Reports

REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

Dear Bishop, Fathers and Brethren:

Changes in Appointments

K. L. Jackson, of North Carolina Conference to Fairlee, Md.
C. W. Pullet, of Mt. Carmel Church, Wilmington, Delaware, to Siloam, Chester, Pa.
C. H. Hoy, Local Preacher of Tindley Temple, to supply Mt. Carmel, Wilmington, Del.
W. C. Matthews, of Elkton, Md., to Cape May, N. J.
O'Connell Milbourne, of Odessa, Delaware, to Elkton, Md.
Joseph Stevens, Local Preacher of Federalsburg charge, to supply Beckwith, Md.

Ministerial Support

There is a growing appreciation of the need of the work of the minister in these trying times and many of our laymen are putting forth greater effort that the preacher may have an adequate stipend. There is an increasing knowledge of our connectional plan of four items and a larger sharing in the responsibility of meeting these four items, realizing that the task is not completed until each item is met in full. It is thus that we are obligated to provide for our chief pastors, our district pastors, our pastors in charge, and last, but not least, our pastors emeritus.

Religious Education

With pleasure we speak of the fine progress being made in this work throughout our conference. The Christian training of our youth is of vital importance to all our churches. We welcome the opportunity to give worthier consideration to this very important phase of church life.

We recommend the excellent service and unselfish devotion rendered our youth at the Morgan College Institute by all the members of the faculty under the leadership of Dean Hargis and manager Mitchell. In this very worthy undertaking of Christian character building of our leaders of tomorrow, these consecrated leaders of today have placed us under great obligation.

Special Mention—Philadelphia District.

The Galilee Church in Englewood has been repurchased by a loan from the Board of Home Missions.

An agreement has been reached by which the Thirkfield Church in Jersey City will settle its first mortgage of $8000.00 for $5500.00. The news of this has greatly heartened the people of the charge. The Board of Home Missions is aiding in this also.

Revivals and accessions in nearly all the charges. Mt. Zion in Philadelphia reports 141 accessions.

The District has had an increase in benevolent giving and Ministerial support. A large number of the churches have paid something on the main debt and kept the interest up.

Wilmington District.

Merchantville, N. J. has finished another section towards the completion of their new Church. They have put in new windows and doors, have finished their pulpit and paid for the same. Rev. J. L. Taylor is Pastor.

Fordsville, N. J., J. H. Blackiston pastor, has erected and dedicated a modern Parish house larger than their church. Much of the work has been done by the officials and members and is paid for.

Wilmington, Del., Ezion, E. O. Parker pastor, conducted during the summer their first community Daily Vacation Bible School. The attendance was very large. They were ably assisted by the Public School teachers of the city. This church also experienced a large and gracious revival.

Wilmington, Del., Mt. Joy, R. B. Thompson, pastor, has installed a new heating plant. The same is paid for.

Grace and Darby, C. S. Sprigg, pastor, has carried on extensive repairs at St. Mathews, Darby.

Chester, Siloam, C. W. Pullet, pastor, has remodeled the parsonage and put a new roof on the church. The same has been paid for.

Pleasantville, N. J. M. V. Waters, pastor, has made noted changes in the church basement, affording a unique social center for the young people.

Atlantic City, N. J., W. C. Thompson, pastor, has artistically renovated the parsonage and installed heating plants in the church and parsonage, about $1500 has been paid on the same.

Dover District.

The Dover District celebration of the Sesqui Centennial of Methodism was observed by a pilgrimage to Barratts Chapel, near Frederica, Del., on Thursday, Nov. 22, 1934. Three hundred and fifty of our laymen and pastors, including superintendents D. H. Hargis and J. M. Dickerson, joined the trek. The meeting was inter-racial in its make up, several of the pastors and laymen of the Wilmington Conference were present, including Dr. W. E. Habbart, District Superintendent of the Dover District of the Wilmington Conference who together with the pastor of Barratts Chapel, Rev. R. L. Taws, made us graciously welcome. It was indeed a rare privilege to stand at the altar where Asbury and Coke met and rededicate and reconsecrate ourselves to an evangelistic ministry that shall aid to bring our nation back to God.

Salisbury District.

The Salisbury District Youth Council was a splendid demonstration of the interest and enthusiasm of our youth in the supreme task of building the Kingdom. On Saturday, Feb. 16th, over 200 of the finest and most promising young people of the District gathered at John Wesley Church, Salisbury, and spent the day in discussion, groups centered around making Christ more real in every day life. Dr. Brewster's report will give a more detailed account of this outstanding event. Time will not permit the naming of all our laymen who passed, but may we mention two, Loretta McArthur, Richard J. Chandler, of Ferry Ave. M. E. Church, Camden, N. J., long Sunday School Superintendent and prominent in lay activities including district service in the interest of the Home of the Aged of which he was Treasurer. Morris Smith, of Centreville, Md., for over 50 years a member and official of Charles Wesley Church and such a faithful and efficient employee of the Town Corporation for 42 years that all the officers of the town government attended the funeral in a body.

We make no further comment upon the various activities of our work of Religious Education, leaving that for the report of Dr. E. H. Brewster.

Dr. Brewster is a brother beloved among us. It is the unanimous request of the cabinet that he be continued. We cannot afford to slight our Sunday Schools and our Young People's groups in our campaign of redemption. We need the reinforcement of a leadership, such as Dr. Brewster is giving us, that we might further an adequate program for this task.

Summer School of Theology.

The Summer School of Ministerial Training held its session at Princess Anne Academy in July. This school is a joint enterprise of the Washington and Delaware Conference with Dr. F. J. Handy as Dean, and Dr. Ernest Lyon as Manager. The institution maintains a high standard of efficiency and the enrollment has increased.

The accepted supply pastors are grateful for this opportunity of improvement and the recognition given them. There was a full attendance of these worthy men from both conferences.

We express our highest appreciation of the fine service rendered by the Dean, Manager, Registrars and members of the faculty, to make this school a success.

Dr. Willis J. King, President of Gammon Seminary, was the guest lecturer last summer. His work was a rich contribution to the intellectual and spiritual life of the group.

Princess Anne Junior College

This is the only institution of its kind on the Eastern Shore of Maryland for Negro students. A change in policy three years ago caused a drop in attendance. This has been overcome and now the enrollment is increasing. Under the careful and tactful leadership of Principal Thomas H. Kiah, a larger program of service to its constituency is being fostered.

Morgan College.

This is the only educational institution for our group fostered by our church in border territory. It is a recognized class "A" college. Its fruitage is so much in evidence in the ministerial and lay leadership of this territory that it needs no special spokesman.

It would be base ingratitude for us not to express a word of appreciation of the services of Dr. J. O. Spencer as President for the past 33 years. He has gone where we could not go—he has stood where we could not stand, and he has pled on our behalf where we had no voice.

We earnestly implore our conference to cancel the $1700 in notes of the Morgan College Crusade that we might be released to further cooperation with President Spencer in a program of expansion.

We are proud that a member of our own conference, John W. Haywood, is the efficient Dean at Morgan and has had much to do with the improvement of the curriculum so as to meet the requirement of the higher standard.

Friendship Home.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society thru many difficulties and hardships continues to maintain the ministrations of Friendship Home. During the years 1933-34 the Home has housed and ministered to 104 residents. Many of these have had to be helped until they could adjust themselves, or the Sup't secure them jobs. The Home is also contributing, in a large measure, to the moral uplift of the community by cooperating in special study classes, choral classes, industrial clubs, forums and children's knitting classes which have held regular meetings there. The future of the Home still remains a serious problem and not only needs the earnest endeavors of its promoters, the W. H. M. S., but the aid of all persons interested in the safety and protection of our girls.

World Service.

To be the missionary embodiment of Christianity has ever been the spiritual ideal of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Indeed, soon after the founder's heart was strangely warmed, he exultantly exclaimed, "The world is my parish." The history of the rise, growth, and development of Methodism for almost two hundred years has proved his exalted proclamation not to be a vain delusion, but a pertinent, substantial, historical fact. The great passionate, intrepid missionary activities of Coke, of Asbury, of "Harry Hoosier," of Stewart, of Taylor, of Thoburn, of Bashford, and of Jones, are being emulated by thousands of self-abnegating pastors and millions of loyal self-sacrificing lay members of Methodism.

The name "World Service" has become a favorite motto in every Methodist homestead. The missionary program "carried on" under the auspices of the World Service Council has for its motto, a supreme and two-fold controlling purpose. It is:

1. To educate, evangelize, and Christianize America as an integral part of our missionary responsibility contemplated by the Master's Great Commission, "Beginning at Jerusalem" and
2. To make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all men throughout the known world as their Divine Savior—to persuade them to become His disciples and to gather them into churches which shall be under God, self-propagating, self-supporting and self-governing—to cooperate so long as necessary with these churches in the evangelizing and Christianizing of their respective countries and to bring to bear on all human personality the life, spirit and principles of Jesus Christ.

Therefore the mission of World Service is the mission of the Gospel, which has for its purpose to greatly enrich all human life. Methodism, as it evidences the Christian Religion is destined to transform and make its contribution to the society of mankind. The national and international activities of the nations are to be brought into perfect harmony with the will of God through the spiritualizing of the social order. The world has become one vast neighborhood. World Service is the Golden Thread of Methodism running through the social fabric of the world of mankind seeking to bind it together into one vast garment of Christian Brotherhood.

With this gracious design of the loving God and the Methodist Episcopal Church in establishing Christian Missions, the Grand Old Delaware Conference has persistently sought to evidence her spirit of perfect concord. The past records of her achievements demonstrates this.

Especially do we appreciate the opportunities of helpfulness to our immediate home interests, proffered by the designated gift. The maintenance for aiding the pastoral support of the weaker charges and the support of Morgan College and similar educational institutions, and saving the sanctuary, almost every charge has endeavored to raise.

Again permit us to say, notwithstanding the stringent parsimony, superinduced by the economic and industrial depression, suffice it to aver that the loyal self-sacrificing pastors and lay members of the five districts have persisted to utilize their sublimest privilege to cooperate with the Almighty God in His herculean undertaking to save the world. To this end they have most strenuously striven.

Social Service.

The depression has brought a tremendous demand for temporal relief that we are unable to adequately meet. A large number of untrained workers having more zeal than wisdom have gone forth to relieve the situation. Social Service has suddenly projected itself into many phases of our National life heretofore unanticipated. The result has been much misunderstanding, confusion and unintentional discrimination.

In a larger sense we think these are mistakes of the head rather than of the heart. Time and experience will help right some of them. The need for this type of work is greater now than ever. The continued grind of the depression has broken the resisting power of many a soul.

There is an awakening sense of obligation on the part of our churches to help meet this need. Our pastors and laymen are cooperating with the various agencies of the Government. Many are attending training classes in social service work and special programs for betterment and uplift are being put on in several communities.

While we do not wish to detract from the importance of the scientific side of this work let it not be forgotten that the really successful social worker needs the undergirding of the spiritual life.

The social losses of this period thru which we are passing must be reckoned with. It is better for the people to have work than to have the dole. The dole dwarfs self-respect, saps manhood and lessens integrity. As a temporary relief it has been necessary, but we agree and endorse that policy which will reduce the number of the dole receivers by their transfer to the various work projects.

If the gospel is to have power over an age it must be the highest expression of the moral and religious truths held by that age. In the life of today the social program takes the lead. If the church has no bold thought on this big question of modern life its teaching authority will decline. The industrial and commercial life of today is dominated by principles antagonistic to Christianity and it is very difficult to live the consistent Christian life in its midst. There are some who would go the way of the ascetic and live apart from the world. The principle of this departure has been tried, weighed in the balances and found wanting. There are two other possibilities: the church must condemn the world and try to change it or tolerate the world and conform to it. If the latter obtains the church will surrender its holiness and mission. The former has never been tried with great faith on a large scale. This is the challenge to the church today. If our present economic order is to survive the onslaught of the issues of the opposition it must purge itself of selfishness and greed and take the place of a servant rather than an over-lord in the household of humanity.

EVANGELISM

Realizing its Need.

This very interesting and important subject of Evangelism should command our sincere and conscientious attention in these days of depression.

Mankind has been taught from the beginning to look for a New Heaven and a New Earth. The goal of more satisfying ways of living has been held before us with assurances that its attainment was possible for every man.

Today the possibilities for human betterment are being questioned. In place of confidence fortified by the evidences of achievement mankind is confronted with a sense of confusion. Practical plans for world betterment do not appear to be working out.

Now new voices every day from all walks of life suggest God as the needed factor. A great scientist points out that the once popular assumption of a mechanistic universe is no longer tenable. A banker, facing suicide, sets down his opinion that "unless this old world can find its way back to God it is lost." Hence a world traveler and recognized scholar gains new recognition when it is remembered that he once said that we can become more than conquerors thru the One loved us and gave Himself for us.

The weight of the testimony points to the fact that God has been dropped out of the practical affairs of life and the task of recapturing Him confronts us.

Motive for Action.

Wisely then, it is back to God, since we are conquerors only through Him. The people of this Nation must be won for God and the Church—and we have such convincing inducements for Evangelism, soul-winning, that it is a marvel that more people are not willing to participate therein.

A sufficient motive to soul-winning might be found in gratitude. If one sings with a whole heart, "Jesus paid it all," he must pass on to the next line—"All to Him I owe." But whatever else Christians have given to their Lord, it is certain that few of us have given Him as much of our influence as we should.

Reinforcing the motive of gratitude is that of personal satisfaction. "They that are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever." Just as you and I are supremely grateful to those who led us to Jesus, just so those we would lead would be thankful to us forever.

The highest motive of all perhaps, is suggestive of our Lord in the parable of the sheep and goats and is found in the phrase, "I was in prison, and ye came unto me." Yes, Evangelism takes us to Jesus. Personal work is a means to the heightening of spirituality. It proffers an experimental knowledge of Jesus. One cannot get Christ by the study of the Gospel alone, altho that will help. "He that doeth the will shall know the doctrine." He will also become acquainted with the Giver of the doctrine. If obedience be the organ of spiritual knowledge—then those who do Christ's will and seek to find others for Him will come to know Him best of all.

Method.

How shall it be done? The inescapable need is God and the power of His might—to know, follow, obey, and enjoy. Being sensible of this precious need, let us live consciously in His presence, treat Him as a father and not as a stranger, and we have within our grasp the Way, as well as the Truth and the Life. We will thus pass from the realm of theory into the World of a tried and tested fact.

Then let our efforts to win men and women be after the manner of the New Testament; proclaiming the Gospel in terms that this generation can understand. Have no message but that of the Christian Church; and keep the faith of Jesus Christ by guarding the sacred trust, the Gospel; and endeavor to reach the people where they are in mind, body, or estate.

Jesus was not designated "evangelist" nor a "model" in the New Testament, but He proclaimed an evangel in season and out of season. So that henceforth Concern for the kingdom shall be Central in the religion of all who truly follow Him. For to establish the kingdom and to produce a new earth wherein dwell peace and righteousness was among His supreme objectives.

There were many that could have assured Him that it could be done and could have gone on immediately to tell Him how. The legalistic scribes and Pharisees were saying that if Israel should keep the law perfectly for one day, the Messiah would immediately appear and establish the kingdom. The priests were equally sure that salvation would come by continuous and correct ritualistic service—this was the key to the kingdom. There were many who saw no hope in a supernatural deliverance. One would come out of the clouds who would overthrow the enemies of Israel and usher in the Day of Jehovah. But Jesus knew that the coming of the kingdom awaited upon man's transformation and cooperation. Such were the type of the children of the kingdom that Jesus had in mind; who will trust God as their Father; respect every human personality, recognizing in every other man a brother; and sacrifice personal advantage for the common good.

It is not true, at least in the commonly accepted sense of the word, that if we get people converted social conditions will right themselves. No, they must be converted in Jesus' sense of the word; "Except ye be converted and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom." And this is just another way of saying, "Except a man be born again, he cannot seek the kingdom." And it means very much more than an earnest desire to go to heaven after death. It means more than a joyous mystical experience of God; it means more than the observance of an external moral code. It means a new direction for the whole current of life's motives and action; it means a new estimate of the possibilities that are resident in every human life; it means a willingness to accord to every personality the rights and privileges one demands for himself.

Jesus was not less interested in the salvation of children for it was He that took them in His arms and said, "suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom."

A program was once given in honor of Queen Victoria, in which many children took part. The next morning she sent a message to the mayor of the city, it was not one of praise as one would naturally expect, but this simple inquiry, "The Queen wishes to know, did the children all get home safely?" Are the children safe? The nation can ask no more important question. The Church can not help answer a more vital question.

Never was there a greater challenge to those who were to try to do the work of God on earth than when Jesus took a little child and set him in their midst. If the strong and talented men and women of the Church would but face the challenge as the appeal the Church School has, and bring themselves there to help answer the challenge, we would bring about a revival of very great importance.

Finally, brethren, if any man will come after Jesus, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Him. The way of the cross must be the disciples' way as well as the Master's. Only they may truly sing "In the Cross of Christ I glory," who have learned to sing, with equal heartiness, "Jesus I my cross have taken, All to leave and follow Thee."

"From heaven He came, of heaven He spoke,
To heaven He led His followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night He broke,
Unveiling an immortal day."

