My dear Dr. Humphreys:

I am not just certain to whom to write in this connection, and am, therefore, taking the liberty of addressing our new President.

REPORTS

REPORT A

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

THE MARYLAND ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

Fathers and Brethren:

"Elect according to the foreknowledge of God, the Father, through sanctification of the spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ; Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied."

This year, 1924, finds us assembled in this, the ninety-sixth session of our Conference, privileged to meet together, through the grace and mercy of our Heavenly Father, and ready to render in fellowship our accounting for the manifold mercies of God in privileges extended to us as Stewards of His purpose in the Kingdom of His Blessed Son—Our Lord Jesus Christ.

In the churches from which we come, the eyes of the faithful are upon us and their prayers follow us and their faith is in us. May Divine Wisdom be vouchsafed us and the guidance of the Holy Spirit be ours, that we may keep tryst with that faith in an unity of consecration to Him, whose we are and whom we serve.

In Memoriam

The Rev. Francis T. Tagg, A. M., D. D., a veteran of this conference and an outstanding figure in our denomination, died June 17th, 1923, in the 78th year of his age. For fifty-three years he stood in the ranks of this body. Fourteen years of that number he filled pastorates herein, and then he was called into the service of the general activities of the denomination; eight years service as General Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, twenty-four years as Editor of the Methodist Protestant. The last seven years of his life was spent in the superannuated relation. The general church further honored him in electing him to the presidency of the General Conference in 1904. In the programs and work of both the general church and his local conference the leadership and forceful power of Dr. Tagg was realized, and much today bears impress of his personality.

Mrs. Frances Marie Schauer, wife of Rev. P. M. R. Schauer, died August 16th, 1923. Paralysis, following the ravage of disease, precluded any hope of recovery, and she went away to a fairer land, leaving her husband and six children to miss the sound of a voice that is gone and the touch of a hand that is still. Thirty-seven years of age and gone.

Like others, wives of ministers, her sun went down while yet it was noon; she, like they,

"Shall grow not old,
As we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun;
And, in the morning—
We shall know them."

Obituary committees were duly appointed for the above names.

I make mention of the death of one of our prominent laymen—Dr. M. Bates Stephens, of Denton, Md. Prominent as an educator he served as State Superintendent of Education of Maryland for twenty years. For many years he was a trustee of Western Maryland College. Connected with our church at Denton, he occupied a place high in that church's councils, and often sat as a delegate in the Annual Conference. He is missed and ours is the loss.

Into homes of the ministry and laity, other than I have mentioned, death has come, and the shadows have fallen, and hearts have ached and are heavy and sad. We commit these, our friends to Him whose arms are everlasting and whose love is boundless and whose sympathy is infinite!

I recommend his transfer be approved.

TRIAL. On March the 21st, Rev. M. W. Sutcliffe, pastor of Susquehanna Circuit, was tried on the charge of maladministration, preferred by the President. Sufficient evidence, fully substantiated, was produced at said trial and the verdict of the committee was immediate expulsion from probationary membership in the conference. All the records of the trial have been filed with the Secretary of the Conference. It is yet too soon to measure the harmful results to the work of Susquehanna Charge through his insidious efforts to betray the interests of the Conference and the Circuit. The Conference must, and I am sure will, stand by the Circuit and help it to recovery.

Supervision

ITINERARY. I have not preached at every charge in the District. There are two reasons that are sufficient: first, due to the many other activities to which the President is closely related-it is not humanly possible; second, my belief is that, so far as possible, the President must give more and closer attention to such places as really need his attention. And yet I feel that itinerary will speak for itself. I have sought to reach quarterly conferences and membership meetings that I might learn something of definite knowledge as to the workings of the churches. To several charges I have gone more than once because of the existing needs. From February 25th till Conference my itinerary was disarranged due to the conditions growing out of the Sutcliffe case. The record would read preached 116 times, by proxy 10 times. Attended 31 quarterly conferences, by proxy 9; 18 membership meetings; 15 meetings relative to Board of Survey Work; with no attempt to account for the various meetings of committees to which the President is related. Eight special days on trips to Harford County relative to Susquehanna Circuit.

RELATION TO CONFERENCE PROGRAMS. I came into this office with the conviction that no added program ought to be suggested by myself, at least for this year. Already, due to the initiative of my predecessor, large programs had been projected. My purpose then has been to give myself to these existing projects, which I have done wholeheartedly.

- (a) TENT MEETINGS. The usual plan was followed this summer in the best way that circumstances permitted. Meetings were held. Results in most cases were satisfactory. As an Evangelistic effort, the one at the Cambria Church was notable; many conversions resulted and the church greatly strengthened. Unfortunately, the tents have to be used in a certain season of the year, which season is not the most opportune time for the places that really need such meetings the most. Then, too, we have to avoid placing a tent during the week of Summer Conference. Again, the President is hampered in the matter of assigning preachers—many find reasons why they cannot serve, and to supply effectively such meetings is a problem. I trust the Committee on Evangelism will have some very definite recommendations to make when their report is brought in.
- REGROUPING UNDER BOARD OF SURVEY. (b) has taken much of my thought and time. I have been able to make some recommendations, endorsed by the Board, that have been put into effect; others will be reported to the Conference for sanction. I believe in every Sunday service for every church, wherever possible. But this conviction has taken definite form in my mind. Much of our regrouping ought to be along this line-readjustments should be made when feasible whereby, without any of the churches concerned receiving less service than now, the readjusted charges will help the Conference to realize the minimum salaries for pastors without appropriating supplements; and whereby more can thus be done for the Budget. I have been exerting and shall continue to exert efforts along this line. In doing this I shall not forget such regrouping of our larger circuits as shall make formo re intensive development of the individual churches and more efficient work by the pastors. The readjustments, projected since Conference to be presented here for consideration, involve about a dozen charges and about thirty churches.

In addition to regrouping, much comes before this Board relative to new projects contemplated, extensive rebuilding, relocations, etc., and much sub-committee work is the result. Not only must the President give a great deal of time and thought to this phase also, but this is true for members of the Board likewise; the co-operation therein is most gracious and splendid. And our pastors co-operate in these plans as such relates to their field of labor. No more important and greater task is there in the Conference than is committed to this Board; whatever its recommendations, they come after much thought and planning—they should receive the careful consideration of this body. I am glad to make mention here of the harmonious relationship between this Board and the Board of Managers of the Church Extension Society. And to state at our first meeting this year we voted that Dr. Sheridan, Church Extension Superintendent, be a member of the committee, and his suggestions and work have been of great value to us.

- HEADQUARTER'S COMMITTEE. This committee, specially raised by the Conference, has continued the work already begun when Conference was last in session. I was glad to ask Dr. Straughn to substitute for me as Chairman of said committee, that he might continue to lead in this great project which originated during his presidency. I will not anticipate the report of the committee. Suffice to say that the building is in process of erection. Satisfactory arrangements on the financial side have been made to make sure the completion of the enterprise. We fully expect that when completed the rents therefrom will finance the payment of same. This Maryland Conference Building-our Headquarters-will stand as a symbol of the life and growth of the Conference and give us a prestige in Baltimore City that will be much worthwhile. At the same time, through this building, we will give a home for the Methodist Protestant, and in a satisfactory and equitable way provide a place and larger opportunity for the Book Concern operating under the General Church.
- (d) RELOCATION OF PRESIDENT'S PARSONAGE. The committee, appointed at the last session to continue the effort to bring about the sale of the parsonage, 1420 Linden Avenue, and to buy in another locality, entered into the work assigned them at once after Conference. The results of their efforts will be made clear in the report they will submit. Suffice to say that February 16th, the President and his family moved into the new parsonage, 3600 Copley Road. From a Conference viewpoint, as well as that of the man who may fill the office—we believe the entire transaction is most satisfactory; and that the investment is a good one, we are confident. It is not a pretentious house—just a modest one, modern and comfortable on a lot 60 by 150 feet, situated in Ashburton, a splendid new development with sensible restrictions, and near to the fastest suburban car line of the city.

The Regular Conference Interests.

These interests are under the direction of the Boards that manage them, and will be reported upon by said Boards through the Standing Committees of the Conference. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to go into any details in this report. Brief comments will suffice. These interests naturally fall into two divisions: 1. Such interests as are supported, wholly or in part, by Conference appropriation, and 2. Such as are given our moral support and receive from the district more or less definite financial help.

Under the first head comes the following:

(a) THE SUPERANNUATED FUND SOCIETY. In this Society all of us are vitally interested. In the interim of Conference its affairs are under direction of a Board of Managers. Its Treasurer is a most efficient layman, devoted to its interests, Mr. T. A. Murray of Baltimore. The total amount of the invested fund now is $150,000; with about $8,500 in hand to be added thereto. When all the collections of the recent Special Campaign are in hand in January 1926, the total investment will reach $225,000.

Dr. Straughn completed the Drive after the adjournment of Conference and the total subscription reached $100,036. To date, of this amount about $40,000 has been paid the Treasurer of the Conference.

(b) THE CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY. This Society is managed in the same general way as the above. But there is very close relation between it and the Board of Survey and Extension. Necessarily so, because the lines of the work of each parallel. It is continuing its good work; careful of its holdings, taking over such new projects as are recommended by the Board of Survey, advising with and aiding enterprises already under their direction. Extension work in the District covers two new developments. Bethesda Church, a newly effected organization on the Harford Road with a membership of nearly fifty, has purchased a lot splendidly located and is already in process of building a temporary chapel. It has been recognized by the Lauraville Quarterly Conference and has elected a messenger to this Conference. The prospects here for a strong constituency are most promising.

A new organization has been formed in Smyrna, Delaware, consisting of 63 members. A church has been built at a cost of $5,000 and over, of which $3,200 has been paid, and the balance subscribed. They have elected a messenger to this Conference, the church having been formally recognized by the Clayton Quarterly Conference. Both of these churches will ask to be placed on the list of appointments and be given pastors.

Our outstanding extension effort in all the history of the Conference, Peninsula Church, Wilmington, had its formal opening in December. The work is growing in a solid constructive manner; the finances are in an encouraging condition. We must continue our help till the end is in sight.

- (c) THE DEACONESS WORK. This work continues on about the same plane as per the last report. My understanding is that the home on North Charles Street will be paid for this year ending. It is somewhat difficult to understand the slow development of this work. Somewhere something is lacking. Here is a Home sufficiently large enough for more deaconesses, practically out of debt. Doubtless there is need for such trained workers, but our number is small. Somehow the work has never gripped the churches. I wonder, after all, if the real purpose of the work has not been subserved. I am impressed that we should either do more with the work and for the work or confess it is not one of our needs.
- (d) OUR CHURCH HOME. Under Resolution adopted at the Conference of 1921, the charter was amended so that the Board of Managers should be elected by the Conference. The change went into effect with our 1922 session. What has been the effect of the change I have no way of knowing. The home is filled, as I understand, to its capacity. Doubtless it is doing all that it can with its resources. But I believe there is sympathy over the district for the home that has never been capitalized—it is possible and ought to be moulded into practical expression far beyond what is now being given.

For these four great interests we express our support in the Maryland Conference Budget. They have a right to our loyal support and they are thus supported. These interests expect that the President shall sponsor their work, and rightly expect it, as he travels the district and comes into touch with our constituency. And yet, from conference to conference, the president has no way of knowing the state of these interests, what movements are contemplated, what projects are under way, for he bears no relation to any of these boards and is never invited to any of the Board Meetings. The one exception is the Board of Managers of the Church Extension Society; this Board regularly notifies the president of their meetings and requests his attendance. I cite these facts, not that I want more work, but that I wish to be able to speak intelligently about all the work.

Under the second head comes:

- (a) THE SUMMER CONFERENCE. This has not only become a permanent institution with us, but its usefulness insures its perpetuation. The illumination of mind, the inspiration of spirit, the fellowship, the moments of new vision and consecration are of intense value to this conference. Let me call attention to the fact that every member of this conference (ministerial) is by virtue thereof a member of the Summer Conference, and let us remember that membership carries with it an annual dues of $2. Let us pay the dues whether we go or not—but better still, let us pay and go. The full report of the Executive Committee will come before the Conference.
- (b) THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S INSTITUTE. Like the Summer Conference this too is with us to stay. Spiritually, mentally, socially, physically, this is a blessing to those who attend. And the attendance is wonderful. The potentialities of this Institute are beyond imagination. The good it is already accomplishing is worthy of note. More and more our younger people in the churches must be brought under the influence of this gathering. Without desiring to see one less of our more mature church members there, I do desire—and believe this ought to be our aim—to see many more of our young people present, between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five. This period of life, as a church, we need to touch and mould for workers in the tomorrow. Every layman here ought to join with his pastor in bringing this to pass.

The Interests of the General Church.

The Kingdom Life, translated through the Church as a Divine Institution, has three words that signify its purpose: Missions, Education, Charity. And the intent of these three words is revealed in the Denominational Program. In the carrying out of such a program, Boards have been created with specific work assigned them; Colleges have been built to put the plus in education, expressed in the word Christian; a general church home organized, orphanages built, industrial schools organized. Those are the cumulative accomplishments of nearly a hundred years of history. It is the doing of these things that justify our right to be called a Denomination—yea, that justify our place in the great Protestant World as a Church of Christ. For ninety years the One great means of creating and fostering our Denominational Consciousness was the Church Paper. And in an unique way the Methodist Protestant begot us all.

(a) THE METHODIST PROTESTANT. Perhaps the paper was never doing a more comprehensive work than today. Ably edited, with fine contributions and much news from the field, this paper ought to be in the home of every member of our churches in the district. Surely no church official should be without it. And yet I visited a Quarterly Conference this year where not a single member of the three churches took the paper. I tried to shame them—but don't think I had any success. I was glad to suggest to the Editor and Publisher the Conference-wide drive for the paper for February 17th. I was glad to co-operate when the campaign was decided upon. And while the goal of 1000 new subscribers was not reached, it is great to know that more than 700 subscriptions were secured. The Delta Church with 51 subscribers led the list, and to this church goes the honor of being the first church to have the paper in every home in its membership. No little credit is due the pastor for such success.

After ninety years dependence upon the church papers to build a Denominational Consciousness, the Church in General Conference Session at Greensboro four years ago, created another agency for further accomplishing this—The Travelling President of the General Church. This Maryland Conference is justly proud that our own Dr. T. H. Lewis became that Officer. His work was unique in that it was in the nature of a venture—he was the explorer and discoverer. We are assured, because of whom he is and the sort of work he always does, that he is laying a wise foundation for greater things for the Church. And whichever way he leads, this Conference will follow in prayer, in sympathy, in every possible co-operation that we can give—personally and financially. We salute you, Dr. Lewis, and say—"lead on, we will follow."

A SPECIAL CALL. Growing out of the Japanese Catastrophe an emergency call came to the whole church for help. The goal was $100,000. And Maryland was asked to raise $30,000. Unfortunately, the call to Maryland went out before the definite plans and goals were decided upon by the Emergency Committee. I have no doubt that this fact made against the best results that might have been obtained. The general church has responded in subscriptions totalling about one third of the amount asked, of which Maryland has subscribed about $16,000.

The interests of the general church and of the Maryland Conference are expressed in the WHOLE BUDGET totalling $130,000. In my travels over the district, both in official meetings and church services; in my letters to the church paper—everywhere and all the time, I have made no distinction as to these interests, simply explained them and their relation, I have talked the Whole Budget. I have sought to give information as to the needs, impress the responsibility involved, and to beget some inspiration for meeting these needs. I believe there is a growing appreciation all over the Conference, as indicated in the response for this year. Let us understand this—it is my clear conviction that the Whole Budget is neither higher than the needs of the Church nor greater than the resources of our people. Not failure but low aim is crime. Here is a possible goal for the Conference—we are on the way; a bit more information, a bit more leadership,—better financial methods, and persistent endeavor plus heroic faith—and we shall at last reach that goal! I am certainly clear in my own mind as to this fact—the whole budget has the claim of priority over all other calls. Let us do all benevolent work we can of miscellaneous character, but let it not hurt our church benevolences. Generally speaking all increases of financial character in a local way ought to find the increase on budget keeping pace therewith.

35 churches are on the Honor Roll with 100 per cent on budget, an increase of 3. 12 churches are above 75 per cent, an increase of 6. 36 churches are between 50 and 75 per cent, an increase of 3. 49 churches are between 25 and 50 per cent, a decrease of 5.

These are incomplete figures, because not all pastors returned the questionnaires of March the 18th. But all indications point to the average percentage of the whole budget for the district as being an increase over last year. The percentage will be known when the Stewards' report is in.

Summary of Local Conditions in the District.

