Associate Members: Robin Daniel Blevins, Martha Pepper Callaway

Full Member Deacon: Ann Short Wilson

Full Member Elders: Barbara Harris Harmon, Vanessa Stephens Lee, William Stanton Leonard, Michelle Lynn Loving-Moore, and Yvonne Wallace Penn.

Boyd Etter presented Jack David Cohen to Bishop Weaver for commissioning. He was commissioned. The Bishop then examined and ordained the deacons and elders in their turns.

Bishop Peter Weaver preached, prior to ordination, on the subject of "what do you do?" as opposed to "who are you?" He said that what we do stems from who we are; and, we are the servants of God sent to serve the people of God.

At the conclusion of the service, the Bishop gave an altar call to those who desired to share the call to ordained ministry and also to those who wished to re-dedicate themselves to the ordained ministry.

So ended the 215th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

CERTIFICATE OF CONSECRATION

I certify that on the thirteenth day of June, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Nine, in the Central Middle School Auditorium, Dover Delaware, I ordained as Deacon (Ordained to Word and Service, 1996 Discipline):

C. ADOPTED CONFERENCE ACTIONS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT, AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION BEGINNING THE MORNING OF JUNE 12 1999, THE SECRETARY, ON BEHALF OF THE SESSIONS COMMITTEE, WILL MOVE AN AMENDMENT TO RULE 10 OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AS INDICATED IN THE AMENDMENT BELOW.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE Amendment to Rule 10

Whereas, it is desirable to provide additional members of the Annual Conference opportunities for debate and discussion on matters which arise before the body while providing for wise stewardship of time,
Whereas, the ten minute maximum per speech permitted by Rule 10 reduces the number of individual speaking opportunities on any one question,
Whereas, the Rules of Order of the Annual Conference may be amended by a two-thirds majority of Annual Conference members voting,
The Conference Secretary, on behalf of the Sessions Committee, moves the adoption of the following amendment to Rule 10 of the Rules of Order:
Replace the word "ten" with the word "four". The amended Rule will read as follows:

No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than four minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Conference Refugee Coordinator

I was appointed in July 1998 to replace Rev. Jefferson Labala who had the following goal: contact key pastors to get them involved in refugee resettlement.

I have continued that effort by talking to pastors in the Cambridge, Maryland, area. This is a follow-up of earlier contacts made by Rev. Labala.

I wrote a report of the Newark United Methodist Church's history of refugee resettlement, which began in 1977 and continues to this day. Copies can be made available to interested churches.

I was asked in September to serve on the board of PRIME/Ecumenical Commitment to Refugees, an affiliate of Church World Service Immigration and Refugee Program. PRIME/ECR had helped our church with the sponsorship of the most recent refugees, six Bosnians and a family of four from Togo, West Africa.

1999 goals include continued contact of churches to interest them in sponsoring refugees; (see resolution below) and preparing a display for the Annual Conference in June.

2000 goals include multiple sponsorships throughout the Conference.

Resolution: that at least one church in the Conference will agree to sponsor a refugee family in 1999. Contact Bob Lucas, (302) 731-5364 for more information. I will also help coordinate the sponsorship and assist in any way I can.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to District Superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 1998 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was $152,500. Funds expended in 1998 totaled $106,637. As part of this report, there is attached a list of the churches and/or charges receiving assistance in 1998.

As part of a continuing effort to identify its mission and to identify areas where it can provide pastoral assistance, the Commission this past year reviewed and agreed to provide assistance to local churches whose pastors experienced a short-term disability. Assistance will be in the form of reimbursement to the local church for the expenses incurred by a substitute pastor for a period of up to six months, as long as the church continues to pay the full salary of its disabled pastor. The District Superintendent, the Local Church, and the Commission Chairperson will agree upon the amount of reimbursement. It was felt this assistance could be provided with no increase in the budget.

If you are new to your Pastor Parish Relations Committee or concerned about what you should or could be doing to help your pastor, please feel free to pick up a copy of our brochure entitled "Guidelines for Pastor's Compensation".

Recommendations

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 2000:

Full Member	-	$23,600
Probationary & Associate Member	-	$21,250
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$19,700
Student Pastor	-	$16,950*

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 2000 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Board of Pensions Resolution

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 2000 be set at $386 per year of approved service.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCE FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

- 1 An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received during the year of 2000 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at the time of his or her retirement
- 2 This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister who has been granted the retired relation or placed on disability leave by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and whose name and relationship to the conference is recorded in the Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and in other appropriate records maintained by the conference.
- 3 The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension payment resulting from all service of such retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-290 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities.

RELATIONAL DESIGN TASK FORCE

A Blueprint for Christian Discipleship through Mission Area Ministry was adopted at the 19977 Conference Session. Following the adoption, a Relational Design Task Force was created to "refine a new conference design to support Mission Area Ministry". (Page 41 - Blueprint"...)

The following refinements are recommended for consideration:

1. Pages 9-24 of the Relational Design which includes District Mission Area Ministry Councils and the Conference Organizational Model
2. Page 26 "Following the approval of the Conference Relational Design, a Task Force will be created to align staffing functions to the new relational Design." Responsibilities and composition of the Task Force are on Page 26.
3. Pages 28- top of 31 Rules and Guidelines for Conference Nominating Task Force.

Nominating Task Force Resolution

Whereas the new Relational Design will require the election of Conference leadership to begin training and organizing effective January 1, 2000; and

Whereas the nominations will be submitted for election at the Adjourned Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference on November 6, 1999; and

Whereas the selection of persons to be nominated will require a knowledge of the Relational Design so persons will be selected for the gifts they bring to specific responsibilities; and

Whereas the selection of persons to be nominated will also require knowledge of current leadership who may be considered to provide continuity;

Therefore be it resolved,

.... that Bishop Weaver appoint a special Nominations Task Force with members from the current Conference Nominations Committee and representatives from the Relational Design Task Force along with members at large to assure inclusiveness.

.... that this Task Force is organized immediately following Annual Conference to begin its work for the Fall Adjourned Session.

Resolution for Discontinuation of
St. Peter's United Methodist Church
Delaware City, Delaware
June 12, 1999

As superintendent of the Wilmington District of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference I present the following resolution for your decision.

WHEREAS the members of St. Peter's United Methodist Church located at 200 Fifth Street in Delaware City, DE on the Wilmington District decided to request the discontinuation of their local church in the summer of 1998 according to paragraph 2548 in Ae 1996 Book of Discipline because their membership had fallen to six members,

AND WHEREAS the District Board of Church Location and Building approved the closing of St. Peter's UMC in accordance with the request of the members,

AND WHEREAS the members of St. Peter's UMC have held a closing worship service, transferred their members to St. Daniel's UMC in Port Penn, DE, removed the memorial and sentimental items from the church, and sent to Barratt's Chapel those items of specific significance for the history of the church,

AND WHEREAS the trustees of St. Peter's LTMC have already turned over the keys to the church building and control of the property to the Board of Trustees of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference in keeping with paragraph 2 5 03 of The 1996 Book of Discipline, THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED that 215th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference hereby discontinues St. Peter's United Methodist Church in Delaware City, DE on this thirteenth day of June and declares the property abandoned so that the property becomes the responsibility of the Trustees of the Annual Conference.

Signed,
The Rev. Susan Keirn Kester

Wesley United Methodist Church
Crapo Charge

Whereas, Wesley United Methodist Church Conference has asked to be discontinued as a local church serving the purpose for which it was organized and incorporated according to paragraphs 201-204 of the 1996 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, the members of Wesley United Methodist Church will be in conversation with the Trustees of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference following the 1999 session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference to identify a cemetery committee to care -for the existing property; and

Whereas, the membership of Wesley United Methodist Church has been transferred to St. John's United Methodist Church on the Crapo Charge in accordance with paragraph 230 of The 1996 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, the Bishop, Cabinet, and District Board of Church Location and Building of the Easton District has approved the request from Wesley United Methodist Church;

Therefore be it resolved that Wesley United Methodist Church be discontinued according to paragraph 2548 of the 1996 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

RESOLUTION FOR THE CONTINUATION OF ALL PROVISIONS OF THE VOTING RIGHTS ACT

WHEREAS, Galatians 3:28 states that "there is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, for all are one in Christ Jesus," and

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church paragraph 66, Section III, A. Rights of Racial and Ethnic Persons states that "We...assert the right of members of racial and ethnic groups to... nondiscrimination in voting," and

WHEREAS, the 15th Amendment to the United States Constitution was not enough to guarantee voting rights for African Americans without the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and

WHEREAS, the Voting Rights Act also includes special provisions containing extraordinary remedies such as

- the authorization of the U.S. Attorney General to send federal registrars (examiners) to register voters, in counties where the local registrar refuses to register blacks. [Section 6, 42 U.S.C. Paragraph 1973d]
- the authorization of the U.S. Attorney General to send federal observers to monitor elections, to make sure that blacks who are eligible to vote are actually permitted to vote, and that their votes are actually counted [Section 8, 42 U.S. C. Paragraph 1973f]
- the requirement that specially covered jurisdictions gain the approval of the U.S. Attorney General before implementing new voting practices or procedures, to make sure that any voting changes that they make are not racially discriminatory [Section 5, 42 U.S.C. Paragraph 1973c] and

WHEREAS, these extraordinary remedies were extended in 1970, 1975, and 1982, and

WHEREAS, these extraordinary remedies will expire in 2007, if they are not further extended,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference petition their congressional representatives and senators to make these extraordinary remedies of the Voters Rights Act of 1965 permanent, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that letters stating this position be sent by the Commission on Religion and Race and Board of Church and Society to the members of Congress from Maryland and Delaware.

Presented at the 1999 Session of The Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

RESOLUTION TO THE AGENDA COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

In reference to Barratt's Chapel (Cradle of Methodism or Independence Hall of American Methodism)

Barratt's Chapel holds a special place in the history of Methodism in America, not only because it is the oldest building in America built by Methodists for worship still in use, but also because of events that took place there.

WHEREAS: In 1772, Francis Asbury, one of eight Wesley Missionaries came to Delaware and in an opportune time, after the War, began meeting with fellow Christians, later meeting in Barratt's Chapel; and

WHEREAS: In 1780, Barratt's Chapel was built - a good example of Colonial Georgian Architecture; and

WHEREAS: On November 14, 1784, Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury, who became the first Bishops of The Methodist Episcopal Church in America, met for the first time at the Chapel. The star in the floor of the chapel marks this historic spot. At this meeting plans were laid for the Christmas Conference, at which the Methodist Episcopal Church was formally organized; and

WHEREAS: At this meeting on November 14, 1784, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by Thomas Coke and Richard Whatcoat. This was the first time that the sacrament had been administered anywhere by an ordained Methodist minister with the approval of John Wesley. In effect this declared the independence of American Methodism from the Church of England; and

WHEREAS: Barratt's Chapel's history has significant ties to the history of African-American Methodism. In its early years the congregation there had many African-American members. Harry Hosier, a freed slave and traveling companion of Asbury, was present at the historic meeting in November 1784, and was appointed by Asbury to be Coke's guide to America. For six weeks between the meeting at Barratt's and the Christmas Conference, Hosier guided Coke on a preaching tour of the Delmarva Peninsula, during which the two men became good friends. Coke called Hosier "One of the best preachers in the world", and this experience influenced Coke to become a champion of the anti-slavery cause; and

WHEREAS: The United Methodist Church seeks reconciliation with our Pan-American Methodist brothers and sisters in the spirit of repentance and healing as we move into the 21st Century and Barratt's Chapel is a symbol of hope for an inclusive church; and

WHEREAS: In 1936, Barratt's Chapel was photographed and recorded by The United States Department of Interior in the Historic American Building survey that lists buildings erected before 1800; and

WHEREAS: In 1940, The General Conference of The Methodist Church declared Barratt's Chapel a Shrine; and

WHEREAS: In 1964, the Discipline of The Methodist Church referred to the Chapel as one of the twelve buildings and sites designated by The General Conference as a Methodist Shrine; and

WHEREAS: On the 20th of October in 1972, Barratt's Chapel was placed on the National Register of Historical Places.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED -

That The Commission on Archives and History of The Peninsula-Delaware Conference requests time during the General Conference of 2000 to tell the story of Barratt's Chapel in word and drama.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT REPORTS

Dover District

"And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ until we all attain to the unity of the faith."

Ephesians 4: 11-13

"Partnering in Ministry" was the theme for much of what we did together on the Dover District this year. It was a year in which we recognized and developed our gifts for ministry - both lay and clergy alike - and then risked sharing them in partnership. A wonderful example of how this worked was the Annual Conference that our district hosted. Hundreds of people representing the rich diversity of our district stepped forward and shared in music and worship, in hospitality and counting, in praying and planning and what emerged was something greater than what we could ever imagine. God took our gifts and magnified them before our very eyes. What a great model for who we are called to be, what a great model for Mission Area Ministry!

The Rev. Ann Wilson, MAM facilitator and a newly ordained deacon, has continued to give leadership to the developing mission areas within the district. The year was spent in encouraging churches to explore a shared vision for ministry with other churches in their area. Some exciting ministries have emerged including a beach ministry, a homeless shelter, Hispanic ministry, community evangelistic outreach, and replacing the foundation of a church as well as many other initiatives too numerous to mention. The District Coordinating Team has been reorganized and its members include: Barbara Duffin, Janet English, Alice Ervin, Francis Givens, Jerome Hutson, Edie Knotts, Diane Melson, Beverly Mitchell, George Moody, Bob Moyer, Sandra Neal, Jean Norwood, Gary Tulak, and Janet Walker.

Charge Conference this year was based on our theme of "partnering". Church leaders gathered together in Mission Area clusters and were led in Bible study and partnering exercises by teams of laity. The attendance was excellent at all the gatherings and the response was very positive.

The Board of Laity, under the leadership of Pat Dorey, District Lay Leader, continued to nurture and encourage laity in developing their gifts and offering leadership. Charge Conferences and Annual Conference were prime examples of this but there were also others, including a dynamic Lay Speaking Task Force co-chaired by Etta Mills and John Bartsch that has brought new energy to the training of laity throughout the year. Other members of this task force include: Elijah Bailey, Katrena Bailey, George Barner, Jon Birch, Paul Birch, Verdine Burris, Marjorie Chappel, Donna Clark, Doug Cool, Steve Elkins, Richard Ennis, Charlene Evans, Allen Glindemann, Ralph Gooch, Russell Howard, Thresa Huffman, Virginia Hurd, Arelene Jones, Gail Keen, Luray McClung, Marie Nordberg, Alma Roach, Chad Robinson, Joseph Sipos, Elizabeth Smack, Charles Smith, Dan Tabler, Sandy Wilkins, Elaine Wilkerson, and Ann Wilson. Lay Speakers were invited to spend an evening with Bishop Weaver in October sharing a meal and engaging in conversation about important issues facing the church. Members of the Board of Laity are: Madeline Beall, Helen Breeding, Bud Clark, Pat Dorey, Dennis Gourley, Curtis Johnson, Linda Juskiewicz, Fred Kilgoe, Howard Mason, Thomas Mifflin, Etta Mills, Wanda Seeney, Don Ward, Ann Wilson, and Guy Winebrenner.

The United Methodist Women under the leadership of Helen Breeding did an excellent job of providing hospitality at Annual Conference. Other activities during the year include helping at three team meetings, hosting a spring event on April 17 at Woodside that included discussion on Prison Ministry and The Way Home Program and hosting the conference spring event at Asbury in Harrington on April 24. The District UMW also hosted a Conference Spiritual Life Retreat at Wesley in Dover and helped with the arts and crafts table at the Hispanic mission encounter. Thirteen units were presented with five star awards, indicating that they have given to missions in the five categories of UMW.

The United Methodist Men, with Guy Winebrenner as leader, greatly assisted clergy and laity at Annual Conference in assisting with parking safety concerns. In addition many men from the district attended the annual retreat at Camp Pecometh last fall.

The Youth of our district have been very active this year also. The Conference Youth Rally held in January at Ocean City had 285 of our youth from 22 churches attending. There was a district gathering during the rally that was well received by our youth. Over 40 youth from the district participated in the Youth Annual Conference (YAC99) held on Saturday, June 12, 1999 at Wesley College as part of the Annual Conference. Many youth bands are being developed in the local churches. Under the excellent leadership of Karen Handy, Dover District Youth Coordinator, youth also have participated in the Conference Youth Council and helped send Carlton Parker to Africa on a Mission Trip. District members of the Youth Council include Chris Arbeene, Jon Arbeene, Erin Jones, and Kristen Wheatley.

Several district youth have participated in on-going Volunteer in Mission Projects in Costa Rica including one in June 1999. Two other Dover District VIM work trips were taken to the Four Corners Area of New Mexico - one July 1998 and another May 1999. Rick Vance is the coordinator of VIM for the district. The Hispanic and Haitian Ministries continue to grow within our district and are being organized as missions. The Dover District Hispanic Task Force held a retreat with members of the Betel Fellowship in February resulting in a reorganizing of the Task Force. New officers include Raul Benavides and Mary Dulany as co-chairs, Liticia Benavides, Kathy Besche, Otto Lopez, Myrna Newman, Edna Taylor, Jim Van Der Wall, and Bob Wilson.

The Dover District Ministers and Mates met five times this year beginning with a picnic at Cape Henlopen State Park in August and ending with sponsoring a very successful Clergy Spouse's Luncheon during Annual Conference at Wesley in Dover. Thanks to Rebecca Johnson, Barbara Stapleton, and Ann Wilson for giving leadership to the luncheon and to Nettie Green and Gilda Knight for presenting "Amigos". The clergy officers include: Ruth Tull, President, Rick Vance, Vice President, Bonnie Shively, Secretary and Joe Burris, Treasurer. Special thanks are offered to Ruth who will be stepping aside next year as president. She has brought a new energy and focus to the group.

There were a number of training events in our district this year including trustee training and pastor parish training for churches experiencing a change of pastor. Many laity and clergy also attended a conference sponsored training event for church leaders held on our district. In addition an excellent mentoring retreat was held in February for Clergy Mentors and Mentees in our district. Members of the training team include Mark Avens, Earle Baker, Alice Ervin, Mike Hurley, Joshua Labelo, Bob Rowe, Bob Price, Ruth Tull, and Phyllis Walton.

The Combating Racism Task Force continued to meet for support and accountability and offered a Lenten Service of Repentance at Barratt's Chapel. Members of this Task Force include: Mark Avens, Elaine Ayres, Earle Baker, Martha Callaway, Timothy Duffield, W. Hayward Greene, Jim Hawkins, David Humphrey, Bill Johnson, Joshua Lebelo, Bruce Miller, Bob Price, Bill Ross, Gary Tulak, Ruth Tull, Steve Wallace, Tina Whaley, Dale Wilson and Ann Wilson.

The Care of the Soul Task Force sponsored a retreat on "Conflict Resolution and Managing Polarities" for clergy and spouses. Members of the task force were Alice Ervin, Kari Jones, Bob Price, Bob Rowe, and Gary Tulak.

The District Board of Church Location, chaired by David Paul, has been busy working with a number of churches concerning property matters. These include Smyrna: Centennial (new sanctuary), Seaford-Reliance: Gethsemane (new sanctuary), Milford: St. Paul (new sanctuary), Lincoln: Slaughter Neck (new community building), Laurel: Trinity (addition to sanctuary and new community building), and Frankford (sale of parsonage). Members of the Board include: Joe Burris, Charles Carter, Ernie Dorman, Joe Dulany, W. Hayward Greene, Elzey Jones, and Don Ward.

The District Committee on Ministry under the leadership of the Rev. Jim Van Der Wall conducted an annual review of all local and student pastors. They certified Sharon Graves and Geraldine Jones for the Ministry of Deacon; Claudia Waters, Barbara Wilson, William Hopkins, Diane Melson, and Charlene Evans as Ministers of Word and Sacrament. Members of the District Committee on Ministry include: Earle Baker, Charles Covington, Bill Johnson, Joshua Lebelo, Anne Pruett-Barnett, Jim Van Der Wall, Dale Vroman, Claudia Waters, Ann Wilson, and Harriet Windsor.

Congratulations to Ann Wilson who has been ordained a Deacon in Full Connection and to Martha Callaway who has been ordained an Associate Member Deacon. Appreciation is extended to Charles Moyer and David Paul who retired at the end of the conference year. Thanksgiving is offered for the life of William Archer who entered the church triumphant. Special thanks to Don Clendaniel, William Miller and Kenneth Huffman who decided to retire again after serving so faithfully in retirement. I am deeply grateful for the service provided by many retired pastors during the year in filling in where needed including Gordon Stapleton, Jervis Cooke, Charles Covington, George Godfrey, Paul McCoy, and David Baker, who celebrated his 60th anniversary of ordination. A very special thanks to Dale Pruett and LeRoy Jones who many times served beyond the call of duty.

Pastors leaving the district this year include: Mark Avens, Page Boyce, Jim Caldwell, Jim Carmean, Wes Davis, Herman Lipsius, Carol Loy, Robert Price, Don Schell, and Dale Vroman. Go with our gratitude and prayers. Welcome to the following incoming pastors: Jay Bunting, Bruce Cooke, Kim Gilson, Jack Gowen, Sam Hale, Jay Hurley, Everett Isaacs, Priscilla Maxham, David Palmer, Brooks Reynolds, Reed Stewart, Mike Truitt, and Richard Walton. Those serving other churches within the district include Earle Baker, Bruce Miller, Bernard Shuhayda, and Tina Whaley.

Congratulations are also in order for the following who graduated this year: Alan Jones (Wesley Theological Seminary), Fred Duncan, Mike Hurley, Carol Loy, and Phyllis Walton (Wilmington College).

Under the leadership of the district clergy working in partnership with committed laity, our district grew this year increasing in total membership by 109 members. Those churches leading the way with an increase in membership of 10 or more include: Smyrna: Asbury (13), Milford: Avenue (16), Lewes: Bethel (15), Milford: Calvary (31), Laurel: Centenary (21), Rehoboth: Epworth (15), Millsboro: Grace (22), Hickory Hill (11), Ocean View: Mariner's Bethel (16), Bridgeville: Mt. Calvary (12), Seaford: Mt. Olivet (15), Selbyville: Salem (15), Seaford: St. John's (21), Clarksville: Union Wesley (13), Dover: Wesley (12), Georgetown: Wesley (10), Dover: Whatcoat (16), Camden: Whatcoat (11), and Wyoming (27).

In closing, let me express my appreciation to the Superintendency Committee under the leadership of Rev. Bob Price for its support and wise counsel during the year. Members of this committee include: Ralph Allen, Jamie Bethard, Susie Bond, Pat Dorey, Fred Duncan, John Gaines, Karen Handy, George Moody, Pat Moore, and Tina Whaley.

Again this year I am deeply indebted to Pat Dorey who has served with such total commitment and grace as the Dover District Lay Leader. She has been indeed a wonderful partner to work with. I am sorry to see her step down but, believe me, I understand.

Ann Wilson has worked tirelessly with district churches again this year in whatever way possible to lead them into Mission Area Ministry. It is an honor to serve with her.

And finally, let me affirm the incredible ministry of Marilyn Cleeton who serves as my administrative assistant in the district office. She has worked diligently to improve the quality of service that the office provides in answering calls, timely responses, use of e-mail and faxes to get the information out, general running of the office (and the superintendent), and gracious hostess to groups that meet in the office as well as many other things. In addition she has worked to improve the effectiveness of the cabinet in a variety of ways including compiling a list of conference policies for quick reference. God has indeed blessed our district with Marilyn Cleeton.

You can see from the length of this report that much has been happening on the district this year. As I begin my last year as superintendent, I rejoice in the spiritual vitality that pervades so many of our district churches and is embodied in the lay and clergy partners who give leadership in the Dover District. Indeed, God is Good!!

EASTON DISTRICT

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account
Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God is living. The word of God is active. The word of God is sharper than any two-edge sword. We have experienced the power of the word of God on the Easton District this year as we have partnered together in ministry. Together we have listened with the ear of our heart to discern what it means to cultivate missional congregations. Through prayers, study of scripture, and living into the vision of Mission Area Ministry we have seen youth saved, lives changed, communities worshipping and working together, and laity and clergy teaming together for mission and ministry. Together with the clergy and laity of the Easton District, the following report is our offering not just to the Annual Conference but to the One that is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of our hearts.

The Easton District Youth Coordinator, Mark Farnell, doesn't recall a greater year than our district youth program had in 1998. Churches across the district are calling and sharing their vision for our youth and are currently re-constructing or inventing new youth groups in their churches. Also, it's exciting to see local churches operating under Mission Area Ministries as their youth groups come together as one. For example, the southern region of Caroline County is having combined youth services once a month. They come together for fellowship, food, and fun.

Two district rallies were held in 1998. First, was in Centreville, MD, at Centreville UMC. In attendance that night were 120 teenagers and their leaders from all over the district. The church helped sponsor a contemporary music ministry called, "Soldiers of the Cross". The evening was called "Bash at the Beach" and we all dressed up for the beach. That night the altar was full of teenagers praying and giving up their sins and starting fresh under the guidance of Jesus.

Our last rally of the year was held at St. Paul's UMC in Cambridge, MD. We were blessed as the spirit in Cambridge saw 125 youth come together to worship God and have fun. The speaker that night was from Gettysburg College, and the church sponsored the contemporary band, "The Full Gospel Boogie Band". This rally also experienced the wave of the spirit as the teens were asked to make decisions for Christ.

At the end of last summer, Mark spoke at a town-wide youth rally in Rock Hall, MD. To see the support the local Methodist church received was nothing short of a success, as T.V.'s, bikes, fishing rods, walkmans, radio's, and much more were donated by the local merchants. That evening proved to be a defeat in the devil's plans for the local youth, as 22 teenagers gave over their lives to Jesus Christ. So without doubt, to date, the Easton District has seen 44 teenagers turn their lives over to our Lord and Savior. What exciting times to be alive in the Lord!

The Easton District Mission Task Force, chaired by Mrs. Joyce Jones, collected $4,900.00 for pastors in the North Katanga Annual Conference. Their goal was to raise $2,400.00 which would provide adequate funding for roofing one church, building a parsonage, and providing one bicycle as a means of transportation for a local pastor, and needed farm implements for the pastor and his family in the North Katanga Annual Conference in the Democratic Republic of Congo. These needs were part of the special Advance through the General Board of Global Ministries. The active participation of the local congregations made it possible to exceed their goal.

The present goal is to get youth actively involved in mission in their local communities. The overall objective of these mission activities is to rekindle the spirit and zeal for mission in the Easton District.

The Easton District Board of Laity has enjoyed a very fruitful and successful year throughout the district. Each member of the board assisted District Superintendent Ron Bell at each of our clustered charge conferences throughout the fall. These conferences were filled with the spirit as laity and clergy from across the district came together to prayerfully attend to the ministry of God's church.

The annual banquet for the laity was held during the month of November in Federalsburg with Bishop Peter Weaver bringing the message from Revelation to the 326 in attendance. This annual event has grown so large that we had to hold it in a local community hall. The meal was great, the fellowship superb, and the spirit of the Lord enlightening. Stay tuned for this event next year.

Our Lay Speakers Academy was, again, a tremendous success under the leadership of Evelyn Taylor. She continues to do a fine job organizing this event. Close to 200 lay speakers attended the two schools located in Cambridge and Centreville. The schools came together on the last evening for a service of dedication and renewal to go forth and do the work of the lay speaker in our local churches. All who attended were rewarded with a great worship experience. The board is also considering offering classes at times other than these regular spring dates.

At the most recent Board of Laity meeting (April '99) it was decided that, as a mission outreach within our district, we would contribute $1,000 to the Metropolitan Church in Denton as they prepare to build a new church to replace their present sanctuary. It has been condemned and they can no longer meet in it. Let us all pray for this church as they continue to be a spiritual voice in their community. Thank you to the Board of Laity for their vision of reaching out in communities of faith to our brothers and sisters in the Easton District.

