RULES OF ORDER.

OF THE DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Rule I. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.

Rule II. He shall appoint all committees not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference.

Rule III. On assigning the floor to any member of Conference, he shall distinctly announce the name of the member to whom he assigns it.

Rule IV. All motions or resolutions introduced by any member shall be presented in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

Rule V. When a motion or resolution is moved and seconded, or a report is presented, and is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

Rule VI. The motion to adjourn, to lay on the table, to take from the table, or for the previous question, shall be taken without debate.

Rule VII. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions shall intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are here placed, namely:
(1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To lay on the table. (4) For the previous question. (5) To postpone to a given time. (6) To refer to a committee. (7) Substitute. (8) Amendment. (9) To postpone indefinitely.

Rule VIII. A substitute or amendment may be amended.

Rule IX. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President.

Rule X. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain if he thinks himself misrepresented.

Rule XI. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule XII. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

Rule XII. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

Rule XIV. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question is put by the President, except by leave of the Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.

Rule XV. Every member who is within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons excuse him.

Rule XVI. It shall be in order for any member to call for the yeas and nays in any question before the Conference; and, if the call be sustained by twenty-five members present, the vote thereon shall be taken by yeas and nays.

Rule XVII. It shall be in order to move that the question shall be taken without further debate, on any measure pending before the Conference, except in cases where character or Conference relations are involved; and, if sustained by a two-thirds vote, the question shall be so taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered.

Rule XVIII. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or vote is being taken; (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and action under it is still pending; (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived, and no business or debate has intervened; and (6) when a motion to fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn is pending or shall be made.

ANNIVERSARY OF WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Another year has winged its flight. And now we glance back and try to see what there is to record. The year has been one of absorbing interest with us, if for no other reason, it is the year of jubilee. Fifty years of service for our Heavenly Master brings our Conference up to this question: Have we done our best. For the most of the women are following the crowd, and that is such an easy task. But a faithful few have done heroic work. Many keep up the noon-day prayer, which has been an inspiration to those who are working on the field. Our anniversary was one of unusual interest. Mrs. Bishop Camphor gave the annual address in her usual way, possessing the same sympathetic voice, telling of her trip going to and coming from Liberia with great interest, making an appeal to her hearers that will never be forgotten. We were honored with a fraternal delegate from the W. F. M. Society from the Washington Conference, Mrs. W. F. Thomas, who gave a strong address which brought cheer and inspiration to our hearts.

The secretary has made only a few stray visitis; one we note especially, to Haven M. E. Church, Philadelphia, where two young people came forward and offered their services to go to Africa as missionaries as soon as they finished school. One is studying medicine, the other theology. We can now work and hope that this will be a prosperous year and that His kingdom may come quickly.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' REPORTS.

CAMBRIDGE DISTRICT.

Bishop and Brethren:

We are profoundly grateful to our Heavenly Father that we are permitted to present this our second annual report of the Cambridge District.

Over the top has been our slogan. Strenuous have been our efforts to concentrate our forces facing toward the front. Many have been the voices like trumpet calls summoning us to join other campaigns. The Red Cross, War Savings Stamps, Y. M. C. A. and Liberty Loan drives have all repeatedly requested us to join their ranks. We now mark time while we report.

During the year the following pastors and their families have been on the sick list: Revs. Alexander Reid, W. G. Matthews, R. H. Coleman, H. J. Stewart, Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Jolley, Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Brown. Bro. Brown also lost a brother and Mrs. Brown her mother. Rev. D. W. Henry and Mrs. B. B. Carson each lost a brother. Rev. L. E. Toulson lost his sister, Mrs. Sarah J. Lewis. Rev. Jose Angulo was accidentally shot. Rev. J. C. Bantom's family of seven were seriously ill for several weeks. His elder son, Joseph, succumbed to death. Rev. C. H. Spencer, of Nassau Charge, was accidentally killed, March 31st. A suitable memoir has been prepared.

While we cannot boast a complete triumph, we are thankful to the Lord that we have been able to hold our own all along the line. Here and there we have made striking advances.

Spiritual Conditions,

Notwithstanding that dread disease we call (for the want of a better name) "The Flue" closed nearly all of our churches from four to eleven weeks, many of them during the special season for evangelistic service, all of the charges except one have reported conversions, numbering 692 and accessions 652, which is a little more than the 10 per cent. increase of membership required. We had hoped for greater results. We have prayed and labored for a wide and sweeping revival.

Young People's Societies.

The glorious future of our Methodism lies in the skillful indoctrinating of our young people in the fundamentals of Christianity. The revealing to them a clear conception of the exalted purpose of life. This herculean task should be the pleasing duty to be accomplished through our young people's societies.

Our Annual Epworth League and Sunday School Convention convened June 25, 26, 27, at St. Paul Church, Lewes, Del. The Rev. T. A. Johnson, pastor.

Interesting and practical papers were read and discussed relating to the vital principles of life. President J. O. Spencer, of Morgan College, and Honorable Hiram Burton, of Lewes, delivered very able and helpful addresses. The entire outfit of our Sunday School's newly graded uniform course of study with charts was exhibited by the New York Book Concern. At the evangelistic service five young people surrendered themselves to the blessed Christ. This unique gathering was highly informative and inspirational. We all received a greater incentive for Christian Service. Several pastors have reorganized their Epworth Leagues and Sunday Schools.

District Confrence.

The Annual District Conference has justified itself in becoming an essential fixture on the Cambridge District. The pastors and leading officials convened in the seventh session at St. Paul Church, Milford, Del., Rev. W. E. Hilton, pastor.

The social, educational and religious fervor reached the high-water mark of Christian aspiration and zeal. Precious souls were born into the Kingdom. Able leaders of Methodism felicitated us. The Centenary of Missions was ably represented by our Area Secretary, Dr. G. H. Bickley.

MADISON. The resources of this circuit are only partially developed. Paid on indebtedness $218. $247 raised for repairing the church at Madison. Conversions 16; accessions 16; benevolences more than doubled. W. H. Saunders, pastor.

eral pastors have reorganized their Epworth Leagues and Sunday Schools. District Confrence.

The Annual District Conference has justified itself in becoming an essential fixture on the Cambridge District. The pastors and leading officials convened in the seventh session at St. Paul Church, Milford, Del., Rev. W. E. Hilton, pastor.

The social, educational and religious fervor reached the high-water mark of Christian aspiration and zeal. Precious souls were born into the Kingdom. Able leaders of Methodism felicitated us. The Centenary of Missions was ably represented by our Area Secretary, Dr. G. H. Bickley.

The Economic Duty of Methodism to the Veteran Preacher was forcibland clearly presented by Dr. Herbert F. Randolph, then pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Wilminton. Drs. Wm. Pickens and W. C. Jason, of Morga and Delaware State College for Colored Youths, respectively, reillumine our minds with a broader and intenser vision of our educational opportunities. An intensive campaign for subscriptions to the South Wester Christian Advocate was waged; 135 subscriptions were secured. Thence the campaign was aggressively extended throughout the charges. Our motto is: The South Western Christian Advocate a welcome visitor in every home.

Temperance.

Our slogan last year was "America a Saloonless Nation by 1920". But the most sanguine dreamer did not anticipate that the prophecy would be realized in 1919. Indeed, the stress and strain of our recent world war so exhibited the baneful effects of the saloon in deteriorating the mind and debilitating the body, as a sequence, National Prohibition was hastened 25-years. But that there may not be a reaction, the youth of this nation, indeed of the world, must be taught the evil effects of this diabolical institution. In each Sunday School a temperance society should be organized. Temperance Sundays should be consistently observed. In its broadest significance temperance should be taught both from the pulpit and in the pew. The abominable distillery should be annihilated all over the world.

The Christian Sabbath.

In these turbulent days af radical and perverted socialism, the legal and moral laws governing the Christian Sabbath must be strictly maintained. Any relaxation to enforce or successful effort to repeal them will be interpreted as a triumph of the worldly amusement forces and financial propagandists over the Church of God, which has always been the undaunted leader, promoting the just laws of civilization enacted for the highest social welfare of mankind.

Anarchism and Bolshevism cannot possibly exist in a nation that rightly appreciates and properly observes the Christian Sabbath. We stand for the unmodified sanctity of the Christian Sabbath.

Public Education.

The Public School System of Delaware has been very inadequate, indeed almost antiquated. The recent session of the State Legislature enacted a law creating a new and more adequate System of Education. The teacher's salary has been greatly increased. The minimum term of the rural schools has been extended to ten months. Thus the door of hope has opened wider for a larger number of more efficient teachers.

Morgan College Half Century Fund.

Napoleon the Great once said, "To maintain a great Republic like the United States, the citizens must be enlightened and Christianized." That greatest embodiment of the true American spirit, the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, said, "Unless the country is made a good place for all of us to live in, it won't be a good place for any of us to live in." Our present political world crisis is teaching us that the little Soldier-Emperor and the Christian statesman are both right.

Christian Education as it is exemplified by Morgan College, Princess Anne Academy and other Christian Schools must be the undergirder of the Christian home and pulpit, the foundation stone upon which all true democracy must stand. We have incessantly stressed this idea until our intensive decisive campaign for Morgan College Half Century Fund alone has culminated $2560 as a liberal contribution from this district for the preparation of a higher Christian leadership. This educational contagion is effecting our young people. Some are practicing the most rigid economy to avail themselves of the advantage of a Christian education. We are seeking to have the spirit become everywhere prevalent.

While all of the charges might receive an honorable mentioning (if space and time would permit), for they have strenuously striven likewise to raise their full apportionment for Morgan College Half Century Fund, the following have placed themselves on the "HONOR ROLL" as having "gone over the top": East New Market, Laurel, Bridgeville Circuit, Hurlock, Bridgeville, Golden Hill, North Berlin, Waugh Chapel (Cambridge) and South Berlin.

Ministerial Support and Benevolences.

The pastors have been zealous to advance the various causes of the Church, and constant in their conceived duty to His Kingdom. The laity have not been remiss in their appreciative recognition of their unselfish fidelity. Hence 32 charges have increased their pastoral support. There has been gratifying advance in raising the amounts apportioned for the support of Bishops, Conference Claimants and District Superintendent.

Notwithstanding the many special drives we have had for money, the district reports and advance of 90 per cent. in the benevolent collections. The annual obligation on the bonded debt of the District Parsonage has been met. Raised on old indebtedness and improvements, $10,714.

. Patriotism.

Both the Public Press and the Official War Records are very prolific in their laudation of the daring and valor of our patriotic youths who answered the unselfish call of the Government, enlisting in the most destructive, yet the greatest humanitarian war of the ages, exhibiting such courage and bravery until Kaiserism has been annihilated and autocracy has been dethroned. Christian Democracy is most steadily and assuredly becoming a practical reality among the nations of the earth. Our pastors and people are not slack to appreciate the noble deeds and unparalleled sacrifices of our returning heroes. The churches are vying with each other in welcoming their peaceful return and seeking to bestow every benefit for their physical welfare, their moral and spiritual betterment.

"The flags at home are waving so true, Awaiting to give a welcome to you."

Centenary of Methodist Missions.

The Centenary of Methodist Missions authorized by the General Conference of 1916 and formally launched June 18-22, 1819, at Columbus, Ohio, has been rightly designated by eminent Christian Statesmen as the greatest spiritual movement this side of Pentecost.

Bishop Berry, we feel highly elated to report the Cambridge District unanimously in sympathy with the Centenary. It is almost prefectly organized up to date according to the Centenary Calendar. We think of the Centenary as the stream of life. As the Nile rushes forth from the mountain depositing her rich alluvial sediment on vale and plain, so abundantly enriching the soil that the vegetable life is spontaneously produced, so the Great Boards of Foreign and Home Missions and Church Extension, the incarnation of the spirit which actuated the self-sacrifice of John Stewart, is a mighty spiritual river system disseminating truth, righteousness and holiness by establishing Christian Missions and Churches in every hamlet, town and city, generating spiritual life among the people throughout the whole world.

With sincere gratitude to the pastors and the people for their hearty co-operation, I submit this, my second annual report.

D. H. HARGIS, District Superintendent.

CENTREVILLE DISTRICT.

Bishop and Brethren:

Being ourselves mere plodders, and serving a people of very limited means and opportunities, we have nothing remarkable to present. Faithful service has been our "motto" under which we have labored; and we neither expect nor desire any other commendation than that of our Lord.

It gives us pleasure to report that there seems to be a growth in Christian character in the churches and a raising of the moral tone of the communities. I think this is largely due to the earnest, practical, preaching of the gospel and zeal for the salvation of souls by the ministers of the district.

The "Bone Dry" propaganda which has swept the country has helped greatly in raising the morals of the district. An intoxicated person is seldom seen. The people are thrifty and happy; praying that every state in the union will soon be dry; and total abolition of alcohol as a beverage, which has hindered so long the moral, religious, economic and physical advancement of the race and nation.

District Activities.

The District Conference, held in Zion M. E. Church, Federalsburg, was an inspiration to all present. The Conference was opened with a strong evangelistic sermon by brother C. W. H. Briddell, followed by the Holy Communion. After which an evangelistic service was held, and several persons confessed conversion. Visitors to the conference were Dr. W. G. Jones, a member of the Philadelphia Conference, who presented to the conference the Centenary Campaign. Dr. William Pickens was there in the interest of Morgan College Half Century Campaign. Prof. T. A. Kiah was there to represent Princess Anne Academy. Dr. J. R. Waters was there in the interest of the Conference Claimants' Fund, and he was happy over the result of his visit.