Civic Righteousness

We approve and commend those agencies which are working in the interest of the weaker members of society. Among these are, "The American Civic Association," "The National Civic Association," and "The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People." We do this in the name of Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto these the least of my brethren ye have done it unto me."

We are opposed to compulsory military training, and are in favor of disarmament by all nations. We commend those students in our schools, who have conscientious scruples against compulsory military training and who are willing to suffer for their convictions. Certainly, we can take no other stand than this, and still preach the Gospel of the Prince of Peace. The war spirit is against the spirit of Him who said, "Put up thy sword, all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword."

We favor a complete and comprehensive plan of social insurance and justice which would provide for those who have never had a chance. We also favor a shorter work week with a fair wage scale which would give work to more people and also increase the nation's buying power. We join hands with those who are working for better movies and a cleaner stage; for, many of these are but cradles of corruption, crime, and death. Unless these sources of evil are changed we shall have more "Forty Thieves" organizations among the youth of our land, and others will be correspondingly affected by these demoralizing exhibitions of lewdness.

We urge the parents of our day and especially those who are of the church to help in this reformation, by their examples, their admonitions, and prayers, which is being carried on by The League of Decency, The Federal Council of Churches, and similar organizations.

Let us vote and work against Sunday desecration and such other forms of sin as seek to undo and destroy all that the church attempts for the community.

We again enter our protest against lynching for whatever cause or whatever race and appeal to our national law-makers to enact such laws as will put an end to this barbaric practice that gives the lie to much of our Christian professions and makes our Nation a laughing stock for the world.

Politics is the science of government and should be kept pure, and participated in by all citizens, especially by Christian people as a matter of obligation and duty. Our votes should be cast for men and not parties and especially for them who pledge themselves to support our Christian ideals.

Temperance

Wine is still mocking, biting, and stinging, and many are its victims. Whether it is sold in a bar-room, tap-room, or a speakeasy it has the same evil effects upon the physical, mental and moral life of individuals and society.

The idea that the speakeasy would go with the return of the saloon was a delusion. Instead, we have not only the speakeasy but the tap-room as well. In rural sections where the saloon was never known tap-rooms and rum stores are so public and numerous that many who never thought of drinking now do so as a matter of mere pastime. In urban sections too much leisure and idleness induce many to go to the saloon for recreation and fellowship. Often a desire for a continuance of this practice develops an appetite for drink and destroys the desire for work and adds to our list of moral weaknesses and national state burdens.

In many of our educational institutions the drink habit has so developed that it is now interfering with successful study, and ruining the lives of some of our once promising boys and girls.

In many homes where parents are not careful to teach their children temperance there the drink habit as well as in the tap-room is increasing. Moreover, our mortality has increased to an alarming extent, much of which is caused by partially intoxicated automobile drivers, poison liquor, and chronic alcoholism. In Washington, D. C. and many other places automobile accidents have increased more than one hundred percent. Someone has recently said, that December past, was the birthday of repeal, and that it passed without formal celebration. A sad birthday for this inexperienced generation, which faces its temptation. A happy birthday only for those who profit by other people's vices.

By the evils of intemperance, morals are corrupted, lives destroyed, and souls lost. While we are certain that the drinking is on the increase and much evil is being wrought we are also sure that both in the national Law-making bodies and in the Nation as a whole there is a growing conviction that the repeal of the 18th amendment was a serious blunder, and an awful set-back to our national life. We venture the assertion that the time is not far distant when prohibition will return, and on a more substantial and permanent basis. Those who are best informed in matters of prohibition are holding to the old adage, "Give a calf enough rope and it will hang itself," "Let the plum ripen and it will fall of itself." There is some truth to this, but we propose to help tie the calf and ripen the plum by fighting against the liquor traffic and the evils thereof, with an adequate religious-educational program in our homes, in our churches, and in our schools, and thus help in the creation of a better public sentiment until this demon of alcohol is finally and forever destroyed.

DOVER DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop, Fathers and Brethren:

God has been graciously good to us this year. Not a single family of the pastors has been visited by death. We have two items for the column of Vital Statistics—the marriage of Rev. W. L. D. Lyght of Smyrna, Delaware, in October and of Rev. W. T. B. Debron, of Townsend in April.

Lewes, Delaware entertained our District Epworth League and Sunday School Convention in June. The pastor, Rev. K. S. Stewart and his people did themselves great credit. Chestertown, under the leadership of the Rev. W. H. Coffee, Jr., measured up to the highest anticipation in the entertainment of the District Conference. Milford cared for our District Steward's Meeting and Dover, our Efficiency Conference, in a very creditable manner.

Mid-winter Epworth League Institutes were held at Chestertown, Dover and Laurel. Much interest and enthusiasm was manifested in these gatherings. Leadership Training Classes were held at Laurel, Berlin, Dover, Milington, Chestertown and Lewes.

SMYRNA—W. L. D. Lyght has had another successful year at Smyrna. All collections taken. Daily Vacation Bible School. This church will entertain the coming Sunday School and Epworth League Convention.

SOUTH BERLIN has had a most successful year, led by W. H. Mears. Every claim has been met. World Service advanced. $350 on debt and $175 on improvements. Conversions 44—accessions 44. Daily Vacation Bible School and other youth activities. Brother Mears has worked without ceasing.

TOWNSEND—W. T. B. Debron brings one of the best reports Townsend has ever sent up. This pastor has great staying qualities. At the close of the 9th year he is just as popular as ever. World Service advanced. All other collections taken—$350 on debts—$150 on improvements. Nine conversions and nine accessions.

STILL POND—J. H. Hubbard has led Still Pond to another year of success. Six converts and six accessions. World Service advanced and all other collections taken. Every interest of the charge carefully looked after.

LAUREL CT. is the new name for Portsville Mission. There are now two preaching points—one at Cross Roads and the other at Portsville. W. O. Turner is gifted to get hold of people and has done a fine piece of pioneer work in gathering the congregation at Cross Roads. They now have 42 members. We hope to be able to assist them in building a new house of worship. They are now using a private dwelling and are crowded out. All collections taken.

TRINITY has greatly advanced this year. N. H. Hayman has served here with great effectiveness. All collections taken. Two converts—twelve accessions.

A word of appreciation of the faithful wives of the parsonages on the district. They have contributed greatly and heroically to the success of the brethren.

Thanks to our laymen who have cooperated with us and manifested such a wonderful spirit of service and sacrifice. It is a rare privilege to work with such a group. The homes of both laymen and preachers have been open to us with unstinted hospitality. We are truly thankful for all these favors.

Your brother,

F. H. BUTLER.

EASTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

It is with no small degree of pleasure that we make this our sixth and last Annual report of the Easton District. Fully conscious of our many errors and short-comings; yet through a train of God's divinely directed providence we have been able to come to the end of another Conference year, and to the end of our six year term of District Superintendency. Well may we say with the Poet, "What troubles have we seen, what conflicts have we passed. But out of all the Lord has brought us by his love." We are indeed grateful to our Heavenly Father for bringing us safely through.

This has been another trying year for the ministers and the Churches. Nevertheless their loyalty and faithfulness have been very gratifying. Many sacrifices and hardships they have had to endure, and for the most part without complaint.

Our first District meeting was the District Stewards Meeting. It was well attended and I think I never saw a better spirit manifested than was shown there. We held the Church School and Epworth League Convention in June. This meeting was very good as were the District Conference and the Efficiency Conference. All these meetings were great events, to the credit of many laymen as well as the ministers.

During the year we were visited by that dreaded monster death, who invaded our ministerial ranks and took from us the Revs. P. E. Edwards, J. R. Holland and E. E. Rogers, leaving their families and friends to mourn their loss. Some others were sick from which they have recovered, for which we are thankful.

We are greatly indebted to the ministers and their wives and the laymen for their kind treatment as we visited their homes. May many blessings come to all of them. We wish also to thank all the ministers and laymen for their very fine expression of appreciation in this our retiring year for the services we have tried to render. They banqueted us over and often during the fourth quarter, and many kind words of commendation were spoken. We have not words to express our heart-felt gratitude to these dear friends.

Since there is a combined report of all the Districts, we think it only necessary to make a short summary of the charges.

AIREYS is one of our strongest circuits. A multitude of possibilities are there waiting to be awakened. If that could be done the results would be great. The pastor has labored to that end and some success has come therefrom. She reports, World Service $11; other benevolence $28; other causes $175; Conversions 2; accessions 2. A. W. McBride, pastor.

BARCLAY has not done well this year. Bad weather and the pastor having no way to get around have handicapped the work. We hope for better things in the future. World Service $10; other benevolence $10; other causes $12; conversions 6; accessions 2. W. H. Jefferson, pastor.

BECKWITH took on new life after the Rev. Joseph Stevens became the pastor in the early part of the year. She paid $— on the church debt, a church that has recently been built, and something on the Conference claims. World Service $17; other benevolences $35; other causes $243; conversions 2; accessions 5. Joseph Stevens, pastor.

CAMBRIDGE has advanced in many ways during the year. The pastor is a hard worker and is getting something worthwhile done in spite of the depressing times. The improvement in the Church School deserves special mention. World Service $155; other benevolence $210; other causes $1388; conversions 1; accessions 5. R. W. Cheers, pastor.

CAMBRIDGE CT. has been able to hold its own this year. To keep one's own record is not easy especially if that record has been good. A Junior Choir and a Junior Church are the two most noticeable features. World Service $20; other benevolences $17; other causes $360; conversions 4; accessions 5. S. G. Dix, pastor.

CARMICHAEL in the coming of a new pastor showed signs of better cooperation and work in the early part of the Conference year. But the results were not very pleasing. We expected a good years work but for some reason it did not materialize. We trust the future will be better. World Service $—; other benevolences $19; other causes $410; conversions 4; accessions 4. C. C. Thomas, pastor.

CHAPEL with a new man coming in took on new life, and has made some very noticeable advance. Membership increased, salaries and Conference collections far in advance of last year. It looks as though she will soon take her rightful place in the noble ranks. World Service $27; other benevolence $41; other causes $141; conversions 57, accessions 57. L. F. Hodges, pastor.

CENTREVILLE started out well and was doing good until misfortune overtook her. In Jan. she suffered the loss of her pastor, Rev. J. R. Holland. She readily agreed to carry on the balance of the year with the assistance of Mrs. J. R. Holland, and has done very well under the circumstances. World Service $35; other benevolences $35; other causes $100; conversions 1; accessions 5. J. R. Holland, pastor.

CENTREVILLE CT. says she has been wonderfully blessed in that Rev. R. E. Hamilton was sent her to be her pastor. She has done very well this year. A vast improvement over former years. The parsonage has been beautified, the salaries increased, and the Conference collections far in advance of last year. World service $12; other benevolences $35; other causes $55; conversions—; accessions—. R. E. Hamilton, pastor.

CHURCH CREEK is still greatly in the grip of Mr. Depression. The people have very little to do in the way of work. Thus they have very little to help the Church with. The pastor has had a struggle to keep going yet in some fashion he has come through. World Service $10; other benevolences $66; other causes $42; conversions 1; accessions 1. W. C. West, pastor.

CHURCH HILL has been able to hold her own, and will report some advance in church organization at one of the churches. Harmony prevails and the people are doing according to their ability. World Service $15; other benevolences $21; other causes $175; conversions 12; accessions 15. C. W. Derrickson, pastor.

CORDOVA has not done well this year. The opportunity for work was not so very good, and what financial strength was manifested was on the church debt; hence the pastor and other claims got very little. World Service $—; other benevolences $3; other causes $150; conversions 1; accessions—. J. E. McBride, pastor.

CRAPO is another charge that has had very little work to do this year, hence she could not do much for the church and the church claims. The pastor has put forth efforts to get something done, but he had to work at great odds, so the results have not been very gratifying. World Service $15; other benevolences $24; other causes $90; conversions 4; accessions 2. Van Wright, pastor.

DENTON as yet has not been able to get its old stride. The pastor has tried hard to get her going, but admits that it is too great a problem for him to solve. The Conference collections have been small, perhaps the depression is partly the cause. World Service $20; other benevolences $19; other causes $85; conversions—; accessions 1. W. E. Stanley, pastor.

EAST NEW MARKET has been able to keep the pace it set for itself last year with the new pastor. She has had the good fortune of having a mistress of the parsonage brought in this year, to grace the same and to help to direct the affairs of the church. The pastor and wife are happy, the people pleased and the work is going on well according to the times. World Service $40; other benevolences $40; other causes $387; conversions 1; accessions 1. W. A. Harewood, pastor.

EAST NEW MARKET CT. has not been able to do much. The pastor has had trouble with his eyes, which has handicapped him in his efforts to do the work. The people have been patient and have gone on uncomplainingly, but could not do well for the lack of pastoral administration. World Service $8; other benevolences $4; other causes $85; conversions 4; accessions—, T. A. Johnson, pastor.

EASTON has been greatly revived under the leadership of their new pastor. She has forged ahead wonderfully during this year. Many improvements have been made, the people have gone to work as of old. The future for Easton looks very bright. World Service $60; other benevolences $119; other causes $750; conversions 22; accessions 16. J. S. Coulbourne, pastor.

EASTON CIRCUIT is a small work, but does pretty well according to its chances. With a little more rallying force something more effective could be done. She succeeded in paying off the church debt this year, so the pastor hopes to do better on Conference connections another year. World service $14; other benevolences $19; other causes $110; conversions 3; accessions 2. L. H. Martin, pastor.

FEDERALSBURG has gone ahead of last year in her Conference and District collections. If the laboring conditions were better, Federalsburg could be made a very desirable appointment. The pastor has worked hard and has had some gratifying results. World Service $27; other benevolences $114; other causes $710; conversions 2; accessions 2. C. B. Miles, pastor.

GOLDEN HILL is one of the points that suffers for the lack of employment; dependent largely upon the oysters, which were almost a complete failure this year. By some means the pastor has been able to keep the church going, and reports something done on Conference collections. World Service $15; other benevolences $15; other causes $58; conversions 3; accessions—, W. B. Whittington, pastor.

GREENSBORO has been able to hold the advanced place she took when the new pastor came to her four years ago. This pastor is still new and with a new life the work is going on well. World Service $50; other benevolences $106; other causes $690; conversions 4; accessions 10. W. N. Ross, pastor.

HURLOCK has had the misfortune of having a sick minister the most of the year, who finally passed in March; leaving her without a shepherd for the remainder of the Conference year. So that very little has been done at this point. Hurlock with a wide awake minister can do very good work, all she needs is some one to lead. World Service $45; other benevolences $27; other causes $134; conversions—; accessions—. E. E. Rogers, pastor.

LINKWOOD was not so well pleased to have their old pastor go, though it was his wish. It was hard for to forget the man Jolly. While she was idling the time was passing. The new pastor saw the situation and tried to rally the forces and get something done, but he found it a hard task. Hence she comes to the end of the year not having done what she could had she gone to work at once. World Service $12; other benevolences $17; other causes $—; conversions 2; accessions 2. E. Z. Heath, pastor.

MARYDEL has struck a pleasing chord. The new pastor was able to fit in nicely and the work is encouraging. Work there as is true in so many other places is quite a problem, but she has shown a willingness to do, and a fair years work has been done considering the conditions and circumstances. World Service $30; other benevolences $76; other causes $245; conversions 11; accessions 11. L. E. Thomas, pastor.

McDANIEL has been hard hit this year. She depends on work in oysters which has been very poor this year. Yet with her new pastor she has tried to do well; and proposes to do better as soon as opportunity presents itself. World Service $15; other benevolences $26; other causes $75; conversions 2; accessions 1. W. C. Thomas, pastor.

MILES RIVER swung in line with her new pastor and moved on very nicely. This is a good place of its size and usually does well. Peace and harmony seem to prevail between pastor and people. World service $25; other benevolences $50; other causes $219; conversions 1; accessions 2. E. H. Jolly, pastor.

OXFORD has a new pastor this year and the work started off in fair shape; but the oyster business there, upon which people depend for work has been very poor, hence the work financially has been hindered somewhat. The pastor has been courageous and has stood by his guns and some results have accrued therefrom. World Service $22; other benevolences $18; other causes $200; conversions 1; accessions 1; F. R. Richardson, pastor.

PRESTON has not gotten over the shock of the accident of her pastor last year. She naturally slowed up then, and has not gotten off on the right foot since. Preston is a strong charge and can do good work when well managed. World Service $22; other benevolences $88; other causes $225; conversions 4; accessions 4. S. A. Waters, pastor.

RIDGELY has held her record of last year, but feels that she cannot do much toward the Conference collections because of her local debt. The pastor has been faithful and some results have obtained. World Service $16; other benevolences $89; other causes $612; conversions 4; accessions 2. Malachi Rasin, pastor.

ROYAL OAK is one of our strong, most loyal and dutiful charges on the District. She does her work regularly and continuously, hence when the year closes good results are fairly assured. The pastor has led on and she has faithfully followed. World Service $75; other benevolences $98; other causes $325; conversions 6; accessions 6. W. T. Spellman, pastor.

ST. MICHAELS had the misfortune of having their minister hesitate to come serve her; which, when learned, created a bad feeling that the pastor has not been able to overcome. Hence there has been but little done. The people refused to support the administration and it made a load thereby, that was too heavy for the few which stood by to carry. World Service $22; other benevolences $34; other causes $400; conversions 1; accessions 2. J. A. T. Foust, pastor.

