FOREWORD

Dear Friends and Brethren:

MAY we assure you that we feel it to be no small honor to be favored with your presence in the Seventy-fourth Session of the Delaware Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We hope to show you, by our cordial welcome, our kindly consideration, our sincere and genuine interest in every detail that may contribute to your comfort and happiness, that we are more than pleased to have you.

Ten years ago you came to this City-by-the-Sea, and Asbury Church was your gracious host. The sacred impressions and hallowed memories of that Sixty-fourth Session abide with us still, leaving a fragrance that cannot be forgotten. On three other occasions, prior to the session referred to above, you honored us with your presence. Loyal and sacrificing men and women who gladly entertained this Conference in the little frame building on the corner of Michigan and Baltic Avenues, known as Asbury, still remain with us to welcome you to the present beautiful building in which you now assemble, and to their humble but hospitable homes.

Thus, you see that the matter of entertainment and service is not only a vocation of these people but a tradition which they delight to follow. I am quite certain you will find them kind, competent and courteous. They delight to serve.

We have spared no pains to prepare for your coming and for your adequate entertainment while sojourning with us. However, the success of this Conference depends upon the response which all of us are called on to make by the demands which make these annual gatherings necessary. Meeting your full apportionment for Conference support will greatly aid us in attaining this desirable end to the mutual satisfaction of all concerned.

A Special $2.00 Meal Ticket will be available to the wives of Ministers, while the Cafeteria in Saint Augustine's Guild Hall will provide meals to order, together with delicacies and refreshments in keeping with individual choice.

We wish for you our Father's richest blessing, and assure you that Atlantic City will do all in its power to make this your best Conference.

Your friend and brother,

J. W. JEWETT.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' COMBINED REPORT.

To our Resident and Presiding Bishop, the Active and Retired Ministers, and to the United Session, we extend hearty greetings:

In making this combined report, we do so in a spirit of gratitude to the God of all grace and glory, who hath brought us thus far on our way. Words are inadequate to fully express our gratitude to Him for His goodness, and our appreciation of the pastors, their families, and people who by their cooperation and faithful service have made this report possible.

From Labor to Reward.

Two members of the Conference have passed away this year. On September 10, Rev. L. W. Molock, after an illness of several months "was not; for God took him" to his well earned reward. He had served acceptably—Fairlee, Maryland, three years; and Seaford, Delaware, ten years. Brother Molock was a good preacher and often helped his brethren.

On December 30, the whole Conference was shocked by the sudden home-going of Dr. T. H. Kiah, twenty-six years principal of Princess Anne Academy. Dr. Kiah had served only two churches before taking charge of the school—Ocean City, New Jersey five years and St. Michaels, Maryland four years. He was honored four times with membership in the General Conference and served on the Book Committee for eight years. Many were his labors at the school and in preaching throughout the conference.

On Aug. 22nd, Rev. W. W. Hoy, an Accepted Supply, passed. At the time of his death he was serving his second year as the pastor of Mt. Carmel Church in Wilmington, Delaware.

Minister's Wives.

April 11, Mrs. Annie Bullen, faithful wife of Rev. J. N. Bullen was called to her reward; June 14th, Mrs. Mary B. Dickerson, devoted wife of Rev. O. P. Dickerson, died in full faith, and on Jan. 25th Mrs. Mattie D. Peaco, beloved wife of Rev. J. I. Peaco, passed peacefully away.

Relatives.

During the year the following lost relatives: Rev. R. N. Ross, his father; Reverends R. S. and W. H. Johns, their mother; Rev. J. A. T. Faust, his father; Rev. R. G. Waters, a brother; Rev. M. W. Clark, a brother; Rev. T. H. Woodley, a sister; Rev. T. B. H. Coleman, a sister and Mrs. A. L. Black her father.

Of all these it may be said—faithfully they labored and triumphantly they died, and yet—

"We cannot think of them as dead
Who walk with us no more
Along the path of life we tread
They have but gone before.

The Father's house is mansioned fair
Beyond our vision dim;
All souls, are His, and here or there
Are living unto him.

And still their silent ministries
Within our hearts have place,
As when on earth they walked with us
And met us face to face."

Changes in Appointments.

Rev. J. H. Hubbard from Stillpond to Seaford; Rev. W. E. Hilton from Clarksville to Stillpond and Rev. F. D. Jones, a supply, to Clarksville.

Stewardship.

Success in Evangelism, social service, and religious education is delayed and will be, so long as we continue our inefficient financial methods and fail to recognize the fact, that God has His own method for financing His church.

It has been proven again and again that when we substitute our imperfect ways for God's perfect way, we interfere with the successful operation of His program. Stewardship is a doctrine which we should accept and practice as we do any other doctrine; for it is necessary to the successful accomplishment of God's purpose in the world. Whenever we interpose our inefficient ways for God's efficient way, there is not only retardation, but actual failure in the chief work for which the church exists.

The impulse, which moved Abel, Abraham and thousands of Jews to bring their firstlings and tithes to God, does not seem to move in our hearts today. God is still challenging us to prove Him with offerings and tithes, and He still promises to bless us, saying: "Try me therewith and see if I will not pour out blessings upon you until there is not room enough to contain them." But we, by our action, say "no, Sunday Teas, Chicken Suppers, begging cards, and Rallies are better than God's method."

It is our belief that the church will advance but little in evangelism, religious education or social service until it has more faith in God and has accepted and practiced his ordinance. Christian Stewardship is of personality, of prayer and of possessions. We are not our own, we were purchased with a price, we were redeemed by a sacrifice, and we by choice have given ourselves away. If we do not own ourselves, how can we own anything? All we have is by the grace of God through Christ Jesus. We should be saying:

"We give thee but thine own,
Whate'er that gift may be;
All that we have is thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee."

Our methods take much of the time and energy of some of the best members of our churches, and what is worse, so much of the time of the pastors until there is insufficient time for the word of God, for study, for meditation and for prayer. How long shall we leave the word of God to serve tables?

We have had drives and campaigns that have energized the life of our church helpfully; The Centenary and the World Service did much to stir up interest in the church and increase our benevolent giving, and the Fellowship Unit Movement is destined to do even more; but when shall we have a ten years drive for four million Christian stewards? We might not get four million, but if we secured one million who would subscribe to the doctrine and practice of Christian Stewardship the spirit of God would be poured out upon us in such measure that revivals would break out in many places. We must believe He had this in mind when He said "Try me and I will pour out blessing upon you."

Stewardship is both an old and New Testament doctrine. Moses taught it, Paul, Jesus and the Holy Spirit approved it, (the early Christian Church gave all), shall we not give a tithe? We abound in many things; shall we not "abound in this grace also?" This question we must answer before we can advance toward our goal of world redemption.

The Million Unit Fellowship. Movement—(World Service).

The Christian Religion is a missionary religion and the Christian church is an out growth of it. Its supreme task is the saving of souls. The Methodist Episcopal Church has been Missionary in spirit from its beginning. The Holy urge which came down upon the Church caused many self-denying pastors and self-sacrificing laymen to seek to build the kingdom of God in the hearts of men in other lands as well as their own.

The essential nature of the Christian Church has not changed. The Church still believes in the doctrine that the human spirit is of supreme value and finds its fulfillment in God, consummated through the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Million Unit Fellowship Movement—(World Service)—expressed in terms of today is a spiritual and financial effort to meet the desperate need that faces the church. It is to meet the challenge of God, in this crucial time of strife, prejudice, hate, mistrust, lawlessness, and disregard for the welfare of others.

This movement will quicken the church to a sense of its spiritual opportunity and its financial responsibility in these new and difficult days. Christ alone is sufficient for these things and the church is the best medium through which his message of redemptive power can reach the multitudes.

It is an enlistment of the entire membership of the church in a united effort for the saving of the life of the world and for bringing in the kingdom of God.

It will give each person an opportunity to express his gratitude to God in the service to his fellowmen.

It will enable the church to stimulate and maintain the spiritual and intellectual life of the missionaries who seek the redemption of all men from personal, social, political, and economic sins.

Both ministers and laymen have accepted the challenge offered in the Million Unit Fellowship Movement not as a spasmodic something, but as a four fold covenant. A working together with Christians in all lands, that all may be eventually permeated with the spirit and motive of Jesus our Lord.

The plan has been carefully presented and in many instances the Churches have subscribed their full quota of units.

Institutions and Organizations.

Home for the Aged.

Dr. J. H. Scott, the agent has worked hard to stir up interest in the home and to collect funds for current expenses and for liquidating the debt. Little or no interest is manifested in many sections of the Conference. This ought not to be.

The Friendship Home.

This has not been an easy year for this institution. Mrs. E. P. Thomas, the supervisor, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society have striven hard to maintain and put the Home on a firm financial basis. Interest in this, one of our best social agencies, lags. We plead for more cooperation on the part of the whole Conference. These women deserve it, and the Home is doing a great service for our girls and young women.

Schools.

Morgan College is still meeting a great need in the life of our Conference by training young men and women for Christian service. Unless better support is given, the school may be driven to the necessity of changing ownership and policy.

Princess Anne Academy has been sold to the state of Maryland and has started on its way as a state school. We wish for it great success and pledge it our moral support.

The Summer School of Ministerial Training was held in Princess Anne in July and was graced by the presence of Bishop Herbert Welch, who gave a series of lectures on the "Human Race." Dean F. J. Handy and faculty deserve much credit for the help and inspiration they are giving the ministers, young and old.

The Epworth League Institute at Morgan College directed by Dr. D. H. Hargis last summer was successful, without such training many of our churches would suffer, even more than now, for better leaders.

Youth Conferences and Conventions are multiplying in numbers and interest on all the districts. They mightily aid the churches in their evangelistic and religious educational programs.

Teacher Training Schools have been conducted in many sections of the Conference and efforts have been made to start a Teacher Training class in every church. Much credit for this is due Dr. E. H. Brewster, who ends his services with us at this session of the Conference.

A most helpful youth gathering is the Mid-Winter Institutes held in some of the Districts for intensive study of methods and programs.

The District Conferences are great gatherings; and are helpful in stimulating the officers and members of the churches to greater activity.

The Efficiency Conferences give opportunity for pre-conference check-up and inspiration for closing the year's work.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society is doing its usual good work. If it were not for this organization we would have no Friendship Home. It needs more encouragement.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is not strong in our Conference. The President and the few women working with her are courageous and faithful. We hope many others will catch the vision and enlist in this Foreign Missionary enterprise.

The Ladies' Aid Societies are very helpful agencies in the local churches. If only our Brotherhood chapters could be brought to the same point of interest and activity as these, our churches would be mightily helped in their social and financial work.

Temperance.

Wine is still a mocker and strong drink is raging, and the unwise are still being deceived thereby. The status of the liquor traffic is well described by the story of a man out of whom an evil spirit was cast, which returned with seven other spirits and the second state was worse than the first. Those of us who remember the temperance situation before the saloons were outlawed are agreed, that it is worse now than before. By our lack of interest and proper organization we suffered the friends of rum to rob us of what we had gained through prohibition, and now we must fight to regain it.

Perhaps no traffic or business is multiplying so rapidly as the liquor traffic. We are told that sixty two million more gallons of distilled liquor were consumed last year than 3 years ago. It is estimated that our rum bill is five billion dollars a year, or one tenth of our national income.

Although the liquor traffic has proved itself to be our greatest American menace by its destruction of morals, health and life, there seems to be no organization sufficient to destroy it.

If the organized Church is lax in its interest and effort to stamp out this curse, what will be the outcome is easy to predict. The number of accidents and deaths caused by drunken drivers is constantly increasing and highway traffic is decidedly unsafe, but the moral and spiritual life of the nation is much more endangered.

There are laws governing the traffic and sale of alcoholic liquors, but it is exceedingly hard to get traffic officers and magistrate courts to enforce these laws, and harder still to get the state that receive taxes from the traffic to feel that these laws should be strictly enforced.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, through its General Conferences has always put itself on record as opposed to liquor in every form and exhorted its membership to prohibition and total abstinence.

All our pastors and officials should acquaint themselves with the pronouncement of the last General Conference in reference to temperance, and teach all with whom they have to do, about the evils of this iniquitous evil.

Our Church Schools should not only be organized into temperance Societies, but should conduct a Temperance program monthly and secure temperance pledges. Our sympathies and prayers go out to that stalwart foe of intemperance, Dr. Clarence True Wilson, who by enforced weakness and affliction was compelled to resign his position as Executive Secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals at the last General Conference.

Social Service.

For the church to give an interpretation of the scriptures and to tell what ought to be done for society, is but one of its functions. An exegesis of the scriptures becomes a mere shell when devoid of practical application. The plain teaching of the scripture is that we are our brother's keeper and neighbor to all who are in need.

The church should be profoundly aware of its social obligations in those demands and needs, which continually confront it; that is to lessen physical discomfort, to succor the sick and needy, to feed and clothe the poor and to provide shelter for the homeless. These are duties which the church cannot neglect and still claim to be the exponent of Christianity.

The United States Government in its Social Security and Federal Housing Acts, its Slum Clearance and Recreation centers is not prompted to these activities merely because of an economic necessity, but as a distinct Christian social duty.

It is the business of the church to create public sentiment sufficient to influence legislation forbidding child labor, gambling, lynching, Sabbath desecration, improper films, literature and shows.

Religious Education.