- 1. CONVERSIONS. I head it thus, for we can't tabulate spiritual results. Only Eternity can tell. Pastors' reports indicate that there were 2,750 conversions. 14 churches indicate more than 50 each, as follows: Brooklyn, 59; Calvary, 50; Christ Church, 60; Hampden, 150; Lowe Memorial, 72; South Baltimore, 97; St. Paul's, 60; Harbeson, 66; Mt. Nebo, 90; Sharptown, 70; Alexandria, 165; Cherrydale, 75; Federalsburg, 60; Whaleyville, 52. Eleven other charges report between 25 and 50 conversions.
- 2. ACCESSIONS. Total number reported over 2,400. Following six churches indicate 50 or more: Christ Church, 52; Hampden, 75; Lowe Memorial, 72; Harbeson, 62; Mt. Nebo, 60; Peninsula, Wil., 60. 17 other churches report between 25 and 50. And net gain in membership reported 1,400 plus. Dr. Straughn in his report last year called attention to the way in which churches were discontinuing members. Though not as large reductions of church registers are reported this year as last, still it goes on. The largest discontinuance of any one charge being 110 this year, with a total of 1,000 (plus) by official action.
- 3. PAID ON DEBT. Payments on debt total $66,500 and over. Charges paying $1,000 or more, as follows. Graceland Park, $1,800; Grace, $1,600; Hampden, $19,753; Keen Memorial, $2,000; Lauraville, $1,050; South Baltimore, $1,378; Starr, $3,500; St. Paul's, $1,000; Conquest, $1,000; Cumberland, $2,744; Laurel, $1,500; Seaford, $1,000;

Peninsula, Wil., $5,600; Trinity, Baltimore, $1,500; Finksburg, $1,700; Rhode Island Ave., $1,500; Centreville, $3,600.

- 4. PAID ON BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENTS. The total indicated here will reach $100,500. Charges paying $1,000 or more follow, with definite new projects specified: Grace, $2,300; Graceland Park, $3,00; Keen Memorial, $2,000; North Baltimore, $1,350; Violetville, $11,000—First Unit of new church costing $23,000; Wilton Heights, $1,000; First Church, Cumberland, $1,933; Deer Park, $2,765, on splendid new parsonage costing $8,000; Glenburnie on new location, costing $10,000, $3,000; Kemptown, $1,000; Mardela, $1,000; St. Luke's on restoration, $1,500; Tioga Heights, $2,000, on $12,000 structure now building; Salisbury, $12,000, in completition of this beautiful edifice in which we are meetting; Peninsula, Wil., $6,000, on furnishings and organ; Centreville, $11,000; St. John's, $1,500. In addition to the above, the new church at Smyrna, Del., already mentioned, has paid $3,200 on building plus lot; this makes the total expenditures $104,000.
- This encouraging feature on the part of PASTOR'S SALARIES. the charges still goes on. Since the close of last Conference session, 29 charges made an increase in salary for the year ending, totalling $6,440. Increases on salary for the coming year amount to $6,365, made by 30 charges. The aggregate increase is $12,805. Out of this total number of charges 17 were in the class where supplements were paid up to April 1923. These have made a total increase of $2,700. I have not appealed to any church since assuming this office that has not made some sort of salary increase in response. Brethren, this statement is not intended as a suggestion that you invite me to an official meeting to help get the salary increased. It is only made to show the growing inclination on the part of churches to make practical the theory, that "the laborer is worthy of his hire." There are some charges that can and ought to pay more There are some charges below the minimum salary that can and won't raise to the minimum-wherever possible, a regrouping ought to take place in such instances that will insure the minimum without conference supplement, and thus we cease to be a party to self-pauperization of such places.

Observations.

In my contact with the ministry and laity in travellnig over the District this year, there are one or two things that have impressed themselves upon me that I wish to emphasize:

1. The Spirit of Brotherhood. I feel that we have a great fraternity among the constituency of this Conference. I am glad to bear testimony to it. The sympathy, the fellowship, the willingness to spend and be spent in the interests of the Kingdom through our church is a thing that heartens in the work. And I have tried hard to further emphasize this fact as I have visited the churches; to remind again and again that we are one family—that the successes of any or the burdens of any are of one common interest. More and more may this spirit grow, till to the utmost we can say "all one family we, one in faith and doctrine, one in charity."

2. The settled purpose, growing all the time, to make the Maryland Conference as big and as strong as it is possible to make it. The consciousness that in Doctrine and Polity we have a great church, that in constituency we have wonderful strength and talents and resources that are yet to be utilized to reach anywhere near their maximum possibilities. Out of this is growing the desire and intent to continue to press on more and more to bigger and better things.

May the Holy Spirit breathe upon us anew in our present assembly till we shall go out from here One Body in "One Accord."

- 3. The spirit, on the part of pastors and churches, to find the opportunity for the utilization of unused talents for leadership. I can best illustrate this in the case of West Baltimore Church. This church, at the suggestion of the pastor, recently appointed a committee to look for a mission field, where her people might use their talents for leadership in the conduct of a Sunday School, young people's meetings, prayer meetings, and thus serve an unchurched community. And out of her treasury appropriated $500 for such a venture. Perhaps we have no greater concern in our churches than to make use of much talent lying dormant, and capacities for leadership that are not being developed.
- 4. I am convinced that one of our great needs for constuctive development in our district is more intensive methods. This is true for some of our Boards, for many of our churches, especially in our rural work. It is a problem that we must set ourselves to help solve. It is not all the fault of our pastors, nor yet of our church officials, that such conditions exist in many places. But the fact faces us that poor methods and poor working of even some good methods are in vogue in a day and church that ought not to be.
- 5. I have reached this conclusion, a notion that has been with me for some years, now a conviction after a year's travel on the district, that perhaps the best work—at least a better work—can be done by the President not through Sunday visitation to places, irrespective of the needs, but in quarterly conferences, membership meetings, open parliaments and campaigns—intensified—in sections to help pastors and charges where needs exists.

Recommendations.

I herewith submit the following recommendations:

1. That a campaign on "Stewardship and Tithing" be projected this year. That the month of October be given to such campaign; pastors being required to preach in series during the four Sundays of the month. That the official board and membership be rallied to the campaign by all available efforts of pastors. That the various church organizations be utilized for the educational features of such campaign.

And that the campaign culminate on the First Sunday in November in a great consecration of Life and Talents and Resources, expressed in the Tither's Pledge, received at the Communion Service. That the minimum Goal for this Conference-Wide Campaign be 10,000 Tithers.

And further that a committe of Five be raised by this Conference to Plan for and Project such a campaign.

2. That the Conference authorize the President to group the District into sections, designating a Group Chairman for each section; that such Group Leaders be recognized as the Key-Men of these sections, through whom the President shall be enabled to more efficiently carry the Program of the Church. That the President and Group Leaders shall inaugurate a study of methods for the various charges as the needs may require and opportunity offers.

That it is the understanding of the Conference that such Group Leaders, in carrying out the program of this body under direction of the President, shall have the full support of the pastors of the sections.

That the President be authorized to call together at some central point these Group Leaders for conference and consultation if in his judgment it is warranted, but not more than 2 times in the interim of conference; and that travelling expenses for such meetings be paid out of the incidental fund of the Conference.

3. That both pastors and charges may sense the great streess which the Conference lays upon the Whole Budget and our appreciation of a growing conscience relating thereto.

That the Conference prepare and print an "HONOR ROLL CERTIFI-CATE"; said certificate to name the charge, and the individual churches related thereto, designaiting the per cent raised each year of the present quadrennium with the pastor for each year. And that all churches be requested to place same in the church at some conspicuous point.

That the Secretary be the committee on the preparation and presentation of such certificate.

- 4. That for charges showing a decrease of 25 per cent or more for the year on the Whole Budget in monies raised thereon, the pastor and delegate be required to state the reasons therefor to the Committee on Official Relations. Likewise the same requirement shall apply to pastors and delegates from such charges as raise less than 50 per cent of the Budget.
- 5. That instead of printing in the report of the Committee on Official Relations the list of charges with per cent paid on the Budget, that said per cent be printed in the last column in the Financial Tables of the Minutes. But all percentages shall be read at the time the Committee makes its report.
- 6. The Regulation One (1) of the Manual, styled "Duties of Pastors," be amended by the addition of the following paragraph, numbered Section 14, and to read: "All pastors of the Conference shall be required to give at least two (2) weeks of their time for evangelistic service during the year if needed, under the direction of the Committee on Evangelism, provided that pastors shall be given three weeks notice of their appointment.
 - 7. That all Probationary Members of the Conference, and all supply appointees working under the President, shall make quarterly reports to the President giving a full and comprehensive account of the work being done by pastor and charge.

- 8. That all pastors be requested to file with the Board of Survey and Extension, within three (3) months after Conference adjourns, a statement containing information concerning Deeds to all churches and parsonages, concerning church charters, and also stating the amount of insurance carried on the properties of the charges. That such information be furnished on a questionaire to be mailed by the Secretary of the Board of Survey and Extension. And that no appropriation for any purpose whatever be paid by the Conference Treasurer till such information is given.
- 9. That a Special Committee be raised by this Conference authorized to make an exhaustive study of the Deaconess Work, with a view to determining—(a) The real need of the District for such a work. (b) The autstanding needs of the work as it now functions. (c) The methods, proven successful by other denominations, that may be adaptable to our needs and resources. (d) And whatever else, in the purview of the committee, may present itself for consideration.

That this committee be requested to meet the Deaconess Board at its first regular meeting after Conference and confer with them; and thereafter attend such meetings of the Board and Board Committees as may further aid them in their study.

That this committee be prepared to report its findings at the next session of Conference with such specific recommendations as they deem necessary and wise.

10. Inasmuch as the Maryland Conference Building now under erection will be ready for occupancy during the conference year, and since there are many historical records of great value to us as a church, stowed away in the present headquartders, 316 N. Charles Street.

That the Conference elect a Librarian and entrust to him the duty of collecting, classifying and transferring all such records to the new Headquarters Building, 516 N. Charles Street; and that such expenses as may be required to satisfactorily do such work shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Conference.

11. In view of the fact that the Headquarters Committee is representative of the Conference Trustees, of the Baltimore Book Directory, and of the Conference at large—

That the Headquarters Committee be and hereby is authorized and empowered to determine the rentals to be fixed in relation to the space to be occupied by the Baltimore Book Directory in the new Maryland Conference Building, 516 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, Maryland. That said agreements as shall be decided upon shall be filed with the Board of Trustees of the Conference, and shall supersede all existing arrangements now in effect between the Conference Trustees and the Book Directory. And that the Conference Trustees shall make report, yearly to the Conference, upon such rentals along with all other rentals pertaining to the Headquarters Building.

12. That the Headquarters Committee be authorized to procure such necessary furnishings as may be required in such rooms as are set apart for use by the Conference.

13. That "Methodist Protestant" Day be changed from the third (3) Sunday in October to the fourth (4) Sunday in January, and that another intensive campaign be carried on over the District for 500 new subscribers and 1,000 renewals.

Inasmuch as the President's Parsonage Guild has disbandedthat the President of the Conference, the Agent of the President's Parsonage, and another member to be named by the President be made a "Committee on Conference Parsonage Furnishings."

15. In view of the increased work of the past year, due to the great amount of book-keeping and correspondence relative to the Superannuated Fund Campaign, devolving upon the Conference Treasurer, Rev. C. P. Nowlin-

That the Conference request the Superannuated Fund Society, at its meeting this session, to authorize its Treasurer to pay out of the Society's receipts the sum of $200 to the Treasurer of the Conference as an appreciation for his services.

And further, that the $100,000 Campaign Committee be requested to acquaint themselves with the amounts being paid by charges on their quotas, and continue such work as may be necessary and helpful in making possible the raising of the pledges in full.

With due and sincere appreciation for courtesies shown me by pastors and laity, with gratification at the measure of co-operation manifested in my efforts to carry on the work committed by you to my hands, and desiring earnestly the blessing of Heaven upon this our ninety-sixth (96) session.

I am, sincerely and fraternally.

G. I. HUMPHREYS, President.

COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is with much pleasure your committee reviewed the President's report and we are impressed with the great volume of work achieved under his judicious leadership.

It is with no small joy that we observe the payment of forty thousand dollars of the hundred thousand pledged toward the investment fund of the Superannuated Society and urge the pasteral supervision of accounts until the whole is collected.

In the case of M. W. Sutcliffe, we endorse the President's action and urge that all necessary steps be taken to protect our interest on Susquehanna charge, and urge the Conference to give its moral and financial support in regard to Pastoral Supply.

We regret to discover a discrepancy in the pastor's information furnished the President, and that instead of an increase of five churches that have sensed the great needs of the General Church, as well as those of Maryland, that have paid their budget in full, we find a decrease of two, we insist that each church must take seriously this obligation. This is our loyal duty so long as the General Conference hands down a budget. We can only grow as a church by covering our whole budget.

Recommendations

First. STEWARDSHIP AND TITHING CAMPAIGN. We heartily endorse the idea and concur in the selection of October for the conduct of such a campaign, using the Sunday School departments and classes and Christian Endeavor Societies in study classes, reading circles, etc., in the furtherance of the plan.

We concur in the raising of a committee of five to formulate the plans for the month, with ten thousand tithers as the minimum goal.

Second. GROUPING OF CONFERENCE DISTRICT INTO SECTIONS. The Committee concurs in authorizing the President to group the District into sections, with a group chairman for each section The President and group leaders shall inaugurate plans for the purpose of co-operating with the various charges as the need may require and opportunity offer. It is the understanding that the group leaders shall have the loyal co-operation of the pastors of their section.

We approve the recommendation of the calling of the group leaders for conference and consultation not more than twice in the interim of Conference. It is the understanding, however, that nothing in the recommendation shall be construed to interfere with the duties and prerogatives of the Board of Survey and Extension.

Third. THE WHOLE BUDGET. We feel too much emphasis cannot be given to the payment of the whole budget, and we urge a closer attention to the vital necessity of raising the full amount of the General Conference Budget, as well as that of the Maryland Conference. We recommend an "Honor Roll Certificate" be prepared for all one hundred per cent churches, and a Percentage Certificate for those churches paying fifty per cent or more of the whole budget, these certificates to be prominently displayed in the church.

We concur in the Secretary of the Conference being the committee to prepare and present such certificates.

Fourth. CHARGES SHOWING DECREASES ON BUDGET. We concur in the recommendation that should a charge show a decrease of twenty-five per cent or more for the year on the whole budget, the pastor and delegate shall be required to state the reasons therefor to the Committee on Official Relations. We recommend that the same requirements shall apply to pastors and delegates from such charges as raise less than fifty per cent of the whole budget.

Fifth. PUBLISHING PERCENT OF BUDGET PAID WITH FINAN-CIAL TABLE. We approve of this recommendation.

Sixth. ADDITIONAL PARAGRAPH TO BE ADDED TO MANUAL TO BE NUMBERED FOURTEEN, and to read:

"All pastors of the Conference shall be required to give at least two weeks of their time for evangelistic services during the year., if needed, under the direction of the Committee on Evangelism, provided that pastors shall be given three weeks' notice of their appointment."

The committee concurs in the recommendation.

Seventh. PROBATIONERY MEMBERS AND SUPPLY PASTORS MAKING QUARTERLY REPORTS. The committee concurs in the recommendation.

Eighth. FILING VALUABLE PAPERS WITH BOARD OF SURVEY AND EXTENSION. We note the wisdom of such a recommendation and concur in its provisions.

We recommend that all deeds and charters be referred to Superintendent of Church Extension for his approval before being recorded.

Ninth. SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON DEACONESS WORK. Your committee concurs in the raising of a special committee by this Conference to make an exhaustive study of the Deaconess Work, with a view of covering the items named in the President's report.

Tenth. HISTORICAL LIBRARIAN. We deem this provision a wise one since many valuable records need to be collected, classified and properly cared for. We approve the recommendation.

Eleventh. FIXING RENTALS AT 516 N. CHARLES STREET. The committee concurs in the recommendation.

Thirteenth. METHODIST PROTESTANT DAY. Changing date from October to fourth Sunday in January. We believe this is a wise provision since about seven hundred subscriptions expire February 1st. Your committee concurs.

Fourteenth. COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE PARSONAGE FURNISHINGS. This committee concurs.

Fifteenth. TREASURER'S COMPENSATION. The committee concurs in this recommendation.

Report B OF THE SECRETARY

MARYLAND ANNUAL CONFERENCE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

As Committee on Credentials my report is as follows.

Credentials have not been received from Waverly, Indian River, Talbot and Tyreanna.

The credentials from Caroline, Lewes, Liberty and Prince George do not have alternates.

A letter from South Baltimore attests that both delegate and alternate resigned and that R. Day Humphreys was elected at a second meeting. I recommend that he be seated.

A letter stating that both delegate and alternate elect from Wilton Heights had found it impossible to attend, and that Mrs. J. E. Whaley was elected by the members at a meeting held March 26. I recommend that she be seated.

The credential from Caroline Charge contained the name of no alternate. A certificate dated March 18th declares Nathan J. Cade elected alternate delegate in place of Ralph Meredith who had found it impossible to attend Conference. I recommend that he be seated.

Credentials of messengers from Smyrna church, the Bethesda church in Baltimore and the Harmony church of Federalsburg have been received by the Secretary.

Your Board has had referred to it the request of Our Church Home for $2,000 increase in appropriation.

We recommend that it be not granted, but in view of the need that has been brought to our attention, there being repair expenses of $2,000, and some $6,000 depletion of the Endowment Fund, we recommend that a campaign for $10,000 be put on this Conference year, and that a committee be appointed by the President with himself as chairman, to co-operate with the Board of Managers of the Home in conducting the same.

