RESOLUTIONS

1. WELCOME

We the members of the Delaware Conference of The Methodist Church, welcome our beloved Bishop Edgar A. Love, his family and Cabinet to this Ninety-sixth session of the Annual Conference with our warmest greetings and appreciation.

Be it resolved, That we pledge to you our prayers for Divine guidance, our unfaltering trust in your wisdom and love, and our whole hearted cooperation for a successful Conference session.

The Committee on Resolutions: T. M. BOOTH, Chairman AUGUSTUS CHANCY C. B. MILES ROY PINKETT

2. IN-HO OH SCHOLARSHIP

To Mayor Richardson Dilworth:

Whereas, In-Ho Oh, exchange student from Korea at the University of Pennsylvania, was struck down, robbed and mercilessly beaten to death on the city streets of Philadelphia by eleven misguided, irresponsible youths, and

Whereas, this atrocious crime, committed in the City of Brotherly Love, the Cradle of Liberty and Democracy, has besmirched our American policy of brotherhood, friendship and goodwill to all people, and

Whereas, the very conscience of the city, church and nation, has been shocked by this dastardly, unprovoked deed, for which we, as a people, cannot utone, but which we vehemently deplore, with a sense of shame and personal responsibility, and

Whereas, His Honor, Mayor Richardson Dilworth, of the City of Philadelphia, deeply and tearfully moved by the enormity of the crime, has, with magnanimity of spirit, sought to create an IN-HO OH SCHOLARSHIP FUND of $6,000.00 to pay room and board and other expenses for a Korean boy or girl to study at the University of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, we have striven, through the years, as a conference, to extend our program and work of Christian education in our local churches and communities; particularly in the large metropolitan areas, so as to reach and to undergird every boy and girl and teenager with the teachings and principles of Jesus Christ through the influence of the church school, the Methodist Youth Fellowship, youth assemblies and other activities, believing that this is the best deterrent for delinquency and crime, so rampant in our cities; be it

Resolved, That the Delaware Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, convening in its Ninety-sixth Session in Philadelphia, go on record commending His Honor, Mayor Richardson Dilworth, humanitarian, for his forthright stand and leadership in inaugurating the movement to establish the IN-HO OH SCHOLARSHIP in the sacred memory of a Korean student so brutally beaten and murdered; and further

Resolved, That we receive a generous offering at the most opportune time during the session of our Conference and that the same be presented to Mayor Dilworth for the scholarship fund, and that we request our local Philadelphia churches to do the same within the next two week period; i.e. to receive an offering for the IN-HO OH SCHOLARSHIP FUND.

DENNIS R. FLETCHER WALTER R. HAZZARD HENRY H. NICHOLS HALLY J. JOHNS ROY L. CORDERY WILLIAM C. JASON, JR. NOAH W. MOORE, JR.

3. PRE-CONFERENCE REPORTS

Whereas, more and more we are coming to realize that programs and projects we initiate and formulate on a conference level are impotent and ineffective unless they are carefully studied and thoroughly understood.

Whereas, in the final analysis of the effectiveness of our conference work and local church work depends upon the measure of study and understanding on the part of both laymen and ministers.

Whereas, our present procedure does not permit the careful study and analysis of programs and projects affecting the church.

Whereas, every member of the Conference is entitled to ample time to study, pray and seek God's will in all matters coming before this Conference; therefore

Be It Resolved, That the secretary of the Conference edit and publish the Auditor's latest report, the Treasurer's report of the previous year, and the current reports of the Boards and Commissions, in pamphlet or book form, and mail a copy to each lay and ministerial delegate at least 15 days before the Annual Conference; and further

Resolved, that all reports intended for publication shall be in duplicate, and sent to the Secretary not later than April 1 of each year; and further

Resolved, that each report cover not more than two single spaced typewritten pages, with the exception of the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance; and further

Resolved, that provision be made at this Conference to defray the expense of this project; and further

Resolved, that the reports of the Boards and Commissions be considered as "Preliminary Reports," confidential and not officially released for publication until adopted by the Annual Conference.

4. EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

The Board of Lay Activities recommends that each church hold an Every Member Canvass, as suggested in Paragraph 264, Section 1, 1956 Discipline, recognizing the value inherent in such a program.

We further recommend that these be held simultaneously on district levels, and that the district superintendent, district lay leader, and the district director of sewardship cooperatively be responsible for the training and promotion of these workshops and the compiling of the results.

HALLY P. JOHNS, Chairman

5. BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Whereas, we have acquired twelve acres of land for a Home for the Aged at Dover, Delaware, and

Whereas, the Commission on World Service and Finance allotted the board $4,000 annually for the quadrennium (see report, page 139, 1957 Journal), and

Whereas, each year there has been a deficit, thereby depriving our Conference of the opportunity of liquidating the indebtedness, and

Whereas, the Board of Hospitals and Homes as your representative wishes to cancel the mortgage of $2,000 during this current year, and begin to accumulate funds for the building of the first unit by 1960;

Be it resolved, that the Conference authorize on each district a Roll Call the third week in September.

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes work together with the District Superintendents in promoting the Roll Call.

We recommend that the commission's budget be increased by $500.00 to meet the cost of this study and preparation of report.

CHARLES L. CARRINGTON HENRI M. DEAS DENNIS R. FLETCHER

7. TEN DOLLAR CLUB

We recommend that a volunteer Ten Dollar Club, under the auspices of the resident bishop, be established, in which individuals would give ten dollars ($10.00) three times a year for specific CHURCH EXTENSION PROJECTS within the Conference.

9. STATE COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Whereas, we have long enjoyed the fruits of cooperative Christianity through our association in the Maryland-Delaware Council of Churches; and

Whereas, we have also learned the necessity of concerted action within the political limits of the several states within which we bear witness; therefore

Be It Resolved, that we affirm our cooperation with the Maryland-Delaware Council of Churches, and that we unite in the formation of a Council of Churches of the State of Delaware; and that two persons be designated as our representatives until their successors are chosen.

JOHN R. SHOCKLEY, Representative Council of Churches of Wilmington and New Castle County

10. GALILEE BUILDING FUND DAY

On January 18, 1958, the Galilee Methodist Church of Englewood, New Jersey, was destroyed by fire. The congregation voted unanimously to rebuild at a cost of approximately $100,000. A canvass of the community revealed substantial financial aid awaiting the erection of the new structure. The churches of the vicinity have contributed to date more than $4,000 toward the building. Mr. Charles Parlin has secured the backing of a foundation which will match dollar for dollar monies up to $25,000. All funds are handled by Mr. Robert Ziller, vice-president of the Citizens' National Bank of Englewood, who serves as treasurer of the Galilee Building Fund. Mr. Parlin is presenting a request to the Newark Conference, asking their support of the said project.

We therefore request that the Delaware Conference go on record as pledging a free-will offering on the part of all the churches of the Conference for the building fund; we would also like to have a definite Sunday set aside as Galilee Building Fund day. We also request the Conference to make an additional donation, through the Promotion Advance Fund of $5,000 as soon as this amount is available.

WALTER S. TAYLOR, Minister

VI. The Reports

A. The District Superintendents' Reports

DOVER DISTRICT

Bishop Love, Ministers and Laymen of the Delaware Conference:

Again we stand in the presence of our brethren and under the faithful care of Almighty God to render an account of our stewardship in the Dover District over the past year. We are thankful to God that we are yet alive, and we give praise to our Father for having preserved us. We feel deeply grateful to our ministerial brethren and their wives and the faithful laymen of the district for their cooperation and hearty response to the program of the church.

Items of Our Concern

Brothers W. C. Thomas and J. O. Lockman have both undergone surgery during the year. Brother Thomas has now completely recovered and Brother Lockman is making rapid progress toward the full restoration of his health.

The Tatems of the South Berlin Charge have been blessed with a bouncing baby boy to add one more to the preparatory membership list.

District Activities

Our district meetings, in addition to being valuable sources of Christian fellowship, also provide excellent opportunities for the promotion of the outreaching program of our church. In the various district meetings we have endeavored to give substance and meaning to the goals set by the district superintendent and other district leaders at the beginning of the conference year. Happily we can report that most major goals envisioned at the beginning of the conference year have been reached.

Time will not permit an extended recounting of all the commendable work done by our district organizations. We can say with all truthfulness that the achievements won and the goals attained are the result of the earnest linking together of all district agencies in a common effort to gain success. The organizations responsible for the work which we have been able to do are: the District Staff of Christian Education, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the District Committee on Evangelism, the District Committee on Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the monthly preachers meeting. All these agencies have performed well at the tasks assigned to them. Through these agencies we have sponsored Leadership Training, Christian Vocations, Youth Assemblies, Missionary Institutes and Visitation Evangelism.

The work which we have endeavored to do in some areas requires special mention. For the first time we conducted a Children's Workers' Conference on a district-wide basis. This proved to be a very effective medium for assisting local church children's workers in being prepared to meet their total responsibilities in this area of our church life.

A second phase of our work which merits special mention is Christian Vocations. For three years now we have conducted a conference on Christian Vocations. These meetings have been of great value to our youth, helping them to face the pressing need for full-time commitment to Christian service—Out of these conferences have come many decisions for a life of service dedicated to the cause of humanity and its needs.

Changes In Appointments

On July 10th, C. B. White was transferred from the Millington charge to Crisfield, Union Asbury. David Nickerson was appointed to Millington charge. On February 3rd, E. L. Maddox removed himself from the Lewestharge. Quincy Cooper was appointed to supply the work for the remainder of the conference year.

The Work of the Charges

BRIDGEVILLE, C. E. Kiah, pastor, has experienced a happy revival in all phases of its work. Conversions 4, accessions 4. The young adult group and church school have perhaps registered the most outstanding gains during the year. World Service and Conference Benevolences, Conference Claimants and many other apportionments have all been fully met. Improvements have been made on the exterior of the church building and on the interior of the parsonage; the church has purchased a full supply of hymnals. The pastor gives very efficient leadership. Total raised for all causes, $6,451. This exceeds the 1957 report by more than $1,000.

BRIDGEVILLE CIRCUIT, C. P. Spencer, pastor, continues its splendid work year after year, and not even the transfer of a pastor whom they loved sincerely has had any averse effect upon the quality of the work done, which is as it should be. The present pastor has given good leadership and received in return full cooperation. Accessions 5. All apportionments are fully met. Total contributions, $9,528.

CHESTERTOWN, C. H. Molock, pastor: The charge experiences continuous growth and the pastor is alert and responsive to all the interests of the charge. He is rewarded by a faithful response to his leadership. Conversions 34, accessions 34. All regular apportionments are fully paid. The church and parsonage at Chestertown have been redecorated on the interior. New equipment has been purchased for the church, and an addition to the dining facilities is being made. Total raised, $10,800.

CHESWOLD, W. C. Thomas, pastor: Conversions 8, Accessions 11. The pastor has been ill during the year but has given his best to make a success of his work. The apportionment for World Service and Conference Benevolences was raised in full. Something has been applied to most all other apportionments.

Total contributions, $3,515.

CLARKSVILLE, G. W. Taylor, Pastor: The pastor gives full attention to meeting the connectional and other obligations of his charge. The charge has succeeded well in raising its apportionments. Conversions 3, accessions 12. All regular apportionments have been fully met. The Clarksville church was totally destroyed by fire, but work has already begun on a new structure which promises to be one of the best on the district. Total raised, $9,344.

COLEMAN, W. C. Mills, Pastor: Conversions 6, accessions 6. This charge has not lived up to expectations in recent years. But the pastor has certainly done his best to keep the charge moving forward toward meeting all obligations assigned to it. Both the pastor and the superintendent are hopeful of a better response to connectional obligations during the coming year. Total raised, $4.113.

CRUMPTON, C. R. Bryant, Pastor: Conversions 2, accessions 3. The pastor has done a good work at this charge over the five year period of his pastorate. It has risen from a charge of meager accomplishments to one that now succeeds in doing good work spiritually and financially. All causes have been emphasized and something paid on all apportionments. A new piano was purchased at one church, another church has been renovated on the interior and new furnishings purchased for the parsonage. Total contributions, $4,648.

DELMAR, C. J. Williams, Pastor: Conversions 2, accessions 7. The pastor was well received at the charge and succeeded in accomplishing some needed improvements there. A completely new bathroom was installed and new furniture was bought for three rooms in the parsonage. The total collections for all causes amounts to $4,648. This is a gain over the previous year.

DOVER, W. E. Marks, Pastor, continues its successful work. The pastor and people work well together and the result is always success. Conversions 19, accessions 19. These signify the renewed evangelistic efforts in the charge. The church school grows in numbers and effectiveness and church attendance still is on the increase. Again the charge has raised all of apportionments in full. The church has extensive renovation both on the interior and exterior. The parsonage has also had some exterior work done. Total raised, $12,413.

FAIRLEE, P. A. Henry, Pastor: Conversions 2, accessions 4. Much good work has been done on this charge under the quiet but effective leadership of the pastor. World Service and Conference Benevolences and many other causes have been fully met. Through the generosity of a person interested in the church and the labors also of the members, The Mt. Pleasant Church has been extensively remodeled and renovated and a new heating system installed. A gift of $6,283 by Mrs. Louise Carpenter enabled this to be done. Total raised, $4,276.

GALENA-MELITOTA, Mrs. Rachel Brown, Pastor: This is a charge of three small congregations, two of which could and should unite to make possible more efficient operation of the work. The superintendent and pastor have strongly urged this and we thought it might soon be accomplished. But recent events have given cause for serious doubts that it can be done peacefully before a few more deaths occur. The pastor does well under present circumstances. Some repairs have been made on the parsonage. Total raised, $5,075.

HARRINGTON, Thaddeus Hackett, Pastor, is a fifty-six member circuit which takes its work seriously, cooperates with the pastor and succeeds always in doing creditable work. Conversions 2. A completely new bathroom has been installed in the parsonage and some repairs have been made on the church. Total raised, $4,474.

LAUREL, C. W. Bagwell, Pastor: The pastor has given very effective leadership and the result is a work of outstanding quality. Conversions 9, accessions 7. The pastor is active in an interracial ministerial organization which has been responsible for some effective community work. The pastor's salary has been increased. All regular conference apportionments have been fully met. Total raised, $6,557.

LEWES, Quincy Cooper, Pastor, has had its troubles. Brother E. L. Maddox began the year at Lewes. Friction between the pastor and some officials of the Israel Church developed early and continued until in February, the pastor attempted personally to dismiss these people from office. Thwarted in this illegal procedure, he eventually led such dissidents as would follow him into the formation of an independent congregation. All evidence points to the conclusion that his very first illegal action was a well planned maneuver designed to start a church where he could do as he pleased. The charge was naturally set back some in its work. But the best of its membership still remains loyal. The best available figures show a total of $5,475 raised during the year.

LINCOLN, J. O. Lockman, Pastor: The pastor has led his people to a successful year's work, despite a prolonged illness necessitating a major surgical operation. That the charge has met all its obligations is a tribute to the twenty-seven years of thorough, wise and painstaking leadership which this pastor has given to this charge. Too great a tribute can not be given to people and pastor for their achievements. Conversions 2, accessions 2. The pastor has reached the automatic retirement age. Raised for all causes, $7,264.

MARDELA, L. R. Jones, Pastor: Conversions 4, accessions 4. The pastor has done his best to maintain the good standing of the charge, but conditions have prevented the full realization of his plans for advancing the work. The financial achievements for this year are slightly below that of the previous year. Improvements have been made in the parsonage and plans are laid for extensive improvements in the community hall at the Mt. Nebo Church. Total raised, $4,758.

MILFORD, Roland Grant, Pastor, has made some improvement over the previous year's work. The pastor has tried very hard to make a success of the work here but many, many difficulties have confronted him. There are some very loyal and faithful members at Milford who work for the church under any and all circumstances, but the church is still rife with factionalism and rancor. Success under these conditions is impossible. A new Hammond organ has been installed. Total raised, $4,737.

MILLINGTON, David Nickerson, Pastor, has exceeded its work of the previous year. The people have accepted some changes in the financial structure of the church which had previously proved to be a pestiferous stumbling block. All apportionments have been advanced and something has been paid on each benevolent item of the budget. The Asbury Church has undergone repairs to the extent of $1,000. Total raised $2,735.

MILLSBORO, C. W. D. Browne, pastor: Conversions 16. This charge has succeeded in doing much better work this year than was done in the previous year. A new social hall has been built, Conference Claimants and the Reserve Pension fund have been fully paid and other benevolences increased. The pastor and people work well together and the charge continues to advance. Total raised $3,700.

NASSAU, Joshua Ingram, Pastor: Conversions 1. The pastor works well in a two point circuit charge which has great potential strength. Failure of the John Wesley Church to meet its full share of the reserve pension fund prevents the charge from having a complete report with all claims fully met. The Mt. Pleasant Church has granted a $100.00 increase in salary. Our hope is that John Wesley will now follow. Both churches have paid off mortgage debts during the year. A new Hammond organ has been installed in the John Wesley Church and other equipment has also been purchased for the church. The parsonage has undergone exterior renovation. Total raised, $7,387.

NEWARK, L. L. Hamilton, Pastor: Accessions 2. The pastor is an earnest and sincere worker who deserves better cooperation than he sometimes receives from some members of the charge. One church has raised a substantial sum of money for the completion of its church building. Total raised, $4,956.

NORTH BERLIN, A. J. Dredden, Pastor, has experienced another splendid year. Conversions 10, accessions 5. To see the continued growth of every phase of the work in this charge is a gratifying experience. The attendance at the church services continues to increase and the church school has outgrown present facilities. It is one of our fastest growing congregations. All financial apportionments have been fully met. The community hall has been renovated and new furniture has been bought for the parsonage. The charge is spiritually alive. Total raised, $8,726.

POMONA, C. C. Thomas, Pastor: Conversions 5, accessions 5. World service and conference benevolence are fully met. The charge has great potential strength and is capable of doing good work. Total raised, $6,271.

PORT DEPOSIT, C. E. Hammond, Pastor: This charge has experienced a revival of activity and interest on behalf of the program of the church. The pastor has given splendid leadership to this small group and the results are gratifying. Conversions 5. Increases are noted in all items in the apportionments. Total raised, $2,479.

ROCK HILL, G. B. Wilson, Pastor: Conversions 3, accessions 9. In spite of a crippling winter freeze, when the industry upon which most of these people depend for a livelihood was at a complete stand still, the charge presents a report that far exceeds the previous year's work. World service and conference benevolence are fully met and all other items greatly increased. The people now plan to build a new parsonage. Total raised, $7,162.

SASSAFRAS, Mrs. Ophelia James, Pastor: The pastor continues to give good leadership to a very loyal group of people who always do their best for the cause of the church. All conference benevolences have been fully met. The parsonage has undergone extensive repairs and is now having the exterior beautified. The Johnson Chapel Church has brought up to date its payments on the reserve pension fund. The church debt has also been canceled. The work of this charge is marvelous. Total raised, $3,974.

SEAFORD, C. D. Gerald, Pastor: The people are appreciative of the good leadership which the pastor has given and they have responded well. Conversions 8. A Hammond organ has been installed, church bulletins have been instituted and additions have been made to the parsonage. Total raised, $7,502.

SEAFORD CIRCUIT, J. A. Conway, Pastor: Conversions 1, accessions 1. The charge this year has made decided gains in all phases of its work. Additional land has been purchased by one of the churches and the debt of the Mt. Hope Church has been liquidated. The people seem to be working with renewed interest. Total raised, $3,183.

SHARPTOWN, D. S. Quillen, Pastor: Conversions 39, accessions 39. Sharptown has experienced a good revival during the year. The charge has one of the largest memberships of the district and has a great potential strength. All ministerial support has been fully met. Had the full world service and conference benevolence apportionment been raised, the charge would have presented a very good report. Total raised, $6,063.

SMYRNA, J. J. Webster, Pastor: Accessions 2. Smyrna is a small congregation that responds very well to the conference program. This year is no exception. The pastor and congregation have worked hard to bring forth results. Total raised, $3,092.

SOUTH BERLIN, S. S. Tatem, Pastor, has witnessed a banner year. Conversions 38, accessions 40, the highest number of accessions on the district. The charge has also realized an amazing revival in the financial response given to the conference apportionments. The pastor's salary was increased from $2,600 to $3,000. All apportionments have been fully met, and in addition, a $571.00 arrearage in the reserve pension fund has been canceled. The St. Johns Church has been redecorated and modernized and a new altar, communion rail and choir loft have been added to the new Bethel Church. The parsonage has been redecorated and refurnished. Brother Tatem has rendered a good account of his stewardship. Total raised, $11,722.

STILL POND, Paul Hilton, Pastor: Conversions 2, accessions 2. The Mt. Zion Church is responsive to the claims of the church and seems willing to cooperate in increasing the effectiveness of the charge, but the Fountain Congregation seems to suffer from a severe case of doldrums. A better report could be presented from the charge if there were more cooperation. Total raised, $4,180.

TOWNSEND, Clifford Landrum, Pastor: Conversions 4, accessions 2. The charge is a three point circuit with the membership concentrated chiefly at one of these churches. But each congregation seeks to do its best toward all the interests of the church and the pastor does his best to give good leadership. Total raised, $2,213.

We have worked this year through an economic recession, but the reports show that as many charges have met their full financial obligations as did so in the previous year. More charges have paid their full conference claimants than ever before. The churches have contributed a total of $7,654 for World Service and Conference Benevolences. The charges have contributed a total of $167,674 for all purposes.

Ministers and laymen have labored together in a common effort to produce the results that have been set forth in this report. We have leaned heavily upon statistics to produce this report, but statistics are cold and lifeless, they are but feeble vehicles for conveying the spirit of love and devotion to a cause such as has characterized the work of some of our ministers and laymen. We can but express our appreciation and admiration for all the kind people with whom it has been our pleasure to work through this year and pray that the peace of God which passeth all understanding may abide with them evermore. Amen.

Faithfully submitted,

MARION O. BALLARD

EASTON DISTRICT

Bishop Love, Ministers, Lay Members and Friends:

When I was appointed to the Easton District twelve months ago, an excited friend asked, "Are you going back to that place where threats were made against your life just a few years ago?" I went, and today I lift my voice and say, "And are we yet alive to see each other's face, Glory and praise to Jesus give, for His redeeming grace." "We have been troubled on every side yet not distressed, we have been perplexed but not in despair; cast down but not destroyed." With humility of heart and thanksgiving upon our lips to our Heavenly Father for His sustaining hand, we come to report the results of our first year's labors on the Easton District.

We can give in this report merely a brief account of the marvelous achievements of the thirty-three pastors and their seventy-seven churches ranging in membership from eight, to three-hundred and seventy-one, and covering the territory of Talbot, Dorchester, Queen Anne and Caroline Counties on the Eastern shore of Maryland.

Sick and Bereaved

The following ministers have been ill during the year: S. E. Armstrong, Isaac Wallace, I. B. Bivens, R. S. Caldwell, R. C. Whittington, S. L. Jones, Van B. Wright, E. A. Hughes, E. H. Jackson, L. C. Waters, C. H. Cottingham, W. C. West and A. P. Jenkins.

Death has not invaded our effective ranks this year, but the following ministers have lost relatives: C. H. Cottingham was bereft of a brother-in-law, E. A. Hughes a sister-in-law and Claude Edmonds lost his father.

Marriages and Births

The Rev. E. N. Foster feeling lonely hearted, took unto himself a wife, Miss Hazel Chester, to grace the Miles River charge. H. E. Anderson, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Anderson, also the charming Shirley Hughes. daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Hughes were each united in Holy wedlock. The stork has had a very strenuous year. It winged its way to the parsonage homes of Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Jones, Rev. and Mrs. Claude Edmonds, Rev. and Mrs. N. C. Stanley and the Rev. Mrs. Hester Opher and husband. Each of these homes now boast of having another bouncing baby boy added to the family.