The development of Christlike characters of every age, and the making of a Christlike world, is the supreme goal of religious education. We must improve our method for leading those already in our churches and church schools into more fruitful living, and also contact that greater multitude of the spiritually untaught.

When the average church school attempts to improve its work and increase its usefulness it at once becomes conscious of its greatest needs—among which are the following:

1. More skilful teachers and leaders.
2. Guidance in using lesson materials to the best advantage.
3. A more accurate knowledge of its community.
4. An improved method to reach the untaught.
5. Aid in seeing its educational task and relating its work to the teaching agencies.
6. The sympathetic cooperation of homes, public schools and other community forces.

Reaching the Larger Number.

The government of each of our states plans for the education of its growing citizens. This work is being extended through childhood and youth into adulthood so that it is coming to provide education for all the people. The state outlines the program so as to reach every growing citizen and provides for the continuous improvement of its educational system.

Religious education is equally concerned with all the people. This responsibility is left to the voluntary effort of its citizens to be carried out in and through the churches. The total task of religious education parallels the total task of public education. It means reaching all the people with adequate religious teaching.

This calls upon the agencies of religious education to reach a larger number of the total population. The aim may be concisely stated in this excerpt from Article 1 in the Children's Charter adopted by the White House Conference on Child Welfare: "For every child spiritual and moral training to enable him to stand firm under the pressure of life."

Inter-Church and Community Co-Operation.

This effort to reach a larger number of the unreached calls for denominational co-operation and, yet, a program looking to this can only be worked gradually. Many sincere Christian leaders have yet to be convinced that the Lord's work can better be done by co-operation than by the complete independent action of each Church or School. Where no start has been made in this direction, they may begin in some small and simple projects. No Church can get away from the community life and ideals of which it is a part and must share with other religious forces the problems of self-improvement. There must be a statesmanlike facing of the religious needs of the community and adequate planning to meet them. But those who lead in this must be as wise as serpents and as harmless as doves. They must be skilled in the slow but effective educational method of bringing the Church School leaders to know real co-operation. Along this line an impact on community consciousness may be made that would be impossible working separately.

Our task is as great as that of the state, but we must have more togetherness in the essentials of our method, if our achievement is to measure up to our opportunity. The challenge in religious education today is "to see life as a whole, give religious content and interpretation to all aspects of experience and comprehend the whole of life with ultimate meaning and value. All education may become religious when it lifts experience to the level of ultimate relationship to God."

The Family Altar.

The Episcopal Address to the General Conference held in Columbus, Ohio in May 1936, has the following paragraph touching our home life that needs a re-emphasis.

"Of preeminent importance is a revival of domestic piety. Our problem is as truly as parental one as it is a filial one. The greatest thing we can do for the "rising generation" is to equip it with praying fathers and mothers who turn their homes into sanctuaries, their hearts into altars, and their love into burning appeals to their children to remain true to the Parenthood from which every parenthood in heaven and in earth is named. The fathers and mothers of Methodism should revive into an evangelical meaning the commission long since given to Jewish parents: "The thing which I command thee this day shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou riseth up."

Dr. E. H. Brewster.

We have greatly profited by the guidance, inspiration and help given us thru the work of Dr. E. H. Brewster as our Director of Religious Education during the past four years. We are grateful to our resident Bishop, Ernest G. Richardson, for being so thoughtful in administrative provision as to make this arrangement possible. Dr. Brewster has been a brother beloved among us and his leadership has brought light and understanding to one of the newest and most difficult lines of work that we have. His own report will give information in regard to our activities in the Epworth League Institute, Leadership Training and other phases of the program.

Evangelism.

Ours is a time of great movements. The world is astir. Weaker groups are seeking a place among the stronger, and often at the expense and destruction of still weaker groups. To desire a place among the strongest is natural, but the spirit that prompts the desire does not always guarantee universal good. Today many leaders are offering themselves to groups with the promise of leading them to political and national supremacy, but he leads best who leads for the good of all and for the glory of Him, who is the Father of all.

These political movements, national and international, and all class strife need the sanctifying grace of God as it is in Jesus Christ, who said "He that would be greatest among you must be the servant of all." He is the best leader today, who in the spirit of Christ seeks to lead to peace, brotherhood and goodwill. The going of all others is to chaos, destruction, and death.

Did ever a greater challenge face the Christian church than now? Did ever we need the spirit and power of evangelism more than we need it today? We need faith and courage to go before these moving, surging multitudes with the cross of Christ, and lead them into the way of the Prince of Peace, who leads to something more glorious than political or national supremacy. He leads to hope: hope of mastery not over others, but over self and greed and prejudice and strife and hate and death. We need to recognize Christ as our Leader. This is no time for spiritual impotency but for power and aggressive warfare against sin and wickedness at home and abroad. We sing:

"Lord we are able,
Our spirits are thine."

Yet folk are still saying "Lord we brought him to you disciples and they could not cure him."

But, lets come back to our Jerusalem, to our home to our community. Have we been able to direct the movements there? We are commanded to begin at Jerusalem and unless we do we can never proceed out to the utmost part of the earth.

Have we organized our children and young people into classes for religious instruction and taught them the way of salvation and of the Christian life? Here is the most futile field today. Fail here and our failure is most complete, begin and continue here and our success is sure.

We must also evangelize, Christianize and organize the adult life of our church and community, and then with these and the young people go forth, like a mighty army with Him who said "Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

To do thsi we must sing all of that beautiful hymn the chorus of which is:

"Lord we are able,
Our spirits are thine
Remold them, make us,
Like the divine.

Thy guiding radiance
A beacon to God,
To love and loyalty."

The outlook, however, is encouraging, in that, there is within the Church an increasing sense of dissatisfaction with present achievements; a willingness to part with unsuccessful methods and to adopt those which have always been successful. Also, there are many leaders whose ambition is not to lead to political conquests but to spiritual, and to lift all by serving all.

Like Elijah, many recognizing the spiritual death, are praying, and there are signs of refreshing rain and rising tides.

Say what we will or may about the Exford Group Movement, the Young Peoples Interracial Fellowship movement, The Methodist Youth Conference movement, or the Million Unit Fellowship movement; we believe these are movements in the right direction and might well be called a new or better form of Evangelism than some we have known.

Has anything, in recent years, more completely gripped the imagination or life of the church than has the Million Unit Fellowship movement? Read its fourfold program:

1. Each member a Unit of power for God.
2. Intercessory prayer that God's kingdom may come.
3. Each member of the fellowship witnessing daily for Christ.
4. Each sharing his temporal blessings in the interest of others.

May these spiritual movements, like that which stirred the heart of Wesley and saved England, save us and the Church and then regenerate, dominate, and control these worldly movements until the Kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and Master.

Summary.

The pastors not being able to make full reports to us before the last Sunday in the Conference year, made it impossible for us to give complete results here but they will be given by the pastors in their reports to the statistician and treasurer, and also by the District Superintendents individual reports.

The reports received, indicate that there has been an advance in all the major interests of the church to be sure, much that has been accomplished cannot be written on paper or told in words, but is to be seen in the character and lives of the people among whom these ministers have labored.

It is sufficient to say that the pastors generally, have been faithful to their calling, untiring in their efforts, and are one with all, who seek to present the ideals of the ideal Christ to a confused and a bewildered world.

Conclusion.

The measure of our success this year is the measure of our faithfulness to the ideals and convictions begotten in us by the word of truth which we preach, and our endeavor to follow them in the spirit of Him who said "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day for the night cometh when no man can work." To have had a chance to try and grace to achieve in the work of God is an honor and privilege indescribable, angels would desire such but God has reserved and bestowed them upon us, the redeemed of his Son; "To whom be glory and majesty, dominion and power both now and forever, Amen."

DOVER DISTRICT.

We are thankful to God for life and health during six years of service on this district. The fellowship with so gallant a band of Christian men and women has been a delight. We close this term with malice toward none but love for all.

The passing of Rev. L. W. Molock, pastor at Seaford was a great loss. Rev. W. E. Marks has prepared a suitable memoir for the Conference minutes.

Our District Conference at St. Paul's Church, North Berlin, was one long to be remembered. The program was carried out in every particular and the entertainment superb. Bro. J. H. Stevenson and the people of the church and community spared no pains to provide for our comfort and convenience. The same may be said of the Epworth League and Sunday School Convention held at New Bethel Church on South Berlin Charge. Whatcoat Church,

Dover, entertained our Efficiency Conference. Bishop Richardson spent the day with us and gave two excellent and informative addresses. My colleagues in the cabinet attended all these meetings and greatly enriched our programs with helpful addresses.

EASTON DISTRICT.

We make this our second annual report of the Easton District with a sense of deep gratitude to our Heavenly Father for all his benefits to us. By the grace of God he has brought us safely through another year. We have not missed a single engagement on account of illness. What has been accomplished this year is incomparable with what is yet to be accomplished; we are working, praying and trusting God for sustaining grace to carry on in the performance of his will among the people of the district. Some sections of our territory seem to be almost virgin soil which stands as a challenge to all there is in us. Here is the clear call for prepared consecrated pastors who love mankind and can see its needs from the Divine point of view.

Much sickness and death have multiplied the burdens of the people, among those who have suffered from sickness may be named: Rev. C. W. Derrickson and his family; Miss Grace, the daughter of the Rev. J. S. Coulbourne and Lester E., the son of the district superintendent, E. O. Parker, were both confined in the hospital for operations.

Last June the wife of the Rev. O. P. Dickerson of Denton, Md. went to her reward, a suitable memoir has been prepared by Rev. W. A. Harewood.

District Meetings.

The annual District Stewards' meeting at Easton was notable for the co-operation and inspiration of the laymen as well as the pastors. Rev. J. S. Coulbourn, our host, and his obliging committee, did their best to satisfactorily entertain us at dinner and succeeded admirably. The laymen renewed their pledge to stand by the programme of the church and the district. The fine fellowship was very refreshing to us all.

The Church School and Epworth League Convention held at Greensboro was a high day for both old and young. Large crowds of our promising young people came from every part of the district, alert and expectant, entered wholeheartedly into the spirit of the convention. The songs, stunts and gay laughter awoke staid old Greensboro who entered into the spirit of fellowship of these young christian people. The spiritual, intellectual and social notes were dominant throughout as was planned under the competent leadership of Dr. E. H. Brewster, the master leader among young people; he will ever be remembered for the many fine things which he has done for and with the youth of the Easton District.

The Efficiency Conference.

This meeting was very heartening and inspirational; many pastors of the district were happy to find themselves coming out of the red and actually going forward. In most instances the reports showed increases along many lines.

The Monthly Preachers' Meetings.

These meetings are times for spiritual and intellectual refreshment. This meeting is conducted entirely by the pastors and is handled in a masterful manner.

Charges.

AIREYS responds slowly to the call of new duties but is happy in the path of the fathers. The pastor has worked hard and constant with moderate response for labor bestowed. A great revival of religion is the insistent need if desired results are to be achieved. May the day come. World Service $16; Other Benevolences $25; Other Causes $267; Conversions 1; Accessions 16. A. W. McBride, pastor.

BARCLAY should give better account of itself than it has, although the members of the Ingleside church have either died or have moved away and the other two churches are leisurely moving along. World Service $7; Other Benevolences $7; Other Causes $90; Conversions—; Accessions—. W. H. Jefferson, pastor.

BECKWITH has done fairly well for its strength and have willingly followed the pastor's lead, who in his quiet way has wrought well. World Service $9; Other Benevolences $18; Other Causes $269; Conversions 4; Accessions 6. Joseph G. Stevens, pastor.

CAMBRIDGE, strategically located in a progressive and growing business town, has a large colored population with a good high school which has developed an intelligent group among the younger people who ought to be drawn into the church. Here is a wonderful field of opportunity latent with great possibilities. Notwithstanding many insidious influences at work, the pastor has been faithful and patient in his task and with the cooperation of his loyal wife has succeeded in bringing success out of seeming defeat. Many of the good loyal people have stood by and done well. These forces for good have made possible the following report which shows signs of former vitality. World Service $125; Other Benevolences $150; Other Causes $874; Conversions—; Accessions 3. R. W. Cheers, pastor.

CAMBRIDGE CIRCUIT has done a fairly good year's work in spite of some opposition. The wisdom and foresight of the pastor and the support of a talented wife have been able to overcome the handicaps to achieve a degree of success and now harmony prevails. A gracious revival has greatly quickened the church. World Service $10; Other Benevolences $32; Other Causes $175; Conversions—; Accessions 5. S. G. Dix, pastor.

CARMICHAEL has made some advance over last year. A revival has helped. There are greater possibilities yet to be realized. The pastor has done well. World Service $10; Other Benevolences $30; Other Causes $600; Conversions 4; Accessions 4. C. C. Thomas, pastor.

CENTREVILLE has harmoniously carried on the King's business under the tireless leadership of the pastor. A gracious revival was conducted here which has contributed much to the fine spirit of the people. The pastor has worked hard and faithful to achieve present results. Substantial advances over last year have been made. World Service $40; Other Benevolences $78; Other Causes $425; Conversions 6; Accessions 11. C. B. Miles, pastor.