STEVENSVILLE faced a condition unlike anything before in her history. For some reason the oysters there were so poor that they were not marketable at any price; so she was hard put to it to survive. Had she not taken some church collections early in the year, she would be obliged to submit a very meager report indeed. Many of the people labored at a great sacrifice. World Service $10; other benevolences $73; other causes $210; conversions 8; accessions 8. J. A. Fassett, pastor.

TAYLORS ISLAND has been handicapped because of the lack of employment for the people. Many of them have nothing to do, others have sought work elsewhere. She has a good number of people, and in normal times can do well. The pastor has made an effort to achieve, but often to no avail. World Service $25; other benevolences $30; other causes $276; conversions 1; accessions— L. W. Pinkett, pastor.

TRAPPE comes through with some success. One drawback is that the people have got in the habit of staying home when it rains. By that many Sundays are lost completely. Perhaps the greatest progress has been the work with the young people. World Service $20; other benevolences $83; other causes $132; conversions 2; accessions 2. R. S. Johns, pastor.

VIENNA did not readily give up her old pastor; some held back and the new man was some time getting them down to work. They finally went to work but had lost more time than could be regained; hence the desired goal was not reached. World service $20; other benevolences $7; other causes $—; conversions—; accessions— A. A. McDowell, pastor.

WILLISTON is strictly rural with four ordinary churches. She faced a pressing debt on the parsonage. The pastor rallied the people and collected enough money to satisfy the creditors; and then came through with some support money and Conference collections. Good for Williston. World Service $10; other benevolences $14; other causes $103; conversions—; accessions— Clarence Wilson, pastor.

WITTMAN hopes to hold her record of last year. This too is an oyster section and has felt the effect of the slump. The pastor was ill for some time but is hopefully recovering now. The people have been loyal and faithful according to their means. They say if you let us have Rev. Morris back another year we will do very much better if conditions permit. World Service $20; other benevolences $30; other causes $250; conversions—; accessions 2. E. F. Morris, pastor.

Yours in Christ,

W. J. HELM, Dist. Supt.

PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT.

Bishop and members of the Conference:

In presenting this our second annual report we wish to acknowledge the sense of responsibility upon us and our inability to adequately report the good work of the pastors and churches of the district.

God has been gracious to us for which we are thankful. No pastor has died during the year and most all have been in good health.

On April 13, 1934, Mrs. Emma McArthur, wife of the Rev. L. H. McArthur, passed to her eternal reward, and on the 30th day of the same month their daughter, Loretta was taken to be with her mother. On September 19, 1934, Mrs. Kattie Purnell, widow of the late Rev. W. T. Purnell, died in Philadelphia. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from hence forth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

The General Work.

The labor of the ministers and members has been rewarded with 395 conversions and 852 accessions. In addition to keeping up the current expenses and interest, some of the churches have been able to reduce their main debts, while others have succeeded along other special lines.

World Service and other Benevolent collections have exceeded those of last year and ministerial support has also increased. Some few churches have been able to raise everything in full.

Class and prayer meetings have been better attended and the Sunday congregations have increased. If confusion and factions were ended in more of our churches we believe a gracious revival would sweep over and bless our district and God would be glorified.

The District Conference, held September 25-27, 1934, and the Efficiency Conference March 27, 1935, were well attended and very inspirational. The Epworth League and Church School Convention held June 29, 30 and July 1, 1934 at John Wesley Church, Phila., and the Mid-Winter Institute held February 1-3 at Janes Church, Germantown, reflected great credit upon those in charge. The Teachers' Training School, conducted by Dr. E. H. Brewster during September at Tindley Temple, had more than one hundred in attendance.

These annual meetings gave opportunity for helpful contacts, better understanding and greater interest in each others problems. The reflections from these gatherings greatly quicken our local organizations.

The following churches conducted Vacation Bible Schools: Peniel, Trinity, Zoar, Brooks, Bethesda, John Wesley, Phila., Tindley Temple, and Newman, with a total enrollment of 1,546.

The Directors of Social and Recreational Life and of Religious Education have done much to interest the young people in the program of the church and at the same time direct their social and recreational life under proper conditions. Some of the Secretaries of Good Literature have striven to put the church papers and other good reading matter in the churches and homes of the people.

The Friendship Home, 1939 N. 22nd St., Phila. has had a good but difficult year. This home is meeting a great need in the life of many of our young women. We cannot get on without its services; but if it is to survive it must have better support. We call upon all of our constitutions to help this worthy enterprise.

The Ladies Aid, the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, the Methodist Brotherhood and several other financial organizations in the churches have done splendid work this year.

Charges.

We have been exhorted to brevity but whenever we attempt to speak or write of the work and workers of this district and remember the sacrifices made, a sense of gratitude arises and with it a temptation to bestow much praise, yet we shall try to take as little space as possible, and let the external records tell the rest of the story.

BROOKLYN:—

JOHN WESLEY, fast becoming a down town church, has labored against odds. Pastor, T. H. Woodley has worked hard and faithful to meet heavy financial obligations and at the same time keep the flock together. He has had a measure of success and reports 1 conversion, 4 accessions, World Service $93 and other benevolences $15.

NEWMAN has had another good year. Repairs have been made on the church and parsonage. A good Vacation Bible School, Boy Scouts and other young peoples activities were conducted. 8 conversions, 15 accessions, $45 for World Service and $51 for other benevolences. L. S. Perry is the pastor.

BUTLER MEMORIAL, with F. J. Handy as pastor, has renovated the parsonage and plans are out for a new church. 7 conversions, 7 accessions, $27 World Service and $36 other benevolences.

ENGLEWOOD church was sold in May, but has been repurchased for less than the sale price. The Board of Home Missions aided with a loan, D. M. Collins has wrought well at this station. 4 converts, 10 accessions, World Service $12 and other benevolences $2.

HUDSON—The pastor T. D. Stewart was sick much of the year and not a great deal has been accomplished. The work here is not promising.

JAMAICA—Brooks continues to grow in favor with the community and in the stature of a church. They have gained 8 full members, 9 preparatory members, World Service $59 and other benevolences $31.

JERSEY CITY has taken on new life, and needs it too, to carry a $20,000 debt. Foreclosure has threatened them during all the year. They are now settling an $8,000 mortgage for $5,000. The Board of Home Missions is making a loan from "Save and Sanctuary" fund, 8 preparatory members, 26 full members, World Service $25 and other benevolences $8. J. W. Thomas, pastor.

MONTCLAIR has renovated the church and met all mortgage obligations. This is a strong and growing church. J. W. Jewett is its faithful pastor, and has wrought well in this field. 27 converts, 16 accessions, $260 World Service and $117 for other benevolences.

NEWARK—S. J. Horsey has had success in this difficult charge. This is usually the case where faithful and painstaking service is rendered. Preparatory members received, 36; full members 11; $156.00 World Service; $108.00 other benevolences.

OSSINING and NEW ROCHELLE—E. W. Dean is a modern pastor and has done fine work here. Received 8 preparatory members and 19 full members. The young people are well organized and the charge is growing. $38.00 World Service; $29.00 other benevolences.

ORANGE—The pastor, J. T. Wallace has been able to carry on for this year and a creditable report is made. The difficult debt has been looked after and six persons added to the church. $50.00 World Service, $64.00 for other benevolences; Conversions 6.

PHILADELPHIA:

BETHESDA—J. H. Scott reports 3 preparatory members and 5 in full membership. The services are well attended and the church sends up $10 for World Service and $4 for other benevolences.

CAMPBOR has had a successful year. This church has a large percentage of young people in its membership and is quite promising. Obligations to the city Missionary met, conversions 2, accessions 10, World Service $50 and other benevolences $40. M. W. Clark has labored faithfully in this charge.

FRANKFORD—R. G. Waters reports 11 conversions and 15 accessions. The Williams Anderson property has been transferred to the Board of Home Missions which helps to take care of the interest on the church debt. $35 World Service and other benevolences $182.

GERMANTOWN—J. E. A. Johns again reduces the heavy mortgage against Janes Church and keeps up the interest at the bank and at the Board of Home Missions. Repairs have been made on the parsonage and paid for. 19 preparatory members were added and 23 full members. $920 World Service and $155 for other benevolences.

HAVEN is emerging. The old frame Church building has been taken away and a new brick one built at a cost of $8,000 and more than $4,000 paid on it this year. 44 full members received and 72 converts. $325 World Service and other benevolences $123. J. W. Jefferson is the pastor.

JOHN WESLEY reports full members received 39, preparatory members 5. Paid on main debt $261 and the interest $270, $150 for World Service and $122 for other benevolences. W. A. Hubbard, pastor.

JOHN SIMMONS is marching on with A. L. Martin leading. $900 spent for repairs and more than $500 paid by the church. 32 full members received and 16 preparatory members. $40 World Service and $60 for other benevolences.

MT. ZION reports 141 accessions and 78 full members received. The debt obligations met to date. The church is crowded to the doors and H. R. Colman, the pastor, is looking for new quarters. His objective is another "Temple" in Philadelphia. $105 World Service, $56 other benevolences.

PENIEL—Wm. Goldsborough's work shows that taking over the church at 20th and Jefferson Street was no mistake. The membership continues to grow, especially in the junior church. The Daily Vacation Bible School enrollment was 384. Obligations of the city Missionary Society was met. 25 conversions, 40 accessions, $50 for World Service, $50 for other benevolences.

TINDLEY TEMPLE—D. W. Henry is succeeding at the Temple. Here is not only a tremendous debt problem but other tremendous problems incident to a great church. The pastor is finding the problems and attempting to solve them in a masterful way. Many minor financial obligations are being met, thus clearing the way for retiring the main debt. Full members received 49, preparatory members 171, conversions 74, World Service $1500, and other benevolences $228.

ZOAR has had one of her best years. Full members received 100, preparatory members 40. Prayer meeting attendance has increased two-fold. The main debt has been reduced $500. The church is spiritually and financially alive. The young people's work has grown under the leadership of the Armstrong Association and the local Directors. $1014 for World Service and $274 for other benevolences.

TRENTON is one of our very best and promising stations. They have bought and paid for a lot on which they expect to build a church soon. The congregation is enthusiastic and is led on by J. N. Bullen, the faithful pastor. Full members 21, preparatory members 19, World Service $40 and other benevolences $40.

WHITE PLAINS under H. T. Johnson has had its annual success. The church has been renovated and the bill paid. 37 persons have joined who will help make possible the new church building. The pastor and people are happy and desire to continue. World Service $204 and other benevolences $182.

SPRING LAKE has as its pastor, D. R. Fletcher, who made a good impression upon the people, and they took good care of him. They desire his return.

Again we thank the pastors, their families and the people of the district for their splendid cooperation, encouragement and labors during the year.

We gratefully trust and fervently pray that our work together during the coming year shall be as pleasant and even more successful than the year closing.

May the grace of Him who sends us forth sustain each of us while we labor in His vineyard.

Your brother,

J. T. FLETCHER.

SALISBURY DISTRICT.

Bishop and Brethren:

We are sincerely grateful to Almighty God that through His wise and merciful guidance we are permitted to make this the fourth Annual Report of the Salisbury District.

District Health.

Only a few of the brethren and their families have escaped sickness during the year. We are thankful that with a few exceptions there has been no serious illness. There have been sporadic attacks of colds and various forms of rheumatism but only in a few instances was it necessary to relinquish work.

Deaths.

Early in the Conference year Brother George H. Bivins, who faithfully supplied the Fairmount Circuit and Centennial Church at Fairmount for twenty years, after a few days illness died at his home, Marion, Md. The next to fall was Brother H. C. Snead, who was retired at the previous session of the Conference. He passed to his reward from the home of his daughter at Pocomoke City, Md. Just a few days before Christmas Brother Floyd L. Tomlinson, Pastor of the Mt. Vernon charge, after about six weeks illness died at his home on the charge. The mother of Brother R. J. Williams, our pastor at Snow Hill Circuit, at a ripe old age laid aside this robe of flesh and arose to seize the everlasting prize. Rev. E. E. Rogers, the honored and revered father of Brother W. J. Rogers of this district, passed from labor to reward about the latter part of March.

District Activities.

The usual Annual meetings of the district were enthusiastically attended and delightfully entertained by the various hosts: The District Stewards' Meeting at Princess Anne; The Epworth League and Church School Convention at White's Temple, Salisbury; The District Conference at Snow Hill, Md.

The Epworth League and Church School Convention, superbly entertained by the able pastor and committees of White's Temple, had as the guest speaker, Dr. E. H. Brewster, Conference Director of Religious Education, who is doing so much toward the cultivation of religious sentiment on this district that it is a matter of regret that we have been denied or deprived of the help which he brings to us which we so badly need and deeply appreciate. His work is growing in favor daily and the increase contributed toward his support, I think, is a very fine testimonial to the fact that his work is increasing in favor. The work of Dr. Brewster in encouraging the district to send a delegate to the National Youth Conference at Chicago, Miss Matilda Palmer of Crisfield, Md. being selected, will always appeal to the members of the district as a very generous contribution to the District morale and has certainly been the means of an awakening on the part of the youth of the district to higher and nobler aspirations. This was followed later in the year by a District Youth Conference, admirably entertained by the pastor and committees at John Wesley M. E. Church, Salisbury, Md. at which time Dr. Brewster again demonstrated his ability as a leader of youth, clearly manifesting to us that the services he is rendering to the district are invaluable. This Conference was attended by more than two hundred young people from all over the district and they entered heartily into the discussion of the theme presented and outlined. The District Conference was held at Snow Hill, Md. and was proclaimed one of the best ever held on the district. Everything possible to be done to make this meeting a success was done by the able pastor and his very efficient committees. Dr. H. C. Leonard, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, was the guest speaker. Dr. Leonard verily enthused his audience to the point of spiritual ecstasy and physical determination to more zealous prosecution of their task. The Efficiency Conference was held at Pocomoke City, Md. at which Dr. Leonard was again the guest speaker, and again enthused his audience and inspired them to greater activity toward the support of the "Save-the-Sanctuary" movement, which I believe would have resulted in much good had it not been that the following Sunday and every Sunday since that time there has been rain and stormy weather to the extent that the country roads were impassable.

Educational Interests.

Much chagrin and a keen sense of loss is felt by the people of this section as it is becoming more generally known that Princess Anne Junior College is no longer a Church School. This situation is somewhat relieved from the knowledge that it is presided over by Professor T. H. Kiah, a member of our Conference who for many years exercised such efficient control over the moral and spiritual life of that school as an institution of the Church that they believe that it does not matter whether it be under Church or State the same high quality of conduct and training will characterize that institution. Efforts have been made to induce the State to make this a Vocational Training College so that the residents of this section will be benefited the same as in other states with a dual system of education. As a matter of fact, under the present status the youth have to go to other States to acquire the necessary training to equip them for life work in industrial as well as professional lines. There are High Schools in every County in the district and in Wicomico County there are two standard High Schools for colored pupils. The coming session of the Annual Conference will be petitioned to support the Princess Anne Academy, morally and financially to the extent of convincing the law-making body that a school of that nature is desirable in this section. The Conference will be asked to appoint Committees for each district to visit the various district meetings and speak in the interest of such an institution for the higher education of our youth. Such a movement we believe has the sympathy of the present administration and its influence it is believed can be obtained if the section will manifest sufficient interest.

Social and Industrial Conditions

The Social and Industrial conditions of this District are about the same as in other rural districts in the Conference, isolated from industrial centers. This is almost absolutely an agricultural district and wholly so as far as our racial group is concerned. The basic crops of this section for the last four or five years have been a dismal failure from the standpoint of markets. Many growers have not been able to recover from their sales the expense of planting and gathering their crops. It has completely demoralized their energies and they enter half-heartedly into their work of production fearing that another loss will ensue. The F. E. R. A. and other government agencies have apparently been a blessing to this district. We have the beer gardens and other social evils to contend with but the ministers have interested themselves in preventing the opening of such in certain sections of our towns and county. The pastor of John Wesley Church in Salisbury, assisted by many of the leading citizens of the town, has prevented the opening of two such places amid the respectable and law-abiding people of the City. May his tribe increase. The distribution of work on the relief is fairly equally distributed, as is also the direct relief, allowance being made for the prevailing opinion as to the different standards of living.

Survey by Charges.

(For information concerning membership and finances in detail see Report of the Statistician and Treasurer.)

COTTAGE GROVE—This appointment was augmented by the addition of Westover upon the death of Brother Bivins and the union seems to have been a very happy one. Under the pastorate of Brother T. N. Hodges, assisted by his very energetic and helpful wife, a very refreshing atmosphere has been created on this charge. Conversions 5. W. S. $3.00.

CRISFIELD, SHILOH—The fifth year of the pastor at this charge is better than the preceding four and they say if he returns the sixth year will be better. Conversions 12. W. S. $117. J. A. Kiah is the pastor.

CRISFIELD, UNION ASBURY—With the shadow of the auctioneer's hammer hovering over this church, the pastor and people have striven heroically and with a measure of success to overcome. Pray for them. Conversions 5. W. S. $30. Alexander Reid, pastor.

DAMES QUARTER—This is a courageous people. Though compelled for the most part to resort to a nomadic life to make a living they do not flinch from the requirements of their home and church life. The pastor after four years of service desires a change this year. W. R. Price is the pastor.

