REPORT OF THE BOARD OF STEWARDS.

The Board of Stewards, in presenting their Annual Report to the Conference, and through it to the Church, would express their unfeigned gratitude to the Author of all good, that, notwithstanding the agitated state of the country, and the almost unparalleled condition of the roads and the weather during the past winter, He has put it into the hearts of the people to send up for distribution among our Conference Claimants one of the largest collections that has ever been taken for this purpose.

The exact amount of the collection itself was $6058 69, or $646 09 in advance of last year. This, in connection with the interest on the Chartered and Centenary Funds, the dividend on the profits of the Book Concern, and the kind bequest of one lately deceased brother, Rev. E. F. Cooper, has put at the disposal of the Stewards the handsome sum of $7092 03,—an amount approximating the wants of the many worthy claimants upon this fund, and evincing a determination on the part of the people to stand by those who have worn themselves out in the service of the Church, and the families of such as have fallen at their posts.

The above amount, as will be seen in the following tables, has been distributed among the several claimants in accordance with their respective necessities, so far as these could be ascertained.

The number of claimants among those in the effective ranks, as will be seen, is larger than usual. This is attributable partly to the disastrous results of the war, certain parts of the Conference, and partly to the policy of the Church, at the present time, of cutting up the work into petty Stations and Circuits, which, after doing the best they can, are wholly unable to give their Ministers a comfortable support. The Board would express the hope that, in view of the injustice done both to the effective and non-effective men thereby, this injurious practice may be discontinued.

With many thanks, on behalf of the claimants for the zeal and liberality of both Ministers and people, in bringing up the collections the past year, the Board would renew the request made in former years, that this collection may have due prominence given it in all our charges, and that it be taken up, especially in the country charges, in the autumn, rather than in the winter months.

They recommend also the adoption of the following Resolutions, viz. :

Resolved, 1st. That we recommend the collection for our superannuated preachers and their families, as one having the strongest claims upon the sympathy and benevolence of our people, and that we will use our utmost efforts to raise the amounts apportioned to our respective charges.

Resolved, 2d. That the Conference and Necessitous Collections be hereafter merged into one, which shall be known as the "Collection for Necessitous Claimants," and that those in charge of Circuits and Stations be earnestly requested to raise the amounts apportioned to their respective charges, whenever practicable, by collections and subscription in the public congregation.

MEMOIRS.

Rev. EZEKIEL F. COOPER.

The subject of this memoir was born near Willow Grove, Kent county, Delaware, May 18th, 1830, and departed this life at the residence of Mr. Rogers, in Galena, Kent county, Md., June 28th, 1862.

Being blest with the moral training of Methodist parents, he was sober-minded, thoughtful and upright from childhood. Brother Cooper was a second nephew of the late venerable Ezekiel Cooper, of this Conference. At thirteen years of age, he gave his heart to God at a Camp-Meeting near Camden, Delaware, conducted by Revs. I. T. Cooper and J. Carlisle, and shortly afterwards united with the Church, in whose service he lived, labored and died.

He was licensed to preach in October, 1854, and was received on trial by the Philadelphia Annual Conference in the spring of 1855; ordained a deacon by Bishop Waugh, 1857, and an elder by Bishop Scott, 1859. The Minutes will show his different fields of labor.

His health, never very robust, gave early indications of failure, and gradually declined until the spring of 1860, when he was granted a supernumerary relation, and in 1861, under the new rule, he became superannuated.

Brother Cooper's early educational advantages were limited; but having a natural thirst for learning he acquired a considerable fund of solid and useful knowledge. His prominent mental trait was the power of investigation, analysis and reasoning. As a preacher, he was concise, clear and fervent. His sermons were short, systematic, and instructive; and but few young ministers have acquired a more general popularity in and out of the Church than he possessed on his different fields of labor. His religious experience was calm, clear and abiding. His labors were faithful and successful. His day of opportunity was brief, but was well improved in constant and untiring devotion to the Church and all her great interests. He lived and died in all the faith, experience and life of a young evangelist.