District Activities

The work of the District was carefully planned and the plans were carried out by our pastors and laymen with varying degrees of success. Stimulus was given to our broad program through a series of District meetings beginning at St. Michaels, with our District Stewards Meeting, and followed by the Youth Assembly at Easton, The District Conference at Cambridge Circuit, the Laymen's Conference at Trappe, the Youth Rallies at Easton, the Observation Schools at Cambridge and Centreville, the coaching conferences at Easton and Marydel, the Institute of Practical Methods in the fall and the Christian Workers School in the winter held at Easton, Centreville and Cambridge, the Adult Seminar at Cambridge, the Convocation on Christian Higher Education at Easton, the Missionary Institute at Greensboro and ending with the Pre-Conference Rally at Preston. In nearly every case these meetings were well attended, interest was keen and they served as sources of information, inspiration and rich Christian fellowship for both pastors and laymen.

Other Items

The monthly Preacher's meetings attended by ministers and laymen, the quarterly meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Subdistrict Groups, the Easton District Council, the Ministers Wives Association and the district directors and secretaries have all made encouraging contributions to the work of the District.

District Parsonage

Great credit is due the District Parsonage Trustees and Parsonage Committee. They have done an excellent work of renovation, maintenance, refurnishing, decorating and beautifying the district parsonage at a cost of $1,200, on a pay as you go basis.

Migrant Ministry

Through the Board of National Missions, Miss Mildred Scott, Director of Bayside Larger Parish Program has been assigned to work with me and has worked largely under my supervision since the early fall. The "Harvester," a 1957 Plymouth Station Wagon fully equipped with Audio-Visual Aids, Portable Organ, First Aid Kit, Games etc. has been utilized to a great advantage. Miss Scott has served as parish visitor, has worked with both children and teachers in our church schools and transported children from migrant camps to various churches in the area. She has shown our people that migrants are our sisters and brothers and that we are our brothers keepers.

The Charges

AIREYS: This charge in spite of some discouragement and the illness of its pastor is happy to report Conversions 3; Accessions 3. Total raised for all causes $4,000.00. Rev. Isaac Wallace, pastor.

Conversions 8; Accessions 12. Raised for all purposes $2,530.00. Rev. Frank Farrare, Pastor.

CAMBRIDGE: This is a magnificent appointment. Her reports are traditionally a marvel of generosity and spiritual growth. The church is well organized, the congregation is growing, a grand job is being done in Christian Education, Leadership training and Evangelism. This has been a great year, for a great pastor of a great people. The people hear their pastor gladly and have expressed their appreciation to him by increasing the salary in the amount of $500 for the coming year. If any one is waiting for the pastor to back out from Waugh you may be in for a very long wait. The Quarterly Conference made a dramatic plea for their pastor's return. Conversions 2; Accessions 19. Raised for all purposes $17,202.00. Rev. S. L. Jones, Pastor.

CAMBRIDGE CIRCUIT: This charge is being slowly transformed. The pastor has labored with great zeal. The pastor's good wife has been in hospital the whole year, he has the responsibility of caring for an aged father and the parsonage, yet he has done a commendable job. The basement at St. Luke has been waterproofed and made into a lovely dining room and modern kitchen. These improvements enabled them to do a magnificent job entertaining the District Conference. Some improvements were also made at the other church and parsonage. Conversions 2; Accessions 7. Raised for all purposes $6,448.00. Rev. T. M. Murray, Pastor.

CARMICHAELS: This charge continues to advance under the quiet and effective leadership of its pastor. The parsonage has been redecorated and a new living room suite installed. Conversions 2; Accessions 4. Raised for all purposes $5,248.00. Rev. R. S. Caldwell, Pastor.

CENTREVILLE: This charge is fortunate in having one of our most versatile young men as its pastor. His civic and community participation have won great praise. The educational program is exceptional. This charge is willing to become the center of a larger parish. Accessions 1. Raised for all purposes $4,973.00. Rev. C. Edgar Jordan, Pastor.

CENTREVILLE CIRCUIT: This charge has experienced difficulties this year. The pastor has done what he could but there has not been whole-hearted response to his untiring efforts. Metropolitan church has liquidated the debt on its community hall, put new carpet on the pulpit and new runners down the aisles of the church. This church has requested that it be detached from Centreville Circuit and attached to Centreville. Accessions 2. Raised for all purposes $1,700.00. Rev. R. C. Whittington, Pastor.

CHAPEL: This charge has done good work under the courageous leadership of its pastor. Fine care and direction is being given to the young people. The pastor is a diligent workman for God. Conversions 7; Accessions 7. Raised for all purposes $2,332.00. Rev. E. P. Cooke, Pastor.

CHURCH HILL: This charge grows in good works. Every department is organized according to the law of the church. There is nearly 100% in reports of commissions and committees. The Mt. Vernon church in Salem is still working to qualify for aid from the Board of National Missions in order to build a church to replace the one destroyed by fire. Conversions 1; Accessions 2.

Raised for all purposes $6,645.00. Rev. E. H. Jackson, Pastor.

CORDOVA: This is an outstanding charge. It has done splendid work under the direction of its unassuming pastor. The church is completely organized. The little folks are delighted, the older folk are well pleased. Richard Asbury church has been improved with white side wall shingles, New Zion set out to do major repairs but is ending up with almost a complete reconstruction job. All that will remain of the old building will be the foundation and floor. The people are happy and pleading do not chase, Chase away. The salary has been increased by $100.00. Conversions 4; Accessions 4. Raised for all purposes $4,097.00. Rev. Harvey G. Chase, Pastor.

CRAPO and GOLDEN HILL: This charge has not been at its best this year. A resident pastor is needed on this work. Conversions 2, Accessions 2.

Raised for all purposes $2,475.00. Rev. L. C. Waters, Pastor.

DENTON-WILLISTON: This charge consists of two circuits which were merged last year to become a larger parish. The change was not too warmly welcomed and the way looked dark for a while. The pastor, a student at Lincoln Theological Seminary assisted by his mother worked hard and made sincere efforts to develop the possibilities lurking there. A resident pastor is needed for this experiment. Conversions 2; Accessions 2. Raised for all purposes $4,577.00. Rev. Claude Edmonds, Pastor.

EAST NEW MARKET: This charge got off with a slow start, but the pastor has succeeded in creating sympathetic understanding and now they are working and getting better results. Both churches have been beautifully painted. Conversions 4; Accessions 4. Raised for all purposes $3,762.00. Rev.

Raised for all purposes $7,136.00. Rev. H. E. Anderson, Pastor.

EASTON CIRCUIT: This charge is not a circuit. There is but one church. Though the pastor was not received with open arms at the beginning of the conference year, she has won her way into the hearts of this small congregation and led them on to victory. There have been improvements made as follows, the interior of the church beautifully painted, the pulpit enlarged and an open chancel built, windows screened, new carpet laid, and the parsonage papered. Then an abandoned Public school was purchased to serve as a community hall. Raised for all purposes $3,385.00. When this work was finished, the pastor took time out to give birth to a fine baby boy. The Rev. Mrs. Hester Opher, Pastor.

GREENSBORO: This charge has maintained her excellent record of last year. Harmony prevails. The work is well organized a very active Men's group proves to be a real asset. The pastor's lovely wife has to be cared for because of her condition. The pastor deserves much credit for the way he divides his attention between running the church and faithfully caring for his wife. Conversions 2; Accessions 2. Raised for all purposes $6,853.00. Rev. A. P. Jenkins. Pastor.

HURLOCK makes another fine report. The three churches on this work are constantly pressing on to higher heights. Church and Church school attendance is on the increase throughout the charge. Both Union Grove and Zoar have painted their buildings. The parsonage has been improved with the installation of running water and a bath. The pastor is all smiles. Conversions 3; Accessions 8. Raised for all purposes $8,481.00. Rev. W. J. Mills, Pastor.

MARYDEL rejoices over another good year's work. This charge is organized quite well. On December 22, 1957, Parker's church on this charge was completely destroyed by fire. Young, Pastor.

MCDANIEL has made some increases along all lines this year. The membership is small but faithful, the pastor is persistent in his enthusiastic efforts to advance the work. Accessions 1; Raised for all purposes $3,614.00. Rev. A. H. Slacum, Pastor.

Conversions 6; Accessions 6. Raised for all purposes $4,328.00. Rev. E. N. Foster, Pastor.

OXFORD has broken last year's record. This charge still holds its place among the churches of the District. It is an outstanding church. Though the pastor has been ill and for a while forced to suspend all activities the people have marched on. Extensive improvements have been made. A beautiful durable siding has been put on the parsonage, a carport built, and modern equipment put in the pastor's study and office. Rev. E. A. Hughes, Pastor.

PRESTON: When better reports are made, Preston will make them. Under the leadership of an aggressive, wide awake pastor this charge promotes a program which is challenging and inspiring. Children, youth and adults alike respond to the call to advance. This church was the delightful host to our Pre-Conference Rally. Conversions 2; Accessions 7. Raised for all purposes $7,116.00. Rev. T. C. Jones, Pastor.

RIDGELY has had a degree of success in spite of the prolonged illness of its pastor. A renovation program was launched and the loyal members of Replanted Zion built an extension to their church which houses two beautiful well equipped modern rest rooms. Accessions 4. Raised for all purposes $4.716.00. Rev. Van B. Wright. Pastor.

ROYAL OAK and BELLEVUE is a great circuit which consists of two splendid congregations, possessed with minds to work. The educational, social, missionary and evangelistic programs are well planned. The charge has had a wonderful year under its dynamic pastor's leadership. Conversions 1; Accessions 2. Raised for all purposes $8,010.00. Rev. Joseph I. Williams, Pastor.

ST. MICHAELS is a charge with unlimited potentialities, the pastor preaches with great spiritual fervor, and the people hear him gladly. Special attention and guidance is given to the youth and they rally to the program of the church in a marvelous manner. The pastor and people live in a harmonious relationship and together have done a very good year's work. Accessions 2.

Raised for all purposes $6,413.00. Rev. Harry R. Snead, Pastor.

STEVENSVILLE reports that it has the right man in the right place. This charge has had phenomenal success this year. Its pace has been quickened and the people have rallied whole heartedly to the excellent leadership of their pastor. They are getting things done in a fine way. Conversions 1; Accessions

5. Raised for all purposes $7,386.00. Rev. C. Martin Stafford, Pastor.

TAYLORS ISLAND has taken on new life under the remarkable leadership of its pastor. The relationship between pastor and people is excellent, however they persist in seeking first rate service at a cut rate salary. Lanes Church has been painted inside and a new pulpit installed. Jefferson Church has been painted inside and a new roof and siding put on parish hall. Malone church has laid a beautiful new carpet, remodeled their parish hall, installed gas range and refrigerator. Conversions 1; Accessions 3. Raised for all purposes $4,476.00. Rev. George Stanley, Pastor.

TRAPPE has done very well this year. The church is completely organized and functioning. Church attendance is very good. This charge is fortunate in having several active and dependable members. Improvements have been made in the parsonage, rooms have been papered and a new gas range installed. The church is now debt free. This greatly beloved pastor consistently does fine work. Conversions 5; Accessions 5. Raised for all purposes $5,937.00. Rev. H. T.

Hall. Pastor.

VIENNA and REID'S GROVE has enjoyed a fairly prosperous year. The pastor has completed his twenty-fourth year on this charge. The Fourth Quarterly Conference voted for an increase of salary in the amount of $100.00. Conversions 6; Accessions 6. Raised for all purposes $4,650.00. Rev. A. A. McDowell, Pastor.

WITTMAN and SHERWOOD did not quite come up to last year's mark. The pastor is a consecrated man who has worked hard to bring the charge up. He has been faithful but the odds have been great. Conversions 2; Accessions 2. Raised for all purposes $3,014.00. Rev. S. E. Armstrong, Pastor.

Summary

The charges of the Eaton District reported 91 Conversions, 148 Accessions, 14 charges have made improvements in their church property and a grand total of $175,933.00 was raised for all purposes.

Conclusion

We have done our best to promote every interest of the Methodist church on the Easton District. While thankful for our achievements we are far from satisfied, they are so meager. We deeply appreciate the rich heritage passed down to us from our predecessor Dr. W. R. Hazzard and that long and glorious line of men who led the District before me and built foundations that we might succeed. We thank the fine pastors and the loyal lay people for their hearty cooperation. We thank you Bishop Love for the opportunity to serve in this capacity. Above all others thanks be to our Blessed Saviour who has permitted us to be co-laborers with Him in His vineyard. To Him, who hath loved us and washed us from our sins in His precious blood and hath made us kings and priests unto God His Father, to Him be Glory, dominion and power for ever and ever. Amen.

Respectfully submitted, C. L. TRADER, District Superintendent

PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT

Bishop Love, Ministers, and Laymen:

We are privileged to make this report to the Ninety-Sixth Session of the Delaware Annual Conference with profound gratitude because the Lord is good and his mercy endureth forever, our fellow Christian ministers and laymen have given good accounts of their stewardship, and the churches have advanced. This has not been an easy year for the churches. The usual facility for promoting the programs of local churches was greatly affected by inclement weather, epidemic disease, economic recession, and unexpected emergencies. In some instances the problems created by these adverse circumstances were transformed into challenges. Instead of neglecting the Lord's work in such an hour as this, many of our loyal Methodists in thirty-six pastoral charges responded with great faith and constant devotion to Christ and His Church.

Sickness and Death

Among the many laymen, twenty-seven pastors, ministers' wives and widows, the following were hospitalized: Mrs. David W. Briddell, Mrs. Charles L. Carrington, Lavina V. Jewett, Mrs. Ralph B. Thompson, and Dr. Leon S. Moore. We are grateful to God for the renewal of their strength and vitality.

With implicit faith in the all-wise, exceedingly merciful, omnipotent God and with firm belief in the immortality of the soul, we comforted the families of deceased laymen, among them was the family of the late Mrs. Robert G. Waters. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth." "Blessed indeed." says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!" Revelation 14:13.

Survey of Charges

BETHEL (Brooklyn, N. Y.) has advanced with a steady stride under the excellent leadership of the gracious pastor, the Rev. Mrs. Amy Redfield. The most outstanding achievements include the renovation of the basement for social and recreational purposes, 18 conversions, 13 accessions, and all district and conference apportionments paid in full—$50.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $35.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $2,301.00 raised for all purposes. This 100% charge has a bright future.

GRACE MISSION (Brooklyn, N. Y.) began the Conference Year with seven members and an inadequate "store-front" building for church purposes. The interior of the building has been refurnished. Despite these handicaps the faithful pastor, Rev. Mrs. Mary L. Slade, reports 5 conversions, 5 accessions, $110.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $15.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $649.00 raised for all causes. The future of this mission will depend not solely upon its location, but also upon its growth, proficiency and progress.

JOHN WESLEY (Brooklyn, N. Y.) had another good year under the capable pastor, the Rev. O'Connell Milbourne, who leads his people with amity and mutual goodwill. In addition to the renovation of the educational center at a cost of $3,300.000, the church reports 56 conversions, 40 accessions, $155.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $850.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full; and a total of $30,066.00 raised for all causes.

NEWMAN MEMORIAL (Brooklyn, N. Y.) is one of the most progressive churches in the City of Brooklyn. Under the far-reaching dynamic influence of the proficient pastor, Rev. Henri M. Deas, and the loyal congregation the edifice has been beautifully renovated; the gymnasium, youth center, and offices have been equipped; the Robert G. Waters Memorial Chapel was redecorated, fully equipped, and dedicated. This revivified church also reports 90 conversions, 90 accessions, $300.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $1,070.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $43,427.00 raised for all causes.

REDEEMER (Brooklyn, N. Y.) has some "faithful and true witnesses" who have a common devotion to Christ and the Church. The charge reports 18 conversions, 14 accessions, $101.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $350.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $11,606.00 raised for all purposes. The interior of the church has been beautifully painted, and the mortgage payments on the parsonage are up to date. The alert, sagacious pastor is the Rev. A. E. Martin.

GALILEE. Englewood was aroused on Wednesday, January 8th, by a fire that gutted the Galilee Methodist Church. This disastrous fire did two things. It left the struggling congregation without adequate space and facilities for church activities, and it spurred the members to forge ahead with greater impetus and concentrated efforts to build a new edifice. The charge reports 10 conversions, 6 accessions, $0.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $40.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $9,767.00 raised for all purposes. The Rev. Walter S. Taylor is the efficient, affable and beloved pastor.

BROOKS MEMORIAL (Jamaica, N. Y.) is one of the best organized and most active churches in Methodism. It was chosen as one of five representative residential Urban Churches for study and presentation to the Methodist Convocation on Urban Church Life held in Washington, D. C., February 18-22. In addition to the pastor, this church employs an associate pastor, a part-time director of Christian education and a seminary student minister. The church reports 32 conversions, 123 accessions, $1,100.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $850.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $51,072.00 raised for all purposes. The competent pastor is the Rev. Charles L. Carrington who has led this congregation seventeen consecutive years with pertinacity, Christian integrity, and marvelous success.

ST. PAUL (Jamaica, N. Y.) has become one of our strongest younger churches. It reports 5 conversions, 26 accessions, $100.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $250.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and $17,500.00 raised for all causes. Burning the mortgage on Sunday, April 27th, was a great achievement. This charge has voted overwhelmingly to transfer its membership and assets to the New York East Conference. If this Annual Conference gives the required two-thirds vote to effect the transfer, we may still sing with our fellow Christians who are loyal to Methodism: "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." This may be my last time to make a report for St. Paul Church, which is one of the most cooperative congregations in The Methodist Church. The Rev. Howard D. Asbury is the well trained and efficient pastor.

CLAIR MEMORIAL (Jersey City, N. J.) gives a good account of its stewardship. The greatest progress of the church includes increased membership and attendance, increased ministerial support, and improvements in the parsonage. The new, affable, vigilant pastor, Rev. W. G. Brown, and the people work harmoniously together. The charge reports 19 conversions, 16 accessions, $265.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $347.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and $10,118.00 raised for all purposes.

ST. MATTHEW'S (Linconia, Pa.) is a young church in a new residential community. The loyal, sincere pastor, Rev. John R. Jackson, has done his best to make this mission a vital force in the life of the community. However, despite his determined, sacrificial efforts and faithful leadership the church has not done much this year. The charge reports 3 conversions, 3 accessions, $20.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $15.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $845.00 raised for all purposes. Brother Jackson deserves full credit for all he has done to get a church started in Linconia.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH (Montclair, N. J.) is not only a beautiful edifice; it is also a well organized church that has made progress under the wise pastor, Rev. W. A. Harewood, who has led the church commendably with virility, spiritual strength, and vigor. The charge reports 3 conversions, 41 accessions, $1,120.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, paid in full, $945.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $29,958.00 raised for all purposes. The bathroom in the parsonage has been modernized at a cost of $850.00. The obligation with the Board of Missions has been given preferential consideration. This was a good year for St. Mark's church.

ST. JOHN'S (Newark, N. J.) has a good report in spite of its administrative difficulties that developed at the beginning of the year. Despite the restlessness among some members and the work of robbers who entered the church twice and the parsonage once, this charge reports $525.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $1,205.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $$27,148.00 raised for all purposes. The parsonage has been renovated, and the mortgage on the church has been greatly reduced. The thoroughly trained, conscientious, faithful pastor, Rev. C. B. Miles, and the loyal members prayer and worked with great zeal to retrieve the unity and strength of St. John's church. There were 8 conversions and 27 accessions.

ST. MATTHEW'S (Newark, N. J.) is one of our most promising churches because it is strategically located in a residential section; the church is carefully organized, the members have a mind to work, and the genteel pastor, Rev. William R. Mayberry, who leads judiciously, knows how to get along with people. He is an excellent pastor and a prolific preacher. This young church reports 0 conversions, 21 accessions, $40.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $100.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $5,896.00 raised for

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH (New Rochelle, N. Y.) has some loyal members who work vigorously with Christian audacity to strengthen the church. The church needs a parsonage, increased ministerial support, and a full time pastor. A salary of $1,800.00, without a parsonage, is inadequate in the City of new Rochelle. The charge reports 4 conversions, 4 accessions, $11.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $190.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $4,225.00 raised for all purposes. The Rev. Lester V. Baker is the astute, friendly, active pastor.

BUTLER MEMORIAL (New York City, N. Y.) continues to make progress in Christian education, evangelism, stewardship, and the members are working assidiously to build a new church to accommodate the over-crowded Sunday school and regular worship services. At present over-crowdedness is alleviated by conducting two sessions of the Sunday school, release time school, and a Wednesday evening Bible class. The increase in church attendance is marvelous. The charge reports 28 conversions, 23 accessions, $175.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $413.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $16,661.00 raised for all causes. The Rev. W. P. Johnson is the proficient pastor who has led this congregation commendably sixteen consecutive years.

SHAW CHAPEL (New York City, N. Y.) does well with only ten members who have the total responsibility of renting a room for services and of meeting all obligations of the church. The church has good members, but not enough of them. The report includes 1 conversion, 1 accession, $0.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $30.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and $988.00 raised for all causes. If this church is to survive as a "redemptive fellowship" in New York City, it must relocate, it must grow, and it must make its influence felt in the life of the community. The Rev. S. M. Bellamy is the patient, loyal, and faithful pastor who has led this church fourteen consecutive vears.

ST. JOHN'S (Orange, N. J.) has been hindered by internal strife and administrative difficulties. By the grace of God through repentance and reconciliation, the church can retrieve her solidarity and sense of oneness. Church attendance is good and the financial support has increased. The charge reports 3 conversions, 8 accessions, $160.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $440.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $8,190.00 raised for all causes. The Rev. Randolph Fisher has labored faithfully and tendentiously to discharge his pastoral duties.

St. MATTHEW's (Ossining, N. Y.) continues to make progress under the leadership of the good pastor, Rev. D. M. Collins, who captures the interest of both church and community. There is a warm fellowship in the church and excellent cooperation between the minister and people. The church reports 6 conversions, 4 accessions, $50.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $150.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $6,700.00 raised for all purposes.

BETHSAIDA (Philadelphia, Pa.) has completed another successful year under the effective leadership of the faithful pastor, the Rev. Archie L. Scriber. The charge reports 2 conversions, 2 accessions, $125.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $84.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and $7,154.00 raised for all purposes.

CAMPHOR MEMORIAL (Philadelphia, Pa.) is noted for her excellent music, helpful worship services, and effective program of Christian education. The large regular attendance is inspiring. The church reports 46 conversions, 54 accessions, $916.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $850.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $25,214.00 raised for all purposes. This was a banner year for Camphor. With uprightness of character, spiritual stamina, and a shepherd's heart, the Rev. Walter R. Stanley and the church have advanced with esprit de corps and constant devotion to duty.

CHRIST'S MISSION (Philadelphia, Pa.) has the disadvantage of inadequate space and facilities; nevertheless, it has taken on new life this year. It is like a butterfly coming out of its first stage with wings and strength to rise. The organizational structure has been improved and the people have a mind to work. The charge reports 10 conversions, 10 accessions, $25.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $35.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full; and a total of $1,000.00 raised for all purposes. A more desirable location for the church and better facilities are essential to the growth, development, and progress of this charge. The Rev. Eugene T. Randolph is the faithful and hard-working pastor.

TRINITY (Philadelphia, Pa.) has made progress under the effective leadership of the wise, amiable, efficient pastor, the Rev. J. E. Dunn. The Sunday services are well attended; and the church school is out-growing the present space and facilities. The church must be either enlarged or relocated to meet the pressing religious needs in the growing community of East Germantown. The church reports 14 conversions, 10 accessions, $213.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $200.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $4,983.00 raised for all causes.

