DAILY PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The Conference met in Locust Street M. E. Church, in the city of Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday morning, March 13, 1867, at 9 o'clock—Bishop Scott in the Chair.

The Session was opened by religious exercises, conducted by Bishop Scott; consisting of reading the 3d and part of the 4th chapter of II Corinthians, singing of Hymn 237, and prayer by W. Cooper. Hymn 570 was then sung, and a prayer offered by A. Atwood.

The Roll was called by the Secretary of the last Conference, when the members present answered to their names.

R. H. Pattison was elected Secretary, and G. W. Lybrand, A. M. Wiggins and S. L. Gracey, Assistant Secretaries.

The Conference resolved to meet daily at 9 A. M., and adjourn at 12 M.

The Conference adopted the Rules of the last Session, for the government of the present Session.

The Bishop announced the transfer to this Conference of A. D. Davis from Erie Conference, and D. R. Thomas from Central Illinois Conference.

Several of our brethren having died during the year, it was resolved to hold a Memorial Service on Friday, at 10½ A. M.

The usual Standing Committees were nominated by the Presiding Elders, and approved by the Conference. On motion, a Committee "On the Sabbath" was appointed. On motion, a Committee "On the Freedmen" was appointed. (For all of these, see Standing Committees.)

A. Rittenhouse presented the "Address of the Delaware Association for the Moral Improvement and Education of the Colored People," which was, on motion, referred to the Freedmen's Committee.

A paper on the division of the Conference was presented by G. D. Carrow, and, on motion, laid on the table for the present.

The Conference accepted an invitation of H. M. Johnson, President of Dickinson College, to visit that Institution, and fixed Friday as the time.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on publication of Minutes to have them published by the Conference Tract Society, if it could be done on as liberal terms as by others.

T. C. Murphy, T. A. Fernley, A. Cookman, W. Kenney and C. F. Turner were appointed a Committee on the Memorial Service to be held on Friday morning.

A Committee on the "State of the Church" was, on motion, ordered. (See Standing Committees.)

A motion to have the Missionary Statistics published with the Minutes, and distributed gratuitously, and a motion to have the Missionary Report published separately from the Minutes, were laid upon the table.

The Report of the President of Dickinson College was presented, and referred to the Committee on Education.

The paper on the Division of the Conference, which had been laid upon the table, was, on motion, taken up. Bishop Scott stated the views of the Board of Bishops as favoring a re-arrangement of the Conference boundaries, and deprecating any action until the General Conference. Permission was given to G. D. Carrow to withdraw the paper.

Visiting Clergymen were invited to take seats within the bar.

The parchments of J. Klein, as Local Elder, were presented and placed on file.

The Rev. Solomon Higgins departed this life on Tuesday evening, February 12th, 1867, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, after a well-spent life in the service of God and man, in certain hope of a glorious resurrection to eternal life and blessedness in the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

He was born in Talbot county, Maryland, January 20th, 1792, a few months after the founder of Methodism died, and was one of his many sons in the gospel born of God to promote the great revival of pure religion which began about 1739. His early years were spent on the eastern shore of Maryland, among the seductions and blandishments of sin, from which, however, a gracious Providence soon plucked him as a brand from the burning, and turned his fine intellect and heart to the things which make for the world's peace and prosperity, and which secured his own, and won for him a name dear to thousands who profited by his faithful ministry, and placed it in the front rank of his brethren for sagacity, generosity, fine sensibility, and all the elements which enter into the character of the true Christian gentleman and minister of the Lord Jesus Christ. About the twenty-second year of his age, he commenced that work which ceased only with the failing powers of his life; but the extreme labors and hardships to which our early ministers were subjected in carrying out their great commission were too severe for his delicate constitution, and forced him for a season into comparative retirement which he spent in a clerkship in Philadelphia, where unwittingly to himself God was preparing him for the work in which he was to end his days. With the return of improved health, he returned to the ranks of the itinerant ministry in 1821; and must have been a man of large promise of usefulness to the Church of God, as he filled with much favor and profit throughout his ministerial life, many of her most important appointments. In 1821 he traveled Milford, Del.; in 1822 and 1823, Talbot; in 1824-5, Dover; and in 1826, Smyrna. In 1827-8 he was stationed in Asbury, Wilmington, Del.; in 1829-30 he was stationed in the Union M. E. Church, Philadelphia; in 1831-2, in Trenton; and in 1833-4, in Newark, N. J. In 1835 he was returned to Philadelphia, and was stationed in Ebenezer, where he remained through 1835-6, when he was placed in charge of the South Philadelphia District, and through 1837-38-39-40 traveled over it with much patient endurance and usefulness, in the days of stage coaches and long horse-back rides. In 1841 he was transferred from the South to the North Philadelphia District, and was in charge of it until the close of 1841. In 1845-46 he was stationed in St. John's, Philadelphia, and there the days of his effective ministry ended. He took a supernumerary relation in 1847, and retained it until 1861, when he was made Sunday School Agent, and remained in that important position until the Conference of 1864, when he became superannuated. The high place which he held in the estimation of his brethren is seen in that he was elected successively a member of the General Conference of 1828, 1832, 1836 and 1840.

When failing health compelled him to retire from the work in which his best days were spent, and which his heart ever loved, he did not retire a disappointed and complaining man, a burden to himself and others; but with a resigned and cheerful spirit, hopeful in God, directed what strength remained to new and untried fields of labor to gain an honorable support for himself and those dependent on him, and he nobly achieved the object. He may truthfully be called the father of the Methodist book interest in Philadelphia, for he took the book store in that city when it was depressed and hopelessly embarrassed, and made it a success, profitable in many ways to the Church, honorable in the business community, exchanging publications with the best houses in our cities, and taking its honored place in the book trades of the land.