From the place of his decease his remains were accompanied by his friends to Dover, Delaware, and consigned to the grave in the Minister's lot of Wesley Cemetery. Rev. S. M. Cooper preached a funeral discourse from Acts iv. 14—a text chosen by the deceased—and was assisted in the solemn services of the occasion by Revs. J. D. Curtis and W. Bishop. The deceased provided by will for the erection of a suitable square column of marble over his grave, to be inscribed as follows: On the east side, "Rev. Ezekiel F. Cooper, born May 18th, 1830. Died, June 28th, 1862;" on the north side, "I was born, I lived, I died;" on the south side, "I sinned, but I repented; I believed in Jesus, and went to heaven."

He also bequeathed to the Conference Stewards, for the benefit of the Conference Claimants, the sum of $148.51. The remainder of his property, amounting to $297.02, was ordered to be divided between the "Missionary Society of the M. E. Church" and the "Methodist General Biblical Institute" at Concord, N. H.

In the death of Brother Cooper, this Conference has lost an intelligent, faithful, successful and beloved member, but the Church in Heaven has gained a saint.

Rev. WILLIAM H. BRISBANE.

Rev. William H. Brisbane was born in the city of New York, Aug. 5th, 1824. His parents were respectable, but too limited in their circumstances to afford him the advantages of a liberal education. At the tender age of ten he was thrown upon his own resources, and was employed in the office of a lawyer as a messenger boy, where, having access to books, he first attained a fondness for study.

When yet but a boy he found his way to the city of Philadelphia, and apprenticed himself to the business of a chairmaker. Here he at once sought religious association and counsel, and attached himself to the Sabbath School of the Mariner's Bethel M. E. Church, where he became marked for his serious and orderly deportment. At this church he gave his heart to God, and was soundly converted Feb. 14th, 1843. Three years afterwards he received license to preach, and in 1848 he was recommended to, and received on trial, in Philadelphia Annual Conference and appointed to Delaware City Circuit; in 1849, to Elkton; 1850, to Kelly South City Mission; 1851—52, to Allentown and Bethlehem Mission; 1853—54, to Chester Circuit; 1855—56, to Easton, Md.; 1857—58, to Smyrna Station; 1859—60, to St. Paul's, Wilmington; 1861—62, to Green Street, Philadelphia; where, on the 29th of April, 1862, in the hope of a glorious immortality, he ceased to work and live.

From the first entrance of Brother Brisbane upon the work of the ministry he began to make his mark. He combined devoted piety, industrious and studious habits with a mind of great clearness and power, consequently he not only filled every appointment with unexceptionable acceptability, but he grew in knowledge and wisdom every successive year, until he could already take his position among linguists and men of science, conversant with the topics upon which they might dwell.

He always ranked in the first class in his Conference studies, though in the beginning his appointments did not seem to accord with his abilities, yet he was never known to complain that he did not receive a better, nor to use any influence to control them, but as an obedient son in the gospel willingly resorted to his fields of labor, and patiently and faithfully toiled to advance the great work in which he was engaged. He rose not as the effort of favor, but by the force of merit.

His habits of study, doubtless, laid the foundation of the disease which led to the early death of our brother. Before leaving the charge of St. Paul's, in Wilmington, his physical appearance gave evidence that his constitution was beginning to give way under the pressure of too great application, but though his friends cautioned him, he neither relaxed his studies nor his labors while in Green Street Charge, Philadelphia, until, in the close of his first year, he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs.

It was thought at first that his case was not one of danger, and that rest would soon restore him; but his disease was more deeply seated than was anticipated, for suddenly, on the evening of the 29th of April, his symptoms assumed an alarming character; and at 12 o'clock, P. M., he exchanged mortality for immortality.

Cut down in the prime and vigor of manhood, the Conference has lost one of its most excellent and promising members, and the Church one of its most useful laborers. Though we look and wonder at what seems to us one of God's strange providences, and feel that to us it seems inscrutable, yet we would bow in submission to His will, and say, "Whatsoever thou doest is right."

Brother Brisbane has left behind him an excellent wife, and two children, to mourn, to them, an irreparable loss.

Rev. THOMAS E. SKINNER.