The Easton District Committee on Ordained Ministry, chaired by the Rev. Dr. Bruce Cooke, met six times from July of 1998 through June of 1999, and conducted 20 interviews in fulfillment of its responsibility for the supervision and guidance of 3 Student Local Pastors, 8 Full-Time Local Pastors, 6 Part-Time Local Pastors, and 2 Certified Candidates not under appointment. We also have 5 persons at the Inquiry stage, and 7 persons pursuing Candidacy Studies.

The Easton District United Methodist Women began the year with a new president, Barbara E. Lake, and eighty-six local units of which fifteen were Five Star Program units.

The District officers and chairpersons/coordinators have faithfully executed their duties this past year by installing officers of a reorganized unit (Easton-Miles River Charge); reorganizing units (New St. John's); visiting local units (Waugh, Waters, and St. Mark's) by invitation to share ideas for accurately and efficiently executing local unit guidelines; publicizing Conference and District information through the Mission Guide and the 1999 Unit Directory; and supporting Mission projects at the House in the Pines and Hospice House in Easton, MD, the Detention Center in Queen Anne's County, and transporting patients to the doctor and/or hospital.

The District Officers have successfully held Team meetings at Asbury UMC in Easton, MD; conducted an Officers Training Workshop at St. Mark's in Easton, MD; and attended the: Conference Spiritual Life Retreat at Hurlock UMC in Hurlock, MD, District Spring Event at Mt. Pleasant UMC in Salem, MD, and Conference and District Team meetings in Dover, DE.

UMW of the Easton District are looking forward to attending and being involved in the School of Christian Mission at Salisbury University in Salisbury, MD; Tri-Conference Peace and Justice Conference at the United Methodist Assembly Center in Blackstone, VA; Scheduled Conference and District Team meetings; Conference Spring Event at Asbury UMC in Harrington, DE; District Fall meeting at St. Luke's UMC in Denton, MD; and Annual Fall Conference meeting at St. Mark's UMC in Easton, MD.

Some United Methodist Women of the District have expressed the following concerns: improving attendance at District meetings; filling the office of vice-president; and inspiring more united, biracial leadership and participation.

It is the sincere desire of the Easton District United Methodist Women to prayerfully move forward in achieving our goals and in making real in our lives the Purpose of United Methodist Women.

President of the Easton District Ministers and Mates Association, Rev. Kim Gilson, reports that the District Ministers and Mates Association exists for the sole purpose of providing fellowship and inspiration to all Pastor's and their spouse's on the district. They have been careful about the inclusion of our Pastor's, and student Pastor's and those widowed as well as the retirees.

The two-cluster concept is continued to be supported by dividing the district into the Northern and Southern Clusters which provides added opportunities for getting together informally and formally to continue to keep from feeling isolated in ministry. The Cluster's have been and are continuing to be encouraged to provide their own leadership and set their own agenda.

Two district-wide events held on the district have included our Christmas dinner and fellowship and the Break Away From Packing Picnic where the district formally brings best wishes, prayers and support to both those leaving and those coming on the district.

One disappointment this past conference year, we had to cancel the Lenten Retreat. In the past this overnight at Drayton has proved to be an invaluable time for renewal and fellowship. Perhaps the timing was off this year.

The Easton District Mission Area Ministry (Facilitator, Rev. Alice Hutchins), partnered in unity by participating in the following activities;

- The new pastor's workshop;
- Extensive training in Partners in Ministry;
- The Partnering Gatherings from the north to the south of the district - very high spirited with the Holy Spirit;
- The commissioning of the Charge Conferences, each are very unique with the Powerful Hand of God;
- Attendance Convocation of Power, Passion, and Authority in Atlanta, GA;
- Trained Partners in Ministry, "Listening" Local leaders;
- The Conference Mission Area Ministry, Coordinator Facilitators, Bishop Weaver and Cabinet;
- Working closely with Rev. Bell as District Superintendent;
- Receiving the excitement of churches, charges wanting to partner together; ecumenically and inclusively.

The Easton District Building and Location Committee chaired by Rev. Robert L. Thomas, takes great pride in sharing in the life of our District Churches. The faith of our churches is healthy and the spirit of the Lord is strong. The DBCLB has assisted the following congregations:

Waugh United Methodist Church: Waugh church has embarked upon a complete renovation program. Plans are well under way and the congregation is excited about the building program.

Charles Wesley United Methodist Church: Charles Wesley church in Centerville, MD has replaced its roof and added a new furnace and central air conditioning.

Still Pond Church (Limited Service): Still Pond Charge has requested to lease Still Pond Church (Limited Service) to Rev. Thomas Engelke, to open a non-denominational church. Approval was given upon certain requirements which are to be worked out between the District Superintendent, Still Pond Charge and Rev. Engelke.

Reid's Grove United Methodist Church: Reid's Grove is in the process of building a new educational building. Plans are under way. Target date is September 1999.

God's grace has abounded in so many ways. May we continue in the grace of God as we continue to offer ourselves to the service of the Kingdom of God. We celebrate with the following churches on the Easton District who have reported 4 or more new members on Confession of faith or restored relationships with Christ and the Church this year:

Ronald Bell, Sr.
Easton District Superintendent

Salisbury District

*"Grace and Peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
I thank God every time I remember you... being thankful for your partnership in the Gospel from the first day until now and confident that God who began a good work in you will bring it to completion."
Philippians 1:2-6*

From the beginning of the first year as Superintendent of the Salisbury District until now, at the end of the sixth year, I have thanked God for the partnership in ministry I have experienced across the three counties. At the end I am certain that God's good work in empowering cooperative ministries on the Salisbury District will continue to bring God's work to fulfillment.

District Lay Leader, Lois Rogers, has worked with me as District Superintendent in full partnership in God's work, for which I thank God. Laity, under the leadership of Mrs. Rogers, have offered devotions and have sat at the table of leadership at all of the Charge Conferences. At the Charge Conferences we celebrated cooperative ministries in mission to our communities including Mission Area Bible Study, seasonal joint services, combined Vacation Bible Schools, Disciple Bible Studies, community youth groups, community choirs, and joint service projects such as hot lunch programs, food banks, and clothes closets. Partnership in ministry was the vision lifted up throughout the District.

New pastors becoming partners with laity and clergy colleagues at the beginning of the Conference year were: Constance Sterner, on loan from Ohio East Conference at Berlin: Bethany; John Savage at Berlin: Friendship; Debra Robinson at Crisfield: Shiloh; Shirley Polk at Delmar: Union; Arthur Blanchette at Fruitland: Olde Friendship; Carlson Cox, on loan from Church of the Nazarene at Fruitland: Allen; Dean Perdue at Hebron: Charity; Woodrow Wilson at Princess Anne: Mt. Vernon; Carroll Fields Burke at Westover: St. James; Genevieve Brown at Cottage Grove: John Wesley; Elmer Davis at Oakville: St. Mark; Xavier Charleron at the Haitian Congregation; Joseph Henry at Wesley Temple; Robert Webster at Sharptown: Galestown; Bernadette Beckett at Stockton: Shiloh; and Helen Lockwood at Whaleyville.

Transferred to the Church Triumphant during the course of the year were retired Pastors Carroll Scott, G. Francis Wilson, and Chester Husted, and disabled Pastor Otho Waters. Pastors reaching milestones during this Conference year were: Philip Bosserman, Everett Isaacs, Howard Gordy, and Leonard Wheatley, retired; Daniel Blevins, ordained Deacon and received into Conference membership as an Associate; Barbara Harmon and Yvonne Penn, ordained Elder and received into full Conference membership; Daniel Blevins served on loan in the Maine Conference; and Donald Clendaniel, II went at the end of the Conference year to serve in the South Carolina Conference.

Moving at the end of the Conference year to other Districts were: Debra Robinson to Bellevue:St. Luke, Easton District; Arthur George to St. Michaels:Union, Easton District; J. Arthur Hurley to Camden:Whatcoat, Dover District; and Boyd Etter to North East, Wilmington District.

The Salisbury District Mission Area Ministry continued to move forward under the leadership of Facilitator Arthur Blanchette; Salisbury Urban Ministries has moved into the covenanting stage, and the Nanticoke Charge and the Nanticoke: Westside Charge are moving toward a cooperative larger parish. Other churches and charges are in various stages of stepping out in cooperative ministries. We thank God for the work done by Arthur Blanchette, including presentations to Charge Conferences, consultations with individual churches and charges, and geographical gatherings climaxed by six regional gatherings in which progress in Mission Area Ministry was celebrated during April. We pray for God to continue to use Mr. Blanchette as he returns to the ministry of the laity.

Salisbury Urban Ministries continued to demonstrate the values of a cooperative mission to the City of Salisbury under the creative and competent leadership of Executive Director, the Rev. Marsha Carpenter. There is real partnership of clergy and laity through the Parish Council, Pastor's Group, Executive Committee, Personnel Committee, Finance Committee, and Community Advisory Board to enable Salisbury Urban Ministries to be a genuine cooperative mission as guided by Marsha Carpenter with her unique collaborative gifts.

Cooperative ministry of an exceptional nature came into being when Grace Church in Venton, St. Paul's in Mt. Vernon, and Mt. Zion on Polk's Road all formerly of the Princess Ann-Venton Charge, became one church, Trinity United Methodist Community Worship Center, the Rev. T. David Hackett, Pastor. The motive for merger was to be able to focus on mission and ministry, rather than preserving the past and trying to maintain out-dated structures. Many years of faithful facing of the realities of church life preceded this great adventure of faith of bringing Princess Anne: Trinity into being. A major gift from the Conference Land Acquisition Fund under the Board of Global Ministries is enabling a prime location on the Princess Anne-Mt. Vernon Road to be purchased. Praise God for the dedication of Pastor Hackett and the people of Trinity.

The former Oakville-Cottage Grove Charge was divided into three appointments this year. Each church has increased attendance, membership, and ministries, and is reaching the separate communities for Christ. Thanks be to God for the effective leadership of Pastor Carroll Fields Burke at Westover: St. James, Pastor Elmer Davis at Oakville: St. Mark, and Pastor Genevieve Brown at Cottage Grove: John Wesley.

Some other Charges on the Salisbury District have decided to venture forth on the models of uniting for mission and ministry to the community as did Princess Anne-Venton Charge, or separating for mission and ministry as did the Oakville:Cottage Grove Charge. On the Upper Hill Charge, Centennial and St. Andrews merged, and Samuel Wesley in Manokin became a separate appointment. The Marion-Crisfield Charge has divided, with a separate pastor serving Marion:Handys, Libera, and Mt. Peer, and one serving Crisfield:Union Asbury and John Wesley. On the Stockton:Shiloh Charge, Berlin:Calvary separated to better serve the immediate community. May the Lord bless these churches, charges, and pastors in their new adventures in faith.

The Salisbury District Board of Church Building and Location has worked with several local churches in the District to assist them in building improvements. Giving outstanding leadership to this effort were Dr. Robert Harris, Chair; Preston Smith, Secretary; and Pastor Paul Sherwood, representing the Committee on the Conference Committee on Congregational Development.

The Salisbury District Committee on Ordained Ministry devoted many hours to supervising persons in the candidacy process; part-time, full-time, and student local pastors, and candidates for Conference membership and ordination. We are so grateful to Chair Bill Sterling; clergy members: Ashley Maxwell, Laura Martin, Jay Hurley, Marsha Carpenter, and Gertrude Brown; and lay members: Carl Wagner, Charles Goslee, and Tony Johnson.

The training of laity for effective partnering in ministry has been a major goal of the Board of Laity, under Lay Leader Lois Rogers. The Lay Academy had a successful six-week program that attracted two hundred lay persons. Satellite programs were offered in Worcester County at Berlin and in Somerset County at Crisfield. The new Chair of Lay Speakers is Major Bailey.

President Arelela Cray of the District United Methodist Women has dedicated herself to getting the women in mission. President Sherwood McGrath has sparked interest in the United Methodist Men in several local churches.

Offering supervision to the work of the District Superintendent has been an active group of clergy and laity on the District Committee on Superintendency, chaired by Gene Cray. We are so grateful to lay members Harrison Matthews, Lavada Waters, Virginia Layfield, Touissant James, Tom Field, and Lois Rogers, and clergy members Norma Bailey, Glenn Catley, Arthur George, and David Hackett.

Again this year the congregation experiencing the greatest growth by profession of faith is St. Paul's Church in Hebron, Pastor Bill Cropper. They have received 43 this year on top of 49 last year, bringing their membership to a total of 267, a 16% increase. Of the smaller churches receiving new members by profession of faith, Centennial Church added 11 to their membership, bringing the total to 24, an astounding 46% increase; St. Andrews added 13 to bring their total to 50, an increase of 16.5%; and Samuel Wesley added 13 by profession of faith, bringing their membership to 62, an increase of 21%. Since all three of these churches were on the Upper Hill Charge, Pastor Lester Justice, the Charge total was 37 added by profession of faith, bringing the Charge membership to 136.

In the late spring, a whole week of services was devoted to meeting the new Salisbury District Superintendent, the Rev. Dr. Patricia Bryant Harris, who received updates on the progress of Mission Area Ministry. The pastors and people of the Salisbury District eagerly await her taking charge July 1, for we are excited about the gifts she brings for leadership.

Howard L. Gordy, Jr.
Salisbury District Superintendent

Wilmington District

But I am among you as one who serves. Luke 22:27b

Leadership has always been crucial to the life and growth of the local church. Even in the earliest congregations the importance of effective leadership was documented as Paul named the men and women who provided lay leadership. As we read the Biblical record we become increasingly aware that leadership is not the responsibility of one person or one category of leadership. We see that leadership in the church of Jesus Christ is a partnership developed as laity and clergy work together to fulfill their calling to go and make disciples.

As we continue to grow in our vision of Mission Area Ministry, we, therefore, focused on Partnering in Leadership: developing effective, mutually supportive working relationships that enable the local church to become a life-changing community of compassion, if we are to live into our vision, we must be bold in our witness, cooperative in our work and inclusive of all God's people and that requires a partnership between the pastor and the members of each local church.

For the first time in several years we held charge conferences as groups of churches. The format and groupings for the fifteen group charge conferences were planned through a consultative partnership of laity and clergy throughout the district. Each group of churches was asked to plan the charge conference in a way that met their needs or reflected their particular common area of mission. The results were spectacular! The wonderful creativity of our district was displayed in a variety of worship settings and fellowship times. Each group found meaningful ways of making charge conference an offering of their service to God through the reports and statements made. Several groups were grateful for the opportunity to work together and to begin to explore the experience of being linked for mission to a shared community.

Partnering in leadership was further exemplified by the appointment of two more clergy-clergy co-pastors couples. The Rev. Pearl and the Rev. Grant Johnson were appointed to Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC in Wilmington and the Rev. Doug Lindsay and the Rev. Deborah Lindsay-Hudgins were appointed to St. Mark's UMC in Stanton.

"Jubilee," the district association for pastors and spouses, met in September to discuss ways that they could increase their sense of relationship and support each other. Several options for gathering were recommended by pastors. The pastors gathered several times as a whole over the course of the year including our annual recognition of those being ordained and those retiring in early June.

We were blessed by a visit from Bishop Peter D. Weaver. He spent a whole day on the district meeting with the clergy during the day and spending the evening with the laity. The clergy session focused on our gifts and was a delightful celebration planned by the three clergy-clergy couples serving as co-pastors on the district: Pearl and Grant Johnson, Doug Lindsay and Debra Lindsay-Hudgins, and Vicki and Bo Gordy-Stith. We met at Cornerstone UMC and were blessed by the gift of hospitality this church has perfected. The laity met at Coleman UMC for a reception honoring Lay Speakers of the district catered by Kenneth and Dorothea Hilton, members of Simpson UMC. After the reception Bishop Weaver preached and officiated at a service of Holy Communion.

Prayer for the district continues to be offered through pastors who gather in the district office weekly, when possible. Those who have been held in prayer for healing include Randy Wein, Bob and Carolyn Starrett, Naomi Winchester, and Bill and Marian Hackett. We grieved the loss of our brother in Christ, Mark Palmer, who fought the good fight with cancer and taught us all how to suffer with grace. We also mourn the loss of George Goodley, one of our faithful retired pastors who also mentored many on the district. We also prayed for Ezion-Mt. Carmel Church as they experienced the loss of their pastor, the Rev. Dr. Lawrence Livingston who turned in his credentials under charges.

We celebrated the birth of Ida Marie Moore, daughter of Michelle and J.B. Moore, and Jacob David Cohen, son of Jack and Melissa Cohen.

The Spiritual Intervention Program, a counseling and support program for pastors and pastoral families of the district, was launched under the leadership of Dr. Joseph Carr and Dr. James Ballard. This program was funded through a grant from the Insurance Committee of the Conference Board of Pensions. Churches subscribed to the program for a fee of $100 and their pastors had access to an 800 number with 24/7 coverage for counseling and crisis help. An advisory committee was established to guide the work.

The Rev. Randy Wein is one of only a handful of pastors appointed full time to a district to work in church revitalization and development. The work is funded by a grant from the Annual Conference for Mission Area Ministry work and by a grant from the Methodist Action Program (M.A.P.) for new church development. He will serve full-time through June of 2000.

Through Randy's leadership the Mission Area Ministry District Coordinating Team was formed. They lead our churches in completing four important steps for preparing to form Mission Areas including a spiritual gifts inventory. In addition, a new church development committee was formed for each county, Cecil and New Castle. Through the expertise of the committee members and demographic study areas, growth and anticipated growth are being targeted for new church development.

We celebrated the completion of the new church building for Delaware Korean UMC on Loveville Road near Hockessin. Korean Church is now one of the highest (in elevation!) churches in New Castle County. Cornerstone added a whole new wing to house their child and youth center. Grace UMC in Wilmington began another phase of renovation of their building. Aldersgate UMC on Concord Pike fully funded a new addition of an expansive music/performance and youth center. Shelemiah UMC in Bay View added a chair lift to their sanctuary and Elkton UMC completed a renovation that included an elevator to their sanctuary. Cornerstone doubled the number of benches needed for their summer services in the grove and adopted a plan for a whole new church building to accommodate their anticipated growth to 450 in worship within two years. Simpson launched their capital campaign for an expansion of their building and Mt. Joy continued to complete their capital campaign for renovation.

Newark UMC celebrated its 200th anniversary. Aldersgate raised the full cost ($40,000) of a Habitat for Humanity house and then supplied the volunteer labor to build the house. The M.O.T. churches sent seven teams to the Appalachia Service Project.

Ray of Hope Mission continues to expand under the leadership of Frank Rinaldi. They have included a variety of classes for self-help as they continue to meet the basic needs of the rural elderly.

Our Youth Council continued to grow in strength and with the leadership of Laura Young of North East UMC we had wonderful attendance at the annual youth rally in Ocean City.

Kevin Goodwin led the district and conference in giving over $67,000 to fully fund an endowment for a student scholarship to Africa University. "Miracle Sunday" on June 6 provided the final dollars necessary to go over the top. It was a wonderful blessing to present the check in person to students from the university in Old Mutare, Zimbabwe, when the Africa University Choir sang during our Annual Conference Session. Kevin answers his call to mission with enthusiasm and dedicated work and "lots of e-mail reminders and requests!" We thank God for his good work and his selfless devotion to mission in Christ's name.

Growth is everywhere in Wilmington District. The population is growing so fast that within a few years the population of our district will be one half million people. Many of our churches are reflecting this growth in membership. Aldersgate, Skyline, Elkton, Hopewell, St. John" in Charlestown, Perryville, Asbury near Port Deposit, Ebenezer near Rising Sun, Moore's Chapel and St. John's in Fair Hill all reported growth in membership. Nueva Vida began to offer cell meetings in Red Lion UMC to invite Hispanic families in the Bear area to participate. Summit UMC became a station charge as did Mt. Pleasant in Christiana and Mt. Salem in New Castle.

While our total membership decreased slightly (by 83 members) our average attendance at principal worship services was up by 711. Baptisms were up by 120 and preparatory members were up by 227.

The Lay Speakers School, under the leadership of Jane Brown, became a Lay Leadership School, offering classes for lay training in addition to certification classes for Lay Speakers. The School also offered an additional session in September and October while continuing their regular winter session in January and February. They significantly increased participation in the school.

The District Committee on Ministry certified Sumner Jones of Red Lion UMC. Sumner was appointed as Student Local Pastor to Bayview Charge.

The Methodist Action Program hired Kathy Cooper-Nicholas as Executive Director effective May 17. She brings a wealth of knowledge and demonstrated skill to the work of urban ministry and local church empowerment. She follows the Rev. John Holden. Beatrice Polk was elected as the Executive Director of Neighborhood House. She follows Wayne Brown. The Rev. Robert Hall is the Executive Director of the Delaware Ecumenical Council on Children and Families which rents space from M.A.P. and has received funding for health education from the Board of Child Care.

In May the Supreme Court of Delaware upheld the ruling in the favor of the Conference Trustees made by Chief Chancellor William Chandler in the case of East Lake Church awarding the real and personal assets of East Lake Church to the Conference. The case was argued twice before the Supreme Court.

Bishop Weaver announced twenty-seven changes in appointment for Wilmington District. We bid farewell to Russell Lehman, Harold (Sam) Hale, Rich Walton, Candy Miles, Gary Moore, and Jim Sipes who were appointed to other districts. Daniel Shin and Anthony Arrington accepted appointments in and transferred to other conferences. We welcomed Boyd Etter, Carol Loy, Leslie Slak, Jonathan Baker, Sungnam Choi, Don Hamilton, Willard Crossan, and Linda Bennett Ostrander to the district.

Thomas C. Short, Robert Starrett, Vernon Schmid, Robert Kelly, and Richard Green retired this year. Cindy Koski requested Leave of Absence to prepare for retirement and John (Jack) Huber requested Leave of Absence. We will sorely miss each of them and their gifts. James Woodward, a retired elder from Louisiana serving Bayview Charge, also "retired again" due to health problems.

Those moving within the district were: Amy Yarnall, Michelle Moore, Isabel Gardner, Ray Graham, Larry Jameson, Lorenzo Murdaugh, Anna Cottom, Jonathan Whitney, John Holden, Sumner Jones, Wendell Moore, Beverly Holland and Karen Bunnell. Two lay teams, one from Cornerstone and one from Wesley, will serve Wesley UMC in Elk Neck.

We are grateful for the interim service of two retired pastors of the district: George Leathrum served Charlestown Charge from January on and continues to supply that charge through June of 2000 and Ralph Ellis served as senior pastor of Ebenezer UMC in Pike Creek when Bob Starrett had to accept short-term disability provided through the Equitable Compensation Commission.

We celebrated the graduation from Eastern Baptist Seminary of the Rev. Jack Cohen and his commissioning as a probationer.

We celebrated the appointment of the Rev. Dr. Patricia Bryant Harris to the ministry of Superintendent of Salisbury District and the Rev. Dr. J. T. Seymour as Conference Resource Director.

The year was full of many exciting events, but the most exciting were the moments when new persons accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and savior and when members were moved to rededicate themselves to the disciplines of discipleship. As I lived out my renewal leave from November through January, I saw the power of partnering in leadership as the district continued to witness with power to the grace of God. The New Year only promises to bring even greater blessing.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

In response to our Vision as a Conference, the Conference Council on Ministries spent time in 1998 learning to live together in a community of faith and to listen to each other as leadership from Conference boards and agencies. Persons brought news of their ministries to be woven into the overarching picture of the Vision set before us. It was important to emphasize "being" in relationship with each other as much as the action of specific ministries we resource and promote so that we could begin to work boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively as life-changing communities of compassion.

The Conference Council

- welcomed news of Mission Area Ministry happenings in places all over the Annual Conference and discussed how it could effectively resource the development of mission areas;
- continued to remind boards and agencies they are resources for mission and ministry for local congregations, mission areas, and the wide conference needs;
- listened to the new possibilities for mission and ministry from Mission Areas, such as the St. Joseph's Foundation situated on 300 acres of property near Clayton, DE;
- practiced being an inclusive, life-changing community as we valued and celebrated our diversity and discussed how we could combat racism;
- gave special attention to the monitoring reports from the Commission on Religion and Race and the Commission on Status and Role of Women. It is good to have observers who look objectively at the way we include women and brothers and sisters from our various cultures in the life of our conference. We must continue to work at getting more inclusive participation.
- went through a process of discernment to listen to God and to hear the theme of the 1999 Annual Conference. In the end, the theme, "Living Jesus Christ's Vision: Stepping Out In Covenant Communities" was a surprise to the Committee but not to God;
- worked with the Board of Global Ministries to perfect the new procedure for apportionment choices recommended by the Council on Finance and Administration;
- celebrated the long and faithful service of Shirley Still as she retired from her full time position as Administrative Assistant/Office Manager and the "Glue" who held the Conference Office together.
- welcomed and cheered LaWanda Magill as the new Administrative Assistant/Office Manager.
- The COM reaffirms our commitment to our Vision that calls us to "live out the life and teachings of Jesus, boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively, through life changing communities of compassion."

Liz St. Clair
Chairperson

Communications Committee

1998 was a transition year for Communications in our Conference. The resignation of the Director of Communications provided an opportunity to review the communications needs in the conference and look for alternative ways to resource these needs.

In December the Conference Personnel Committee received the recommendations of this study and agreed to hire a Communications Coordinator who would be responsible for recruiting a Communications Team of persons from our conference with various media experience and gifts. Tammy Ward, who had been capably handling many of the communication responsibilities throughout 1998, was hired as the Communications Coordinator.

During 1998 significant changes were made in the Conference Newspaper, the Communicator. Attention was given to increasing the coverage of local church ministries and highlighting the development of Mission Area Ministry. A regular article by Bishop Weaver was another addition. As the year progressed, including Annual Conference in June, other aspects of communications were emphasized including the use of new technologies for sharing information and presentations.

The goals for 1999 include creating a Communications Team to develop and coordinate a communications plan for the conference. Special emphasis will be given to communicating the Vision/mission of the conference and to assisting Mission Areas, local churches, districts and the conference in communications through workshops, training, and promotion.

Conference Council on Youth Ministries

1998 was again a year of tremendous growth and excitement for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Council on Youth Ministries.

Our annual youth rally was held at the Ocean City Convention Center in Ocean City, MD, January 9-11, 1998. Celia Whitler, a singer/songwriter from Brentwood, Tennessee, shared with the 1,100 youth and their adult leaders that were in attendance. It was exciting to experience the excitement the young people shared in workshops, district gatherings, and large group gatherings. Sunday morning, youth lined up for the opportunity to share with their peers how God is helping them to "Survive the Flood." This year's event was quite a bit different from past rallies as we moved to a new facility and were able to accommodate all groups that registered before the registration deadline.

The annual confirmation rally was once again held in March at Asbury UMC in Smyrna. Bishop Peter Weaver was in attendance and spoke to approximately 350-400 confirmands at this event. This was a wonderful opportunity for youth from all over the conference to have fun as well as worship with Bishop Weaver.

Rev. David Bennett, Director of Young People's Ministry, was the leader for our Youth Leadership Training Seminar held at Drayton Retreat Center in August. Approximately 50 leaders attended one of two identical events, "Building a Dynamic Youth Ministry".

The Peninsula-Delaware Council on Youth Ministries continued to be involved in Jurisdictional youth programs. In particular, Erin Jones and Melody McIlvain were selected to participate on a Mission of Peace to Nicaragua in January of 1998. Kendra Banks was selected to represent our conference on a mission trip to Zimbabwe in 1999.

The Peninsula-Delaware CCYM was again fortunate to have a full delegation present at the 1998 session of Annual Conference. In addition to their attendance at all sessions, the youth livened things up a bit when they kidnapped Bishop Weaver and held him for ransom. An offering of over $1,000 was collected and divided between the Vaughn Johnson Scholarship Fund and the Youth Service Fund.

In the late summer, the Conference Council Youth Ministries participated in a time of team building at the new Challenge Course at Camp Pecometh. We also took time to work through a discernment process to choose officers for the 1998-99 conference year.

As we consider our 1998 goals, it is encouraging to see that most were accomplished.