From his retirement from the regular work of the ministry to the close of his days, his life was neither inactive nor unfruitful; he was diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, a strictly honorable, high-minded, conscientious man. He was neat, careful, dignified in person, and his personal presence was a true index of the inner man. In him there was nothing mean, sordid, false; but manly, upright and true, impressing all with whom he associated that he was a man to be respected and trusted, and he never disappointed them. His heart was filled with kindly sympathies and generous impulses, and his hand was ever open to relieve another's woe. His benefactions were limited only by his want of ability to extend them. His cheerful spirit was rarely ruffled, and never for a long time; his gratitude for favors received from his brethren far exceeded their value; and his forgiveness reached all injuries, intentional or otherwise. His enmities, if he had any, were short lived, but his friendships lived unchanged amidst all changes, and were as strong in old age, as they were in younger years. His care for the character and feelings of his brethren was admirable, and is beyond all praise; and his love for the honor of his Master and His work was not a flame fed by the fires of prosperity only, but burned brighter amid great and sore trials, and brightest of all in the midst of the greatest sorrows of his life—the loss of health, the loss of his only daughter in the bloom of early womanhood, and then the last crushing blow, the loss of his noble wife. But his faith wavered not, his love grew not cold; in the language of the patient sufferer of the land of Uz, he could say, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in Him," and bravely battling on through sunshine and storm, he has won at last the victor's crown. His last words on earth were, "I have received nothing but good from the Fountain of all good;" "do all the good and get all the good you can." Thus lived and died Solomon Higgins, a noble man of God!

REV. GEORGE S. QUIGLEY.

Rev. GEORGE SNEATH QUIGLEY was born in Soudsburg, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, November 6th, 1814, and died in the city of Wilmington, June 25th, 1866, in the 53d year of his age.

His conversion occurred about his 25th year, under the ministry of the late Enos R. Williams. Three years after, in 1842, he was admitted on trial in the Philadelphia Conference, and appointed to Brandywine Circuit; the next year to Cecil Circuit; and the following year to Stoddartsville; this appointment, though inexplicable to him, was a compliment to his stern and unflinching orthodoxy, even at this early period of his ministry. His next appointment was at Allentown, where he labored successfully for two years. In 1847-48, he was on Attleborough Circuit; 1849 at Lebanon; 1850-51, he had charge of the North City Mission; 1852-53 he was stationed at New Market Street; 1854-55 at Frankford; 1856-57 at Germantown; 1860-61 at Tabernacle, Philadelphia; 1862 on Newark Circuit; and 1863-64 on Chester Circuit. In the spring of 1865 he was stationed at Asbury Church, Wilmington, and re-appointed the following year. Here, after a laborious service, covering a period of fifteen months, his labors and his life ceased at once. It pleased God to save his servant the weariness and pain of a protracted affliction. His last hours were characteristic. He said but little beside "Jesus died for me." These few words tell the whole story of his triumph. When informed that a few hours only remained, he carefully arranged a few items of business and calmly awaited the end.

His ministerial career, extending a little over twenty-four years, was a glorious success; and the fruit gathered on his last charge is a fitting close to his life, and a proof of his apostleship. He is gone from our midst. The few that enjoyed the privilege of intimacy with him, and learned to read his true character, will fondly cherish his memory. He was not demonstrative, and to one unacquainted with his peculiarity, he would seem devoid of ardent attachments.

To describe him accurately would require a knowledge of his private life, and a power to appreciate a native honesty that discards all pretension. He did not make large promises, but he did large things; his kind offices could not be bought, but to the worthy they were freely given; and he was never without pity, even for those whom he could not commend. With him, the solution of one question was sufficient to determine his course. Right, or what to him was equivalent, found in him a champion; while what he esteemed to be wrong, though advocated by his best friends, staggered under his ponderous blows. In him were blended the guilelessness and meekness of the child, and the courage and strength of the lion.

The traits of his character were strongly marked. As a Christian and a minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, he exemplified the purity of the one and the fidelity of the other. He rather lived than professed religion, and proved his ministry by the practical sympathy that carries the consolations of Christ to the abodes of poverty, of sickness, and of bereavement.

Like his Master, he went about doing good. His pulpit ministrations were characterized by clearness, by fidelity to the Scripture, by an adaptation of the truth to his hearers, and by a manner that demonstrated his own interest in his theme.

Brother Quigley was emphatically a conscientious man. This trait so strongly developed had much to do in the formation of his character and his habits. Overstrained, it sometimes led him to disparaging views of himself, and created unnecessary despondency. The effect, however, resulted beneficially to himself and others; to himself through increased watchfulness, and to others through the impetus imparted to his exertions. Other men never had the keeping of his conscience. This he held as a sacred trust from God. He may have done more than was really his duty, but he could not be compelled to do less than he thought to be his duty.

His life was a sacrifice to his convictions. He might have been alive to-day had he possessed an accommodating conscience.

He was a man of integrity. There was a unity of character in all he said and did. He never acted unlike himself. His honesty is above suspicion. To this trait in his character may be traced what seemed to be rigorous exactions from others. He expected from others only what he required of himself, and his commendation was worth receiving, and he knew how to confess his own errors. He was transparent. His words were the index to his heart. When he spoke no one asked what does he mean? or where is he?

Love for the Church was with him an absorbing passion. Like a vigilant sentinel he watched with intensest interest every development of opinion or practice that augured either good or evil for the Church of his fellowship. Its prosperity afforded him joy; fear of its humiliation was the bane of his life.

Brother Quigley was endowed by nature with a vigorous mind, and seemed to gather knowledge by intuition rather than by patient research. He read men as well as books, and possessed a comprehensive and vivid impression of living facts, and a power to use them. In him all was consecrated to the work his Master gave him to do; and many will arise and call him blessed.

We have not yet viewed him in those domestic relations which enrich and adorn the family circle. He was the kind husband and the anxious father. In that heart, burdened with care, there was an inner sanctuary, where those dependent upon him found shelter and safety.

The mother and five boys have lost their earthly protector, but in the promise of God there is a mine more rich in wealth, than earth's accumulated stores. "A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation."—Psalm LXVI: 5.

REV. JOSHUA H. TURNER.