CENTREVILLE CT. has not been able to go forward as it has desired. Last summer one of the churches, Earl Chapel, at Corsica Neck, was completely destroyed by fire without a cent of insurance. The Public School has granted them the privilege of holding their Sunday services in the school building. Plans are being completed to rebuild. The people are together and have a mind to work. They propose to build this summer and deserve our financial help and encouragement. The pastor has done the best he could under handicaps. The people have been most considerate and kind. World Service $5; Other Benevolences $15; Other Causes $400; Conversions 5; Accessions 9. T. A. Johnson, pastor.

CHAPEL seems to love their amiable pastor but do not seem to quicken their deliberate pace but seem satisfied with their present attainments. World Service $10; Other Benevolences $37; Other Causes $82; Conversions 2; Accessions 2. W. C. Thomas pastor.

CHURCH CREEK has done fairly well with their pastor handicapped with an invalid wife. The people have been wisely and safely led. The pastor is highly respected by both races for his fine Christian conduct. These are good people and seem willing to do their part. World Service $18; Other Benevolences $44; Other Causes $250; Conversions 19; Accessions 12. W. C. West, pastor.

CHURCH HILL has come out from behind and made definite advances this year and the people are justly proud. The patience and Christian leadership of the pastor is commendable. Much of the time he has had to walk his circuit of ten miles, preach and walk ten miles back home. The report of the year is as follows: World Service $24; Other Benevolences $40; Other Causes $—; Conversions 9; Accessions 5. E. Z. Heath, pastor.

CORDOVA has not responded to leadership, especially the church near Cordova; the church at Starr has done fairly well, and has carried nearly all the responsibilities of the charge. World Service $15; Other Benevolences $11; Other Causes $163; Conversions 20; Accessions 20. L. W. Pinkett, pastor.

CRAPO badly needs a spiritual awakening and the desire to co-operate with the forward march of the church. Here may be found quite a large number of people around this section who ought to be in the church. World Service $10; Other Benevolences $21; Other Causes $207; Conversions—; Accessions 8. P. R. Brown, pastor.

DENTON has not come up to its capabilities, the people seem to be contented with present conditions. A genuine revival here would go a long way in revitalizing this charge. The pastor in his unobtrusive way has done what he could to realize his aims. We hope the people may discover their opportunities. World Service $15; Other Benevolences $29; Other Causes $125; Conversions 2; Accessions 2. O. P. Dickerson, pastor.

EASTON stands at the head of the district and we hope it will lead in the whole program of the church. The pastor is a strong gospel preacher. A very successful revival was conducted here with the assistance of an evangelist which lasted about a month; the religious fervor was greatly quickened; large crowds were nightly in attendance. Some of the old sinners of the town have been converted. The pastor has worked hard and faithfully to bring the desired end. World Service $65; Other Benevolences $106; Other Causes $590; For all purposes $2284; Conversions 35; Accessions 27. J. S. Coulbourn, pastor.

EASTON CT. is not strong enough to support a pastor adequately without privations to him. Brother Martin is an earnest workman who cooperates with the district program. An evangelistic campaign would, I think, do much to increase the membership of the charge. World Service $10; Other Benevolences $26; Other Causes $56; Conversions—; Accessions —. L. H. Martin, pastor.

EAST NEW MARKET has completed another year of success, making a very decided advance along many lines. The pastor has given a good administration; it has not been spectacular but constant and painstaking, thorough and instructive. The pastor is seconded by an amiable and helpful wife who wields a fine influence among the women of the charge. A good revival would be a wonderful help. This charge and pastor desire to work together another year. World Service $50; Other Benevolences $64; Other Causes $254; Conversions—; Accessions—. W. A. Harewood, pastor.

EAST NEW MARKET CT. has done well under the leadership of this pastor. The Sunday School has been reorganized and is doing well. Church attendance and benevolences both have increased more than 100%. A revival effort has greatly quickened the church in all its activities. World Service $6; Other Benevolences $36; Other Causes $28; Conversions 5; Accessions 11. E. W. Holden, pastor.

FEDERALSBURG has had a successful year notwithstanding some disturbing features which have to some degree hindered the harmony which ought to have obtained. The attendance has been fairly good. The pastor is evangelistic in his preaching and has kept alive the evangelistic note. A group of singers has been organized by the pastor's wife which serves a good purpose. World Service $23; Other Benevolences $113; Other Causes $133; Conversions 3; Accessions—. Roland Grant, pastor.

GOLDEN HILL has been hard hit because of lack of employment. The pastor has struggled on. World Service $—; Other Benevolences $13; Other Causes $—. I. W. Wallace, pastor.

GREENSBORO is a strong charge of two points. Many people live in the bounds of this charge who could be usefully related to the church. The possibilities here are great effectual leadership for development. The pastor has done what he could. Some of our finest and most loyal people may be found here. World Service $50; Other Benevolences $69; Other Causes $726; Conversions 5; Accessions 12. W. N. Ross, pastor.

HURLOCK has continued the pace it set last year and just will not fall. The pastor conducts at least three services each Sunday in person. Attends his Church Schools, teaches, visits his Epworth Leagues and teaches the children in their homes; like an express train he makes but few short stops. He is an absolute necessity to this charge which loves him very dearly. The charge is unanimous in its urgent request for the return of the pastor and wife for another year. World Service $52; Other Benevolences $103; Other Causes $567; Conversions 12; Accessions 16. L. E. Thomas, pastor.

LINKWOOD has made some decided increases over last year. The pastor is well liked. The people are operating harmoniously. World Service $20; Other Benevolences $19; Other Causes $120. Conversions 12; Accessions 12. J. E. McBride, pastor.

MARYDEL does not seem to be awake to its opportunities; it seems that the camp-meeting is the major religious activity as well as the main source of the annual finances for the church needs. The pastor has done what he could. The great need of this community is a genuine revival of religion. World Service $—; Other Benevolences $—; Other Causes $—; Conversions—; Accessions—. M. C. Jennings, pastor.

McDANIEL has had a good year; the pastor has led and the people have followed and the result is gratifying. Much has been done and there is much yet to be done. The whole community requests the return of the pastor for another year. World Service $16; Other Benevolences $29; Other Causes $87; Conversions 25; Accessions 25. Emmons Foster, pastor.

MILES RIVER has made some progress especially at the home church, at Long Woods the members live some distance from the church and often many do not get to church and therefore have not done so well. The pastor and his wife have worked hard and for the most part the people have cooperated to make possible the present report. We commend them. World Service $10; Other Benevolences $45; Other Causes $34; Conversions 12; Accessions 12. E. H. Jolley, pastor.

OXFORD has been shouting happy this year with their new pastor and have rallied to their lead resulting in a good year's work. Church attendance has been increased more than 100%; the young people have been rallied to active participation in young people's meetings. Some very needy social work has been done to the delight of both white and colored people. The main debt of the church has been greatly reduced and the benevolences increased as reports will show. World Service $20; Other Benevolences $46; Other Causes $313; Conversions 4; Accessions 5. L. F. Hodges, pastor.

PRESTON charge has made advances over last year; church attendance has improved; the young people are being interested in the work of the church. Johns' church is preparing to build a much needed community house on the church grounds. Peace prevails and harmony is the habit here. World Service $33; Other Benevolences $61; Other Causes $368; Conversions—; Accessions—. C. W. Derrickson, pastor.

RIDGELY has done fairly well this year, much more could have been done if there were a unanimous mind to work. The pastor and his wife both have given themselves to the work, as have also the children of the parsonage but the response has been rather feeble. This ought to be a strong charge. World Service $25; Other Benevolences $49; Other Causes $480; Conversions—; Accessions—. W. A. T. Miles, pastor.

ROYAL OAK has had a most successful year; they have worked with the least friction. Here is the most perfect order of service of the district.

and they are justly proud of their achievement; They have been coached and directed by the pastor's wife. The parsonage has been renovated and made more comfortable. This is one of the best charges on the district with a united people with a willingness to carry out the programme of the church. World Service $53; Other Benevolences $144; Other Causes $500; Conversions 10; Accessions 10. W. T. Spellman, pastor.

STEVENSVILLE is another strong charge and capable of great achievements. This charge has a strong preacher, a versatile and useful lady in the parsonage who is not afraid to give herself to the activities of the charge. Some of the best Methodists of our conference may be found here. The parsonage has been repaired and presents a pleasing appearance. Religious fervor is the rule here. World Service $27; Other Benevolences $59; Other Causes $456; Conversions 22; Accessions——. J. A. Fassett, pastor.

ST. MICHAELS is happily following the safe and wise leadership of its pastor who can be depended upon as a district man. The credit of the church has been regained in the town and the pastor is much respected by both races. Membership attendance is very much improved; the young people are well looked after; the finances of the church are in fine condition. The pastor knows how to smile and preach his way into the hearts of the people who earnestly request the return of the preacher for another year. World Service $60; Other Benevolences $103; Other Causes $668; Conversions 3; Accessions 3. R. S. Johns, pastor.

TAYLOR'S ISLAND charge has done a commendable year's work. This charge offers great opportunities for evangelism for large numbers of people live in this community. The spiritual condition is very good. The pastor and his wife have worked well to bring things to pass and have had a degree of success. World Service $20; Other Benevolences $56; Other Causes $263; Conversions 39; Accessions 42. Van B. Wright, pastor.

TRAPPE has completed another year of success. The church has undergone needed repairs which renders it more comfortable. The parsonage has been extensively renovated and painted which makes it look like new. All of these improvements have been completed free of debt. The pastor is a strong preacher, a good pastor, a safe leader and enjoys the respect and confidence of both races. His return is ardently solicited. World Service $50; Other Benevolences $116; Other Causes $440; Conversions 8; Accessions 8. W. E. Waters, pastor.

VIENNA has advanced over last year financially. The church has reduced its bonded debt. The pastor reports an increase in membership and benevolences. World Service $25; Other Benevolences $18; Other Causes $302; Conversions 3; Accessions 8. A. A. McDowell, pastor.

WILLISTON seems to be satisfied with her present attainments. The pastor is a hard earnest worker who deserves better results for his labors. The people have the utmost confidence in the integrity of the pastor. World Service $——; Other Benevolences $——; Other Causes $——; Conversions——. Clarence Wilson, pastor.

WITTMAN under the businesslike leadership of brother Hamilton and his wife has begun to redeem herself and makes a very commendable report this year. The interior of St. John's church; ample heating facilities have been installed. The attendance has been greatly increased with satisfied worshippers. The Church School has been improved, and the people unanimously request the return of the pastor and his wife for another year. World Service $55; Other Benevolences $71; Other Causes $272; Conversions 10; Accessions 6. R. E. Hamilton, pastor.

PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT.

By the grace of God we are spared to make this our third report for the Philadelphia District. God has been good to us; no pastor has died and most of them have enjoyed good health. Some, however, have had sorrow. Rev. J. N. Bullen was saddened by the death of his wife, Mrs. Annie Bullen; Rev. T. H. Woodley by the death of his sister, Rev. R. G. Waters by the death of his brother and Rev. M. W. Clark by the death of his brother.

Mrs. H. T. Johnson, Mrs. R. A. McCarthy, Mrs. J. C. Dunn, Mrs. Wm. Goldsborough, Mrs. J. E. A. Johns and Mrs. W. A. Johnson have been indisposed some part of the year.

Just as last year, the District has been organized into the following committees: Evangelistic, Religious Educational, Social Service, and Financial. The chairmen of these committees have from time to time projected programs and conducted discussions that have kept the work of the committees before the various charges and results have been gratifying.

Some of the charges have had good revivals and added many to the churches. Results along this line would be better if we were able to take advantage of Lent, Passion Week and Easter specifically for winning souls; but usually we are making preparation for conference, and thus have a divided interest. Our recommendation is that young people and adults be organized into classes and prepared for reception on trial during the Easter season.

The people have shown their gratitude for improved economic conditions by a larger response to their financial obligation, hence a better financial report than last year. According to reports from the charges World Service collections have gone well beyond last year's and ministerial support is in advance of last year. There was some advance in Conference Claimants, but not nearly enough. We have hope and faith that this will immediately advance. Pro-rata division has been urged, and a few pastors and churches have strictly observed it. May their tribe increase.

The Million Unit Fellowship Movement was cheerfully accepted and the district quota subscribed.

The young people's annual meetings, The Preachers' Meetings, District Conference and Efficiency Conference give opportunity for stimulating interest and obtaining results which would be otherwise impossible.

The Charges.

BROOKLYN:—

JOHN WESLEY'S future is uncertain. J. E. Dunn, the pastor, has put forth great effort and has had success. With so few interested members, it is difficult to meet all the financial obligations. There have been two conversions and seven added to the church. $55. was raised for World Service and $35. for other benevolences. 10 units were subscribed.

NEWMAN—This church continues to grow as its program expands. E. H. Crampton reports 5 added to the church and World Service $70.00; an increase of $20.00; other benevolences $50.00 and 23 units subscribed. The church conducted a Vacation Bible School and is well organized. The Brooklyn Federation of Churches give much encouragement to our work in that city.

NEW YORK:—

BUTLER CHURCH has been remodeled and the future for it looks more encouraging. F. J. Handy reports $500.00 raised for trustees and $10.00 for World Service; $15.00 for other benevolences. 2 units subscribed.

EAST CALVARY, our new work in New York City, is growing. 29 members on roll. Raised for World Service $5.00, other benevolences $6.00. Subscribed for 2 units. J. N. C. Davis, pastor.