1. To continue to seek ways to accommodate more youth at our youth rallies. Our attendance increased by 400.
2. To continue to promote participation in and be a resource to our District Youth Councils. Each district continues to become more involved. This past year, the Wilmington District has welcomed a new coordinator and is planning new events.
3. To provide an avenue for youth to be placed on the District Youth Councils and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries. There is a structure in place, but we are again evaluating its effectiveness.
4. To work with the Board of Laity in designing a Youth Leadership Training Weekend. We did not do this.
5. To continue our regular programs and participation in Conference, Jurisdiction, and General Church programs. Participation in the Jurisdiction has waned, but we are presently encouraging better involvement.

We have made a few changes to our 1999 Goals.

1999 Goals

1. To continue to seek ways to better accommodate the diverse needs of our youth at our youth rally.
2. To continue to promote participation in and be a resource to our District Youth Councils and Coordinators.
3. To continue our regular programs and participation in Conference, Jurisdictional, and General Church programs.
4. Continue to promote the Youth Service Fund and promote its availability.
5. To investigate the youth Seminars Program from the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, D.C. for possible future participation.
6. To continue to develop a Design Team which will oversee the planning of our Annual Youth Rally.
7. To continue to investigate the possibility of having 2 youth rallies per year: one for youth grades 9-12 and one for youth grades 6-8.
8. To investigate the possibility of a conference sponsored mission experience for Peninsula-Delaware Conference youth.
9. To gain support to see a young person elected as a delegate to the 2000 Jurisdictional and/or General Conference.

10. To seek ways to accommodate all youth that want to serve in our conference.

One of our major goals is to relieve the youth council of the majority of the rally planning. They will continue to promote the Youth Service Fund and hold District Gatherings at the rally. Our desire is that the youth council will then be able to focus on new ministry opportunities and better involvement in Jurisdictional programs.

2000 Goals

1. To continue to seek ways to better accommodate the diverse needs of our youth at our youth rally.
2. To continue to promote participation in and be a resource to our District Youth Councils.
3. To continue our regular programs and participation in Conference, Jurisdictional, and General Church programs.
4. Continue to raise funds for the Youth Service Fund and inform churches of its availability.
5. To investigate the Youth Seminars Program from the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, D.C. for possible future participation.
6. To seek new opportunities for youth to serve in our conference.
7. To investigate the possibility of a conference sponsored mission experience for Peninsula-Delaware Conference youth.
8. To design and sponsor a Youth Leadership Training Weekend.

We continue to believe that it is an exciting time to be a young person or someone who works with young people in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. We are excited that many changes have taken place which we believe will encourage and empower youth, but more importantly will present Jesus Christ to them.

Bishop's Task Force on Hispanic Ministries

Purpose: This task force is to strategize ways and to resource districts to reach the Hispanic population of this annual conference. Demographic data supports what has been seen on a larger scale, that the Hispanic population has doubled in recent years. Our annual conference seeks to be proactive in addressing the need for ministry in this area. Currently, the Nueva Vida (New Life) congregation serves in the Wilmington District, and Betel UMC in partnership with Wesley UMC in Georgetown, Delaware, serves the Dover District. These ministries are models of how pastors and lay persons devoted to outreach in Hispanic communities can develop new and enriching worship experiences to serve the people. Pastoral leadership has been able to assist new immigrants with vital survival needs that many English speaking persons take for granted.

Members of the task force attended a National Convention on Hispanic Ministries for Non-Hispanic persons in April for resources on shaping a community of faith in the Salisbury area. The Salisbury District has gathered data and has sent surveys to local churches and has sought other leaders of Hispanic origin who could help resource local ministries. The Dover District has held a workshop with Rev. Ulysess Torres to help build the relationships between Hispanic and Anglo persons on the Dover task force. Nueva Vida has experienced growth this year and their praise team was also able to lead in worship at the Conference Youth Rally this year. Other new communities of faith are being considered in Wilmington.

Goals 2000

- *To continue working with a consultant from the General Board of Global Ministries to develop a comprehensive strategy for this annual conference for Hispanic Ministries.
- *To use the National Hispanic Plan as a guide to direct our planning.
- *Train lay missionaries who can evangelize communities and develop cell groups (House Churches).
- *To establish communities of faith with a United Methodist presence on the Salisbury and Easton Districts and to train both Hispanic and non-Hispanic persons to build effective ministries.
- *To support existing missions in Wilmington and Dover Districts. Educate English speaking persons about the culture and religious experience of Hispanic persons to strengthen relations between the various races. Workshops and sensitivity training will be utilized.
- *To monitor and provide advocacy for the quality of life of all persons who are marginalized in various settings and to encourage change when their well being is threatened.
- *To serve on the Conference Council on Ministries and work with the Mission Area Relational Design Committee.

Grace and peace be unto you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

I would begin this conference report with a scriptural foundation which I feel will set the tone for what the year 1998 was for HBLEP, what the year 1999 holds forth for us and prepare us for the new millennium.

In Mark 5:2-19 there is an account of a young man that is fairly well known. It stresses, among other things, the importance of realizing that only God holds the key to true freedom. Within the days of this person's life they experienced a kind of hell on earth. As the end came near, every one had done all they knew to do in order to save him. The town was afraid of him, the police could do nothing with him. They could not even keep him tied up. The word says that he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. You might say, "well then he was free, if he broke the chains and irons that bound him," but that was not the freedom he needed. You see, even though he was not chained he still cried out day and night, he still cut himself with stones, he still could not find his way home! It was not until he saw Jesus that deliverance from the demons of his life was accomplished.

Each of us has a degree of understanding about the struggles of this world. We must remember what the scripture says: "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms."

Overview of the 1998 Program Year

Our theme this year was "Being Changed to Change the World". This year our time together was truly enriching. For all that attended our retreat times at Camp Pecometh and the summer events at Delaware State University, the teaching, the learning, the experiencing, was inspiring. I can not thank our community Elders enough for their commitment and dedication to the 1998 Program. They met willingly and enthusiastically to plan and train with no complaints and no reluctance. As a result, our counselors came and gave themselves zestfully to the work.

Our worship times were particularly blessed as a result of the extra effort every one put into making our time together special. Songs which the youth chose, rather than the ones the adults might have picked out, were used in the services! Prayers with the youthful insight to God; messages received from the Spirit, given by the Junior counselors, who in turn spoke thus saith the Lord, heightened awareness and kept the participants intrigued.

This year programming was blessed to have persons come to us who are currently working businesses between the United States and Africa. One of these entrepreneurs was working with the Salvation Army to distribute shoes. He shared with the children his vision for his business was based on God's word found in Matthew 26:11, "For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always."

As we worked through the principles our program is based on, persons from the nursing field, college coaching field, the laity of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, hospitality field, business marketing, and many who shared in the hard work that has made opportunities abound, not only for African-Americans but for all of God's creation, came and gave more than we good tell in this report!

Among the field trip experiences was a trip to Washington, D.C., to visit Rites of Passage Program, which begins in the United States and includes time in Africa. Our youth were moved to visioning a time long past and dreaming of future possibilities. The ongoing goals of the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program continue to Transform and Liberate people affirmed by God.

Goals for 1999

- Work with each member church to develop a complete support team for the HBLEP participant(s) they have sponsored.
- Rework the Bailey curriculum.
- Project will involve creating a Bailey participant manual and Leader's guide.
- Provide training which will help the program increase its financial base.
- Specialized training in the areas of fundraising, grant writing, and other foundation support will be provided.
- Maintain a balanced budget.
- To develop plans for reaching all children who will benefit from the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program.

Looking ahead to the year 1999 and beyond . . . we will show Jesus to a dying world. Show him in such a way that people will come to meet him! Show Jesus through HBLEP, our Jr. counselors, our Sr. counselors, our Community Elders and all the support staff that make this program work. My prayer is, that this ministry will have such an impact on the lives of women, men, boys and girls in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, that we like Jesus, will be able to say, "Go home to your family, tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you."(Mark 5:19)

"I know Jesus I want you to help me, help someone else know Jesus!"

Mission Area Ministry

The Vision of our Annual Conference is coming alive!
The Peninsula-Delaware Conference as the body of Christ will live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively through life-changing communities of compassion.

This has been an exciting and challenging time for Mission Area Ministry. The district facilitators, Ann Wilson (Dover), Alice Hutchins (Easton), Art Blanchette (Salisbury), Randy Wein (Wilmington), and the district coordinating teams have been helping local congregations partner for mission and ministry. The churches continue to participate in Phase One and /or Phase two as they enter Mission Area Ministry. During this process we have seen many creative ways to reach out into the communities. Congregations have come together to dialogue about the concerns of their neighborhoods. People are finding ways to get to know each other better. During these meetings the congregations have experienced a climate of respect and tolerance for the diversity of our Conference.

Phase One: Co-Missioning within local churches

- Orientation for Pastors and Lay Leadership
- Training for Pastors and Lay Leadership
- Looking at the Picture Now
- Assessment of Gifts and Graces
- Development of Servant Leadership Skills
- Cross Cultural Development
- Bible Studies, prayer meetings, and other spiritual formation opportunities

Phase Two: Connecting and Complementing

- Develop relationships with other local churches
- Discuss community profile, needs, and perceived mission opportunities
- Develop a shared vision to see where there are common areas of call
- Discuss church profiles and the resources each church brings for mission and ministry

The following resources are available to assist local churches participate in Phase One and /or Phase Two.

- Bible Study
- Prayer and Discernment
- Spiritual Gifts Assessments
- Visioning
(Demographic Studies- "Percept")
- Clergy and Laity Leadership Development (Principle -Centered Leadership Workshop)
- Clergy /Lay Team Development (Partners in Ministry)
- Conflict Resolution
- Cross Cultural Development

The process for Creating Mission Area Ministry Teams is meant to be flexible. Therefore, churches are entering the process in different ways and adapting to meet the needs of each local church. It has been a great joy to see the responses to Phase One and Phase Two of Mission Area Ministry.

Dover District

Congregations in the Dover District have accepted the challenge of the second phase of Mission Area Ministry and become more familiar with resources available for connecting and complementing each other. Some have begun to know themselves better by discovering spiritual gifts. Some have found common interests as they participated in studies of the Bible, Social Principles, Cultural Shifts, Servant Leadership, and Preparing for 21st Century, Cross-cultural retreats, and Gambling Risks.

Projects have begun to produce results in beach ministry, restoration for a crumbled church foundation, youth ministry, revivals and evangelistic campaigns. A mission fair exhibited the variety of local interests and provided contact persons for increased participation. Shared visions have begun to provide a new glimpse of the opportunities for mission and to motivate communities of compassion.

Partnership in ministry was dynamically demonstrated in twelve cluster charge conferences that involved all the district churches. Affirmations of neighboring churches gave evidence of spirit-filled activities and awareness of Mission Area needs. Follow-up meetings with clergy in geographic clusters provided more impetus to the desire to pool resources to tackle community needs. The District Coordinating Team was refined and mobilized for the anticipated covenanting stage.

Ann Wilson

Wilmington District

As the time has come for churches to be identifying their mission areas and prospective partners in ministry, almost 93 percent of the churches in the Wilmington District have entered the process of implementing Mission Area Ministry. Cause for further celebration is that about half of the district churches have completed all four steps of Phase One.

However, mere church totals do not reflect the number of people who have been exposed to the transformational power of the Mission Area Ministry implementation process. The non-participating churches report only 2 percent of the total church members in the Wilmington District. Meanwhile, the churches that have completed all or almost all of the steps make up nearly 72 percent of the membership.

Much work remains in compiling and reconciling the various visions of what M.A.M. could and should look like in the Wilmington District. However, churches now are ready to identify their "mission area," which most likely will be geographical but many include work with a particular constituency. This will prepare churches for moving into Phase Three, when they will work with other churches to identify similar areas of ministry and move toward a formal covenant that will be specific in its content and limited in its specified term. This will allow churches to know exactly how they will be working together and what resources they will be sharing, and to amend the covenant as necessary as experience shows better ways of sharing in ministry or as God warms hearts to move further into shared ministry.

I again want to thank the members of the District Coordinating Team: Rev. Jack Abel, Mr. Kerry Dietz, Rev. Isabel Gardner, the Rev. Ms Dyan Gwynn, Ms. Beverly Holland, Ms. Betty Jacobs-Laws, Ms. Beverly Lewis, Ms. Tanya Pollard, the Rev. Bob Riddleberger, Ms. Liz St. Clair, Ms. Betty Sarvis, Rev. Jack Shitama, Ms. Dianne Thompson, Ms. Darlene Webb, and Ms. June Wilson.

Rev. Randy Wein

Salisbury District

It has been an interesting year for Mission Area Ministry on the Salisbury District. The District Coordinating Team has done a lot of work in their development as a team and in their understanding of Mission Area Ministry. This was to improve their ability to resource the churches in the district.

Advances are being made in several areas as churches are building their relationships with each other and their communities in mission and ministry. For example: the people of a church in one area have become catalyst for a neighborhood watch program in their community which is including people from other churches and the community at large. They are also taking leadership in addressing the needs of the youth of their community. They are trying to influence town leaders to develop a park as a gathering place and they have started an after-school program for latch—key children that has gone from a small number to more than fifteen in a couple of months.

In one community a church is providing the leadership in a joint effort with the town government. They have even acquired a building that houses their efforts. Many of their activities are directed toward youth, which has been an ongoing concern for the area.

Youth are a big concern in another community where three churches have agreed to support a youth director. This person was part-time through the winter and becomes full-time in the summer. This is the latest of many joint efforts these churches have undertaken over several years.

In another community, the years have created a strong relationship between two charges. What may have started out of need is now out of love. This inclusive community demonstrates that we are all one body on a monthly basis when they gather together to share the Lord's sacrament. Though they have experienced struggles as their relationship has developed, they have been faithful to their vision of what God is doing with them and have continued their efforts. God's will be done! Their faithfulness is being rewarded as some people who decided to separate themselves are now rejoining the flock. To more fully demonstrate their unity in mission and ministry, they are now considering the development of a joint church office to house the pastors, a church secretary, and resources for the churches.

Of course, there are many continuing efforts and relationships that have been in place for a long time, like Salisbury Urban Ministries. In many ways, the churches across the district are doing what comes naturally. To loosely quote one pastor from an area mentioned above who was talking about people being together, "We are already doing it outside the churches, why can't we do it inside?"

Rev. Art Blanchette

Easton District

Each of us has been given the opportunity to help enrich our communities. We have individual spiritual unique gifts, needed by each other, granted to us through the gracious wisdom of the Giver of all good and precious gifts.

I visited the Sudlersville community and shared the meaning and importance of Mission Area Ministry. There were many questions, but the main question was, "Will Mission Area Ministry close our churches". The answer was no...Mission Area Ministries are called to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Rev. Bell and I visited Prayer Partnering Churches before the Charge Conferences and presented the demographic studies compiled by Percept for various communities. There was amazement as we began to see the reports. These reports opened our eyes and made us aware of the needs in each community. Some of the concerns in the various communities were finding a good church home; spiritual teaching; health issues; divorce recovery; drug and alcohol addiction, etc. We began to see the possibilities for ministry.

We also celebrated the gifts on our district. I was involved with the new pastors' workshop and gave them the Spiritual Gifts Assessment. The results were shared during our October Ministers and Mates meeting. The coordinating team of the Easton District had a Spiritual Retreat in September.

Living Jesus Christ's Vision -Partnering in the Great CO-Mission was the theme of our Charge Conferences. We are excited about the many ways Prayer Partnering Churches are working together in various ministries, such as caring for the homeless; sharing in bible study and prayer; worship; and caring for the needy. There are a number of churches involved in cooperative ministries. We are going to work closer with our coordinating team and become familiar with the resources needed to help each area function well in Mission Area Ministry. We are pleased with the number of creative ideas in our district.

Rev. Alice Hutchins

Each district has been busy implementing Mission Area Ministry. The results have been exciting and challenging. Indeed God is doing a new thing! The goal for 1999-2000:

- A: Continue to implement Phase One
 - Support the local Church by providing resources through facilitators and district coordinating teams
 - Keep communication open!
- B: Continue to implement Phase Two: Connecting and Complementing
 - Develop relationships with other local churches
 - Discuss community profile, needs and perceived mission opportunities
 - Share their Vision to see where there are common areas of call
 - Discuss church profiles and the resources each church brings for mission and ministry
- C: Develop a common Mission/Vision/Ministry Plan

I thank God for all the wonderful ministries of our Conference, the many volunteers from our local churches, and the gifts of the laity and clergy. I thank God for the commitment of the district facilitators and the district coordinating teams. I appreciate the help and encouragement from our Bishop, Council Director, District Superintendents, and support staff. Together with God's grace and love we can make our Vision a reality.

Camping & Retreat Ministries

REVIEW OF GOALS FOR 1998

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 8%.

Drayton Retreat Center had 5,551 guests from 181 groups. These represent an increase of 3.1% in retreat guests. 1,382 guests from 92 groups came from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Average group size was 13. 2,022 guests used the Drayton pool. This represents a decrease of 22.3% in pool guests.

Camp Pecometh had 5,048 guests from 123 groups. This represents a decrease of 10.7% guests. 1,462 campers registered for the 1998 camping season. This represents an increase of 107 campers or 7.9%

The total of all participants in the 1998 Camping and Retreat Ministries programs was 14,083; this represents an overall decrease of 11.2%

2. To raise funds for new Staff House/Retreat facility at Pecometh.

$105,091 has been raised for the new Staff House/Retreat facility at Pecometh. Our goal is $250,000 before construction can start.

3. To introduce group initiatives and environmental educational programs at Pecometh.

A challenge/low ropes course was constructed at Camp Pecometh in the spring of 1998. The 15-element course was utilized for the summer camping programs and other groups during the non-summer camping season. The environmental education program is still under development. High rope elements have been planned for construction in early 1999.

4. To maintain a balanced budget for Camping and Retreat Ministries.

Reduce the amount requested from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration by $17,000; the 1998 request was approved for $65,000. Establish reserve funds at both locations to cover emergency maintenance repair costs. The request for support from the Conference Council on Ministries was reduced by $22,000 in support of our 1999 Operating Budget. Camping and Retreat Ministries ended the 1998 budget year with $196 over expenses.

5. To build the Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center maintenance trust funds by $5,000 each.

In January 1998, $20,000 was transferred from the operating budget into the Drayton Endowment Fund to fund emergency maintenance needs. In addition, no interest was taken from the Fund for operational expenses.

In January 1998, $45,000 was transferred from the operating budget into the Camp Pecometh Capital Improvement Fund for emergency maintenance needs.

6. To recruit a minimum of 10% ethnic persons to serve on the summer Pecometh staff.

The 1998 summer staff of 60 included 7 local ethnic staff members or 13.3% of the staff. No local ethnic applicant was turned down; we just didn't get enough applicants from local ethnic churches.

7. To create a spiritually rich environment of both locations.

Spiritual retreats are the focus of most groups who use Drayton Retreat Center. The Meditation Chapel added in 1997 has enhanced these programs. One of the Continuing Education events sponsored focused on spiritual gifts and growth.

The theme for summer camp was: "Building On Jesus - Tools for Peacemaking." The theme was developed with daily Bible studies, worship and other theme related experiences led by 19 local pastors - Spiritual Life Coordinators and summer staff. The summer staff was key in living their Christian witness before the campers and other staffers.

8. To continue to improve the physical appearance of both facilities.

Work on the physical appearance of both facilities continues and the results of our labors show. Many positive remarks are heard from guests, campers and parents on the continued improvements. One hundred-forty-four trees were planted at Camp Pecometh in the spring and eight (8) new trees were added at Drayton Retreat Center. In addition new flower and shrub beds were added at both locations. The Building and Grounds Staff are proud of the facilities and work to improve the appearance and facilities. These projects as well as other improvements were made possible by the outstanding support from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. $65,000 was given to support these improvements in 1998.

9. To recruit for 2,500 volunteer hours at both locations.

Drayton Retreat Center volunteer hours were 1,679 at a minimum work value of $16,790. Camp Pecometh volunteer hours were 2,586 at a minimum work value of $25,860. The volunteers are key to the continuing improvement of the facilities. The strong organizer of these efforts is Carolyn Godfrey. Many local churches continued their support of camp facilities through our sponsorship program.

10. To add one full-time staff member to the Pecometh staff.

A Program Director position was filled at Camp Pecometh on June 1, 1998, by August Lankford. He has the major supervisory responsibility for the summer camping program, marketing, development and supervision of the new Camp Pecometh Challenge/Ropes course. He is a welcomed addition to Camping and Retreat Ministries.

CAMPING AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Camping and Retreat Ministries lives out the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Vision in the wide variety of ministries that take place at Drayton Retreat Center, Camp Pecometh, and in local congregations. These ministries include training of laity and clergy in ministry skills through Continuing Education events. Facilities are used by numerous groups for spiritual development retreats and leadership training events. Seasonal events and worship services are sponsored by the Camping and Retreat Ministries team to highlight the church year (Mother's Day Luncheon, Christmas Dinners, and Galilean Services). The settings of Drayton Retreat Center and Camp Pecometh provide ideal locations for developing and deepening participants' relationship to God. The summer camping program focuses on a spiritual theme. The typical camping week is equal to 39 weeks of Sunday School in a local church and provides spiritual nourishment and equipping for discipleship.

CAMP PECOMETH

The staff at Camp Pecometh, with support of volunteer donations, has a strong commitment to providing its outdoor ministry to all youth desiring to attend camp. To this end, $10,066 was provided to assist 87 campers with Camperships. The donations to this fund came from local churches and individuals wanting to provide this outreach ministry. Campers were also assisted who came from the Methodist Action Program (MAP) as well as other municipal youth outreach programs.

DRAYTON RETREAT CENTER

A Retreatship Fund was established to assist groups not able to afford to come to Drayton for spiritual development retreats. One group utilized this assistance in 1998. Drayton Retreat Center was also blessed by the significant work accomplished by volunteer crews organized by Carolyn Godfrey. The efforts and donations of volunteers continues to enable Drayton to preserve and utilize this important facility for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, allowing staff to focus their efforts on ministry rather than fund-raising.

UPDATED STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 1999

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 3%.
2. To raise funds for new Staff House/Retreat facilities at Pecometh.
3. To add high ropes to the Pecometh Challenge Course and develop an environmental educational program at Camp Pecometh. Provide programs for 12 non-summer camp groups.
4. To maintain a balanced budget for Camping and Retreat Ministries. Reduce the fund request from the Conference Council on Ministries by $22,000.
5. To recruit a minimum of 10% ethnic persons to serve on the Pecometh summer staff.
6. To continue to improve the physical appearance of both facilities.
7. To recruit for 2,000 volunteer hours at Drayton Retreat Center and 2,500 volunteer hours at Camp Pecometh.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2000

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 3%.
2. To start construction on the new Staff House/Retreat facilities at Pecometh.
3. To enhance Challenge Course and environmental educational programs at Camp Pecometh. Provide programs for 18 non-summer camp groups.
4. To maintain a balanced budget for Camping and Retreat Ministries. Reduce the fund request from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration by $10,000.
5. To build the Camp Pecometh and Drayton Retreat Center maintenance trust funds by $5,000 each.
6. To recruit a minimum of 10% ethnic persons to serve on the Pecometh summer staff.
7. To continue to improve the physical appearance of both facilities.
8. To recruit for 2,200 volunteer hours at Drayton Retreat Center and 2,800 volunteer hours at Camp Pecometh.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Thank you very much for the trust you have placed in us and for your continuing support. Because of you, we were able to meet our financial obligations as agreed upon in the 1997 Annual Conference Session. We are grateful to you and we look forward to your continued prayerful support. Here are some of our accomplishments for the past year:

1. The Easton District Parsonage at 215 S. Hanson Street in Easton, Maryland was sold for $205,000.00, and the proceeds of the sale were put in the housing fund.

2. The District Superintendents' salaries were increased by 3% for 1999, but beginning in the year 2000 the increases will be 1% per year until such salaries are brought more in line with the salaries of neighboring District Superintendents.

3. In an effort to establish a $25,000.00 contingency fund, we strongly recommended that all Boards and Agencies of the Conference review their reserve funds, carry-overs and 1999 budget reports and apply a portion of these funds to the contingency fund.

4. A policy was instituted stating that when a person is employed to do the work of someone on maternity or paternity leave, that the additional expenses of this employee will not be used to calculate apportionments.

5. Fifteen thousand dollars was granted to link the computer systems of all District Offices, Pecometh and Drayton to the Conference Resource Center.

6. Sixty eight thousand dollars was given to Camp Pecometh and Drayton for capital improvements.

7. A study was made of the apportionment formula, and plans are being made to present a new formula at a special session of the Annual Conference in November of 1999.

8. The following adjustments in 1999 apportionments were made:

	1999	1998
Dover District	$31,583	$38,186
Easton District	33,273	23,591
Salisbury District	161,464	186,460
Wilmington District	99,056	77,804
	$325,376	$326,411

9. Three thousand dollars was approved for a new sign in front of the Conference Resource Center.

10. Barratt's Chapel Endowment Fund Drive was extended for two years.

11. A training workshop was held for all District Stewards.

Recommendations:

Pending the decisions to be made at this Annual Conference Session, a special adjourned session of Annual Conference is scheduled for fall 1999 to vote on the 2000 Annual Conference Budget, a proposed new apportionment formula and nominations resulting from any change to the Conference structure.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY "A Biblical People with a Social Conscience"

A Review of 1998 Goals

It has been the plan of the Board to encourage and assist local churches in becoming better stewards through energy saving measures. After consultation with the Interfaith Coalition on Energy, the Board is now ready to supply each congregation with a workbook, which will assist the local church in assessing its energy conservation practices.

The Board also takes this opportunity to express its deepest appreciation for those funds entrusted by the faithful members of each congregation through the apportionment system. As we receive a portion of those funds we have been able to help a significant number of congregations with various projects and ministries related to The Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. For example, these funds have helped supply copies of The Social Principles to local congregations. These copies were used for church school classes and new member orientations. The Board was able to provide funding for a congregation that was struggling with the issue of domestic violence. The Parish Nurse program also received funding from the Board. We sensed a cooperative and connective response as our gifts were given as a part of a shared response coming from other Annual Conference boards and agencies. Financial aid was also shared with a church that was seeking to reach the deaf community.

One of the most significant issues addressed by the Board was the issue of gambling, particularly in the state of Maryland. Through NoCasiNo and its efforts the Maryland governor and the majority of legislative delegates have promised to halt any additional gambling in that state. We applaud their efforts. Delaware must now prepare to face an uphill battle to stop the expansion of gambling.

The issue of the death penalty has long been a concern for the Board. After conducting a very successful seminar for the clergy, a seminar for the laity is about to become a reality. The Board also supports efforts to bring about an abolishment of the death penalty and seeks to bring voting rights back to ex felons.

And finally, we have been blessed with Board members who have been willing to travel to various conferences and meetings throughout the United States. Again, we give thanks for those funds, which have helped to inform and challenge the Board.

Updated 1999 Goals

It has become apparent to our Board that the number of issues and concerns far exceeds our limited resources. Thus, after a careful review of our goals, the Board decided to focus its energies on a more limited number of issues, which we sometimes refer to as "our passions." To accomplish this the Board has been divided into a number of work teams, each with a convener. Each work team functions on its own and reports regularly to the full Board. In addition to Board members, the teams also include other persons who might assist them with their "passions." This again is a sign of a healthy connectational system.

In conjunction with the 1999 Goals the following work teams have been established:

Clergy-Community Dialogue-to develop a model in the Dover area that brings together local business, civic, political and religious leaders.

Local Church Energy Audit-to prepare for the distribution of the energy audit workbook.

Worker's Rights-to address the 1996 General Conference Resolution for the Concern of Workers' Rights with particular emphasis given to the Poultry Justice Alliance.

AIDS/HIV-to identify and prepare appropriate responses to those related issues.

Bishop's Initiative on Children in Poverty-to remain faithful to this urgent call we seek to find ways to address these children in need.

Gambling-NoCasiNo-DCAGE-to support through a variety of means ways to halt and curtail the expansion of the gaming industry.

United Methodist Building-Fund Raising-to provide a fair share in the renovation of the only religious structural presence on Capital Hill.