W. H. Johns looked after the interest of the Southwestern Christian Advocate. The district is organized into groups and units, preparatory to putting on the Centenary Campaign after conference.

The epidemic of influenza seriously interfered with the spiritual and financial success of the district. It was the intention of the brethren to take advantage of the prosperity that is in our midst to advance their benevolence and other financial obligations to at least fifty per cent. above last year. But the epidemic closed many of the churches from seven to nine Sundays, yet the pastors determined to advance the finances above last year.

There has been a sympathetic brotherhood between pastors and the Superintendent, which has by the grace of God, helped us to advance the district along all lines.

Ministerial Support.

We presented to the Quarterly Conference the resolution passed by this Annual Conference, relative to the increase of pastor's salary. There was not any serious objection against it. The result was a material increase in salary all over the district. In fact, on every charge. That means less desire among the brethren to change to other districts in search of more salary; and a more efficient and satisfied ministry.

Morgan College.

We pledged ourselves at the last conference by a resolution, to stand by Morgan College, relative to the Half Century Fund. And we have done what we could to raise every dollar pledged by the churches on the district. We did not accomplish our desire; but we have satisfaction in knowing that we made an earnest effort to do so. Several charges paid their full apportionment.

. Sickness and Death.

Death has removed from our midst since the last Annual Conference the following brethren: Rev. James H. Grinnage, a supply, and Rev. John W. Brown, a retired member of this conference. Suitable memoirs will be read.

Rev. W. E. Waters, pastor of our church at St. Michaels, was bereaved of his loving wife, Jesse Estelle Waters, on February 15th. She was a long and patient sufferer, a devoted wife, and a loving mother. She desired to live for her children's sake. But she was resigned to the will of her Heavenly Father. Funeral' services were held in St. Michaels and Sharp Street Memorial Church, Baltimore. Suitable memoir will be read.

Rev. D. G. Waters, of Preston, lost his lovely daughter Edna, January 17th, in Philadelphia. She was a fine Christian character, a graduate of Princess Anne Academy.

Mrs. G. R. Hollis is mourning the loss of a loving father, Mr. Francis E. Lawrence, of Chester, Pa.

The following have been on the sick list some time during the year: Brothers F. T. Johnson, M. V. Waters, J. O. Stanley, D. G. Waters; pastors' wives as follows: Mrs. L. A. Blake, Mrs. J. O. Stanley, Mrs. J. O. Lockman.

Survey of the Charges.

CARMICHAEL. This charge has advanced along all lines. Pastor's salary was increased, money in bank for a new church building, and the pastor was invited to return for another year. Conversions 22; accessions 18. Paid on building and improvements $37; paid on church property debt $153; benevolence $79. J. N. Bullen, pastor.

CENTREVILLE. This charge has taken on new activity. The pastor, who is quiet and unassuming, quietly organized his forces; introduced the New Financial Plan, won the confidence of his people, and the respect of the creditors of the church, made a plan to pay up the accumulated interest on the church debt. This charge formerly felt that they were not able to pay a pastor more than $750 salary. But this year they will pay their pastor $900. Conversion 11; accessions 12; paid on improvement $21; paid on the debt of church $375; benevolence $143, an increase of 78 per cent. over last year. This charge went over the "top" for Morgan College. Samuel J. Horsey, pastor.

CENTREVILLE CIRCUIT. This charge is not easily managed. But the people soon found out that they had a pastor who knew how to do things, therefore they were willing to follow his lead. Conversions 2; accessions 3; paid on improvements $26; paid on church debt $429; benevolence $50. G. W. Downs, pastor.

CHESTERTOWN has exceeded all former records. This charge was visited by one of the greatest revivals in a number of years. They estimated the pastor's salary at $952, and paid him $1000. The people are happy and hopeful. This church, which once seemed hopeless because of its being burdened with debt, is now becoming one of the desirable charges under the tactful leadership of its present pastor. The pastor was unanimously invited to serve them another year. Conversions 35; accessions 34; paid on improvements $75; paid on church debt $725; benevolence $170. W. H. Johns, pastor.

CHURCH HILL maintains peace and satisfaction under the leadership of its pastor, who is serving them the fourth year. Conversions 6; accessions ..; paid on church debt $310; benevolence $84. I. D. Paine, pastor.

CORDOVA is satisfied with their pastor. Increased his salary and invited him to serve them another year. They send in a good report. Conversions 10; accessions 9; paid on improvements $195; paid on parsonage debt $110; paid on church debt $30; benevolence $136. J. O. Lockman, pastor.

COXE'S NECK MISSION gives promise of growing into a strong church some day. There are a number of people living in the neighborhood who do not attend any church. The great need of this mission is a revival and the sympathy of the pastor and churches near it. Brother Heath has done the best he could under the circumstances. Paid on improvements $15; benevolence $12. Zébulon Heath, pastor.

DENTON can always be relied upon doing its duty, as far as circumstances will allow. The churches on this charge were closed for several Sundays because of the influenza, still they have maintained their record. Conversions 15; accessions 7; paid on church debt $400; total benevolence $362. M. V. Waters, pastor.

DENTON MISSION finds after eight years of service from their pastor they cannot do without him. Increased his salary and invited him to serve them for the ninth year. Conversions 3; accessions 3; paid on church debt $146; raised on benevolence $45. J. H. Cooper, pastor.

EASTON maintains its old time vigor, in spite of the church being closed for several Sundays because of the influenza; sends up the following report: Conversions 33; accessions 42; paid on improvements $250; paid on church debt $500; paid on parsonage debt $175; for patriotic purposes $158; benevolence $397. J. R. Holland, pastor.

EASTON CIRCUIT has done fairly well under the leadership of its pastor. This charge has a small and scattered membership. Reports conversions 3; accessions 3; paid on parsonage debt $169; paid on church debt $72; total benevolence $28. S. A. Earles, pastor.

FAIRLEE: In spite of the fact that many of the strong members of this charge have gone northward seeking higher wages for their labor, the charge has advanced. Conversions 5; accessions 5; paid on improvements $56; paid on church debt $66; paid on parsonage debt $20; for patriotic purposes $39; for benevolence $66. C. W. Winder, pastor.

FEDERALSBURG has enjoyed another year of prosperity though sorely afflicted yith the epidemic of influenza. The pastor has taken a part in the civic movements of the town, looking to the improvement of the health, morals and educational advancement of his people. Largely by his effort, the people of the town enjoy an excellent public school building for their children. Conversions 30; accessions 3; paid on improvements $75; paid on church debt $253; raised for the public school building $500; for benevolence $221. F. T. Johnson, pastor.

GREENSBORO. A wonderful change has been made in this charge. The pastor in the beginning of his pastorate took an active part in the patriotic movements on the charge, and won the respect of the white people, and brought about a greater feeling of freindship and sympathy between the races.

A wealthy citizen of the town urged the pastor to buy an automobile for his service, instead of a horse and carriage. And this gentleman gave the first $100 toward paying for it. This charge was the first to go over the "top" on the district on the Morgan College Half Century Campaign. The pastor, as district director for the Centenary Campaign, has been tireless in his effort to thoroughly complete the organization before conference. The people of this charge have been led by thir pastor at such a rapid pace I have been afraid that they might be stricken with spiritual or financial apoplexy, but nothing of the kind has happened as yet. Pastor's salary was increased from $750 to $900. Conversions 53; accessions 57; paid on improvements $876; paid on parsonage debt $175; for patriotic purposes $384; benevolences, full, $346. J. H. Blake, pastor.

LONGWOODS is a difficult charge to serve. This charge needs a thorough spiritual awakening. The pastor has labored faithfully and has had some success. Converts 7; accessions 7. The Ladies' Aid Society raised for all purposes $236. Raised for benevolence $57. L. W. Deakins, pastor.

McDANIEL has been blessed with another year of success. The pastor has not slackened his enthusiastic efforts to advance his charge. Conversions 8; accessions 8; paid on church debt $102; paid on parsonage debt $50; raised for patriotic purposes $66; for benevolence $81. C. W. H. Briddell, pastor.

MELITOTA. This charge reports the best year's work in many. In spite of the churches being closed because of the epidemic for several Sundays, and the pastor greatly worried over the fact that his father was stricken with paralysis and momentarily expecting his death, the charge sends up a good report. Conversions 20; accessions 3; raised for improvements $20; benevolence $75. Ross N. Davis, pastor.

OXFORD is happy over the advancement it has made this year under the leadership of its new pastor. Conversions 12; accessions 12; raised for improvements $424; paid on church debt $150; benevolence $132., L. D. Reecham. pastor.

POMONA people are pleased with their new pastor. They have gladly followed his leadership and the results have been good. Conversions 5; accessions 15; raised for improvements $118; benevolence $167, an increase over least year; for patriotic purposes $68. S. A. Waters, pastor.

PRESTON people are fully satisfied with their pastor. His loving fellowship and dignity have won for him the respect of both races. He is invited to serve them another year. Conversions 8; accessions 8; paid for improvements $50; paid on church debt $638; raised for benevolence $176. D. G. Waters, pastor.

RIDGELY people are loyal to their church. The charge should be a station, the young people could be better trained. The great need of this charge is a new church. The pastor has labored faithfully for success. Conversions 12; accessions 14; paid on improvements $75; paid on church debt $252; in bank towards building a new church $269; raised for benevolence $141. J. W. Gillis, pastor.

ROOK HALL. This charge is not in perfect harmony. One of the churches was taken from Fairlee Charge some years ago and attached to Rock Hall, which was at that time a station. Now they want to be returned to Fairlee Charge, from which they were taken. The pastor has labored faithfully, and has in a measure succeeded. Conversions 10; accessions 15; paid on building and improvements $400; paid church debt $147; paid on parsonage debt $204; for benevolence $61. G. R. Hollis, pastor.

ROYAL OAK. The pastor of this charge returned once more to serve these people after an absence of thirty-two years. Those who remember him say that he is a better preacher, more desirable than he was when he first served them. They increased the salary to $900, fell in line with the pastor's plans and he has had success in spite of the epidemic of influenza. I venture to say this charge sends up the best report in its history. Conversions 48; accessions 44; paid on improvements $10; paid on parsonage debt $97; raised for benevolence $356. In conversions and benevolence, an increase of more than 40 per cent. J. H. Nutter, pastor.

ST. MICHAELS is happy under the leadership of their new pastor. The spiritual fervor of the church has been high all the year. The financial condition was never better than now. The pastor has been greatly handicapped by his wife being very ill all the year, yet the people were patient and loyal. Conversions 10; accessions 9; paid on improvements $240; paid on church debt $446; raised for benevolence $113. W. E. Waters, pastor.

STEVENSVILLE. This is a loyal people. Their greatest need is a pastor who will faithfully shepherd them. One who will look after the young people and train them in Christian character and moral rectitude. The charge advanced the pastor's salary from $716 to $900, and would pay the right man $1000. Conversions 6; accessions 6; paid on improvements $30; paid on church debt $150; raised for benevolence $92. M. P. Sterling, pastor.

TRAPPE. Although the pastor and people of this charge were greatly afflicted with the pidemic of influenza, which closed their church for nine Sundays, they would not acknowledge defeat, and have sent up a good report. Elictric lights with beautiful fixtures have been put in the church.

Cement steps and walk have been laid from church door to the street. Trappe will soon be acknowledged among the best stations on the district. Conversions 53; accessions 41; paid on improvements $150; raised on benevolence $129. Abraham Chase, pastor.

WILLISTON reports in advance of last year. The pastor has labored hard for success, and reports as follows: Conversions 7; accessions 7; paid on improvements $161; paid on church debt $..; raised for benevolence $71. W. H. Hayman, pastor.

WITTMAN people are thoroughly satisfied with their pastor, who is serving them the third year. By his winning ways and gentle disposition, he has gripped his people in such a manner that no sane superintendent would advise the Bishop to remove him at this time. This charge needs a revival, a visitation from Heaven to awaken the people to spiritual activities. Conversions 1; accessions 4; paid on improvements $1200; paid on church debt $100; for patriotic purposes $10; raised for benevolence. $79. J. O. Stanley, pastor.

WOODLAND. Brother J. H. Grinnage, who was appointed to this charge as pastor last conference, died without an opportunity of meeting his people. Brother T. B. H. Coleman, who retired from active service last conference, was appointed to supply the charge until conference. He has been very successful. The people are satisfied with him, and have requested his return for another year. Those of us who know this charge, know that it is seldom satisfied. Therefore, I trust the Bishop will not disturb their tranquility just now. Conversions 39; accessions 33; paid on improvements $197; paid on parsonage debt $157; paid on church debt debt $140; raised for benevolence $104. Advanced over last year. T. B. H. Coleman, pastor.

Summary.

Total conversions 460. Total accessions 415. Total paid for building and improvements $4642. Total paid on church debts $6007. Raised for benevolence $4028. An increase of $1242 over last year.

The following charges paid their full apportonment for Morgan College Half Century Fund: Greensboro, 200; Centreville, $102; Easton, $213; Royal Oak, $234; Denton, $180.