ENGLEWOOD—The pastor, W. A. Johnson, and his wife were ill part of the year, nevertheless, the church has advanced along all lines; congregation has been built up and confidence established. $10.00 for World Service; $13.00 for other benevolences.

JAMAICA—If better support were given and thus enabling the pastor to give more time to the work, a better report could be made; but there has been some advances. 14 persons were added to the church, $1000.00 raised for trustees, $50.00 for World Service, a $10.00 increase, $23.00 for other benevolences, and 14 units subscribed. A good Vacation Bible School was conducted. R. A. McCarthy, pastor.

JERSEY CITY though laboring under tremendous financial burden, makes a good report. 8 conversions and 26 added to the church. $24.00 for World Service and 5 units subscribed. A Vacation Bible School was conducted. J. W. Thomas, pastor.

MONTCLAIR is a strong charge, but is not as responsive to World Service and benevolences as some other churches in its class. Conversions 32; accessions 35; World Service $260.00; other benevolences $75.00. Units subscribed 35. W. J. Helm, pastor.

NEWARK is gradually moving forward. They had a World Service and benevolent gain; 16 conversions and 51 joined the church. Raised for World Service $176.00 and for benevolences $123.00; 40 units were subscribed. Congregation continues to grow. W. C. Thompson, pastor.

ORANGE—J. N. Bullen is leading this church back to its former standing. Junior League has been organized, and all other departments are advancing. The pastor and people pro-rate weekly. Conversions 8; accessions 12; raised for World Service $60.00; other benevolences $26.00.

OSSINING and NEW ROCHELLE were separated during the year. E. W. Dean was continued in charge of Ossining and G. T. Jackson supplied New Rochelle. This plan worked out well and both made good reports. The church at Ossining has been painted and renovated. $20.00 raised for World Service and other benevolences. New Rochelle had 2 accessions; raised $10.00 for World Service and subscribed for 1 unit.

PHILADELPHIA:—

BETHSAIDA has had another year of success under D. R. Fletcher. World Service and benevolences increased, ministerial support advanced 40%. World Service $15; other benevolences $5.00. 4 units subscribed. Conversions 5, accessions 6.

CAMPBOR increased its World Service and benevolent giving. Had 4 conversions and 28 accessions. World Service $68.00; other benevolences $4.00; 7 units subscribed, and a Vacation Church School. M. W. Clark, pastor.

EAST GERMANTOWN had another good year. 5 conversions, 8 accessions. World Service $72.00; benevolences $37.00—both an increase. This was the first charge to report full Unit subscription, which was nine, but they subscribed 21. A Vacation Bible School was held. J. T. Wallace, pastor.

GERMANTOWN—J. E. A. Johns "will not down." He again advanced World Service and benevolent giving. Conversions 20; accessions 20; World Service $735.00; benevolence $138 and subscribed 76 units, 21 more than their quota.

HAVEN also increased World Service giving and benevolences. 32 conversions; 168 accessions—leading the district. Subscribed 63 units. Their quota is 55. Vacation Bible School was conducted. World Service $650.00; benevolence $200.00. J. W. Jefferson is the popular pastor.

JOHN SIMMONS had another successful year. If this debt could be reduced and a revival should come this would be another of our great churches in Philadelphia. Conversions 29, accessions 31. World Service $52.00, an advance; benevolence $36.00; units subscribed 20. A. L. Martin, pastor.

JOHN WESLEY has advanced in World Service and benevolent giving. W. A. Hubbard reports 40 persons added to the church. A Vacation Bible School was conducted. World Service $235.00; other benevolences $97.00. Units subscribed 15.

MT. ZION is still gaining ground. 46 conversions, 108 accessions, $155.00 for World Service, an advance; $97.00 for other benevolences, an advance. 32 units were subscribed, 5 beyond the quota. Vacation Bible School and a crowded church. H. R. Coleman, pastor.

PENIEL—William Goldsborough has been handicapped, but makes a good report. 35 accessions; 25 conversions; for World Service and other benevolences $42.00; units subscribed 16, and a Vacation Bible School conducted.

TINDLEY TEMPLE—Raised for World Service $1500 and for other benevolences $198.00, both an increase over last year. Interest is being taken care of and the debt reduced. Outstanding obligations have been met and a better organization effected. This church needs an associate pastor, a secretary, and a social worker. I do not have a report on conversion and accessions, but am certain that a good report could be made on these items. 181 units subscribed—full quota, and Vacation Bible School conducted. D. W. Henry, pastor.

ZOAR CHURCH has had one of its best years. Conversions 35; accessions 49; for World Service $1000.00; for other benevolences $180, both an increase. The debt has been reduced and interest paid. 90 units subscribed and a Vacation Bible School conducted. L. H. McArthur, pastor.

SPRING LAKE enjoyed a successful summer season and reported an advance in ministerial support. D. R. Fletcher, pastor.

TRENTON still stands in need of a better church building. T. H. Woodley gives a good account of himself by raising $71.00 for World Service, $18.00 for benevolence, both an increase. Conversions 4; accessions 4. Units subscribed 13.

WHITE PLAINS—H. T. Johnson reports 3 conversions, 18 accessions, raised for World Service $150, same as last year. Units subscribed 25. Pastor and people have worked hard, but against odds.

FRANKFORD reports 8 conversions; 16 accessions. World Service $32.00, an advance; other benevolences $15.00. Units subscribed 6. This charge has 3 rented properties, which help to carry the interest on the bonded debt. R. G. Waters, pastor.

According to reports from the pastors, there have been 296 conversions on the district and 764 accessions to the churches. $5,474.00 raised for World Service; $1,134 for other benevolences; 731 units have been pledged, 3 above our district quota, 14 churches conducted Vacation Bible Schools.

For these achievements we are thankful to our Heavenly Father in whose services we have labored. It has been a genuine pleasure to serve with the pastors and members of this district. The fellowship has been wholesome and beneficial. In closing we desire to thank the pastors and their families for the many courtesies shown and for their cooperation in the work committed to us all.

Your brother,

J. T. FLETCHER.

SALISBURY DISTRICT.

It is with a grateful heart and unalloyed praise to Almighty God that I am permitted to make this my sixth and last report of the Salisbury District.

District Health.

This district generally has enjoyed the blessing of health in common with the most of the districts. Aside from the mild epidemic of influenza that swept this section there has been no serious illness; nearly every home was affected but there were only a few fatalities. Brother Charles P. Spencer met with the misfortune of having his leg fractured in November; Mrs. I. D. Pitts clavicle was fractured by a fall down stairs; Mrs. F. C. Kershaw was injured by a fall from her automobile; Brother C. L. Jones has been afflicted seriously with high blood pressure causing a slight lameness.

Deaths.

There came to this district, community and conference the most distressing event they have suffered perhaps in a score of years in the passing of Brother T. H. Kiah who for many years was Principal of Princess Anne Academy on December 30th, 1936, at the Peninsula General Hospital at Salisbury, Md., where he was confined from the evening of December 23th. His funeral was one of the largest and most pathetic ever witnessed by the writer.

District Activities.

The usual district meetings were held during the year with the usual declaration of being the best ever held. The District Steward's meeting was held at Metropolitan church, Princess Anne; the Epworth League and Church School convention at Snow Hill; the district Conference at Pocomoke City; and the Efficiency conference also at Snow Hill. The program of the Epworth League and Church School convention, also the Youth conference which was held at Princess Anne College was prepared by Dr. E. H. Brewster, Conference Director of Religious Education. Princess Anne affords the best site for the youth conference because of the facilities of the college buildings which are placed at the disposal of the district for that occasion.

Educational Interests.

The former Princess Anne Academy is now Princess Anne College affording a four year course as an agricultural and mechanical arts institution. The death of Professor Kiah left a vacancy for president of that institution which has not been permanently filled at this writing.

There are at least three high schools in the course of reconstruction with a higher curriculum. The elementary schools of this district will compare in the matter of instruction very favorably with the adjacent states; in the matter of equipment they are not as good as one of them.

Social and Industrial.

The Social and industrial conditions are about the same on this as in other rural sections. The most of its industry is agriculture, oystering and fishing is the exception. There are but a few industrial plants on the district and they will be found in Salisbury where only a few colored people are employed in the most menial capacities in seasonal occupations.

Survey of Charges.

(For information concerning membership and finance in detail see report of Statistician and Treasurer).

COTTAGE GROVE—This charge thinking that with the addition of another charge would enhance its value as a potential religious factor in the territory it would cover, was enlarged by the addition of Greenwood charge and dropping Westover which seemed to be the hindering cause has not yet measured up to expectations. World Service $12.00. Jose Angulo, pastor.

CRISFIELD, SHILOH—Although this is the pastor's eighth year the zeal of both pastor and people continue unabated. World Service $130.00

J. A. Kiah, pastor.

CRISFIELD, UNION-ASBURY—There seems to be lethargic condition existing at this charge. There is a static condition which is about as hard to place as the static in the radio. We know it is there. World Service $10.00. Alexander Reid is the pastor.

DAMES QUARTER—An effort was made last conference year to connect Dames Quarter with Oriole and Chance with Deals Island which was so bitterly opposed we thought they would be aroused to greater activity. Notwithstanding the conscientious efforts of the estimable pastor they have failed to arouse from their lethargy. The pastor, last December was compelled to cease from his labor for a few weeks owing to an accident he sustained by his leg being broken while he was helping to fix an automobile belonging to some one else. World Service $6.00. Charles P. Spencer, pastor.

DEALS ISLAND—The pastor of this charge is by far the most zealous and energetic they have had since I have been on the district. The people have striven as best they know how to please him in carrying on his program but because of the disadvantages he has had to face because of inadequate facilities in his home life the work has been somewhat irksome. World Service $6.80. D. M. Collins, pastor.

FAIRMOUNT and UPPER HILL—Owing to the ill feelings which was engendered when St. Andrews church was founded at Upper Hill, which at times subsides and then revives the charge has not done all it is capable of doing and will not as long as that incident is agitated. The pastor has done all he could in a most sacrificial and painstaking manner to change conditions by precept and example and if this amiable young man would be saved for future service in the church his capabilities should be recognized by placing him in another field of labor, which is strongly recommended. World Service $38.00. N. W. Moore, Jr., pastor.

FLOWER HILL and LEATHERBERRY CHAPEL—This work having been neglected for a period of years has had the attention of the present pastor for the last two years and were it not for the tradition of the section to which it belongs would be quite a factor financially, spiritually and intellectually. Recommendations will be made at the next session of the Annual Conference to place it with Oakville so that it will be able to furnish a more adequate support for the pastor. A. F. Winder, pastor.

FRUITLAND—This charge maintains its record of last year. The pastor heeding the scriptural admonition that it is not good for man to be alone took unto himself a help mate which has so much enhanced his value and increased his prestige that it is reflected in his work and esteem by the people. World Service $20.00. W. R. Price, pastor.

GIRDLETREE—This charge has not escaped the traditional summer vacation which the charges of this section voluntarily enjoy without or paying and the work lags during this period to such an extent that it is hard to recover however hard they may try. The pastor was afflicted in late summer with an ailment similar to paralysis caused by high blood pressure and for a time had to walk with a crutch but is convalescent. He is very zealous and conscientious in the performance of his duties and perhaps too much for his physical condition. World Service $——. C. L. Jones, pastor.

HOPEWELL—The work on this charge is necessarily retarded during winter, because of the condition of the road to the main church; but under the leadership of a young man and vigorous pastor he is not daunted by rainy Sundays and muddy roads, wins the victory. For the fourth year this pastor makes a fine report. World Service $22.00. I. R. Elzey, pastor.

✓ HORNTOWN, VA.—This charge seemingly has sunk to the very lowest possible for maintainance. It is not impossible and I believe can be resurrected under a different leadership. It is greatly desired to make a change at this session of the Conference but it is not possible to do so. World Service $4.00. S. D. Mallard, pastor.

KELLER—This charge arose from the grave two years ago and altho one of the church edifices was sold under foreclosure last year they are still carrying on with a hope of redeeming this property. With the leadership of the present pastor I see no reason why their objective can not be accomplished. World Service $20.00. C. J. Williams, pastor.

KINGSTON—This work continues to advance under the leadership of a bold and courageous leader; but upon a constructive campaign with a people who for a long time were without such. World Service $17.00. R. A. F. Graham, pastor.

LEEMONT—A severe setback happened to this charge about three years ago from which they have never wholly recovered. There is a disturbing factor at work here on the outside who interferes with the pastor's program and defeats some of his plans, so I have been informed. The pastor has worked heroically and wholeheartedly notwithstanding. World Service $19.00. W. E. Stanley, pastor.

LIBERIA—This charge suffered the loss of its parsonage because of one of the churches of this charge refused point blank to meet its share of the indebtedness and the other church refused just as positively to pay more than their share. It has been supplied by Brother I. H. Bivins an Accepted Supply, who by reason of illness has been hindered from giving much attention to the work and will be relieved at this session of the conference. Many of the officials and members think it wise to discontinue the charge altogether; but for the sake of the young people there I think such a thing untenable. Brother S. D. Holland of Hopewell charge, an Accepted Supply will be recommended for pastor, as his home is not far removed from the work and is willing to carry on. I. H. Bivins, pastor.

MANOKIN—WESTOVER—This charge renders the best report in six years under the leadership of a young man full of energy and vigor who has a vision. This charge was also enlarged by the addition of a very small appointment, Westover, which has loaned some assistance financially, it being taken from the Cottage Grove charge making this a three point circuit but it is still far from being self supporting. World Service $25.00. R. H. Cook, pastor.