2000 Goals

- To continue to develop and expand the clergy-community dialogue model.
- To encourage local congregations to share success stories as they implement some of the energy saving methods described in the energy workbook.
- To continue to share in the concern for workers' rights and to continue as an active observer in the Poultry Justice Alliance.
- To continue to work for the abolishment of the death penalty as consistent with The Social Principles.
- To seek ways to faithfully and compassionately respond to the AIDS/HIV situation.
- To work cooperatively with other boards and agencies in responding to the Bishop's Initiative on Children in Poverty.
- To continue support for NoCasiNo and the Delaware Coalition Against Gambling Expansion (DCAGE).
- To seek financial support from the Annual Conference, local church and individuals for our fair share in the restoration of the United Methodist building.
- To provide funding for local church projects and ministries that relate to The Social Principles.
- To provide copies of The Social Principles to local congregations and encourage their distribution and teaching to church members.
- To establish the position of District Representatives to the Board of Church and Society.

- To attend those seminars, workshops and General Board meetings that will enhance the work of the Annual Conference Board.

Older Adult Ministries

"He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God." Ps. 40. 3

We focused on supporting congregations that required assistance for Aging Ministries Programs. Older adults were encouraged to take responsibility for their own health through the Parish Nurse Program and written resources were mailed to pastors.

During the past year, we felt the need to assist older people to gain insight into God's healing power in today's world. Rev. John Penn and his wife, Gloria, were facilitators of two workshops, one held at St. Paul's Church in Wilmington and the other at Methodist Manor House in Seaford.

As we move into the 1999 International Year of Older Persons, we are blessed with a diverse population in our conference. Mission area work is designed to bring people together and to appreciate differences. A booklet intended to recognize diversity and to educate each of us is being developed and will be shared with our congregations when it becomes available.

Single Adult Ministry

The business of the Task Force has been centered on several goals:

- To collect data on available resources for training on and implementing Single Adult Ministry at the local church level;
- To identify options for raising awareness and sensitivity on the issues that confront the Single community;
- Identifying several geographic target areas where opportunity for mission to single adults exists and the fulfillment of that mission could benefit the total ministry of the local church;
- To determine a viable strategy within our changing Annual Conference structure to address the issues common to the single adult community and our Conference boards and agencies;
- To dialogue with Conference leadership as well as boards and agencies to assess possible avenues for disseminating information on and advocating for ministry to single adults.

Overall, we have discovered that while the single adult community continues to grow steadily within the boundaries of our Conference and is the fastest growing segment of our nation, more than 90% of our churches have no ministry directed to single adults. Many of the clergy and laity are simply not aware of the ministry needs of their local single adult community because of the church's traditional emphasis on "family" ministry. Many are not sensitive to the various experiences of single adulthood -- never married, divorced, widowed, and single parents (both male and female) -- of any age between 18 and 80+. We have discovered that while a significant number of singles are unchurched, a great number are members and frequent visitors to our churches, but do not always feel welcomed, they feel, because of their marital status. We have also discovered that many singles within our churches would support a single adult ministry but have not found a listening or knowledgeable ear among the local church leadership.

We have found that the church needs a new response to the changing context of our congregations and the communities in which they are located so that the church of Jesus Christ is a reflection of the whole gospel to the whole community for the wholeness of everyone. We believe the church needs to respond to the single adult community in a way that acknowledges that Jesus Christ was a single adult.

To that end the Task Force has compiled several communications available in the display area for Annual Conference participants and which are being made available to local church leadership. These and other materials will continue to be provided as a means for empowering local churches through the Annual Conference structure, offering helpful information and direction on implementing and maintaining single adult ministry in the local church. With this report the Task Force is disbanded; and the Board of Discipleship will absorb its work.

Stewardship

Review of 1998 goals: Four Faith, Money & Spirituality Retreats were planned. One was successfully completed; 3 were postponed until 1999.

Changes to 1999 goals: Advanced training for Faith, Money & Spirituality trainers to be provided by GBOD in October 1999, emphasizing scriptural basis of stewardship.

Introduction to and Listing of 2000 goals: Board of Discipleship is continuing to offer the Faith, Money & Spirituality Retreats (scripture-based learning) held in local churches as a stewardship resource for discipling. As individuals heal and grow in Christian stewardship, they act as yeast to transform congregations. Goal: To be invited to facilitate the Faith, Money & Spirituality Retreat in a minimum of 6 churches.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Conference Board of Global Ministries' purpose is to maintain and strengthen the connective ties with the General Board of Global Ministries and all local churches of our Annual Conference as we join in God's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ locally and globally. This includes encouraging all local churches and mission areas to participate in the programs of the General Church that recruit, send, and receive missionaries, that strengthen, develop, and renew local congregations; that seek to alleviate human suffering; and that seek justice, freedom, and peace.

A major emphasis of the Board for 1999 and 2000 is to encourage local churches and mission areas to become participants in an AFRICAN INITIATIVE that will include the following:

1. Completion of the Africa University Perpetual Scholarship Endowment of $65,000 which was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference.
2. Develop an ongoing relationship with the United Methodist Church in Zambia.
3. Increasing support for both U.S. Missionaries in Africa and Persons in Mission in their own country through Covenant Relationships and the Global Mission Partners program.
4. Support of the Bishops' Appeal for Africa, especially for work with children.
5. Educating our churches about the plight of refugees in Africa and the role churches can play in advocacy, relief, and resettlement.

This Board works through its five divisions whose report of accomplishments in 1998 and goals for 2000 follows. We are grateful for the active involvement of our Division leaders and Board members, and we give praise to our Lord Jesus Christ for what has been accomplished.

Division of Congregational Development

During 1998, this Division has been busy with the processing of grants and loans as well as encouraging Church growth and New Development. It is very important that each District be represented at the Division meetings to insure that interests throughout the conference are equally represented.

The Division has continued to process requests for money from the apportionment funds for church and parsonage repairs and construction, apportionment funds for new church development, and funds generated from the repayment of previous loans.

During 1998, six churches received grants or loans. It is always gratifying to be able to provide help for each project. We were pleased to be able to provide significant funds to help three ministry areas with New Development funds. One church has been able to complete the construction of their new building. We have been able to help with the establishment of two new ministry areas. Each of these projects was made possible by the support of all of our churches. It is my prayer that, we will be able to continue to provide for all requests.

1999 -Goals

The Division will continue to provide improvements in the grant and loan process. We expect to make the application process easier to understand. At the same time the Division would like to encourage the Spiritual development in congregations as well as physical development. This may require more information be provided at the loan request as well as during the term of the loan. The Division may ask for data on the Church's growth that the loan money encouraged.

Committee On Native American Ministries (CONAM)

CONAM -- A New Beginning in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference

With God's blessing an energetic spirit-filled group has responded to a new opportunity to minister among a sometime silent minority.

A Committee on Native American Ministries was organized on January 2, 1998 per Paragraph 650 of the 1996 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. This requires each Annual Conference to provide for these ministries and maintain the connectional relationships.

As per the Discipline, the role of CONAM is: (1) to determine the distribution of the Native American Awareness Sunday offering; (2) coordinate the promotion of Native American Awareness Sunday; (3) monitor Native American ministries within the Annual Conference; (4) report on how the offering funds have benefited Native Americans living within the geographic bounds of the Annual Conference.

Goals for 1998 were (1) Promote Native American Awareness Sunday; (2) Affirm how NAAS funds are used, and how to access these funds, es. around Mission Area Ministries program ideas; (3) Develop a trained group of resource persons; and, (4) Develop a list of qualified speakers and guidelines for local churches for the use of spokespersons.

During 1998 the primary uses of the NAAS funding were for leadership development for the CONAM team to prepare them for implementing their current and future goals.

Highlights of other significant events

1. There were 20 participants in the Native American Youth Retreat held at Rehoboth Beach. Workshops were held on anger, values of receiving an education, Native American Spirituality, community (a sense of how to be a community), Christian values and caring for each other. A shortened version of the Eagle Project was used, emphasizing self-worth and respect. Native teenagers taught the crafts class for the children. Storytelling, play-acting and video were used to build deeper bonding. The Ethnic Local Church Committee made funding available, and members of CONAM provided leadership.
2. Approximately 324 people of all ages from across the country attended the annual Native American Family Camp held on the White Mountain Apache Reservation in Arizona. Several families and individuals came from the Nanticoke Native American Indian community in the bounds of our Peninsula-Delaware Conference, some of whom are members of CONAM. Camp participants attended classes on Apache bead and basket making, the Bible, evangelism, servant leadership, the United Methodist Social Principles and writing. Again, some funding for our participants came from ELC. Some of our CONAM members that attended have now been recognized for the gifts they bring and will be providing leadership in next year's workshops and worship.
3. The officers and some members of CONAM attended a national dialogue of Native American Traditional and Native American Christian leaders held in Denver. The consultation was designed by the United Methodist General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. The dialogue was essential in affirming identity as well as examining the issues involved when entering into relationship between Christian and Traditional Native American communities. Funding sources were the Native American Awareness Sunday offering, Conference Religion & Race, and Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns.

4. Christiana United Methodist Church contacted members of CONAM and Indian Mission UMC to create a Native American Cultural exchange and awareness weekend. While the weekend included emphasis on the Native American Awareness Sunday offering, it included far more. They developed a long-term preparation process that led to a true exchange. Members of Christiana UMC visited the Nanticoke PowWow. By the time Native American storytellers, dancers, etc. came to the church, the openness was already present. The program has been outlined as a model for others.
5. CONAM provided resource persons and materials for Native American Awareness Sunday programs, most heavily in the Dover and Wilmington Districts.

The benefits of all five programs has been to strengthen the leadership core of not only CONAM but of the leaders of Indian Mission UMC, to build a broader network with other leaders across the U.S., to have our own Conference team utilized by other conferences for insight and direction, our own Native American United Methodist leaders to be utilized as workshop leaders in the future, and to create a model from one local UMC that can be utilized by other churches, charges and Mission Area Ministry groups.

Changes to 1999 Goals

1. Explore a relationship with Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program in order to develop a model that can utilize the framework and expertise of the HBLEP but with a Native American-centricity.
2. Develop clarification of the role of speakers for Native American Awareness Sunday and Offering, and general Native American cultural awareness. Strengthen the use of speakers, and the impact on local churches/communities. The intent is to develop more intentional partnerships such as the one with Christiana UMC, and to make certain receiving churches do adequate preparation and follow up.
3. Begin a relationship with other area Conferences' CONAM teams, es. the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference CONAM and other leaders in the Delaware Valley corridor.
4. Complete video of Christiana UMC Native American Awareness Program for use in the conference.
5. Assist Indian Mission UMC in grant proposal process: The "monitoring" role of CONAM is becoming more active as members of CONAM have become partners in planning and goal-setting with the primary Native American UMC in our conference, Indian Mission UMC. The general church committee that oversees the Native American Comprehensive Plan has requested CONAM to be the supervisory body for a grant request from Indian Mission. This currently has the potential of becoming a model of partnering for the Northeast Jurisdiction and beyond. In addition, in promoting Native American Awareness Sunday there are plans being developed for creating more awareness of Native American populations and issues within the bounds of the conference.

Introduction and listing of the 2000 goals

1. Expanding the network of CONAM into all areas of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, and identifying other tribal groups living in our conference bounds.
2. To maintain an advocacy role for Native American concerns leading up to the 2000 General Conference.

Committee on Mission Education & Cultivation

Review of 1998 Goals

1. Work and communicate with local churches We are still working to make sure that each church has a Mission or Outreach Chairperson to ensure that these Churches or Charges will be well educated in mission possibilities. In 1998, we have surveyed to determine how many are needed in the local churches of the conference.

We have targeted each church in the district to ensure that is done. Our desired results are that all churches/charges and the communities they serve will become actively involved in Missions. In 1998, the Missions Secretaries worked to make sure that this was accomplished. This plan is implemented through each district secretary or person delegated by the District Superintendent to care for these responsibilities. In 1998, Mission Education and Cultivation will set aside $1,300 to make sure that this was accomplished. In 1999, we set aside a similar amount. We would really like to have that amount again. This program is an ongoing program to be kept in place so local churches will be informed about missions.

2. District Meeting and Newsletters - This is a program that targets the local church, the district, the conference, and all generations. This program is designed to communicate and to keep the conference informed about what is going on in Missions at every level. This is accomplished with the use of newsletters and other materials of communication. Our desired result of this is to have all churches and communities aware of mission possibilities and concerns.

To accomplish this, information is collected for local churches and published in newsletters, which is shared across the district. In 1998, $2,000 was allotted for the mission secretary to produce newsletters on all four districts. This allowed the communication of mission activities on each district to reach each church and ensure that district-wide necessary communication could be taken care of. The District Secretaries are the persons accountable for this program. This is an ongoing program made possible by sharing of mission activities between churches and increasing education between local churches by local churches. Each church is asked to educate the other.

3. Sub-District Training - Address proper training for District Secretaries. Our target is at least one District Secretary per district. Presently, we have made recommendations to the Dover District Superintendent and expect an appointment at a very early date in the future. On the Salisbury District, our appointee District Secretary has moved to the Wilmington District and presently serves as Co-Chair of Mission Education and Cultivation. Therefore, we are waiting the appointment of a Mission Secretary on that District. On the Easton District, the District Secretary serves very well and has had a Mission Saturation Event in 1998. They went beyond their goals to assist the Congo in Africa in 1998. At the Wilmington District, we have two Mission Secretaries who are working very hard. They have accomplished much; but we are especially proud of the work that has been done on behalf of Africa University.

This program still needs to remain in place because in 1998 some of our secretaries were trained and did go to New York for orientation. We still have 2-3 people who could benefit from this training. Our goal is to have the most informed Mission Secretaries communicating first-hand mission news to all the districts in our conference. This program will be totally implemented when all secretaries are in place on all four districts. In 1998, we have $1,000 set aside for this program to assist travel, materials and fees. The program continues until all new secretaries on the board are educated in their duties. We hope that we will receive $1,000 again this year.

4. Program Supporting the Bishop's African Appeal- We have endeavored to keep before our communities the work done and the work that needs to be done in Africa. All of the districts in the conference are targeted. We sought to promote involvement with missionaries in Africa and long term support of our missionaries. Planned in 1998 to encourage congregations to visit Africa as part of a mission team. This plan will continue in 1999. Our desired results were greater awareness and participation in the Africa appeal, also the greatest support for missionary. To ensure this, our board Chairperson decided to "practice what she preached" and was involved in the volunteer mission trip to Zambia in August; shared the opportunity of working along with the missionaries in Zambia, the Hamiltons, and along with other members of the VIM Team. Our conference has prepared a special video to help tell the story and the Board of Global Ministries has approved Rev. Barbara Britt Johnson as the Zambia Resource person. She, along with other members, is available to share this experience upon request.

As part of our Bishops' Appeal to Africa, the Mission Education and Cultivation contributed $500 to the Africa University Endowment Fund and $1,500 to Volunteer Missions of Zambia. Also, the Easton District, where Mrs. Joyce Jones is the Mission Secretary and the District Superintendent Ronald Bell, raised $4,500 to build churches in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Only $600 was set aside for this Bishop's Appeal, so we seek to increase this year because, as you can see, we spent more than that already. The mission Secretaries that make up MEC spearheaded this program in the district for the Bishop's Appeal.

5. District Mission Focus - This program is designed to follow up and receive feedback on Mission Saturation events. In this program, we target all generations of our district congregation. This program will include a series of activities that will engage our communities and ongoing mission activities, "Empowerment is our mission. And greater missionary commitment is a goal." Our intention in mission is to get missions in the minds of all whom attend our Saturation Events with no lapse of memory. Feedback and follow-up, implemented by Mission Secretaries will accomplish this. This program is intended to follow each Mission Saturation Event, monitor for improvement and follow through. For example, The Wilmington District has promoted the African-University fund by visiting local mission fairs and raising the awareness of the need for the university. Campbell soup labels have also been collected to support missions. The Salisbury District was able to host a mission fair at annual conference to demonstrate to the delegates and visitors all of the missions that are available to the local church and how easy it is to be in mission. Some of the displays included: blood pressure screening by Parish Nurses, quilting by the United Methodist Women and many other local mission stories were told. The Salisbury District also sent mission newsletters out in co-ordinated district mailings.

We seek to continue our goals to improve communication with local churches. Our goal is for every church to have a mission chairperson and on every charge where there is more than one church or an active mission area, there should be a committee representing each church or community in missions.

Our second goal for 1999 is district meetings and newsletters that occur monthly and inspired by the Mission Secretary.

The third goal is sub-district training to ensure the best informed Mission Secretaries. At least one mission secretary per district be trained and well informed.

The fourth goal is to continue the Bishop's Appeal to Africa with special support to the VIM Team and Africa University.

The fifth goal for 1999 is district mission focus to bring missions home to our congregations for commitment and participation.

2000 Goals

1. To support and provide training for district secretaries.
2. To provide training for conference, district, and local church mission outreach and education in local churches on each district.
3. To encourage each district mission secretary to communicate mission activities to local church mission leaders through newsletters and other forms of media.
4. To promote the Bishop's Appeal for Africa on the conference, district, and local church levels.
5. To promote events that celebrate and strengthen mission outreach and education in local churches on each district.
6. To perform a district mission focus as a follow-up to Mission Alive programs.
7. To cultivate youth involvement in at least one project on each district.
8. To promote covenant relationships with missionaries.

All Christians are to consider themselves as their Sisters and Brothers keeper. This should show in our mission concerns both at home and abroad.

"Health and Relief Unit" #1326 The Book of Discipline of UMC 1996

"The Health and Relief Unit exists to assist United Methodists and churches to become involved globally in health and welfare ministries and in direct ministry to persons in need through programs of relief, rehabilitation, and service, including issues of refugees, hunger and poverty, and disaster response; and to assist organizations, institutions, and programs related to annual conferences and other units of The United Methodist Church in their involvement in direct service to persons in need through both residential and nonresidential ministries."

The Health and Relief Unit is a single administrative unit with two functional areas—United Methodist Committee on Relief and Health and Welfare Ministries. They shall operate under policies set by the General Board of Global Ministries.

On Wednesday, March 4, 1998, a Mission Workshop was held at Grace United Methodist Church in Cambridge, Maryland. It was a pleasure to make a presentation on United Methodist Committee on Relief. This workshop was well received by the persons in attendance. To highlight the Hunger Challenge, a flat world map was used to locate areas where food was plentiful, sufficient, and greatly needed.

There is no excuse for hunger. The United Methodist Committee on Relief believes that Christians want to alleviate hunger. The Hunger Challenge is simple, but the effect is far-reaching!

Hunger 1999 and 2000 Goals

- Secure District Hunger Coordinators
- Encourage each United Methodist Church to make a commitment to help end hunger.
- Give to the World Hunger/Poverty Advance Specials.
- Ask at least two members within each local church to become active in Bread for the World.
- Support the Hunger Challenge through prayer and personal study.

To The Least of These: "If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him?"

Carolyn C Dorman
Conference Hunger Coordinator

Conference Refugee Coordinator

I was appointed in July 1998 to replace Rev. Jefferson Labala who had the following goal: contact key pastors to get them involved in refugee resettlement.

I have continued that effort by talking to pastors in the Cambridge, Maryland, area. This is a follow-up of earlier contacts made by Rev. Labala.

I wrote a report of the Newark United Methodist Church's history of refugee resettlement, which began in 1977 and continues to this day. Copies can be made available to interested churches.

I was asked in September to serve on the board of PRIME/Ecumenical Commitment to Refugees, an affiliate of Church World Service Immigration and Refugee Program. PRIME/ECR had helped our church with the sponsorship of the most recent refugees, six Bosnians and a family of four from Togo, West Africa.

1999 goals include continued contact of churches to interest them in sponsoring refugees; (see resolution below) and preparing a display for the Annual Conference in June.

2000 goals include multiple sponsorships throughout the Conference.

Resolution: that at least one church in the Conference will agree to sponsor a refugee family in 1999. Contact Bob Lucas, (302) 731-5364 for more information. I will also help coordinate the sponsorship and assist in any way I can.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

The following information about Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. (PUMH) is printed because the Conference and PUMH share a common mission although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH.

(A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, adopted June 12, 1985.)

PUMH provides retirement housing and health care services to senior adults in Delaware and Maryland. It owns and operates Methodist Country House in Greenville, Delaware; Cokesbury Village in Hockessin, Delaware; and Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware, all continuing care retirement communities (CCRCs). PUMH also manages Heron Point, a CCRC located in Chestertown, Maryland which is owned by PUMH of Maryland, Inc. The four communities serve a total of approximately 1,200 residents and employ 900 people.

Mission Statement: "In keeping with the strong religious heritage expressed by our founders in 1954, we are committed to providing the highest possible quality of life for the older adults whom we serve. We meet their changing needs compassionately and efficiently by maintaining our leadership in standards of excellence in retirement and health care services. We affirm the individuality and dignity of our residents and employees, strive for diversity among them and pursue our ministry of care in a socially responsible manner."

PUMH is all about people. It's about our residents, their families, our staff associates in the retirement communities and the corporate services office, our donors who give so generously, the vendors with whom we work, and our volunteers. Everything PUMH does is with and for these important people.

Last year, PUMH associates set annual goals for the corporation and for themselves for the next year. The areas of concentration varied from building new facilities to offering new services, from improving our financial structure to implementing more advanced technology, and from raising funds for capital expenditures to increasing the benevolence fund, but every goal had a common focus: serving people.

In June 1998 the Wesley Wellness Center, the first of its kind in a retirement community in Delaware opened at Methodist Manor House. Manor House residents spearheaded the fund raising efforts for this state-of-the-art center. With life enhancing programs such as water therapy, fitness and exercise plans, healthy living classes and adult day care, it provides the means for residents and other older adults to live longer and better.

In mid-July 1998, ground was broken at Methodist Country House for a wing of eight large two-bedroom/den apartments with garage parking. Upon opening in the summer of 1999, the Greenville Court apartments will answer the demand made by today's seniors for larger retirement housing.

As reported last year, PUMH explored the feasibility of building an equity-based community of condominiums for those over 55 in Ocean Pines, Maryland. However, marketing studies failed to provide sufficient assurance of the long-term viability of the project.

In March 1998, Rev. Richard C. Stazesky, PUMH president/CEO, was honored with the United Methodist Association President's Citation of Merit for outstanding achievement in his ministry at PUMH.

Following an August 1998 survey by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO), Methodist Country House received reaccreditation. JCAHO is a national organization which reviews hospitals and health centers and approves and accredits only those which meet its stringent criteria.

At the end of September 1998, PUMH completed its management responsibilities for the Layton Home in Wilmington. During its 11 year association with Layton Home, PUMH raised funds for over $3 million of extensive capital improvements and effected many renovations to upgrade the facility, in addition to providing skilled nursing care to hundreds of the area's lower income citizens. PUMH forgave $250,000 of unpaid management fees and an additional $1 million was provided to keep vendors current through the end of September 1998.

PUMH co-sponsored, with radio station WJBR, the third annual Senior Festival at Arshat Hall on the Goodstay Center campus of the University of Delaware in May, 1999. This annual event offers seniors of all ages and income levels opportunities to learn about many of the services available to them.

PUMH continued as a sponsor for the Delaware Senior Olympics, as it has since 1993. This event annually grows in numbers of participants and in the available events and we are proud to be able to continue this association.

Periodic mailings of resources and information for area United Methodist churches allow us to aid them in serving the older members of their congregations. We are renewing and increasing these efforts in this 1999 International Year of Older Persons.

At the annual meeting of the PUMH Board of Trustees in September 1998, PUMH presented its George H. Pigueron Founder's Award to Mrs. Linda R. Souder. Mrs. Souder is the executive director of the Methodist Manor House and has provided exemplary service to the residents of Sussex County for 17 years.

We are deeply appreciative of the support that our Annual Conference churches and members give to the benevolence work of PUMH. We project that PUMH residents will need $300,000 of benevolence assistance during the PUMH fiscal year May 1, 1999 through April 30, 2000. Contributions to the PUMH Benevolence Fund enable us to assist those people whose income no longer covers the cost of care.

The following information about PUMH of Maryland, Inc. is printed because the Conference and PUMH of Maryland, Inc. share a common mission although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH of Maryland, Inc.

(A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH of Maryland, Inc. and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, adopted June 5, 1990.)

PUMH of Maryland, Inc. owns Heron Point, a progressive and active life care retirement community in the unique setting of Chestertown, Maryland. Heron Point is managed under contract by Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc. As of early spring, 1999, Heron Point achieved 96% occupancy of its 192 apartments and cottages. Heron Point also offers assisted living and has skilled nursing care available for residents only.

Heron Point residents express a high level of satisfaction with their lifestyle and continue to be an important part of the Chestertown community, volunteering in many capacities to improve and maintain the vigor of the area. The cultural and educational opportunities offered by Washington College also play a significant part in Heron Point resident life.

In the past year Heron Point residents raised $1,000,000 for renovations and improvements to the Health Center, including the addition of a dedicated unit especially for the care of residents with Alzheimer's disease and other memory impairment disorders. Construction on the Health Center project began in March 1999. Continued improvements and additions to the facilities and new programs increase the quality of residential life.

Since 1992 Heron Point has sponsored the American Heart Walk in October, which raises funds for heart research. The walk begins at Heron Point and approximately 15 residents and a total of 200 people take part each year. In addition, each February Heron Point holds a Heart Healthy Gourmet Dinner, also a fundraiser for the American Heart Association. Heron Point staff solicits donations from vendors, gathers a celebrity wait staff, cooks the dinner and hosts it in their dining room. In February 1999, about 90 happy donors attended the dinner.

Heron Point debt was refinanced in June 1998 with $35,115,000 in tax-exempt bonds issued at a much lower interest rate than the previous bond issues. The reduction in interest rate enables Heron Point to keep fees at a competitive rate.

Division of Mission

Review of 1998 Goals

1. Volunteers in Mission (VIM) - To encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on mission experience.
During 1998, two VIM experiences were available to individuals from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. One team went to Zambia, Africa, to work with Donald and Mildred Hamilton, who are missionaries from our conference. The other team assisted the people in Costa Rica.

Each VIM team member is responsible for the cost of the VIM experience. This is a perfect opportunity for congregations to join in Mission Area Ministry to support VIM team members by praying and by giving financial donations towards the experience.

The VIM experience for Africa University in Zimbabwe was rescheduled for July 1999.

2. United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) - To increase giving of time, money, and in kind assistance to the United Methodist Committee on Relief, thus empowering the commission to respond to emergencies around the world.
$93,416.43 was given by congregations in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to UMCOR's projects during 1998.
3. Encouraging Mission Involvement - To encourage congregational and individual involvement in mission as well as support for missionaries.

The exhibits at the 1998 Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference provided information about mission opportunities and allowed congregations and individuals to participate in mission by donating money to the Africa University Endowment Scholarship Fund and by bringing soup labels to support the Red Bird Mission in Kentucky.

Congregations were also encouraged to celebrate the 50th Year of the Advance by supporting one or more of the projects listed in the Advance Specials Catalog.

4. Mission Speakers Bureau - To develop a resource of individuals who are willing to promote UM missions by sharing their personal mission experience and/or informing groups about the opportunities for mission involvement within the United Methodist framework.

Several individuals have expressed a willingness to share their personal mission experience. Developing a database will be an ongoing process.

5. Refugee Concerns - To promote and coordinate sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

We're thankful for the service that Jefferson Labala provided in this area. We welcome Robert Lucas as the new Coordinator of Refugee Concerns for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Goals for 1999

The purpose of the Division of Mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is to promote the support of mission and encourage participation in mission on the local, national, and world levels.

- a. Volunteers in Mission - To encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on-mission experience and to promote the Conference VIM Advance Special to provide scholarships for VIM missionaries.
- b. United Methodist Committee on Relief - To increase giving of time, money, and in kind assistance to the United Methodist Committee on Relief. To encourage each church to raise a minimum of $1.00 per member.
- c. Encouraging Mission Involvement - To encourage involvement in mission as well as support for missionaries.
- d. Mission Speakers Bureau - To develop a resource of individuals/groups who are willing to promote UM missions by sharing their mission experience and/or informing groups about the opportunities for mission involvement within the United Methodist framework.
- e. Refugee Concerns - To promote and coordinate sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Goals for 2000

The purpose of the Division of Mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is to promote the support of mission and encourage participation in mission on the local, national, and world levels.