We have had referred also to us for consideration the appropriation to the Deaconess Home.

We recommend that the present appropriation of $2,500 be granted this year in view of the fact that the final $500 debt on the property is to be made.

Report of Peninsula Extension Society

The Peninsula Church Extension Society has held two meetings during the Conference year. It has made an effort to keep up its roll of membership in order to render the largest possible service in the advance movements of the church. The many other calls upon the churches have made it difficult to secure large sums for its work. We look upon our chief task as educational in ever keeping before the established churches the duty of watching for new opportunities of organizing Methodist Protestant churches.

The Society has again concentrated its contributions in the Peninsula Church of Wilmington. We rejoice in the success of this enterprise. Its reports show growth in membership and liberality which are remarkable in a church so recently founded. While great things have been accomplished this church has large obligations. We believe that it must still receive assistance from the Conference. An effort should be encouraged to raise thoughout the Conference enough money to reduce the debt to the mortgage of $30,000, and we recommend that the Conference make a substantial appropriation on the interest of the debt.

The Treasurer's Report is herewith given.

FRED. P. ADKINS, President. R. L. SHIPLEY, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Closed Churches

While I have not been neglectful of this work committed to me, very little has been done either in opening or disposing of these churches. It is frequently a difficult problem.

The church at Reedsville has been sold for $1,100.00, and the money is being used in the building of the new church at Burgess Store on Northumberland Charge.

With the approval of the Board of Managers, I offered the Shiloh Church, on Dorchester Circuit, to the congregation of Vienna to be used as a Social Hall.

The same offer was made to the pastor of Quantico for the Green Hill Church. Some persons in the vicinity of Green Hill Church have strenuously opposed the disturbing of this building. In both of these cases, hte buildings are rapidly deteriorating and in a few years will become delapidated. It has been impossible to open them or sell them, and it occurred to me that this was a wise disposition to make of them.

I have sold Bambury Church. The furniture has been given to the new church in Smyrna.

Fairview on Bedford and Oak Hill on Prince George remain closed. I visited Prince George during the summer. The best offer I had for Oak Hill was $100.

Greensboro Church also remains closed. In a letter received recently from Clinton B. Jarman, he states that, in his opinion, there is no prospect at present for the opening of this church. I understand the Deed to this church contains a Revertor. The parsonage in Greensboro is rented and after deducting expenses, the balance is applied on debt.

Respectfully submitted.

J. M. SHERIDAN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUPERANNUATES

(See Journal, page 30)

Your Committee on Superannuates respectfully submits the following report:

We are glad to state that we have been able to pay the superannuates in full in the past year. This is especially gratifying in view of the increased allotments to each of the superannuates.

RECOMMENDATIONS

 We recommend that the assessment on the district be the same as last year, $7,000.00.

II. We recommend in accordance with the fourth recommendation of Committee on Superannuates of our previous session that the Superannuated Fund Claimants blanks be continued in form as at present, with the addition of a seventh question, viz.: "If a widow, how long were you in the active ministry with your husband?"

III. That the manner of apportionment be the same as last year.

Report I

COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE AND EDUCATION

(See Journal, page 27)

Your Committee on Literature and Education submits the following report:

We have had before us reports from the Board of Education, Western Maryland College, Westminster Theological Seminary and the Baltimore Book Directory. We rejoice in the ever increasing service which these agencies are rendering to the church, and bespeak for them a still greater devotion on the part of our entire Conference.

BALTIMORE BOOK DIRECTORY

Every department of the Directory shows commendable progress. The gross income from all departments exceeds that of last year by $13,000 and last year was itself a banner year. The printing plant continues to justify itself both by the character of its work and the profits therefrom. The Sunday School and Book departments also maintain their high quality of service and increased volume of business. This entire establishment and the character of its work are such as to give us pardonable pride and win our fullest support and patronage.

We congratulate the church upon having such faithful and efficient servants as Mr. Chas. E. Reiner, Jr., Agent, and Mr. Levine Price, Printer.

Dr. F. T. Benson, Editor, continues to give us a paper the equal of any in the field of denominational publications. We appreciate his masterful work and pledge him our best co-operation. We rejoice in the new subscriptions secured by the recent drive and most heartily endorse the President's plan for a similar drive during the coming Conference year, and also the Editor's goal "The church paper in every Methodist Protestant home."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dr. George H. Miller, Secretary of the Board of Education, deserves our commendation and co-operation in his efforts to unify and perfect our scheme of Christian Education. We take pleasure in noting the higher standard maintained and the increased enrollment by each of our educational Institutions. We urge all our pastors and churches to observe Educational Day when the work of the Board of Education may be presented and explained and a free-will offering taken for its support. Forty-nine orders for Educational Day programs in 1922 and sixty nine in 1923 shows a growing interest by the Conference in the importance of this special day, but this number is still far short of what it ought to be, The fact that eleven of the thirty-one men aided by this Board are from the Maryland Annual Conference ought to stir us to do larger things for the Board.

Recently the Board has undertaken a new work, that of aiding by way of loans worthy Methodist Protestant boys and girls of limited means to secure in our own colleges an Education. We wish that all those who have means might give the claims of the Student Loan Fund careful and serious consideration.

SEMINARY

"Wisdom is justified of her children." The enrollment of fortyeight students in the Seminary is nearly double that of last year. The fact that four denominations besides our own have students enrolled in the Seminary indicates that the high character of the work done by this Institution is being recognized beyond our own borders.

We heartily endorse the enlarged and standardized curriculum which the Seminary is maintaining.

The late Dr. Joseph B. Watson, of St. Mary's, West Virginia, in leaving a legacy to the permanent scholarship fund has set an example which we hope many others will follow.

We are glad that the campaign for a New Home for the President of the Seminary has met with marked success and that the home will be ready for occupancy this fall. Our prayer is that Hugh Latimer Elderdice may long be its occupant.

We recommend that each pastor preach at least one sermon during the Conference year on the call to the Gospel Ministry. We unanimously concur in the five recommendations made in the report of the Board of Governors. (See 5 Recommendations.)

WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE

We are all proud of Western Maryland College for its accomplishments and prospects. It has done a great work for the church and is greater today than ever. We note with pleasure the record enrollment of 748 students, also the fact that the Legislature of Maryland has appropriated $125,000 for a building, conditioned upon the College increasing its endowment fund by two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000). We recommend the re-endorsment of the plan for raising this additional endowment as submitted in President Ward's report. We pledge to him and the College our loyal support in everything that makes for the progress and security of Western Maryland College. We recommend that Dr. A. N. Ward be continued as President of the College for another year.

THE WESTMINSTER THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

In submitting the forty-second annual report of The Westminster Theological Seminary the Board of Governors are convinced that there are many improvements for which the Methodist Protestant Church ought to thank God and take courage.

Scholarship Fund. The Permanent Scholarship Fund has been increased by the legacy of Dr. Joseph B. Watson, St. Mary's, West Virginia, to the amount of $1,010.82, the same to be invested and the income to be used for training in the Seminary of young men from the West Virginia Conference.

Forward Movements. The Educational Standards have been lifted along three lines: (1) The Standardization of the Curriculum. The various Courses of Study have been so arranged as to meet the demands of the most approved Theological Seminaries. (2) The Admission of Women. They may now matriculate and pursue the courses of study on equal terms with men. The first year of this privilege has witnessed the enrollment of two women, one from New Jersey and one from Indiana. (3) Post-graduate Work. To meet an ever-increasing and persistent demand for more advanced Theological training arrangement has been made for Post-graduate work leading to the Degree of Bachelor, Master and Doctor of Sacred Theology. In these Courses of Study there are now enrolled ten students. Moreover, the Seminary is preparing to give Special Courses for Deaconesses, Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Workers, Home and Foreign Missionaries, and Leaders in General Religious Education.

Enrollment. The year closes with the largest enrollment in the History of the Seminary, the number being forty-eight. Not only is there an increase from our Methodist Protestant firesides, but several sister denominations want what we give; and so the Episcopalian Church has sent one student, the Presbyterian Church one, the Methodist Episcopal Church two, and the United Brethren Church four.

New Home for the President of the Seminary. This work was inaugurated at the session of the Annual Conference in Chestertown, 1922. Only a start was made during the ensuing year and the Conference of 1923 in Baltimore called again with louder voice to the Maryland pastors and churches; and as usual they responded with a team-work that promises speedy success. The few churches that have not yet made their contributions will be visited by the President of the Seminary so soon as it suits their convenience. The contract has been awarded, the work begins immediately, and by the close of next September it will be ready for occupancy. It is also a joy to report that the Pittsburgh Conference has agreed to build another Cottage for another Professor, and when these two residences shall have been completed ample provision will be afforded all our teaching force.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the pastors call the attention of their young people to the different Courses of Study which the Seminary has prepared for the training of Religious Leadres, especially emphasizing the fact that all Courses of Study are open to Women.

2. That the pastors continue with renewed diligence their work of laying the claims of the Ministry upon their bright, consecrated young men to the end that our many vacant pulpits may be supplied, and that they keep the Seminary authorities in touch with any prospective candidates.

- 3. That the pastors urge upon our laymen the necessity of immediately contributing to the Scholarship, Endowment and Library Funds, and also providing legacies for the same.
- 4. That all churches that have not yet contributed to the President's Parsonage arrange to do so as speedily as possible and that the payment of subscriptions be prompt so that no debt may be incurred.

Report of the President of Western Maryland College

Westminster, Maryland, April 2, 1924.

To the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church:

I have the honor of submitting my fourth annual report to the Maryland Annual Conference.

The enrollment in the college and preparatory school for the present year is the largest in the history of the college. The total enrollment is 478. This increased enrollment is taxing to the utmost the resources of the college. When it is kept in mind that the tuitions that students pay provides only 39% of the actual cost of education, it ought to be increasingly apparent to the friends of the college that something must be done to add to the financial resources of the institution. Unless we have additional funds with which to conduct the school it will be necessary to reduce the enrollment and the number of the teachers employed or to increase the charges. We are doing everything possible to keep the charges down to the point where students of moderate means can secure a college education.

Plans are maturing to start a campaign to raise $1,100,000 for the college. The Legislature of Maryland has made an appropriation of $125,000 for a building conditioned upon the friends of the college raising $250,000 additional endowment. This is a distinct challenge to the church and I feel confident that this amount will be raised.

I wish to call the attention of the Conference to the action taken at the last Conference concerning a campaign in the churches. The plan was approved to raise annually in the churches for endowment funds for four consecutive years an amount equal to $1.00 per member for every member of the charge. It is expected that this campaign will be inaugurated immediately following the General Conference in May. I trust that there will be a generous response on the part of our ministers and laymen to this appeal.

A. N. WARD, President.

Baltimore Book Directory

Baltimore, Md., April 2, 1924.

To the Members of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church:

Dear Brethren.

We take pleasure in submitting to the Conference our annual report of the Baltimore Book Directory for the year ending February 29, 1924.

We have had a very successful year in all of the Departments of the business. You will find the financial statement herewith attached complete in the detailed exposition of our operations.

The Methodist Protestant shows no decrease in its appeal to the people and their response has been most gratifying during the year. We, of course, have not reached our goal of a paper in every home, and that certainly must be the ideal to set forth. We still believe that the way to meet this situation is to put the paper in the Budget, as we have stated so many times before. It would be most gratifying if some of the larger churches of this Conference would at least try this out for one year, and see whether it is practical. We will show an increase over last year of some three hundred subscriptions. Since the closing of this report, however, we have received between three and four hundred subscriptions, so that the list today is close to 6,500; fully two thousand beyond any mark that has been set in any previous year, save during the The President of the Maryland Conference, Dr. Humphreys, in co-operation with the Directory, put on a drive in February that has netted us between seven and eight hundred new subscriptions. We are very grateful for this co-operation on the part of the President of the Conference. We express our hearty appreciation of the co-operation of the ministers of this Conference—without them we could not succeed with them all things are possible. It is still true that the paper is not paying expenses, but we are giving a great deal more for the money than we could afford, except for the co-operation of the other branches of the business. There are only three ways by which this paper can be made self-supporting. The first is, we must have at least twenty thou-This is not likely to occur very soon. The second sand subscribers. thing is, that the endowment of the paper should be large enough to take care of the deficit. The third, is to clutter the paper with advertisements to such an extent as would seriously interfere with its constituency. We find an increased aversion on the part of our readers to having the paper over-balanced with advertising.

The Printing Plant is still making good, though not making a large amount of money. We are having The Methodist Protestant printed very much cheaper than we could get it printed elsewhere, and this ought to be considered in connection with the operations of the plant, because if a regular price were charged, such as we would have to pay to printers around Baltimore, the net result would indicate a very much larger The business of this year has reached the splendid sum of $34,-796.76, an increase of $3.528.51 over last year. The net profit this year amounts to $1,121.60. The work that we are putting out is receiving the highest commendation from our customers, and we are not only getting a large amount of business from the church, but a great deal more outside the church. We are in need of an increase of machinery, but that has been impossible to install at our present location. When we get into our own new quarters we hope to enlarge the business considerably. We appeal to the people of our own church, so far as they can, to patronize our own printing plant. We have built up a splendid church envelope department in connection with our printing plant and during the past year we have supplied one and a half million envelopes to our own and other churches. The use of the Duplex Envelope in the Sunday School is coming into larger recognition, increasing the income of the Sunday School from one to two hundred percent in the experience of a number of our ministers. We suggest to the ministers of the Conference that they install this system in their Sunday School and we will supply the envelopes at a comparatively small cost. Mr. C. L. Price, the efficient superintendent of the printing plant, is always on the job and is getting a gracious reputation by his suavity of manner and by his spirit of accommodation in his dealing with our constituency.

Our Sunday School and Book Departments are still progressing and we are pleased to report a net profit in the Sunday School Department amounting to $3,509.47 and a profit in the Merchandise Department amouting to $7,641.47. We are in position to supply all the demands of our denomination for such material as will make for a better and more efficient administration of the church, Sunday School and other departments. We urge upon our churches to co-operate with us in placing our own Sunday School periodicals in the schools, that are not now using We are supplying eleven periodicals, covering the new Group Graded plan of lessons, as well as the complete series of graded Sunday School publications. One of the outstanding features in connection with our local business is the splendid growth in the business through the mail and store departments. We are practically the only house in Baltimore catering to the needs of the churches, and have found a very gratifying response from our own as well as other churches in these departments. We are looking forward to the time which will permit us to have a great deal more space for the proper display of our goods and thus command a greater support on the part of our constituency.

In summarizing the operations of the business we report a total business of all departments of $151,987.75, or an increase of $11,124.17 over last year. We have just completed a period of twenty years of the Book Concern under the control of the church and it is an interesting study to go over the records of these past twenty years and note the splendid increase. For the information of the Conference, we would report that the volume of business handled this past year was twice as much as that of four years ago and three times as much as that of eight years ago. The gross profits this year from the business amount to $12,272.54. An item appearing in our report covering rent for building at 316 North Charles Street amounting to $4,892.16 decreases our net profit considerably this year. The net result while not large is gratifying. A careful study of our assets and liabilities will reveal the fact that the relation of assets to liabilities is on a ratio of five to one, giving us a splendid rating in the markets of the world.

Dr. F. T. Benson is devoted to his task and constantly increasing in popularity with the church. His influence and prestige as an Editor of ability is becoming more widely known and appreciated by the reading public. In him we have certainly the right man in the right place.

Mr. Charles Reiner, Jr., our publishing agent, has developed marked business ability in his wise and safe conduct of the interests committed to his care. He grows stronger year by year with the business world and with the church constituency.

Our employees by their efficiency and co-operation have contributed in a very large degree to the success of the year's work, for which we hereby express due appreciation. We gratefully acknowledge the generous support given to the Book Concern by this Conference, especially by the ministers, who have ever been loyal to this department of the church work. With your continued loyal support we cannot fail, but must succeed even in a larger measure than heretofore.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. HADDAWAY, President.

Report J COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

(See Journal, page 28)

Your Committee on Young People's Work having carefully considered the matters brought before it presents the following recommendations:

First. The work of our Union Missionary, Rev. C. S. Heininger, of Kalgan, China, be approved and that we give him our hearty financial support through every Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Society in the Conference.

Second. That we enthusiastically endorse the program of the Board of Young People's Work as outlined by the General Secretary and urge that Rally Day be observed in all our Sunday Schools. We also express our approval of the four year Standard Graded Course as suggested for the Institutes of our Denomination.

Third. That we endorse the four year Standard Graded Course of the Board of Young People's Work and recommend that it be adopted in all our summer and winter Institutes, thereby giving proper credits and grades for work done.

Fourth. We rejoice in the success of the Young People's Winter Institute held at Starr Church last February and recommend that similar Institutes be held in all districts of the Conference where it is possible to hold them.

Fifth. That we endorse the Week-day Religious Education program as outlined by the Maryland Sunday School Association. And if the Educational Boards make possible the working of such a program we recommend the hearty co-operation of our Conference.

Sixth. That we as a denomination should have official representation on the Board of Directors of the Maryland Sunday School Association. And that this Conference elect one minister and one layman to represent it officially upon such a Board.