The subject of the following memoir was born in Sussex county, State of Delaware, May 14th, 1820, and died in Bristol, Pennsylvania, February 19th, 1867. His age at the time of his death being 46 years 9 months and 5 days.

He was converted to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in the 17th year of his age, and was admitted on trial in the Philadelphia Conference in the spring of 1845, having traveled Church Creek Circuit under the Presiding Elder the previous year, and was stationed on Milton Circuit. His subsequent appointments, were Salisbury, 1846; Pocomoke, 1847; Allentown and Bethlehem, 1848; Port Clinton and Schuylkill Haven, 1849; Bethel and Evansburg, 1850; Pottstown, 1851; Sumnerfield, Philadelphia, 1852; Grove Circuit, 1853; Springfield Circuit, 1854-55; Tabernacle, Philadelphia, 1856-57; Hedding, Philadelphia, 1858-59; Port Carbon and Silver Creek, 1860-61; Minersville, 1862-63; Ebenezer, Manayunk, 1864-65; Bristol, 1866—where he closed his labors and his life, greatly beloved by the Church and community. Brother Turner was emphatically "a good man," says one who knew him long and knew him well. "He was one of the most consistent and holy men I have ever known. I cannot now think of an act or word of his life, since his conversion, which was not consistent with his Christian profession."

He enjoyed, professed, and preached the great blessing of perfect love, and was very happy in its possession just before his last illness. His Christian experience was clear to the last, and was triumphantly expressed as long as he could speak. To his cousin, Rev. C. F. Turner, the day before he died, he replied, in answer to the question, "whether all was well with him religiously?" "Yes, bless the Lord." A little later, on the same day, a committee of his brethren, Rev. W. Kenney, A. Manship, J. B. Ayars, and his Presiding Elder, Rev. J. Mason, who had been appointed by the Preacher's Meeting, in Philadelphia, to wait upon him, and to extend to him their sympathies and prayers, called upon him. They found him very ill, his mind occasionally wandering, but even in his wanderings, the Church and the cause of God seemed to be uppermost in his thoughts. When his attention was called to his visiting brethren, he recognized and called them each by name, when asked as to his religious experience, he replied: "All is well with me;" and then, with an emphasis and impressiveness, which such an hour and scene can give, he said: "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin." While his brethren were engaged in prayer with and for him—"That if it were the will of God, that his disorder might be rebuked and that he might be spared to his family and the Church," he responded: "Yes, if it be the will of God;" thus evincing his entire submission to the will of his heavenly Father.

On the following day when he could no longer articulate distinctly, he was asked, "If his way was perfectly clear?" He answered, as best he could, "Perfectly." He then with difficulty articulated the name of his beloved wife, and intimated a desire to see his children once more; but when they came he was unable to give expression to the feelings and thoughts that swelled his heart. He then, with a sweet smile upon his countenance, "fell asleep in Jesus."

Thus has passed from earth to heaven our beloved brother and fellow-laborer, Rev. Joshua H. Turner, one of the purest and best of men.

"Mark the perfect man and behold the upright for the end of that man is peace." Brother Turner was an excellent preacher, plain, Scriptural, practical, earnest and successful, and in the day of eternity "many will rise up and call him blessed." His literary and theological attainments were of a highly respectable character, and reflect great credit upon his industry and perseverance. As a pastor, he had few equals in the Sunday-school, in the prayer and class meetings. He was always in his place, and faithful in the discharge of his duties. In the sick chamber, in the abode of poverty, and in all the walks of life, like his Divine Master, "He went about doing good."

As a husband and father, he was all that could be desired. As a friend, he was affectionate, faithful and constant. It is a question whether he had an enemy in the world. "He was a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost, and by him much people were added unto the Lord."

On Saturday, February 9th, he went from his home in Bristol to Philadelphia to attend the funeral of the daughter of our late lamented Rev. William Barnes. He returned to his home in the evening quite indisposed. He preached on the following (Sabbath) morning with great difficulty from continued indisposition. In the afternoon and evening he was unable to be present at the services. The next morning, February 11th, though quite unwell, he attended the meeting of the Quarterly Conference, which closed his active labors in the Church on earth. His disease, which his physicians pronounced to be "nervous fever," was short and severe, which he bore with the most perfect patience and submission. He leaves a widow and two children to mourn his departure, whom we affectionately and earnestly commend to the sympathies and prayers of the Church.

Funeral services of a deeply interesting character, which were attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends, both of the ministry and laity, were held in the Union M. E. Church, February 22nd, when the devotional services were conducted by Rev. A. Atwood, William Cooper, J. B. Maddux, T. A. Fernley and W. Kenney. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Bishop Simpson and G. D. Carrow. A memoir of the deceased, and resolutions of sympathy passed by the Preachers' Meeting of Philadelphia, and the official members of the Bristol M. E. Church, were read by the Rev. J. Mason and T. C. Murphy. His remains were temporarily deposited with suitable religious services, in the vault of the Asbury M. E. Church in West Philadelphia.

"Our brother the haven hath gained,
Outflying the tempest and wind;
His rest he hath sooner obtained,
And left his companions behind,
Still tossed on a sea of distress,
Hard toiling to make the best shore
Where all is assurance and peace,
And sorrow and sin are no more."

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF STEWARDS,

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH, 1867.

The Stewards of the Conference having completed, to the best of their ability, the onerous task imposed upon them of receiving and distributing the funds contributed for the relief of necessitous Conference claimants, beg leave respectfully to report the following results :

The collections in the different charges amount, in the aggregate, to $9,161 26, or an increase of $170 54 over the preceding year. This, with the interest on the Centenary and Chartered Funds, together with the liberal donations received from special friends of the Church and its ministry, has given us for distribution the present year the sum of $9,790 58, or an advance on last year's aggregate of $287 76. This, considering the large amounts collected during the year for Centenary and other objects, and the interference in taking of the collections that must necessarily have been occasioned by the unusually bad weather of the past Winter, is a most gratifying result, and speaks well, not only for the increasing liberality of our people in general, but especially for their growing interest in that worthy class who are the recipients of this fund.