DEALS ISLAND—The people of this charge also have to leave home at certain seasons of the year to make a living. It is not true of this place that a prophet is without honor in his own country and home. This is the home of Brother I. H. Bivins, yet he and his wife are respected, honored and loved by these people. Conversions 5. W. S. $10.

FRUITLAND—This charge continues its record of previous years. Mt. Calvary, the church at Fruitland, intends to renovate their church property next year. W. S. $17.00. J. E. Waters, pastor.

GIRDLETREE—This charge continues to progress under the pastorate of Brother C. L. Jones. The union effected last year with Mt. Wesley from the Snow Hill charge continues to be harmonious and also an inspiration to Mt. Wesley. W. S. $2.00. Conversions 18.

GREENWOOD—This is Brother C. A. Norwood's fourth year and the best. This charge sustained a severe shock and loss in the death of Mrs. Bertha Matthews, unquestionably the leading member of the charge. They believe that God will raise up workmen to continue the cause. Conversions 6. W. S. $16.

HOPEWELL—This energetic young pastor and his wife are still bringing things to pass on this charge. They have very effective young people's organizations at both churches. W. S. $40. Conversions 55.

HORNTOWN—This charge has not measured up this year to previous years and seems to have sunken into the depths of despond. Chincoteague with its refreshing breeze has been connected with this charge for another year upon mutual agreement and better things are looked for. W. S. $5.00. Conversions 5. C. T. Covington, pastor.

KELLER—The maxim that "while there is life there is hope" is surely the condition of this charge. Burdened with a seeming insurmountable debt of $1000. with a constantly dwindling membership, poor attendance, very poor resources and harrassed to the point of exasperation by creditors, these people are about ready to lay them down and die! Chas. P. Spencer is the pastor.

KINGSTON—After an uninterrupted pastorate of twenty years and two pastors in two years these faithful people are trying to find themselves. They are earnestly striving to do so and will eventually find an even keel on which to sail to reach the desired haven. W. S. $20. Conversions 7. E. M. Neals, pastor.

LEE MONT—At one time the best of the Virginia appointments, has fallen somewhat below her former estate but is not irretrievably lost and will it is believed regain her former glory in a short time. Conversions 3. World Service $35. Roland Grant, pastor.

LIBERIA—Under the conditions which this charge has encountered during the last three or four years they may well posit themselves as exemplars of loyalty and fidelity to Methodism. World Service $5. E. H. Nichols, pastor.

MANOKIN—Much inspiration has come to this previously dispirited charge this year. This young pastor and his wife have entered wholeheartedly into the work and have won the affection and cooperation of the few people with whom they have to labor and results reaching a far greater magnitude may be expected. W. S. $9. C. L. Trader is the pastor.

MARION STATION—A challenge in my report of this charge last year is about to issue in that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension is about to come to the rescue of this over-burdened people. Still I predict that it will with the lightening of the load soar to appreciable heights and become as acceptable as it has been non-acceptable. The stamina and the grit is there. Conversions 28. W. S. $25. T. W. Cooper is the pastor.

MT. VERNON—This charge was unfortunate in losing by death their beloved pastor, Rev. F. L. Tomlinson. Principal T. H. Kiah, of Princess Anne, voluntarily proffered his services to the Bishop to take care of the work of three churches of the charge without compensation so that the widow might remain in the parsonage during the remainder of the Conference year. The proffer was graciously accepted. Conversions 18.

NANTICOKE—This church is still struggling under an avalanche of debt and despondency. I wonder if there is sufficient balm in Gilead to heal their weary souls. They are singing "Hope thou in God for I will still praise Him." Let us pray for their deliverance and the reward of that hope. O. P. Dickerson, pastor.

ORIOLE—With a change of economical and industrial conditions the church at Oriole would be justified in asking to be set aside as a station as they are very prompt to meet their obligations to the Conference. I wish it was possible to say the same of the church at Venton. The pastors have striven but vainly to urge this church to meet its responsibilities. W. S. $25. Conversions 1. J. W. Elbert, pastor.

PARSONBURG—There has been no appreciable change in the attitude of this charge during the year. While they did not approve of the change of pastors last year it has not been reflected in their loyalty and cooperation with the new pastor. If the church at Parsonburg would decide to do her part it would greatly hearten the Curtis Chapel and Whaleyville churches. W. S. $25. Conversions 3. W. J. Rogers, pastor.

POCOMOKE CITY—This charge for four years under the untiring leadership of one of the greatest leaders in Methodism still registers efficiency. This is one of the best organized churches on the District. The pastor and his wife, who is just as enthusiastic as her husband, have deleted the word "tired" from their vocabulary. Not only have they interested themselves in the work of the church but they have been invaluable aids in the prosecution of the community relief work and have endeared themselves to many of the inhabitants regardless of denomination. World Service $160. Conversions 8. S. M. Emptage, pastor.

PRINCESS ANNE—This charge from a standpoint of proficiency in organization and zeal cannot be excelled. It has a very large and faithful corps of trained and alert members. Under the pastorate of Bro. R. C. Hughes, who is an intrepid leader and bold and fearless preacher, this charge is spiritually alive. Here can be found an answer to all of the Quarterly Conference questions. World Service $45. Conversions 5.

QUANTICO—This charge which last year evidenced signs of resurrection from the dead has declared that they are alive and we hope for ever more. While they did not equal their report of last year in paid on indebtedness, yet they increased their world service giving and pastor's salary. Brother Sterling and his wife are about a great work and the people say they can't come down. W. S. $40.

SALISBURY, JOHN WESLEY—If there was a missing link in the chain binding these people and pastor together the link has been found in Cornelia, the infant baby born to the home last August. The second year of this administration finds pastor and people in very harmonious accord and cooperation. The greatest event in the history of the District was that of the Youth Conference held at this Church in February when more than two hundred of the youth of the district assembled to hear and discuss Christian living as presented by Dr. E. H. Brewster, our Conference Director of Religious Education. The work is progressing finely with an increase over last year. World Service $86. Elmer P. Gibson, pastor.

SALISBURY, WHITE'S TEMPLE—There has been a very gracious revival on this charge this year. The young people's work on this charge stands second to none on the district. Mrs. Johnson, the faithful wife and co-worker with her husband is untiring in her efforts for the advancement of the work. This charge very delightfully entertained the District Epworth League and Church School Convention in June. World Service $26. Conversions 31. F. T. Johnson, pastor.

SNOW HILL—The second year of this charge as a station has proven to be a very "noble experiment." The District Conference held there in October is considered to be one of the best ever held on the district. The pastor and people are united and work cooperatively. This new station bids fair to equal and surpass some of the older stations. Conversions 3. World Service $50. J. Lee Sawyer, pastor.

SNOW HILL CT.—The work on this charge was hindered this year because of the illness of the pastor and the illness and death of the pastor's mother. This combined with the almost unprecedented bad weather in the closing days or weeks of the Conference year greatly precludes the possibility of a creditable report. R. J. Williams, pastor.

STOCKTON—This charge has somewhat recovered over the setback experienced last year, and the prospects of its return to normalcy is very hopeful under the conservative leadership of its present pastor. A very gracious revival has also featured this work. Conversions 29. World Service $10. J. R. Purnell, pastor.

STOCKTON CT.—This charge is the problem of the district. The effort to unite them with a neighboring charge was so bitterly opposed that it was thought best not to endanger the success of another and therefore have two instead of one dying church. St. Paul church of this charge is only a rendezvous for wasps and snakes and will be recommended for abandonment and sale if after a year's warning to the seemingly indifferent few, conditions do not improve. Free Will Church of Chincoteague, belonging to this charge have voted their allegiance to Horntown charge and will be connected with them. The pastor has striven under the severest handicaps to carry on this year but amid much suffering and deprivations. Conversions 7. World Service $3. J. S. Coard, pastor.

UNIONVILLE—This is Brother Pitts fourth year at this charge. The people are loyal and regardless of certain handicaps and untoward conditions peculiarly obtaining at this charge, the pastor and people seem satisfied to continue their relationships. I. D. Pitts, pastor.

UPPER HILL—Amid misgivings on the part of some when Centennial was connected with this charge, no misfortune has occurred and there is apparently harmony and good will existing between the two churches. The pastor and wife are held in the highest esteem by both of the churches and because of the tact and strength of character of this young man complete harmony and cooperation must necessarily follow. World Service $30. N. W. Moore, Jr., pastor.

WETIPQUIN—It is hardly believable that such a transformation could take place in the attitudes of a people as is the case at this charge within the year. It was a boiling cauldron of dissension and bickering when this young man assumed charge a year ago. Complete satisfaction, harmony and co-operation exists at one of the churches. The other is opening its eyes to the light around and about them and are awakening to their sense of duty to their church. Conversions 5. World Service $39. A. L. Black, pastor.

WACHAPREAGUE—One of the churches on this charge, Grace, is fully awake and conscious of its responsibilities to the church and its connections. The other, Burton, seems to be under a rather baneful influence injurious to themselves and Methodism thus creating a very unsatisfactory condition on this charge. This charge is capable of rendering much better service than it does. Its industries, fish and oysters, in connection with its agricultural pursuits should place it in a much better light. The pastor has not lost any opportunity to improve conditions but it seems with very meagre success. Conversions 1. World Service $13. Jose Angulo, pastor.

WATTSVILLE—A return to normalcy next year is the prediction for this charge if the present administration is continued which is the ardent desire of the charge. This charge has been lifted considerably this year and the people believe that their pastor is beyond compare in efficiency in the Conference. Conversions 16. World Service $13. F. C. Kershaw, pastor.

WHITE HAVEN—After thirty-seven years of continuous service, the pastor of this charge, owing to illness and infirmities of age has decided to retire from active service at this session of the Conference. Although the charge has been seriously embarrassed for the last two years because of the disability of the pastor and apparent general lassitude on the part of the people, yet it sends up a very good report. Conversions 12. World Service $25. S. T. Parker, pastor.

WITHAMS—Brother Griffin still maintains his grip upon these people and the second year of his pastorate is as successful as the first and there seems to be no good reason why they should not enjoy the harmonious relations of the first and second year throughout the third. Conversions 30. World Service $20. J. O. Griffin, pastor.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. DICKERSON.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop, Fathers and Brethren:

To God, our all-wise heavenly Father, we offer the deepest gratitude and the loftiest praise for preserving our lives and bringing us in the midst of dread disease and death to the close of this fiscal year.

Again we are most profoundly grateful to Him to be privileged to make this Sixth and Last Annual Report of the varied activities of the Wilmington District.

Evidences of the great loyalty and sacrificial labors of the pastors, their wives and the lay members have been many. Fealty, concord and peace have practically prevailed throughout the district.

Sickness and Deaths.

With two exceptions, not any of the pastors or their families have been seriously ill. The Rev. John W. Bond went to his eternal reward May 12, and the Rev. Dr. William R. A. Palmer was not "for God took him" December 15. Fitting eulogies elsewhere appear in this journal.

District Activities.

The Districts Stewards' meeting convened 11 A. M., May 1, at Ezion M. E. Church, Wilmington, Delaware, the Rev. E. O. Parker, pastor.

The general Benevolent Askings and the Ministerial Estimates, the Every Member Canvass for World Service, the Forward Program, a Budget in Each Charge, and a plan of holding and rotating the Monthly District Preachers' Meeting were enthusiastically discussed and unanimously approved by the large number of district stewards and pastors in attendance.

The Woman's Home and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, while they have sacrificially contributed to the Causes of the Home and Foreign Fields, respectively, have disseminated and intensified the missionary passion, and greatly enlarged the motive and spirit of liberal giving in the local churches. They have not been remiss in holding their quarterly and annual meetings.

The Ladies' Aid Societies continue to increase their solicitations for the comfort of the pastors and their families by aiding in furnishing and beautifying the parsonages. The treasuries of the Board of Stewards and Trustees have been greatly replenished through their activities.

During the conference year the following meetings have been held:

The Twelfth Annual Epworth League Convention and Young People's Conference, July 5 and 6, at Franklin Street M. E. Church, Cape May, New Jersey, the Rev. A. E. Martin, pastor; the Young People's Field Day, October 20, Siloam M. E. Church, Chester, Pa., the Rev. C. W. Pullett, pastor; the District Conference (annual), October 30, 31 and November 1, at Ferry Avenue M. E. Church, Camden, New Jersey, the Rev. D. S. Quillen, pastor; and the Twelfth District Annual Efficiency Conference, March 12, Mt. Hope M. E. Church, Salem, New Jersey, the Rev. G. T. Fields, pastor.

A very illuminating and highly profitable program was enthusiastically rendered at each of these large gatherings. Some of our ablest educators, both of the Church and State participated, including Bishop E. G. Richardson, Drs. E. H. Brewster, Harold Paul Sloan, John Watchorn, E. D. Kohlstedt, H. C. Leonard, John W. Haywood, and Presidents R. S. Grossley and Thomas H. Kiah.

Religious Education and Training Classes.

Religious Educational Training Classes and Day Conferences were conducted during the months of November and December at the following strategic centers:

John Wesley, Bridgeton, New Jersey, the Rev. D. L. Ridout, pastor; Ezion, Wilmington; Asbury, Atlantic City, New Jersey, the Rev. Dr. W. C. Thompson, pastor; Saint Daniels, Chester, Pa., the Rev. L. S. Moore, pastor, and Asbury, Merchantville, New Jersey, the Rev. J. L. Taylor, pastor.

These classes and conferences enabled our alert teachers in Church Schools, Epworth Leagues and other young people's societies to increase their vision, to greatly enrich their minds, and to get a new lead in their social and religious leadership. They were highly appreciative. There were ———— certificated.

Dr. E. H. Brewster, the Area Director of Religious Education, has been zealously faithful in disseminating religious truth besides his activities immediately in the conference. He taught religious educational subjects and Foreign Missions. As a member of the faculty of the Delaware-Washington Conferences Epworth League Institute, Morgan College, Baltimore, Maryland, August 13-20.

The Revs. L. S. Moore and E. H. Crampton deserve to be especially mentioned for the active parts they took in teaching their groups.

Survey of Charges.

The loyal, intrepid pastors and their self-sacrificing parishioners have strenuously striven to equal last year's sacrificial givings. That evangelistic efforts have been carried on in each charge is worthy of note, and is to be highly commended.

Atlantic City Group, W. C. Thompson, Chairman.

ATLANTIC CITY, ASBURY—In spite of her industrial and economic handicaps, reports another reasonably good year. New heating plants have been installed in and repairs made on the church and parsonage, costing $2470, and $617.00 respectively. $2781.00 has been paid on the same. They have raised on old indebtedness $1884.00; Ministerial Support, $2457.00; World Service, $617.00, an increase; Conference Benevolences, $470.00. Conversions, 45; accessions, 46. W. C. Thompson, the intrepid pastor, and his self-sacrificing congregation were greatly inspired by the $2500.00 loan from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, assisting them in the above-named enterprise.

ATLANTIC CITY, HAMILTON MEMORIAL—This may be classified among the most sacrificing congregations on the district. They likewise overcame their economic handicaps. They report as follows: Ministerial Support, $820.00; World Service, $20.00; Annual Conference Collections almost in full; Paid on Old Indebtedness and Repairs, $141.00; Conversions, 12; Accessions, 12. W. E. Waters, pastor.

OCEAN CITY and ABSECON were united last year. That this union shall be satisfactory is our urgent desire. However, God, labor and time may accomplish this. They report: Ministerial Support, $258.76; World Service, $11.00; Conference Collections, $7.00. Conversions, 1; Accessions, 2. S. D. Mallard, pastor.

PLEASANTVILLE—M. V. Waters, pastor, and his loyal people have labored together for four years under unfavorable circumstances. Their handicaps have been difficult to overcome. However, their accomplishments have been practically all that could be expected. The failure of the seashore industries has also affected them. They report: Ministerial Support, $875.00; World Service, $34.00; Conference Collections, $22.00. Raised for repairs and Old Indebtedness, $175.00. Conversions, 5; Accessions, 4. Utilizing the professional men visiting the resort, the young people, under the leadership of the pastor's wife, have maintained a very effective educational and recreational program for the community.

CAPE MAY—Cape May and Swain made an excellent beginning, financially and socially, with A. E. Martin as pastor. By readjusting the mortgages on the parsonage, it was planned by conditional payments to cancel $1850.00 on old indebtedness. The district Epworth League and Church School convention was very hospitably entertained July 5, 6. He served until December 3. On December 29th, W. G. Matthews was appointed pastor, and makes the following report:

Ministerial Support, $808.46; World Service, $29.00; Conference Collections, $24.00; Paid on Old Indebtedness, $759.00. Conversions, 15; Accessions, 11.

Bridgeton Group—W. H. Johns, Chairman.

PORT NORRIS and WOODBINE had their weeping last year and their joy this year. With Swain severed, the pastor, W. H. Johns, was enabled to concentrate his energies. They report their most successful year. Ministerial Support, $1071.50; World Service, $20.00; Conference Collections, $37.00; Old Indebtedness, $262.00; Conversions, 10; Accessions, 20.

BRIDGETON—D. L. Ridout was an eleventh hour appointee of this charge. Thus far he has been a unique fit. The young people's societies have been revitalized and a social program has been carried on successfully, cooperating with the affiliated social and Christian organizations of the city.

Ministerial Support, $1067; World Service, $51.00, an increase; Conference Collections, $72.00; Repairs, $125.00. Conversions, 3; Accessions, 7. The next Epworth League and Church School Convention will be held here.

