III. Daily Proceedings

Saturday Morning November 6, 1999

Central Middle School
Dover Delaware

Morning worship began at 9:00 a.m. led by Vicky Gordy-Stith accompanied by Steve Johnson. William Wallace read the scripture from 2 Corinthians 8:1-7. Bishop Peter D. Weaver spoke.

Bishop Weaver called the body to order. The body adopted the agenda for the Special Session. Irene Hoffman, Conference Secretary, set the bar of the Conference and presented the Organizational Rules of the June 1999 session as the rules for this Special Session. They were accepted.

Kevin Goodwin and Sue Wiggins presented to Bishop Weaver a gift of a special African cloth from Africa University.

Laurence Stookey, chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, presented the United Methodist Foundation scholarship to Jonathan Whitney.

Anne Roede, David Baker, Robert O' Kelly Wallace, and Shirley Still presented the Barratt Chapel capital campaign. William H. Williams' book, "The History of Barratt's Chapel", was singled out for acknowledgment. David Baker said that Barratt's Chapel remains open for special celebrations. Barratt's has a tradition of African-American participation. David Baker asked that programs held at Barratt's Chapel be announced in the local churches. Robert O'Kelly Wallace and Shirley Still were introduced as the campaign team. Robert O'Kelly Wallace announced a $2 million dollar capital campaign and requested invitations to speak at local churches.

Thomas Carter, Director of Conference Camping and Retreat Ministries, introduced a video presentation on Camp Pecometh.

Tracey Abbott, from Asbury Smyrna United Methodist Church, spoke about her camping experiences: she said that she learned to improvise; discovered that she enjoyed working with children and with special needs adults. As a result of her counseling experience, she said that she planned to teach. She learned that camp puts children first.

Barbara Johnson, Still Pond-Coleman Charge, spoke about the life changing retreat experiences at Drayton Manor.

Patricia Dorey brought to the body's attention the Nominations Task Force report which would be voted on in the afternoon. She made the following additions: Marsha Carpenter to the Advocacy Resource Team; Bud McKee to the Enabling Ministry Resource Team; replace the name of Josephine Temple-Merrill with that of Arlela Cray as representative of the Conference UMW; Susan Keirn Kester as a member of the GCOC. Patricia Dorey also asked the body to submit names to the Nominating Task Force of those people who are gifted in appropriate areas. Nomination Forms were available on the tables or from the ushers.

Kenneth Valentine, chair of the Board of Pensions, presented the Clergy Health Resolution.

Laurie Ruth, lay member from St. Paul's-Odesa, spoke against the resolution.

Elizabeth St. Clair and Grant Johnson, the chair and vice-chair, respectively, of the Conference Council on Ministries, presented a substitute resolution. Copies of the resolution were distributed. It was seconded.

Grant Johnson and Jack Abel, Port Deposit Charge, spoke in favor.
Randy Wein offered an amendment:

"Therefore be it resolved that the Board of Pensions pay from its reserve funds the approximately $75,000.00 that was to be billed to clergy and the approximately $25,000.00 that was to be billed additionally to local churches to provide health insurance for the year 2000." It was accepted as a friendly amendment.

Arthur George spoke against the substitute resolution, stating that acceptance of the substitute would ignore the original financial problems..

Karen Hodgkins spoke in favor of the substitute resolution.

Don Schuler, St. Paul's-Wilmington, asked where the $100,000.00 (the 3%) would come from in the budget. William Westbrook, Conference Treasurer, stated that it would come from the rate stabilization reserve.

Hugh Burr from the Westside Ministry spoke in favor; Donald Hurst spoke against; William Wallace spoke in favor. Joe Henry called for the question on the substitute. It was seconded. The body voted to close debate on the substitute resolution. The substitute prevailed and became the main motion.

Jack Shitama offered an amendment:

"Therefore be it resolved that the Board of Pensions request that each clergy participating in the Conference BCBSDE plan contribute .75% of the pension base as calculated for the purposes of MPP and CPP, for the year 2000 only."

Joyce Whittington spoke against the amendment. Randy Wein rose for a point of information--what the $4.857 million Pension Endowment funded. Bill Westbrook replied that it funded pensions prior to 1982 and the rate stabilization fund.

Allen Jones, Seaford:Wesley, offered an amendment to the Shitama amendment: "In the case of clergy couples, the .75 % would be assessed to only one clergy in the couple, the one with the higher salary." It was accepted by Jack Shitama as a friendly amendment.

Because the time for the Order of the Day was approaching, the body voted to extend debate on the Health Resolution for another ten minutes. Paul Sherwood offered an amendment to exclude student pastors: "Student local pastors shall be excluded from personal contributions to health insurance." Jack Shitama accepted it as a friendly amendment.

There was a call for the question on the Shitama amendment. The amendment did not pass.

The Bishop moved the agenda to the Order of the Day, the Election of the Conference Associate Lay Leader. Darlene Webb, the head of the Conference Board of Laity Nominations Committee, explained the process. Howard Mason, the Conference Lay Leader, read the biographies of the candidates: Gene Cray, Ellie Kelly, Darlene Webster, and Dennis Gourley. Nominations were opened to the floor. There were none. Balloting was conducted.

The morning closed with prayer requests and grace before the noon meal.

Saturday Afternoon Saturday November 6, 1999

Vicky Gordy-Stith and Steve Johnson led Gathering Praise. An offering was taken for the Bishops Hurricane Relief Fund.

Bishop Weaver called the afternoon session to order.

Bishop Weaver's letter calling for a "Season of Prayer, Fasting, and Christian Conversation for the United Methodist Church 2000" was read.

The Bishop extended an invitation to a special clergy session scheduled for January 31, 2000 at St. John's United Methodist Church in Seaford, Delaware.

Darlene Webster and Gene Cray were elected Associated Conference Lay Leaders.

Liz St. Clair proposed an amendment to the substitute resolution --"Be it further resolved that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions will continue in its present health insurance plan with BCBSDE while the board of Pensions continues to solicit other insurance companies for proposals." There was a call for the question. The amendment was passed. The resolution was passed.

A PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE MOTION

WHEREAS the question of funding health insurance in the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is more than simply financial, but affects who we are and how we live as an annual conference, and

WHEREAS Wesleyan scholar David Lowes Watson told this annual conference in 1996 that Wesley would say that pastors "preach the Gospel for free" while receiving "what is necessary on which to live," and

WHEREAS health insurance currently is a necessary support on which to live, and

WHEREAS clergy compensation cannot easily be compared accurately with that of secular workers, and

WHEREAS the challenge of providing health insurance for pastors and their families in other annual conferences is being met in a variety of ways, and

WHEREAS other annual conferences are moving aggressively to structure minimum compensation packages to attract and retain effective pastoral leaders, and

WHEREAS our conference Board of Ordained Ministry is competing with those annual conferences to attract and retain effective pastoral leaders, and

WHEREAS our present system of providing health insurance for clergy inequitably distributes the financial responsibility for ministry among our local churches, and

WHEREAS our present system of providing health insurance for clergy dependents places an unfair financial burden on particular local churches, and

WHEREAS the churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference are living into a new relational design through the process of Mission Area Ministry, and

WHEREAS creating a funding precedent in a time of such change is premature,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Pensions pay from its reserve funds approximately $75,000.00 that was to be billed to clergy and the approximately $25,000.00 that was to be billed additionally to local churches to provide health insurance for the year 2000.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual prepare to face these very important long-term issues of stewardship, ministry, and justice by scheduling, prior to June 2000, a session of holy conferencing to hear a panel presentation and discuss issues and options for providing health insurance for clergy and their dependents. This presentation would be convened under the auspices of the Conference Council on Ministries and the Board of Ordained Ministry, and resourced by the Board of Pensions and Conference Resource Center staff.

Thomas Short, chair of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCF&A), read "The Council on Finance and Administration Proposed Budget 2000" and introduced the detailed 2000 budget titled "Resourcing the Church for Ministry and Mission through the Proposed 2000 Financial Commitment of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference." Tom Short then introduced three persons to discuss the benefits of the ministries the budget supports.

Randolph Wein, speaking in support of health insurance, said "You have saved my life." He said that the health insurance had shown love and support in tangible ways during his recent illness.

Wayne Cuff spoke about the pension. He said that it made retirement comfortable. Each year the Annual Conference raises the past service rate to care for retirees and families. It was well done and he thanked the body.

Louise Hess spoke about the need for assistant and secretarial support for the Bishop's office. Bishop Weaver had made 800 visits to local churches. It would be helpful to increase funding from a quarter time to a half time assistant—an increase from $13,885.00 to $18,770.00.

William Westbrook, the Annual Conference Treasurer, reviewed the increases to the budget.

Thomas Short presented the four recommendations. The first was:

"1. The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Budget for the year 2000 be set at a total of $6,019,608 for the year and that the Budget be administered in two half year segments each totaling $3,009,804. This represents a 4.2% increase over the 1999 budget."

Cynthia Koski moved "That the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference provide the necessary monies (as our 40% share) to fund at least a half time position of assistant for the episcopal office beginning in the year 2000." It was seconded. Bill Westbrook stated that it can be funded. There was a call for the question. The first recommendation passed with the addition of support for the half time assistant position.

The second recommendation was presented:

"2. The apportionment factor be set at .38 for the year 2000." It passed.

The third recommendation was presented:

"3. The carry-over funds for boards and agencies that will no longer continue in their present form, will be transferred to the appropriate Resource Team as of June 30, 2000." It passed.

The fourth recommendation was presented:

"4. The Annual Conference commit to continue funding Mission Area Ministry Facilitators through July 1, 2001. The expenses to be budgeted for 2001 are anticipated to be $111,198.00. The decision related to funding from July 1, 2001 to December 31, 2001 would be made as part of the overall 2001 Conference Budget." It was passed. The complete recommendation of CF&A was accepted as follows:

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION PROPOSED BUDGET 2000

(Revised)

The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) has concentrated on the difficult task of recommending a budget for the year 2000 since the Annual Conference Session in June. This year the difficulty has been compounded by the fact that 2000 is a transitional year for Peninsula-Delaware Conference. The first half of the year (1/1 - 6/30) will operate under the current design. The second half (7/1 - 12/31) will operate under the new Relational Design approved at the regular Annual Conference Session. CFA had to answer several important questions such as:

1. Do we present one combined budget or a separate budget for each half of the year
2. How do we ensure the continued funding for those agencies that will continue in the second half of the year but be responsible to a new team so they may plan their year.
3. How do we address the carry-over of funds as of June 30, 2000.

The Proposed Budget for 2000 is our attempt to answer these questions. The Budget has been combined but broken into two half years. We have maintained the four Budget Categories of World Service and Conference Benevolence, Other General Church Funds, Resourcing for Mission and Ministry & Administrative Services, and Clergy Support. Within each of these categories we have kept the boards and agencies of the current design but have grouped them according to the new resource team that has been given the responsibility for continuing that function.

Boards and agencies that will continue in the second half of the year have budget amounts in both halves of the year. Those that will not continue in their present form have a budget amount for the first half of the year and an equal amount added to the budget of the Resource Team that will take responsibility for that function in the second half of the year.

Recommendations:

1. The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Budget for the year 2000 be set at a total of $6,019,608 for the year and that the Budget be administered in two half year segments each totaling $3,009,804. This represents a 4.2% increase over the 1999 budget. That the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference provide the necessary monies (as our 40% share) to fund at least a half time position of assistant for the episcopal office beginning in the year 2000.
2. The apportionment factor be set at .38 for the year 2000.
3. The carry-over funds, for boards and agencies that will no longer continue in their present form, will be transferred to the appropriate Resource Team as of June 30, 2000.

4. The Annual Conference commits to continue funding Mission Area Ministry Facilitators through July 1, 2001. The expenses to be budgeted for 2001 are anticipated to be $111,198.00. The decision related to funding from July 1, 2001 to December 31, 2001 would be made as part of the overall 2001 Conference Budget.

Patricia Dorey, chair, introduced members of the Nominations Task Force. It was noted that Jonathan Baker's name should be removed from the General Commission on Religion and Race. The name of J.T. Seymour should be retained. J.T. Seymour stated that the Relational Design imposed a restriction on the number of people on the teams.

Patricia Dorey moved the acceptance of the Nominations Report. Homer Minus asked where the Howard Bailey program would belong. J.T. Seymour responded that it would continue as a connecional ministry. Ralph Allen recommended a rotation process—classes of members. The Task Force Report was passed.

Edward Steiner introduced the "Report of the Apportionment System Review Task Force" and the members of the task force. DeWayne Whittington, Bill Westbrook, and Jim Hawkins participated in the presentation.

Jack Abel stood and said that clarity was needed by the local churches.

Ron Gordon of St. Paul's UMC in Wilmington asked if the apportionment system would be phased in. Ed Steiner replied that there was no plan to phase it in but a church could talk to the Conference if a problem occurred.

Michelle Loving-Moore asked what could be deducted from the calculation of the apportionment. Bill Westbrook replied with examples: Benevolence and Mission giving; 75% of the housing allowance; 90% parsonage rental; continuing education; moving expenses; capital improvements; not interest on loans for capital improvements; UMW projects.

Richard Comly offered an amendment "To include the non church use expense as a deduction for calculating the 'apportionment factor.'" Kevin Goodwin spoke against the amendment.

Rudi Sackett offered an amendment to the amendment: "To require review Task force to develop a system for the calculations of non church use." It was accepted as a friendly amendment.

Jerome De Vine asked what the impact of the amendment would be. Bill Westbrook replied that it would increase apportionments across small membership churches.

Carol Perry asked for prayerful consideration.

Bud McKee spoke against the amendment.

The Comly amendment was defeated.

Randy Wein asked why the difference in percentage between the 75% of housing allowance and 90% of the parsonage rental. Bill Westbrook replied that utilities were typically included in parsonage rental.

Jonathan Baker offered an amendment: that "churches receiving a deduction in 2001 calculated apportionment be encouraged to maintain 2000 apportionment figure for 1 year."

Candy Miles spoke against the amendment.

The amendment was defeated.

Apportionment System Review Task Force

The Apportionment System Task Force has met throughout the last 24 months in an effort to evaluate the current apportionment system and to make recommendations for change, if needed. This has been a challenging task but has provided an opportunity to gain a better understanding of the financial dynamics of the 463 local churches that make up the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Our first task was to develop a process by which we could accomplish our charge. That process involved several steps. The first was to come to an understanding of the theological basis for an apportionment system. The second was to develop characteristics of an apportionment system. We then evaluated the current system against both of the above. Finally, recommendations would be developed as a result of this evaluation. The results of this process follow.

Theological Foundation for Apportionment System

- * We grow in our relationship with God, we discover that everything we are and have is a gift from God.
- * The giving of our time, our talents, financial resources and other gifts is part of our joyful obedient response to God's love for us.
- * We are stewards-caretakers-of these gifts.

Paul reminded the Christians in Corinth that their joyful giving to others beyond their local church was:

- Part of their obedience to the gospel of Christ, (discipleship)
- Part of their response to God's gifts to them, (stewardship)
- An opportunity for the Corinthians to join with the Christians of Jerusalem in continuing Jesus' work there. (connectionalism)

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference has a similar opportunity to respond to God by continuing Jesus' work throughout Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland, our Nation and the World. Our joyful giving to others beyond our local churches enables others to experience God's love in Jesus Christ. It also empowers the work of making disciples and helps our brothers and sisters in need.

Characteristics of an Apportionment System

- It must encourage and allow us to do collectively, through the support of the United Methodist connection, what we cannot accomplish individually.
- It must encourage growth in the local church and allow churches to respond to mission opportunities.
- It must encourage individual churches and their members to recognize their responsibility as members of the Body of Christ to care for the well being of others by giving according to their abilities.

- It must be flexible and interactive in order to encourage the best use of combined resources and provide a means of effectively balancing local church, conference, and general church needs.
- It must encourage individual churches and members to have input and a sense of ownership on decisions relating to establishing the Conference budget and their apportionment.
- It should provide for designated mission giving where local churches are well informed about opportunities and options for such designation.

It must be consistent with The 1996 Book of Discipline ¶ 612.

The World Service and Conference Benevolence apportionment to the local churches ... shall not be combined with any other General jurisdictional, or annual conference apportionment made to the local churches

Evaluation of Current Formula

The evaluation involved identified the strengths and weaknesses of the current formula, which is based on specific operating expenses multiplied by the apportionment factor of .38. The results of our evaluation are outlined below.

Strengths:

- It has been an effective tool in raising funds collectively and providing an opportunity for individuals and local churches to live out their connection.
- The system provides a process for review.
- Calculation of apportionment is relatively simple.
- Local mission work is encouraged since local mission expenditures are not considered in the calculation of local church apportionment.
- The system encourages local churches to do timely and effective budget planning since the projected apportionment for a given year is known in advance.

Constraints in the current system:

- Local churches may delay or fail to implement new ministries and/or encourage additional staff for fear of anticipated immediate increases in apportionment.
- The present process does not adequately help churches understand and interpret apportionment contributions to local church members.
- Local churches feel detached from decision-making regarding the Conference budget and apportionment.
- There is no direct connection between changes in the budget of the Annual Conference and changes in a local church's budget or apportionment.
- Increases in Conference budgets are being funded by a small number of churches.
- The current review process focuses on reduction of apportionment and finances, rather than issues of local church vitality and transformation for ministry.

- The non-church building use deduction is inconsistently applied among local churches.
- Since the current system is not determined by the Conference budget, it fails to interpret the potential of our connection and the concept of a "fair share" of Conference mission.

Proposed Apportionment System:

The proposed system seeks to retain the strengths of the current system while addressing the constraints. Local church operating expenses are the basis for both systems and are defined the same with one exception. The new apportionment system includes MPP/CPP (pension) expenditures as part of the operating expenses. The following is a description of how the new system works.

- Reduces the "shock load" local churches experiences when they develop new ministry, programs, and/or add staff by averaging expenses over a three-year period.
- Provides an interactive relationship between Conference budget and local church apportionment. Apportionment will be determined by the church's "fair share" of the approved Conference budget.
- Provides a cap on the increase of a local church's operating expenses used to determine their apportionment.
- Encourages individual churches and their members to recognize their responsibility as members of the Body of Christ to care for the well being of others by giving according to their abilities.
- Eliminates non-church building use deductions, which have been inconsistently applied.
- Recommends a comprehensive review process focusing on support, networking, and resources for local church vitality and transformation.

The proposed formula is a three-step process and is based on the three year average of a local church's operating expenses compared to the three-year average of the Conference total of all local church operating expenses.. Step one involves calculating the "Apportionment Factor." This factor will be different for each church, unlike the current formula. The calculation is described below.

1997	1996	1995
Local Church Exp	+ Local Church Exp	+ Local Church Exp

DIVIDED BY

The sum of:

1997	1996	1995
Conf Total of	+ Conf. Total of	+ Conf Total of
Local Church Exp	Local Church Exp	Local Church Exp

Apportionment Factor
 Conference Budget + Receipt Factor (.90)

Calculated Apportionment for 2000

The third step is to calculate the maximum apportionment. This is accomplished by capping the apportionment payment at 31 % of Local Church Operating Expenses. For this calculation Local Church Operating Expenses are not reduced by a percentage of Housing Allowance or Parsonage Rental, by Continuing Education or by Moving Expenses.

1997 Local Church's Operating Expense
Maximum Apportionment for 2000

The actual apportionment for a local church will be the smaller of the "Calculated Apportionment" or the "Maximum Apportionment."

The final recommendation calls for a more comprehensive process for reviewing apportionments of individual churches as needed. This process would focus on support, networking, and resources for local church vitality and transformation. Some components of the review will include:

- Dialoguing with local church leadership
- Assessing the needs of the local church
- Developing a plan of action toward revitalization
- Resourcing local churches
- Partnering local churches for support

Recommendations:

The proposed apportionment system, based on the three year average of Local Church Operating Expenses, be adopted for the year 2001.

The "Receipt Factor" be set at 90% and the Cap be set at 31 % of Local Church Operating Expenses for the year 2001.

Ronald Bell, Sr. moved to adjourn the Special Session and to convene the 216th session on June 9, 2000 at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore in Princess Anne, Maryland. It was carried.

Bishop Weaver commissioned, blessed, and dismissed those present.

Special Clergy Session
Friday February 11, 2000
St. John's United Methodist Church
Seaford Delaware

The purpose of this special session was to approve a revised policy on Sexual Ethics for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The session was originally scheduled for January 31, 2000 but was rescheduled to February 11, 2000 because of a snowstorm.

The session began with a worship celebration. The proposed policy was introduced in sections: Introduction, Prevention, Intervention, and Restoration.

After a brief transition, the session broke into Reflection Groups with an open discussion of the document. Questions and insights were recorded for later reporting to the larger group. The morning session was ended for lunch.

The body was called together at 1:15 p.m. The Reflection Groups brought their questions and insights to the larger group.

During the legislative session, this proposed policy statement was presented and the following motion was made and passed unanimously:

The Special Clergy Session does approve in principle the direction that the proposed policy on sexual ethics is going and authorizes the Board of Ordained Ministry to perfect the document and bring a perfected document to the regular executive session of Conference in June for final approval.

The special session adjourned with a closing celebration.

Tuesday June 6, 2000 Clergy Executive Session
St. Luke's United Methodist Church
Denton MD

Morning Session 8:30 a.m.

Wesley Davis, accompanied by Cynthia Quillen on the piano led the body in hymn singing.

Karen Bunnell, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM), welcomed the body as colleagues and friends on a journey together. At this session she said we would hear letters on the journey, letters of reflection, encouragement, and challenge. She thanked St. Luke's United Methodist Church and its pastor, Alex Slonin, for their hospitality. She then led in prayer.

After a hymn and scripture, Bishop Peter Weaver reflected on Christian Newcomer's journal remembering the first conference of the United Brethren 200 years ago. The journal noted an examination of ministry which included progress in divine life, success, and industry. The Bishop then gave thanks for those assembled and said that God would take us as broken vessels and make our work effective.

William Hemphill, Jr., a retired elder, came forward and read his "Letter to My Brothers and Sisters in Christ" to those assembled. He said that we should encourage one another and build one another up. Christ is the head of the Church. We are to trust and be faithful. Structure and organization are superseded by Spirit and leadership. We are to be servants obedient and moving out in the service of the Gospel. Diversity enriches and broadens ministry. Our life together in the Annual Conference requires self-examination. We are not called to retirement. Be thankful for the calling on our lives. Keep it central. It is what binds us together.

Boyd Etter introduced each candidate for elder's orders as William Sterling escorted them in and out for examination. Bishop Weaver greeted each candidate. They were elected.

Alice Hemmeian presented her "Letter to My Brothers and Sisters in Christ." She encouraged us to run the race strengthened by the example of those who have gone before us. She affirmed the laity as partners. She said that the laity should hold the clergy accountable but with wisdom and tolerance using the golden rule as the measure. Alice Hemmeian advised and encouraged the elders to teach by example, to manage their time wisely.

Boyd Etter individually introduced the candidates for Deacon. The Bishop greeted each one and presented each for examination by the body. They were elected. Bishop Weaver prayed for them.

Notations in the Covenant

Corporate Accountability-- Karen Bunnell, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry asked the disciplinary question:

"Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration?" (P.604.4, 605.6 [1996])

The Bishop and District Superintendents responded:

In almost every case, our clergy members are blameless in life and character. The performance of every ordained minister and local pastor has been reviewed by the Bishop and cabinet. Where there is concern or basis for a grievance, it is being pursued with the knowledge of the member involved.

Each District Superintendent spoke on the life of the ministry in their respective districts. Bishop Weaver expressed his joy and thanks for prayer together and for the clergy, laity, and local churches working together bound in love.

The morning session ended with prayer and blessing before lunch.

Tuesday June 6, 2000 Afternoon Session 1:00 p.m.

Following a hymn, Bishop Weaver called the afternoon session to order. He introduced Thomas McElvey to present the Revised Sexual Ethics Policy.

Thomas McElvey said the creation of the policy was confirmation of holy conferencing. The Joint Review was taken from the Discipline; the Restoration section was added. Thomas McElvey then moved the adoption of the Policy.

Bishop Weaver went through the Policy section by section. Rudi Sackett asked whether this Policy had to be voted on by the Annual Conference. Bishop Weaver said that this was also guideline for local churches and lay delegates should have a chance to vote on it.

When asked what a sexual ethics consultant was, Tom McElvey said that BOOM would put together a job description. Bishop Weaver added that a part-time position needs to go to CF&A and then back to the Annual Conference for funding.

Rudi Sackett moved the referral back to committee of number four on page 2. After discussion, the motion was carried.

Randy Booth offered an amendment to beginning on line 35 on page 1 to change the whole of item number one under "Definitions.". The amendment was seconded. Randolph Wein offered an amendment to the amendment. The substitute amendment was seconded and then accepted. The substitute amendment became the main amendment and it was passed. The amended item number one under "Definitions" on page 1, line 35 of the Policy reads: "It is sin to use sex in an ungodly way. It violates our covenant with God as well as with each other."

Garry Parker raised the issue of legal conformance: will it pass the Judicial Council scrutiny? Have we discussed with Delaware and Maryland lawyers? Have we done due diligence? Mae Etta Moore said that issues of church law come to municipal courts. Offenders could be culpable but not the church.

Daniel Blevins offered an amendment to add "willingly" to page 1 line 30. It passed. Amy Arnoldson amended page 3 line 23 from "four years" to "five years." It was passed.

Rudi Sackett proposed an amendment to line 25 on page 3 to read: "All full time clergy under appointment will participate in two full time seminars each year for four years." Bruce Cooke moved that all additions for paragraph 1 be referred back to the BOOM committee. The motion passed.

Karen Booth proposed an amendment to the Prevention Section (page 4) to become number 9 in the list of actions: "BOOM will develop a list of sexual healing ministries and make them available to pastors." It was passed.

Joyce Whittington proposed the addition of number 10 to the same list: "It is suggested that existing pastors need to have prayer partners." It passed.

Randy Wein proposed the addition of "to apply to you in ministry" to line 45 on page 3. It passed.

Karen Moores proposed to change "pastor" to "respondent" on page 4, number 2 and wherever else in the document it was applicable. It was accepted by the committee as a friendly amendment.

Randy Booth proposed on page 5 line 21 to work prayer in.

Pearl Johnson proposed on page 5 line 40 to change "victim" to "complainant". It was accepted by the committee. The committee subsequently accepted a change by Vicky Gordy-Stith to add back the word "victim."

Mark Pruettt-Barnett asked whether the support person was for complainant or the respondent. The answer was for both.

Randy Booth proposed to strike "whenever possible" from page 6 line 15. The amendment was defeated.

Karen Booth proposed referring back to the committee page 6 line 31: "have shown no pattern of such behavior in the past." She did not support the exclusion of those with a previous pattern of such behavior. The amendment was passed. The item was referred back to committee.

Pearl Johnson proposed referring back the entire section "Restoration" in order to add a section describing the support provided to those in the process of restoration. The body accepted an amendment to retain the "Restoration" section but to refer back to the committee the responsibility for adding such a section in the future.

Mary Lou Green proposed to change the word "difficult" on Page 7 line 43 to the word "thorough." It was passed.

Jim Hawkins proposed on page 9 to add a number 6. "In a Sunday a.m. worship service." Rudi Sackett proposed an amendment that the "District Superintendent create a separate service of healing."

Patricia Bryant Harris proposed an entirely new number 6 on page 9: "Initial reporting and disclosure to the congregation should be done in a setting other than the regularly scheduled worship service will be established in consultation with the Staff Parish Relations Committee and key congregational leaders."

She accepted as a friendly amendment a rewording proposed by Randy Wein: "Initial reporting and disclosure shall be done in setting other than the primary Sunday morning worship. Only essential facts need be discussed." The amendment was passed by the and became the new number 6 on page 9.

Karen Moore stated that it is difficult to be supportive of one another when actions such as suspension are communicated through a piece of paper or clergy session.

Rick Vance proposed removal of "in a professional relationship" from page 1 line 32. It was not passed.

John Holden moved the referral of the entire document. It was not passed.

Rhoda Harris asked that language on page 9 letter c be revised to reflect protection of those who are the most vulnerable. It was agreed that BOOM would fashion changed language.

Dale Evans pointed out that healing ministries are important.

The policy passed. It was to be presented at a plenary session for consideration by the entire membership of the Annual Conference.

Susan Keirn Kester presented the following motion: " Since Bishop Peter D. Weaver has completed four years as our episcopal leader during which he lifted the call to ministry; set the example of servant leadership; visited us where we lived and worshipped and affirmed us as we are and what we have done; adopted our visionary Mission Area Ministry and given it leadership; because you have loved us we now want to express our thanks for the four years completed."

The clergy session adjourned at approximately four o'clock with prayer.

Thursday Morning June 8, 2000
Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center
University of Maryland Eastern Shore
Princess Anne, Maryland

The 216th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference opened at 9:30 a.m. with an Introit procession of local churches with banners celebrating the theme, "Living Jesus Christ's Vision—Celebrating Our Journey." Taylor Harvey led the music.

J.T. Seymour, Conference Resource Director, welcomed Bishop James K. and Mrs. Eunice Mathews. Bishop Mathews had been invited to preside at the June 8, 2000 sessions by Bishop Peter D. Weaver, episcopal leader of the Philadelphia Area.

Worship began with a dramatic presentation, from the twenty-fourth chapter of the Gospel of St. Luke, of the disciples' encounter with Jesus on the road to Emmaus. Carol Hopkins, William Wallace, Jeremias Rojas, and Al Taylor played in the drama. Bishop Mathews spoke of the encounter of the risen Christ as a prelude to the great commission which is our call to evangelize the world. Drawing on his experience in India and his continuing missionary journeys, Bishop Mathews encouraged the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to carry the gospel of hope to those who live at the margins of life without hope.

Ronald Bell, Sr., the host District Superintendent (Easton District), formally welcomed the members of the Annual Conference, noting as special guests Bishop Weaver's Assistant for Special Projects, David Fife and his wife; and, Philip Ponce, District Superintendent of the Albright District of our sister Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference (EPA). Ronald Bell again welcomed Bishop Mathews and introduced Bishop Weaver's video taped welcome to Bishop Mathews and greetings to the members of the Annual Conference.

Bishop Mathews then called the 216th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to order. Charlotte Nichols, pastor of Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Princess Anne and direct of United Methodist ministries to the University of Maryland--Eastern Shore (UMES), introduced Dr. Dolores Spikes, president of UMES. Dr. Spikes welcomed those assembled and the work of the United Methodist Church in the life of the university and the community. Isabel Foster and Barbara Lake, members of the Easton District United Methodist Women mission team, were seated at the presiding table as visible representatives of the laity. Flowers from Bishop Weaver and the Eastern Pennsylvania Cabinet were placed near the podium.

Irene Hoffman, Conference Secretary, moved the adoption of Resolution Z-1, the Organizational and Procedural Motion. The resolution was adopted.

- Q. The Conference ushers shall only distribute information pertaining to the presentations given during the plenary session.
- R. The Consent Calendar will be presented for adoption on Friday June 9 at 9:00 a.m.

Irene Hoffman asked the members to review the Consent Calendar, Z-2, and the Nominating Report, Section A pages 1 through 25, prior to voting on both items the following morning, Friday June 9, 2000. Edits to the Nominating Report were given.

J.T. Seymour introduced William Wallace, chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race and members of the commission who would be monitoring the Conference proceedings for diversity and inclusivity. He also presented members of the Conference office staff.

Mission Area Ministry presented a Dialogue between Harry Hoosier (T. David Hackett, pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church) and John Wesley (Chuck Smith, Dover District lay leader). The presentation concluded with recitation of a litany.

Official registrants for the 216th session of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference included 323 Lay Members and 262 Clergy Members (2 full member deacons, 1 commissioned probationary member, 21 probationary members, 41 local pastors, 12 associate member deacons, 2 associate member elders, 193 full members).

The morning plenary session closed with grace before lunch offered by Larry Hanifee, the Easton District lay leader.

Bishop Matthews examined the candidates using the "historic questions" in accordance with the Discipline of the United Methodist Church. They answered satisfactorily. The body prayed to God that these persons be sent into His harvest, be filled with the Holy Spirit, be kept safe against danger and temptation, and that God might hasten the coming of His kingdom. Bishop Mathews then presented the Associate and Full Members, Deacons and Elders, to the body.

The ritual of the Passing of the Mantle was initiated by Bishop Mathews. He placed a red mantle on the shoulders of Ashley Maxwell, a representative of the retiring class, who in turn placed it on the shoulders of Karen Jones, a representative of the new full member class. This rite is in remembrance of the passing of the mantle (symbolically, obedience to God) from Elijah to the younger prophet Elisha as recorded in 2Kings 2:1-15. The laity pledged to support the new class as it had supported the retiring class. The Celebration of Ministry ended with a Choral Benediction.

K1-2 COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to District Superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 1999 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was $152,500. Funds expended in 1999 totaled $162,539. This represents an increase of about $56,000 from the previous year. This was made possible because of the carryover from the previous year. As part of this report, there is attached a list of the churches and/or charges receiving assistance in 1999.

Assistance for short-term disability, begun in 1998, proved to be a needed benefit and has worked well.

If you are new to your Pastor Parish Relations Committee or concerned about what you should or could be doing to help your pastor, please feel free to pick up a copy of our brochure entitled "Guidelines for Pastor's Compensation".

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 2001:
Full Member - $24,500
Probationary Associate & Commission Member - $22,000
Full-time Local Pastor - $20,400
Student Pastor - $17,550*
*unless a smaller figure is agreed upon by the district Superintendent, student and charge.

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 2001 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

Warner J. Clark
Chairperson

Kenneth Valentine, chair of the Board of Pensions, presented Resolution I-3 from the Board of Pensions. Resolution I-3 passed.

I-3 Board of Pensions Past Service Rate

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 2001 be set at $405 per year of approved service.

Kenneth Valentine presented Resolution I-4 from the Board of Pensions. Resolution I 4 passed.

I-4 Board of Pensions Housing Allowance

2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTER OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received during the year of 2000 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at the time of his or her retirement;
2. This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister who has been granted the retired relation or placed on disability leave by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and whose name and relationship to the conference is recorded in the Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and in other appropriate records maintained by the conference.
3. The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension payment resulting from all service of such retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-290 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a "rental allowance" is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities.

Kenneth S. Valentine, Chair

Thomas McElvey introduced to the body the Policy on Sexual Ethics, for thoughtful consideration prior to voting later in the Conference schedule.

J.T. Seymour introduced Madeline Beall, the United Methodist Publishing House representative. She presented Bishop Mathews a check for $9413.00 to be given to the Board of Pensions. Kenneth Valentine accepted the check from the Bishop on behalf of the Board of Pensions. The check is the Conference's portion of Publishing House sales to churches within the Conference. Kevin Goodwin moved "That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference donate their 2000 Cokesbury check to the UMC fund being established to support pensions for our pastors serving overseas in underdeveloped countries." It was seconded and passed.

The Order of the Day was the Laity Address given by Howard Mason, outgoing Conference Lay Leader. He remembered the milestones of the work of the laity over the previous six years: the increase of lay speakers from 400 to 1500; the development of lay leadership and lay officer training; Laity Banquets; Days Apart; the significance of the Order of St. Barnabas; and the growing partnership of laity and clergy. As a final thought, he said that all this work was done "fully relying on God". The acronym f-r-o-g would make it easy to remember from where our help comes. The district lay leaders then presented Howard Mason with a plaque inscribed with all their names and a frog to remember the work they had done together.

In the Mission Area Ministry (MAM) moment Elaine Ayres, the Conference Director of Mission Area Ministry together with Major Bailey, Conference Board of Laity, and two "hard hats" dramatized the discernment of gifts in an equipped church. Elaine Ayres outlined the record of Mission Areas, named the churches in covenant relationships, and said that only 3% of local churches were not yet participating in MAM.

Patricia Bryant Harris, District Superintendent of the Salisbury District and a recently selected member of the General Council Finance and Administration (GCF&A), presented a plaque to Tom Short (representing the Conference Treasurer) honoring the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for paying 100% of its apportionments.

Rick Vance presented the Harry Denman Award for Evangelism. The award was established in 1980 by the Foundation for Evangelism to recognize those who are doing the essential work of evangelism in the local church. The award is given in three categories: the Lay Adult recipients were Jim and Kelley Truitt of Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Wilmington DE; the Lay Youth recipient was Melody McIlvain, a member of Carey's United Methodist Church in Millsboro DE; the clergy recipient was Anna McIntosh, the pastor of Nanticoke Charge, Nanticoke MD.