We have no undue elation over the result of our labor. For the magnitude of the work and the consciousness of our own weakness appall and humiliate us. And we say with Paul, "Who is sufficient for these things?" We are unprofitable servants, and our sufficiency is of God. Like Paul, "Forgetting the things which are behind and stretching forward to the things which are before, we press on toward the mark; to the goal, unto the prize of a higher calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Respectfully submitted,

R. H. WALLACE.

SALISBURY DISTRICT.

Bishop Berry and Brethren:

With gratitude to God for his guidance and providence through another year and with due appreciation for the kind treatment accorded me by the pastors and people of the Salisbury District, I present this, my second annual report.

The epidemic of influenza which swept over the country during last October and November held our territory within its deadly grip at the very season of the year that many of our charges do their most effective service for the interests of the Kingdom. The work of the district was brought to a half for three weeks, during which period we could only mark time, and some of our churches were closed for eight weeks. There has been considerable sickness among the brethren and their families, but our ministerial ranks have not been broken by death. On the 7th of last October Mrs. Mary Roberta Kiah, a woman of culture and refinement and wife of Principal Thomas H. Kiah, a member of this conference, passed to the larger service of the Heavenly Country.

The results of our labors cannot be characterized as great achievements, however we are thankful that we can report progress. The advancement beyond the point attained last year is truly indicative of what can be accomplished.

COTTAGE GROVE, with J. E. A. D. Grigsby, pastor, shows progress, notwithstanding the pastor was confined to his bed for several weeks with severe illness. Ministerial support and benevolences increased beyond last year.

CRISFIELD. The results of the year at this church justify the somewhat unusual action of returning a pastor to a charge after three years' service in another charge. Benevolences advanced 50 per cent. above last year. The pastor's salary has been increased $100, $1000 paid on the bonded debt, and the remainder of the Morgan College Half Century Fund, $111, has been raised and paid. C. S. Sprigg, pastor.

DAMES QUARTER, with A. A. McDowell, pastor, started off well. The people were anxious to advance and added $150 to the pastor's salary. There were good reasons to expect a good report from this charge. But, I fear the result can hardly be characterized as such. I have not received the pastor's report.

DEALS ISLAND has had a great year. This is the pastor's first year in the Christian ministry. He has begun well. Every dollar of ministerial support and disciplinary benevolences has been raised, advancing these claims more than 100 per cent. beyond last year; $25 paid on old debts; $55; for Morgan College Half Century Fund; 57 conversions; 56 accessions.

FAIRMOUNT. Centennial, with C. A. Norwood, pastor, has advanced the benevolent collections and increased the pastor's salary.

FAIRMOUNT. St. Andrews, with J. A. Kiah, pastor, reports 24 conversions. The Ladies' Aid Society in this charge is a strong organization and reports $718 raised this year; $582 paid on old debts; pastor's salary increased and benevolences advanced.

FRUITLAND, with J. W. Bowling as pastor, continues to go forward. This pastor went out and found a colony of 18 families about four miles from Fruitland and the same distance from Salisbury and called my attention to it. These people have been organized and there is a splendid prospect for a growing church. The pastor's salary has been increased, benevolences advanced; $450 in bank for a new church; $109 raised for Morgan College Half Ceneury Fund.

GREENWOOD has done well and reports 11 conversions, 5 accessions, an increase in benevolent collections and 50 per cent. increase in pastor's salary. H. R. Purnell, pastor.

HEBRON. This charge has been supplied by G. W. Joynes, a local elder, with splendid success. Accessions 28; benevolences advanced 50 per cent. over last year, and $150 increase in pastor's salary. With careful attention this work can be greatly developed. Morgan College Half Century Fund raised in full.

HOPEWELL shared in the prosperity which came to the tidewater sections last fall and winter, and the pastor, W. T. Spellman, wisely planned to profit thereby. The results show that he was not disappointed. Conversians 15; accessions 15; $125 increase in pastor's salary, and the benevolences advanced almost 100 per cent.

HORNTOWN has not done so well. There seems to be a lack of harmony between pastor and people. Perhaps there has been some outside influence at work that has not helped the situation. Conversions 3; accessions 5; $33 raised for benevolences and $28 for war work and local charities. C. W. Johnson, pastor.

JAMESTOWN, with J. H. Russum, pastor, increased the ministerial support and advanced the benevolences.

KELLER. H. C. Snead is pastor here, and he is a prophet with honor in his own home. His boyhood friends are members and officials of his charge and they say he is the right man in the right place. The charge continues to grow. The work on the new church, which is almost completed, was stopped because of war conditions. They are now planning to remodel and enlarge the other church. The pastor's salary was advanced $100, and the benevolences advanced 25 per cent.

KINGSTON. I. H. Bivens, pastor, is a growing charge. The people are loyal and are anxious to advance. The Ladies' Aid Society of this charge, under the leadership of Mrs. Bivens, leads the district this year and reports $850 raised for the church. The pastor's salary was increased and the benevolences advanced 30 per cent. On the 20th of last October a beautiful church at Marumsco, one of the points in this charge, was dedicated. The dedicatory sormen was preached by the Rev. C. S. Sprigg. The collection amounted to $625.

LAWSÓNIA, with T. W. Cooper, pastor, continues to advance. With less than 100 full members, this church estimated $900 for the support of the pastor and paid it before Thanksgiving. Raised the ministerial support in full, raised the entire benevolent budget, and raised for Morgan Half Century Fund, $72, which was the remainder of its apportonment for that fund, and two dollars over.

LEEMONT. E. E. Rogers, pastor, has the largest membership of any charge in the district. It has two churches, either of which is capable of being a good station. It is a pity that the people here cannot see the disadvantage of the present condition. The report shows progress beyond last year. Paid on old debts $190; increased pastor's salary $50, and in creased the benevolences 40 per cent.

/ LIBERIA, with G. S. Jacobs, pastor, has gone forward. The benevolent collections have been carefully looked after and show quite an increase over last year. Paid on old debts $323.

MARDELA, under the leadership of I. D. Pitts, has done well with a small membership and with some hindrances that ought not to be. The charge has advanced the pastor's salary and the benevolences; $72 has been raised for war work.

MARION STATION. This charge has made a notable advance over last year. There is an increase in ministerial support and the benevolences are almost 100 per cent. in advance of last year. D. A. Ridout, pastor.

MT. VERNON, with R. C. Hughes, pastor, dedicated its very beautiful church on the first of last September. Revs. J. U. King and E. O. Parker assisted the writer in the services, brother Parker delivering the dedicatory sermon. This charge has advanced ministerial support and benevolence beyond last year.

NANTICOKE. It seemed to be expedient to make a change in the pastorate at this point early in December and the bishop appointed J. H. Edwards at that time. He has had only about four months in which to work, but he has wrought nobly. The young people have been organized in a lyceum which meets every Sunday afternoon. Many of these young people have been saved. A revival added 52 to the church. The benevolence is in advance of last year; $150 raised on Morgan College Half Century Fund, and $150 for war work and local charities.

ORIOLE, with J. W. Waters, pastor, has had another good year and reports in advance of last year. The pastor's salary has been advanced and the benevolences increased 10 per cent.; $97 paid on old debts.

PARSONBURG, C. T. Covington, pastor, has renovated the church at Delmar at a cost of $300, and paid for the same; paid on old debts $278; advanced the pastor's salary $100, and raised $95, the remainder of its apportionment for the Morgan College Half Century Fund.

POCOMOKE CITY, with W. R. A. Palmer, pastor, has excelled its great record of last year and makes the best report of its history. The pastor has given his services to the country during the was as a member of the legal advisory board of his County, but in doing this he has not neglected the work of the church as the reports show. The pastor's salary was increased $100; ministerial support raised in full; $500 paid on old debts; maintains its place in the Honor class for raising all the benevolent apportonments in full; $168, the remainder of its Morgan College Half Century Fund, has been raised, and $227 for war relief and local charities; accessions 8.

PRINCESS ANNE, E. O. Parker, pastor, maintains its standing in the Honor class for raising all the benevolent apporionments. It also advanced the pastor's salary 25 per cent., paying the largest salary of any station in the district. Paid $300 on the mortgage; raised $230 for Morgan College Half Century Fund, completing its full apporionment, and reporting the largest amount of any charge of the district for this cause. Conversions 2; accessions 10. The total benevolence is $631.

PRINCESS ANNE CIRCUIT, with Thaddeus L. McDonald, pastor, has done well. The benevolences and ministerial support have been increased; $305 paid on the mortgage, and $102 on improvements. Conversions 8; accissions 6.

QUANTICO, L. B. Buchanan, pastor, makes a better report than last year. The pastor's salary was advanced 20 per cent, and there is quite an increase in the benevolences. Paid on old debts $284. Accessions 4.

SALISBURY, John Wesley, under the leadership of J. M. Dickerson, makes a splend'd report. $1419 has been paid on the indebtedness; $325 on a new heating plant; $82 on war work; $25 for local charities; the benevolence increased 50 per cent. The pastor's salary was advanced $100 and the ministerial support raised in full. Morgan College Half Century

Fund, $182, the balance of the apportionment.

SALISBURY, Whites Chapel, C. W. Pullett, pastor, advanced the pastor's salary $300 and paid out several weeks before conference. Ministerial support raised in full: the benevolences more than doubled; raised $23 for war work; $5 for local charities, and $54 for the Morgan College Half Century Fund, completing its apporionment. Conversions 15; accessions 3.

SHARPTOWN, S. T. Parker, pastor, shows progress. A gracious revival resulted in 65 conversions and 42 accessions. The pastor's salary was increased and they promise to make a much larger increase another year; $123 raised for war work and $98 for-local charities. Raised for improvements $350, and on old debts $173.

UNIONVILLE. G. T. Townsend is the pastor here and he would have the angels know that he did his best. His record justifies his desire, for surely he is a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. The pastor's salary was increased $130; benevolences increased 50 per cent. beyond last year. The charge was blessed with a revival which rsulted in 25 conversions and a quickened membership.

WACHAPREAGUE, with J. R. Purnell as pastor, continues to advance. There is a splendid increase in the benevolent collections. The one great need of this charge is a suitable parsonage. The charge is now out of debt and in a condition to build. Paid on old debts $250.

WATTSVILLE. J. S. Coulbourn completes his seventeenth year as pastor of this charge, and still the people ask for his return. The new church has been completed; the parsonage has been improved and $1335 raised on these enterprises; $64 paid on old debts; pastor's salary advanced $100. The charge reports $151 for local charities; $136 for Morgan College Half Century Fund; $32 for war work, and $212 for the benevolences.

WETIPQUIN, with W. H. Turner, pastor, has been blessed with a revival and reports 67 conversions and 47 accessions. The ministerial support and benevolences have been advanced. Both teh church and parsonage have been improved and $596 paid on the same. War work $85; local charities $55.

WESTOVER MISSION, pastored by R. H. Boggs, is a small work and in these times of high prices is not strong enough to support a pastor. They therefore, desire to be united with other work. This is certainly the best thing for them. There is a slight increase in pastor's salary and conference collections.

WHITE HAVEN, with Roswell Water, pastor, has had a most successful year. A revival resulted in 45 conversions and 45 accessions. churches and parsonage have been repaired and furinshed and $498 paid on the same. The pastor's salary was increased; the benevolences almost doubled and $105 raised on the Morgan College Half Century Fund.

WITHAMS. This charge is pleased with its pastor and he is proud of his people. They have had a good time together this year, and the report follows: Conversions, 45; accessions, 48; paid on old debts, $136; conference collections, $181; war work, $80; Morgan College Half Century Fund, $102.

Mission Points.

LEATHERBURY CHAPEL, formerly a part of Hebron Circuit, has been successfully pastored by brother Wilson Pinkett, a local preacher. About $20 has been raised for conference collections.

PORTSVILLE has been carefully looked after by J. J. Mitchell, a local preacher, and the outlook for a church at this point is good. About $25 has been raised for conference collections.

Spiritual Conditions.

The brethren have prayed and planned for revivals and in several of the charges these efforts have been visibly rewarded with a goodly number of conversions and greatly quickened churches. The pastors are called together every month in their Monthly Meeting and discuss methods and exchange views relative to increasing their spiritual efficiency and enlarging the borders of the Kingdom in their respective fields of labor.

Young People's Societies.

I have brought the work of training the children and young people to the attention of the Quarterly Conference of every charge and have striven to show the importance of this very necessary work. The Young People's Societies offer the very best opportunities for soul culture and spiritual development. To be indifferent to the program which the Church presents to us in the Sunday School, the Junior and Senior Epworth Leagues, is to stultify one's mind and to cut off the main sources of power and spiritual efficiency. Every Sunday School should have a teacher training class and every League should pursue a regular course of study under efficient leadership.

Representatives of the Sunday Schools and Leagues of the district met in convention in Whites M. E. Church, Salisbury, Md., on the second and third of last July. The papers, discussions and addresses were of an exceedingly high order. Dr. J. O. Spencer, of Morgan College, and other representative persons brought strong messages which were profitably received.

Morgan Coliege Half Century Fund.