Seventh. That all our Sunday Schools and Christian Endeavor Societies send representatives to our Summer Institute at Westminster. And that Rallies be held in the various districts giving publicity to the Institute and appealing to the Young People for its support.

Eighth. Realizing the imperative need of funds to finance the great Summer Institute, such as we now have, we urge that all Sunday Schools and Christian Endeavor Societies send their dues to the Treasurer promptly, we recommend that all Sunday Schools and Christian Endeavor Societies pay two cents (2c) per member with a minimum rate of two dollars ($2.00) and that Intermediate and Junior Christian Endeavor Societies pay one dollar ($1.00) per year.

Ninth. That the Young People pledge their loyal support to the President of the Conference in his program for stewardship and tithing during the month of October.

Tenth. We heartily endorse the Friends in Christ Chart which is the accepted program for the Christian Endeavor Societies of the Maryland Conference. And we urge its use by every Christian Endeavor Society.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. ROBERTS, MRS. ELLA GRAY, N. C. CLOUGH, MATTHEW PICKETT, J. EARL CUMMINGS.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNION OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

(See Journal, page 28)

To the Maryland Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:

While our Committee on Young People's Work will doubtless bring to our attention all the important phases of this work, and make such recommendations as may properly cover the scope of our Union activities, yet I desire, as President of this great Union to call your attention to some of the most important and far-reaching developments in the work of our young people.

I am sure that our pastors have long since discovered the enormous possibilities in the local field of even a little attention to the young people in our churches and communities. We are rapidly coming to see that no element of our people in the churches and various communities around us respond more readily and heartly to the attention we give them than do our young people. The results accruing from the amount of time and energy we spend for them are larger than those effecting any other part of our pastoral duties.

Our Summer Institute at Western Maryland College has become the largest and certainly the most important gathering of our church people we have. Last year about three hundred delegates registered in the various group classes of our Institute. These represented a larger number of the charges and churches of the Conference than ever before. To say nothing of the far-reaching results of the course of training taken by these three hundred workers from the local churches, the definite enlistment of seven life-work recruits and of sixty-four special workers in the Sunday Schools, Christian Endeavor societies and other organizations of the churches, is an achievement beyond the measure of any human mind to estimate.

My predecessor, Rev. E. A. Sexsmith, now General Secretary of our Board of Young People's Work, is contributing an invaluable service to all our Conference unions, especially in the establishment and development of summer schools of methods throughout our denominational field. He has now prepared a most excellent course of study for all our unions, which in its provisions is simple enough for, and adaptable to the smallest of our Conferences, and yet complex and thorough enough to be adequate to the needs of our larger unions now engaged in advanced work. The advanced features of this course of study will be utilized this summer at our Institute for the benefit of the many delegates who have already had one or more years of study therein. Other classes for first year work will be provided for beginners.

Our Institute this year will be held July 28 to August 3. Let me most earnestly urge the members of this Conference to see that every charge and local church have one or more delegates in attendance at this Institute. The cost is not so great that it cannot be easily provided by the Sunday schools and C. E. societies; and the investment will bring dividends that cannot be counted in dollars and cents. Let me also request that wherever possible this year the superintendents of our Sunday-schools be sent to this Institute. This alone, if accomplished, will inaugurate a new era indeed in the Sunday-school work of our Conference.

Let me call attention to the fact that our Conference union missionary, Rev. C. S. Heininger, of Kalgan, China, will be in America and will attend our Institute this year, teaching a group class on foreign missions, and making one of our evening addresses.

Our Sunday-schools and C. E. societies are contributing about $1,500 annually to foreign missions. In addition to this we have recently sent to China a new tent for the work of our missionary.

In renewing our request for a contribution of two cents (2c) per capita, or a minimum of not less than two dollars ($2.00) from each Sunday-school and C. E. Society in the Conference, and of at least one dollar ($1.00) from each Junior and Intermediate Society, in order that the expenses of this Union may be met without embarassment, we want to remind the members of this Conference that our own union workers are doing, without any remuneration, as thorough and as valuable a work for our young people as is being done by salaried secretaries and workers of interdenominational associations. Yet many of our churches are contributing large sums to these interdenominational bodies, who are ignoring altogether the needs of our own union. This seems so grossly unfair that a hint ought to be sufficient to correct it. Brethren, let us show our gratitude to our own workers who are gratuitously and tirelessly endeavoring to train our young folk, at least to the extent of meeting the expenses of the union work. Please see that these contributions are sent promptly to our Treasurer, Rev. W. P. Roberts, 3229 Harford Ave.. LEONARD B. SMITH. Baltimore, Maryland.

REPORT K

MORAL REFORM AND SOCIAL SERVICE

In the fight for a better social and moral order there is a call for aggressive warfare. It is in His name that we go forth believing that the forces of righteousness shall triumph. "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." There can be no question as to where the church ought stand in these days of conflict. It should be with a spirit of love and interest in men's souls that we throw ourselves into the fight. To make men bitter critics of the church or to consign their souls to perdition, is not the task of the church. The only way to usher in a better social and moral order is by leading people to a life of obedience to the commands of Jesus Christ.

We cannot refrain from protesting against the race track evil. To be among the few states that countenance this evil is not an enviable position to hold, and we would to God that Maryland would banish forever this form of sport that has been, is, and always will be, a breeder of vice and lawlessness.

We realize that the Lord's Day is looked upon by many with very little reverance. The Christian Church must stand for a Scriptural observance of this day of rest and worship.

We deplore the lack of respect for the Sabbath that is being manifested on all sides to-day. We especially call attention to the deplorable condition in Washington. At the capitol of our nation we should find all that is for the advancement and preservation of our nation recognized and held up in the very best way.

1. We recommend the Lord's Day Alliance to all our people, reaffirm our pledge of co-operation with it in its work, and recommend that all our Sunday Schools take a membership in the same.

2. We urge all our Sunday Schools to use the World-wide Lord's Day Survey program prepared by the Lord's Day Educational Comm. te..

3. We endorse and recommend the following program submitted by the Lord's Day Alliance.

- (a) That the Conference territory be divided into four districts and that in each district a Committee of three be appointed to co-operate with the Lord's Day Alliance in carrying out their program.
- (b) That this Committee be composed of one pastor, one superintendent of Sunday School, and one woman.
- (c) That the four districts be as follows: No. 1 Peninsula District, No. 2 Baltimore District, including Baltimore, Baltimore and Harford Counties, No. 3 Washington District, in cluding Washington, D. C., Montgomery County, Anne Arundel County and Howard County. No. 4 Western Maryland District, including Carroll, and Frederick Counties, and the rest of the State.
- (d) That the President of the Conference, and the Conference member of the Lord's Day Alliance Executive Committee, appoint these Committees.
- (e) That the President of the Conference, the Conference member of the Lord's Day Alliance Executive Committee, and the Lord's Day Alliance Superintendent, be ex-officio members of the district Committees.
- (4) We recommend that we comply with the request of the Lord's Day Alliance and elect one of the members of this Conference to membership on the Lord's Day Executive Committee.

We desire to express our appreciation of the fine work done by the Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance in helping to kill the Sunday Motion Picture Bill which came before the last Maryland Assembly.

We are persuaded that our country is determined to remain a dry nation, and that every day that passes prohibition becomes more thoroughly appreciated and more deeply entrenched in the life of our people; but let us not forget that there is much work to be done. We deplore the lack of vision, and courage on the part of the late Maryland Assembly in its failure to pass an enforcement act.

In many places wet officials are elected or hold office because so many Christian voters fail to make their power and influence at the polls felt. A prayer for a dry country that does not express itself in a vote for dry men on election day is worthless. We urge our pastors to impress upon our people their obligations as Christian citizens and voters.

We wish to reaffirm our faith and confidence in the Anti-Saloon League. No one is more pleased over its mistakes and misfortunes than the liquor traffic and the law-breaking element that we have in our midst. The Anti-Saloon League has done noble work, and the anathemas of the enemy should cause us to increase our support.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS RANDALL, Chairman. WILLIAM M. SNYDER, Secretary. H. CLYDE GRIMES, J. ALFRED SIMPSON.

Report L BENEVOLENT AGENCIES

(See Journal, page 26)

Your Committee on Benevolent Agencies has had two papers referred to them. One a request from the Near East Relief that we adopt the following resolutions:

BE IT RESOLVED:

- 1. That the Conference express again its great sympathy for and interest in the work of the Near East Relief and that our churches make such arrangements as they may desire for the presentation of the cause to their people.
- 2. That we assure our Government officials that America supports them in the efforts that have been made to adjust international relationships, and will support them in whatever future steps may be necessary to protect Christian minorities and bring abiding justice and peace among nations.
 - 3. That we urge continued intercession on these matters. We recommend the adoption of these resolutions.

The other paper—the report of the Deaconess Board, which is herewith presented. We note with pleasure the fact that the home at 2512 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, Md., will be paid for this year. This will allow a greater support for the work itself. We note with regret the continued illness of Miss Ford, but with pleasure the assurance of the doctor that she will speedily and completely recover. We concur in the request of the Board that the Conference set aside one Sunday during the year as "Deaconess Day," when the pastors and church leaders will present to the various services during the day the need of young women to enter the deaconess work and suggest that in keeping with the President's recommendation in his report of a month devoted to stewardship and full-time service that that Sunday be one of the Sundays of that month.

We concur in the request of the Board that the appropriation of $2,500.00 from the Conference be continued during the coming year.

While is was not officially referred to us, nevertheless this committee concurs in the recommendation, No. 9, of the President's report, which recommendation reads:

"That a Special Committee be raised by this Conference authorized to make an exhaustive study of the Deaconess Work, with a view to determining.

- (a) The real need of the District for such a work.
- (b) The outstanding needs of the work as it now functions.
- (c) The methods, proven successful—by other denominations—, that may be adaptable to our needs and resources.
- (d) And whatever else in the purview of the committee may present itself for consideration.

That this committee be requested to meet the Deaconess Board at its first regular meeting after Conference and confer with them; and thereafter attend such meetings of the board and board committees as may further aid them in their study.

That this committee be prepared to report its findings at the next session of Conference with such specific recommendations as they may deem necessary and wise."

With reference to the motion which was referred to this committee yesterday by the Conference that this committee serve as a nominating committee for the members of the board whose terms expire this Conference, the President calls our attention to the manual which reads:

"Votes for all Conference Officers, the Committee on Appeals, Standing District Committee, Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference and all other officers of all other organizations shall be by ballot."

While we have had no paper referred to us relative to the aid afforded through appropriations of the St. John's Board of Beneficence and the Pipe Creek Benevolent Society to various enterprises of our Conference, yet we desire to renew an expression of appreciation of the valued co-operation of these two benevolent agencies.

We again call attention to the excellent work of the Maryland Tract Society and the Maryland Bible Society, and commend them to the sympathetic co-operation of all our churches.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DEACONESS WORK

Though the Board has had some perplexing problems to solve this past year, as during every year of its history, yet we are convinced that the work done by the deaconesses of our Conference is one of the most necessary of any carried on by the churches. Those who have made use of these consecrated young women are ready to testify to this truth.

Some kinds of work can be done better by men than by women; but some other kinds of work can be done better by women than by men, as all know. The deaconess work in the Maryland Annual Conference was instituted because it was needed; and as we have accomplished so much, it seems very important that every minister in the Conference, and most laymen, should become alive to its importance and active in its support.

"The objects and purposes of the deaconess work," according to the charter of the Board of Managers, "are to establish a Home for the education and preparation of deaconesses, nurses and female church workers and social workers of all kinds." This sets forth a great program for our Deaconess Board, and puts an efficient force at the disposal of the pastors and officials of the churches to help do the work which is most needed to be done.

The deaconess work is absolutely under the direction of the Maryland Annual Conference, this Conference having the full authority to elect the entire Board of Managers of five ministers, five laymen and five women.

The Deaconess Home, at 2512 North Charles Street, Baltimore, Md., is a splendid three-story brick building, in excellent repair, fully furnished with good substantial furniture, and is worth, at least, $9,000.00 to $10,000.00, in fee, with but $500.00 indeb.edness, which amount we hope to pay during the coming Conference year, if at all possible. During the year, we have installed a small furnace to supplement the other one, in real cold weather, and which will heat the home in mild weather, This extra furnace cost which proves an economical arrangement. $225.00.

We still have six young women in the Home, as follows: M ss Lilli n N. DeMoss, Head Deaconess, Miss Mary E. Ford, Miss Maybelle E. Waples, Miss Bessie L. Johnson, Miss Elizabeth S. Wells and Miss Ethel G. Beach. Miss Myrtle Baus is completing her second year of her three year course in nursing at the Method.st Episcopal Hospital in Philadelphia. cently expressed her determination to return to the Deaconess Home and to the Deaconess Work in the Maryland Annual Conference, when her course is completed. Miss Baus is a graduate of the Deaconess Training School in Baltimore, and is a full-fledged deaconess, having been 'set apart" as a deaconess by the Maryland Conference. Miss Ford has not had the best health during the year, but we have hope, by the advice of her physician, that she will fully recover and be able to do full time service in the near future.

Miss Bessie L. Johnson and Miss Elizabeth S. Wells, having successfully completed a probation of two years of successive service under the direction of the Deaconess Board, will be "set apart" to the noble office of Deaconess at this Conference. They have also been faithful students at the Deaconess Training School and hope to graduate in May.

The Board feels that the pastors, in general, have not yet recognized the value of the deaconesses in their church work, as they have not made application for their services throughout the Conference district as it seems to us that they should have done. The Deaconess Board does not make any charge for the services of the deaconesses, as all the churches are assessed for the support of the Deaconess Work. However, we do require that all traveling expenses and board be paid by charges out-side of Baltimore, and when working in the city of Baltimore, we require $6.00 per week to pay for board, and the carfare must be met by the church being served. And, while we do not insist on it, yet we suggest that, if at all possible, the pastors take a free-will offering for the expenses of the Deaconess Home and of maintaining the work. Some have expressed themselves unfavorably to this free-will offering; but, those who have had the efficient services of these young women, do not find fault with this easy arrangement. We think, that, if all the facts were realized by every one, there would be no objection to this plan, as we receive only $2,500.00 as an appropriation from the Annual Conference, and we pay $500.00 of that on the mortgage each year, leaving us but $2,000.00. Our expenses for maintaining the work has run, for the past several years, to more than $4,000.00 per year. It would be a worthwhile financier who could make the sum of $2,500.00 stretch over an expense of $4,000.00, and more.

Seeing how far the appropriation falls short of meeting the expences of the Deaconess Work, we respectfully request that every one will try to help to "boost" the work by kindly word, and by donations of money and provisions for the Home.

Mr. H. K. Muller has continued to give special attention to the needs of the Home, and has kept it in perfect repair.

The Board again respectfully requests the Annual Conference to set aside a Sunday during the Conference year as "Deaconess Day," when the pastors and church leaders will present to the various services during the day the need of young women to enter the Deaconess Work.

We also respectfully request, that the Annual Conference will continue the present appropriation of $2,500.00 for the ensuing year.

The Board wishes to express its appreciation to the churches and friends who have donated either money or provisions for the Home, and we wish to ask that they will continue to remember us during the coming year.

The Board desires to thank Rev. Louis Randall, D. D., Rev. A. S. Beane, Rev. W. P. Roberts, Rev. W. F. Wright, Rev. W. A. Melvin, Rev. R. W. White and Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, D. D., members of the faculty of the Deaconess Training School for their faithful and efficient services, given freely in instructing the students in the Training School.

The terms of Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, D. D., Rev. A. S. Beane, Mr. A. R. Lewis, Mrs. Mae Volk Sudman and Mr. William B. Gilligan expire at this session of the Annual Conference, and their successors must be elected by the Conference.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OFFICIAL RELATIONS

(See Journal, page 33)

The personal report of each minister has been examined. According to these reports we find that twelve pastors have given a negative report to the following question, "Is your Board of Trustees incorporated?" We find that according to this report 23 charges did not supply disciplines to the newly admitted members. We also find that 26 charges did not elect a lady visitor to the Church Home.

91

The Secretary of the Board of Education has submitted a list of the names of the men indebted to the Board, and we find that quite a number have not met their obligation. Report N REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS

We have read with the deepest interest the reports of the Missionary Boards that have been referred to us, and record our pleasure at the development of the work entrusted to their care, at the same time commending them for their wise management.

Both the Foreign and Home Boards in their messages to us bring to our attention the fact that the opportunities are greater than ever before.

The appalling earthquake and fires of September 1, 1923, in Japan nearly wiped out all the property of the Board of Foreign Missions in that region and seriously interrupted the work. We are pleased to note, however, that considerable progress has been made in restoring and repairing some of the churches and parsonages, but call the attention of the Conference to the fact that a large part of the actual losses are still unprovided for.

We desire to express to our Missionaries in Japan our deepest sympathy to them in the trying hours of difficulty, suffering and danger through which they passed. We assure them that we are proud of them and that the church at home has not ceased to pray for them, and we reverently thank God for the preservation of their lives. We say to them. "Stand fast in the faith" remembering the message of Him who hath said, "Lo! I am with you always."

The heroic and magnificent effort of the students of Nagoya College in raising a large part of twenty-five thousand dollars used to repair and improve the college is a great challenge to the young people of the denomination.