EMMANUEL (Phila., Pa.) gave a hearty welcome to the new, well trained, efficient pastor, the Rev. David W. Briddell, and his winsome wife. The greatest progress of the church was in administration, evangelism, and Christian education. The official board and other groups are carefully organized, the membership and attendance are increasing, the worship services are most helpful, and a good program of Christian education is helping to make spiritual growth a continuous experience. The church reports 5 conversions, 49 accessions, $35.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $100.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $10,402.00 raised for all purposes.

ST. THOMAS CHURCH (Frankford, Pa.) has made progress this year under the stalwart leadership of the new pastor, the Rev. Robert L. Harris. Windows have been repaired, the basement has been partially renovated, attendance in the regular worship services and the church school has increased, and more organizations are active. The church reports 4 conversions, 5 accessions, $30.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $96.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $5,197.00 raised for all purposes.

JANES CHURCH (Germantown, Pa.) continues to grow as a vital agency in the life of the local community and the world parish. A new kitchen was installed at a cost of $3,900.00 and paid for. The church has contributed $1,000.00 this conference year to the new Izuo Church in Taisho-ku, Osaka, Japan, and a gift of $62.00 toward our mission work in Liberia; and substantial support has been given a Lincoln University student from Sierra Leone, Africa. The charge also reports 17 conversions, 46 accessions, $1,050.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $1,350.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full; and a total of $32,719.00 raised for causes. The Rev. Henry H. Nichols is the proficient, stalwart pastor who has led this great church judiciously and effectively eleven consecutive years.

HAVEN (Phila., Pa.) has completed one of its best years. The church is thoroughly organized, and the Sunday morning services enrich the lives of enormous congregations. Haven church needs a larger sanctuary and better educational facilities. The charge reports 25 conversions, 42 accessions, $1,500.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $1,718.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full; and a total of $36.748.00 raised for all causes. The erudite, scholarly, effective pastor, Rev. Earl H. Crampton, and the loyal members possess the pertinacity to give such an impetus as to make the great Haven even a greater church.

JOHN WESLEY (Phila., Pa.) has advanced with precision and an unusual facility for coordinating the activities of the church. The church is in an excellent spiritual and financial state. The attendance and weekly offerings have been increased 60 to 75%. The parsonage has been completely renovated and equipped with new furniture at a cost of $3,222.00. This charge reports 15 conversions, 14 accessions, $1,150.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $1,200.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full; and a total of $26,156.00 raised for all purposes. The Rev. Irving R. Elzey is the dynamic pastor whose affable spirit and herculean ability are always evident in the Lord's work.

MT. ZION (Phila., Pa.) makes another good report. This church is open seven days per week with the regular services and an intensive, revitalizing educational program conducted in the community center under the supervision of the Methodist Deaconess Home of the Philadelphia Conference that provides a total of seven qualified workers. The charge reports 41 conversions. 20 accessions, $400.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $750.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences; and a total of $19,706.00 raised for all purposes. Like "the old man who built a bridge for a youth who would pass that way" this church is planning a magnificent expansion program that will include a new community center, playground, parking area, and eventually a new parsonage. The capable, versatile, successful pastor is the Rev. Ralph B. Thompson.

PENIEL CHURCH (Phila., Pa) faced certain emergencies and financial difficulties with tenacity of purpose and surmounting success. The church was re-wired and renovated at a cost of more than $16,000.00. The edifice is beautiful and more attractive to the increasing number of worshipers. The charge reports 7 conversions, 7 accessions, $0.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund. $57.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $11,431.00 raised for all purposes. This amount exceeds last year's total by $2,043.00. The well trained, faithful, and loyal pastor is the Rev. J. W. Elbert.

PINKETT TABERNACLE (Phila., Pa.) has a "faithful and tried few" who are struggling to amortize the present indebtedness of approximately $18,-432.00. This young church has acquired a better working knowledge of Methodism and the people are advancing with a sense of belonging to a connectional Church. This charge reports 17 conversions, 12 accessions, $0.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $15.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $4,539.00 raised for all causes. The friendly, sincere pastor is the Rev. Sterling K. Pinkett.

ST. BARNABAS (Phila., Pa.) acquired and furnished its parsonage for the occupancy of the new, wise, alert pastor, Rev. James O. Stanley. The pastor's salary was increased $700.00 at the beginning of the conference year. The church reports 10 conversions, 10 accessions, $25.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $200.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $6,216.00 raised for all purposes.

TINDLEY TEMPLE (Phila., Pa.) has ended another good year under the leadership of the beloved, proficient, dynamic pastor, the Rev. N. W. Moore, Jr., who has led this congregation nine consecutive years with constant faith and devotion to duty. The church reports 138 conversions, 31 accessions, $3,000.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $2,917.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, $10,000.00 for the educational center, and a total of $66,281.00 raised for all causes.

ZOAR CHURCH (Phila, Pa.) stretched herself and stepped forward under the dynamic leadership of the new, astute, and proficient pastor, the Rev. Joshua E. Licorish. There are salient evidences of progress in the regular worship services, in the church school, in the official board, and in Christian stewardship. The church reports 6 conversions, 6 accessions, $1,150.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $32.00 for the Izuo Church in Osaka, Japan; $50.00 for the mission work in Sarawak, Borneo, $1,500.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full; and a total of $27,352.00 raised for all purposes. This was really a banner year for the Mother Church.

ST. JOHN'S, the Friendly Church in Spring Lake, continues to give a good account of her ecumenicity and Christian stewardship. This is a summer appointment. From June 23rd to September 1st, summer employees from eleven states, representing several denominations, made St. John's their religious center. The Sunday services at 9:15 P.M. were well attended and the Thursday evening activities included fellowship and recreation. The church is in good repair and free of debt. The young, scholarly, effective pastor, Rev. George H. Outen said, "Our people responded rather well to the Conference assignments and the appeal from the Ministers' Wives Association of the Philadelphia District. Both of these were new ideas for almost all of the members who have attended Spring Lake's church during the year." This was the first charge on the district to pay all district and conference apportionments in full. When people know what we are doing to help God save the world, they will help. The church reports $10.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $995.00 raised for all purposes.

ASBURY (Trenton, N. J.) had another good year. After eight years of effective pastoral leadership at this church, the Rev. Edward H. Holmes was transferred on March 1, 1958, to the pastorate of the First Methodist Church in Monrovia, Liberia, Africa. He left the church well organized and in a very good spiritual and financial state. The charge has an excellent report because of this good foundation, and because of the vital services of the Rev. W. C. Thompson, the Rev. W. A. Hubbard, Brother Thomas Malloy and other loyal members and friends. The church reports 13 conversions, 10 accessions, $725.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $550.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $15,829.00 raised for all causes.

TRINITY CHURCH (White Plains, N. Y.) continues to make a great impact upon the whole community. The interracial and inter-faith activities are evidences of the ecumenical spirit of the people and the very competent, dynamic pastor, the Rev. T. M. Booth. The church is thoroughly organized, and the high quality of the planned activities are conducive to the new birth and Christian growth. The charge reports 12 conversions, 12 accessions, $700.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $600.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, paid in full, and a total of $15,775.00 raised for all purposes.

Summary of Statistics

The district has given a good account of her stewardship. The thirty-six charges reported 686 conversions, 808 accessions, $15,026.00 for the Reserve Pension Fund, $19,527.00 for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and a total of $591,437.00 raised for all causes. This grand total exceeds last year's report by $55,118.00. We are grateful to God and the Christian people for this marvelous success.

The New District Parsonage

On April 8, 1958, the Philadelphia district purchased the beautiful, most desirable property located at 6119 Ellsworth Street, Philadelphia 43, Pa. This house is the new residence of the district superintendent.

We are grateful to the ministers and laymen who made it possible for the district to secure this beautiful, magnificent parsonage. Most of the furniture is new. We shall never forget the faithful trustees and members of the parsonage committee who acted with alacrity and genuine amiability.

Our Land of Decision

Linconia (Pa.) is a suburban community in which our St. Matthew's mission has failed to grow; yet this is perhaps our most promising "Land of Decision" within the area of the Delaware Conference. Most of the people within a radius of two miles from the location of the church are home owners and they want a strong Christian church in the community. The survey is incomplete; however, we believe a strong, effective Methodist church in Linconia would be a blessing to more than a thousand people who live in proximity to the church site. If this church is to take on new life and grow as a "redemptive fellowship" we must do at least three things: We must relocate and build an attractive church that will serve the people of Linconia and the adjoining community, Concord Park. We must establish a strong, dynamic leadership in the parish and guarantee the pastor a fair salary. Thirdly, the pastor and people must continue to trust God, love everybody, and work like the Lord.

Upon our request and with the excellent support of the Rev. Dennis R. Fletcher, the Board of Missions has purchased two and one-half lots, beginning on the corner of Sumerton Road and Kay Avenue. This is an ideal, strategic location for a community Methodist church.

Mr. Roy L. Cordery, the special Committee on Research and Survey, and other members of the Conference Board of Missions have given careful consideration to the missionary challenges and opportunities within the bounds of the Philadelphia district. If we had sufficient funds, at least three new churches could be started immediately within the area of our district. In addition to starting new missions, we aim to strengthen the young churches that are stretching and struggling to grow.

A Final Word

Early this Conference Year, the Philadelphia District Council was organized to facilitate the administrative work of our great district. The purpose of this Council is to hear and discuss ideas about the program and the promotion of it; to assimulate useful ideas and organize a practical program; and to motivate the group to act with perspicacity, keen discernment, and concentrated efforts. In the Council Meetings, the several areas of district responsibility have been reviewed to determine what has been accomplished and to formulate the type of program that will meet the challenge of the present age.

The competent, co-operative leaders of the Council have functioned with fecundity of thought and Christian integrity as we transformed problems into challenges and set out to meet specific goals that have been set by the General Church, the Delaware Annual Conference, or the Philadelphia District. This has been a great year. From the beginning, we aimed to involve many laymen and ministers in the planning and promoting of the district program. It is evident that our progress or the successful implementation of our district program has been facilitated by their involvement in group dynamics and the democratic process, by the insights, beliefs, and influences of the administrative leaders, by the intellectual growth, spiritual preparation, and participation of invested interest groups, and by the wonderful responses of the local churches.

We are grateful to the ministers and laymen of the Philadelphia district for a hearty welcome, genuine hospitality, and excellent cooperation throughout the conference year.

"Now unto Him who is eternal, immortal, invisible, the only just and all-wise God, be glory and honor, dominion and power, now and for ever. Amen."

Faithfully submitted by— WALTER R. HAZZARD, District Superintendent

SALISBURY DISTRICT

"The God of Grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen."

Bishop Love, friends and members of the Delaware Conference, I have been accorded the privilege of making this my fourth report of my stewardship as a district superintendent of the Salisbury District. I am grateful to Almighty God for his great love toward me, and to the fine ministers and their families, and to the good laymen for their splendid cooperation during this conference year.

The difficulties have been too numerous to mention. Though in spite of all hardships, many of the pastors and their good laymen were able to come to the end of the conference year having most of their work completed in full.

Sickness and Death

There was some sickness among the ministers and their families. At this writing we are happy to say that health in the ministers' families is very good.

Rev. John Sidney Collins, pastor of Shiloh and Hutt's Memorial Charge passed on to be with the Lord. Benjamin T. Hall, associate district lay leader died also.

Rev. W. A. Nichols lost a brother, and Mrs. David T. Lewis lost her mother.

District Activities

I am presenting a brief résumé of our district activities for this conference year.

We began the year with our District Stewards Meeting, at which time the program of the general church, conference, and district was presented and adopted including apportionments.

The Vacation Church School Institute was held April 15th at John Wesley Church, Salisbury, Maryland. We were able to register thirty-four vacation schools, which is a one-hundred percent record for the district. The District Youth Institute was held at Maryland State College. There were two Observation Schools held for the educational workers, five leadership schools in strategic areas of the district and the Youth Rally at St. Andrews Larger Parish. At this time the youth themselves made a contribution to the youth fund of more than three hundred dollars. Missionary Institute was held at Accomac Virginia High School. The District Convocation on Christian Higher Education was held at Metropolitan Church, Princess Anne, Maryland. The Resource persons for this occasion were Dr. D. D. Holt, General Board of Education, Dr. N. W. Moore, Jr., and Rev. H. A. Bailey, Executive Secretary of Education of the Delaware Conference. This conference did much to challenge the people of the Salisbury District concerning the financial needs of our church related colleges. The closing session of the year was our Pre-Conference Rally, April 23rd. The laymen came in large numbers and remained throughout the day. The evening's program was centered around the youth of the district and the ministers' wives.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service is making every effort to spiritualize the total womanhood of the district. Mrs. G. T. Jackson is giving splendid leadership to this organization. Mr. T. Waldo Kiah, district lay leader, is promoting the lay work of the district in a most vital way. Many of the Methodist Mens organizations are stronger and doing a far better work this year than ever before. His plea is, better cooperation on the part of some of the ministers. The death of Brother Benjamin T. Hall who was associate lay leader for the Virginia area, is a great loss to the Salisbury District. He was the power behind both minister and layman in the Virginia Sub-district when it came to getting things done for the church, God bless his dust. A good layman has gone to rest. The ministers' wives, this very loyal group of women, under the leadership of Mrs. N. B. Derrickson are continuing to give fine leadership in their several communities and in the apportionment they raise for the conference claimants. Mrs. Carolyn C. Dorman, general church school superintendent of the district has done a beautiful job in organizing the church school superintendents in a functioning group. The church schools are doing a more effective work in Christian I duca'ion in their local churches.

Report of Charges

COTTAGE GROVE (I. H. White, pastor). This charge under its new leadership made some progress. More could have been done if they had begun the work at the beginning of the conference year. Conversions 14, accessions 7. Faised for all causes $4,039.00. His return is requested.

• CRISFIELD: SHILOH (Winston Churchill Crosse, pastor). This charge has been the victim of the late arrival of its pastor for two years. This year as last, the pastor came to the charge fully prepared to do the work of the church. He began well, but soon ran into difficulty. This difficulty and the recession which has been so severe on industry in Crisfield made it impossible for a full year's report. The pastor has done well. Conversions 23, accessions 23. Raised for all purposes $5,232.06.

CRISFIELD: UNION ASBURY & LIBERIA (C. B. White, pastor). This charge had the experience of having its pastor moved from them in the middle of the year. Liberia church through the years has found it difficult to follow leadership, and cooperate with its sister church, therefore the work has been held back. Brother White and wife are giving good leadership. They deserve better cooperation from Liberia. Conversions 0, accessions 1. Raised for all causes $2,957.66.

DAMES QUARTER (R. T. Wallace, pastor). Dames Quarter is a two circuit charge with great possibilities. This charge is not willing to use these resources for the good of the kingdom. Brother Wallace is a hard worker and should have a much better report for the energy and time that he gives to his work. Conversions 28, accessions 33. Raised for all causes $3,006.35.

DEAL ISLAND (Orenzo A. Milbourne, pastor). This charge has not done its best because the pastor was not able to give the leadership. Deal Island has a loyal group of Methodists, and when given a chance, will give a good account of their stewarsdhip. Conversions 0, accessions 6. Raised for all purposes $640.84.

FRUITLAND (J. E. McBride, pastor). Fruitland has a reputation of being a one hundred percent charge, but conditions made it impossible for the goal to be reached. The total work has been looked after and a good year's work has been done. Conversions 5, accessions 5. Raised for all causes $5,086.00.

GIRDLETREE (L. H. Purnell, pastor). Pastor Purnell has a way all of his own in getting things done. This charge is one of our best organized work. Each phase of the work is looked after, children, youth, and adults. The best Church school work in the district. Conversions 7, accessions 7. Raised for all causes $8,670.00.

GREENWOOD (E. J. Johnson, pastor). Greenwood charge is strictly a farming area and conditions for the past two years have made it impossible for this charge to do what it should do. The pastor has given good leadership. Conversions 0, accessions 2. Raised for all causes $2,542.00.

HOPEWELL (Grover Jones, pastor). This charge has a better report this year than last. The pastor has worked hard to bring a good report to this conference with a measure of success. Conversions 4, accessions 4. Raised for all causes $5,421.00.

HORNTOWN (Carroll Scott, pastor). Horntown charge has a very progressive pastor who believes in getting things done. This charge has grown in many areas. The educational work is cared for and the church schools have great promise. Conversions 2, accessions 2. Raised for all causes $5,221.25.

KELLER & EXMORE (J. R. Bowdin, pastor). This charge has failed to come up to any of its expectations. The people had hoped for a good report and expressed the same to the superintendent. Conversions 9, accessions 9. Raised for all purposes $1,030.68.

LEEMONT (S. P. Sanders, pastor). This charge has the greatest potential of any charge of the district, but has not measured up to its possibilities. Some very good work has been done, the pastor has promoted the total cause of the church. Conversions 2, accessions 2. Raised for all causes $7,293.00.

MARION STATION (J. W. Mickle, pastor). Brother Mickle has striven to maintain the former record of the charge. Considering the many difficulties, this charge makes another good report. Conversions 1, accessions 1. Raised for all causes $6,653.25.

MARUMSCO & KINGSTON (Alexander Reid, pastor). This charge did not come up to its last year's report, but another good year's work has been done. The pastor has striven hard to train the congregations in the total work of the church and some success has been accomplished. Conversions 19, accessions 20. Raised for all causes $3,363.00.

MOUNT VERNON (Edward Lee, pastor). This charge is in the very heart of the farming belt and a majority of its members depend wholly on these products. The pastor has striven to give good leadership even though the report is somewhat meager. Conversions 6, accessions 6. Raised for all causes $3,331.00.

NANTICOKE (G. O. Commodore, pastor). Nanticoke has great possibilities and pastor Commodore has striven hard to bring results. He has been successful along many lines. This charge has suffered like many of the others because of working conditions. Conversions 4, accessions 0. Raised for all causes $5,339.00.

OAKVILLE (Clarence E. Handy, pastor). Oakville has had another good year in spite of conditions. Pastor Handy organized his work well at the beginning of the year, and he comes to the end having done a successful year's work. Conversions 11, accessions 4. Raised for all causes $5,644.00.

ORIOLE & VENTON (David T. Lewis, pastor). This charge has two churches. Oriole church has a small number of members, but they try to do their full share of work. Venton has a much larger membership, but it lacks vision, hence a meager report. The pastor has tried but not with much success. Conversions 3, accessions 4. Raised for all causes $3,757.00.

WHALEYVILLE (R. W. Dennis, pastor). Whaleyville, formerly Parsonsburg, has had another good year's work, advance over last year. Pastor Dennis has the know how for getting things done. A modern parsonage has been erected at Whaleyville and equipped. Conversions 2, accessions 5. Raised for all purposes $6,385.15.

POCOMOKE (S. E. Parker, pastor). The people of Pocomoke say that they have a great leader and want Rev. Parker to continue to lead. The church is well organized and making plans to become a great church. The pastor decided that it was not good to live alone, so he took unto himself a help mate. She was received by the church with open arms. Another good year's work is being reported. Conversions 17, accessions 20. Raised for all causes $6,408.00.

PRINCESS ANNE (Edwin Ellis, pastor). Princess Anne has begun to make progress under the leadership of Brother Ellis. The church is well organized and each organization is functioning according to plans. Maryland State College and the church cooperate in a very gratifying way. Conversions 10, accessions 11. Raised for all causes $9,114.00.

QUANTICO (H. W. Spencer, pastor). This is a three point charge, capable of doing much greater work. Pastor Spencer has given good leadership. The two smaller churches have caught the spirit of Methodism and want to go places with the church program, but the larger church is not willing to assume its full responsibility in order to advance the kingdom of God. The charge makes a good report considering the difficulties. Conversions 2, accessions 2. Raised for all purposes $4,932.00.

SALISBURY, JOHN WESLEY (C. A. Elder, pastor). Pastor Elder has given good leadership to this congregation for ten years. This is longer than any pastor has served this congregation. Each year the collections have advanced. The work is well organized. Conversions 3, accessions 5. Raised for all causes $7,567.00.

SALISBURY, WHITE TEMPLE (F. D. Arnold, pastor). Pastor Arnold takes the attitude that no church is functioning well unless it is doing the work of the Methodist Church as suggested. This, he is endeavoring to do in the total church program. The people have learned to like his method of doing things, and are responding well to his leadership. Conversions 12, accessions 20. Raised for all causes $8,131.00. The church has requested his return.

SHILOH & HUTTS HOSPITAL (Emerson Jolly, pastor). Brother Jolly came to this charge in September of this conference year. The people accepted him as their leader, and they, together with Pastor Jolly went on to do the conference work. The pastor and wife make a good team for this work. They are saying "let us keep Jolly." Conversions 5, accessions 20. Raised for all purposes $2,035.54.

SNOW HILL, EBENEZER (G. T. Jackson, pastor). This charge makes another good report regardless of the recession. Pastor Jackson believes in doing big business for the church and the kingdom. The educational work of the church is well cared for and there are several of the high school teachers assisting in the total program of the church. Conversions 5, accessions 6. Raised for all purposes $7,566.00.

STOCKTON (A. W. Coffey, pastor). This small congregation has done well under the leadership of Pastor Coffey. The pastor has striven to do the total work of the church with some success. She is training a group of fine young people, who are taking the leadership of the church. Conversions 7, accessions 7. Raised for all purposes $4,017.00.

ST. ANDREWS LARGER PARISH (W. H. Greene, pastor). The pastor of this charge has put in one year of hard work. In some areas of the work there has been success, in others, failure was experienced due to the lack of vision on the part of the people. A new heating plant has been put in the church at St. Andrews and water installed in the parsonage, and the parsonage committee has modernized the kitchen. A commendable year's work has been done. Conversions 6, accessions 6. Raised for all purposes $5,506.67.

Summary

In most of our charges the ministers have striven earnestly to promote every phase of the work that the Methodist Church has emphasized. Evangelism has become the slogan of the district and th local church commissions are making every effort to win the whole community to Christ and His Church. The district staff on Christian Education is giving time and devotion to the educational work of the district, with emphasis on Christian Higher Education. At our District Convocation on Christian Higher Education, eighty-two representatives of the district assembled in order to get the "go" sign from the conference and general church representatives. Dr. N. W. Moore, Jr., and Rev. H. A. Bailey of our conference and Dr. D. D. Holt of the General Board at Nashville were our resource persons. To them we give our hearty thanks for the information and inspiration given to our district in the area of Christian Higher Education.

The youth work of the district has grown considerable in this past year. Brother F. D. Arnold, our youth director has given time, patience, and devotion in order to make the Fellowships so effective in their local communities, that delinquency will have no place to thrive anywhere among us. In all of our district public meetings the youth have a place in the program. At our district conference there is a youth night, and at our pre-conference rally they are given a special time to present their work. November 29th at the youth rally, two hundred and twenty youth and forty adults were in attendance.

Our Missionary Secretary, Rev. W. H. Greene has given untiring leadership in the area of missionary education. Five charges had schools of missions and two sub-districts held mission schools. The churches were Princess Anne, Shiloh, Crisfield, Marion Station, Nanticoke, Wattsville. Charges in the subgroups were, St. Andrews Larger Parish, Cottage Grove, Girdletree, Snow Hill, Pocomoke, and Stockton. Each session was well attended in both groups and individual churches. The children's work under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Elder has advanced each year. She began the year with the slogan, "Vacation Church School in every charge," as a result, thirty-four vacation church schools were held. This is a one-hundred percent record in vacation church schools, for the district.

May I express to Rev. Bailey and Rev. Leonard Miller my sincere appreciation and thanks for their leadership in helping us to do the most effective work in Christian Education. There has been no hesitation on their part whenever they were called upon to come to our district, whether on the local church or district level.

I say thank you, to the ministers, their wives, and families for the loyal support given to the work of the district. This has been a most difficult year for all of our ministers. There were times for some, when Monday came, they were not able to have sufficient funds to secure necessities for the parsonage. In the face of much suffering and dissappointments, each minister dedicated himself to the tasks of Kingdom building, and to the church, in order that Methodism might not fail. Bishop, you have a devoted group of ministers on the Salisbury District.