Christian education is the hope of the race. Every race must have efficient leadership if it is to properly fill its mission in the world. In order to meet this need the church fosters and maintains schools where its youth are trained that they may function correctly in the work of life. Morgan College and Princess Anne Academy are such centers here in our midst. They are ours. We must support them. At least a dollar a year per member should be raised for these institutions. If any one should question this, I would say the answer is found in the cosecrated and efficient leadership which these schools have given to this and other conferences. A number of our charges have raised every dollar of the Half Century Fund. Why not every charge? What some have done others can do. What is needed is leadership with vision and a holy zeal for the cause of Christian educacation and every charge would go "Over The Top" with hilarity.

Princess Anne Academy.

Notwithstanding the war took several of the young men out of school, the attendance at this institution is the largest in its history. It continues to fill a large place in the educational life of our people of the Peninsula as well as other sections of the State of Maryland and other states. They are an earnest, serious and interesting group of young people who reflect in their lives the excellent Christian training they are receiving. During last January it was my pleasure to be present at their revival. It was a genuine spiritual awakening. Teacher and students sang, prayed and shouted in the joy of their religious experience. They told of the power of the gospel in their lives and plead with their unconverted friends until forty-three yielded themselves to Jesus.

The Centenary.

Methodism is in the midst of a Centenary celebration marking the close of her first hundred years of missionary achievement and the beginning of a far-visioned program for the future. Among other things the plan includes the education of the Church along missionary lines, the development of the prayer life, and the promotion of habits of Christian stewardship. $105,000,000 is the sum asked for missions during the next five years. The Church has the money. It can finance this program. I believe it will. If it continues to put emphasis upon the fundamental element of the program—the quickening of the prayer life of the church—it will mean the repetition of Pentecost and bring about a spiritual condition in the Church that men shall not feel that aught of the things which they possess is their own, but that they are stewards over what God has entrusted to them. Is it not true that giving to the interests of the Kingdom has been more upon the principle of ownership than that of stewardship? The Centenary is an effort to correct this error, and to teach men their true relationship to God and things. The practice of stewardship, a tithing church, would place our work upon such a financial basis that the treasury of our Lord would overflow and He would open the windows of heaven and pour upon us such a blessing as there would not be room to receive it.

Our pastors and people are catching the spirit of this great movement of the church and are in line with the leaders in their efforts to carry out this world program of the Church. I have given the best of myself without reserve to this work and to every phase of my duty as I have understood it. My work has been made pleasant by the hearty co-operation of both clergy and laity. It is due to their self-sacrificing loyalty and devotion to the Redeemer's cause that I am able to report Victory for the forces of right-eousness.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. JEWETT.

PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT.

After a year of earnest effort, of varied difficulties, and by the grace of God, of some achievement, we come with ranks unbroken.

We pause, however, to note the death of our late brother, the Rev. N. B. Snowden, a retired minister living at Derwood, Md., within the bounds of the Washington Conference. Faithfully he served several appointments in this conference with marked success. He departed this life May 15, 191% to enter into fuller enjoyment of our Lord.

Mrs. J. E. Webb, the widow of a deceased member of this conference, was called away, after a lingering illness, to her heavenly home, September 15, 1918. She had been a devout and enthusiastic Christian from her youth and is remembered for the sunshine she scattered.

In achievement most of the charges have made high record. It is a pleasure to note some salient features.

ATLANTIC CITY, with A. L. Martin pastor, has gone "over the top" and reports 48 conversions, 51 accissions, $8000 raised for all purposes, the Benevolent collections greatly in advance over last year, and $375 raised for Morgan College. After nine years of continuous service, the pastor's popularity increases and the people of all races clamor for his return.

BRIDGETON CHARGE has reduced the mortgage on the church, advanced the pastor's salary by $100, raised in full all apportionments for Benevolent and Conference collections, also for Morgan College and for Endowment for Conference Claimants. It remains in the Honor Class. 12 coversions; 13 accessions. F. O. T. Laws, pastor.

BRIDGETON CIRCUIT, with F. G. Campbell pastor, has increased its membership, cancelled its debt, and advanced the Benevolent Collections and the Ministerial support.

BROOKLYN, Ebenezer Charge, has done well under adverse circumstances. It is only one year old and has had to rent a place for worship.

A. F. Anthony, pastor.

BROOKLYN, John Wesley, with J. R. H. Matthews, pastor, is growing rapidly and deserves a Church building. Conversions 74; accessions 74. This charge has raised for Church building $1500 and all its apportionments for Benevolent Collections and Ministerial Support. Its pastor is evangelistic and God is owning him, the rented hall cannot accommodate the people who desire to attend. The Brooklyn and Long Island Church Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been asked to help us by selling to this congregation one of their churches which is almost deserted because of the removal of the English speaking white people from the neighborhood. This congregation deserves the help of our Methodism because they are willing to help themselves and shoulder responsibilities.

BROOKLYN, Newman. Up to last year this was our only appointment in Brooklyn. It at last is about to be housed. The Board of Home Mission and Church Extension has purchased for this congregation the Herkimer Street Methodist Episcopal Church, a modren built structure that will meet their needs. The charge has paid $500 on account and will occupy it shortly after the adjournment of this Conference. J. N. Bridgeman, pastor.

BURLINGTON, with J. H. Blackiston, pastor, has been somewhat handicapped by a fire which destroyed part of their Church building, but nevertheless, makes the best report of their history. Benevolent collections greatly advanced and Morgan College money raised in full.

CAMDEN has paid $800 on improvments and increased the pastor's salary by $200. J. A. T. Foust, pastor.

CAPE MAY has had a record breaking year; paid on improvements $668, increased the pastor's salary by $300 and greatly advanced the Benevolent collections; $50 raised for Morgan College, and $65 for Endowment for Conference Claimants. H. T. Johnson, pastor.

CHESTER, St. Daniels, with W. J. L. Hughes, pastor, has had 40 conversions, 117 accessions, paid $448 on improvements, $700 on parsonage debt, increased the pastor's salary by $250, raised $238 for Morgan College, completing the full apportionment, and remains in the Honor Class, raising in full every apportionment for the Benevolent collections and $203 for Endowment for Conference Claimants. Raised for all purposes $9000.

CHESTER, Siloam, has had 42 convesions, 34 accessions, paid $580 on improvements, cancelled $1200 mortgage on parsonage, increased pastor's salary by $200 and goes into the Honor Class, having raised in full all apportionments for Benevolent and Conference Collections. A Sunday School of 16 scholars has been started at Swarthmore, Pa. Sydney Emptage, pastor.

DELAIR, with C. W. Shockley, pastor, has made a marked advance in the Benevolent Collections.

ENGLEWOOD struggles under a heavy burden of debt, but has a faithful, sacrificing band of workers and deserves help. Benevolent collections taken. F. D. McQueen, pastor.

HUDSON, with T. O. Johns, pastor, has had considerable misundersanding. Charges were presented against the pastor and an investigation was held. The pastor was acquitted. Not much however has been accomplished this year.

MAGNOLIA reports 24 conversions and 28 accessions, $787 paid on improvements and $350 on Church debt, being the balance due on the mortgage. The whole property is now free of debt. $75 has been raised for Morgan College and the Benevolent and Conference collections have been advanced. J. T. Wallace, pastor.

MERCHANTVILLE, with P. M. Shelton, pastor, has had 12 accessions, paid $325 on old indebtedness, cancelling the mortgage on the parsonage and have advanced the Benevolent collections.

MONTCLAIR reports 33 accessions, $425 paid for improvements, $1200 paid on account of mortgage, the Benevolent collections increased and all Ministerial support advanced. F. J. Handy, pastor.

EAST CALVARY has had 366 conversions, 415 accessions, has paid $6000 on indebtedness cancelling the mortgage on the parsonage and reducing the debt on the Church; $6000 besides has been paid on account for adjoining lots to build a greater East Calvary. This charge is in the Honor Class, raising in full all apporionments for Benevolent and Conference collections; $412 has been raised for Endowment for Conference Clamants and $400 for Morgan College. The pastor's salary has been advanced by $200. Total amount of Benevolent and Conference collections $2800. Raised for all purposes $23,000. 500 tithers in this church. C. A. Tindley, pastor.

EAST CALVARY MISSION, a new appointment made last year, was served for nearly eight months by J. H. Edwards. The resident Bishop at the end of this time changed Bro. Edwards to Nanticoke, Md., and appointed J. L. Davis pastor. He reports 8 conversions, 40 accessions, and all the apportionments for Benevolent collections and Ministerial support raised in full. I firmly believe this Mission should continue.

FRANKFORD has had a great year. $177 paid for improvement and $450 on mortgages; the Benevolent collections have been greatly advanced, $105 paid for Endowment for Conference Claimants, $57 paid for Morgan College, and the pastor's salary increased by $100. L. H. McArthur, preacher in charge.

GERMANTOWN reports 72 conversions, 75 accessions, $380 paid for improvements, $5000 paid on property for a new church site, $2000 of which was raised this year. This charge continues where it has been during the whole six years that I have been related to it, in the Honor Class, raising in full all apportonments. Besides it has raised this year $121 for War Council, $60 for Temperance Building at Washington, $140 for Africa and $311 for Endowment for Conference Claimants. Further this charge has advanced the Centenary Campaign. It has 153 tithers. It has put on the every member canvass and has gone "over the top." Their quota was $711. They subscribed $1200 and the canavss is not over yet. J. T. Fletcher, pastor.

HAVEN, with J. R. Brown, pastor, has had 23 conversions and 51 accessions, has advanced the Ministerial support and raised in full the Benevolent collections and $272 for Morgan College. This church is largely attended and grows by leaps and bounds. It is in the Honor Class.

JOHN WESLEY reports 23 conversions, 66 accessions, $136 paid on improvements, $350 on old indebtedness, $55 for Morgan College; and advance in the Benevolent Collections. J. W. Jefferson, pastor.

ZOAR has had 130 accessions; $2000 raised on Building Fund; $300 for Morgan College; $224 for Endowment Fund for Conference Claimants and all apportionments for Benevolent collections and Ministerial support raised in full. This charge goes into the Honor Class. F. H. Butler, pastor.

ZOAR MISSION, supplied by Wm. Goldsborough, reports 20 conversions, 34 accessions, $200 raised for Building Fund; $37 raised for Morgan College, their full amount. Also this charge enters the Honor Class, raising in full every apporionment for the Benevolent collections.

PLEASANTVILLE has had 15 conversions, 36 accessions, $300 paid on improvements and $200 on indebtedness and the Benevolent and Conference collections advanced over last year. E. H. Morris, pastor.

SALEM, with W. A. T. Miles, pastor, reports 5 conversions, 14 accessions, $108 paid on improvements and the Benevolent collections advanced. This charge is now thoroughly aroused about the building of a new church which is much needed. The people are determined and something will happen. They have $600 in the Building Fund.

SALEM CIRCUIT has advanced the Benevolent collections and paid $60 for Endowment Fund for Conference Claimants. R. A. F. Graham, pastor.

SPRING LAKE, a summer appointment, with W. B. Nelson, pastor, reports the debt on the property reduced and the Ministerial support increased.

SWAINTON, supplied by J. O. Griffin, has paid $150 on parsonage debt, advanced the Benevolent collections and increased the Ministerial support.

WHITE PLAINS was somewhat retarded in its work when the pastor, F. H. Quinn, was relieved to enter war work as Y. M. C. A. Secretary. This occurred after the First Quarterly Conference. W. B. Nelson was appointed and took charge in September and has ably filled the place and paid $220 on improvements and advanced the Benevolent collections.

WOODBURY has had a successful year; 16 conversions, 47 accessions, paid for improvements $381; for Endowment for Conference Claimants $40; $10 for Morgan College, and goes to the Honor Class, with every approximent for Benevolent collections and Ministerial support raised in full. E. B. Greene, pastor.

YONKERS, with A. G. Henry, pastor, reports 10 conversions and 8 accessions and marked progress in organizing and training young people. This mission is in great need of a Church building.

JERSEY CITY is a new work and has in its membership some very earnest and enthusiastic Methodists. Its outlook is fair. It has been pastored since January by T. O. Johns.

Evangelism.

The statistical reports will show that this district has a net gain in membership. There have been 900 conversions and 1392 accessions. The evangelistic fire burns on this district. We believe the sore need of men and of nations is Jesus Christ. His spirit and principles must dominate individuals and nations if we are to have righteousness and peace pervade the earth. Some pastors sow by all waters. They do not neglect in the regular service on Sunday to make the gospel appeal, nor are they faithless in pastoral visiting. They are soul winners. Their churches send up the best reports. They purify the atmosphere where they live.

Youg People's Societies.

There is a growing interest in the Sunday School and fair percent of gain in the total enrollment is maintained. 24 teacher training classes are kept up. Our great need is more and better equipped teachers. Here the harvest is truly great but the laborers are few. My prayer to the Lord of the harvest is, send more laborers. Emphasis on the Stewardship of life is awakehing some who ought to prepare to teach in the Sunday-School.

Epworth Leagues are maintained in most charges, but lack much of the old enthusiasm. Here and there I find a chapter with all the departments working.

A District Epworth League Convention was held at Pleasantville, N. J., June 26th and 27th, 1918. This was an instructive and inspiring meeting and largely attended.

Junior League work is making commendable progress. Special stress is put on training the young people to worship and to serve. Here hope sees a star.

Benevolent Collections.