We also note that Dr. C. S. Heininger, of Kalgan, China, will return to America on furlough in time for the General Conference. We bid him a most hearty welcome.

We are pleased to record the increased progress of the Board of Foreign Missions and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in China and India as well as Japan. The Methodist Protestant Church must not fail to do her part in answer to the call for both men and money to farther the work in any of our mission fields.

The report of Dr. Beck, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, shows that the work of the Board has never been in better condition than at present. Not only have the finances been better, but the year has been a notable one in the building and dedication of churches. record again our grateful appreciation for the assistance given to Peninsula, Wilmington, Delaware and the Emanuel Church, Philadelphia. We endorse the plans of the Board for the enlargment of their work and urge all our churches to observe Easter Sunday with an appropriate program and a large offering for the work.

Both the Woman's Home Society and Woman's Foreign Society show great improvement in their work, and we heartily congratulate our noble women for their untiring efforts in caring for the work, given to them.

The school of Missions has proved a great success and will be continued the coming year.

We wish to express our appreciation of the work done by Dr. T. R. Woodford, (Our own Grenfell), in the mountains of Kentucky, at Pine Ridge. We pledge to him and the work under his direction our most hearty support and assure him of our love and earnest prayers.

The matter of the Business Girls Home in Baltimore was referred to your Committee by the Maryland Branch of the Woman's Home Missionary Society with the suggestion that members of this Conference be appointed as an advisory board in the management of the Home. We feel that the matter is of much magnitude and so much is envolved in it that:

(a) We recommend that the entire matter be referred to the General Conference.

(b) That a most earnest effort be made to collect at an early date the balance of unpaid pledges given to the Earthquake Relief Fund.

(c) Because of the great need of our work in Japan, we recommend that special attention be given to the Children's Day offering this year in every Sunday School in the Conference in a united effort to increase the funds for this work.

Maryland Branch of the Women's Home Missionary Society.

The year 1923-24 has been a most wonderful year for Maryland Branch, Woman's Home Missionary Society. The doors of 31 churches have been opened to us—762 women have joined with the rest of us in our worthy work. We take this as an endorsement of what we have done, and what we aim to do. Our total membership is 1,905—1,658 adult members and 247 young people, 56 adult auxiliaries and 15 young people's organizations.

Our financial condition is good. Maryland Branch had $2,925 to send to the Board as her part for the work throughout the denomination and this has all been paid. The total amount of money raised was $4,928.85.

The Girl's Home is still a project of the future, but on the other hand is of very much concern at the present time. We expect, as the other 15 Branches grow and their revenue to the Board becomes larger, Maryland will be able to keep more of her money here and not send $2,500 to Pine Ridge as we are doing this year. The Girl's Home was put in the budget this year, which means that $675 comes back to Maryland Branch every year toward the support of the Home.

The following officers were elected for the year:

President-Mrs. E. A. Craig.

Treasurer-Mrs. W. B. Gilligan.

Recording Secretary-Mrs. W. P. Roberts.

Corresponding Secretary-Mrs. E. J. Heath.

Respectfully submitted, MRS. EDWIN J. HEATH.

Rev. R. L. Shipley, Secretary Maryland Annual Conference., Salisbury, Md.

Dear Brother:

It is with pleasure that the Maryland Branch Woman's Foreign Missionary Society sends greetings to the Maryland Annual Conference. in session at Salisbury, Md., and submits its annual report to March 4, 1924.

The past year the work of the W. F. M. S. in the foreign field has been most discouraging. The terrible disaster in Japan causing us such heavy property losses, the slowness of the church at home to respond to the appeal of the Japanese Earthquake Relief Fund, and the passing away of Miss Long, the founder and head of our India work, has caused us many heartaches.

Even so we have much for which to praise "God." The lives of all our Missionaries in Japan were spared. "He" made it possible through generous friends for us to send a Deputation of two ladies to visit and study conditions in all our Mission Stations in India, China and Japan. "He" has blessed our work at home. All the work carried on through the various Departments has been most encouraging.

STATISTICS

Japan-5 scholarships @ $75.00; 1 in Union College @ $125.00; 4 native workers @ $120.00; 1 native worker @ $140.00.

India-14 scholarships @ $35.00; 1 in training school @ $100.00; 1 native worker @ 75.00.

Have added 5 Life members, 5 Memorial members, and 4 Perpetual members.

Young People's Work-16 Precious Jewel Societies, 4 Sunshine Circles, 3 Mission Bands, and 2 Young People's Societies with a total membership of 430.

We have added 6 Auxiliaries this year, Fawn Grove, Wilmington, Brandenburg, Norrisville, Stewartstown and Seaford.

Have 55 Auxiliaries, 53 of which are active.

Have 2,248 members on roll.

Receipts for the year $7,755.76.

The church school of Missions has passed the experimental stage. Three last year and twelve this year has proven its worth. We recommend this plan to all the churches as the best as well as the most popular method of Missionary education.

Realizing the need of Missions, special emphasis will be given this Department this year.

The new Department of Tithers and Intercessors ought and we trust will educate many not now Tithers to recognize their obligations as stewards of "God's" manifold goodness.

If all Christians were Tithers there would be no lack of funds for all church needs.

Respectfully submitted, MRS. H. M. LEAS, Corresponding Secretary.

Report O

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME FOR THE AGED

Your Committee has carefully considered the contents of the several papers referred to and submit the following report:

It is gratifying to note continued response on the part of churches and individuals in sending and bringing donations to the Home. The donations are always of a valuable character and liberal, and it is encouraging to know that quite a few who are not Methodist Protestants are among the donors. We accept this as a testimony to the fact that this beautiful charity is appreciated beyond the borders of the church. It should stimulate more Methodist Protestants to respond to the needs of the Home. We hope the churches of the Conference will take note of this and act accordingly.

We recommend that every Pastor of the Conference call special attention to the Home at some time or times during the year from the pulpit, and that he make it a point to appoint the "right woman" for a lady visitor from his appointment, and then see that she gets in touch with the Home as soon as possible.

The Home visitation day at the Summer Conference and Young People's Convention last summer was made the Annual Donation and Visitors Day and was a great success in every way.

We recommend that the same plan be adopted by the Summer Conference and Young People's Convention for this year and that each pastor of the Conference try to plan for the lady visitor from his church be present at the Home on that day.

We recommend that all Methodist Protestants visiting in or near Westminster make it a point to visit the Home, and that churches within reach plan visitations to it at least once a year and more when possible.

We recommend that Dr. E. C. Makosky and J. Pearre Wantz and T. W. Mather be re-elected as trustees.

'We recommend that the assessment for the Home for the ensuing year be $8,000. (Ref. to Com. on Finance.)

BOARD OF MANAGERS

TO THE MARYLAND ANNUAL CONFERENCE. Sirs:

I beg to submit herwith the annual report of the Board of Managers of the Home for the Aged of Westminster, Md., for the year ending March 15, 1924.

There are in the Home at present twenty-two guests, which is the limit of the house.

There were no deaths during the past year and less sickness than usual.

We would respectfully call your attention to the fact that the terms of the following trustees expire with this session: Dr. E. C. Makosky, J. Pearre Wantz and T. W. Mather. Dr. F. T. During the past year it was necessary to install a new furnace, put on a new roof, build a fence and other repairs, costing in all approximately $2,000.00. As there were no funds to meet this added expense a loan was contracted for as shown in the Treasurer's statement.

We respectfully ask that the appropriation for the coming year be made $8,000, that we may be able to clear up this indebtedness.

T. W. MATHER, GEORGE MATHER, J. L. NICHOLS.

Report of the Secretary of the Ladies' Board of Visitors to the Annual Meeting of the Board of Managers and Board of Visitors of the Home for the Aged of the Methodist Protestant Church.

March 19, 1924.

The Board is happy to report that there have been no deaths in the Home since the last annual meeting, March, 1923, and the general health conditions have been better than usual.

Several of the inmates, however, are not at all well, making it necessary for the Nurse to be in constant attendance upon them.

There are twenty-six in our family: twenty-two inmates, matron, nurse, cook and assistant.

Four applicants have been admitted during the year: Mrs. Marcella M. Arnold, Mrs. Emiline Chaney, Miss Laura H. Beauchamp and Miss Martha C. Hitch.

The Annual Donation and Visitors' Day was held during the Summer Conference and Young People's Convention at Western Maryland College in August. It was a great success financially and in the matter of attendance. A reception was given in the afternoon to all attending the two Conferences and the capacity of the HOME was taxed to its utmost, in entertaining them. Everyone had a good time, but especially did the OLD FOLKS enjoy having so many come to see them. Theirs is a very lonely life and we hope that the Young People's societies and the several organizations of the churches will make up parties to visit them often. Last year a number of the churches did this and it was quite pathetic to see how much the OLD FOLKS enjoyed the programs prepared for their entertainment. Can you imagine anything finer than a group of young people coming from Baltimore to sing Christmas carols to our Old Folks. Well, they not only did this, but they brought an individual gift for each one and the Christmas turkey for all. "The gift without the giver is bare," so don't send your gifts-bring them and visit with the Old Folks whenever possible.

The expenses have run along about as usual, but we have had to make some necessary repairs this year. We have had to put in one new furnace and repair the other; build a new fence; put on a new roof; renovate some rooms, and get some new floor-covering and mattresses.

The friends of the HOME always respond most generously to all of our appeals for help. We put a notice in the Methodist Protestant last fall asking for potatoes and we will not have to buy any. The response to the Christmas appeal was more than enough, for the treat and the extra will help us provide some comforts for which we have been planning sometime.

Forty-seven churches and a great many individuals sent donations. Some of the churches have sent two and three times during the year. The list of donations includes provisions of every kind: potatoes, groceries, canned fruit, jellies, cereals, flour, vegetables, eggs, honey, lard, soap, sausage, bacon, apples, apple-butter, bananas, turkeys, candy, supplies for the Hospital Room, clothing, linen, hams, oysters and money.

The following churches have sent donations. Laurel, Finksburg, Keen Memorial, Mt. Zion, Mt. Gilead, Denton, Norrisville, Stewartstown, Harmony Grove, New Market, Wattsville, Brandenburg, Providence, Whitehall, Harmony, Parkton, Taylor Memorial, Harrington, Deer Park, St. James, Worton, Parksley, Dover, Roby, First Church, Washington, Uniontown, Chestertown, Wesley Chapel, Fawn Grove, Mt. Tabor, Mt. Lebanon, West Baltimore, Grace of Pittsville Charge, Starr, Mt. Hermon, Lynchburg, Cockeysville, Grace of Baltimore, Linthicum Heights, North Carolina Avenue, St. John's, Allnutt Memorial, Cambridge, Georgetown, Newark, Wilton Heights, Shelemiah of Cecil, Wallace Memorial, Y. W. C. A. and Sunday School of Western Maryland College.

We wish to express our grateful appreciation to all kind friends who so generously remembered the HOME during the year.

The Ladies' Board of Visitors consists of: Mrs. Charles Billingslea, President; Mrs. Denton S. Gehr, Vice-President; Mrs. Carroll Albaugh, Recording Secretary; Mrs. W. R. McDaniel, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. George Mather, Miss Eva Herr and Mrs. J. Pearre Wantz.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CARROLL ALBAUGH, Secretary.

To Mrs. Albaugh's report, which covered a period up to January 15th, it is necessary to add the following to bring it up to date: The condition of Mrs. Laura H. Beauchamp who had entered the HOME on probation last November, had become such by the time of the February meeting of the Board as to require special consideration, and as by this time there was no hope of improvement and it had become manifest that the HOME was not the right place for her, it was decided to notify her friends to this effect, which was done, and accordingly Mr. Costin came for her, and she left in his care.

In the meantime Miss Mary L. Marley of Baltimore has applied for acceptance, and has complied with all requirements. She has been accepted by the Board and is expected to enter the HOME at any time.

MRS. W. R. McDANIEL, Secretary in Mrs. Albaugh's absence.

REPORT P.

The Maryland Educational Endowment Society (See Journal, page 22)

The Board of Managers of the society respectfully submits the following report for the Conference year ending April 1st, 1924.

The personnel and business management of the society have remained unchanged during the year.

The income of the Henrietta Gibson Fund has been used through the Board of Governors of the Westminster Theological Seminary in the education of young men for our ministry in accord with the requirements of the said trust.

The Trustees, because of the demands upon them in connection with the new building project, were not in a position to appropriate any funds to our society during the year. They will renew their needed help as soon as possible.

Report S

SUMMER CONFERENCE FOR MINISTERS, 1923

(See Journal, page 28)

The Summer Conference for Ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church of 1923 has passed into that history of our summer gatherings on old College Hill which has been replete with splendid achievements, and we cannot but believe far-reaching influences, as a record breaking gathering both with regards to the attendance and the splendid services rendered by the men chosen to treat the various interesting topics assigned for consideration.

One hundred and twenty-six ministers and preachers, and fifty ministers wives, a grand total of one hundred and seventy-six, being in attendance.

The addresses were all of a high order, our own men as well as the visiting speakers, acquiting themselves in a most credible manner.

We were delighted with the fine spirit of the Brethren from the Eastern and West Virginia Conferences. They endeared themselves to us by the hearty manner in which they participated in all the exercises, and the singing of the grand old hymns by the men from West Virginia will not soon be forgotten. We hope they will come again in ever increasing numbers, the Conference, according to its Constitution and By-laws, being open to Methodist Protestant ministers of any and every Conference in the connection, the only obligation imposed being the payment af $2.00 annual dues, plus the rate of board to be arranged with the College authorities.

Many complimentary things have been said about the Ministers Wives Conference under the able leadership of Mrs. A. Norman Ward, President, and we are but indulging the hope that out of this gathering as well as that of the ministers there shall come that inspiration and help that shall make for a greater, a more efficient, Methodist Protestant church.

We have been giving considerable thought to the preparation of the program for the Fourteenth Annual Session to be held at Westminster, Maryland, July 28th to August 4th, 1924, departing somewhat from the plan of the past two years in endeavoring to provide that help and inspiration which in the nature of the case—the multiplied duties of a busy pastorate—our men can get only by contact with those who have been able to specialize in their respective fields of thought.

Dr. Warner, of our own Conference, will conduct, each day, the early morning devotions, at 7 A. M. Rev. Forest E. Eager, D. D., teacher in Homiletics at Temple University, Philadelphia, who has deligted and inspired us in days gone by, will be with us during the entire week, speaking each morning on "Sermon Building as Based on Romans, the Twelfth Chapter." Rev. C. E. Forelines, D. D., Professor in our own Theological Seminary, will take up with us five talks on "Biblical Symbolism." We regret that we are not in position to name the third speaker of the morning, but efforts are being made to secure an able Archaeologist for that period. The afternoons will be given up to rest and recreation. We are delighted to announce the following speakers for the evening services; Monday evening, Rev. G. I. Humphreys, D. D., President of the Maryland Conference; Tuesday it is hoped to have Rev. Charles Heininger, our Missionary to China; Wednesday, Rev. Forest E. Dager, D. D., will deliver a humerous address; Thursday, Speaker to be announced later; Friday, Rev. Jas. H. Straughn, D. D., will conduct the Life Recruit service; Saturday evening will be given over to social activities.

The early morning service on the Sabbath will be a joint meeting with the young people. Special sermons will be preached at 10.30 A. M. and 8 P. M. by visiting Ministers.

We want here to record our most hearty appreciation of the many courtesies of Doctors Elderdice and Ward, and their very obliging assistants at the College and Seminary, and to show our appreciation of the very gracious hospitality of the past two years we trust that there will be no falling off, rather an increased interest and attendance at the Conference this summer.

The place this Conference has, and the need it is capable of filling in the lives of the men of our Conference and Church, is such that we feel no hesitancy whatever in asking the Conference for a continuance of the drawing account of $200.00 for the ensuing summer, only such part as is absolutely needed to carry on the work to be drawn.

The Treasurer's report will show an expenditure last year of $156.74 for bedding, the explanation of which is that the increased attendance at both the Summer Conference and the Young People's Institute was so great that we were forced to purchase twenty-five steel army cots and mattresses to take care of the men and their wives who were domiciled in the Seminary building. These cots and mattresses are carefully stored away, and will remain the property of the Summer Conference. An extra supply of blankets and pillows was bought and paid for by popular subscription, so that we are well equipped for a great gathering on the Hill of privilege.

RECOMMENDATIONS

First. The Maryland Conference to give this organization its heartiest support by calling upon all members of the Conference to enroll as members of the Summer Conference, whether they attend or not, and that all dues be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Summer Conference as soon after the close of the Annual Conference as possible, by the first of June.

Second. By asking that all Charges make it possible for their pastors to attend this summer gathering, where salaries will not permit the Charge defraying the expense of his attendance, only in rare instances would this exceed ½ of 1% at the most to any Charge, and the returns, where the men improve their opportunities, would more than compensate the outlay in more efficient service.

Third. By asking that the Charges do not deduct the period of the Conference from the regular vacation period of the pastor.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS RANDALL,
President Summer Conference.

Report of Committee on $100,000 Superannuate Fund.

(See Journal, page 34)

Your committee on the $100,000 Superannuate fund has had one meeting during the year. It has sought to encourage early and regular payments. Practically all the work of the committee has been done by the Treasurer, C. P. Nowlin.