Bishop, may I further state that there is a decided need for more qualified ministers in these areas if we are going to save our Methodist Church from the "isms." Each man does a highly commendable piece of work with the opportunities that are at his disposal and the many mountainous obstacles that he must encounter as he does the work that is assigned to him. We have a very loyal and self sacrificing group of laymen in our district. I say thank you for making it possible for the ministers to come to the end of the conference year, and making to this conference a very creditable report. God bless you laymen.

Bishop Love, I say to you, thanks, for your patience, your understanding, for willingness to help, regardless of your full schedule. Your administrative secretary is one above many in his attitude to render assistance whatever the case may be. He has given valuable assistance to the general church, but most especially to the Salisbury District. To him go the prayers and thanks of the district. May God give each of you good health, faith and courage for the "facing of this hour."

Respectfully submitted, C. W. DERRICKSON, Superintendent

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

Bishop Love, Ministers, Laymen, and Friends: With a spirit of humility, and a heart filled with gratitude to God, for His guidance, and with a profound appreciation to the ministers, to the laymen, and to the friends of the Wilmington District, for their spontaneous hospitality, and perpetual cooperation, I present for review, this my third Annual Report.

Sick

Illness on this District is conspicuous by its absence.

Translations

Reverends R. S. Townsend, and P. C. Jackson have been translated from the church militant to the church triumphant. I have sustained the loss of my sister Mrs. Phena Beckett.

Activities on the District

The District Stewards Meeting, The Preachers Meetings, The Youth Assembly, The District Conference, The Missionary Institute, The Youth Rallies, The Christian Worker's Schools, The Observation Schools, The Woman's Society of Christian Service Meetings, The Convocation on Higher Education, The Efficiency Conference, and the Older Adult Conference were all well attended.

Under the efficient and untiring leadership, of our District Lay Leader, Mrs. Helen Loatman and the beautiful and zealous cooperation of the Associate Lay Leaders, Miss Florence G. Wilson, Mrs. Dorothy Jones Townsend, Mr. Herbert Wise, Mr. Sylvester Woolford, and Mr. John Carney, great results may be seen in the local churches. These fruitful results may be observed in the report by charges.

The Migrant Ministry

In the Migrant Ministry we seek to share the Christian Faith with the migrant, and to develop in him a sense of personal worth, belonging and responsibility. Local communities are encouraged to share all the protective benefits and warmth of community life with them. Local churches are challenged to include these seasonal neighbors in their concern and full fellowship. The church is responding to those timeless words of Christ, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self."

Integration

Thirty-one states out of forty-eight, have full integration. Ten states more, have partial integration. Seven states have not integrated their schools. Forty-one states out of forty-eight, have either full or partial integration. Twenty-one out of twenty-three counties in Maryland have integration in all, or in part of their system. There are only two counties in Maryland that have not integrated.

The schools and staffs of Wilmington are integrated. From 35 to 40 restaurants in the center of the city are open to every one. The hotels and swimming pools are open to all. All theatres, save one, are open to the public. Public and private housing is becoming more integrated. Membership in the Y.M.C.A. entitles one to the facilities of all of the Y.M.C.A.'s in Wilmington. Integration in Wilmington has occurred without incident.

B. Lay Activities 1. THE CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

I am happy to make my twelfth report. This has been a year of studying together in workshops throughout the Conference, district and sub-district levels. It has been most challenging. We discussed subjects such as, Charge Lay Leaders, Lay Member of the Annual Conference, Lay Speaker, Commissions of the local Church, Christian Stewardship, Every Member Canvas, Methodist Men's Clubs and Potential Leadership in the local church.

The main object of the Board of Lay Activities is to deepen the spiritual life of lay members until they become an active working force in the local church. I would like to share with you some of our findings in the workshop.

Charge Lay Leaders

The local church lay leader should be well trained in lay activities, and one who is willing to study and keep abreast of the church program; and work very closely with the pastor. He is the assistant pastor and coordinator of the laymen.

Lay Member of Annual Conference

The lay member should be one of the most able laymen in the local church; chosen because of his knowledge and experience. This caliber of layman could make a better contribution to the Annual Conference.

Lay Speaker

The lay speaker is an officer of the local church that should be carefully selected because of his knowledge and experience of the General Church program. They could be used as resource persons in our workshop, on district, sub-district and local church levels.

Commissions in the Local Church

It is mandatory that the commission on Membership and Evangelism, Education, Mission, Stewardship and Finance be organized in each local church. No local church can best function without these four commissions.

In our workshops during the past year we found that many of our local church commissions were not active and this gives us great concern. We call upon the official boards of these churches to correct this condition. The commissions are the arms of the official board.

Christian Stewardship

Christian Stewardship is essential to the highest individual Holiness as well as the fullest realization of the Church's mission. We hope that our Annual Conference will request this as an emphasis during the coming year.

Every member canvas

Every Member canvas is one of the new emphases of the General Board of Lay Activities, and most vital. This phase of our work gives every member an opportunity to learn and know his church, as well as a new sense of support. Many churches throughout the Methodist Church have had great success with this plan. It has been reported that some churches have doubled their support from a Stewardship standpoint in time, talent, and possessions. We recommend that every church secure this plan from the General Board of Lay Activities, study and put into action. If every member is concerned your church will grow.

Methodist Men

The Club of Methodist Men is a vital concern in the local Church. Par. 291-292 in our Methodist Discipline makes this club indispensable if we are to develop men in to Christian living. We have more than one hundred clubs organized in our local churches, but not all are active. We recommend that each club secure the Methodist Laymen and follow the monthly planned program or use its outline to create an interest in the local club. Strong active Christian men in a local church makes a difference. Please read Par. 291 and 292. If we are to have Christian homes we must have Christian men.

Potential Lay Leadership

This is a new phase of our church life that we have been discussing of late. "Potential Leaders." Some of us feel that in many of our churches all we have to do is to look around in the pew and find the leaders that we need. Yes, much prayer may be needed to win them. We are asking the local church next year to make a study of the potential leaders in your church and community. I know you will be greatly surprised of your success.

Christian living will undergird our total life's work. Any person will be more successful in life if he is a follower of Jesus Christ.

I thank Bishop Love, District Superintendents, pastors and our loyal laymen for making this Conference year a success. HALLY P. JOHNS

2. WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

It is with thanksgiving in my heart and praise to God, our Father, that I make this, my fourth and last report as president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. I have had four years of glorious service with the full cooperation of all districts. We have accomplished much in these four years, but not as much as desired. There is always room for improvement, but we are grateful for all that has been done, and best of all, everything that has been done was done in the spirit of Christ.

The districts report as follows: The Dover District, under the leadership of Mrs. Elsie C. Briddell, reports that all the churches on the district have been organized, thus increasing the membership. The spiritual life of each member has been enriched under the guidance of the Spiritual Life Committee. The Promotion Workshop was well attended and much information and inspiration gained. The Intercultural Workshop with the Dover District of the Peninsula Conference has done much to cement relationships between the two conferences. Mrs. David D. Jones was the able speaker. The seminar on Japan was a delight. Rev. Henry H. Nichols, our speaker, was an inspiration to all who attended. To further enhance the day, some of our ladies were dressed in Japanese attire. The Flower Pageant was again a huge success. The sub-districts are organized and working well. Mrs. Briddell, retiring president of this district, wishes to thank the ladies for their cooperation during these past four years and asks God's richest blessings upon them. We know that she will continue to work faithfully to further the kingdom of God.

The Easton District began the year with an Officers' Training Day and Seminar, as did the other districts. The president, Mrs. Joseph Murray, reports of the fine manner in which the approved studies were presented, the challenging reports of the Schools of Missions of the Philadelphia and Delaware Conferences, and the report from the Youth Assembly, making it truly a rewarding day. The women of this district were privileged to have as their guest speaker for their District Conference Hour, Mrs. Florida Graves, superintendent of Friendship House. Mrs. O. H. Spence, conference secretary of Status of Women, and a member of the Philadelphia Conference Woman's Society were also guests. Two promotion workshops and an Intercultural Workshop were held. The theme of the latter workshop was, "Toward World Understanding." The fellowship luncheon served by the women of St. Marks Church, Easton, Md., did much toward creating a finer fellowship between the women of the two conferences. This district continues to move forward led by the spirit of our Lord.

The Philadelphia District officers and members have attended two workshops, one in the Philadelphia Conference and one in our own conference. There were additional district workshops on literature and promotion. A Fellowship Luncheon was held at St. Johns Church, Newark, N. J., with the women of the New Jersey Conference in attendance. Emphasis has been placed on missions, Christian social relations, student work, youth work, children's work, spiritual life, supply and status of women. A caravan has been planned for the Fall season to help inactive societies become active by visiting all local societies. The president, Mrs. William Summers, urges every local woman to accept responsibility in the total program of the local church.

The Salisbury District was honored to have the conference secretary of promotion, vice president, and president to serve as resource persons for their seminar. The study courses were presented and a workshop followed. This meeting was well attended and helpful. In November, a Flower Pageant was sponsored to raise funds to send a delegate to the Fifth National Assembly of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. In January, the work of the World Federation of Methodist Women was presented by the conference vice-president. Three district officers attended the conference workshop on promotion. The president, Mrs. George T. Jackson, reports that two workshops were held to inform the women of new methods in learning. They were fortunate to have a missionary, Miss Evelyn Wolfe, as a guest speaker. The budget of the district has been paid despite the shortage of jobs and crops. The women of the Salisbury District are awakening to the responsibilities of our great Society within a great Church.

The president of the Wilmington District, Mrs. W. A. T. Miles, reports that "The Spirit of Christ for all of Life" has been foremost in the minds of the women as they have endeavored to carry on the program and work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, through love, friendship and fellowship. This district sent six delegates to the School of Missions. All of the charges are organized and using the program and worship booklets. Twenty-three new members have been added making a total of eight hundred ninety-two, including the Wesleyan Service Guild. Youth and children's work have been stressed. The women hope to become more effective workers on the district and in their local churches.

I could not close this report without mentioning Friendship House and the fine work being done there under the leadership of our superintendent, Mrs. Florida Graves. Everything is running smoothly, as it should be, and we are proud of the young women who dwell therein.

The four years I have served as president is just another chapter in the service of the Master. I take no credit for anything that has been done.

The credit goes to each woman in each local church.

Of the sixty-one women of the Woman's Society and the thirty-five Guilders who attended the Fifth Assembly is laid the task in taking leader-ship in recruitment. We know how very important it is that we have trained men and women to carry the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the world. With this in our minds, let us take up our crosses with the determination to do a better job for Him.

Recommendations for the Conference Year 1958-59

1. We recommend that the Commission shall refuse to appropriate Conference funds to any agency, board or individual which fails or refuses to present either the books for its last fiscal year to be audited by our Conference Accountant, or a statement of audit by a certified Public Accountant. (Discipline, 1956, Par. 793.)

2. We recommend that all apportionments shall be made by the Commission to districts only. And that the district Superintendents shall make the distribution to the charges. (Discipline, 1956, Pars. 795-797.)

3. We recommend that EACH LOCAL CHURCH shall faithfully observe the days as follows: (a) WORLD SERVICE SUNDAYS, (b) CHURCH SCHOOL RALLY DAY, (e) RACE RELATIONS DAY, (d) METHODIST STUDENT DAY, (e) GOLDEN CROSS SUNDAY, Second Sunday in Nov., (f) LAYMAN'S DAY.

4. We recommend that all boards and agencies receiving financial support from the Conference shall submit to the Commission (a) The name and address of their respective treasurers, and (b) The name and place where the Conference monies are deposited by June 30, 1958.

5. We recommend that the Conference Treasurer shall continue to give priority to (a) District Superintendent's Salary and Expense Fund, (b) The Ministerial Training School, (c) The Morgan College Institute, (d) salaries of Board of Education and (e) Baltimore Area Leadership School. These items are to be supplemented through the reserve fund.

6. We recommend that no board or agency shall receive more than the amount indicated in the budget. With the exception of items in number five, no board or agency shall receive payments in excess of the amount in the treasury for that particular cause at the given time.

7. We recommend that the Area Expense Fund and the Area Council Fund shall be combined and called "AREA EXPENSE." The payment of this fund shall be made in four installments as follows: March 1, June 1, September 1, and December 1.

8. We recommend that all pastors will send monthly remittances to the Conference Treasurer, ALL REMITTANCE BLANKS SHALL BE MADE IN TRIPLICATE.

- 9. We recommend that no request shall be made on the Conference floor for finance unless it has first been presented to the Commission On World Service and Finance.
- 10. We recommend that funds not raised in one year may be reassessed the next year to the local church that does not pay as regards to minimum salary fund and district superintendent's salary.
- 11. We recommend that we participate in the LaCour Special Evangelism Mission in 1959. The cost is $3,000. We recommend that this amount be distributed to the districts to be raised on a voluntary basis. If the Conference does not raise the $3,000 through voluntary contributions, the minister that has been selected to go to Japan is responsible for supplementing the funds by raising it through his local church or personal efforts from other sources. If the minister is unable to supplement the $3,000 to participate in the Mission, the money that has been raised will be held in abeyance for another year. The administration of these funds shall be under the supervision of the Conference Board of Missions.
- 12. We recommend that we ask for $1.50 per member instead of $1.30 per member for Christian Higher Education, the additional 20 cents per member to be used for promotion and cultivation within the Conference.

This would be equivalent to 13.33% of the amount raised for this cause. The total amount for expenses however, not to exceed $3,400.00 the budgetary cost of Promotion and Cultivation.

3. BOARD OF MISSIONS

It has been and still is our task to lift up missions in the total area of our Conference. To this task your Conference Board of Missions has directed much of its energies.

Our secretaries of Missions have done a commendable job and deserve the thanks of the conference for their devotion to their trust. They have spent long hours and traveled many miles to carry the message of missions to the remote corners of our conference. They have not only responded to the call of the board and the districts, but also to the call of the local commissions of many of our charges.

Perhaps the recent survey of the Philadelphia area by a committee of our board, has left as nothing else could, an indelible impression that here are communities that need the help of our conference. Large new areas are rapidly developing among our people in all sections of our city. Here we sensed the need of a real program for conference initiated specials.

Our house to house canvas of the Linconia section and the eagerness of these people for a house of worship and for Christian educational facilities, presents an opportunity that this conference must not let pass without positive action.

The Division of Home Missions and Church Extension has taken title to a large corner lot in this area and we have planned to erect upon it a large sign stating that here will be built a Community Methodist Church whose doors will be open to all people.

We here commend the Rev. John Jackson for his courage and audacity in attempting to achieve under many handicaps what has been accomplished in the Linconia area.

We must not fail Linconia.

May I now call your attention to the status of our conference with the Division of National Missions of the Board of Missions and Church Extension as of April 30, 1958:

We need renewed effort to see to it that our notes, principal and interest, are promptly met, that we might keep our credit and good standing with the Board, and that we may not stand in the way of another needy sanctuary.

As we close the year's work we pray for increased interest in the mission cause and we also pray for guidance in the important tasks that face us. To those of us who have had the opportunity to serve in these avenues, rich rewarding experiences have been ours.

ROY L. CORDERY, Chairman

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SECRETARY

It is with gratitude to Almighty God and appreciation to the members of the Conference Board of Missions, the District Superintendents, ministers and laymen that I submit this, my second annual report to the Delaware Annual Conference. The responsibility of serving the Delaware Conference as Conference Missionary Secretary is appreciated. The privilege of working with the members of the board, the District Missionary Secretaries and the District Superintendents in the promotion of the cause of missions, has been an enriching experience.

Our Basic Aim

Our basic aim is to carry out the Great Commission: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Our supreme objective is to make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all peoples in all lands as their Divine Saviour, to persuade them to become His disciples and to gather these disciples into Christian Churches, to enlist them in the building of the Kingdom of God, to cooperate with these Churches; to promote world Christian Fellowship; and to bring to bear on all human life the spirit and principles of Jesus Christ.

One may gather from this statement of purpose and objective that the scope of our work is tremendous. It reaches into every district and into every local congregation of our conference. The complexity of our modern day adds to the task. We need a greater devotion and a keen sense of vision, in order to meet the challenge. There is the pressure of a rapidly expanding population. The relocation and shifting population within the city and the growing suburbia tax our ability to build new congregations and expand others. The city itself is a severe challenge with its changing pattern, its economic and racial pressures, its violence and growing crime rate. On the other hand the Delaware Conference is confronted with a decreasing rural population on the majority of its districts, which creates a difficult problem of adequate leadership and service by the church in these areas. Some are saying "consolidate the weaker churches" while others are saying "abandon them." The choice of either has its perils and must be pursued only after much prayer and deliberation.

Across the nation and within the bounds of the conference, our people are deeply depressed by intense racial and economic struggle. The equality of men, and the right to pursue a livelihood, which are fundamental Christian tenets, are being challenged. Not only are the aforementioned a menace, but the witness of the church and Christianity is also challenged by the surging tides of secularism. This is therefore, the time for every local church in our conference to move aggressively forward. The churches of our conference have never faced a graver challenge or greater opportunity as we are facing today. Very little can be accomplished by a hold-the-line action. The problems and needs are demanding immediate attention. We must supply more and better leadership and service, particularly in rural areas. We must continue to increase our World Service givings in order that the needs of both national and world missions might be met.

The churches of our conference have in most cases, done a commendable job in raising the World Service apportionments. But our missionary obligation will not be fulfilled until a better job is done in the field of missionary education, promotion and cultivation. Missionary education must be at the heart of our missionary program; not merely the satisfaction of a budget raised in full if we are to reap the benefits of Christian stewardship year after year, as it relates to Christian missions.

In order that we might have an "informed people" as well as a "paying people" an active Commission on Missions in every local church, is a must. Every pastor has the responsibility to see that this commission is at work in his local church, not merely as a fund-raising agency, but as an agency of promotion, cultivation and education in the missionary areas of work. Let us not lose sight of the duties of this commission. It must, (1) Keep the people informed; (2) Plan an Annual School of Missions; (3) Promote World Service; (4) Secure Missionary Specials; (5) Circulate the "World Outlook": (6) Recruit workers for full-time Christian service.

Activities

1. Attended Planning Conference on the promotion of a joint (Washington and Delaware Conferences) Conference on Missions held at the Morgan Christian Center, Baltimore, Md.

2. Served as dean of the Conference on Missions.

3. Held meeting with District Missionary Secretaries and District Superintendents and set dates for District Missionary Institutes and other activities.

4. Presented the cause of missions at the Salisbury District Conference at Pocomoke, Md.

5. Served on panel discussion group of a two-day workshop for the conference officers of the W.S.C.S., held at Ezion Church, Wilmington, Del.

6. Conducted workshop on missions at the Easton District Missionary Institute held at Greensboro, Md.

- 7. Instructor at Wilmington District Missionary Institute held at Grace Church, Chester, Pa.
- 8. Served as instructor at joint School of Missions (Asbury and Hamilton) held at Asbury Church, Atlantic City.
- 9. Attended and presented report at both meetings of Conference Board of Missions.
- 10. Served as host and resource person at the Wilmington District Missionary Youth Rally held at Atlantic City, N. J.
- 11. Served as a member of the survey and research team in the Philadelphia area.
- 12. Delivered the inspirational message at the Church-wide School of Missions, Haven Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

I shall continue to cooperate with the members of the board, the District Missionary Secretaries and the District Superintendents in the promotion of our major responsibilities by:

- 1. Following the recommendations outlined by my predecessors and setting up an effective program of education and cultivation, in carrying out the policies and promoting all phases of the work of missions and church extensions.
- 2. Shall work with the Conference Board as it reviews, approves or adjusts the askings of the District Superintendents for the maintenance program within the bounds of our conference before they are presented to the General Board of Missions.
- 3. And shall aid in every way possible in the presentation and interpretation of missions and the advance specials on the conference, district and local levels.

Recommendations

- 1. In order that an effective program might be projected, it is necessary that a Planning Conference on Missions be held at the earliest possible date.
- 2. That members of the board, District Missionary Secretaries and other interested persons endeavor to attend Missionary Conferences and

- Schools of Missions whenever possible in order to receive inspiration and information so as to render larger service.
- 3. That every effort be made to increase attendance and interest in the District Missionary Institutes.
- 4. We would like to encourage the use of returned missionaries and scholarship students in our churches, in order to afford local congregations with a "grass root" report of the work of missions.
- 5. That every local church in the conference strive to set up and maintain a functioning Commission on Missions.
- That every local church cooperate wholeheartedly with the Commission on Christian Vocations in the recruitment of young men and women for service in the field of missions, both national and world.
- 7. Schools of Missions were held this year in a larger number of churches than ever before, in small churches as well as large, and the reports on the sale and use of the study book "The Lands of Witness and Decision" has been excellent. We therefore urge every church in the conference to make early plans to conduct a School of Missions. We are convinced that where Schools of Missions are held, greater interest in the total missionary cause is evidenced. For we are of the belief that an informed people will be a sharing people.
- 8. We further recommend:
 - (a) That a self-study and analysis of each local congregation be systematically and diligently executed. And that where necessary the newly appointed Committee on Research and Survey be employed, to make further study and recommendations.
 - (b) That churches particularly in relocated urban areas and new developments might set up outpost Sunday Schools after adequate study and consultation with the District Superintendent, has been made.
 - (c) That churches in farm and seasonal areas become more concerned in our ministry to the migratory and seasonal laborers.
- Finally, we would like again to urge two things upon each church, first —organize and activate your local church Commission on Missions;
 second—conduct a School of Missions in each local church.

Conclusion

We are grateful to our conference board chairman, Mr. Roy L. Cordery, to the District Missionary Secretaries: Rev. O. H. Spence, Rev. J. I. Williams, Rev. W. H. Greene, Rev. R. B. Thompson and Rev. W. R. C. Mills and to the District Superintendents. Without the assistance of these brethren, the promotion of missions in our conference could not be carried out as successfully. It is because of their untiring efforts that the missionary story has been told in each district.

During the past year "the lands of witness and decision" have been lifted up and we have echoed the reports of the mission work of Methodism from around the world. We can say at the close of this conference year 1957-58, that progress has been made—a progress due to dedicated concern and continuity of effort in every district and in every local church. Now there is a need for study and evaluation of what has been done in order that we may meet the needs of increasing numbers and develop a program suited to life in a changing world. In Proverbs 16:9 (RSV) we read, "A man's mind plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps" may be directed by God as we follow the various paths of service which—"lead to blazoned heights and down the slopes of need."

4. COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

O. H. SPENCE, Executive Secretary

Visitations and Promotional Efforts. The Secretary visited, June 11, 1957, Chestertown, Md., to arrange an outline of the work for the conference year; October 30th, Seaford and Cambridge Circuit Charges, distributing literature and outlining the work; December 12th, Easton Circuit, for the same purpose; January 2nd, Dover District parsonage and Princess Anne Charge, distributing literature and speaking of personnel and plans for the work of the commission; February 28th, Coleman and Rock Hall Charges, Dover District, to distribute literature and awaken interest in our work: April 9th, North and South Berlin Charges and Upper Fairmount Larger Parish, for the same purpose; April 24th, Easton District, publicizing our plan to have a pictorial display of improvements made on the charges this year at this Annual Conference session.

Promotional Literature. "Establishing Methodist Families In Town and

Country," "The Group Ministry," and "The Lord's Acre Plan," have been the main pamphlets distributed, but many free leaflets, including "Rural Life

Sunday" have been included.

Meetings. December 6th, we met at the Odessa Charge, to begin implementing the program adopted by this Conference at its last annual session. A Committee on Cultivation was formed, composed of the lay members of the conference commission, who represent the several districts. This committee will distribute promotional literature to the churches, and in cooperation with the district superintendents and pastors, seek to organize in all local churches Farm and Home Committees whose duties are set forth in "Establishing Methodist Families in Town and Country," pages 2-9. We set up A Survey and Research Committee, to be composed of the ministerial members of the Conference Commission on Town and Country, representing the several districts. This committee will work with the conference commission to secure data from the districts.