Nearly every charge has increased its giving to the Benevolent enterprises of the Church; 13 charges against 3 last year have raised all the apportionments in full and are in the Honor Class.

Morgan College.

We have not been unmindful of the needs and claims of Morgan College. It is our training camp for leaders. Our future is bound up with this institution. We must have efficient leaders. The district has not, I regret, come up to its apporionment for this cause. We have, however, raised this year over $2500. Six charges have gone "over the top."

Endowment Fund For Conference Claimant.

The drive for Endowment Fund for Conference Claimants has been on. The agent, Dr. J. R. Waters, has kept the matter before the pastors and people. We organized the district into groups and started early in the year for a definite goal. We did not reach it, but we got somewhere. We raised for this cause over $2300.

Ministerial Support.

It is gratifying to note that marked advance has been made in the amounts paid for Ministerial Support. The high cost of living demanded it. The charges have responded for the most part with commendable zeal. Still the pastors are inadequately supported. If Quarterly Conferences shall keep up the good work and make further advance for the coming year, steps to aid the efficiency of the pastors will have been taken in the right direction.

The reports from charges will show the amounts raised for support of Bishops, Conference Claimants and District Superintendent have been incressed.

Centenary.

The Centenary movement has received much attention. The Annual District meeting gave considerable time to instructing and inspiring ministers and laymen to do their best. The surveys of the foreign and home fields have been presented. The plan of organization for the Local Church has been laid before every Quarterly Conference. Both pastors and people have been urged to fall in line and keep step to the music of progress. The area secretary, Dr. Bickly, has been in correspondence with every pastor and every charge has been furnished with literature. Minute men, lay spellbinders, are heard in the churches. People are talking, praying, and working for the "Centenary." The tide of interest is rising. Campaigns for intercession, life service and stewardship have been on. Only a few charges lag behind. We are almost ready for the financial drive and then "over the top". dVctory is coming; victory that means more life and brighter hope; victory that means so much toward the reconstruction of Europe, toward the Evangelization of Asia and Africa, toward the Christianizing of South America and the Isles of the tea; toward having our beloved America dominated by the principles and spirit of Jesus Christ. I see a great institutional church in South Philadelphia with an auditorium seating 2500, and a parish house adapted to Sunday School and Community needs, besides what is to be done for our other churches in the same city and elsewhere. We have come to the kingdom for such a time as this. We cannot now listen to doubters, kickers or shirkers. We must not come down. The work shall not cease. The goal shall be reached.

Summary.

During the last six years this district has made more than 50 percent gain in full membership, 20 percent gain in value of property, 100 percent in giving for apportioned Benevolences and 48 per cent. advance in Ministerial support. We have built or bought five churches and three parsonages. Nearly all of the churches have been renovated or beautified.

Conclusion.

The pastors and people have given me cordial support and co-operation. They have shown kindness and bestowed visible tokens of their appreciation. It has been a pleasure to serve my brethren both of the ministry and of the laity.

Now, with thanks to our Heavenly Father for His goodness, forbearance and mercy, and to my brethren for their kindness, patience and cooperation, I submit this, my sixth annual report.

JAMES H. SCOTT.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT.

Bishop Berry and Brethren:

I count myself happy, indeed, to be permitted to stand here today and to make this, my fifth annual report of the work of the Wilmington District. Five years ago, in this city, I was appointed district superintendent, at which time I pledged my word to Bishop Quayle that I would endeavor to so conduct my life and work in such a manner that he would never have occasion to regret the appointment. Amid prophets and prophecies, with predictors and predictions, I have striven to keep my pledge to Almighty God and the Bishop. The district, at that time and now, is the smallest and reported that year the sum of 92 cents per member, reported last conference year the sum of $1.82 and this year will go over the $2.00 mark. This conference year has been one of unusual activity and interest, the wars, the mad rush for the mighty dollar, and the dreadful disease, but thanks be unto God for victory for the Church, for the state, the return of our sons from the battle front, and for the defeat of the kaiser and his house. Grateful indeed am I that none of the shepherds have been called from the pastor field; some have had to sit down a few days in order to gain more strength for the battle namely, J. U. King, Nicholas Brown, P. W. Price, L. S. Moore and R. S. Johns, but in a few days they were leading their flocks as before. Rev. Mrs. J. W. Bond sustained the loss of a loving mother on February 19 at the ripe old age of 90. Sickness has occurred in many of the families of the ministers, but all of them have recovered.

Review of Charges.

BARCLAY. Barclay has had a fair success this year. Engleside reports in full along all lines, but St. Daniel is satisfied with less; this keeps the charge from being in class first. The pastor, Nicholas Brown, has given undivided service in the work of the charge; accessions 3; collections $98.

BUTTONWOOD. This is a mission circuit, with Rev. Lewis Hodgers as the pastor, the most happy one on the district. He has taken in 29 members at Buttonwood, paid off the indebtedness of $150, and has received a fair support. This bids fair to become a strong charge if the business continues to grow.

CATLIN. This charge is determined to have the Gospel for a small sum. They have not increased the salary for ten years, and it was insufficient at that time; however the pastor serves them faithfully, but they see to it that he brings very little cash away from them. Accessions 7; collections $80. K. S. Stewart, pastor.

CHESWOLD. The pastor, J. L. Taylor, continues to keep the altar fires burning, and as a result a good congregation, increase in salary and benevolences. This is a strong charge, and many very influential young men have been added to the church; the partial feeling of old is fast disappearing. Accessions 22; collections $170.

COKESBURY. This charge is rapidly pushing her way to the front ranks. Three years ago it looked very doubtful of the wisdom of continuing it a station, but today they are giving a fairly comfortable support. The people are determined to prove to the conference that it is good for Cokesbury to be a station. They have raised the Morgan College Fund and are waiting for the Centenary drive. Accessions 3; collections $109. R. B. Thompson, pastor.

COLEMAN. This is a strong station and Rev. W. C. Bowland is fully able to manage it. He has organized the forces and interested the young people in the wrok of the church. He has gone over the top in the benevolent causes and nearly all of the Morgan College Fund. He is a strong preacher and his sermons have had their effect resulting in a good revival of 40 accessions. Collections $320.

CRUMPTON. W. T. B. Devron is a leader, and the people realize his ability and follow him; salary and benevolences increased and a large portion of it raised long before conference; this charge is alive to every cause and responds freely. Accessions 16; collections $189.

DELAWARE CITY. This city is reforming rapidly since the saloons have been closed. It is glorious to see the improvements. The pastor, O. P. Dickerson, has served this charge for six years and is held in the highest respect by all the citizens, and a fair year's work has been accomplished. Accessions 8; collections $119.

DOVER. This being the capital city, the church is fast becoming the leading Church; the salary increased to $900, over the top for Morgan College Fund, the debt nearly cancelled, and a growing congregation with many working auxiliaries. This charge has lost some of its most influential members, but it has one member worthy of mention, Samuel Moliston, who is now 86 years of age, active and responsive to every call. Accessions 13; collections $345. L. S. Moore, pastor.

DOVER CIRCUIT. This charge has steadily advanced under the pastorate of I. J. Brittingham, the salary has been advanced, the benevolences increased and a greater portion of the Morgan College Fund raised. Accessions 4; collections $149.

GALENA. Rev. T. E. Randal was appointed to this charge last conference, and he has proven to be the right man in the right place. The salary and benevolences have been increased, and the church is in a splendid working condition. Accessions 9; collections $294.

MARYDEL. A great change has come over this place since a young active man was sent to them. The salary was raised to $700 and paid, the benevolences increased 50 per cent and a greater portion of the Morgan College Fund raised, the parsonage repaired and painted, all of this without the campmeeting. It is amazing what our people can do when they have a mind to work. Accessions 26; collections $130. F. H. Gillis, pastor.

MIDDLETOWN. This charge maintains its former record; the salary has been increased and paid, Morgan College nearly full, the benevolences equal to last year, and the people request the return of the pastor for another year. Accessions 4; collections $280. J. L. Parker, pastor.

MILLINGTON. On this charge a veteran of the ministry is serving; he sets the pace for many of us; he entertains no other notion than the apportionments in full every year; this is the record he has maintained. By their fruits ye shall know them. Accessions 20; collections $345. C. W. Moore, pastor.

NEW CASTLE. R. S. Johns was sent to this charge last year, and great has been his success. Salary raised to $800, benevolences increased 50 per cent., parsonage renovated and paid for, floating bills paid off and the church in good working order. Accessions 14; collections $179.

NEW PORT. For years this faithful band of loyal workers have been struggling for a new church, but the high cost of material has held them back, and not much relief is in sight. The have in hand about $900; they have paid $800 in salary and the benevolences are in advance of last year, and a very large congregation. Accessions 6; collections $125. J. H. Stevenson, pastor.

ODESSA. The old saying that a new broom sweeps clean, can be applied to this charge. W. B. Whittington finished Princess Anne Academy last May and moved to this charge for work. Sinners are singing, "We have ceased from our wanderings and going astray since this man came to our town; we are so happy as happy as can be since Jesus came into our heart". Thirty-five souls resulted from the revival, and 35 per cent. increase in salary, 50 per cent. increase in benevolences, Morgan College over the top. In all points this charge leads the district. Accessions 40; collections $198.

PORT DEPOSIT. The people in this town have learned well the word reciprocity, and of course like many pastors, they have shown their learning; they receive very little service and pay but very little for the same; they do very well for the trustees' cause, and say if the pastor will live with them more will be done for him. Collections $30. G, B. Coleman, pastor.

PORT PENN. The Rev. L. T. Robbins deserves much credit for the success on this charge. This is a very hard charge to pastor, the people are scattered and poor church attenders; and unless he goes to their homes not much will be received; and this pastor has succeeded in raising all salaries and a large portion of the benevolences. Accessions 5; collections $57.

SASSAFRASS. W. C. West has proven himself to be no less a leader than his predecessor, and reports the charge in full for all benevolences and the Morgan College Fund. This is a strong circuit and the people are loyal. Accessions 14; collections $319.

SMYRNA. This charge knows no failure and desires none. The people are loyal and active. This charge sustains the loss of one, if not the most, influential members in it, Joshua Bell. This is quote a blow to the family and to the church. The benevolences are full, all debts paid off, and the charge ready for the great drive to begin. Accessions 5; collection $145. M. H. Murphy, pastor.

STILL POND. The pastor reminds me of the name of the charge; he is quiet, deep and unassuming, but he knows how to stir the hearts of the people, both in the pulpit and out. This year's work shows that he has mastered the situation. Benevolences nearly full, and all debts paid. Accessions 7; collections $185. P. W. Price, pastor.

TOWNSEND. Rev. Malachi Rasin has served this charge for three years with some measure of success. He has not accomplished what he hoped to, and for from what the charge is able to do; some are willing to measure up and others are not, hence the whole work fails. Haven has surpassed all of them, and is willing to do more. The pastor is a competent, untiring, patient leader and is deserving of better support. Accessions 6; collections $169.

EZION. I need not attempt to tell you very much about this charge. If you wish to know, look about here; look up and behold the stars, and below and see the improvements; in the rear and see the parsonage; inside and see the furniture, and then inquire of the standing debt, and you will hear that $2400 will pay off all claims and in hand over $1000 that could be paid on that.

See the pastor with his new swagger and dangling from his chain and also from the speaker's the only crosses we have had, and they are gold, and therefore we have turned them into crowns; every auxiliary working in harmony; over $8000 raised for all purposes. This could not have been accomplished without peace and harmony prevailing among the people and pastor.

These good people are sparing no pains to make your stay a pleasant one, both at the table and in the homes, and I ask that you give them the same consideration when the offering is asked, that they may be pleased after you have left them. Morgan College Fund over the top. Accessions 80; collections $1420. J. U. King, pastor.

HAVEN. This is not solely a place of rest, as its name may indicate, although G. T. Fields has enjoyed much of it after a hard day's work, but he has made it a haven for souls to come and hear the Gospel, and many of them have decided to rest their minds as to a church home. Large congregations attend every Sunday, resulting in the benevolences increased 100 per cent., salary $900. Morgan College Fund near the top, floating bills paid, the exterior of the church painted and plans made to paint the interior and cancel the bonded debt of $1500, and the pastor and wife given a purse of $51, and the people shouting happy. Accessions 32; collections $230.

MT. JOY. I am quite sure that the pastor's joy is equal to the name of the church, for the first time in 30 years has this church been free of debt; the basement has been made comfortable for service, the parsonage renovated inside and out, telephone installed and everything comfortable for the pastor. This charge has some very able laymen as its members, and they are interested in the church and see to it that the reports are in full. Chas. H. Coulbourne is the district chairman for the Centenary campaign. Collections $414; accessions 16. J. W. Bond, pastor.

The Ladies' Aid.

This organization is a very valuable force to the church both spiritually and financially; it is true to its name, for it can be depended upon to aid the church in ever need, without a murmur or complaint; many of them raise over one-half of the salary; others furnish all the fuel; others have taken the burden of the church debt and pay off loans and mortgages; without these organizations, many of the charges would not be able to meet their obligations.

Morgan College Endowment Fund.

This campaign had to be closed this year instead of next, as was first planned, and an intense campaign was started in January with marked success, and when the reports are in I think this district will not be far from the top.