On the 26th of April, 1838, was born on Kent Island, Queen Anne county, Md., ev. Thomas E. Skinner, the subject of this brief notice. Possessed of a susceptible nature, he yielded readily to the religious influences which from his earliest childhood were thrown around him; and in his sixteenth year, while at school in Baltimore, he gave his heart to God and became a new creature in Christ Jesus. From that time the purity of his life and the constancy of his devotion gave a living demonstration of the power of the blood of Jesus to save from sin. It was the ambition of his father to see this his oldest son located near him in the practice of medicine, and for this purpose, after spending some time at Dickinson College, he attended the lectures, and finally graduated at the Maryland University of Baltimore. Soon after he commenced practice on his native island. But it soon became evident that whatever might be his natural adaptation for this profession, it was not designed by Providence to be the business of his life. The impression that he must preach the Gospel haunted him continually, deepening with each successive month, until, in an agony of spirit, he cried out "Wo is me if I preach not the Gospel." Unwilling to lose him from their midst, his friends held out before him the prospect of a lucrative employment, the comforts of home and the associations of the loved upon the one side; and the arduous labors and perpetual self-denial to which the ministry would inevitably subject him, on the other. And for a time he wavered before the truthful picture. But he soon found that willingness to obey the mandates of God is the measure of religious enjoyment. His soul was canopied with gloom more dense than midnight darkness, through which no star of hope sent its consoling radiance. With emotions bordering on frenzy he assured his father that his salvation depended on his submission. Instantly every objection was withdrawn. He abandoned his profession and entered the Conference in 1859. His first appointment was Camden Circuit; the following year he travelled Denton, and in 1861 he found his home amid the warm sympathies and genial hospitalities of the people of Easton Circuit. There it became painfully evident that the increasing demand which his growing popularity made upon his mental and physical energies was fast hastening him to a premature grave. Emaciated by disease and exhausted by labor, he was compelled in midsummer to seek in the rural quiet of his father's house that repose which he fondly hoped would prepare him for years of coming toil.

This hope, had he been content to rest a sufficient period, might possibly have been realized; but such was his burning zeal for the conversion of souls, that ere he had entirely recovered, he was again proclaiming from the pulpits of his circuit the glad tidings of salvation and peace. As a consequence his disease, like a baffled foe, came upon him with redoubled vigor. That insidious disease, consumption, had seized him as its prey and was rapidly, but stealthily dragging him down to the grave. Too feeble to attend the Conference at its last session, he was granted a nominal appointment and connected with Kent Island. For a time he hoped to recover; but a succession of hemorrhages blighted every hope, and on the 14th of June, 1862, his happy spirit calmly took its departure for the land of rest.

As a man, Dr. Skinner was amiable, attractive and lovely. As a minister of Jesus, he was, for one so young, both able and eloquent. Few men of his age came nearer rivalling the simple grandeur of Summerfield than the subject of this memoir. Even when unfolding the most abstruse subjects, his words flowed forth as a rippling stream, not unfrequently enchanting his audience as if spell-bound.

Wherever he has gone preaching the Gospel his name will long be as ointment poured forth. But above all, Dr. Skinner was a Christian. The religion of Jesus was to him no unmeaning theory. In life it circled his brow as an eternal garland, with all the fruits and graces of the spirit, and in death it became the triumphal car by which he escaped from his sufferings to a world of glory.

Rev. ELIPHALET REED.

Rev. Eliphalet Reed was born near Queenstown, Queen Anne's county, Md., in the year 1792, and died at Mount Joy, Pa., Jan. 1st, 1863. He was converted while a youth, and in his twenty-fifth year was admitted on trial in the Philadelphia Annual Conference. At the close of his first year's ministry he returned home, and remained there two years. In 1821 he offered himself again to the Conference and was re-admitted. From that date he ceased to be a travelling preacher only when he ceased to live.