The session ended with grace before the evening meal said by Larry Hanifee..

Thursday Evening June 8, 2000

The Memorial Communion Service began at 7:00 p.m. with music from the Fruitland-Allen Charge and St. Peter's Episcopal Church Combined Handbell Choirs under the direction of Sheila Harleston. Other special music was provided by the Easton Asbury Men's Chorus directed by Richard Cardwell, Jr. Janet Harmon, pastor of Simpson United Methodist Church in Wilmington DE and Anne Pruet-Barnett, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church in Rehoboth Beach DE, jointly proclaimed that God's great banquet table is open to all (St. Luke 14:15-24).

While a video presentation recounted their lives and ministries. "Amazing Grace" was sung. The bell was tolled for those who had passed away in the previous year:

Bishop Mathews blessed the bread and cup for communion. It was first given to the families of those who had passed away and then to those congregated. The Service ended with a singing of "Marching to Zion."

A reception for Retirees, Ordinands, and Spouses followed.

Friday Morning June 9, 2000

Friday morning began with Gathering Praise at 8:30 a.m. Then Vanessa and David Stephens Lee, together with the Voices of Joy, led a Princess Anne Camp Meeting worship Service. Bishop Peter D. Weaver called the session to order at 9:00 a.m. Joan and Rodman Wolff, lay members of Annual Conference from St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton MD, joined the presiding table as representatives of the laity. Bishop Weaver thanked Bishop James K. Mathews for presiding over the Thursday June 8, 2000 sessions. He also welcomed Mrs. Mathews.

Susan Keirn Kester, District Superintendent of the Wilmington District, rose and congratulated Bishop Weaver on a successful quadrennium. Bishop Weaver responded that it was a joy to be called. Yvonne Penn, pastor of the Quantico-Hebron Charge, presented the Bishop with a gift from the female clergy.

Irene Hoffman presented the Consent Calendar, Z2, for consideration by the body. It was passed.

J.T. Seymour recapped and clarified the Relational Design organization of the Annual Conference.

He presented the Nominations Report--A1 through A25-- with edits and additions. It was passed. J.T. Seymour noted that that the United Methodist Women (UMW) had presented extensive revisions to the UMW section of the Nominations Report. Because the UMW revisions did not require the action of the body, they would be completed in the publication of the Journal. (The full text of the Nominations Report is as printed in the 2000 Official Journal.)

Jonathan Baker, the first elected clergy delegate to the 2000 General Conference, presented the General Conference Nominations Pool Report to the body for its review. Submitted by the Jurisdictional Conference delegation, the Report listed nominations in a number of lay and clergy categories arranged for gender and ethnic inclusivity. Jonathan Baker stated that additional nominations would be solicited from the body on Saturday, June 10 2000.

Kenneth Valentine, chair of the Board of Pensions, together with Randolph Wein, Wilmington District MAM Facilitator and Director of Outreach Revitalization, and William Westbrook, Conference Treasurer, presented the Clergy Health Insurance Resolution Z4.

After some debate, Grant Johnson offered an amendment to line 45: change "pastor" to "pastoral family". The amendment was seconded and debate on the amendment ensued. Rich Comly moved to close debate. The motion was passed. A vote was taken on the amendment. The amendment was defeated. The body returned to debate on the main motion, Resolution Z4.

John Dunnack offered a substitute for proposal 1. The substitute read: "That all health care costs be added to the apportionment formula." John Dunnack accepted a "friendly" amendment which added: "That the apportioned health care cost be clearly identified in the apportionment statement." The substitute passed and became the main motion. The new main motion was voted on and passed.

Z 4 Clergy Health Insurance

Resolution: Board of Pensions- Subject: Clergy Health Insurance

WHEREAS, the Board of Pensions has looked at various recommendations concerning the funding of health insurance benefits.

WHEREAS, the Board of Pensions, the Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Conference Council on Ministries held a Holy Conferencing on Health Insurance in March 2000,

WHEREAS, the results of the Holy Conferencing did not disclose a defined direction to resolve the issue of funding health insurance benefits,

WHEREAS, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Delaware health insurance rates for 2001 did not increase at the expected rate of 15% but rather at a rate of 3.4% for health insurance and 34.01% for dental rates,

WHEREAS, the Conference Board of Pensions has found support for the following two proposals,

WHEREAS, following many discussions of the merits of each of these proposals,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Conference Board of Pensions recommends Proposal 1.

Proposal 1

- That all health care costs be added to the apportionment formula;
- That the apportioned health care cost be clearly identified in the apportionment statements.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Conference Board of Pensions recommends adoption of Proposal 1 to be effective on January 1, 2001.

J.T. Seymour, in introducing the Rev. Dr. Jeffrey Leath, pastor of Mother Bethel AME Church, remembered the nineteenth century racism that divided Methodism and the repentance for racism that the 2000 General Conference called for. In a stirring address, Dr. Leath challenged the church to preach repentance to sinners. Bishop Weaver offered a prayer of thanksgiving for Dr. Leath's message. He also offered a prayer of confession for the racism in our hearts, our communities, and our churches.

Bishop Weaver conducted a Service of Blessing for Conflict Resolution Ministry. Diaz Bonville, Rich Comly, Anna L. Cottom, Irene Hoffman, Alice Hutchins, Ernest Leatherbury, Barbara Miller, David Rector, James, Riley, Jr., Donald Schuler, and Ann Wilson were blessed and sent as mediators in service to the churches of the Annual Conference.

Lois Rogers, Salisbury District lay leader, thanked the body for its prayers for her and then said the grace before lunch.

Friday Afternoon June 9, 2000

Carol Hopkins led the body in Gathering Praise.

Occasioned by the end of his first quadrennium, Bishop Weaver addressed the body on the state of the General Church and the Annual Conference. The Bishop's State of the Church message asked What's Up? He answered it with a thought provoking address. United Methodists are showing up on Sunday for worship, witness, and ministry in increasing numbers. The Conference is living into God's vision through a grand and radical move into Mission Area Ministry. Bold missional initiatives in Young People's ministry, Wesley College, social justice. Financial giving supported the payment of 100% apportionments to the General Church. People are connecting to God through prayer and fasting. On the other hand, local church membership decreased by five hundred thirty people. They are not just a number; there is name for each number. Membership by profession of faith would be a sign of a lively evangelism. Bishop Weaver challenged the Annual Conference to start twenty new churches by 2004. The Bishop challenged us to have black and white churches worshipping together—Communion Sunday would be ideal. Cross racial appointments, racism, poverty, affluence—all of these are issues in our Annual Conference. We have one half billion dollars in assets. We have no excuse for What's Up.

Carol Terry rose to a point of personal privilege and stated that she was happy to be part of our new vision.

Bishop Weaver acknowledged the presence of David Fife, Joyce Gorman (Bishop Weaver's administrative assistant), Jim Anderman (chair of the Conference Sessions Committee for EPA), and Phil Ponce.

Bishop Weaver welcomed to the presiding table Charles Brummell, president of Eastern District United Methodist Men and Larry Hanifee, lay representatives.

Howard Mason came forward to present the General Conference Report. He asked the General and Jurisdictional Conference delegations to stand. The report was given in a video format especially edited for our Annual Conference. Tammy Ward, Conference Coordinator of Communications, stated that videos would be available after the close of Annual Conference.

Thomas McElvey presented the Sexual Ethics policy together with James Der Wall, Susan Keirn Kester, and Bob Price. Edits were offered and accepted. The policy passed as edited.

Sexual Ethics Policy

"This policy statement is superseded by The United Methodist Book of Discipline and is meant to support the disciplinary process where appropriate."

INTRODUCTION

The intent of this policy by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is to provide guidance to laity, clergy, and lay employees of the Annual Conference and the local church in cases of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and abuse. Moreover, this policy works toward the end of providing for the safety of the parishioners by ensuring a protective climate, protecting the special relationships between pastors and those to/with whom they minister, and by ensuring health and authenticity in pastoral ministries. It is our hope that the existence of this policy with a focus on prevention, intervention, and restoration will act as a deterrent against inappropriate sexual behavior.

The Pastoral office is a position of great trust, responsibility and power. This trust and responsibility provide the opportunity for a unique relationship of grace and caring. Persons in pastoral roles sometimes violate the trust given them by participating in inappropriate sexual behavior which is an abuse of their power. Sexual misconduct which includes harassment and sexual abuse, is one of the gravest violations of this sacred trust and is a breaking of the covenant.

"For the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness to the Christian gospel, and in consideration of the influence of an ordained minister on the lives of other persons both within and outside the Church, the Church expects those who seek ordination to make a complete dedication of themselves to the highest ideals of Christian life. To this end, they agree to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, integrity in personal relationships, fidelity in marriage and celibacy in singleness, social responsibility, and growth in grace and in the knowledge and love of God" (§ 304.2, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church — 1996)

DEFINITIONS

Sexual Misconduct: It is misconduct when any person in a ministerial role of leadership or pastoral counseling (clergy, religious, or lay) willingly engages in sexual contact or sexual behavior (communicates sexual interest and/or content) with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, etc. (adult, teenager, child) in a professional relationship. Such misconduct is a violation of the ministerial relationship in which a person in a position of religious leadership takes advantage of a vulnerable person, instead of protecting him/her.

Sexual misconduct is exploitative, abusive, and a violation of ethics.

- 1 It is sin. To use sex in an ungodly way violates our covenant with God as well as with each other.
- 2 It is a violation of role. The pastoral relationship presupposes certain role expectations. Sexual misconduct must never be a part of the pastoral, professional role.
- 3 It is a misuse of authority and power. The role of church leader carries with it authority and power and the attendant responsibility to use this power to benefit the people who call upon the church leader for service. If such activity is initiated by another, it is still the church leader's responsibility to maintain the boundaries of the relationship.
- 4 It is taking advantage of the vulnerability of the person seeking support or advice. The person comes with a predisposition and the faith that the church leader will act in ways that contribute to his/her well being and not to his/her detriment.

Sexual Harassment: The use of one's authority or power, explicitly or implicitly, to coerce another into unwanted sexual relations or to punish another for his or her refusal to participate in unwanted sexual activity; or the creation of an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment through verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

Complainant: This is the person who submits either an informal or formal complaint alleging inappropriate and/or unsolicited sexual behavior. The complainant may or may not be the person experiencing sexual misconduct. For example, a family member, friend or colleague of the person experiencing sexual misconduct may be the complainant whose information initiates the complaint.

Respondent: The term "respondent" is used to represent the person against whom a complaint is made of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment.

Petitioner: The individual who has requested restoration to pastoral office or is in the process of restoration.

POLICY OVERSIGHT AND IMPLEMENTATION

The role of the Board of Ordained Ministry is critical in this area of sexual ethics and for the development, interpretation and implementation of this policy as approved by the Executive Session. The Board's oversight of this policy is through the Executive Committee.

- A In accord with the current Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the Executive Committee shall be accountable to the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Bishop and Cabinet.

- 1 The initiative for Preparation and Prevention is with the Executive Committee.
- 2 Intervention and Restoration come in response to a request by a respondent and by the determination of the bishop.

B The Executive Committee will work to implement this policy.

1 Preparation.

- a Recruit and train persons for the two sexual misconduct Response Teams.
- b Secure and develop resources for prevention and intervention.

2 Prevention

- a Be responsible for the education of clergy members and lay leadership in the Peninsula Delaware Conference as well as leaders and members of all churches and charges.
- b Oversee the implementation of prevention efforts, starting with steps outlined in this policy.

3 Intervention

- a Always initiated by the bishop and district superintendent.
- b Implementation of the intervention process as outlined in this policy is with the leadership of the district superintendent and the responsive and supportive role of the Executive Committee and its response teams.

4 Restoration

- a When a person requests restoration to ordained ministry and at the subsequent recommendation of the bishop the Executive Committee may initiate and oversee the rigorous process that leads to healing and wholeness which could result in restoration

C The Executive Committee will annually review this policy and the ways in which it is being implemented.

1 Annually review and recommend changes in this policy Statement on Sexual Ethics.

2 Annually bring this policy to the attention of all clergy, all lay members and leaders, and staff persons of the Annual Conference.

3 Annually review and recommend any needed changes in the ways this policy is implemented, seeking greater effectiveness in prevention, intervention and restoration.

D Full or part-time leadership is essential for effective prevention, intervention and restoration. A Sexual Ethics Consultant will be accountable to the Executive Committee and the Bishop and Cabinet.

1. PREVENTION

1 Throughout each quadrennium, training in sexual and professional ethics, boundaries, and systems theory for churches will be offered.

for clergy

for Staff Parish Relations Committees for lay speakers

for all church workers

in district training for clergy and laity together

in varied local settings

These training opportunities will be organized with the help of a clergy ethics consultant. Funding for such a consultant will be part of the Conference budget.

3 A self assessment test will be given to all clergy to explore their vulnerabilities in the area of sexual ethics. This will be administered by the Clergy Ethics Consultant. The results will be seen by no one but the clergy person taking the test. Professional guidance will be available for those who feel they are at risk.

- 4 When candidates for ordination are interviewed by the Board of Ordained Ministry, they will be asked the following question:

How do you understand ¶ 304.2 of THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE which reads in part: "For the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ...(clergy agree to) fidelity in marriage and celibacy in singleness..." to apply to you in ministry.

This will be asked by the Pastoral Care and Human Relations interview team of the Board of Ordained Ministry and by the District Committee on Ordained Ministry at the beginning of the certification process.

- 5 A copy of the Conference sexual misconduct policy will be given to all clergy, all Lay Members of Annual Conference, all Staff-Parish Relations Committee chairs, and by District Committees to persons at the beginning of the certification process.
- 6 All local churches shall adopt a sexual misconduct policy to assist in prevention of such occurrences and to protect themselves from legal liability. The policy must be shared annually with staff and church leaders. The policy should be included in Charge Conference materials. The district superintendent shall give guidance in composition of such material.
- 7 A sexual ethics or misconduct policy of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is required to apply to all employees of the Conference. The policy must be shared annually with the employees.
- 8 This policy as regards clergy supersedes local church policies.
- 9 The Board of Ordained Ministry will develop a list of sexual healing ministries and make them available to pastors.
- 10 It is suggested that existing pastors have prayer partners.

2. INTERVENTION

The Process for Intervention

- 1 When a written complaint against a pastor (respondent) is received, the bishop and the district superintendent will confer in prayer and concern.
- 2 The complainant is interviewed by the superintendent to clarify the complaint, and to request further details, and to determine if there are questionable statements in the complaint. The superintendent explains the process of bringing a complaint against a respondent for alleged sexual misconduct, inappropriate sexual behavior or harassment to the complainant. The superintendent points out that if the respondent confesses, the official complaint is brought by the bishop and the cabinet, no longer by the complainant. The superintendent then reports to the bishop the contents of the meeting.
- 3 The bishop then sets a meeting with the complainant and the superintendent to further clarify the complaint. The complainant is instructed not to have any further contact with the respondent and, for the protection of all, to keep the complaint and these meetings confidential.
- 4 The bishop and the superintendent then meet with the respondent and present the written complaint. The respondent is interviewed about the complaint. If the respondent confesses to the allegation, the respondent's understanding of the allegation is clarified. The respondent is instructed not to have any further contact with the complainant and to keep the complaint and the meetings confidential.
- 5 If the respondent confesses to the complaint, the bishop and the superintendent confer about the next steps. Concern for the respondent, the complainant, and the church are expressed in every meeting. The cabinet is informed and the next steps of the process are determined.
- 6 If the respondent denies the complaint and through the district superintendent and the bishop there is just resolution with the complainant, the matter may be terminated by the bishop with confidentiality maintained.

- 7 If the respondent contests the complaint and there is no just resolution, the bishop and superintendent confer with the Cabinet to determine the next steps. The procedure shall go forward as outlined in The United Methodist Book of Discipline, (§358 and §2623-2629)
- 8 If the respondent confesses, the bishop may ask for the convening of the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry to request suspension. The district superintendent and/or the bishop then meet with the respondent and inform him/her of the suspension process.
- 9 If the Executive Committee grants suspension then the superintendent contacts the chairperson of the SPRC and sets a date immediately to convene the SPRC to inform and consult with them concerning the suspension process.
- 10 The sexual ethics consultant is contacted by the superintendent and after consulting with the superintendent, designates response team members to be present when this information is shared with key leadership and congregation. The consultant or the Chairperson of the Response Team attends the meeting of the SPRC. Other persons may be asked to attend the meetings as deemed necessary by the superintendent. Meetings are also set for the week after the announcement to the church for members to ask questions, state opinions, and express their feelings about the suspension and misconduct.
- 11 The superintendent in consultation with the respondent and SPRC will decide how he/she will communicate with the church about the suspension and the reason for it. The superintendent encourages the respondent and the complainant to secure counseling, and the superintendent will offer a support person. If asked, either the superintendent or the Board of Ordained Ministry will recommend such persons. The Response Team may also designate members to continue to be in contact, prayer and support for the respondent and complainant. If possible, the superintendent shares the name of the pastor who will be provided at the expense of the Annual Conference as the interim pastor of the church.
- 12 When the congregation is informed, the superintendent, another cabinet member, response team members and others designated are present. During this meeting the superintendent announces the suspension. After the announcement persons may ask questions, talk one-on-one with Response Team members or others designated, and pray together before leaving.
- 13 The superintendent notifies the other pastors of the conference by mail or phone giving them a brief statement about the suspension.
- 14 The superintendent returns to the church within a few days to meet with persons who want to ask questions, state opinions, think of steps to move forward, and pray.
- 15 The superintendent continues to meet with the Lay Leader and the SPRC chairperson to decide on the next steps.

Preparation for Quality Intervention

1. Recruit and train 10 people to be organized into two Response Teams.
 - ◊ Inclusive membership: clergy/lay, male/female, different cultures, and urban/rural.
 - ◊ These persons should be highly trained in the areas of sexual misconduct, pastoral care, and intervention.
 - ◊ Recruit and train one additional person yearly, so as to keep the teams up to strength.
 - ◊ Have ongoing training with a training event once a year and with the debriefing of each intervention.
2. The Response Team assists the superintendent in the intervention.

3. Intervention should involve care for all affected persons with team members assigned to have a pastoral presence with:
 - ◊ Complainant(s) or the person experiencing the sexual misconduct.
 - ◊ Congregation(s)
 - ◊ Respondent
 - ◊ Family of the Respondent
4. Intervention with awareness of both the short term and long term needs of the congregation (and those within the congregation who may have experienced sexual harassment and/or abuse), the victim(s), the respondent's family, and the respondent, as they go through a complex process that is a grief process and much more.
 - a Short Term Intervention includes:
 - ◊ Short term is up to five meetings, including the meetings with SPRC, Church Leaders and congregational meetings.
 - ◊ Response Team available to the congregation as well as to assignments with specific persons.
 - ◊ If possible professional counselors should also be available.
 - ◊ Have a toll free number for people to call for help.
 - ◊ A seven day devotional developed for the congregation to use in processing.
 - ◊ Any inquiries from the media regarding an incident of sexual misconduct must be directed to the bishop or a designated person. Questions from the media shall not be addressed by any member of the response team.
 - b Long Term Intervention
 - ◊ An interim pastor(s) with special training whenever possible.
 - ◊ The district superintendent (assisted by interim pastor and/or the sexual ethics consultant when needed) strategize with the SPRC and church leaders for the church to move forward.
 - ◊ When possible, professional counseling available for victim(s), the family of the charged cleric or church worker, the charged cleric or church worker.

3. RESTORATION

Process of Healing and Wholeness Leading to Possible Restoration

The Conference believes that there are cases where healing and wholeness for function of ministry can be achieved for persons who are suspended or have previously been suspended and are on leave of absence and who:

- have confessed to a charge of sexual misconduct and shown remorse,
- when appropriate have participated actively in a mutual process of reconciliation.

Where these conditions have been met the person may be restorable to function as an ordained clergy person. The process will involve a close relationship between the bishop and cabinet and the executive committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

When the supervisory response period is over, and the petitioner requests to participate in a process leading to healing and wholeness for the function of ministry, and the bishop believes this is possible, the following process will be set in motion:

1. The Bishop requests that the Executive Committee of BOOM engage in a process possibly leading to restoration for a clergy member of the Conference known hereafter as the Petitioner.
2. The District Superintendent brings the facts of the charges to the Executive Committee of BOOM. The accuser may be invited to share his/her perspective.

3. A meeting is arranged between the Executive Committee of BOOM and the Petitioner and his/her district superintendent. At this meeting, the Petitioner will state his/her case. Applicable documentation and a report from the therapist will be presented, and then there will be a period of questions and answers. The Petitioner may bring a friend or adviser who will not act in the role of a lawyer.
4. After the meeting between the Executive Committee and the Petitioner, there will be a time of prayer and discernment taken by the Executive Committee before a decision is made. When the decision is made, it will be communicated to the appropriate parties.
5. If the Executive Committee of BOOM agrees that restoration is possible, the following steps occur:
 - a. The Executive Committee establishes an accountability group, consisting of five persons, one of which is chosen by the Petitioner (two persons appointed by BOOM, one lay, one clergy; two non-BOOM persons, one lay, one clergy; one person named by the Petitioner). The sexual ethics consultant will be the convener.
 - b. The Accountability Group determines what issues need to be addressed.
 - c. The Group writes a focus/mission statement to the effect that it will continue to work toward the restoration of the Petitioner, and it will include the time parameters for the process.
 - d. Areas for work will be listed by the Group to include:
 - ◊ the call
 - ◊ therapy
 - ◊ journaling
 - ◊ spiritual direction (with mentor/director)
 - ◊ a written covenant between the Petitioner and the Group
 - e. The Group shall monitor the progress of the petitioner and offer evaluation as it relates to the petitioner's progress.
 - f. The Group shall meet regularly with the petitioner for prayer and spiritual discernment, discussion of issues unique to the situation, and shall maintain confidentiality.
 - g. The bishop must approve the plan.
6. When the work is completed, the Accountability Group, with prayer and concern, makes a recommendation to the bishop and the Executive Committee of BOOM.
7. If the Group's recommendation to the Executive Committee is for restoration, and if the Executive Committee agrees, the Executive Committee makes a recommendation to the full BOOM.
8. The full BOOM makes its recommendation to the Executive Session.
9. Along with this process, it is understood that any restoration process must include confession/repentance, therapy, accountability, transformation, spiritual direction and examination.

SUMMARY

Our hope and prayer is that all persons within the Body of Christ will take prevention very seriously. Clergy are at risk as they enter into pastoral relationships with many vulnerable persons and breaking the sacred trust is so devastating. When sexual misconduct or even allegation of such occurs, intervention is essential and is shaped 1) by a concern for all who are affected and 2) by the Discipline of the United Methodist Church. While a person is never severed from the Body of Christ, restoration to pastoral office is only possible through a very thorough healing process.

Appendix I: Disclosure

The appendix on disclosure is superseded by The United Methodist Book of Discipline: 1996: Section XIV. Complaints., paragraph 358. Complaint Procedures.

The intent is to encourage openness, while protecting the rights of all persons, and to support the disciplinary process where appropriate.

DISCLOSURE

Just as God's gift of forgiveness cannot be appropriated without confession and repentance, so the process of healing for individuals, the congregation and the connectional church includes the appropriate disclosure of information. Truth telling has the power to release persons, both perpetrators and those who have experienced sexual misconduct, from the bondage of secrecy, denial and guilt resulting from such an abuse of power. Disclosure needs to be made to those who need to know, including the congregation.

When bringing incidents of sexual misconduct to the attention of the proper authorities, the greatest possible care shall be taken to assure that the least possible additional harm is done to the complainant(s) and/or person(s) experiencing sexual misconduct, the respondent, the family and the congregation(s). Procedures will be followed responsibly to ensure fairness and justice. Disclosure should never involve revealing the identity of the person(s) experiencing sexual misconduct or of facts that would readily identify the person(s) without written permission.

Four important reasons justify appropriate disclosure of the problem of sexual misconduct to a congregation whose church leader has either resigned to avoid disciplinary proceedings or who faces such proceedings:

1. It is easier for a congregation to deal with anything, no matter how unpleasant, if it is confronted openly rather than shrouded in secrecy. The truth is always better than lies or rumors. Allegations of sexual misconduct are particularly susceptible to rumors and distortions that over time could destroy a congregation. Disclosure is the first step in the healing process for the congregation's future health and well being.
2. Disclosure is also necessary for the church to fulfill its mission to reach out to people who need the love, healing and reconciliation that are the heart of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This includes reaching out to persons who have experienced sexual misconduct but have not confronted and dealt with the problem. It also includes reaching out to parishioners whose lives have been disrupted by the sudden and apparently inexplicable disciplining or resignation of their pastor or church leader. It further includes reaching out to the respondent person and person's family. Disclosure also prevents future abuse within the congregation.
3. Church leaders facing accusation and disciplinary proceedings are entitled to due process and cannot serve or prepare an appropriate defense when surrounded by rumors. On the other hand, church leaders who in fact have been involved in sexual misconduct cannot necessarily be relied upon to be truthful in working with the Staff Parish Relations Committee or congregation. Appropriate disclosure is part of the intervention to confront and resolve misconduct so that all parties involved, including the respondent person and person's family, are offered steps toward healing.
4. Disclosure may also be required to help protect the congregation or the Peninsula-Delaware Conference from potential legal liability for the actions of church leaders involved in sexual misconduct. As the problem of sexual misconduct is increasingly recognized and dealt with, there is likely to be increased litigation by those who have experienced it seeking legal redress for the pain and hurt they have suffered. The first step in confronting such problems of potential legal liability is disclosure.

GUIDELINES FOR DISCLOSURE

The Bishop and the District Superintendent will be the disclosing parties. Any church member can and should report any grievance. The pastor is under obligation to report a church worker to the bishop and district superintendent. In the case of a child it also must be reported immediately to Child Protective Services (MD) or Department of Services for Children, Youth and Families (DE).

1. Disclosure should not reveal by name the identity of the complainant or any one experiencing sexual misconduct unless the person has specifically requested identification. Likewise, care should be taken to avoid disclosure of facts likely to reveal the identity of such persons.
2. Disclosure of other information should be accurate and as factual as possible. It shall be sufficiently complete to provide a clear understanding of the charges and to protect others from further misconduct. Disclosure should also make clear the nature of the process, the respondent's right to due process and the presumption of innocence until proven guilty.
3. Information on what, in our church's understanding, constitutes sexual misconduct and how the person's action allegedly violates these expectations of ordained ministers should be provided.
4. Where a clergy person has withdrawn or a lay person resigned without admitting guilt, and before a formal hearing, the disclosure should refer to the allegations of misconduct but should also state that the respondent denied the allegations and withdrew or resigned.
5. It is appropriate to describe to the Staff Parish Relations Committee the conduct of the respondent or that to which he/she has admitted.
6. Initial reporting and disclosure to the congregation should be done in a setting other than the regularly scheduled worship service and will be established in consultation with the Staff Parish Relations Committee and congregational key leaders.
7. The congregation should be informed of steps taken to provide care for the person(s) experiencing sexual misconduct, the person in question and their families.
8. Disclosure will ordinarily not be made to either the secular or church media, but the bishop's office should be prepared to answer media inquires. Any inquires from the media must be directed to the bishop or those designated by the bishop.

PROCEDURES

I. Assumptions

- A. All written and signed allegations of sexual harassment or misconduct will be taken as worthy of investigation.
- B. The respondent is presumed innocent until completion of the process. Thereafter, the reached conclusion will apply.
- C. The rights of all those involved, the complainant and/or the person(s) experiencing sexual misconduct, the respondent, the families of each, the congregation or institution, shall be protected until all the facts have been considered and the appropriate action determined. Special assistance may be needed for those unable to speak for themselves such as children, the mentally challenged and those with Alzheimer's or head injuries.
- D. Reports shall be dealt with as matters of highest confidentiality before and after they have been submitted to the appropriate authorities outlined below.

II. Sexual Harassment

A. IF YOU ARE SEXUALLY HARASSED...

- 1 Inform the harasser firmly and clearly that you do not want the behavior.
- 2 If harassment persists, keep a journal which documents all incidents of sexual harassment, including dates, times, and descriptions of the incidents. Record the names of any witnesses. If you receive any written letters, cards, etc. from the harasser, keep them.

- 3 If harassment persists, seek advice and counsel from an objective person. You may wish to involve this person in subsequent phases of the process.
- 4 Contact the individual in writing: be specific about the act(s) which you consider to be sexual harassment, and state that sexual harassment is a violation of civil rights.
- 5 Contact the district superintendent if the behavior requires further action.

B IF YOU ARE RESPONDANT OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT...

- 1 Get in contact with your district superintendent.

C IF SEXUAL HARASSMENT IS REPORTED TO YOU...

- 1 Listen objectively and take it seriously.
- 2 Help the complainant follow the steps outlined above in Section A.

III. Child Sexual Abuse

- C Child abuse must be reported immediately to Child Protective Services (MD) or Department of Services for Children, Youth and Family (DE).
- D Contact the appropriate district superintendent or supervisor.
- E Do not try to resolve the issue with the alleged abuser.
- F Inform the parents/guardian that you have reported the situation

APPENDIX II: SUSPENSION

The appendix on suspension is based upon and superseded by The United Methodist Book of Discipline: 1996: Section XIV. Complaints., paragraph 358.1c suspension.

The intent is to clarify the disciplinary use of "suspension" as a means of providing support through time and resources for the respondent (and family) and for the congregation(s).

The bishop may suspend, upon approval by the executive committee of Board of Ordained Ministry, the respondent from all clergy responsibilities but not from appointment for a period not to exceed 60 days.

1. During suspension, salary, housing and benefits will continue at a level no less than the date of the suspension. The congregation(s) or institution of employment shall assume all costs.
2. The cost of supply for the pastoral charge during suspension will be borne by the annual conference.
3. The interim pastor shall be informed of the circumstances of the temporary suspension in order to minister effectively with the congregation.
4. If just resolution is achieved at any time during the sixty days, the bishop will take appropriate action, which may include but not be limited to restoration to the ministry, withdrawal from the ministry, leave of absence, etc. If the respondent is required to leave the pastorate, $1,000.00 will be paid by the Annual Conference to defray the moving expenses for the family.

Thomas Donnachie, chair of the Board of Church and Society, withdrew Resolution Z5.

Thomas Donnachie introduced Resolution Z6. He accepted friendly amendments in line 35: delete from "reaffirm" through "and"; and in line 40: "...to the members of the Delaware and Maryland State Assemblies and Governors Thomas Carper and Parris Glendening." Resolution Z6 was passed as amended.

Z 6 RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE ABOLITION OF THE DEATH PENALTY IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE

WHEREAS, in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus repudiates "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth," (Matthew 5:38-39), a concept often used to justify capital punishment;

WHEREAS, when a woman who had committed adultery, a crime for which the death penalty was commonly imposed, was brought before Jesus and he was questioned about the law of Moses in a manner to test him, Jesus replied, "Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her," (John 8:7 NRSV), questioning the moral authority of the would be executioners;

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church state unequivocally, "we oppose capital punishment and urge its elimination from all criminal codes," (Section 68. V. The Political Community, F. Criminal Justice, 1996, p. 30);

WHEREAS, the State of Delaware did not engage in executions from 1947 until March of 1992 when it initiated execution by lethal injection, and subsequently has executed ten people (nine by lethal injection and one by hanging);

WHEREAS, the State of Delaware does not ban the execution of the mentally retarded or the execution of juveniles;

WHEREAS, the State of Delaware has an alternative to capital punishment - life imprisonment without chance of parole - which protects the safety of the public, allows for restitution to the family of the victim, offers the perpetrator time for penitence and transformation, and helps break the cycle of violence in society by ending the state sanctioned taking of life;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference supports the abolition of the death penalty in the State of Delaware;

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that letters stating this position be sent by the Board of Church and Society to the members of the Delaware and Maryland State Assemblies and governors Thomas Carper and Parris Glendening.

William Hemphill, vice chair person of the Conference Board of Global Ministries, introduced Resolution Z 3. It passed

Board of Global Ministries Resolution

Whereas the present structure of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference will end as of June 30 and the new structure begins July 1, 2000, and

Whereas, the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Global Ministries, Inc. which was primarily incorporated to handle legal matters regarding church/congregational development such as mortgages, subordinated loans, etc. will continue to be needed in the future,

Be it hereby resolved that the Board of Global Ministries meeting on May 17, 2000 recommend to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference that the name of the corporation be changed to the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference Congregational Development Corporation as of July 1, 2000.

Ronald Bell, Sr. presented a resolution to place the Bridgetown United Methodist Church on Limited Service. Bishop Weaver asked all those to rise who had a connection with Bridgetown UMC and Ronald Bell, Sr. led the body in a prayer of thanksgiving for the ministry of the church. The resolution passed.

Limited Service Resolution
Peninsula-Delaware Conference
June 8-10, 2000

Bridgetown United Methodist Church
Bridgetown, Maryland

WHEREAS Bridgetown United Methodist Church has seen a decline in membership due to the natural attrition of its members, and

WHEREAS despite many efforts to reverse this trend, the declining membership continues to decline, and;

WHEREAS the Ridgely-Thawley-Bridgetown Charge Conference has requested that the Bridgetown United Methodist Church be placed on Limited Service as defined on page 76 and 77 of the 1999 Peninsula-Delaware Conference Journal:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Bridgetown United Methodist Church be placed on Limited Service in accordance with the Peninsula-Delaware conference Limited Service Church Policy.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Charge Conference to which Bridgetown United Methodist Church reports annually is the Ridgely-Thawley-Bridgetown Charge.

Ronald Bell, Sr.
District Superintendent
Easton District -- Peninsula-Delaware Conference
The United Methodist Church
Easton, Maryland 21601

Bishop Weaver honored Howard Mason's service to the Annual Conference as the Conference Lay Leader and presented him with a personally designed print of John Wesley's Covenant Prayer. The body rose to applaud.

The election of a new Conference Lay Leader was conducted by Donna Raynes, chair of the Nominations Committee for the Conference Board of Laity. The Board of Laity presented the name of Darlene Webster, the current Conference Associate Lay Leader, in nomination; there were no nominations from the floor. Darlene Webster was elected the new Conference Lay Leader. In her acceptance speech, Darlene Webster called for integrity, excellence, and accountability in service.

The vacancy created by Darlene Webster's election required an election of a new Associate Conference Lay Leader. The election of the new Associate Conference Lay Leader was then said to be scheduled for the November 4 2000 Special Session. A request to elect an Associate Lay Leader right at that time at the Annual Conference Session was referred by the Bishop back to the Board of Laity in order to follow the process the Board had established. A request to obtain the Annual Conference's support for a nomination from the Wilmington District was referred by the Bishop back to the Board of Laity in order to follow the process the Board had established.

Gary Atkinson rose to a point of personal privilege. He thanked Ronald Bell, Sr. for his strong leadership in a difficult situation that his charge faced.

Rick Vance asked and the Bishop offered a prayer of thanksgiving for Darlene Webster and the Board of Laity.

Members of the Commission on Archives and History presented the Barratt's Chapel campaign: David Baker, Robert O'Kelly Wallace, Ann Roede, Shirley Still, and Phil Lawton. David Baker recognized Philip Lawton and Jesse Smith who, respectively had recently become chair of the Northeast Jurisdiction (NEJ) Commission on Archives and History and Archives Coordinator for NEJ.

Barratt's Chapel was stated to be the cradle of Methodism. The purpose of the capital campaign was given as the preservation of the rich history of Methodist origins as contained in Barratt's Chapel in Frederica DE. The Commission hoped to address the 2004 General Conference to bring the message of Barratt's Chapel.

Jack Shitama presented the work of Camp Pecometh and Drayton Manor as vital parts of the ministry of the Annual Conference. He stated their mission was to provide an environment which promotes positive life changing experiences.

John Wesley Moore asked for prayer for the Lakota people who were experiencing the unwarranted deaths of their young men. Bishop Weaver asked for these and other concerns to be lifted up from the body and prayed for the concerns expressed.

Cindy Major rose to a point of personal privilege and gave thanks for support of the 1999 Annual Conference in a special offering which enabled her Mission of Peace trip to India last year.

Dale Brown explained the three local mission projects which would be taking place on Saturday, June 10 2000, and said the grace before the evening meal.

Friday Evening June 9 2000

Mary Ellen Williams presented a dramatic interpretation in Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center at 7:00 p.m.