Conference Claimants.

This is the only cause that has been seriously affected by the influenza. When the campaign was to be launched by Drs. Hingely and Waters, the churches were closed for three weeks or more and nothing could be done, and as soon as the churches were opened attention had to be given to the fall rallies that were pending. Dr. J. R. Waters, our field agent, has wrought well and whatever the failure, if any, in our expectation, he should not be charged with it; he has gone far and near, and out late and early to gather a fund to comfort us in our declining days, for which I wish to express to him my hearty thanks.

Centenary Campaign.

Last June the district superintendents were called to Columbus, Ohio, to hear and if we agreed, to adopt a program for World-Wide Evangelism. After I heard the speeches and read the literature and saw and heard Dr. Earle Taylor's illustrated lectures of the actual conditions on the field and flome land, I was ready to give my time, service and money to help save the world for The Risen Lord; and from that day until now I have not ceased to speak of the conditions and our duty in helping in such an undertaking. At every quarterly conference I have given long talks upon the subject and have interested the officials in this cause. I have also influenced many to attend the great celebration at Columbus in June to July 13th. I now make the same appeal to all who hear me today. Brothers and sisters, you cannot afford to stand idle and look on; it is your God-given duty to bestir yourselves to action, and in the great canvass that will begin in May be determined to put the cause over the top; it must go. God helping me, it shall go over the top.

Patriotism.

It was hinted by some white men in this city that the Negro was not patriotic; it was an insult to our people, and they decided that the best way to resent it was to prove the statement false. A call was made for the leaders to meet and discuss some plan, and it was decided to have a parade; a fund was raised solely from Negroes to the amount of $1500, and the day selected for this demonstration, and when it was over, it was conceded by the whole city that it was the best demonstration that had ever been given in the city or state. So much did it please them that they begged the leaders to repeat it at their expense, but they said no, we simply wanted to prove to you that your statement was not true. They readily acknowledged hat they were mistaken.

Reconstruction.

I am hearing on every hand, what will be the result of the reconstruction? The President is in Paris working on the reconstruction plan; and when I think of the dissatisfaction of the Japanese in regards to their place in the new plan, I say to myself, where will the Negro appear? Unless the new plan grants the American Negro a place to work and live according to his ability and desires, regardless of his color, and wages commensurate to the cost of life's necessities, he can but think and ask, For what did he give his full share? to the Red Cross, War Chest, Liberty Bonds; made bare our breast; spilt our blood; offered our daughters for nurses, and lost our sons; if we shall in the new reconstruction be jimcrowed in trains and court houses and lynched without judge or jury? "Unless this country is made a good place for all of us to live in, it will not be a good place for any of us to live in." We have never scarred the old flag, and never waved the red rag. The Church and Sunday School must be reconstructed. No new theology is needed, no new doctrine is necessary, the faith of our Fathers is sufficient still; but in church buildings we must have it. I do not know of a church erected in the last 20 years that has given consideration for very little more than elaborate stone fronts, incline floor, circular pews and pipe organs.«

Not one of them have made any effort for the Sunday School Departments. The lessons are taught as they were when I was a boy, and no place for innocent amusements under religious supervision, and we seem to think that the children should be satisfied; and too, we say they are the church of tomorrow, and make no provision for the church. Our boys are lured to the cheap movies, dance halls and the profame and vulgar pool rooms, which is sapping their life and ruining their morals. The remedy is to put your heart, soul, mind, strength and money in the Centenary campaign, in order that we may be able to reconstruct our churches and thereby save our young people today, ere they be gone.

On this district are 26 loyal pastors, who have worked like Trojans for the success of the Kingdom of God, and by the side of each the wife has stood and shared in his joys, sorrows, successes or failures, giving an encouraging word for his efforts. They have treated me royally in their homes, and when I leave they bid me God speed you on your way; peace and harmony prevails, and only one charge has asked for a change of pastor, and not one pastor wants to leave the district. I have striven to be fair to all and partial to none; dealing with them as I would wish them to deal with me. It is a pleasure to serve in this Christian way, and Bishop, if you say may, am willing to serve another day.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

We, your Committee on Auditing the Conference Treasurer's Account, beg leave to submit the following report:

After careful examination, we find every account correctly reported by our proficient treasurer, Rev. J. W. Helm, so that the following errors were easily detected through the method of paying out at the seat of the Conference all sums for each cause in full, before all accounts are fully corrected. The Board of Conference Claimants overdrew their account by thirteen dollars and twenty-one cents ($13.21); also, the account of the Agent of the Board of Conference Claimants was overdrawn to the amount of twelve dollars ($12.00), making the sum total due to the Conference Treasurer twenty-five dollars and twenty-one cents ($25.21),

The committee also wishes to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that under the present method of auditing the treasurer's account no provisions are made for the payment of the expenses of the treasurer. The amount due at this time is three dollars.

We respectfully submit the above for the action of the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTHERFORD R. ROBINSON.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

The Committee on Conference Relations desires to make the following report on the change of relations:

Rev. M. C. Jennigs came before the Committee and requested that his relation to the church and conference cease in order that he might join the Congregational Church. He also asked that he be permitted to keep his credentials of the M. E. Church to carry over to the Congregational Church. The Committee so recommended.

Rev. A. F. Anthony appeared before the Committee and requested that after his ordination to Elder's Orders in the M. E. Church to be permitted to go to his home in Africa with the parchments of the M. E. Church. The Committee recommended that his request be granted.

The case of Bro. A. A. McDowell was presented to the Conference Relations Committee, and having given due deliberations in the case, the Committee recommended that he be changed from Effectiv to the Supernumerary relation.

Bro. G. B. Coleman's case came before this Committee and the Committee after having heard facts in the case recommended to the conference that Bro. G. B. Coleman's relation be changed from the Effective to the Supernumerary relation.

J. R. BROWN, Chairman. L. S. MOORE, Secretary.

COMMITTEE TO VISIT PRINCESS ANNE ACADEMY.

Bishop and Brethren:

Your Committe to Visit Princess Anne Academy submits the following report:

The Academy, under the supervision of Prof. Thomas H. Kiah, was found to be at its usual high standing. The Principal and his corps of teachers are laboring zealously to efficiently instruct the young men and women under their care. These youths are being prepared for leadership as well as to meet the every-day duties of life.

The students coming from this school will not be one-sided. They are being taught to use the hand as well as the head.

Without speaking at length or in particular of any of the departments as domestic science, domestic arts, class room work, printing, carpentry, blacksmithing, etc., we would say in passing that these were all that might be expected, considering a few handicaps which we feel justified in making mention of.

Mechanic Building. The work in this building is carried on at a disadvantage. In this the printing and carpentry work are done. First of all, the building is too small. Secondly, the arrangements are poor. One-half of the printing machines are on the first floor; the same thing is true with the carpentry shop. Either the printing press ought to be on the first floor and the carpenter shop on the second floor, or vice versa. A new mechanic building is the proper remedy.

Lighting System. The old coal oil lamp is still in use. It does not furnish enough light. It is quite expensive.

Heating. The girls' dormitory is the only building on the grounds that is properly heated. Being heated by steam, these quarters are quite comfortable. All other buildings ough to have modern heating conveniences.

A new dormitory for the boys is another need. The recitation rooms need new and more furniture.

Taking into consideration the few handicaps which surround the school, its work is first class. The spirit to go forward prevails. High standards are set. This is true spiritually as well as intellectually. During the revival period in January, forty-three students were converted.

One hundred and fify-two were found seeking higher education. Principal Kiah is proud of them. He has a right to be.

The service flag displayed sixty-two stars. This was a fine representation from the Academy.

These are days of large undertakings. The small things of yesterday will not do today. This is just as true at Princess Anne Academy as anywhere else.

Our financial program for the five years just ahead is the largest that we have ever had before. Beyond the five years, What?

The needs of the Academy to which your attention is called ought to be met. Let us look forward to the time when we can do something for this needy cause.

We are making a greater Morgan College; let this mean a greater Princess Anne Academy also.

Date of visit, February 26, 27.

(Signed) E. F. SHOWELL, Chairman, MAL. RASIN, Secretary, T. E. RANDALL.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

The rapid coming of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ is evidenced by the manner in which His people are having success in destroying evil institutions and making straight the Way of the Lord.

Autocracy is giving way to Democracy, and the voice of right is heard.

Prophecies of a better day for the oppressed are being fulfilled.

Three years ago, Mr. Hobson and Dr. Wilson prophesied that Congress would submit to the States a resolution for a National Prohibition Amendment to the Constitution. It was done. They also prophesied that the necessary thirty-six States would ratify the Amendment, and that the country would be dry by 1920. It was fulfilled. Thirty-six States ratified the Amendment and nine extra ones to show the rum advocates that we really mean business.

Among the 45 States which ratified the Amendment were four in which a large part of our Conference territory is located, namely, iVrginia, Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania. For ratification by these States the members of this Conference deserve great credit, especially our presiding officer, Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D. D., LL. D. Few Men without the Church and certainly none within were more responsible for putting Pennsylvania in the ratifying column than was our resident Bishop. He braved the storm of criticism by the rum people and some politicians, risked being misunderstood, and went on the platform and showed the men of his area, and of the Church, that a great churchman may also be a great Christian stateseman, and especially in matters affecting the Kingdom of God.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson has also been ringing true on this question through the year and years. His speeches and editorials have helped to awaken the country and the world to a sense of the evils of alcohol, and have put the brewers and distillers to flight. Hiss success has proven the wisdom of the Church in selecting him to lead our forces and the nation in the fight for temperance and morality.

We have made wonderful strides in the march for civilization. For years our slogan was, "The saloon must go." The saloon is going. It will soon be gone. The United States will shake off the incubus of the saloon, the tyrant that has for one hundred and fifty years mocked the Stars and Stripes and has destroyed much of the manhood and womanhood of our nation. We have done a great work and achieved a great victory, and there is glory enough in it for us all; no one church or organization can claim all of the praise. Credit must be given to all the temperance forces.

For the victory achieved we commend those societies that have so valiantly fought against this evil: The W. C. T. U., the Anti-Saloon League and the Board of Temperance and Public Morals of our own Church. We pledge them our support in their effort to raise funds to prevent the transfer of the manufacturing of alcohol to the Eastern world and for making the world dry by 1930.

The fight for ratification is won and our nation will go dry January 16, 1920. The fight for enforcement of the law to keep the nation dry has, however, just begun. It will require the same kind of courage and united effort to enforce the law as it has taken to win the fight for ratification. Our own Temperance Board purposes not only to fight for the enforcement of the law, but also for the destruction of the Tobacco Trust, Sabbath desecration, Lynch law and for putting the Bible back into our Public Schools.

We commend the Board, and pledge it our prayers and loyal support in putting to an end these destructive evils, and thus help to bring in a brotherhood that will make the world safe for mankind.

> J. T. FLETCHER, President. M. W. CLARK, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

We, your Committee on the State of the Country, submit the following report:

This great country of ours has passed through its most crucial moments during the year, and we come with our hearts filled with praise and thanksgiving to our God that the World War has been gloriously won. We earnestly hope that the tremendous sacrifice in human life, the great devastation of property, the great expenditure of money, will not have been in vain. But that in the final adjustments, and in the establishment of a Universal Peace; that this Universal Peace will be consistent with the teaching of Christ, for aside from a Christian Peace, no Peace can be substantial, ar can long endure. There must be brought to exist between nations and peoples of all races the equal justice of all in equities, in civil and political rights, in-order that each nation, large or small, weak or powerful, may work out its own destiny as it chooses, and as with nations so with peoples of all races.

These adjustments, to be effectual, should include religious tolerance, both in letter and in spirit, so as to meet the world conditions, for apart from such considerations, all Covenants would be in vain.

Our great country has distinguished itself and earned imperishable fame, that will be sung as long as history shall remain. In these heroic services to the nations allied in the indescribable conflict against Germany and her allies all races and all classes mingled in common their life blood to make the world safe for democracy. Then, all races and all classes should be perfectly protected in the enjoyment of those great principles of Democracy, and have equal rights before the law, with no unjust discrimination because of race or color.

We decry lynching. We pledge our support to any measures that will forever blot out this foul stain from our Christian land, and we hope, in the conclusion of the settlement of the World's Peace, that lynching shall be made punishable by law in State and Federal Courts, and that no criminal may escape just punishment from the fiendish crime, by any scheme or flimsy disguise when a helpless Negro happens to be the victim.

We heartily endorse the Governor of Texas in his recommending the State Legislature in the enactment of a drastic law on the subject of lynching.

Therefore, we, the Delaware Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, do place ourselves on record in favor of the adoption of this report as our sentiments as a religious body of men, that stands as a unit of this, one of the greatest nations of the earth, whose ideals and principles stand for equality in civil and religious life, between man and man, taking as our standard God our Father and man our brother, which we essay to believe and labor to effect.

Respectfully submitted, .

S. HAMMOND, Chairman. F. H. BUTLER, Secretary.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

He maketh the wrath of man to praise Him.

The great war has proved a revealer of secrets and sources of power. No single agency has been more prompt, more prolific, more efficient in supplying the first essential to success in arms than the American colleges. That first essential is trained men. We rejoice that Methodism has maintained the glorious record of all her history in magnificent contributions to the cause of liberty. Without Methodist money and Methodist men the story of the World War would be different.