Projects. The Vienna church, Linkwood Charge, Easton District, was burned to the ground. It is reported that the members, under the leadership of the pastor, the Rev. C. H. Cottingham, have raised only $600 toward the rebuilding of the church. They have $3,000 insurance. The Board of Missions offers a helping hand, under regulations. Stipulations have not been met.

The Mt. Vernon Church, Church Hill Charge, Easton District, was destroyed by fire. Under the leadership of the pastor, the Rev. E. H. Jackson, $10,000 have been made available.

The St. Andrews Larger Parish, Salisbury District, is the brighest star in the galaxy of Town and Country activities of the Delaware Conference, thanks to the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Greene, pastor and wife. Here, at Upper Fairmount, Md. is an operating community of more than 123 Sunday School members, 40 M.Y.F. members, two 4-H Clubs, 24 Y.A.F. members, and two chartered Methodist Men groups. The leadership given at St. Andrews is worthy of every consideration.

Town and Country Church Conference. The Northeastern Jurisdiction of our church is sponsoring an Inter-racial Town and Country Church Conference at Goucher College, Towson, Md., June 24-26, 1958. Your secretary has been invited to solicit a full delegation from this Conference (cost $20 each). Our Conference is asked to supply one leader for a discussion group.

Travel for Chancy, Jones, Greene

"Back to the Country" Objective. This is an objective assumed by our commission on the recommendation of the Rev. Daniel L. Ridout. Since its beginning, May 7, 1957, one promising young pastor, the Rev. Carlton Parker, has dedicated himself to the cause. He is serving the Odessa-Port Penn Charge.

5. BOARD OF EDUCATION

I assure you as chairman of the Board of Education, that we appreciate more than words can express the support you have given the cause of Christian nurture; and at the same time remind you that even greater support in terms of time, talent and gifts are urgently needed if the mark of the Master is to be plainly stamped upon each character within our influence.

This year, your board has in addition to the local church emphases sought to focus the spot light on Christian Higher Education. Since our last annual report to you, Russia and the United States, to name a few nations, have been charmed by the challenge to conquer outer space. This concern places a premium on scientific and technical training. Federal scholarships are available to those having unusual aptitudes pursuing these causes.

The church related college is the church at work in the area of higher education. The church related college faces a crisis today as it seeks to keep the Christian ideal at the center of higher education. It has been said that the Chinese symbols for our world crisis include two concepts, "danger and opportunity." No symbols could more adequately describe the situation confronting the church's future in higher education. It is full of danger and opportunity. We, to a large extent, will determine which it will be. A tremendous increase in financial and moral support will be required, if the church related colleges are to meet the opportunities inherent in their share of the educational responsibilities which lie ahead. One dollar and thirty cents from every Methodist will be a great help to our colleges and Wesleyan Foundations.

One other matter claims our attention at this time. It is the trip of our Executive Secretary to Japan this summer. Brother Howard A. Bailey will participate in the Lacour Mission and attend the World Convention on Christian Education. This gives us an unusual opportunity to be, and to make our Executive Secretary a very real part of a world wide fellowship of men and women engaged in missions and Christian education. We are counting on your support. On the 15th of June we will send to each pastor a charge by charge report of the contributions to this cause.

You are urged to read very carefully the reports which follow. Your sacrifices and labors of love have made this possible. Thanks again to God for the blessings he bestows and to you for encouragement and support.

J. R. SHOCKLEY, Chairman

Report of the Executive Secretary

It becomes my privilege to report to you the activities in which we have engaged in promoting the program of Christian education in the Conference for another year.

The joy of working with persons as they progress in their Christian growth, increases with the passing years. The challenge offered to us as we seek to overcome the non-Christian influences with a positive application of Christian gospel, keeps us ever aware of our dependence upon a source of strength and guidance beyond our selves. With the rapid development in so many fields of human endeavor, many are wondering if the gradual, and sometimes slow, process of Christian growth is adequate for our times. We, however, reaffirm our faith in the methods of Jesus when he said, "First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear." In the assurance that persons can and do grow in Christilkeness under the influence of a well planned and properly executed program of Christian teaching, we the members of your staff have labored during the year. This report, and others of our staff, will reflect, at least in a measure, the results of our efforts.

Our Conference Staff: Rev. Edward H. Holmes for the past two years has rendered most excellent services as the Conference Director of Adult Work. Under his leadership the cause of adult education has progressed in all of its phases in the conference. We wish here to congratulate him upon his recent appointment to the pastorate of the First Methodist Church in Monrovia, Liberia, Africa. We are confident that the same qualities of dynamic Christian leadership which have characterized his ministry among us, will bring him signal success in his new field of labor. We are happy to know that the opportunity has come to him and his family to share their gifts in a larger field of service.

Mr. Herman D. Brown has labored as a pioneer in the area of older adult work. He had the disadvantage of "selling" the whole idea of ministering to this particular age group as a responsibility of the workers in Christian education. He conducted during the year his first conference-wide effort in this area.

Our Young Adults under the leadership of Mr. Leon Bevins, President of the Conference Young Adult Fellowship, have shown steady growth. It has been a real source of satisfaction to observe the progress toward real Christian maturity on the part of many of our young adults.

Mr. C. Leonard Miller is serving in his second year as Conference Director of Youth Work. Two years ago when we first decided to employ another staff worker in the field, we were aware that it was a bit of an experiment. Now, however, I am confident that we are all agreed that it was an experiment which has proved most successful. Under Mr. Miller's leadership the youth work of the conference had gone steadily forward. We are most pleased with his fine contribution to the cause. We are happy for the manner in which he is given opportunities to serve in an increasing number of local churches as well as the many other groups, where he participates in the interest of our youth.

I am confident that you will want him to continue in this capacity, that our youth work may continue in its effectiveness. We have the hope that this progressive promotion of youth work will be supported by increased giving on the part of our churches to the causes which support our youth program.

Mrs. Emma W. Strother still leads the children's workers in a progressive program for children. Her wide experience, plus her devotion to the work are bringing results in terms of more trained leaders in the field and more persons influenced by effective teaching of children.

The District Staff: A few weeks preceding the session of the Annual Conference, and in two cases immediately following conference, it was my privilege to meet with each District Superintendent and his staff to plan the district program. The reports of my fellow staff workers will give the results of most of the activities planned. Since, however, there is no staff worker on the conference level in charge of General Church School Work, I shall mention activities in this field. In May and December there were district-wide conferences of church school workers held on the Philadelphia District at St. Johns Church, Newark, N. J. and Zoar Church, Philadelphia, respectively. These meetings were well attended and well conducted. Mr. Herman D. Brown is the District Director of General Church Work.

In September; a similar meeting was held on the Salisbury District at Snow Hill, Maryland. This meeting was largely attended by workers from all parts of the district. Mrs. Carylon Dorman is the District Director of General Church School Work.

Other districts have worked in this field, but have not set-up district wide meetings during the past year.

Leadership Education has been engaged in formally through the well established Christian Workers' Schools, Observation Schools, and Vacation Church School Institutes. In these enterprises we have sought to improve the leadership of our church schools as well as help all who participated to be inspired to a deeper sense of Christian commitment. Detailed reports of these enterprises will be found in the reports of the staff members more directly responsible for their promotion.

The Quadrennial Emphasis: We are all aware of the emphasis which the General Conference has placed before us for the four year period 1956-1960. The first is that of improving the local church. This includes a self-study of the local church in all of its activities. Our chief concern is with a study of the church school.

Some churches under the leadership of the District Superintendents have already made this study of themselves. There have come from the General Board of Education self study guides in the area of youth and adult work. Through our conference office these guides have been made available to the churches. Our staff has been available to assist local churches seeking to follow this program of self study and improvement.

The second part of the quadrennial emphasis has to do with our task in improving our institutions of higher learning. The whole matter of our ministry to students is involved here. It goes without saying, that we as a Conference Board of Education, have a major responsibility here. However, under the new emphasis there is set up within the conference a Conference Commission on Christian Higher Education. This group is taking the responsibility for promoting this program. We shall do all in our power to work with this commission in order that the cause of students may be promoted. We call upon our committee on Student Work, especially, to cooperate with the commission on Christian Higher Education.

Ministers of Music: In accord with the new legislation pertaining to the certification of Ministers of Music, our committee on Certification has been at work on this matter. There are plans in the making for giving guidance and offering opportunities for fellowship and instruction for our church musicians. Plans are also in the making for the certification of directors of Christian Education.

Student Work: We are happy to report that a committee on Methodist Student work has been set up on the campus of Maryland State College. The committee is composed of persons from the college faculty and ministers and laymen from local churches in and near Princess Anne, Maryland. Rev. Edwin Ellis is Chairman of the committee. A program of action is now being planned. We look forward to establishing a Wesley Foundation on this campus in the near future.

We are hopeful of having a similar set-up at Delaware State College.

We shall look to our committee on student work for guidance in this field.

Camping: We have secured 50 acres of land for our campsite on which we have plans for camping. Our committee on camping likewise has recommendations for our consideration.

Work With Other Boards and Agencies: Through our youth council, we have worked with the Board of Evangelism in the promotion of the Christian Witness Mission.

With the Commission on Christian Vocations and the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, we have worked in enlisting youth in church vocations. At the Christmas Dinner, for youth entering the Christian ministry and the Mission field, there were twenty-six in attendance. We are greatly encouraged by the response of our youth to this special opportunity for fellowship and service.

The usual fine relationship has existed with the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Secretaries of the society are members of our Children's and Youth Councils. We have, as usual, cooperated in the preparation of instructors in the Summer School of Missions. It was my privilege to participate in the workshops both in Washington, D.C. and Wilmington, Delaware in the fall of last year. These workshops were for the training of leaders in the societies.

Cooperation has also been enjoyed with the Board of Lay Activities, especially on the level of our youth work. In all of the spheres of cooperation we feel that we are co-workers in a common task. We are happy for these opportunities for fellowship of service.

Through the work with the interboard scholarship committee, college and seminary students have been helped in their pursuit of an education. To the extent of the funds which were available, we feel sure that real assistance has been given to very worthy students.

Cooperation With Other Conferences: We are happy for the ever increasing opportunities for inter-conference fellowship. Through the Maryland and Delaware Council of Churches, we have had pupils enrolled in an interdenominational leadership training school held at Denton, Maryland. Mrs. Alberta Browne, of Centerville, Md. served as an instructor in this school. For the fourth summer our youth have participated in the United Christian Youth Movement Conference held at Camp Pe-Co-Meth, near Centerville, Maryland. Our youth director and Mrs. Cora Selby served as staff members of the conference during the past summer.

Our churches have participated for the first time in vacation church school institutes held at Bridgeville, Del. and Salisbury, Md. These institutes were sponsored by the Maryland and Delaware Council of Churches. Mrs.

Alberta Browne and Mrs. C. A. Elder served as leaders.

Rev. Edwin Ellis and Mr. C. Leonard Miller served as leaders of the youth institutes of the Peninsula and New Jersey Conferences respectively during the summer. Mrs. Emma W. Strother served as instructor in the New Jersey Conference Laboratory School at Haddonfield, N. J. We are happy for the opportunities of larger fellowship and service which come to members of our staff.

We are grateful for the continued loyal support which our districts are giving to the Baltimore Area Leadership School held at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C. Our attendance by districts was as follows.: Dover 5, Easton 5, Philadelphia 7, Salisbury 5, Wilmington 16. A total of 38 including persons on the staff from our conference. More and more we see evidences of results coming from this enterprise.

Methodist Conference on Christian Education: We were very pleased to have the largest delegation to attend the Methodist Conference on Christian Education that we have ever had. The conference was held in Cincinnati, Ohio, November 5-10. The theme: "The Church As A Redemptive Fellowship" ran through the entire conference composed of more than eight hundred delegates from all over the country.

The following attended from our conference along with the Executive Secretary: Mrs. Nora J. Bailey, Mrs. Emma W. Strother, Mr. Herman D. Brown, Mr. Leon Bevins, Mr. C. Leonard Miller, Revs. J. R. Shockley, E. H. Holmes and J. E. Licorish.

Mission to Japan: May I express my appreciation to the Board for having named me as a delegate to the Fourteenth World Convention on Christian Education to be held in Tokyo, Japan, August 6-13, 1958. I am likewise grateful to Bishop Love and the Cabinet for approving my serving as a member of the Centenary Mission to Japan which will take place from July 6 to September 3. I am aware of the great responsibility which will rest upon me to represent our conference and to lift up Christ to the Japanese people. I shall do my best to be worthy of your trust and confidence.

Appreciation: I never cease to be grateful for the privilege of Christian Service. The fellowship of service with members of our Board; members of the staff; District Superintendents; pastors and lay workers, is always a source of deepest joy. May I extend special appreciation to the President of our Board for his understanding and cheerful counsel at every turn of the way. To Bishop Love for his unfailing support and interest in our every effort. Always my thanks are to my wife who labors with me night and day and shares my deepest concerns and is ever an inspiration and source of strength. Finally, thanks be to God who is the giver of all that we have and the sustainer of all we seek to accomplish. That I may be true to Him and seek to do His will is my deepest desire.

HOWARD A. BAILEY

6. COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

The General Conference of our church has projected, through the years, great movements. Among them have been "The Centenary," "The Crusade for Christ," and "The Christian Advance." All have been to the glory of God and for the advancement of His kingdom.

The General Conference of 1956, following Methodism's rich heritage, adopted the emphasis on Christian Higher Education. In the spirit of Jesus Christ, the Founder and Head of the Church, the Conference declared: "The Church Universal lives and labors under the compulsion of the great commission: 'Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you.' The Commission carries with it the persuasive authority of Him whom we confess to be The Head of the Church."

The purpose of the Christian Higher Education emphasis is to educate for Christ. The goals are:

- To lead schools and colleges to thorough commitment to Christian standards and ideals.
- 2. To strengthen the bonds between the educational institutions and The Church.
- To engage in the basic task of interpretation regarding moral and financial support.
- 4. To lead The Church to provide adequate moral and financial support for education.
- 5. To make added provisions for those educational indebtedness where there is a special need, with due recognition of the needs of the schools historically operated for Negroes.

To promote the whole of the Wesley Foundations, assisting local foundations in raising funds and making the work effective on campuses.

7. To recruit ministerial candidates and expand the theological schools to provide 1,200 seminary graduates, annually, to meet the replacement needs in the ministry of the church.

This is the program to which The Church is dedicated. The decisive factor in this program is the Annual Conference. Our Annual Conference adopted last year, 1957, the minimum of $1.30 per member for our church related schools and Wesley Foundations, and in so doing, gave the Conference Commission on Higher Education the green light. This year, therefore, has been a year of promotion, with the view of meeting the full asking by the end of the quadrennium.

We have visited, in cooperation with the Bishop, the Cabinet and our executive secretary of Christian education, all districts throughout the conference and conducted Convocations on Christian Higher Education. In the convocations, we were blessed with the presence and invaluable services of

Dr. D. D. Holt, Director of Financial Promotion.

Excerpts of an Evaluation of District Convocations, prepared by Rev. Howard A. Bailey, are here given: "The purpose of these meetings was: 1. To stress the importance of Christian higher education in the life of the church. 2. To challenge the local churches with the need to become better acquainted with the work of our institutions of higher education. 3. To give guidance to the local church in its efforts to give financial assistance for the support of our colleges and Wesley Foundations.

From the reaction and participation of nearly 200 persons present at the district meetings, we are confident that our purposes were realized, at least in part. The lack of understanding concerning the work and programs of our colleges was cleared through vital discussions. Plans were made for organizing to interpret the cause of higher education to members of the local churches. There was a wholehearted acceptance of the asking of $1.30 per member to be raised in support of our colleges and Wesley Foundations. The study materials used were, "For the Rising Generation," by Umphrey Lee; "Christian Higher Education Blueprint"; "Church and Campus," November-December, 1956; together with the motion picture, "Campus Parish." The picture proved a most valuable aid in interpreting the unique contribution which the Christian college can make to the spiritual growth of students today. It also highlighted the struggle the Christian college has in maintaining the leadership needed to keep Christ central in the life of the campus. It is our hope that this picture will be widely used in our conference as one of the means of bringing to our people the need to support our Methodist colleges.

In each of the five convocations, the people left with the determination to pray for the success of Christian higher education, to organize the forces in the local church to assure the promotion of a program of cultivation, to give to the colleges and Wesley Foundations an amount equal to $1.30 per member, and to keep the kind of vital relationship with our colleges which shall assure our students the kind of religious training so essential in our world today.

We are sure that our conference has become alive to its responsibility in the area of Christian Higher Education as never before. We feel that the week of April 14-18 has been one of the most significant in the many years of promotion of Christian education in our conference."

Recommendations

 We recommend that Layman's Day, National College Day, and Student Recognition Day, be used for a conference-wide promotion of Christian higher education; that students participate and that all churches seek to raise the $1.30 per member on these special days; also that the apportionment for Christian higher education be included in the local church budget.

2. We recommend that one issue of the Baltimore Area Messenger be dedicated to the program of Christian higher education.

3. We recommend that a Committee on Christian Higher Education be named in each local church and that a dynamic chairman be named at the Fourth or First Quarterly Conference, which ever comes first.

4. We recommend the use of the proper study books in our local churches, sub-district group meetings, and Christian Workers Schools.

We recommend that our conference and local church groups use every opportunity to visit our church related schools, colleges and foundations.

6. We recommend the following items for capital expense for the next two conference years, 1958-60; the same to be designated from the $1.30 per member: Bennett College, $8,500; Wesley Theological Seminary, $8,500; a total capital fund of $17,000.

7. We recommend that the funds for our colleges, seminaries, and Wesley Foundations be distributed as follows: From the $1.00, Bennett College, 30%; Morristown College, 30%; Gammon Theological Seminary, 20%; and Wesley Seminary, 20%. The 30 cents for foundations as follows: Morgan Christian Center, 5 cents; Howard University Wesley Foundation, 5 cents; Bluefield State College Wesley Foundation, 5 cents; other Area foundations, A. & T. State College, Maryland State College and Delaware State College, 10 cents; and Allen High School, 5 cents; total, 30 cents.

8. The Area meeting of Conference Commissions on Christian Higher Education has suggested that the Conferences raise the $1.30 per member in full by the middle of December to coincide with the North Carolina Conference roll call for Bennett College. We recommend the same.

"... UNTO GOD"

Keynote Address Delivered by Rev. Noah W. Moore, Jr. to the Convocation on Christian Higher Education

"Study to show thyself approved unto God; a workman that needeth not to be ashamed: rightly dividing the word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15.

Civilization and common decency were fighting for dear life when the apostle penned these words from a martyr's prison. Governments were in the cruel clutches of despotic demagogues whose twisted and warped minds were bent upon the complete annihilation of the good and the beautiful. The smoldering ashes of Rome, the work of the pyromaniac, Nero, were a symbol of the burning fires of crass materialism and militarism that were consuming the great Roman Empire and her much mulcted multitudes.

A wise thought to remember is that great nations, like people, are invariably destroyed from deteriorating forces working within, rather than forces from without.

The Apostle Paul and the early Christians were made the scapegoats for the explosive fury of a pagan and ruthless system that was through. They suffered, therefore, every persecution and human indignity imaginable . . . death in the arena for the sport of kings; their bodies covered with pitch and set afire to lighten wicked Nero's gardens while he rode, naked, in his chariot, indulging himself in beastly lusts and revelries. But, these men, these Christians, had discovered one thing which men had sought through the ages, and which had sought for men: truth, eternal truth; and, finding it, there was no compromising. They could die for truth, but they could not compromise the truth. This was the occasion of Paul's letter to Timothy from a prison cell . . . and, he spells it out clearly. The hope of the world is not in armed might, however powerful and mighty, but in eternal truth . . . truth embodied and revealed in a man who was nailed to the cross by the evil machinations of a pagan and regimented society. Yet, He triumphed, and His spirit continues to march forward in humble followers. . . . "An Endless Line of Splendor."

Let us notice this word that Paul speaks, a triple word: scholarship, workmanship, discipleship. This word is revolutionary. "Study to show thyself approved unto God." "Unto God" means the revelation of God in the life, character and the work of Jesus Christ. This, therefore, makes the phrase, "Unto God," revolutionary, for Jesus was a revolutionary figure. There were other agencies to which he may have appealed, with the assurance of acceptance from the crowd or the powers-that-be. If, in lieu of saying, "approved unto God," he had said, "approved unto the Caesars," he would have been accepted. Again, if he had said, "approved unto the cold, legalistic, formalism of the Pharisees," he would have been accepted. If he had said "approved unto the negative skepticism and secularism of the philosophers," he would have been accepted. But, he was not seeking certification, he was seeking certitude, and he had found it—TRUTH. So, he affirms, "Approved unto God." There it is . . . Take it or leave it.

But, it makes all the difference in the world which course we pursue. Will education go Caesar, or will education go Christ? Our church-related schools and colleges must determine the sights for education. For, as go our colleges, so goes America.

Now, unfortunately, and tragically so, in our day, as in yesteryear, we have left truth. "Having forsaken God, the fountain of living waters, we have hewn ourselves out cisterns that hold no water." This is true in the new motivation which has been given to higher education and, particularly, scholarship grants. We have geared education to a war economy rather than to truth for better, saner, healthier living; brotherhood and goodwill, and the life-giving benefits that will accrue, providing a blessing to mankind, rather than the scourge and curse of war. I venture to assert that this is the Number One error of our time, and I fear we are being weighed in the balances of eternal truth and are found wanting. Our youth are urged to study and every inducement is given, including the expenditure of billions of dollars in education, including scholarship awards . . . and for what? To make the world Christian? No? But to outstrip the Russians in military science and technology. The approval we seek for our boys and girls as they pursue higher education, particularly in science and mathematics, is the approval of the military.

The word that is spoken to our high schools and to our colleges may well be study to show thyself approved unto the military so that we may launch a Sputnik properly fitted with warhead that will not only orbit the earth but, also the sun, moon, stars, and ultimately, with a little provocation, descend on Moscow, making our debut in a consuming atomic flash of great catastrophic glory. No wonder so many of our teenagers are trigger happy. I fear our war economy is responsible.

Now, Paul seemed to be saying to Timothy, and to us, if you please, "This is not the way, and you cannot win in this wise. Change your motives. They must become Christian." This is the task of Christian higher education.

Motivation in scholarship, in our schools and universities, must be other than the production of inter-continental ballistic missiles, with range and firing power to out-strip our foes. Motivation in higher education, science, technology, or what have you, must be nothing less than a purposeful desire to bless, protect, preserve, promote and enrich life, and not to destroy it. Life is sacred and education must not be dedicated to the destruction of it. Nuclear energy may be used to benefit or destroy mankind. It must be dedicated to the former.

Now, don't think for a moment that I seek to give the impression, or the lie that Paul was disinterested in scholarship and education. Nothing could be further from the truth. He studied at the feet of the celebrated teacher, Gamaliel. He possessed great learning. He was the finished product of the rich religious heritage of the Hebrews and of the philosophers of Greece and the culture of Rome. You will recall a judge said to him, "Much learning hath made thee mad" (Acts 26:24). He had a disciplined mind, but his mind was disciplined to the truth . . . to life, not death. He said, "I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth" (R.S.V. "sober truth"). The scholarship motive which he advocates, therefore, is very different than the scholarship motive advocated by the military. The military motive is pagan, his motive was Christian. He emphasized scholarship, but Christian scholarship dedicated to truth. There is a vast difference; one is construction, the other is destruction . . . one is life, the other is death. It is interesting to note what happens when we are guided by shallow motives, motives that lower our sights instead of lifting them.