But we are pained to add, that while the collections have thus shown an encouraging increase, the number of necessitous claimants on our Conference funds has also increased in a much larger ratio—the total reported and admitted to our list being no less than 66, or an advance of ten on last year's report, with an aggregate claim of $16,100—an advance on last year's claim of $3,375.

Of these claimants, as will be seen in the following exhibit of the distribution of the funds, fourteen are worn out or disabled Ministers, who are no longer able to take appointments and do effective work, and are also too old or too feeble to support themselves in business; four are Ministers retiring from the work to recruit their shattered health, also needing assistance in making the change to private life; thirty-nine are widows, and three are children of deceased ministers, the most of whom served the Church faithfully in life, and richly earned for their now bereaved and dependent families all that they are ever likely to receive from the Church; while six are from the effective ranks, their claim growing out of necessities imposed upon them either by the continued troubles in the Southern part of our work, or the multiplication of separate charges that are unable to sustain themselves properly, or that more objectionable practice that is growing up in our Church of appointing single men to strong married men's appointments, and married men to charges that are barely able to decently support single men.

To this latter class of claimants the Stewards have appropriated the smallest amount that their sense of justice and right would allow them to give, lest they should encourage negligence on the part of the Ministry, or indifference on the part of the membership.

To the other classes of claimants they have given amounts varying according to their respective wants and circumstances, so far as these were known, their only regret being that they had so little to give where so much more was absolutely needed.

In conclusion, in view of the large number of claimants now on the Conference, and the utter impossibility of giving to each a comfortable support, even with the increased liberality of the Church, the Board would venture respectfully to suggest to the Preachers now in the effective ranks, and especially to the younger men, the propriety of each, in the days of his strength and vigor, endeavoring by economy, and careful attendance upon his duties as a Minister, to lay by something for the exigencies of sickness and death, so that in either case his family will not be so wholly dependent upon the small pittance to be received from this fund.

And in view of the comparatively sudden and premature deaths of many of our Ministers, as evinced by the very large proportion of Preacher's widows upon our lists, the Board would also venture to suggest, as a means to provide for such a contingency, the taking out by each Minister of a life insurance policy for such sum as his circumstances will allow him to carry, say from one thousand to five thousand dollars. The annual payments on the smaller sum, averaging about thirty dollars, by economy and a little self-denial can be met by almost any one, no matter how poor his appointments, while those whose salaries are larger and perquisites more valuable, could carry a much larger amount. Indeed, the advantages in case of early death, both to the Minister's family and to the Church, are so great in an arrangement of this kind, that the holder of a life insurance policy would be justified even in appealing to friends, in case of an emergency, to help him to meet his payments and retain his policy. With these suggestions to the Ministry themselves, and with the expression of a hope that the Conference will be more careful than ever before in receiving men into its ranks, to inquire specially into their health and their physical as well as intellectual and moral fitness for the work, the Board would present for the adoption of the Conference the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That we recommend the collection for our necessitous Conference claimants, as one having the strongest claims upon the sympathy and benevolence of our people, and that we will use our utmost efforts to raise the amounts appropriated to our respective charges.

Resolved, 2. That Preachers in charge of circuits and stations shall be required to report their collections for Conference claimants, on the second day of the next session of our Conference, stating at the time both the amount appropriated and the amount collected: said collections to be in United States funds, and in notes of as large a denomination as possible.

Resolved, 3. That inasmuch as it is important to the Board of Stewards that they be notified of all the claims likely to come before them at an early period in the session, it shall be made the duty of all recognized claimants upon the Conference funds, as well as those proposing to change their relation, who will need a claim, to give notice of the fact in writing, or through their Presiding Elders, on the second day of the next session, immediately after the call of the Stewards shall have been made.

Resolved, 4. That it is the sense of this Conference that, in the distribution of the work from time to time, no appointments should be made that do not promise at an early period to be self-sustaining, and that there it is found necessary to keep up those that are otherwise, the proper authorities should see to it that the deficiencies in the Preachers' salaries shall be made up out of the missionary funds rather than from those under the control of the Board of Stewards.

Resolved, 5. That the collection for Conference claimants, whenever practicable, shall be taken in the months of October and November.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal Church has always stood among the foremost in its opposition to the vice of intemperance, and whereas, it is proper, from time to time, it should reaffirm its position, lest it should be imagined that its zeal upon this subject has begun to wane :

Therefore, Resolved,

1st. That it is with pain and anxiety we behold the wide-spread effects of intemperance, affecting all classes of society—too frequently invading the Church.

2nd. That we attribute the increase of intemperance to two causes, viz. : To the increase of legalized places for the vending of the intoxicating draught, and to its use in the family circle.

3rd. That we look upon intemperance as the most potent cause of all the crime and irreligion which affects society, leading to murder, theft, licentiousness, blasphemy, and neglect of public worship.

4th. That we look upon the traffic in that which leads to such dreadful effects as deserving the censure of all good members of society.

5th. That we deplore the growing disposition to manufacture domestic wines, to be used as a beverage, this being the seed from which such a vast harvest of intemperance is germinated, especially producing in the children a taste for stimulants which leads to the imbibing of stronger drinks, and too frequently to drunkenness and every other vice.

6th. That we look upon the law of the land as the guardian of public morals, and cannot see the consistency of legalizing a traffic productive of so much evil.

7th. That we have been shocked at the carelessness too frequently exhibited in the character of the wine introduced at the Lord's table, making an ordinance designed to be most pleasant and profitable, both repulsive and dangerous, and that we will earnestly urge those whose business it is, to provide as far as practicable the unfermented and unadulterated fruit of the vine.

8th. That we do earnestly protest against the practice of giving respectability to the use of intoxicating liquors by styling them medicines, whether it is such as is ordinarily used on draught, or whether it pass under the name of bitters, tonics, or schnaps, thus affording a pretext to too many for their use. Medical authority of the highest character has testified that it is positively injurious rather than beneficial.