We would hereby express our appreciation of what has been done by the schools and colleges and the Board of Education of our church. We urge the pastors to thoroughly acquaint themselves with these activities, that through them the people may be better informed of the vital relation between education and every vital interest of the nation. Appalling demands have been made and collossal obstacles have been overcome. But as we stand on the threshold of a new day the demand for service and the opportunity for service seem greater than in all the past.

Secretary Harris writes: "The victory of arms achieved,—it is ours to strive for that greater victory, failing which our armies will have fought in vain. We are face to face with opportunity, which if not welcomed will turn back, leaving us where we stood before we had spent our wealth and spilled our blood. The re-making of the world must be founded upon enlightenment and religion. To the centers of learning the world shall come and call for workers trained in mind and spirit.

"A new dawn is breaking upon a new world. Let us bring to the work hearts renewed in courage and zeal and a will unshakable to show all men justice and truth."

All doubt about the value of the Negro as an economic asset to the nation has long since disappeared, if it ever existed, from the Methodist Church. Nor has the church ever failed in the purpose to enhance that value by Christian education.

We therefore pledge ourselves to renewed efforts to promote the educational interests of our people in the Delaware Conference; first, by emphasizing the need of trained men and women, not alone for the pulpit and the school room, but for the pew, the shop, the farm and every civic and social relation to the end that the whole race may be lifted to a higher life; second, by making clear to all that this training cannot be obtained except by prayerful and persistent co-operation on the part of pastors and people with all the agencies and institutions devoted to the education of our people; third, by a hearty response to every call up to the limit of our resources, in time and strength and money, in support of Morgan College, Gammon Theological Seminary and all other of our denominational educational institutions.

W. C. JASON, T. H. KIAH, D. W. HENRY,

COMMITTEE ON PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Periodicals earnestly recommends the careful attention of pastors and laymen and to remember that the Book Concern carries in stock such books from time to time as will give questioning minds the true and valuable information concerning the operations of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which we all consider ourselves bona fide members and constituents. In the face of this fact, no pastor or layman of our great church can hope to reach the highest point of efficiency in grappling with the problems of these reconstruction days, after the World War, and this new day of the Centenary Movement in the church.

Therefore, we feel it our duty as your Committee to appeal to every brother pastor and leader to equip himself with knowledge for this herculean task which faces us at this point.

Such information may be found in the pages of the Southwestern's Christian Advocate, The Foundation for Africa, The Centenary Manual, The Class Mate, The Christian Herald, The Crisis and such other books, pamphlets and papers, containing information on present-day problems which may not be found so easily in any other periodical than those furnished by the Book Concern of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Therefore, we suggest that such be read and studied in preference to so many daily newspapers, that our churches may become better informed upon the subjects of this "new day".

C. W. WINDER, President.

L. H. McARTHUR, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committe on the State of the Church most earnestly commend to the careful attention of the Conference the following considerations:

We greatly rejoice in the cessation of the great international war, with victory on the side of democracy, freedom and humanity. It now becomes the duty of mankind to seek a righteous and lasting peace—a reconstruction of the world upon Christian principles, demonstrating not only by a theoretical but by a practical acknowledgement the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

Since the churches of various denominations loyally and patriotically supported the United States and the allied nations in the defeat of autocracy and Prussian militarism, the churches must now continue to pray and work and give for the overthrow of the autocratic spirit in state and church at home and abroad, whether this priti be manifested as individual, racial, national or international.

While we greatly rejoice in the victory secured by the friends of temperance in the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment, abolishing the liquor traffic in the United States, the church and nation must continue the fight to perpetuate the victories won, and to enlist all men, women and children everywhere in earnest endeavor to promote the cause of temperance and prohibition by instruction and total abstinence, and in the name of Almighty God work heroically for a trumphant and perpetual victory for legal prohibition that shall not only be state-wide, nation-wide, but sweep the death-dealing, soul-killing, infernal business, together with German militarism, Bolshevism, race prejudice and anarchy from the face of the earth, so that the world may be a fit place for all men, women and children, of all races and nationalities, to enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

We most heartily welcome the growing spirit of Christian Fraternity, and would gladly rejoice to see the organic union of the various Methodist Episcopal denominations. But we do not believe in any form of so-called organic union that would exclude from the reorganized church hundreds of thousands of good and loyal members simply on account of race, color or nationality, or deny to any of them equal Christian rights and privileges; but we earnestly desire and pray for the kind of unity for which Jesus prayed (John 17:20-26), and which recognizes the Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of Man.

More firmly than ever we believe the church must recoginze that her divine commission is world-wide, embracing the whole human family of every race and clime, and ever remember and say with John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, "The world is my parish." So we most heartily approve the great Centenary program of the M. E. Church and the co-operation of the Federated Churches of America for a great forward missionary campaign for the reconstruction, evangelization and salvation of the whole world of mankind."

Most respectfully submitted,

J. H. NUTTER, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON THE SANCITY OF THE SABBATH

The tendency of the masses seems to be drifting from the teaching of the Fourth Commandment. In many of the cities Sunday baseball and amusements of various kinds are allowed as harmless and needed recreation.

The Christian people in every city, town and community should rise in all of their might and protest against this growing evil, which is calculated to create in the minds of the young people a disrespect for the Holy Sabbath.

Again we call upon Christian men and women to instruct and advise against the desecration of the Sabbath.

W. C. BOWLAND, President, W. H. JOHNS,

J. A. T. FOUST.

BIBLE.

We have occasion to give praise and thanksgiving to God for the marvelous opening of the Gospel through human agencies. The Church has had no better time in all its history than now to circulate the word of love and to impress the world of the principles of genuine brotherhood. Reports coming from reliable sources inform us that during the period of the great World War, just recently closed, that the Khaki Testament was much in evidence, and the Word of God found a lodging place in the hearts of many soldiers. We hope that the American Bible Society may have our support in its efforts to circulate the precious Word; that in the mighty task of rebuilding the world every heart will be gripped so mightily by the truth that everywhere real manhood will be exhibited, forming the only true essential basis for participation in the affairs of the kingdom.

MEMOIRS

JOHN WESLEY BROWN.

The Rev. John Wesley Brown, the son of Horace and Elizabeth Brown, was born on Kent Island, Md., November 24, 1827, and died in Chestertown, Md., January 2, 1919, aged 91 years, 1 month and 9 days.

He was converted when a boy and joined the Methodist Church at his home. He was very anxious to learn to read and write and did so by applying himself to study, with what instruction he could get from any source. When the Civil War broke out he volunteered and was soon promoted to a sergeant in the army. On his return he was very well prepared for his day and became the first teacher in the Freedman School for the Eastern Shore.

Later he felt his call to the ministry, and having applied himself to study he was able to pass a creditable examination and was admitted to the Delaware Conference by Bishop Levi Scott at Mount Hope Church, in Salem, N. J. He served the following charges successfully: Lewes, Del., 2 years; Middletown, Del., 2 years; Smyrna, Del., 2 years; Fairlee, Md., 2 years; Denton, Md., 2 years, and was retired from 1888 until 1884, and was then restored to an effective elder again and served as follows: Green Hill and Kingston, 1 year; Greensboro, Md., 1 year; Deals Island, 3 years; Sassafras, Md., 1 year; Greensboro, Md., 1 year; Crumpton, Md., 2 years, and retired in 1892.

Bro. Brown was a shrewd man in his day and possessed some peculiarities for a minister which made him well known in the Delaware Conference. Much success attended his ministry and he done much good work for the people he served. Centennial M. E. Church in Smyrna owes much to this father and pioneer, because it was through his persistent efforts that we have a strong church there today.

His eyesight was wonderful and never failed him so he could not read until about 18 months ago. He was a great reader and could be found most any time reading God's Word. When his sight failed him he used to delight in hearing the family sing and would frequently rejoice when they were playing and singing around him.

He was indeed a patient sufferer and would often ask his daughter, who was so devoted to him, if he was not a lot of trouble, and she would reply in the negative; then he would say, "God gave you to me to care for me when I became old." He was once married and his companion preceded him to a better country.

He leaves to survive him one brothr, two daughters, 22 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, two great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews and distant relations.

It is not death to fling aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong exulting wings to live among the just.

Jesus, thou prince of life, thy chosen cannot die:

Like thee, they conquer in the strife to reign with thee on high.

NICHOLAS B. SNOWDEN.

Nicholas B. Snowden was born in Mt. Zion, Montgomery County, Md., April 23, 1859. He was the son of the Rev. Lorenzo D. and Jemima Snowden: His father was an honored member of the Washington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His mother was a woman of deep piety. He became a Christian by profession when very young and joined Mt. Zion Methodist Episcopal Church.

In the county schools he was trained and afterwards took a special course under a private tutor and fitted himself and entered the medical department of Howard University. While a student there, he received what he believed to be an unmistakable call to the ministry. He began his ministry in the Delaware Conference in the year 1887, serving as a supply for one year at Skipton, Md., and was admitted on triol in 1888, and into full membership in 1890. He served the following appointments: Skipton, Church Hill and Chestertown, in Maryland; St. Daniels, Chester, Princess Anne, Md., Berlin, Md., and Leemont, Virginia.

In 1906, because of ill health, he requested and was granted a supernumerary relation. In 1911 he was made effective and served New Church, Virginia. In 1913 he was retired. In all of his appointments he was noted as an earnest, enthusiastic preacher and a faithful and diligent pastor. He was a man of amiable disposition, fiery zeal and intense devotion. He always showed great ability in bringing things to pass. He had a record of making a full report to the Annual Conference. He had an unswerving faith in the power of the Gospel to save.

After retiring he moved back to Western Maryland, in the bounds of the Washington Conference, where, after a brief illness, on May 15, 1918, he departed from the body to be present with the Lord when he heard his Master say, Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

In 1885, he married Miss Phoebe A. Waters, who still survives him. He also leaves nine children (three girls, six boys), one brother and one granddaughter. His funeral was preached by his son-in-law, Rev. T. P. Thomas, of the Washington Conference. The Revs. J. H. Beane, V. N. Hughes and L. L. Williams, of the same Conference, assisted in the service. His body rests in Mt. Zion Cemetery, in Mt. Zion, Montgomery, Md., to await the trumpet call of the archangel.

JAMES H. GRINNAGE.

The Rev. James Hezekiah Grinnage, the son of Asbury and Millie Grinnage, was born on Kent Island, Md., August 19, 1850, and died at Gouldtown, near Centerville, May 3, 1918.

Rev. Grinnage's father was an honored member of the Delaware Conference from 1866 until 1899, thirty-three years, which gave the late James of whom we are writing a Christian surrounding from early life. He secured his early training in public schools (with outside tutoring), and entered in a small business for himself in Wilmington, Del., many years ago. He succeeded very well for several years, but he felt his call to the ministry and could not be contented until he answered the call. We have not been able to secure the date that he entered th A. U. M. P. Conference; however, he became a very strong man in that Coneference and wrought well for several years as an elder in that connection. As the years went on somehow he felt and often said he wanted to end his days in the church of his father's choice from which he had gone out, and he came back to us, bringing his church and congregation that he was then serving. The Conference gladly accepted him and placed him on the supply list and gave him work and continued to do so until God called him from labor to reward.

He served well in his different appointments, considering his ability, and the people loved and respected him. He was highly spiritual and could stir the masses in his preaching, and was never satisfied until he had moved someone while delivering the word. On his return from Cape May from the seat of the Conference, where he had been assigned to Woodland Charge, he was taken sick and was not able to move and grew worse until the end.

Among his last words he announced the hymn "Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me; I once was lost but now I'm found was blind, but now I see," and asked his wife to sing it so he could understand it; he then preached from the text, "Quit yourselves like men; be strong," and in his own way delivered a message on his dying bed. Services were held in the church at Gouldtown, May 7, the District Superintendent, Rev. R. H. Wallace, presiding.

It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong exulting wings
To live among the just.

Jesus, thou prince of life,
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife
To reign with thee on high.

CHARLES H. SPENCER.

The Rev. Charles H. Spencer was the son of S. W. and Eliza E. Spencer and was born in Cool Spring, Worcester County, Maryland, August 8, 1857, and fell asleep in Jesus at Wilmington, Del., Monday night, March 31, 1919. He was largely self educated and was a fair student, especially of the English Bible. He was converted at the age of 14 years and connected himself with what is now St. Matthews M. E. Church, Box Iron Charge, Girdle tree, Md.

He was licensed to preach by the St. Matthews Quarterly Conference in 1887. He served in the capacity of Trustee, Steward, Class Leader, Sunday School Superintendent, Exhorter and Local Preacher. He felt to be distinctly called of God to work in the church in the office of a minister, so that for the last twelve years he has served in the active work as pastor the following charges: Snow Hill Circuit, 5 years; Queponco, 4 years; Nassau, 3 years, less eight days.

On Monday, March 31, about the colse of day, he was summoned by the Messenger Death to "arise and depart," for Nassau, the charge that he was serving, was not his rest. He obeyed the sudden command, arose, departed and entered into that rest that remaineth for the people of God.

He was married on February 26, 1878, to Miss Mary J. Collick. They were blessed with four children, only one of which survives her loving and indulgent father. On November 7, 1891, his companion was taken from him; thus he was alone until March 6, 1895, when Miss Amanda J. Tull, a sweet dispositioned young woman, came into his life. God blessed this holy union with nine children, all of whom survive their loving father.