QUINTON and SPRINGTOWN—J. I. Peaco, pastor, has sincerely and successfully served this charge five years. The religious program has been very effective in elevating the moral and social life of the community. They have raised: Ministerial Support, $809.00; World Service, $32.00; Conference Collections, $24.00. Conversions, 3; Accessions, 11.

SALEM has recovered from her series of adversities suffered last year. G. T. Fields, pastor, has served these loyal people eleven years, yet he successfully carries on. They report: Ministerial Support $1328.00, an increase; World Service, $60.00; Conference Collections, almost in full; Old Indebtedness, $554.00. Conversions, 6; Accessions, 6.

FORDSVILLE still retains her previous reputation—"a progressive rural charge." They have completed and dedicated a modern parish house. They have, too, paid as they built. Much of the work done by their own artisans—gratis. They report, Ministerial Support, $387.00; World Service, $60.00; Conference Collections, $26.00; Old Indebtedness, $680.00. Conversions, 6; Accessions, 6. J. H. Blackiston, pastor, has effectively closed his ninth year.

Chester Group, L. S. Moore, Chairman.

CHESTER, ST. DANIELS has experienced a very prosperous year. In spite of the unfavorable industrial and economic conditions, they report raised: Ministerial Support $2663.00; World Service $435.00, an increase; Conference Collections $302.00; paid on Repairs and Old Indebtedness, $678.00. Conversions, 31; Accessions, 35. A Daily Vacation Bible School was conducted with an enrollment of 322, and an average attendance of 294. L. S. Moore has completed his eleventh year.

CHESTER, SILOAM—J. W. Bond was reappointed pastor of this charge for the thirteenth year while critically ill in the hospital. He never recovered, but went to his reward May 12th. June 1, C. W. Pullett was appointed pastor. He makes the following report: Ministerial support $928.-91; World Service, $25.00; Conference Collections $56.00. The church has been re-roofed; the parsonage renovated, at a cost of $303, the same having been paid. Paid on old indebtedness, $37.00. Conversions, 3; Accessions, 3. The pastor is a happy man.

CHESTER, GRACE and DARBY—The former has steadily progressed, because it has an abiding purpose to advance the whole program of the Kingdom of God. The latter has been interested chiefly in their local affairs, i.e., repairing their church. They together report, $250.00 for repairs and old indebtedness; Ministerial Support, $554.05; World Service, $33.00; Conference Collections taken. Conducted a community Daily Vacation Bible School, enrollment, 300; average attendance, 200. Conversions, 1; Accessions, 1. C. S. Sprigg, pastor.

Lawnside Group, E. H. Crampton, Chairman.

LAWNSIDE—This is an independent borough, governed wholly and supported almost fully by Negroes. Political policies frequently enter and sometimes disrupt and modify the spiritual harmony and financial accomplishments of the church. Nevertheless, E. H. Crampton, pastor, has been persistent in presenting the program of the Church.

They report: Ministerial support, $1286 00; World Service, $40.00; Conference Collections, $51; Raised on old debts and repairs, $85.00. Conversions, 4; Accessions, 4. The young people's societies are well organized and functioning.

CAMDEN, greatly inspired by the District Conference, held here October 30 to November 1, reports another reasonably successful year. Ministerial Support, $1142.00; World Service, $61.00, an increase. Conference collections advanced. Paid on old indebtedness, $203.00. A daily Vocational School was conducted. Enrollment, 160; Average attendance, 70. Conversions, 3; Accessions, 3. D. S. Quillen is pastor.

DELAIR—Dr. W. R. A. Palmer was appointed pastor here, at the last session of the Annual Conference. He was most cordially welcomed and had launched a religious program for the community which was succeeding very finely. A Daily Vacation Bible School, directed by Mrs. Palmer, was largely attended. December 15, this erudite veteran pastor-preacher "was not, for God took him."

February 1, this charge was temporarily annexed to Camden. D. S. Quillen reports the following: Ministerial Support, $1016.00; World Service, $16.00; Conference Collections, $12.00; Paid on old indebtedness, $415.00. Conversions, 2; Accessions, 2.

GRENLOCH, RHODES and BERLIN—Howard A. Bailey has faithfully served this three-point circuit for two years. They report as follows: Ministerial Support, $738.00; World Service, $12.00; Conference Collections, $17.00; Raised for all purposes, $950.00. Conversions, 4; Accessions 4.

MOUNT HOLLY—C. W. Johnson, pastor, has strenuously striven to develop this charge spiritually and financially. Should the majority of their membership gauge itself by the largest contribution to the Kingdom of which they are capable, instead of restricting themselves by their lesser offering, greater results would accrue. However, the faithful few have fully cooperated. Hence the following report:

Ministerial support, $587.00; World Service, $20.00; Conference Collections, $15.00; repairs and old indebtedness, $93.00. Conversions, 2; Accessions, 3.

BURLINGTON—This charge is gradually recovering from her setback—too frequently removal of her pastors. B. A. Arnold, pastor, is making valuable contacts and reassembling the scattered forces. They report raised: Ministerial Support, $500.00; World Service, Conference Collections taken. Conversions, 1; Accessions, 1.

MERCHANTVILLE is steadily progressing, spiritually, socially and financially. The members are self-sacrificing and appreciative. Paying as they build, they have completed the doors and windows—another section of their beautiful church. Ministerial Support, $1674.00; World Service, $50.00; Conference Collections, $48.00; Repairs and old indebtedness, $1476. Conversions, 5; Accessions, 5. A very promising Junior Church is successfully developing. J. L. Taylor, pastor, continues to increase in influence and usefulness, although he has closed his sixth year.

WOODBURY and JERICHO—C. B. White, pastor, has labored early and late, endeavoring to serve this circuit successfully. The members intermittently co-operate. Much more could be done if they were more appreciative and steadfast. They report: Ministerial Support, $330.00; World Service and Conference Collections taken. Accessions, 2.

MIDDLETOWN GROUP, J. H. Russum, Chairman.

MIDDLETOWN—J. H. Russum, pastor, is a persistent worker, and a faithful pastor. The people have been reasonably loyal. They report: Ministerial Support, $642.00; World Service, $60.00; Conference Benevolences, $28.00; Old Indebtedness and Repairs, $419.00. Conversions, 28; Accessions, 28. This church is regaining its financial and social prestige in the community.

BUTTONWOOD and CHRISTIANA graciously welcomed their new pastor, C. E. Kincade. He has sought to give them an intense spiritual and social leadership. They are gradually responding. They have raised: Ministerial Support, $461.00; World Service, $15.00; Conference Collections, $14.00. Conversions, 2; Accessions, 7.

DELAWARE CITY and KIRKWOOD—S. G. Fullman seems to have been the logical successor to the former pastor. The church, including the young people's societies, has been greatly heightened in their spiritual and social aspirations. Conversions, 15; Accessions, 12. They have raised: Ministerial Support, $713.00; World Service, $20.00; Conference Collections, $17.00. Indebtedness, $101.00.

ODESSA, ST. GEORGES and PORT PENN—O'Connel Milbourne faithfully served this charge three years and eight months. Then he was appointed to Elkton, Maryland. The charge was divided temporarily between Delaware City and Middletown charges. Pastors S. G. Fullman and J. H. Russum have worked arduously and report as follows: Ministerial Support, $769.00; World Service and other Conference Collections taken. Conversions, 23; Accessions, 23.

NEW CASTLE—W. A. Mulley, pastor, is again reporting a successful year. He has conscientiously labored to develop the people of this charge spiritually, socially and financially. Much more could be achieved if they were more largely appreciative of the church's progressive program. A few of the leaders are reactionary—standpatters.

They have raised: For Ministerial Support, $1027.00; World Service, $60.00, an increase; Conference Collections, $22.00; Old Indebtedness, $60.00. Accessions, 4.

WILMINGTON GROUP, E. O. Parker, Chairman.

WILMINGTON, EZION—This church has again proved an exception. She refused to be deterred from reaching the goal. She reports all her apportionments raised in full: Ministerial Support, $2353.00; World Service, $1060.00; Conference Benevolences, $728.00; Old Indebtedness and Repairs, $285.00; Conversions, 34; Accessions, 30. A large community Daily Vacation Bible School with an enrollment of 285 and an average attendance of 197 was conducted during the months of June and July.

The public school teachers served gratis in this work. The young people's organizations are intact. E. O. Parker is the pastor of this successful charge.

WILMINGTON, HAVEN—J. R. Waters, pastor, has zealously labored to sustain last year's good record. With the co-operation of the faithful members, he has been enabled to report: Ministerial Support, $908.00; World Service, $33.00, an increase; Conference Collections, $34.00; Indebtedness and Repairs, $114.00. Conversions, 1; Accessions, 1.

WILMINGTON, MT. CARMEL—C. W. Pullett was reappointed pastor, but June 1 he was appointed to Chester, Siloam, and W. W. Hoy succeeded him. The activities have been varied and enthusiastic, including a large weekly Bible Class. They report: Ministerial Support, $444.00; World Service and Conference Collections, $20.00. Conversions, 21; Accessions, 10.

WILMINGTON, MT. JOY—R. B. Thompson, pastor, has earnestly endeavored and succeeded in having his faithful members to surpass last year's record. A new heating plant has been installed at a cost of $290.00 and paid for. They have raised: Ministerial Support, $1568.00; World Service, $90.00; Conference Collections, $93.00; Paid on Old Indebtedness, $160.00. Conversions, 16; Accessions, 14. The pastor and a goodly number of his young people affiliated with the community Daily Vacation Bible School.

WILMINGTON, ST. PETER'S—This church has retained her spirit of loyalty and self-sacrifice. But her activities have been greatly modified by the deaths of two of their most active women. J. L. Davis, pastor, has been reasonably diligent, and reports: Ministerial Support, $341.00; World Service, $18.00, an increase; Conference Collections taken; Old Indebtedness, $305.00. Conversions, 1; Accessions, 1.

NEWPORT has been greatly heartened by the special favor of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, who saved them from a very embarrassing mortgage foreclosure on their church by granting them a revolving loan of $2800.00, on September 19th. They have met the conditions of the loan up to April 1. They report raised: Ministerial Support, $780.00; World Service, $25.00; Conference Collections, $15.00; On Indebtedness, $457.00. Conversions, 2; Accessions, 3. J. E. Dunn, pastor, has been zealously steadfast in leading his people through this financial crisis. The District Conference is scheduled to be held here.

ELKTON—W. G. Matthews acceptably served this charge six years and nine months; then he was appointed pastor of the Franklin Street Church, Cape May, New Jersey. His successor, O'Connell Milbourne, reports as follows: Ministerial Support, $846.00; World Service, $8.00; Other Collections taken; Repairs and Indebtedness, $140.00. Conversions, 7; Accessions, 7. This is a fertile field for cultivation. The faithful members are loyal and self-sacrificing.

CONCLUSION.

Concluding this my sixth and last report of the Wilmington District, the many courtesies, fine hospitality and sweet fellowships loom up in my memory.

Again let me express my abiding gratitude to the faithful pastors, their hospitable wives, and their self-sacrificing members, for their heroic endeavors and liberal, self-sacrificial givings. The co-operation has been very fine, the fellowship has been uniquely cordial and exquisitely sweet.

The six years have passed swiftly. Though they have been very, very strenuous, the pleasant contacts with pastors, their families, and the people have been very wholesome and edifying. Nothing less than their best have they put at my disposal. This, in turn, has demanded my best, which I have found it a great joy to give. May God enable us to keep aglow these many pleasant memories for our soul's perpetual refreshment.

"We all partake the joy of one;
The common peace we feel;
A peace to worldly minds unknown,
A joy unspeakable.

"And if our fellowship below
In Jesus be so sweet,
What heights of rapture shall we know
When round His throne we meet!"

Faithfully submitted,

DAVID H. HARGIS,
District Superintendent.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Christian Church is the Divinely established institution and agency for the promulgation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Salvation of mankind. It is very evident the Methodist Episcopal Church seeks this compound end thru its stand for equal rights and complete justice for all men in all stations of life; for the protection of the family by the single standard of purity, for uniform divorce laws; for proper regulation of marriage; and for the protection of the individual and of society from the social, economic, and moral waste of the destructive liquor traffic.

The word of God the "sword of the Spirit," read, expounded, or preached in its simplicity and purity, is the Church's principal means to the salvation of the unsaved and the guide, the comfort, the wisdom, and the stay of the children of God. The Church must depend upon the "good ministers of Jesus Christ," to deliver the message of salvation to a faithless, dying world. For "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?"

With an unshaken faith in God; with constant, fervent prayer; with a bright hope reaching far beyond; with a flaming zeal for the cause of Salvation of body, mind and soul the Church of the living God goes forward and upward.

Joyfully and faithfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE SABBATH COMMITTEE.

We your committee on Sanctity of the Sabbath, deeply deplore the manifest trend in the conference and throughout the nation toward such liberalizing of the sabbath laws as must eventually rob the Sabbath of its spiritual and moral influence and the people of their supremest opportunity for the fellowshipping of the Christian ideals that have made this nation what it is. Even in the rural sections of our conference, characteristically conservative and proverbially orthodox, this wanton and subtle desecration of our social heritage increases to the tragic extinction, in many cases, of the entire program of religious education in our church schools, sanctioned and abetted too often by the leaders of our churches.

If, as Jesus taught and subsequent history has confirmed, the safety of the community emanates from the House of God, we must regard any social or individual action that tends to compromise its influence and place it at a disadvantage in its ministry and message, as a flagrant insult to the community. If religion is to do for society what is expected of it; that is, give to it foundation and stability, then the Church has a claim, under our social and economic system, to, at least, one day of the week for the untrammelled prosecution of its distinctive service, a service fundamental to that of the state or the school or the world of business.

Your committee warns, however, against any repetition of the tactical error of the ancient Jew regarding his Sabbath constituting it a mere legal fetish empty of all moral and spiritual meaning and service; an error of practice that evoked one of the Master's most scathing denunciations of their perfunctory devotions. He made it clear to them and to us that the Sabbath exists for man and not man for the Sabbath; that its sanctity is the sanctity of sanctified service and not the formal allegiance to the letter of a law even though that law emanated from blazing Sinai.

The story is told that as Mrs. Booth, the mother of the Salvation Army, lay dying, she quietly said, "The waters are rising but I am not sinking." While admitting the rising tide of worldiness of which fact, the modern tendency to transform the Holy Day into a holiday, is one of its most tragic expressions, let us as a church not sink but rising upon the buoyancy of personal example, let us, as officials and members, in the communities where we chance to be, resist this rising evil by refusing it our personal patronage and support and in every way, by precept and example, by the promotion of "Go to Church Sundays" and kindred movements, recapture the Lord's Day from the hands of the world and restore it to its position of spiritual and moral power in the community and in the nation.

Upon his return to France from a tour and study of American institutions, De Toqueville is quoted as having made the following address to the House of Deputies: "At your suggestion, I visited America with one object in mind, to ascertain the source of its moral strength as compared with the moral weakness of France. With this in mind, I visited her institutions of learning and studied her system of public instruction. I entered her legislative halls and walked along her thoroughfares of trade. But it was not until I visited her churches on Sunday and listened to the Gospel as it fell upon the hearts of the waiting multitudes that I discovered why America is free and why France is a slave."

May we not prove false to so illustrious an inheritance.

REPORT OF SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE.

Your Social Service Committee brings this report to you at a time in present day history when the great social institutions are face to face with grave problems.

It is aware of the fact that our material progress has outrun our spiritual; that in the minds of many, money is put before manhood and gain before God; rivalry in place of cooperation; privilege above duty, selfishness in place of service, unbelief is widespread; indeed, there is an organized attempt to blast the foundation of our Christian Faith. In view of this state of affairs, it is our candid opinion if we follow in the wake of Jesus Christ, endeavoring to put His principles in operation in the differing areas of life the heaven of divine truth will so work through our social fabric until our corporate life becomes changed.

We regret very much that nineteen centuries after the Angelic Choir sang peace on earth over the Bethlehem plain, some of the Nations of the world are building mighty armaments, saying, "the way to peace is to be prepared for war," thus blowing to the winds that meaningful utterance of the Christ, "they that take the sword, shall perish by the sword." We call upon our Churches to do their utmost to mould the attitudes of our People favorable to peace. We urge our nation to take the lead in a new adventure of peace.

We deplore mob violence and are of the opinion that lynching is in the category of murder and no nation or section of a nation can remain in a healthy state while such obtains.

We commend the efforts of organizations who are working to do away with this menace of Civilization. We call upon our people to support anti-lynching laws by writing letters to state and national legislators urging them to espouse laws that will protect individuals in jeopardy from mobs.

We endorse the action of our Conference in sending telegrams to the President and Vice-President of the United States asking them to support the Costigan Wagner Bill (Anti-Lynching) now before the Senate.

A Harvard theologian said recently "that if all other national and economic problems should be solved, the race question would remain a stick of dynamite that can blow the world to pieces."

We urge our Churches to utilize every opportunity that will bring about a better understanding of the race situation.

We sanction the efforts of the Government looking toward Social security such as old age pensions, unemployment insurance and other agencies that will make life comfortable for those who cannot help themselves because of disability.

We call your attention to the fact that the movie theatre is a powerful factor in the life of an individual.

We recommend that our Churches warn our young people of their attendance at such places that portray the criminal and immoral side of life.