Your committee believes we must press collections diligently in order to avoid appreciably shrinkage in the subscriptions.

REPORT U.

The Headquarter's Committee.

The Headquarters Committee presents the following report.

As announced in our last report we have consummated the deal for the property at 516 North Charles street, for $60,000.

The plans and specifications for the new building prepared by Mr. John R. Forsyth have been adopted and the contract has been awarded Thomas H. Hicks and Son for $95,000. The building has been under way now for some months and is, at this time, finished to the second story. The additional contracts which have been awarded are: Plumbing, $4,900;; Heating, $5,649; Wiring $2,500. The other contracts are in abeyance. Arrangements have been made to carry the debt for the loan with the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

We hope to have the building completed by the first of July or shortly thereafter.

We suggest that the Conference continue the committee with power to act for another year.

JAS. H. STRAUGHN, Chairman. FRANK A. BENSON, Secretary.

REPORT V.

Committee on Relocating President's Parsonage.

This committee, raised under Conference Authority, and duly empowered to act as per the intent of the conference, hereby reaches the following conclusion:

- A. After careful consideration, believes that the price of $6,500, net, transmitted to us through Mr. H. K. Muller, is fully the value of the present property at 1420 Linden avenue, and we hereby accept said offer for the property, and recommend to the Conference Trustees the immediate sale of the same.
- B. After several months, during which time we have inspected many properties in various localities, it is our conviction that the property at 3600 Copley Road, the suburb of Ashburton, is the best value for the price of any properties we have seen; taking into consideration—location, size of lot, size and plan of house, interior finish, fixtures. garage, etc. The price of property is $16,500.

We therefore approve of purchase of said property. We hereby designate Dr. W. H. Litsinger and Mr. H. K. Muller, as a sub-committee, to act with the president of the conference, to arrange for an immediate temporary contract with the George R. Morris Organization, through Mr. Rodgers, salesman, to insure the purchase thereof; that this committee be authorized to make such financial arrangements as will make possible negotiating the purchase.

That our recommendation for the purchase of this property and the details for financing the same be transmitted to the Conference Trustees, and that they be requested to act in accordance with our conclusions at the earliest possible date.

Resolved that the above findings of the committee be reported to tne next session of the Conference together with such action of the sub-committee named above as they may deem necessary.

On December the 13th., the sub-committee acting in accordance with the above directions of the full committee, met 'Mr. Rodgers and concluded a temporary sale, to be confirmed by the Board of Trustees. Deposit of $500 was made on the property.

The Trustees met, on the request of our committee, and the findings of our full committee was made to their body. Also the action of our subcommittee in arranging the temporary purchase.

With regard to financing the purchase of the new parsonage the results of the sub-committee as follows, was reported to the trustees.

"That we have arranged for a loan of $10,000 from the Central Fire Insurance Company of Baltimore, at five and one-half per cent interest. With the understanding that we meet the interest semi-annually, and make a reduction on the principal of $1,000 each year."

The trustees authorized the president of that body, Dr. F. T. Little, to sign such legal papers as should be necessary in completing the transaction both for the sale of the property at 1420 Linden avenue, and the purchase of the new property at 3600 Copley Road. Accordingly, both negotiations were duly carried through.

The new property is located in Ashburton, a comparitively new suburban development of the City. The lot is 60 by 150 feet, improved by a 10 room shingle cottage and garage. The house has been erected about 18 months. In splendid condition. Metal weather stripped and copper screened with new awnings for porches. Gas, steam heat, electricity. The electric and bath room fixtures are unusually fine for the type of cottage. There are $1,250 worth of extra accessories consisting of kelvinator, Pittsburgh gas heater and storage system, and electric washing machine.

The property is on the second square from the second square from the Liberty Heights avenue car line, the fastest suburban line in the city, direct to the W. B. & A. station, Camden station, and steamboat wharves, and by transfer of a few squares to Mt. Royal and Union stations.

Starr Church is the nearest of our own denomination, about eight squares distance. Within four or five squares of the Forest Park school, about the same distance from the New Junior and Senior High School.

It is the unanimous opinion of the committee that we have made a splendid purchase for the Conference Parsonage.

The committee recommends the following: Inasmuch as the president's parsonage is distinctly the property of the Conference and as such is of common interest to all the charges of the district, we believe that the matter of financing the payment of the same should be an item of the Maryland Conference Budget, we therefore

Recommended that the Conference instruct the Board of Finance to insert among the Maryland Conference Interests this item "For Conference Parsonage Property;" to make a levy of $1,500 on the District, which shall be for the annual interest and $1,000 reduction of principal; to distribute such percentage to this interest as shall represent this levy. With the distinct understanding that this levy shall be decreased in proportion as the annual interest is curtailed. And when the entire debt is paid the levy shall cease.

We further recommend that the percentage of President's Salary and Expenses, one-tenth, now paid to the agent of the president's parsonage shall remain as the same now is, and to be used as now for the purpose indicated in the Manual.

In addition to these there remain nine unpaid subscriptions from individuals aggregating $50, and seven unpaid subscriptions from churches aggregating $110. The total amount subscribed was $1,010. Report of the Board of Managers of the Church Extension Society of the Maryland Annual Conference, Methodist Protestant Church

It is gratifying to report that the churches and missions under the Supervision of this Board, and those where the property is held by it, have had a year of gratifying success.

GRACE CHURCH, BALTIMORE. While this church is not under the care of this Board it holds title to the property and has co-operated with Broadway and Bethany in the amalgamation of these churches and the erection of the new building. This church under the ministry of G. E. Brown has had a prosperous year. There have been added 120 new scholars to the Sunday School Roll. The church has received 18 members. There has been paid $1,600 on debt. A new pipe organ has been installed at a cost of $2,800 of which $2,000 has been paid. The amount of money raised for all purposes is $10,300. The two churches have been united into one body in a most satisfactory manner. Harmony prevails and the future of the church is encouraging.

WILMINGTON. The Superintendent has given of his time and effort to this great Church Extension Enterprise and we are all happy over results under the efficient ministry of L. B. Smith. The growth of the congregation, the development of the Sunday School and other departments of the church insure the future of our denomination in Wilmington. While splendid progress has been made along all lines of activity the financial burdens are heavy and further aid from the Conference will be needed for a year or two.

CALVARY, WASHINGTON. This church, which was received one year ago, has had an excellent year under the ministry of Paul M. Cassen. The congregation is composed of persons of various denominations. Bro. Cassen has been discret and tactful in controlling the situation. The membership is now 45 with a Sunday School of 125. At the Annual Meeting they readily added $400 to the pastor's salary making it $1,000 for next year. The community is growing and the outlook for the church is yromising.

TRINITY. This church has made steady progress. Rev. R. W. White has closed the fifth year of his pastorate. He reports a church membership of 210 and a Sunday School enrollment, including the Bible Classes and Cradle Roll, of 500. The school is graded and all departments of the church thoroughly organized. The parsonage debt has been reduced $1,500. The debt on the church has been paid, and at the request of the church, this Board has voted to transfer the property to the local Trustees. They need additional room and are planning, with the advice and counsel of the Board of Survey, to begin the first unit of a new building.

ARUNDEL COVE. This church, which is now a part of Marley Circuit, has had a prosperous year under the ministry of J. T. Fenby. The Sunday School is growing. The church pays $700.00 on pastor's salary. A parsonage is needed. We have the ground and it is the purpose of this Board to assist them in starting a movement looking to the erection of a parsonage early in the coming Conference year.

GRACELAND PARK. This church has made marked progress under the administration of H. A. Kester. During the year a Sunday School room 30 by 40 feet has been added; the tower has been extended and new windows placed in the audience room. The entire church has been remodeled. It now presents a very attractive appearance. The cost, including the work donated, is $4,000. There is an indebtedness of $1,800, which will be reduced during the coming year. With the assistance of this Board the church has purchased 50 feet more ground. The purpose is to erect a parsonage at as early day as possible. There has been advancement in every department of the church. The salary has been increased $100 and the hope is the church will soon be self-supporting.

EDMONDSON AVENUE. This has been a year of reasonable prosperity for this new church. The congregations have improved. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Brown, has received 27 members with the prospect of 20 more at an early day. The salary has been increased $100. The church has raised for local purposes $2,000. In addition they have in cash and subscriptions $2,400 toward a new church building. This is one of the most rapidly growing communities around Baltimore. The chapel does not meet the requirements. It is imperative that building operations be begun this Spring. Through the kindness of Mr. James Keelty, we are enable to exchange the present lot for one on the opposite side of the street without additional cost. This is the most desirable corner in the developement. The exchange is made provided we build this year. This makes it necessary that we proceed at once. This will require a large outlay of money. In addition to the assistance we may have from the community, and our friends in Baltimore and other sections of the Conference District, there is needed the largest appropriation possible from the Annual Conference.

The Board of Survey is familiar with the situation and the pressing needs and will make such recommendations to the Conference as may be deemed wise for this promising church.

New Work

BETHESDA. This will be a new name in our list of appointments. Last Fall a number of persons, several of whom were from our city churches, expressed a desire to have a church on the Harford Road, north of Hamilton. It is in a rapidly growing suburban community. These friends organized a Church Aid Society and have been meeting weekly. They have been gathering a fund which has amounted to $500. On March 14th, a meeting was held in Lauraville Church and an organization was effected with 32 members. The Constitution and Book of Discipline of the Methodist Protestant Church were adopted. Since that date 9 others have been received, so that the membership is now 41 with still others to join. Officers of the church were elected and application was made to Lauraville Church for formal recognition.

Mr. George B. Barrows was elected messenger to the Annual Conference to meet in Salisbury, April 2nd, with the request that the church be received into the Conference. A Sunday School was organized last Sunday in a private house with a membership of 25 and many others to come in later. A beautiful lot has been purchased on Harford Avenue, 140 feet front, for $3,250. This has been deeded to the Church Extension Society. Mr. Barrows has advanced the money with which to pay for this lot, the Board of Managers giving him satisfactory security. A Chapel is being erected which we hope will be ready for service by the first of May. The church has pledged $1,040 for pastoral support and requests the appointment of a pastor. This is a most promising field. The work has been cared for by Rev. W. P. Roberts and the Superintendent.

DELMONT. This is another new point where we hope to have a church. It is on the W. B. & A. Electric Road in Anne Arundel County, 12 miles from Baltimore. A Sunday School of 50 members was organized in November by Rev. T. C. Jones and the Superintendent in a small Hall. An effort is being made to secure a lot. We will then move the old Severn Church to this place. Since Christmas we have held preaching services in addition to the Sunday School. There is a fund of $500 in hand toward moving the church. We recommend that it be attached to Nichols Memorial Charge.

RIVERA BEACH. This is still another development in Anne Arundel County at the mouth of Stoney and Rock Creeks. It is partly a Summer Resort with many homes surrounding it. All this section of the County is being rapidly filled with homes. Mr. Pumphrey, President of the Rivera Development Company, has offered us a lot of one acre provided we erect a chapel on it the coming Summer. This offer has been accepted by our Board. We recommend that it be placed under the care of the pastor of Marley Charge and that this Board shall have supervision of it for at least one year. Mr. Pumphrey has donated a similar lot to the Roman Catholic Church. Several of our Baltimore pastors have visited the place and endorsed the movement.

Other Interests

SELBYVILLE. You will recall that this church burned last year some time before the Annual Conference. The congregation disbanded. We received the $500 which had been paid on the debt and forwarded it to Milton L. Veasey, Treasurer of the Peninsula Society. It took the remainder of the Insurance money to pay the balance of debt. The church lot has not yet been sold.

WAVERLY CHURCH. The Annual Conference of 1923 endorsed the recommendation to sell this church. The Church and Parsonage buildings have since been sold for $3,700 and the money paid to W. C. Scott, Treasurer, and used for Church Extension purposes.

WILLIAMSVILLE. The Superintendent found that the Annual Conference held title to a lot on which Williamsville Church was built some years ago. The building was afterward sold to the J. O. U. A. M. This did not effect the lot. During the year the lot was sold for $300 and the money paid to Milton L. Veasey, Treasurer.

The lot purchased by the Baltimore City Church Extension some time ago on the old York Road at 37th Street has been disposed of and the money turned over to W. C. Scott, Treasurer, it having become apparent that we could not wisely build on that location.

THE BUTLER WILL CASE. While a final settlement of this estate has not been made, we are hoping that it will be at an early day. We are looking after the Church's interest in the estate.

The Superintendent, Dr. J. M. Sheridan, has been literally in labors abundant. He has given much travel and effort to various sections of the Conference district looking after local interests and assisting on special occasions. In addition to the Charges of which the Board has had oversight, he reports having visited 68 Charges of the district where he either preached or rendered some special service to the churches or assistance to the pastors. No effort has been made in this report to give details of these visits, but they have all been helpful, and in some instances large sums of money have been raised for building, improvements and debts. The Superintendent's tireless energy, his wise counsel, his abounding patience and his ability to bring things to pass have rendered him invaluable in the work of the Kingdom. We most earnestly recommend his reappointment. From the beginning, his salary has been far too small, but it seemed the 'best that financial conditions would justify. Even now it cannot be made adequate, but it can and should be made more nearly so. We, therefore, recommend the increase of the Superintendent's salary to two thousand dollars a year.

The Merging of the Baltimore City Church Extension Society with the Conference Society

At the session of this Conference a year ago, it was recommended that, in view of these two Societies working in the same territory, that they be merged.

We report that this action has been taken. In order that we might continue to have the assistance of at least a part of those who composed the City Society, an Auxiliary Board was appointed to co-operate with the Board of Managers of the Conference Board. This was done and three laymen and an equal number of ministers were appointed. We found this so helpful that we recommend that Article 3 of the Constitution be so amended that the Board of Managers shall consist of 14 with equal number of laymen and ministers and that 8 shall constitute a quorum.

Respectfully sumitted,

EDWIN B. FENBY, President.

REPORT OF ELECTORAL COLLEGE

Salisbury, Md., April 4, 1924.

The Electoral College of the Maryland Conference was organized this day at 2 P. M. with the election of F. T. Little, Chairman, and J. H. Straughn, Secretary. The statistical steward announced the membership of the Conference as 34,709, and the Chairman ruled the Conference would be entitled to 17 ministerial and 17 lay representatives to the General Conference, meeting in Tiffin, Ohio, May 21, 1924.

The President of the Conference was recognized and made the motion that the unanimous vote of the Electoral College be cast by the Secretary for T. H. Lewis. This motion prevailed and the ballot was cast.

The Chair then appointed as judges, E. C. Makosky, chairman, C. P. Nowlin, J. L. Ward, L. B. Smith, Henry Gilligan, Rowland Watts, G. W. Dexter and M. W. Gaines. The ballots were distributed and vote taken for sixteen ministers and seventeen laymen. After roll call the judges retired to count the vote.

FRANCIS THOMAS TAGG, A. M., D. D.

The Reverend Francis Thomas Tagg, Master of Arts, Doctor of Divinity, for more than fifty years a member of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, died in Baltimore June 18th, 1923. This simple statement records the passing of a life that impressed itself upon the whole Church and made its influence felt to the end of the earth.

Born in Carroll County, (Maryland, June 2nd, 1845, he grew up in the country, availing himself of such educational facilities, as it afforded, or could be otherwise privately found by a youth of limited means. In the spring of 1870, he applied for admission into the Maryland Conference, sitting that year in Westminster, and was received. Two years later he was given elder's orders. He served in order the following charges: Queen Anne, Norfolk, Va., Salisbury, Eutaw, Easton and Georgetown, D. C. In 1884 he was elected secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions and served eight years. He was appointed in April 1892 to the pastorate of West Baltimore Station, and the next month was elected by the General Conference to the editorship of the Methodist Protestant to which he gave twenty-four years. He was a member of every General Conference from 1884 to 1916 inclusive, and was president of that body for four years beginning in 1904. He represented the denomination in the World's Missionary Conference which met in London in 1882 and in New York in 1900. He went to London again in 1901 as a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference of Methodism. Western Maryland College conferred on him the honorary degree of Master of Arts, and he received from Adrian College the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Dr. Tagg was a man of unusual power both as to the influence and the motive of his life. In him, moving him, was a force which in youth enabled him to overcome the handicap of poor educational advantages, in manhood made him an intellectual giant, and in old age, unquieted, rendered difficult the inactivities failing health imposed upon him. The work he did, considering the amount of it and the quality, was enough to stagger an ordinary man. During his editorship he preached somewhere almost every Sunday, responding to calls far and near. He was a constructive worker; not only were the places in which he served left better than he found them, but the Aged People's Home in Westminster, and the Conference Deaconess enterprise owe their existence largely to his efforts.

As a preacher he was clear, thoughtful and convincing. His sermons were carefully prepared, usually written in full entailing enormous labor and time. And he was a popular preacher; people were always interested to hear him. Setting forth some great truth he was clear and logical; dealing with evil, especially in high places, he was caustic and fearless; calling to righteousness, he was passionate and mighty; bringing comfort to weary hearts, he was tender and moving. He knew how to woo as well as to warn. Dr. Tagg was chosen in 1921 to preach the first radio sermon broadcast from Baltimore, in which, to an audience scattered along the Atlantic coast from Washington to New Haven, he spoke on a favorite theme, the Majesty of Truth, his text being "Prove all things."