The appointments he filled during his laborious and honored ministry were as follows: 1818, Annamesssex; 1821, Trenton; 1822, Freehold; 1823—24, Cumberland; 1825—26, Gloucester; 1827, New Mills; 1828, Chester; 1829—30, Dauphin; 1831—32, Strasburg and Columbia, 1833—34, Cecil; 1835—36, Smyrna; 1837—38, Dover; 1839—40, Caroline; 1841—42, Halifax; 1843, Susquehanna Mission; 1844, supernumerary in Centreville Circuit; 1845, Nottingham; 1846, Dauphin; 1847, Halifax; 1848, Strasburg; 1849, Christiana Mission; 1850, Susquehanna; 1851, Springfield; the year following, supernumerary in the same circuit; 1853—54, Bethel and Evansburg. This was the last charge to which he sustained an effective relation. The remaining years of his life (except 1859—60, when he was supernumerary) he appears on the Minutes as superannuated. Our lamented father (according to the worlding's standard) was in no sense a great man; but, judged by the Christian's better standard, he was, in every sense, a great man of God. Religious devotion was the element of his life. It is perfectly safe to say that not less than a third of each day was spent on his knees. Every step of his life was taken as seeing the Invisible. The constant intimacy of his communion with God, gave to the very tones of his voice, in prayer or preaching—especially when repeating the name of Deity—a tremulous tenderness, and a pathetic reverence, that invariably softened and solemnized the minds of all devout hearers.

As a preacher, he was remarkable for clearness, simplicity, brevity, and power of illustration from scripture and the incidents of daily life. While his acquaintance with general literature was very limited, he was thoroughly conversant with the theological standards of his own denomination. So far as giving offense with the tongue is concerned, he may be said to have been a perfect man. Were it proper to speak of his sermons specifically, it might be shown that in their diction, and general outline, they bore a striking resemblance to those of the founder of Methodism.

During six of the last eight years of his life he was reported superannuated; but through the whole of this period he was abundant in labors, preaching once every Sabbath, frequently twice, and exhibited much of the earnestness and fervor that were distinguishing characteristics of his early ministration. The sufferings of his last illness were very great, as has been frequently noticed in the cases of many of God's most favored sons. Like many, too, of the brightest and bravest Christians, his utterances were few as he approached the gates of death. What he did say, however, was in perfect harmony with his spotless character and triumphant life. When asked by his daughter what she should read for him, he replied, "The 14th chapter of John." While she repeated those precious words—"In my father's house are many mansions, I go to prepare a place for you"—he became exceedingly happy, and exclaimed, "O, blessed be the name of the Lord!" That was a favorite exclamation with him, when happy in preaching, and many of the readers of these lines, will, doubtless, remember it with tears in their eyes. To a friend he said, "Pray that I may have a little relief from my pain;" and to his wife, "Oh, I am so happy, happy, happy!" Yes, happy then in the midst of pain, and now supremely blest, where not one pang of toil, or sickness, or sorrow shall ever be known.

The writer was once the colleague of Father Reed, and knew him intimately for the last twenty years. During the whole of that time, such was the reverence which he cherished for the sanctity of his spirit, the purity of his character and the unselfish devotion of his life to the one great work of his ministry, that he could never approach him without uncovering, and feeling that it would be a pleasure to kneel down and kiss his feet. Yet, far as he was above us in holiness; far as he has ascended beyond our vision, we follow him in his flight, expecting to be washed in the same atoning blood of the Lamb, and to be with him forever, "Where they shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

REV. JAMES HARGIS.

It is impossible in the short space allowed us, to do justice to his remarkable ministry of twenty-six years; each of which being marked by the results which ever attend the faithful preaching of the Gospel.

Brother Hargis, was not noted for more than ordinary intellectual force, and was deprived by circumstances of early educational advantages, yet the whole course of his ministry proved the Gospel as preached by him to be "the power of God unto the salvation of hundreds who even now rise up and call him blessed." His life was consistent and pure. His piety was uncompromising, even his enemies respecting him for the tenacity with which he adhered to the doctrines of his faith and denominational peculiarities. He spent his whole ministerial life on the Snow Hill District. He was born near Lewes, Del., Feb. 2d, 1803, of Presbyterian parentage, but was induced to seek "forgiveness of sin" under the powerful preaching of the Rev. Henry White, at a Camp Meeting, at Cool Spring, Sussex Co., Del., and there obtained "the knowledge of salvation by the remission of sin."