Saturday Morning June 10 2000

Jeremias Rojas led in Gathering Praise. The Missional Appointment Worship Celebration began with the hymn "O How I Love Jesus" with Barbara Hall at the organ. Bishop Peter Weaver called those gathered together to celebrate the covenant and the journey. The Firebrand Liturgical Dancers from Pullett's UMC danced to the song "Order Our Steps". After Lindsay Dodd and Sierra Pratt read the Gospel of St. Mark 16:14-17; 19-20, Bishop Weaver shared his thoughts about celebrating our journey. The District Superintendents came to the podium to announce new appointments for their respective districts. Newly appointed pastors and lay representatives from the respective churches were also greeted on stage by the Bishop and the Lay Leader. The Service ended with a blessing from Bishop Weaver.

The General Board of Global Ministries requested that two pastoral assignments be reported in the minutes of the Annual Conference as follows: Debra Lindsay-Hudgins, assigned to the Alaska Missionary Conference; Douglas Lindsay, assigned to the Alaska Missionary Conference.

Bishop Weaver called the session to order. Cindi Major and Ashley Purnell were seated as lay representatives.

Jonathan Baker presented the Nominations Pool Report to the body he had previously brought Friday morning June 9 2000. Jonathan Baker stated that the Annual Conference would submit forty-five names altogether in the various categories. Nominees in excess of that number or in excess of the limits by category would be submitted as reserve. All nominees would be required to complete a Preference Sheet. Nominations were accepted from the floor: John Moore; Karen Moore; Garry O. Parker; Karen Booth; Bruce Cooke; Lewis Rogers.

James Shaw, Conference Statistician, stated that it had been a pleasure to serve the Annual Conference for the previous eight years. He presented the Statistician's Report. J.T. Seymour thanked James Shaw for his years of service to the Annual Conference. Bishop Weaver emphasized how important it is for all churches to submit their statistics, which not all do currently. The Bishop stated that the representation for the Conference may suffer in the future because of underreporting of church statistics.

Naomi Winchester, chairperson of the Conference Board of Global Ministries, expressed her thanks to God for her personal journey and for those who served on the Board of Global Ministries and resourced the ministry of mission. William Hemphill thanked Naomi Winchester for her service to the Annual Conference. William Hemphill presented Georgina Timberman, representing Newark United Methodist Church, with a Certificate of Appreciation for Refugee Ministries from the United Methodist Committee on Relief. Bob Lucas from Newark United Methodist Church was acknowledged as the Conference Refugee Coordinator. William Hemphill presented a plaque from the Heifer Project International to Bishop Weaver for the Annual Conference's contribution to that project.

Naomi Winchester presented the Crusade scholars to the body: Dianne E. Depree, Anna M. Foster, Kenneth D. Johnson, Rene T. Knight-Pequero, and Helen B. Lockwood. Bishop Weaver prayed for the scholars.

Joe Henry rose to a point of personal privilege. He expressed the hope of revitalizing the Vaughn Johnson scholarship.

Laurence Stookey, chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, introduced the Black College Fund Ambassador scholar, Kenneth Neet. Kenneth Neet thanked the Annual Conference for its consistent support of the Black College Fund. He spoke about overcoming the cerebral palsy which marked his childhood to achieve a successful young manhood. He was warmly applauded.

Laurence Stookey announced the award of the Conference Student Day Scholarship and the Conference nomination for the National Scholarship. The Vaughn Johnson Scholarship was awarded to Kenneth Johnson.

Laurence Stookey asked Bishop Weaver to present the Francis Asbury Award. The Bishop presented the scholarship award to Dr. Richard Hicks.

The Wesley College Corporate Session with Charles Dashiell, Jr., chairman of the Board of Trustees, stating that the state of Wesley College was strong with strong leadership. President of Wesley College, Scott Miller, introduced the persons seated on the stage.

Charles Dashiell presented the slate of candidates for the Wesley College Board of Trustees (term ending 2004) to the body: Clergy members the Reverend Ronald Bell, Sr and the Reverend Dr. Robert Price; Lay members Mrs. Ann Burton; Mr. Charles Dashiell, Jr.; Mr. Donald Schwamb; Dr. Bruce Wright; Mr. John T. Beiser. They were elected. Mr. Dashiell nominated the Reverend W. Leroy Jones to fill a clergy vacancy on the Board (term ending 2002). He was elected.

Scott Miller spoke to the remarkable growth of the college—its funding, its programs, its academic successes, its growing student population. He responded affirmatively to questions from the floor concerning the continuation of increased enrollment. Susan Olson, chaplain of Wesley College, stated that the chaplaincy is only part of the Christian example evidenced at Wesley College. She said that the faculty members are an example of Christian living, faith, courage and conviction. The students encourage one another.

Bishop Weaver congratulated Wesley College on its success and for its example of open mind and open spirit in the United Methodist tradition.

William Wallace, chair of the Commission on Religion and Race, presented Resolution Z7. A motion to refer the resolution to the Advocacy Resource Team was made and withdrawn. The following amendments were accepted by William Wallace as "friendly" amendments: line 62 remove "Establishing an"; line 37 add "anti-Semitism"; line 37 add hate crimes "of any kind". Patricia Bryant Harris rose to offer information about the African American Summit. She stated that it was sponsored by the Black Caucus; it was inclusive of the entire Annual Conference; everyone was encouraged to attend. James Hawkins added that it offers helpful and constructive workshops. The amended resolution passed.

Z 7 Resolution for a Response Team to Racism and a Worship of Repentance and Reconciliation presented by Commission on Religion and Race

Whereas, racism denies the creative genius of God and encourages ideologies, behaviors and hate crimes which are disruptive and contradictory to the natural order of the spirit of both faith and social communities and

Whereas, racism and hate crimes are inconsistent with our theological understandings, our biblical declarations and teachings of The United Methodist Church and

Whereas, racism is a breach of The Social Community Policy (The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church) as written in subsection A of par. 66 of our Social Principles which confirms our belief in the destructive nature of bigotry and racism by declaring ". . . racism plagues and cripples our growth in Christ inasmuch as it is antithetical to the gospel itself . . . we recognize racism as sin and affirm the ultimate and temporal worth of all persons" and

Whereas, our conference is unique in that there are at least twelve ethnic groups who call themselves United Methodist within the boundaries of the Peninsula Delaware Conference and

Whereas, subsection B of par. 66 addresses the issue concerning Rights of Religious Minorities; it is incumbent upon the faith community of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to insure that each group is free to define, pursue and practice their ethnicity without the threat of being ostracized or terrorized by another group nor denied either authority and power unique to their position or denied full acceptance in the life of the church because of the color of their skin or their cultural background and

Whereas, racism still remains one of the church's neglected agendas in that procedures for preparing churches for total cultural and ethnic inclusion in congregational life and other leadership positions are inconsistent and incomplete and

Whereas, General Conference devoted significant time for worship and a service of Repentance and Reconciliation and recommended that every annual conference do similarly by year 2001

Be it resolved, that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference seek to diminish and move toward the elimination of racism by denouncing racist ideologies, anti-Semitism, hate crimes of any kind; and seek forgiveness for the atrocities of slavery and oppression of Native Americans; and comply with subsection A of paragraph 66 of our Social Community Policy by preparing a worship and service of Repentance and Reconciliation to be included in year 2001's annual conference session;

Be it resolved, that the language be specific of the sins of racism, slavery and oppression as inflicted upon African peoples and Native Americans; and

Be it resolved, that this worship and service of Repentance and Reconciliation be inclusive of all ethnic groups in the Peninsula Delaware Conference; and

Be it resolved, that a copy of this resolution as well as a copy of the worship and service of Repentance and Reconciliation be included in Archives and History and be prominently placed at Barratt's Chapel; and

Be it resolved, that equally specific language of forgiveness and meaningful acts of reconciliation be encouraged to effectuate healing; and

Be it further resolved, that the Peninsula Delaware Conference be proactive against the sins of racism, bigotry and humanity's crime against humanity by:

1. Creating a Worship of Repentance and Reconciliation
 - a. Should acknowledge the sin of racism, seek repentance for the atrocities of racism and ideologies which generate malicious acts of hate crimes;
 - b. Should embrace forgiveness by those marginalized by racism culminating in a service of healing
2. Advocacy Resource Team or designated task force shall be responsible for the creation of said Worship
 - a. Membership shall include Conference Vision Team chairperson(s), Resource Director and representative(s) from Advocacy Resource, Leadership, Enabling Ministry, Resource Development and Management Teams
3. Including material in a worship setting for year 2001's annual conference
 - a. Encourage document to be used by local congregations through the mechanisms of Mission Area Ministry dialogue sessions. The district Response Teams can assist in this process
 - b. Included a copy of worship and service in Archives and History and prominently displayed in Barratt's Chapel
4. Establishing District Response Teams
 - a. 7 persons [two lay persons--one female, one male; two clergy-one female, one male; district superintendent, youth representative; representative from Advocacy Resource Team]
 - b. Responsibilities shall include but not limited to:
 1. Proactive posture to include a mission statement and covenant to:
 - a. Conduct workshops dealing with issues of racism
 - b. Function as a healing and support group: during and after an incident of racist activity
 - c. Dialogue with and sensitize local congregations, church and conference leaders, cabinet and bishop to the unique dynamics of cultural diversity as God's gift to humanity
 - d. Monitor activity and progress of procedures
 - e. Evaluate effectiveness of procedures and make suggestions for improvement
 - f. Dialogue with district superintendents-- results to be included in superintendent's report during annual conference
 2. Dismantling of Racism:
 - a. Solicit the services of other agencies in this endeavor
 - b. Support group(s) for those in cross-racial appointments
 1. Transitioning into a different community
 2. Family support in adjusting to community facilities, i.e. entertainment, sports, fraternal, sororities and civil organizations

3. Inclusion in the life of the local church activities (unfeigned acceptance)

- c. Conference agencies, boards, and commissions
- d. Inclusion in local church, conference and district activities including decision making
- e. Significant roles of leadership, power and authority
- f. Congregational racism inventory results shall be included in Charge Conference discussion
- g. Sensitivity to the hospitality of language including "harmless jokes" and playful gestures.

Jim Walker and Jeff Eddings, from Crosslight Productions, led the annual conference in the closing morning worship. They enacted a dramatic story of mission and social justice in contemporary Africa.

The morning session closed with a blessing and sending forth by Bishop Weaver. The Annual Conference adjourned following the Ordination Service to reconvene in an adjourned session on Saturday, November 4 2000 at the Talbot County Auditorium in Easton MD.

Saturday Afternoon June 10, 2000

Ordination

Ordination took place at 3:00 p.m. in the Ella Fitzgerald Center for the Performing Arts. Music was provided by Taylor Harvey at the organ, Children's Mass Choir directed by Terry Holden, Minquadale United Methodist Church, Andrew Mission Area Ministry Choir directed by Larry Haniffee, Jill Stanford-Jicha, Dana Davis, Tara Holloway, Rita Campbell, Rachel Koo, Calvary United Methodist Church Handbell Choir, Signs of Heaven: Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children's Outreach Ministry, and Dale Brown.

Karen Bunnell greeted the body. Grant Johnson, vice chair of BOOM, recognized the common ministry of the people of God based on the sacrament of Baptism.

Francis Gray, lay member of BOOM, and Karen Bunnell presented the following for commissioning and ordination:

Others may want to take this route and we outline here the steps involved in case you may not be aware of the procedure.

- (1) All salary and conference apportionments are removed.
- (2) The church drops out of the listing of churches to which pastors are assigned.
(We urge the conference to begin a listing of such churches in the journal with the charge conference where they are to report each year. This will allow for proper records and constitutes the historic continuity of these churches.)

- (3) The only services to be held are weddings, funerals, or special occasions.
- (4) One or more special services a year may be held with the offering received to be used for the upkeep of the building.
- (5) The remaining members are transferred to a nearby United Methodist Church for regular worship and church involvement.
- (6) The remaining members become a special committee under the charge conference to plan with the pastor for weddings, funerals, and special days. They also present a written report each year as to services held, money received and how expended, etc.
- (7) This allows the possibility that should population shifts bring people into the area we would simply resume regular services.

(Original motion can be found in the 1973 Journal of the Peninsula Conference on pages 152-153.)

- (8) Beginning with the 1994 Annual Conference, churches seeking Limited Service status will submit the following to the Conference Business Office:
 - 1) a copy of the deed for the property;
 - 2) specific directions for locating the property from a major highway;
 - 3) an 8" x 10" photograph of the church building.
- (9) The Charge Conference to which the Limited Service Church is assigned will furnish the District Superintendent with the names of persons assigned by the Charge Conference to oversee the maintenance of buildings and grounds during the Conference year. When there no longer are persons to be found for this, the Charge Conference may recommend to the District Superintendent that the property be declared Abandoned.
- (10) Where conditions exist that indicate the buildings are no longer properly maintained, and where no report to the Charge Conference is made giving valid reasons for the continuation of Limited Service status, the District Superintendent may bring the property before the Annual Conference to declare it Abandoned without further consultation.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT REPORTS

Dover District

"So if you're serious about this new resurrection life with Christ, act like it.

Pursue the things over which Christ presides.

Don't shuffle along, eyes to the ground absorbed with the things right in front of you.

Look up, and be alert to what is going on around Christ - that's where the action is.

Col. 3: 1-3 (from the Message)

Overview - This has been a year of growth and commitment in the Dover District. We have established a new church, the first one in 20 years, and have experienced an increase of 238 members and an increase in worship attendance. Fifteen Mission Areas have been formed throughout the district. The churches within these mission areas have begun to make covenant commitments giving shape to their ministry together. Growth and commitment also describes our lay leadership with the establishment of a newly revitalized Board of Laity committed to undergirding MAM (Mission Area Ministry) and serving the clergy and laity of the district. It has been an exciting year!

New Church - The First Evangelical Haitian United Methodist Church was established on February 13, 2000 with a service of celebration at Wesley Chapel UMC in Slaughter Neck. Under the deeply spiritual leadership of the Rev. Lionel Sainsume, this congregation has grown to over fifty members and ministers not only to the Haitian population of Milford, where it is located, but to Haitians throughout the entire region. This new church has been nurtured by the Milford Mission Area Ministry and is looking forward to finding a more suitable church home in the near future. So, "Bienvenue" to this dynamic new congregation.

Laity - Speaking of dynamic, check out the new lay leader of the Dover District, Chuck Smith (a.k.a. John Wesley). Chuck, from Bethel UMC in Lewes, brings many gifts to this position both spiritual and administrative. He has hit the ground running and has already recruited and trained a new Board of Lay Ministries including Elijah Bailey, Marilyn Cleeton, Ralph Graves, Steve Haney, Bill Hill, Jonathan Kellum, Karen Knight, Rick Kreiser, Luray McClung, Etta Mills, Debbie O'Neal, John Schutt, Joyce Webber, Guy Winebrenner and clergy: Bob Rowe and Ann Wilson. At a two day retreat facilitated by Robert L. Rowe, they formulated a mission statement: "God has called the Dover District Board of Laity in servant leadership to encourage, develop, empower and utilize the God given gifts, abilities and talents of lay persons of all ages by (a) aiding the district council to provide opportunities in mission areas, (b) fostering Holy Conferencing and building relationships, (c) having opportunities to develop lay speakers and to have other training, (d) developing and utilizing our United Methodist roots and appreciation of the United Methodist Church heritage". Presently they are being deployed in service of MAM development. A vital component of the Board of Laity is the Lay Speaking Program, which continues to grow and expand in its offerings both in the spring and in the fall. Many thanks to Etta Mills and John Bartsch for their co-leadership. This year, over two hundred people attended the Lay Academy held in the spring and many more participated in offerings last fall which included a "Teaching Day" with the bishop who met with both adults and youth. In addition, the Board gave leadership to three Holy Conferencing opportunities in the district called "Christians in Conversation". In the fall of 1999, a Laity-Clergy Banquet was held honoring Pat Dorey for her four years of service as District Lay Leader. It was a fitting tribute to Pat's faithfulness and creativity. I am and always will be deeply indebted to Pat for her leadership and support.

Other lay organizations include:

1. The United Methodist Women is also under the new leadership of Debbie O'Neal of Carey's UMC. During the past year, the UMW had a fall event at Prospect UMC in West Harrington titled "Restructuring Our Family Using God's Plan" and a spring event at Goshen UMC in Milton with David Bennett, Conference Director of Young People's Ministry as guest speaker. "Living Out Loud for Jesus" was the topic with the offering being given to the Charles Barton Youth Ministries Fund. Members also attended the North East Jurisdictional Quadrennial Meeting in Rochester New York. The new executive committee is off and running for a great new year. Thank you to all of you.
2. The United Methodist Men under the leadership of Guy Winebrenner has participated in events at Camp Pecometh and conference United Methodist Men events. I thank Guy for his active leadership of the men of our district.
3. The Dover District Youth have a new coordinator in Karen Knight, youth pastor at Asbury UMC in Smyrna. Our youth had the largest participation of all the districts at the Conference Youth Rally in January (over 500) and plans to follow up with a number of district youth events such as Christian Conversations with the youth trying to see how they can be used throughout the district on boards, commissions and in the local church. Thank you to Karen and her "kids".

Mission Area Ministry – Under the competent guidance of Ann Wilson, our Dover District MAM facilitator, fifteen Mission Areas have been formed and are exploring ways of being in transforming ministry together. These areas include Bridgeville Cluster, Greater Dover Cluster, Felton-Frederica Cluster, Georgetown Cluster, Harrington Cluster, Laurel Cluster, Lewes-Rehoboth Cluster (Cape of Hope), Milford Cluster, Millsboro #1 Cluster, Millsboro #2 Cluster, Milton Cluster, Seaford Cluster, Shared Vision Cluster, South Sussex Cluster and Northern Kent Cluster. Long Neck and Conley's UMC's while not officially being a part of a MAM have agreed to share their gifts in training and empowering laity in MAM's as requested. A District Council was formed to oversee the clusters. It includes the following laity: Sandy Bartsch, Dick Rosengren, Betty Gannon, Elliot Workman, Charles Taylor, Patsy Hastings, Lillian Tunnell, Phyllis Mitchell, Beverly Mitchell, Becky Breasure, Richard Johnson, Pat Dorey, Janet English, Mickie Christfield, Cheryl Pepper, Edie Knotts and clergy: Gary Tulak, Jay Hurley, Phillip Lawton, Rick Vance, Accola Horsey, Bill Johnson, David Palmer, Bob Rowe, Steve Wallace, Bruce Cooke, Claudia Waters, Bonnie Shively and Anthony Brown. Many thanks to Ann Wilson for her committed leadership in helping shape these mission areas.

Clergy – The clergy of the district have played a vital role in partnering with the laity to bring the new mission areas into being. My thanks to all of them. This year we had our fourth annual training for Clergy Mentors and Mentees. Held at the Shawnee Inn near Greenwood, the theme this year was What is God Calling Me To Do and was attended by over 30 clergy. The Dover District Sojourners (formerly Ministers and Mates) was active in their support of clergy and families by a) sponsoring a well attended dinner cruise on the Choptank River, b) holding a Lenten Retreat, and c) sponsoring a "Celebrating our Ministry" dinner for retirees in June. Under the leadership of Rick Vance, president, Bill Johnson, vice-president, Bonnie Shively, secretary and Joe Burris, treasurer with Ruth Tull as emeritus, a new identity and purpose have been forged. Cilla Maxham, a new pastor in our district, has given leadership to a clergywoman support group that has grown during the past year to include upwards of twenty.

Clergy transitions this year on the district include: a) those leaving the district: Jay Hurley, Martha Callaway, Jerry Knotts, Joshua Lebelo (returning home to South Africa), Dolores Wilks, Ruth Tull, and Marie Freeman, b) those retiring include: Tom Carter and Harvey Sturgis; c) those retiring a second time include: Joe Dulany and Dale Wilson. On behalf of myself, the district and the churches they served I express my deep appreciation for their service. Those coming to the district this year include: Jim Walz, Stephen Hall, Peggy Briggs, Dale Pruett, George Fisher, Cynthia Quillen, Ed Wilkins, Doug Gatton, and Gayle Conrow. In addition, Alice Ervin, Mike Hurley and Claudia Waters moved to new churches within the district and Danese Collins, Kevin Gillespie, and Everett (Bunky) LeCates are coming from candidacy. We welcome them all and pray God's blessing upon them as they pastor among us. Congratulations to Karen Jones and Bonnie Shively on their ordination as elders in the United Methodist Church and to Gayle Conrow on her commissioning as a probationary member. Congratulations as well to Alan Jones on his graduation from Wesley Seminary and Rich Walton from Wesley College. Finally, let us give thanks to God for the lives of John Tripple, John A. Massimilla and Frank Baynard, clergy and for Lois Evans, Rebecca Steen and Gloria Reed, spouses who entered the church triumphant this year. All of these persons have served our district and God's church well.

District Committees have been busy this year. These include: The District Committee on Ministry- Jim Van Der Wall, chair, Earle Baker, Charles Covington, Alice Ervin, Joseph Faulkner, Bill Johnson, Jean Norwood, David Palmer, Ann Wilson, and Harriet Windsor.

The District Board of Church Building and Location chaired by Joe Burris includes Charles Carter, Ernest Dorman, Joseph Dulany, Elzey Jones, David Paul, Don Ward and Dale Wilson. This committee has worked with the following churches: Frederica: Saxton's, Betel Fellowship, Laurel: Trinity, Laurel: St. Paul's, Milford: St. Paul, Milford: Carey's, Lincoln: Slaughter Neck, Seaford-Reliance: Gethsemane, Smyrna: Centennial. New construction has occurred this year at Laurel: Trinity (new multi-purpose building), Milford: Carey's (new tabernacle for camp meetings), Seaford-Reliance (new sanctuary), Centennial (new church building). My thanks to the members of the board for a job well done.

The District Committee on Superintendency including Pat Dorey, chair, Ralph Allen, Jamie Bethard, Susie Bond, Fred Duncan, Alice Ervin, John Gaines, Karen Handy, Edie Knotts, Pat Moore, Chuck Smith, Tina Whaley and Odette Wright has met to give guidance and evaluation to the superintendent and has consulted with the bishop about the superintendency on the district. I feel very blessed to have such support.

The Task Force on Combating Racism under the leadership of Jim Hawkins and including Elaine Ayres, Earle Baker, Martha Callaway, Timothy Duffield, David Humphrey, Bill Johnson, Joshua Lebelo, Bruce Miller, Gary Tulak, Ruth Tull, Stephen Wallace, Tina Whaley, Dale Wilson and Ann Wilson continues to offer opportunity for district clergy to become aware of the presence of this evil in our midst. This year a well-attended workshop was held at Barratt's Chapel under the leadership of Buck Buchanan.

Volunteer In Mission (VIM) continues to be a priority for the Dover District. For the third year in a row a VIM team traveled to the Four Corners Area of Arizona to work on a Navajo Reservation. Rick Vance spearheaded the effort and was joined by the following team members: July Vacation Bible School team members: Marsha Carpenter, Pat Dorey, Tom VanDrunen, Jen Willey, Jason Rothhaupt, Jennifer Dotson, Lora Chapman, Christian Orendorf, Alex Ratledge, Nancy Lehman, Marie Nordberg and Whitney Loftus. The April Work Trip to Four Corners included Jean Norwood, Tom McDougall, Peter Jones, Ginny Succarotte, Ernie Elsasser, Raggatha Calentine, Louis Ramos, Jeff & Boe Harris, Patsy Hastings, Ed Mitchell, Bill Hughes and Rick Vance.

As mentioned earlier under the dynamic leadership of clergy and laity working in partnership, our district grew this year by 238 members. Those churches leading the way with an increase in membership of 10 or more include:

- ✧ Angola: Conley's (15)
- ✧ Bridgeville: Union (14)
- ✧ Camden: Whatcoat (17)
- ✧ Clarksville: Union Wesley (12)
- ✧ Clayton: Ewell's St. Paul (12)
- ✧ Dover: Wesley (30)
- ✧ Felton (12)
- ✧ Fenwick Island: St. Matthews (13)
- ✧ Georgetown: Grace (29)
- ✧ Georgetown: Wesley (15)
- ✧ Hickory Hill (10)
- ✧ Laurel: Christ (18)
- ✧ Milford: St. Paul (10)
- ✧ Milford: Avenue (17)
- ✧ Millsboro: Friendship (22)
- ✧ Millsboro: Grace (15)
- ✧ Millsboro: Indian Mission (12)
- ✧ Ocean View: Mariner's Bethel (26)
- ✧ Rehoboth: Epworth (10)
- ✧ Roxana: Sound (18)
- ✧ Roxana: Zion (11)
- ✧ Seaford: Mt. Olivet (13)
- ✧ Seaford: St. John's (38)
- ✧ Smyrna: Asbury (18)
- ✧ Wyoming (35)

In closing let me again give thanks to my valuable administrative assistant in the district office, Marilyn Cleeton. God richly blessed us on the district when he sent her to us. Each year she finds ways to more effectively communicate with clergy and laity in the district as well as finding ways to make my job easier. In addition, she gives support to the work of the cabinet and the conference resource center. What can I say but "Thanks be to God!"

Speaking of thanking God let me include all of you in the list of those for whom I am grateful. Although I expected that this would be my last district report, it seems that that is not to be. I was honored when Bishop Weaver asked me to extend my term as superintendent for at least one more year. So I look forward to serving as your superintendent for this next year and pray that God will continue to bless us in our work together.

H. Sterling Green

Easton District

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience... Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Colossians 3:12,14

This is the word of God for the people called by God. God's word reminds us that we are chosen and beloved of God. We are also reminded in God's word that as a Church, a District, as individuals we should be spiritually dressed in a certain way. We are to be dressed with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. But the most important piece of our spiritual wardrobe is LOVE. It is with love for God and for one another that the laity and clergy of the Easton District offer the following report of our life together this past year.

Rev. Alice Hutchins, Mission Area Ministry Facilitator, reports that the excitement of servant pastors helping to cultivate missional congregations has been phenomenal. An invitation was extended to pastors of the Easton District to become a praying congregation for the creation of mission areas. The servant pastors accepted the invitation and met in July and August. They met with the laity and other pastors in their areas to share their ideas for the theme of the Laity/Clergy Banquet. A name was given to each Mission Area. The clergy on the district invited the laity from the local congregations to dialogue and draft a covenant document that would allow them to live out the ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ in their communities. Out of this rewarding experience, covenants for Mission Areas emerged. Ten Mission Areas have been developed on the Easton District. Each area voted for a lay and clergy representative to serve on the District Mission Area Council. The Mission Area covenants were ratified at Charge Conferences. On November 11, during the Great Laity-Clergy Banquet at St. Mark's UMC - Easton, Bishop Weaver confirmed the covenant relationships. We are very proud of the covenants and commitments of the Mission Areas. Copies of the covenants were sent to the district office.

Each Mission Area continues to work at their own pace. I am grateful to all of the Mission Areas for their accountability to the district and the conference.

District Youth Council - The year 1999 was a great success for our district youth. Local youth groups have grown in numbers and several churches have recently begun youth group programs in their area.

Mark Farnell, District Youth Coordinator, prays that the district will continue to have the sense of the Holy Spirit to minister to a generation that is starving for God. Teenagers all across the district are working together for the good of the kingdom under the Mission Area Ministry. For example, area churches were involved with car washes, habitat projects, relay for life, and local fundraising dinners, just to mention a few. We are truly blessed on this district to have such support for our teenagers in our local churches.

As we were counting down to the new millennium the Easton District held their annual youth rally at St. Mark's UMC in Easton, MD. The theme for this year's rally was love and marriage. Reverend Anna Foster came and helped us as we performed a mock marriage and reception. Our guest speaker and an altar call concluded the evening. The spirit was strong that night because 19 teenagers surrendered their lives to the Lord. That brings the total to 63 teenagers who have made life-long decisions to follow Jesus during this past year!

The District Council of Youth is made up of five teenagers from Talbot and Dorchester Counties. Also, we are blessed and our prayers have been answered because Reverend Darlene Dixon has agreed to be the Co-Easton District Youth Coordinator. She pastors the Cambridge-Vienna charge and will be working closely with the district and conference in youth matters. Our district youth were busy during the district's laity banquet. They collected tickets, served beverages, and bused tables. Our council believes living out the scriptures as Christ said, "He came to serve not to be served."

The Easton District United Methodist Women continue to move forward in fulfilling their purpose. Led by President, Barbara Ennells Lake, approximately seventy units and more than one thousand one hundred fifty one women, including the members of the Mission Team have been involved in: attending District and Conference Spring Events and Retreats; attending the United Methodist Women Northern Jurisdiction Quadrennial Meeting; being spiritually motivated through worship at United Methodist Women activities and events, and through Bible study; conducting seven Team Visitations; embracing the "Become a Mission ToDay Unit" effort; improving attendance at the School of Christian Mission; offering support by being in continual prayer; participating in Officers' Training Workshop; promoting biracial leadership and participation at the District level; providing Undesignated Giving through seventeen units; revising the District's Standing Rules; revisiting the Charter for Racial Justice Policies; and serving as hostesses and registrars for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

Charles Brummell, Jr., President, would like to see the United Methodist Men increase their membership by recruiting new members; increasing the status of charter church on the district; influencing men to be more visible and active in mission ministry; employing the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program for Troubled Children; to interfacing with Habitat for Humanity into a ministry for local church of Methodist Men in the district with a local chapter on Maryland's eastern shore; and to training leaders to train others to be mentors through workshops. With the help of all the men on the Easton District he believes we can influence United Methodist Men everywhere.

In September the Annual United Methodist Men's Retreat will be held at Camp Pecometh in Centreville, MD. Young men and boys of all ages are invited.

The Easton District Building and Location Committee, chaired by Rev. Robert L. Thomas, has taken great pride in sharing in the life of our District churches. The churches are healthy and the spirit of the Lord is strong.

Much of the activity this year has been the continual work of several churches that are remodeling. Waugh Church, Cambridge, is in the process of renovation. Work is coming along. As of this conference year Lynch United Methodist Church on the Still Pond Kennedyville Charge is discontinued as a United Methodist Church and removed from Limited Service status. The Still Pond Kennedyville Charge trustees will sell the property. Reid's Grove UMC is building a new educational wing. Work is scheduled to be completed by September 2000. Metropolitan UMC, Denton, MD is in the process of trying to relocate. The present site is not large enough to accommodate the church's ministry. They are presently meeting in the armory at Denton.

The committee has been very active this year. The members are: Rev. Robert Thomas chairperson, Rev. Harvey Chase, vice-chairperson, Mr. Francis Gray, secretary, Rev. William Wallace, conference board member, Mr. Charles Blizzard and Ms. Delores Bowers, members at large.

Larry Hanifee, Board of Laity Chairperson, reports that the Board has been busy this year with Lay Academy, Mission Area Ministry, and the Laity Clergy Banquet.

Lay Academy began on February 21, 2000 and concluded with a Celebration Service on March 27, 2000. Special thanks to Evelyn Taylor who is the Director of the Easton District Lay Academy and Mr. Tom Dean, associate District Lay Leader for organizing and planning the 2000 Easton District Lay Academy. Two schools were held; one in Centreville on Mondays and the other in Cambridge on Wednesdays. The celebration service was held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton with District Lay Leader, Larry Hanifee, bringing the message to the laity and clergy in attendance. This year's enrollment was 240. The number of new students was 39. New courses offered this year were Teaching for Faith, Lay Speakers are Servants, and A Brief Introduction to the United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Mission Area Ministry - our district was divided into 10 geographical Mission Areas, each with the name of an important biblical character. These mission areas met on a frequent basis to determine how they could step out in faith to others in the Christian and secular community. Many ideas have been proposed such as after school latch key centers for school age children, musical programs, joint seasonal services, teen bible studies, and many others. Each mission area has at least one member of the Easton District Board of Laity as an integral part.

Laity Clergy Banquet - our district hosted its annual banquet on Nov. 11, 1999 in the fellowship hall of St. Marks UM Church with 264 clergy and laity in attendance. Our guest of honor for the evening was Bishop Peter Weaver. Our theme was honoring mission area ministry. Each of our mission areas was presented with a gift certificate from Cokesbury as seed money for resource materials. Each attendee was presented with a bookmark to commemorate the evening. The bookmark listed the 10 mission areas across the district. Thanks to Verna Asplen and her committee for this commemorative idea. The Board of Laity also presented Metropolitan UM Church with a check for $1,000 towards the construction of a new sanctuary. We also awarded a camping scholarship in memory of George Cooper, a long and faithful member of our district family and board of laity, to Camp Pecometh.

Rev. Stan Leonard, President, of the Easton District Ministers and Mates Association, reports that the District Ministers and Mates Association continues to provide fellowship and inspiration to all Pastors and their spouses on the district. They have been intentional about seeking to include all active and retired clergy (full time, part time, and student Pastors) and widowed spouses living and working on the Easton District.

The two-cluster concept, which originated over three years ago, continues to be supported by dividing the district into the Northern and Southern Clusters. These clusters provide added opportunities for members to get together, formally and informally, in support of the ministry of the Ministers & Mates. The Clusters are encouraged to provide their own leadership and set their own agenda above and beyond the district-wide events scheduled by the District Executive Committee.

Three district-wide events have been held this year. The first, our annual Christmas dinner and fellowship, was attended by more than 50 ministers, mates and guests. This event provided an uplifting Advent experience for all who attended via a program provided by our hosts Rev. Wayne and Sally Getchell and the UMW of St. Paul's UMC in Greensboro, MD. Our second event, "A Lenten Day of Reflection," was held at the Peninsula United Methodist Home at Heron Point in Chestertown, MD. Again, this event was very well attended with over 30 people sharing and reflecting on their spiritual walk with the Lord in this most spiritual time in the Christian Year. Many thanks to Rev. Ronald Bell, Sr. for leading the reflection and to the staff of Heron Point for their superb support. Our final event was an evening cruise on the Choptank River aboard the Dorothy Megan, a stern-wheel driven paddle-wheeler. Thirty-nine folks from our district set sail for a three hour cruise (Do I hear the song from "Gilligan's Island" in the background?) which included a fine dinner featuring crab cakes and chicken, as well as, some breathtaking scenery and spiritual fellowship. The purpose of this cruise was to honor those on the Easton District who would be transferring off of the district this July. All those who attended indicated that they had a wonderful time and thoroughly enjoyed their "seafaring" experience. By the way, the Dorothy Megan returned to her berth at Suicide Bridge in Secretary, MD on-time with all aboard being returned safe and sound - no SS Minnow experience here.

This year's Executive Committee has also planned a fourth district-wide event that will take place after Annual Conference, a "Welcome Aboard Picnic" to be held from noon to 6 PM on Thursday, August 24, 2000 at Camp Pecometh. As the name implies, we will take time during this picnic to honor those who are moving onto the Easton District this year.

It should also be noted that our Mates, under the outstanding leadership of their president, Ms. Diane Bolyard, have been working diligently for months to provide an uplifting experience for Mates throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference at the annual Mates' Luncheon to be held on Saturday, June 10, 2000 at the firehouse in Princess Anne, MD.

As host district of the first Annual Conference in the new Millennium it is in the spirit of love along with a sense of thanksgiving that the Easton District offer this report to the 216th Session of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.

To God Be The Glory,
Ronald Bell, Sr.

Salisbury District

"O give thanks to the Lord, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples. Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wonderful works."

Psalm 105:1-2

What a blessed year we have had on the Salisbury District! God has been present in our living through ministry and mission and we stand in awe at the great things He has done.

We started the year and my first year of superintendency with a District Day of Prayer in September, which was held in the Salisbury City Park. For an entire Saturday morning we, the clergy and laity, gathered, prayed, sang songs of Zion, and witnessed so that as persons visited the park, they experienced the love of Jesus. Our Ministers and Mates Co-Chair couples, David and Alma Hackett and Richard and Theresa Parrott, planned the event. Theresa, in the midst of illness, was determined to support the event with her clown ministry. Dressed as a clown, Theresa painted 326 children's faces and, as the parents waited, they were blessed with the gospel through prayer, song, or witness. At the end of the morning, a festive covered dish picnic meal was shared by the participants. This prayer time embraced the work of the District throughout the year, bringing forth fruits of the Holy Spirit from Ocean City to the West Side and from Delmar to Pocomoke.

In October, the Salisbury District spent the Day with the Bishop. Bishop Weaver met with the clergy, community leaders, youth, and laity throughout the district. The visit by our Bishop was well received and the day was filled with worship, sharing, and a time of dialogue. This was the first Community Leaders

Luncheon to be sponsored by the United Methodist Church and it was attended and well received by the community participants.