9th. That it is the duty of the ministry to help in this great moral movement, and to endeavor to give tone to moral sentiment, not only by being examples to the people in personally practicing total abstinence, but by co-operating with every judicious movement intended to overthrow the demon of intemperance, whether it be by the formation of total abstinence societies, or by endeavoring to procure legal enactments prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks.

10th. That we regard it as an especial duty to form total abstinence societies among the children, believing this to be the only sure method of finally overthrowing this great evil.

11th. That we feel it to be our duty, gently, but resolutely, to enforce the rule of our discipline on this subject.

12th. That we have heard with pleasure of the formation of the Pennsylvania State Temperance Union, it being a union of the various total abstinence societies within the State for the efficiently carrying out of the great purposes contemplated in the temperance movement, and that we endorse the present form adopted by it at its convention in Harrisburg, in the month of February last.

13th. That we have heard with pleasure that the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, John W. Geary, threw the weight of his influence in favor of this movement by not only presiding over its preliminary organization, but by pledging himself to co-operate in its action.

14th. That we have also heard with pleasure of the formation of the Congressional Temperance Society; the example from such a high source will not only exert a beneficial influence, but also strengthen the hands of the advocates of the temperance cause all over the country.

15th. That we hereby record our testimony against the use of opium, except when prescribed by a physician, regarding this as a more pernicious vice than even the indulgence in ardent spirits.

16th. That we commend the movement of the Citizens' Association of Pennsylvania in the establishment of an asylum for the reformation and cure of the victims of intemperance.

17th. That we have learned with pleasure of the establishment of the National Temperance Publication House in the city of New York, for the issuing of a temperance literature, believing that it will be a great power in the temperance movement, in furnishing the right character of ammunition with which to fight this public enemy.

18th. That we recommend the circulation of the National Temperance Advocate, of the Youth's Temperance Banner, and of all other good temperance papers.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FREEDMEN.

The Committee appointed to consider the condition of the Freedmen beg leave to submit the following report :

Whereas, Having learned from the Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, and from the papers submitted to us, that there are now Providential openings for our Church among the Freedmen, which have not heretofore appeared ; and,

Whereas, There are large numbers of Freedmen within the bounds of our own Conference, and in all the Southern States, who can be most effectually reached by our own denomination ; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we heartily approve of the organization of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

Resolved, 2nd. That this Conference organize an auxiliary to the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

Resolved, 3rd. That we request a collection in all our congregations to be taken in May or June to aid this Society in the educational work.

Resolved, 4th. That we recommend the following Constitution as a suitable one to be adopted by the Annual Conference Society.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This organization shall be known as the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Philadelphia Annual Conference, and shall be auxiliary to the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ARR. 2nd. Its object shall be to aid the Parent Society in promoting the cause of education among the Freedmen of the South, in co-operation with the Missionary and the Church Extension Societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ARR. 3rd. Every member of the Philadelphia Annual Conference shall be an active member of this Society. Any person contributing $10 shall be an honorary member.

ARR. 4th. The officers shall be a President and Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and seven Managers, who shall be elected annually.

ARR. 5th—SEC. 1st. The President and Vice President shall perform such duties as usually pertain to their offices respectively.

SEC. 2nd. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of all meetings of the Society and Board of Managers.

SEC. 3d. The Treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all funds coming into his hands, and pay into the Treasury of Parent Society all funds not required to meet expenses, approved by the Board of Managers.

ARR. 6th—SEC. 1st. There shall be an annual meeting for the election of officers and transaction of other business, at such time, during the session of the Conference, as shall be designated by the Managers.

SEC. 2d. There may be an anniversary meeting held under the auspices of the Managers during the session of the Conference, to which the Annual Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer shall be submitted. When no anniversary is held these reports shall be made to annual meeting.

ARR. 7th. This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting by a two-third vote.

Resolved, 5th. That it gives us pleasure to hear of the humane and benevolent efforts in behalf of the Freedmen, put forth by the Freedmen's Aid Associations of Pennsylvania and Maryland, and the Delaware Association for the Education and Moral Improvement of the Colored People, and recognizing that the condition of the emancipated millions in our country presents a field of usefulness so wide that all forms of effort cannot fully meet its demands, we bid all within the bounds of our Conference, who are identified with these commendable movements, God-speed in their good work.

The Committee are impressed with the devotion of the Board of Managers of the Philadelphia Conference Tract Society to the interests committed to their care. The friends of the cause have manifested a generous liberality which inspires confidence in its future prosperity. The business interests of the Society have been conducted with fidelity and integrity and considerable success.

The following resolutions are respectfully submitted :

1. That a tract collection be taken in all our charges, and that we will continue to co-operate with the Corresponding Secretary in making it large.
2. That we recommend that a distinct and separate account be kept of the benevolent operations of the Society, and that the business department be charged with a due proportion of the expenses of the Tract Agency.
3. That as the Depository is a denominational and connectional establishment, it ought to receive the patronage of the Church within our bounds.
4. That we recommend the re-appointment of Samuel W. Thomas as Corresponding Secretary for the ensuing year.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Whereas, This Conference cherishes the most cordial confidence in the American Bible Society, and earnestly desire to secure the active co-operation of the members and friends of the M. E. Churches within our bounds, to accomplish its noble and benevolent designs; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we render devout thanks to Almighty God that he has secured to the American Bible Society the means to meet so liberally the demands upon it.

Resolved, 2. That we will welcome the accredited Agents of the Society into our several fields of labor; preach on the Bible cause, and urge our people to contribute liberally to the funds of the Society, and engage heartily in its labors.