MARION—Still rejoicing in their freedom from the thralldom imposed upon them when this Cathedral was built the people of this charge in a tangible way are showing the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension their gratitude by meeting their obligation. In fact they are in advance on their payments on the principal. The pastor and people are working harmoniously together and results for good are evident. World Service $50.00. T. W. Cooper, pastor.

MT. VERNON—It is thought best because of misunderstanding between the pastor and one of the three churches of this charge that a change be made in its set-up and that it revert to its former status of two churches, viz: Mt. Vernon and Polk's Road, leaving Oakville, which is the strongest of the three to go back with Flower Hill. There is no parsonage at Mt. Vernon but the pastor who prefers to live in Princess Anne will not be inconvenienced because of the severance from Oakville where the parsonage of the charge is located. World Service $5.00. J. S. Coard, pastor.

NANTICOKE—These are among the happiest people in the world. They struggled for a long time with a debt which seemed insurmountable. One of its members about three years ago gave two thousand dollars and another eight hundred, which reduced the indebtedness to ten thousand dollars. It arose, including the interest, to about twelve thousand dollars in two years. A young, and vigorous man, spurred to activity by the liberality of the the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and their creditor, Mr. F. P. Adkins of the E. S. Adkins Lumber Company, came upon the scene, was successful in meeting the requirements of the Board and Mr. Adkins, and has reduced the debt to $3,500 on the revolving loan plan, and there is no reason why the requirements of payment cannot be met. So happy and grateful are they that they presented the writer with a silver loving cup to manifest their gratitude toward him for the insignificant service rendered by him in bringing about their liberation. World Service $10.00. M. C. Anderson, pastor.

ORIOLE—One of the churches of this charge continues to lag in their responsibility, thus causing the other, St. James, to furnish most of the support to the charge. This pastor as well as the two preceding pastors, to my own knowledge have tried their utmost to infuse life into the Venton Church but have signally failed. World Service $2.00. I. D. Pitts, pastor.

PARSONSBURG—After a season of regressions this charge has shown some positive signs of progress under the leadership of this young and energetic leader. With the help of his wife, who is as ardent and zealous as the husband, they have gone through sunshine and rain to make ends meet and to bring this three point circuit around to what any three point circuit should be. World Service $28.00. T. N. Hodges, pastor.

POCOMOKE CITY—For the last several years this charge has been the leading appointment on the district and under the present leadership of pastor and wife has increased its efficiency every year. There seems to be no end to their zeal and earnestness of endeavor for the cause in every phase of the work. To find the answer to every disciplinary and conference or district requirement see Pocomoke City. World Service $180.00. W. H. Mears, pastor.

PRINCESS ANNE—There is no cessation at this place in its observance of its requirements and every effort to meet its requirement are registered here. Here is the center of district activities and the people feel slighted when not called upon to entertain them. The presence of Princess Anne Academy and now the college with such a leader as the late Professor Kiah for a number of years is reflected in the ability of the people to comprehend what is that good and perfect will of their church and they sincerely try to comply. World Service $40.00. R. C. Hughes, pastor.

QUANTICO—For a number of years the question was being asked, is there any good thing in Quantico? The question was answered by the advent of a Moses and the addition of the Hebron charge. This charge, which before was overwhelmed and chagrined, has asserted itself and is giving a good account of its stewardship. World Service $30.00. M. P. Sterling, pastor.

SALISBURY—JOHN WESLEY—Notwithstanding the muttering of the thunder and the vivid flashing of the lightning which at periods characterized the life of this church, there also periodically comes a calm. Under the leadership of this never weary or never tired pastor the work continues to prosper. Here was located last year a sewing unit of the WPA, and this year here is the baby clinic for the county. The pastor is foremost in looking after the needs of the poor and distressed regardless of church affiliation and has elicited many a God bless you from the distressed. See Rev. Gibson is the slogan. World Service $60.00. Elmer P. Gibson, pastor.

SALISBURY—WHITES TEMPLE—If there was less bickering and complaining at this church, more could be accomplished. The pastor and his wife have labored persistently and incessantly to create a spirit of helpfulness and cooperation among this membership, and have succeeded only at intervals when better counsel prevailed. There is yet hope. We are praying that it will come before it is too late. World Service $29.00. F. T. Johnson, pastor.

SNOW HILL—A good report comes from this charge, which delightfully entertained two district meetings this year, viz., the Church School and Epworth League Convention and the Efficiency Conference. Pastor and people are happy together. They are capable of doing wonderful work in Kingdom building. World Service $40.00. J. L. Sawyer, pastor.

SNOW HILL AND STOCKTON CIRCUITS—These two charges were combined in a hope that a greater work would be done. Neither of them have a parsonage fit to live in. In fact the Snow Hill circuit has none at all. When Brother E. H. Nichols resigned, left the Stockton circuit, and Brother Williams, the pastor of Snow Hill circuit, and an Accepted Supply came, whose home is in the territory of the Stockton circuit, when he was offered the two churches of the Stockton circuit, gladly accepted them. The four churches are unable to furnish a support for a pastor. Brother Williams and the people are happy. R. J. Williams, pastor.

STOCKTON—Better counsel has prevailed at this place, and where there was once discord, harmony prevails. Brother Purnell has stood the storm and I think there exists a calm where there was a hurricane. Both pastor and people seem to be at ease. World Service $10.00. J. R. Purnell, pastor.

UNIONVILLE—This charge is as usual at peace with the world and doing their best to carry out the program of the church. Very peaceful and amicable relations exist between the two churches. The pastor is well calculated to maintain that condition. World Service $10.00. J. W. Elbert, pastor.

WACHAPREAGUE—Brother Shockley was late in joining his charge, having been at Gammon at the adjournment of conference, but mutual admiration has been maintained throughout the year. They say he is one of the best preachers they have ever had. World Service $15.00. J. R. Shockley, pastor.

WATTSVILLE—This is the largest charge on the district from a numerical standpoint, and if the labor conditions were equal to many of the large charges, their achievements would be far greater. This is a loyal people and they love their church. Their surroundings have little or no influence on their church life. Brother Kershaw has not enjoyed good health since he has been on the work, but he has wrought well. World Service $15.00. F. C. Kershaw, pastor.

WETIPQUIN—The people of this charge are delighted with the success that has attended them since the appointment of their present pastor, who has done great things for them and for which they are glad. He has built a much needed parsonage with his own hands, and also shingled one of the churches, and that too with his own hands. World Service $20.00. A. L. Black, pastor.

WHITE HAVEN—Under this pastor with his evangelistic fervor, this appointment has done well the last two years. World Service $10.00. C. T. Covington, pastor.

WITHAMS—This charge is in a very good condition and has progressed under the leadership of this stalwart soldier of the cross, who has succeeded in accomplishing remarkable things for them. They part company in peace. World Service $17.00. J. O. Griffin, pastor.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. DICKERSON,

District Superintendent.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT.

We are grateful to Almighty God for the privilege of making this our second recount of faithful and sacrificial service of the brethren of the Wilmington District, despite the many difficulties which have faced them, they have wrought well. Through their earnest and persistent efforts many have forged ahead to higher heights than those reached last year.

Translations.

The Rev. W. W. Hoy, our faithful accepted supply at Mt. Carmel, was translated August 22, 1936. He was true to the trust committed to him.

Mattie Delthena Peaco, the devoted wife of Rev. John I. Peaco, our pastor on Odessa charge, passed to her eternal reward January 25, 1937, at her home, Atglen, Chester County, Pa.

Rhoda A. Johns, the mother of Rev. W. H. Johns, our pastor at Port Norris, N. J., was taken home to be with her Lord, March 4, 1937, at the ripe age of 91 years and 10 months.

Dr. J. A. T. Foust, our pastor at Mt. Holly, was bereaved of his father March 4, 1937.

Sickness invaded some of the other parsonages of the District, but without serious consequences.

Change in Appointment.

One pastoral adjustment was made during the year when P. B. Bailey, Local preacher at Darby, Pa., continued the work at Mt. Carmel, Wilmington, after the passing of W. W. Hoy.

Meetings.

The usual Official meetings have been held and were sources of great inspiration and enthusiasm. The District Stewards met at Ezion, Wilmington, with Dr. D. H. Hargis and his loyal people as hosts. Here the pastors and district stewards pledged anew their full cooperation for a larger support for Conference claimants and other connectional askings; a greater effort toward the promotion of evangelism and the increase in church membership; and for greater emphasis in the proper nurture of the youth of the church.

The Young People had a good time at the Church School and Epworth League Convention at Elkton, Md., June 30, July 1 and 2, 1936. A new worship service and three First Series Courses were introduced by the President, Rev. L. S. Moore, and the director of religious education, Dr. E. H. Brewster. The attendance was excellent. The cooperation and enthusiasm kept up until the close. The young people returned to their local churches more loyal to their Master; ready for immediate service.

Daily Vacation Bible Schools still continue to grow in influence and value.

A very commendable piece of work has been developed through Religious Training Schools and Day Conferences under the direction of Dr. E. H. Brewster. We regret very much that he is no longer with us but we look forward for the further development of this phase of the work through our newly elected Conference Director, Dr. F. J. Handy.

Early in the fall the mechanics of the Million Unit Fellowship Movement were introduced at the five group meetings by the District Superintendent. This was followed by a thorough explanation at the District Conference at Pleasantville, N. J., Oct. 12, 14, 15, by our Resident Bishop E. G. Richardson, D. D., LL. D. At this meeting, each group leader pledged 100% support for his group. In most cases the men have lived up to their pledge personally and further registered the pledges for their congregations for their full number of units at the Annual Efficiency Conference held at Chester, February 9, 1937.

Excellent work has been accomplished by the Ladies' Aid Societies, the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, the Brotherhoods and kindred organizations. On a whole a good year's work has been given for the Master's cause.

For intensive cultivation and stimulation towards reaching goals set forth in the forward program, the district is divided into six groups.

REPORT OF THE MANAGER OF THE WASHINGTON AND DELAWARE
CONFERENCE INSTITUTE, THE 16TH SESSION AT MORGAN
COLLEGE BALTIMORE, AUGUST 17-23.

The test of the worth whileness of an Institution is in its ability to carry on under adverse circumstances and conditions. Measured by these standards the joint effort of the Washington and Delaware Conferences in promoting this training school for the youth through these years is a proof that they believed that it was worthwhile and the enthusiastic attendance upon the part of the youth from year to year is the further assurance that the program is meeting in need.

The nineteen thirty six session of the Institute at Morgan College was one of the finest in personnel, program, leadership, and spirit we have had. The young people in attendance were largely from High School, Normal School, and College, and their response to the Christian Education program was genuinely sincere. The members of the faculty were carefully selected for the subjects which they were to teach. The school officers and agents were highly co-operative and the Manager aimed to make the whole atmosphere conducive to genuine christian fellowship. The commission in their annual session did two things which should appear in this report; first, they authorized the increase of youth representation in the commission, the same to be elected by the several councils of youth on the ten districts. This action will greatly increase the expenses of the Institute and should be heartily supported in the local church and borne in mind when the apportionments are given. Second, the commission authorized the purchase of new cots for the women's and girls dormitories, the cots have borne the weight of Institutes for sixteen years. They are weary, worn and tired and are asking for a retired relationship.

Perhaps the happiest result of the past years Institute is that it will enable the Manager at this session of the conference to report that all the bills have been met and the deficit of the long standing has been wiped out. This is due to the larger support of the districts, to the most economical management and to the increase of receipts from registrations. Here I wish to thank the pastors, district superintendents, and the local charges for this brings a very happy moment in my life.

The detail report as to the receipts and expenditures are as follows:

Receipts.

Registration . . . . .	$257.00
Delaware Conference . . . . .	257.00
Washington Conference . . . . .	249.00
Concert . . . . .	26.00
Collection . . . . .	7.00
Commission Books and Candy . . . . .	14.00
	<hr/>
Total . . . . .	$811.90

Expenditures.

Paid—Accumulated deficit . . . . .	$215.43
Expenses of the 1936 Institute . . . . .	592.22
Total . . . . .	$801.65
Balance . . . . .	$4.25

The recommendations are as follows:

1. That we accept the dates August 16 to 23 for the 1937 Institute at Morgan college.
2. That each conference accept and raise an apportionment of five hundred dollars ($500.00), and the District Superintendent be authorized to apportion the same to the respective charges.
3. That each charge through the pastor report its apportionment to the District Superintendent by July 10th.
4. That every charge send at least one delegate, and charges with one thousand or more members send one for every one hundred members.
5. That the pastors plan to spend the week at the Institute to emphasize the Youth Institute Week.

The heartiest co-operation is solicited from the councils of youth, the church school superintendents, the presidents of the Epworth League, the pastors and District Superintendents, with gratitude to our Heavenly Father and hearty thanks to all who have made these results possible.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT J. MITCHELL.