- a. Volunteers in Mission - To encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on-mission experience and to promote the Conference VIM Advance Special to provide scholarships for VIM missionaries.

- b. United Methodist Committee on Relief - To increase giving of time, money, and in kind assistance to the United Methodist Committee on Relief. To encourage each church to raise a minimum of $1.00 per member.
- c. Encouraging Mission Involvement - To encourage involvement in mission as well as support for missionaries.
- d. Mission Speakers Bureau - To develop a resource of individuals/groups who are willing to promote UM missions by sharing their mission experience and/or informing groups about the opportunities for mission involvement within the United Methodist framework.
- e. Refugee Concerns - To promote and coordinate sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Review of 1998 Goals

a. Our existing relationships with Cooperative Ministries and Changing populations:

From the resourcing standpoint, we continued our relationship with existing ministries such as Nueva Vida, Salisbury Urban Ministry, etc. These ministries continue to grow under the leadership of capable individuals. We hope to receive regular progress reports and, to the extent that we can, help in the growth process.

b. Celebrate Mission Area Ministries in the Communicator:

This effort was started, but because the information to be shared and celebrated was not forth coming, it did not receive the success we had anticipated.

c. Relationship with Mission Area Ministries:

We were able to cooperate with Mission Area Ministries, through the resourcing of some seminars. Perhaps with more congregations waking up to the realities of MAM, this cooperation will expand in the future.

d. Generally Speaking:

Our division did not advance the cause of cooperative ministries around our annual conference as we had anticipated. We hope that 1999 will bring new energies and visions.

Year 2000 Goals

Our goals for 2000 border on the following:

1. To pay close attention to changing communities around our annual conference and to the extent possible become a partner in such initiatives through resourcing.
2. To continue our partnership with existing programs and ministries that come under the umbrella of our division.
3. To continue working closely with the Director of Mission Area Ministry in order to insure that the transition to the new paradigm takes hold in our annual conference.
4. Are we witnessing the demise of the small church? Our division hopes not. In as much as combined ministries have been the answer in some instances, there are small congregations that do function, even though they need help occasionally. Our goal in 2000 is to hold listening posts in each district to determine what the problems are, so we can develop effective strategies for ministry in our small congregations.

Review of 1998 Goals

1. God's Kitchen will strive to involve more churches and organizations in feeding the poor and to involve the recipients of the program in leadership and worship opportunities.

This year we welcomed Immanuel Baptist and the youth of Sonlife Community Church to the ministry of God's Kitchen. Sixteen churches and organizations now serve Saturday lunches at God's Kitchen. Certified lay speakers in the Salisbury District were invited to participate in the worship opportunities of this ministry. Although the spiritual programs are often targeted for the children, adults also benefit by the message.

God's Kitchen is also the site for our Parish Nursing Program. A team of registered nurses participates each Saturday giving blood pressure checks and making referrals to the Health Department and the Joseph House Clinic for follow-up treatment. Local agencies, including the Wicomico Health Department and Shore-Up Inc., provide programs concerning children's safety, drug and alcohol use, and preventive health care. Peninsula Regional Medical Center administers free flu vaccinations.

2. The outreach ministry of the Lazarus Fund will focus on strengthening the cooperation of the churches in order to serve more people. We will look at adding an additional location for the food pantry and financial assistance program.

The Lazarus Fund continues to grow as we offer financial assistance and food to those who are in need. In 1998, there were 705 situations in which food and/or financial help were provided to individuals or families in crisis. A total of 588 bags of food and over $20,000 were distributed to the elderly, disabled, and materially impoverished. Volunteers gave over 400 hours of time in order to make this ministry a success. Wicomico Presbyterian Church has joined the original list of churches participating in the fund with volunteers and donations.

St. Andrews Church has offered its parsonage at 402 Vine Street for office and program space for Salisbury Urban Ministries. Use of this building is dependent upon approval by the Planning and Zoning Board and the Salisbury City Council. If approval were granted, this would provide space for an expanded ministry.

3. The Urban Choir Camp will continue to expand the involvement of the multi-cultural community in student participation, leadership, and staff. The camp will promote and encourage an appreciation and understanding of different cultural styles of music.

The fifth annual choir camp was held at Wesley Temple United Methodist Church. Thirty-three children participated in the camp. Participation in the camp was inclusive. The music and Bible lessons centered on the Ten Commandments, "God's Top Ten."

4. Increasing the number of youth participants, adult volunteers, and congregations in the Youth council is one of the goals of the Council. The Council will promote participation in district and conference youth activities. The Council will focus on involving youth in mission with a mission trip to Arizona and helping in God's Kitchen. The Council will promote and offer opportunities for student leadership.

The Rev. David Bennett, Director of Young People's Ministry, led a retreat for youth representatives, pastors, and youth leaders. A joint calendar was developed and cooperative activities were planned for the year. Conference youth activities were promoted. Youth groups participated in serving meals at God's Kitchen. A video was made of Asbury's (Salisbury) youth group serving Thanksgiving Dinner.

On November 13-14, 1998, the congregations involved in Salisbury Urban Ministries sponsored a leadership retreat for youth and youth leaders at "The Promise Land," in Pittsville, MD. Through the participation of Neil Dowling and Rob Heflin, of Perdue Farms, Inc., the youth and youth leaders, our churches are on their way to setting goals and vision for our youth and by our youth. Questions concerning discovering temperament preference, working with a team of opposite personalities, and identifying strengths and gifts for service were shared. Great ideas, song, prayer, scripture reading and understanding were interlaced throughout the weekend. The end result was a mission statement for the individual youth groups.

Nine youth and nine adults led a Vacation Bible School for Navajo children in Tselani, Arizona. During this trip we were reminded of our purpose for ministry. Sheldon, a young Navajo child suffering from alcohol fetal syndrome, would put his hand on each of our hearts and say, "I find Jesus in your heart." This experience and many more like it provided for a life changing trip for those who participated in this ministry through the Volunteers in Mission.

5. A goal for all the programs of Salisbury Urban Ministries is to make the congregations of the participating churches more aware of the cooperative outreach ministries of their congregations through Salisbury Urban Ministries.

This goal was addressed by publishing a quarterly newsletter.

Other Significant Events in 1998

Ted Day represented Salisbury Urban Ministries and also led a workshop in Washington, D.C. at the NorthEastern Jurisdiction's Conference on "The Church and Police Seeking Community Peace."

Salisbury Urban Ministries also participated in the recognition and retirement service for the Rev. Howard Gordy. Carolee Greenwood and Chuck Anderson wrote and presented a skit on some "memorable situations" in Rev. Gordy's ministry. Cindy Quillen was commissioned to write a poem that she read with the help of the congregation.

A cooperative Thanksgiving service was held at Bethesda Church that emphasized the Urban Ministries' programs especially God's Kitchen and the Lazarus Fund.

WBOC TV, Channel 16 in Salisbury, visited God's Kitchen on December 26, 1998, and did a segment on the ministry for their news broadcast.

1999 Goals

Our 1999 goals will be addressed by the following objectives:

1. Provide Parish Nurse Training for the Health Ministry Coordinator.
2. Provide space in the new offices for more volunteers to be involved in identifying the needs of persons who request help. Coordinate information and help through available software of other service agencies.
3. Identify additional resources for funding for maintenance and growth.
4. Establish a Resource Library for the Health Ministry at God's Kitchen.
5. Provide two cooperative worship opportunities.
6. Provide monthly worship services for youth that are planned and led by the youth.
7. Publish monthly newsletter for the youth and youth ministries.
8. Initiate pilot sailing-mentoring program for youth at God's Kitchen.
9. Further define and organize the spiritual enrichment program for children.

2000 Goals

The goals for Salisbury Urban Ministries are the same as the 1999 goals. Our goals were established for a five-year period.

Neighborhood House

Neighborhood House's Computer Services Technician Training Program began July 1998. It has provided an opportunity for individuals to learn to repair computers and to become A+ Service Technicians. The program funded in part by the Delaware Private Industrial Council has proved to be an excellent education and economic development program.

Training includes 320 hours of classroom instruction and laboratory experiences, job readiness training, instruction on using the internet, and a four week internship working in a company as a service technician.

Twenty-five participants ranging in ages 19yr. to 61yr. were enrolled in the first two fifteen week cycles. July - November '98 and November - '98 - March '99.

Twelve have become A+ certified computer technicians and sixteen are gainfully employed. One of the students in first cycle developed a special software package, which allows re-installment of Windows 95 and 98 in less than six minutes. Due to that development he was invited by Microsoft Technologies to attend a conference in Europe. He also received a $3000 education scholarship to further his computer technical knowledge. All applicants enrolled in the program were unemployed and had to be approved by the Delaware Department of Labor.

Neighborhood House steps back into the house development arena after acquiring a row of partially built townhouses and adjoining lots. When construction is complete, 27 families will become homeowners in a sub-development to be named Cabean Square. The name Cabean Square was chosen by staff to honor Daisy Cabean who was childcare Director for 17yrs, before retiring in 1974.

Housing Services provided comprehensive counseling to 859 households which consist of pre-purchase, mortgage default, rental delinquency, pre-rental, reverse mortgages, money management and post-occupancy counseling. As a result of pre-purchase counseling, 125 families purchased homes leveraging $10,354,062. 310 individuals attended pre-purchase workshops. Provided weatherization assistance state wide to 250 households and assisted 112 families financially who were in default with their mortgage, rent or looking for rental housing.

Neighborhood House's teen operated business, SouthSide Teen Ink. (SSTI), joined Junior Entrepreneurs in training program operated by Delaware State University in February 1998. 'JET' provided the students with entrepreneurship awareness skills training exposure and encouraged entrepreneurial ambition. Eight teens were active in the company. Some of the items produced by SSTI included business cards, memo pads, letterheads and stationary. They were one of the recipients of the Entrepreneurship financial awards.

Value Statement

Neighborhood House, Inc. is a community center that stands in the heart of South Wilmington and operates a satellite facility to serve the Middletown Odessa-Townsend (MOT) area. Better housing, family unity, education, recreation, neighborhood development, racial and cultural relations, as well as spiritual and enrichment are important aspects of programs and services, which meet the various needs of the people.

Goals

- Promote community economic development.
- Provide a range of services and resources to help families and individuals develop long-range solutions to their problems and needs. Toward this goal we offer: (a) employment counseling, including support for clients with potential for entrepreneurship, and (b) educational and training opportunities for children, youths, and adults.
- Promote and provide recreational, cultural, and enrichment opportunities and programs.
- Promote and provide housing development and housing counseling to: (a) increase housing opportunities for low-and moderate-income families in and around South Wilmington and in the (MOT) area, and (b) counsel individuals throughout New Castle County in accessing housing.
- Assist those in greatest need to obtain the necessities of daily living.
- Broaden the base of, and improve the quality of financial, physical, and human resources available to Neighborhood House.

Methodist Action Program

Introduction

"Creating Communities of Compassion through Christian Faith in Action" is the Methodist Action Program's vision statement. Adopted late in 1996, this statement expresses an understanding of the ministry and mission of MAP that is becoming more and more evident. It provides insight into the three historic and recently re-affirmed components of the Mission Statement.

- Helping individuals, congregations, and communities
 - Meet Human Needs,
 - Promote Positive Social Change, and
 - Facilitate Church Development through the transforming power of Jesus Christ."

Meeting Human Needs

Every congregation in our Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference encounters members and neighbors who have pressing human needs; practically every church reaches out in one way or another to help. For thirty-three years MAP has directed a major part of its effort at alleviating basic human needs. The programs have changed over the years and the kinds of help provided have varied. But information, referral food, housing assistance, clothing, loving attention and the Gospel of Jesus Christ have always been offered to the limit of resources to all persons in severe need. During this past year MAP has sought to meet human need through the following programs.

Old Asbury Homeless Ministries

The homeless problem in the lower Business District of Wilmington came to the Methodist Action Program because of our ownership of the Old Asbury Church building at Third and Walnut Streets. Agencies and programs needing space to minister to the many homeless and hungry in that geographical area have requested MAP's participation in helping to alleviate these problems. The Emmanuel Dining Room serves meals to an average of 175 hungry persons each day -- people who might not eat were it not for this program. Friendship House works with some three hundred people a year, helping those wishing to rebuild their lives to make new beginnings. FAITH Center provided more than $110,000 in emergency assistance. The Old Asbury Homeless Ministries is a collaborative project. By housing and interrelating these programs in the same building, paid substantially out of a State grant-in-aid, the combined impact of these programs helps more people rebuild their lives than the programs could do independently.

The Ministry of Caring located its Emmanuel (East) Dining Room in our building in 1980; through this program people who are hungry can eat one good meal a day, seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year. MAP has provided space and utilities without charge for this ministry. MAP has also encouraged United Methodist Congregations throughout the County to support this program.

Friendship House located its Meals Center programming and administrative offices at the Old Asbury Church in November, 1995; hospitality, case management, and other services are provided on this site and transitional housing is administered from this office. MAP provides space and utilities without charge for this agency.

The FAITH Center initiated programming at Old Asbury Church in February 1997; during 1998 FAITH Center distributed $110,000 in emergency assistance with basic human needs to prevent people from becoming homeless. MAP provides space, utilities, office supplies and equipment, and most of one staff person to this project.

The projects housed in the Old Asbury Church building are clearly separate programs, serving different aspects of homelessness. Alone, each does important things for the homeless; together, via coordination meetings and individual consultations, they begin to focus homeless people's attention and energy on new life and on a more wholesome life style. The in-house agencies coordinate and cooperate with the Sunday Breakfast Mission, The Salvation Army, Eighth Street Baptist Church, other Ministry of Caring programs, and some of the independent food and clothing distribution projects. Through these programs, individuals are assisted in accessing essentially all of the public and private services that are appropriate to their situations. As this collaboration increases even more, two nearly seamless sets of services will be available, one to prevent homelessness and the other to minister to those who are down and out so that they might again rise toward abundant living.

MAP interrelates the in-house programs and relates them to other community resources for hurting and homeless people. Greater interaction among agencies serving homeless populations and increased numbers of inter-program referrals result from MAP's influence on the collaborating agencies.

Centro Los Abuelos: The Grandparents Center

The Hispanic populations are the fastest growing segment of the Delaware community. Some Hispanics have lived in our community long enough to have reached retirement here. Children who could not leave their parents behind when they migrated to this country to build better lives have brought others to this community. In either case, many Hispanic senior citizens have become isolated in a foreign culture where an unfamiliar language is spoken. There is only one senior center in the State of Delaware that programs intentionally for the Hispanic senior citizens: Centro Los Abuelos.

Centro Los Abuelos is a Spanish language and culture senior center program that is designed to promote social relationships and to stimulate creative growth. It is a center for information, referral assistance, and services for Hispanic elderly persons. Programming is conducted in the following areas: social and recreational activities, nutrition, transportation, and health promotion.

Presently Centro Los Abuelos is a participant in some of the programming provided by the State of Delaware, Division of Services for Aging and Adults with Physical Disabilities, most notably, the Nutrition Program operated by City Fare. A variety of shared programming has been attempted with Wilmington's Department of Parks and Recreation, other senior programs, interested churches and other agencies. Language has been a continuing and perplexing problem. Where language is not a problem (the Latin American Community Center), some of the seniors are participating in the Foster Grandparent Program with day care children. Conversations continue with the Latin American Community Center regarding the best programming opportunities for Hispanic seniors.

Centro Los Abuelos provides Hispanic seniors a healthier and happier quality of life through participation in the agency programming. Through the program activities the elderly are helped to have a fuller range of their needs met and to gain greater opportunities for quality living through assisted access to available private and public resources.

Food Assistance Ministries

MAP continues to help people feed their families when times are difficult. Combining the food offerings of a number of United Methodist Churches in the Greater Wilmington area with a little Federal emergency funding and the resources of the Food Bank of Delaware, food assistance is provided in two forms.

An Emergency Food Closet has been operated on the site of Centro Los Abuelos for several years. Families and individuals that would otherwise be hungry are provided a few days' provisions. Thanks to the generosity of those who have enough and some to share, these thousands of people, mostly children -- do not have to be hungry.

MAP is looking to expand both emergency and non-crisis food assistance programs through interested United Methodist Churches. The first MAP assisted emergency food closet opened in the Harriet Tubman Community UMC in January 1997; in this instance MAP provided most start-up costs and is providing half of the on-going costs of stocking the closet with food donated through the Food Bank of Delaware. The second MAP assisted emergency food closet opened in Haven UMC in 1999. Other churches will probably open emergency food closets through the assistance of MAP in the months and years ahead.

MAP WALK for Housing

With the co-sponsorship of PNC Bank, MAP conducted its ninth annual MAP WALK for Housing. By means of these five and fifteen kilometer walks, MAP raised over $30,000. Some of the net proceeds were returned to "partner" non-profit organizations, which received back half of all that their walkers raised. The balance, after all expenses were paid, was distributed in equal portions to support Friendship House, Habitat for Humanity of New Castle County, Interfaith Housing Delaware, Sojourners' Place, and MAP'S Old Asbury Homeless Ministries.

Promoting Positive Social Change

Social and other changes are inevitable. Working to promote positive growth in community values and in individual and group opportunities in the midst of all of the social change is our Church's task. MAP has tried to participate in this process in a number of ways over the years. MAP led campaigns against racism and gambling. MAP talked about welfare reform twenty-five years before it became a national issue. Working for positive social change is an important focus for each of our churches.

Affiliation with Delaware Ecumenical Council on Children and Families

Concentrating mostly on maternal and child health issues, the Council has received Federal, State, and General Church funding. In simplest terms, the Ecumenical Council is helping religious congregations connect at-risk people in their neighborhoods with the available public and private services looking to serve them. Through this programming, congregations create and sustain important relationships with their neighborhoods while their neighbors receive the help they need. Through this programming, religious congregations have an inexpensive and easily available opportunity to minister to their neighbors and their communities have a chance to see these churches as caring participants in their physical, social, economic, and spiritual struggles.

With a grant from the General Board of Global Ministries, the Ecumenical Council is engaging teens in ten or twelve weekly sessions on at-risk behaviors. Partnering with Volunteers in Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention, this project seeks to help teens make better decisions on issues of sexuality, alcohol, narcotics, violence, and other behaviors that put them at risk of danger. A follow-up to a successful project by the Public Allies program, this project is expected to touch directly about 160 teenagers. It is also expected to generate a program curriculum and training opportunity for the activity's use in all interested churches with their neighborhoods.

During 1998 in New Castle County and 1999 throughout the State of Delaware, the Ecumenical Council invites interested congregations to work on health, education, and general welfare issues and concerns in their communities. This programming helps the neighborhoods served and it helps the churches doing the serving.

Advocacy

There are so many issues; they are all important. During this year MAP worked on the following:

- Infant Mortality and Morbidity,
- Child Health and Welfare,
- Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention,
- Health Care Reform,
- Elder Abuse and Victimization, and
- Chronic Disease Prevention

Facilitating Church Development

Church development efforts seek to contact unchurched and under-churched people to invite them to the Church and to new life in Christ. The development of new congregations is the strategy in growing communities where too few churches exist or where existing congregations seem to be unwilling to include new neighbors in their programming and fellowship. Revitalization typically involves helping a congregation connect and identify with its local community and to redevelop its programming to address the Gospel to its neighborhood.

New Church Development

New church development activities did not break new ground during this year. Consolidation and further development were the emphasis.

The Nueva Vida mission congregation has begun moving toward becoming financially capable of supporting itself. The appointment of a part-time lay pastor appears to be providing enough professional leadership for gradual growth and development while staying closer to the financial capability of the congregation.

Congregational Revitalization

MAP has struggled for thirty-three years to learn to help congregations re-focus on their neighborhoods. By encouragement and consultation and by financial assistance for programming that connects congregations with their neighborhoods, MAP has begun again to assist churches in transformation and revitalization.

When Old Asbury Church was being made available for new homeless ministries, the After School Educational Enrichment Program was given to Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC with partial funding for three years. The moved program helped Ezion-Mt. Carmel connect in a new way with its neighborhood. The temporary funding permitted the Church to prepare itself financially for the new ministry.

The Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program had been based in Camp Pecometh on a multi-church format. Four years ago MAP funded the adaptation of that important Conference project for use in neighborhood-based congregations and the implementation of the resulting Outpost Program in the Harriet P. Tubman Community United Methodist Church (formerly named Brandywine-Trinity UMC); continuing subsidies have helped to maintain that program that offers the Gospel and the church's love to neighborhood youth. During 1997 two more churches, Mt. Joy UMC and Calvary UMC, were introduced to train in operating their own Outpost Programs to help them connect with neighborhood children, teens, and their families.

The Dale's Memorial Church needed to help Afro-American youth comprehend and cope with Ku Klux Klan activity in their neighborhood. MAP provided financial support for a seminar. And, MAP provided consultation and behind-the-scenes assistance in helping the Middletown community secure a programming unit of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Delaware.

In north-west Cecil County, MAP consulted with two churches, pastors, and lay leadership to encourage the development of what is now called the Ray of Hope Mission. In northeast Cecil County, MAP initiated a discussion about congregational revitalization that might lead to one or more existing churches reaching out to the suburban development in the area.

Students, Volunteers and Local Missionaries

Many communities and congregations cry out for new church development and/or for revitalization. MAP's resources of staff and funding are very limited. Therefore, MAP is inviting interested persons to help in a variety of "affordable" processes. Seminary student field assignments, student internships, lay volunteers, and local missionaries living on subsistent support are all available possibilities for future funding. Persons with commitments to particular communities or to appropriate programs are invited to discuss MAP support for their projects. An initial listing of possible projects is available for interested persons, who can telephone (302-225-5627) the central office, to explore a role in the following ministries:

- Hispanic National Plan Church Development,
- Class Meeting Ministries for the Un-churched,
- Satellite Ministries to the Un-churched,
- Old Neighborhood Church Revitalization,
- Rural Community Church Revitalization,
- Suburban Rural Church to Suburban Church Revitalization,
- Rural Community Services Development,
- Ministries to the Homeless, and
- Ministries to the Disenfranchised

Administrative Activities

Local Church Lay Representatives

All Wilmington District churches have been reminded and encouraged to elect a Lay Representative to the Methodist Action Program. The Lay Reps. have been meeting regularly to increase the two-way information flow on MAP accomplishments, programs, and opportunities for assistance in program development in local churches. The Lay Reps. have assisted in designing some program activities and in implementing them in their congregations. They have taken responsibility for the Annual Meeting at which reports are given, members of the Board of Directors are elected, and awards are given. The Lay Representatives coordinate the ministry and mission of the Methodist Action Program with the needs and opportunities of the local United Methodist Churches and their communities.

Annual Meeting

In memory of Mr. Samuel McKay who helped found the Methodist Action Program, the 1998 Annual Meeting recognized the following persons who put their faith in action in exemplary ways:

- Antoinette Davis, Coleman Memorial UMC
- Kevin Goodwin, Hockessin UMC

Directors (members of the Board of Directors) who were completing their terms in office were recognized:

- David Akeley
- Guy Molock
- Daniel Shin

New Directors were elected:

- Sherese Brewington-Carr, Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC
- James Harris, Haven UMC
- Walter St. Clair, St. Paul's UMC.

New Home for Central Office

In 1998 MAP moved its office to the Tower Office Park in Newport, Delaware. MAP's new address and telephone numbers are the following:

Methodist Action Program

Telephone: (302) CALL-MAP
Facsimile: (302) CALL-FAX

Thank You, Peninsula-Delaware Conference

In 1997 our Peninsula-Delaware Conference leadership made some hard financial decisions that required a substantial cut in the Conference's support to the Methodist Action Program. The reduction in income would have been especially difficult.

In the Special November 1997 Session the Conference voted nearly unanimously not to reduce MAP's funding, but to maintain MAP's financial support at the previous years level even at the cost of deficit financing. You cannot know how significant your action is; it is a tremendous vote of confidence. Thank you, Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

REVIEW OF 1998 GOALS

1. We have worked toward but have not adequately attained the goal of putting into place a system of obtaining from congregations the names and locations of students from their parishes who are away at college. We urge further compliance with this goal, and ask pastors or chairpersons for higher education to send early each Fall a list of students to David Bennett at the Conference office.
2. We have distributed materials on loans and scholarships and have made this material available on a web page. We have continued to sift carefully through scholarship applications and have awarded these. We now have an ample web page. The URL is <http://campus-ministry.org>

3. Our planned February weekend intercampus retreat was canceled; we are disappointed at the lack of registration and are taking steps to reconsider whether this event is the best possible approach.
4. We have conscientiously worked toward Conference restructuring in a way that will give appropriate place to the concerns of our board.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

We have continued to support the Black College Fund, United Methodist Student Day, and the work of Africa University. Our Black College Student Ambassador for this year was Ms. Tia Woods, a student at Paine College.

During this year, new personnel who had recently joined our ministry came into their own in leadership. Unfortunately in the late fall, Dr. George Shivers resigned as chair of our Board. We are greatly indebted to him for the leadership he exercised during his tenure on the Board.

CHANGES TO 1999 GOALS

We basically reaffirm the goals we have set for 1999.

We will upgrade our web page and are updating the Guidebook on Campus Ministry in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Rather than producing a videotape presentation with professional assistance, we are creating such a presentation through the Power-Point video program of professional quality but with greater economy.

We will continue to host a Black College Ambassador in addition to promoting the Black College Fund, the ministry of Africa University, and observance of United Methodist Student Day.

We have, however, put on hold the usual form of inter-campus event and are exploring events that may be more attractive to students at all of our schools and that can be more effective in reaching our goal of inter-campus communication and Christian fellowship.

We continue to work with those engaged in the Conference's restructuring program and are eager to see the results of this process.

GOALS FOR 2000

1. There will be ongoing efforts to have better identification of United Methodist students enrolled in the schools at which we have campus ministries.
2. We will begin a rotating system of evaluation of our ministry sites, so that each school is evaluated once every five years.
3. We will work with leaders of youth groups in local churches to introduce campus ministries to young persons who are college bound. An adaptation of the Power Point presentation made at this Annual Conference session will be made available for use in local churches.
4. Students from our colleges will participate in the Northeast Jurisdiction Student Conference in October 2000. Not only will students from our various centers attend the general sessions, but time will be set aside during which all of the attending students from our school can meet as a Conference group.

5. We will continue our support of the Black College Fund and Africa Methodist University as well as of United Methodist Student Day.
6. Scholarship resources will continue to be publicized to eligible students and we will administer the resources under our jurisdiction with great care.

Laurence Hull Stookey
Chairperson

Wesley College

The faculty, staff, and students of Wesley College extend their greetings to the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church. We are pleased to present this report.

Enthusiasm and growth have marked the 1998-99 academic year. Headcount enrollment grew by 200 to over 1,400 students, over $5 million was invested in the physical plant (including the renovation of the Wesley College Chapel), and two new graduate level programs were added to the existing curriculum.

In its academic program, Wesley remains committed to the liberal arts and seeks to make its curriculum relevant to changing educational needs. Our general education curriculum, developed by our own faculty and staff, is a model for residential liberal arts colleges, and I am proud of the emphasis it gives to the development of writing, speaking, and mathematical skills in all our academic programs. Wesley challenges its students to a life-long commitment to develop their intellectual, ethical, spiritual, and leadership potential and to set and uphold standards of excellence. The College is a community of learning based on fundamental principles formed at the intersection of Christian faith and liberal education: intellectual rigor, self-discovery, human dignity, mutual support, social justice, self-discipline, mental and physical wellness, the appreciation of diversity and the natural world, and the judicious use of resources. The College recognizes and affirms its interdependence with external communities-local, regional, national and global-and its covenant with the people of Delaware to share its educational and cultural resources. Clearly, Wesley takes pride in its past and energetically continues to seek effective means to serve the educational needs of the Mid-Atlantic region.

*The curriculum at Wesley was expanded this year to include the Master of Business Administration and Master of Environmental Sciences degrees.