Recently, Benjamin Mays listed eighteen top universities, according to an article appearing in the Journal of the Association of American Colleges. Not one listed was in a certain area of the country. The reason is evident, our schools and systems of education too often have been disciplined to the well known error regarding the superiority of race, consequently, impoverishment has resulted in the multi-millions expended annually to preserve the lie through the separation of races. Our schools, here, anywhere in America, or throughout the world, cannot be successful and rise to their highest so long as they are dedicated to militarism or the lie concerning race.

"God shows no partiality . . . but in every nation, any man who loves God

It is significant and, perhaps, sinister, that close on the heels of the Little Rock incident, a terrible smirch on our democracy and conscience, Russia launched her epic making satellite. While democracy disputed race, communism raced a Sputnik.

We can beat our best only as we lift our sights to the truth of God and our relationship to Him and to one another. Our church-related schools and colleges must, therefore, lift the sight of education from Caesar to Christ, and from race to right relations.

In our war torn world, a world gripped with fear and tensions and frustrations, the Christian college and the church-related school and seminary are the real custodian of our Christian culture and heritage. They can enable us, as a nation, to preserve our sanity. I dare affirm that they, alone, are free...free to teach the truth, and teaching it, they will keep America free. The church-related school and college must remain dedicated to the truth and not militarism, to the elimination of the social evils and not to multiply them through the teaching of crass materialism and secularism, to the service motive and not to the profit motive, to the preservation of the sacredness of human personality and not to the desecration and the debasement of personality.

Roy Campanella expressed, so beautifully, the spirit which must characterize education. The incident was reported in a news release. He was offered a blank contract by Buzzy Bevasi, the Dodgers' Vice-President. This is an old front office trick and has been known to put players on the defensive and deflate their demands, resulting in a more modest demand. Campanella signed, happily, and tossed it back, blank. "Let's not kid around," said the smiling Roy. "You know that I'll play no matter what you give me. I'll play for nothing, if I have to. You can write in the figures yourself." The vice-president gave a sigh and wrote in a higher price than he had intended. His motivation, as a ball player, was not dollars and cents but the love of the game. Our motivation in education can be no less. Not for the approval of the military, but for the love for people.

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God . . . and thy neighbor." Our church-related schools and colleges must, and will continue to turn out top level scientists, mathematicians, engineers, and architects second to none, but our one passion and aim will be, not war, but, the welfare of our neighbors . . . to heal their diseases, to enlighten their ignorant, to feed their hungry, to care for their oppressed, to clothe their naked, to house their shelterless, to lift their fallen, to save their lost, to teach their humble, to relieve their distress.

The Second Word Is Christian Workmanship. The text reads, "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." Trends in education are changing rapidly. More and more the emphasis in education is "education for the fittest in lieu of education for all." The government scholarships are to be made available to the apt; and I venture that a large part of aptitude is attitude. Too many students, like folk generally, fail not because they lack ABILITY but STAY-ABILITY. That is, the ability to stay by a thing until one masters it. Roy Campanella said of Don Newcombe, the ace Dodger hurler who failed to win a World Series game, "The only trouble with 'Newk,' he don't push himself." It's the trouble with most of us. We don't push ourselves and consequently, we fail to come through in the pinches. It is the extra push needed and given which spells the difference between success and failure. Read the marvelous biography of Madame Curie. Madame Curie pushed herself, night after night, day after day, sleepless, tired, weary, but never stopping, until she discovers the precious ray which becomes a boon to society in the treatment of disease. In the pinch, she came through. The Atlantic cable is finally completed after failure upon failure and the expenditure of fortunes.

I venture to assert that the average student who makes the Dean's List does not do so because he possesses more brains than the others who fail to make it, but mainly, because he has more push, more drive. He is content only with a fine grade of workmanship, so he pushes, night and day, week after week, month after month. The man who doesn't show push today will be pushed aside. The busy world pushes angrily aside the man who stands with arms akimbo, set 'til the occasion tells him what to do; and he who waits to have his task marked out, will die and leave his errand unfulfilled.

This brings up the thought with which I am most concerned. The program of education has been stepped up so in our institutions of higher learning, that only those in the upper third of the high school graduating class will be accepted. In Bible terminology, college entrance will be admissable only to "five talent" pupils, who constitute the upper one third of the class. Now, the strength of democracy has not been in the restriction or the gearing of education for "five talent" people, but the extension and the offering of education to all, including the two and one talent people. Some of the noblest contributions to our great democracy and to the world have been made by men in the lower two thirds of the class. Thomas Edison belonged to this group. After a few months of schooling, he dropped out because he was slow, and afterwards was taught by his mother. Every man must have an equal chance, whether five, or two, or one talent. And more, the two and one talent people, if need be, must receive special attention such as the mother of Edison gave her son in order to awaken and develop latent talents. I have always thought that the one talent man in the parable of the talents would have turned out differently if someone with a loving and understanding heart had given his personal attention, staying by his side, working with him late and long, as many a Christian professor in a Christian college has done.

The dull, almost stupid, fear ridden, frustrated, defeated disciples of Jesus came back strong, for they were convinced that their adequacy was not in talents, alone, whether five, or two, or one, but in untapped resources which were available to all.

Now, certainly, the church-related schools and colleges are not to become retreats for "dummies," nor are we to encourage and content ourselves with mediocrity. But, on the other hand, we must guard against a megalomanical program of education that ministers only to five talent people, excluding the two and the one talent.

We live in a democracy, and in a democracy, the majority rules. We must never cease to give attention and concern to the great masses of two and one talent people. What a good, understanding mother did for an Edison, the Christian college and school must continue to do for every American boy or girl who comes within the portals, let him be one, two or five talents. This is the strength of our democracy, the strength of America. Not "education for the fittest," but "fit for all."

THIRD, and last: CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP. The text reads, "rightly dividing the word of truth." You might paraphrase it, "rightly living the word of truth." Christian scholarship and Christian workmanship are dependent upon Christian discipleship.

E. Stanley Jones said, "The moment I became a Christian at college, I began to make better marks." He was a Christian and he could not afford to be a dullard, because he followed One whose goal was perfection. Perfection in character? Yes. But perfection, also, in scholarship and workmanship. "Be ye, therefore, perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect." But, perfection must begin with a man's thoughts. As a man thinks, so he is, and so he does.

It has been said that "man has learned to think like God, and he must now learn to live like God, or he will not live." This is said in view of the destructive power of the atomic, or hydrogen, bomb which packs the explosive power of twenty million tons of TNT. One bomb dropped a mile above Philadelphia, would wipe out all life within Philadelphia and the surrounding area of twenty miles. The fallout would polute New York with deadly rays, ninety miles away. Now, the thinking that went in the making of such an instrument of horror and destruction is not Godly at all. It is evil. Our trouble is to get men to think as God thinks if they are to act as God acts. You cannot separate the one from the other any more than you can separate the evil warped thoughts of the nineteen year old Charles Starkweather, the mad-dog killer, and his devilish deeds that left a line of dead all the way from Lincoln, Nebraska, to Douglas, Wyoming, five hundred and four miles distant. What he thought, he did; and what he did, he thought. "As a man thinks in his heart, so is he." It is the business and responsibility of church-related schools and colleges to set men to thinking right and straight. Men will never learn to live like God until they learn to think like Him.

We are thinking like Him when we explore the possibility of using atomic rays for the healing of cancer, but when we make atomic weapons to be dropped upon innocent women and children, wiping out whole cities and communities, we are thinking like devils; we are thinking like God when we use sulphur drugs to cure disease but when we use drugs to spread disease, we're thinking like devils; we are thinking like God when we use chlorine to purify a stream, but when we use chlorine to pollute a stream to destroy a city, we are thinking like devils.

Nuclear energy may be used for peace or for war. Your thoughts and mine will determine which. The church-related school and college must keep the thought of America Christian.

The God of Jesus Christ is a God who is love, because He thinks love. "Love your enemies." "Go the second mile." "Give the coat when the cloak has been demanded." "Turn the other cheek."

Thinking is living and living is thinking, and we will not live better until we think better.

Our security as a nation does not rest in better munitions, but in better men. Consider the lawlessness which has gripped our nation. It is frightening to those who have the welfare of the nation at heart. We seem powerless to do anything about it. The upsurge of juvenile crime is appalling. Read the headlines: "19 YEAR OLD YOUTH AND 14 YEAR OLD GIRL FRIEND ON RAMPAGE OF MAD-DOG KILLINGS." "11 VICTIMS, INCLUDING GIRL'S MOTHER, STEP FATHER, 2 YEAR OLD HALF SISTER." "BROOKLYN SCHOOLS TURNED INTO JUNGLES BY TEEN AGE SAVAGERY." "TWO THIRTEEN YEAR OLD GIRLS RAPED." "TEACHERS ASSAULTED AND PRINCIPAL A SUICIDE." "POLICE ORDERED TO RIDE STREET CARS AND BUSES DURING SCHOOL HOURS." "TO POLICE SCHOOL GROUNDS AND CORRIDORS." "TEACHERS IN SCHOOL AFRAID TO TURN BACKS ON CLASS, LEST THEY BE STRUCK DOWN." "CRIME ON INCREASE, TEENAGERS GREATEST OFFENDERS."

We have come to such an impass in the morality of our children that I am more concerned about their behaviour than anything else that affects them. The greatest fight is not for justice, but for Jesus. Discipleship awards might help more than the scholarship awards we're offering.

Jesus said, "Learn of me." Mathematics? Yes. But, not first . . . first, morals. "Learn of me." Science? Yes. But, not first . . . first, the sanctity of human personality which has become so cheap. "Learn of me." Electronics? Yes. But, not first . . . first, ethics in every area and relationship of life. Unless our children and youth learn to behave themselves, there will be no living for them or for us.

The greatest weapons being forged against us today are not in the munitions factories of our foes, but they are at our doors, upon the city streets of every metropolitan city in America. They are more deadly than the deadliest H-Bomb . . . their twin name is "delinquency-crime." The H-Bomb is yet to strike, but the delinquency-crime bomb has already struck and it has struck at a most vulnerable spot . . . our children.

The die is cast. If we are to find security, we must look, now, not to jets, but to Jesus; not to satellites, but to a Saviour; not to missiles, but to the Master who stands offering Himself to fathers, mothers, and children, saying, "I am the way, the truth and the life."

I fear, sometimes, we're losing the cold war because we are losing our children. Eli and his house went down, down in the doom which befell his children, almost carrying Israel with them. But, there a devout parent who commanded the ear of the eternal God who gave her a man child, Samuel, whose goodness and holiness God matched against the evil of Eli, the sons of Belial and saved Israel from a similar fate.

As the house of Eli was lost, so may America be lost. Time is running out. The determining factor is whether or not America will go Christ or continue to go Caesar. Our church-related schools and colleges have the answer. We educate for Christ! Our scientists will be the finest, they will be Christian scientists. Our engineers will be the finest, they will be Christian engineers. Our architects will be the finest, they will be Christian architects. Our mathematicians will be the finest, they will be Christian mathematicians. Our nuclear physicists will be the finest, they will be Christian nuclear physicists.

"... approved unto God!"

7. COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The Conference Commission on Christian Vocations has been challenged as never before to recruit young people and to have them commit themselves through vocations to meet the needs of the world. Never before has the call for leadership in the church been more urgent. In the pastoral ministry, on the mission field, in the work of Christian education, in the area of social work, nursing and other work, the church is greatly in need of recruits. Since the great emphasis is upon training in other fields of endeavor the church must step up its procedure of recruitment. We must lay upon the hearts of our youth the cause of Christ.

Our Recruiting: The Commission is gratified to find an ever increasing number of young men and women who are answering the call to serve the church. A large number of local churches are providing opportunities for youth to be guided in choosing their vocations. In some cases this has been done in cooperation with the public schools and other community agencies and emphasis has been placed upon church vocations along with other choices. Members of our commission have participated in some of these meetings.

A large number of youth have also been recruited at the District Missionary Rallies which were held on all districts in November. The Dover District held its annual district wide meeting on Christian vocations at Selbyville, Delaware in March. At this meeting nearly 100 youth were challenged to commit themselves to vocations as a dedication to Christian living. On other districts the challenge was presented at the youth assemblies in June. From these enterprises names have been sent to the office of the Conference Commission for the purpose of future follow up, especially is this true of those who have chosen church vocations. The Conference Youth Assembly has as usual provided us with a number of commitments.

Our Guidance Program: The Annual Christmas Dinner held at Ezion Church, Wilmington has offered us one of the most unique opportunities for guidance to those young men and women who have chosen the Christian ministry and missions as their vocations. Twenty-four young men and six young women were in attendance. We are most grateful to Bishop Love, the Cabinet and the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications for this cooperative project.

The commission in its annual meeting reorganized its approach in such a way as to improve its services to those who work with youth in the area of vocations, on the conference, district and local church levels. Standing committees have been set up to give guidance on each of these levels. Our plans also call for the conducting of a conference wide meeting on vocations. This is to take place on a college campus where youth both from the local churches and the college will be invited to participate.

After giving guidance to 11 candidates for the ministry we have turned their names over to the Board of Ministerial Training for future guidance by that Board.

The following is the report of those remaining on our files:

The Pastoral Ministry 33; Missions 17; Christian Education 1; Social Work 17; Nursing 10; Church Secretarial Work 2; Total 80.

We are conscious that this list does not represent all young people who have chosen some type of church vocation. We welcome any additional work done by District Superintendents, pastors and lay workers throughout the conference in helping young people to accept the great challenge to commit themselves to Christian service. We offer our services to all who may find such service of help. To this end we offer the following recommendations:

- 1. That each local church organize a committee on Christian vocations in accordance with paragraph 145, section 9, Discipline.
- 2. That each local church hold annually at least one meeting on Christian vocations.
- 3. That each district hold at least one district wide meeting of Christian vocations.
- 4. That a conference wide conference on Christian vocations be held in the fall.
- 5. That the commission continue its cooperation with other agencies in the matter of recruitment and guidance of our youth.

HOWARD A. BAILEY, Chairman FLORENCE WILSON, Secretary

8. BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Board of Evangelism is deeply grateful for the privilege of making this report to the 1958 Annual Conference.

First, allow me personally to thank the Cabinet for the opportunity to serve this number of years as your Conference Secretary of Evangelism.. I also thank the District Superintendents who have appointed cooperative persons from their districts whose hearts have been strangely warmed to this work. The Council of Bishops states: "The Christian faith holds that love conquers, that hearts can be strangely warmed, and that both new men and a new society are possible here and now. It is thus that Jesus comes. It is thus the Holy Spirit works." This is the way I feel about evangelism.

We have held only a few board meetings but each has been well attended, informative and highly inspirational. We have stressed every phase of evangelism. At our first meeting, plans were completed for The Christian Witness Mission which was held at White Temple Methodist Church, Salisbury, Md., July 7-14, 1957. Our Board worked with the Board of Education in sponsoring this project. The results of this Mission will appear in another report. The Boards of Evangelism and Education will work together again this year in the Christian Witness Mission to be held at Chestertown, Md., July 6-13.

Council Meeting: The five district secretaries of Evangelism and a youth, Gloria Wise, attended the council meeting in Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 17-22, 1957.

All across America is recognized the need for a great evangelistic movement. Although there are evidenced some wholesome and encouraging signs in our contemporary religious and social life, we are confronted with a continually increasing adult and juvenile delinquency with the crime rate rising more rapidly than church membership. The liquor interests are making widespread inroads upon the lives of our people and more and more Sunday is being secularized.

Millions of people in the United States move from one town or city to another every year. About one half of these moving millions are church members. As a result, a great tragedy threatens, namely, a serious weakening of the Christian movement in America. Christians who are transplanted need to strike in their roots promptly in the new place to which they move. Upon moving to a new community honest, covenant-keeping Christians transfer their membership promptly and assume responsibility for the Christian cause in the church near their home.

We have a great evangelistic heritage, a deep social concern, a Christ centered message, a world wide fellowship with a unified-voice, a developing prayer movement and excellent materials and techniques.

At the conference level we can have workshops with such programs as "The Church in the Home," to deepen the spiritual life of our people and to create a greater concern for the unchurched, "Concern for Persons," which makes the total program of the church correlated with evangelism, as well as stressing the advantages of an evaluation of the place of evangelism in the local church. The use of youth teams to implement programs in visitation and survey work in church extension should be stressed.

At the district level there should be great concern as to the need of increased effort in conserving Methodist membership. Increased activity should be shown at both the district and sub-district levels. Workshops, prayer groups and visitation efforts should be widely used in this effort to conserve Methodist membership. The District Committee on Evangelism should be active and have a twofold purpose, that of channeling the accepted evangelistic programs of the General Board of Evangelism and the Conference Board to the local churches. The district committee should be a creative group, bold in its adventure in untried methods which promise to meet some need evident on the district.

At the local church level, our major workshop group calls for renewed activity in the six areas: prospects, visitation-evangelism, church attendance, spiritual life development, prayer and family worship, and church rolls and records.

Recommendations

We recommend:

1. That we accept the plan of the Council of Evangelism and that we send to the Convocation on Evangelism, Washington, D. C., July 3-6, 1958, a minimum number of delegates from our conference as follows: Dover District, 50; Easton District, 50; Philadelphia District, 100; Salisbury District, 50; and Wilmington District, 100.

2. That there shall be week-end Christian Witness Missions on the district, sub-district and local church levels.

3. That there will be close cooperation among the District Superintendents, district secretaries of Evangelism, district committees on Evangelism, and committees on Membership and Evangelism in the local churches.

4. That workshops on Evangelism be held on conference, district, sub-district, and local church levels.

5. That every church participate in the World Wide Church Attendance Crusade, January to Easter; and that letters, follow-up cards for absentees, radio and TV spot announcements, fill-a-pew plan, family type services, Biblical preaching, the Altar Hour, good music, and the use of the excellent church attendance material prepared by Tidings all be used in this important emphasis.

6. That we accept the "TARGETS" as set forth by the Council of

Evangelism:

- (a) Every church enlisting 10% of the members in a group to do four things: seek, pray for, witness to, and invite persons for Christ and the Church.
- (b) Every church enlisting a group of visitors for regular visitationevangelism.
- (c) Every organization in the local church reporting to the Commission on Membership and Evangelism monthly number of persons won for Christ.
- (d) Every church finding each year a number of new prospects equal to at least 10% of its membership.
- (e) Every church of less than 100 members receiving at least one or more persons on profession of faith each month.
- (f) Every church family and individual having daily devotions using the Bible and The Upper Room.
- (g) Every church participating in the organization of a new church as recommended by the district conference.
- (h) Every church creating an evangelistic atmosphere that will encourage commitments to the pastoral ministry and missionary service.

(i) Every church having a 10% increase in church attendance over the previous year.

(j) Every church promoting at least three evangelistic activities, a week of preaching, week of evangelistic visitation and a training class in church membership.

J. O. LOCKMAN, Chairman GEORGE T. JACKSON, Secretary

9. BOARD OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS

No formal meetings, conference-wide, have been held during the year; however, the outstanding contributions of liaison representation, social observation and reporting has been carried on by individual members of the Board upon assignment by the chairman. In the areas of issues arising from the decision of the General Church toward achieving a more integrated fellowship of churches and programs of our conferences, much has been achieved. Again this year there have been some conferences and area inter-racial projects in which members of our Conference have been able to participate across jurisdictional lines. The Board feels strongly that wherever possible our churches and ministers should be encouraged to take part in ministerial retreats, school projects, etc. We call upon the ministers and laymen of the Conference to take the initiative in the development of integrated programs in our own Youth Fellowship camps and assemblies, pastors' schools, ministerial associations, etc. Wherever possible, we urge the members of the Woman's Societies of Christian Service to help implement the forward strides of the Woman's Division of Christian Service in the area of integrated workshops on the local levels.

This year our Board was ably represented before the General Commission on the Study and Action of the Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church at its hearing at Metropolitan Methodist Church, Baltimore, Md., on October 9, 1957, by the Reverend Charles L. Carrington of Brooks Church, Jamaica, N. Y. A copy of the Board's statement to the General Commission is attached hereto. The General Commission was told that we, the members of this Conference laud the steps taken by the 1956 General Conference in adopting the two Constitutional amendments setting up procedure whereby churches may more easily be transferred from the racial jurisdiction to the geographical jurisdictions, thus ending eventually in the dissolution of the Central Jurisdiction. It was also stated that we believe that once this action was ratified, a vigorous program of educational and promotional cultivation should be designed to encourage all to take advantage of these constitutional changes. This should not be done, it was stated, in the spirit of "forcing Negroes and whites together," but in the spirit of loyalty to a church and its primary concern: namely that of "standing within this world as a fellowship of all believers, irrespective of race, in which the genius of every man is ardently coveted for the glory that he may add as a living witness of Christ."

Two members of the Board were invited to appear before the members of the Board of Social and Economic Relations of the Philadelphia Conference. In February the Rev. Earl H. Crampton and the Rev. H. M. Deas were joined by the Rev. Joshua E. Licorish in a forum discussion before this Board, as their guests.

It can be stated that this Board heartily endorses the action of the Conference as a whole in permitting the St. Paul's Methodist Church, Jamaica, N. Y. to fulfill its request to accept the invitation of the New York East Conference to become a part of its fellowship.

It is recommended that a procedure of examination and consultation be set up to facilitate further "invitations" and acceptances of churches within this Conference with a view toward scheduling and properly timing these transactions so as to levy as little hardship as possible upon the churches remaining within the Jurisdiction.

We view with apprehension the mounting costs of living, especially in urban and suburban areas, which are being accompained by increasing unemployment affecting disproportionate numbers of our people, and urge upon the national administration the speedy and practical adoption of measures which will bring about an abrupt and conclusive termination of the present conditions characterizing the current recession.

It was with regret that at its last annual meeting the resignation of the Chairman, the Rev. Cyrus W. Perry, was accepted because of illness. The Rev. Earl H. Crampton was unanimously elected to fill his unexpired term, and

Mr. Joseph G. Smith was elected as vice-president.

EARL H. CRAMPTON, Chairman HENRI M. DEAS, Secretary

Statement submitted on behalf of the Board of Social and Economic Relations, Delaware Conference, Central Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church to the Commission on the Study and Action of the Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church, at its hearing at Metropolitan Methodist Church, Baltimore, Maryland, October 9, 1957.

I. The Philosophy of Union Through the Jurisdictional System

It is generally felt that Union in The Methodist Church in 1939 was not possible without the Jurisdictional System. Various arguments have been advanced for the wisdom and necessity of this arrangement. The union of Christian forces is a worthy aim. There is a question, however, as to whether the Jurisdictional System as a method of union has not served to dis-unite rather than to unite except in terms of statistics. In some very vital matters the Jurisdictional system has served as a divisive instrument, accentuating and perpetuating sectional and group interests and prejudices to a point wherein these sectional interests become matters of prime concern as over against weightier matters of interest to the Christian Cause in our time.

The machinery of the Jurisdictional system might well have served to give opportunity for regional or sectional contribution to the general welfare of the Church and its program, or, aided significantly in promoting and strengthening the work of the Church as interpreter of General Conference program and policy. In this, the system might have served a very good purpose. However, the system seems to have been concerned less with opportunities for making contributions than it has for the "protection of regional rights." In consequence, the system is usually thought of first in terms of rather self-contained if not hostile camps. The sense of union and unity has waned. In instances compromise of principles has been the attitude rather than risk the defection of hostile system.

There is union terms of numerical strength, but observing the sectional barriers to unity of action on certain vital phases of the work of the Church, it is felt that the expediency of the jurisdictional system as the price of union was much too high a price to pay for the sake of "bigness" without "unity" at heart.