Resolved, 3. That we recognize the efficiency of the "American Bible Society" in the workings of its Local Auxiliaries; and that, whenever such auxiliaries exist within our Conference boundaries, we will encourage our people to co-operate with them; and that Preachers in charge where such auxiliaries do exist, shall ascertain, as nearly as possible, the amount of contributions made through these Societies, to which their respective congregations are entitled; and report such amounts to Conference as their Bible collections, stating in their reports that the monies have been paid to local agencies.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Whereas, Certain portions of the work within the bounds of the Snow Hill District, have suffered very severely from causes connected with, or growing out of the late war, by which sixteen Churches are in the hands of the M. E. Church South, and one in the hands of the Methodist Protestant Church; and,

Whereas, The present aspect of things there is not favorable either to the spiritual or temporal interests of the M. E. Church; and,

Whereas, This condition of things calls loudly for the prompt, discreet and energetic action of the Philadelphia Annual Conference; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That because of the peculiar and unhappy status of the Church on that District, that the special attention of this Conference be directed thereto.

Resolved, 2. That as there are so many of our Churches there unlawfully held and occupied by those who oppose us, and that as there are law suits now pending in order to the repossession of the same, that said Churches should receive the warmest sympathy and most efficient aid of our Church.

Resolved, 3. That, in the judgment of this Conference, it will require at least $1,000 for a successful litigation in the aforesaid suits.

Resolved, 4. That we recommend to the liberality of the Church and public within our bounds, the application of the Presiding Elder of Snow Hill District for such help as may be requisite in the case.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

Your Committee beg leave to report: That the Christian Sabbath is, by the acknowledged verdict of the Evangelical Christian world—a verdict founded on the teachings of the Holy Scriptures—a necessity alike for the physical, intellectual and religious welfare of men. It is moreover observed, not by the authority of human opinion, which is variable, but in accordance with express Divine law and inspired example, which law enjoins that the Sabbath of the Lord be kept holy by all men, and through all time, inasmuch as it was made for man, to secure the well being of man in time and in eternity. Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Philadelphia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church,

First. That so far as our influence extends we will never cease to contend boldly for the glory of God and the Majesty and authority of his law concerning the Holy Sabbath.

Second, That in charity to all, and malice to none, we do hereby pledge ourselves to oppose without compromise, and without ceasing, all men whether in high or low places, who, by assailing the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath, assail Christianity in the very eye.

Third. That we regard the proposed running of the street cars in the city of Philadelphia, as a clear violation of the sanctity of the Sabbath day, and as an infraction of the rights of the poor laboring men, employed in the running of said cars, God having distinctly enjoined one day in seven as a day of rest for man and beast.

Fourth. That we respectfully and urgently request the members of the Legislature, and the Governor of this and other States, to refuse all Legislative and Executive action which would oppose human enactments to the express law of God, reminding them solemnly that Divine laws cannot be repealed with impunity by human legislation, even if such legislation be sanctioned by vast majorities of men.

Fifth. That, admiring as we do, the noble legislation of the 39th Congress of the United States, we yet, in the name of the God whom we serve, and of the Lord Jesus Christ whom we preach, do solemnly protest against the late sessions of Congress on the Sabbath day, inasmuch as due diligence on their part would have avoided the plea of necessity for such action, and that we profoundly regret the spectacle of the national law makers while in the very act of passing important laws, themselves trampling upon a solemn and express law of Almighty God, from whom alone human governments derive their authority.

REPORT OF SABBATH SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools regard the Sabbath School work as a fundamental part of the Christian ministry, and of vital importance to the prosperity of the Church. We esteem it the duty of every Pastor to furnish an example to his people of devotion to this work, by being present in the School, by teaching adult classes of scholars or visitors, and by carrying out the measures of our discipline pertaining to this department of our economy.

We consider each Pastor as the proper head of the Sabbath School or Schools in his charge, and he should endeavor, by preaching upon the subject, by systematising all the workings of the department, and by holding Normal classes for preparing teachers for their work, to give permanent efficiency to this sphere of his labor. We deem it desirable to bring the School and the congregation into close sympathy by arranging for frequent attractive demonstrations in the School, and by assigning to the children a part in the public worship of the Church, ever looking to the early conversion of the children as the surest plan for building up an enlightened and devoted membership.

The Committee would submit for the adoption of the Conference the following resolutions :

Resolved (1), That wherever it is practicable, the School should be divided into three departments, the Infant, the Juvenile and the Adult Departments—the first meeting in a separate room, with maps, mottoes, and specially appropriate singing; all the classes in the several departments being so graded, from lowest to highest, that each scholar shall feel an ambition to advance to the highest positions of the School.

Resolved (2), That we cordially approve of the Sunday School Normal College recently organized by the Sunday School Union at New York; that we recommend the holding of both Conference and District Sunday School Institutes, and that we will encourage the organization of Home Training Classes in our several charges.

Resolved (3), That each school should have such a system of contributing, class by class, each Sabbath, as will encourage liberality among the children, and keep the library well replenished with attractive books.

Resolved (4), That the Constitutions of the several Sunday School Associations should be so adjusted that they may conform to the Discipline of the M. E. Church.

Resolved (5), That when Sunday School Exhibitions are held, they should be so conducted as to be in harmony with the sacred lessons of the Sabbath.

Resolved (6), That we recommend two sessions of the School each Sabbath, and especially the session immediately preceding the Church service, so as to secure the attendance of the children at public worship; and we also recommend the continuance of the Schools without interruption, either from the heat of Summer or the cold of Winter, throughout the year.

Resolved (7), That we recommend all our teachers to use as far as possible the improved Text Books now published by our Book Concern, and that we encourage the purchase of our own books, and the circulation of our own Sunday School periodicals, and that we especially commend the "Journal" for teachers and young people.