The District Board of Laity was very active throughout the year. The Laity Banquet held in October at the Delmarva Convention Center focused on recognizing the unsung heroes/heroines of our local churches. Churches had the opportunity to recognize individuals who have served faithfully out of their commitment to God and their church. Persons who never thought anyone noticed their efforts were individually uplifted, encouraged, praised and thanked for their untiring labors of love. The Lay Academy, under the direction of the new director, Major Bailey, was held in February and March with the largest enrollment to date of 229 persons. The Academy was so large this year, two classes were held at Christ UMC while the majority of classes were held in Salisbury at Asbury UMC. A grand Lay Academy Graduation Banquet was held where over 515 persons attended. This was a momentous occasion and one that will be remembered by many as each Lay Speaker received, personally, a certificate that evening marking the accomplishment in spiritual growth that had taken place by attending the laity classes, many of which were taught by laity. Making their debut at the graduation banquet was the 45 voice Salisbury District Lay Academy Choir under the direction of Ms. Diane West of Wesley Temple. The choir also participated in Annual Conference this year.

This year was also the year of change for many of our district team leaders. We thank the following persons for their faithfulness in servanthood as they ended their terms of office this year: Lois Rogers, District Lay Leader; Arelela Cray, District President, United Methodist Women; and Sherwood McGrath, District President, United Methodist Men. The Salisbury District has been blessed by their leadership in these aspects of ministry and shall be the richer for all they have done.

We welcomed with excitement and anticipation our new leaders in lay ministry: Anthony DeAngelo, District Lay Leader; Kathy Moore, District President, United Methodist Women; and Karl Allen, District President, United Methodist Men. Additionally, it is with thanksgiving that the Salisbury District sends forth these laity to lead within the Conference: Darlene Webster, Lay Leader; Gene Cray, Associate Lay Leader; Sherwood McGrath, President, United Methodist Men; and Arelela Cray, President, United Methodist Women. May God guide each of these new leaders in wisdom and discernment of His holy will.

The Salisbury Urban Ministries continues to serve in ministries that help meet the needs of the poor such as God's Kitchen and the Lazarus Fund. This year a new ministry was added with a focus on youth and Drew Christian became part-time Pastor and part-time Youth Missioner. In one year, the youth ministry has flourished through opportunities of retreats, camping experiences, a King's Fest at Kings Dominion, and a youth service, which is planned and conducted by the youth each first Sunday at 6:30 PM at Christ UMC in Salisbury. A total of 34 churches, United Methodist and other denominations, are now attending and participating in these services totaling well over 200 persons at each service.

Mission Area Ministry continues to develop on the district. There are 17 Mission Area Ministry clusters, which include the total of 137 churches. This year, for the first time on the Salisbury District, Charge Conferences were held as Church Conferences and they were grouped according to the Mission Areas. This was a wonderful time of worship and fellowship as churches worshiped, shared, celebrated ministry and prayed for future ministry together. The attendance was high, and the spirit of the Church Conferences was anointed. The new Mission Area Ministry Facilitators, Doris and Major Bailey, have brought an abundance of gifts and enthusiasm to the implementation of Mission Area Ministry on the district. Their leadership has been invaluable and their openness and willingness to help our churches and mission areas has been a blessing. They will continue to work in this capacity throughout the next months as the District visions toward the future.

The commission given to us by Jesus Christ, "Go ye and make disciples" has been a focus of ministry on the district. A total of 884 new members came into the churches on the Salisbury District. Special recognition is given to the churches who had the highest number or percentage of new members responding as a confession of faith or as a restored member.

Hebron: St. Paul's	54
Ocean City: Atlantic	48
Princess Anne: St. James	45 (an increase in membership of 31%)
Salisbury: Trinity	35
Salisbury: Christ	27
Quantico-Rockawalkin:
Rockawalkin	26
Salisbury: Asbury	17
Salisbury: Korean Mission	16 (an increase in membership of 27%)
Princess Anne-Oakville:
St. Mark	16
Salisbury: Bethesda	14

Other churches have also been working diligently in the mission field and have made disciples through the fruits of their ministry.

The Salisbury District sends forth Rev. John H. Mitchell to serve as the Wilmington District Superintendent. May God bless his ministry as he answers the call to this dimension of serving the church of Jesus Christ.

The blessings have been awesome for us on the Salisbury District. We praise God for His goodness and His mercy upon us. We seek His holy presence in the year to come.

In Remembrance,
Patricia Bryant Harris

Wilmington District

Sing to the Lord a new song, his praise from the end of the earth!
Isaiah 42:10a

Wilmington District is learning to sing a new song as we serve our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ.

We are learning to sing the song of growth! All around us, in both counties, new homes are springing up in new developments faster than we ever imagined they could.

Cecil County has experienced steady growth for the last decade with many persons seeking to leave the urban and crowded suburban environments for the beauty of the rolling hills, farmland and orchards. Churches like Hopewell, Ebenezer, Leeds, Moore's Chapel and Elkton have all experienced significant growth in this decade. In addition, St. John's in Charlestown, Wesley in Elk Neck, and Perryville are beginning to see growth in their areas. Two areas in the county that are experiencing tremendous growth currently are the Elkton Shoulder (Leeds-Cherry Hill Churches) and the Susquehanna Basin (Perryville, Port Deposit and Asbury Churches).

In addition to the middle class, spacious, single-family homes that are being built, there is significant growth in mobile homes and lower income dwellings also. Ray of Hope Mission, an outreach program targeting those in rural poverty in western Cecil County, has also experienced growth—tremendous growth in need and in programs developed to meet the need. Frank Rinaldi and his staff are to be commended for the fine work they are doing to serve those in need on behalf of the churches and Mission Areas in the western section of the county and adjoining Pennsylvania areas.

New Castle County is experiencing explosive growth with a prediction of a half million people living in the county within the next five years. (That is a 400-500% growth rate.)

Almost weekly, it seems, new developments are built and completed in the Bear-Middletown-Newark areas. But the growth is county-wide with the city of Wilmington also experiencing growth. Cornerstone UMC is the only new congregation designed to serve the growth in this county. Established churches that are experiencing significant growth include Skyline in Pike Creek, Summit, New Castle, St. Paul's in Odessa, Kingswood in Newark, Dale's in Middletown, Union in Bear, Asbury and Minquadale.

Yet, after two years of research, committees for both counties reported that the growth we have received is far from keeping up with the population growth in our district. WE NEED TO PLANT NEW WORSHIPPING CONGREGATIONS AND NEW CHURCHES IN NINE DIFFERENT AREAS.

We came together in our first District Conference in decades at Sandy Cove Retreat Center on February 19 to learn how great is the need to reach out to our new neighbors. The county committees reported tremendous opportunity for growth contrasted with the reality that many of our churches are either simply maintaining their current membership or, in fact, declining in the very presence of growth.

The research pointed out that those who are moving in will look for new worship styles, new worship settings, new worship times, new language-based worship services and expect to have their lives truly changed as they become disciples of Jesus Christ. The developments that are being built are inclusive racially, ethnically, and culturally. Persons living in these new developments will seek churches that reflect the realities of their neighborhoods and will not be content with only a traditional approach to worship. Our new neighbors will look to the church to provide care for their children, programs and guidance for their youth, significant mission opportunities for their young adults and young professionals, and education and training in scriptural and spiritual disciplines that will enable them to receive the gift of new life.

With the potential of doubling and tripling our membership in United Methodist Churches, God has challenged each Mission Area of the district. No Mission Area is un-touched by the growth in the counties. Every Mission Area must come together to determine the best use of resources, human, buildings, land and finances, so that we might be considered faithful in meeting this challenge.

At the district Conference, we decided to do two things: to raise the district apportionment (from $.65 per member to $1.00 per member) effective immediately and to commit ourselves to funding new congregational development over the next five years in the amount of $500,000. Every member is asked to participate through prayers, service and financial gifts. The entire amount of our goal can be funded by an annual gift of $3.50 per member or $10 per regular worshipper. Even pastors are asked to give.

"Together We Can," the theme of our District Conference became the theme of the total campaign. Our first district-wide offering was received in May and the first group of pastors and laity to be trained to offer leadership in growth will be trained in August and September.

The Rev. Randy Wein, district facilitator of Outreach, Revitalization and Mission Area Ministry, is to be commended for the leadership he has given to the research leading to and the development of our "Together We Can" campaign. He has done this through his own battle with and victory over Lymphoma and his willingness to be appointed to a time-limited new venture. We thank you, Randy!

Gratitude must also be expressed to the members of the County Committees, including: the Rev. Jack Abel, the Rev. Jim Jones, Russell Brown, the Rev. Cindy Koski, Frank Rinaldi, Paula Gilley, Isabelle Marshall, and Wanda Webber for Cecil County and the Rev. Anna Cottom, the Rev. Paul Owens, Beverly Holland, Sophia Evans, Chuck Redstone, the Rev. Bo Gordy-Stith, and Taffy Nemeth for New Castle County. They worked diligently in research and in forming the presentation to the District Conference. They have lifted the vision! Thank you.

As we move further into our Conference Vision of Mission Area Ministries, our local churches met, once again, in group charge conferences. Each charge conference was planned by the pastors and laity of the Mission Area and each received a video and presentation by the District M.A.M. Coordinating Team. Mission Area Team members were elected by the Charge Conferences and representatives to the District Mission Council were requested. The success of most of these charge conferences and the enthusiasm of the mission areas was great. Indeed, God is doing a new thing in our midst! Thank you to pastors and lay leadership for the great work you are doing.

One of the most powerful examples we have of partnership in mission and ministry is the success of the Wesley-Cornerstone Lay Team who provided leadership for Wesley United Methodist Church in Elk Neck for the entire year . . . without a pastor! They did what many said could not be done: providing all the preaching, teaching, prayer leadership, and nurture themselves and by drawing in the resources of the congregation.

Tom and Gina Davis, Donna Carver, and Monnie Givens from Cornerstone brought to the team experience in a lay-led church. Cornerstone Church has worked hard at developing strong lay leadership so that the mission and ministry of the church are the responsibility of the laity and the pastor's role is that of facilitator, teacher and pastor.

They were ready to team with another church to share their knowledge and skill.

The four regulars from Cornerstone Church teamed with Bob Faul, Sandy Gordon, Ruth Matteson, Cyndi Haley, Robin Mullen and Danny Eller from Wesley Church who, without hesitation, accepted the responsibility to make this a year of learning and spiritual growth for the members of Wesley. Over the course of the year, so many good things happened, Wesley even celebrated a "Miracle Sunday!"

They were supported in their work by the Rev. C. Chapman Herrman, the Rev. John Koch, and the Rev. Boyd Etter who provided sacramental oversight, counseling and pastoral functions when called upon. We are deeply grateful to you all for finding time to help.

The year ended with the church and the team giving thanks to God for the privilege of "not having a pastor" for the year. They have established a model for our future as we move out in new growth areas. Many thanks to each member of the team and to Wesley members.

The Spiritual Intervention Program finished the last twelve months of model development for supporting pastors through crisis counseling and stress management.

Hundreds of calls were received through the 800 number and numerous interventions, counseling sessions, and local church resourcing events were completed. We are deeply grateful to the Insurance Committee of the Conference Board of Pensions and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for their grants to fund this model development. We are also deeply grateful to the local churches who subscribed to the 800 number for their pastors. Special thanks needs to be given to Dr. Joseph Carr who conceived the model and works diligently to support the pastors of district with his counseling skills and to Dr. James Ballard who teamed with Dr. Carr to provide the structure and skilled counseling component of the model. We have proven, once again, that we are not without resources to help ourselves. I hope this model can be further developed.

Bishop Weaver visited the district again this year. He focused on the Mission Areas and took time to discuss with pastors and laity alike the issues on their heart. His presence and accessibility are greatly appreciated.

Once again, this year, I would like to thank those who have provided exceptional leadership in the functions of the district including:

The District Board of Church Location and Ministry, under the leadership of the Rev. Cindy Koski for their fine work in guiding local church through the process for building expansion, land acquisition and development of plans for supporting growing congregation.

The District Board of Ordained Ministry, under the leadership of the Rev. Mary Lou Green, for their work with candidates seeking to be certified to begin the process for ordained ministry, annually reviewing all those certified, licensed and serving as local pastors and student local pastors, and spending many hours in preparation and in monthly meetings to give oversight to the development of pastoral ministry for the district and the conference. Our rolls (from inquiring candidates to certified and serving local pastors) include fifty to sixty persons each year. I would like to say a special word of thanks to Rev. Green who has provided compassionate and skilled leadership to this work.

The District Committee on Superintendency, under the leadership of the Rev. Ray Graham. This committee has been tremendously supportive of the work of the superintendent and provided prayer support on a daily basis for me personally. I am deeply grateful for every expression of love and every effort to improve the work of this office. I was truly blessed by the farewell service they planned for me on June 17.

The District Youth Council, under the leadership of Laura Young. The youth continue to grow in every way. They are blessing our churches in many ways.

The District Committee for the Lay Leadership School, under the leadership of Jane Brown. We have over three hundred certified Lay Speakers across the district and the Lay Leadership School has expanded its offerings to include the many different ways that laity are asked to be in ministry. The Committee has expanded the schedule to include a fall and a winter session and has greatly expanded the training opportunities.

The Board of Laity, under the leadership of Allen Streett—District Lay Leader. The Board meets regularly throughout the year and provides planning for the annual Laity Banquet and acts as a communication center for the lay activities of the district. Allen Streett has served with great faithfulness and steadfastness over two quadrennia. He offers his time and leadership without reserve and with a humility and willingness that is an example for all.

The District United Methodist Women, under the leadership of Darlean Ashley

The District United Methodist Men, under the leadership of George Brown

Jubilee, the district pastors and spouses organization under the leadership of the Rev. Donald Hamilton

Those who have taken specific leadership tasks at my request and fulfilled them with excellence: the Rev. John Dunnack, the Rev. Jim Falot, the Rev. C. Karen Moore, and the Rev. Jack Abel.

The retired pastors who have generously provided interim leadership in local churches: the Rev. George Leathrum at Charlestown Charge and the Rev. Edward R. Wilkins at Elkton UMC, Others who have supplied our pulpits temporarily: Dr. Laurence Stookey, professor of Worship at Wesley Theological Seminary, who along with Dr. Vernon Schmid, provided interim leadership at Chesapeake City Charge; the Rev. Dr. Claude Edmunds, the Rev. Naomi Winchester, and the Rev. Sandra Sims who served Coleman Memorial Church after the suspension of the Rev. George Anderson.

Thank you each and every one for making this a wonderful year.

The Methodist Action Program, under the leadership of Kathryn Cooper-Nicholas, has had a busy and very productive year. The office was moved back to the city of Wilmington in a suite in the Community Services Building. A new position of Program Director was filled by Jennifer Woodhouse. MAP offered leadership and consultation in development efforts by local churches including co-sponsoring Delaware's only Faith Based Community Economic Development Symposium. They funded another year of the grant that provides for the New Congregational Development work by the Rev. Randy Wein, and they have developed a Youth Entrepreneur Camp that will go on a work camp later in the year to the Caribbean. This all in addition to the regular programs of food assistance, Centro Los Abuelos, homeless ministries, and the MAP Walk for Housing.

Neighborhood House, under the leadership of Beatrice Polk, has emerged from the financial complications and are now focusing on a major financial campaign to do some much need repair and development of the third floor of the building. The Cabbean Square Housing Development project was completed and most of the homes sold quickly providing quality, low cost housing just a block away from Neighborhood House. The project was named after Daisey Cabbean, the first director of day care for the mission. They continue to serve the South Bridge Community of Wilmington with parenting and youth programs, brown bag clubs, day care, housing counseling, and financial counseling. Every day they make the difference in someone's life.

We mourned the passing of those loved ones who were taken into glory this year, we thank God for the healing that so many have received, and we celebrate the birth of, daughter of Jack and Melissa Cohen in June. We celebrate the ordination of Emma Cohen of the Rev. Jack Abel, the Rev. Anna Cottom, the Rev. Karin Tunnell and the commissioning of the Rev. Meleia Rust and Dr. Sung Ho Bae, our first deacon for ordination. We said farewell to the Rev. Cindy Koski as she retired from full-time ministry. We sent the Rev. Douglas Lindsay and the Rev. Deborah Lindsay-Hudgins to Alaska Missionary Conference, the Rev. Jack Abel to a doctoral program at Georgetown University, the Rev. Jack Shitama to direct Camps and Retreat Ministries for the Conference, the Rev. Edward E. Kester to head Methodist Retirement Communities in the Texas Conference with our prayers. We welcomed the Rev. Yvonne Penn to Coleman Church in February.

We celebrated and thanked Virginia "Jinny" Squire for the twenty-four years of service she gave to the district as the District Secretary and we welcomed Denise Rader to the new position of Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent.

I could not end this report without expressing my deepest gratitude for all the prayers that supported me through my double surgery in November and my recovery and through the transitions in my family that now take me, unexpectedly to Texas. Also, I must thank my colleagues on the Cabinet for providing leadership during my six weeks of recovery. You have been most gracious and loving and I have been blessed by the privilege of serving as your superintendent. I will carry you in my heart for the rest of my life. You have strengthened my faith in God, witnessed with power to the saving grace of Jesus Christ, and enabled the Holy Spirit to blow freely among us. With Paul's words I pray:

*I pray that you may have the power to comprehend,
With all the saints,
What is the breadth and length and height and depth,
And to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
So that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.*

Your sister in Christ,
Susan Keirn Kester

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Ministries came into existence here on the peninsula as a result of the 1968 merger of the Evangelical United Brethren and the Methodist Church. In the negotiations and planning to create a new denomination called The United Methodist Church, fresh ideas were developed and also, some old, effective structures were carried over into the new church. The Conference Council on Ministries from the old organization of the Evangelical United Brethren was continued in the new United Methodist Church. The Council was to develop, to administrate, and to evaluate the program of the Annual Conference from the top down through its conference agencies, districts, and local churches in their ministry according to the mission of The United Methodist Church.

And now, some thirty years later, it is time to bring on different structures and innovative resources to enable new ministry in a relational design that encourages and supports fresh ideas and ministries from local congregations in Mission Area Ministry. Programs will develop from local churches and Mission Areas and find resources to carry them out from Districts and the Annual Conference.

At the end of this conference year, the Conference Council on Ministries will go out of existence. It has done its job. New, energizing, support systems are emerging at district levels and the annual conference for fresh and exciting ministry. May we recognize and move with boldness into God's Plan for the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

During 1999, the CCOM welcomed Beatrice Polk as the new executive director of Neighborhood House. Redirected $9,165 in unused funds, graciously given by the Board of Laity, the Board of Global Ministries, Archives and History, the Board of Discipleship, the Board of Church and Society, the Conference Youth Council, Mission Area Ministry, Higher Education and Campus, and Equitable Compensation into a Contingency Fund to be available for one-time grants to Mission Areas.

Received the monitoring report from Annual Conference 1999 compiled by Bill Wallace of CORR, which identified ten different ethnic groups within the Conference. Of the sixty-eight persons on the Resource Team, there are 18 Euro males, 10 Euro females, 11 African-American females, 10 African-American males, and 19 other.

Said "thank you" and "farewell" to Tom Carter for his long and exemplary service to Camp Pecometh and Drayton Manor as Director of Camping and Retreat Ministries. During his tenure, Tom increased the budget, promoted program, improved maintenance, and received a one hundred per cent rating accreditation for Camp Pecometh.

Welcomed the new Director of Camping and Retreat Ministries, Jack Shitama who began January 1, 2000.

Developed the theme for the Annual Conference 2000 and the ensuing year, "Living Jesus Christ's Vision - Celebrating Our Journey."

Liz St. Clair
Chairperson

Communications Committee

1999 was another transition year for Communications in our Conference. Though the Communication Coordinator officially began her duties on January 1, 1999, it was in the latter part of March before she was able to take on full responsibility of the position, after relinquishing other duties to her successors.

This late transition made it difficult to form a Communications Team and, therefore, it was decided to develop a Communications Task Force (in cooperation with the new Relational Design) after the implementation of the new design.

During 1999 significant changes continued to take place in the Communications area. The most significant were the refurbishing of the Conference Web Site (www.gbgm-umc.org/pendelonia) and the additions of the Business Office, The Communicator, Mission Area Ministry, and Young People's Ministry. Now that the updating is just about complete, a continuous update of the system will now be implemented. Other areas that continue to see improvement include the presentation at Annual Conference in June. Also, the Local Church Leadership Training implemented a "track" entitled "The Ministry of Communications" that was well received in each of the districts.

The goals for 2000 include creating a Communications Task Force to assist the Communications Coordinator in communicating the Vision/mission of the conference and to assisting Mission Areas, local churches, districts and the conference in communications through workshops, additional training and promotion.

Young People's Ministry

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Young People's Ministry continued its commitment to resource ministries to youth and young adults in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference during 1999. As director, I am very blessed to have the opportunity to serve in this capacity and look forward to the coming year of ministry opportunities.

During these first two years, I have worked with many local churches and conference ministries in a variety of ways from preaching to leading workshops. I have worked with other conference ministries for youth to sponsor events such as our conference youth rally and YAC '99. We developed a conference web page for young people. (www.gbgm-umc.org/ymp) We have held forums to gather information pertaining to young people and had a task team consider the implications of youth and young adult ministry in today's world.

In the year 2000, I would like to lift up these goals for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Young People's Ministry.

1. Continue to develop a Young People's Ministry Resource Network, which will be accessible through the office of Young People's Ministry and the Young People's Ministry Website.

2. To work with other conference ministries to young people on a Safe Sanctuaries Task Force, appointed by Bishop Weaver, to develop conference policies and local church guidelines for ministries to/with children and youth.

3. Develop a focus/vision team to advise the Director of Young People's Ministry using the information gathered by the Shared Mission Focus Team.

4. Educate clergy and laity of the need for distinct ministry to/with young adults (ages 18-35) and provide resources and training to equip them for such ministries.

5. Continue to provide support and encouragement to conference ministries that work with youth and young adults.

The 2001 goals for Young People's Ministry will depend greatly on the focus/vision team, which will be developed in 2000. I can say that the need to keep ministries to youth and young adults truly contemporary and relevant will be very important. I also envision more resourcing being available for local churches to help them be in ministry with young people.

One specific goal I would like to lift up for 2001 would be a Young Adult Ministry event, such as a mission trip or event similar to our annual conference youth rally.

Mission Area Ministry

Jerusalem, Stand Up! Shine!
Your New Day Is Dawning.
Isaiah 60:1a (CEV)

This is the time for new beginnings. Indeed God is doing a new thing! We have much to celebrate as we recognize how churches are participating in fostering new relationships as they partner to reach out in to their communities in mission and ministry. One of the highlights of this year is the implementation of the new Relational Design and the creation of the Vision Team and the Advocacy, Enabling, Leadership, Resource Development and Management Teams to support Mission Area Ministry. Each resource team will support mission areas and continue to carry out the functions for mission and ministry needed by our Annual Conference while maintaining a vital link to the General Church.

Another vital component of the Relational Design is its responsibility to support mission areas IN the creation of District Mission Area Councils. This was exciting and challenging. In the District Council, representatives from Mission Areas will have a forum to share ideas and resources within a district and seek funding for ministry.

The district facilitators Ann Wilson (Dover), Alice Hutchins (Easton), Doris and Major Bailey (Salisbury), Randy Wein (Wilmington), the district superintendents, and coordinating teams have been helping local congregations understand the process for developing covenant Mission Areas. The following are some of the activities happening on the districts:

Dover District

Dover District has seen an increase in ministry and mission with almost every congregation as part of a developing mission area. Bible studies and prayer groups continue as bases of support. Needs assessment and discovery of spiritual gifts have laid foundations for leaders to emerge who have vision for their communities beyond the ability of any single church. The District Coordinating Team views building relationships as the foremost accomplishment of our efforts so far.

Our district superintendent's leadership has enabled us to move from geographical clusters into (15) fifteen mission areas. To organize for the future, mission area representatives launched with historic emphasis at Barratt's Chapel, the Dover District Council. Our Board of Laity and Lay Speakers made Mission Area Ministry their priority and their engagement in partnership with pastors has begun to produce dynamic intentional change.

Mission area teams planned Charge Conferences and the results were astounding. With overheads and videos, posters and power point presentations, witness was given to the work of all the churches. The focus was put on mission opportunities in many different ways, symbolically bonding by building box churches and assembling heart constructions, Bible study, guest speakers and puzzle working. Worship and celebration helped us experience new cultures by hearing prayers and scriptures bilingually and a variety of music from combined choirs to guitar combos, drums, and children's choirs and seeing praise and circle dancers. Commissioning, candle lighting and commitment called the communities into compassion, communion, and love feasts.

Choosing names for the new mission areas has been the fun part and wording covenants has been challenging. Milford-Lincoln Mission Area had the unique privilege of sponsoring a service of celebration for a newly organized congregation, First Evangelical Haitian United Methodist Church.

Training continues to be an important piece for our district with new attention given to Conflict Resolution/Mediation and FaithQuest as additional tools. We need to foster better communication, understanding of cultural differences, and nurture a faithful response from all heart.

Ann Wilson

Wilmington District

The 84 congregations of the Wilmington District have moved significantly this year toward covenant relationship through the Mission Area Ministry implementation process. The Holy Spirit, breathing new life into congregations through deepened relationship and new ministry opportunities has shaped this process.

The 83 chartered churches and one mission congregation met in joint charge conferences this year, laying the groundwork for formal covenants binding the churches in making disciples of Jesus Christ. The 12 members of the District Coordinating Team, 11 lay and clergy volunteers plus the District Facilitator for Mission Area Ministry, made personal presentations at each charge conference and shared a professionally produced video on the Mission Area Ministry process.

Out of those 23 joint Charge Conferences have come several covenants that included each of the participants. In other cases, some congregations in a joint charge split to form two covenant groups. In still other cases, some congregations have entered covenant agreements with some churches and continue to pursue relationships – some covenantal and some not – with other churches. And in other cases, churches that were not even part of the same charge conference have pursued covenant relationship.

Covenant criteria were lifted to each congregation, and sample covenants made available. But the content of each MAM covenant was determined by the participating churches, reflecting their vision and personality. Some covenants are very task-oriented; others have been very process-oriented. Some covenants simply vow to continue discussions about further and deeper covenant. But each covenant affirms the need for deeper relationship as a way to deepen our ministries.

Many of these covenants were presented and celebrated at the first ever Wilmington District Conference on February 19, 2000. At that time, only two of the 84 congregations had informed the District Office of their intent not to participate. Additionally, some congregations have expressed interest in jointly supporting new worshipping congregations, either as part of their church life or as an independent congregation. This interest has come out of a presentation at the District Conference of nine demographic and geographic ministry priorities identified during a two-year study by two task forces working under the District Board of Church Location and Building.

Some churches that have entered covenant are still exploring their own identities as well as their joint possibilities. In addition to the support given all District congregations, those churches will be offered special support as they challenge themselves to move into ministry.

The ministry of the last year has been accomplished despite serious health challenges to the District Facilitator (a lengthy recovery from surgery and chemotherapy and radiation treatments) and the District Superintendent (declining health leading to double surgery and rehabilitation). Thanks be to God for the gift of healing as well as the gift of shared ministry.

Special thanks go to those who have shared in this ministry, especially the lay and clergy volunteers who have worked during the last year on the District Coordinating Team: Jack Abel, Jonathan Baker, Beverly Holland, Betty Laws, Beverly Lewis, Tanya Pollard, Bob Riddleberger, Liz St. Clair, Jack Shitama, Darlene Webb, and June Wilson. But ultimate thanks go to God in Jesus Christ, in whom each of us is strengthened and through whom each of us can do all things.

Randolph L. Wein

Salisbury District

On September 24, 1999, we were asked by our District Superintendent Rev. Dr. Patricia Bryant Harris to join the Mission Area Ministry team as District Facilitators for the Salisbury District. We felt led of the Lord to accept and began immediately.

Rev. Harris held seventeen Cluster Conferences in November and December. We were able to attend fifteen of the conferences with her where we shared Mission Area Ministry in both literature and testimony. It gave us an opportunity to meet many people in the District and find out what was going on in their area in regards to Mission Area Ministry. Projects range from Soup Kitchens helping feed the poor and the needy and also giving them clothing, to combined youth groups, and cluster events such as New Year's Eve Celebrations, etc. A day with the Bishop was planned and carried forth with the help of the Hebron Cluster made up of representatives of seven churches.

Members of the seven churches began meeting on November 2, 1999 to plan for the day. At the first meeting, many new acquaintances were made which have turned into great friendships.

Four teams were formed from the group. Team A planned and did the set up, ice and drinks. Team B arranged for food and helped the Girls Scouts who served. Team C acted as greeters at the doors and handed out bulletins. Team D was hosts and hostesses in the gym and surrounded the event with prayer. The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts who meet regularly at Nelson UMC (and assisted us was much appreciated.) It was a wonderful way to help them with their community service training. A nursery was provided and staffed by team members. The Bishop's Day on the District was held on Monday, November 15, 1999 at Nelson's Memorial United Methodist Church in Hebron. He spoke with approximately 52 youth from 4:-5:30p.m. After the meeting the youth went to the basement meeting room for fellowship and pizza. Bishop Weaver had a question and answer session between 5:30-6:30 for the adults. We estimate 58 adults were present. From 6:30-8p.m. they held a worship service with approximately 175 in attendance plus 23 hosts from the seven churches. Everyone worked together very smoothly and there were many compliments on how well the evening was put together, for which we give God the glory. Food left over was carried into Grace UMC in Salisbury to be used in GOD'S Kitchen, an outreach ministry, to feed the homeless and needy on Saturday mornings. Truly it was a blessed evening for all.

There are some wonderful things happening on the Salisbury District. Salisbury Urban Ministries Youth Ministry/Fellowship is thriving. It is exciting to see young people reaching out to other young people in the name of Jesus. The West Side Parish, Nanticoke Charge is moving forward. The churches in the Hebron area St. Luke, Mt. Zion, Friendship, and Nelson churches sponsored the first combined New Year's Eve Praise, Worship, Singing, Testimonial and Fellowship Gathering. Approximately 200 people came to this service. They prayed, sang, and shared a meal together. One of the highlights of the evening was having pictures taken in a lovely garden created-including a water fountain - for this purpose. A Memory Wall with pictures of loved ones gone home to Jesus adjoined one corner. From start to finish there was perfect harmony among God's people as all pitched in to help plan, carry out, and yes, even clean up! When the night was over, hearts were rejoicing in the goodness of God. These churches are looking forward to the next combined activity. They plan to celebrate New Year's Eve together again, but know God has lots in store for them before December 31, 2000. This year the Lay Academy for the Salisbury District has incorporated within it's program, courses on MAM, Bible, Spiritual Gifts & Assessments, Conflict Resolution, and Partners in Ministry. The attendance of 230 is one of our biggest yet.

We were able to attend the FaithQuest training in Fairfax, VA. on February 17, 18, & 19. Already we have several people excited about taking this study in the near future. The Salisbury District is moving along. Praise to Jesus!

Major and Doris Bailey

Easton District

The excitement of servant pastors helping to cultivate missional congregations has been phenomenal.

An invitation was extended to pastors of the Easton District to become a praying congregation for the creation of mission areas. The servant pastors accepted the invitation and met with Rev. Bell and I in July and August. They met with the laity and other pastors in their areas to share their ideas for the theme of the Laity/Clergy Banquet. A name was given to each Mission Area. The clergy on the district invited the laity from the local congregations to dialogue and draft a covenant document that would allow them to live out the ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ in their communities. Out of this rewarding experience, covenants for Mission Areas emerged. Ten Mission Areas have been developed on the Easton District. Each area voted for a lay and clergy representative to serve on the District Mission Area Council. The Mission Area covenants were ratified at Charge Conferences. On November 11, during the Great Laity -Clergy Banquet at St. Mark's Church- Easton, Bishop Weaver confirmed the covenant relationships. We are very proud of the covenants and commitments of the Mission Areas. A copy of the covenants was sent to Rev. Bell at the district office.

Each Mission Area continues to work at their own pace. I am grateful to all of the Mission Areas for their accountability to the district and the conference.

Rev. Alice Hutchins

I want to thank the congregations of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the willingness to participate in doing ministry in a new way. The process for creating Mission Area Ministry Teams is meant to be flexible. Therefore churches are entering the process in different ways and adapting to meet the challenging needs of the congregations. Indeed, Mission Area Ministry is one of the ways to reach out to our communities, making disciples for Jesus Christ. Through Mission Area Ministry we can enter new relationships as brothers and sisters in Christ. Barriers that separate and hamper our witness to the world, as the body of Christ, will be torn down. Together with God's grace and love, The Vision of the Peninsula - Delaware Conference will be a reality. We will live out the ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively through life-changing communities of compassion. The following resources are available to assist local churches and Mission Areas:

- Bible Study (Mission Area Ministry, FaithQuest, Disciple etc.)
- Prayer and Discernment
- Spiritual Gifts Assessments
- Visioning
(Demographic Studies- "Percept")
- Clergy and Laity Leadership Development (Principle -Centered Leadership Workshop)

- Clergy /Lay Team Development (Partners in Ministry)
- Conflict Resolution
- Cultural Development
- Alternative Funding

Goals for 1999-2000

- Continue to resource local churches/mission areas in the Mission Area Ministry process
- Train District Mission Area Councils
- Create a Mission Area Ministry newsletter
- Develop a Mission Area Ministry information kit
- Monitor and Evaluate Mission Areas Ministry

May I express my gratitude to all the members of the Boards, Agencies, and Commissions of this Conference. Your dedication to the vital ministries of this conference is commendable. I thank God for the many volunteers from our local churches, and the gifts of the laity and clergy. I thank God for the commitment of the district facilitators and the district coordinating teams. I appreciate the help and encouragement from our Bishop, Conference Resource Director, District Superintendents, and support staff. May God continue to bless us as we go forward in the name of Jesus.

Camping and Retreat Ministries

REVIEW OF 1999 GOALS

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 3%.

Drayton Retreat Center (DRC) was utilized for 3272 guest days (one guest day equals 1 overnight guest and 3 meals) from 204 groups. Of those, 91 groups, comprising 43.6% of the guests, were from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. In 1998, DRC was utilized for 2176 guest days. Therefore, the 1999 increase in usage was 50.4%, as measured in guest days. The DRC Pool had 2150 guests in 1999. This represents an increase of 6.3% over 1998.

Camp Pecometh had 4572 guests from 119 groups in 1999. This represents a decrease of 9.4%. The summer camp program experienced an increase from 1462 campers in 1998 to 1531 campers in 1999, an increase of 4.7%

2. To raise funds for new Staff House/Retreat facilities at Pecometh.

As of December 31, 1999, the Pecometh Capital Improvement Fund balance was $192,826.69.

3. To add high ropes to the Pecometh Challenge Course and develop an environmental educational program at Camp Pecometh. Provide programs for 12 non-summer camp groups.

The high ropes course was successfully added in time for the 1999 summer camp season. In addition, 9 non-summer camp groups used ropes course for programs.

4. To maintain a balanced budget for Camping and Retreat Ministries. Reduce the fund request from the Conference Council on Ministries by $22,000.

Camping and Retreat Ministries finished 1999 with an operating deficit of ($5181.91). This was due to expenses related to the separation of three staff employees. These expenses included payments for unused vacation time, as well as additional salaries incurred to provide a workable transition. The Camping & Retreat Ministry request of $99,900 from the CCOM for 1999 was $22,000 less than the $121,900 requested for 1998. This figure does not include the director's salary, benefits, and professional expenses. The request from CCOM for 2000 remained constant at $99,900.

5. To recruit a minimum of 10% ethnic persons to serve on the Pecometh summer staff.

The 1999 summer staff had 5 ethnic persons out of a total staff of 63 persons. This is 7.9%. However, only one of those persons was local. The other four were international staff. One ethnic applicant was turned down because he did not meet the minimum age requirement of 16.

6. To continue to improve the physical appearance of both facilities.

This work is ongoing.

7. To recruit for 2000 volunteer hours at Drayton Retreat Center and 2500 volunteer hours at Camp Pecometh.

Drayton volunteer hours were 1034 in 1999, representing a minimum work value of $10,340. Pecometh volunteer hours were 2500, representing a minimum work value of $25,000.

CAMPING AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Camping and Retreat Ministries seeks to live out the vision of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference by providing settings and facilities that encourage spiritual growth and transformation. We owe much appreciation to Rev. Tom Carter for six years of outstanding stewardship in this ministry. He has left the operation of Camping and Retreat Ministries in great shape.