The costs of the jurisdictional system seem worthy of close study. In the arrangement of certain Jurisdictions, and particularly with reference to the over-lapping of Jurisdictions by the Central Jurisdiction, there is considerable and unwarrented cost. Duplicate programs by Boards and Agencies of the General Church are often worked out for separate jurisdictions in the same area, involving duplicate arrangements for accommodations, travel, services of staff members, publicity, and the like. In the Central Jurisdiction with its broad territorial spread, it is inestimable the amount of money and time which are lost in traveling the great distances for meetings and other services which were otherwise available close at hand except for the jurisdictional barriers which bar the use of these facilities and services. This situation affects every area, conference and district of all the jurisdictions covered by the Central Jurisdiction and the geographical jurisdictions which it overlaps.

One approach to the matter of the jurisdictional system might be that of re-assessing the conditions in 1939 which led to the selecting of this system of union in the light of present day circumstances. In many respects some of the conditions have changed. The fact that the skepticism and inertia that accompained the union at its birth has now had some eighteen years to fade away should surely offer a changed climate for the facing up to certain problems. Social conditions throughout the country affecting economic and cultural matters have changed. Despite certain incidents in some sections concerning the matter of the Negro in the life of the Nation, his rights and privileges, this, too, has changed radically. The Methodist Church might very well take note of these basic changes in the climate of the times and take the change at its tide. The breaking down of all walls of partition in our shrinking world is as urgent for the church as it is for the economic, political, and social world community.

II. The Central Jurisdiction within the Jurisdictional System

Of particular concern to us is the Central Jurisdiction within the jurisdictional system. All that has been said about the system generally, stands in even more stark challenge with respect to the Central Jurisdiction. In our opinion it should be dissolved "with all deliberate speed."

The fact of it is in itself an example before the world that we are woefully remiss and hypocritical in our declaration of a "Christian" Faith. As long as it stands, we give tacit admission that the problem of Race is too hard for the Faith we profess. We believe that The Methodist Church with its liberal foundation and tradition on so many other social issues should be in the vanguard on this issue, too. Other institutions have found and are finding solution to correct former practices of segregation and discrimination. Other Church Denominational bodies are among these, notably The Presbyterian Church in The United States. (This is largely a Southern group.) The Y.W.CA. and many branches of the Y.M.C.A. have successfully been de-segregated.

More notable, perhaps, are the non-church-related groups and areas of our society which have found little if any difficulty in moving from segregated to non-segregated structure and practice-many with increased acceptance and effectiveness-e.g., all major sports, labor and industry, governmental policy and practice in the Armed Services, and despite pockets of resistance here and there, public agencies like schools, and parks.

The church often takes credit for having set the climate for these changes by her teachings through the years. This claim doubtless has some merit. However, the church should fear lest the society whose ideals she has shaped should come to discredit and repudiate her for her inner failure to live up to these ideals, and so turn elsewhere for the moral imperative which society needs for the kind of common living and sharing impingent upon us in our atomic-shattered and rocket-shrunk world.

A constitutionally imposed system of separation by Race is discrimination. Every vestige of organization according to race should be eliminated, whether it be racial Jurisdiction, Annual Conference, or local church. For a time there doubtless will be voluntary groupings on a racial and cultural basis, for the pattern has been so long set and deliberately fostered. The arrangement, however, should be clearly a permissive one while it lasts, and in no wise mandatory. In fact, in view of the rapid change in matters relating to the separation of races, both in concept and practice here and around the world, the church would do itself a service to make clear that whatever separation of races there may be within the fellowship of the church is by permissive rather than by mandatory arrangement. The church should, with all speed, institute any necessary legislation backed up by a vigorous educational program which would lead to the elimination of all segregative and discriminatory practices within the life and workings of the church.

There have been several misconceptions and myths promulgated in support of the Central Jurisdiction. One of these is that the Central Jurisdiction is a good thing because it develops Negro leadership. Admittedly, there is evidence of group aim and ambition on the part of the Negro. It is the same with him as with any other group set apart by circumstance—whether by political or military conquest, or social evolution. The individual Negro aspires both for personal and group recognition. To him the achievement of either would complement the other. The Negro feels that the proscriptions which heretofore have bound him are crumbling, and that the individual is emerging, free to compete with others on the basis of personal efficiency unhampered by considerations of race. He naturally cherishes this opportunity as a person to make his contribution to the largest possible good. If as a by-product the race is served, good! But more primary is the consideration of personal opportunity.

In other words, the Negro is less concerned to develop "Negro leaders" within his group than he is to develop leaders in the church who may happen to be of the Negro race. Negroes are more concerned to make a contribution to the Kingdom of God through the Methodist Church than to boast several offices, secured to them because of their separate jurisdiction, but which in the long run may delay, and perhaps preclude their real and true involvement in the life and movement of the church at large.

There is a question as to whether true leadership can be achieved in the vacuum of a separate jurisdiction. Without reflection upon any of the very fine persons who by the system have held their positions of leadership as a jurisdictional "right," true Methodist leadership needs for its own best development the free and unfettered opportunity to compete on the basis of merit within the group as a whole.

In other realms the Negro has been content to have only the free opportunity to compete. He has been satisfied with the leadership positions he has received in these realms of free and open competition. He might well be. In so short a time, it has been enough that in diplomatic circles a Ralph Bunche has emerged; that in education a Howard Thurman and scores of others hold responsible positions of leadership in integrated educational institutions (some in the deep South)—all achieved on the basis of merit. The list is long in music and the arts, in civil service, in sports, and in a hundred other fields of human endeavor where he is free to compete openly. Despite the social, economic, and cultural conditions of the past which have seriously affected his ability to compete successfully in most areas of free competition the Negro has come off with quite a fair share of leadership positions. It is our belief that he should have this opportunity within the church. He does not fear to take it.

It is our firm conviction that if the Central Jurisdiction were abolished, and the leadership opportunities which the Negro now has under the "fixed quota" guaranteed him by the Central Jurisdiction were withdrawn, neither The Methodist Church nor the Negro would suffer materially. The Negro would in the long run gain by being thrown into the full stream of the life of the church at all levels. This experience would better equip him to make his contribution and develop his leadership potential. The Methodist Church would be enriched by these enlarged contacts with Negroes at local church, Annual Conference and other levels—a condition possible only by the removal of the racial jurisdictional barriers now imposed.

Another myth is that only under the present jurisdictional system would the Negro receive a fair share of representation numerically. At present, the fixed quota of representatives allocated to The Central Jurisdiction is essentially the only point of contact which the 350,000 Negro members of The Methodist Church have with the church at large. Dwight W. Culver in his study: "Negro Segregation in The Methodist Church," (Yale University Press, 1953) reports that the 350,000 Negroes in The Methodist Church are represented by 23 salaried persons including all bishops, active and retired, jurisdictional staff representatives on general boards and agencies. In addition there were 101 others who sit as volunteer or non-salaried members of boards and agencies meeting periodically—a total of 124 contacts. All of these contacts are at the higher levels of the church's life. Because of the racial jurisdiction there is virtually no contact between white and Negro Methodists at Annual Conference, district and local church levels. All too often, laymen and even ministers of white Methodist churches are not aware that a Central Jurisdictional church in their community is also a part of their denomination.

In the light of the above, we view the Jurisdictional System as a divisive factor within the church, inimical to the "brotherhood" we espouse, and an unfortunate instrument in fostering separateness rather than union and unity.

We laud the steps taken by the 1956 General Conference in adopting the two Constitutional Amendments setting up procedure whereby churches may more easily be transferred from the racial jurisdiction to the standard, geographical jurisdictions, and whereby the Central Jurisdiction itself may in time be dissolved. It is our belief, however, that this action, once ratified, should be implemented by a vigorous educational and promotional program designed to encourage all to take advantage of these constitutional changes. This program might well include the adoption by the next General Conference of a Special Emphasis calling for study and action in this regard at all levels of our church's life, including the local church. A forthright policy statement by the General Conference would be an effective instrument if backed up with persistence over such objections as may be raised against it.

It should be noted here that some Negro constituents, ministerial and lay, are skeptical, if not fearful, of such change. It appears that the group is not a large one, but they, too, are a factor. Some have raised questions concerning the opportunities which might be denied the group in such matters as free itineracy as now enjoyed; promotional opportunities into such positions as district superintendencies, episcopal offices, and the like. We are of the opinion that for a time social custom and expedience would indicate this as a probability. However, if the history of social progress may be trusted, and indeed the record of rapid change in racial practices over the past few years should continue, this period would pass quickly. Further, whenever it is done—and it will be done eventually—true integration will be achieved in no other way. It will be achieved only as the dividing walls are removed and people come to know, respect and regard each other through the experience of working together on an ever-widening front of their common Christian endeavor.

Without patronage and without coddling, a vigorous program of integration should be undertaken "from above" and pursued against all who would take an unholy and unchristian stand against it. This should be done not in the spirit of "forcing Negroes and whites together," but in the spirit of loyalty to a church and to its primary concern, namely, that of standing within this world as a fellowship of all believers, whatever one's race, in which the genius of every man is ardently coveted for the glory that it may add to the living "witness" of a Christ who is both able to unite us in love and to reconcile a lost world unto God.

10. COMMISSION ON WORLD PEACE

The Commission on World Peace wishes to approve the actions taken by the General Conference, 1956 on world peace.

The role of the church in today's world situation is clear. Its task is to help mankind attain freedom, human rights, justice, adequate living standards, self-government and the cooperation of all nations for the maintenance of peace.

With the development of increasingly horrible weapons of mass destruction mankind stands at the threshold of possible extinction. In the face of this situation, Christians everywhere are confronted with a definite challenge to make the Gospel articulate in world affairs to the end that peace may become real and dynamic.

Christians everywhere are committed to world peace as a goal. However, for them peace means far more than mere "absence of war," it is characterized positively by freedom, justice, truth, and love. For such peace the church must labor and pray.

Peace is the gift of God, but it is appropriated by man only through the practice of love and cooperation. The peace of God cannot be contained within any one nation, economic system or religion. To be a stable and lasting reality it must become universal.

We believe that the church through its genuine concern for every man regardless of race, color or national origin and through the compassionate love of the Lord Jesus Christ, can effectively disintegrate these man-made barriers to understanding and brotherhood so essential to world peace.

In 1958 we believe that the following resolutions are in accordance with the above paragraphs:

(1.) Along with Bishop Love and five other Bishops, Dr. Ralph Sockman, the Chairman of the Board of World Peace, and Dr. Edwin Dahlberg, President of the National Council of Churches, we urge our Government to cease holding atomic tests for the sake of the health and security of the human race.

(2.) We believe that world peace depends to some extent upon world trade. Therefore, we strongly approve of the extension of trade agreements for five years with no weakening amendments and the entrance of the United States into the Organization for Trade Cooperation.

(3.) In 1956 the General Conference said, "We believe that planned parenthood, practiced in Christian conscience, may fulfil rather than violate the will of God." Since United Nations sources indicate the population of the world may reach 7,000,000,000 by the year 2000, we believe that world peace will be helped if the church supports the principle of planned parenthood.

(4.) The People's Republic of China erred in sending troops into Korea against United Nations forces and it has acted harshly toward some of its citizens, depriving them of rights set forth in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. However, it is a government in fact, controlling the lives of 450,000,000 people and capable of doing much good or evil in international relations. The United Nations is best conceived as an organization for bringing together all nations for peaceful solutions to their problems.

We believe, therefore, that the cause of peace and justice will be best served in the future by seating the People's Republic in the United Nations, while establishing proper safeguard for the self-determination of Formosa and the protection of Chiang Kai-shek and his followers.

According to the present day needs we make the following recommendations:

- 1. That each district in our Annual Conference have a director on World Peace.
 - 2. A workshop on the district and sub-district levels.
 - 3. Participation and representation in regional and national workshops.
 - 4. That the Lay Retreat have a speaker on world peace.
- 5. That the Pastors' School at Morgan College have a course on world peace.
- 6. That there be an observance of World Peace in the local church, November 9, 1958.
- 7. That there will be an active World Peace Committee in each local MRS. H. V. CRIPPEN, Secretary W. E. MARKS, Chairman

11. BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

As we think of the temperance question in the light of beverage alcohol, other narcotics, gambling and salacious literature, we are faced with a situation that calls for action. We are told that there are 4,500,000 alcoholics, 3,000,000 problem drinkers and 65,000,000 social drinkers in our midst; in addition, the radio, television and other efforts are put forth by the devotees of the liquor traffic to increase this number, we can readily see that beverage alcohol has become a major factor in crime, divorce, adult and juvenile delinquency.

The position of our Methodist Church is clearly stated in the Disciplines issued in the various quadrenniums of her history. She has continuously gone on record as opposing anything that seeks to destroy the sacredness of human personality, thus she attempts to meet the challenge with action in four major areas, namely: education, commitment, re-habilitation and legislation.

Your Board, through the activities of district directors, has emphasized these areas through "Briefing Conferences."

The cause has been further advanced by sermons, observances of World Temperance Sunday and Commitment Sunday, films, discussion groups, and visitation of chairman to a number of churches.

The board acknowledges the interest displayed by the district directors, the Reverends C. P. Spencer, W. J. Mills, I. R. Elzey, George Commodore, and C. E. Kincade.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- 1. Each pastor in conjunction with the Temperance Committee or Commission on Christian Social Relations, promote a program of temperance education to help people know the facts about the alcohol problem.
- Commitment to abstinence as a step in Christian living be a vital part of the church's program.
- 3. Local churches acting as redemptive fellowships, try to save and rebuild the lives of those who suffer because of beverage alcohol.
- 4. Our churches give whole-hearted support to local and national movements designed to curb or eliminate the use of beverage alcohol.
 - 5. Observance of World Temperance Sunday.
 - 6. Each pastor preach a sermon on temperance.
 - 7. Cooperation with the program of the General Board of Temperance.

Conference Secretary of Temperance

It has been a pleasant assignment this year as Conference Secretary of Temperance to keep in touch with the cause in the various charges and to discover that great interest has been manifested in the prosecution of the program of the General Board.

We have held briefing conferences and made contacts with local church committees for the purpose of inspiration, information and action.

The district secretaries have cooperated, and on March 27, 1958, met at Ezion Methodist Church for a survey of the work throughout the conference. The reports were gratifying.

Number of churches visited, 40; churches having Committees on Temperance, 80; churches reporting observance of World Temperance Sunday, 95; temperance sermons preached, 90; churches observing Commitment Sunday, 85, and number of commitments, 320.

C. E. KINCADE, Chairman and Conference Secretary

12. BOARD OF PENSIONS

It is with gratitude to Almighty God and appreciation that I am privileged to make my ninth annual report. As God has been so good to us in so many ways, we can but give Him the praise and thanks for these years of service He has wrought for us in this noble field of service.

The well informed among us are filled with regret and shame as we recall the fact that so many ministers and their families are kept on the plane of embarrassing poverty. But when they realize the heroism which makes such a ministry possible, their sense of shame disappears in gratitude to God for the noble men and women "who count not their lives dear unto themselves, so that they may finish their course with joy, and the ministry which they have received of the Lord Jesus." The heavy hand of inadequate support falls with crushing weight upon many circuit preachers in country places, small towns, and cities. The church's greatest debt of gratitude is due these earnest preachers for the splendid service they render in directing the doubtful feet of the inexperienced to the safe paths of gospel peace. With no prospect or opportunity of providing for the proverbial "rainy day," these men of faith move quietly and sublimely onward "making many rich," yet themselves remaining poor. Sooner or later, they reach the inevitable day of retirement from both service and salary to a mere annual pittance, and to a trust in a merciful providence. How unfortunate it is when age and want must be coupled together.

There is a double call to the ministry of The Methodist Church, human and divine. Every minister is supposed to be called of God to the work. Upon this we have laid great emphasis in all our history. But we must not overlook the equally important fact that there is a human call to the Methodist ministry. The ministers covenant to devote their whole time to the work of the ministry; they give up the right of residential choice and place themselves and their families at the disposal of the appointing authorities. They place in the hands of the church their right to place a value upon their services and the amount of salary is determined by an estimating committee of the Commission on Stewardship and Finance. They make over to the church their legal right of collection, by process of law, that of which they have earned; they abandon the privilege of saying how long they will stay and work in any given field; and the Methodist minister gives to the church the right to say when he must cease from active service. No man carries with him into the Methodist ministry these common rights and privileges.

The laymen, as parties of the second part of the covenant, agree to provide a support for the minister. In the early days, our ministry being organized on a missionary basis, the preachers shared the poverty of the people. In our time of increasing prosperity, when even the great corporations are providing pension funds for the employees who have given years of service, the church realizes its responsibility for the maintenance in old age of those who have worn themselves out in her ministry.

Let us look at our Conference. What are we doing? First, there is the Conference Claimants Fund, 12% of the pastor's salary, which every charge is to pay. This is a must. You will see from the report of the secretary of the Board that in the conference year 1956-57, we were $12,379 short. We reported $30,000 when it should have been $42,569. Let us go back this year with the determination to raise this item of ministerial support 100%. We can do it, let us do it.

Secondly, there is the Reserve Pension Fund. The campaign to raise $318,000 in a four year period began in 1955. As of January 31, 1958 we have raised $113,555.44. We thank God for this fine report. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and carry this campaign over the top. Please reread the Resolutions—Delaware Annual Conference—Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, and see what it will do for our Conference.

We have much for which to be thankful as we have made great progress in the last thirty years. The annuity rates have increased over the years as follows; 1926, $10.00; 1936, $3.00; 1946, $15.00; 1956, $29.00; and 1957, $30.00.

We must pause here for a few moments in gratitude and thanksgiving for the leaders in yester-years of our Conference who had visions of this day and laid a firm foundation upon which we are building. We pray that we will not fail them today, but that we will bring to fruitage their dreams and visions of the day when a retired minister or widow will not look upon retirement as a burden, but as a period of relaxation, more or less free from worries about shelter, food and clothing. I have dreams of a brighter day in our Conference Pension Program.

During this year, Mr. Kelly, secretary of the Board; Rev. Dunn, and I attended the Regional Pension Meeting held at the Robert Morris Hotel, Philadelphia, October 22-23, 1957. I also attended the District Conferences, Pre-Conference meetings, Sub-district Laymen's Meeting, Philadelphia District; and the Baltimore Area Retreat, September 8, 1957, Baltimore, Md., speaking many times for the cause of pensions.

In conclusion, I wish to thank all of you for your kind cooperation. I pray that we shall continue to progress in this fine field of service.

WILLIAM C. STROTHER, Chairman

RECOMMENDATIONS

Ministers' 11/2 %
We recommend:

1. That cards for ministers' 1½% be sent to the treasurer and relayed to the secretary of the Board.

That cards for reporting deaths be supplied each district superintendent to be sent to the Secretary of the Board notifying of deaths on the district.

Reserve Pension Fund We recommend:

- 1. That as individual payments on pledges for the Reserve Pension Fund are being reported through the charges, the names of the persons and amount be sent to the Conference Treasurer, who will see that the secretary, James H. C. Kelly is so informed.
- That when a charge makes a report to the Conference Treasurer the district secretaries shall be informed of the same.
- That persons who understand the program be invited to the local churches to inform the members.
- 4. That the Reserve Pension Fund asking be included in the budget of the local church.

$71,795.47

Hospitalization We recommend:

1. That a plan be worked out with the Superintendent of The Methodist Hospital, Broad and Wolf Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., or some other reputable hospital; whereby the ministers and their wives of the Conference, through our financial contributions may become a part of that hospital's plan for Methodist clergymen.

That the ministers and their wives take advantage of opportunities for annual physical check-up at The Methodist Hospital or some reputable hospital.

Conference Permanent Fund

We recommend:

That we continue the asking of $8,333 until such time as we are securely established in the Reserve Pension Fund.

We urge that every effort be made to pay this apportionment in full.

We request that in the future this asking be included in the statistical report of the Conference Treasurer and in the Conference Journal showing what has been apportioned and paid.

13. MINISTERS RESERVE PENSION FUND

Whereas, In accordance with paragraph 1642-1657 of the Discipline of 1952, an Annual Conference may enter the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund of The Methodist Church by securing the required initial reserve fund, and

Whereas, It will be to the advantage of the Delaware Annual Conference to enter the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund as soon as possible, and

Whereas, The Three Fold Pension Program as proposed by The Methodist Church would assure a more adequate pension for all conference claimants, for all members presently in the effective relation, and for all ministers who may hereafter enter the membership of the Delaware Annual Conference,

Be it Resolved, That the Delaware Annual Conference hereby accepts as its goal the ultimate conversion of its pension program to that of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, as described in paragraph 1642 to 1657 of the Discipline, and as the immediate objective and first step toward the attainment of that goal the Delaware Annual Conference hereby adopts the following program of action:

1. That the Conference hereby authorize a financial campaign to secure the sum of $318,000 during the four year period beginning with the conference year 1954-55, which shall be used, principal and interest, for the following

Three Fold Reserve Pension Plan.

(a) To pay annually the conference contribution of an amount equivalent to nine per cent of the average salary of the Conference, as defined in par. 1618, sec. 6 of the pension code, on behalf of each and every qualified "new entrant" member of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund.

(b) To pay annually the conference contribution of an amount equivalent to two per cent of the average salary of the conference, as defined in par. 1618, sec. 6 of the pension code, on behalf of each and every qualified "previous entrant" member of the Partial Reserve Pension Fund.

(c) To provide annually for a period of approximately fifteen years the amount needed to increase the annuity rate by $2.00 per year of approved service given to the Delaware Annual Conference; provided, however, that the service annuity payable by the Partial Reserve Pension Fund to a retired member thereof, or to the widow of a deceased member thereof, based upon contributions made by the Delaware Annual Conference on behalf of such member, shall be treated as part of the annuity provided by the $2.00 increase in the annuity rate.

2. Be it Further Resolved, That the resident bishop be, and he is hereby authorized and requested to appoint a Reserve Pension Campaign Committee of fifteen members, of whom seven shall be laymen, and of which the resident bishop shall be the chairman, which shall be responsible for launching, conducting and managing the aforesaid financial campaign; and which shall have the power to set up such other district and sub-district committees as they may deem wise for the successful completion of the said financial campaign; and, furthermore.

3. That any ministerial member of the Delaware Annual Conference shall be permitted to begin making contributions immediately to his income annuity account in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, in such amount as prescribed in paragraph 1646, sec. 1 of the Discipline.

4. That at such time as the Delaware Annual Conference may determine such action to be to the advantage of all the ministerial members of the Conference the full amount of the Permanent Endowment Fund of the Delaware Annual Conference, in the sum of $125,130.00, on deposit with the Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Illinois, may be appropriated for the purposes of the aforesaid Three Fold Reserve Pension Plan of the Delaware Annual Conference, in addition to such funds as may be secured through the financial campaign, and furthermore,

That all funds which may now or hereafter be received from bequests, wills, estates and other gifts to the pension program of the Delaware Annual Conference shall be allocated to the Three Fold Reserve Pension Program of the Conference as the Conference may from time to time determine.

15. THE GOLDEN CROSS SOCIETY

The Golden Cross Society is the "Golden Rule" in action. It had its beginning in Methodism in 1921 and is an arm to the church which aids the Board of Hospitals and Homes in its work. It is designed to provide an opportunity for every member in every church in our Annual Conference to take part in the movement, "Christianity in Action." This was the theme of the 1958 Conference of the Board of Hospitals and Homes.

We receive peace and understanding through Christian action. Action for the benefit of others helps us forget our own troubles as we serve those who are less fortunate. Christian action creates within us a will to serve humanity's needs. No one can experience the love of Jesus without giving expression of that love in the care of others. Jesus in His ministry dedicated His life to service wherever there was human need. He called His disciples and sent them forth to meet human need.

Our foremost objective is the home for the aged ministers and laymen who have toiled tirelessly for the cause of kingdom building. Giving to provide such a home is an opportunity to exercise the Christian concern existing in our hearts. We believe we can get our project off to a successful beginning. Let us not look upon our labor as burdensome, but as a privilege and an honor. When our purpose in life is devotion to Christ and His Church, together with confidence we are able to say with Paul, "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me."