HOME FOR THE AGED

We, your committee for the Home for the Aged at Lawnside, N. J., after careful study and consultation with the field agent, who labors in the interest of the home, recommend

First, the continuation of the Home. Because of the present indebtedness of one thousand dollars, and since we have scarcely raised for the last three years enough money to pay the interest, we recommend

Second, that the district superintendents be requested to divide said amount proportionately among the various charges, to be raised and paid in full the ensuing conference year. And we recommend

Third, that a special drive be put on in each local charge to raise this apportionment for the Home, and that a local committee be set up in each charge, with their present conference lay delegate named as chairman of said committee, to assume the responsibility of raising the amount apportioned, and that the amount be sent to the field agent, Dr. J. H. Scott, 1229 N. 58th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1937.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr. gave impetus to the nation-wide Million Unit Fellowship Movement, sponsored by the Methodist Episcopal Church, as he warned a great radio audience gathered in churches throughout the United States, that the world is too concerned with the material and too little intent on spiritual values. To "stem the rising tide of materialism, of selfishness, of shaken traditions, and crumbling moral standards" he proposes a united Christian world in which people may "find unity of purpose in seeking a simple fundamental religion as the way to peace, well being, and happiness." Commenting on the radio speech of Mr. Rockefeller, a columnist in one of our great daily newspapers reminds us "The proposal is not new. In one form or another it has appeared for many years. That the ideal has not long since been attained may point to a mistaken emphasis. Perhaps the need is not so much that people shall UNITE TO ATTAIN HIGHER SPIRITUALITY, AS IT IS THAT PEOPLE SHALL ATTAIN HIGHER SPIRITUALITY SO THAT THEY MAY UNITE."

With this observation in mind, what an obligation the church has to its children and their leaders! We must not be satisfied with impressive figures but ever seek to promote changed lives; clearer conception of what it means to be a Christian in these times; and a mastery of the skills that are essential to adequate spiritual leadership of the church.

Our Organization

Members of the Board, representing both ministers and laymen, meet twice a year to plan for our common task. In each district there is a Youth organization which carries out the program as outlined by the Director and the Board. Several of the districts hold annual district Youth Conferences, with the youth assuming entire leadership. The annual Youth Conference at the seat of the Annual Conference brings together representatives from each district within the Delaware Conference, as well as a goodly number of young people from the Philadelphia Conference.

The Service of Dr. E. H. Brewster

After four years of most devoted service Dr. E. H. Brewster relinquishes the office of Conference Director of religious education. His counsel and guidance have been invaluable. He has shown that is possible for Christian people of different color to work, worship, and serve on the basis of Christ's redemptive love. At another time and place we shall show our appreciation to Dr. Brewster for the splendid work he has done in Kingdom building.

Morgan College and Its Relationship to the Higher Education of the Negro

1. Last June over 840 Negro boys and girls were graduated from high schools in Maryland, with practically no State provisions for their college training. Morgan College is the only institution in State where these students may complete their college education.

2. For many years Morgan College has done this work for the State at considerable expense to the institution.

3. Over 90% of the 1500 Negro public school teachers in Maryland received some part of their training in Morgan College.

A proposal to combine the Delaware and Washington conferences in a program of religious education has been discussed. It was thought that since the Delaware Conference has made some progress in this field the director for any joint arrangement should come from the Delaware Conference.

Dr. Merle English has shown unusual interest and cooperation in our work, promising us generous financial help when our program and policy take final form. Bishop Richardson and the District Superintendents are equally as interested and cooperative.

Finance

The financial support given our work has never been adequate. We all know the chief means of support comes from the Rally Day offering. While there has been a slight increase in the Rally Day offering each year; yet we have never raised the total amount asked. If the work already begun is being conserved and an enlarged program developed more attention must be given to finances. We earnestly urge larger giving in the Rally Day offering.

The New Challenge

Great social, political and religious tasks confront the church today as it attempts to project its program of social service, religious education and evangelism.

The modern method of securing results is by cooperation and appreciation.

It's the greatest thought in heaven or earth—
It helps us know our fellow's worth;
There'd be no wars or bitterness,
No fear, no hate, no grasping; yes,
It makes work play, and the careworn free
When I appreciate you and you appreciate me.

To this new challenge your Conference Board of Education dedicates its strength.

For the Board,

EARL H. CRAMPTON, President.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION—TO THE DELAWARE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, APRIL 3, 1937, ATLANTIC CITY, NEW JERSEY.

Dear Brethren:

I would have completed four years of service in the Delaware Conference in June. I remember how slight was my acquaintance with the members of this conference when I came. I had much trepidation of spirit. I did not know how you would receive me; whether you would understand me. I was fearful lest you should attribute to me a condescending attitude, or feel that my appointment had been made in a spirit of patronage. All these misgivings were soon corrected. I have moved throughout the Delaware Conference with the same freedom, friendliness and mutual response as in the other two conferences I served. You have taught me much that I needed to learn. Your unswerving friendliness, understanding and appreciation have enriched my life. You have a permanent place in my affections. The Delaware Conference, as the English Queen said of Calais, is written on my heart.

In spite of the fact that the year was broken by assignment to other duties, many helpful educational enterprises have been promoted. Last year's annual Youth Conference was distinctive. All five districts were represented. The addresses by Dean Mays, of Howard University, and Senator Nye, of North Dakota, were especially bright lights. The attendance reached 200.

In May a delightful interracial gathering was held at my home in Norwood. The continuation committee of the Philadelphia and Delaware Youth Conference met together. Many still remember the day with gladness. Those who are skeptical of the compatibility of the races—especially when the races have formed their unity in Christ—would have been enlightened by the experience. A similar gathering was held during the Christmas Holidays at Zoar Church. One of the officials of Zoar Church remarked, as he watched the 35 or more young people mingling in some joyous games, "Any one can tell that these are Christian young people."

I have been charged with promoting interracial fellowship. I admit it—and accept the charge as a compliment. I shall continue to do so. If I should be so unhappy as to lose the vision of Christ, I should probably fall into the ways of segregation.

Once more the Delaware Conference was represented at a nationwide Methodist Youth Conference—this time at Berea, Kentucky. To encourage enrollment of delegates, urge financing, mobilize for the trip—all required careful planning. What a splendid delegation you sent! They were, Philadelphia District, Florence Lucas, Jamaica, N. Y.; Wilmington District, Miss Lucy Wricks, St. Daniel's, Chester, Pa.; with Miss Wricks went a school teacher friend, Miss Anna Johnson; Dover District, Miss Ruth Williams, Cheswold, Del.; Easton District sent two delegates, Miss Elaine Coulbourne, Easton, Md., and Brice Miles, Ridgely, Md.; Salisbury District, Miss Vivian Hughes, Princess Anne. The Morgan College Institute graciously appointed and helped to send an official delegate. Mr. James Hardcastle, of Dover, Del.

These young people have reported Berea in all the districts, and several have promoted similar youth conferences in their districts. They were heartily welcomed at Berea. They were unquestionably the outstanding delegation from the Afro-American membership of our Methodist Church. Congratulations, Brethren, on these delegates! Many thanks to you, District Superintendents, for the support of this enterprise. I strongly urge that such contacts with our nation-wide Methodist be maintained. Especially since we approach jurisdictional organization is this necessary. We must not become a provincial Church, nor lose the glory of our interracial heritage.

In June came the District Epworth League and Church School conventions. I attended five. In three, First Series Training Courses were given, and with much success. The teaching was exceptionally well done. I urge the continuance of this practice.

Leadership Training has had a wholesome emphasis throughout the year. At Atlantic City a group Training School was held in November. I was unable to have the school in Bridgeton, Wilmington and Philadelphia, as before. These efforts, however, should not be dropped. I am confident of their continuance.

Many local training courses were held by pastors. A particularly impressive effort was carried on by the Rev. Kelly Jackson and cooperating pastors on the Dover District. Congratulations to these energetic brethren.

The Vacation Church Schools provided a blessing to many children during the Summer. Three Institutes were held by the director, one in Princess Anne, for three days; another at Chester, and a six-week Inter-denominational Institute in Philadelphia. Several young women (benefited by the Institute at Princess Anne) helped to train teachers elsewhere. About 15 Vacation Schools have reported, but many more were held. No schools in any denomination exceeded in numbers those held at St. Daniels, Chester, Pentel, Philadelphia, and Tindley Temple, Philadelphia.

Other very strong schools were at Ezion, Wilmington, Haven, Philadelphia, and Princess Anne. Some of our most efficient schools were in the rural churches. Many pastors could fulfill the disciplinary requirement respecting the religious instruction of children, if they would conduct a Vacation Church School. A two-week school, meeting five days each week, or two hours every day, would be the equivalent of what is afforded the average child in Sunday School.

As in previous years I was very happy to make visits to local churches. My regret that time did not permit more such visits. I did, however, preach in the following churches, Haven and Janes, Philadelphia; Ezion, Wilmington; Bridgeton, N. J.; White Haven and Nanticoke, Berlin, Royal Oak, Deals Island and John Wesley, Salisbury, Md.

Morgan College Institute is one of our finest training centers. The enrollment last year was gratifying. Dr. Hargis, Dr. Butler, the Rev. Mr. Moore, the Rev. O. H. Spence, from this conference, gave themselves unremittingly for the welfare of the students. The Washington conference cooperated with enthusiasm. No Institute of my acquaintance maintains a better balance of the intellectual, spiritual and recreational elements. The quality of the student body is superior. The devotional hours, last year in charge of Professor H. L. Cornish, are upon the highest level. Methodism can well be proud of Morgan College Institute. Support it, Brethren, with increased fidelity.

I must record my warm appreciation of the faithfulness of our conference board. At the sacrifice of time and money the members meet in goodly numbers twice each year. The district superintendents without exception attend. The Rev. E. H. Crampton proved a conscientious and able president.

Financially we have made a small advance over previous years. The total received exceeds slightly $700.00. If any one could make $700.00 go further than your board has done this year, he should be made treasurer of the World Service Funds of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

I dislike to write a word of farewell. I shall be present through the sessions of the Youth Conference Saturday and Sunday. I shall hope thereby to meet many of you. You may be confident of my continued affection and prayers.

"For what is man better than sheep or goats,
Who nourish a blind life
"If knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer
Both for themselves and those who call them friend."

Let us keep our faces forward, where the bright gleam of our bright star is cast. Nothing can permanently hinder truth. God wills brotherhood, friendship, democracy, peace, salvation—and what God wills no man can stay.

Yours in the service of Jesus Christ,

E. H. BREWSTER.

REPORT OF PRINCESS ANNE SCHOOL MINISTERIAL TRAINING.

The purpose of the Commission on Conference Course of study in seeking to raise the character of the work of the Boards of Ministerial Training throughout the Church to academic rank is becoming realized, and our own Summer School in co-operating with this program has accordingly developed the school point of view and elevated its own scholastic standards. The following activities have been pursued during the past year. The instructors engaged with the students during the first 3 months succeeding the last Conference in intensive Correspondence work on all books marked in the Discipline "To be Studied"—This was followed by a ten (10) day session at Princess Anne (July 28-Aug. 6); These same books were reviewed and studied in the class room under the personal direction of the teachers. Final examinations were held, this obviated the necessity of examinations at the seat of the Conference except in such cases where legitimate excuses were offered and special permission granted for the examination. In addition to the undergraduate courses a graduate seminar was held on Dr. Lewis' graduate course—Jesus Christ and the human quest. Doctors Helm and Hargis were discussion leaders. Bishop Herbert Welch was guest lecturer. He presented a series of discussions on "The Nations and the Race." This was an outstanding presentation, it represented a Christian Scholar's world view and was comprehensive in scope, sane in judgment and uncompromising in its enunciation of the only basic principle calculated to lead out a weary and troubled world into achieving an abiding peace. On Dec. 5th, at Ames M. E. Church, Baltimore, Maryland a Training Conference was conducted; it included the instructors and District Superintendents. Its purposes related to the educational and spiritual activities of the school and Boards of Ministerial Training within the Washington and Delaware Conferences.

The following problems were considered: "How to teach Efficiently", "How maintain the morale of the school," "How to study," "How Properly conduct a worship Service," "How relate the school to the District Activities"—The Supts. and the School, The graduate Courses and similar subjects.

Dr. Oscar M. Buck of Drew University gave two very striking lectures on the "Missionaries point of view of education." He stressed the fact that early Christianity starting from Jerusalem, first captured the hearts and minds of the Jew and then expanding in ever widening circles conquered the gentile world: Its task today is to capture the modern world and to save civilization from complete collapse. During the entire year these instructors have exercised constant supervision over the students, and at no time has the school not been at work: we have repeatedly held before these young men the futility of attempting to build a worthwhile and permanent ministry on a purely emotional upsurge devoid of intellectual content moral earnestness and spiritual power. The school has endeavored to aid these men in creating the students desire and will to learn and the scholars passion for accuracy and truth so that having established in early life the habits of study one may go almost indefinitely inhibiting by the sheer powers of the will the processes of physical decay and thus give a long and worthwhile ministry in the greatest vocation to which a man has ever been called.

Attendance Faculty 16, Undergraduates 50, Auditors and Graduates 15, Training Conference Group 45, Total 126.

In the execution of this work our teachers have been faithful conscientious and sacrificing and their personal contacts with the students have meant quite as much as their formal training. Our Dist. Supts. rendered exceptionally fine service. They have secured money from the charges, they have given of their time, advice and presence, and without them it would hardly have been possible to succeed.

Dr. Allan MacRossie, Educational Director, has been very resourceful in plans, liberal in contributions and gracious in spirit and has emphasized repeatedly the imperative necessity of an intelligent and consecrated ministry as the true basis for a useful and permanent life. We appreciate his sacrificial and loving service.