DRAYTON RETREAT CENTER

Drayton continues to be a cherished place by conference groups, local churches, and individuals throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Once again, Carolyn Godfrey has led a committed corps of volunteers who help to keep Drayton looking great. The staff at Drayton, led by Carol Shaw, has worked hard to provide excellent service to those who come to Drayton.

CAMP PECOMETH

Camp Pecometh offers our conference a variety of ways to experience outdoor ministry. The retreat facilities, Family Campground, waterfront, picnic facilities, and Outdoor Chapel help guests at Camp Pecometh draw closer to God through God's creation. The Summer Camp Program continues to be a significant part of the spiritual growth of many young people. The year-round and summer staff are guided by Augie Lankford, Assistant Director/Program Director and Buddy Landing, Facilities Manager for Camping & Retreat Ministries. Their love for Camp Pecometh is evident in the work they do.

UPDATED STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2000

1. To increase the number of persons using both facilities by 3%.
2. To start construction on the new Staff House/Retreat facilities at Pecometh.
3. To develop a plan for a pilot outdoor education program.

4. To maintain a balanced budget for Camping and Retreat Ministries.
5. To recruit a minimum of 10% ethnic persons to serve on the Pecometh summer staff.
6. To recruit for 2000 volunteer hours at Drayton Retreat Center and 2500 volunteer hours at Camp Pecometh.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2001

Drayton Retreat Center:

1. Increase usage, as measured in guest days (1 guest day = 1 overnight and 3 meals), by 5%.
2. Increase weekday usage, as measured in guest days, by 10%.
3. Offer four continuing education events.
4. Recruit for 2000 volunteer hours.

Camp Pecometh:

1. Increase usage, as measured by the number of guests, by 5%.
2. Develop and implement a pilot outdoor education program for potential use by public schools, private schools, and home-schoolers.
3. Produce two new brochures, in addition to the summer camp brochure, and determine their most effective means of distribution. One of these brochures may be in conjunction with Drayton Retreat Center.
4. To recruit a minimum of 10% ethnic persons to serve on the Pecometh summer staff.
5. Recruit for 2500 volunteer hours.

Conference Council on Youth Ministries

1999 was a very exciting year for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Council on Youth Ministries (PEN-DEL CCYM). The group continues to focus on ways to resource Methodist youth of our conference.

Our annual youth rally was held on January 22, 23, and 24, 1999 at the Ocean City Convention Center. Out of Eden, a popular hip-hop style female group was our headline performer for Saturday evening's concert and Keith Deltano brought his comedic styles to the event. Cornerstone, a praise band from New Jersey, was our house praise band for the weekend as well. Approximately 1500 youth and adult workers were in attendance. District gatherings as well as other large group gatherings were used during the weekend for several youth to share their personal testimonies. The testimonies were the highlight of the weekend and we plan to incorporate this segment in future rallies. "Keepin' It Real" was the theme for this spirit-filled weekend.

The annual confirmation rally was once again held in March at Whatcoat UMC in Camden, DE. Bishop Peter Weaver was in attendance and spoke to 350 confirmands at this event. This time is held as an excellent opportunity for youth from all over the conference to have fun and worship with Bishop Weaver.

Helen Musick was the leader for our annual Youth Leadership Training Seminar held this year at Wesley College. Approximately 80 adult youth workers attended and received some valuable information to assist them in facilitating their youth groups effectively.

The PEN-DEL CCYM continued to be involved in jurisdictional youth programs. Along with attendance at NEJ youth meetings, Cindi Major from Salem UMC in Pocomoke City, MD was selected to participate in the 1999-2000 Mission of Peace to India.

General Church activities for 1999 included Youth '99, an international youth event held in Knoxville, TN and sponsored by the General Board of Discipleship. Groups representing the Peninsula-Delaware Conference were from St. John's UMC in Seaford, Newark UMC in Newark, and Epworth UMC in Rehoboth.

Plans are underway to continue this upward trend for the PEN-DEL CCYM. The future is sure to bring new ideas and insights to the CCYM as we provide for the youth of our conference.

1999 Goals

1. To continue to seek ways to better accommodate the diverse needs of our youth at our youth rally.

We again celebrated our diversity through our keynote speakers and performers, as well as through our variety of options. This continues to be an area of challenge for us.

2. To continue to promote participation in and be a resource to our District Youth Councils and Coordinators.

We still face the challenge of encouraging more churches to be involved in District activities, but are happy that District Leadership is in place.

3. To continue our regular programs and participation in Conference, Jurisdictional, and General Church programs.

We have continued to send youth to jurisdictional activities and have adults from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference providing leadership in other conference activities.

4. Continue to promote the Youth Service Fund and promote its availability.

We provided grants to: Y.E.A.H. Program at Ezion-Mt. Carmel UMC in Wilmington, DE; Salisbury Urban Youth Missioner, Salisbury, MD; Angie Condon, Spedden UMC, Cambridge, MD; St. James UMC, Westover, MD.

5. To investigate the Youth Seminars Program from the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, D.C. for possible future participation.

6. To continue to develop a Design Team which will oversee the planning of our Annual Youth Rally.

This Design Team continues to develop and was very instrumental in the design and implementation of our annual youth rally.

7. To continue to investigate the possibility of having 2 youth rallies per year: one for youth grades 9-12 and one for youth grades 6-8.

It has been decided to leave the rally structure as it is, due to the structure of our local church youth ministries.

8. To investigate the possibility of a conference sponsored mission experience for Peninsula-Delaware Conference youth.

9. To gain support to see a young person elected as a delegate to the 2000 Jurisdictional and/or General Conference.

We were thrilled that Melody McIlvain was elected as a delegate to Annual Conference and Ashley Purnell was elected as an alternate.

10. To seek ways to accommodate all youth that want to serve in our conference.

All youth that have expressed interest in serving are doing so. We would like to encourage more youth to be involved.

2000 Goals

1. To continue to restructure our Conference Youth Council to provide better leadership opportunities for our youth and empower them for ministry.
2. To continue to seek ways to better accommodate the diverse needs of our youth at our youth rally.
3. To seek new opportunities for youth to serve in our conference, particularly through our District Youth Councils.
4. Continue to raise funds for the Youth Service Fund and inform churches of its availability.
5. To design and sponsor a Youth Leadership Training Weekend.

Howard Bailey Life Enrichment

Grace and peace be unto you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

A ministry is more than statistics, and as such should generate more than a list of accomplishments. There ought to be some sign that fruit is growing and those seeds of continuation are also being sown. In this conference report for the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program, I want to leave you with just such a message.

I read an account of a youth that was in trouble. He suffered from many failures in life with no one to lead the way out of the despair this causes. Self worth was at an all time low. Too many times a parent had fallen short or was not even there. However, the drug pusher on the street said to the child, "not even the threat of jail will keep me from working with you." Too many times teachers, preachers, and officials, had put this child on the back burner, while the pusher, the porno book dealer, the Internet smut providers and the movie producers said, "we'll stay open whatever hours are necessary everyday to win your mind and the minds of all kids." Too many times people who could help said, "I'm unsuited, untrained and unable to work with children, preschool or youth. The remaining problem is, the movie producer said, "we'll study, survey, spend millions to produce whatever turns kids on."

Today, I am humbled, by the great opportunity God has provided for persons to be in the lives of so many of his children. Through the work accomplished by the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program, God has allowed us to touch the lives of many persons and in turn be touched by them. It's not enough to see, in your heart, what needs to be done in the lives of the children of the world, but we must be willing to do what must be done.

I know of very few programs that connect children to their roots in a way that gives them the wisdom of the Elders by way of a youthful language. This is one of the greatest gifts that God has given to this ministry. I asked the counselors: to think of it ... the wisdom of His Word, passed down from generation to generation ... through their ancestors ... and now through them to the next generation. It was very important for them to know that they would be doing more than just passing along knowledge, as Junior and Senior Counselors, they will be becoming voices in the wilderness, voices that will be made powerful by the indwelling of the Holy Ghost. I tell them, "Let the Lord use you to tell this generation the Good News with a voice that they can understand - theirs!"

Well, you know the rest of the story. It is all around you today! All of you are part of the journey to meaningful adulthood for many young people. Each of you can be a positive influence to the youth of today. Remember the words God gave to Hezekiah, "Encourage the people in the midst of an on-coming trouble, be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or discouraged. The trouble coming is of flesh and blood, but with us is the LORD our God to help fight our battles." (II Chronicles 32:7,8)

Our theme for 1999 was, "Do You Want a Revolution?" In the book of Revelation it is mentioned in Chapter 7:16, 17 - They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Our teaching was based on the idea that it is going to take a revolution to bring about what this scripture is saying! A revolution in our minds - the way we think, in our eyes - the way we interpret what we see, in our ears - how we understand what we hear, and in our mouths - what we ultimately say! Revolution means, change. Our supporting scripture base included:

II Chronicles 32:7,8; Mark 10:27; Hebrews 12:12,13; Romans 12:2; Revelation 7:16,17; Take some time after reading this report and study these scriptures. Glean from them what they hold for you in the areas of revolution/change in your life.

Our 1999 Programming included training workshops for the support teams, from participants' churches. Each retreat time also included time where the parent(s) or guardian(s) who brought the children were given an orientation period in which the parents or guardians roles and expectations were reviewed.

Our counselors received the best care and preparation available. We traveled to take part in other youth oriented events not only to experience God for ourselves but to observe how other quality youth programs work. To see the courage that it takes to make one available to be used by God. To view how enthusiasm has its own reward, effectiveness. 1999 was a year where we all would learn the consequences of disobedience and its far-reaching effects. It was a year where in God helped us understand what Moses was saying to the people as they prepared to go into the Promised Land, follow God and be blessed.

HBLEP was blessed to have children from six denominations this year. I cannot tell you enough about what that means in the area ecumenical missions. Our Board has met quarterly and provided direction for our leadership. It was here that a platform of review was provided. Our budget was reviewed, expenses tracked and the needs of the program were cared for. I am especially blessed to have a praying board made up of persons who share a common bond in the Lord and a passion for working with young people. Thank you God for blessing the Peninsula-Delaware Conference through the vision being lived out in the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program.

Goals for 2000

- Increase the Peninsula-Delaware Conference's awareness of what this program is doing
 - Via Conference Wide Mailings
 - Visit churches to speak with various church groups and committees
 - Ask every church to pray for the program and look for those who will benefit from the program, and to support the program's budget.
 - Develop a column in the Communicator.
- Continue to work with each member church with development of Ministry around the young people they are sponsoring.
- Continue to develop HBLEP Materials for independent use... curriculum, manuals, Bible Studies, etc.
- Maintain a balanced budget – work with Business Office to have book keeping understandable for all involved.
- Have a Howard Bailey Reunion – for all who are and who have been involved with this ministry.

In closing I give thanks to all of you who have made many, many sacrifices, that the children would learn respect/discipline and know more about their rich heritage both as African-Americans and as Children of the Most High God. I implore you, continue to bring the media to task, continue to bring your colleagues to task, around issues that present our children falsely.

If you are searching for a way to help, to teach, to be a positive, moving force in the lives of young people, come and help us in this ministry!

Bishop's Task Force on Hispanic Ministries

Purpose: The purpose of this task force is to assist the Hispanic community in areas of spiritual growth and nurture, advocacy, relationship building between Hispanic and Non-Hispanic communities, and training Hispanic and Non-Hispanic persons in outreach ministry. Currently the Nueva Vida (New Life) congregation serves in Wilmington, DE. Bethel in partnership with Wesley UMC in Georgetown, DE serves within the Dover District. There have been several attempts to begin background work on the Salisbury District where several population centers have been identified. However, the district chairs have relocated from the Salisbury area and the project has lacked continuity. The co-chair, Jeremias Rojas, has been to training events and is networking within the jurisdictional level in Hispanic ministries.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Many, many thanks to all of you who practice good stewardship and make our work easier and most enjoyable. Here are some of our accomplishments in the 1999 calendar year:

1. We recommended a budget of $6,029,378.00 and this was adopted by the members of the adjourned session of the Annual Conference.

2. We recommended a new formula for apportionments and this was accepted by the members of the adjourned session of the Annual Conference.
3. We created a committee to help with Alternative Funding.
4. We provided $22,600.00 for repairs to the Salisbury District Parsonage.
5. We provided funding to cover the expenses of the General Conference Delegates.
6. We gave $2000.00 to be used to train a replacement for the retiring Wilmington District Secretary.
7. We held special meetings to prepare members of the Annual Conference for the Special Session and the recommendations we were bringing.
8. We gave $41,650.00 to Pecometh and $33,631.00 to Drayton for repairs and improvements.
9. We established June 6, 1999 as Africa University Miracle Sunday.
10. We provided $19,540.00 to employ a part time assistant to the Bishop.

Since an adjourned session for the Annual Conference is planned for the fall of 2000, we will submit our budget for 2001 at that time.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The mission of the United Methodist Church is to make disciples for Jesus Christ. The Board of Discipleship continued to focus our efforts on this purpose! This focus has gone through several phases as follows:

1. Conference-wide activities designed to impact the local church,
2. District-wide activities designed to impact the local church,
3. Workshops with a focus towards empowering individuals to impact the local church,
4. Initiatives to encourage local churches to be creative in their discipline process, and
5. Supporting local church initiatives of empowerment.

We have come to understand that effective discipleship can best happen when we connect and grow together as the Body of Christ. The CBOD has sought to be GOD'S catalyst in this process. The Holy Spirit has guided us from the broad Conference perspective to the inner sanctums of the local church, but the spirit has not stopped there. But rather has led us into the inner chambers of our own hearts.

Local Church Discipleship - This became more than our major focus, it became our passion. We continued to keep before us the major concern with how what we did impacted upon the local church. Since all of us are very actively involved in our local churches, we each brought a tremendous wealth of knowledge and experience to the dialogue. Each area represented in the B. O. D. continued to focus our hearts and minds towards this singular purpose - empowering the local church for effective discipleship.

We were led by the Spirit to give support to local churches that sought help in getting a locally initiated program going. The B.O.D supported everything from locally initiated leadership workshops to an Inter-church Drama Workshop. All we did was to recognize and appreciate what GOD was/ is doing in our midst.

Stewardship - We are very, very proud of this ministry whose impact upon the local church has and is still emerging. Many of us have already felt its impact. Several of you have received the benefit this vital ministry as you were trained in our Faith, Money, and Spirituality Retreats. Local churches are still requesting the services of these stewardship resource persons. Even now your local church can benefit from this ministry simply by inquiring through our Conference Resource Center.

Evangelism - As we pondered our declining membership dilemma, we came to realize that we needed to explore, research, and learn of the newer models for doing evangelism. To this end, our evangelism ministry has been looking at various models especially 'Relational Evangelism'. This ministry has also been very concerned about our youth in regards to their salvation. Therefore, a close relationship between our evangelism ministry and our Young Peoples' Ministry will hopefully yield some positive results concerning the souls of our youth.

Family Ministries - We have come to realize that despite the strong families and family emphases in our churches, there are precious few family ministries going on in our churches. Our ministry recognizes this and has explored the latest models of our denomination pertaining to Family Ministries. There are a few excellent family ministries in our churches. We pray the proliferation of many more.

Singles' Ministry - Despite the growing number of singles both laity and clergy, very little is actually being done in this necessary ministry. Because of this dearth of activity, our ministry developed a report to our Bishop who is tremendously interested in the development of this area. Plans are currently under way to turn this neglected ministry into an area of vital active ministry.

Children's Ministry - This ministry sought by interviewing several clergy to determine the extent to which churches are involved in children ministries. Much to our great joy the extent was much more than ever was realized by the church itself. This led to an appreciation of those churches whose ministry to children is "Stellar." These ministries may be happening in your church. They just need to be recognized and appreciated.

Education - Our education ministries have been vitally connected to our Cokesbury Workshops, our Lay Academies, and local Church's needing consultant help in establishing e.g. Sunday Schools, Vacation Bible Schools, etc. We worked collaboratively with the Interfaith Resource Center to have Vacation Bible School Workshops on each district.

Leadership Development - B.O.D. in conjunction with the local church leadership Task Force has for the past two years sponsored the church Leadership training in each of our districts. Ten vital areas of ministry were identified and excellent creative ways of learning about them have been presented.

CCOM Connection - B.O.D. was very happy to be a vital part of CCOM. We shared our resources with our brother and sister agencies. To this we are extremely proud.

MAM Connection - B.O.D. was very happy to be a part of the movement to Mission Area Ministry (MAM). We're thankful for the reports of happenings in our Mission Area Ministry. It helped to shape our ministry, and gave us the opportunity to share in our conference initiative.

Resource Center Connection - We were so delighted to have our Conference Resource Directors to share with us the Vision and Mission of our Conference which led to The Relational Design. While this new way of being spells our dissolution, we are constantly reminded of words of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ who said "Unless a seed fall to the ground and die, it cannot bear fruit."

Last, Hoorah! - The C.B.O.D. leaves to our Conference and the succeeding Resource Design Teams a resource tool. This tool has the programs/ministries, which are going on in our local churches and the way by which these ministries can be shared with other local churches. We're hoping this will help each one of us to tap into the great gifts and graces that GOD has bountifully blessed each and every one of us with. TO GOD BE THE GLORY!

Older Adults Ministry

O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to all the generations to come

(Psalm 71: 17-18, NRSV)

The International year of older person was 1999. We celebrated our blessings by sharing information on our diverse population through a booklet. We realized our mission area work is designed to bring people together and to appreciate differences. There may be cultural differences but we are all God's children and we need to put ideas for adult ministries into action. The older adult Committee approved these following goals:

- Mailed to pastors, (3) three resources from the Board of Discipleship/Adult Ministries.
- Shared the 1999 Booklet Celebration our diversity with Pastors and delegates at the Annual Conference.
- Support Stewardship, Parish Nursing, and Congregational Health Ministries Training

Promote Healthier Lifestyle with, for and by older Adults with the community and local Congregations.

A system to measure effectiveness will be developed in 2000. Churches continue to request assistance and programs for adult ministries are being implemented.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Conference Board of Global Ministries' purpose is to maintain and strengthen the connectional ties with the General Board of Global Ministries and all local churches of our Annual Conference as we join in God's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ locally and globally. This includes encouraging all local churches and mission areas to participate in the programs of the General Church that recruit, send, and receive missionaries; that strengthen, develop, and renew local congregations; that seek to alleviate human suffering; and that seek justice, freedom, and peace.

A continuing major emphasis of the Board for 2000 is to encourage local churches and mission areas to become participants in an AFRICAN INITIATIVE that will include the following:

1. Increasing support for both U.S. Missionaries in Africa and Persons In Mission in their own country through Covenant Relationships and the Global Mission Partners program.
2. Support of the Bishops' Appeal for the Children of Africa.
3. Educating our churches about the plight of refugees in Africa and the role churches can play in advocacy, relief, and resettlement.
4. Pursuing ways to develop an ongoing relationship with The United Methodist Church in Zambia.
5. Continuing support for Africa University.

This Board works through its five divisions whose report of accomplishments in 1999 and goals for 2000 follow. We are grateful for the active involvement of our Division leaders and Board members, and we give praise to our Lord Jesus Christ for what has been accomplished. As we move into the new structure of our Annual Conference on July 1 and this Board ceases to exist, it is our hope and prayer that new leadership in a new format will continue to challenge our local churches with a global vision of God's Mission as well as the development of vital Mission Area Ministries in this DelMar Peninsula.

Division of Mission

Mission is alive in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Following are just a few highlights of our involvement in mission:

1. Volunteers in Mission (VIM) – To encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on-mission experience and to promote the Conference VIM Advance Special to provide scholarships for VIM missionaries. During 1999, individuals from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference participated in VIM experiences in Costa Rica; Four Corners, New Mexico; and Zimbabwe. The volunteers traveling to Zimbabwe joined their Christian brothers and sisters in the Baltimore-Washington Conference to experience mission together.

Each VIM Team Member is responsible for the cost of the VIM experience. What a perfect opportunity for congregations to join in mission area ministry to support VIM Team Members by praying and by giving financial donations towards the experience.

2. United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) – To increase giving of time, money, and in kind assistance to the United Methodist Committee on Relief. To encourage each church to raise a minimum of $1.00 per member. During 1999, donations to UMCOR increased 117%.

And donations to One Great Hour of Sharing increased 58%.

Disaster Relief – Collection of Flood Buckets

At the 1999 Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference a tractor trailer was filled with "Flood Buckets" containing emergency supplies for cleaning after a flood.

3. Encouraging Mission Involvement – To encourage involvement in mission as well as support for missionaries.

Africa University

Completed the funding for the Endowment Scholarship at Africa University. The goal was $65,000. Final receipts were over $72,000.

Africa University Choir sang at the 1999 Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. One of the highlights was the opportunity to stand side by side with our African brothers and sisters to glorify God by singing the Hallelujah Chorus.

Disaster Relief – Hurricane Floyd

$11,000 was raised in our Conference for disaster relief due to the damages caused by Hurricane Floyd in New Castle County, Delaware, and Cecil County, Maryland.

Four New Global Mission Partners

The following churches in the Wilmington District became Global Mission Partners during 1999: Aldersgate UMC, Cedars UMC, Marshallton UMC, and St. Paul's UMC.

4. Mission Speakers Bureau – To develop a resource of individuals/groups from within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference who are willing to promote UM missions by sharing their mission experience and/or informing groups about the opportunities for mission involvement within the United Methodist framework. Several individuals have expressed a willingness to share their personal mission experience. Developing a database will be an ongoing process.
5. Refugee Concerns – To promote and coordinate sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Robert Lucas has been promoting and coordinating sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. We are grateful for his dedication and expertise in this area.

Thanks to the faithful members of the Conference Board of Global Ministries Mission Division for their dedication and efforts in promoting, providing, and coordinating mission experiences.

Goals for 2000

The purpose of the Division of Mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference is to promote the support of mission and encourage participation in mission on the local, national, and world levels.

- a. Volunteers in Mission (VIM) - To continue to encourage persons within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to have a hands-on-mission experience and to encourage congregations and mission area ministries to provide financial assistance for VIM missionaries. Also, contributions can be made to the Conference VIM Advance Special (checks must clearly indicate that the funds are to be used to support VIM teams from our Conference). The following Volunteer in Mission opportunities are being planned:

May, 2000 Four Corners, New Mexico -Adult Work Team
June, 2000 Costa Rica
July, 2000 Four Corners, New Mexico – Bible School and light repair work
August, 2000 Port-a-Prince, Haiti – coordinating with Carla and Ted Warnock, United Methodist Guest House
2001 Africa University
2001 Caribbean–Youth, being coordinated through the Methodist Action
Program

- b. United Methodist Committee on Relief – To increase giving of time, money, and in kind assistance to the United Methodist Committee on Relief. To encourage each church to raise a minimum of $1.00 per member for One Great Hour of Sharing.
- c. Encouraging Mission Involvement - To encourage involvement in mission as well as support for missionaries and Global Mission partners.
Hope for the Children of Africa – Advance #101000-4
This special appeal by the Bishops is to provide care – both physically and spiritually - for the children at risk in Africa.
Your prayers and financial contributions will make a difference.
- d. Mission Speakers Bureau – To develop a resource of individuals/groups who are willing to promote UM missions by sharing their mission experience and/or informing groups about the opportunities for mission involvement within the United Methodist framework.
- e. Refugee Concerns – To promote and coordinate sponsorship of refugee families within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
- f. Emergency Fund for Disaster Relief – Establish a fund in the amount of $2,500 to be used for emergency disaster relief within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference. We request that if funds are not used in a fiscal year, funds are to be rolled over and accumulate from year to year.

Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM)

Review of 1999 Goals

The goals for the year 1999 included: Native American Awareness Sunday, the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program; mentor grant to Indian Mission UMC; continued work on information and communications.

All the goals for 1999 were met and expanded during the year as follows:

Native American Sunday

Two committee members will be featured on the 2000 poster for Native American Awareness Sunday. They will also be featured at General Conference in a video. The acknowledgement of the works of our CONAM is deeply affirming.

Work continues in this Conference through publicity and the creation of a video to encourage more churches to participate in this special Sunday. We make speakers, storytellers, crafts, music, information and more available to every church in our conference on request.

A video "Talking About God" will be purchased for the Interfaith Resource Center and advertised as being available.

Native American Awareness Sunday raised $5,260 in our Conference and was distributed between our Conference and the General Conference.

Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program

The Rev. Jonathan Whitney visited CONAM and described the program and encouraged participation. Several options were developed and follow through will continue.

Indian Mission UMC

This is a very exciting and growing ministry in our Conference. CONAM hears reports and delights in encouraging and supporting this program.

Northeast Jurisdiction

Two members of our committee attended the initial meeting and were instrumental in getting the work of the committee going. They will continue to attend.

Native American Lay Speaker Event

Two members attended this event, held at Lake Junaluska NC in April. One member completed the beginner's course and one the advance course in Social Justice.

National CONAM Gathering

Two members of our committee attended this event, held in Tulsa OK in April. Our committee was used as a model for committees across the country.

CONAM has been very active and involved on all levels of our church. We have learned much, shared much and see much to be done in the future. Our purpose, that of information giving, monitoring, and sharing continues to grow and strengthen. We continue to seek ways to encourage all our local churches to participate in Native Awareness Sunday and the spiritual gifts of the Native American people. We will also continue to gather information about and give support to the Native Americans within our conference. Our growing relationships with Jurisdictional and General Conference will continue. We deeply appreciated the encouragement and support we have received from our conference.

Conference Committee On Mission Personnel

10-10-10

In conjunction with the General Board of Global Ministries, the Conference Committee on Mission Personnel is looking to identify:

- 10 Individuals to enter mission on a short term or long term basis
- 10 Sites available for mission within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference
- 10 Churches committing to be Global Mission Partners covenanting congregations

The Conference Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP) for the Peninsula-Delaware Conference was appointed in 1999. The Conference Co-Chairpersons received training from the General Board of Global Ministries in September 1999 and the initial meeting of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference CCMP was held on October 16, 1999.

Several churches have expressed an interest in a placement and several individuals have expressed an interest in participating in mission. After receiving the appropriate completed forms, the CCMP will be reviewing the requests and scheduling meetings/interviews to make their recommendations to the General Board of Global Ministries.

Churches, Mission Area Ministries, or other organizations within the Peninsula-Delaware Conference who are interested in requesting General Board of Global Ministries mission personnel are asked to complete a Placement Development Form. Individuals seeking to enter mission on a short term or long term basis are asked to complete a Personnel Information Form.

To request a Placement Development Form or Personnel Information Form, contact either Rev. Pearl Johnson (302)654-3103 or Carol Sieg (302)738-6423.

Section 1: Specific review of 1999 goals. List each goal with a brief narrative concerning its status (success, pending, etc.).

A. Workshop

1. Mission Workshop on United Methodist Committee on Relief (Pamphlets were used to explain the areas—Relief, Rehabilitation, Refugee, Ministry, and Root Causes of Hunger.
2. Hunger: Used a flat world map to compare the population (with peanuts) and the amount of food (with plastic forks/spoons). The comparison was presented in percents.

B. One Great Hour of Sharing is always the 4th Sunday in Lent.

Section 2: Highlight other significant events, accomplishments and challenges. Include details of all grants issued during 1999.

- A. Christmas Cards were sold for UMCOR. Peninsula-Delaware Conference was given credit for $400.00. This was mailed to the New York Office.

Section 3: Indicate any changes to 2000 goals.

A. Additions

1. Increase in One Great Hour of Sharing.

B. Workshops can be arranged on Hunger Relief.

C. Prepare a survey of food pantries and places that serve food in our conference. Districts can accomplish this.

Section 4: Resolutions (if applicable) together with the name, address, and telephone number of the point of contact for the resolution.

SECTION 1: REVIEW OF 1999 GOALS

GOAL 1: To continue to assist Local Churches in the education of members on various Health Ministry Programs thru seminars and mailings.
SUCCESS

GOAL 2: To continue to train and expand the Health Ministries and Parish Nurse Ministry programs to reach out to more and more people within the Conference. SUCCESS Helped with expenses of programs such as: "Spirituality in Nursing Practice" held in May at Easton Memorial Hospital; Health Ministries Assoc. training program for Parish Nurses and others held in June in Atlanta, Ga.; "Health Ministry-Parish Nursing: Past, Present, Future".

GOAL 3: To assist in the further implementation of Delaware Region Health Ministries Network (DRHMN). This is an interfaith association of individuals, congregations, and institutions; joined together to promote whole-person health. Works throughout our Conference. SUCCESS Northern Spring Gathering held in March at Aldersgate UMC; Southern Spring Gathering held in March at Bethesda UMC. Fall Gatherings held in September at Trinity UMC, Salisbury and St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Middletown.

GOAL 4: To continue the cooperative venture with other agencies to continue to spread the interconnectedness of health with spiritual, mental and physical well being. SUCCESS Helped sponsor delegate to Annual Meeting of Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Inc. in Baltimore, Md., in March. Board Member attended Delaware Interfaith Coalition on Aging in April at Beth Emeth Synagogue in Wilmington, De.

UPDATED 2000 GOALS:

Goals 1 through 4 are the same as 1999 Goals allowing for flexibility of programs within the four- (4) general goals.

GOAL 5: Older Adult Programs with various seminars and mailings on the subject and interconnectedness of health with spiritual, mental and physical well being.

Committee on Mission Education and Cultivation

REVIEW OF 1999 GOALS

WORK AND COMMUNICATE WITH LOCAL CHURCH:

We are still working to ensure that each church has a mission or outreach chairperson. We continued to strive for the total education of every church and charge concerning mission possibilities.

DISTRICT MEETINGS AND NEWSLETTERS:

Are still being used to target members of local churches, our districts, and conference of all generations. This is done to assure that the conference is informed at all levels about mission concerns and possibilities.

SUB-DISTRICT TRAINING:

Address proper training of mission secretaries. Our goal is to have one District secretary per district. We are excited about the work being done by our Mission Secretaries. This year we welcome Bethsheila T. Needam as Easton District Mission Secretary.

BISHOP'S AFRICAN APPEAL:

We endeavored to keep before our communities the work done and the work that remains to be done in Africa. We have supported both the VIM teams and the Africa University effort sphere headed by our Wilmington Mission District Secretaries. Africa University efforts have more than met their goals.

DISTRICT MISSION FOCUS:

In this program we have continued to do follow up and seek feedback on mission saturation events. Our plan for activities that engage our communities in ongoing mission is still being engaged. Greater missionary commitment is still our goal. Empowerment of our conference at every level is still our mission.

2000 GOALS

1. To support and provide training for district secretaries
2. To provide training for conference, district, and local church mission outreach chairperson and education in local churches on each district.
3. To encourage each district mission secretary to communicate mission activities to local mission leaders through newsletters and other forms of media.
4. To promote the Bishop's Appeal for Africa on the conference, district and local church levels.
5. To promote events that celebrate and strengthen mission outreach and education in local churches on each district.
6. To perform a district mission focus as a follow up to mission alive programs.
7. To cultivate youth involvement in missions in at least one project on each district.
8. To promote covenant relationships with missionaries.

To ensure that the work and training of this Mission Education and Cultivation team be continued in the 2000 transition.

All Christians are to consider themselves their Sisters and Brothers keeper. This should be evident in our mission concerns both at home and abroad.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., (PUMH) shares a common mission with the Conference, although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH. (A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church was adopted June 12, 1985.)

PUMH provides retirement housing and health care services to senior adults in Delaware and Maryland. It owns and operates Methodist Country House in Greenville, Delaware; Cokesbury Village in Hockessin, Delaware; and Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware, all continuing care retirement communities (CCRCs). PUMH also manages Heron Point, a CCRC in Chestertown, Maryland, which is owned by PUMH of Maryland, Inc. The four communities serve approximately 1,200 residents and employ 900 people.

Change in leadership: On June 30, 1999, after 18 years of leadership and service to PUMH as president and CEO, the Reverend Richard C. Stazesky retired. The next day, July 1, 1999, Allen L. Johnson became the new president and CEO.

The Reverend Stazesky has been involved with PUMH from its inception, assisting in the original fund-raising and then serving on the Board of Trustees from 1965 until 1981 when he became its third president. In those years PUMH completed 54 identifiable expansion projects, the two largest being the building of Heron Point in Chestertown, Maryland, in 1991 and 11 years of managing the Layton Home for Aged Persons in downtown Wilmington, from 1987 to 1998. Under his guidance PUMH assets have grown from $33 million to $151 million, enjoying Standard & Poor's triple B credit rating. The accreditation of the three Delaware communities in 1990 and their reaccreditation in 1995 confirm the emphasis on quality during Reverend Stazesky's tenure.

At the annual meeting of the PUMH Board of Trustees in September 1999, PUMH presented its George H. Pigueron Founder's Award to the Reverend Richard C. Stazesky, honoring his leadership and service to its residents, their families, and PUMH associates.

Mission Statement: Mr. Johnson chose to begin his leadership with writing and adopting a new vision and mission statement. Dated November 16, 1999, it reads:

PUMH is committed to fostering an exceptional quality of life and promoting fitness, health, wellness, and security for older adults we serve. In keeping with our religious tradition, we will help them meet their changing needs compassionately and with dignity. Through our stewardship we will ensure standards of excellence in our communities and the services we provide.

Our Values: caring, diversity, excellence, integrity, and trust.

Our Vision Statement: Our approach will be bold and our passion will be unparalleled.

We will have the courage to change and the determination to lead. Our methods will be innovative. We will communicate with, listen to, and learn from our associates and those we serve. Our principles will assure success.

Strategic Planning:

Organizations can no more afford to rest on their laurels than people can, and continued success requires change. The challenge at PUMH is to match services with the rising expectations of prospective residents and satisfy the accrediting agencies while still protecting financial strength. To that end, Mr. Johnson presented a three-year strategic plan for Board of Directors approval at the February 15, 2000, meeting, mapping specific tasks and goals for keeping PUMH at the forefront among CCRC providers.

When setting out to create a strategic plan, Mr. Johnson says, "it was important that we identify achievable and measurable objectives and identify mission-critical activities." In each category of the organization, attention was directed at how best to 1) serve the residents, 2) help staff succeed in their roles, and 3) use and enhance our facilities.

Financial resource management is key to the success of all programs. Reducing the operating ratio and the investment income needed for balancing the budget are among the financial goals. Other cost-related goals include preventive maintenance and infrastructure replacement plans. Fund-raising plans will focus on Cokesbury Village's capital campaign for its aqua therapy center and initiating a capital campaign for Country House.

A sampling of goals for PUMH corporate departments follows:

The goals for the Human Resources department are to reduce overtime and agency use by 50% and reduce turnover by 10%. Marketing will increase the power of PUMH Internet WebPages, identify new target markets, and update guidelines for the transition of residents through the continuum of care.

Information Systems' goals over the next three years involve using technology to improve communication between residents, other customers, and the community, and also explore the use of our investment in technology to generate additional revenue.

For our healthcare delivery system, PUMH will develop partnerships with educational institutions to measure outcomes, sponsor health outreach services into the greater community, and explore new models for delivery of care.

PUMH will continue to investigate alternative financing for new projects, particularly moderate income retirement housing with services, and explore ways to partner with other long-term care, real estate, or health care organizations.

The strategic planning effort has enabled PUMH staff to look closely at what the organization does well and what it could do better. "From a purely business standpoint, we have an obligation as a corporation to insure that the investment our residents have made in our retirement communities is secure," Mr. Johnson says. "It is critical for us to plan our future and create our future."

Accreditation:

Since 1990, the three Delaware PUMH retirement communities have earned accreditation by the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission (CCAC) for conforming to industry-wide standards in providing services to older adults. Re-accreditation occurs every five years; so in 2000, the process of self-assessment has begun again in preparation for the visits of the CCAC evaluation teams this summer. Heron Point is planning to apply this fall for its initial accreditation in 2001.

The Continuing Care Accreditation Commission established its national program in 1985 in order to promote and maintain quality and disclosure in the aging services industry. Accredited status indicates to the public and to the retirement industry that an organization meets or exceeds all of CCAC's Standards of Excellence in three areas of inquiry: 1) governance and administration, 2) financial resources and disclosure, and 3) resident life, health and wellness. An organization that meets CCAC standards is living up to its own mission, striving for excellence in its services, ensuring that its programs and practices are innovative and following an appropriate and achievable plan for the future.