He was a kind father and loving husband. He was a good friend and neighbor, always finding something good to say of everybody; and was always ready to help in every good cause. He was very congenial, kind and courteous, and well thought of by his many friends, both white and colored. He was very fond of singing; believed and preached the old doctrines of Methodist, which he loved and practiced.

As a preacher he was earnest forceful and convincing. The people, and especially those he served last, heard him gladly. Eternity waits to tell the number of souls brought to Christ under his powerful sermons. There are many present now who can bear testimony to the great power he had with the Lord in public prayer.

The funeral service was held in Ebenezer M. E. Church, Snow Hill, Md., April 3, 1919, Dr. D. H. Hargis, District Superintendent of Cambridge District, presiding. Brief addresses were made by Revs. D. H. Hargis, C. W. Pullett, J. H. Harman, T. H. Woodley, W. E. Hilton, J. W. Jewett, T. H. Kiah and Bro. J. C. Paynter. Others that took part in the service were W. J. Helm, R. H. Coleman, Alex Reed, M. W. Clark and J. L. Nichols. Resolutions were read from Cambridge District Preachers meeting and the Knights of Pythias of Snow Hill, Md.

He was laid to rest in the Ebenezer Cemetery, Snow Hill, Md., to await the resurrection morn.

MRS. MARY ROBERTA KIAH.

Mary Roberta Townsend, the daughter of the Rev. G. T. and Malinda Townsend, first saw the light of day at Stockton, Md., March 12, 1880. She was one of several children.

After attending the public schools of the various places where her father as an itinerant minister pastored, she determined to continue her studies, for she had developed a consuming desire to attend school where she could better prepare herself than she could in the public schools. Accordingly, in the spring of 1897 she entered Princess Anne Academy, at Princess Anne, Md., where the quality of her mind and the ease with which she mastered her most difficult lessons soon attracted the attention of her instructors. Her general deportment and scholarship won for her an admiration and respect which ever increased as the days went by. It was here at Princess Anne Academy that she met the Rev. Thomas H. Kiah. There developed between them a strong mutual friendship, which was destined to subsequently have an important effect upon her whole future career. In the year 1898 she graduated from Princess Anne Academy as valedictorian of her class of fourteen. The following year, 1899, she accepted the prinicpalship of the Chestertown, Md., public school, which position she held with dignity and grace. In the year 1900 she entered Morgan College, Baltimore, Md., and here it was not long before the strength of her mind with which God had so bounteously endowed her; her perseverance and close application to duty attracted the attention of the faculty, who discovered in her a strength of mind above mediocre. She graduated from the preparatory department in 1903 and from the college in 1905 without a peer, for she was the sole graduate in this year, making the exceptional average of 98 per cent.

In the summer of 1905 she was selected to travel in the west as leading soprano in a troupe led by Mr. T. R. Parker, A. B., in the interest of the Academy. Her deep, rich mezzo voice won many friends and admirers for her. At the same moment when she was selected to travel and sing in the west she was elected to the faculty of Princess Anne Academy. The impressions of her high moral and religious culture, and of her strong personality still survive in their effect upon her pupils. As time passed, the mutual friendship between her and the Rev. Thomas H. Kiah, who was a promising young pastor in the Delaware Conference, developed into an ardent and abiding love. Accoordingly, they were united in holy matrimony by the late sainted Rev. Noah W. Moore. This was a happy marriage, and each fully supplied the difficiency in the other. With her husband, "Mame" was the ever brilliant star of his domestic hope; while with her, "Mr. Kiah" was ever the trellis around which the tendrils of an abiding love tenderly entwined themselves, and to them life was one joyous dream. This marriage, which took place in Baltimore City, June 27th, 1906, resulted in the blessing of five boys, Brewington, Lycurgus, Waldo, Gregory and Randolph, and an only daughter, Rodelia, all of whom survive their mother, many of whose qualities they inherit. As a mother she was sensible and kind; as a wife devoted and true, and entered whole heartedly and effectively into the work and interests of her devoted husband.

They were appointed by the eDlaware Conference to St. Michaels (Md.) charge to be the spiritual leaders of the people. Here they established their first Christian home, of which she was the honored queen. They served here five years with dignity and fidelity. From here Rev. Kiah was called to the Principalship of Princess Anne Academy, where she occupied the chair of Latin with such rare dignity and efficiency that all her pupils were inspired by her spirit. She displayed such a familiarity with the old Latin celebrities that the raptured soul seemed transported through vast periods of time across magnificent expanses of space into the homes and by the firesides of these ancient masters, where the real Latin life was re-acted, and the otherwise cold and dull Latin sentences were vitalized by the re-incarnation of living men and things about which they told.

She was a profound student of history, and the great scenes which stirred the world; which destroyed and constructed dynasties; which dethroned and enthroned rulers and customs, she so vividly portrayed that these scenes of a thousand years ago passed like a panorama before your wondering view. She was conversant with the live issue of the day, the wonderful present. The "world war"—its couses and possible consummate results; politics; science; religion, ettc., were all subjects of her intelligent discussions. She was independent as a thinker, profound, conservative. She was the embodiment of high moral and religious ideals whose impress will ever survive.

Having been trained in a Methoodist parsonage, the foundation for a Christian life was laid. Her profession of religion took place at Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, Princess Anne, Maryland, under the ministry of her father, who survives her. In the passing of Mrs. Kiah a great woman has fallen; and an efficient educator has ended her labors. She was an ardent church lover, and her superb, clear, rich, deep, mezzo voice always announced the presence of this elect lady in the choir of which she was an honored memebr.

It was Monday evening at 6:45, October 7th, 1918, after her last lines in the drama of life were said; after her last role had been enacted; as the footlights were growing dim and the curtain of life was gradually falling; as the darkness of mystery was shrouding all in its ebon shades; when she had laid aside her terrestrial panoply of earth's conflicts, Mary Roberta Kiah passed off the stage of this life to appear more gloriously in the realities of the life which is eternal, of which the surrendered life is the merest prophecy.

E. OTHO PARKER.

MRS. HANNAH MARY WEBB.

Hannah Mary Webb, the oldest child of the late Mitchell and Mary G. Tyndale, first saw the light of day, September 1, 1847, and departed this life, September 15, 1918, in Westchester, Pa.

She was happily converted early in life and lived a consecrated and useful life. She found inexpressible joy in working and witnessing for her Lord and ours. Her class-room testimonials were the expressions of some deep spiritual experience with God. When she lifted her voice it was the shout of victory and the note of praise. She was gifted in song. Her voice was rich and resonant and when she was under the influence of the Holy Spirit her face was radiant with glory. She had sung many, many souls into the kingdom when she answered the summons from on high.

She was twice married. The first time to a Mr. Edward Frame, but the writer has no data of this first marriage. The second marriage was to the late Rev. J. E. Webb, a member of this Conference, February 23, 1882. It was a happy union. They were true companions in every sense of the word. She was his yoke-fellow in every trial. She was a great lover of young people. For those times she possessed unusual ability as a Sunday School teacher. She seemed to reflect the mind of the spirit in such a way as to interpret the word with power.

She was a long and patient sufferer, but she never lost the sweetness of her disposition; never lost the love of song. When alone she was often heard to sing out, "God Will Take Care of Me," "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus," "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine." When the end came it was so triumphant she simply stepped over into Beulah Land calmly and serene to receive the reward for which she had labored so long.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Scott, District Superintendent of the Philadelphia District, assisted by Dr. Dunlap, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Westchester and the writer. The remains were laid to rest in Westchester cemetery to await the summons of the resurrection morning.

JESSIE ESTELL WATERS.

Jessie Estell Waters, the daughter of Mary and Hamilton Brackston, was born in Baltimore City, Maryland, February 25, 1875, and died at the age of 44 years, 9 months and 3 days.

She joined Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church in early childhood. To this church she was a loyal and faithful member, and never moved her membership. She attended school at Morgan College and graduated from same with high honors. She then taught school at Marion Station, Md. On May 8, 1895, she was married to Rev. Wilmore E. Waters, and proved to be a loving faithful wife and mother and a great help to her husband in his ministerial work. Four children were born to this happy couple. During the year 1907 her health began failing and she was a long, patient sufferer, yet she told many that she trusted in God and had no fear of death, but, motherlike, she desired to see her oldest daughter graduate from Morgan College, which would be this year, and also to see her youngest son grown. But if it was the Lord's will to take her she was willing to go. She then called her children around her and requested that they would sing her favorite hymns, "Just as I am, without one plea, but that thy blood was shed for me," and "Abide with me."

On the morning of February 25, 1919, she quietly closed her eyes in death, leaving to mourn her loss a husband, four children, a mother, four brothers and two sisters, many relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held in the church at St. Michaels on Thursday, conducteed by Rev. R. H. Wallace, District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. J. W. Jewett, J. H. Nutter and J. R. Holland. On Friday morning the body was moved to Baltimore, where the funeral services were continued in Sharp Street Memorial Church, conducted by Rev. Holmes and others.

RESOLUTIONS.

RESOLUTIONS OF WELCOME TO BISHOP BERRY.

Whereas, In the wisdom of the Board of Bishops, we have had designated to preside over this the fifty-sixth sessions of the Delaware Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, our resident and senior effective Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D. D., LL. D., and,

Whereas, In the Providence of Almighty God, his life has been spared and his health conserved, and he now comes to perform the duties and prerogatives that are his;

Resolved, That we extend to our chief pastors, the Bishops of our Great Methodism, our thanks for their profound wisdom in their selection of our presiding officer;

Resolved, Further, that we extend to Bishop Berry both for ourselves and on behalf of our lay-constituency a most cordial welcome;

Resolved, Fnally, that we do hereby pledge to him our heartiest and most sympathetic co-operation in the transaction of all the business, and earnestly pray for him and the Conference the impartation of Divine wisdom and spiritual power while he shall preside over our deliberations.

(Signed) J. U. KING.

RESOLUTION FROM LAY ASSOCIATION.

Wilmington, Del., April 11, 1919.

Whereas, We as the Laymen of the Delaware Conference now in session, having considered the many important questions prescribed, beg leave to submit to the Delaware Conference the following resolutions:

Be it Resolved, That we heartily agree with the Centenary Program as presented to us and pledge the hearty support of the Laity of the Delaware Conference to the raising of the highest allottment.

Be it Further Resolved, That, whereas, the Centenary Movement, having originated in the mind of S. Earl Taylor, one of our most prominent Laymen, we feel that the greatest need of the Laymen's Association of the Delaware Conference is an "Old Folks' Home," and we petition this Conference to present this matter through a representative to the Joint Centenary Committee in New York City, that this "Home" be included in the Centenray Budget.

Be it Further Resolved, That it is the expectation of the Laity of the Delaware Conference that ministers of the Gospel receiving adequate support shall refrain from all indiscreet secular activities such as extensive farming, political ectivities for personal gain and other commercial pursuits; because we believe such activities will interfere with their efficiency as a Pastor.

Be it Further Resolved, That since the Negro, by his unquestioned loyalty to this country and to its flag, and his undying patriotism has demonstrated his manhood and integrity, and since lynching has become rampant in this country and is not confined to any particular section, this Association pledges itself to exercise its every effort and energy to eradicate this evil and the kindred evils of the Jim Crow Car, Disfranchisement and Segregation of every kind, which are blighting the hopes of our youth and creating discord in their ranks rather than harmony.

Be It Further Resolved, That since the country has proclaimed Nation Wide Prohibition, we feel blessed that the great Methodist Episcopal Church, of which we are members, was the foremost of the active workers who brought grand victory to such a glorious cause, and since such victory is imperiled by pending Government legislation that might hinder the intentions of the original amendment, we wish to go on record as opposing any legislation that will annul or make ineffective the original amendment.

Be it Further Resolved, That we register ourselves desirous of such a system of education that will know no color.

Be it Further Resolved, That since the Laymen's Association of the Delaware Conference have raised $1000.00 for a home for aged and infirm members of the Delaware Conference, without Conference/recognition,

Be it Resolved, That we petitioon the Delaware Conference that the proposed "Home" be given a column in the Conference Benevolences, that all monies raised by the churches for the "Home" be included among the Conference Contributions of the church.

Be it Further Resolved, That we extend a vote of thanks to the Pastor and members of the A. U. M. P. Church of Wilmington, Delaware, for the use of their church for our meetings.

RESOLUTION ON MORGAN COLLEGE HALF CENTURY FUND.

The Bishop and District Superintendents have considered the matter of the uncollected portion of the Half Century Fund. In view of the extraordinary importance of this matter resulting from the obligations incurred, of the pledges made by the churches, and of the hope of larger gifts coming our way, we would recommend:

- That all subscriptions and pledges of churches be collected by May 1919, or by the earliest possible moment.
- 2. It is recommended that churches subscribe for Victory Bonds. Morgan College will accept such bonds at par on Half Century Fund.
- 3. That any deficiency after complying with the above be reserved until the Fall of 1919, after the Centenary Stewardship and Tithing Campaign be established.

W. A. HUBBARD. T. H. KIAH.

RESOLUTION FOR EPWORTH LEAGUE INSTITUTE.