*The Wilmington Adult Studies Center of Wesley opened in February. Located in a beautiful building in the Corporate Commons, adult students can earn the associate and bachelor's degrees with a business concentration. Two master's programs -- business and nursing -- will be added at the Center in 1999-2000.

*Wesley is the only college in the United States to have a campus-based Boys and Girls Club. The program affords educational opportunities for undergraduate students at Wesley and provides year-round, safe educational and recreational opportunities for 200 disadvantaged youth from throughout Delaware.

*Wesley is the home of the first state-supported charter school (The Campus Community School), on a private college campus in the nation. Offering alternative educational opportunities for students in grades 1-8, the School serves as a laboratory for Wesley students enrolled in teacher education. Over 300 students enrolled the first year.

*Wesley is a partner with West Virginia Wesleyan College in an Educational Outreach program, providing distance learning opportunities for 200 adult learners.

*Wesley is a partner with the YMCA of DuPont counseling center.

*Wesley is listed in Stanford University's "Critical Comparisons" and Rugg's "Best Colleges" rankings for quality and value.

*Wesley is the home of Children's Theater of Kent County, offering dramatic arts opportunities for over 200 school youth.

*Wesley is a leader among NCAA Division III institutions with 15 intercollegiate sports for men and women.

*Wesley is the home of a fall Culture Arts Series and Faculty Lecture Series for the benefit of students and the surrounding communities.

*Wesley is an international campus with students from 17 foreign countries. Study abroad opportunities are available in Europe, Costa Rica, and Japan.

*Wesley is a major economic contributor to the State of Delaware. The college has an annual economic impact of over $40 million and a physical plant valued at $46 million (replacement value).

*Wesley is a good neighbor and partner with the Dover Air Force Base, offering educational opportunities to over 300 military personnel and their families each year.

*Wesley is an innovative leader in environmental studies, offering nearby off-campus learning opportunities at Inland Bays Center and DuPont Corporation.

*Wesley is one of the unique institutions in the country offering a special Freshman Academic Success Track (FASTrack) program. This program is a partnership (covenant) among the students, parents, and College to work with students as they strive to reach their academic potential.

*Wesley's core curriculum, known as WISE (Wesley Interdisciplinary Seminar Experience), provides a holistic national model for undergraduate education.

Contributions to Wesley during the past two years have surpassed any similar period in the College's history. In fact, gifts and pledges to the three-year, $12 million "Campaign for Wesley" surpassed the $9.3 million mark after just 15 months. This has enabled the College to commit $5.3 million to improvements to the campus infrastructure:

To assist in communicating the wonderful things, which are occurring at Wesley College, we have significantly expanded our worldwide web site with daily postings of news and information. Sections have been added focusing on the College, the United Methodist Church, and the life of John Wesley. By accessing my personal web site, you will find speeches, newspaper columns, and position papers relevant to the College.

We at Wesley value the continuing relationship with the United Methodist Church and we appreciate the support of the College's educational mission.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
Delaware State University

Mission

The Mission of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at Delaware State University is to provide an intentional, nurturing Christian presence on campus which models the love and ministry of Jesus Christ. This mission is implemented through worship, study, reflection, counseling, and fellowship and by providing opportunities for service to others. The ministry, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, seeks to support all members of the university community as they engage in the process of value formation, faith development and spiritual growth.

Program

The 1998-99 academic year program consisted of ministries to students and the entire university community, including faculty, staff and administrators.

1. Student Ministries.

a. During the 1998-99 academic year one of our goals was to organize a viable student club (The Wesley Club) on campus. After experiencing some difficulty, including not being able to identify United Methodist students on campus,* we have successfully met this goal. The Wesley Club is organized, has elected officers and meets weekly.

b. Six of our Wesley Club students attended the celebration of the National Student Conference at Ridgecrest Conference Center near Ashville, NC during the Christmas recess.

c. Three Wesley Club students will be attending the United Methodist Student Forum in Oklahoma City in late May. We expect to be actively involved in the United Methodist Student Movement.

d. We have two peer ministers working with us in order to help develop programs that will attract more students for involvement in our ministry, especially in the Wesley Club.

e. We are in the process of organizing a small choral ensemble consisting of about 8 to 10 voices to sing light classics, anthems, standard hymns, spirituals and traditional Gospel music. We expect the ensemble to be formed and ready to accept invitations by the beginning of the 1999-00 academic year. A small group of female students from the Wesley Club have organized a liturgical dance troupe which recently performed at a campus wide program sponsored by the Wesley Foundation.

f. We have established Listening Post ministries at two sites on campus. These posts have been operative since the beginning of the academic year and are staffed by volunteers from Whatcoat Church (Dover) and the director.

2. The University Community

a. We participate in the interfaith United Campus Ministries (UCM) at the university and help to facilitate two monthly meetings, along with Mrs. Phyllis Collins, who is chair of UCM and an ex-officio member of our board. The meetings involve:

(1) Chairs/presidents and faculty/staff advisors of all student religious organizations on campus. This meeting seeks to foster collegiality and dialogue, build trust and provide opportunities for coordination of calendars and planning ecumenical and interfaith programs that all organizations can support, such as the proposed Religious Emphasis Week to be held next academic year. This event will feature programs sponsored by the various faith traditions present on campus.

(2) Faculty, administrators, professional and non-professional staff. A religious interest survey has been conducted and many people responded favorably to a question about their interest in attending a monthly meeting. The purpose for the meeting is to engage in dialogue regarding the vision for religious life on campus, to solicit suggestions for programs that will be most effective in reaching students as well as the campus community at large, and to discuss possible strategies for promoting the inclusion of provisions for religious life facilities as the university plans for the future.

b. The Wesley Foundation and DSU Student Government Association sponsored a lecture by Dr. Cain Hope Felder, a nationally known scholar, author and speaker. Dr. Felder is Professor of New Testament Literature and Language at the Howard University School of Divinity in Washington, DC. Many people attended the lecture from Dover and surrounding areas.

c. The Wesley Foundation co-sponsored an appearance by Mrs. Rae Lewis-Thornton, a former political organizer and career woman that was infected with the AIDS virus. Mrs. Lewis-Thornton has been featured on many network television programs, on the cover of several national magazines and in articles in major newspapers across the country. She has dedicated the rest of her life to speaking about the danger of AIDS and how to avoid it. The ABC Network program Nightline taped her presentation at DSU.

d. The director continues to serve the university in a variety of ceremonial programs.

The Board of Directors

We are pleased to report that we are experiencing excellent attendance at our board meetings as well as support for and involvement in program.

Goals for 1999-00

Our primary goals for the 1999-00 academic year are:

- a. To continue to strengthen the Wesley Club and other student ministries.
- b. To strengthen our Peer Ministry program.
- c. To organize the Choral ensemble and participate in local church, district and conference programs when invited to do so.
- d. To continue work with UCM in an attempt to strengthen the religious presence on campus and to make it an integral and legitimate part of university life.
- e. To participate, with UCM, in welcoming students to the university at the beginning of the fall semester and informing them about religious life and programs on campus.

*Despite several contacts with pastors as well as a conference-wide mailing, we have received only one response to our request for assistance in identifying students from conference churches who are attending Delaware State University.

1998 Goals

The overall goal of the SSU UMSM (Wesley Foundation) is to create a community grounded in the gospel of God's Amazing Grace, Jesus Christ. That it will be a real community which meets the multi-faceted needs of the students who participate; that we continue to grow spiritually by deepening our personal piety and practice, ministering to each other's hurts and periods of despair; celebrating our joys and significant events with song, praise, and thanksgiving; that we continue to try to be "in every place a voice", Jesus' voice, hands, feet, heart and spirit; to be his disciples. We pray for the courage to be faithful each day. In this spirit we affirm the following goals:

1. To provide opportunity for the genuine deepening of students' spiritual life for those who live on the college campus and those who commute.

Employing a tool provided by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry entitled CD Journal (the title means Covenant Discipleship) we have tried to learn and practice the meaning of Discipleship. A general rule comes from the CD Journal: "To witness to Jesus Christ in the world and to follow his teachings through acts of compassion, justice, devotion, and worship under the guidance of the Holy Spirit."

We also follow a common set of Bible Lections that link us with Christians all over the world. In a very profound sense, we feel connected and linked to others in our country and across the globe.

An added dimension is a new relationship to Asbury United Methodist Church located just south of the campus. Since we meet on Wednesday evenings this often ties in directly with special events at Asbury such as the Lenten series this year. We are welcome to participate, in anyway that we want to in this fellowship and worship.

Singing songs of praise and thanksgiving are also important for us in each weekly session together. Gathering around a common table with good food and drink is fundamental.

2. To provide opportunity for student members of the SSU UMSM (Wesley Foundation) to participate in volunteer programs of service to the last, the lost and the least of our community.

Each Saturday morning several of us tutor at the Fruitland Community Center where children and youth ranging from first grade through high school come to receive help with their studies. This has been very rewarding for the individuals who participate.

3. To provide opportunity for SSU UMSM members to broaden their Christian experience by going beyond the local fellowship in attending conferences, work camps, work-study seminars, summer work/travel occasions, retreats, and the like, both here in this region and beyond, including international happenings and events.

Several of our group worked in Arizona among the Pueblo Indians, at camps for children and youth, and one was in China bringing the good news of Jesus to several communities while helping with restoration of buildings and homes. This same person went to Argentina to set up plans for a similar kind of program there during the summer of 1999. One of our groups has been the Youth Director at a local church this year.

Six of the group attended Celebrate III, a national ecumenical Christian student gathering, December 30, 1998 - January 3, 1999 in Ridgecrest, North Carolina. 1450 students came from all over the United States and 26 different countries. Among the featured speakers was Archbishop Desmond Tutu from South Africa. We gained so much from this experience and seek to put into practice the conference theme: "To do justice, to love kindness and to walk humbly with [our] God." (Micah 6:8)

One of our groups attended the national Student Forum in Washington, DC on the study of violence. Since we are closely connected with the Center for Conflict Resolution in Salisbury this participation was especially valuable. The materials, which came out of the DC Forum, have been most helpful.

4. To provide concrete opportunities for developing members' leadership skills empowering them to be committed constituents of the United Methodist Church and other Christian fellowships.

A particular part of the Covenant Discipleship program is "to connect and equip a new generation of Christian leaders." We are learning how to speak, teach, train, help one another and connect with different parts of the United Methodist Church and other denominations. We want to expand this project.

5. To provide opportunity to communicate and network with other UMSM (Wesley Foundation) groups in the conference and beyond, leading to genuine fellowship and community building, thereby strengthening and expanding the members' experiences with diversity, and celebrating the unity which abides in the oneness of Christ Jesus.

At the level of the Conference Board of Higher Education we have seen real progress. The different Wesley Foundations are working together in more effective and creative ways. The task now is to expand that to include STUDENTS. One avenue we will follow is to plan with other campuses to attend the Northeastern Jurisdictional UMSM gathering in New York City, October 15-17, 1999.

6. To provide opportunity for SSU UMSM members to be active in telling others about the story of their group, its grounding in the person of Jesus, witnessing to the saving grace of God for each person and the social groups which make up society.

We have sponsored a number of events on campus. Among them a lively discussion of the film "Contact" based on Carl Sagan's book by the same title. The discussant is a physics professor and astronomer.

Professor Pat Washburn of the Iliff School of Theology spoke on "Diversity and Unity" which was attended by both campus and community people. Both of these events allowed the group to witness in both quiet and powerful ways to persons coming from diverse backgrounds and interests.

We held worship services including communion at Asbury UMC to which other Christian groups were invited to be with us.

Another event will be held at Camp Pecometh where God's Open Book of Nature will be experienced and interpreted through scripture, song, food, fellowship, meditation and worship. This will take place on the weekend of April 16-18, 1999.

We are planning to expand this kind of programming as a goal for 2000.

Introduction and 2000 Goals

The new relationship SSU's United Methodist Student Movement has with Asbury United Methodist Church is a critical factor in the types of goals we shall have for 2000. The close physical proximity of Asbury is so important. Equally crucial is a new awareness of what the UMSM's (Wesley Foundation) role is in this setting: being a mission to SSU students.

Competing secular influences abound which capture students' interest, time and energies. These are pervasive and are being cued by the mass media, consumerist society which puts such an extraordinary emphasis on the accumulation of things, and the influence of numerous interest groups ranging from bike clubs to chess and video games, sports, fraternities, ad infinitum.

Mainline Protestant groups like the UMSM have a different "message" from that of the more evangelical Christian groups. These have considerable appeal for students. The United Methodist Church is the majority denomination on the Delmarva Peninsula and in the Baltimore area. It is from this tradition that many SSU students come, but on campus they are often active in the "competing" more evangelical groups. A significant part of the United Methodist traditional message emphasizes the communal values of justice and peace, kindness, mercy and forgiveness as they apply to political, social, and economic structures. This approach is currently devalued to an alarming degree on the campus. Hence, the UMSM's task is very much a missional one.

Its role must be one, which constantly seeks reconciliation, common ground, points of real partnership with other Christian groups whatever their political or social orientation.

Also apparent is the growing presence of other faiths like Hinduism, Buddhism, Baha'i, Islam, Native American, Taoism, Zen Buddhism, and the like. Another task of the UMSM is to seek to be part of a genuine pluralism which "move[s] from the isolation of our own faith experience, through an attitude of tolerance of one another and finally to a sense of interdependent community." (The Wesley College statement on Beyond Tolerance: from Diversity to Pluralism)

A perceptible shift is occurring in American culture affirming the critical place of spiritual values for a decisive part of the population. This phenomenon is discernible on the Salisbury State campus. The following goals for the UMSM at SSU are identified:

1. To augment the partnership with Asbury UMC in a purposeful and concrete way. This means working out the various relationships of staff, addressing the problem of space, types and levels of responsibility, accountability, and the like.
2. To encourage and participate in the emerging renaissance of spiritual life on campus making efforts to reach the various SSU students: residential, commuter, ethnically and culturally diverse, et al. To expand the kinds of programs which can attract and hold these students is an imperative for realizing this goal. Introducing the idea of Covenant Discipleship groups might be an effective approach. The CD Journal, a publication of the UMC, guides groups of 4 to 8 persons who want to engage in spiritual formation and Christian witness.
3. To carry out the missional role by seeking to offer to the campus the person of Jesus as the embodiment of God's Amazing Grace. This means planning programs and projects which can present Jesus' ministry of bringing good news to the poor. . .proclaiming release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, letting the oppressed go free, proclaiming this the year the Lord has chosen." (Luke 4: 18-19) Prompting these questions: Who are the poor, what is poverty? Who is a prisoner, and why? Who is blind, why can't we see? Who are oppressed, and by whom?
4. To seek ways of affirming both diversity and unity, to find avenues for going beyond tolerance of the other to achieve an interdependence within community. This then entails planning events and opportunities for such a development to occur.
5. Take the story of the UMSM (Wesley Foundation) at SSU to Salisbury District churches. A principal aim is to show how the UMSM is a missional project of the local churches for the Salisbury State University campus. Because this is a ministry of all United Methodist Churches they will be asked to share in the support of this program, thus augmenting the budget of the UMSM at SSU which will increase the effectiveness of its mission.

Phillip Bosserman
Executive Director

Wesley Foundation
University Of Maryland Eastern Shore

This has been a year of reorganizing for the Wesley Foundation—UMES. After many years of faithful, committed, dedicated "beyond the call of duty" services the president of the Wesley Foundation Board—UMES, Frances Fitchett, resigned. She has been a vital link between the recent changes of Executive Directors (3 in 2 years). We will be forever indebted to her as she gets a much-deserved break. I wish to personally thank Frances for her invaluable generosity in staying on during my time of transition. I know what a sacrifice she made for Wesley Foundation and me.

GOAL 1 (1998)

Identify and provide nurture and support for the Christian community on the UMES campus.

I have tried to create an environment whereby students/faculty would feel free to either by "drop-in" or "by appointment" to seek "a listening ear." The longer I am here, the more I am sought out.

I am given many opportunities to be visible to the community-at-large. I am a member of the UMES Campus Crisis Team.

GOAL 2

Provide opportunities for worship, fellowship and learning for "seekers" and "believers" on the journey of faith.

Although attendance has been "low" for the Thursday night Bible Study, the attendance for Sunday morning worship at Metropolitan has increased. On various occasions students participate in morning worship. Many of our students, especially officers, were seniors last year. Our goal is to increase the attendance of our Thursday night Bible Study and fellowship.

Religious Emphasis Week was held April 20-26, 1998. The closing worship was held at Metropolitan with UMES Sunday. There were 65 students present along with administration, faculty and staff.

Provide opportunities for persons to express their faith through community service and other "acts of mercies."

- *5 Wesley foundation students were tutors for an after-school program sponsored by Seton Center and held at Princess Anne Primary. This was a weekly commitment.
- *1 Wesley Foundation Student volunteered in a 2nd grade classroom at Princess Anne Primary. She donates at least one morning a week.
- *2 students teach Church School at Metropolitan

GOAL 4

Challenge and support those persons who believe they have been called into Christian vocation.

One student received a call to Christian vocation last year. Because she was a graduating senior, I did not have a chance to help her explore that call as much as I desired. Although she graduated in May, we still keep in contact and I am happy to report her pastor is helping her to formally explore her call.

CLOSING STATEMENT

In closing, if you know a person who is a student at UMES or who plans to attend UMES, please either contact me with the student's name or have the student contact me at (410) 651-0530 or (410) 651-4447. Won't you be an instrument of God and provide an opportunity for our students to continue to be a part of the connection at their home away from home.

2000 GOALS

1. Identify and provide nurture and support for the Christian community on campus.
2. Provide opportunities for worship, fellowship and learning for "seekers" and "believers" on the journey of faith.
3. Provide opportunities for persons to express their faith through community service and other "acts of mercies."
4. Challenge and support those persons who believe they have been called into Christian vocation.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
University of Delaware

1998 Goals

1. To provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, as well as physical and educational nourishment for the university community.
Through God's grace we met this goal successfully.
2. To provide outreach to the de-churched at the university campus.
This goal is ever evolving.
3. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
This goal was met and will be discussed in Section II.
4. Encourage students to consider professional ministries as vocations, and to provide training opportunities for future lay leadership with the church.
Students continue to discern God's call by attending Exploration '98, Student Forum and counsel with the campus pastor.
5. Continue to support students who are in the ordination or consecration process.
One of our former students, Drew Cottle, has transferred from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference inquiring candidacy process to the Northern Texas Conference. We continue to be in dialogue with Drew and support him with our prayers. Currently, Amy Sens is pursuing the "Ministry Inquiry Process" with the campus pastor. Amy is from the Minnesota Annual Conference.
Brian Grafton and Heather Hartline attended Exploration '98.
6. Promote with the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to the Book of Discipline.
Through God's grace, love and guidance we have met this goal successfully.
7. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to foreign students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.

Students have participated in interfaith/multicultural experiences with the Center for Black Culture, Hillel, Hola and other underrepresented communities on campus. We are constantly providing opportunities for open dialogue for times of sharing.

8. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches.

We have shared University Sunday with several churches in the Wilmington District, and supply printed information upon request to other local congregations. We continue to find creative ways to improve on this goal.

9. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration at the University of Delaware.

We have met this goal successfully through our campus pastor's efforts to educate the campus community. Her efforts are recognized by the administration as the religious leader, an extension of the Division of Student Life.

10. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.

The Board of Directors is seeking every means possible to raise the necessary funds to maintain The United Methodist Church's presence at the University of Delaware.

11. Foster Board of Directors development.

Section II

Spiritual growth continues to be the center of our ministry. The students worship with the Newark United Methodist Church family where they are invited to serve as liturgists and communion servers. A highlight each year is the one Sunday designated as University Sunday. The students chose the theme, "WFCM 101: Recognizing God on Campus" for this year's University Sunday. We have shared in weekly theological discussions, Bible study, Covenant Discipleship Groups, and interreligious worship services. Singing Sunday is growing in favor with the students.

Over the past year we have shared leadership in the Interfaith Celebration of Lights, Christian Contemporary Music Concerts, Ecumenical Day of Prayer for Christian Students, Sexual Assault Awareness Interfaith Worship, Candlelight Vigil during National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week, Candlelight Vigil in response to the murder of a student from the University of Wyoming, Interfaith Thanksgiving Service, the Holocaust Education Week Shabbat, and Yom HaShoah Service.

Another highlight each year is our winter retreat. This year the study, "What Does the Lord Require", helped the students prepare for our spring break Volunteer in Mission Trip to the Lumbee Nation in Lumberton, North Carolina. This spring break work trip was the top highlight where students replaced roofs, built a wheelchair ramp, painted and sorted clothing and food for senior citizens of the Lumbee Nation. The students did all the fund raising for this trip.

Student leadership continues to be one of our strongest gifts. The Student Steering Committee and the Peer Ministers plan and lead various programs throughout the year. These opportunities provide the students with developing leadership through their discipleship. Many of our students have been leaders in The United Methodist Student Movement. We have participated in the Student Forum, Exploration '98, the Northeast Student Movement Conference, and Celebrate 111. One of our current students, Amy Sens, and a Wesley Alumnae, Laura Jane Swanson, led two workshops at Celebrate 111.

Committed to bringing our faith to life we continue our outreach ministry in love for the community. We have cleaned our highway, served at PeaceMeal, sorted food at Delaware Food Bank, and impromptu projects as requested. Holding fast to our belief that social activities are an important part of our Christian fellowship, we have shared in parties, sport activities, movie nights, eating, tailgating, concerts, hayride plays and various other activities. The Student Lounge provides a quiet, sacred space for the students to meditate, sleep, eat, and study.

Being in campus ministry in this part of the 20th century when the interest in religious and spiritual life is on an increase provides for interesting and challenging opportunities. The toughest challenge is the raising of funds to support our United Methodist presence at the largest academic institution within the boundaries of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The students are interested in the presence of the church, the administration encourages the presence of the church, and yet, the church struggles to maintain its presence. The Board of Directors have prayed and worked without ceasing to raise the necessary funds to maintain a full-time presence. The efforts in fund raising have been successful to a point. However, our expenses continue to increase due to growth, which increases expenses. The Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference has not increased their support for the past eleven years.

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware is viewed on campus as the leader for the campus religious and spiritual life. Our Executive Director/Campus Pastor serves on the President's Commission to Promote Racial and Cultural Diversity, chairing the Religious and Spiritual Life Concerns Caucus, the Commission on Sexuality, Sexual Assault Awareness Week Team, the Campus Diversity Unit, the Christian Denominational Campus Ministers' group, the University Religious Leaders' Organization, New Student Orientation Diversity Leader, NCBI Welcoming Diversity Workshop leader, Media Committee for the Robert Wood Johnson Campus/Community Coalition, New Student Orientation 11 Planning Committee, Student Events Coordinating Council, mentor for colleagues in campus ministry (locally and nationally), developing and leading workshops for the professional Residence Life staff, the Center for Counseling and Student Development, and the Division of Student Life senior staff. Pastoral care/counseling is provided to the entire campus community either by referrals or by individual request.

There is a vital need for the presence of The United Methodist Church at the University of Delaware. We are providing a ministry of spiritual, service, social and stewardship through the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry. The United Methodist Student Movement is growing at U of D. God is ever-present in our challenging ministry as we continue to be faithful people, nurturing faithful minds for faithful lives. The church is needed on our campuses. May we, the church, never forget the importance of the mission field called a university/college campus. It is part of our Wesleyan heritage: uniting knowledge and spirituality.

Mission Statement

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware, a mission carried out in and through the love and grace of Jesus the Christ, provides a program focusing on the spiritual, service, stewardship and social aspects of a Christ-centered life. In these times of challenge, questioning and growth, this ministry, guided by the Holy Spirit, provides a vital United Methodist presence at the University of Delaware.

2000 Goals

1. Educate the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as to the vitality and significance of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware so we may continue to provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, and education for the entire university community.
2. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
3. Support students and graduates who are considering professional ministries as vocations, and provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.
4. Promote within the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to the Book of Discipline.

5. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to international students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.
6. Provide outreach to the *de-churched at the University.
7. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches, to help strengthen the relationships between these churches and their campus ministry.
8. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration at the University.
9. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.
10. Foster development of the Board of Directors.

BOARD OF LAITY

STATEMENT OF GOALS AND RESULTS FOR 1998

1. Increase the "Partnership in Ministry" of Local Church Lay Leaders and Clergy through the Leadership Development Team's Opportunities. Increase by 5% total participation.

We have experienced increases in the "Partnership in Ministry" within the Local Churches through the reporting of Mission Area Ministries activities. Many interesting stories have been reported on the District Workshops MAM Meetings.

2. Increase the training of Lay Members and Reserves of the Annual Conference through Pre-Conference training at each District by each District Board of Laity.

In all Districts, the Boards of Laity conducted the training along with the Conference and Associate Lay Leaders. The guidebooks were updated and made easier to use for both Laity and Clergy.

3. Continue the Lay Speaking Program in each District with a 5% increase in new speakers. Develop one new Advanced Course each year.

Each of the Districts had Lay Speaking Academies for both the basic course and advanced courses. We also developed several new courses: Lay Evangelism, Ministry Inquiry Process, Building Teamwork, Church Leadership for the next Millennium, and Worship Arts in Ministry.

Worked with the Board of Discipleship to partner in training for Local Church Officers training. The first session was a course in "Servant Leadership."

With the Districts completing 200 new Lay Speakers from the Basic Course, we now have approximately 1350 Lay Speakers (both Local and Certified) in our conference.

4. Work with District Boards of Laity, UMM, UMW, Youth and all other organized groups to establish more Spiritual Leadership.

We included all District Boards of Laity in our "Day Apart" training and fellowship sessions. Worked with the UMM on the weekend training and camping activities. Authorized credit for Lay Speaking advanced courses for UMW's School of Christian Mission.

We assisted the Board of Ordained Ministry's recruitment from seminaries by writing a report on the Laity of our Conference. Included above is our work with Discipleship.

We gave the Youth copies of the Conference Journal and suggested some uses for the material. We suggested the "Ropes Course" at Camp Pecometh for the Youth for Leadership Team Development. Suggested that together we cultivate an understanding about the church so youth can be nominated to either the General or NEJ Conferences.

5. Develop a plan to help Local Churches increase the knowledge that all laity are "Ministers."

Our plan to accomplish this is to continually emphasize "our (Laity) call to ministry: whenever/wherever a Lay person speaks i.e., Pre-Conference briefings, Lay Speaking Schools, meetings, and when Lay Speakers preach. We will also continue to work with Mission Area Ministries to help educate laity and clergy alike in this area.

6. Work with Youth to develop Youth Leadership Courses.

See item 4 above. Recognizing the significant role that youth play in not only the future of our church, but the present, we are working on ways in which we might "Partner with Youth" - using as our examples scripture from I Timothy and from the Book of Ruth.

HIGHLIGHTS OF OTHER EVENTS

LAY (SPEAKING) ACADEMY

Each District had over 120 advanced participants each and had over 50 participants each in the Basic Course. Several new courses were developed and offered.

DAY APART AND MISSION AREA MINISTRY

Rev. Elaine Ayres, Director of Mission Area Ministries, conducted our 10th Annual Day Apart on Partner in Ministry by Dr. Roy Trueblood. This Spiritual Growth Activity was an outstanding day for the Laity.

Other activities on Mission Area Ministries included:

- Mission Area Bible Studies
- Covenant Discipleship Workshops
- Praise and Communion Services
- Charge Conference on MAM
- Pre-Conference presentations

CLERGY LAITY BANQUETS

The Districts had their own individual banquets, along with a day with the Bishop. Salisbury combined the retirement party for their District Superintendent, Howard Gordy, with their banquet.

The Conference Lay/Clergy Banquet was held in Dover at the Modern Maturity Center. The program enjoyed by all, centered on music using less common instruments, such as bagpipes, harp and accordion.

THE ORDER OF ST. BARNABAS

The Board of Laity again sponsored the Order of St. Barnabas and the presentation of its awards. They are based on "creative Stewardship for Target Prayer, Time, Treasure and Talent. These awards were presented at the Lay/Clergy Banquet. The 1998 inductees were:

- Individual: Marc Marcus, Wilmington District
 Frank Rinaldi, Wilmington District
 John & Jeanne Sparks, Dover District
 Emma Handy, Easton District
 Mary Gladdys Jones, Salisbury District
 Lavern Wright, Salisbury District
- Group: Ray of Hope Mission Center, Wilmington District

As we work into the last year of this century and begin the "new" 21st Century, we need to remind ourselves that our purpose is to help others know God's Saving Grace.