He was preeminent as a writer. His editorials were widely read, other papers quoting them frequently. They gave the Methodist Protestant a standard of excellence which ranked it high among religious journals. Throughout his occupancy of the editorial chair due to financial conditions, he received a salary far below the worth of either his service or the labor it cost him.

As its first Foreign Missionary Secretary, he developed in the Church a missionary consciousness and organized this important branch of its work upon a substantial basis. Offerings increased from the first. He introduced the Children's Day idea which has meant so very much in both missionary interest and education.

Dr. Tagg had a passion for friendship. He made friends wherever he traveled throughout the denomination and in those distant places to which the Church sent him; and because no ulterior motive influenced him, he kept his friends. He made friends for friendship sake. Probably no man was a welcome visitor in more homes of the Church from one end of it to the other. It was characteristic of him that on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, he gathered a party of friends about him at dinner in the hotel Rennert, affording those who were priviledged to attend an evening they will never forget.

After retirement the shadows deepened. There was the unspeakable bereavement of wife and son. Mrs. Tagg, who previous to their marriage in 1875, was Miss Anne Dever of Queen Anne county, Maryland, a beautiful and accomplished woman, died December 23, 1918. Of their two children, Mary Edna and Stanley Dever, the latter, within two years after his mother's death, closed what had promised to be a brilliant career. Having no regular employment, Dr. Tagg often said was harder than any work he ever did. He preached as opportunity afforded and strength permitted but these occasions grew less frequent. Drawn by force of habit and desire to the desk on which he had written so many sermons and editorials, he would write little musings, not for other eyes to see or for other ears to hear but to steady his own spirit when it sagged. Some of these were found afterward, one of them, the first three lines underscored and the writing almost illegible, ran thus:

Upholding my hands! My task is almost done. But let me not at labor cease to sing, And from the rising to the setting sun Each faithful hour do service for my King.

He wanted to live but presently death was here and he knew it. He met it not gladly but in the spirit of obedience, with composure and dignity. Discussing it and deliberately preparing for it, he selected the last part of the nintieth Psalm to be read at his funeral. He had no foolish illusions as to the value of his work. He knew how to assess it, but at the end it was not on this he counted. He rather prayed, "Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us." Within three days of the time he was stricken, speaking of the doctrinal controversies then being waged, he declared that whatever other changes might take place in his views he would never give up his faith in the atonement of Christ Jesus.

"Jesus, Thy blood and righteousness My beauty are, my glorious dress." The subject of one of his first sermons was "The Immortality of the Soul." This great truth he preached from the beginning and held to the end. Like many another he sought without success absolute proof for it, but he held it through Him who is Himself its surety and who said "Because I live ye shall live also."

Early Monday morning, June the eleventh, he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, lapsed into unconsciousness, and the following Monday fell asleep. Funeral services were held in his late home, participated in by the Ministerial members of this committee and the Reverend Drs. G. W. Haddaway and J. F. Heisse. The interment was in Centreville, Maryland.

MRS. FRANCIS MARIE SCHAUER.

Mrs. Frances Marie Schauer, wife of Rev. Peter M. R. Schauer, of the Maryland Annual Conference, passed to her heavenly reward, August 16, 1923, after a lingering illness of about one year, during which she was a patient sufferer, only once evincing the slightest concern as to the ultimate outcome of her sufferings and possibly with that natural clinging to life and sincere desire to remain with her little family, when as her husband was tenderly endeavoring to make her as comfortable as possible, amidst the pain, the tears came unbidden, seeing the pained expression on her husband's face, with heroic self-forgetfulness she said, "Forgive me, I will not cry again."

Mrs. Schauer, who was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Schaffer of Baltimore, Maryland, was born on January 9, 1886, and at the age of nineteen years became the wife of Brother Schauer, September 28, 1904, entering immediately upon the many and diversified activities of an itinerant minister's wife.

Mrs. Emma Schafer, of Kennedyville, Maryland, a member of the committee, writes: "Treasured memories of the beautiful Christian life of Mrs. Schauer remain with us. During the three years of her husband's pastorate at Kennedyville we recognized the benign influence of her sweet spirit in the home, the Sunday-school, and in the church. She was in truth her husband's helpmeet, and a tender, devoted mother, endeavoring to guide wisely and well the present ones entrusted to her keeping."

Brother Schauer writes that, "As a memorial to her precious memory four of her sons have decided by the grace of God, in due time to enter upon the Gospel ministry."

Another member of the Committee says, "Mrs. Schauer was highly esteemed on every Charge where in the providence of God she and her devoted husband were called upon to labor."

She was well fortified in the Christian life and character, having received her earliest training in Bible study in the Grace English Lutheran Church and Sunday School.

Brief funeral services were conducted at the parsonage at Maryland Line, Md., on the 11th day of August, conducted by Rev. George Hines, of the Stewartstown M. P. Church, assisted by Revs. Milton Parker, of Parkton, Md., and Bert Constance, of Hereford, Md., after which the remains were taken to Baltimore, to the home of Mrs. Ewald Werner, 605 N. Linwood avenue, from which the body was taken to the St. Paul's M. P. Church, where, on August 20th, the services were conducted by Rev. F. D. Reynolds, assisted by Drs. F. T. Little, F. T. Benson and Louis Randall, the latter preaching the sermon. Six ministers of the Maryland Conference acting as pallbearers. Interment taking place in Lorraine Cemetery, Baltimore.

Mrs. Schauer is survived by her husband and her six children, Robert, Donald, Henry, LeRoy, Grace and Roland, and her mother, Mrs. George Schaffer.

"O how sweet it will be in that beautiful land, So free from all sorrow and pain; With songs on our lips, and with harps in our hands, To meet one another again."

> F. D. REYNOLDS, LOUIS RANDALL, MRS. EMMA SCHAFER, GEORGE R. RASIN, Committee.

Conference Sermon

JOHN 12:21.

"SIR, WE WOULD SEE JESUS,"

Subject-The Great Objective.

REV. P. W. CROSBY

The feast of the Passover was on at Jerusalem. It was the greatest religious festival of the Jews. Not only those who were Jews by birth, but all others who were converts to the Jewish faith were required to attend the Passover which occured once a year.

Among those who came up to the feast were certain Greeks who were designated "proselytes of the gates," but these being Greeks by birth, and Jews only by religion, were not entitled to all the privileges of the feast. Only certain minor rights were allowed them. From the Jewish point of view, it seemed a great concession that they were admitted to their fellowship at all. The Jews could thus deny their foreign adherents of certain material rights, but they could not deprive them of the great spiritual blessings.

The Greeks attending the Passover had not come from a distant land—perhaps from nearby Galilee—but they had come from traditions and customs widely separated from the Jewish customs and thought. According to the Jewish estimate the Gentiles were without hope of salvation, except through the generosity of Jewry. It is very evident, however, that the Gentile world posessed a yearning desire for a redeemer. Hence the request of the Greeks, "we would see Jesus."

Whether this request was mere curiosity, intelligent interest, or spiritual yearning we are not told. Of the many motives which may prompt men to seek Jesus the spiritual by far predominates. Suppose we conclude that something of each of these motives entered into the request of the Greeks, would not the measure of benefit justify the method of approach? For the important thing is not how shall we come, but "Sir, we would see Jesus."

This petition of the Greeks was not the mere bubblings of ignorance and superstition, but the intelligent cry of the soul seeking after God. For the ancient Greeks were supreme in intellectual power, culture, and skill. In arts, the world has never surpassed their works in marble. In literature, they have left for all ages their deep impress upon the literature of the world. Thus we observe that the world is greatly indebted to the Greeks for their valuable contribution to the higher attainments of civilization, but far greater than this we are forever indebted to the Greeks for having been the chosen agents of God to introduce the Gentile world to its Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. A new era had come in the history of the world. The stream of Messianic influence had overflowed the boundaries of Jewry and had touched the shores of the Gentiles.

The Desire of the Greeks-The Universal Desire of Mankind.

The Greeks at the Passover spoke in terms far greater than they knew. They expressed in clear, concise language, not only the desire of their own hearts, but the supreme desire of mankind. For man, in all stages of development, whether barbarian, heathen or civilized, has innate in him the consciousness of a being above him, superior and supreme, which he respects, adores or worships, according to his perception of such a being. God, recognizing this natural tendency of man, has undertaken to supply his greatest desires in the gift of Jesus Christ to the world, who bids men to look unto Him and live.

Throughout the ages God has sought to manifest Himself to men in various ways. To this end He gave His only begotten Son, who taught men that "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father." Wherever the influence of Jesus Christ has gone, men, like the Greeks, have wanted to see Jesus. This is the universal desire of man. Meet him on the street, see him at his business, walk with him the highways of life and if you could look into the very depth of his being, you would discover, that highest of all desires, "Sir, we would see Jesus."

This great desire, in the providence of God, is woven like a golden thread into the very fabric of man's being. Why the holy manger in Bethlehem, the Galileian ministry, the cross of Calvary, the empty tomb, the blessings of Pentacost, the gospel story, if not to reveal unto men the Christ? Was it not in answer to the prayer of the human heart, "we would see Jesus?"

Successful men in all walks of life are men of vision. The business man must be able to see through a proposition if he is to determine the result thereof. The artist must first see the picture before it can be produced on the canvas. The sculptor must see in the marble, his objective. before the mallet and chisel are set to work. The same is true of the man who is to reproduce the likeness of Christ in his own life. He must first have had very clear, definite, and comprehensive visions of that life. Therefore, Christ must be set forth to men in the best possible manner. To this end multitudes have toiled. Men of ordinary talents and men of great learning have devoted their lives to the holy task of showing Jesus to the world. It has been said by another. "For the past fifty years what the scholare and students of Europe have been trying to do is to see Jesus; it is to get back behind what they think later traditions, what they think accretions on the old faith, what they think disfigurements in art; back to the real Jesus who walked the streets of Jerusalem and climbed the hills of Galilee. 'Sir, we would see Jesus,' is the cry of the modern student today." It is not only the cry of scholarship and the great student body of today, but it is the cry of the common people as well. It is the cry of the pulpit and the pew; it is the cry of the masses that throng the highways of life; it is the cry of the countless multitudes in heathen lands; it is the universal cry of humanity. He who made man and marked him with His own image, likewise made him capable and desirous of fellowshiping with Him. The cry may not be audible, the individual himself may not be conscious of it, but in his breast is that supreme desire for contact and fellowship with the Creator, who may be intimately known or feebly felt after.

Andrew for information concerning Jesus. They naturally would be in a position to help them. They were representatives of the Christian ministry. If they could not aid them, to whom should they go, for the ministry must ever be the natural exponents of the Christ? In order to reveal Christ to men the minister must himself have had a clear, convincing and satisfying vision of Jesus. He cannot properly speak of Him whom he has not known, and he cannot know Him except he hath seen Him. What a blessed privilege it is to see Jesus. Not with these physical eyes, but with the eye of faith. The powers of discernment of the physical eyes are marked with boundaries beyond which they cannot go, but the eye of faith knows no limitations. It may fathom the deepest sea, or climb to the highest heavens. By this means the soul of man comes in contact with the Christ, and Christ pleased to reveal Himself to him.

Perhaps it is true that more energy and intelligence has been exerted by men in an effort to discover, with more certainty, knowledge about God and His truth, than any other subject ever claiming the attention of men. In all ages great scholars and men of religious convictions have devoted their time and talents to the task of finding out God, that He might be more clearly seen, thoroughly appreciated, and devoutly worshiped by mankind. This is a holy purpose and we would wish for it a holy ending.

While great scholars and religionists have been seeking for the truth many of them seem to have gotten sidetracked, and according to the judgment of some of us, have wandered into strange, if not forbidden paths. They have come back to us, and would persuade us to forsake the peace and comfort of a simple faith in the teachings of the Bible, and go with them to dwell in that cold and icy region of doubt and speculation, as to which they themselves cannot agree. In our colleges, universities, seminaries, and pulpits many of these men are found, from which vantage ground eminate strange preach men, which is diluted, polluted and poisonous, destroying the faith of many. We look for a supplement and they cherished beliefs, and they offer us a substitute. We asg for bread nd they give us a stone. We ask to see Jesus and they show us a shadow, a phantom, a ghost from the graveyard. Their sermons are high sounding and scholarly, but soulless. Their books are well written, attractively bound and extensively advertised, but through their pages runs the ever present question mark, like scarlet thread, and both he who hears and he who reads, like he who "feedeth on ashes" is full but unsatisfied, for there can be no substitute for Jesus Christ to a hungry soul. The intellect may be fed on the finest of the wheat with great profit thereto, but the soul cannot thrive on the chaff.

Education is Insufficient.

Education has been the greatest contributing factor in the religious world, second only to the spiritual contribution. As education has progressed, not only has civilization improved, but christianity has been wonderfully blessed. Like many other good things, education has not been without its evil effects. Anti-Christ, self-constituted prophets, reformers of rightiousness, originators of Christless theologies, and sponsors of many other fads and fancies, in the main, eminate from the ranks of scholarship. Their teaching, for this reason, is the more dangerous. Education and religion should be the best of friends. Whatever religion may be able to accomplist without education, education without religion is a failure.

Dr. John J. Tigert, the United States commissioner of education at Harvard University, has this to say, "If education consists in the evolution of the man's inherent capacities or untying the bundle of possibilities; if religion be the universal phenomenon among men, and if great thinkers find God indispensible to the explanation of reality, then education which lacks the religious element is certainly seriously defective. Ethical teaching is insufficient, for how shall we direct the will, and train the heart. as we enlighten the intellect? Naught but religious feeling, the inspiration of the soul, and faith in God can accomplish this. Even ethical teaching and morality, though helpful, will not suffice. France has given non-religious moral training a more thorough trial perhaps than any other nation. And yet, says an eminent authority, 'In fifty years criminality has increased three-fold, though there was scarcely any increase in population. statement was made before the war and does not comprehend the violent increase of crime since the war.' One French professor complained, 'My prize pupil in morals is the higgest knave of the lot.' Morality is indeed the worthy help-mate of religion, but history and experience reveal over and over again that it cannot be a substitute for it." It is very evident that man's greatest need is Jesus Christ. Give him everything else and deprive him of Christ and he is yet unsupplied, unhappy and a failure.

Preaching-A Help Or A Hindrance.

The christian minister is pre-eminently a teacher, a warm friend of education. For ordinary purposes it may not be desirable to separate preachers from other teachers, but for our present purpose we shall treat them as a particular class of teachers. While the professors subject may be secular, the preachers subject is always sacred, and he can have but one theme, namely, "Jesus Christ, and Him crucified." How necessary it is that he know his subject! He cannot know Him except he shall see Him. To attempt to preach without a vision of Christ is to assume a pre-posterous position, and clearly indicates that the preacher has no proper conception of his high and holy task. His fitness to minister to men is determined by the vision his own soul has received of Christ. One may ask, "Is he called to be an educator?" Yes. "Is he called to be an example in morals?" Yes. and many other fine and noble traits of character, but these are not his primary task. His one task is to set forth Jesus Christ to a dying world.

To see Jesus, and to be the representative of Him to the world, is the absolute vocation of the ministry. By virtue of his office he is in immediate and constant contact with God and man. Certainly the preacher must conceive that his own soul's greatest desire is to see Jesus, but let him not forget that it is likewise the greatest desire of the man in the pew. He is looking up to the pulpit, hungering and thirsting to see Jesus. He has come to the church to have broken to him the bread of life. He has a perfect right to expect this of his preacher. But alas and alack, too often they may truthfully say, "I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me no drink." Because he ministered not to them, to the preacher it may be said, "In as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me."

When the preacher turns to the Bible to read the holy Word, when he engages in private devotions, when he prepares his message to men his one supreme objective is to see Jesus. But when he takes his place in the pulpit he must remember that eminating from every heart before him is thacry, "Sir, we would see Jesus," and he must answer their cry. He is not to preach current topics, nor the latest discovery of science. He is not called upon to settle national and international affairs in his pulpit, nor even to adjust various theological differences that may arise from time to time, but his sole business is to preach Jesus, in answer to the call and needs of his people. He should be expert in this, if deficient in everything else, for many, both in the pew and the pulpit, are seeing strange things instead of Jesus. They have had either an imperfect vision, or no vision at all. Distorted vision is the controlling influence in the lives of many people.

While Jesus was on earth, there were many who saw Him with the physical eye who never saw the real Jesus. Some saw only a glutton and a winebibber, some saw a man beside himself, some saw a man posessed with a demon. Even Mary, who knew Him well, and loved Him so, once supposed He was a gardener. Many persons today, who can see by faith only, have a very imperfect conception of Jesus. It is therefore, the preacher's duty, in the selection, treatment and presentation of his message, to so set forth Jesus Christ that men may come to know Him, whom to know aright is life eternal. For "Human hearts are sinful and need forgiveness; they are sained and need cleansing; they are weak and need strengthening; they are sorrowful and need comforting; they are astray and need guiding, and Jesus Christ, and He only, can meet these needs."