Resolved (8), That we will read the foregoing Sabbath School Report to the congregations of our several charges.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

After a free and full interchange of views upon the various documents submitted to their consideration, we beg leave to present for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. That we hereby express our unabated interest in the work of Christian education.
2. That in view of the oft-repeated pledges of support made by this Conference to the institutions at Carlisle and Wilmington, we hail with grateful satisfaction the degree of success which has crowned the efforts of the Centenary year for the redemption of those pledges.
3. That we recommend each Pastor to keep the subject of Education properly before the minds of our people, and to take such steps as will prevent any abatement of the interest in our literary institutions that was awakened by the special efforts of the Centenary year.
4. That the Trustees of the Education Fund be requested to make annually, by the first of June, a report to the President of Dickinson College of the state of the Education Fund, how it has been invested, and the probable amount of receipts for the ensuing year.
5. That the Trustees of the College be requested to report to the patronizing Conferences annually the amount of receipts and expenditures.
6. That the Pastors be instructed to request the co-operation of their Centenary Committees, local Treasurers, or other parties concerned, to take immediate steps for the collection and payment to the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund (James Long, Esq., No. 203 Church street, Philadelphia,) all moneys subscribed for Dickinson College and the Wesleyan Female College, and that the Presiding Elders be instructed to inquire at each Quarterly Conference whether the Pastors have acted promptly upon the instruction herein given.
7. That we recommend the formation, at as early a day as may be practicable, of a Society for the purpose of aiding young men called of God to the Ministry to acquire a suitable education.
8. That we have entire confidence in the Faculty of Dickinson College, and under its present management can heartily endorse its claims to the patronage of our people.
9. That the Wesleyan Female College, at Wilmington, Del., richly merits the highest appreciation of the parents and the increased patronage of the Church, and that in view of the special adaptation of the President and his most estimable wife to their work, we anticipate for that institution a career of great prosperity.
10. That we hereby record our heartfelt thanks to Almighty God in that he has been pleased to bless the spiritual labors of the respective Faculties of Dickinson College and Wesleyan Female College by such an outpouring of His Holy Spirit, as has resulted in the conversion of a large number of the students during the past collegiate year.
11. That in appointing the usual committees to visit the Conference Institutions, Dickinson Seminary, West River Classical Institute, Frederick Institute, at Frederick, Montgomery county, Pa., and Irving Female College, at Mechanicsburg, Pa., be included.

12. That in accordance with the action of the last year, the Committee on Education for the next Conference shall consist of two ministers and two laymen from each district, that the Presiding Bishop be requested to appoint the lay members at the present session, and that this committee be empowered to fill the places of absentees at the time of organization.

13. That we will suitably observe the Annual Concert of Prayer for Colleges on the last Thursday in February, invoking God to pour his blessings upon all our institutions of learning in a manner so signal as to make them still more fruitful nurseries of the Church.

14. That the Conference proceed at once to fill the vacancies occurring in the Board of Trustees of Wesleyan Female College by the expiration of the terms of Rev. Drs. Cooke, Murphy and Hodgson.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Whereas, It has not been the policy of our Missionary Society to assist in the erection of Churches, even in the most destitute portions of our land ; and

Whereas, The stability and success of all our home missionary work depend largely on the erection of suitable Church edifices ; and

Whereas, In the nature of the case, this is an impossibility to most of the infant charges, composing our home missionary work ; and

Whereas, Great and permanent advantage in many portions of our regular work is being constantly forfeited for want of timely assistance in the erection of such Church edifices as time and occasion demand ; and

Whereas, The responsibilities which rest on us at this time, to extend the borders of the Redeemer's Kingdom are such as have never rested on any people at any previous time ; and

Whereas, The Church Extension Society has been originated to meet these demands and discharge these obligations ; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That in the judgment of this Annual Conference, the sum of twenty thousand dollars should be raised within our bounds, during the coming year, for the purpose of Church extension.

Resolved, 2. That in order to raise this amount we will take the collection ordered by the General Conference as far as practicable in the month of November, and we recommend that each Pastor select a suitable co-operating committee, and that we furnish ample and timely information on the subject.

Resolved, 3. That the Pastors be instructed to pay all monies collected for Church Extension purposes to the Treasurer of Conference Church Extension Society, James Long, Esq., 203 Church Street, Philadelphia.

Resolved, 4. That we recommend to the Board of Managers of the Parent Church Extension Society, the establishment of a loan fund, for the purpose of enabling them to carry out more perfectly the object contemplated in their organization.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

That the thanks of the members of the Old Philadelphia Conference are eminently due and are hereby unanimously presented, at the close of its eightieth session, to our former fellow-member, but now beloved Bishop Scott, who has presided over our deliberations with so much kindness, patience and satisfaction to the Conference and honor to himself.

THANKS TO DICKINSON COLLEGE.

Resolved 1st, That the thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby tendered to the Faculty and Students of Dickinson College, and to the kind ladies of Carlisle, who extended so beautiful and cordial a welcome to us upon the occasion of our recent visit. The kind words spoken, the appropriately selected music discoursed, the polite attention of all in pointing out objects of interest, and the repast provided through the thoughtful love of the families and friends; while they will long supply a feast of recollection, at the same time richly deserve this formal expression of our appreciation and gratitude.

Resolved 2nd, That in our recent visit we were impressed with the pleasant surroundings of the College, located as it is in a healthy and beautiful region of country; also, with the condition of the buildings, which, worn and dilapidated through age and use, call for a speedy and thorough renovation; also, with the devotion of the Faculty, who in the presence of many discouragements, have stood steadily in their respective spheres of duty until now, our recent Centenary contributions supply the promise of a brighter and better day in the history of this time-honored institution.

Resolved 3d. That one principal effect of our visit has been to intensify our interest in, and love for our own College; and that henceforth we will esteem it more a duty and a privilege to promote, in every possible way, the prosperity and success of this excellent institution.

Resolved, 4th. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the Faculty and Students of Dickinson College.

THANKS.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference be presented to Rev. J. B. McCullough for his able and eloquent sermon preached before the Conference yesterday, and that he be respectfully requested to furnish a copy for publication.

Resolved, That the most hearty thanks of this Conference are hereby tendered to the citizens of Harrisburg for the generous and elegant hospitality of which we have been the recipients, and that we assure them an abiding remembrance in our hearts, cherishing the sweet hope, as we part from them, that the old friendships revived and the new friendships formed may be continued through this life, and cultivated in the eternity of the redeemed.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are hereby tendered to the several Pastors and congregations of this city who have opened their houses of worship to our ministrations of the word of life.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby tendered to the Choir of the Locust Street Church of this city for the services so kindly and efficiently rendered at the several anniversary services during our session.