Chair, Board of Laity

REVISED STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 1999

1. Work with the Leadership Development Team to develop new "nurturing" courses for empowering the Laity each year.
2. Produce a video to aid in training Lay Members and Reserves of the Annual Conference.
3. Increase the number of Lay Speakers by 5% by "nurturing" the Laity. Develop a Lay Spiritual Growth Leadership Team.
4. Work with the Bishop to sponsor a Bishop's Day Apart with Laity.
5. Work with the Conference Youth Council to advocate for the election of a youth as a delegate to General and/or NEJ Conference.

REVISED STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 1999

1. Empower all to reflect on the Biblical Standards of stewardship.
2. Encourage current members of the Order of St. Barnabas to be models for Mission Area Ministry.
3. Increase the program participation and the award presentation.
4. Compose and distribute a booklet listing all members and groups of the Order of St. Barnabas.

BOARD OF LAITY
STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2000

1. The Board of Laity will continue our cooperative work relationship with the Leadership Development Team to:
 - Empower laity for service/ministry and
 - Enable the laity to partner with the clergy

This would include empowering for service in the local church, in everyday life, as well as service in the world, remembering John Wesley's words, "The world is my parish."

2. Help the laity understand and celebrate their spiritual leadership.
Help the laity understand their role as laity and as spiritual leaders.

This will be accomplished by the nurturing of spiritual growth and discipleship for Christ for all laity and clergy, modeling servant leadership.

INTERNAL GOALS:

1. Intentional (BOLD) involvement of youth in all Board of Laity functions and decision making.
2. Sensitive and intentional in our racial inclusiveness.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2000

1. Partner with the Board of Discipleship for a Celebration on Stewardship Sunday.
2. Promote and uplift the Order of St. Barnabas at the Local Church Officer Training and the School of Christian Mission.
3. Encourage and motivate churches, groups and individuals to reflect on Biblical standards of stewardship.
4. Serve as models for Mission Area Ministry.
5. Make the Order of St. Barnabas known to all members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
6. Continue to recognize churches, groups, and individuals that reflect the four T's of the Order of St. Barnabas.
7. Publish booklet, listing members of the Order of St. Barnabas.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry has as its primary tasks the recruitment, nurture and examination of candidates for ordained ministry and the continual nurture and care of all ordained ministers. The Board is made up of laypersons and clergy persons, deacons and elders, associate members and full members, and a representative from the Cabinet.

We celebrate these highlights of our work in 1998:

- The ordination of 9 probationary deacons, 1 permanent deacon, and 7 elders at the Annual Conference Session at UMES.
- The opportunity to offer an increased amount of scholarship aid to an increased amount of college and seminary students.
- A change in the evaluation process which encourages dialogue between pastors and churches, and allows mutual evaluation of both.
- Changes in requirements for candidates for ordination including letters from the candidate's SPRC, and a background screening questionnaire.
- A renewed emphasis on enlistment and recruitment of candidates for ordained ministry - efforts include seminary visits and outreach to conference youth through the Conference Youth Rally and Bishop's Confirmation Day Apart.
- Partnership with Wesley Seminary on a pilot project with persons in the probationary period.
- The continuing growth and disbursement of the Clergy Family Assistance Fund, whereby clergy contributions to the fund help other clergy families in times of distress and need.
- Increased dialogue with District Committees on Ministry.
- With Bishop Weaver, designed and implemented Advent and Lenten Days Apart.

As we look toward the year 2000, our main goal and emphasis will be in the area of Enlistment and Recruitment. We will be exploring new and diverse ways of reaching out and inviting persons to consider whether God may be calling them into full-time Christian ministry.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Board of Pensions, the Investment Committee, and the Insurance Benefits Committee continue to meet five times a year. The Pension Luncheon Committee and the Retirement/Financial Seminar Committee meet on an as-needed basis.

The Board of Pensions is pleased to recommend an increase in the past service rate from $368 in 1999 to $386 in 2000. A new unfunded liability was created on 1/1/99 of $1.2 million and an additional $800,000 liability will be created as of 1/1/2000 as a result of this rate change. The liability will be funded in 1999 and 2000 from Conference Apportionments and Endowment Funds.

Accomplished Goals

1. The Insurance Benefits Committee continues to examine the current benefits and look for ways to improve the Conference insurance coverage.
2. A Retirement Luncheon was held last year on May 13, 1998, and plans for this year's luncheon are already underway.
3. The Investment Committee continues to monitor our investments.
4. The Board of Pensions continues to send the "Taking Care" magazine to all pastors in the insurance program.
5. A recommendation for the past service rate for the year 2000 has been determined and will be presented to the Annual Conference for approval.
6. The Board of Pensions was represented at the restructuring meeting of our Conference.

2000 Goals

1. The Investment Committee will continue to work with PNC Bank and monitor the investments and will continue to maximize efforts to increase the past service rate.
2. A Retirement Luncheon will be held on May 12, 1999, for retiring and retired clergy, and for retiring and retired lay persons that have worked for the Conference.
3. The Insurance Benefits Committee will come to the Board with a recommendation concerning Long Term Care insurance for clergy and spouses. We will have an agent available for presentations at a District meeting.
4. A Financial Seminar will be held September 29, 1999.
5. The Board of Pensions will make its decisions for setting the past service rate for the year 2001.

Reminders

1. Pastors who are appointed to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the first time must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in the health, dental, life and pension programs.
 - A. Pastors leaving appointment in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefit programs.
 - B. Pastors having changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, adoptions, death, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events.
2. Each pastor is responsible to keep the Conference Business Office and the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary.
3. Local churches are reminded that they are responsible for the full cost of the dependent portion of the health and dental program for their clergy family.
4. You can help contribute to the continued success of our health program by becoming familiar with and using the preventative benefits of your program. You should also be receiving a publication entitled "Taking Care". Please take the time to read it. It will benefit you and your health program.
5. Pastors may call the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits (GBOPHB) any time to find the status of their retirement benefits. That toll free number is 1-800-851-2201. An Interactive Voice Response system is also available at 1-888-851-2201.
6. Important Notice: Please check your pension account balances in your 1998 year-end statement, compare it to the 1997 year-end statement and make sure all 1998 deposits were made. Due to the new computer system at the GBOPHB in Illinois, you may find errors. It would be better to correct errors now than at the time of your retirement. Contact the GBOPHB at 1-800-851-2201 or the Conference Business Office at 1-302-674-2626 for assistance.

Committed Board Members: I am grateful for the commitment of all Board members for their time and talent in our meetings. The Laity and Clergy freely give of their expertise and opinions. In addition, the Board gives special thanks to Elaine Wilkerson and Bill Westbrook for their assistance as resource persons to the Board. This year Deborah Abbott and George Beauchamp (class of 92) resigned after 6 years of service on the Board due to other responsibilities. I want to thank them for their dedicated service. Both contributed immensely to the Board and were present when we made the decision to pay off the unfunded liability created under the former pension system.

After appearing before the Conference Arrangements Committee, it became clear to me that the Board is more than insurance benefits and investing. As a Board we work with retired clergy, active clergy, and laity to provide support in preparing for retirement and during retirement. The Board is committed to continuing its excellent service.

Board of Pensions Resolution

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:
The Past Service Rate for 2000 is set at $386 per year of approved service.

2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received during the year of 2000 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at the time of his or her retirement;
2. This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister who has been granted the retired relation or placed on disability leave by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and whose name and relationship to the conference is recorded in the Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and in other appropriate records maintained by the conference.
3. The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension payment resulting from all service of such retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-290 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a "rental allowance" is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities.

Resolution for Long Term Care Insurance

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions has recommended that Warner "Bud" Clark of Williams Insurance Agency be the agent of record for Long Term Care Insurance. The Insurance Benefits Committee of the Board of Pensions has researched and studied the various insurance companies and agents prior to making this recommendation to the Board.

Mr. Clark will be providing seminars in each district for those pastors wishing to explore the purchase of Long Term Care Insurance. A brochure is included in the Conference packet. If you have an interest, please complete the form on the brochure and leave it at the registration area. You will be notified of the dates, places, and times of the seminars.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Conference Board of Trustees, as a corporation, is primarily charged with handling property matters of the Conference. This consists of holding title to the properties of the Conference; administration of endowments and bequests, and disposition of abandoned and discontinued church properties.

The full Board meets quarterly with additional meetings as required by its investment subcommittee. The Board started the calendar year of 1998 with an inventory of five abandoned or discontinued churches and by action of the annual conference, acquired four more properties during the year. During the year the Board made arrangements to dispose of six of these nine properties.

The Board continues its goal of reducing the numbers of aging Limited Service churches that no longer serve a constructive purpose and represents a potential insurance liability to the Conference.

Litigation continues on the trespass case the Board filed in 1995 against the former Board of Trustees of the Eastlake United Methodist Church. Last fall the Board received a favorable ruling from the Delaware Court of Chancery. However, the defendants filed an appeal with the Delaware Supreme Court. This court has held hearings and as of this date (February 1999) we are awaiting their decision.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

REVIEW OF 1998 GOALS

1. Operate and maintain Barratt's Chapel, the museum and the archives.
This goal was met.

2. Celebrate the anniversary of the meeting of Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury at Barratt's on the second Sunday of November.
This goal was met with Dr. Leonard Sweet as the featured speaker.
3. Continue work on the Delaware Conference History in line with Strategy One of the ethnic Church Comprehensive Plan.
Groundwork was laid for planning meetings in 1999.
4. Sponsor a local church history contest and a local church video contest.
No entries were received.
5. Expand holdings and facilities of the Archives and the Museum.
This is an ongoing function of the Commission. Donations to the museum are occasionally received and evaluated. In addition, space was cleared and an office created for our Development Officer, Bob Wallace. Time and materials were donated to make this a cost-effective project.
6. Recruit and train local church historians.
No help from local churches was requested.
7. Pursue conducting an annual colloquium.
No progress was made on this goal.
8. Build up the permanent endowment in connection with the Eastern Pa. Peninsula United Methodist Foundation.
Much time and effort on the part of the conference and the commission were spent on this goal. We welcome David Baker on board as Chair of the Campaign Finance Committee, and Bob Wallace as Campaign Development Officer.

1998 REPORT

The weekend of November 7 and 8 was a busy one for us. Dr. Leonard Sweet, whose recently published book, 11 Genetic Gateways to Spiritual Awakening, features Barratt's Chapel, was the speaker at our Saturday night banquet. Dr. Sweet also spoke at the anniversary service the next day. Both events were well attended with proceeds from the banquet going to our Financial Campaign Fund. At the 1999 service on Sunday, Nov. 14, our speaker will be Bishop Peter Weaver.

In addition to Dr. Sweet's address, the banquet featured our recently produced video on the history and significance of Barratt's Chapel. The video was produced with partial funding from the Delaware Tourism Office. Several members of our commission are now prepared to take the video into local churches and conduct programs for Sunday School or study groups. In order to request this service please contact the chapel.

The Barratt's Chapel Financial Campaign is underway. The Rev. David Baker is Chair of the committee, and the Rev. Bob Wallace has come on board as Development Officer. This campaign is intended to take care of the long-range capital needs of the chapel and museum. In addition, it is hoped that increased funding will enable us to provide additional staffing, which will make a wide range of educational outreach and other conference and community programs possible.

Planning is underway for the Delaware Conference History. Preparatory meetings have been conducted between the Peninsula-Delaware and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conferences. During the year, we hope to begin our search for an author to undertake the research and writing. Some funding is available for this project.

In addition to the anniversary and caroling services, plans are underway to sponsor as many as four other special services. One of these will be the Love Feast we expect to hold early Saturday morning during Annual Conference. Other special services will incorporate themes of community and conference interest.

Barratt's Chapel is a Heritage Landmark of the United Methodist Church. The chapel and museum are open to the public on Saturdays and Sundays from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Other times may be arranged by contacting the curator, Lynn Hobbs, at (302) 335-5544. If you are interested in making a contribution to our Capital Campaign Fund, please contact Bob Wallace at his office at Barratt's.

1999 GOALS

1. Operate and maintain Barratt's Chapel, the museum and the archives.
2. Celebrate anniversary of the meeting between Thomas Coke and Francis Asbury at Barratt's on the second Sunday of November.
3. Hold the annual Christmas Caroling service in December.
4. Develop additional special services, beginning with the Love Feast during Annual Conference.
5. Train volunteers to take Barratt's Chapel video into local churches for Sunday School and study group programs.
6. Sponsor a local church history contest and a local church video contest.
7. Recruit and train local church historians.
8. Continue work on the Delaware Conference History in cooperation with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference.
9. Revise and up-date by-laws.
10. Work on clarification for historic site designation.
11. Place priority on the Financial Campaign in cooperation with conference leadership, Council on Finance and Administration, and the Eastern PA./Peninsula DE. United Methodist Foundation.

GOALS FOR 2000

The commission will continue to give top priority to the development of the Capital Campaign. This campaign is intended to take care of the long-range needs of the chapel and museum - including increased staffing and expanding outreach and educational programs to serve both the community and the conference.

Priority will also be placed on the Delaware Conference history. As we enter 1999, a committee is being formed, and plans are being laid to bring this long awaited project to fruition.

Operation and maintenance of the chapel, museum and archives is an ongoing project.

We will continue to support local church historians and their projects.

We will continue our emphasis on the development of special services to be held at the chapel.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to District Superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 1998 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was $152,500. Funds expended in 1998 totaled $106,637. As part of this report, there is attached a list of the churches and/or charges receiving assistance in 1998.

As part of a continuing effort to identify its mission and to identify areas where it can provide pastoral assistance, the Commission this past year reviewed and agreed to provide assistance to local churches whose pastors experienced a short-term disability. Assistance will be in the form of reimbursement to the local church for the expenses incurred by a substitute pastor for a period of up to six months, as long as the church continues to pay the full salary of its disabled pastor. The District Superintendent, the Local Church, and the Commission Chairperson will agree upon the amount of reimbursement. It was felt this assistance could be provided with no increase in the budget.

If you are new to your Pastor Parish Relations Committee or concerned about what you should or could be doing to help your pastor, please feel free to pick up a copy of our brochure entitled "Guidelines for Pastor's Compensation".

Recommendations

The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 2000:

Full Member	-	$23,600
Probationary & Associate Member	-	$21,250
Full-time Local Pastor	-	$19,700
Student Pastor	-	$16,950*

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 2000 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Commission on Religion and Race

The Commission on Religion and Race attempts to minister to the conference by working to expose and eliminate racism, bigotry and racist activity by embracing inclusiveness, encouraging recognition and acceptance of our diverse cultural heritage.

Our task is to make suggestions on building solid working foundations opposed to allowing the continuation of walls which separate . . . Inclusiveness is more than a politically correct word. It is open and receptive to all cultural, national, ethnic, physically challenged and gender members of the Peninsula Delaware Conference both numerically and in the spirit of power and authority. Inclusiveness is rendered ineffective when various groups or persons are denied equal opportunity to participate in the decision making process; or when power is weakened and authority is unrecognized because people of color or another gender are in leadership; and when the distribution of resources is systematically directed away from congregations, they are perceived as having lesser status. Inclusiveness challenges us to affirm and receive persons of diverse backgrounds exclusive of pre-judgments and stereotypical convictions. (See Acts 10)

During the 1998-99 year, we participated in the following activities:

(1). Annual Fall Planning Retreat: Our leader was Rev. James Taylor (Associate General Secretary for the General Commission on Religion and Race Northeastern Jurisdiction).

(2). Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium's theme was "Building A Better Tomorrow Today." We had three workshops entitled: What are the challenges to a multi-cultural church, What are the advantages to a multi-cultural church, and How does a multi-cultural church function and what would it look like?

Barbara Ricks Thompson was our keynote speaker. She shared with us some historicities of Rev. Dr. King's life and challenged us to listen to God's voice.

Award Recipients were:

William Richard Wynder Award-----Carolie Patton
Alberta Browne Award-----Shelia McDowell Griffin
S. Lowan Pitts Award-----Geraldine Robinson
Martin Luther King, Jr. Award-----Hattie Louise Dutton

(3). Monitored 98 Annual Conference and Adjourned Sessions: In terms of spreading and sharing diversity numerically, the conference has accomplished this agenda. Now we must focus upon empowerment as it relates to leadership of people of color.

(4). Researched Voting Rights Act in collaboration with Board of Church and Society as it applies to future voting rights for African Americans.

(5). Corresponded with the Bishop concerning the request from Barbara Ricks Thompson (former General Secretary General Commission on Religion and Race) on the status of the Peninsula Delaware Conference on Religion and Race.

Our plans for 1999 are:

(1). Involve local church Religion and Race commissions with conference commission

- (a). encourage and invite local Religion and Race chairpersons or representatives to attend monthly meetings: Result: stronger local commissions
- (b). local leadership development

(2). Strengthen dialogue with superintendents

- (a). advise and appraise superintendents of GCORR activities and how superintendents can assist local CORR: Result: resource

(3). Legislate issues, which impact Mission Area Ministry especially as it relates to the community and the church. Result: advocacy, training, monitoring, and to make recommendations which expedite this process

(4). Encourage the sharing of success stories. Many congregations have wonderful and inspiring success stories; however, few of these stories are told.

Rev. William T. Wallace, Sr.
Chairperson

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on Status and Role of Women is currently standing in a responsive mode to the conference. We continue to fulfill our role as catalyst, monitor and advocate. During 1998 the commission shifted its primary concern from monitoring to advocacy. We are currently working to survey the needs of clergywomen in the conference. We have participated in the professional development of women clergy and laity by providing grants for training events as well as mission trips.

Those needing our services as monitors for various events are encouraged to contact any one of the members of the commission. Those seeking grants need to submit their proposals to the commission by letter.

We praise God for the opportunity to serve the conference, and give Christ the glory for any good we may have been able to bring.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA-PENINSULA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The Foundation maintains offices in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania and Dover, Delaware. As a member of the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, we are provided with resources and coverage throughout the United States.

Last year, we provided financial consulting services to individuals, churches, agencies, and institutions. We continued our emphasis on financial planning, estate planning, and planned giving. By stimulating planned giving, we particularly helped local churches acquire new assets. In addition, we continued our successful program to establish and promote endowment funds in our local churches.

We manage assets as an investment adviser, investment custodian, investment manager, trustee, and executor. The Foundation is the investment manager for an increasing number of Conference agencies, corporations, local churches, and individuals. With regard to investing, the Foundation carries out the directives of the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church as written in the Book of Discipline.

Next year, we plan to promote our investment management services to clients that desire to invest in equity, fixed income, and money market investments. In addition, we plan to publish materials that will describe all of the Foundation's services throughout the Eastern Pennsylvania and Peninsula-Delaware Conferences. We will be playing a significant role in providing guidance in stewardship and development activities.

The Foundation involves itself with wills, trusts, taxation, securities, life insurance, annuities, retirement plans, real estate, etc. Meetings and seminars are conducted on a regular basis and individual counseling sessions are conducted in a confidential manner. We continue to urge each local church to establish an ongoing emphasis on wills by forming a Planned Giving Committee. The Foundation provides resources and personnel to help any church establish and carry out this urgent work. We distribute the "Planned Giving Handbook," prepared by the National Association of United Methodist Foundations, and other written material free of charge.

The Foundation represents all United Methodist congregations and causes, therefore, it is prepared to assist people who wish to make lasting contributions to churches, institutions, and mission programs or services. For additional information, please call Parke H. Hess, Executive Director, at 1-800-828-9093 or write to him at P.O. Box 820, Valley Forge, PA 19482-0820.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Over the last twelve months, I, in conjunction with the other members of the conference team have attempted to achieve all goals and implement all strategies pertinent to the stated mission and purpose of the organization of United Methodists Women of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, and most importantly, as mandated by the GOSPEL through:

Continued emphasis on INCREASING MEMBERSHIP in the organization by the addition of and revitalization of a number of units.

CHARTERING the conference's FIRST DISTRICT & CHARGE UNITS of United Methodist Women.

Offering, for the first time, one-day only registration at our SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN MISSION to encourage CLERGY participation and increase overall attendance.

Participating in a MISSION TODAY EVENT and VISITING TWO (2) MISSION SITES in South Carolina on our journey to the Assembly in Florida.

Exceeding OUR PLEDGE to the Women's Division primarily through UNDESIGNATED GIVING.

Receiving the BISHOP'S AWARD at Annual Conference for our long history of ECUMENICAL INVOLVEMENT.

Working cooperatively with the BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON AND VIRGINIA CONFERENCES TO ADDRESS RACIAL ISSUES/CONCERNS.

Completing plans with, UNITED METHODIST WOMEN from the above named conferences for a PEACE & JUSTICE CONFERENCE in Blackstone, Virginia.

Attending with over one-hundred (100) other women our WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY in Orlando, Florida, May, 14-17, 1998 to "MAKE PLAIN THE VISION"!!

Serving as hostesses for ANNUAL CONFERENCE at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore in June '98.

CHRISTIAN UNITY & INTER-RELIGIOUS CONCERNS

GOALS

As preachers of the past have said, "we need to have 'roots' and 'wings'." And so, we remember our roots - all those who have gone before and made strides in ecumenism and interfaith efforts.

But now we are called to change. The "Mission Area Ministry" model has effected us in regard to community based efficacy. The goal for the year 2000 is to work with the Mission Area Ministry facilitators, District Superintendents and District Teams. We need to not only make changes in our communities boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively, but ecumenically, as well. In order to truly make an efficacious impact; we need to work with all mission areas, districts, and local churches and charges.

Another goal is to increase the awareness of all our Methodist faith communities in regard to other religious faiths and cultures. Many Haitian, Hispanic, Korean and other areas of our Conference are experiencing growth and cultural diversity. We need to be aware, appreciative, and prepared to work together. Hopefully and prayerfully, this will also promote less prejudice, hate crimes, racial stress, and diversion.

Also, our award, formally known as the "Bishop's Award," will be changed to "Awards of Recognition" for those Mission Area Ministries who have not only worshiped together but have actively worked to bring about positive change in their communities.

We also look forward to resourcing our youth ministries to educate youth towards awareness of other cultures and faiths and how they can help impact their local communities.

As we do this and contemplate other ways to be in service to the Conference and the inclusive ministry of Jesus Christ, we ask for your prayers and support.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Cheryl Taylor Jensen, Chair

Board of Child Care

The Board of Child Care has a great deal to be thankful for. This year is the one hundred and twenty fifth (125th) anniversary of the agency. From its simple roots in a two-story home in Baltimore City, to its sprawling campus-like setting on thirty three (33) acres in Baltimore County, its mission and ministry for children continues in a caring, healing and loving way.

One could not have written a more perfect script as we celebrate this milestone in our history. This year the Board of Child Care has served more children and families than ever before. Besides our residential, shelter and independent living programs being at full capacity with waiting lists, our adoption, foster care and church satellite programs have grown in referrals and services. This past year, we were licensed by the Maryland State Department of Mental Health as an Outpatient Clinic allowing us to provide more community based services. Through our grant program to churches, we were able to extend our ministry to over forty (40) churches as we provided over five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for church ministries.

In April of 1999 we hosted a National Symposium on Children and Poverty. It was well attended and energized the participants. Some of our speakers were Governor Mario Cuomo, Dr. Joycelyn Elders and Dr. Deborah Prothrow-Stith, all national leaders in their field. In May the Board of Child Care was recognized by the United Methodist Association as "Organization of the Year." We also received the "Best Practice Award" for our grant program, which has recognized us for living out our Wesleyan Heritage through a special program benefiting the church. On June 5 we rededicated our campus celebrating the past and present as we move into a new millennium.

We have many people to thank. First, the Almighty Father for allowing us the privilege to do our ministry in Jesus Christ's name. The past leaders of the Board of Child Care, Rev. Isaac Reid and Claude Libis and all those who served prior to them at Kelso and Strawbridge. The past and present staff who enrich the children's lives. Members of our Auxiliary, past and present, as well as all the ministers and laity of the Conference. To Bishop Peter Weaver and all the bishops before him in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference who have lifted the Board of Child Care up as a special ministry. Finally, a special thanks to Sally Ransom Knecht whose term as President comes to a close. Her three years of leadership have led us to challenge ourselves, to be the best we can and to do as much as we can for God's children. Let us remember that "one hundred years from now it will not matter what our bank account was, the sort of house we lived in, or the kind of car we drove ... but the world may be different because we were important in the life of a child."

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference had a good, but exerting, year.

We believe we must continue to be serious and intentional about partnering and building relationships with the clergy and the laity in the life and work of the whole church.

We believe that if every church would establish a men's ministry or unit, we would experience more church growth.

We also believe that when this happens men will get more involved in the life and work of the church, and that they will work to create a strong spiritual base for their families, a good spiritual environment for their communities, and a strong foundation for the family of God.

We believe that God is calling the United Methodist Men to partner and work with all organizations of the church to create a loving, caring, sharing, forgiving, and understanding atmosphere.

We believe that the United Methodist Men have one of the best programs in the church for partnering and building relationships.

We have had several partner and building relationship workshops but we are disappointed that more clergy have not participated. We also are grieved that many pastors don't encourage the men of their churches to attend; nevertheless, we must continue striving towards our goal. Our men's retreat was held September 12-13, 1998 at Camp Pecometh. It was one of the best retreats we have ever had. Our Bishop, Peter D. Weaver, opened our retreat with an inspiring message that challenged us to become doers of God's word.

Rev. Dr. Russell Goodwin challenged us to reach out beyond the walls of the church and witness for God. Rev. Rick Vance reminded us of how important it is to share our faith. Rev. Terry Lee led us in Bible study. Rev. Bill Ross continued to challenge our faith through his inspiring words of encouragement.

The real challenge at this retreat came when we left Camp Pecometh to go into Centreville to witness and share our faith. We visited many homes! Some men were excited to go, some had mixed emotions, some were scared, some were reluctant to go, but most went anyway. What's even more exciting were the stories that were shared when they returned to camp and how they felt they had been blessed by the experience. They also shared how most of the people they visited were blessed and thankful they had come.

2000 Goals

- Continue to work towards establishing a chartered United Methodist Men's unit in every church.
- Become self-supporting by the year 2000.
- To have men's training workshops on every district.
- To increase Evangalism, Mission, and Spiritual Life membership by 50%.
- Start men's choir on every district.
- To get more churches throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have United Methodist Men's Sunday.

Dates: August 6-7, 1999, United Methodist Men's Annual Meeting at Wyoming United Methodist Church, Dover, DE.

September 11-12, 1999 Men's Retreat at Camp Pecometh.

Purpose

United Methodist Men shall be a creative supportive fellowship of men who seek to know Jesus Christ, to grow spiritually and to seek daily his will.

(Our) primary purpose is to declare the centrality of Christ in the lives of men and in all their relationships.

The major concerns are:

- To encourage knowledge of and support for the total mission of The United Methodist Church.
- To engage in evangelism by sharing the fullness of the gospel in its personal and social dimensions.
- To clarify and speak to the identity and role of the man in contemporary society.
- To seek commitment to discipleship.
- To study and become familiar with The United Methodist Church, its organization, doctrines, and beliefs.
- To cooperate with all units of United Methodist Men in obtaining these objectives through district, conference, jurisdiction, and church-wide goals.

Men seeking membership in a local United Methodist Men's Fellowship shall subscribe to the "Purpose" of United Methodist Men and to these personal objectives:

- Engage daily in Bible study and prayer.

- Bear witness to Christ's way in daily work and in all personal contacts through words and actions.
- Engage in some definite Christian service.