By Divine order and human custom the christian ministry has been made the chief exponent of the Christ. To the man in the pulpit, the man in the pew looks for a revelation of Jesus. The text, the title of his sermon, and the message itself, should each be contributing factors in bringing the man in the pew face to face with his Lord. For this, and nothing else, he sits in the pew. For this, and nothing else, the preacher stands in the pulpit. If the preacher fails in this one thing he fails in every thing.

Secularizing The Pulpit.

The Bible, the preacher's Divinely given text book, is rich in topics and subject matter. The deeper one digs into this mine of precious truth, the richer it becomes. And the more one reads the sacred page, the more it has to convey to his mind and heart. The Bible has not outlived its usefulness, but constantly becomes richer as the years go by. But for some reason many preachers have forsaken the Bible and are exploring other fields to find topics better suited to their notions. Perhaps they consider the Bible too small and simple for their overgrown intellects. Perhaps they have discovered that the man in the pew has grown tired of the good old gospel themes and desires a substitute. But this would not justify the departure, for it is certainly the business of the preacher to raise the people up to the high standards of the gospel, rather than to reduce the gospel to the lowly wishes of the people. Nevertheless, it is true that many preachers are using strange topics in the pulpit. They are gleaned from every department of secular life. Apparently for no other purpose than to arouse the curiosity of the people and to catch the crowds.

From church bulletins, and a certain Saturday evening paper, published in the most popular city in the world, I have gleaned the fellowing Sunday sermon topics: "Keeping up with the Joneses," "Why the Dinner Bell Didn't Ring," "The Broom," "Which One of the Apostles Wore the Largest Hat," "A Canary at the North Pole," "A Man with Beautiful Eyes," "An Evening of Favorite Poems," "My Candidate and His Platform," "The Reality and Romance of the Daily Newspaper." Gathered from other sources: "Slip. Slips and Slippers," "Swat the Fly," "The Honeymoon," "My Mother-in-law," "Three White Mice," "Pulling Out a Plum," "Street Car Ventilation," "A Man with His Nose Out of Joint," and last, "The Ass Tied to the Doo: Without." What a ridiculous array. Who can tell whether it is comedy or church performance? How spiritually dry a preacher's soul must be who finds it necessary to select such topics as these. We believe that it is neither pleasing nor profitable to God nor man. It can never be justifiable on the part of the preacher to exchange the sublime for the ridiculous. Laymen do not appreciate this compromise of the minister's high office, and many of them are expressing their dissatisfaction in plain language. Some are leaving the church. I quote from a gentleman, recently in public life. who has this to say, among other things, "The curse of 'topics' has been the ruin of the pulpit. This year has seen a rush of ministers to Europe. and every city in the country is deluged with series of sermons on European conditions. This is what makes the intelligent church-goer tired. If only the ministry were expert in its own field the condemnation of its aberratious would not be so severe. The Bible has fallen to the level of a motto-book, from which suitable passages may be selected to place at the beginning of sermons. Everyone knows, the vast majority of sermons today are neither literature nor religion. If the christian church is looking for novelty, it might try Christianity-certainly the theme would be new to millions of its adherents." This is sharp language. And as applying to the ministry as a whole, it is a malicious slander. But there are many ministers to whom these charges may be appropriately applied. The author of the quoted words claims to represent a large number of laymen who hold like views of the ministry of today. This but indicates that what men desire most from the pulpit, whether they be highly educated, moderately educated, or not educated at all, is sermons whose foundation and super-structure is Jesus Christ. Go where you will, to the rich or poor, the bond or free, the Greeks or Barbarians, the cry is ever the same, audible or inaudible, "Sir, we would see Jesus." To this end the ministry should devote its powers solely.

Perverting The Truth.

There is another class of men in the pulpit today, who have caused no little contention and confusion, both among ministers and laymen; not because they have secularized their preaching, but because of their absurd theological views. Their sermons bear the earmarks of the genuine, and for this reason they are the more dangerous. Usually these men are notable for their scholarship and leadership in their denominations. They are able to present their views in attractive form, and to enforce them with skillful logic. Thus they are able to persuade many to forsake the faith of their fathers and to embrace that which is new. To many persons anything new and novel is always attractive. They cannot be content with the old fountains, which have flowed in unceasing stream through the ages, bringing joy, comfort and peace to the multitudes. So they dig new wells, but to many of us their waters are bitter and unsatisfying. They lack refreshment even, to say nothing of quenching the thirst of the soul, for the soul can be satisfied with nothing but Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Saviour of the world. Yet the ambition of some is to reduce Christ to a minimum. By 99 doing they cut off the source of their spiritual power, for it is a fact that the ministry of these reformers of religion is without spiritual significance. No great revivals are forthcoming, no sinners are being saved by their preaching. These men have laughed at John Wesley, and junked his theology, but Wesley's ministry answered the purposes of God and the needs of men. His was a soul-saving ministry. He was a reformer, but a constructive reformer. That his life and ministry were ordained of God there can be no doubt; this great man, "being dead yet speaketh." His followers may now be numbered by the millions. But with Wesley Jesus Christ was a reality. We believe that it is to such a ministry that men are called; that is to a ministry of which Jesus Christ is the chief corner stone.

Modern intellectuals seem able to account for the creation without the Deity, and consign the book of Jonah to the realm of nursery tales. The miraculous conception is discarded, and Christ is regarded as only a good man. As to the resurrection, they have a most excellent theory that renders unnecessary the resurrection of the body, therefore the body of Jesus must still be in the tomb. Can anyone imagine that such preaching will ever save the world? Can it be true that for nearly two thousand years the christian world has been astray as to the truth as it is in Christ? Does anyone believe that that grand array of martyrs of the early church died to perpetuate a falsehood, and therefore died in vain? Is it sane to suppose that God has hitherto kept, hidden in His own breast, the fundamental truths of salvation, and has just begun to reveal them to men? It cannot be. So let us hold fast to our faith, "It was good for Paul and Silas, and its good enough for me."

The great objective with men in this generation, as in others, is "Sir, we would see Jesus." To this end we must have a ministry that preaches a gospel after the order of John the Baptist in the wilderness; Jesus Christ in the sermon on the mount; Peter at Pentacost; Paul at Mars Hill. The characteristic elements in their preaching were a denunciation of sin, an appeal to the sinner to forsake his sins, and a recommendation that he promptly accept Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour. This is the old order, and it is the new. For the christian minister can have no other point of attack than sin in the sinners heart. He can have nothing else to recommend than Jesus Christ and Him crucified. There can be no substitute, though many are striving for things that are new, seeming to think that this is a mark of high scholarship.

It is said that Demosthenes told Athens only what Athens knew, that he simply blew upon the peoples hearts, and kindled them into a flame. What the people most need is not so much new truth, as new and more vivid conceptions of the truth they already have. Therefore we cannot appreciate the men who secularize their preaching, nor abide in patience those whose ambition is to so modify the Scriptures as that they nullify them. They seem determined to cut away the very heart of the Bible, and to amputate the strong right arm of our Lord, which done, we have nothing left worth preserving. Our redemption is gone, our hope of heaven is gone, and we are of all men, most miserable. We cannot stand by and witness such a procedure without a protest. For we want to see Jesus, and we will welcome nothing that dims our vision, from whatever source. We want to see the real Christ, not a headless Christ, not a heartless Christ, not a powerless Christ, but the Christ, "Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead." This is the kind of a Christ the gospels offer to the world, and this is the kind of a Christ our souls crave, and in the finding of which are satisfied.

Exponents Of The Truth.

Are we to understand that this criticism of ministerial methods is applicable to all ministers? Not at all, for the great majority of men who occupy the pulpit of today are conscientious, consecrated, intellectual men, who count not their lives dear unto themselves, that they might preach Jesus Christ to the world. Of them it may be said, in the language of Paul, "What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. And I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord." This army of godly men have turned their backs upon the world, have shut their eyes to worldly scenes, and have had but one objective as did Paul, "That I may know Him, and the power of his resurrection." They have had but one task, namely, "This one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

These men have kept the fires burning brightly upon the alters, because they have not wandered from the cross, nor veiled its majestic attractions with the speculations of men. They have presented, explained and emphasized the fundamental truths of the gospel with such spiritual force, and intellectual strength that the pulpit has become the power of God. Many of these men have stood on the Mount of Olives with Jesus, they have been in Gethsemene with Jesus, and they have gone to Calvary with Jesus. The wicked may call them failures, but the righteous rise up and call them blessed. Having seen Jesus these men's lives have been rich in great blessings, that have multiplied the joy, and peace, and comfort of mankind. Under the inspiration of their vision great books have been written that carry the love of God to the heart of the reading public. Great sermons have been preached that have broken the hardened heart of sinful men and turned them to Jesus Christ. Masterpieces have been produced, by artists in whose soul Jesus has first portrayed His own likeness. Great hymns have been born, by poets who have seen Jesus, on the wings of which, many a soul has been carried to the bosom of Christ. To illustrate, we are told that, "When George Matheson realized that he was going blind he wrote a letter to his financee offering to release her from her covenent of love because of his certain blindness. To his surprise and deep regret, she accepted the proffered release. The young poet-preacher was plunged into a veritable Gethsemene of sorrow. In time, however, his feet found the Rock of Ages; he became aware of another who was "acquainted with grief." He went to his desk and in the travail of his soul, a great hymn was born. Sore and sick at heart for the love that had let him go, he wrote:

"O love that will not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thine Ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be."

Then, as victory over his impending affliction found utterence, he wrote that wonderful second stanza, a prayer of resignation with which few of us could face the defeat and disappointment of blindness:

"O Light that followest all my way,
I yield my flickering torch to thee.
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be."

Mounting yet Higher, with the same note of noble victory he wrote:

"O Joy that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain,
That morn shall tearless be."

And, finally, conscious of the spirit of victory in Him who transformed the cross from a symbol of defeat to an emblem of supreme victory, he penned the closing lines:

"O Cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms redLife that shall endless be."

How May We See Jesus.

Precious things are not strewn by the wayside, nor are pearls cast before swine. Men do not "gather grapes of thorns, nor figs of thistles" yet they may have both grapes and figs. There is a way to obtain either or both. He who would obtain must find the way and pursue it. So, there is a way that leads to wealth, to fame, to success, to happiness. If any man will make these things his goal in life, he must first find the right path and follow therein. Our objective will determine our course. Hence we would not turn to the world for spiritual benefits. If we seek such things we must not "grovel here below," but must fix our eyes on "Things above." Christ dwells in the valleys, but His delight is in the mountains. So he who would see Jesus must "lift up his eyes and look."

One may see Jesus in natures manifestations of Him, and they are all around us. He clotheth the lilies; He feedeth the sparrows; He maketh the cedars to grow; He giveth fragrance to the rose, and beauty to the violet. Indeed His mark is upon all creation. For "without Him was not anything made that was made." Nevertheless, men are not content with such a disclosure of Christ. They seek a close-up view of their Lord, and He is nowhere else revealed as He is in the Holy Scriptures. "They are they which testify of me" said He. A thorough, painstaking, spirit-directed study of the Word of God is destined to bring the individual face to face with Jesus.

The New Testament contains five interesting and attractive photographs of Jesus. They are the four Gospels and the Epistles of Paul. Here in this sacred gallery of fine art, with its fivefold exhibit of masterpieces, may be seen recorded the names of the five greatest artists the world has ever known, namely, Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and Paul. Others have come forth into the arena of life, from time to time and have wielded a skillful brush. The world called them geniuses, and applauded them profusely, but they wrought for time only. Their works are destined to decay, while those artists whose names adorn the pages of the New Testament have immortalized both themselves and their work. They have produced a work that is of a twofold character, human and Divine. The human element is very apparent, but the Divine predominates. These men, like other holy men of old, wrote as they were moved of God. Hence we have in the gospels, a picture of Jesus no artist can paint. Jesus is not only the subject matter. but He is the life of these portraits. Take Christ out of the Gospels and the Epistles and you have left only a jumble of meaningless phrases. But thank God on every page of the gospels we have a revelation of Jesus, in every paragraph He may be seen, in every verse He is discernible. For this reason we love the Book. We read its pages with supreme delight. We listen to its wonderful declarations with rapt attention. Therefore, whoever would see Jesus let him enter the portal of the New Testament, remove his travel soiled sandals, and adjust his world distorted vision to the hallowed scenes about him. He will first behold the Christ of prophecy, "Thou shall call His name Jesus." He may next behold the Christ in the manger at Bethlehem; then in the temple, in the arms of Simeon; at the age of twelve. at the feast of the passover; next, by the Jordan to be baptized; in the wilderness, tempted of the devil; on the shores of Galilee choosing His disciples; preaching, healing, performing miracles; sitting at the table in the upper room; in the garden of Gethsemane, agonizing; betrayed by Judas; in Pilate's hall, buffeted, spat upon, condemned; crucified on the cross; laid away in the tomb; arisen from the dead; ascended into heaven. What a portrayal of the Man Divine! Who can behold the Christ, thus depicted in the gospels without obtaining a saving knowledge of his Lord? He who would see Jesus needs but to turn to the New Testament, and with the poet pray:

"Divine Instructor, gracious Lord, Be thou forever near; Teach me to love thy sacred word, And view my Saviour there."

The Blessed Effect Of Seeing Jesus.

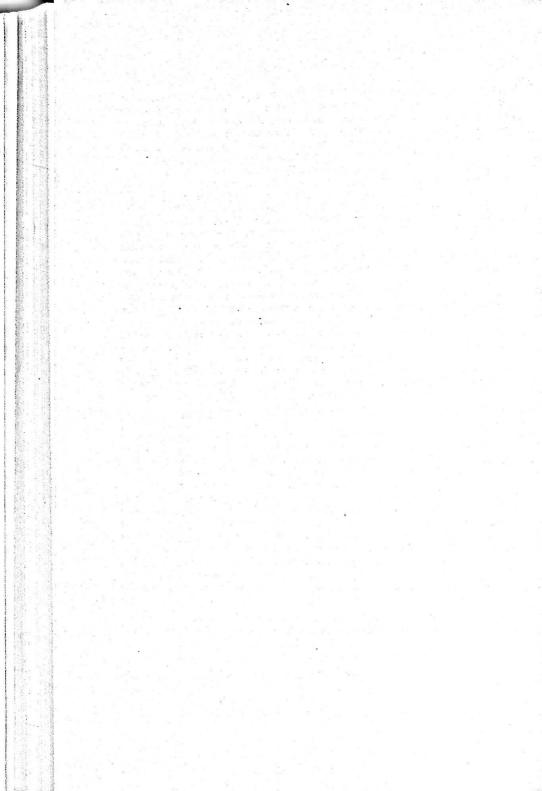

It would not be worth while to seek and find our Lord, if there were no benefits accruing to the individual. But happily the blessings attending such efforts are immeasurably great. Men may seek earthly gains, as wealth, honor, fame, and utterly fail. But they who would see Jesus need have no misgivings about the success of their efforts. They cannot fail. Christ is pleased to have all men everywhere seek Him. And in His own language said, "Seek, and ye shall find." "Look unto me and be ye saved, all ye ends of the earth." Whoever sets himself the task, or puts himself in the way of discovering Jesus Christ, immediately releases a flood-tide of Divine promises which flow into his soul like a mighty river. Peace, joy and happiness are the first fruits of their labors. But infinitely more than this, their lives are transformed and they become new creatures in Christ Jesus. Paul explains it thus, "Beholding as in a glass the image of the Lord, we are changed into the same image from glory to glory even as by the spirit of the Lord." When Moses came down from the Mount of God, his face shone so with the brightness of His glory, that he veiled his face before the people. When the rulers of the Jews beheld Peter and John, and took account of their boldness, they said: "These men have been with Jesus." What a compliment! Though it was not intended as such. This is the secret of the greatness of the early disciples. In that day the pathway of discipleship was often a pathway of martyrdom, and the witness for Jesus had to witness with his shed blood as well as with his spoken word. They had been with Jesus, and in the language of Paul to the Romans could say, "In all things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Seeing Jesus, obeying Him and serving Him, produces the highest type of manhood. We cannot fail of our gratitude to Jesus for He sooths our sorrows, heals our wounds, and drives away our fears.

We have heard it said that past blessings will not suffice. But they should be stepping stones to greater blessings helping us on to God. So, whatever may have been our good fortune in the past, we need to come again and again into His holy presence, for instruction, for inspiration, and for indument with power. Not only in nature, and in the Scriptures, nor in the lives of godly men and women may we see Jesus but also in the ordinances of the church. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper, instituted the same night He was betrayed, sets forth the Lord's dear. "Five bleeding wounds he bears, received on Calvary." By faith we have seen the pierced hands and feet, the bleeding side, the thorn-crowned brow. We know that He suffered, bled and died to save poor lost sinners, such as we all are. "What a wonderful Saviour is Jesus my Lord." For Him the great heart of the world is yearning. And men are crying out at our very gates, "Sir, we would see Jesus."

"'We would see Jesus,' for the shadows lengthen, Across this little landscape of our life;
'We would see Jesus,' our weak faith to strengthen,
For the last weariness—the final strife.

'We would see Jesus,' the great rock foundation,
Whereon our feet were set by sovereign grace;
Not life nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us, if we see His face."