In conclusion we believe that the one positive factor needed is Jesus Christ. He alone can supply the upbuilding, redemptive, vitalizing force that will save human society. But He cannot function except through His followers. He cannot conquer in the world if defeated in the lives of individual disciples, not on the fields of battle either. Europe, Asia or America, but on the battle ground of men's hearts is raging the ultimate warfare of the hour. If the hands of Christ are tied today so that He cannot transform the life of mankind, it is only because He cannot find force instruments whereby He can do His work.

It is not the Profession but the fact of religion that is lacking.

Let the religious life of those who name His name become a living and growing reality and the problems that are vexing us now will yield to solution as simply as a problem in addition.

"Be strong; We are not here to play to dream to drift
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift,
Shun not the struggle face it, 'tis God's gift,
Be strong, be strong."

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
TO THE DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, APRIL 24, 1935.

Dear Brethren:

We have had as you know a delayed spring. Until within a few days one would not have thought that new forces were stirring in the earth at all. But that thought would have been erroneous. They were there and they have broken forth. This is likewise a cold world, cold in its radical attitudes, in its international relations and in its business life. There is despair and skepticism with respect to these. But the forces of redemption are there. They will break forth to cover the earth with beauty, to give a new world generous in its distribution of the necessities of life, holy in its loving evidences of brotherhood, a new world of peace and of justice, safe for children, tender toward youth and considerate of age. This the promise of God. "Behold I make all things new". This is also the prophecy of great spirits.

I know a soul that is steeped in sin,
That no man's art can cure;
But I know a Name, a Name, a Name,
That can make that soul all pure.

I know a life that is lost to God,
Bound down by things of earth;
But I know a Name, a Name, a Name,
That can bring that soul new birth.

I know of lands that are sunk in shame,
Of hearts that faint and die;
But I know a Name, a Name, a Name,
That can set those lands on fire.
Its sound is a brand, its letters flame,
I know a Name, a Name, a Name,
That will set those lands on fire.

It is upon that basis of such faith, this trust in God, this belief in the power of redemption that we do our work, the work of Religious Education. We ourselves may not live to behold the full redemption but while we live we may contribute to its fullness. The more we are surrendered to God's purposes, the more fully Christ lives in us, the more imminent becomes that day.

My attendance at District meetings during the Conference year has been very helpful. I have been present at eight including all the districts. What a spirit of fellowship characterizes these gatherings! What an atmosphere of joy and good cheer! Many pastors have been helped in these contacts to plan more adequately for Leadership Training, to discover resources in materials for both the Church School and Young People's groups and to assemble programs of greater educational worth for the Church Vacation School. Our Vacation Church Schools last summer were numerous and on the whole well administered. Reports have been sent to me from Berlin, Peniel, John Wesley, and Zoar. Many Schools which did not report were conducted.

I have visited 17 Churches upon Sabbath days, namely, at Bridgeton, N. J., Lawnside, Delair, Montclair, Jamaica, New York; Elkton, Maryland; Easton, Worton, Church Hill, North Berlin, South Berlin, Princess Anne, John Wesley; Salisbury, St. Daniels, Chester; Janes Memorial, Germantown; Haven, Philadelphia.

My purpose in these visits has been to awaken congregations to the significance of intelligent and faithful instruction of children and young people with respect to the principles of the Christian life and an interpretation of all the aspects of life in terms of the values of Jesus Christ. In several instances there have been commitments upon the part of children and young people to the way of Christ for which I have been very glad. I have never refused an invitation to preach on the Sabbath when the date has been available.

Our Leadership Training work has been very encouraging throughout the year. Three splendid Training Schools were held, one at Tindley Temple, enrolling 107; one at Bridgeton with a similar enrollment; and a third at Wilmington which was attended by over 100 students. One hundred and ninety (190) Leadership Training credits were awarded in these Schools. In addition one day Institutes were held at Merchantville, New Jersey, and at Atlantic City. Guidance also was given to seven Leadership Classes on the Dover District and to about as many others in other sections of the Conference. I would recommend that a brief Institute be held sometime in the near future for all prospective instructors in the Leadership Training Course for the purpose of fixing upon a uniform method of conducting such classes and also to become better acquainted with the curriculum to be used and the procedure of teaching which would be effective.

One of the most interesting and resultful events of the year was in connection with the National Council of Methodist Youth at Chicago. I urged the districts to select a delegate and if possible to secure funds necessary for a delegate's expenses which were approximately $50.00. To my delight and that of Dr. English of our Board of Education, all five districts responded to this suggestion. The choice of each district was eminently wise and satisfactory. No Conference delegation sent to Chicago was superior in any way to the delegation of the Delaware Conference. Very proudly I accompanied them to Chicago, my pride being both in them and in you. How well they have accounted for themselves you know. Upon their return they gave at various district gatherings most inspiring and adequate reports. They were greatly helped themselves by this experience and advanced in powers of leadership.

At Morgan College I was present last August for one week, assisting Dr. Hargis and others in the annual Epworth League Institute. I had two classes, one in "The Teaching Work of the Church" and the other in "Missions" with the special emphasis upon our work in Japan. The Institute was most successful. In grade of work, quality of instruction and wholesome spirituality, I know of none that I have attended that has been superior. The fellowship of the week to me was delightful. In addition, I have a higher regard than ever for Morgan College.

During the year I have assisted at League Rallies and at one District Epworth League Mid-Winter Institute. I had a direct part in the splendid meeting of the youth of the Salisbury District, February 16 and 17, at John Wesley Church, Salisbury. Dr. Dickerson desired this meeting and asked for my cooperation. It was gladly given. The day brought together two hundred young people from the Churches of the District. A program replete with fine discussions, uplifting worship services and strong addresses left a permanent impression for good. More meetings of this type would be of great help. I recommend that each District plan for such a gathering of youth during the Conference year.

Our finances have much improved. The total amount received during the last Conference year from the Rally Day fund was $190. This year without such sums as may be brought to Conference, we have received approximately $400. If we add the two hundred dollars raised by the Churches for the expenses of our delegates to Chicago, we have contributed $600 for Religious Education this year. This is a basis for the belief that we can do even better than this if we will for this great cause.

Our Conference Board of Education has been very faithful in its task. Two meetings have been held, one in August at Princess Anne, and the second on January 30th at Wilmington. It is the plan of the Board to meet at least twice a year. The next meeting will be held on May 22nd at Dover. The winter meeting, probably, in January will be held in Wilmington.

I said at the beginning that spring had been delayed. The Kingdom too seems to have been postponed. But the life of God is astir on every side. A happy event during the year was the appointment by the Salisbury District young people of a Committee to confer with any similar committee of the Wilmington Conference with respect to expressions of fraternity and opportunities of cooperation. The Wilmington Conference went beyond our measure, authorizing the appointment of committees upon all four districts for the purpose of inter-Methodist cooperation.

Reciprocal Delegates.

The cause of peace has received encouragement. Our young people in their various meetings have been active in the support of petitions to the President, requesting a change in the plans for the naval maneuvers this spring in the Pacific. Important changes have been made with respect to these plans as a direct result of the organized peace sentiment of the nation. This should encourage us to act in concert with respect to other causes close to our hearts as, for example, that of temperance. We need not only a world free from war but one also that is free from alcohol.

I trust dear brethren my services have not been without some merit and some assistance. My will to do it has been far beyond both the time and strength available for service. Life seems to be characterized by approximations. Browning once said that, "a man's reach should exceed his grasp or what is heaven for". I am sure that my reach has exceeded my grasp. I have been profoundly grateful for your cordiality, your kindness, your courtesy and for the privilege of working among your Churches.

I thank you for your confidence. I have met the laity, your promising children and your exceptional young people. I wish to thank Bishop Richardson for the opportunity I have had. May God richly bless all the work of the Delaware Conference. May you never give way to discouragement nor submit to any defeat.

“Why should we do ourselves this wrong
And others that we are not always strong.
That we are overborne with care,
That we should ever weak or heartless be
Anxious or troubled?
When with us is prayer and joy
And strength and courage are with thee.”

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD H. BREWSTER,

Conference Director.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The rum evil increases, and the liquor traffic continues to be one of our most grave social and moral problems. Prohibition is gone. We are willing to admit, of course, that we never enjoyed fully the benefits of prohibition, because prohibition, administered by unsympathetic hands, guided by crafty and unscrupulous politicians, and officers of the law who sold their souls for a mess of pottage, hardly had a fair chance.

And yet, conditions under repeal are infinitely worse than under prohibition at its weakest. The first year of repeal has evidenced more drunkenness, increased drinking by women and youth, more automobile accidents and more highway fatalities.

Deluded by the misconception that the legalized liquor traffic would bring prosperity back from “around the corner”, and restore so-called “personal liberty” in a fashion characteristic of the restlessness and instability of the age, the American people repealed at the polls the 18th Amendment to the Federal Constitution in the year 1933.

But within twelve months sentiment had decidedly changed, and already some of the former opponents of the dry cause had become weary of the evils of repeal. The State of Alabama, which gave a 30,000 majority for repeal in 1933, on February 26th of this year, took a referendum vote with the following results:

For modification of existing dry statutes, 89,354; against, 94,998.

For legalization of beer and wine, 89,328; against, 93,872.

For legalization of hard liquor, 87,903; against, 95,035.

We believe that repeal, if the forces of righteousness do not rise in their might and lead us back into the outlawry of legalized liquor traffic, will bring upon us conditions worse than the saloon did in the days before prohibition.

A state senator of New Jersey declared recently that in his county, in the days of the old saloon there was only one such licensed place for the sale of liquor, while in that same county to-day there are two thousand such places.

Clergymen in this senator's home city complain that young people stay away from their churches Sunday night, or leave them after services and go to inns, taverns and beer gardens and waste their substance in riotous living.

We believe, that the only possible solution to the liquor traffic is to destroy the liquor business. Some once recently observed that grain produces more money for the farmer in butter than in booze, and that the prince of all delusions is that a nation can drink itself back into prosperity.

A heathen king of China once said, "God forbid that I should derive revenue from the vices of my people"—a wise word which might be passed down to the legislators of our own government, including our otherwise sagacious and capable chief executive, Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

We, as ministers and laymen of the Delaware Conference, representing a membership of 35,000 people, feel duty bound to issue a most solemn appeal to our constituency. May it be remembered always that our Methodist fathers pioneered in the movement for a saloonless nation. In the face of discouragements, opposition, persecution and idol-worship down through the years they showed our nation a more excellent way of life.

Though their heads were oftentimes bloody, yet they were ever unbowed. The source of their power is ours if we will seek diligently for it. And we call upon all our people to be so filled with the faith of the Lord Jesus that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Let us re-enforce our battle-line and begin anew a more practical and vigorous campaign to destroy that which has broken up more homes and wrecked more lives than any thing else in our national existence.

Recommendations.

First, we pledge ourselves, first as Christians and secondly as Methodists, to practice absolute abstinence. To be temperate is not enough. We will wholly abstain from the use of alcohol in any form.

Second, we will give unreservedly of our time and talents to the process of education, that the children in our homes and in the homes of our neighbors shall be taught early to shun the evils of the usage of alcoholic beverages. We must, with all our energy convert not only the drunkard at our altars, but moderate drinker as well. Experience has proved that the moderate drinker is as much a menace to our social order as the maudlin inebriate.

Third, we dedicate ourselves to the task, gigantic though it be, of the complete ultimate extinction of the legalized liquor traffic, and to this end we pledge loyal support to those agencies working toward this end, viz., The Anti-Saloon League, of which our honored resident and presiding bishop is the distinguished head; the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, with which the name of that flaming personality, Clarence True Wilson, will ever be held in high respect, and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

We should not stop, however, with our war on drunkenness, but should call attention also to the growing evils of the tobacco habit, as evidenced by the promiscuous smoking of our boys and girls, and the increasing menace of gambling in all forms, particularly that of number writing and playing. As a church we will fight against all of these, that the kingdoms of this world may become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of His Christ.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION RECOMMENDATIONS.

Recognizing the need and opportunity for religious, moral and intellectual development within the Delaware Conference, your Board of Education has appraised work done under the leadership of Dr. E. H. Brewster, and the achievements of our educational institutions. The recommendations which we now bring to you are the outcome of careful consideration by the Board.

1. Morgan College.

The last two years at Morgan College have been in many respects trying and perplexing, and yet, they have been years of success. Under the leadership of Dr. J. O. Spencer, the curricula have been thoroughly studied and brought up to date both as to content and method. These changes and improvements are described in the interesting monthly publication "The Morgan College Bulletin". This broadening of the College activities has not only appealed to students but has attracted the interest of a large number of Baltimore people.

The Discipline provides, page 397:—

"As a means of educating the church on the needs of Negro schools, the Sunday nearest the birthday of Abraham Lincoln shall be observed as Lincoln Sunday, at which time the interests of Negro education shall be presented. The Board shall receive as "non-distributable" income all moneys derived from the observance of this day for its sole use in the advancement of Negro education."

Lincoln day offers us an opportunity to show how much we appreciate our College. We strongly recommend that on this day the needs, achievements, opportunity of Morgan College be stressed, and Special attention be given to the raising of funds for the school. In view of the fact that World Service credit is given every church should have a part in maintaining this institution.

2. Our Budget for 1935-1936.

The funds given by the Delaware Conference for maintaining the Conference program have come entirely from Rally Day offerings. Since we ask no conference assessments to churches, or no direct assessment whatever for this work, we recommend each charge to send to Chicago an offering, marked "Rally Day". The entire sum will be returned for expenses in the Delaware Conference.

Last year our Conference raised $195.25 for this work. The response has been greater this year and we are happy to report $400 raised in Rally Day offerings. This increase has enabled the Director to visit many more churches, conduct several Youth Conferences, broaden our activities, and made it possible for the Board to pay its proper share for postage, stationery, etc.

Our Director reports that in one-half of the Churches on the Salisbury District, namely, 18, there are no Sunday Schools. It is our purpose to have a person spend several weeks in this territory working up schools. Also we are considering summer camps for children and young people. Because of the enlarged program for the year 1935-1936, we recommend that the Rally Day offerings be not less than $1000.00. We feel since World Service credit is given for this offering several of our larger churches can increase their gifts and with a little effort on the part of the pastors in the other churches this sum can be realized.

3. The Conference Director.

On December 27, 1934, the President of the Board received a communication from Dr. George W. Henson, stating that the Policy and Program Committee of the Philadelphia Conference Board of Education had considered the question of Dr. Brewster continuing the present arrangements for his work, and agreed that it was satisfactory and desired to know if it was satisfactory to us. The reply was, "Dr. Brewster has been a big help to us and we hope he shall be with us a long time."

We say the same thing now. We especially like his policy of seeking out and developing the young leadership in our churches. This means much for the churches and our race. His contact with the preachers has resulted in clarity of vision and a keener sense of our responsibility to youth. His personality, friendship, and experience of Christ in his heart enables him to do more for our group than direct the technical phases of religious education.

4. The Maryland Federation of Organizations.

A careful and sympathetic study of education beyond the high school stage of Negroes in the State of Maryland is greatly needed. The length of the school term for white and colored children in the State is not equal, the pay for equal service for white and colored teachers is not equal, the distribution of funds expended for the transportation of white and colored children is not equal.

Beyond preparation of teachers, no professional training is offered Negroes in Maryland. But when the tax bill is up for consideration white and colored are equal. It has been estimated that either owners or renters the Negroes in Baltimore city alone pay taxes on not less than 75 million dollars of property.

We recommend that our membership and pastors in the state of Maryland be alert to the public good and seek an equitable treatment along educational lines of the Negro in the state of Maryland. We urge our people to join forces with the "Federation of Maryland Organizations" whose purpose is to work for fair treatment along educational lines in the state of Maryland.

HOME FOR THE AGED AND INFIRM.

We, your committee on the Home for the Aged and Infirm, located at Lawnside, New Jersey, after careful investigation and inquiry concerning said home, have reached the following conclusions:

In view of the present condition of the home, in that it needs considerable repairs before it is adequate for occupancy, the home having no inmates at present;—

We, your committee, feel that if the following conditions were approved and met by the conference, it would greatly enhance the value of the property and also make the home more attractive to those who are eligible to become inmates.

We recommend, first, that the superintendents of each district be requested to urge each charge to raise its full apportionment for the home. We recommend, second, that the necessary repairs be made such as repairing outside of building, shingling house where leaks occur, plastering and papering.

If there be any funds in hand raised for the home, the committee feels that the conference would do a very wise thing to authorize the trustees to make necessary repairs as early as possible.

In consideration of the service rendered by the matron, Mrs. Lulu Wilson, in seeing after the property, we recommend, finally, that out of the moneys reported at this conference, for the home, Mrs. Wilson be compensated for service rendered.

REPORT OF THE MANAGER OF THE WASHINGTON AND DELAWARE CONFERENCE INSTITUTE HELD AT MORGAN COLLEGE—
 AUGUST 13-20, 1934.

For the fourteenth time I submit the report of the Institute for the training of youth in the principles of Religious Education, and problems affecting youth held at Morgan College. It has taken sheer grit and perseverance to carry on these days, but we have had the daring and the courage. And had we not been carrying a deficit of $588.12 accumulated through several years we would have closed last summer's Institute with thirty nine dollars ($39.00) balance. As it is by a very generous donation upon the part of the Manager of $75.00 we have paid all of the expenses of the 1934 Institute and reduced the accumulated deficit of $588.12 to $474.12.