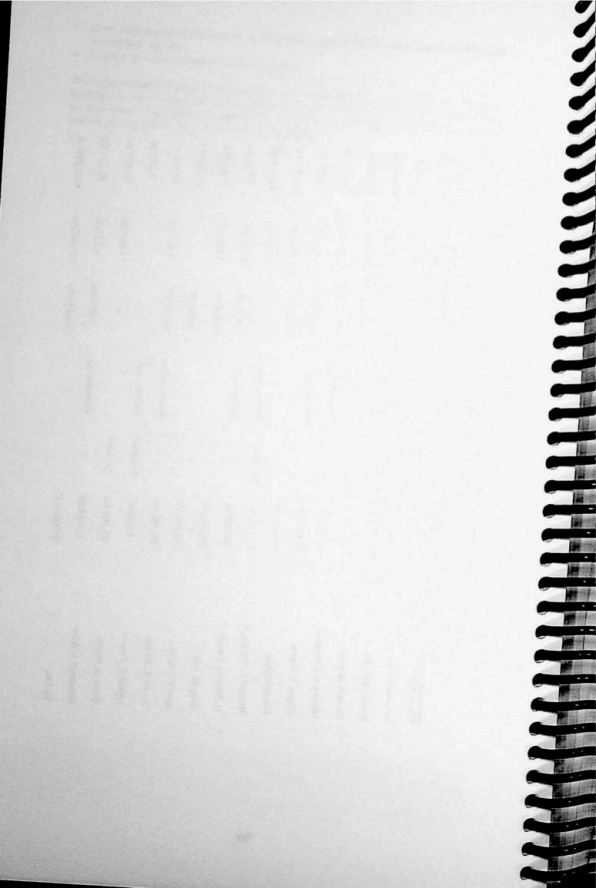

We believe that The United Methodist Men must continue to reach out to others to build good strong spiritual relationships in the church and home. We believe that by partnering and working together in ministry we can make a difference in the church as well as beyond the walls of the church.

Effective July 16, 1992, Peninsula Annual Conference became Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Rev. William T. Archer, Jr.

Rev. William Thomas Archer, Jr. was born on September 25, 1923 in Clayton, Delaware to parents Rev. William T. Archer, Sr. and Mary Verma (Walls) Archer.

He graduated from John M. Clayton High in 1952. In 1953 he received his local preacher's license, in 1956 an Associates of Arts degree from Wesley College, an Artium Baccalaureus in 1958 from Washington College, his B. Div. in 1961 from Crozer Theological Seminary, and his M.Div. in 1974 from Colgate Rochester Divinity School. In 1991 he continued his education by taking a writing course at the Institute of Children's Literature.

He began his church affiliation at birth in Clayton United Methodist Church and moved his membership in 1950 to Dagsboro where his father was the pastor. Yes, he was brought up as a PK (preacher's kid). He was a working partner in a plumbing and electrical contracting business in Dagsboro when he came home from a quiet day in Bethany Beach where he went to think and told his wife and 2 year old son that his calling was to preach. This is where the process began.

Rev. Archer received his Deacon's credentials in May of 1959 and became an Elder in May of 1961. He served the following during his ministry:

Harbeson/Indian Mission Charge	1954-1956
Rock Hall/Raum Chapel Charge	1956-1960
(built a new brick ranch parsonage during this time)
Queenstown Charge	1960-1961
St. George's Church in Clarksville	1961-1963
(Sunday school rooms and pastor study were added during this time)
Kings/Mt. Pleasant/St. Georges Charge	1963-1965
Minquadale/Madley New Castle	1966-1967
St. Paul's Church, Odessa, DE	1967-1970
Sharptown Methodist Church	1970-1975
(new brick bulletin board was built)
Antioch Church, Princess Anne	1975-1977
St. Stephen Church, Delmar	1977-1981
Had an illness that took him out from	1981-1983
Seaford Charge	1983-1986
Retired	1986

Rev. Archer married Louise Margueite (Layton) Archer on December 21, 1946. They have one son - Ronald Layton Archer of Frankford, DE, two granddaughters - Mari Ellyn (Archer) Hellard of Ocean View, DE and Jennifer Renee Archer of Millville, DE and one great grand son - Joshua Christian Hellard.

He served in the US Air Force during WWII as a belly gunner on a B-17 bomber from 1943 to 1946 in the China/Burma/India Theater. His hobbies included carving, wood working, oil painting, reading, and yard work. He was a history buff and a Nascar fan. He also wrote occasionally although none of his writings were ever published.

Rev. Archer passed away on May 13, 1999. Funeral services were held on May 17, 1999 where he was laid to rest Springhill Memorial Gardens in Mardela, MD.

A "PK" myself, one remark when people would ask, "why are preachers kids the worst around?" his answer would be "because they play with the members kids."

In using his computer I found this note on the screen saver, I had put it there years ago, that somehow seems appropriate "take a coffee break Dad, enough is enough, time to rest."

A prayer he passed on, from working with AA, he would tell us when things got tough - God give me the serenity to change the things I can, the courage to accept the things I can not and the wisdom to know the difference.

Dad was a man who could wear many hats and change them quickly. He could talk to the youngest of children or oldest of adults, rich or poor, educated or not, he could talk to them on any level and help them understand. Be it the middle of the night or early morning, whatever the need, he was there for everyone.

He had a great love for God, country, family and was my best friend. He opened this sermon with his usual wit and honor. A man wrote a note to the IRS which read: Gentlemen: Enclosed you will find a check in the amount of $150.00. I cheated on my income taxes last year and have not been able to sleep ever since, if I still have trouble sleeping, I will send you the rest. This was the beginning to his last sermon "Misguided Priorities" on January 17, 1999 only moments before his 1st stroke.

There are too many examples and a lot of love that he gave to mention them all, and how he touched so many people in so many ways, only a book could ever tell the whole story.

To Reverend Archer, Bill, Dad, Pop-pop, Great-grandfather, we will try to follow in the footprints of his life. We will carry the name proudly.

Rev. Herbert Fitzgerald Nathaniel Nurse

Herbert Nurse was born October 8, 1913 in Barbados, West Indies to Elija and Bipporah Nurse. He was an ordained minister and a pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. He was a very active person in many Methodist Churches until he just could not attend any longer. He became very ill four or five years before God called him home to be with Him (God). I was married to Rev. Herbert for a short time, only eight years. But I can say that he was a man of God! I was a widow for 19 years before marrying Rev. Herbert Nurse. I lost my first husband in 1971.

Rev. Nurse was such a loving person and a very understanding man. Yes, I love him. Herbert told me he retired earlier than he wanted to but due to his health he had to. After our marriage in New Mexico in 1991, he was still called to quite a few churches to preach or help out in some way. He always went when he was called for that was his life's work, in God's vineyard to help others as much as he could which he did until the end.

Herbert passed away on August 21, 1998 in Concord, NC. The funeral was held on August 24, 1999 at the Forest Hill United Methodist Church in Concord.

He is survived by a son, Leory Herbert Nurse and a daughter, Eleanor Blackman, both of Barbados.

God Bless you all. Yours in His service,

Rachel Nurse

Mark William Palmer

Mark William Palmer was born April 13, 1947 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the oldest of four children born to Myron Nycum and Mary Lou (Marquis) Palmer. He was educated in the public schools of Bethel Park. During those formative years, Mark joined First Bethel Methodist Church and served as President of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. He was also active in youth leadership on the district level and taught Sunday school at his local church.

Mark graduated from West Virginia Wesleyan College in 1969 with a B.A. degree in History and from Wesley Theological Seminary in 1974 with a M.Div. degree. In 194 he completed a program with the Institute of Pastoral Psychotherapy and participated in a three month Clinical Pastoral Education experience in 1975. He was a member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors.

Mark and Jane Elizabeth Manifold were married at Wesley Theological Seminary Chapel on August 29, 1970. He was ordained a Deacon in the Baltimore Annual Conference in 1971 and became an Elder in 1978.

The young, idealistic couple moved into their first parsonage in Randallstown, MD after Mark was appointed Associate Pastor to Mount Olive UMC (1977-1980). By this time the Palmer family had grown to four: Justin Mark (b. 1972) and Nathan Reed (b. 1976). During these years Mark served as Director of the Carroll County Pastoral Counseling Center in Westminster, MD.

Mark left the parish ministry in 1980 to serve as Staff Therapist with the Pastoral Counseling and Consultation Centers of Delaware. After a year, Mark concluded that his true love was parish ministry and he transferred into the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. His first appointment was St. John's - Moore's Chapel in Fair Hill, MD (1981-1985). Mark then became Associate Pastor of the Asbury-Minquadale Charge in New Castle (1985-1991). He was appointed in 1991 to serve as Associate Pastor of St. Paul's UMC in Wilmington. Mark was diagnosed with cancer in November 1995 but continued on the pastoral staff of St. Paul's until he was forced to take disability leave to pursue further cancer treatment. Mark had a deep compassion for the poor and marginalized of our society. Like Dorothy Day, Founder of the Catholic Worker Movement, he saw the poor as his "meeting place with God".

- Mark - served eight years as a member of the Board of Trustees of Friendship House
- was instrumental in moving ministries for homeless men to Old Asbury Church
- was a key player in getting local churches to support Transitional Housing for Women (Epiphany House and Sanctuary House Mission Group) to support and encourage women in body and soul as they again entered the mainstream
- chaired the Conference Committee on Church and Society
- actively supported and participated with Delaware Citizens Opposed to the Death Penalty and
- participated in the Group Leaders Program of the Shalom Institute of Spiritual Formation

Mark frequently served as a spiritual director to those who sought a "companion on the spiritual journey". He was the prime motivator behind the Washington, D.C. Servant Leadership School, "Local Leadership Formation Program" to Wilmington for ten months. He was a certified Faith, Money, and Spirituality leader and a gifted writer. In the last three years of his life, he shared the difficult journey of battling cancer through letters written in the St. Paul's News. A few days before he died he wrote:

"Jane and I sometimes just hold each other and weep. Throughout our family and our circle of friends, tears have been a part of our communication. It is a way of being together that expresses both our happiness and our love. Yet there is more. Grief and grace are intimately connected. Grief just comes on a person like a wave and moves you with its own force and its own direction. And where it moves you is into the beauty of human tenderness and connection. In fact, grief may be the most connecting of all our emotions. When the moments of grief come, as they subside, I always feel grateful that life can be so deeply felt and received. I think that experiencing life in this vivid way, where nothing is denied and nothing is held back is where Jesus was talking about when he was talking about eternal life. This is the way God engages life and God invites us to engage it in the same way. In fact, grief always feels like holy ground to me. The divine is laced through our grief reminding us of how much we matter to one another and how much we matter to God.

I share this with you because you are a part of my grief, and yet at the same time I pray that the grief we feel becomes a lens through which we see this larger tapestry into which we are all woven, which is our hope. It is the tapestry of loving connection we have with one another that is ultimately rooted in God."

Mark died at home January 20, 1999. He is survived by his wife of 28 years, Jane; sons - Justin of Bear, DE and Nathan - at home, his mother - Mary Lou Palmer a sister - Mary Anna Palmer of Albuquerque, NM, and two brothers - David Palmer of Lewes, DE and James Palmer of Redwood City, CA.

Rev. Otho R. Waters

Rev. Otho R. Waters was born in Venton, MD, the son of William Rhock, Sr. and Bessie Holbrook Waters.

Rev. Waters received his education in the public Schools of Somerset County, graduating in 1964 from the former Somerset Senior High School in Princess Anne, MD. He received his local pastor's license at Drew Theological Seminary in 1980 and he graduated from the University of Maryland Eastern Shore in 1988 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. On July 23, 1993, Rev. Waters graduated from Wesley Theological Seminary C.C.S. School in Washington, D.C. and was ordained as a Deacon Associate Member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church.

He began pastoring in 1981 at the Deal Island Charge of the UMC. He served eight years at John Wesley UMC in Deal Island, St. Charles UMC in Chance and Macedonia UMC in Dames Quarter. He then became the pastor of the Preston-Hurlock Charge serving Mt. Calvary UMC in Preston and Hurlock UMC until his health began to fail.

Rev. Waters played an integral part in the planning and construction of the new edifice of Hurlock UMC. He retired in 1997 and returned to his home church, Trinity United Methodist Community Worship Center (formerly known as Grace United Methodist Church).

Prior to his calling to the full-time ministry, Rev. Waters spent many years working in his local church where he held several positions which included chairpersons of the pastor parish relations committee of the Salisbury District, trustee board, lay leader, lay speaker and sang in all of the church choirs. He had also been the president of the Ventoneers for 20 years and one of the original members of the Spiritual Vessels.

He worked for 10 years as a substitute teacher in the Somerset County School System as well as working for the state of Maryland at the Holly Center (also for 10 years), the former Campbell Soup plant and at Deer's Head Center. He was also employed with Jolley Memorial Chapel in Deal Island and Salisbury.

Rev. Waters was also very active in community, civil and church affairs and could be found in the community every weekend trying to help somebody. In 1995, he was nominated as supervisory pastor for the Easton District Methodist Men Organization.

He is survived by two stepchildren - Rodney Bowen of Baltimore and Tony Bowen of Philadelphia, one brother - Hilary Rhock of Baltimore, one sister - Annie R. Jones of Berlin, three aunts, three uncles and several nieces and nephews. Five brothers preceded him in death.

The Family

Sadie Edna Blundon Caudill

Sadie Edna Blundon Caudill entered into the life immortal on March 11, 1999 at the age of 98 ½. She was born September 3, 1900 in Port-aux-basques, Newfoundland, Canada to parents Alfred and Sarah Jane LeValliant. Following her earlier years of education in Newfoundland, she journeyed with her family to England where she entered and completed Miss Cobb's Finishing School in Yeovil, England.

Following her return from England she married the Rev. Arthur E.B. Blundon on June 24, 1925 in North Sydney, Nova Scotia. He was also from Newfoundland and had just graduated from Gordon Theological Seminary in Boston. From this marriage came the Rev. A. Jason Blundon (Peninsula-Conference member who died July 29, 1976), Brainard Blundon, Harrisville, N.Y. and Dr. Eileen Burge, wife of the Rev. Dr. Charles Burge, Natural Bridge, N.Y.

Early in their ministry they served Methodist Churches at Lee Center, Deansboro, Central Square, Copenhagen and Dexter in the Northern New York Conference. In 1953 they moved to the Peninsula Conference to be near their children. They served at Queen Anne-Hillsboro, MD and Camden, DE. Following her husband's death on his birthday, December 25, 1956, she lived with her daughter and son-in-law while they were in the ministry in Warwick, MD, Magnolia and Townsend, DE.

On November 2, 1970, she married Herbert Caudill of Kentucky and lived in Florida until Mr. Caudill's death in 1987. She again lived with her daughter and son-in-law at Natural Bridge, N.Y. until she fell and broke her hip and had a stroke in 1995. She never recovered, spending her remaining years at the Hallmark Nursing Center in Carthage, N.Y. Even after her stroke, when she could no longer speak, she was known to always have a smile.

A memorial service was held in the Harrisville United Methodist Church with the Rev. Paul Rowley officiating and tributes to a long fulfilling life were given by her daughter and son-in-law. Internment was at the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Camden, DE where she was placed next to her husband on March 27, 1999.

She will always be remembered as a fine Christian woman and mother who walked daily with her Lord and was always ready to be with Him. From her childhood home overlooking the ocean, her cherished hymn was:

*"Jesus Savior, pilot me
Over life's tempestuous sea
Unknown waves before me roll,
Hiding rocks and treacherous shoal,
Chart and compass come from Thee,
Jesus, Savior, pilot me.*

*When at last I near the shore,
And the fearful breakers roar,
Twix me and the peaceful rest,
Then while leaning on your breast
May I hear Thee say to me
"Fear not, I will pilot Thee."*

Mary Adeline Tieman Dise

Mary Adeline Tieman Dise was a woman of her time—a woman of courage, adventure and quiet determination. She relished and supported the accomplishments of her family and took pride in her ancestors who helped settle and forge new lives in colonial America.

Born in Joy, Illinois on September 25, 1907, her parents had pioneered in the West. After seeking land in Oklahoma during the Land Rush in the early 1900's, they eventually returned to Illinois to farm and raise their family.

Mary Adeline was the second child born to Annie Virginia (Smouse) Tieman (April 14, 1875-August 1, 1958) and William Pery Tieman (May 20, 1866-May 30, 1934). Her brother, Henry, born on August 11, 1905, was the eldest. Nelson, born on June 19, 1913 (passed away in March of 1995), was the third child and Geneva Margaret, her younger sister was born on April 14, 1916.

Eventually the family returned East, to Bedford County, Pennsylvania and then to Dover, Delaware where Mary was enrolled at Wesley Collegiate Institute, a preparatory school. There she met Waldo Lee Dise of Tangier Island, Virginia. Waldo aspired to become a minister of the Gospel. On June 14, 1923, they married and moved to Breezewood, Pennsylvania, where Waldo had been assigned five churches in the Lutheran Synod. Each week for five years they traveled in a Model-T Ford over the mountains to Gettysburg where he continued his studies at Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary. They returned on the weekends to serve their charge in Breezewood.

Upon graduation, the young family—with the addition of two children - Forrest Anita Margaret (born in 1924) and Kendall Arden (born 1929), were transferred to Aurora in Preston County, West Virginia. In the depression years which followed, the mountain community was hard hit. Coal mines located nearby closed. The family depended upon Waldo's ability to garden and Mary's ability to can and dry food. Parishioners were unable to meet the salary requirements and in one six month period, only $30 was given to the church in cash. Often, for marrying a couple, the young minister was promised a bushel of potatoes at harvest time.

In 1933, after their daughter became ill with rheumatic fever, they transferred to the Eastern Shore of Maryland in the Peninsula Conference of the Methodist Church. For 45 years they served charges in Maryland and Delaware including Church Creek, MD; Pittsville, MD; Wyoming, DE; Fruitland, MD; Rehoboth Beach, DE; Hurlock, MD; Smith Island, MD; Centreville, MD and St. Andrews in Salisbury, MD. During the four years when Waldo served as chaplain with the Ninth Army Field Hospital during World War II, Mary made her home in Salisbury. Captain Dise was one of the officiating chaplains at the funeral of General George Patton.

In 1966, Mary and Waldo Dise retired near Bivalve, Maryland. Their garden was filled with rows of flowers and vegetables. Periodically, retirement was interrupted by an occasional wedding, funeral and a temporary ministry at Mardela Methodist Church.

During her lifetime, Mary was an exemplary housewife and mother. She enjoyed painting and sketching. She wrote short stories and found pleasure in reading stories of the West and pioneering days. In common with many women of her age, she never learned to drive and she would always be outfitted in white gloves and hat when meeting the public.

In 1985, after the sudden death of Waldo on December 14, 1984, from a coronary arrest, Mary made her home with her daughter, Anita Dise Brown of Harpers Ferry, West Virginia.

In the following 14 years, Mary's health deteriorated from Parkinson's Disease. She died on June 1, 1998 in Charles Town, West Virginia. Services were held at Holloway's Funeral Home in Salisbury, Maryland on June 5 by the Reverend B.E. Painter of St. Andrew's Church, also in Salisbury. Interment was at Wicomico Memorial Park.

She is survived by one daughter - Ms. Anita Dise Brown of Harpers Ferry, WV, one son - Kendall A. Dise of Davao City, Philippines, one sister - Ms. Geneva Tieman Dowd of Waverly, N.Y., three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mary's life spanned a period of almost a century, before antibiotics had been invented to a time when man walked on the moon. Courage and faith and grace walked with her. Truly, she was a woman of her time.

Lillian Ann Ferry

Lillian Ferry was a resident of Wesbury United Methodist Retirement Community, Meadville, Pennsylvania where she lived until her death on Tuesday, March 16, 1999. She had lived at Imperial Gardens, 571 Chestnut Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania prior to moving to the retirement community.

She was born in Franklin, Pennsylvania on July 26, 1908, a daughter of Charles J. and Etha (Hughes) Frantz. Lillian attended Franklin schools and graduated from Franklin High School on June 10, 1927. She also attended Goucher College of Baltimore and Syracuse University.

Lillian married Rev. Rollan E. Ferry on October 26, 1929 in Franklin, Pennsylvania. He preceded her in death on May 4, 1966. She assisted her husband as he served churches in Delaware, Maryland and Washington D.C., where she was active in youth work. In recent years she was manager of the Sun Drug Store at Meadville, Pennsylvania for thirteen years.

Lillian was a member of Stone United Methodist Church and past president of the United Methodist Women of the First United Methodist Church in Wilmington, Delaware. She served for eight (8) years as vice-president and then as president of the United Methodist Women of Maryland.

Lillian was a life member of St. Michaels Chapter 31, Order of the Eastern Star in St. Michaels, Maryland. She was a former member of the Business and Professional Women, Zonta International and the Meadville Women's Club. On May 22, 1974, she received a certificate of appreciation from the Distributive Education Clubs of America for her work with the youth.

Lillian was an avid reader and enjoyed history. She was a very pretty lady with a beautiful smile. She was a wonderful aunt. Her favorite reading was the 23rd Psalm, the hymns "How Great Thou Art" and "In The Garden" and she enjoyed poems by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and Robert Frost.

She is survived by one niece, Shirley Camp of Meadville, Pennsylvania. Two sisters preceded her in death - Mrs. Wilson Bean (Mabel) and Mrs. Edwin Camp (Alice).

Calling hours were Thursday, March 18, 1999 at Robert W. Waid Funeral Home in Meadville with an Order of Eastern Star service at 11:00 a.m. with the funeral and committal service following at 11:15 a.m. The Rev. William L. Brown officiated. Burial was in the Franklin Cemetery in Franklin, Pennsylvania.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Stone United Methodist Church, 956 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania, 16335.

Christine Elizabeth Drummond Henry

Christine Elizabeth Drummond Henry was born on September 18, 1948 in Salisbury, Maryland to parents Eleanora E. (Bishop) Drummond and Leonard J. Drummond.

Christine graduated with honors in 1977 from Woodbridge School for Secretaries in Salisbury, Summa Cum Laude in 1982 from the University of Maryland Eastern Shore with a BA degree in Sociology and a Minor in English and attended Wesley Theological Seminary and American University in pursuit of a dual degree in Divinity and Law in Washington, D.C. when she was forced to quit during her second year when she was stricken with MS.

During her lifetime she worked at the Buckingham Elementary School in Berlin, Maryland, the Upward Bound Program at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore in Princess Anne and with the Maryland Department of Human Resources. She was a member of the NAACP and the Black Methodist Church for Renewal (BMCR) with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. She was inducted in the Phi Kappa Phi National Academic Society in 1981 and listed in Who's Who in Colleges and Universities in 1982. Christine also served on the Advisory Board for Persons with Handicap Conditions and volunteered over 500 hours at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland. She was a member of Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Snow Hill, Maryland since 1960 and was active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Christine married Rev. Joseph A. Henry, Sr. on July 3, 1965. They have one son, Joseph A. Henry, Jr. and a daughter-in-law, Romanda Henry of Berlin, Maryland, and two daughters, Melthor Y. Henry Dennis and son-in-law J. Bryant Dennis and Lottie J. Henry, all of Salisbury, Maryland and seven grandchildren.

Christine passed away on October 31, 1998 at the Genesis Elderly Care Center in Salisbury after living sixteen years with MS. There was a Jubilee Service held on November 6th and the funeral service was held on November 7th. She was laid to rest in Springhill Memory Gardens in the Veteran's Section in Hebron, Maryland.

Christine believed that truthfulness and honesty always came out on the winning side. Her motto in life was: "If I can help someone along the way, than my living will not be in vain."

Katherine S. "Kitty" McCoy

Katherine was the daughter of Ellwood Smith and Ethel Hillard Smith. She was born in Roberts, Queen Anne's County, Maryland. Still an infant, the family moved to Easton, Maryland. Katherine was a graduate of Easton High School and Goldey Beacom Business College in Wilmington, Delaware in 1930.

She married Thomas F. Shockley of Goldsboro, Maryland and lived most of her married life in Easton. Thomas died in 1975. Katherine and Thomas had one son, Thomas F. Shockley, Jr. He now lives in Easton, Maryland. Katherine and Paul E. McCoy were married in Wesley United Methodist Church Chapel in Dover, Delaware on New Year's Eve of 1982.

Katherine and her family were very active in Ebenezer Church in Easton and then in St. Mark's United Methodist Church, also in Easton. Katherine taught in the Children's Department of the church school. Then, during Paul's ministry at Ebenezer, she became church secretary for about fifteen years in Ebenezer and St. Mark's. She had also been a counselor at Camp Pecometh and president of the Women's Society of Christian Service on the Easton District.

Katherine and a life-long friend, Miss Virginia Wallace of the Methodist Manor House, were killed in an auto accident the night of August 8, 1998.

The Memorial Service for Katherine was held on August 20, 1998 at Avenue United Methodist Church in Milford, Delaware. The Rev. Dr. Robert M. Price of Avenue Church presided, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Bruce Cooke of St. Mark's Church in Easton, Maryland. Interment was in Woodlawn Memorial Park, Route 50, east of Easton, Maryland.

Paul E. McCoy

Josephine Mumford Wilkins

Josephine Mumford Wilkins was born on December 1, 1931 in Millsboro, Delaware, the third of four children born to Charles and Marie (Ellingsworth) Mumford. In her early years she attended the John M. Clayton school in Dagsboro, transferring to Millsboro High in the eighth grade, where she graduated in the Class of 1949 (her husband, Ed, was also in that class). Jo entered the Milford Memorial Hospital School of Nursing that summer. In 1952 she finished her studies, passed the State Board of Nursing Examination and was granted her R.N. Certificate.

While her fiancée, Ed, finished his fourth year of college, she was employed for a year at the hospital for the Mentally Retarded in Stockley, near Georgetown, Delaware. They were married in the spring of 1953 and went to Drew Theological Seminary in Madison, New Jersey that fall. Jo worked at Morristown Memorial Hospital, and the next spring they moved to their first parsonage in Neshanic Station, NJ. Two years later, they returned to Delaware when Ed was assigned as the Associate Pastor at Wesley Church and St. Paul's in Dover.

In those young adult years, Jo enjoyed being a young mother, an active churchwoman and a homemaker. She put her nursing career "on hold" for several years while her children were young, and supported her husband as they served, in order, Bridgeville, Princess Anne, Wesley College, Denton, Easton and in Salisbury. A major interest of Jo's for several years when her own children were young was Christian Education for elementary and pre-school children. She helped to plan and teach several workshops on the district and conference level, especially for pre-schoolers. She also gave considerable time to the work of the United Methodist Women in those years.

Eventually she went back to nursing, first part-time and then full-time, beginning at Nanticoke Hospital in Seaford and then for 16 years at Kent General Hospital in Dover. For several years she was the nursing supervisor. She concluded her nursing career working part-time in the Health Departments of Talbot and Wicomico Counties respectively.

From her beginnings in her home church, Hickory Hill near Dagsboro, to some of our larger churches, Jo developed a real appreciation of varied styles of worship, and especially of church music. She came to love a large church choir and wonderful organ music, but still appreciated the work of a small church choir who might have only a piano.

Jo was a champion of children. She enjoyed her own; she enjoyed everybody else's too. She worked both openly and behind-the-scenes to encourage causes which would contribute to the well being, safety, and full development of all children. As for her own, nobody ever enjoyed being a grandmother more.

Jo's earthly journey came to an abrupt end as the result of a tragic, head-on collision just a few miles from home on November 13, 1998. The service for the interment of her body was held on the morning of Tuesday, November 17th in Millsboro. At noon, a service celebrating her life was held at Long Neck United Methodist Church, near Millsboro. The officiants were: the Rev. Karen Booth, Jo's pastor; the Rev. Dr. Sterling Green, her District Superintendent and the Rev. George Godfrey, a close life-long friend who gave an interpretation of her life under the title, "Jo, the Comforter". The service included some of Jo's favorite music including, by Jo's request, the organ ministry of Mr. Taylor Harvey.

She is survived by her husband, Rev. Edward R. Wilkins, one son, David E. Wilkins and daughter-in-law Debra and one daughter, Deborah W. Schiffer and son-in-law Michael and three grandsons.

Jo loved life greatly; her faith ran deep, and sometimes quietly. She lived and spoke with integrity and conviction, but also was good at blending truth and compassion. She loved her Lord, her church, her family and her friends. She has left us all a wonderful heritage.