FREDERICK J. HANDY, Dean.

ance. To our Executive Secretary, Dr. MacRossie, whose interest in the success of the school, his desire to have this school second to none in the connection and his liberal allowance to assist in its support; he has also, our thanks and gratitude which will go down in the history of this School to live long after his useful career is ended. #### THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Christian Church was founded by Jesus Christ for the universal promulgation of His gospel and for the establishment of the kingdom of heaven on earth. If the church will faithfully trust and follow her Lord and Master, He will guide her in the happy solution of the manifold and perplexing problems of mankind in every age. This solution must come through faith, hope and love. The Million Unit Fellowship Movement calls for renewed allegiance to Christ, and love and devotion to the Church to "make America for Christ and Christianity for the world." This movement is meeting with approval and acceptance in the majority of our denominational connection. It has a good and encouraging outlook for increased world service giving. A bugle call was loudly sounded by Dr. E. Stanley Jones in such words as these: "Christianity must rediscover and reapply Christ's original message, the kingdom of God on earth, a new order standing at the door of the lower order, ready to replace it with God's way of life. The Christian way is the only way that works. The right thing is always the healthy thing both for the individual and society." While we seek Methodist Unification let us also seek and work earnestly for Christian unity, true brotherhood and Christian fellowship, based upon the teaching of Jesus Christ so that all people, irrespective of race or nationality, will feel they have a hearty welcome to worship in all our Churches, thus demonstrating the realization of the prayer of our Lord and Savior, who prayed for His disciples, saying, "Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom Thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. Sanctify them through Thy truth; Thy word is truth; neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one, as Thou Father art in me, and I in Thee; that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that Thou has sent me."

Obituary

REV. THOMAS HENRY KIAH, A.B., A.M., Ped. D.

Thomas Henry Kiah, son of the late William and Adelia Kiah, was born in Cambridge, Dorchester County, Md.

He departed this life Wednesday, 1:15 P. M., December 30, 1936, in the Peninsula General Hospital, Salisbury, Md.

The life of Prin. Kiah falls into three periods. The period of growth and preparation. The period of pastoral service in the Christian ministry of the Delaware Conference. The period of principalship of P. A. Academy.

Through his own efforts he made his way through P. A. Academy and Morgan College, and took postgraduate courses at Columbia and Cornell Universities. Graduating from college he married Miss Mary Roberta Townsend, June, 1906.

God blessed this union with six (6) children—five (5) boys and one (1) girl—Brewington, Lycurgus, Waldo, Gregory, Rodelia and McQuay. This happy union was broken Oct. 7, 1918. Mrs. Mary Roberta Kiah was not, for God took her.

June 8, 1921, Prin. Kiah married Miss Cynthia Ola Powdrill. God blessed this union with five (5) children, two (2) boys and three (3) girls—Cynthia, Thomas Henry Jr., Humphrey, Gwendolyn and Grace.

Prin. Kiah was converted early in life. From the time of conversion until his translation, there was never any note of uncertainty in his Christian profession.

In his early life he was impressed with the thought of the ministry as a possible calling. His conviction deepened the childish impression. He was licensed to preach, and sent to pastor Oakville, Md. at the age of seventeen (17) years.

During this pastorate he enrolled as a student in Princess Anne Academy. Graduating from P. A. A. he entered Morgan College. While in college he pastored Ocean City, N. J., a summer appointment. Graduating from college he was sent to St. Michaels, Md. It was when he had reached the zenith of his ministry at St. Michaels that Dr. J. O. Spencer, President, and the Board of Trustees of Morgan College, called him to the Principalship of Princess Anne Academy.

Prin. Kiah's ministry was one of fullness and helpfulness. As a pastor he was eminently strong and faithful, and was an industrious and stimulating force in the social activities of the Church, to which also he ever gave a wise leadership.

Prin. Kiah was a great preacher, a preacher by native instinct as well as by the divine call. He was possessed of very considerable imaginative power and strong emotions, but by force of will he held these gifts somewhat in abeyance, in the interest of the intellectual character of his pulpit and educational work.

It was in his preaching that Prin. Kiah found the fullest scope for the exercise of all his varied powers. His sermons were always the reflex of his own broad and generous nature, fair and stately, in form, and vivified by an ever fresh supply of spiritual life.

He was a mighty expositor of the scripture in his ability to draw out the main teaching of the word and present the fundamentals of doctrine in their simple grandeur. Scores of all classes have been lifted, comforted and edified by the sermons, addresses, private counsels and special heart-touch of this greathearted man.

The two great wings by which Prin. Kiah soared to the exalted heights of his usefulness and power as a minister and as an educator were his well balanced qualification as minister and educator. His administration as an educator commands profound respect. He displayed the fine tact of governing without any self assumption.

He was deferential to the feelings of those about him, and was incapable of cherishing ill toward any one. Faculty, students and the general public alike felt the charm of his superior mind.

His consecrated life, his intellectual force, and his ample learning contributed a mighty efficiency to his administration. No administration of the school's existence ever brought to Princess Anne Academy a more unselfish spirit, a more thorough devotion and consecration.

Prin. Kiah's nature was a sympathetic one—he felt for all who lack or suffer. Especially did he interest himself for the education and equipment of young people. The three periods of his life are so related that any statement must include them all. Each one of us will think of him under special aspects. Some of us will think of him as a fellow laborer working side by side in the service of the Church.

There are those here who will recall him with tenderness as their educational father, their principal and president, stimulating them to higher ideals of scholarship and usefulness. They will always acknowledge that the touch of Prin. Kiah is still upon them, and that his influence upon them for good is still abiding.

There are others here who look upon him as their colleague, their big brother in the Christian ministry of the Delaware Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1916 the brethren of his conference honored him with an election to the General Conference, an honor repeated in 1920, 1924 and 1928.

In the General Conference he was elected a member of the Book Committee of the M. E. Church, and served two quadrenniums with honor and distinction. Prin. Kiah was a friend of the minister, he was a friend of the laymen, he was everybody's friend. His nature and culture were peculiarly adapted to win the confidence of all people, white and colored.

Prin. Kiah's personal life, his worth as a husband, father and brother, towered above all his active labors, and shed a beautiful luster on his ministerial and educational toils.

The Academy had two (2) disastrous fires, destroying the dining hall, Men's dormitory, two (2) other buildings and badly wrecking the prin-cial's home. This did not daunt his courage. With indomitable will he went to work and Phoenix-like more stately buildings rose from the ashes.

I bid you turn your eyes toward the Academy for a moment, and see the changes that have come since Prin. Kiah went there. It was advanced from high school grade to that of Jr. College, from Jr. College to a four (4) year standard college.

It was not the principalship of P. A. Academy that honored Thomas Henry Kiah, but it was Thomas Henry Kiah who lifted the office in honor before the Church and the State of Maryland. He achieved in two (2) great ways: in character and service. Who is there among us equal to the task of estimating the measure of the influence of this servant of God and servant of humanity?

An eminent preacher once said: "There is but one light that will never grow dim; it is the light of this world—Jesus Christ. There is but one power that will never wane, it is the power of the Spirit of God. There is but one love that will never perish from the earth; it is the love of the Lord Jesus Christ." This light, this power, this love, all were embodied in the person of Thomas Henry Kiah, because his was supremely a life of faith in the Son of God.

It doesn't matter much when, or where, or how a man dies, the thing that determines his value to family, Church, community, State and Nation, is how, when and where did he live?

Prin. Kiah lived well, he died well.

Prin. Kiah's domestic relations were happy. He was a faithful husband. His first and second marriages were of those rare and beautiful companionships to which death itself can set no bounds, and which the infinite love has marked with his own eternity.

His children were tenderly, almost passionately, loved, and their growing lives were watched with incessant care and jealous guardianship.

A grief stricken wife, eleven (11) children, a twin brother, Rev. J. A. Kiah, Treasurer of the Delaware Conference, and pastor of Shiloh M. E. Church, Crisfield, Md., one (1) grandchild, Dolorous Hughes, and many relations and friends mourn their loss. The tender sympathies and prayers of ministers and laymen of the Delaware Conference, and thousands of friends, white and colored, go out in behalf of the sorrowing family.

LEVIN WASHINGTON MOLOCK.

The Rev. Levin Washington Molock was born to Levin W. and Mary L. Molock, August 9, 1888, at Ayres, Maryland; and departed this life September 10, 1936, at Seaford, Delaware.

He surrendered his life to Jesus at Waters Chapel M. E. Church, Ayres, at the age of 15 years, thus making a Christian pilgrimage of about thirty-three years. The work of the Church was ever dear to his heart. His Christian life, sympathy and love for those with whom he came in contact made for him many warm friends.

He served three years as supply at the Fairlee Charge. After his admission as a member of the Delaware Annual Conference in 1924, he was reassigned as pastor of said charge, which he served three years longer. He also served at Seaford for a period of ten years, and with much success. As a preacher, he was highly emotional and enthusiastic, yet sincere and soul-stirring. When at his best, he had few equals, but was rarely surpassed.

Great spiritual awakenings attended his evangelistic efforts at Fairlee and Seaford, in fact in every section of the Delaware Conference where he has had an opportunity of preaching the Word. Many were converted and now constitute the pillars of the Church.

Brother Molock was a painstaking, faithful pastor. While he did not neglect the aged, he was especially interested in the young of his parishes. He evinced great fortitude during his most intense suffering. He was conscious of his approaching demise and was sane almost to the last.

He leaves to mourn their loss, wife and six children, father and mother, two brothers, six sisters, two grandchildren, many other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral was held at John Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church, Seaford, Delaware, 2:00 P. M., September 13, 1936, conducted by the Rev. F. H. Butler, Superintendent, Dover District, assisted by the Rev. J. M. Dickerson, Superintendent, Salisbury District, Revs. J. H. Nutter, R. C. Hughes, W. A. Mulley and E. P. Gibson.

Interment was in the John Wesley Church Cemetery.

WILLIAM WESLEY HOY.

The Rev. William Wesley Hoy, son of the late Lewis and Alice Hoy, was born in Calvert Co., Md., Oct. 26, 1873, and departed this life Aug. 22, 1936, aged 62 years, 8 months and 4 days. He was converted at the age of 13 and became an active member of his home Church. He was educated in the schools of Maryland, and Associate Institute College, Baltimore, Md. In 1894 he was licensed by the Rev. Nathaniel Carroll as a local preacher. In 1899 he went to Baltimore, where he became an active member of Ames Memorial M. E. Church. In 1915 the deceased was joined in wedlock to Mrs. Carrie V. Page. In 1917 he became a member of the Union American M. E. Conference, and served the following Churches: Mt. Salem U. A. M. E. Church, Delaware City, Del., St. Paul U. A. M. E. Church, Wilmington, Del., Grace Union, Philadelphia, Pa. In 1931 he joined Tindley Temple and was enrolled in the Delaware Conference as a Supply Pastor. In 1934 he was assigned to Mt. Carmel M. E. Church, Wilmington, Del., and remained there until he was taken sick. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow, Mrs. Carrie V. Hoy, one son, James Edward Hoy; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Beatrice Rockwell; one foster daughter, Miss Ruth Williams; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Thomas, Mrs. Sarah Gray, Mrs. Emma Thompson, and a host of relatives and friends. He was a loving husband, a devoted father and a citizen of value in his community. Whenever visited he would say, "I am resigned to the will of God." He was patient in his suffering, never complaining. He won the respect of the nurses and doctors who attended him. When the end came, he passed without a struggle. At his bedside were his wife and Mrs. Eva Debrest. His wife sang "The Home of the Soul." The funeral service was held at Tindley Temple Aug. 27th, 1936, conducted by his District Superintendent, Dr. S. J. Horsey, assisted by Dr. F. H. Butler and others.

"It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road
Amidst the brotherhood on high
To be at home with God.

It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

Jesus, thou prince of life,
Thy chosen cannot die,
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife
To reign with Thee on high."

ANNIE BULLEN.

Annie Bullen, daughter of the late James and Elizabeth Carter, departed this life April 11, 1936, at Kinney Hospital, Newark, N. J. She was born in Lynchburg, Virginia, March 21, 1860, attended school there and also studied nursing, after which she served in that profession many years under the direction of a prominent physician in that city. She was united in marriage to Patrick Reed, of Lynchburg, who preceded her to the Better Land. As the result of this union, three children survive them. She was converted at Jackson Street M. E. Church under the pastorate of Rev. Henry Carroll, and continued a faithful christian and loyal Methodist ever since. Several years later she moved to Philadelphia, Pa., and joined Calvary M. E. Church under the pastorate of the late Dr. C. A. Tindley, and on August 4, 1904 she was united in marriage to the Rev. Jos. N. Bullen, with whom she served all of the charges to which he was sent. On many of these charges she served as organist, and as church school teacher; and she was always active in the Senior Epworth League, and frequently she rendered gratuitously professional service as nurse, when physicians were long responding to the call of parishioners. In fact she was always alert in sharing both talent and energy for the enrichment of God's cause. Because of her main affliction (apoplexy) her speech was greatly impaired, but her favorite song could be clearly understood, "If we live for Christ each day, Heaven is not far away." This loving wife and faithful servant of God was loved by all who knew her. The funeral services were conducted by

D. W. Henry in Tindley Temple, assisted by Dr. Fletcher, District Superintendent, and other ministers of the District. She was laid to rest in Hawthorne Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa. Beautiful floral designs from the Ministers wives and from members of Trenton and Orange charges, bore mute evidence of the profound respect of the donors. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, three children, three grandchildren and a large number of relatives and friends.