Marketing plans:

During the CCAC reaccreditation process, PUMH has revised its corporate marketing plan, using a historical perspective, to identify where PUMH has been, its current position, and the appropriate future direction in meeting the needs of the retirement community. The process outlines the changes in the marketplace and the PUMH responses to those changes and the resulting statement reflects the challenges we face. Each facility also has developed a specific marketing plan using this same process and criteria.

Cokesbury Village: Over the past decade, Cokesbury Village has faced increasing pressure from competition, with newly constructed communities springing up in their primary markets. In response, Cokesbury Village began a major renovation process for its existing core building. Town Square will be expanded to incorporate enhanced informal dining and to consolidate resident shopping and services on one level in a more relaxed pleasant environment. In addition, unit turnover at Cokesbury initiates a major renovation process for each unit. New residents moving into the community may also customize their living space with high-end finishes, a process that continually keeps the product mix upgraded and updated.

Cokesbury Village has many active residents who place great emphasis on their personal health and fitness. In support of these pursuits and in response to the demands of a more proactive resident population, Cokesbury has implemented a comprehensive integrated approach to health and fitness, including a new fitness room with state-of-the-art exercise equipment and a new aqua center scheduled to open in Spring 2001.

Methodist Country House:

Founded in 1960, Methodist Country House is the oldest of the PUMH communities. Recognizing that there has been a shift in the senior housing market and the demand for larger accommodations has increased, Country House added several new wings in the last few years with larger apartments. In February 2000, renovation combining small studios into larger one- and two-bedroom units was completed, resulting in 14 spacious new apartments. Country House continues its master planning to complete the studio conversion process, to add a wellness center, community room, social model assisted living, and to renovate its health care center.

Methodist Manor House:

Since its opening in 1966, Methodist Manor House has served the residents in Sussex County. Manor House also has been able to meet the changing needs in the senior housing market with the addition of a wellness center in 1998. An indoor, heated pool promotes preventative and therapeutic health care, as well as fitness maintenance, for its residents and community membership holders. Manor House continues to be an innovative leader in the marketplace.

Special events and activities:

PUMH continues to sponsor and coordinate with the Parish Nursing Program, which was started under the former PUMH Aging Ministries Program. Currently, PUMH is assisting Parish Nursing in applying for grants to expand their ministry. Again this year, PUMH co-sponsored, with radio station WJBR, the (fourth) annual Senior Festival at Arshat Hall on the Goodstay Center campus of the University of Delaware, in May 2000. This annual event offers seniors of all income levels opportunities to learn about many of the services available to them.

PUMH continued as a sponsor for the Delaware Senior Olympics, as it has since 1993. This event annually grows in numbers of participants and in the available events, and we are proud to be able to continue this association.

All PUMH communities invite public participation in events teaching health and wellness in aging.

Residents of all PUMH communities volunteer extensively in their surrounding communities, many of them serving at local hospitals and other social service organizations.

Benevolence Funds:

We deeply appreciate the support that our Annual Conference churches and members give to the benevolence work of PUMH. We project that PUMH residents will need $400,000 in benevolent assistance during the PUMH fiscal year May 1, 2000 through April 30, 2001. Contributions to the PUMH Benevolence Fund enable us to assist those people whose income no longer covers the cost of care.

PUMH Of Maryland, Inc.

PUMH of Maryland, Inc., shares a common mission with the Conference although the Conference does not have any financial or legal responsibility for PUMH of Maryland, Inc. (A Covenant of Affiliation between PUMH of Maryland, Inc., and the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church was adopted June 5, 1990.)

PUMH of Maryland, Inc., owns Heron Point, a continuing care retirement community in Chestertown, Maryland. Heron Point is managed under contract by Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Heron Point has a mission to meet the changing needs of active older adults. They provide the highest standards of excellence in services and have committed its resources to carry out its goals in an efficient, cost effective and compassionate manner, offering personal growth and fulfillment for each resident. Heron Point appeals to an eclectic group of residents who are attracted by its location on a 66-acre site along the Chester River on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in historic Chestertown. The small town atmosphere and the presence of Washington College make it a desirable combination. Currently, nearly one hundred of the Heron Point residents are enrolled in "tuition free" courses at Washington College, or teaching there.

Heron Point currently offers a traditional life care contract and a 90% refundable entrance fee program. The market has responded positively to the services and amenities package at Heron Point and the occupancy has steadily risen above 90%.

Heron Point presently is completing a construction project 100% funded by resident contributions. It adds space and equipment for special programs for memory impaired residents.

Residents at Heron Point are extremely active in the Chestertown community, volunteering many hours of service at the local hospital and other community organizations.

Salisbury Urban Ministries

Review of 1999 Goals and Objectives

1. Provide Parish Nurse Training for the Health Ministry Coordinator.

Donna Clark, our Parish Nurse, attended the parish nurse training in Atlanta, GA, in April 1999.

2. Provide space in the new offices for more volunteers to be involved in identifying the needs of persons who request help. Coordinate information and help through available software of other services.

Three Social Work interns from Salisbury State University and the University of Maryland Eastern Shore worked in our Lazarus Fund Food Pantry in 1999. In addition to the interns, we have four to five other people each week interviewing and taking information. The software has not become available.

3. Identify additional resources for funding for maintenance and growth.

Grants were written and received from The Center For Poverty Solutions, The Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore, the United Way, and the Board of Child Care.

4. Establish a resource library at God's Kitchen.

Information is available through pamphlets from the Wicomico County Health Department, the Diabetes Foundation, and other medically related agencies.

5. Provide two cooperative worship services.

A covenant renewal service was held in May at St. Andrews Church with a reception following in the new offices. The Rev. Howard Gordy, outgoing District Superintendent, led the congregations in renewing their covenant to be in cooperative ministry. A thanksgiving eve service was held at Grace Church with the Urban Ministries pastors participating.

6. Provide monthly worship services that are planned and led by the youth.

Worship services designed by youth for youth are held the first Sunday of the month at Christ Church Youth work on teams revolving around music, drama, technical support, worship planning, and publicity. Attendance has ranged from 270 to 350 for the services from over 23 churches. Following the service each month is a time of fellowship and getting-to-know one another that includes pizza and special games.

7. Publish monthly newsletter for youth and youth ministries.

Monthly newsletters are sent to youth, youth leaders, and pastors. The current mailing list is 370.

8. Initiate pilot sailing-mentoring program at God's Kitchen.

This program had to be delayed. Plans are to begin in the spring of 2000. Volunteers have been identified.

9. Further define the spiritual enrichment program for the children.

Through the Urban Choir Camp, hand chime choir, and a new partnership with the Maryland Food Bank for a Kid's Cafe, we continue to look at ways we can be in ministry with the children from God's Kitchen.

Other Significant Events in 1999

The Rev. Drew Christian was appointed as the Youth Missioner. This is a newly created part-time position. He serves as a resource person for the youth leaders, pastors, and youth. Cooperative youth activities included an Assateague Beach Party that was attended by 152 youth from 11 churches, Senior High Canoe trip, dance and lock-in at the YMCA, and an overnight catacomb project.

We moved our offices in May to 402 E. Vine Street, Salisbury, Maryland. St. Andrews Church is donating the space.

The Urban Choir Camp held at Christ Church was attended by 41 children in grades 2 through 6. The theme was "Sing God's Praises in a Multi-Cultural World" The children sang songs in German, French, Hebrew, Cherokee, and Spanish. They learned about different cultures through devotions that were led by persons representing our diversity including Native American, Korean, and African American.

Goals for 2000

1. Work with District Superintendent to define vision and growth for Salisbury Urban Ministries.
2. To continue to develop and promote youth leadership and increase youth participation in all Youth Council activities.
3. To provide meals, health and other related services for the impoverished in our communities with Christian encouragement and opportunity for spiritual growth.
4. To promote the Lazarus Fund Food Pantry and Financial Assistance program through special offerings, congregational awareness, and monthly reporting to churches.
5. To further define roles and responsibilities of the Parish Council.

Methodist Action Program

Introduction

"Creating Communities of Compassion through Christian Faith In Action" is the Methodist Action Program's vision statement, Adopted late in 1996, this statement expresses an understanding of the ministry and the mission of MAP that is becoming more and more evident. It provides insight into the three historic and recently re-affirmed components of the Mission Statement.

"Helping individuals, congregations, mid communities,

- Meet Human Needs,
- Promote Positive Social Change. and
- Facilitate Church Development through the transforming power of Jesus Christ."

Meeting Human Needs

Every congregation in our Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference encounters members of neighborhoods who have pressing human needs; practically every church reaches out in one way or another to help.

For thirty-four years MAP has directed a major part of its effort at alleviating basic human needs. The programs have changed over the years and kinds of help provided have varied. But information, referral food, housing assistance, clothing, loving attention and the Gospel of Jesus Christ have always been offered to the limit of resources to all persons in severe need. During this past year MAP has sought to meet human need through the following programs.

OLD ASBURY HOMELESS MINISTRIES

The homeless problem in the lower Business District of Wilmington came to the Methodist Action Program because of our ownership of the Old Asbury Church building at 226 S. Walnut Street (Third and Walnut Street) in the City of Wilmington. Agencies and programs needing space to minister to the many homeless and hungry in that geographical area have requested MAP's assistance to help alleviate these problems. The projects housed in the Old Asbury Church building are clearly separate programs serving different aspects of homelessness. Alone, each does important things for the homeless- together, via coordination meetings and individual consultations they begin to focus homeless people's attention and energy on new life and on a more wholesome lifestyle. The following are the individual ministries that together comprise the Old Asbury Homeless Ministries:

- Emmanuel Dining Room

In 1980, The Ministry of Caring located its Emmanuel Dining Room (EDR) in our facility. The Old Asbury Church building, Third and Walnut has been serving nutritious meals every day of the year, with dignity, without question, and at no cost to persons in need. Each day, the Emmanuel Dining Room serves meals to an average of 1715 hungry persons. Through this program people who are hungry can eat one good meal a day, seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year. MAP provides space and utilities without charge for this ministry. MAP has also encouraged United Methodist Congregations throughout the County to support this vital ministry. The Emmanuel Dining Room depends upon the continued ecumenical support of more than 93 religious and civic groups who daily provide meals and the volunteers who prepare meals. For more information regarding the Emmanuel Dining Room, please contact 302-652-2577.

- FAITH Center

The Financial Information Theocentric Help Center is a religious community response to God's call to serve fellow human beings in crisis, who need compassion, love and assistance. Consultations, referrals to available community resources, and as appropriate, financial assistance are afforded to clients. Basic needs are teamed with self-help opportunities and encouragement to alleviate the effects of poverty. Acknowledging variations in theology, worship, and perspective, all communities of faith are invited into membership in the F. A. I. T. H. Center to serve our neighbors who are in need. For more information regarding FAITH Center, please contact 302-654-4550.

- Friendship House

Friendship House is a nonprofit Christian Corporation committed to making a difference in the lives of homeless and impoverished people in Wilmington. The agency has a continuum of services, a dedicated staff, and strong volunteer support. Friendship House offers hospitality, education, empowerment and a sense of community to those they serve. Friendship House provides men and women with day centers, residential programs, and job programs. In addition, they also have clothing, breakfast and worship, grant programs and community education. For more information on the Friendship House please call 302-652-8133.

CENTRO LOS ABUELOS: THE GRANDPARENTS CENTER

Centro Los Abuelos is an outreach ministry for Hispanic elderly. It is a Spanish speaking language and culture senior center program that is designed to promote social relationships and to stimulate creative growth. It is a center for information, referral, assistance, and services for Hispanic elderly persons. Programming is conducted in the following areas: social and recreational activities, nutrition, transportation, personal problem resolution, health maintenance, information and referral.

The Hispanic populations are the fastest growing segment of the Delaware community. Presently, Centro Los Abuelos is a participant in some of the programming provided by the State of Delaware, Division of Services for Aging and Adults with Physical Disabilities, most notably, the Nutrition Program operated by City Fare. Federal and State guidelines suggest a definition of sixty years and older for all participants. Many of seniors are financially challenged and are unable to afford any significant program fees. Many Hispanic seniors are unable or afraid to use or request services that are otherwise available to them from public or private agencies throughout the area due greatly because of a language barrier or lack of information. Centro Los Abuelos afford seniors an opportunity to take full advantage of services within a safe, friendly atmosphere. Transportation is provided free of charge and meal programs are available. Centro Los Abuelos provides Hispanic seniors a healthier and happier quality of life through participation in the agency programming. Through the program activities the elderly are helped to have a fuller range of their needs met and to gain greater opportunities for quality living through assisted access to available private and public resources.

Los Abuelos is located at 623 N. Harrison Street, Wilmington, DE 19805. For more information, please call Ms. Brenda Torres at (302) 254-3199.

FOOD ASSISTANCE MINISTRIES

MAP Continues to help people feed their families when times are difficult. Combining the food offerings of a number of the United Methodist Churches in the Greater Wilmington area with a little Federal emergency funding and the resources of the Food Bank of Delaware.

The following are the facilities currently administering food assistance ministries:

MAP WALK for HOUSING

With the co-sponsorship of PNC Bank, MAP conducted its Tenth Annual MAP WALK for Housing. By means of these five and fifteen kilometer walks, MAP raised over $40,000. Some of the net proceeds were returned to "partner" nonprofit organizations, which received, back one half of all funds that their walkers raised. The balance after all expenses were paid was distributed equally between the beneficiaries. 1999 Beneficiaries included Friendship House, Habitat for Humanity of New Castle County, Interfaith Housing Delaware, Sojourner's Place, and MAP's Old Asbury Homeless Ministries.

ANNUAL INTERFAITH COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT SYMPOSIUM

The Methodist Action Program is proud to be a co-sponsor of the 1st Annual Interfaith Community Development Symposium. The symposium is a major step toward meeting one of the goals of its mission statement: Helping individuals, congregations and communities meet human needs.

The objective of the symposium is to convene an interfaith, statewide educational opportunity that will provide participants, both with specific skills they can take with them to make informed decisions about their involvement in community development activities. The Symposium will also afford Delaware's religious leaders an opportunity to network across denominations and faith with other leaders to discuss common concerns and challenges.

In order to deliver the information effectively, there are three major areas or "tracks" of concentration highlighted in the symposium:

- a.) Community Leadership and Leadership Development
- b.) Organizational Structures for Development Activity
- c.) Program and Project Development

Registrants are encouraged to select a "track" that will benefit them and their organization, and attend each of the workshops devoted to that topic. The Symposium will be an annual event with follow-up sessions throughout the year.

The following are two new initiatives at Methodist Action program:

SUMMER YOUTH ENTREPRENEUR CAMP

Some of the most devastating daily occurrences that take place throughout our communities is the constant use and sale of drugs, the threat of violence, and the lack of educational opportunities to prepare our youth for the current economic trends.

The Youth Entrepreneur Camp will introduce low-income youth from local communities to the world of business and entrepreneurship by teaching them how to develop and operate their own legitimate small businesses. The vision is to provide each youth that participates in the camp with the knowledge to pursue economic self-sufficiency.

This two-week intensive course could be considered the ultimate summer job, and entrepreneurial apprenticeship. The participants will be instructed by the staff of The National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship (NFTE) to start their own businesses. The student's will be afforded the opportunity to take a variety of field trips.

THE PERFORMMMG ARTS CAMP

The Methodist Action Program intends to promote a cultural sharing with the youth within the conference and change with youth in the Caribbean Conference. We will carry out this mission first through a Performing Arts Camp.

The Performing Arts Camp will be held July 31-August 4, 2000 at Drayton Retreat Center in Chestertown, Maryland. Youth ages 13-17 who attend the camp will serve as the core group for the Mission Trip to the Caribbean in July 2001.

Included in the camp will be vocal, instrumental, dancing and acting training, Bible study will be conducted and Caribbean cultural seminars. Following the camping experience the youth will meet twice a month to continue their training. Four musical productions will be performed at local churches throughout the year. In July 2001 the youth will travel to Freeport, Bahamas for a final production at the Caribbean Conference Youth Convocation.

FACILITATING CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Church development efforts to seek to reach uncharted persons with good news of new life in Jesus Christ. MAP's support over the last two years has enabled two groups of laity and clergy to study the counties of the Wilmington District and identify nine geographic and demographic priorities for congregational development. Some of these priorities are in growing communities, where too few churches exist to serve the rising population. Other priorities are in changing communities, where existing congregations have been unable or unwilling to include new neighbors in their programming and fellowship.

Of the nine priorities, one calls for an Afro-centric in the Newark-Christiana corridor, two call for reaching the growing populations of African Americans and Latino persons in Claymont and New Castle, one calls for ministry with the economically disenfranchised in western Cecil County, one calls for an intentionally multi-racial congregation in the Christiana-Bear corridor, and one calls for new worshipping communities in the city of Wilmington, possibly in or under the auspices of existing churches. The other three priorities are the growing populations in Middletown and northwest Elkton, and to offer throughout New Castle County alternative worship services in different styles, and/or at different locations, and/or at different times, and/or on different days.

Revitalization efforts, in concert with the Mission Area Ministry initiative of Peninsula-Delaware Conference, focus on helping a congregation identify and connect with its local community in order to proclaim the Gospel and be in ministry and relationship with it's neighborhood.

For more information, please contact Mr. Randy Wein, Wilmington District Office, Peninsula-Delaware Conference, The United Methodist Church 220 Baynard Boulevard Wilmington, DE 19802-3939, or phone 1-800-201-1636 or (302) 571-1471.

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIVITIES

Local Church Lay Representatives

All Wilmington District churches have been reminded and encouraged to elect a Lay Representative (aka MAP Rep.) to the Methodist Action Program. The Lay Representatives have been meeting regularly to increase the two-way information flow on MAP accomplishments, programs, and opportunities for assistance in program development in local churches. The Lay Representatives have assisted in designing some program activities and in implementing them in their congregations. They have taken responsibility for the Annual Meeting at which reports are given, members of the Board of Directors are elected, and awards are given. The Lay Representatives coordinate the ministry and mission of the Methodist Action Program with the needs of the local United Methodist Churches and their communities.

ANNUAL MEETING

In memory of Mr. Samuel McKay who helped found the Methodist Action Program, the 1999 Annual Meeting recognized the following persons who put their faith in action in exemplary ways:

- Evelyn Burkle
- Neesy DeCherney
- Jessie Tate
- Yvonne Younger

New Directors were elected:

- Terry Hasson
- Brenda Tildon

NEW HOME FOR CENTRAL OFFICE

In 1999 MAP moved its office to the Community Service Building in Wilmington, Delaware. MAP's new address and telephone number are as follows:

Methodist Action Program
100 West 10th Street, Suite 701
Wilmington, Delaware 19901
Telephone: (302) CALL-MAP (225-5627)
Facsimile: (302) CALL FAX (225-5329)

THANK YOU, PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

The Methodist Action Program continues to respond to the mission of Meeting Human Needs Promoting Positive Social Change and Facilitating Church Development.

Presently, MAP is experiencing a powerful transforming period. We are working closer with our local United Methodist Churches and their communities. As we allow the Holy Spirit to guide us, we witness hope, excitement, and empowerment in the ministries in which we are involved.

The Methodist Action Program is a planning, training and resource agency which will enable communities and congregations in all areas of the Conference to examine both the resources and their community's needs and then step out boldly on God's promise, creating new ways to be in the church.

Kathryn Cooper- Nicholas
Executive Director

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

REVIEW OF 1999 GOALS

1. We have continued to work toward the goal of putting into place a system for obtaining from congregations the names and locations of students from their parishes who are away at college. Response is still inadequate, creating frustration among those who work in our college communities. We ask one person in each congregation to take responsibility for submitting pertinent information to the Conference Resource Center in the early fall of each year.

2. Materials on loans and scholarships have again been made available. We have continued to sift carefully through scholarship applications and have awarded these. Please note that for the two scholarships over which we have jurisdiction, applicants must be (1) U. S. citizens, (2) who have been members of The United Methodist Church for at least one year, (3) whose membership is now in a church within our Conference, and (4) who are attending a United Methodist college, university, or seminary. One of the two scholarships is available only to persons in their first year of study in the school. Applications can be obtained from the Conference Resource Center and should be submitted by March 1 of each year.

3. We have conscientiously worked toward Conference restructuring in a way that will give appropriate place to the concerns of the board.

SECTION 2. OTHER SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

Our support has continued for the Black College Fund, United Methodist Student Day, and the work of Africa University. Our Black College Student outstanding presentation at the 1999 Annual Conference session; we regret that due to alterations in the agenda, this presentation occurred at an hour on Sunday afternoon when almost no one was left in the auditorium.

We have updated the Guidebook on Campus Ministry in Peninsula-Delaware Conference. Copies can be obtained from the Conference Resource Center.

A Power-Point video program of professional quality has been produced describing and illustrating the work of each of our campus ministries. We urge it be shown in local churches both to youth groups and to those responsible for ministry to students. The videotape program can be used on any standard VCR, and copies can be obtained at the office of any District Superintendent, as well as at the Conference Resource Center.

Several personnel changes occurred during 1999. Rev. Sue Olson was called as Chaplain at Wesley College, following the reassignment of the previous chaplain, Lehman Tomlin, Jr. Due to the retirement of Phil Bosserman at Salisbury, that ministry unit is now under the direction of Rev. Wes Davis, who also serves on the staff of Asbury Church, Salisbury. We welcome these new workers in campus ministry and give thanks for the labors of those upon whose work they build. We are grateful for the continuing work at our other centers under the direction of Rev. Richard Hicks at Delaware State, Rev. Charlotte Nichols, at UMES, and Rev. Laura Lee Wilson at University of Delaware.

SECTION 3. CHANGES TO 2000 GOALS

We basically reaffirm the goals we have set for 2000. To these we are adding an informal event of one or two days at which the leaders of all five of our campus units will meet to discuss common concerns, to exchange ideas and experiences in campus ministry, and to provide a better system of communication and interaction across the Conference.

Written standards of evaluations for our various units have now been approved, and each unit will be evaluated once every five years on a rotating basis. The following schedule has been adopted:

- 2001- Delaware State
- 2002- Salisbury State
- 2003- University of Maryland Eastern Shore
- 2004 - University of Delaware
- 2005 - Wesley College

Laurence Hull Stookey
Chair

Wesley College

The faculty, staff, and students of Wesley College extend their greetings to the members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church. We are pleased to present this report.

Enthusiasm and growth have again marked the 1999-2000 academic year. Headcount enrollment grew by 350 to over 1,750 students, over $7 million was invested in the physical plant, and two new graduate level programs were added to the existing curriculum. The University Senate of the United Methodist Church enthusiastically endorsed the work of the College with a stellar accreditation report and 10-years of continued affiliation.

A highlight for the campus community is the renaissance occurring in the Office of the Chaplain. The recent influx of students has included many that are eager for participation in religious and service activities. The chaplain's office repertoire of activities and programs has included weekly chapel services, weekly Bible study, an on-line devotional group, prayers for functions, and plenty of counseling. Additionally, the Chaplain has scheduled monthly fellowship club meetings, trips to the Holocaust Museum and the National Cathedral, and a concert on campus.

The Office of the Chaplain encourages students to reach out in service to the broader community. Many students are involved in individual service projects such as tutoring, Boys and Girls Club, and Habitat for Humanity. The chaplain's office officially sponsors two service trips per year: a weekend service plunge with the homeless in Washington, DC, and a weeklong "Alternative Spring Break" service trip. The 2000 service trip took 13 students, the chaplain, and an additional staff advisor to the Hole in the Wall Gang Camp for terminally ill children in Connecticut, and further volunteer work (and recreation) in Washington, DC. Other mission projects include volunteer work with the children at Shepherd Place homeless shelter, and the Bowl for Kids Sake program that serves the Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

The history of Wesley reflects the faith and concerted efforts of many dedicated people. A group of citizens, perceiving the need for education on the Delmarva Peninsula, emphasized the seriousness of their intent by pledging the necessary funds for a preparatory school named the Wilmington Conference Academy, which opened in Dover under the patronage of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1873. A new charter changed the name to Wesley Collegiate Institute in 1918, enabling the school to extend its offerings to include the first two years of college. In the late 1970's, baccalaureate degrees were added and the name changed to Wesley College. In the 1990's, six graduate programs and two off-campus centers were added, strengthening the College's position as a comprehensive institution.

In its academic program, Wesley remains committed to the liberal arts and seeks to make its curriculum relevant to changing educational needs. Our general education curriculum, developed by our own faculty and staff, is a model for residential liberal arts colleges, and I am proud of the emphasis it gives to the development of writing, speaking, and mathematical skills in all our academic programs. Wesley challenges its students to a life-long commitment to develop their intellectual, ethical, spiritual, and leadership potential and to set and uphold standards of excellence. Closely related to The United Methodist Church, the College is a community of learning based on the fundamental principles formed at the intersection of Christian faith and liberal education: intellectual rigor, self-discovery, human dignity, mutual support, social justice, self-discipline, mental and physical wellness, the appreciation of diversity and the natural world, and the judicious use of resources. The College recognizes and affirms its interdependence with external communities - - local, regional, national, and global--and its covenant with the people of Delaware to share its educational and cultural resources. Clearly, Wesley takes pride in its past and energetically continues to seek effective means to serve the educational needs of the Mid-Atlantic region.

*Wesley is the fastest growing residential liberal arts college in the nation the past two years. Since 1997, headcount has increased from 1,052 to 1,750; full-time from 617 to 1,039 and all classrooms and residence halls are full.

*Wesley is the first college in the United States to have a campus-based Boys and Girls Club. The program affords additional educational opportunities for undergraduate students at Wesley and provides year-round, safe educational and recreational opportunities for over 300 disadvantaged youth from throughout Central Delaware.

*Wesley is the first college in the United States to serve as the home of a charter school (The Campus Community School), offering alternative educational opportunities for students in grades 1-8. The school, founded in 1997, serves as a laboratory for Wesley students enrolled in teacher education.

*Wesley is listed in five national publication rankings for quality and value.

*Wesley is the home of Children's Theater of Kent County, offering dramatic arts opportunities for over 200 school youths.

*Wesley is "the college" of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference of the United Methodist Church, serving over 480 churches and its students.

*Wesley is the leader among NCAA Division III institutions with 17 intercollegiate sports for men and women. The Wolverines are members of the Pennsylvania Athletic Conference in all sports except football. Wesley competes in the new Atlantic Central Athletic Conference in football. This past year, the Wolverines recorded seven conference titles, with four "coaches of the year" and nearly 50 All-Conference operatives.

*Wesley is the home of a fall Cultural Arts Series and Faculty Lecture Series for the benefit of students and the surrounding communities. A new Music in the Wesley Chapel Series serves the campus and community at no cost through private sponsorship.

*Wesley is an international campus with students from 17 foreign countries. Study abroad opportunities are available in Europe and Japan.

*Wesley is a major economic contributor to the State of Delaware. The college has an annual economic impact over $80 million and a physical plant valued at $57 million (replacement value).

*Wesley is a good neighbor and partner with the Dover Air Force Base, offering educational opportunities to over 300 military personnel and their families each year.

* Wesley is an innovative leader in environment studies, offering nearby off-campus learning opportunities at the Inland Bays Center and the Wallops Island Consortium.

*Wesley is one of the unique institutions in the country offering a special Freshman Academic Success *Track (FASTtrack) program. This program is a partnership (covenant) among the students, parents, and College to work with students as they strive to reach their academic potential. This program has contributed to a 92 percent retention rate — among the best in the nation.

*Wesley's core curriculum, known as WISE (Wesley Interdisciplinary Seminar Experience), provides a holistic national model for undergraduate education.

*Wesley, in partnership with a major national education enterprise, extended its services and educational programs statewide last year through a Center for Adult Studies, with over 200 students, in Wilmington.

*Wesley has invested nearly $15 million in capital since 1997 — more new construction than we have seen in some 20 years. We have renovated existing facilities, expanded technology, improved aesthetics, and upgraded science instrumentation to properly prepare Wesley for the 21st Century.

* All of this takes financial support from private sources. During the past two years, giving has surpassed the previous 10 years. Such giving has earned the College two Circle of Excellence Awards from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education — one for overall improvement; the other as one of the seven best liberal arts fund-raising programs in the nation. I am committed to Wesley taking the leadership role among the region's private residential colleges in continuous improvement. At a time when accountability is a watchword among the nation's higher education systems, Wesley has stepped forward on its own accord to make it better. As we began the spring semester, approximately 40 continuous improvement projects were in process around the campus.

*I share with our community pride in our athletic programs. Certainly, I am proud when our teams are victorious, but I am even more proud when I realize that nearly 50 percent of our student-athletes have a 3.0 grade point average or better. It is my belief that Wesley is a leader among NCAA Division III institutions in our efforts to place athletics in its proper perspective in relation to academics.

*I share pride in our faculty, staff, and retirees for the amount of time they give to this community. I share pride in the giving spirit exhibited by our students, who contributed over 1,000 hours of their time last year toward the betterment of the area through volunteer programs.

*I have touched on many parts of our mission. But the most important, of course, is teaching. The opportunity to teach, at any level, is a wonderful gift. I can think of very few jobs that afford a person the chance to touch and transform so many lives — literally thousands over the course of a teaching career.

*This commitment to teaching, I believe, illustrates what we hear most often from our alumni. Wesley is a very special place. I am proud of all those who have made it so, for the past 127 years.

To assist in communicating the wonderful things, which are occurring at Wesley College, we have significantly expanded our World Wide Web site with daily postings of news and information. Sections have been added focusing on the College, the Untied Methodist Church, and the life of John Wesley. By accessing my personal web site, you will find speeches, newspaper columns, and position papers relevant to the College.

We at Wesley value the continuing relationship with the United Methodist Church and we appreciate the church's support of the College's educational mission.

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry

1999 Goals

1. Educate the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as to the vitality and significance of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware so we may continue to provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, as well as physical and educational nourishment for the entire university community.
This is an ongoing process as we connect with local congregations.
2. Provide outreach to the de-churched* at the university.
We continue to provide the opportunity for students to explore their questions and doubts about the organized church.
3. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
We have met this goal and will be discussed in Section III.
4. Encourage students to consider professional ministries as vocations, and to provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.
Drew Cottle, former WFCM student graduated Perkins School of Theology this year. Amy Sens, former WFCM student, is applying to seminary for the fall of 2000. Current students continue to explore God's call upon their lives.
5. Continue to support students who are in the ordination or consecration process.
We have met this goal as students come forth with their discernment.
6. Promote with the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relationship to the Book of Discipline.
Through God's grace, love and guidance we have met this goal successfully.
7. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to foreign students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.
We continue to be in dialogue with the Center for Black Culture, Hillel and the Latino community through programming.
8. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches.
Effort has been made in this area.
9. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration at the University of Delaware.
Through God's grace, love and guidance we have met this goal successfully.
10. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.
The Board of Directors never cease to be raising funds for this ministry.
11. Foster Board of Directors development.
We continue to make efforts in this area.

*de-churched: those who have been nurtured by the church and have drifted away for various reasons

Section II

The United Methodist Campus Ministry, Wesley Foundation, at the University of Delaware is a vital part of the campus community witnessing in our Wesleyan heritage by our presence and our mission for The United Methodist Church. As we encourage the integrating of knowledge and spirituality through an intellectual, spiritual, and material ministry to all God's people, we hold to the vision of the One who has called us to be bold, faithful disciples of Jesus the Christ. We are a mission field ministry of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference.

Our toughest challenge continues to be the raising of funds to support our United Methodist presence at the largest academic institution within the boundaries of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. The students are interested in the presence of the church; the administration encourages the presence of the church, yet we, the church, struggle to maintain our presence. The Board of Directors have prayed and worked without ceasing to raise the funds necessary to maintain a full-time ministry. The efforts in fund raising have been successful to an extent. However, our expenses continue to increase due to growth. The conference support has not increased for the past twelve years.

Jesus the Christ is center to all our activities. Our spiritual growth is the center for our lives through retreats, worship, Covenant Discipleship Groups, Bible study, and Sunday Theological Discussion Fellowship. The student lounge provides a quiet, sacred space for the students to meditate, sleep, eat and study. Holding fast to our belief that social activities are an important part of our Christian fellowship, we have shared in parties, sport activities, movie nights, eating, tailgating, Christian rock concerts, hayrides and various other activities. One of our highlights for each semester is offering free midnight breakfast during final exam week. We had 130 students during the spring semester exam period and over 250 students come to the church for a free breakfast during the fall semester exam period.

Committed to living our Christian discipleship, we continue our service projects in love for the people of God. Locally we cleaned our highway, served at PeaceMeal, sorted food at Delaware Food Bank, Habitat for Humanity workday, AIDS Hotline, the Literacy Council, Big Brothers/Sisters, and collected gifts for persons living with HIV/AIDS. Nationally, our spring break was a Volunteer In Mission work week. We went to Lumberton, NC, to The United Methodist Church's mission, Robeson County Church and Community Center. From March 27 through April 2, the students, campus pastor and a Board member replaced roofs, ceilings, painted and sorted clothing and food for senior citizens in this tri-racial community. The students did all the fund raising for this trip.

Once again the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry has assumed shared leadership in the Interfaith Celebration of Lights, the Interfaith Thanksgiving Celebration, Sexual Assault Awareness Week, Candlelight Vigil during National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week, and the Yom HaShoah Program. Our student leadership continues to be one of our strongest gifts. The Student Steering Committee and the Peer Ministers plan and lead various programs throughout the year.

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware is viewed on campus as the leader for the campus religious and spiritual life. Our Executive Director/Campus Pastor serves on the President's Commission to Promote Racial and Cultural Diversity, chairing the Religious and Spiritual Life Concerns Caucus, the Commission on Sexuality, Sexual Assault Awareness Week Team, the Campus Diversity Unit, the Christian Denominational Campus Minister's group, the University Religious Leaders' Organization, New Student Orientation, NCBI Welcoming Diversity Workshop leader, Media Committee for the Robert Wood Johnson Campus/Community Coalition, Planning Committee, Student Events Coordinating Council, mentor for colleagues in campus ministry (locally and nationally) developing and leading workshops for the professional Residence Life staff, the Center for Counseling and Student Development, and the Division of Student Life senior staff. Pastoral care/counseling is provided to the entire campus community either by referrals or by individual request.

Being in campus ministry at the end of the 20th century with the increased interest in religious and spiritual life is one of the most challenging ministries the church could provide. There is an essential and vital need for the presence of The United Methodist Church at the University of Delaware. We are providing a ministry of spiritual, service, social and stewardship through the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry. The United Methodist Student Movement is growing at U of D. God is ever-present in our challenging ministry as we continue to be faithful people, nurturing faithful minds for faithful lives. The church is needed on our campuses. May the church never forget the importance of the mission field called a university/college campus! It is part of our Wesleyan heritage: uniting knowledge and spirituality.

Section III

There are no changes in our 2000 goals.

Mission Statement

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware, mission realized through the love and grace of Jesus the Christ, provides a program focusing on the spiritual, service, stewardship and social aspects of a Christ centered life. In these times of challenge, questioning and growth, this ministry, guided by the Holy Spirit, provides a vital United Methodist presence at the University of Delaware.

2001 Goals

1. Educate the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference as to the vitality and significance of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at the University of Delaware so we may continue to provide full-time pastoral leadership, opportunity for spiritual growth, and education for the entire university community.
2. Continue the active participation in community service projects and explore opportunities for mission work experiences.
3. Support current and former students who are considering professional ministries as vocations, and provide training opportunities for future lay leadership within the church.
4. Promote within the student fellowship an awareness of social and societal issues and their relation to the Book of Discipline.
5. Continue to develop a relationship with ethnic groups, to provide ministry to international students and to foster Christ-like acceptance and respect for all God's children.
6. Provide outreach to the de-churched* at the University.
7. Provide information about Wesley Foundation's ministries and programs to conference churches and to help strengthen the relationships between these churches and their campus ministry.
8. Encourage and support the liaison ministry between the religious community and the administration at the University.
9. Seek additional means and methods of fund raising to maintain financial stability and security.
10. Foster development of the Board of Directors through identification of new members and the committed participation of current members.

*de-churched: those who have been nurtured by the church and have drifted away for various reasons

Laura Lee C. Wilson, Executive Director

Wesley Foundation
University Of Maryland Eastern Shore

This has been a very productive year for Wesley Foundation—UMES. We now have a new president of the Wesley Foundation Board; Dr. William Pender Sr. Dr. Pender has spent many faithful years as a board member as well as having held several different offices.

GOAL 1 (1999)

Identify and provide nurture and support for the Christian community on the UMES campus.