The following is a detailed report:

Recommendations.

1. That we hold the Institute August 12-19, 1935 at Morgan College.
 2. That each Conference accept an assessment of $450.00; and that the District Superintendents be authorized to apportion the same to the charges.

3. That we encourage the registration of our League and Young People's Departments with the Central Office as twenty-four hour day units.

4. That each charge make an honest effort and send at least one delegate to the Institute. The larger charges send one for every hundred members of the charge.

5. That the pastors plan to spend this week at the Institute with the youth and share their problems.

6. That every charge report to the District Superintendent of the district the amount apportioned to the charge by August 1, 1935.

There were held last Summer throughout the Country, one hundred and sixty-five Institutes attended by over forty thousand young people. Fifteen years ago when we began this enterprise our Institute was number 37.

We have kept pace with the growth and development of the Institute for the Youth of the Church and to-day the Washington and Delaware Conferences Institute is regarded as one of the outstanding standard Institutes among those held throughout the church. Some officer of the Institute has been represented in the Council where the program is shaped during these fifteen years.

Last summer the delegates to the Institute organized what is perhaps the first religious Educational Fraternity, with the sole object to promote Religious Education.

The organization is called The W. W. F. R. E. A National Charter has been prepared. The Dean of the Institute is the Grand Chaplain and the Manager is the Grand Counsellor and Advocate.

Whatever the achievements are they are due to the earnest cooperation of the District Superintendents and Pastors and the faithful young people of the Conferences.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT J. MITCHELL.

JOHN WESLEY BOND

The late Rev. John Wesley Bond, the subject of this sketch, was born to the late Edward and Mintie Bond, November 8, 1858, at Darlington, Harford County, Maryland, and departed this life at 2.45 p. m., Saturday, May 12, 1934: aged 75 years, 6 months, 4 days.

He attended the public school in his native City. When but a youth he went to reside in Philadelphia, Pa. Here he took special studies at Night School to prepare to enter the Centenary Biblical Institute, now known as Morgan College, Baltimore, Md. He graduated with honor from this institution. He afterwards studied at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa. Having developed the student attitude of mind he was an omnivorous reader of the latest books and current literature. He was also a frequent attendant of various religious and educational assemblies.

Deeply convicted and graciously saved, Jan. 15, 1875, Bother Bond was called to preach. He joined the Delaware Conference, 1887, Janes M. E. Church, Chestertown, Md., the late Bishop John F. Hurst, LL. D., presiding.

Thus well-informed and possessing a keen initiative and a rich emotional nature, he was deservedly recognized as a leader by the brethren of his conference, and of the Church. For many years he was chairman of the Board of Examiners (now the Board of Ministerial Training). He was serving as a Conference Trustee when he was translated.

He acceptably served 47 years as pastor of the following charges: Royal Oak, Md., Galena, Md., St. Michaels, Md., Easton, Md., Pomona, Md., Fairmount, Centennial, Md., Pocomoke City, Md., Wilmington, Del., Mt. Joy, Chester, Pa., Siloam.

While all his pastorates were spiritually successful, the most prominent material contributions were made at St. Michaels—the present church edifice stands as his monument; Fairmount, Centennial—here he remodeled the church and purchased the parsonage; and Chester, Siloam—where the church was beautifully renovated, and a new site on Walnut St., near 17th was purchased for erecting a new parsonage. His material accomplishments are evident here. His spiritual achievements are conspicuous up Yonder. In Heaven many will rise up to call him blessed. For he was a winsome and sympathetic shepherd of his flocks, and a strong evangelistic preacher.

In 1880, May 29th, Rev. Bond was united in holy matrimony to Miss Mary Eliza Webster, of Belair, Md., by the Rev. Mr. Coulbourne, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Belair. She has accompanied him through his ministry, and has been a very valuable asset. Her devoted care and loving faithfulness during his illness may be equalled but cannot be excelled.

To this union were born ten children. Four of whom survive: Oliver H., John W., Jr., James Parker and Charles Otis. Other relatives are a brother, David Bond; a sister, Mrs. Christina E. Boston; two affectionate daughter-in-laws, Mrs. Oliver H. and Mrs. Charles Otis Bond; 4 grandchildren; many nephews, and nieces, prominent among whom is Mrs. Edith Bond Collins, and a host of friends.

Thus in the demise of the Rev. John Wesley Bond, the loving wife has lost a considerate, provident husband. The children have been bereft of a jolly, affable father. The brother and sister have been deprived of a sincere counselor. The community will miss him for his brotherly and fatherly spirit, and the Church for his persistent fidelity and his strong abiding faith in God.

The funeral was conducted 1:00 p. m., Thursday, May 17, at St. Daniels M. E. Church, Chester, by the writer. The eulogy was delivered by Rev. L. S. Moore. Many other noted speakers paid notable tributes. The attendance was very large. Interment was made at the Greenlawn Cemetery, Chester, Pa.

A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound,
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.
Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
"How blest the righteous when he dies!"

DAVID H. HARGIS.

PRINCE EDDIE EDWARDS

The Reverend Prince Eddie Edwards, the son of Thomas and Julia Edwards was born September 6, 1887, at Eliots, South Carolina, and departed this life July 22, 1934, age, 46 years 10 months, sixteen days.

He attended public school in Sumpter, S. C., and high school at Claflin University, Orangeburg, S. C. He was converted at a very early age, and began preaching when he was seventeen. Feeling the need of further training for his lifes work he entered Gammon Seminary in 1909, and finished in 1912. For a year he was employed by the American Bible Society.

In 1913 he was joined in Holy matrimony to Miss Clatie Theodocia Datcher, of Honea Path, S. C., and to this union two sons were born. John Wesley and Wilbur Patterson Thirkeld.

In 1914 he joined the Central Alabama conference and served the following charges: Eutaw Circuit, Newbern, Dadeville, Atalla and Corona. In 1923 he was transferred to the Delaware Annual Conference and served the following charges: Trenton, East New Market Circuit, Melitota, Sassafras, Stockton Circuit, Golden Hill, and was serving Beckwith when the end came.

Because of failing health he was advised by his physician to go to a higher altitude for a while. He left his home on July 11, to spend some time with a friend at Worton, Md., and seemed to be improving. On Sunday night, July 22, he attended Church service and having been asked by the pastor to speak, attempted to make remarks, which were very brief, at the conclusion of which he was stricken and never spoke again.

He had a quest for knowledge and always tried as far as it was possible under the circumstances to secure the latest and best books and magazines pertaining to his field. He was a devoted husband, loving father, a forceful preacher, a very painstaking pastor and a brother beloved. A man who was always willing to make almost superhuman sacrifices for Gods cause. Funeral services were conducted by his District Superintendent, Dr. W. J. Helm, at Zoar M. E. Church, Beckwith, Md., on Thursday, July 26, at 2:00 p. m.

Eulogies were delivered by Drs. D. H. Hargis, of the Wilmington District, J. M. Dickerson, of the Salisbury District, T. H. Kiah, of Princess Anne Academy, W. A. T. Miles, of Laurel, Delaware, and Rev. R. W. Cheers, of Cambridge, Md. Several fine resolutions of sympathy were read. Interment in Cemetery at Zoar M. E. Church, Beckwith.

"Servant of God well done
Thy glorious warfare past,
The Battle is fought, the victory is won
And thou art crowned at last."

JOHN R. HOLLAND.

John Rich Holland, son of the late Rev. John H. and Sarah E. Holland, was born in Federalsburg, Md., and passed to his eternal rest from Charles Wesley M. E. Parsonage on Monday, Jan. 21, 1935 at 6:30 P. M., in his 67th year.

He was married to Mary E Powell, of Montgomery County, Md., in 1891, at Washington, D. C. To this union were born five children, three of whom survive him; one son, Merrill, an Attorney-at-Law in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; two daughters, Esther Quinn Porter and Helen V. Holland. Other relatives are one sister, Rachel, six grand-children, and a host of nephews, nieces and friends who mourn their loss. After attending the public schools of Caroline County, Md. he prepared for the Ministry thru correspondence courses and entered the Delaware M. E. Conference in 1896; serving acceptably until his death. During his thirty-nine years of service, he pastored only ten churches, at one of which he remained for eleven years. Several beautiful churches and parsonages stand as a monument to his memory. He was a lover of the beautiful, a good provider and devoted to his family. For the past 20 years he had been bothered with bronchial asthma. This growing malady, which sapped his vitality and prevented him from doing full justice to his work for the past eight years, finally took him into the Great Beyond. However, during this long career, he was absent from the pulpit only the last two Sundays of his life. Before passing into a coma, on his last day, he called his wife to his bedside and asked that she pray with him. He had remarked on Saturday that he was preparing for this time for fifty years. He further asserted "If I had not I could not now."

His passing was peaceful and victorious.

He is not dead, the one of our affection,
But gone unto that land of eternal life.
Where he no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ Himself doth rule.

Funeral services were held at Charles Wesley M. E. Church, Centreville, Md., Jan. 24th, 1935, and conducted by Rev. D. H. Hargis, Rev. R. H. Harmon, Rev. R. E. Hamilton, and Rev. C. W. Thawley. A member of the Wilmington Conference and pastor of the M. E. Church of Centreville, Md., delivered the main eulogy.

He was laid to rest beside his mother in Federalsburg, Md.

Servant of God well done
Thy glorious warfare passed,
The battles fought, the victory won
And thou art foughtnc
And thou art crowned at last.

From the bereaved family.

W. R. A. PALMER.

William Robert Anderson Palmer, born Charleston, S. C., June 30, 1864.

Died, Camden, N. J., Dec. 15, 1934.

Age, 70 years, 5 months, 15 days.

His parents were Edward Samuel and Martha Glencamp Palmer.

He leaves to mourn their loss, a devoted wife, Mrs. Edna P. Palmer, three daughters, four sons, two sisters, seven grand-children, other relatives and many friends.

He attended the public schools and Avery Institute of Charleston, graduated from Howard University, Washington, D. C. in 1886; took the regular course in Drew Theological Seminary, graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1889.

In 1892 Allen University, Columbia, S. C., conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. In 1926, Howard University, his Alma Mater, did him the same honor.

Responding to the divine call, he entered the ministry at an early age; was ordained deacon in 1886, elder in 1890; was connected at different times with the Washington, Newark, South Carolina, Alabama, Delaware and Genesee conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He had an unusually wide range in the location and character of his appointments from Centenary Church, Charleston, the scene of his earliest memories, to Lincoln Memorial, Buffalo, N. Y.

He served St. Johns, Newark, 2 years; Alexandria, Va., 1 year; Charlestown, W. Va., 1 year; Claflin University, S. C., 2 years; Beaufort, 1 year; Denmark, 1 year; Reevesville, 1 year; Sumter, 2 years; Centenary, 4 years; Mason City, Ala., 3 years; St. Johns, Orange, N. J., 1 year; St. Johns, Newark, (second term) 2 years; Frankford, Pa., 2 years; Mt. Holly, N. J., 2 years; Siloam, Chester, Pa., 1 year; Pocomoke City, Md., 7 years; Buffalo, N. Y., 4 years; Bridgeton, N. J., 2 years; Easton, Md., 3 years; Delair, N. J., 1 year.

In addition to his ministerial duties he was always active in some form of educational work. For several years he was professor of Greek and Literature at Claflin College; taught at the State College, Orangeburgh; was the first president of Central Alabama College. For the last five or six years he was special lecturer at the Delaware-Washington Conference Ministerial Training School; taught Bible study and Home Missions at the Mid-Summer Epworth League and Church School at Morgan College, and conducted the Morning Watch.

In 1891 he united in wedlock with Mrs. Adilina Geers Decumbus who was his faithful companion and helpmate for twenty-four years and the mother of all his children. After her death he married again in 1917 to Mrs. Sylvia Matthews, of whom he was also bereaved after a few happy years. His third marital venture was with Miss Edna P. Morrison, in 1930, who survives him, after four years of ideal companionship.

At the time of his departure he was serving his first year as pastor at Delair, N. J. His illness was brief. The end came with shocking celerity. Just a few days of suffering without realizing the seriousness of his affliction; by physician's order, a quick rush to the hospital; in a few hours—the call. But the Reaper found him ready.

Funeral services were conducted at the church on Wednesday, Dec. 19. A flood of telegrams, letters, messages, resolutions of condolence and sympathy for the bereaved family from his brethren in the ministry many of the laymen on charges he had served and personal friends of varied station and degree, in addition to the large numbers who came in person to bow at his bier attested the sorrow of many hearts which held him dear.

To this all too brief sketch of a well-spent life I would add a personal word.

As a fellow-student at Drew and from more or less frequent contact for about forty-five years, I came to know W. R. A. Palmer as well or better than men usually know each other.

He was clean-minded. I never heard him use an unchaste word—nothing which might not have been spoken in any company. And, to my knowledge, no breath of scandal ever touched his life.

He was independent in his thinking and fearlessly frank in speech. He did not make warm personal friends easily. His frankness was sometimes repellant and gave offense when his spirit was not understood, but he was never malicious or intentionally unkind; for he was a gentleman.

He was a good preacher—forceful, convincing, eloquent; a good pastor, visiting the people in their homes, and taking more than casual interest in the children. He was especially interested in forming personal contacts with inmates of hospitals and prisons. Wherever he saw the need for service he could give, he gave freely of time, talent and energy to meet that need.

His interest in education was evident in his personal striving to fit himself for efficient service; in his effort to provide the best training available for his children; in the fact that wherever he was stationed he engaged in some form of educational work as teacher or pupil in school, college or institution.

He was exceptionally fortunate in his choice of helpmates. Each brought a distinct contribution to a present need. The bride of his youth was cultured, refined and an accomplished musician. She brought him romance and imparted to each of their children something of her splendid personality. The second Mrs. Palmer was a model home-maker; modest, quiet, patient, tireless in her efforts to promote the comfort of her energetic husband through the strenuous years of his middle age. His third wife, who survives him, by intelligent comprehension and wise cooperation in working out his ideals gave the crowning glory to his ripened life. He lacked nothing which sympathetic care and loving companionship could give.

No man dies prematurely whose life span covers three-score years and ten. No man dies obscurely who has served well eighteen charges and for forty-five years answered the roll-call in one or the other of six annual conferences. No man, a member of that noble race who live to make the world a better place, for men, for women and for little children, has lived in vain.

William R. A. Palmer did not die defeated but a conqueror. Soon we shall join him in the victor's song. The workmen die but the work goes on.

ELISHA EPHRIAM ROGERS.

The subject of this brief sketch, Elisha Ephriam Rogers, was born in Sussex County Delaware, near Selbyville on June 1st, 1868, and passed to his eternal rest at Hurlock, Md. on March 14, 1935.

Bereft of his father while a lad he went to the north, and spent the major part of his youth in New York, and New Haven, Conn. Later he settled in Orange, N. J. and joined St. John's M. E. Church then pastored by the Rev. W. C. Jason.

On May 14th, 1890 he was united in Holy wedlock to Miss Sarah Anne Hughes, of Richmond, Va., who survives him, by the Rev. Henry Spellmyer, who later was elected a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. This union was blessed with five children all of whom survive him, and for whom he sacrificed in order that they might have the advantage of an education, of which he himself was denied. He lived to see all of them grown and succeed in life: Mrs. Martha Rogers Duffey, a teacher of Mappsville, Va., Percy T. Rogers, a contractor and builder of Richmond, Va., Wardie J. Rogers, a minister, and a member of the Delaware Annual Conference, (now pastoring one of his father's former charges), Reginald T. Rogers, a tradesman of Philadelphia, and Chauncey E. Rogers, a music teacher also of Philadelphia.

While a member of St. Johns, Orange, he was licensed an exhorter by the pastor, Dr. W. C. Jason, and later was granted local preachers license. He joined the Delaware Annual Conference in 1898 and was appointed to Hurlock, Md. which he served twice, being appointed there again in 1931, (this was his first and last appointment).

As a member of the Delaware Annual Conference he served the following appointments successfully: Hurlock, Md. 1 yr., Harrington, Del. 1 yr., Puncheon Landing, Md. (now Greenwood) 2 yrs., Parsonburg, Md. 8 yrs., Sharptown, Md. 2 yrs., Leemont, Va. 10 yrs., Unionville, Md. 4 yrs., Hopewell, Md. 3 yrs., Mardella Springs, Md. 1 yr., and again Hurlock, Md. 3 yrs. and 11 months.

He built a parsonage at Hurlock, Md., a church at Parsonburg, Md., a parsonage at Sharptown, Md., remodeled two churches on the Leemont, Va. charge, built a parsonage at Unionville, Md., and remodeled the parsonage at Mardella Springs, Md.

He was deeply religious, and thoroughly devoted to the program of the church. He went wherever he was sent without murmur or complaint. He had childlike faith in God, and loved to pray. The transgressions of the people bore heavily upon him. He endeavored to lead men in the paths of righteousness. When the shouting and tumult of the wets could be heard after the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, he exhorted the writer, from his sickbed with a stanza from one of his familiar hymns.

Tho all earth and hell appear
Who will doubt or who can fear
God our strength and shield is near
We cannot lose our cause.