Soldier of Christ well done,
Praise be thy new employ,
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviours joy.

D. W. HENRY.

MARY V. DICKERSON.

Mrs. Mary V. Dickerson, beloved wife of Oliver P. Dickerson, and the daughter of James T. and Elizabeth Munson, departed this life June 14, 1936, at Salisbury, Md., while a patient there at the Peninsula General Hospital, age 56 years, 7 months and 23 days. She was born at Sassafras, Kent County, Md., Oct. 21, 1880. She was a loving, dutiful wife and mother, ever mindful of the interests of her husband and children. No sacrifice was too great for her to make, no labor too hard for her to perform, and no selfish interest was considered ahead of the interest of her friends and family. She was extremely devoted to the life of the ministry and seemed to naturally subscribe to its exactions and deprivations. She served with her husband the following named charges: Odessa, Del., 3 years; Barclay, Md., 3 years; Delaware City, Del., 6 years; Jamestown, Md., 6 years; Parsonburg, Md., 1 year; Mardela Springs, Md., 4 years; Nanticoke, Md., 5 years, and Denton, Md., 1 year and 2½ months. She was dearly beloved and greatly respected in each of these charges. She leaves to mourn their loss besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Sara A. Forde and Miss Mary B. Dickerson, and one son, Willis J. Dickerson. Two daughters, Lillian B., and an infant, had preceded her to the Glory Land. She also leaves two sisters and three brothers. She was converted and joined John Wesley M. E. Church, Sassafras, Md., when about 13 years of age, thus serving God and her fellowman for about 43 years, in which she took great delight in aiding and abetting her husband in every plan and project for the advancement of the Redeemer's Kingdom and waiting to hear the Master's "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

"Twilight and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning at the bar
When I put out to sea;
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark,
 And may there be no sad friends when I embark.
 For tho from out our borne of time and place
 The flood may bear me far,
 I hope to see my Pilot face to face
 When I have crossed the bar."

MATTIE DELTHENA PEACO.

Mattie Delthena Peaco, the wife of the Rev. John I. Peaco, the pastor of Odessa and St. Georges, Delaware, was born to Charles and Effie Ann Hartley on July 9, 1866, in Zion Hill, Atglen, Chester County, Pa., and departed this life January 25, 1937, at Zion Hill, Atglen, Chester County, Pa., at the age of 70 years, 6 months and 16 days.

Her early life from 6 years until about 25 years ago was spent in Philadelphia; after which she returned to her birthplace, where the end came.

Mrs. Peaco was converted at an early age and joined the Methodist Church, of which she remained a loyal and faithful member.

On January 7, 1914 she was united in holy wedlock to the Rev. John I. Peaco, with whom she lived happily until the end. She had an humble and a congenial disposition; she was a loving mother and a devoted wife. Besides her devoted husband she leaves to mourn their loss, one daughter, three sons, five grandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. S. J. Horsey, District Superintendent, assisted by Dr. D. H. Hargis, Revs. E. D. Brown, H. A. Ivey, S. G. Fullman, J. J. Whittington and Rev. Parks.

Servant of God well done; rest from thy loved employ,
 The battle fought, the victory won;
 Enter thy Master's joy.

The voice at midnight came; she started up to hear,
 A mortal arrow pierced her frame;
 She fell but felt no fear.

MARTHA ELIZABETH WHITE.

Martha Elizabeth, the third child of the late Henry and Wilhelmina Spencer, was born in Kent County, Maryland, near Kennedyville, on January 30, 1842, and departed this life at 5:05 P. M., Saturday, March 27, 1937, at Layton Home, Wilmington, Delaware, aged 95 years, 1 month and 27 days. She was born of slave parents, but was always fortunate to remain with her mother. Her master was kind to his slaves and gave each one the opportunity best suited for him. Martha remained in the house with other children and learned to read and write. She witnessed her second birth at the age of 13 years.

After the emancipation, she was married to Isaac Henry White, a young man on the adjoining plantation, on March 23, 1865. After their marriage, her husband had an urge to organize Sunday Schools and Union Leagues among the free men. She was a great asset here as she could read and write. They met with such success her husband was licensed to preach and sent to a mission in North Philadelphia, Pa. Here Mrs. White was the busy wife of a struggling preacher, but the strong pull and a pull together made her the wife of one of the leading ministers of the Delaware Conference. Many parishioners will rise up in that day and call her blessed.

In November, 1910, at Salisbury, Md., her husband, the Rev. I. H. White, passed away. With the cheerfulness and hope that was outstanding in her whole life, she maintained her home in Salisbury, Md., until 1915, when she decided the best place for her was in a Home for the Aged. After some kind friends had investigated they advised her to come to the Layton Home, Wilmington, Del. She came, and often said she came not to complain but to make it her home, and to adjust herself with those around her.

She radiated cheer wherever she went and oftentimes comforted those inmates who did not possess her broad outlook upon life. She always endeavored to give as little trouble as possible, always up and going as the Martha of the Bible. Though she lived many years, she kept youthful thoughts and could always see the bright side of life.

Her church was her dearest possession. She knew her Bible and Hymnal as few younger persons know them, and she could quote any article in her Conference Minutes after she had possessed them for a reasonable length of time.

She made many valuable friends. She knew the secret of making friends. She herself was a friend.

She daily planned to meet her Maker as one plans to quit a good days work. She had no fear of the end, but made all arrangements in advance, still bearing in mind to give no one any trouble.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Turner, Ocean City, N. J., a granddaughter, Mrs. Martha Viola Archer, Easton, Pa., a greatgrandson, three great-greatgrandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends.

An appropriate funeral was conducted at Ezion M. E. Church, Wilmington, Delaware, 2 P. M., Tuesday, March 30, 1937. The eulogy was delivered by the writer. Interment was made at Mt. Zion Cemetery.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last!"

DAVID H. HARGIS.

RESOLUTION OF WELCOME.

Your Committee on Resolution of Welcome is very happy in drafting this resolution in behalf of the members of the Delaware Annual Conference, both Ministerial and Lay members, as we assemble here in this beautiful church in the city by the sea. We come to Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church to hold this our seventy-fourth session with the greatest anticipations.

WHEREAS, We have met thus,

RESOLVED, That we feel exceedingly happy to have as the honored president of this session of the Annual Conference, Bishop Ernest G. Richardson, D. D., LL. D.

The Philadelphia Area supported by and in conjunction with the Delaware Annual Conference, entreated and requested the Episcopal Committee of the 1936 General Conference to reassign Bishop Richardson to the Philadelphia Area of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the third consecutive quadrennium. The request was granted, and we therefore, wholeheartedly welcome our Bishop's return to this Area and our Conference.

We welcome you, sir, not simply because it is your prerogative to preside over our deliberations as resident Bishop, but because in your coming, we feel that a friend and a big brother has put in his appearance among us. In your administration of the affairs of this Conference during the past two quadrenniums, you have been impartial; your sincere devotion to and the consecration for the cause which we all truly love; for your sympathy and forbearance; your helpfulness and encouragement; your personal consideration for every man, and each Church; for these reasons and many others—we greet you with a cordiality which is most sincere and unstinted.

RESOLVED, Further, that in your coming to this Conference, you will continue to meet a group of fellow workers who are sound in doctrine; steadfast in the faith; loyal to the programme of the Kingdom; conscientious and sacrificial workers; and as congenial and brotherly as you will meet or find anywhere in the Christian Brotherhood.

During your leadership in this Area, and whenever you preside over the deliberations of this Conference, we pledge without reservation to you, our sympathy and continuous co-operation in the support of the Area programme and also in the business, which may legally and otherwise come before this Annual Conference.

Finally, we ask the Heavenly Father's benediction and richest blessings upon you, your family, your cabinet, and all the brethren assembled here on the business of the Heavenly Master.

Signed:

L. S. MOORE
J. W. JEFFERSON
W. L. D. LYGHT
ALEXANDER REED
C. B. MILES

RESOLVED, That the 74th Session of the Delaware Annual Conference endorse President John Wilford Haywood of Morristown Tenn. College, Morristown, Tenn., as the most logical successor to the Presidency of Dr. John Oakley Spencer of Morgan College.

RESOLUTION ON EDUCATION OF OUR MINISTRY.

WHEREAS, The General Conference has constantly placed special emphasis on the education of our ministry, as is being done elsewhere throughout the country; and

WHEREAS, The requirements for admission to our Annual Conference is increasing so that "Beginning with the Fall Conferences of 1938 the minimum requirement for admission shall be graduation from an approved College." We therefore deem it essential that those who are to teach this group of intelligent young men that they themselves should continue their habits of systematic study so as to be able both to lead wisely and supervise correctly the educational activities of all those placed under their care. Be it

RESOLVED, That all persons appointed by the Bishop during this quadrennium be required to pursue at least 3 Graduate courses offered by the Commission or similar courses offered by institutions recognized by the University Senate, and that failure to do so will be construed as sufficient grounds for the removal by the Bishop from the Board of Ministerial Training. Be it further

RESOLVED, That it would be a fine gesture if every District Superintendent enroll in one or more graduate courses, as an earnest of his own interest in graduate work and as a practical example and effective method of aiding graduate work throughout the Church, and we do so recommend.

RESOLVED, That we request the printing in the Minutes of 1937 the resolution on "Graduate Seminar" of the Minutes of 1936, page 605, and the appointment of a Graduate Committee by the Superintendents for each district.

"Graduate Seminar."

RESOLVED, That we offer to all students who have completed the Conference Course of Study and any others who may desire it a Scholarship to the Summer School. This Scholarship includes the payment of registration and board for one week at the School.

The above Scholarship will require of the student the election of one or more of the graduate courses offered by the commission and a minimum of 8 hours a day of intensive study during the period designated.

2—RESOLVED, That we request the Publishing Committee of our Conference to publish in the Minutes—The graduate courses offered by the commission on Conference Courses of Study.

RESOLUTION ON SELLING THE HUDSON CHURCH PROPERTY.

WHEREAS, The trustees and members of the St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, Hudson, N. Y., because they were so few in number, and unable to maintain a church, abandoned the church property in 1935. In a special meeting on November 10, 1936, they voted, by resolution, to turn over the church building and parsonage to the Trustees of the Delaware Annual Conference to be disposed of according to the rules and regulations of the Methodist Episcopal Church (see Discipline 1936, Paragraph 1026). Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That our conference trustees be authorized and empowered to receive and sell the said St. Johns church and parsonage in Hudson, N. Y. Be it further

RESOLUTION—RADIO STATION.

We are especially grateful to Radio Station WPG, Atlantic City, which has generously extended the privileges of its broadcasting facilities for a daily review of the proceedings, under the direction of the Rev. D. L. Ridout. Inasmuch as this is the first time that the Delaware Conference has been "on the air," we feel that this opportunity has made new friendships for us, and has aided materially in publishing widely the principles of Jesus, for which we stand. We sincerely thank Program Director Norman Reed and the entire staff of WPG for the many courtesies extended during these broadcasts.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION.

It is the desire of the Conference to give some adequate and appropriate expression of appreciation to all who in any way have contributed to the felicity and success of this, the seventy-fourth session of the Delaware Annual Conference, so your committee desires to say:

First of all, we are happy beyond expression in this helpful and inspiring Conference, made possible very largely by our presiding officer, Bishop Richardson, who has become very conversant with the condition, and therefore, the needs of our Conference territory. We have been wonderfully helped in many ways. His poise in the conducting of the business, and his fairness in dealing with every man as a brother, have strengthened our already implicit confidence in his great leadership. The stirring address and his matchless sermon this morning (Sunday) will live long in the hearts of all whose rare privilege it was to hear him.

Rev. J. W. Jewett, the pastor of this Church, has put forth every effort to make our stay here a very pleasant one. We could look for no better entertainment than we have received here. The officers and members of this Church have given the pastor their most hearty support. Their self-sacrificing spirit has been expressed in actual deeds which will make the session sweet to the memory of us all. Their homes and hotels in which we have been entertained have been very comfortable. The food which has been served was indeed appetizing, and the courtesies of those who served us was enhancing.

The sister Churches of the city have assisted in a very splendid way by opening their Churches, also their homes for our reception and in all other ways in which they have contributed to our marvelous success. We thank them.

We look with pride upon our secretaries for the faithful and painstaking services in the recording of the proceedings of our session, and our treasurer and his staff for the exacting work of his responsible office.

We thank the various choirs and musical organizations for the good cheer and inspiration they have brought us through song.

We are grateful to the sexton for his care of our building and the courtesies so generously shows us.

We also express our gratitude to the public press for the liberal space allowed us in their columns and for the accuracy with which they have given account of our work to the public.

RESOLVED, That a hearty vote of thanks be extended to Bishop E. G. Richardson for the ideal manner in which he has presided over the Conference.

RESOLVED, That a vote of appreciation be extended to the pastor of the Church, trustees, officials, sister Churches, various choirs, sexton, and to all parties who have in any way helped to make this Conference a success.

Finally, we pray for the blessings of God upon this city for continuous success.

Signed:

L. S. MOORE