He served the Church at Ebenezer, near Lewes, as a leader, subsequently received authority to exhort, was licensed as a Local Preacher, in the spring of 1836 was admitted on trial, and travelled that year the Dorchester Circuit with Daniel Lambdin. During the year 1857 he served the Snow Hill Circuit; 1838, Accomac; 1839—40, Indiantown Mission; 1841, Salisbury; 1842, Laurel; 1843—4, Princess Ann; 1845—6, Accomac; 1847—8, Annemessex; 1849—50, Seaford; 1851, Church Creek; 1853—4, Dorchester; 1855—6, Laurel; 1857, Lewes; 1858—9, Quantico; 1860, Worcester; and in 1861—2, Princess Anne, where he laid down his body and his charge on the 19th of February, 1863, in the 60th year of his age. "His last end was peace," praising God "for supporting grace;" in calm confidence "he laid his head on the Redeemer's breast and breathed his life out sweetly there."

His character and faithfulness in his high and holy office may be summed up in the language of inspiration, "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord."

Rev. LEWIS C. PETTIT.

Rev. Lewis C. Pettit, the subject of this brief notice, was born in New Hope, Bucks County, Pa., June 21st, 1821, and through infinite mercy was born again, in the Union M. E. Church, Philadelphia, during the month of March, 1844. Soon thereafter he was received into that church on probation, and gave abundant evidence to his brethren and associates of his Christian deportment and faithfulness. In January, 1849, he was licensed to preach, and during the following April was chosen to fill a vacancy on Marietta Circuit. In the spring of 1850, he was admitted on trial in the Philadelphia Conference, and sent to Frederica Circuit. In 1851, he was stationed on Kent Circuit; 1852—3, on Denton; 1854—5, Merion Square; 1856—57, Springfield; 1858, Pottstown, and 1859—60, on Salem Circuit. In 1861 he was sent to Cressona Mission, and in 1862, at the earnest and unanimous request of the people, he was returned to the same field of labor, when he departed this life on the 4th day of June.

He suffered much during his brief and severe illness, but was mercifully sustained by the God of all grace. From the beginning he was impressed with the conviction that his sickness would be unto death. His presiding Elder, Rev. T. J. Thompson says, "I saw him twenty-four hours before his death, and in one of several interviews with him, he said, 'this is a hard struggle.' I replied, 'nature is struggling with disease, and we are praying that she may be strengthened to overcome;' he said, 'I have looked over the whole ground, and have come to the conclusion that, all things considered, this is probably the best time for me to go.' On my repeating the sentence,

'I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me,' he replied with earnest emphasis, 'I fully realize it; often have I pointed it to others.' 'Now,' said I, 'you are to claim it for yourself.' He bent forward his head in assent. Very soon afterward, calling for his beloved wife, the last adieu was taken; and while we all knelt at his bedside, and in prayer commended him to God, he calmly slept in Jesus."

Brother Pettit was a man of undoubted piety, and singularly devoted to the work of the ministry. He was respectable as a preacher, and appreciated and esteemed by the people, among whom he labored. He was zealous in the performance of his duties, uncompromising in his opposition to sin, bold and fearless in his utterances, faithful and persevering in his pastoral duties, abundant in labors for the salvation of man, and honored with more than ordinary ministerial success. His body sleeps in the Conference lot of Mount Moriah Cemetery, Philadelphia, and his soul rests in the mansions above. "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord."

REV. JAMES H. McFARLAND.

Rev. James Hunter McFarland was born in Harrisburg, Penn., March 10th, 1809. When quite young he removed to Newark, N. J., and at the age of eighteen, on the 1st of December, 1827, he was born of God. Soon after he was licensed to exhort by Rev. J. Kennedy, D. D., and in April, 1830, was admitted into the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the Philadelphia Conference; a member of the same class with Bishop Janes.

His pastoral charges were Trenton Circuit, Essex, Bergen Neck Mission, Plainfield, West Chester, Bustleton, Dover, Elkton, Agency for Dickinson College, New Castle, Columbia, Eighth St., Philadelphia, Presiding Eldership of Reading District, Frankford, Bordentown, Haverstraw, N. Y.

In 1852, while a member of the New Jersey Conference, his health failed, and he was transferred to the Philadelphia Conference as a supernumerary. He continued to serve the Church as well as his enfeebled health would allow, up to June, 1862, when he was appointed Chaplain of the U. S. Hospital, in Philadelphia. In this relation he prosecuted his ministry to the close of his life.