We participate in the "First Look Fair" during the Fall. This is an event that gives each organization on campus an opportunity to introduce their particular organization to the student body. Tables are set up in the Common Area of the Student Development Center. We give out flyers, information sheets, and inspirational gifts to help students learn more about Wesley Foundation.

We have a "Get Acquainted Reception" for students in the Chapel during the Spring and Fall.

We post flyers around the campus to announce our events and Bible Study.

Wesley Foundation students invite their friends and classmates to attend and join Wesley Foundation.

I have office hours and "seek out" and "accept" opportunities to minister and to be visible on the campus.

I counsel with various members of the UMES community and when necessary make referrals. Several of these opportunities have been bereavement counseling. Once, by request from the family, I was the one to inform the student of her mother's death. We have had several students whose mother, father, grandparent, or close friends died this year.

GOAL 2

Provide opportunities for worship, fellowship and learning for "seekers" and "believers" on the journey of faith.

We sponsored the following activities to meet this goal:

- Thursday Night Bible Study
- Fellowship activities
- Religious Emphasis Week (April 1999)
- UMES Day. – The Rev. Grant Johnson was the speaker this year. The UMES Gospel Choir was the guest choir. Over 70 persons from the UMES community were present, including more than 60 students.
- Sunday Morning worship – Although I pastor Metropolitan United Methodist Church, I encourage Wesley Foundation students to attend the church of their choice. Therefore, some Wesley Foundation members attend Metropolitan while others attend other churches in the area. There are also students who attend Metropolitan on Sunday morning who have not become members of Wesley Foundation.

Provide opportunities for persons to express their faith through community service and other "acts of mercy."

Our students work as volunteers at Princess Anne Primary School, Seton Center and various local churches including Metropolitan United Methodist Church. They also participate in campus-sponsored activities for the community.

GOAL 4

Challenge and support those persons who believe they have been called with Christian vocations.

Although we have not had anyone who has experienced a call into Christian vocation, many of the students are very active in finding ways to express their Christian faith.

CLOSING STATEMENT

Doing campus ministry at UMES definitely is Mission-Area Ministry. It is through the partnership of the UMES community under the leadership of the President, Dr. Delores Spikes that we are able to live out our mission. Because Wesley Foundation is also an organization of Student Activities, we have the same rights and privileges that all of the organizations on campus have. We, therefore, have resources available to us, such as a chapel, that enables us to do our work more effectively.

Without the support we continue to receive from the United Methodist Churches throughout the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, we would not exist. For your support, we say "Thank You."

We have United Methodist students from the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, from various states and countries participating in Wesley Foundation and attending Metropolitan United Methodist Church. I have direct contact with Wesley Foundation.

Metropolitan United Methodist Church and counseling with over 100 students and members of the UMES community. I have indirect contact through participating in the various UMES-sponsored activities such as Commencement, Founder's Day, Alumni President's Luncheon, etc., with most of the UMES community.

GOALS

Identify and provide nurture and support for the Christian community on Campus.

Provide opportunities for worship, fellowship and learning for "seekers" and "believers" on the journey of faith.

Provide opportunities for persons to express their faith through community Service and other "acts of mercies."

Challenge and support those persons who believe they have been called into Christian vocation.

Charlotte A. Nichols
Executive Director

Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry
Delaware State University

Mission

The mission of the Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry at Delaware State University is to provide an intentional, nurturing Christian presence on campus, which models the love and ministry of Jesus Christ. This mission is implemented through worship, study, reflection, counseling and fellowship and by providing opportunities for service to others. The ministry, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, seeks to support all members of the university community as they engage in the process of value formation, faith development and spiritual growth.

Program

The program includes (1) student ministries, with particular focus on the Wesley Christian Student Club, (2) ministries with the larger university community and (3) ministries beyond the campus, including outreach, missions and community related ministries.

1. Student Ministry

- a. Membership in the Wesley Student Club has grown significantly. The core group is about 12, which we think is encouraging, considering the size of the university and the many activities on campus which compete for students' time and interests.
- b. Our students are engaged ecumenically with other student religious organizations on campus.
- c. During the fall term we elected a "Miss Wesley Foundation" who participated in all Homecoming activities. We also sponsored a float in the parade.
- d. Ten students attended a Black History Month lecture on the Jubilee given by Dr. Cain Hope Felder at Mother AUMP Church in Wilmington in February. Two students attended the African American Student Leadership Conference at Gulfside Assembly in Mississippi. Four attended a national ecumenical Annual Student Retreat in Atlanta and seven will attend the National United Methodist Student Forum in May, also to be held in Atlanta.
- e. Our Peer Ministry program is active and very effective. Two students are engaged in this ministry. The increasing number of members in the Wesley Club is directly related to the efforts of our Peer Ministers.
- f. Our students are also involved in local church worship. They accompanied the director to a church in Millsboro, DE to observe Student Recognition Sunday. Several regularly attend Whatcoat in Dover and were participants in the Youth Day program there.
- g. The Listening Post Ministry, which focuses on commuter students, is now firmly established with volunteers from Whatcoat UMC in Dover. We have met with Sterling Green, Dover District Superintendent, pastors and lay persons from the Dover District to explore ways of expanding this ministry to involve other churches on the district.

2. Ministries with the Larger University Community

- a. The Director serves the university in a variety of official ceremonies and programs.

- b. We are active participants in the interfaith United Campus Ministries, which is the umbrella organization for all student religious organizations and campus ministers.
- c. We are pleased to report that;
 - (1) The director has been named Coordinator of Religious Affairs for the university. Although this is an unsalaried portfolio, it represents the growing awareness on the part of university officials of the important role religion plays on campus.
 - (2) The director submitted a proposal to teach an Introduction to World Religions course which has been approved and will be offered each spring semester beginning in 2001. This is also significant because the only course related to religion in the current curriculum is Philosophy of Religion, which is offered only one semester each four years. Our hope is that additional courses in religion will be added to the curriculum in the future.

3. Ministries beyond the Campus

- a. The Wesley Foundation co-sponsors the Howard Bailey Life Enrichment Program, which is a conference wide program for youth. We sponsor its annual retreat on the DSU campus during the summer and view this as a vital ministry which connects us with an important conference wide program and involves us with a cross section of youth who are potential students at DSU.
- b. We have been involved with mission programs related to Liberia, West Africa. The director was a special guest of Bishop Arthur Kulah at the 2000 session of the Liberia Annual Conference in Gbarnga City. During the visit we distributed 85-100 pound bags of rice to families and hospitals. Funds for purchasing the rice came from appeals to friends, civic and fraternal organizations, and members of Whatcoat UMC in Dover and other churches in the New York and Baltimore/Washington Conferences. Additionally, our students collect and prepare packages for shipment to Liberia and Sierra Leone at various times throughout the year.
- c. We co-sponsored the Harlem Tabernacle Dance Ministry in a recital on campus. This was a community wide project. Other co-sponsors were The Affordable Housing Alliance of Delaware, The Milford/Slaughter Neck Branch of the NAACP and Whatcoat UMC.
- d. The director is active in the Interdenominational Ministerial Association (IMA) of Dover and Vicinity.

Board of Directors

Attendance at Board meetings is excellent and several members of the Board are actively involved in our programs. Some have supported the ministry financially. We are grateful for the leadership of Dr. George R. Kent, Board Chair; to Dr. Homer Minus, the former Director of the Wesley Foundation, for his invaluable counsel, and to all the officers and members of the Board. We are also grateful for the support of the university, especially through Dr. Charles N. Smith, V. Pres. for Enrollment and Student Affairs, and Mrs. Lowan Pitt, Asst. V. Pres. for Student Affairs at the university. We thank Dr. James Seymour, Director of the Conference Resource Center, for his support and counsel as well as to the members of the churches in the Peninsula/Delaware Conference which support our Board and the ministry in which it is engaged on behalf of the Conference and of the United Methodist Church.

Goals for 2000-2001

1. To organize a choral ensemble and liturgical dance team.
2. To sponsor a major fund raising event in order to help meet the increasing need for funds as the number of students and the scope of our ministry grows.
3. Arrange for periodic student visits to nursing homes as part of our outreach ministry and in response to student requests to be involved in this kind of ministry.
4. Continue our appeal to pastors, chairs of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, parents and members of United Methodist Churches to supply names of current and incoming students at DSU, which is of critical importance. With this information we are able to identify the students immediately and make direct and personal contact, which in turn encourages them to participate in our programs and ministries.

BOARD OF LAITY

STATEMENT OF GOALS AND RESULTS FOR 1999

Goal #1 Increase the "Partnership in Ministry" of Local Church Lay Leaders through the Leadership Development Team's Opportunities. Increase by 5% total participation.

Result: Worked with Leadership Development Team to provide leadership training opportunities, which would empower laity to serve more effectively. New nurturing courses developed were: Small Groups Getting Started; Inquiry into Ministry; Overview of the Discipline; Conflict Resolution, etc.

Goal #2 Increase the training of Lay Members and Reserves of the Annual Conference through Pre-Conference training at each District by each District Board of Laity.

Result: Currently considering proceeding with development of appropriate script.

Goal #3 Continue the Lay Speaking Program in each District with a 5% increase in new Lay Ministries participants. Develop one new advanced course each year.

Result: We have met our long-range goal of 1500 lay speakers for our conference, both local and certified. We will now establish a new goal.

Goal #4 Work with District Boards of Laity, UMM, UMW, Youth and all other organized groups to establish more Spiritual Leadership.

Result: Due to the Relational Design Team plan for implementation, we did not develop a Lay Spiritual Growth Leadership Team. Options of time were offered, including Fall and Mini Academies. Those availing themselves of this extra option had very positive comments. This educational opportunity was also enjoyed by some from other denominations.

Goal #5 Develop a plan to help Local Churches increase the knowledge that all laity are "Ministers."

Result: This has been accomplished in all four districts, eliminating the necessity for Conference level day-apart.

Goal #6 Work with Youth to develop Youth Leadership Courses.

Result: This was accomplished with one youth, Melody McIlvain going as a delegate to the General Conference; and one youth, Ashley Purnell, representing us at the Jurisdictional Conference.

HIGHLIGHTS OF OTHER EVENTS

LAY (SPEAKING) ACADEMY

Each of the four districts held an academy with a total of more than 550 registered in basic and advanced courses. Several new courses were offered, including: Spanish Speaking (Basic and Advanced courses)

All four districts also participated in "Christian Conversations."

DAY APART AND MISSION AREA MINISTRY

The highlighted area of concern for this year's Day Apart was the spiritual gift of discernment. The workshop, "Seeking and Doing God's Will: Spiritual Discernment for the Community of Faith" was led by Pam Lardear (former member of our conference) and Garrie Stevens, both from New York. The leadership of all the boards of laity were included in this day apart, along with the delegates going to General Conference and those going to the Jurisdictional Conference.

Mission Area Ministries activities included:

- Mission Area Bible Studies
- Praise and Communion Services
- Church/Charge Conferences on MAM
- Pre-Conference Presentations
- Increased district and cluster activity

CLERGY/ LAITY BANQUETS

The Conference Clergy/ Laity Banquet was held in May, before Annual Conference, as has been the custom for several years. Dr. Sung Ho Bae was our speaker, using as his topic "Living Well with a Thorn in the Flesh"--the title of his recent book. Dr. Bae spoke well to our theme of "Partnering Medicine and Theology." There were over 375 clergy and laity in attendance.

THE ORDER OF ST. BARNABAS

The Board of Laity again sponsored the Order of St. Barnabas and the presentation of its awards. This award is based on "creative stewardship for Target Prayer, Time, Treasure, and Talent. The following individuals were received into the Order of St. Barnabas:

Individuals: Esther Hackett, posthumously
Jay Hanna, posthumously
Francis Terpin, posthumously (former Conference Lay Leader)
Christine Miller Joynes
Levin VanSant
Mr. James C. Hardcastle, a former Conference Lay Leader, was also awarded the Order of St. Barnabas.

During the induction into the Order of St. Barnabas, Darlene Webster, Associate Conference Lay Leader, reminded inductees and all other laity present, ". . . everyone has a gift--continue to be who God has called you to be."

As we move into a new century, we hear the words of Christ afresh, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

Howard J. Mason
Chair

ORDER OF ST. BARNABAS STATEMENT OF GOALS AND RESULTS FOR 1999

1. Empower all to reflect on the Biblical Standards of stewardship.
2. Encourage current members of the Order of St. Barnabas to be models for Mission Area Ministry.
3. Increase the program participation and the award presentation.

Result: Numbers 1-3 (above) reflect the ongoing standard of the committee of the Order of St. Barnabas. All those members, who are presently still with us, are also encouraged to participate in the monthly meetings of the Order of St. Barnabas.

4. Compose and distribute a booklet listing all members and groups of the Order of St. Barnabas.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2000

1. Partner with the Board of Discipleship for a Celebration on Stewardship Sunday.
2. Promote and uplift the Order of St. Barnabas at the Local Church Officer Training and the School of Christian Mission.
3. Encourage and motivate churches, groups and individuals to reflect on Biblical standards of stewardship.
4. Serve as models for Mission Area Ministry.
5. Make the Order of St. Barnabas known to all members of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
6. Continue to recognize churches, groups, and individuals that reflect the four T's of the Order of St. Barnabas.
7. Publish booklet, listing members of the Order of St. Barnabas.

STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2001

To be developed at a later date.

BOARD OF LAITY
STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2000

1. The Board of Laity will continue our cooperative work relationship with the Leadership Development Team to:

Empower laity for service/ ministry, and Motivate and enable laity to partner with the clergy.

This would include empowering for service in the local church, in everyday life, as well as service in the world, remembering John Wesley's words, "The world is my parish."

2. Educate and help the laity in their understanding and celebration of their spiritual leadership, recognizing their role as the laity and also as spiritual leaders.

INTERNAL GOALS:

1. Intentionally involve youth in all Board of Laity functions and decision making.
2. Sensitive and intentional in our racial inclusiveness.

BOARD OF LAITY
STATEMENT OF GOALS FOR 2001

1. The Board of Laity will develop a line of communications for every local church in our Conference through the district boards of laity, in order to promote the greater connection in the church, which will also develop our spiritual growth leadership.
2. Establish a new goal of 2000 for Lay Speaking Ministries, specifically looking to:
 - increase partnering to be more inclusive.
 - developing more spiritually oriented courses.
 - developing leadership in each district in conjunction with the Relational Design Resource Team.
 - increase youth leadership development through the academies.

INTERNAL GOALS:

1. Continuing to be intentional in our inclusiveness, remembering that there are many cultures represented in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference.
2. Challenging each Board of Laity member (Conference as well as District Boards) to mentor at least one (1) youth, other than their own, throughout the year; also encouraging them to bring that young person to at least one board meeting, thereby providing a "teaching moment" or learning experience.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry has as its primary tasks the recruitment, nurture and examination of candidates for ordained ministry and the continual nurture and care of all ordained ministers. The Board is made up of laypersons and clergypersons, deacons and elders, associate members and full members, and a representative from the Cabinet.

We celebrate these highlights of our work in 1999:

- The first commissioning of a probationary member, Jack Cohen, at the Annual Conference Session in Dover.
- The ordination of 2 Associate Member Deacons, 1 Full Member Deacon, and 5 Elders at the Annual Conference Session in Dover.
- A celebration of those serving in extension ministries, through sharing time at the Clergy Session and a luncheon with the Bishop.
- Development of an updated Clergy Sexual Misconduct Policy to be presented to the Clergy Session in 2000.
- Continuing partnership with Wesley Seminary on a pilot project with persons in the probationary period.
- Continuing emphasis on enlistment and recruitment of candidates for ordained ministry - efforts include seminary visits and outreach to conference youth through the Conference Youth Rally and Bishop's Confirmation Rally.
- Work on clergy insurance issues with persons from the Conference Council on Ministries and the Conference staff.
- Provided funding for two pilot projects - Spiritual Intervention Program and a Pastoral Intern Program.
- Continued to administer the Clergy Family Assistance Fund, to help clergy families in times of financial crisis.

As we look ahead, we will continue to put much effort into enlistment and recruitment, as well as beginning a renewed emphasis on continuing education and clergy effectiveness.

Karen F. Bunnell
Chairperson

BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Board of Pensions continues to cover the areas of responsibility as outlined by our Conference. The Insurance Committee, the Financial Seminar Committee, and the Pension Luncheon Committee meet on an as-needed basis. The Board meets five times a year. In the fall of 1999, the members of the Board of Pensions Investment Committee combined with members of other Boards to form the Conference Investment Committee. This restructure has worked well. The Board of Pensions continues to receive monthly reports of assets and fund balances.

A Holy Conferencing Session on Health Insurance was held on the morning of March 4, 2000. Members of the Board of Pensions, Council on Ministries, and others provided a presentation for "laity and clergy to identify and discuss the ministry needs, justice issues, and financial implications of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference providing health insurance for clergy and their families."

The Insurance Committee, along with the entire Board of Pensions, will continue to monitor health and dental care coverage providing the Conference with the best care at the lowest premium rate. While the rate increase overall for 2000 was only 4.92%, expected future increases are expected to be at 15% or more.

The Board of Pensions will provide a resolution for the pre-conference packet concerning health insurance funding.

The Board of Pensions is pleased to recommend an increase in the past service rate from $386 in 2000 to $405 in 2001.

Accomplished Goals

1. The Insurance Benefits Committee continues to examine the current benefits and look for ways to improve the Conference insurance coverage.
2. A Retirement Luncheon was held last year on May 12, 1999, and plans for this year's luncheon are already underway.
3. A successful Financial Seminar was held on September 29, 1999 with a record number of attendees.
4. The Investment Committee and members of other Boards formed the Conference Investment Committee and continues to monitor the pension investments, as well as other investments.
5. The Board of Pensions continues to send the "Taking Care" magazine to all pastors in the insurance program.
6. A recommendation for the past service rate for the year 2001 has been determined and will be presented to the Annual Conference for approval.

2001 Goals

1. The Conference Investment Committee will continue to work with PNC Bank and monitor the investments and will continue to maximize efforts to increase the past service rate.
2. A Retirement Luncheon will be held on May 17, 2000, for retiring and retired clergy, and for retiring and retired lay persons that have worked for the Conference.
3. The Board of Pensions will make its decisions for setting the past service rate for the year 2002.

Reminders

1. Pastors who are appointed to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference for the first time must make arrangements with the Conference Business Office for enrollment in the health, dental, life and pension programs.
 - A. Pastors leaving appointment in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference must make arrangement with the Conference Business Office to be properly transferred from the benefit programs.
 - B. Pastors having changes in their family status, such as marriages, divorces, newborn children, adoptions, death, etc., must notify the Conference Business Office within thirty days of these events
2. Each pastor is responsible to keep the Conference Business office and the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits apprised of any changes to their designated beneficiary.
3. Local churches are reminded that they are responsible for the full cost of the dependent portion of the health and dental program for their clergy family.
4. You can help contribute to the continued success of our health program by becoming familiar with and using the preventative benefits of your program. You should also be receiving a publication entitled "Taking Care". Please take the time to read it. It will benefit you and your health program.
5. Pastors may call the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits (GBOPHB) any time to find the status of their retirement benefits. That toll free number is 1-800-851-2201. An Interactive Voice Response system is also available at 1-888-851-2201.

Committed Board Members: I am grateful for the commitment of all Board members for their time and talent in our meetings. The Laity and Clergy freely give of their expertise and opinions. In addition, the Board gives special thanks to Elaine Wilkerson and Bill Westbrook for their assistance as resource persons to the Board. The Board would also like to thank the following Board members: Rev. Charles Poukish who resigned for health reasons, Mr. Robert Watson Jr. who resigned due to other responsibilities, and to Rev. James T. Seymour who became Conference Resource Director. Their presence as members was a valuable asset to the Board.

June 30, 2000 concludes my 8th year on the Board of Pensions and my 4th year as Chair. I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to have served the Conference in this capacity. The Conference staff, laity and clergy have worked side by side on important issues that have come before us. The three greatest accomplishments over the last 8 years have been: 1.) paying off the past service fund indebtedness, 2) raising the past service rate to keep up with inflation, and 3) monitoring the health insurance coverage and providing Long Term Care insurance for interested Conference staff and clergy. I know I am leaving this Board in good shape for the future. To God be the Glory. Amen.

Board of Pensions Resolution

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference Board of Pensions recommends:

1. The Past Service Rate for 2001 be set at $405 per year of approved service.
2. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTER OF THE PENINSULA-DELAWARE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired and disabled ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received during the year of 2000 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference at the time of his or her retirement;
2. This rental/housing allowance shall apply to each retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister who has been granted the retired relation or placed on disability leave by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and whose name and relationship to the conference is recorded in the Journal of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and in other appropriate records maintained by the conference.

3. The pension payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension payment resulting from all service of such retired and disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-290 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a "rental allowance" is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

REVIEW OF 1999 GOALS

1. The operation and maintenance of Barratt's Chapel, the museum and archives is the primary responsibility of the Commission on Archives and History and is an ongoing process. With this in mind, various repairs and replacements were accomplished during the year.
2. The 215th anniversary of the meeting between Asbury and Coke was celebrated at Barratt's on the second Sunday in November with Bishop Peter Weaver as the featured speaker. A special guest was the Reverend Leroy Jones who is the sole surviving pastor of the approximately 190 who have served Barratt's over the years.
3. The annual Christmas Caroling Service was held in December with George Caley leading the sing-along and the Reverend Earle Baker presiding.
4. Ten additional special services were held at Barratt's, beginning with the Love Feast during Annual Conference, with the Reverend Mark Pruett-Barnett presiding.
5. The Barratt's Chapel video, exploring the chapel's significance in the history of Methodism on the Peninsula, continues to be available. Upon request, a member of the commission will conduct a program for church and study groups.
6. Five local church historians were recognized at Annual Conference for their church histories: Burt Kirkman from St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Wilmington, Mary Collins and Evelyn Eby from Mariner's Bethel UMC in Ocean View, Nona Jackson from Zoar UMC in Reids Grove and Eldridge J. Waters from Ezion-Mount Carmel in Wilmington.
7. The by-laws were revised and updated.
8. Clarification for historic site designation was studied using General Church guidelines.
9. Priority was placed on the Financial Campaign in cooperation with conference leadership, Council on Finance and Administration and the Eastern PA/Peninsula DE United Methodist Foundation.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

The Commission is especially proud of its series of special services, planned by our Development Officer, The Reverend Robert O'Kelley Wallace, to celebrate both Barratt's Chapel's historic significance and its continuing ministry. In addition to the anniversary service and the Christmas Caroling Service, both annual events, a service of Holy Communion was held in October, featuring as speaker Bishop James K. Mathews. In January, a celebration of the Union of the Peninsula and Delaware Conferences, with Bishop Felton Edwin May as speaker, was postponed but is planned for a later date. A choral program in benefit of Barratt's Chapel was held at Aldersgate in Wilmington. Choirs from Epworth in Rehoboth, Aldersgate and St. Mark's in Wilmington celebrated the music of Charles Wesley. All proceeds from the offering went to the Barratt's Chapel Development Fund. A blessing of crops and recognition of farmers was held on April 30 in honor of Philip Barratt, himself a farmer, who built the chapel in 1780. Dr. James Logan of Wesley Theological Seminary presided at an Aldersgate Service in May. Other special services in the planning include a Camp Meeting from Friday through Sunday, September 15-17 and a service of Holy Communion on October 1. In addition, two Barratt's Chapel rallies will be held by Bishop Peter Weaver on October 29th: one in upper and one in lower Delaware. Priority will be placed on planning and advertising these very special opportunities for celebrating the history and continuing presence of one of the most important Methodist Heritage Landmarks in America today.

2000 GOALS

The Commission will continue to give top priority to the development of the Capital Campaign. This campaign is intended to take care of the long range needs of the chapel, museum and archives - including increased staffing, expanding outreach and educational programs to serve both the community and the conference.

Operation and maintenance of the chapel, museum and archives is an ongoing project. With this in mind, needed exterior painting and repairs are scheduled for the spring of 2000. A heating/cooling/dehumidifying system, similar to those used in Williamsburg, is being investigated for the chapel in order to control a persistent and potentially damaging moisture problem.

We will continue to support local church historians and their projects.

A history of the Peninsula Delaware Conference is underway, and is planned for publication in the late fall of 2000.

Emphasis will be placed on the development of a Confirmation Program for churches who wish to bring their confirmands to Barratt's Chapel.

We will continue our emphasis on the development of special services to be held at the chapel.

A quarterly newsletter with updates on events at Barratt's, publicity about upcoming events and opportunities, historical inserts and reports on the progress of the capital campaign is in the planning stage.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation is charged in the discipline (para 622.2) with three broad areas of responsibility. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to District Superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." The Commission is responsible for the development of a schedule of minimum base compensation. The administering of funds includes funds used as base compensation supplements, funds granted to ethnic minority pastors in recognition of meritorious effectiveness, and funds used for new church development. The commission may also respond to other issues impacting clergy support such as housing, professional reimbursements, allowances, benefits, travel, social security allowances, and moving expenses.

The 1999 Equitable Compensation Commission Budget was $152,500. Funds expended in 1999 totaled $162,539. This represents an increase of about $56,000 from the previous year. This was made possible because of the carryover from the previous year. As part of this report, there is attached a list of the churches and/or charges receiving assistance in 1999.

Assistance for short-term disability, begun in 1998, proved to be a needed benefit and has worked well.

If you are new to your Pastor Parish Relations Committee or concerned about what you should or could be doing to help your pastor, please feel free to pick up a copy of our brochure entitled "Guidelines for Pastor's Compensation".

Recommendations

1. The Commission makes the following minimum salary recommendations for 2001:

Full Member - $24,500

Probationary Associate & Commission Member - $22,000

Full-time Local Pastor - $20,400

Student Pastor - $17,550*

*unless a smaller figure is agreed upon by the district Superintendent, student and charge.

Service increments will be $130 per year up to a maximum of fifteen (15) years.

2. The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel expenses during 2001 be at the rate set by the Internal Revenue Service for that year. The Commission also recommends that Pastors be reimbursed for all tolls and parking expenses incurred in the performance of their pastoral duty.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA-PENINSULA
UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

Through 1999, 2000, and looking forward to 2001, the Foundation remains committed to its primary purpose of fostering and supporting benevolent ministries in the name of Jesus Christ. To that end we focus on being a resource to local churches and church agencies in three areas: 1) helping local churches/agencies create endowment funds with formal policies for governance; 2) investing long term assets on behalf of the organization; and 3) fostering an environment within the local church to encourage and assist members with the giving of long term assets.

Assisting the local church/agency with the creation of a formal endowment policy leads the organization to work through a strategy not only for the receipt of assets, but also for their use over time. A clear statement as to what will happen to a donor's gift over time is one of the best encouragers of giving. The process also clarifies objectives for the assets leading to a more successful investment management program.

The Foundation's main focus is on the management of existing long term assets on behalf of the church. We ended 1999 with $23 million under management from more than 70 churches and agencies. While the investment performance had a rough start in the first half of 1999, the year finished strongly. Going into 2000 the Foundation is excited about its new Pooled Equity Fund, which will allow inclusion of more than one money manager and hopefully, enhance the return while reducing the risk of investing.

We continue to work with local churches to encourage long term giving through seminars on estate planning in general and leaving assets to the church specifically. The Foundation, where appropriate, will work with individuals to assist them with their personal estate planning and giving to the church.

The past year also saw the Foundation's Executive Director, Parke Hess, retire after 13 years of service and our new director, Kathleen Hawkins, come on board on a full time basis in February, 2000, after a five (5) month transition period. We thank Parke for his many years of service and devotion to the Foundation. Looking forward, our specific goals for 2000 include the following:

- Setting up and funding our new Pooled Equity Fund
- Evaluation of additional money managers
- At least one formal account review with each investing church or agency

- Development of a formal marketing program to inform local churches/agencies about the resources offered by the Foundation
- Evaluation of small company and international mutual funds for use by churches/agencies, where appropriate, as part of their investment strategy
- Development of a database to allow for more efficient administration of accounts within the Foundation office

The Foundation works with all United Methodist churches and agencies in the Eastern Pennsylvania and Peninsula-Delaware Conferences. For more information please contact Kathleen Hawkins at (800) 828-9093.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The United Methodist Women of the Peninsula-Delaware Conference have faithfully continued to fulfill the PURPOSE of the organization by developing creative and supportive communities "Living Jesus Christ's Vision-Celebrating Our Journey" in Mission Ministry.

The local units, districts and conference are grateful to be on the forefront of providing for those who are in need, whether it is financial, physical, spiritual or social concerns as related to Matthew 25:34-40.

During the year 7/99-6/00, Peninsula Delaware United Methodist Women have participated in mission and ministry beyond the local church in many ways.

- They sponsored an inspiring School of Christian Mission with very capable Study Leaders from around the country.
- Featured fall and spring annual meetings that were extensions of UMW studies.
- Women from our conference were involved and featured in the National UMW magazine (The Response) as a result of attending the National Seminar, which was Women's Division's Social Justice training program.
- Conference Officers attended the National Leadership Training Event for work in the organization.
- Many women traveled to the Northeastern Jurisdiction Quadrennial Conference in Rochester NY for Women's Division's election and goal setting.
- The annual Spiritual Life Retreats for women's continued nurture and inspiration was hosted by Salisbury and Wilmington Districts at Bates Memorial UMC, Snow Hill, MD and Richardson Park UMC, Wilmington DE respectively.
- Upper Atlantic Regional School was held in Towson, MD. on the Towson University Campus.
- The Mission Today Event conference action plan and report form have been distributed to recognize local and global mission participation at the Annual Conference Fall Meeting.
- Many districts met and exceed their pledge to mission .The Conference was able also to meet and exceeded their pledge to Women's Division. We thank you and we thank God for his love, his grace and bounty that enables each of us to extend beyond our needs and ourselves.
- District Officers and committee members have been busy assisting the Conference in equipping women to engage in the mission work of United Methodist Women, with a greater understanding and clarity of focus. As a result many women, youth and children in need have been touched through the caring and sharing of United Methodist Women.

The goals for year 2000 and beyond are as follows:

1. To keep focused and to carry out the purpose of United Methodist Women.
2. To organize United Methodist Women units within our communities.
3. To encourage increased attendance and participation in the School of Christian Mission.
4. To promote the involvement of all age levels in UMW events.

We welcome you to become a part of this exciting mission ministry, as we establish new relationships and venture into new frontiers, ministering in love and concern for those who we know or may not know. We realize that God knows and He is the one who gives, directs and sustains us all.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men had a great year. We continued partnering and building relationships with clergy and laity for the ministry of The United Methodist Church.

We must be intentional and serious about getting men involved in the local church. Many churches do not have the men needed to start a chartered unit of the United Methodist Men.

We are working with the local church to establish men's ministry in order to get men involved in the missions of The United Methodist Church.

We hope that in getting more men involved in the life and work of the church, they will work to create a strong spiritual base for their families, a good spiritual environment for their communities, and a strong foundation for the family of God.

The United Methodist Men continue to partner and work with all organizations of the church to create loving, caring, forgiving, and understanding communities of compassion.

I was elected at our annual meeting held on August 6-7, 1999, at Wyoming United Methodist Church, Dover, Delaware. This took place during the annual Peach Festival. We all celebrated with peach ice cream.

Our annual Retreat at Camp Pecometh was held on September 11- 12 and had the longest title of any retreat I can remember: "Lifting Up Jesus and Preparing for the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ - 42nd Annual Men's Retreat."

This was a great time of sharing and celebrating with our past Conference President, Bill Harmon, and introducing the new Conference President.

Our new Conference Resource Director, The Rev. Dr. J.T. Seymour, opened our retreat with an inspiring message that challenged us to remember and live up to our Conference Vision Statement:

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference as the body of Christ will live out ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ, boldly, cooperatively, and inclusively through life changing communities of compassion.

The Rev. Dr. Russell Goodwin was with us again this year and continued to share his message of Evangelism.

The Rev. Rick Vance helped us determine who among us was missing and how we can reach out to men 30 years of age and younger.

The Rev. Bill Ross gave us a great message that touched our hearts with his inspiring words of encouragement.

Past President Bill Harmon gave a great sermon on Sunday morning with participation by all of the men.

I would like to take time to thank Bill Harmon for his many years of service to the Peninsula-Delaware Conference and the United Methodist Men. Bill has shared his faith with us, and we have been blessed by the experience.

2000 GOALS

- Continue to work and establish new chartered U.M.M. units
- Continue to become self-supporting by 2000
- To have training on every District
- To continue to increase E.M.S. memberships
- Start District Men's Choirs
- Promote Men's Sundays in all churches

DATES

May 12-13, 2000	Annual Meeting
September 9-10, 2000	43 rd Annual Men's Retreat-Expedition 2000 "Men Reaching Out"
July 13-15, 2001	UMM Congress - Perdue University

PURPOSE

United Methodist Men shall be a creative, supportive fellowship of men who seek to know Jesus Christ, to grow spiritually and to seek daily God's will.

Our primary purpose is to declare the centrality of Christ in the lives of men and in all their relationships.

The major concerns are:

- To encourage knowledge of and support for the total mission of The United Methodist Church
- To engage in evangelism by sharing the fullness of the gospel in its personal and social dimensions
- To clarify and speak to the identity and role of the man in contemporary society
- To seek commitment to discipleship
- To study and become familiar with The United Methodist Church, its organization, doctrines, and beliefs
- To cooperate with all units of the United Methodist Men in obtaining these objectives through District, Conference, Jurisdiction, and Church-wide goals

Men seeking membership in a local United Methodist Men's fellowship shall subscribe to the "purpose" of United Methodist Men and to these personal objectives:

- Engage daily in Bible study and prayer
- Bear witness to Christ's way in daily work and in all personal contacts through words and actions
- Engage in some definite Christian service

The United Methodist Men will continue to reach out to others to build strong relationships and reach out to the youth in our churches and pray that they make a difference in the future.

We need a few good men to become Christ's men in the new Millennium.

Sherwood McGrath
Conference President

BOARD OF CHILD CARE

With the coming of the new millennium came an end to a year of celebrating a milestone in the history of the Board of Child Care of one hundred twenty five (125) years of service to children and families. This past year was exciting as we reflected on the history of the organization, the program accomplishments and a renewal of our commitment to our mission of service and ministry as an extension of the United Methodist Church.

The agency continues to grow, serving more children and families than ever before, expanding programs and continuing to look at itself in improving and in finding new ways to meet the ever-increasing needs of society.

Today we serve close to five hundred children a day in our group care program, non public school, foster care services in the District of Columbia and Maryland, adoption services, counseling centers, parenting education classes, and out patient mental health clinics. We reach thousands of others through a close partnership with the Peninsula-Delaware Conference by providing five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in grants for programs for children and families of the local churches, workshops and seminars for the clergy and members of the church, youth rallies and confirmation classes, church services and consultation for ministers.

A highlight, that occurred in January, was a trip to another continent, Africa, and the country of Zimbabwe by the President of the Board of Directors and the CEO where we had initial discussions of partnering with the orphanage at Old Mutare Mission Center sponsored by the United Methodist Church in Zimbabwe. When we were there, we began our relationship by purchasing a needed ambulance and some televisions, VCRs and videos for the children and other programs. We have kept in contact with them and plan to do so in the future. Our commitment to serve all of God's children now reaches three quarters of the way around the world.

The Board of Child Care is a ministry of "action." We will continue to reach out to help heal the sick and the less fortunate of all races, genders and creeds that Jesus taught us to do in the name of his Father. All of this is accomplished through a forward thinking and risk taking Board of Directors, a management staff with a passion and vision to meet the needs of children and families and a dedicated caring staff who implement and give so much to our children. We could not do this without the support of our Auxiliary, the churches and ministers, United Methodist Women and Men's groups, mission groups and individuals, all of whom support us with their prayers, financial support and words of praise and recognition. For all of the above, we are thankful and truly have been blessed over our 125 years.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

When hate incidents are happening in a community, sweeping them under the rug usually leads to an escalation of that activity

Since its inception, the Commission on Religion and Race has attempted to "sensitize" us about race matters, encourage us to move toward equality and justice, provide opportunities to dialogue about our cultural diversity (especially as it relates to God's creative genius of nationality), initiate activities on learning about others and equip the conference with "how to" guidelines on dealing with racial issues.