On March 14th, at one o'clock A. M. he called his wife, and gave her directions concerning his Annual conference reports, and other personal matters, and then sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust in the God whom he loved, he rested from his labors.

On Monday, March 18th, funeral services were conducted at the Washington church of the Hurlock charge, by District Superintendent W. J. Helm, assisted by Superintendents F. H. Butler, J. T. Fletcher and J. M. Dickerson, also Reverends D. W. Henry, W. E. Hilton, C. B. Miles, J. S. Colbourne, W. C. Jason, J. S. Potts and F. T. Johnson.

"The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease
And lifes long warfare closed at last
His soul is found in peace
Soldier of Christ, well done
Praise be thy new employ
And while eternal ages run
Rest in thy Saviours joy.

HORACE C. SNEAD.

Rev. Horace C. Snead, the son of the late Rev. Geo. E. and Rachel Snead, was born in Accomac County, Va. Feb. 12, 1873. Died Nov. 23, 1934, age 61 years, 8 months, 16 days. He was converted at 12 years of age, and joined the M. E. Church while his father was the Pastor at Deals Island, Md.

After the death of his father his mother came back to Accomac County and she with the other 4 children transferred their membership to Wachapreague Pastoral charge and after receiving his elementary education he was licensed to preach.

In 1893 he was married to Miss Madeline Mapp, to this union there were born 13 children, 7 survive him, he is also survived by 4 sisters and 2 brothers. In 1911 he served out the unexpired conference year of the late Rev. J. H. B. Hurbert on the Wachapreague Pastoral charge to the satisfaction of every member.

In 1912 he was appointed by the Delaware conference to supply the Keller charge, he served with honor to himself and credit to the Delaware conference 4 successive years at this point. Before his admission in the Delaware conference and after being admitted he served very acceptably the following charges: 1919 Cottage Grove, Md. 8 years, Mount Vernon, Md. 2 years, Withams, Va. 2 years, Keller, Va. 1 year.

Retired in 1934, "his Labors" on the Keller charge. He remodeled the Red Hill Church, built Newhope Church, on the Cottage Grove charge, Md., he built a very creditable Parsonage out on the main highway.

"His Afflictions", he was a true soldier bearing his afflictions with grace and faith in God, realizing he had fought a good fight, having an implicit confidence in his calling. He forgot his own soul for the sake of others, he therefore kept the faith, and was willing to wait for the changing of the cross for a crown, and after all, knowing that it was appointed to all men once to die, he looked back over a well spent life with satisfaction.

Though failing in health he liked very much to sing the song "I have anchored in Jesus the storm of life I'll brave". His living companion administered to his necessities to the end.

Funeral services were held in Grace M. E. Church, Wachapreague, Va. conducted by Rev. J. M. Dickerson, D.S., assisted by the Pastor Rev. Jose Angulo and Rev. Chas. Spencer of Keller Charge.

Is not even death a gain to him whose life to God was given? Gladly to earth his eyes he closed to open them in heaven. His toils are passed, his work is done, and he is fully blest, he fought the fight, the victory won, and entered into rest.

JOSE ANGULO.

FLOYD LULL TOMLINSON.

The late Floyd Lull Tomlinson was born to the late William G. and Josephine Tomlinson, December 18, 1889 in New York City and departed this life December 18, 1934 at Oakville, Md. He was forty six years of age and was one of a family of four children; two boys and two girls. He was always beloved by the family because of his willingness to share.

As a child he began his education in New York but soon his family moved to Philadelphia where he finished his Grammar school training. He then attended the State College at Dover, Delaware for a while and from there he went to Storer College, Virginia where he was graduated with honors.

After finishing Storer College he entered the teaching profession and served successfully 7 years in Virginia and Delaware, but since his conversion during his school days the urge had remained with him that God had a great deal for him to do, so while living in Philadelphia he had united himself with East Calvary Church, now known as Tindley Temple. It was there that he was licensed as Local preacher and served so effectively that he was recommended for admission in the Delaware Conference. In 1920 at East Calvary, his home church, with Bishop M. S. Hughes presiding he was admitted to the Delaware Conference on trial and assigned to Cokesbury, Md.

He served very acceptably the following charges: Cokesbury, Md. two years; Townsend, Del. four years; Odessa, Del. two years; Greenwood, Md. one year; Upper Hill, Md. two years; Mt. Vernon and Polks Road, Md. three years and nine months.

As a pastor he was painstakingly thoughtful. He always felt that the Masters way as Preacher and teacher should be his ideal and the theme of his work was that a religion must be ethical to be practical and it must be practical to be ethical and that it was his duty to show by precept and example that the Christian religion that he preached and lived were both. He had a great ambition and when he was appointed as pastor he was determined to be pastor at any cost. He made many friends where he served and once made they were lasting, for they had been convinced that he was a man that had a conviction and followed it.

As a husband and father he was unsurpassed. He and his wife were indeed one. They loved each other and at all times they worked together. His joy was her joy, and her joy was his. When one spoke both consented. The children were the delight of Mother and Father and Mother and Father were the delight of the children. The children were given the benefit of school wherever they served and when vacation came they were not idle, so they like to work and have promised to take care of Mother.

From the middle of September until the 18th of December Rev. Tomlinson was confined to his bed with wife and children by his side and the doctor calling every few days but the wife did not grow tired and he did not grow impatient. Her word was "What do you want?" and his word was "Nothing, you and the children are doing all you can. Let the Lord's will be done".

He had never had a doctor before in his life before his death sickness, but he was conscious that the end was near and told his wife who he wanted to take charge of his body, where to hold the funeral services, where to bury him and all arrangements were made for funeral services to be held at Oaksville, Md. to be conducted by Dr. J. M. Dickerson, the District Superintendent; assisted by his colleagues and fellow ministers of the Delaware Conference. Interment was in the Mt. Vernon Church Yard, one of the churches that comprised his charge.

"Beyond the flight of time,
Beyond the vale of death
There surely is some blessed clime
Where life is not a breath,
Nor life's affections, transient fire,
Whose sparks fly upward and expire.

There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown,
A long eternity of love
Formed for the good alone
And faith behold the dying here
Translated to that happier sphere.

Rev. Tomlinson leaves as an immediate family: a loving Mother and sister, a devoted wife, Julia Smith Tomlinson; four children, William, Charles, Floyd L. and Rosella Tomlinson, and many, many friends.

R. C. HUGHES.

GEORGE H. BIVENS.

George H. Bivens was born on Deals Island, Maryland, May 17th, 1869 and died in Marion April 18, 1934 after a short illness.

At the place of his birth he was converted over fifty years ago, and became a member of Wallace Chapel, which is now called John Wesley.

The Lord found work for his willing heart and hands to do, for he soon became superintendent of the church school and trustee for several years.

Marion offering him greater opportunities, he moved there and by industry and economy he soon was in possession of a nice little farm, worldly success did not make him negligent of his duties to God and his church.

He united with Handy Memorial Methodist Church, and until his appointment as pastor of the Centennial Methodist Episcopal Church of Fairmount, Md. he filled the following offices, Superintendent of the church school, Class leader, trustee and local preacher.

He served Centennial faithfully for fifteen years, and for part of the time Westover, the two as Fairmount Circuit.

He had been reappointed for another Year; but was never to serve his people for God called him from labor to reward.

In the year 1906 on the 4th of April he was joined in wedlock with Miss Alma Tilghman. To this happy union was born one child that passed away in infancy. The loss of their own child opened their hearts to five boys and one girl that they adopted and raised.

The Rev. Bivens labored under very trying conditions but his courage and attention to duties generally brought success out of seeming defeat.

In his last illness there were no doubts or fears, for he had settled that long ago; and in those last talks with his wife he said, "Its all right there is peace over yonder," and just before he went away, he knew he was going to get another appointment, so he said, "There is going to be a change, it is all right, it is all right".

To mourn his going is a brother, the Rev. I. H. Bivens, serving at the place of his birth, a sister who still lives on Deals Islands and his loving wife with the boy and girl they took to nurse and train for the Lord.

The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And life's long warfare closed at last
His soul is found in peace

Soldier of Christ well done,
Praise be thy new employ
And while eternal ages run
Rest in thy Saviours joy.

EMMA GRACE McARTHUR.

Emma Grace McArthur, the daughter of the late Robert and Laura Brown departed this life April 13th, 1934 at the Mercy Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa.

She was born in Camden, South Carolina, October 2nd, 1893. She attended school at Livingston College, Salisbury, North Carolina, and later attended Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina, where she graduated in the year 1911. She taught school in South Carolina, made her home with her mother and brother, Wandel Z. Brown in Orange, New Jersey.

June 1st, 1916 she was united in marriage to the Rev. L. H. McArthur, who was a school mate, and who was also a graduate of Bennett College in 1913. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. G. Waters and the Rev. J. E. A. Johns at Orange, New Jersey.

To this union three children were born: Lawrence B., Mildred B. and Laurretta McArthur. Laurretta followed her mother in death seventeen days after, April 30th, 1934.

She was a devoted wife to her husband, and a strong supporter in the work of the ministry. She never refused to go with her husband anywhere the Bishop sent him.

She was a loving and devoted mother to her children. She told her niece, Rether Gittens on her death bed to be good to her children. She told her husband that had it not been well with her soul she would not have gone under the operation.

She served the following charges with her husband: Hudson, New York; Frankford, Pa.; Merchantville, New Jersey; Chestertown, Maryland; Snow Hill, Maryland; Mt. Joy, Wilmington, Delaware; and Zoar, Philadelphia where she departed this life April 13th, 1934.

She was well beloved in every charge she served. She was converted when a young girl, and demonstrated the Christian life everywhere she went.

She was laid to rest in the Chestertown, Maryland cemetery by the side of her mother and daughter. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. T. Fletcher, District Superintendent, and other ministers who knew her well took part. The members of Zoar, ministers and their wives expressed their love and respect for her with beautiful floral designs.

She leaves to mourn their loss: husband, two children, one brother (Wandel Z. Brown) of New York, and a host of relatives and friends.

May the Lord bless her memory.

IDA SEDELLA HODGES.

Ida Sedella Hodges the daughter of the late Henry and Martha Brown was born at Still Pond, Md. March the 9th, 1877. It was at the age of eleven years that she was converted at Fountain M. E. church of the Still Pond Charge, during the administration of the late Rev. W. C. Dickerson, and continued to be a faithful member. On Feb. 20th, 1895 she was united in holy wedlock to the Rev. Lewis Hodges, by the late Rev. F. J. Lee at Fountain M. E. Church. This union was blessed with seven children, namely: Lewis, Rebecca, May, Mamie L. Jenkins, Sylvella A. Price, Rev. Thomas N. and Ruth M. Hodges.

For eight months her health began to fail very rapidly, her companion asked her from time to time if she was praying, and did she yet trust in Jesus, her reply was made with confidence, Yes.

She went to Wilmington, Del, to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Mamie Jenkins, for two months she remained there under the care of a specialist but found no relief, therefore she returned to her home with her husband. Doctors and trained nurse were at her bed side every day for six weeks. Two days before she passed away, she called her companion to her bed side, and put her arms around his neck and said, "Hon, you have been good to me, you have done all that you could do for me." These were her parting words to her husband. On Sat. Sept. 17th, 1934 Ida Hodges set sail for the glory land, where she joined with the three children who preceded her in death.

In the charges where she served with her beloved husband, she strove to be an asset, and not a liability to the people, her life was spent in the building of the Kingdom and righteousness in the lives of the youth, she won by her kind words and deeds, the respect of all with whom she came in contact. She is not dead, but asleep.

"Servant of God well done,
Thy glorious warfare passed,
The battle fought, the victory won,
Aud thou art Crowned at last.

D. G. WATERS.

WHEREAS in the wisdom of our Board of Bishops, we have had designated our resident Bishop Ernest G. Richardson, D.D., L.L.D. to preside over this our seventy-second session of the Delaware Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

WHEREAS in the Providence of our Heavenly Father, the health of our Bishop has been conserved and his life has been spared; he now comes to preside over our deliberations and to also inspire and instruct us spiritually out of his wide experience as a general superintendent of our grand old Church.

RESOLVED that we extend the Board of Bishops of our Methodism, our thanks and appreciation for their profound wisdom in the selection of our presiding officer, Bishop Richardson.

RESOLVED that we most heartily extend to our chief Pastor of the Philadelphia area, our greetings and a very cordial welcome in our conference, both for our joint sessions and our lay constituency.

RESOLVED, finally, that we do hereby pledge to him our heartiest support and co-operation in the transaction of all the business that may come before him, his cabinet and the conference.

We therefore pray earnestly and fervently that the Holy Spirit may be felt constantly among us and that His Spirit may guide the Bishop and the conference while here in session.

THE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL PRESENTS THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS if the Home Mission Agencies of the United States were suddenly to discontinue this work, millions of boys and girls now being reached by the influence of Christian education would grow up entirely outside of the Church, ignorant of the most simple Biblical truth and stories. Untaught in the principle of Christian ethics. Many churches would close their doors and be up for sale. What would be true in America would also be true in the Foreign Fields, if the work of our Foreign Mission Board was to cease; for the lack of support we would not be true to the program and spirit of John Wesley who realized that the world was his Parish. We would be untrue to the spirit of our Master who gave himself not simply to save America but to save the world. In the face of this compelling challenge it is imperative that we as members of the Delaware Conference should be willing to shoulder our responsibility in this world wide program.

WHEREAS the Home and Foreign Mission Agencies are pushing the work of Sunday Schools and Epworth League Colleges, Seminaries, the cause of Temperance, Hospitals, the American Bible Society and the Connectional support of the retired Ministers. Be it

RESOLVED in order that the Delaware Conference may carry its share of responsibility for the educational and connectional work of the church that we assume as our goal $20,388 for the ensuing year and that the amount be apportioned to the charges to be raised monthly and sent to the Worlds Service Office.

If we would reach the goal set for the year we must have the loyal support of every Pastor and layman, the support of your prayers and sacrificial offerings. In as much as there are those who are giving their lives to the cause of Mission in the Home and Foreign Fields subjecting themselves to all conditions, we ought to be willing to support those who have heeded the call, come over and help us.

RESOLVED that a Seminary be organized among the Graduate Students and that Bro. D. H. Hargis and W. J. Helm be appointed to conduct it.

F. J. HANDY.

WHEREAS it was the pleasure and privilege of the Annual Conference and our friends to listen to a very forceful, instructive, and inspiring Missionary sermon delivered by Rev. J. E. Dunn.

RESOLVED that we were greatly instructed and inspired by the logical and Evangelistic approach to his subject. May Jehovah's richest blessings fall upon him and may he have a long life in order that he may be able to impart the blessed truths as God reveals them to him.

PRINCESS ANNE ACADEMY RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS Princess Anne Academy, Princess Anne, Md., located within the bounds of our Conference territory and one of our Church schools for nearly fifty (50) years, was recently purchased by Morgan College Corporation by the State of Maryland and

WHEREAS a large delegation of ministers and laymen of our Conference on Feb. 26, 1935 appeared before the Governor of Md., and the Senators of the lower Eastern Shore counties petitioning that the said Princess Anne Academy now a Junior College be made a State Standardized Vocational College to meet the educational needs of our group.

We ask that this Conference in United Session because of the increased liberality on the part of the State of Md. and the imperative educational need (both secular and religious) of our youth—request the Bishop and his Cabinet to appoint one minister and one laymen from each district to present the cause of Princess Anne Academy to the District Stewards meeting, the Church School and Epworth League Convention, and the District Conference of each District.

RESOLVED that each district be asked to secure twenty (20) or more prospective students to enroll at the opening session of the Princess Anne Academy, Sept. 1935.

EVANGELISM.

We, the Lay-Members of the Delaware Annual Conference desire to present the following resolution:—

In these times of uncertainty and insecurity, we deeply feel the need of a refreshing revival of the Holy Spirit in our own hearts and in the life of our Churches.

These are times that try the faith of men. The Church too, is passing through a crisis and facing a difficult situation. Demands are being made upon the professors of Christian religion as never before. Demands that are imperative and important. To meet the present situation demands the united action of all those who love the Lord.

We feel that we should share in the responsibility of helping meet these demands for spiritual security and refreshment. We feel that we should make our contribution of faithful service and encouragement to every effort put forth conducive to the accomplishment of the objective for which the Church stands and for the bringing about an atmosphere of spiritual enlightenment and refreshment in the hearts of the people and the life of the Church.

We realize that this is not the work of the ministry alone. The fullest co-operation of every lay-member is absolutely necessary for the accomplishment of this end, and it is to this we wish to pledge our full support and loyal sympathetic interest, and our prayers, that the Church may take on new life, the members be revived, and sinners inquiring: "What shall I do to be saved?"

M. A. R. CAMPHOR.

RESOLUTIONS FROM LAYMEN.

Home for the Aged.

In view of the fact that there was a committee appointed to bring in a report, at this session, whether or not the Home for the Aged be continued; we, the Lay Members of the 72nd session ask that this committee make their report and the same be acted upon. We further call to your attention the urgent need of such an institution in the Delaware Conference. We hope that this body will pass favorably on this question so that we may be able to care for our aged Ministers and Laymen during the coming year.

Re-Districting the Conference.

We are still of the opinion that four Districts will serve as well as conserve the best interests of our Conference. We recommend that a commission composed of an equal number of Ministers and lay members (two from each District) be appointed to work out the plan and report at the next session of the Conference.