Resolved, That the Trustees of this Church have the thanks of the Conference for its use and the attentions shown this body during the session.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby tendered to our Secretary, Rev. R. H. Pattison, and his efficient corps of assistants, for the faithful discharge of their onerous duties at the present session.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference be and are hereby tendered to the various railroad companies who have passed our preachers and others having business with the Conference over their respective roads at reduced fare.

PERSONAL.

It being well understood that the Rev. G. D. Carrow, D. D., a member of this Conference, is about to start on a trip to Europe and the East, therefore,

Resolved, That Bro. Carrow shall bear with him on his proposed tour our earnest prayers and best wishes for his safety while abroad, and for his return, in due time, to his home in greatly improved health.

Resolved, That we heartily commend Dr. Carrow to the polite attentions and friendly offices of all Christian people with whom he may meet in his journeyings.

Having heard of the sore affliction of our dear brother, the Rev. John T. Grácey, a former member of our Conference, and the President of the recent Missionary Conference in India, we beg to assure him and his devoted wife of our profound love and sympathy, and of our earnest prayer for their continued support and usefulness.

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of the President of the Philadelphia Conference Missionary Society, the President of the Church Extension Society, the Secretary of the Conference Tract Society, and three of the Pastors stationed in the City of Philadelphia (to be named by the Presiding Bishop), be appointed, whose duty it shall be to procure speakers and make all necessary arrangements for holding the several anniversaries during our next annual session.

CHURCH FAIRS AND GAMES OF CHANCE.

The members of this Conference have lately observed with deep regret a growing tendency among the people of this country toward gambling in several of its forms. The lottery is revived under the name of "Gift Enterprise;" horse-racing is invading the quiet of Summer resorts; the faro bank is set up openly at watering-places, and card-playing, not to enumerate further, is publicly carried on in the railway cars. We would be glad to stop here, but candor requires that the Church should confess her own share in these vices. It is well known that in many of the church fairs of the several denominations, raffling, another form of gambling is only too common. In view of these facts,

Resolved, That gambling in every form meets our unqualified condemnation; in all its aspects it is simple robbery.

Resolved, That raffles or chancing at church fairs can find no apology in the sacred objects they may be intended to promote, and that the Church cannot permit them without sin and dishonor.

That in the judgment of the Philadelphia Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, the chewing and smoking of tobacco is a needless self-indulgence.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

Resolved, 1. That a committee, consisting of one layman from each district, be appointed to prepare an address to the churches of the Conference on the general subject of pastoral support.

Resolved, That said Committee be respectfully requested to prepare their address at as early a day as possible after the adjournment of the present Conference, and publish the same in the Christian Advocate, The Methodist, and the Methodist Home Journal.

Resolved, 3. That the Presiding Elders be instructed to read the address herein contemplated to the Quarterly Conferences of their respective districts, and urge the practical adoption of its suggestions at the earliest practicable moment.

PRESENTATIONS.

Whereas, Bro. J. S. Janes McConnell is arranging photograph albums, which shall be a repository of the likenesses of all the members of this Conference, said albums to be deposited among the archives of the Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we will take an early opportunity to co-operate with our brother by sending him our cartes de visites, and that we heartily thank him for the volumes presented.

RESOLUTIONS FROM THE CENTENARY COMMITTEE.

1. That the moneys for the endowment of Dickinson College be placed in the hands of the Trustees of the Education Board of the Philadelphia Annual Conference, for investment, the interest of which to be paid to the College.
2. That the moneys for the Wesleyan Female College, Wilmington, be paid over to the Trustees for the liquidation of the debt on the said College.
3. That the moneys for the Philadelphia Female Seminary be paid to the Trustees of the Education Board of the Philadelphia Conference, to be invested by them until the organization of the institution.
4. That the moneys for the general Centenary objects be paid over to the Treasurer of the Central Committee at New York, to be appropriated to the various objects named.

SALE OF CHURCHES.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Lancasterville Church, on Perkiomen Circuit, Reading District, be and are hereby authorized to sell said church if they find it necessary.

Resolved, That this Conference consents to the sale of St. John's Church, of Pottstown Circuit, the proceeds of the sale to be used in the building of other church property for said circuit.

FORTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
MISSIONARY SOCIETY
OF THE
Methodist Episcopal Church,

WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PHILADELPHIA CONFERENCE,
FOR PROMOTING DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

On Monday evening, March 18, 1867, Locust Street M. E. Church was completely packed with ladies and gentlemen, assembled to attend the anniversary of the Missionary Society. The chair was occupied by the venerable Rev. T. T. Tasker, of Philadelphia.

The hymn, No. 976, "Behold, the heathen waits to know," was sung by the choir and vast congregation.

Prayer was offered by Rev. A. Atwood, of Philadelphia.

The hymn, No. 996, "Hasten, Lord, the glorious time," was sung.

The Treasurer of the Society, John Whiteman, Esq., read the report of the money received during the past year.

After a few remarks by the Treasurer, Rev. S. Pancoast, of Upper Iowa, was introduced, and delivered an address of great earnestness, giving an account of the mighty spread of Methodism in the great Northwest, and of what is yet to be accomplished.

"From Greenland's icy mountains" was sung with a will, after which the Rev. Dr. DeHass, of the Metropolitan Church, Washington, was introduced, and delivered an address of much eloquence and power.

Another hymn was sung, and Rev. Dr. Durbin was introduced. He sketched the field of missions as it now exists and is occupied by the M. E. Church, in an elaborate and eloquent manner, for which he is so peculiar.

The following persons were nominated and elected for the ensuing year as

BOARD OF MANAGERS:

COLSON HIESKELL,
JOHN WHITEMAN,
T. K. COLLINS,
JAMES B. DARE,
JOHN H. GITHENS,