Racism, like other infectious diseases has the possibility of becoming an epidemic, thus mangling all who are effected by it. Racism and the symptoms of racism are far-reaching. If left unabated, these symptoms will spread until they catastrophically invade every arena of our existence, especially, our religious and Christian lives. Even with this threat before us, we seem content "dealing" with the symptoms rather than removing the cause and the rot of racism. The impact of racist activity is tantamount to terrorism. As is the psychology of terrorism, hate crimes are designed to instill fear and intimidation. It's intent is to discourage, disfigure, dismantle and destroy the physical properties, the psychic and the spirituality of an individual. Therefore, any violence directly attributed to racial or gender prejudice is serious and should not be treated as a harmless joke or a simple act of vandalism. It is a breach of our religious and Christian covenant of community.

The Peninsula-Delaware Conference must come to grips with this insidious breach of our Social Community Policy as contained in par. 66, of The Social Principles in the Book Of Discipline, 1996. Furthermore subsection A of par. 66, Rights of racial and Ethnic Persons, calls our attention to the destructive nature of bigotry and racism ". . . racism plagues and cripples our growth in Christ inasmuch as it is antithetical to the gospel itself... we recognize racism as sin and affirm the ultimate and temporal worth of all persons. We are mandated by God to become involved in "struggles for human dignity and social reform " as our response to God's demand to love one another and share in one another's burdens. Furthermore, "it is our conviction that the good news of the kingdom must judge, redeem and reform the sinful social structures of our time"

(General Rules and Social Principles)

This year's activities included:

- *Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium and Education Forum: Dr. Thom Whitewolf Fassett was our speaker. The children's choir for Simpson UMC sang to us in Spanish and English. Dialogue about the video "Diversity Is..."
- *Final Retreat at Drayton: We bid farewell to commission members who gave their time and talents during the years for the work of Religion and Race
- *Presentation and Up-date of the Voting Rights Act for African Americans
- *Monitoring of Annual Conference Proceedings and Activities *Monitoring Adjourned Session of Annual Conference
- *Dialogue with Advocacy Resource Team

As of 1 July, the Peninsula Delaware Conference will begin to operate under new administrative procedures. The Commission on Religion and Race will be under the Advocacy Resource Team's governance. Partnering with other commissions and forming a new team, one of the many tasks of the Advocacy Resource Team will be to monitor and recommend procedures for the continuation of justice as it includes gender racial and cultural diversity.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

"A Biblical People with a Social Conscience"

The Conference Board of Church and Society seeks to relate the gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of local congregations and to the persons and structures of the communities and world in which they live. It seeks to interpret and implement The Social Principles and other policy statements of the General Conference on Christian Social concerns.

The Board has been in a time of welcomed transition into the new Relational Design. Two years ago the Board divided its membership into "passion" teams. These teams were based on the individual member's "passions" or interests and allowed them to focus their time, energies, gifts and graces on those issues of greater interest to them. It also encouraged the use of resources beyond the Board's membership. Thus, the Relational Design was a welcomed plan for more effective ministry.

During 1999 and into and through 2000 the Board has addressed and will continue to address some of the following "passions":

- a.) The encouragement of local churches to examine their stewardship of energy. A resource booklet was supplied at the 1999 Annual Conference. Additional booklets are available upon request.
- b.) Through the efforts of Pacem in Terris the Board has continued support for the voting rights for ex-felons and the abolishment of the death penalty.
- c.) The Board fully supported a position as an active participant with the Poultry Justice Alliance in accordance with the 1996 General Conference Resolution on Worker's Rights. Because of sincere concern the Board is now beginning to bring about some dialogue and interaction with the Delmarva Poultry Industry.
- d.) The gambling issue has been both victorious and apathetic. In the state of Maryland, NoCasiNo has been supported by the Board and must be commended for its efforts in halting the expansion of gambling. In the state of Delaware, even with the support of the Board, quite the opposite is true. After a valiant effort by DCAGE (Delaware Coalition Against Gambling Expansion) all efforts have come to a halt. Future plans for expanded gambling in the state are already in place. This issue must receive not only high priority but also the support of the citizens of the state.
- e.) We are pleased to announce that the goals for the Building Campaign for the United Methodist Building in Washington, D.C. have almost reached its goal. Our support has been somewhat minimal. We thank those who generously supported the campaign.
- f.) Throughout the year the Board has supplied copies of The Social Principles for congregations requesting them. The Board will continue to reply to those requests and will continue to encourage the study of The Social Principles.
- g.) The Board has continued to supply limited funding for a variety of ministries throughout our Annual Conference that were deemed consistent with The Social Principles. These funds range from $100 to $1,000 and are available upon request and review.
- h.) The Board has continued its relationship with the Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference in a variety of ways including support of various advocacy issues and continuing education events.

VII. Memoirs

A. Clergy

Edward M. Gladden

On May the tenth, Nineteen Hundred and twenty-nine in Chance, Maryland, Edward Morgan Gladden was born the youngest of six children. He was the son of the late Ralph W. and Delia Mae (Horseman) Gladden. He lived in a modest, loving home until he was nine when his "mamma" died.

What he had known as a warm and safe family life ceased. He was sent away to live in a kind of institution for a year only to be returned to foster care because there was no one to take care of him.

After running away from many foster homes, he lived on his own at the age of fifteen, supporting himself as a cook at Taylor's Grill in Salisbury. From dishwasher and cook, he worked for the Bond Bread Company where he sold and delivered bread and other bakery products.

His next job at Dresser Wayne was the turning point in his career. He met a man by the name of Dave Nelson who was instrumental in Rev. Gladden becoming a minister. Rev. Gladden's family had all been United Methodist, including his maternal Grandfather, Rev. Samuel Horseman, who had pastored Holland's Island. Rev. Gladden's late brother Herbert Gladden was also a minister.

Rev. Gladden knew he had a lot to learn and a lot of hard work ahead to prepare for the ministry. He sent away to a publishing company for books to study so he could better understand the Bible. He took correspondence Bible courses, taught in his Sunday School, was elected superintendent and trustee of his church. Rev. Gladden believed his assurance of his decisions however, it was when his pastor became ill one Saturday evening and asked him to preach the following Sunday morning. Edward Gladden knew what his future occupation would be ever since that Sunday.

With barely a sixth grade education and with much determination he went on to get his GED and took correspondence courses to become a minister attending Wesley College and Duke University Divinity School. He completed The Ministerial Course of Study in July 1978. His oldest daughter remembers Rev. Gladden staying up many nights until 2 P.M. and getting up at 5:30 the next morning.

Rev. Gladden pastored eleven charges or church appointments. His ministry began with the Nazarene Church in Milford, Delaware, in 1956. In 1958, The District Superintendent of the Salisbury District, Dr. John French, called and invited him to join the United Methodist Ministry. He then was appointed to The Galestown Charge, which also included Cokesbury and Woodland Churches. In 1961 he was ordained Deacon. After four years in Galestown, the Conference moved him to Smith Island. During his 2 year stay at Smith Island he was ordained Elder in the Civic Center in Salisbury, Md., by Bishop John Wesley Lord. Rev. Gladden was surprised to see an entire busload of his parishioners' arrive at that event for his ordination. His next appointment was to Newark United Methodist Charge. During this appointment he was asked to take two small black churches in addition to his three white churches. Rev. Gladden was the first white minister in the Peninsula Conference to pastor an all black church. One of the small black churches was the home church of Dr. Charles Tindley, noted hymn writer and preacher, for whom the largest church in Philadelphia is named "Tindley Temple". Rev. Gladden spent six productive and wonderful years in Newark, Md. While in Newark the Calvary United Methodist Church built a new church and while in Newark the church built and paid for the parsonage. Rev. Gladden then moved to St. Andrews-Melson's Charge, which was on the verge of being closed. The church grew during his four short years there. He increased the 29 members to 358 members. Excellent attendance, extremely active church in all areas, youth, missions, Bible studies, and dedicated worship. The church was air-conditioned, with an enlarged sanctuary, a new Sunday School building, new paved parking lot. Just before he moved he led the people to buy a new parsonage and rent the old one. During this time Melson's United Methodist Church near Delmar, was growing steadily. A new Sunday School Building had been built. His next appointment was St. Luke's United Methodist Church in St. Michaels, Md. While there the congregation built and paid for the parsonage. His next charge was the Calvary-Eastlake Charge in Wilmington, Delaware; where he served for two years. Because Rev. Gladden missed his familiar Eastern Shore, he requested the conference to move him. The Conference obliged with a move to Laurel Mt. Pleasant Charge in Laurel, Delaware. This charge consisted of three churches. Physical improvements to the church and a pantry and clothes store were opened in town for the poor, at very low prices and was supplied and maintained by the churches of the town. At the end of four years, he then was transferred to Clarksville, Delaware. The church had no problems, attendance was good and there were no financial problems. After two years, the D.S. offered Rev. Gladden the Millington Charge. After four years at Millington, finances and attendance had greatly improved, Crumpton Church had been renovated, even with a new steeple and other physical improvements together with increased membership and attendance. Double Creek had too grown both in membership and attendance. His next appointment was to Perryville-Principio Charge where he served for 2 years. His last charge was back to Smith Island where he stayed for three years and where he retired in 1995.

Rev. Gladden belonged to many civic associations including a member of the Roelma Lodge in Sharptown, Md. and a member of the A.F. 7 P.M. Scottish Rite of Free Masonry, 32nd. Degree in Baltimore, Md. He was a member of the Board of Discipleship, Division of Evangelism, Peninsula Annual Conference, North Kent County Ecumenical Association, Chaplain and Millington Fire Department. He also served as the only Chaplain for the State of Maryland Department of Natural Resources for 18 years.

Rev. Gladden received many honors in his 37 years of Service to God. He has opened the State of Maryland Senate with prayer, opened the Congress of the United States with prayer, attended four different Presidential Prayer Breakfasts, two with President Nixon, one with President Ford, and one with President Reagan. He has officiated at the funeral of Congressman William Mills.

He was married to the late Mary Gladden and had four children; Delia Joseph from Annapolis, Md., Melody Travers from Salisbury, Md, Mr. Russell Gladden, from Salisbury, Md, and Eleanor Bennet from Salisbury, Md. He also has three stepsons Stephen Cropper from Galena, Md., David Cropper from Chance, Md., and Randy Cropper from Amarille, Texas. He also had 10 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

His interest included sailing, reading, and travel. After a short illness Rev. Gladden died at the age of seventy on January 29, 2000 and was buried on February 2, 2000. His funeral was held at the St. Andrews United Methodist Church in Salisbury, Md. The Rev. Howard Gordy and Rev. Charles Mack officiating. Interment was at the Spring Hill Memory Gardens in Hebron, Md.

Rev. Gladden was a man of many facets, even though he was not perfect he had the ability to adapt to almost any situation or personality.

He was a survivor, who had won over many odds. He loved life and he also loved people. He was a very positive and patient man, a self-made man who in his youth loved a challenge and hard work.

Alton S. Miller was born September 17, 1914 at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, the son of Clark H. and Anna Carey Miller. He was educated in the schools of Washington, Pennsylvania, graduating from Waynesburg College in 1939. He graduated from Westminster Theological Seminary in Westminster, Maryland in 1944 with a Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree. In June of 1968 Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland honored him with a degree of Doctor of Divinity.

On July 28, 1941 he married Carol Jorgensen. They have one daughter, Ruth Ann Ward of Clearwater, Florida and four grandchildren. They were a close family and when the pastor of his church in Clearwater suggested that Alton write a Testimonial for his ministry he wrote this: " We have had a Christian home and there is a saying that marriages are not made in heaven, but ours has been so happy and fulfilling that heaven's blessings have reigned upon it. Across the years Carol and I have developed a love like the love of God in Christ, nothing can destroy, and if God wills we will love each other even beyond this life." Carol has worked by his side faithfully, supporting in every aspect of his ministry.

Alton made his commitment to ministry at church camp strongly influenced by Dr. J. W. Hawley, pastor of First Methodist Church, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was ordained Elder in 1945 by Bishop James H. Straughn. As a student he began his ministry in Beechview United Methodist Church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, followed by the Cambridge Circuit in Peninsula Conference while attending Westminster Seminary. Following graduation he returned to Pittsburgh Conference serving Beaver Falls and later Calvary Church in Uniontown, Pennsylvania. He transferred his membership to Peninsula Conference in 1949 and was appointed to Zion Church, Cambridge, Maryland. Six months after he arrived the church was totally destroyed by fire. For the next thirteen years he worked with that congregation rebuilding the church, establishing a new parsonage and left the church debt free. The Miller's opened their home in Cambridge and cared for six other persons over those years and welcomed the first foreign exchange student to that community. A strong advocate of systematic giving he developed a real skill in challenging person to make monetary commitments to the church, as well as giving their time.

In 1963 Bishop John Wesley Lord appointed Alton, Superintendent of the Salisbury District and after his six year tenure he was appointed to Claymont, Delaware. After only a year in Claymont, he was invited to join the Office of Finance and Field Service of the National Division of the General Board of Global Ministries. For the next ten years this would be his ministry raising million of dollars all over the United States with his wife Carol by his side as his secretary. A few months after his retirement in 1979 he was invited by Ward, Dreshman & Rhinehart, to be a consultant in fund raising.

In 1981 Alton moved to Clearwater, Florida to enjoy his retirement years. During the next few years he enjoyed helping local churches get their budgets underwritten and was active in First United Methodist Church, Clearwater, where Carol, Ruth Ann and the grandchildren also held membership.

Alton enjoyed helping people, visiting the sick, and challenging folks to be more than they were. Several young men were led into full time ministry through his efforts in the parishes he served. Gordon Stapleton, now a retired member of Peninsula-Delaware Conference, was one of these.

He served his church wherever led, as a parish pastor, conference officer, fund raiser, and member of General and Jurisdictional Conference. One of his greatest pleasures was being with family and friends. He never wasted any time and kept his mind active to the end.

He died, September 5, 1999, at Regency Oaks Retirement Home. He had been battling cancer for nine and one half years. A private burial was held at Sylvan Abbey Memorial Park with family members present. A memorial service was held in First United Methodist Church, Clearwater, on his 85th birthday.

Alton's own words express his feelings of life, death and hope. "After learning of my malignancy my prayer has been; 'God I do not understand what has so suddenly befallen me. If it is your will to heal me I will gladly accept it for I desire to live-but if your will is death, I will accept that, with thanks, for I do believe "That all things work together for good to those who love God." Therefore I bear witness that I am at peace with God and await his welcome. "Enter into the joy of the Lord."

He served appointments in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference; Townsend, DE at Immanuel UMC and Friendship UMC; Elkton, MD at Cherry Hill UMC and Baldwin UMC; Laurel, DE at Christ UMC and Woodland UMC; Fruitland, MD at Old Friendship UMC and Cokesbury UMC. He retired in 1997 on medical disability. Retirement residence was in Seaford, DE.

During his ministry he served in the Industrial and Commercial Ministries, and maintained a lifelong concern for ministry in the workplace.

Married on May 20, 1967 to Carole Hitchner in Alloway, NJ. Our children are daughters Krista M. (Green) now of Elkton, MD born in 1971, and Heidi D. (Tryon) now of North Brunswick, NJ born in 1973, whom we adopted in 1977, son Nicholas A. of Seaford, DE born in 1981 whom we adopted that same year.

A member of the American Legion and also the Sons of the American Revolution, John loved his country and took pleasure in displaying the flag. With a lifelong love of travel, particularly car travel, he drove over most of the continental U.S.A. and a good part of Canada. After his retirement, as long as he had the physical strength, he could be found most early mornings riding his bicycle in and around his Seaford neighborhood.

After a lengthy period of physical decline, throughout which he steadfastly maintained his trust in his Lord and his joy in God's blessings, John was called home on November 8, 1999. The funeral service was conducted at Cranston Funeral Home in Seaford, DE by Pastor Robert D. Robinson of Woodland UMC. His burial was in Lawnside Cemetery, Woodstown, NJ.

A devoted husband and father, a loving friend and a faithful pastor, John is fondly remembered for his humility, his humor and his unwavering dedication.

Absent from the body; and present with the Lord

Edgar Van Wimberly, Sr.

Edgar Van Wimberly, Sr. was born in a rural area of Marion County, Florida, on December 14, 1904, to Alex and Peggy Wimberly. He attended elementary school there. After one year of high school at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical College in Tallahassee, he entered Bethune Cookman College, Daytona Beach where he completed high school and two years of college. College was completed at Lincoln University in Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1929.

He returned to Marion County, Florida after college to teach grades one through eight in a one-room schoolhouse. While teaching, he had a dramatic vision in a semi-awakened state lying on his bed following a long and tiring day of teaching. In the vision, he saw himself preaching to a group of people. He interpreted the vision as his call to ministry. In 1932, he entered Lincoln University to begin his seminary studies.

He graduated from Lincoln University with a Master of Arts and Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree in 1936. He pursued graduate work in pastoral counseling and education at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

He was ordained an elder in 1935 in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1940, he entered the United Methodist church, Central Jurisdiction, the Delaware Conference. Following the dissolving of the Central Jurisdiction, He became a member of the Peninsula Conference, now the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, where he served until his retirement. During his tenure as a pastor, he served in Jersey City, New Jersey, 1940; John Simmons ME Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 1941-44; Newport Delaware, 1945; Milford, Delaware, 1946-1947; Mt. Zion UMC, Lawnside, New Jersey, 1948-1958; Siloam UMC, Chester, Pennsylvania, 1959-1960; Mt. Carmel UMC in Wilmington, Delaware, 1961-1970. In 1970, he retired from the Peninsula Conference at the age of 65. He began a post retirement ministry at Grace UMC in Chester, Pennsylvania, in the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference for the next 15 years. He retired a second time at age 80 in 1985.

On July 30, 1938 he married Evelyn Powell of Cape May, New Jersey. July 30, 1999 marked 61 years of marriage. From their union Edgar Van Wimberly, Jr., now deceased, Edward Powell Wimberly, and Pamela Wimberly Jones were born.

In December 1993, he and his wife moved to Atlanta, Georgia to be closer to two of his children. During this time, he formally preached his final sermon in 1995 at Rocky Head United Methodist Church, Atlanta, Georgia at the age of 90. His favorite motto during his ministry was contained in Acts 26:19 "Wherefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision..." (RSV). His life is summed up as his commitment to his original call to the ministry and following it throughout his life until his death. He was truly one of the great mentors and sages of the twentieth century whose life and ministry we can fully celebrate today.

Nora J. Bailey

Nora J. Bailey was born on August 3, 1909, the sixth of seven daughters to the late Reverend John Wesley, and Annie E. Jefferson in Galena Maryland. She was educated in Easton Maryland.

She became the youthful bride of the late Reverend Howard A. Bailey. A union which lasted for fifty-five years. Their son Wayne A. Bailey was the joy of their lives. During her husband's ministry, they traveled extensively. He was the executive secretary of The Board of Christian Education for the Delaware Conference. She was at his side as his secretary for many years.

During his retirement years he pastored Haven United Methodist Church in Wilmington, Delaware, where she served on many organizations. She and Reverend Bailey were active members of Camphor United Methodist Church after his appointment as executive secretary in the late 1940's. There she was a member of the flower club and participated on other committees. She remained active as long as her health permitted.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her beloved son Wayne H. Bailey, daughter in-law Nancy Bailey and her loving sister Bernetta Reid. Four grandchildren Wayne H. Bailey Jr., Vernon Bailey, Michael Bailey and Lisa Bailey Toombs. Two great grandchildren Nia and Winter. One niece Julia W. Hampton. Three Nephews Laurence Reid, Drexel Reid and Jon Reid. Numerous great and great great nieces and nephews, and a host of friends and relatives. Last but not least her loving dog Spoogy.

Elsie C. Medzarentz

Elsie was born in Philadelphia, PA., May 3, 1910. She was the daughter of Edward Taylor and Margaret Brutes, nee Reties. Both her parents were Baptists and worked to build Trinity Baptist Church in North Philadelphia. It was in that church where Elsie came to know her Lord as a youth. She attended public school close to her home.

Elsie married her teenage friend Arnold J. Bryan and she gave birth to three children, Ruth, Jean and Arnold Bryan.

Upon her husband's disability they moved to Town Point, MD where their son built them a house as they moved from West Chester, PA.

Shortly thereafter her husband passed away. After two years of becoming a widow, she prayed that God would send her someone to love. She had become a member to Town Point Methodist Church. One Sunday after church, and she's told this story many times, "After I got up enough nerve, I asked the preacher to dinner. I never cooked for a preacher before." And so the single man and preacher came to dinner, and they fell in love. Elsie and the preacher were married on January 5, 1974.

Elsie loved her Lord and believed in prayer. She was always praising her Lord. Her favorite words were "Praise the Lord." Her favorite hymn was "Beulah Land", "How Great Thou Art" and "In the Garden." She was a devoted wife and mother. She traveled the circuit with me each Sunday morning for 25 wonderful years. She was always singing hymns as they went to church.

Elsie was active in the UMM in Town Point, Warwick Charge and also at Church Hill-Christ Charge. She was known for her humor and infectious laughter wherever she went.

She was a grandmother to ten grandsons and great grandmother to 15 great-grandchildren.

She was my soul mate and beautiful Christian wife. The Family and I will miss her terribly. Now she is Praising her Lord in His Kingdom. May God hold you my darling wife.

Your Husband,
Rev. Haig S. Medzarentz

Evelyn P. Wimberly

Wife, Mother, educator, and servant appropriately describe the life of Evelyn Mae Powell Wimberly. Born February 4, 1907, in Halifax, Virginia, to Frederick Douglas Powell of Newtown, Pennsylvania, and Eleanor Green Powell, she lived briefly on a tobacco farm with her grandparents, Frank Green and Parthenia Vassar Green.

After selling their farm in Halifax, her grandparents migrated to Cape May, New Jersey. Evelyn was nurtured and encouraged by her grandfather who taught her to read and compute so well that she was given the responsibility of financial accountant for the family's refuse business. As a result of her grandfather's influence, Evelyn developed the confidence, perseverance, and willingness that enabled her to achieve her goals.

One of Evelyn's goals was the acquisition of a college education. Despite the death of her grandfather her senior year and the accompanying emotional and financial challenges, she distinguished herself as the first African American Cape May High School alumna to graduate from the University of Pennsylvania. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in 1929 from the School of Education later completing graduate studies and a Masters equivalent in counseling from Temple University.

After graduating, she began her professional career as a caseworker for the Philadelphia County Mother's Assistance Organization, which later became part of the Department of Public Assistance of Pennsylvania. After marrying Reverend Edgar Van Wimberly Sr., Ocala, Florida, on July 30, 1938, she fulfilled yet another goal, that of full time wife and mother. As a minister's wife in Lawnside, New Jersey, where her husband pastored Mt. Zion United Methodist Church, she taught Sunday School, coordinated activities for Methodist Youth Fellowship and the Women's Society, and took an active role in the district and conference ministers' wives' organization. In 1947, while continuing her church involvement, she qualified through the National Teacher and Philadelphia Board of Education Examination for an appointment as a teacher at Kearney Elementary School in the Philadelphia School District. There she served as classroom teacher, reading specialist, and counselor until her retirement in 1976.

Though dedicated to making a difference in the lives of all those she touched, she had a special calling to the African American community. As minister's wife in Philadelphia, Jersey City, Newport, Milford, Lawnside, Chester, and Wilmington, she seized every opportunity to give counsel when requested. Because of her wisdom, support, and encouragement, many young people were able to discover their God given gifts and realize their potential. Through her membership in the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. and the United Negro College Women, she was able to serve the Philadelphia community even more extensively. A community service project especially dear to her heart was Zeta's national project, Stork's Nest, sponsored by the March of Dimes. Through her involvement furniture, clothing, and necessities were provided for needy young mothers. As a member of the Lincoln University Ladies Auxiliary, she served and supported the alma mater of her husband, class of 1929 and her grandson, class of 1992. She considered her greatest achievement her family. July 30, 1999 commemorated 61 years of marriage to Rev. Wimberly. Their three gifts from God were Edgar, Jr., now deceased, Edward, and Pamela. From an early age, she and Rev. Wimberly instilled in the children the necessity of a relationship with God through Jesus Christ, pride in their African American heritage, the importance of education though secondary to salvation, and the heartfelt joy derived from serving others. The final years of her life were spent in Atlanta, Georgia, where she and her husband moved in December 1993 to enjoy God's provision of family love, and care. On December 11, 1999, she had sung her last song and prayed her last prayer and was received in God's eternal kingdom where she can praise His name forever. As she joins Edgar, Jr., and Rev. Wimberly just 62 days after his entry, she leaves here on earth Edgar Jr's wife Margaret, Edward and his wife, Anne, and Pamela and her husband, Michael. She also leaves these grandchildren: Edgar Van Wimberly, III, Deitrich Bostick, Duchess Marie Wilburg, Jo-Seth Wimberly, Lyllian Wimberly, Ronald Porter, Michael Jones, Paul Jones, and four great grandchildren. She leaves several nephews, nieces and cousins as well as a God appointed angel, Delores Black. Mrs. Wimberly, an assertive, compassionate woman, who gave her heart to Christ a long long time ago, was a virtuous woman whose worth was far above jewels. "The heart of her husband trusted in her, and he had no lack of gain." "She did him good and not evil all the days of her life." "She rose also while it was still night and gave food to her household." She girded herself with strength and made her arms strong." "She extended her hand to the poor; and stretched out her hand to the needy." Strength and dignity were her clothing, and she smiled at the future." "She opened her mouth in wisdom, and the teaching of kindness was on her tongue." "Her children rise up and bless her; charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised"

(Excerpts from Proverbs 30:10-31).

X. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Conference Rules Of Order

- Rule 1: The Conference shall convene and adjourn at the discretion of the presiding Bishop and the Committee on Conference Arrangements. The Conference in plenary session may alter the time of convening or adjourning.
- Rule 2: The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his/her appeal.
- Rule 3: All resolutions, motions, amendments, and substitute motions presented at the Annual Conference shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing at the time they are made or as soon thereafter as possible.
- Rule 4: When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.
- Rule 5: No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:
1. To fix the time in which the Conference shall adjourn.
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To lay on the Table.
 5. For the previous question.
 6. To postpone to a given time.
 7. To refer.
 8. To substitute.
 9. Amendment.
 10. To postpone indefinitely.
- Rule 6: A motion to amend shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received which substitute may be amended only once, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.
- Rule 7: When a member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, she/he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him/her.
- Rule 8: No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the President to call him/her to order when she/he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when she/he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when she/he thinks herself/himself misrepresented.
- Rule 9: When a member desires a question of privilege, she/he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for her/him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

- Rule 10: No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than four minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- Rule 11: When any motion or resolution shall have been acted by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider is a non-debatable motion and shall be decided without debate.
- Rule 12: No member shall absent herself/himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless she/he is sick or unable to attend.
- Rule 13: No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.
- Rule 14: Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his/her vote, unless the Conference, for special reason, shall excuse him/her.
- Rule 15: It shall be in order for him/her to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by two-thirds, the question shall be taken.
- Rule 16: The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending or seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.
- Rule 17: All reports of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall be published and mailed to members of the Annual Conference ten (10) days prior to the date of meeting of the Annual Conference. Reports to be included in this mailing must in the hands of the Secretary by the date set annually by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- Rule 18: No report shall be received or adopted by the Conference until a copy has been placed in the hands of the Secretary.
- Rule 19: These rules shall not be suspended or amended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- Rule 20: All materials to be published in the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than 14 days following the adjournment of the Annual Session or they shall be excluded, the date to be part of the Organizational motion of the Annual Conference.
- Rule 21: The Nominating Committee shall distribute copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Annual Conference.
- Rule 22: Recommendations as to change in policy regarding data to be included in the Journal shall be determined by the Journal Committee and submitted to the Annual Conference for action.
- Rule 23: With the exception of the Board of Ordained Ministry, no member of any Board, Division, Committee, or Commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said Board, Division, Committee, or Commission, and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed except members of board, committees or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has lapsed and except that when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term she/he may complete the unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. Persons elected to the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve eight (8) years regardless of what year in the quadrennium they begin serving. No member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall be elected to serve on more than two Boards, Divisions, Committees, or Commissions concurrently, except the committees elected or appointed for the Annual Conference session only, district committees whether or not elected by the Annual Conference and the quadrennial committee of the local church.

Rule 24: Lay members of the Annual Conference will be elected quadrennially. A lay member may be re-elected for another quadrennium but must wait one quadrennium before being eligible for election for a third term.

Rule 25: In order to achieve balanced membership in the Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall report quadrennially the number of lay persons required to preserve equality of membership, and that the Peninsula-Delaware Conference achieve the desired equality of membership, by (1) the Associate Lay Leader, the four District Lay Leaders, the four District Presidents of the United Methodist Women, the four District Presidents of United Methodist Men, all United Methodist Deaconesses active and retired within the bounds of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, all certified Directors of Christian Education employed by churches of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference, and all other voting lay persons of the Conference Council on Ministries, shall be members in the Annual Conference with vote; (2) each pastoral charge enrolling more than 500 members, but having only one clergy member appointed to it, may elect one additional lay member, and further, that a pastoral charge having more than one clergy member appointed to it may elect one additional lay member, provided that more than 1,500 members are enrolled; and (3) the Conference Council on Youth Ministries shall elect as many youth members as needed to maintain a balance, divided equally among the districts.

Rule 26: All budget requests must be referred to the Conference Director of Administrative Services prior to Annual Conference action.

Rule 27: All statistical material for inclusion in the Statistical Tables to be printed in the Annual Journal must be in by January 30 or it will not be included.

Rule 28: In keeping with paragraph 652 in the 1996 Book of Discipline which states "A District Conference shall be held if directed by the Annual Conference of which it is a part and may be held upon the call of the district superintendent, which call shall specify time and place," a district superintendent may call a District Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop and the District Lay Leader. This rule will be reviewed quadrennially at the Annual Conference following each session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

B. Rules and Guidelines for the Conference Nominating Committee

A.

1. That the Peninsula-Delaware Conference again record its faith in the Principle of Rotation and adherence to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the Nominating Committee be composed of the Cabinet, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Lay Leader of each District, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, a representative selected by the United Methodist Women Executive Committee, the District Presidents of United Methodist Women, a youth selected by the Conference Youth Council, one minister under appointment from each District to be elected for a quadrennium by the respective District Ministerium, and the Conference Resource Director.
3. That, since the quadrennial system is an established part of the United Methodist economy, all members of boards, commissions, and committees shall be elected for a quadrennium unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other legal requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Principle of Rotation is still to be observed.
4. That no member of any board, committee, or commission shall serve more than two consecutive quadrennia on said board, committee or commission and shall not be eligible to be re-elected until after one quadrennium has elapsed, except members of boards, committees, or commissions elected for three-year terms may serve three consecutive terms and shall be ineligible to be re-elected until after one term has elapsed and except that, when a member is elected to fill an unexpired quadrennium or term and serve not more than one additional consecutive quadrennium or term. See Conference Rule #23, page 413, 1987 Conference Journal.
5. That no member of the Conference, lay or ministerial, shall serve on more than two boards, commissions, or committees concurrently. Ex-officio membership on conference boards or agencies in excess of two shall count toward the total of two. The following shall not be under the Conference rotation system nor counted in the above total: district committees or secretaries, Wesley College Trustees, Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundations, Board of Trustees of Peninsula United Methodist Homes, Inc., the Episcopal Residence Committee, and the Committee on Investigation. In the case of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Nominating Committee is to request the courtesy of the bishop to inform it as to those persons who will be named to the Board of Ordained Ministry, in order to assist the Nominating Committee in equal distribution of responsibility on the part of the Conference ministry members. The Nominating Committee will consider membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry as one of two memberships permitted to each minister.
6. Insofar as possible, the membership on Councils, Boards, and Agencies of the Annual Conference shall include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in keeping with policies for general church agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry.

7. That ministerial membership on Annual Conference boards and agencies shall be limited to Conference members and associate members of the Peninsula-Delaware Annual Conference. In order to be eligible to serve on the Conference boards and agencies, lay members shall be members of a local church within the Annual Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee may select other persons as affiliate members without vote.
8. "In recognition of the Rights of the Aging" as stated in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church (Page 98 of the 1988 Book of Discipline), age shall not be a barrier to serve on any board, council, or agency of the Annual Conference. However, the Conference Nominating Committee shall give careful attention to assuring that younger members of the Conference are given full opportunity for service.
9. That a conscientious effort shall be made to distribute membership geographically. No fixed number shall be assigned, however, to any one district, since this could become artificial and impractical. Consideration shall be given to the inclusion of lay and clergy persons from small membership churches.
10. That one representative of the Program Management Team shall be selected to serve on each Conference board and on all other support agencies except where the Book of Discipline states otherwise.
11. That failure to attend the particular board or agency to which one is assigned for at least one called meeting during the year, without written explanation, or statement of intended activity to the chairperson of that board or agency, one will be subject to automatic removal in the next nominating committee's report. A report of the board or agency chairperson to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee by March 1st will include the attendance record of this board, committee or agency.
12. That the Conference Nominating Committee designate persons to serve as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and Secretary for Boards, Commissions and Committees. Boards and Committee members will be notified in advance of their officer nominations. The Program Management Team Member assigned to each unit will convene the first meeting and present the nominations of officers. Additional nominations may be received from the members of that unit. The officers elected at the meeting shall serve for the quadrennium. *Except where the Book of Discipline directs otherwise, the Vice-Chairperson will succeed the Chairperson in the event of a resignation. The board or commission shall elect a new Vice-Chairperson.

The following Criteria for Leadership shall be used in the selection of Chairperson:

1. Willingness to commit time as required by the position.
 2. Willingness to commit time for training for the responsibilities of the office.
 3. Have an understanding of and a willingness to support the polity of the United Methodist Church.
 4. A demonstrated leadership ability in the local church.
13. That the date of election to any board, commission or committee be clearly indicated in the journal.

14. That in every case a nominee of any board, commission or committee shall be notified and consent to serve before the name is placed before the Conference. When vacancies occur in the report, nominations may be made from the floor, provided that the nominee is present and agrees to serve.
15. That recognizing again the belief in the principle of rotation in order to involve greater leadership, all district committees and officers shall be elected to four-year terms with a maximum of eight years and persons shall be ineligible for re-election until after a four-year term has elapsed, with the exception of the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and the District Committee on Church Building and Location which shall serve a minimum of four years and a maximum of eight years.

B.

Concerning the Nominating Committee, its report and the securing of talent:

1. That the report of the Nominating Committee at the Annual Conference session will reflect a complete adherence to all the guidelines established by the Annual Conference.
2. The Nominating Committee shall distribute mimeographed copies of its report to the Annual Conference on the day before the report is to be voted on by the Conference.
3. That forms shall be circulated for both ministers and laity in local churches to indicate areas of interest, thus creating a Talent Bank. In addition, the same form shall be sent to the members of the Cabinet, Board of Laity, Conference United Methodist Women, Executive Committee, and Conference Youth Council in order to obtain names that might otherwise be overlooked. These forms shall be returned to the secretary of the Conference Nominating Committee.
4. That a complete file of all ministers in the Conference should be kept indicating where each one is serving in terms of Conference boards and agencies. Laity should likewise be listed on a similar file. A third file would be divided between ministers and laity as part of the Conference Talent Bank.
5. That a minimum of four meetings per year should be held by the Nominating Committee (it may be advisable that the committee meet more often, since its influence is so broad; whenever the committee approaches a new quadrennium, this latter need for additional meetings may be more evident).
6. That the above adopted guidelines for the Nominating Committee of the Annual Conference shall become a printed part of its report at each Annual Conference session.
7. That at the beginning of a new quadrennium, a complete and open look at membership on all boards and agencies shall be initiated by the Conference Nominating Committee and all personnel shall be eligible for re-alignment in accordance with A-5.

8. Titles such as "Mrs.," "Miss," or "Mr." shall not be used in the preparation of the Nominating Committee report.

Miscellaneous

1. That conference directors, not be elected to boards and agencies under the Conference rotation, but serve only as ex-officio where assigned by the council director.
2. That two high school youth (preferably in the 10th and 11th grades) shall be members of all program boards of the Conference Council and on the Conference Council on Ministries on assignment by the Conference Youth Council.

XI. Alphabetical Roll & Pastoral Record

Clergy members of Conference, local pastors, diaconal ministers, widows and lay members are listed in the following pages. The name of the spouse is listed underneath the name of the pastor. The year following "C" denotes the year a pastor was Commissioned according to the 1996 Discipline. The year following "D" denotes the year a pastor was ordained Deacon. The year following "E" denotes the year a pastor was ordained Elder. The Pastoral Record follows each pastor's alphabetical listing in order to place all pastoral information in one file.