During the session of the Conference at West Chester he was present, and left in the evening train for his home in Philadelphia, on Monday, March 23d, 1863. He was in more than usual health and spirits. That night he sat up with his family and conversed cheerfully, and retired before 11 o'clock. A few minutes afterwards he was taken suddenly ill, and at twenty-five minutes after eleven he breathed his last. His last words were addressed to his wife, "Mother, I am dying; Lord Jesus, take me."

Bro. McFarland was a great lover of the natural sciences. For more than twenty years he was a corresponding member of the Academy of Natural Sciences, in Philadelphia, and made many valuable contributions. He was also a member of the Entomological Society.

He was a very faithful and devoted minister of Christ, and did the work of an evangelist successfully. He was warm in his friendships, reliable in his demands of duty, and above everything that looked like a compromise of Christian principle.

RESOLUTIONS AND REPORTS.

ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Whereas, We are as ever deeply impressed with the importance of the Sabbath School as a great reforming and Christianizing agency, and an indispensable auxiliary to the Church, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we will, as pastors of the flock of Christ, earnestly and prayerfully continue our efforts to promote its interest by this powerful means.

Resolved, 2. That we will introduce the Catechism into all our schools, as far as practicable, and endeavor to carry out the 16th article of the 12th section of the Discipline.

Resolved, 3. That we attach great importance to the circulation in our schools, of the "Sunday School Advocate," and the "Teacher's Journal," and renew our recommendation of the books published by the Sunday School Union of the M. E. Church unqualifiedly, over all others for the use of our schools.

Resolved, 4. That we recommend the formation, when practicable, of Pastor's Bible Classes in our schools, and that at each appointment at least one sermon be preached on the subject of Sabbath School Instruction.

The Committee recommend Rev. Joseph Mason as Vice-President of the S. S. Union, and Rev. S. Higgins as Agent.

ON TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, The public interest on the subject of Temperance has, in these later times, greatly subsided, and intemperance has proportionally increased, therefore,—

Resolved, First, That our official position and relation to society require of us to use our utmost efforts towards successfully resisting this great evil.

Resolved, Secondly, That the Gospel and divine institutions are the principal permanent and efficient correctives; and, believing this, we will do our utmost to bring them to bear in building up the cause and practice of temperance in the communities among whom we may be called to minister the Word of life.

ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Whereas, The Bible is the only full and complete revelation given to man touching his duty and destiny, and is indeed a "lamp unto his feet and a light unto his path;" and, whereas, it becomes a vital necessity that every member of the human family should have access to its precious truths, therefore,—

Resolved, 1. That we reverently and thankfully recognize the hand of God, dealing in tender mercy with sinful men, in the organization of societies whose aim is to so circulate the Holy Scriptures over these lands and throughout the world, that all may learn the way of life eternal.

Resolved, 2. That we rejoice in the vast practical results which have been achieved by the agency of the American Bible Society, and that we heartily commend it to the sympathies of the churches under our care.

Resolved, 3. That we will preach in behalf of the Bible Cause, take up collections at each of our appointments to sustain it; and that, as far as practicable, we will attend the meetings of County and State Bible Societies.

DAY OF FASTING AND PRAYER.

Whereas, Our country is now suffering severely under the blighting effects of a rebellion against the Government; and whereas, God has promised to do much for us in answer to faithful prayer, which He does not on any other condition, therefore,—

Resolved, 1. That we, the members of the Philadelphia Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, now in conference assembled, do most respectfully request the President of the United States to designate a day of fasting and prayer, in which all Christians of this entire country may unite in fervent prayer to Almighty God that He will terminate this rebellion, and restore all portions of our country to permanent loyalty and peace.

Resolved, 2. That we hereby pledge ourselves to observe said day, and to use our influence to induce the people within our respective charges to unite with us, should the President appoint a day for this purpose.

ON EDUCATION.

Resolved, 1. That the cause of Christian Education is one of the great benevolent enterprises of the Church, and, with the Missionary and Bible Causes, ought to be recognized as an indispensable auxiliary in reclaiming the world from sin, and as such should share in the contributions of the Church.

Resolved, 2. That each Pastor is expected to preach in each congregation on Christian Education, and is hereby requested to impress upon the minds of parents the importance of educating their children, and of encouraging our own literary institutions.