During the past year it was my privilege to attend the following meetings in the interest of our home for the aged; District Stewards' meetings of the Dover, Wilmington and Philadelphia Districts and the District Conferences. Golden Cross envelopes were given the district directors for distribution in preparation for Annual Golden Cross Day, Sunday, November 17, 1957. Was invited to appear on the programs of Tindley Temple, Zoar and Peniel Churches on their Golden Cross Rally Days. I was very much impressed, as these programs had been planned well in advance by the pastors and local church committees.

I attended the Conference of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes, February 11-13, 1958, Chicago, Ill. At this meeting each year there are assembled from every Conference, representatives from the institutions throughout Methodism in the interest of the health and welfare program.

During the month of March letters were sent to all pastors urging them to remit funds early to the Conference Treasurer that we might have a report of the amounts raised on each district at this session.

Finally, we urge the members of the Delaware Conference to place our cause deeper in your hearts. Go back to your churches, organize a Golden Cross Committee, that more church members will be informed of our work. Observe Golden Cross Enrollment Day, second Sunday in November. The enrollment fee is $1.00. We have ventured in faith for a home for the aged of our Conference. We need your gifts, large or small, to help the home on its way.

May I thank Bishop Love, district superintendents, pastors, district directors and laymen for the contribution you have made to our cause.

L. BEATRICE DORSEY, Director

16. COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

The commission is encouraged because of the apparent improvement in quality of the worship services at our Annual Conference sessions, and in our local churches throughout the Conference. We believe that pastors are giving more serious attention to this important phase of their ministry.

We note that all districts of the Conference followed our suggestions to promote Wesley Hymn Festivals last year in commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the birth of Charles Wesley, the "Poet Laureate of Methodism." We thank the conference program committee for following our suggestion also for a Wesley Festival at this session, on Saturday night.

We note that our ex-officio member, the Reverend Daniel L. Ridout, is a member of the Committee on Hymnal of the General Commission on Worship, and we understand that the commission is polling pastors and church musicians throughout the church as to whether or not they think a new Hymnal should be ordered by the 1960 General Conference.

It is our conviction that the present Methodist Hymnal has a wealth of material yet unexplored by the average church congregation. We therefore do not believe that it is necessary that the church publish a new edition of the Hymnal at this time, and request the Annual Conference so to recommend to the Commission on Worship.

We urge pastors and those responsible for the conduct and the employment of music in our churches to strive to use the best material and to employ most effective methods in creating an atmosphere of high worship in all our services.

NOAH W. MOORE, JR., Chairman

17. THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

This age of outer space exploration and advanced cultural development, accompanied inevitably by fear and insecurity, places the church in a position calling for courageous proclamation of the gospel and ardent demonstration of its authenticity. Without question, man's venture into space is one of the most significant achievements in the history of the world, and in the field of scientific progress. It is also one of the most disturbing issues in the frame of present-day events. The church must not fail to consider the impression it has made, as well as that of other social and economic influences, upon the lives of men and women today, if her witness to the eternal purposes of God is to be convincing.

In the face of modern age complexities, the church is called upon to apply aggressive and revolutionary energy, making known the fact that there is no human concern or interest that is outside her field of endeavor. Jesus Christ ordained her to radiate light and give new creative power to human society, to break the shell of the old with its tensions, fears, and anxieties, for the expansion of the new. She is the doorway through which men enter the life that is hid in Christ Jesus, and through which the divine kingdom is extended.

In order that the church may "serve the present age, her calling to fulfill," we strongly recommend the following points be emphasized as she ministers to humankind:

1. The basic requirement in establishing genuine fellowship with God is a readiness to listen to God as he speaks, and act upon his leading.

2. God seeks to help individuals and nations understand His will, and so endows them with sufficient strength and courage to comply with it.

3. Knowledge is a part of God's creation, and "it doth not yet appear what we shall be," neither what we shall know. God imparts new knowledge with the coming of each new day.

4. In no area of life can man achieve genuine success and satisfaction without God. Man alone is not adequate to face the problems of the day.

5. God's message continues to grow and enlighten those who seek to live in harmony with it, and no man can gain or keep the favor of God without taking his place on the side of righteousness.

6. Finally, God is pleased and concerned when His church makes its influence felt in those areas of deepest human need . . . Christian family life, Christian vocations, evangelism, world peace, missions, recruitment for Christian ministry, freedom from alcohol, shifting population and migrant labor, fair employment opportunities, health and welfare.

EDWIN L. ELLIS, Chairman

18. PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

A. Majority Report

At the last conference session, a motion was passed authorizing the publication of a Daily Bulletin during this conference session. The action of the Conference does not seem to appear in the printed journal, and for that reason, among others, the committee has not proceeded with this work.

It is the opinion of some of the leaders of the Conference and apparently of a majority of this committee that more practicable and serviceable would be a special Delaware Conference issue of the Baltimore Area Messenger, or a printed publication in the same format, of a Delaware Conference Bulletin, at the close of the Conference session.

This issue would not be actually The Baltimore Area Messenger as such, or as it appeared last year. It would be The Delaware Conference Digest of 1958, and would be published and issued exclusively to Delaware Conference pastors. lay delegates and other leaders. This is conditioned on the Conference action approving the allocation of the $350.00 publicity fund budget for this purpose. The material will go to press here in Philadelphia immediately at the close of the conference, and be printed in two days. It will be mailed immediately, and available to many by the end of next week. We cannot guarantee that everyone would get it next week, for we cannot control the operation of the United States mail. However, we are sure of delivery to each person who will receive the paper within ten days following the close of the Conference session.

It is our conviction that an illustrated, printed issue of a conference digest will not only present a better appearance as a publication, but it will be more permanent and authoritative than a hastily prepared daily bulletin, and we recommend such a publication.

> DANIEL L. RIDOUT, Chairman C. EDGAR JORDAN, Secretary

B. Minority Report

Because of being so closely identified with the Daily Bulletin and mimeographing service as a project in the Delaware Annual Conference over the more than ten past years, it is my considered opinion that it is definitely the desire of the lay and ministerial members of the Conference to have this service revived and continued as attested by conversations and inquiries, and as also attested by the fact that the Conference accepted and tried the plan of using the Baltimore Area Messenger, Special Edition, as a substitute with which there was widespread dissatisfaction, primarily in that it did not serve them during the Conference, and delivery was long after the Conference session.

The substitute did not meet the need of a vehicle that would provide copies of impending reports, resolutions and other data to be considered and acted upon by the Conference.

Many of the laymen are not able to get the important things by their own notes, and most of the matter considered and acted upon is not available in sufficient time and form to be studied prior to consideration and action.

I offer as substitute for the Majority Report this Minority Report: That the Committee on Public Relations and Methodist Information forthwith provide a daily bulletin and mimeographing service, improved as much as present conditions permit, authorizing the necessary personnel, material and machines, with proper direction.

19. WILLS AND LEGACIES

The Committee on Wills and Legacies is privileged to make this annual report. Because of lack of finance, we have been unable to cultivate this project as desired, but the conference members have been reached through mail and personal contact.

Again we urge each minister organize in each church a Committee on Wills and Legacies. This committee is to be elected at the Quarterly Conference and organized according to paragraph 145, section 12, 1956 Discipline.

This committee shall keep before Methodist people and any others, by such means as the committee may determine, the desirability of leaving bequests to the local church, or to other causes and institutions of The Methodist Church. The committee shall seek legal counsel to the end that bequests may be made in proper legal form. It shall report the name and address of its chairman to the Council on World Service and Finance so the council may provide suggested methods, materials, and procedures. In a small church the duty of this committee may be assigned to the Commission on Stewardship and Finance.

This committee, properly cultivated in each local church, could wonderfully aid the Commission on World Service and Finance of our Annual Conference.

C. B. WHITE, Chairman MRS. MARJORIE FOREMAN, Secretary

20. THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

During the session of our last Annual Conference a committee was set up for carrying out an order of The General Conference which is found in paragraph 663 of the 1956 Discipline which reads as follows:

"In each Annual Conference there shall be a Historical Society, to be appointed or elected in whatever manner the conference may decide, whose duties it shall be to preserve the records of the conference, gather all data referring to its organization, its past history, its former members, and to collect all data of interest from elderly persons and to preserve these for future generations, together with a record of current items of importance, and to keep before the minds of our people the glorious deeds of the heroes of the past."

As the chairman of this committee, I have carefully read all that the 1956 Discipline says on this important matter, corresponded with Dr. Elmer T. Clarke, Executive head of the Association of Methodist Historical Societies of Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. I met with Dr. Frank Bateman Stanger, pastor of First Methodist Church, Collingswood, N. J., who is president of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society.

After meeting with members of the committee, we feel that we should seek to set up the Delaware Conference Historical Society not later than May 17, 1958. This may become the first Historical Society organized in the Central Jurisdiction.

21. THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION CENTENNIAL

We are thankful to God for His continual revelation of truth down through the ages.

This year marks our Third Pre-Jubilee Hour. Four more such observances will place us upon the threshold of the 100th Anniversary of the issuance of a document which gave fresh hope to the Christian democratic ideals and a creative incentive to a minority at that time still in chains. The essence of this proclamation has given to the world, and especially to America, some idea of the potential value of the Negro as a free man and a full-fledged citizen for the enrichment of all peoples.

Our Third Annual Exhibit in the rear of this auditorium contains an explanation (one which many authorities believe to be true) of the riddle of confusions which have beset the world for centuries down to the present time. It is a challenge to men and women of our day to re-enthrone in the heart of life again—THE MORAL AND SPIRITUAL CORDS—which were allowed to fall from it many years ago.

The first small plot of ground to be used as a Centennial Jubilee Memorial Park has been arranged for and is located near John Wesley Methodist Church, Swainton Road and Jubilee Lane, Swainton, New Jersey.

A conference was held with Dr. Frank B. Stanger, President of The Northeastern Jurisdiction Association of Methodist Historical Societies, at Sea Isle City, N. J., March 3, 1958. At this conference of ministers and key laymen a possibility of an interrelatedness of the Societies and the Centennial Emancipation Celebration was discussed.

Recommendations

1. A place on our Annual Conference Program, 1959 for the Fourth Jubilee Hour.

- 2. Historical displays to be carried to many parts of each district of the Delaware Conference bounds and regions beyond.
- 3. A continuous program of forums, clinics, work-shops, discussion groups and retreats.

D. Other Reports

1. ADMINISTRATIVE SECRETARY—BALTIMORE AREA

Bishop Love and Members of the Conference:

I am sure that from my five previous reports, the duties and functions of my office are rather well known. My yearly routine is very much the same. I am accountable to the Bishop and assist him in carrying the almost impossible work log which is placed upon him by the demands of the church and the public.

We are honored to have in our bishop one of the great religious leaders of the present day. He is president of the College of Bishops, Central Jurisdiction; and vice-president of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, an organization of stout-hearted men and women of the South of the white and Negro races, who are fighting for equal rights for all people. To list his other connections with Methodism and the American Church at large would consume too much time and would be unnecessary.

I have been privileged to visit all conferences in the area during the past year. The stature of the ministers and laymen in the North Carolina, East Tennessee, Washington and Delaware Conferences is growing. We are truly training men and women ably to carry on the work of our churches. It is good to think of the general church and of far away places, but the strength of the church lies in the local scene. Unless we can strengthen the local church, city and town, large and small, we are fighting as one "that beateth the air."

The areas of the Central Jurisdiction, like man, are fearfully and wonderfully made. Because of the remoteness of the pastor in Chattanooga, Tennessee, from the pastor in White Plains, New York, our southernmost and northernmost outposts, respectively, it is necessary that we have media of communication that will make us feel that we are of the same organizational structure. We seek to do this mainly through our area paper, The Messenger, which has never been appreciably recognized by the people for whom it is essentially published. However, it answers a need, and that is the important thing. Please, Delegates, Brothers and Sisters, subscribe for it, and read it.

We recommend for your consideration, adoption of a plan that is being put into effect in the East Tennessee Conference. Each church is being asked to write into its budget an amount for The Messenger. The quantity of papers covered by the contribution, five, ten dollars, or more will be sent to the charge monthly to be distributed among the officials of the church. This is not obligatory. It is a simplified way of getting the paper into the hands of church officials. The church insures this by paying for the papers. On the other hand, it does not mean that individual persons cannot subscribe personally for the paper at $1.00 a year. We are passing this recommendation on to the district superintendents for consideration and subsequent promotion.

Another medium of trying to unify the area is through area-wide meetings. The Area Council is held twice during the quadrennium, in the fall of the year of the General Conference. In the interim other area meetings are held for specified leaders. These are promoted and financed wholly or in part by the Area Office. During the past year the second Retreat for district superintendents, Conference lay leaders, Conference treasurers, secretaries, Woman's Society presidents, and chairmen of Committees on Christian Higher Education was held. The meeting was held at Morgan State College Christian Center, September 7-9, and was unsurpassed in spiritual enrichment. Our office helped to support the recent one day conference on Christian Higher Education held at the same place.

This year we plan a Retreat for ministers' wives of the Delaware and Washington Conferences, August 22 to 24. We invite all the gracious ladies of our parsonages to share in this potentially rare fellowship, and now assure them of a program of great challenge and benefit. Next year a similar project will be undertaken for the wives of the North Carolina and East Tennessee Conferences.

The Area Office stands ready to help pastors and laymen in their problems. Our time is limited, and we do not presume to supersede the authority of district superintendents and others in places of leadership. However, we are available on your call, to the extent of our ability to aid you. "Silver and gold have we none, but such as we have, give we unto you."

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL LYMAN RIDOUT

2. DEPARTMENT OF RESEARCH AND SURVEYS—BALTIMORE AREA

The Department of Research and Surveys submits its report for the conference year 1957-58. During the past year the department has provided service in the following areas:

 Delaware Conference, Salisbury District.
 Study of the St. Andrews Larger Parish, Exmore Circuit and Princess Anne Station. Report to be given the district superintendent.

2. East Tennessee Conference, Bluefield District.

Made a study of War, Caeetta and Coalwood Charges for a larger parish. Beckley Charge visited and situation reviewed. Recommend that this charge be given pastoral leadership that will reflect credit to The Methodist Church.

The Area has been represented at the following meetings and conferences:

- Methodist Convocation on the Urban Church, Washington, D. C., February 18-20, 1958.
- Washington-Delaware Interconference on Missions, Morgan College, July 1957.
- Jurisdictional Conference on Ministerial Recruiting for the Central Jurisdiction, September, 1957.
- 4. Annual Meeting, American Society of Planning Officials, May, 1958.

5. Maryland State Conference on Juvenile Delinquency, 1957.

This department is affiliated with the Comity Committee, Council of Churches for Maryland and Delaware and the Commission on Comity and Church Planning for the National Capitol, Council of Churches, Washington, D. C.

Recommendations

1. That in each major city of the area there be an Urban Study Committee to plan the Methodist city work. That this committee be made up of active pastors in that city with lay people serving who work in the fields of social work, health service, housing, community organization, group work and probation service. The director of this department to work with them in an advisory capacity with planning.

2. That the Town and Country Commission of each Annual Conference be more than a paper commission. That it use the offices of the Department of Town and Country Work, Section of Home Missions and the Area Department of Research and Surveys to plan for more efficient rural and town work.

May I express appreciation to Bishop Love, the area staff and the cabinets of the four conferences for their kindness, patience and cooperation; to the agencies of city, state and national governments for materials, staff time and services; and to God for His mercy, long suffering and wisdom granted that your Director might more adequately serve Him and the church.

Auditors-Accountants

March 11, 1958

Dear Sir,

The books of the Treasurer for The Delaware Conference of the Methodist Church have been audited for the fiscal year of May 1956—April 1957.

The vouchers for each charge of the Conference have been audited separately and the findings mailed to their respective Superintendents.

The receipts journal has been turned over to Walter P. Harris, Certified Public Accountant, for audit. His findings are attached as well as the schedule of disbursements.

Very truly yours, Robert Bonner, Jr.

Auditor

Delaware Conference of The Methodist Church 4715 Duffield Street Philadelphia 24, Pennsylvania

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the request of your treasurer, we have made a special examination of certain accounting records of the Delaware Conference of The Methodist Church. Our examination related exclusively to the period May 12, 1956 to April 30, 1957 and was made for the purpose of ascertaining whether all receipts as evidenced by remittance sheets and a maintenance schedule of receipts were deposited in the bank.

We were furnished a schedule of receipts from the five districts, Dover, Easton, Salisbury, Philadelphia, and Wilmington as well as a schedule of receipts for maintenance from the national body. We added the remittance sheets on which these schedules were based and compared the totals to the totals of the bank statement entries for deposits from May 14, 1956 to May 10, 1957.

Because our auditing procedures were limited we are unable to express an opinion as to the attached exhibit other than that cash receipts as reflected by remittance sheets furnished us were indicated as deposits on bank statements during the period covered by our audit and that the excess of deposits over receipts were indicated in the records to be redeposits of return items.

WALTER P. HARRIS
Certified Public Accountant (Pa.)

VII. Memoirs

PAUL C. JACKSON

Paul C. Jackson, son of Laura and the late John Jackson, was born October 13, 1902 in Keller, Virginia.

Born and reared in a Christian home, he learned to love God. His Christian training in early childhood facilitated his conversion and acceptance of Christ as his Lord and personal Saviour.

In his early youth, he spent many hard working hours in a little Virginia school house. Having gone as far as possible there, he worked his way up North. Constantly feeling the hand of God before him, he felt a strong desire to spend his days in service for the Master. Eager and interested in learning more about the ways of God, Paul furthered his education by spending three years at Lincoln University Theological Seminary and was graduated in 1934. Later he matriculated at Lincoln's Preparatory School and finished there in 1952. Even as recently as 1957 Paul attended Rutgers University.

His life on earth was full. His first Charge was in Paschall, a growing community near Philadelphia, Pa.

As a member of the Union Conference, he was truly a good shepherd fully capable of leading his sheep. He was the founder of St. Pauls Baptist Church in Philadelphia and was pastor for fifteen years.

Always willing to go wherever needed, Paul came to St. Pauls Methodist Church in Mount Holly, New Jersey. It was here that he resided until his death February 4, 1958.

He leaves to mourn their loss a loving and devoted wife, a mother, one brother, two daughters, two sons, four grand children, and a host of other relatives and friends.

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

"I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress. My God, in him will I trust."

THE FAMILY

ROBERT SAUNDERS TOWNSEND

Robert Saunders Townsend, son of Isaac and Jane Townsend, was born in Snow Hill, Md. Oct. 16, 1883.

He attended the public school at Snow Hill, Md. He was reared in a Christian home.

In the year 1910 he was united in holy wedlock to Annie Covington, and moved to Philadelphia, where he completed a five year night school course at Central High School.

He joined Tindley Temple Methodist Church and served as secretary of the Trustee Board for more than twenty years. He was a teacher in the Church School, and an assistant to the pastor, until he was called into the active ministry.

He served at Hopewell, Md. 3 years; Upper Hill, Md. 4 years; and East New Market, Md. 4 years. Here Mrs. Annie Townsend was translated.

On January 23, 1956, he was joined in holy matrimony to Mrs. Catherine Bying. Three weeks later, he was stricken by a stroke. Mrs. Townsend faithfully nursed him back to apparent good health.

He departed this life Feb. 2, 1958, at his home in Camden, New Jersey. He leaves to mourn their loss, a devoted wife, a son, two sisters, and a galaxy of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Father perfect my trust! Strengthen my power of faith! Nor let me stand, at last, alone Upon the shore of death.

THE FAMILY

MRS. ROBERT G. WATERS

Jennie Virginia Waters, the daughter of the late, Rev. Frederick J. and Elizabeth Lewis Lee, pioneer members of the Delaware Conference, was born in Mt. Zion Methodist Parsonage, Magnolia, New Jersey, now known as Lawnside, New Jersey.

At a very early age she entered the Delaware Conference Academy, now known as Maryland State College, Princess Anne, Maryland. She was the salutatorian of the graduating class, and received many honors for her scholarship.

Following her graduation, she pursued a teaching career in the state of Maryland.

During her college days, she met the late Reverend Robert Garrison Waters, who was one of her classmates. This relationship resulted in her marriage to him, as he embarked upon the profession of the ministry.

There were nine children born to this union, eight of whom are here present; two daughters, Edna E. and Marita M.; six sons, Goodsell F., Robert G., Jr., DeWitt T., Wendell L., Alfred E. and Herman F. Waters; Ruth Virginia, being deceased. She also leaves two brothers, James Alonza Lee and Rev. Robert E. Lee; seven grand children, several nieces and nephews, six daughters-in-law, one brother-in-law, one sister-in-law, and a host of other sorrowing relatives and friends.

She was a charter member of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, now known as the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

She was a trustee for many years of the Friendship Home, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a Home sponsored by the Delaware Conference for young ladies. She was also a member of the Ministers Wives Association of the Philadelphia District, serving as treasurer, for several terms.

She was proud to be a minister's wife of the Methodist Church, toiling diligently with her husband and children.

Her patience, gentleness, courage, and love for her husband and children was an inspiration to all who knew her. She inspired her family with her sympathetic and understanding tenderness. She will always be in the hearts of her family, relatives and friends.

She was born in a Methodist parsonage, attended a Methodist school, presided in Methodist parsonages as a pastor's wife, was stricken in a Methodist Church, and departed this life, Wednesday, November 6th, 1957 in the Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.

"O love that wilt not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee, I give thee back the life I owe, That in Thine ocean depths its flow, May richer, fuller be.

O Cross that liftest up my head, I dare not ask to fly from Thee, I lay in dust life's glory dead, And from the ground there blossoms red, Life that shall endless be."

THE FAMILY

BENJAMIN T. HALL, SR.

Benjamin T. Hall, Sr., beloved husband of Deliah B. Hall and the son of the late Sarah Curtis, departed this life Sunday, February 16th, 1958. He found his way to the Lord at a very early age, and kept his promise to the Lord doing whatever he could in all respects to help bring God's Kingdom on earth as it is in Heaven. The church and its work was his greatest aspect. He was a church school teacher for many years and served in all organizations of the church. He was a charge lay leader and felt that his duty to serve was never complete until the job or program was finished. Many times we have heard him say when the program was over, "The job was well done." He was so devoted to the work of his church and service of the Master that even when illness burdened him he would get up, attempt to go to church, but found himself too weak. He always had faith that perhaps on the following Sunday he would be able. His failing health was first realized in the year of 1937, but continued to fight his illness without complaint. He continued to care for his family and worked even when the doctors said it was impossible with such illness. His Master was watching over him and gave him sufficient strength and courage to press forward in the dark hours of distress and grief.

His constant advice to his family, community, and all those with whom he came in contact was "Seek ye the Lord, for you'll surely need him in your life."

He was a very kind, loving father and husband, a great provider and wonderful family adviser. One of his greatest beliefs was that a family must stay together and pull together, and that a family who prayed together, stayed together. He did everything within his power to comfort and care for his family and everyone he met. He was widely known throughout the two counties of the eastern shore of Virginia.

The family cannot express its heartfelt loss. Our hearts are too heavy with grief. But we thank God for a wonderful husband and father. He was always the same, kind and loving, ready and willing to give the best of advice. So today, dear father and husband, we have come to pay our last respects on this earth. We truly loved you, but God looked over his garden for a flower to pluck, and he chose you, beloved, and took you from all the rest.

Though your recent illness lasted for about one week, He knew that it was well done and took you home to rest. So sleep on and take your rest. We all loved you, but God loved you best. For we are truly praying that God will grant us the strength and courage to go onward as He did for you in the past, and that we may follow closely in your footsteps. We hope to see you again some day in the "sweet bye and bye when we meet on that beautiful shore."

Sorrowfully submitted.