Resolved, 3. That we request from the several Circuits and Stations at least five cents per member for the Educational Collection, and that the apportionment to each charge be published in the published minutes; and that ten per cent. of the amount realized be applied to a fund for the benefit of indigent young men preparing for the ministry.

Resolved, 4. That to secure the interest and the concurrence of our members in raising the Educational Collection, the Presiding Elders be requested to see that a committee be appointed, at the first Quarterly Conference of each charge, to co-operate with the Preacher in devising such measures as in their judgment will ensure success.

Resolved, 5. That we appeal to the Christian conscience of our wealthy members for liberal donations and bequests toward the endowment of our literary institutions, and express the belief that this will be, under God, one of the most blessed of all their benevolent appropriations.

Resolved, 6. That President Johnson be requested to prepare a Tract on the subject of Education, for general circulation among our people.

Resolved, 7. That we specially recommend to our people the Grammar School at Carlisle, as the best place to prepare their sons for College.

Resolved, 8. That we highly appreciate the industry and economy exhibited by President Wilson, of the Wesleyan Female College, and his assistants in the literary, financial and domestic departments, and that we urge upon our friends everywhere increasing efforts in its behalf.

Resolved, 9. That we have undiminished confidence in the President and Faculty of Dickinson College, and commend that institution to their confidence and continued patronage.

Resolved, 10. That we earnestly recommend our people to observe the customary annual concert of prayer for colleges, held on the last Thursday of February.

Resolved, 11. That the Committee on Education for the next Conference shall consist of two members of the Conference, and two lay-members from each District; that the Bishop appoint the lay-members at the present session, and that the Committee fill the places of absentees.

Resolved, 12. That the Educational Collection be taken up not later than September or October.

Resolved, 13. That after ten per cent. be deducted from the Educational Collection, to be set apart for the "Beneficiary Fund of Dickinson College," the remainder be equally divided between Dickinson College and the Wesleyan Female College.

Resolved, 14. That the Presiding Bishop be requested to appoint the usual Visiting Committees to Dickinson College and the Wesleyan Female College.

MEMOIRS OF DECEASED PREACHERS.

Resolved, That in the event of any Preacher dying during the year, the Presiding Elder be requested to prepare, or appoint some one to prepare, a memoir, to be read at the next Annual Conference.

THANKS.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference be and hereby are presented to the Pastor and Trustees of this Church, together with the families who have so liberally provided for, and so generously entertained us during our Session.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference be and hereby are tendered to the Pastors and congregations of our sister Churches of this borough for their kind and fraternal attentions during our stay among them.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference be tendered to the Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia and West Chester, the Reading, and the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Delaware Rail Roads, for the liberal terms on which they have conveyed its members to and from the seat of its Session.

TRACT CAUSE.

The Committee on the Tract Cause have had the subject under consideration and present the following, as their

REPORT.

We have carefully examined the papers referred to us by the Conference, and consulted with intelligent laymen of the Board of Managers and have reached the following facts and conclusions:

1. Though last year the collections were $1327.13 less than the preceding year, they are now $612.83 more than last year.

2. That, as provision was made last year by the Board, for the support of the agency, without drawing on the public collections, and that provision has fallen but a fraction short of meeting the exigency, a similar provision has been made for the present year, with equal promise of success.

3. The condition of the Depository is now, by about $2000.00, more favorable than it was a year ago. Its resources, or property, may be regarded as worth $10,200.00, its liabilities are $8438.00, leaving a balance in its favor of $1766.00.

4. Though the Board a year ago hoped to be able to remove the Depository to a more favorable locality,—in Arch or Chestnut street,—they have not succeeded, owing chiefly to that prudent care, which we are happy to believe has hitherto characterized their administration. They have not, however, relinquished the purpose to effect such a change at as early a period as practicable.

5. We are pleased to report, that the Agent has sustained his reputation as an untiring laborer in the cause, and has succeeded in his collections beyond the most sanguine hopes of the Board at the beginning of the year.

6. We are not less pleased to remind the members of Conference, and through them the friends of a purely religious literature—that all the books of the Sunday School, and general catalogues in our publishing houses, are for sale at the Depository on the same terms on which they may be had at New York and Cincinnati.

7. We present to the Conference for adoption, the following

RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolved, That the necessity for such an institution in the city of Philadelphia as the Tract Depository, and for a special agent to promote the interests of the cause, is as urgent now, as at any previous period.

2. Resolved, That as the services of our late Agent,—the Rev. Andrew Manship,—are urgently called for in another department of the Church, and therefore may not be available in the relation he has for years sustained, we hope those of Rev. SAMUEL W. THOMAS may be procured. We therefore request the Bishop to appoint him as Tract Agent for the ensuing year.

3. Resolved, That we desire, and hereby invite the Agent to visit our charges during the year and take up the tract collections. But, if it be not practicable for him to do so, the collections shall be taken in each charge.

4. Resolved, That we appreciate the labors of the Agent, and Board of Managers, and pray that each at last, in giving an account of his stewardship, may hear the Master say: "Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many: enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

ON DECEASE OF REV. JAS. H. MCFARLAND.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to call our fellow-laborer, Rev. James H. McFarland, very suddenly from labor to reward, he having been in our midst, in the assembled Conference, in more than his usual health and spirits as late as yesterday, and to-day a companion with the saints in glory. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we recognize the hand of God in this startling event, and, in view of the Christian faithfulness of our dear departed brother, express the belief that our loss of his personal and ministerial influence and presence is his infinite gain.

Resolved, 2d. That we appreciate the value of the services he has rendered the cause of God, and rejoice that he has left the assurance that he has heard the Master say, "Come up higher."

Resolved, 3d. That we express our Christian condolence with his stricken family, and offer prayer in their behalf that God may deal with them most tenderly in this hour of their great bereavement.

Resolved, 4th. That a deputation of three members of the Conference be sent to his late home, to make such arrangements with reference to the funeral of our brother as they may deem best.

Resolved, 5th. That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family, and to the Christian Advocate and Journal and Methodist, for publication.

ON THE DIVISION OF THE CONFERENCE.

Resolved, 1st. That we are of the opinion that it is inexpedient to divide the Conference at this time.

Resolved, 2d. That it is our judgment that a division should take place at our next session, provided the condition of the country and the Church does not render it impracticable.

Resolved, 3d. That for the purpose of preparing for such a division as is recommended in the former resolution, we recommend the appointment of a committee of three members of the Conference, who shall be a Committee of Correspondence, to obtain all necessary information on the subject, and report the result at the next Conference.

RECOMMENDATIONS—JOHN WESLEY CHURCH.

Whereas, The John Wesley M. E. Church (colored), in Philadelphia, is in great financial distress, and the Pastor, Rev. James Davis, is a respectable minister of the Gospel, appointed by Bishop Scott; therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend him and the Church of which he is Pastor, to the favorable consideration of our friends and members, especially in Philadelphia.

FORREST MISSION.

Resolved, That the Missionary at Forrest Mission be commended to the liberality of our people for aid in the erection of Churches on said Mission.

TIME OF TAKING CONFERENCE COLLECTIONS.

1. Bible, in August. 2. Sunday School, in September. 3. Collection for Conference Claimants, in October and November. 4. Missionary, in December and January. 5. Education, as per Report. 6. Tract as per Report. 7. General Conference Collection, in February and March.

BORDENTOWN FEMALE COLLEGE,

Bordentown, N. J.

This institution for the education of Young Ladies, is located in the borough of Bordentown, on the Camden and Amboy Railroad, two and three-quarters hours ride from New York, and one and a quarter from Philadelphia. Its situation is unsurpassed for ease of access, beauty and healthfulness.

The course of instruction is comprehensive and thorough, and each department is under the charge of experienced and competent teachers. Pupils wishing thorough instruction in Vocal and Instrumental Music have peculiar advantages. German and French are taught by natives and spoken in the family.

The buildings are spacious, well arranged and well heated, and are furnished with hydrant water, and lighted throughout with gas. Care is taken not only to develop the intellectual and moral faculties of the young ladies, but also to secure a healthful development of the physical system by a regular course of daily exercises.

The facilities for illustrating the Natural Sciences have been increased by the purchase of a Museum of Natural History, embracing more than five hundred specimens.

📖 Catalogues containing full particulars, may be had by addressing
Rev. JOHN H. BRAKELEY, A. M., President.
